Genesis

¹ In [the] beginning God created the heavens and the earth,

² and the earth was formless and void, and darkness [was] on the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God [was] fluttering on the face of the waters,

³ and God says, "Let light be"; and light is.

⁵ and God calls the light "Day," and the darkness He has called "Night"; and there is an evening, and there is a morning—day one.

⁶ And God says, "Let an expanse be in the midst of the waters, and let it be separating between waters and waters."

⁸ And God calls the expanse "Heavens"; and there is an evening, and there is a morning—[the] second day.

¹⁰ And God calls the dry land "Earth," and the collection of the waters He has called "Seas"; and God sees that [it is] good.

¹¹ And God says, "Let the earth yield tender grass, herb sowing seed, fruit-tree (whose seed [is] in itself) making fruit after its kind, on the earth": and it is so.

¹² And the earth brings forth tender grass, herb sowing seed after its kind, and tree making fruit (whose seed [is] in itself) after its kind; and God sees that [it is] good;

¹⁴ And God says, "Let luminaries be in the expanse of the heavens, to make a separation between the day and the night, then they have been for signs, and for appointed times, and for days and years,

¹⁷ and God gives them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth,

¹⁸ and to rule over day and over night, and to make a separation between the light and the darkness; and God sees that [it is] good;

²⁰ And God says, "Let the waters teem with the teeming living creature, and let [the] bird fly above the earth on the face of the expanse of the heavens."

²⁴ And God says, “Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, livestock and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after its kind”: and it is so.

²⁵ And God makes the beast of the earth after its kind, and the livestock after their kind, and every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, and God sees that [it is] good.

²⁶ And God says, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness, and let them rule over [the] fish of the sea, and over [the] bird of the heavens, and over livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that is creeping on the earth.”

²⁸ And God blesses them, and God says to them, “Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over [the] fish of the sea, and over [the] bird of the heavens, and over every living thing that is creeping on the earth.”

²⁹ And God says, “Behold, I have given to you every herb sowing seed, which [is] on the face of all the earth, and every tree in which [is] the fruit of a tree sowing seed, to you it is for food;

³⁰ and to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the heavens, and to every creeping thing on the earth, in which [is] breath of life, every green herb [is] for food”: and it is so.

³¹ And God sees all that He has done, and behold, [it is] very good; and there is an evening, and there is a morning—the sixth day.

² and God completes by the seventh day His work which He has made, and ceases by the seventh day from all His work which He has made.

³ And God blesses the seventh day, and sanctifies it, for in it He has ceased from all His work which God had created for making.

⁴ These [are] the generations of the heavens and of the earth in their being created, in the day of YHWH God’s making the earth and the heavens;

⁶ and a mist goes up from the earth, and has watered the whole face of the ground.

⁷ And YHWH God forms the man—dust from the ground, and breathes into his nostrils breath of life, and the man becomes a living creature.

¹⁴ and the name of the third river [is] Hiddekel, it [is] that which is going east of Asshur; and the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁶ And YHWH God lays a charge on the man, saying, "From every tree of the garden eating you eat;

¹⁷ but from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, you do not eat from it, for in the day of your eating from it—dying you die."

¹⁹ And YHWH God forms from the ground every beast of the field, and every bird of the heavens, and brings [them] to the man, to see what he calls it; and whatever the man calls a living creature, that [is] its name.

²¹ And YHWH God causes a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he sleeps, and He takes one of his ribs, and closes up flesh in its stead.

²³ and the man says, "This at last! Bone of my bone, and flesh of my flesh!" For this is called Woman, for this has been taken from Man;

¹ And the serpent has been cunning above every beast of the field which YHWH God has made, and he says to the woman, "Is it true that God has said, You do not eat from every tree of the garden?"

² And the woman says to the serpent, "From the fruit of the trees of the garden we eat,

³ but from the fruit of the tree which [is] in the midst of the garden, God has said, You do not eat of it, nor touch it, lest you die."

⁴ And the serpent says to the woman, "Dying, you do not die,

⁵ for God knows that in the day of your eating of it—your eyes have been opened, and you have been as God, knowing good and evil."

⁶ And the woman sees that the tree [is] good for food, and that it [is] pleasant to the eyes, and the tree is desirable to make [one] wise, and she takes from its fruit and eats, and also gives [some] to her husband with her, and he eats;

⁸ And they hear the sound of YHWH God walking up and down in the garden at the breeze of the day, and the man and his wife hide themselves from the face of YHWH God in the midst of the trees of the garden.

¹¹ And He says, "Who has declared to you that you [are] naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I have commanded you not to eat?"

¹² And the man says, "The woman whom You placed with me—she has given to me from the tree, and I eat."

¹³ And YHWH God says to the woman, "What [is] this you have done?" And the woman says, "The serpent has caused me to forget, and I eat."

¹⁶ To the woman He said, "Multiplying I multiply your sorrow and your conception; you will bear children in sorrow, and your desire [is] toward your Man [[or husband]], and He [[or he]] will rule over you."

¹⁷ And to the man He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and eat from the tree concerning which I have charged you, saying, You do not eat of it, cursed [is] the ground on your account; in sorrow you eat of it [for] all days of your life,

²¹ And YHWH God makes coats of skin [for] the man and his wife, and clothes them.

²² And YHWH God says, "Behold, the man was as one of Us, as to the knowledge of good and evil; and now, lest he send forth his hand, and has also taken from the Tree of Life, and eaten, and lived for all time."

²⁴ indeed, He casts out the man, and causes the cherubim to dwell at the east of the Garden of Eden with the sword of flame whirling around to guard the way of the Tree of Life.

² and she adds to bear his brother, even Abel. And Abel is feeding a flock, and Cain has been servant of the ground.

³ And it comes to pass at the end of days that Cain brings from the fruit of the ground a present to YHWH;

4 and Abel, he has brought, he also, from the female firstlings of his flock, and from their fat ones; and YHWH looks to Abel and to his present,

5 and to Cain and to his present He has not looked; and it is very displeasing to Cain, and his countenance is fallen.

6 And YHWH says to Cain, “Why do you have displeasure? And why has your countenance fallen?

7 Is there not, if you do well, acceptance? And if you do not do well, sin [[or a sin-offering]] is lying at the opening, and its [[or His]] desire [is] for you, and you rule over it [[or by Him]].”

8 And Cain says to his brother Abel, [[“Let us go into the field”];] and it comes to pass in their being in the field, that Cain rises up against his brother Abel, and slays him.

9 And YHWH says to Cain, “Where [is] your brother Abel?” And he says, “I have not known; am I my brother’s keeper?”

10 And He says, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying to Me from the ground;

11 and now, cursed [are] you from the ground, which has opened her mouth to receive the blood of your brother from your hand;

12 when you till the ground, it will not add to give its strength to you—a wanderer, even a trembling one, you are in the earth.”

13 And Cain says to YHWH, “My punishment is too great than to bear;

14 behold, You have driven me today from off the face of the ground, and from Your face I am hid; and I have been a wanderer, even a trembling one, in the earth, and it has been—everyone finding me will slay me.”

15 And YHWH says to him, “Therefore, of any slayer of Cain it is required sevenfold”; and YHWH sets to Cain a token that none finding him will slay him.

16 And Cain goes out from before YHWH, and dwells in the land, moving about east of Eden;

17 and Cain knows his wife, and she conceives, and bears Enoch; and he is building a city, and he calls the name of the city, according to the name of his son—Enoch.

18 And born to Enoch is Irad; and Irad has begotten Mehujael; and Mehujael has begotten Methusael; and Methusael has begotten Lamech.

19 And Lamech takes to himself two wives, the name of the first Adah, and the name of the second Zillah.

20 And Adah bears Jabal, he has been father of those inhabiting tents and [having] purchased livestock;

21 and the name of his brother [is] Jubal, he has been father of everyone handling harp and pipe.

22 And Zillah, she also bears Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron; and a sister of Tubal-Cain [is] Naamah.

23 And Lamech says to his wives: “Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; Wives of Lamech, give ear [to] my saying: For I have slain a man for my wound, || Even a young man for my hurt;

24 For sevenfold is required for Cain, || And for Lamech seventy-sevenfold.”

25 And Adam again knows his wife, and she bears a son, and calls his name Seth, “for God has appointed for me another seed instead of Abel”: for Cain had slain him.

²⁶ And to Seth, to him also a son has been born, and he calls his name Enos; then a beginning was made of preaching in the Name of YHWH.

¹ This [is] an account of the generations of Adam. In the day of God's creating man, in the likeness of God He has made him;

² a male and a female He has created them, and He blesses them, and calls their name Man, in the day of their being created.

⁴ And the days of Adam after his begetting Seth are eight hundred years [[or seven hundred years]], and he begets sons and daughters.

⁵ And all the days of Adam which he lived are nine hundred and thirty years, and he dies.

⁷ And Seth lives after his begetting Enos eight hundred and seven years [[or seven hundred and seven years]], and begets sons and daughters.

⁸ And all the days of Seth are nine hundred and twelve years, and he dies.

¹⁴ And all the days of Cainan are nine hundred and ten years, and he dies.

¹⁵ And Mahalaleel lives sixty-five years [[or one hundred and sixty-five years]], and begets Jared.

¹⁸ And Jared lives one hundred and sixty-two years, and begets Enoch.

¹⁹ And Jared lives after his begetting Enoch eight hundred years, and begets sons and daughters.

²⁰ And all the days of Jared are nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he dies.

²³ And all the days of Enoch are three hundred and sixty-five years.

²⁶ And Methuselah lives after his begetting Lamech seven hundred and eighty-two years, and begets sons and daughters.

²⁷ And all the days of Methuselah are nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he dies.

¹ And it comes to pass that mankind has begun to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters have been born to them,

² and the sons of God see that they, the daughters of men, [are] beautiful, and they take women for themselves of all whom they have chosen.

³ And YHWH says, "My Spirit does not strive in man for all time, for indeed, he [is] flesh, but his days have been one hundred and twenty years."

⁴ The giants were in the earth in those days, and even afterward, when sons of God come in to the daughters of men, and they have borne to them those who [were] the mighty from of old, the men of renown.

⁹ These [are] the generations of Noah: Noah [is] a righteous man; he has been perfect among his generations; Noah has habitually walked with God.

¹⁰ And Noah begets three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

¹² And God sees the earth, and behold, it has been corrupted, for all flesh has corrupted its way on the earth.

¹⁴ Make an ark of gopher-wood for yourself; you make rooms within the Ark, and you have covered it from inside and from outside with pitch;

¹⁶ you make a window for the Ark, and you finish it to a cubit from above; and you put the opening of the Ark in its side; you make it [with] lower, second, and third [stories].

¹⁸ And I have established My covenant with you, and you have come into the Ark—you, and your sons, and your wife, and your son's wives with you;

¹⁹ and of all that lives, of all flesh, you bring two from every [kind] into the Ark, to keep alive with you; they are male and female.

²¹ And you, take for yourself from all food that is eaten; and you have gathered [it] to yourself, and it has been for you and for them for food."

²² And Noah does according to all that God has commanded him; so he has done.

¹ And YHWH says to Noah, "Come, you and all your house, into the Ark, for I have seen you [are] righteous before Me in this generation;

² you take seven pairs from all the clean beasts to yourself, a male and its female; and of the beasts which are not clean—two, a male and its female;

³ also, seven pairs from [each] bird of the heavens, a male and a female, to keep alive seed on the face of all the earth;

⁴ for after seven more days I am sending rain on the earth [for] forty days and forty nights, and have wiped away all the substance that I have made from off the face of the ground."

⁵ And Noah does according to all that YHWH has commanded him.

⁷ And Noah goes—and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him—into the Ark, out of the presence of the waters of the flood;

⁸ from the clean beast, and from the beast that [is] not clean, and from the bird, and of everything that is creeping on the ground,

⁹ they have come to Noah two by two into the Ark, a male and a female, as God has commanded Noah.

¹¹ In the six hundredth year of the life of Noah, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day all [the] fountains of the great deep have been broken up, and the network of the heavens has been opened,

¹² and the shower is on the earth [for] forty days and forty nights.

¹⁵ And they come to Noah, into the Ark, two by two of all the flesh in which [is] a living spirit;

¹⁶ and they that are coming in, male and female of all flesh, have come in as God has commanded him, and YHWH closes [it] for him.

¹⁷ And the flood is on the earth [for] forty days, and the waters multiply and lift up the Ark, and it is raised up from off the earth;

¹⁸ and the waters are mighty and multiply exceedingly on the earth; and the Ark goes on the face of the waters.

²¹ and all flesh expires that is moving on the earth, among bird, and among livestock, and among beast, and among every teeming thing which is teeming on the earth, and all mankind;

¹ And God remembers Noah, and every living thing, and all the livestock which [are] with him in the Ark, and God causes a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subside,

² and the fountains of the deep and the network of the heavens are closed, and the shower is restrained from the heavens.

³ And the waters return from off the earth, going on and returning; and the waters are lacking at the end of one hundred and fifty days.

⁴ And the Ark rests, in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on mountains of Ararat;

⁷ and he sends forth the raven, and it goes out, going out and turning back until the drying of the waters from off the earth.

⁸ And he sends forth the dove from him to see whether the waters have been lightened from off the face of the ground,

¹⁰ And he stays yet seven more days, and adds to send forth the dove from the Ark;

¹³ And it comes to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first [month], on the first of the month, the waters have been dried from off the earth; and Noah turns aside the covering of the Ark, and looks, and behold, the face of the ground has been dried.

¹⁴ And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth has become dry.

¹⁵ And God speaks to Noah, saying, "Go out from the Ark, you, and your wife, and your sons, and your sons' wives with you;

¹⁶ every living thing that [is] with you, of all flesh, among bird, and among livestock, and among every creeping thing which is creeping on the earth, bring out with you;

¹⁸ And Noah goes out, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him;

²¹ and YHWH smells the refreshing fragrance, and YHWH says to His heart, "I do not continue to disfavor the ground because of man anymore, though the imagination of the heart of man [is] evil from his youth; and I do not continue to strike all living anymore, as I have done;

²² during all [the] days of the earth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night never cease."

¹ And God blesses Noah and his sons, and says to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth;

² and your fear and your dread is on every beast of the earth, and on every bird of the heavens, on all that creeps on the ground, and on all fishes of the sea—into your hand they have been given.

⁶ whoever sheds man's blood, by man is his blood shed: for in the image of God has He made man.

7 And you, be fruitful and multiply, teem in the earth, and multiply in it.”

8 And God speaks to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 “And I, behold, I am establishing My covenant with you, and with your seed after you,

10 and with every living creature which [is] with you, among bird, among livestock, and among every beast of the earth with you, from all who are going out of the Ark—to every beast of the earth.

11 And I have established My covenant with you, and all flesh is not cut off anymore by waters of a flood, and there is not a flood to destroy the earth anymore.”

12 And God says, “This is a token of the covenant which I am giving between Me and you, and every living creature that [is] with you, to continuous generations;

13 My bow I have given in the cloud, and it has been for a token of a covenant between Me and the earth;

14 and it has come to pass (in My sending a cloud over the earth) that the bow has been seen in the cloud,

15 and I have remembered My covenant which is between Me and you, and every living creature among all flesh, and the waters no longer become a flood to destroy all flesh;

16 and the bow has been in the cloud, and I have seen it—to remember the perpetual covenant between God and every living creature among all flesh which [is] on the earth.”

17 And God says to Noah, “This [is] a token of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that [is] on the earth.”

18 And the sons of Noah who are going out of the Ark are Shem, and Ham, and Japheth; and Ham is father of Canaan.

19 These three [are] sons of Noah, and from these has all the earth been overspread.

20 And Noah remains a man of the ground, and plants a vineyard,

21 and drinks of the wine, and is drunken, and uncovers himself in the midst of the tent.

22 And Ham, father of Canaan, sees the nakedness of his father, and declares to his two brothers outside.

23 And Shem takes—Japheth also—the garment, and they place on the shoulder of them both, and go backward, and cover the nakedness of their father; and their faces [are] backward, and their father’s nakedness they have not seen.

24 And Noah awakens from his wine, and knows that which his young son has done to him,

25 and says: “Cursed [is] Canaan, || Servant of servants he is to his brothers.”

26 And he says: “Blessed of my God YHWH [is] Shem, || And Canaan is servant to him.

27 God gives beauty to Japheth, || And he dwells in tents of Shem, || And Canaan is servant to him.”

28 And Noah lives after the flood three hundred and fifty years;

29 and all the days of Noah are nine hundred and fifty years, and he dies.

¹ And these [are] the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and sons are born to them after the flood.

² Sons of Japheth [are] Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Méshech, and Tiras.

⁶ And sons of Ham [are] Cush, and Mitzraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

⁸ And Cush has begotten Nimrod;

⁹ he has begun to be a hero in the land; he has been a hero in hunting before YHWH; therefore it is said, "As Nimrod the hero [in] hunting before YHWH."

¹⁰ And the first part of his kingdom is Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar;

¹¹ from that land he has gone out to Asshur, and builds Nineveh, even the broad places of the city, and Calah,

¹² and Resen, between Nineveh and Calah; it [is] the great city.

¹⁵ And Canaan has begotten Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

¹⁶ and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

¹⁷ and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

¹⁸ and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite; and afterward the families of the Canaanite have been scattered.

²⁰ These [are] sons of Ham, by their families, by their tongues, in their lands, in their nations.

²³ And sons of Aram [are] Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

²⁴ And Arphaxad has begotten Salah, and Salah has begotten Eber.

²⁶ And Joktan has begotten Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah,

²⁷ and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

²⁸ and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

²⁹ and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab; all these [are] sons of Joktan;

³⁰ and their dwelling is from Mesha, [in] your coming toward Sephar, a mountain of the east.

³¹ These [are] sons of Shem, by their families, by their tongues, in their lands, by their nations.

³² These [are] families of the sons of Noah, by their generations, in their nations, and by these the nations have been parted in the earth after the flood.

¹ And the whole earth is of one language, and of the same words,

² and it comes to pass, in their journeying from the east, that they find a valley in the land of Shinar and dwell there;

⁵ And YHWH comes down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men have built;

⁶ and YHWH says, "Behold, the people [is] one, and one language [is] to them all, and this it has dreamed of doing; and now, nothing is restrained from them of that which they have purposed to do.

⁸ And YHWH scatters them from there over the face of all the earth, and they cease to build the city;

⁹ therefore [one] has called its name Babel, for there YHWH has confused the language of all the earth, and from there YHWH has scattered them over the face of all the earth.

¹⁰ These [are] the generations of Shem: Shem [is] a son of one hundred years, and begets Arphaxad two years after the flood.

¹¹ And Shem lives after his begetting Arphaxad five hundred years, and begets sons and daughters.

¹⁴ And Salah has lived thirty years [[or one hundred and thirty years]], and begets Eber.

¹⁶ And Eber lives thirty-four years [[or one hundred and thirty-four years]], and begets Peleg.

¹⁸ And Peleg lives thirty years [[or one hundred and thirty years]], and begets Reu.

¹⁹ And Peleg lives after his begetting Reu two hundred and nine years, and begets sons and daughters.

²⁰ And Reu lives thirty-two years [[or one hundred and thirty-two years]], and begets Serug.

²¹ And Reu lives after his begetting Serug two hundred and seven years, and begets sons and daughters.

²² And Serug lives thirty years [[or one hundred and thirty years]], and begets Nahor.

²³ And Serug lives after his begetting Nahor two hundred years, and begets sons and daughters.

²⁶ And Terah lives seventy years, and begets Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

²⁸ and Haran dies in the presence of Terah his father, in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees.

³⁰ And Sarai is barren—she has no child.

² And I make you become a great nation, and bless you, and make your name great; and be a blessing.

³ And I bless those blessing you, and I curse him who is cursing you, and all families of the ground have been blessed in you."

⁶ And Abram passes over into the land, to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh; and the Canaanite [is] then in the land.

⁷ And YHWH appears to Abram and says, "To your seed I give this land"; and there he builds an altar to YHWH, who has appeared to him.

⁹ And Abram journeys, going on and journeying toward the south.

¹⁰ And there is a famine in the land, and Abram goes down toward Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine [is] grievous in the land;

¹¹ and it comes to pass as he has drawn near to enter Egypt, that he says to his wife Sarai, “Now behold, I have known that you [are] a woman of beautiful appearance;

¹² and it has come to pass that the Egyptians see you, and they have said, This [is] his wife; and they have slain me, and you they keep alive:

¹³ please say you [are] my sister, so that it is well with me because of you, and my soul has lived for your sake.”

¹⁵ and princes of Pharaoh see her, and praise her to Pharaoh, and the woman is taken [to] Pharaoh’s house;

¹⁶ and to Abram he has done good because of her, and he has sheep and oxen, and male donkeys, and menservants, and handmaids, and female donkeys, and camels.

¹⁷ And YHWH plagues Pharaoh and his house—great plagues—for the matter of Sarai, Abram’s wife.

¹⁸ And Pharaoh calls for Abram and says, “What [is] this you have done to me? Why have you not declared to me that she [is] your wife?”

¹⁹ Why have you said, She [is] my sister, and I take her to myself for a wife? And now, behold, your wife, take and go.”

²⁰ And Pharaoh charges men concerning him, and they send him away, and his wife, and all that he has.

¹ And Abram goes up from Egypt (he and his wife, and all that he has, and Lot with him) toward the south;

² and Abram [is] exceedingly wealthy in livestock, in silver, and in gold.

³ And he goes on his journeys from the south, even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the commencement, between Bethel and Hai—

⁴ to the place of the altar which he made there at the first, and there Abram preaches in the Name of YHWH.

⁵ And also to Lot, who is going with Abram, there has been sheep and oxen and tents;

⁶ and the land has not permitted them to dwell together, for their substance has been much, and they have not been able to dwell together;

⁸ And Abram says to Lot, “Please let there not be strife between me and you, and between my shepherds and your shepherds, for we [are] men—brothers.

⁹ Is not all the land before you? Please be parted from me; if to the left, then I to the right; and if to the right, then I to the left.”

¹¹ and Lot chooses for himself the whole circuit of the Jordan; and Lot journeys from the east, and they are parted—a man from his companion;

¹³ and the men of Sodom [are] evil, and sinners before YHWH exceedingly.

¹⁴ And YHWH said to Abram, after Lot's being parted from him, "Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you [are], northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward;

¹⁵ for the whole of the land which you are seeing, I give it to you and to your Seed for all time.

¹⁶ And I have set your seed as dust of the earth, so that, if one is able to number the dust of the earth, even your seed is numbered;

¹⁷ rise, go up and down through the land, to its length, and to its breadth, for to you I give it."

¹⁸ And Abram moves [his] tent, and comes, and dwells among the oaks of Mamre, which [are] in Hebron, and builds there an altar to YHWH.

¹ And it comes to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations,

² they have made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which [is] Zoar.

⁴ [for] twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and the thirteenth year they rebelled.

⁶ and the Horites in their Mount Seir, to El-Paran, which [is] by the wilderness;

⁹ with Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with the five.

¹⁰ And the Valley of Siddim [is] full of bitumen-pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah flee, and fall there, and those left have fled to the mountain.

¹² and they take Lot, Abram's brother's son (seeing he is dwelling in Sodom), and his substance, and go away.

¹⁵ And he divides himself against them by night, he and his servants, and strikes them, and pursues them to Hobah, which [is] at the left of Damascus;

¹⁶ and he brings back the whole of the substance, and he has also brought back his brother Lot and his substance, and also the women and the people.

¹⁸ And Melchizedek king of Salem has brought out bread and wine, and he [is] priest of God Most High;

¹⁹ and he blesses him and says, "Blessed [is] Abram to God Most High, possessing the heavens and earth;

²⁰ and blessed [is] God Most High, who has delivered your adversaries into your hand"; and he gives to him a tenth of all.

²¹ And the king of Sodom says to Abram, "Give to me the persons, and take the substance to yourself,"

²² and Abram says to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to YHWH, God Most High, possessing the heavens and earth—

²³ from a thread even to a shoe-strap I do not take of anything which you have, that you do not say, I have made Abram rich;

¹ After these things the word of YHWH has been to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not fear, Abram, I [am] a shield to you, your reward [is] exceedingly great."

² And Abram says, "Lord YHWH, what do You give to me, and I am going childless? And an acquired son in my house is Demmesek Eliezer."

³ And Abram says, "Behold, to me You have not given seed, and behold, a servant will be my heir."

⁴ And behold, the word of YHWH [is] to him, saying, "This [one] will not be your heir; but he who comes out from your bowels, he will be your heir";

⁵ and He brings him out outside and says, "Now look attentively toward the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them"; and He says to him, "Thus is your seed."

⁷ And He says to him, "I [am] YHWH who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldees, to give to you this land to possess it";

⁸ and he says, "Lord YHWH, whereby do I know that I possess it?"

⁹ And He says to him, "Take for Me a heifer of three years, and a female goat of three years, and a ram of three years, and a turtle-dove, and a young bird";

¹⁰ and he takes all these to Him, and separates them in the midst, and puts each piece opposite its fellow, but the bird he has not divided;

¹¹ and the ravenous birds come down on the carcasses, and Abram causes them to turn back.

¹² And the sun is about to go in, and deep sleep has fallen on Abram, and behold, a terror of great darkness is falling on him;

¹³ and He says to Abram, “knowing—know that your seed is a sojourner in a land not theirs, and they have served them, and they have afflicted them four hundred years,

¹⁴ and the nation also whom they serve I judge, and after this they go out with great substance;

¹⁵ and you come to your fathers in peace; you are buried in a good old age;

¹⁶ and the fourth generation turns back here, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete.”

¹⁷ And it comes to pass—the sun has gone in, and thick darkness has been and behold, a furnace of smoke, and a lamp of fire, which has passed over between those pieces.

¹⁸ In that day has YHWH made with Abram a covenant, saying, “To your seed I have given this land, from the River of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River,

¹⁹ with the Kenite, and the Kenizzite, and the Kadmonite,

²⁰ and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Rephaim,

¹ And Sarai, Abram’s wife, has not borne to him, and she has a handmaid, an Egyptian, and her name [is] Hagar;

² and Sarai says to Abram, “Now behold, YHWH has restrained me from bearing, please go in to my handmaid; perhaps I am built up from her”; and Abram listens to the voice of Sarai.

⁴ and he goes in to Hagar, and she conceives, and she sees that she has conceived, and her mistress is lightly esteemed in her eyes.

⁵ And Sarai says to Abram, “My violence [is] for you; I have given my handmaid into your bosom, and she sees that she has conceived, and I am lightly esteemed in her eyes; YHWH judges between me and you.”

⁷ And the Messenger of YHWH finds her by the fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way [to] Shur,

⁸ and He says, “Hagar, Sarai’s handmaid, from where have you come, and to where do you go?” And she says, “From the presence of Sarai, my mistress, I am fleeing.”

⁹ And the Messenger of YHWH says to her, “Return to your mistress, and humble yourself under her hands”;

¹⁰ and the Messenger of YHWH says to her, “Multiplying I multiply your seed, and it is not numbered from multitude”;

¹¹ and the Messenger of YHWH says to her, “Behold you [are] conceiving, and bearing a son, and have called his name Ishmael, for YHWH has listened to your affliction;

¹² and he is a wild-donkey man, his hand against everyone, and everyone’s hand against him—and before the face of all his brothers he dwells.”

¹³ And she calls the Name of YHWH who is speaking to her, “You [are], O God, my beholder”; for she said, “Even here have I looked behind my beholder?”

¹⁴ Therefore has one called the well, “The well of the Living One, my beholder”; behold, between Kadesh and Bered.

¹⁵ And Hagar bears a son to Abram; and Abram calls the name of his son, whom Hagar has borne, Ishmael;

¹⁶ and Abram [is] a son of eighty-six years in Hagar’s bearing Ishmael to Abram.

¹ And Abram is a son of ninety-nine years, and YHWH appears to Abram, and says to him, “I [am] God Almighty, habitually walk before Me, and be perfect;

² and I give My covenant between Me and you, and multiply you very exceedingly.”

³ And Abram falls on his face, and God speaks with him, saying,

⁴ “I—behold, My covenant [is] with you, and you have become father of a multitude of nations;

⁵ and your name is no longer called Abram, but your name has been Abraham, for father of a multitude of nations have I made you;

⁷ And I have established My covenant between Me and you, and your seed after you, throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant, to become God to you, and to your seed after you;

⁸ and I have given to you, and to your seed after you, the land of your sojournings, the whole land of Canaan, for a continuous possession, and I have become their God.”

⁹ And God says to Abraham, “And you keep My covenant, you and your seed after you, throughout their generations;

¹⁰ this [is] My covenant which you keep between Me and you, and your seed after you: every male of you [is] to be circumcised;

¹¹ and you have circumcised the flesh of your foreskin, and it has become a token of a covenant between Me and you.

¹² And a son of eight days is circumcised by you; every male throughout your generations, born in the house, or bought with money from any son of a stranger, who is not of your seed;

¹³ he is certainly circumcised who [is] born in your house, or bought with your money; and My covenant has become in your flesh a perpetual covenant;

¹⁴ and an uncircumcised one, a male, the flesh of whose foreskin is not circumcised, indeed, that person has been cut off from his people; My covenant he has broken.”

¹⁵ And God says to Abraham, “Sarai your wife—you do not call her name Sarai, for Sarah [is] her name;

¹⁶ and I have blessed her, and have also given to you a son from her; and I have blessed her, and she has become nations—kings of peoples are from her.”

¹⁸ And Abraham says to God, “O that Ishmael may live before You”;

²⁰ As for Ishmael, I have heard you; behold, I have blessed him, and made him fruitful, and multiplied him, very exceedingly; twelve princes does he beget, and I have made him become a great nation;

²¹ and My covenant I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah does bear to you at this appointed time in the next year”;

²² and He finishes speaking with him, and God goes up from Abraham.

²³ And Abraham takes his son Ishmael, and all those born in his house, and all those bought with his money—every male among the men of Abraham’s house and circumcises the flesh of their foreskin, in this very same day, as God has spoken with him.

²⁴ And Abraham [is] a son of ninety-nine years in the flesh of his foreskin being circumcised;

²⁶ in this very same day Abraham has been circumcised, and his son Ishmael;

²⁷ and all the men of his house—born in the house, and bought with money from the son of a stranger—have been circumcised with him.

¹ And YHWH appears to him among the oaks of Mamre, and he is sitting at the opening of the tent, about the heat of the day;

² and he lifts up his eyes and looks, and behold, three men standing by him, and he sees, and runs to meet them from the opening of the tent, and bows himself toward the earth,

³ and he says, “My Lord, if now I have found grace in Your eyes, please do not pass on from Your servant;

⁴ please let a little water be accepted, and wash Your feet, and recline under the tree;

⁵ and I bring a piece of bread, and support Your heart; afterward pass on, for therefore You have passed over to Your servant”; and they say, “So may you do as you have spoken.”

⁷ and Abraham ran to the herd, and takes a son of the herd, tender and good, and gives to the young man, and he hurries to prepare it;

⁸ and he takes butter and milk, and the son of the herd which he has prepared, and sets before them; and he is standing by them under the tree, and they eat.

⁹ And they say to him, "Where [is] Sarah your wife?" And he says, "Behold—in the tent";

¹⁰ and He says, "Returning I return to you, about the time of life, and behold, to Sarah your wife a son." And Sarah is listening at the opening of the tent, which is behind him;

¹¹ and Abraham and Sarah [are] aged, entering into days—the way of women has ceased to be to Sarah;

¹² and Sarah laughs in her heart, saying, "After I have waxed old have I had pleasure? My lord [is] also old!"

¹³ And YHWH says to Abraham, "Why [is] this? Sarah has laughed, saying, Is it really true—I bear—and I am aged?"

¹⁴ Is anything too wonderful for YHWH? At the appointed time I return to you, about the time of life, and Sarah has a son."

¹⁵ And Sarah denies, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she has been afraid; and He says, "No, but you did laugh."

¹⁶ And the men rise from there, and look on the face of Sodom, and Abraham is going with them to send them away;

¹⁷ and YHWH said, "Am I concealing from Abraham that which I am doing,

¹⁸ and Abraham certainly becomes a great and mighty nation, and blessed in him have been all nations of the earth?"

¹⁹ For I have known him, that he commands his children, and his house after him (and they have kept the way of YHWH), to do righteousness and judgment, that YHWH may bring on Abraham that which He has spoken concerning him."

²⁰ And YHWH says, "The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah—because great; and their sin—because exceedingly grievous:

²¹ I go down now, and see whether according to its cry which is coming to Me they have done completely—and if not—I know";

²² and the men turn from there, and go toward Sodom; and Abraham is yet standing before YHWH.

²³ And Abraham draws near and says, "Do You also consume righteous with wicked?"

²⁴ Perhaps there are fifty righteous in the midst of the city; do You also consume, and not bear with the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who [are] in its midst?"

²⁵ Far be it from You to do according to this thing, to put to death the righteous with the wicked; that it has been—as the righteous so the wicked—far be it from You; does the Judge of all the earth not do justice?"

²⁶ And YHWH says, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous in the midst of the city, then have I borne with all the place for their sake."

²⁷ And Abraham answers and says, "Now behold, I have willed to speak to the Lord, and I [am] dust and ashes;

²⁸ perhaps there are lacking five of the fifty righteous—do You destroy for five the whole of the city?" And He says, "I do not destroy [it], if I find there forty-five."

²⁹ And he adds again to speak to Him and says, "Perhaps there are found there forty?" And He says, "I do not do [it], because of the forty."

³⁰ And he says, "Please let it not be displeasing to the Lord, and I speak: perhaps there are found there thirty?" And He says, "I do not do [it], if I find there thirty."

³¹ And he says, "Now behold, I have willed to speak to the Lord: perhaps there are found there twenty?" And He says, "I do not destroy [it], because of the twenty."

³² And he says, "Please let it not be displeasing to the Lord, and I speak only this time: perhaps there are found there ten?" And He says, "I do not destroy [it], because of the ten."

¹ And two of the messengers come toward Sodom at evening, and Lot is sitting at the gate of Sodom, and Lot sees, and rises to meet them, and bows himself—face to the earth,

² and he says, "Now behold, my lords, please turn aside to the house of your servant, and lodge, and wash your feet—then you have risen early and gone on your way"; and they say, "No, but we lodge in the broad place."

³ And he presses on them greatly, and they turn aside to him, and come into his house; and he makes a banquet for them, and has baked unleavened things; and they eat.

⁴ Before they lie down, the men of the city—men of Sodom—have surrounded the house, from young even to aged, all the people from the extremity;

⁶ And Lot goes out to them, to the opening, and the door has shut behind him,

⁷ and says, "Please, my brothers, do not do evil;

⁸ now behold, I have two daughters who have not known anyone; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them as [is] good in your eyes; only do nothing to these men, for therefore they have come in within the shadow of my roof."

⁹ And they say, "Come near here"; they also say, "This one has come to sojourn, and he certainly judges! Now, we do evil to you more than [to] them"; and they press against the man, against Lot greatly, and come near to break the door.

¹¹ and the men who [are] at the opening of the house they have struck with blindness, from small even to great, and they weary themselves to find the opening.

¹² And the men say to Lot, "Whom have you here still? Son-in-law, your sons also, and your daughters, and all whom you have in the city, bring out from this place;

¹³ for we are destroying this place, for their cry has been great [before] the face of YHWH, and YHWH does send us to destroy it."

15 And when the dawn has ascended, then the messengers press on Lot, saying, "Rise, take your wife, and your two daughters who are found present, lest you are consumed in the iniquity of the city."

16 And he lingers, and the men lay hold on his hand, and on the hand of his wife, and on the hand of his two daughters, through the mercy of YHWH to him, and they bring him out, and cause him to rest outside the city.

17 And it comes to pass, when he has brought them outside, that he says, "Escape for your life; do not look behind you, nor stand in all the circuit; escape to the mountain, lest you are consumed."

18 And Lot says to them, "Oh not [so], my lord;

19 now behold, your servant has found grace in your eyes, and you make great your kindness which you have done with me by saving my life, and I am unable to escape to the mountain, lest the evil cleave [to] me and I have died;

20 now behold, this city [is] near to flee there, and it [is] little; please let me escape there (is it not little?) that my soul may live."

21 And he says to him, "Behold, I have also accepted your face for this thing, without overthrowing the city [for] which you have spoken;

22 hurry, escape there, for I am not able to do anything until your entering there"; therefore he calls the name of the city Zoar.

23 The sun has gone out on the earth, and Lot has entered into Zoar,

24 and YHWH has rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah brimstone and fire from YHWH, from the heavens;

25 and He overthrows these cities, and all the circuit, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which is shooting up from the ground.

26 And his wife looks from behind him, and she becomes a pillar of salt!

27 And Abraham rises early in the morning to the place where he has stood [before] the face of YHWH;

28 and he looks on the face of Sodom and Gomorrah, and on all the face of the land of the circuit, and sees, and behold, the smoke of the land went up as smoke of the furnace.

29 And it comes to pass, in God's destroying the cities of the circuit, that God remembers Abraham, and sends Lot out of the midst of the overthrow in the overthrowing of the cities in which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot goes up out of Zoar, and dwells in the mountain, and his two daughters with him, for he has been afraid of dwelling in Zoar, and he dwells in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn says to the younger, "Our father [is] old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us, as [is] the way of all the earth;

32 come, we cause our father to drink wine, and lie with him, and preserve a seed from our father."

33 And they cause their father to drink wine on that night; and the firstborn goes in and lies with her father, and he has not known in her lying down or in her rising up.

34 And it comes to pass, on the next day, that the firstborn says to the younger, "Behold, I have lain with my father last night: we also cause him to drink wine tonight, then go in, lie with him, and we preserve a seed from our father."

³⁵ And they cause their father to drink wine on that night also, and the younger rises and lies with him, and he has not known in her lying down or in her rising up.

³⁶ And the two daughters of Lot conceive from their father,

³⁷ and the firstborn bears a son and calls his name Moab: he [is] father of Moab to this day.

³⁸ As for the younger, she has also born a son and calls his name Ben-Ammi: he [is] father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

¹ And Abraham journeys from there toward the land of the south, and dwells between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourns in Gerar;

² and Abraham says concerning his wife Sarah, "She is my sister"; and Abimelech king of Gerar sends and takes Sarah.

³ And God comes to Abimelech in a dream of the night and says to him, "Behold, you [are] a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken—and she married to a husband."

⁴ And Abimelech has not drawn near to her, and he says, "Lord, do you also slay a righteous nation?"

⁵ Has he not himself said to me, She [is] my sister! And she, even she herself, said, He [is] my brother; in the integrity of my heart, and in the innocence of my hands, I have done this."

⁶ And God says to him in the dream, "Indeed, I have known that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I withhold you, even I, from sinning against Me, therefore I have not permitted you to come against her;

⁷ and now send back the man's wife, for he [is] inspired, and he prays for you, and you live; and if you do not send back, know that dying you die, you and all that you have."

⁹ and Abimelech calls for Abraham and says to him, "What have you done to us? And what have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me, and on my kingdom, a great sin? Works which are not done you have done with me."

¹⁰ Abimelech also says to Abraham, "What have you seen that you have done this thing?"

¹¹ And Abraham says, "Because I said, Surely the fear of God is not in this place, and they have slain me for the sake of my wife;

¹² and also, she is truly my sister; daughter of my father, only not daughter of my mother; and she becomes my wife;

¹³ and it comes to pass, when God has caused me to wander from my father's house, that I say to her, This [is] your kindness which you do with me: at every place to where we come, say of me, He [is] my brother."

¹⁴ And Abimelech takes sheep and oxen, and servants and handmaids, and gives to Abraham, and sends back his wife Sarah to him;

¹⁵ and Abimelech says, "Behold, my land [is] before you, where it is good in your eyes, dwell";

¹⁶ and to Sarah he has said, “Behold, I have given one thousand pieces of silver to your brother; behold, it is to you a covering of eyes, to all who are with you”; and by all this she is reasoned with.

¹⁸ for YHWH restraining had restrained every womb of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

¹ And YHWH has looked after Sarah as He has said, and YHWH does to Sarah as He has spoken;

² and Sarah conceives, and bears a son to Abraham, to his old age, at the appointed time that God has spoken of with him;

³ and Abraham calls the name of his son who is born to him, whom Sarah has borne to him—Isaac;

⁴ and Abraham circumcises his son Isaac, [being] a son of eight days, as God has commanded him.

⁵ And Abraham [is] a son of one hundred years in his son Isaac being born to him,

⁶ and Sarah says, “God has made laughter for me; everyone who is hearing laughs for me.”

⁷ She also says, “Who has said to Abraham, Sarah has suckled sons, that I have born a son for his old age?”

⁸ And the boy grows, and is weaned, and Abraham makes a great banquet in the day of Isaac’s being weaned;

⁹ and Sarah sees the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she has borne to Abraham, mocking,

¹⁰ and she says to Abraham, “Cast out this handmaid and her son; for the son of this handmaid has no possession with my son—with Isaac.”

¹¹ And the thing is very wrong in the eyes of Abraham, for his son’s sake;

¹² and God says to Abraham, “Let it not be wrong in your eyes because of the youth, and because of your handmaid: all that Sarah says to you—listen to her voice, for in Isaac is a seed called to you.

¹³ As for the son of the handmaid also, for a nation I set him, because he [is] your seed.”

¹⁵ and the water is consumed from the bottle, and she places the boy under one of the shrubs.

¹⁷ And God hears the voice of the youth; and the messenger of God calls to Hagar from the heavens and says to her, “What to you, Hagar? Do not fear; for God has listened to the voice of the youth where he [is];

¹⁸ rise, lift up the youth, and lay hold on him with your hand, for I set him for a great nation.”

¹⁹ And God opens her eyes, and she sees a well of water, and she goes and fills the bottle [with] water, and causes the youth to drink;

²¹ and he dwells in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother takes for him a wife from the land of Egypt.

²² And it comes to pass at that time that Abimelech speaks—Phichol also, head of his host—to Abraham, saying, “God [is] with you in all that you are doing;

²³ and now, swear to me by God here: you do not lie to me, or to my continuator, or to my successor; according to the kindness which I have done with you—do with me, and with the land in which you have sojourned.”

²⁴ And Abraham says, “I swear.”

²⁵ And Abraham reasoned with Abimelech concerning the matter of a well of water which Abimelech’s servants have violently taken away,

²⁶ and Abimelech says, “I have not known who has done this thing, and even you did not declare to me, and I also, I have not heard except today.”

²⁷ And Abraham takes sheep and oxen, and gives to Abimelech, and they make, both of them, a covenant;

²⁸ and Abraham sets seven lambs of the flock by themselves.

²⁹ And Abimelech says to Abraham, “What [are] they—these seven lambs which you have set by themselves?”

³⁰ And he says, “For—the seven lambs you accept from my hand, so that it becomes a witness for me that I have dug this well”;

³¹ therefore he has called that place “Beer-Sheba,” for both of them have sworn there.

³² And they make a covenant in Beer-Sheba, and Abimelech rises—Phichol also, head of his host—and they return to the land of the Philistines;

¹ And it comes to pass after these things that God has tried Abraham and says to him, “Abraham”; and he says, “Here I [am].”

² And He says, “Now take your son, your only one, whom you have loved, even Isaac, and go for yourself to the land of Moriah, and cause him to ascend there for a burnt-offering on one of the mountains of which I speak to you.”

³ And Abraham rises early in the morning, and saddles his donkey, and takes two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac, and he cleaves the wood of the burnt-offering, and rises and goes to the place of which God has spoken to him.

⁴ On the third day—Abraham lifts up his eyes, and sees the place from afar;

⁶ And Abraham takes the wood of the burnt-offering, and places on his son Isaac, and he takes in his hand the fire, and the knife; and they go on both of them together.

⁷ And Isaac speaks to his father Abraham and says, "My father," and he says, "Here I [am], my son." And he says, "Behold, the fire and the wood, and where the lamb for a burnt-offering?"

⁸ And Abraham says, "God provides for Himself the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son"; and they go on both of them together.

⁹ And they come to the place of which God has spoken to him, and there Abraham builds the altar, and arranges the wood, and binds his son Isaac, and places him on the altar above the wood;

¹⁰ and Abraham puts forth his hand, and takes the knife—to slaughter his son.

¹² and He says, "Do not put forth your hand to the youth, nor do anything to him, for now I have known that you are fearing God, and have not withheld your son, your only one, from Me."

¹⁴ and Abraham calls the name of that place "YHWH-Jireh," because it is said this day in the mountain, "YHWH provides."

¹⁵ And the Messenger of YHWH calls to Abraham a second time from the heavens,

¹⁶ and says, "I have sworn by Myself—a declaration of YHWH—that because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only one,

¹⁷ that blessing I bless you, and multiplying I multiply your seed as stars of the heavens, and as sand which [is] on the seashore; and your Seed possesses the gate of His enemies;

¹⁸ and all nations of the earth have blessed themselves in your Seed, because you have listened to My voice."

¹⁹ And Abraham turns back to his young men, and they rise and go together to Beer-Sheba; and Abraham dwells in Beer-Sheba.

²¹ his firstborn Huz, and his brother Buz; and Kemuel father of Aram,

²² and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel;

²³ and Bethuel has begotten Rebekah"; Milcah has borne these eight to Nahor, Abraham's brother;

¹ And the life of Sarah is one hundred and twenty-seven years—years of the life of Sarah;

² and Sarah dies in Kirjath-Arba, which [is] Hebron, in the land of Canaan, and Abraham goes to mourn for Sarah, and to lament her.

³ And Abraham rises up from the presence of his dead, and speaks to the sons of Heth, saying,

4 “A sojourner and a settler I [am] with you; give to me a possession of a burying-place with you, and I bury my dead from before me.”

5 And the sons of Heth answer Abraham, saying to him,

6 “Hear us, my lord; a prince of God [are] you in our midst; in the choice of our burying-places bury your dead: none of our burying-places do we withhold from you, from burying your dead.”

7 And Abraham rises and bows himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth,

8 and he speaks with them, saying, “If it is your desire to bury my dead from before me, hear me, and meet for me with Ephron, son of Zoar;

9 and he gives to me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which [is] in the extremity of his field; for full money does he give it to me, in your midst, for a possession of a burying-place.”

10 And Ephron is sitting in the midst of the sons of Heth, and Ephron the Hittite answers Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, of all those entering the gate of his city, saying,

11 “No, my lord, hear me: the field I have given to you, and the cave that [is] in it, to you I have given it; before the eyes of the sons of my people I have given it to you—bury your dead.”

12 And Abraham bows himself before the people of the land,

13 and speaks to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, “Only—if you would hear me—I have given the money of the field—accept from me, and I bury my dead there.”

14 And Ephron answers Abraham, saying to him,

15 “My lord, hear me: the land—four hundred shekels of silver; between me and you, what [is] it? Bury your dead.”

16 And Abraham listens to Ephron, and Abraham weighs to Ephron the silver which he has spoken of in the ears of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver shekels, passing with the merchant.

17 And established are the field of Ephron, which [is] in Machpelah, which [is] before Mamre, the field and the cave which [is] in it, and all the trees which [are] in the field, which [are] around all its border, 18 to Abraham by purchase, before the eyes of the sons of Heth, among all entering the gate of his city.

19 And after this Abraham has buried his wife Sarah at the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (which [is] Hebron), in the land of Canaan;

20 and established are the field, and the cave which [is] in it, to Abraham for a possession of a burying-place, from the sons of Heth.

1 And Abraham [is] old, he has entered into days, and YHWH has blessed Abraham in all [things];

2 and Abraham says to his servant, the eldest of his house, who is ruling over all that he has, “Please put your hand under my thigh,

3 and I cause you to swear by YHWH, God of the heavens and God of the earth, that you do not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, in the midst of whom I am dwelling;

4 but to my land and to my family you go, and have taken a wife for my son, for Isaac.”

5 And the servant says to him, “It may be the woman is not willing to come after me to this land; do I at all cause your son to return to the land from where you came out?”

6 And Abraham says to him, “Take heed to yourself lest you cause my son to return there;

7 YHWH, God of the heavens, who has taken me from the house of my father, and from the land of my birth, and who has spoken to me, and who has sworn to me, saying, To your seed I give this land, He sends His messenger before you, and you have taken a wife for my son from there;

8 and if the woman is not willing to come after you, then you have been acquitted from this my oath: only you do not cause my son to return there.”

9 And the servant puts his hand under the thigh of Abraham his lord, and swears to him concerning this matter.

10 And the servant takes ten camels of the camels of his lord and goes, also of all the goods of his lord in his hand, and he rises, and goes to Aram-Naharaim, to the city of Nahor;

11 and he causes the camels to kneel at the outside of the city, at the well of water, at evening, at the time of the coming out of the women who draw water.

12 And he says, “YHWH, God of my lord Abraham, please cause to meet before me this day—(and do kindness with my lord Abraham;

13 behold, I am standing by the fountain of water, and daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water;

14 and it has been, the young person to whom I say, Please incline your pitcher and I drink, and she has said, Drink, and I also water your camels)—her [whom] You have decided for Your servant, for Isaac; and by it I know that You have done kindness with my lord.”

15 And it comes to pass, before he has finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah (who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, wife of Nahor, brother of Abraham) is coming out, and her pitcher on her shoulder,

16 and the young person [is] of very good appearance, a virgin, and a man has not known her; and she goes down to the fountain, and fills her pitcher, and comes up.

17 And the servant runs to meet her and says, “Please let me swallow a little water from your pitcher”;

18 and she says, “Drink, my lord”; and she hurries, and lets down her pitcher on her hand, and gives him drink.

19 And she finishes giving him drink and says, “Also for your camels I draw until they have finished drinking”;

20 and she hurries, and empties her pitcher into the drinking-trough, and runs again to the well to draw, and draws for all his camels.

21 And the man, wondering at her, remains silent, to know whether YHWH has made his way prosperous or not.

22 And it comes to pass, when the camels have finished drinking, that the man takes a golden ring (whose weight [is] a bekah), and two bracelets for her hands (whose weight [is] ten [bekahs] of gold),

23 and says, “Whose daughter [are] you? Please declare to me, is the house of your father a place for us to lodge in?”

²⁴ And she says to him, "I [am] daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she has borne to Nahor."

²⁵ She also says to him, "Both straw and provender [are] abundant with us, also a place to lodge in."

²⁶ And the man bows, and pays respect to YHWH,

²⁸ And the young person runs, and declares to the house of her mother according to these words.

²⁹ And Rebekah has a brother, and his name [is] Laban, and Laban runs to the man who [is] outside, to the fountain;

³⁰ indeed, it comes to pass, when he sees the ring, and the bracelets on the hands of his sister, and when he hears the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, "Thus has the man spoken to me," that he comes to the man, and behold, he is standing by the camels by the fountain.

³¹ And he says, "Come in, O blessed one of YHWH! Why do you stand outside—and I have prepared the house and place for the camels?"

³³ and sets before him to eat; but he says, "I do not eat until I have spoken my word"; and he says, "Speak."

³⁴ And he says, "I [am] Abraham's servant;

³⁵ and YHWH has blessed my lord exceedingly, and he is great; and He gives to him flock, and herd, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and donkeys;

³⁶ and Sarah, my lord's wife, bears a son to my lord, after she has been aged, and he gives to him all that he has.

³⁷ And my lord causes me to swear, saying, You do not take a wife to my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, in whose land I am dwelling.

³⁸ If not—to the house of my father you go, and to my family, and you have taken a wife for my son.

³⁹ And I say to my lord, It may be the woman does not come after me;

⁴⁰ and he says to me, YHWH, before whom I have habitually walked, sends His messenger with you, and has prospered your way, and you have taken a wife for my son from my family, and from the house of my father;

⁴¹ then you are acquitted from my oath, when you come to my family; and if they do not give [one] to you, then you have been acquitted from my oath.

⁴² And I come to the fountain today, and I say, YHWH, God of my lord Abraham, now if You are making prosperous my way in which I am going—

⁴³ (behold, I am standing by the fountain of water), then the virgin is coming out to draw, and I have said to her, Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher;

⁴⁴ and she has said to me, Both drink, and I also draw for your camels—she is the woman whom YHWH has decided for my lord's son.

⁴⁵ Before I finish speaking to my heart, then behold, Rebekah is coming out, and her pitcher [is] on her shoulder, and she goes down to the fountain and draws; and I say to her, Please let me drink,

⁴⁶ and she hurries and lets down her pitcher from off her and says, Drink, and I also water your camels; and I drink, and she has also watered the camels.

⁴⁷ And I ask her, and say, Whose daughter [are] you? And she says, Daughter of Bethuel, son of Nahor, whom Milcah has borne to him, and I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands,

⁴⁸ and I bow, and pay respect before YHWH, and I bless YHWH, God of my lord Abraham, who has led me in the true way to receive the daughter of my lord's brother for his son.

⁴⁹ And now, if you are dealing kindly and truly with my lord, declare to me; and if not, declare to me; and I turn to the right or to the left."

⁵⁰ And Laban answers—Bethuel also—and they say, "The thing has gone out from YHWH; we are not able to speak to you bad or good;

⁵¹ behold, Rebekah [is] before you, take and go, and she is a wife to your lord's son, as YHWH has spoken."

⁵² And it comes to pass, when the servant of Abraham has heard their words, that he bows himself toward the earth before YHWH;

⁵³ and the servant takes out vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and gives to Rebekah; precious things also he has given to her brother and to her mother.

⁵⁴ And they eat and drink, he and the men who [are] with him, and lodge all night; and they rise in the morning, and he says, "Send me to my lord";

⁵⁵ and her brother says—her mother also, "Let the young person abide with us a week or ten days, afterward she goes."

⁵⁶ And he says to them, "Do not delay me, seeing YHWH has prospered my way; send me away, and I go to my lord";

⁵⁷ and they say, "Let us call for the young person, and inquire of her mouth";

⁵⁸ and they call for Rebekah, and say to her, "Do you go with this man?" And she says, "I go."

⁵⁹ And they send away their sister Rebekah, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men;

⁶⁰ and they bless Rebekah, and say to her, "You [are] our sister; become thousands of myriads, and your seed possesses the gate of those hating it."

⁶¹ And Rebekah and her young women arise, and ride on the camels, and go after the man; and the servant takes Rebekah and goes.

⁶² And Isaac has come in from the entrance of the Well of the Living One, my Beholder; and he is dwelling in the land of the south,

⁶³ and Isaac goes out to meditate in the field, at the turning of the evening, and he lifts up his eyes, and looks, and behold, camels are coming.

⁶⁴ And Rebekah lifts up her eyes, and sees Isaac, and comes down off the camel;

⁶⁵ and she says to the servant, "Who [is] this man who is walking in the field to meet us?" And the servant says, "It [is] my lord"; and she takes the veil, and covers herself.

⁶⁶ And the servant recounts to Isaac all the things that he has done,

⁶⁷ and Isaac brings her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he takes Rebekah, and she becomes his wife, and he loves her, and Isaac is comforted after [the death of] his mother.

² and she bears to him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

³ And Jokshan has begotten Sheba and Dedan; and the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim;

⁴ and the sons of Midian [are] Ephah, and Epher, and Enoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah: all these [are] sons of Keturah.

⁵ And Abraham gives all that he has to Isaac;

⁶ and to the sons of the concubines whom Abraham has, Abraham has given gifts, and sends them away from his son Isaac (in his being yet alive) eastward, to the east country.

⁷ And these [are] the days of the years of the life of Abraham, which he lived, one hundred and seventy-five years;

⁸ and Abraham expires, and dies in a good old age, aged and satisfied, and is gathered to his people.

⁹ And his sons Isaac and Ishmael bury him at the cave of Machpelah, at the field of Ephron, son of Zoar the Hittite, which [is] before Mamre—

¹⁰ the field which Abraham bought from the sons of Heth—there Abraham has been buried, and his wife Sarah.

¹¹ And it comes to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blesses his son Isaac; and Isaac dwells by the Well of the Living One, my Beholder.

¹² And these [are] the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, has borne to Abraham;

¹³ and these [are] the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their births: firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

¹⁴ and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

¹⁵ Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

¹⁶ these are sons of Ishmael, and these [are] their names, by their villages, and by their towers; twelve princes according to their peoples.

¹⁷ And these [are] the years of the life of Ishmael, one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he expires, and dies, and is gathered to his people;

¹⁹ And these [are] the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham has begotten Isaac;

²⁰ and Isaac is a son of forty years in his taking Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean, from Padan-Aram, sister of Laban the Aramean, to him for a wife.

²¹ And Isaac makes plea to YHWH before his wife, for she [is] barren: and YHWH accepts his plea, and his wife Rebekah conceives, ²² and the children struggle together within her, and she says, "If [it is] right—why [am] I thus?" And she goes to seek YHWH.

²⁴ And her days to bear are fulfilled, and behold, twins [are] in her womb;

²⁵ and the first comes out all red as a hairy robe, and they call his name Esau;

²⁷ And the youths grew, and Esau is a man acquainted [with] hunting, a man of the field; and Jacob [is] a plain man, inhabiting tents;

²⁸ and Isaac loves Esau, for [his] game [is] in his mouth; and Rebekah is loving Jacob.

²⁹ And Jacob boils stew, and Esau comes in from the field, and he [is] weary;

³⁰ and Esau says to Jacob, "Please let me eat some of this red-red thing, for I [am] weary"; therefore [one] has called his name Edom;

³¹ and Jacob says, "Sell your birthright to me today."

³² And Esau says, "Behold, I am going to die, and what is this to me—a birthright?"

³³ And Jacob says, "Swear to me today": and he swears to him, and sells his birthright to Jacob;

³⁴ and Jacob has given bread and stew of lentils to Esau, and he eats, and drinks, and rises, and goes; and Esau despises the birthright.

¹ And there is a famine in the land, besides the first famine which was in the days of Abraham, and Isaac goes to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar.

² And YHWH appears to him and says, "Do not go down toward Egypt, dwell in the land concerning which I speak to you,

³ sojourn in this land, and I am with you, and bless you, for to you and to your seed I give all these lands, and I have established the oath which I have sworn to your father Abraham;

⁴ and I have multiplied your seed as stars of the heavens, and I have given to your seed all these lands; and all nations of the earth have blessed themselves in your Seed;

⁵ because that Abraham has listened to My voice, and keeps My charge, My commands, My statutes, and My laws."

⁶ And Isaac dwells in Gerar;

⁹ And Abimelech calls for Isaac and says, "Behold, she [is] surely your wife; and how could you have said, She [is] my sister?" And Isaac says to him, "Because I said, Lest I die for her."

¹⁰ And Abimelech says, "What [is] this you have done to us? As a little thing one of the people had lain with your wife, and you had brought on us guilt";

¹¹ and Abimelech commands all the people, saying, "He who comes against this man or against his wife, dying does die."

¹² And Isaac sows in that land, and finds in that year a hundredfold, and YHWH blesses him;

¹³ and the man is great, and goes on, going on and becoming great, until he has been very great,

¹⁴ and he has possession of a flock, and possession of a herd, and an abundant service; and the Philistines envy him,

¹⁵ and all the wells which his father's servants dug in the days of his father Abraham, the Philistines have stopped them, and fill them with dust.

¹⁶ And Abimelech says to Isaac, "Go from us; for you have become much mightier than we";

¹⁷ and Isaac goes from there, and encamps in the Valley of Gerar, and dwells there;

¹⁸ and Isaac turns back, and digs the wells of water which they dug in the days of his father Abraham, which the Philistines have stopped after the death of Abraham, and he calls to them names according to the names which his father called them.

¹⁹ And Isaac's servants dig in the valley, and find there a well of living water,

²¹ and they dig another well, and they strive also for it, and he calls its name "Hatred."

²² And he removes from there, and digs another well, and they have not striven for it, and he calls its name "Enlargements," and says, "For—now has YHWH given enlargement to us, and we have been fruitful in the land."

²³ And he goes up from there [to] Beer-Sheba,

²⁴ and YHWH appears to him during that night and says, "I [am] the God of your father Abraham, do not fear, for I [am] with you, and have blessed you, and have multiplied your seed, because of My servant Abraham";

²⁵ and he builds there an altar, and preaches in the Name of YHWH, and stretches out there his tent, and there Isaac's servants dig a well.

²⁶ And Abimelech has gone to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phichol head of his host;

²⁷ and Isaac says to them, "Why have you come to me, and you have hated me, and you send me away from you?"

²⁸ And they say, "We have certainly seen that YHWH has been with you, and we say, Now let there be an oath between us, between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you;

²⁹ do no evil with us, as we have not touched you, and as we have only done good with you, and send you away in peace; you [are] now blessed of YHWH."

³⁰ And he makes a banquet for them, and they eat and drink,

³¹ and rise early in the morning, and swear to one another, and Isaac sends them away, and they go from him in peace.

³² And it comes to pass during that day that Isaac's servants come and declare to him concerning the circumstances of the well which they have dug, and say to him, "We have found water";

³⁴ And Esau is a son of forty years, and he takes a wife, Judith, daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath, daughter of Elon the Hittite, ³⁵ and they are a bitterness of spirit to Isaac and to Rebekah.

¹ And it comes to pass that Isaac [is] aged, and his eyes are too dim for seeing, and he calls [for] his older son Esau and says to him, "My son"; and he says to him, "Here I [am]."

² And he says, "Now behold, I have become aged, I have not known the day of my death;

³ and now, please take up your instruments, your quiver, and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt provision for me,

⁴ and make tasteful things for me, [such] as I have loved, and bring [them] to me, and I eat, so that my soul blesses you before I die."

⁵ And Rebekah is listening while Isaac is speaking to his son Esau; and Esau goes to the field to hunt game—to bring in;

⁶ and Rebekah has spoken to her son Jacob, saying, "Behold, I have heard your father speaking to your brother Esau, saying,

⁷ Bring game for me, and make tasteful things for me, and I eat, and bless you before YHWH before my death.

⁸ And now, my son, listen to my voice, to that which I am commanding you:

⁹ Now go to the flock, and take for me two good kids of the goats from there, and I make them tasteful things for your father, [such] as he has loved;

¹⁰ and you have taken [them] to your father, and he has eaten, so that his soul blesses you before his death."

¹¹ And Jacob says to his mother Rebekah, "Behold, my brother Esau [is] a hairy man, and I [am] a smooth man,

¹² it may be my father feels me, and I have been in his eyes as a deceiver, and have brought on me disapproval, and not a blessing";

¹³ and his mother says to him, "On me your disapproval, my son; only listen to my voice, and go, take for me."

¹⁴ And he goes, and takes, and brings to his mother, and his mother makes tasteful things, [such] as his father has loved;

¹⁵ and Rebekah takes the desirable garments of Esau her older son, which [are] with her in the house, and puts them on Jacob her younger son;

¹⁶ and she has put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck,

¹⁷ and she gives the tasteful things, and the bread which she has made, into the hand of her son Jacob.

¹⁸ And he comes to his father and says, "My father"; and he says, "Here I [am]; who [are] you, my son?"

¹⁹ And Jacob says to his father, "I [am] Esau your firstborn; I have done as you have spoken to me; please rise, sit and eat of my game, so that your soul blesses me."

²⁰ And Isaac says to his son, "What [is] this you have hurried to find, my son?" And he says, "That which your God YHWH has caused to come before me."

21 And Isaac says to Jacob, "Please come near, and I feel you, my son, whether you [are] he, my son Esau, or not."

22 And Jacob comes near to his father Isaac, and he feels him, and says, "The voice [is] the voice of Jacob, and the hands hands of Esau."

23 And he has not discerned him, for his hands have been hairy, as the hands of his brother Esau, and he blesses him,

24 and says, "You are he—my son Esau?" And he says, "I [am]."

25 And he says, "Bring [it] near to me, and I eat of my son's game, so that my soul blesses you"; and he brings [it] near to him, and he eats; and he brings wine to him, and he drinks.

26 And his father Isaac says to him, "Please come near and kiss me, my son";

27 and he comes near, and kisses him, and he smells the fragrance of his garments, and blesses him, and says, "See, the fragrance of my son [is] as the fragrance of a field which YHWH has blessed;

28 and God gives to you of the dew of the heavens, and of the fatness of the earth, and abundance of grain and wine;

29 peoples serve you, and nations bow themselves to you, be mighty over your brothers, and the sons of your mother bow themselves to you; those who curse you [are] cursed, and those who bless you [are] blessed."

30 And it comes to pass, as Isaac has finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob is only just going out from the presence of his father Isaac, that his brother Esau has come in from his hunting;

31 and he also makes tasteful things, and brings to his father, and says to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's game, so that your soul blesses me."

32 And his father Isaac says to him, "Who [are] you?" And he says, "I [am] your son, your firstborn, Esau";

33 and Isaac trembles a very great trembling and says, "Who, now, [is] he who has provided game, and brings to me, and I eat of all before you come in, and I bless him? Indeed, he is blessed."

34 When Esau hears the words of his father, then he cries a very great and bitter cry, and says to his father, "Bless me, me also, O my father";

35 and he says, "Your brother has come with subtlety, and takes your blessing."

36 And he says, "Is it because he whose name is called Jacob takes me by the heel these two times? He has taken my birthright; and behold, now he has taken my blessing"; he also says, "Have you not kept back a blessing for me?"

37 And Isaac answers and says to Esau, "Behold, a mighty one have I set him over you, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants, and [with] grain and wine have I sustained him; and for you now, what will I do, my son?"

38 And Esau says to his father, "One blessing have you my father? Bless me, me also, O my father"; and Esau lifts up his voice, and weeps.

39 And his father Isaac answers and says to him, "Behold, of the fatness of the earth is your dwelling, and of the dew of the heavens from above;

40 and by your sword you live, and your brother serves you; and it has come to pass, when you rule, that you have broken his yoke from off your neck."

⁴¹ And Esau hates Jacob, because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau says in his heart, “The days of mourning [for] my father draw near, and I slay my brother Jacob.”

⁴² And the words of Esau her older son are declared to Rebekah, and she sends and calls for Jacob her younger son, and says to him, “Behold, your brother Esau is comforting himself in regard to you—to slay you;

⁴⁴ and you have dwelt with him some days, until your brother’s fury turns back,

⁴⁵ until your brother’s anger turns back from you, and he has forgotten that which you have done to him, and I have sent and taken you from there; why am I bereaved even of you both the same day?”

¹ And Isaac calls to Jacob, and blesses him, and commands him, and says to him, “You must not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

² rise, go to Padan-Aram, to the house of your mother’s father Bethuel, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of your mother’s brother Laban;

³ and God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and you have become an assembly of peoples;

⁴ and He gives to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, to cause you to possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham.”

⁵ And Isaac sends Jacob away, and he goes to Padan-Aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, brother of Rebekah, mother of Jacob and Esau.

⁶ And Esau sees that Isaac has blessed Jacob, and has sent him to Padan-Aram to take to himself from there a wife—in his blessing him that he lays a charge on him, saying, You must not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan—

⁷ that Jacob listens to his father and to his mother, and goes to Padan-Aram—

⁸ and Esau sees that the daughters of Canaan are evil in the eyes of his father Isaac,

¹¹ and he touches at a [certain] place, and lodges there, for the sun has gone in, and he takes of the stones of the place, and makes [them] his pillows, and lies down in that place.

¹² And he dreams, and behold, a ladder set up on the earth, and its head is touching the heavens; and behold, messengers of God are going up and coming down by it;

¹³ and behold, YHWH is standing on it, and He says, “I [am] YHWH, God of your father Abraham, and God of Isaac; the land on which you are lying, to you I give it, and to your seed;

¹⁴ and your seed has been as the dust of the land, and you have broken forth westward, and eastward, and northward, and southward, and all families of the ground have been blessed in you and in your seed.

¹⁵ And behold, I [am] with you, and have kept you wherever you go, and have caused you to return to this ground; for I do not leave you until I have surely done that which I have spoken to you."

¹⁶ And Jacob awakens out of his sleep and says, "Surely YHWH is in this place, and I did not know";

¹⁷ and he fears and says, "How fearful [is] this place; this is nothing but a house of God, and this a gate of the heavens."

¹⁹ and he calls the name of that place Bethel, [house of God,] and yet, Luz [is] the name of the city at the first.

²⁰ And Jacob vows a vow, saying, "Seeing God is with me, and has kept me in this way which I am going, and has given to me bread to eat, and a garment to put on—

²¹ when I have turned back in peace to the house of my father, and YHWH has become my God,

²² then this stone which I have made a standing pillar is a house of God, and all that You give to me—tithing I tithe to You."

¹ And Jacob lifts up his feet, and goes toward the land of the sons of the east;

² and he looks, and behold, a well in the field, and behold, there [are] three droves of a flock crouching by it, for they water the droves from that well, and the great stone [is] on the mouth of the well.

³ (When all the droves have been gathered there, and they have rolled the stone from off the mouth of the well, and have watered the flock, then they have turned back the stone on the mouth of the well to its place.)

⁴ And Jacob says to them, "My brothers, where [are] you from?" And they say, "We [are] from Haran."

⁵ And he says to them, "Have you known Laban, son of Nahor?" And they say, "We have known."

⁶ And he says to them, "Does he have peace?" And they say, "Peace; and behold, his daughter Rachel is coming with the flock."

⁷ And he says, "Behold, the day [is] still great, [it is] not time for the livestock to be gathered; water the flock, and go, delight yourselves."

⁹ He is yet speaking with them, and Rachel has come with the flock which her father has, for she [is] shepherdess;

¹² and Jacob declares to Rachel that he [is] her father's brother, and that he [is] Rebekah's son, and she runs and declares [it] to her father.

¹³ And it comes to pass, when Laban hears the report of his sister's son Jacob, that he runs to meet him, and embraces him, and kisses him, and brings him into his house; and he recounts to Laban all these things,

¹⁴ and Laban says to him, "You [are] surely my bone and my flesh"; and he dwells with him a month of days.

¹⁵ And Laban says to Jacob, "Is it because you [are] my brother that you have served me for nothing? Declare to me what your hire [is]."

¹⁷ and the eyes of Leah [are] tender, and Rachel has been beautiful of form and beautiful of appearance.

¹⁸ And Jacob loves Rachel and says, "I serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter":

¹⁹ and Laban says, "It is better for me to give her to you than to give her to another man; dwell with me";

²⁰ and Jacob serves for Rachel seven years; and they are in his eyes as some days, because of his loving her.

²¹ And Jacob says to Laban, "Give up my wife, for my days have been fulfilled, and I go in to her";

²² and Laban gathers all the men of the place, and makes a banquet.

²³ And it comes to pass in the evening, that he takes his daughter Leah, and brings her to him, and he goes in to her;

²⁴ and Laban gives his maidservant Zilpah to her, to his daughter Leah, [for] a maidservant.

²⁵ And it comes to pass in the morning, that behold, it [is] Leah; and he says to Laban, "What [is] this you have done to me? Have I not served with you for Rachel? And why have you deceived me?"

²⁶ And Laban says, "It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn;

²⁷ fulfill the period of seven [for] this one, and we also give to you this one, for the service which you serve with me yet seven other years."

²⁸ And Jacob does so, and fulfills the period of seven [for] this one, and he gives his daughter Rachel to him for a wife for him;

²⁹ and Laban gives his maidservant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel for a maidservant for her.

³⁰ And he also goes in to Rachel, and he also loves Rachel more than Leah; and he serves with him yet seven other years.

³¹ And YHWH sees that Leah [is] the hated one, and He opens her womb, and Rachel [is] barren;

³² and Leah conceives, and bears a son, and calls his name Reuben, for she said, "Because YHWH has looked on my affliction; because now does my husband love me."

³³ And she conceives again, and bears a son, and says, "Because YHWH has heard that I [am] the hated one, He also gives to me even this [one]"; and she calls his name Simeon.

³⁴ And she conceives again and bears a son, and says, "Now [is] the time, my husband is joined to me, because I have born to him three sons," therefore has [one] called his name Levi.

¹ And Rachel sees that she has not borne to Jacob, and Rachel is envious of her sister, and says to Jacob, "Give me sons, and if there is none—I die."

² And Jacob's anger burns against Rachel, and he says, "Am I in stead of God who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

³ And she says, "Behold, my handmaid Bilhah, go in to her, and she bears on my knees, and I am built up, even I, from her";

⁴ and she gives Bilhah her maidservant to him for a wife, and Jacob goes in to her;

⁵ and Bilhah conceives, and bears a son to Jacob,

⁶ and Rachel says, "God has decided for me, and has also listened to my voice, and gives a son to me"; therefore she has called his name Dan.

⁷ And Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, conceives again, and bears a second son to Jacob,

⁸ and Rachel says, "With wrestlings of God I have wrestled with my sister, indeed, I have prevailed"; and she calls his name Naphtali.

⁹ And Leah sees that she has ceased from bearing, and she takes Zilpah her maidservant, and gives her to Jacob for a wife;

¹⁰ and Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, bears a son to Jacob,

¹² And Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, bears a second son to Jacob,

¹⁵ And she says to her, "Is your taking my husband a little thing, that you have also taken the love-apples of my son?" And Rachel says, "He therefore lies with you tonight, for your son's love-apples."

¹⁷ And God listens to Leah, and she conceives, and bears a son to Jacob, a fifth,

¹⁸ and Leah says, "God has given my hire, because I have given my maidservant to my husband"; and she calls his name Issachar.

¹⁹ And Leah conceives again, and she bears a sixth son to Jacob,

²⁰ and Leah says, "God has endowed me—a good dowry; this time my husband dwells with me, for I have borne six sons to him"; and she calls his name Zebulun;

²¹ and afterward she has borne a daughter, and calls her name Dinah.

²² And God remembers Rachel, and God listens to her, and opens her womb,

²³ and she conceives and bears a son, and says, "God has gathered up my reproach";

²⁴ and she calls his name Joseph, saying, “YHWH is adding to me another son.”

²⁵ And it comes to pass, when Rachel has borne Joseph, that Jacob says to Laban, “Send me away, and I go to my place, and to my land;

²⁶ give up my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and I go; for you have known my service which I have served you.”

²⁷ And Laban says to him, “Now if I have found grace in your eyes—I have observed diligently that YHWH blesses me for your sake.”

²⁸ He also says, “Define your hire to me, and I give.”

²⁹ And he says to him, “You have known that which I have served you [in], and that which your substance was with me;

³⁰ for [it is] little which you have had at my appearance, and it breaks forth into a multitude, and YHWH blesses you at my coming; and now, when do I make, I also, for my own house?”

³¹ And he says, “What do I give to you?” And Jacob says, “You do not give me anything; if you do this thing for me, I turn back; I have delight; I watch your flock;

³² I pass through all your flock today to turn aside every speckled and spotted sheep from there, and every brown sheep among the lambs, and speckled and spotted among the goats—and it has been my hire;

³³ and my righteousness has answered for me in the day to come, when it comes in for my hire before your face—everyone which is not speckled and spotted among [my] goats, and brown among [my] lambs—it is stolen with me.”

³⁴ And Laban says, “Behold, O that it were according to your word”;

³⁵ and he turns aside during that day the striped and the spotted male goats, and all the speckled and the spotted female goats, everyone that [has] white in it, and every brown one among the lambs, and he gives into the hand of his sons,

³⁷ And Jacob takes to himself a rod of fresh poplar and almond and plane-tree, and peels in them white peelings, making bare the white that [is] on the rods,

³⁹ and the flocks conceive at the rods, and the flock bears striped, speckled, and spotted ones.

⁴¹ And it has come to pass, whenever the strong ones of the flock conceive, that Jacob sets the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, to cause them to conceive by the rods,

¹ And he hears the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken all that our father has; indeed, from that which our father has, he has made all this glory";

² and Jacob sees the face of Laban, and behold, it is not with him as before.

³ And YHWH says to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers, and to your family, and I am with you."

⁴ And Jacob sends and calls for Rachel and for Leah to the field to his flock;

⁵ and says to them, "I am beholding your father's face—that it is not toward me as before, and the God of my father has been with me,

⁷ and your father has played on me, and has changed my hire ten times; and God has not permitted him to do evil with me.

¹⁰ And it comes to pass at the time of the flock conceiving, that I lift up my eyes and see in a dream, and behold, the male goats, which are going up on the flock, [are] striped, speckled, and spotted;

¹¹ and the Messenger of God says to me in the dream, Jacob, and I say, Here I [am].

¹² And He says, Now lift up your eyes and see [that] all the male goats which are going up on the flock [are] striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you;

¹³ I [am] the God of Bethel where you have anointed a standing pillar, where you have vowed a vow to me; now, arise, go out from this land, and return to the land of your birth."

¹⁴ And Rachel answers—Leah also—and says to him, "Have we yet a portion and inheritance in the house of our father?"

¹⁵ Have we not been reckoned strangers to him? For he has sold us, and he also utterly consumes our money;

¹⁶ for all the wealth which God has taken away from our father, it [is] ours, and our children's; and now, all that God has said to you—do."

¹⁷ And Jacob rises, and lifts up his sons and his wives on the camels,

¹⁹ And Laban has gone to shear his flock, and Rachel steals the teraphim which her father has;

²⁰ and Jacob deceives the heart of Laban the Aramean, because he has not declared to him that he is fleeing;

²¹ and he flees, he and all that he has, and rises, and passes over the River, and sets his face [toward] the Mount of Gilead.

²² And it is told to Laban on the third day that Jacob has fled,

²³ and he takes his brothers with him, and pursues after him a journey of seven days, and overtakes him in the Mount of Gilead.

²⁴ And God comes to Laban the Aramean in a dream of the night and says to him, "Take heed to yourself lest you speak with Jacob from good to evil."

²⁶ And Laban says to Jacob, "What have you done that you deceive my heart, and lead away my daughters as captives of the sword?"

²⁷ Why have you hidden yourself to flee, and deceive me, and have not declared to me, and I send you away with joy and with songs, with tambourine and with harp,

²⁸ and have not permitted me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now you have acted foolishly in doing [so];

²⁹ my hand is to God to do evil with you, but the God of your father last night has spoken to me, saying, Take heed to yourself from speaking with Jacob from good to evil.

³⁰ And now, you have certainly gone, because you have been very desirous for the house of your father; why have you stolen my gods?"

³¹ And Jacob answers and says to Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, Lest you violently take away your daughters from me;

³² with whomsoever you find your gods—he must not live; before our brothers discern for yourself what [is] with me, and take to yourself": and Jacob has not known that Rachel has stolen them.

³⁴ And Rachel has taken the teraphim, and puts them in the furniture of the camel, and sits on them; and Laban feels all the tent, and has not found;

³⁵ and she says to her father, "Let it not be displeasing in the eyes of my lord that I am not able to rise at your presence, for the way of women [is] on me"; and he searches, and has not found the teraphim.

³⁶ And it is displeasing to Jacob, and he strives with Laban; and Jacob answers and says to Laban, "What [is] my transgression? What my sin, that you have burned after me?"

³⁷ For you have felt all my vessels: what have you found of all the vessels of your house? Set here before my brothers, and your brothers, and they decide between us both.

³⁸ These twenty years I [am] with you: your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, and the rams of your flock I have not eaten;

³⁹ the torn I have not brought to you—I repay it—from my hand you seek it; I have been deceived by day, and I have been deceived by night;

⁴⁰ I have been [thus]: drought has consumed me in the day, and frost by night, and my sleep wanders from my eyes.

⁴¹ This [is] to me twenty years in your house: I have served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock; and you change my hire ten times;

⁴² unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the Fear of Isaac, had been for me, surely now you had sent me away empty; God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and reproves last night."

⁴³ And Laban answers and says to Jacob, “The daughters [are] my daughters, and the sons my sons, and the flock my flock, and all that you are seeing [is] mine; and to my daughters—what do I to these today, or to their sons whom they have born?”

⁴⁴ And now, come, let us make a covenant, I and you, and it has been for a witness between me and you.”

⁴⁵ And Jacob takes a stone, and lifts it up [for] a standing pillar;

⁴⁶ and Jacob says to his brothers, “Gather stones,” and they take stones, and make a heap; and they eat there on the heap;

⁴⁸ And Laban says, “This heap [is] witness between me and you today”; therefore has he called its name Galeed;

⁴⁹ Mizpah also, for he said, “YHWH watches between me and you, for we are hidden from one another;

⁵⁰ if you afflict my daughters, or take wives beside my daughters—there is no man with us—see, God [is] witness between me and you.”

⁵² this heap [is] witness, and the standing pillar [is] witness, that I do not pass over this heap to you, and that you do not pass over this heap and this standing pillar to me—for evil;

⁵³ the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, judges between us—the God of their father,” and Jacob swears by the Fear of his father Isaac.

⁵⁴ And Jacob sacrifices a sacrifice on the mountain, and calls to his brothers to eat bread, and they eat bread, and lodge on the mountain;

⁵⁵ and Laban rises early in the morning, and kisses his sons and his daughters, and blesses them; and Laban goes on, and turns back to his place.

¹ And Jacob has gone on his way, and messengers of God come on him;

² and Jacob says, when he has seen them, “This [is] the camp of God”; and he calls the name of that place “Two Camps.”

³ And Jacob sends messengers before him to his brother Esau, toward the land of Seir, the field of Edom,

⁵ and I have ox, and donkey, flock, and manservant, and maidservant, and I send to declare to my lord, to find grace in his eyes.”

⁶ And the messengers return to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother, to Esau, and he is also coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him”;

⁷ and Jacob fears exceedingly, and is distressed, and he divides the people who [are] with him, and the flock, and the herd, and the camels, into two camps,

⁸ and says, “If Esau comes to one camp, and has struck it—then the camp which is left has been for an escape.”

⁹ And Jacob says, “God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, YHWH who says to me, Return to your land and to your family, and I do good with you:

10 I have been unworthy of all the kind acts and of all the truth which You have done with your servant—for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.

11 Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I am fearing him, lest he come and has struck me—mother beside sons;

12 and You have said, I certainly do good with you, and have set your seed as the sand of the sea, which is not numbered because of the multitude.”

13 And he lodges there during that night, and takes from that which is coming into his hand, a present for his brother Esau:

14 female goats two hundred, and male goats twenty, ewes two hundred, and rams twenty,

15 suckling camels and their young ones thirty, cows forty, and bullocks ten, female donkeys twenty, and foals ten;

16 and he gives into the hand of his servants every drove by itself, and says to his servants, “Pass over before me, and a space you put between drove and drove.”

17 And he commands the first, saying, “When my brother Esau meets you, and has asked you, saying, Whose [are] you? And to where do you go? And whose [are] these before you?

18 Then you have said, Your servant Jacob’s: it [is] a present sent to my lord, to Esau; and behold, he also [is] behind us.”

19 And he commands also the second, also the third, also all who are going after the droves, saying, “According to this manner do you speak to Esau in your finding him,

20 and you have also said, Behold, your servant Jacob [is] behind us”; for he said, “I pacify his face with the present which is going before me, and afterward I see his face; it may be he lifts up my face”;

21 and the present passes over before his face, and he has lodged during that night in the camp.

22 And he rises in that night, and takes his two wives, and his two maidservants, and his eleven children, and passes over the passage of Jabbok;

23 and he takes them, and causes them to pass over the brook, and he causes that which he has to pass over.

24 And Jacob is left alone, and One wrestles with him until the ascending of the dawn;

25 and He sees that He is not able for him, and He comes against the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob’s thigh is disjointed in his wrestling with Him;

26 and He says, “Send Me away, for the dawn has ascended”: and he says, “I do not send You away, except You have blessed me.”

27 And He says to him, “What [is] your name?” And he says, “Jacob.”

28 And He says, “Your name is no longer called Jacob, but Israel; for you have reigned with God and with men, and prevail.”

29 And Jacob asks and says, “Please declare Your Name”; and He says, “Why [is] this, you ask for My Name?” And He blesses him there.

30 And Jacob calls the name of the place Peniel: “For I have seen God face to face, and my life is delivered”;

31 and the sun rises on him when he has passed over Penuel, and he is halting on his thigh;

² and he sets the maidservants and their children first, and Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.

³ And he himself passed over before them, and bows himself to the earth seven times, until his drawing near to his brother,

⁴ and Esau runs to meet him, and embraces him, and falls on his neck, and kisses him, and they weep;

⁶ And the maidservants draw near, they and their children, and bow themselves;

⁷ and Leah also draws near, and her children, and they bow themselves; and afterward Joseph has drawn near with Rachel, and they bow themselves.

⁸ And he says, "What to you [is] all this camp which I have met?" And he says, "To find grace in the eyes of my lord."

⁹ And Esau says, "I have abundance, my brother, that which you have, let it be for yourself."

¹⁰ And Jacob says, "No, please, now if I have found grace in your eyes, then you have received my present from my hand, because that I have seen your face, as the seeing of the face of God, and you are pleased with me;

¹¹ please receive my blessing which is brought to you, because God has favored me, and because I have all [things]"; and he presses on him, and he receives [it],

¹³ And he says to him, "My lord knows that the children [are] tender, and the suckling flock and the herd [are] with me; when they have beaten them one day, then all the flock has died.

¹⁴ Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I lead on gently, according to the foot of the work which [is] before me, and to the foot of the children, until I come to my lord, to Seir."

¹⁵ And Esau says, "Please let me place with you some of the people who [are] with me"; and he said, "Why [is] this? I find grace in the eyes of my lord."

¹⁶ And Esau turns back on that day on his way to Seir;

¹⁷ and Jacob has journeyed to Succoth, and builds a house for himself, and has made shelters for his livestock, therefore he has called the name of the place Succoth.

¹⁸ And Jacob comes safe [to the] city of Shechem, which [is] in the land of Canaan, in his coming from Padan-Aram, and encamps before the city,

²⁰ and he sets up there an altar, and proclaims at it God—the God of Israel.

¹ And Dinah, daughter of Leah, whom she has borne to Jacob, goes out to look on the daughters of the land,

² and Shechem, son of Hamor the Hivite, a prince of the land, sees her, and takes her, and lies with her, and humbles her;

³ and his soul cleaves to Dinah, daughter of Jacob, and he loves the young person, and speaks to the heart of the young person.

⁴ And Shechem speaks to his father Hamor, saying, “Take for me this girl for a wife.”

⁶ And Hamor, father of Shechem, goes out to Jacob to speak with him;

⁷ and the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard, and the men grieve themselves, and it [is] very displeasing to them, for folly he has done against Israel, to lie with the daughter of Jacob—and so it is not done.

⁸ And Hamor speaks with them, saying, “Shechem, my son, his soul has cleaved to your daughter; please give her to him for a wife,

⁹ and join in marriage with us; you give your daughters to us, and you take our daughters for yourselves,

¹⁰ and you dwell with us, and the land is before you; dwell and trade [in] it, and have possessions in it.”

¹¹ And Shechem says to her father and to her brothers, “Let me find grace in your eyes, and that which you say to me, I give;

¹² multiply on me dowry and gift exceedingly, and I give as you say to me, and give to me the young person for a wife.”

¹³ And the sons of Jacob answer Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, and they speak (because he defiled their sister Dinah),

¹⁴ and say to them, “We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to one who has a foreskin, for it [is] a reproach to us.

¹⁵ Only for this we consent to you: if you are as we, to have every male of you circumcised,

¹⁶ then we have given our daughters to you, and we take your daughters for ourselves, and we have dwelt with you, and have become one people;

¹⁷ and if you do not listen to us to be circumcised, then we have taken our daughter, and have gone.”

¹⁸ And their words are good in the eyes of Hamor, and in the eyes of Shechem, Hamor’s son;

²⁰ And Hamor comes—his son Shechem also—to the gate of their city, and they speak to the men of their city, saying,

21 “These men are peaceable with us; then let them dwell in the land, and trade [in] it; and the land, behold, [is] wide before them; their daughters let us take to ourselves for wives, and our daughters give to them.

22 Only for this do the men consent to us, to dwell with us, to become one people, in every male of us being circumcised, as they are circumcised;

23 their livestock, and their substance, and all their beasts—are they not ours? Only let us consent to them, and they dwell with us.”

24 And to Hamor, and to his son Shechem, do all those going out of the gate of his city listen, and every male is circumcised, all those going out of the gate of his city.

25 And it comes to pass, on the third day, in their being pained, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, take each his sword, and come in against the city confidently, and slay every male;

26 and Hamor, and his son Shechem, they have slain by the mouth of the sword, and they take Dinah out of Shechem’s house, and go out.

27 Jacob’s sons have come in on the wounded, and they spoil the city, because they had defiled their sister;

28 their flock and their herd, and their donkeys, and that which [is] in the city, and that which [is] in the field, have they taken;

29 and all their wealth, and all their infants, and their wives they have taken captive, and they spoil also all that [is] in the house.

30 And Jacob says to Simeon and to Levi, “You have troubled me, by causing me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanite, and among the Perizzite: and I [am] few in number, and they have been gathered against me, and have struck me, and I have been destroyed, I and my house.”

31 And they say, “Does he make our sister as a harlot?”

1 And God says to Jacob, “Rise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there, and make there an altar to God, who appeared to you in your fleeing from the face of your brother Esau.”

2 And Jacob says to his household, and to all who [are] with him, “Turn aside the gods of the stranger which [are] in your midst, and cleanse yourselves, and change your garments;

3 and we rise, and go up to Bethel, and I make there an altar to God, who is answering me in the day of my tribulation, and is with me in the way that I have gone.”

4 And they give to Jacob all the gods of the stranger that [are] in their hand, and the rings that [are] in their ears, and Jacob hides them under the oak which [is] by Shechem;

5 and they journey, and the terror of God is on the cities which [are] around them, and they have not pursued after the sons of Jacob.

6 And Jacob comes to Luz which [is] in the land of Canaan (it [is] Bethel), he and all the people who [are] with him,

7 and he builds there an altar, and proclaims at the place the God of Bethel: for there had God been revealed to him, in his fleeing from the face of his brother.

8 And Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, dies, and she is buried at the lower part of Bethel, under the oak, and he calls its name “Oak of Weeping.”

⁹ And God appears to Jacob again, in his coming from Padan-Aram, and blesses him;

¹⁰ and God says to him, "Your name [is] Jacob: your name is no longer called Jacob, but Israel is your name"; and He calls his name Israel.

¹¹ And God says to him, "I [am] God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply, a nation and an assembly of nations is from you, and kings from your loins go out;

¹² and the land which I have given to Abraham and to Isaac—to you I give it, indeed to your seed after you I give the land."

¹³ And God goes up from him, in the place where He has spoken with him.

¹⁴ And Jacob sets up a standing pillar in the place where He has spoken with him, a standing pillar of stone, and he pours on it an oblation, and he pours on it oil;

¹⁵ and Jacob calls the name of the place where God spoke with him Bethel.

¹⁶ And they journey from Bethel, and there is yet a distance of land before entering Ephratha, and Rachel bears, and is sharply pained in her bearing;

¹⁷ and it comes to pass, in her being sharply pained in her bearing, that the midwife says to her, "Do not fear, for this also [is] a son for you."

¹⁸ And it comes to pass in the going out of her soul (for she died), that she calls his name Ben-Oni; and his father called him Benjamin;

¹⁹ and Rachel dies, and is buried in the way to Ephratha, which [is] Beth-Lehem,

²⁰ and Jacob sets up a standing pillar over her grave; which [is] the standing pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

²¹ And Israel journeys, and stretches out his tent beyond the Tower of Edar;

²² and it comes to pass in Israel's dwelling in that land, that Reuben goes, and lies with his father's concubine Bilhah; and Israel hears.

²⁴ Sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁵ And sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant: Dan and Naphtali.

²⁶ And sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant: Gad and Asher. These [are] sons of Jacob, who have been born to him in Padan-Aram.

²⁷ And Jacob comes to his father Isaac, at Mamre, the city of Arba (which [is] Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac have sojourned.

²⁸ And the days of Isaac are one hundred and eighty years,

²⁹ and Isaac expires, and dies, and is gathered to his people, aged and satisfied with days; and his sons Esau and Jacob bury him.

² Esau has taken his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon the Hivite,

³ and Bashemath daughter of Ishmael, sister of Nebajoth.

⁴ And Adah bears to Esau, Eliphaz; and Bashemath has borne Reuel;

⁵ and Aholibamah has borne Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. These [are] sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁸ and Esau dwells in Mount Seir: Esau is Edom.

⁹ And these [are] the generations of Esau, father of Edom, in Mount Seir.

¹⁰ These [are] the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphaz son of Adah, wife of Esau; Reuel son of Bashemath, wife of Esau.

¹¹ And the sons of Eliphaz are Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz;

¹² and Timnath has been concubine to Eliphaz son of Esau, and she bears to Eliphaz, Amalek; these [are] sons of Adah wife of Esau.

¹⁶ Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, Chief Amalek; these [are] chiefs of Eliphaz, in the land of Edom; these [are] sons of Adah.

¹⁷ And these [are] sons of Reuel son of Esau: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, Chief Mizzah; these [are] chiefs of Reuel, in the land of Edom; these [are] sons of Bashemath wife of Esau.

¹⁹ These [are] sons of Esau (who [is] Edom), and these their chiefs.

²⁰ These [are] sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, ²¹ and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan; these [are] chiefs of the Horites, sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

²² And the sons of Lotan are Hori and Heman; and a sister of Lotan [is] Timna.

²³ And these [are] sons of Shobal: Alvan and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

²⁶ And these [are] sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

²⁷ These [are] sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

²⁸ These [are] sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

³⁰ Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, Chief Dishan: these [are] chiefs of the Horite in reference to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

³¹ And these [are] the kings who have reigned in the land of Edom before the reigning of a king over the sons of Israel.

³² And Bela son of Beor reigns in Edom, and the name of his city [is] Dinhabah;

³³ and Bela dies, and Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah reigns in his stead;

³⁴ and Jobab dies, and Husham from the land of the Temanite reigns in his stead.

³⁵ And Husham dies, and Hadad son of Bedad reigns in his stead (who strikes Midian in the field of Moab), and the name of his city [is] Avith;

³⁷ and Samlah dies, and Saul from Rehoboth of the River reigns in his stead;

³⁸ and Saul dies, and Ba'al-hanan son of Achbor reigns in his stead;

⁴¹ Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,

⁴² Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar;

³ And Israel has loved Joseph more than any of his sons, for he [is] a son of his old age, and has made for him a long coat;

⁴ and his brothers see that their father has loved him more than any of his brothers, and they hate him, and have not been able to speak [to] him peaceably.

⁵ And Joseph dreams a dream, and declares to his brothers, and they add still more to hate him.

⁷ that, behold, we are binding bundles in the midst of the field, and behold, my bundle has arisen, and has also stood up, and behold, your bundles are all around, and they bow themselves to my bundle."

⁸ And his brothers say to him, "Do you certainly reign over us? Do you certainly rule over us?" And they add still more to hate him, for his dreams, and for his words.

⁹ And he dreams yet another dream, and recounts it to his brothers, and says, "Behold, I have dreamed a dream again, and behold, the sun and the moon, and eleven stars, are bowing themselves to me."

¹⁰ And he recounts to his father, and to his brothers; and his father pushes against him, and says to him, "What [is] this dream which you have dreamed? Do we certainly come, I, and your mother, and your brothers—to bow ourselves to you, to the earth?"

¹¹ And his brothers are zealous against him, and his father has watched the matter.

¹² And his brothers go to feed the flock of their father in Shechem,

¹³ and Israel says to Joseph, "Are your brothers not feeding in Shechem? Come, and I send you to them"; and he says to him, "Here I [am]";

¹⁴ and he says to him, "Now go see the peace of your brothers, and the peace of the flock, and bring me back word"; and he sends him from the Valley of Hebron, and he comes to Shechem.

¹⁵ And a man finds him, and behold, he is wandering in the field, and the man asks him, saying, "What do you seek?"

¹⁶ And he says, "I am seeking my brothers, please declare to me where they are feeding."

¹⁸ And they see him from afar, even before he draws near to them, and they conspire against him to put him to death.

¹⁹ And they say to one another, "Behold, this man of the dreams comes;

²⁰ and now, come, and we slay him, and cast him into one of the pits, and have said, An evil beast has devoured him; and we see what his dreams are."

²¹ And Reuben hears, and delivers him out of their hand, and says, "Let us not strike the life";

²³ And it comes to pass, when Joseph has come to his brothers, that they strip Joseph of his coat, the long coat which [is] on him,

²⁴ and take him and cast him into the pit, and the pit [is] empty, there is no water in it.

²⁶ And Judah says to his brothers, "What gain when we slay our brother, and have concealed his blood?"

²⁷ Come, and we sell him to the Ishmaelites, and our hands are not on him, for he [is] our brother—our flesh"; and his brothers listen.

²⁸ And Midianite merchantmen pass by and they draw out and bring up Joseph out of the pit, and sell Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver, and they bring Joseph into Egypt.

²⁹ And Reuben returns to the pit, and behold, Joseph is not in the pit, and he tears his garments,

³⁰ and he returns to his brothers and says, "The boy is not, and I—to where am I going?"

³¹ And they take the coat of Joseph, and slaughter a kid of the goats, and dip the coat in the blood,

³² and send the long coat, and they bring [it] to their father, and say, "We have found this; please discern whether it [is] your son's coat or not."

³⁴ And Jacob tears his raiment, and puts sackcloth on his loins, and becomes a mourner for his son many days,

³⁵ and all his sons and all his daughters rise to comfort him, and he refuses to comfort himself, and says, "For I go down to my son mourning, to Sheol," and his father weeps for him.

³⁶ And the Midianites have sold him to Egypt, to Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, head of the executioners.

² and Judah sees there the daughter of a man, a Canaanite, whose name [is] Shuah, and takes her, and goes in to her.

³ And she conceives, and bears a son, and he calls his name Er;

⁴ and she conceives again, and bears a son, and calls his name Onan;

⁵ and she adds again, and bears a son, and calls his name Shelah; and he was in Chezib in her bearing him.

⁷ and Er, Judah's firstborn, is evil in the eyes of YHWH, and YHWH puts him to death.

⁸ And Judah says to Onan, "Go in to the wife of your brother, and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother";

⁹ and Onan knows that the seed is not [reckoned] his; and it has come to pass, if he has gone in to his brother's wife, that he has destroyed [it] to the earth, so as not to give seed to his brother;

¹⁰ and that which he has done is evil in the eyes of YHWH, and He puts him also to death.

¹¹ And Judah says to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Abide [as] a widow at your father's house, until my son Shelah grows up"; for he said, "Lest he die—even he—like his brothers"; and Tamar goes and dwells at her father's house.

¹³ And it is declared to Tamar, saying, "Behold, your husband's father is going up to Timnath to shear his flock";

¹⁵ And Judah sees her, and reckons her for a harlot, for she has covered her face,

¹⁶ and he turns aside to her by the way and says, "Please come, let me come in to you," for he has not known that she [is] his daughter-in-law; and she says, "What do you give to me, that you may come in to me?"

¹⁷ And he says, "I send a kid of the goats from the flock." And she says, "Do you give a pledge until you send [it]?"

¹⁸ And he says, "What [is] the pledge that I give to you?" And she says, "Your seal, and your ribbon, and your staff which [is] in your hand"; and he gives to her, and goes in to her, and she conceives to him;

¹⁹ and she rises, and goes, and turns aside her veil from off her, and puts on the garments of her widowhood.

²¹ And he asks the men of her place, saying, "Where [is] the separated one—she in Enayim, by the way?" And they say, "There has not been in this [place] a separated one."

²² And he turns back to Judah and says, "I have not found her; and the men of the place also have said, There has not been in this [place] a separated one."

²³ and Judah says, "Let her take to herself, lest we become despised; behold, I sent this kid, and you have not found her."

²⁴ And it comes to pass about three months [after], that it is declared to Judah, saying, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has committed fornication; and also, behold, she has conceived by fornication": and Judah says, "Bring her out—and she is burned."

²⁵ She is brought out, and she has sent to her husband's father, saying, "To a man whose these [are], I [am] pregnant"; and she says, "Please discern whose these [are]—the seal, and the ribbons, and the staff."

²⁶ And Judah discerns and says, "She has been more righteous than I, because that I did not give her to my son Shelah"; and he has not added to know her again.

²⁷ And it comes to pass in the time of her bearing, that behold, twins [are] in her womb;

²⁸ and it comes to pass in her bearing, that [one] gives out a hand, and the midwife takes and binds on his hand a scarlet thread, saying, "This has come out first."

²⁹ And it comes to pass as he draws back his hand, that behold, his brother has come out, and she says, "What! You have broken forth—the breach [is] on you"; and he calls his name Perez;

¹ And Joseph has been brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, head of the executioners, an Egyptian man, buys him out of the hands of the Ishmaelites who have brought him there.

² And YHWH is with Joseph, and he is a prosperous man, and he is in the house of his lord the Egyptian,

³ and his lord sees that YHWH is with him, and all that he is doing YHWH is causing to prosper in his hand,

⁴ and Joseph finds grace in his eyes and serves him, and he appoints him over his house, and all that he has he has given into his hand.

⁵ And it comes to pass from the time that he has appointed him over his house, and over all that he has, that YHWH blesses the house of the Egyptian for Joseph's sake, and the blessing of YHWH is on all that he has, in the house, and in the field;

⁶ and he leaves all that he has in the hand of Joseph, and he has not known anything that he has, except the bread which he is eating. And Joseph is of a handsome form, and of a handsome appearance.

⁷ And it comes to pass after these things, that his lord's wife lifts up her eyes to Joseph and says, "Lie with me";

⁸ and he refuses and says to his lord's wife, "Behold, my lord has not known what [is] with me in the house, and all that he has he has given into my hand;

⁹ none is greater in this house than I, and he has not withheld from me anything, except you, because you [are] his wife; and how will I do this great evil? Then I have sinned against God."

¹⁰ And it comes to pass at her speaking to Joseph day [by] day, that he has not listened to her; to lie near her; to be with her;

¹¹ and it comes to pass about this day, that he goes into the house to do his work, and there is none of the men of the house there in the house,

¹² and she catches him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me"; and he leaves his garment in her hand, and flees, and goes outside.

¹³ And it comes to pass, when she sees that he has left his garment in her hand, and flees outside,

¹⁴ that she calls for the men of her house, and speaks to them, saying, "See, he has brought a man to us, a Hebrew, to play with us; he has come in to me, to lie with me, and I call with a loud voice,

¹⁵ and it comes to pass, when he hears that I have lifted up my voice and call, that he leaves his garment near me, and flees, and goes outside."

¹⁶ And she places his garment near her, until the coming in of his lord to his house.

¹⁷ And she speaks to him according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant whom you have brought to us, has come in to me to play with me;

¹⁸ and it comes to pass, when I lift my voice and call, that he leaves his garment near me, and flees outside."

¹⁹ And it comes to pass, when his lord hears the words of his wife, which she has spoken to him, saying, "According to these things has your servant done to me," that his anger burns;

²¹ And YHWH is with Joseph, and stretches out kindness to him, and puts his grace in the eyes of the chief of the round-house;

²² and the chief of the round-house gives into the hand of Joseph all the prisoners who [are] in the round-house, and of all that they are doing there, he has been doer;

² and Pharaoh is angry against his two eunuchs, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers,

³ and puts them in confinement in the house of the chief of the executioners, into the round-house, the place where Joseph [is] a prisoner,

4 and the chief of the executioners charges Joseph with them, and he serves them; and they are in confinement [for some] days.

5 And they dream a dream both of them, each his dream in one night, each according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker whom the king of Egypt has, who [are] prisoners in the round-house.

6 And Joseph comes to them in the morning, and sees them, and behold, they [are] morose;

7 and he asks Pharaoh's eunuchs who [are] with him in confinement in the house of his lord, saying, "Why [are] your faces sad today?"

8 And they say to him, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it"; and Joseph says to them, "Are interpretations not with God? Please recount to me."

9 And the chief of the butlers recounts his dream to Joseph and says to him, "In my dream, then behold, a vine [is] before me!

10 And in the vine [are] three branches, and it [is] as it were flourishing; gone up has its blossom, its clusters have ripened grapes;

11 and Pharaoh's cup [is] in my hand, and I take the grapes and press them into the cup of Pharaoh, and I give the cup into the hand of Pharaoh."

12 And Joseph says to him, "This [is] its interpretation: the three branches are three days;

13 yet, within three days Pharaoh lifts up your head, and has put you back on your station, and you have given the cup of Pharaoh into his hand, according to the former custom when you were his butler.

14 Surely if you have remembered me with you, when it is well with you, and have please done kindness with me, and have made mention of me to Pharaoh, then you have brought me out from this house,

15 for I was really stolen from the land of the Hebrews; and here also I have done nothing that they have put me in the pit [for]."

16 And the chief of the bakers sees that he has interpreted good, and he says to Joseph, "I also [am] in a dream, and behold, three baskets of white bread [are] on my head,

17 and in the highest basket [are] of all [kinds] of Pharaoh's food, work of a baker; and the birds are eating them out of the basket, from off my head."

18 And Joseph answers and says, "This [is] its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;

19 yet, within three days Pharaoh lifts up your head from off you, and has hanged you on a tree, and the birds have eaten your flesh from off you."

20 And it comes to pass, on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he makes a banquet to all his servants, and lifts up the head of the chief of the butlers, and the head of the chief of the bakers among his servants,

21 and he puts back the chief of the butlers to his butlership, and he gives the cup into the hand of Pharaoh;

22 and the chief of the bakers he has hanged, as Joseph has interpreted to them;

23 and the chief of the butlers has not remembered Joseph, but forgets him.

¹ And it comes to pass, at the end of two years of days that Pharaoh is dreaming, and behold, he is standing by the River;

² and behold, from the River coming up are seven cows, of beautiful appearance, and fat [in] flesh, and they feed among the reeds;

⁴ and the cows of bad appearance and lean [in] flesh eat up the seven cows of beautiful appearance, and fat—and Pharaoh awakens.

⁵ And he sleeps, and dreams a second time, and behold, seven ears are coming up on one stalk, fat and good,

⁶ and behold, seven ears, thin, and blasted with an east wind, are springing up after them;

⁷ and the thin ears swallow the seven fat and full ears—and Pharaoh awakens, and behold, a dream.

⁸ And it comes to pass in the morning, that his spirit is moved, and he sends and calls all the enchanters of Egypt, and all its wise men, and Pharaoh recounts to them his dream, and there is no interpreter of them to Pharaoh.

⁹ And the chief of the butlers speaks with Pharaoh, saying, “I mention my sin this day:

¹¹ and we dream a dream in one night, I and he, each according to the interpretation of his dream we have dreamed.

¹² And there [is] with us a youth, a Hebrew, servant to the chief of the executioners, and we recount to him, and he interprets to us our dreams, [to] each according to his dream has he interpreted,

¹³ and it comes to pass, as he has interpreted to us so it has been, me he put back on my station, and him he hanged.”

¹⁴ And Pharaoh sends and calls Joseph, and they cause him to run out of the pit, and he shaves, and changes his garments, and comes to Pharaoh.

¹⁵ And Pharaoh says to Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it, and I have heard concerning you, saying, You understand a dream to interpret it,”

¹⁶ and Joseph answers Pharaoh, saying, “Without me—God answers Pharaoh with peace.”

¹⁷ And Pharaoh speaks to Joseph: “In my dream, behold, I am standing by the edge of the River;

¹⁸ and behold, out of the River coming up are seven cows, fat [in] flesh, and of beautiful form, and they feed among the reeds;

²⁰ And the lean and the bad cows eat up the first seven fat cows,

²¹ and they come in to their midst, and it has not been known that they have come in to their midst, and their appearance [is] bad as at the commencement; and I awake.

²² And I see in my dream, and behold, seven ears are coming up on one stalk, full and good;

²³ and behold, seven ears, withered, thin, blasted with an east wind, are springing up after them;

²⁴ and the thin ears swallow the seven good ears; and I tell [it] to the enchanters, and there is none declaring [it] to me.”

²⁶ the seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years, the dream is one;

²⁷ and the seven thin and bad cows which are coming up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears, blasted with an east wind, are seven years of famine;

²⁸ this [is] the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what He is doing.

²⁹ Behold, seven years are coming of great abundance in all the land of Egypt,

³⁰ and seven years of famine have arisen after them, and all the plenty is forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine has finished the land,

³¹ and the plenty is not known in the land because of that famine afterward, for it [is] very grievous.

³² And because of the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, surely the thing is established by God, and God is hurrying to do it.

³³ And now, let Pharaoh provide a man, intelligent and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt;

³⁴ let Pharaoh make and appoint overseers over the land, and receive a fifth of the land of Egypt in the seven years of plenty,

³⁵ and they gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and heap up grain under the hand of Pharaoh—food in the cities; and they have kept [it],

³⁶ and the food has been for a store for the land, for the seven years of famine which are in the land of Egypt; and the land is cut off by the famine.”

³⁷ And the thing is good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants,

³⁸ and Pharaoh says to his servants, “Do we find like this, a man in whom the Spirit of God [is]?”

³⁹ And Pharaoh says to Joseph, “After God’s causing you to know all this, there is none intelligent and wise as you;

⁴¹ And Pharaoh says to Joseph, “See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt.”

⁴² And Pharaoh turns aside his seal-ring from off his hand, and puts it on the hand of Joseph, and clothes him [with] garments of fine linen, and places a chain of gold on his neck,

⁴³ and causes him to ride in the second chariot which he has, and they proclaim before him, “Bow the knee!” And [he] set him over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁷ and the land makes in the seven years of plenty by handfuls.

⁴⁸ And he gathers all the food of the seven years which have been in the land of Egypt, and puts food in the cities; the food of the field which [is] around [each] city has he put in its midst;

⁵⁰ And to Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine comes, whom Asenath daughter of Poti-Pherah, priest of On, has borne to him,

⁵¹ and Joseph calls the name of the firstborn Manasseh: “For God has made me to forget all my labor, and all the house of my father”;

⁵² and the name of the second he has called Ephraim: “For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

⁵³ And the seven years of plenty are completed which have been in the land of Egypt,

⁵⁴ and the seven years of famine begin to come, as Joseph said, and famine is in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt has been bread;

⁵⁵ and all the land of Egypt is famished, and the people cry to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh says to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; that which he says to you—do.”

⁵⁶ And the famine has been over all the face of the land, and Joseph opens all [places] which have [grain] in them, and sells to the Egyptians; and the famine is severe in the land of Egypt,

⁵⁷ and all the earth has come to Egypt, to buy, to Joseph, for the famine was severe in all the earth.

¹ And Jacob sees that there is grain in Egypt, and Jacob says to his sons, “Why do you look at each other?”

² He also says, “Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt, go down there, and buy for us from there, and we live and do not die”;

³ and the ten brothers of Joseph go down to buy grain in Egypt,

⁴ and Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, Jacob has not sent with his brothers, for he said, “Lest harm meet him.”

⁵ And the sons of Israel come to buy in the midst of those coming, for the famine has been in the land of Canaan,

⁶ and Joseph is the ruler over the land, he who is selling to all the people of the land, and Joseph’s brothers come and bow themselves to him—face to the earth.

⁷ And Joseph sees his brothers, and discerns them, and makes himself strange to them, and speaks sharp things with them, and says to them, “From where have you come?” And they say, “From the land of Canaan—to buy food.”

⁸ And Joseph discerns his brothers, but they have not discerned him,
⁹ and Joseph remembers the dreams which he dreamed of them and says to them, "You [are] spies; you have come to see the nakedness of the land."

¹⁰ And they say to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food;

¹¹ we [are] all of us sons of one man, we [are] right men; your servants have not been spies";

¹² and he says to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land";

¹³ and they say, "Your servants [are] twelve brothers; we [are] sons of one man in the land of Canaan, and behold, the young one [is] with our father today, and one is not."

¹⁴ And Joseph says to them, "This [is] that which I have spoken to you, saying, You [are] spies,

¹⁵ by this you are proved: [as] Pharaoh lives, if you go out from this—except by your young brother coming here;

¹⁶ send one of you, and let him bring your brother, and you, remain bound, and let your words be proved, whether truth be with you: and if not, [as] Pharaoh lives, surely you [are] spies";

¹⁷ and he gathers them into confinement [for] three days.

¹⁸ And Joseph says to them on the third day, "Do this and live; I fear God!

¹⁹ If you [are] right men, let one of your brothers be bound in the house of your confinement, and you, go, carry in grain [for] the famine of your houses,

²⁰ and you bring your young brother to me, and your words are established, and you do not die"; and they do so.

²¹ And they say to one another, "Truly we [are] guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul, in his making supplication to us, and we did not listen: therefore this distress has come on us."

²² And Reuben answers them, saying, "Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not sin against the boy? And you did not listen; and his blood also, behold, it is required."

²³ And they have not known that Joseph understands, for the interpreter [is] between them;

²⁴ and he turns around from them, and weeps, and turns back to them, and speaks to them, and takes Simeon from them, and binds him before their eyes.

²⁶ And they lift up their grain on their donkeys, and go from there,

²⁷ and the one opens his sack to give provender to his donkey at a lodging-place, and he sees his money, and behold, it [is] in the mouth of his bag,

²⁸ and he says to his brothers, "My money has been put back, and also, behold, in my bag": and their heart goes out, and they tremble, to one another saying, "What [is] this God has done to us!"

²⁹ And they come to their father Jacob, to the land of Canaan, and they declare to him all the things meeting them, saying,

³⁰ “The man, the lord of the land, has spoken with us sharp things, and makes us as spies of the land;

³¹ and we say to him, We [are] right men, we have not been spies,

³² we [are] twelve brothers, sons of our father, one is not, and the young one [is] today with our father in the land of Canaan.

³⁴ and bring your young brother to me, and I know that you [are] not spies, but you [are] right men; I give your brother to you, and you trade with the land.”

³⁶ and their father Jacob says to them, “You have bereaved me; Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and Benjamin you take—all these [things] have been against me.”

³⁷ And Reuben speaks to his father, saying, “You put to death my two sons, if I do not bring him to you; give him into my hand, and I bring him back to you”;

³⁸ and he says, “My son does not go down with you, for his brother [is] dead, and he by himself is left; when harm has met him in the way in which you go, then you have brought down my grey hairs in sorrow to Sheol.”

¹ And the famine [is] severe in the land;

² and it comes to pass, when they have finished eating the grain which they brought from Egypt, that their father says to them, “Return, buy for us a little food.”

³ And Judah speaks to him, saying, “The man protesting protested to us, saying, You do not see my face without your brother [being] with you;

⁴ if you are sending our brother with us, we go down, and buy for you food,

⁵ and if you are not sending—we do not go down, for the man said to us, You do not see my face without your brother [being] with you.”

⁶ And Israel says, “Why did you do evil to me, by declaring to the man that you had yet a brother?”

⁷ And they say, “The man asked diligently concerning us, and concerning our family, saying, Is your father yet alive? Have you a brother? And we declare to him according to the tenor of these things; do we certainly know that he will say, Bring down your brother?”

⁸ And Judah says to his father Israel, “Send the youth with me, and we arise, and go, and live, and do not die, both we, and you, and our infants.

⁹ I am guarantor [for] him, from my hand you require him; if I have not brought him to you, and set him before you—then I have sinned against you all the days;

¹⁰ for if we had not lingered, surely now we had returned these two times.”

¹¹ And their father Israel says to them, “If so, now, do this: take of the praised thing of the land in your vessels, and take down to the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds;

¹² and double money take in your hand, even the money which is brought back in the mouth of your bags, you take back in your hand, it may be it [is] an oversight.

¹³ And take your brother, and rise, return to the man;

¹⁴ and God Almighty give to you mercies before the man, so that he has sent to you your other brother and Benjamin; and I, when I am bereaved—I am bereaved.”

¹⁶ and Joseph sees Benjamin with them and says to him who [is] over his house, “Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal, and make ready, for the men eat with me at noon.”

¹⁷ And the man does as Joseph has said, and the man brings in the men into the house of Joseph,

¹⁸ and the men are afraid because they have been brought into the house of Joseph, and they say, “For the matter of the money which was put back in our bags at the commencement are we brought in—to roll himself on us, and to throw himself on us, and to take us for servants—our donkeys also.”

²⁰ and say, “O my lord, we really come down at the commencement to buy food;

²¹ and it comes to pass, when we have come to the lodging-place, and open our bags, that behold, each one’s money [is] in the mouth of his bag, our money in its weight, and we bring it back in our hand;

²² and other money have we brought down in our hand to buy food; we have not known who put our money in our bags.”

²³ And he says, “Peace to you, do not fear: your God and the God of your father has given to you hidden treasure in your bags, your money came to me”; and he brings out Simeon to them.

²⁴ And the man brings in the men into Joseph’s house, and gives water, and they wash their feet; and he gives provender for their donkeys,

²⁵ and they prepare the present until the coming of Joseph at noon, for they have heard that there they eat bread.

²⁶ And Joseph comes into the house, and they bring to him the present which [is] in their hand, into the house, and bow themselves to him, to the earth;

²⁷ and he asks of them of peace and says, “Is your father well? The aged man of whom you have spoken, is he yet alive?”

²⁸ And they say, “Your servant our father [is] well, he is yet alive”; and they bow, and pay respect.

²⁹ And he lifts up his eyes and sees his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and says, “Is this your young brother, of whom you have spoken to me?” And he says, “God favor you, my son.”

³⁰ And Joseph hurries, for his bowels have been moved for his brother, and he seeks to weep, and enters the inner chamber, and weeps there;

³¹ and he washes his face, and goes out, and refrains himself, and says, "Place bread."

³⁴ and he lifts up gifts from before him to them, and the gift of Benjamin is five hands more than the gifts of all of them; and they drink, indeed, they drink abundantly with him.

¹ And he commands him who [is] over his house, saying, "Fill the bags of the men [with] food, as they are able to carry, and put the money of each in the mouth of his bag;

² and my cup, the silver cup, you put in the mouth of the bag of the young one, and his grain-money"; and he does according to the word of Joseph which he has spoken.

³ The morning is bright, and the men have been sent away, they and their donkeys—

⁴ they have gone out of the city—they have not gone far off—and Joseph has said to him who [is] over his house, "Rise, pursue after the men; and you have overtaken them, and you have said to them: Why have you repaid evil for good?"

⁵ Is this not that with which my lord drinks? And he observes diligently with it; you have done evil [in] that which you have done."

⁶ And he overtakes them, and speaks to them these words,

⁷ and they say to him, "Why does my lord speak according to these words? Far be it from your servants to do according to this word;

⁸ behold, the money which we found in the mouth of our bags we brought back to you from the land of Canaan, and how do we steal from the house of your lord silver or gold?"

⁹ With whomsoever of your servants it is found, he has died, and we also are to my lord for servants."

¹⁰ And he says, "Now also, according to your words, so it [is]; he with whom it is found becomes my servant, and you are acquitted";

¹¹ and they hurry and take down each his bag to the earth, and each opens his bag;

¹² and he searches—at the eldest he has begun, and at the youngest he has completed—and the cup is found in the bag of Benjamin;

¹³ and they tear their garments, and each loads his donkey, and they return to the city.

¹⁴ And Judah and his brothers come to the house of Joseph, and he is yet there, and they fall to the earth before him;

¹⁵ and Joseph says to them, "What [is] this deed that you have done? Have you not known that a man like me diligently observes?"

¹⁶ And Judah says, "What do we say to my lord? What do we speak? And how do we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we [are] servants to my lord, both we, and he in whose hand the cup has been found”;

¹⁷ and he says, “Far be it from me to do this; the man in whose hand the cup has been found, he becomes my servant; and you, go up in peace to your father.”

¹⁸ And Judah comes near to him and says, “O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in the ears of my lord, and do not let your anger burn against your servant—for you are as Pharaoh.

¹⁹ My lord has asked his servants, saying, Do you have a father or brother?

²⁰ And we say to my lord, We have a father, an aged one, and a child of old age, a little one; and his brother died, and he is left alone of his mother, and his father has loved him.

²¹ And you say to your servants, Bring him down to me, and I set my eye on him;

²² and we say to my lord, The youth is not able to leave his father, when he has left his father, then he has died;

²³ and you say to your servants, If your young brother does not come down with you, you do not add to see my face.

²⁴ And it comes to pass, that we have come up to your servant my father, that we declare to him the words of my lord;

²⁵ and our father says, Return, buy for us a little food,

²⁶ and we say, We are not able to go down; if our young brother is with us, then we have gone down; for we are not able to see the man’s face, and our young brother not with us.

²⁷ And your servant my father says to us, You have known that my wife bore two to me,

²⁸ and one goes out from me, and I say, Surely he is torn—torn! And I have not seen him since;

²⁹ when you have taken also this from my presence, and harm has met him, then you have brought down my grey hairs with evil to Sheol.

³⁰ And now, at my coming to your servant my father, and the youth not with us (and his soul is bound up in his soul),

³¹ then it has come to pass, when he sees that the youth is not, that he has died, and your servants have brought down the grey hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol;

³² for your servant obtained the youth by guarantee to my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you—then I have sinned against my father all the days.

³³ And now, please let your servant abide instead of the youth [as] a servant to my lord, and the youth goes up with his brothers,

³⁴ for how do I go up to my father, and the youth not with me? Lest I look on the evil which finds my father.”

¹ And Joseph has not been able to refrain himself before all those standing by him, and he calls, “Put out every man from me”; and no man has stood with him when Joseph makes himself known to his brothers,

² and he gives forth his voice in weeping, and the Egyptians hear, and the house of Pharaoh hears.

³ And Joseph says to his brothers, "I [am] Joseph, is my father yet alive?" And his brothers have not been able to answer him, for they have been troubled at his presence.

⁴ And Joseph says to his brothers, "Please come near to me," and they come near; and he says, "I [am] your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt;

⁵ and now, do not be grieved, nor let it be displeasing in your eyes that you sold me here, for God has sent me before you to preserve life.

⁶ Because these two years the famine [is] in the heart of the land, and yet five years [remain in] which there is neither plowing nor harvest;

⁷ and God sends me before you, to place a remnant of you in the land, and to give life to you by a great escape;

⁸ and now, you have not sent me here, but God, and He sets me for a father to Pharaoh, and for lord to all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

⁹ Hurry, and go up to my father, then you have said to him, Thus said your son Joseph: God has set me for lord to all Egypt; come down to me, do not stay,

¹⁰ and you have dwelt in the land of Goshen, and been near to me, you and your sons, and your son's sons, and your flock, and your herd, and all that you have,

¹¹ and I have nourished you there—for yet [are] five years of famine—lest you become poor, you and your household, and all that you have.

¹² And behold, your eyes are seeing, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that [it is] my mouth which is speaking to you;

¹³ and you have declared to my father all my glory in Egypt, and all that you have seen, and you have hurried, and have brought down my father here."

¹⁴ And he falls on the neck of his brother Benjamin, and weeps, and Benjamin has wept on his neck;

¹⁵ and he kisses all his brothers, and weeps over them; and afterward his brothers have spoken with him.

¹⁶ And the sound has been heard in the house of Pharaoh, saying, "The brothers of Joseph have come"; and it is good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants,

¹⁷ and Pharaoh says to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, This you do: load your beasts, and go, enter the land of Canaan,

¹⁸ and take your father, and your households, and come to me, and I give to you the good of the land of Egypt, and you eat the fat of the land.

¹⁹ Indeed, you have been commanded: this you do, take for yourselves out of the land of Egypt, wagons for your infants, and for your wives, and you have brought your father, and come;

²⁰ and your eye has no pity on your vessels, for the good of all the land of Egypt [is] yours."

²¹ And the sons of Israel do so, and Joseph gives wagons to them by the command of Pharaoh, and he gives to them provision for the way;

²² to all of them has he given—to each changes of garments, and to Benjamin he has given three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of garments;

²⁵ And they go up out of Egypt, and come to the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob,

²⁶ and they declare to him, saying, "Joseph [is] yet alive," and that he [is] ruler over all the land of Egypt; and his heart ceases, for he has not given credence to them.

²⁷ And they speak to him all the words of Joseph, which he has spoken to them, and he sees the wagons which Joseph has sent to carry him away, and the spirit of their father Jacob lives;

²⁸ and Israel says, "Enough! My son Joseph [is] yet alive; I go and see him before I die."

¹ And Israel journeys, and all that he has, and comes to Beer-Sheba, and sacrifices sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac;

² and God speaks to Israel in visions of the night and says, "Jacob, Jacob"; and he says, "Here I [am]."

³ And He says, "I [am] God, God of your father, do not be afraid of going down to Egypt, for I set you there for a great nation;

⁴ I go down with you to Egypt, and I also certainly bring you up, and Joseph puts his hand on your eyes."

⁵ And Jacob rises from Beer-Sheba, and the sons of Israel carry away their father Jacob, and their infants, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh has sent to carry him,

⁶ and they take their livestock, and their goods which they have acquired in the land of Canaan, and come into Egypt—Jacob, and all his seed with him,

⁷ his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, indeed, all his seed he brought with him into Egypt.

⁸ And these [are] the names of the sons of Israel who are coming into Egypt: Jacob and his sons, Jacob's firstborn, Reuben.

⁹ And sons of Reuben: Enoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

¹¹ And sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹² And sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Perez, and Zerah (and Er and Onan die in the land of Canaan). And sons of Perez are Hezron and Hamul.

¹⁴ And sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

¹⁶ And sons of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

¹⁷ And sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and their sister Serah. And sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

¹⁸ These [are] sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah, and she bears these to Jacob—sixteen persons.

¹⁹ Sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁰ And born to Joseph in the land of Egypt (whom Asenath daughter of Poti-Pherah, priest of On, has borne to him) [are] Manasseh and Ephraim.

²² These [are] sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; all the persons [are] fourteen.

²³ And sons of Dan: Hushim.

²⁴ And sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.

²⁵ These [are] sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel; and she bears these to Jacob—all the persons [are] seven.

²⁶ All the persons who are coming to Jacob to Egypt, coming out of his thigh, apart from the wives of Jacob's sons, all the persons [are] sixty-six.

²⁷ And the sons of Joseph who have been born to him in Egypt [are] two persons. All the persons of the house of Jacob who are coming into Egypt [are] seventy.

²⁹ and Joseph harnesses his chariot, and goes up to meet his father Israel, to Goshen, and appears to him, and falls on his neck, and weeps on his neck again;

³⁰ and Israel says to Joseph, "Let me die this time, after my seeing your face, for you [are] yet alive."

³¹ And Joseph says to his brothers, and to the house of his father, "I go up, and declare to Pharaoh, and say to him, My brothers, and the house of my father who [are] in the land of Canaan have come to me;

³² and the men [are] feeders of a flock, for they have been men of livestock; and their flock, and their herd, and all that they have, they have brought.

³³ And it has come to pass, when Pharaoh calls for you and has said, What [are] your works?

³⁴ That you have said, Your servants have been men of livestock from our youth, even until now, both we and our fathers, in order that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, for the abomination of the Egyptians is everyone feeding a flock."

¹ And Joseph comes and declares [it] to Pharaoh, and says, "My father, and my brothers, and their flock, and their herd, and all they have, have come from the land of Canaan, and behold, they [are] in the land of Goshen."

² And out of his brothers he has taken five men, and sets them before Pharaoh;

⁴ and they say to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for the flock which your servants have, for the famine in the land of Canaan [is] grievous; and now, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

⁵ And Pharaoh speaks to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you:

⁶ the land of Egypt is before you; cause your father and your brothers to dwell in the best of the land—they dwell in the land of Goshen, and if you have known, and there are among them men of ability, then you have set them [as] heads over the livestock I have."

⁷ And Joseph brings in his father Jacob, and causes him to stand before Pharaoh; and Jacob blesses Pharaoh.

⁸ And Pharaoh says to Jacob, "How many [are] the days of the years of your life?"

⁹ And Jacob says to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojournings [are] one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their sojournings."

¹⁰ And Jacob blesses Pharaoh, and goes out from before Pharaoh.

¹² and Joseph nourishes his father, and his brothers, and all the house of his father [with] bread, according to the mouth of the infants.

¹³ And there is no bread in all the land, for the famine [is] very grievous, and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan are feeble because of the famine;

¹⁴ and Joseph gathers all the silver that is found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain that they are buying, and Joseph brings the silver into the house of Pharaoh.

¹⁵ And the silver is consumed out of the land of Egypt and out of the land of Canaan, and all the Egyptians come to Joseph, saying, "Give bread to us—why do we die before you, though the money has ceased?"

¹⁶ And Joseph says, "Give your livestock; and I give to you for your livestock, if the money has ceased."

¹⁸ And that year is finished, and they come to him on the second year, and say to him, "We do not hide from my lord, that since the money has been finished, and possession of the livestock [is] to my lord, there has not been left before my lord except our bodies, and our ground;

¹⁹ why do we die before your eyes, both we and our ground? Buy us and our ground for bread, and we and our ground are servants to Pharaoh; and give seed, and we live, and do not die, and the ground is not desolate."

²¹ as for the people, he has removed them to cities from the [one] end of the border of Egypt even to its [other] end.

²² Only the ground of the priests he has not bought, for the priests have a portion from Pharaoh, and they have eaten their portion which Pharaoh has given to them, therefore they have not sold their ground.

²³ And Joseph says to the people, "Behold, I have bought you today and your ground for Pharaoh; behold, seed for you, and you have sown the ground,

²⁴ and it has come to pass in the increases, that you have given a fifth to Pharaoh, and four of the parts are for yourselves, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for those who [are] in your houses, and for food for your infants."

²⁵ And they say, "You have revived us; we find grace in the eyes of my lord, and have been servants to Pharaoh";

²⁶ and Joseph sets it for a statute to this day, concerning the ground of Egypt, [that] Pharaoh has a fifth; only the ground of the priests alone has not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷ And Israel dwells in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they have possession in it, and are fruitful, and multiply exceedingly;

²⁸ and Jacob lives in the land of Egypt seventeen years, and the days of Jacob, the years of his life, are one hundred and forty-seven years.

²⁹ And the days of Israel are near to die, and he calls for his son, for Joseph, and says to him, "Now if I have found grace in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh, and you have done kindness and truth with me; please do not bury me in Egypt, ³⁰ and I have lain with my fathers, and you have carried me out of Egypt, and buried me in their burying-place." And he says, "I do according to your word";

¹ And it comes to pass, after these things, that [one] says to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick"; and he takes his two sons with him, Manasseh and Ephraim.

² And [one] declares [it] to Jacob and says, "Behold, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel strengthens himself, and sits on the bed.

³ And Jacob says to Joseph, "God Almighty has appeared to me, in Luz, in the land of Canaan, and blesses me,

⁴ and says to me, Behold, I am making you fruitful, and have multiplied you, and given you for an assembly of peoples, and given this land to your seed after you, a continuous possession.

⁵ And now, your two sons, who are born to you in the land of Egypt, before my coming to you to Egypt, they [are] mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, as Reuben and Simeon, they are mine;

⁶ and your family which you have begotten after them are yours; by the name of their brothers they are called in their inheritance.

⁷ And I—in my coming in from Padan-[Aram] Rachel has died by me in the land of Canaan, in the way, while yet a distance of land to enter Ephrata, and I bury her there in the way of Ephrata, which [is] Beth-Lehem."

⁸ And Israel sees the sons of Joseph and says, "Who [are] these?"

⁹ And Joseph says to his father, “They [are] my sons, whom God has given to me in this [place]”; and he says, “Please bring them to me, and I bless them.”

¹⁰ And the eyes of Israel have been heavy from age—he is unable to see; and he brings them near to him, and he kisses them and cleaves to them;

¹¹ and Israel says to Joseph, “I had not thought [possible] to see your face, and behold, God has also showed me your seed.”

¹² And Joseph brings them out from between his knees, and bows himself on his face to the earth;

¹⁵ And he blesses Joseph and says, “God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac habitually walked: God who is feeding me from my being to this day:

¹⁸ and Joseph says to his father, “Not so, my father, for this [is] the firstborn; set your right hand on his head.”

¹⁹ And his father refuses and says, “I have known, my son, I have known; he also becomes a people, and he also is great, and yet, his young brother is greater than he, and his seed is the fullness of the nations”;

²⁰ and he blesses them in that day, saying, “By you does Israel bless, saying, God set you as Ephraim and as Manasseh”; and he sets Ephraim before Manasseh.

²¹ And Israel says to Joseph, “Behold, I am dying, and God has been with you, and has brought you back to the land of your fathers;

²² and I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I have taken out of the hand of the Amorite by my sword and by my bow.”

¹ And Jacob calls to his sons and says, “Be gathered together, and I declare to you that which happens with you in the latter end of the days.

² Be assembled, and hear, sons of Jacob, || And listen to your father Israel.

⁴ Unstable as water, you are not abundant; For you have gone up your father’s bed; Then you have defiled [it]: He went up my couch!

⁵ Simeon and Levi [are] brothers! Instruments of violence—their espousals!

⁶ Into their secret, do not come, O my soul! Do not be united to their assembly, O my glory; For in their anger they slew a man, || And in their self-will eradicated a prince.

⁷ Cursed [is] their anger, for [it is] fierce, || And their wrath, for [it is] sharp; I divide them in Jacob, || And I scatter them in Israel.

⁸ Judah! Your brothers praise you! Your hand [is] on the neck of your enemies, || Sons of your father bow themselves to you.

⁹ A lion's whelp [is] Judah, || For prey, my son, you have gone up; He has bent, he has crouched as a lion, || And as a lioness; who causes him to arise?

¹⁰ The scepter does not turn aside from Judah, || And a lawgiver from between his feet, || Until his Seed comes; And His [is] the obedience of peoples.

¹¹ Binding to the vine his donkey, || And to the choice vine the colt of his donkey, || He has washed in wine his clothing, || And in the blood of grapes his covering;

¹² Red [are] eyes with wine, || And white [are] teeth with milk!

¹³ Zebulun dwells at a haven of the seas, || And he [is] for a haven of ships; And his side [is] to Sidon.

¹⁴ Issachar [is] a strong donkey, || Crouching between the two folds;

¹⁵ And he sees rest, that [it is] good, || And the land, that [it is] pleasant, || And he inclines his shoulder to bear, || And is a servant for tribute.

¹⁶ Dan judges his people, || As one of the tribes of Israel;

¹⁷ Dan is a serpent by the way, a viper by the path, || Which is biting the horse's heels, || And its rider falls backward.

¹⁸ For Your salvation I have waited, YHWH!

¹⁹ Gad! A troop assaults him, || But he assaults last.

²⁰ Out of Asher his bread [is] fat; And he gives delicacies of a king.

²¹ Naphtali [is] a doe sent away, || Who is giving beautiful young ones.

²² Joseph [is] a fruitful son; A fruitful son by a fountain, || Daughters step over the wall;

²³ And embitter him indeed, they have striven, || Indeed, archers hate him;

²⁴ And his bow abides in strength, || And strengthened are the arms of his hands || By the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, || From where is a shepherd, a son of Israel.

²⁷ Benjamin! A wolf tears; In the morning he eats prey, || And at evening he apportioned spoil."

²⁸ All these [are] the twelve tribes of Israel, and this [is] that which their father has spoken to them, and he blesses them; each according to his blessing he has blessed them.

²⁹ And he commands them and says to them, "I am being gathered to my people; bury me by my fathers, at the cave which [is] in the field of

Ephron the Hittite;

³⁰ in the cave which [is] in the field of Machpelah, which [is] on the front of Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a burying-place;

³¹ (there they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah; there they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah; and there I buried Leah);

³² the purchase of the field and of the cave which [is] in it, [is] from sons of Heth.”

³³ And Jacob finishes commanding his sons, and gathers up his feet to the bed, and expires, and is gathered to his people.

¹ And Joseph falls on his father’s face, and weeps over him, and kisses him;

² and Joseph commands his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father, and the physicians embalm Israel;

³ and they fulfill for him forty days, for so they fulfill the days of the embalmed, and the Egyptians weep for him seventy days.

⁴ And the days of his weeping pass away, and Joseph speaks to the house of Pharaoh, saying, “Now if I have found grace in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

⁵ My father caused me to swear, saying, Behold, I am dying; in my burying-place which I have prepared for myself in the land of Canaan, there you bury me; and now, please let me go up and bury my father, then I return”;

⁶ and Pharaoh says, “Go up and bury your father, as he caused you to swear.”

⁹ and there go up with him both chariot and horsemen, and the camp is very great.

¹² And his sons do to him so as he commanded them,

¹⁴ And Joseph turns back to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all who are going up with him to bury his father, after his burying his father.

¹⁵ And the brothers of Joseph see that their father is dead, and say, "Perhaps Joseph hates us, and certainly returns to us all the evil which we did with him."

¹⁶ And they give a charge for Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before his death, saying,

¹⁸ And his brothers also go and fall before him, and say, "Behold, we [are] to you for servants."

¹⁹ And Joseph says to them, "Do not fear, for [am] I in the place of God?

²⁰ As for you, you devised evil against me, [but] God devised it for good, in order to do as [at] this day, to keep alive a numerous people;

²¹ and now, do not fear: I nourish you and your infants"; and he comforts them, and speaks to their heart.

²² And Joseph dwells in Egypt, he and the house of his father, and Joseph lives one hundred and ten years,

²³ and Joseph looks on Ephraim's sons of a third [generation]; sons also of Machir, son of Manasseh, have been born on the knees of Joseph.

²⁴ And Joseph says to his brothers, "I am dying, and God certainly inspects you, and has caused you to go up from this land, to the land which He has sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

²⁵ And Joseph causes the sons of Israel to swear, saying, "God certainly inspects you, and you have brought up my bones from this [place]."

²⁶ And Joseph dies, a son of one hundred and ten years, and they embalm him, and he is put into a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

¹ And these [are] the names of the sons of Israel who are coming into Egypt; each man and his household have come with Jacob:

² Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

³ Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

⁴ Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

⁵ And all the persons coming out of the thigh of Jacob are seventy persons; as for Joseph, he was in Egypt.

⁶ And Joseph dies, and all his brothers, and all that generation;

⁷ and the sons of Israel have been fruitful, and they teem, and multiply, and are very, very mighty, and the land is filled with them.

⁸ And there rises a new king over Egypt, who has not known Joseph,

⁹ and he says to his people, "Behold, the people of the sons of Israel [are] more numerous and mighty than we.

¹⁰ Give help! Let us act wisely concerning it, lest it multiply, and it has come to pass, when war happens, that it has been joined, even it, to those hating us, and has fought against us, and has gone up out of the land."

¹¹ And they set princes of tribute over it, so as to afflict it with their burdens, and it builds the store-cities of Pithom and Rameses for Pharaoh;

¹² and as they afflict it, so it multiplies, and so it breaks forth, and they are distressed because of the sons of Israel;

¹³ and the Egyptians cause the sons of Israel to serve with rigor,

¹⁴ and make their lives bitter in hard service, in clay, and in brick, and in every [kind] of service in the field; all their service in which they have served [is] with rigor.

¹⁵ And the king of Egypt speaks to the midwives, the Hebrewesses (of whom the name of the first [is] Shiphrah, and the name of the second Puah),

¹⁶ and says, "When you cause the Hebrew women to bear, and have looked on the children, if it [is] a son, then you have put him to death; and if it [is] a daughter, then she has lived."

¹⁷ And the midwives fear God, and have not done as the king of Egypt has spoken to them, and they keep the boys alive;

¹⁸ and the king of Egypt calls for the midwives and says to them, "Why have you done this thing, and keep the boys alive?"

¹⁹ And the midwives say to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women [are] not as the Egyptian women, for they [are] lively; before the midwife comes to them—they have borne!"

²⁰ And God does good to the midwives, and the people multiply, and are very mighty;

²¹ and it comes to pass, because the midwives have feared God, that He makes households for them;

²² and Pharaoh lays a charge on all his people, saying, "Every son who is born—you cast him into the River, and every daughter you keep alive."

¹ And there goes a man of the house of Levi, and he takes the daughter of Levi,

² and the woman conceives, and bears a son, and she sees him, that he [is] beautiful, and she hides him [for] three months,

⁴ and his sister stations herself far off, to know what is done to him.

⁵ And a daughter of Pharaoh comes down to bathe at the River, and her girls are walking by the side of the River, and she sees the ark in the midst of the weeds, and sends her handmaid, and she takes it,

⁶ and opens, and sees him—the boy, and behold, a child weeping! And she has pity on him and says, “This is [one] of the Hebrews’ children.”

⁷ And his sister says to the daughter of Pharaoh, “Do I go? When I have called a suckling woman of the Hebrews for you, then she suckles the boy for you”;

⁸ and the daughter of Pharaoh says to her, “Go”; and the virgin goes, and calls the mother of the boy,

⁹ and the daughter of Pharaoh says to her, “Take this boy away, and suckle him for me, and I give your hire”; and the woman takes the boy, and suckles him.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, in those days, that Moses is grown, and he goes out to his brothers, and looks on their burdens, and sees a man, an Egyptian, striking a man, a Hebrew, [one] of his brothers,

¹³ And he goes out on the second day, and behold, two men, Hebrews, are striving, and he says to the wrongdoer, “Why do you strike your neighbor?”

¹⁴ And he says, “Who set you for a head and judge over us? Are you saying [it] to slay me as you have slain the Egyptian?” And Moses fears and says, “Surely the thing has been known.”

¹⁶ And to a priest of Midian [are] seven daughters, and they come and draw, and fill the troughs to water the flock of their father;

¹⁷ and the shepherds come and drive them away, and Moses arises, and saves them, and waters their flock.

¹⁸ And they come to their father Reuel, and he says, “Why have you hurried to come in today?”

¹⁹ And they say, “A man, an Egyptian, has delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and has also diligently drawn for us, and waters the flock”;

²⁰ and he says to his daughters, “And where [is] he? Why [is] this [that] you left the man? Call for him, and he eats bread.”

²² and she bears a son, and he calls his name Gershom, for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a strange land."

²³ And it comes to pass during these many days, that the king of Egypt dies, and the sons of Israel sigh because of the service, and cry, and their cry goes up to God, because of the service;

²⁴ and God hears their groaning, and God remembers His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob;

²⁵ and God sees the sons of Israel, and God knows.

¹ And Moses has been feeding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, priest of Midian, and he leads the flock behind the wilderness, and comes to the mountain of God, to Horeb;

² and the Messenger of YHWH appears to him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of the bush, and he sees, and behold, the bush is burning with fire, and the bush is not consumed.

³ And Moses says, "Now I turn aside and see this great appearance. Why is the bush not burned?"

⁴ And YHWH sees that he has turned aside to see, and God calls to him out of the midst of the bush and says, "Moses! Moses!" And he says, "Here I [am]."

⁵ And He says, "Do not come near here. Cast your shoes from off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground."

⁶ He also says, "I [am] the God of your father, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob"; and Moses hides his face, for he is afraid to look toward God.

⁷ And YHWH says, "I have certainly seen the affliction of My people who [are] in Egypt, and I have heard their cry because of its exactors, for I have known its pains;

⁸ and I go down to deliver it out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to cause it to go up out of the land to a land good and broad, to a land flowing with milk and honey—to the place of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

⁹ And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them,

¹⁰ and now, come, and I send you to Pharaoh; and bring out My people, the sons of Israel, from Egypt."

¹¹ And Moses says to God, "Who [am] I, that I go to Pharaoh, and that I bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt?"

¹² And He says, "Because I am with you, and this [is] the sign to you that I have sent you: in your bringing out the people from Egypt—you serve God on this mountain."

¹³ And Moses says to God, "Behold, I am coming to the sons of Israel, and have said to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they have said to me, What [is] His Name? What do I say to them?"

¹⁴ And God says to Moses, "I AM THAT WHICH I AM." He also says, "Thus you say to the sons of Israel: I AM has sent me to you."

¹⁵ And God says again to Moses, "Thus you say to the sons of Israel: YHWH, God of your fathers, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, has sent me to you; this [is] My Name for all time, and this [is] My memorial, to generation [and] generation.

¹⁶ Go, and you have gathered the elderly of Israel, and have said to them: YHWH, God of your fathers, has appeared to me, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I have certainly inspected you, and that which is done to you in Egypt;

¹⁷ and I say [that] I bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing [with] milk and honey.

¹⁸ And they have listened to your voice, and you have entered, you and [the] elderly of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you have said to him: YHWH, God of the Hebrews, has met with us; and now, please let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and we sacrifice to our God YHWH.

¹⁹ And I have known that the king of Egypt does not permit you to go, unless by a strong hand,

²⁰ and I have put forth My hand, and have struck Egypt with all My wonders, which I do in its midst—and afterward he sends you away.

²¹ And I have given the grace of this people in the eyes of the Egyptians, and it has come to pass, when you go, you do not go empty;

²² and [every] woman has asked from her neighbor, and from her who is sojourning in her house, [for] vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and you have put [them] on your sons and on your daughters, and have spoiled the Egyptians.”

¹ And Moses answers and says, “And if they do not give credence to me, nor listen to my voice, and say, YHWH has not appeared to you?”

² And YHWH says to him, “What [is] this in your hand?” And he says, “A rod”;

³ and He says, “Cast it to the earth”; and he casts it to the earth, and it becomes a serpent—and Moses flees from its presence.

⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “Put forth your hand, and lay hold on the tail of it”; and he puts forth his hand, and lays hold on it, and it becomes a rod in his hand—

⁵ “so that they believe that YHWH, God of their fathers, has appeared to you, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob.”

⁷ and He says, “Put your hand back into your bosom”; and he puts his hand back into his bosom, and he brings it out from his bosom, and behold, it has turned back as his flesh—

⁸ “and it has come to pass, if they do not give credence to you, and do not listen to the voice of the first sign, that they have given credence to the voice of the latter sign.

⁹ And it has come to pass, if they do not give credence even to these two signs, nor listen to your voice, that you have taken of the waters of the River, and have poured [it] on the dry land, and the waters which you take from the River have been, indeed, they have become blood on the dry land.”

10 And Moses says to YHWH, "O my Lord, I [am] not a man of words, either yesterday, or before, or since Your speaking to Your servant, for I [am] slow of mouth, and slow of tongue."

11 And YHWH says to him, "Who appointed a mouth for man? Or who appoints the mute, or deaf, or open, or blind? Is it not I, YHWH?"

12 And now, go, and I am with your mouth, and have directed you that which you speak";

13 and he says, "O my Lord, please send by the hand [of another that] You send."

14 And the anger of YHWH burns against Moses, and He says, "Is Aaron the Levite not your brother? I have known that he speaks well, and also, behold, he is coming out to meet you; when he has seen you, then he has rejoiced in his heart,

15 and you have spoken to him, and have set the words in his mouth, and I am with your mouth, and with his mouth, and have directed you that which you do;

16 and he, he has spoken to the people for you, and it has come to pass, he is to you for a mouth, and you are to him for God;

17 and you take this rod in your hand, with which you do the signs."

18 And Moses goes and turns back to his father-in-law Jethro, and says to him, "Please let me go, and I return to my brothers who [are] in Egypt, and I see whether they are yet alive." And Jethro says to Moses, "Go in peace."

19 And YHWH says to Moses in Midian, "Go, return to Egypt, for all the men who seek your life have died";

20 and Moses takes his wife, and his sons, and causes them to ride on the donkey, and turns back to the land of Egypt, and Moses takes the rod of God in his hand.

21 And YHWH says to Moses, "In your going to return to Egypt, see—all the wonders which I have put in your hand—that you have done them before Pharaoh, and I strengthen his heart, and he does not send the people away;

22 and you have said to Pharaoh, Thus said YHWH: My son, My firstborn [is] Israel,

23 and I say to you, send My son away, and he serves Me; and [if] you refuse to send him away, behold, I am slaying your son, your firstborn."

24 And it comes to pass in the way, in a lodging place, that YHWH meets him, and seeks to put him to death;

25 and Zipporah takes a flint, and cuts off the foreskin of her son, and causes [it] to touch his feet, and says, "You [are] surely a bridegroom of blood to me";

26 and He desists from him. Then she said, "A bridegroom of blood," in reference to the circumcision.

27 And YHWH says to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses"; and he goes, and meets him on the mountain of God, and kisses him,

28 and Moses declares to Aaron all the words of YHWH with which He has sent him, and all the signs with which He has charged him.

29 And Moses goes—Aaron also—and they gather all the elderly of the sons of Israel,

30 and Aaron speaks all the words which YHWH has spoken to Moses, and does the signs before the eyes of the people;

³¹ and the people believe when they hear that YHWH has looked after the sons of Israel, and that He has seen their affliction; and they bow and pay respect.

¹ And afterward Moses and Aaron have entered, and they say to Pharaoh, "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Send My people away, and they keep a celebration for Me in the wilderness";

² and Pharaoh says, "Who [is] YHWH, that I listen to His voice to send Israel away? I have not known YHWH, and I also do not send Israel away."

³ And they say, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us; please let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and we sacrifice to our God YHWH, lest He meet us with pestilence or with sword."

⁴ And the king of Egypt says to them, "Why, Moses and Aaron, do you free the people from its works? Go to your burdens."

⁵ Pharaoh also says, "Behold, the people of the land [are] numerous now, and you have caused them to cease from their burdens!"

⁶ And on that day Pharaoh commands the exactors among the people and its authorities, saying,

⁷ "You do not add to give straw to the people for the making of the bricks as before—they go and have gathered straw for themselves;

⁸ and you put on them the proper quantity of the bricks which they are making before, you do not diminish from it, for they are remiss, therefore they are crying, saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to our God;

⁹ let the service be heavy on the men, and let them work at it, and not be dazzled by lying words."

¹⁰ And the exactors of the people, and its authorities, go out, and speak to the people, saying, "Thus said Pharaoh: I do not give you straw,

¹¹ you—go, take straw for yourselves where you can find [it], for there is nothing diminished of your service."

¹² And the people are scattered over all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw,

¹³ and the exactors are making haste, saying, "Complete your works, the matter of a day in its day, as when there is straw."

¹⁴ And the authorities of the sons of Israel, whom the exactors of Pharaoh have placed over them, are beaten, saying, "Why have you not completed your portion in making brick as before, both yesterday and today?"

¹⁵ And the authorities of the sons of Israel come in and cry to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you do thus to your servants?"

¹⁶ Straw is not given to your servants, and they are saying to us, Make bricks, and behold, your servants are struck—and your people have sinned."

¹⁷ And he says, "Remiss—you are remiss, therefore you are saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to YHWH;

¹⁸ and now, go, serve; and straw is not given to you, and you give the [required] measure of bricks."

¹⁹ And the authorities of the sons of Israel see them in affliction, saying, "You do not diminish from your bricks; the matter of a day in its day."

²⁰ And they meet Moses and Aaron standing to meet them in their coming out from Pharaoh,

²² And Moses turns back to YHWH and says, “Lord, why have You done evil to this people? Why [is] this [that] You have sent me?”

²³ And since I have come to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has done evil to this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all.”

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, “Now you see that which I do to Pharaoh, for with a strong hand he sends them away, indeed, with a strong hand he casts them out of his land.”

² And God speaks to Moses and says to him, “I [am] YHWH,

³ and I appear to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty; as for My Name YHWH, I have not been known to them;

⁵ and I have also heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians are causing to serve, and I remember My covenant.

⁶ Therefore say to the sons of Israel: I [am] YHWH, and I have brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and have delivered you from their service, and have redeemed you by an outstretched arm, and by great judgments,

⁷ and have taken you to Myself for a people, and I have been to you for God, and you have known that I [am] your God YHWH, who is bringing you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians;

⁸ and I have brought you to the land which I have lifted up My hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and have given it to you—a possession; I [am] YHWH.”

⁹ And Moses speaks so to the sons of Israel, and they did not listen to Moses, for anguish of spirit, and for harsh service.

¹⁰ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹¹ “Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he sends the sons of Israel out of his land”;

¹² and Moses speaks before YHWH, saying, “Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me, and how does Pharaoh hear me, and I of uncircumcised lips?”

¹⁷ The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimi, as to their families.

¹⁹ And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; these [are] families of Levi, as to their births.

²¹ And sons of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

²² And sons of Uzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²⁴ And sons of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these [are] families of the Korahite.

²⁶ This [is] Aaron—and Moses—to whom YHWH said, "Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, by their hosts";

²⁷ these are they who are speaking to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt, this [is] Moses—and Aaron.

²⁸ And it comes to pass in the day of YHWH's speaking to Moses in the land of Egypt,

²⁹ that YHWH speaks to Moses, saying, "I [am] YHWH, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I am speaking to you."

³⁰ And Moses says before YHWH, "Behold, I [am] of uncircumcised lips, and how does Pharaoh listen to me?"

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, "See, I have given you [as] a god to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron is your prophet;

² you speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron speaks to Pharaoh, and he has sent the sons of Israel out of his land.

³ And I harden the heart of Pharaoh, and have multiplied My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt,

⁴ and Pharaoh does not listen, and I have put My hand on Egypt, and have brought out My hosts, My people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt by great judgments;

⁵ and the Egyptians have known that I [am] YHWH, in My stretching out My hand against Egypt; and I have brought out the sons of Israel from their midst."

⁷ and Moses [is] a son of eighty years, and Aaron [is] a son of eighty-three years, in their speaking to Pharaoh.

⁸ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

¹¹ And Pharaoh also calls for wise men and for sorcerers; and the enchanters of Egypt, they also, with their [enchanted] flames, do so,

¹² and they each cast down his rod, and they become dragons, and the rod of Aaron swallows their rods;

¹³ and the heart of Pharaoh is strong, and he has not listened to them, as YHWH has spoken.

¹⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “The heart of Pharaoh has been hard, he has refused to send the people away;

¹⁵ go to Pharaoh in the morning, behold, he is going out to the water, and you have stood to meet him by the edge of the River; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you take in your hand,

¹⁶ and you have said to him: YHWH, God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, Send My people away, and they serve Me in the wilderness; and behold, you have not listened until now.

¹⁷ Thus said YHWH: By this you know that I [am] YHWH; behold, I am striking with the rod which [is] in my hand, on the waters which [are] in the River, and they have been turned to blood,

¹⁸ and the fish that [are] in the River die, and the River has stunk, and the Egyptians have been wearied of drinking waters from the River.”

²⁰ And Moses and Aaron do so, as YHWH has commanded, and he lifts up [his hand] with the rod, and strikes the waters which [are] in the River, before the eyes of Pharaoh and before the eyes of his servants, and all the waters which [are] in the River are turned to blood,

²¹ and the fish which [is] in the River has died, and the River stinks, and the Egyptians have not been able to drink water from the River; and the blood is in all the land of Egypt.

²² And the enchanters of Egypt do so with their secrets, and the heart of Pharaoh is strong, and he has not listened to them, as YHWH has spoken,

²³ and Pharaoh turns and goes into his house, and has not set his heart even to this;

²⁴ and all the Egyptians seek water all around the River to drink, for they have not been able to drink of the waters of the River.

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, and you have said to him, Thus said YHWH: Send My people away, and they serve Me;

² and if you are refusing to send [them] away, behold, I am striking all your border with frogs;

³ and the River has teemed [with] frogs, and they have gone up and gone into your house, and into the inner-chamber of your bed, and on your couch, and into the house of your servants, and among your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading-troughs;

⁴ indeed, on you, and on your people, and on all your servants the frogs go up.”

⁶ And Aaron stretches out his hand against the waters of Egypt, and the frog comes up, and covers the land of Egypt;

⁷ and the enchanters do so with their secrets, and cause the frogs to come up against the land of Egypt.

⁸ And Pharaoh calls for Moses and for Aaron and says, “Make supplication to YHWH, that he may turn aside the frogs from me, and from my people, and I send the people away, and they sacrifice to YHWH.”

⁹ And Moses says to Pharaoh, “Beautify yourself over me; when do I make supplication for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses—only in the River they remain?”

¹⁰ And he says, “Tomorrow.” And he says, “According to your word [it is], so that you know that there is none like our God YHWH,

¹¹ and the frogs have turned aside from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people; only in the River they remain.”

¹² And Moses—Aaron also—goes out from Pharaoh, and Moses cries to YHWH concerning the matter of the frogs which He has set on Pharaoh;

¹³ and YHWH does according to the word of Moses, and the frogs die out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields,

¹⁴ and they heap them up together, and the land stinks.

¹⁵ And Pharaoh sees that there has been a respite, and he has hardened his heart, and has not listened to them, as YHWH has spoken.

¹⁸ And the enchanters do so with their secrets, to bring out the gnats, and they have not been able, and the gnats are on man and on beast;

¹⁹ and the enchanters say to Pharaoh, “It [is] the finger of God”; and the heart of Pharaoh is strong, and he has not listened to them, as YHWH has spoken.

²⁰ And YHWH says to Moses, “Rise early in the morning, and station yourself before Pharaoh, behold, he is going out to the waters, and you have said to him, Thus said YHWH: Send My people away, and they serve Me;

²¹ for if you are not sending My people away, behold, I am sending against you, and against your servants, and against your people, and against your houses, the beetle, and the houses of the Egyptians have been full of the beetle, and also the ground on which they are.

²² And I have separated in that day the land of Goshen, in which My people are staying, that the beetle is not there, so that you know that I [am] YHWH in the midst of the land,

²³ and I have put a division between My people and your people; this sign is tomorrow.”

²⁴ And YHWH does so, and the grievous beetle enters the house of Pharaoh, and the house of his servants, and in all the land of Egypt the land is corrupted from the presence of the beetle.

²⁵ And Pharaoh calls to Moses and to Aaron and says, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land”;

³⁰ And Moses goes out from Pharaoh, and makes supplication to YHWH,

³¹ and YHWH does according to the word of Moses, and turns aside the beetle from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people—there has not been one left;

³² and Pharaoh also hardens his heart at this time, and has not sent the people away.

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, and you have spoken to him, Thus said YHWH, God of the Hebrews: Send My people away, and they serve Me,

² for if you are refusing to send [them] away, and are still keeping hold on them,

³ behold, the hand of YHWH is on your livestock which [are] in the field, on horses, on donkeys, on camels, on herd, and on flock—a very grievous pestilence.

⁴ And YHWH has separated between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and there does not die a thing of all the sons of Israel;

⁵ and YHWH sets an appointed time, saying, Tomorrow YHWH does this thing in the land.”

⁶ And YHWH does this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt die, and of the livestock of the sons of Israel not one has died;

⁷ and Pharaoh sends, and behold, not even one of the livestock of Israel has died, and the heart of Pharaoh is hard, and he has not sent the people away.

⁸ And YHWH says to Moses and to Aaron, “Take for yourselves the fullness of your handfuls—soot of a furnace, and Moses has sprinkled it toward the heavens, before the eyes of Pharaoh,

⁹ and it has become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and it has become on man and on livestock a boil breaking forth [with] blisters in all the land of Egypt.”

10 And they take the soot of the furnace, and stand before Pharaoh, and Moses sprinkles it toward the heavens, and it is a boil [with] blisters breaking forth on man and on beast;

11 and the enchanters have not been able to stand before Moses because of the boil, for the boil has been on the enchanters, and on all the Egyptians.

12 And YHWH strengthens the heart of Pharaoh, and he has not listened to them, as YHWH has spoken to Moses.

13 And YHWH says to Moses, "Rise early in the morning, and station yourself before Pharaoh, and you have said to him, Thus said YHWH, God of the Hebrews: Send My people away, and they serve Me,

14 for at this time I am sending all My plagues to your heart, and on your servants, and on your people, so that you know that there is none like Me in all the earth,

15 for now I have put forth My hand, and I strike you, and your people, with pestilence, and you are hidden from the earth.

16 And yet for this I have caused you to stand, so as to show you My power, and for the sake of declaring My Name in all the earth;

17 still you are exalting yourself against My people—so as not to send them away;

18 behold, I am raining very grievous hail about [this] time tomorrow, such as has not been in Egypt from the day of its founding and until now.

19 And now, send, strengthen your livestock and all that you have in the field; every man and beast which is found in the field, and is not gathered into the house—the hail has come down on them, and they have died."

20 He who is fearing the word of YHWH among the servants of Pharaoh has caused his servants and his livestock to flee to the houses;

21 and he who has not set his heart to the word of YHWH leaves his servants and his livestock in the field.

22 And YHWH says to Moses, "Stretch forth your hand toward the heavens, and there is hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on beast, and on every herb of the field in the land of Egypt."

23 And Moses stretches out his rod toward the heavens, and YHWH has given voices and hail, and fire goes toward the earth, and YHWH rains hail on the land of Egypt,

24 and there is hail, and fire catching itself in the midst of the hail, very grievous, such as has not been in all the land of Egypt since it has become a nation.

25 And the hail strikes all that [is] in the field in all the land of Egypt, from man even to beast, and the hail has struck every herb of the field, and it has broken every tree of the field;

26 only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel [are], there has been no hail.

27 And Pharaoh sends, and calls for Moses and for Aaron, and says to them, "I have sinned this time—YHWH [is] the righteous, and I and my people [are] the wicked,

28 make supplication to YHWH, and plead that there be no voices of God and hail, and I send you away, and you do not add to remain."

29 And Moses says to him, "At my going out of the city, I spread my palms to YHWH—the voices cease, and there is no more hail, so that you know that the earth [is] YHWH'S;

³⁰ but you and your servants—I have known that you are not yet afraid of the face of YHWH God.”

³¹ And the flax and the barley have been struck, for the barley [is] budding, and the flax forming flowers,

³² and the wheat and the rye have not been struck, for they are late.

³³ And Moses goes out from Pharaoh, [from] the city, and spreads his hands to YHWH, and the voices and the hail cease, and rain has not been poured out to the earth;

³⁴ and Pharaoh sees that the rain has ceased, and the hail and the voices, and he continues to sin, and hardens his heart, he and his servants;

³⁵ and the heart of Pharaoh is strong, and he has not sent the sons of Israel away, as YHWH has spoken by the hand of Moses.

² and so that you recount in the ears of your son, and of your son’s son, that which I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have set among them, and you have known that I [am] YHWH.”

³ And Moses comes in—Aaron also—to Pharaoh, and they say to him, “Thus said YHWH, God of the Hebrews: Until when have you refused to be humbled at My presence? Send My people away, and they serve Me,

⁴ for if you are refusing to send My people away, behold, tomorrow I am bringing in the locust into your border,

⁵ and it has covered the eye of the land, and none is able to see the land, and it has eaten the remnant of that which is escaped, which is left to you from the hail, and it has eaten every tree which is springing out of the field for you;

⁶ and they have filled your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither your fathers nor your father’s fathers have seen, since the day of their being on the ground to this day.” And he turns and goes out from Pharaoh.

⁷ And the servants of Pharaoh say to him, “Until when does this [one] become a snare to us? Send the men away, and they serve their God YHWH; do you not yet know that Egypt has perished?”

⁸ And Moses is brought back—Aaron also—to Pharaoh, and he says to them, “Go, serve your God YHWH, but who—who [are] those going?”

⁹ And Moses says, “With our young ones, and with our aged ones, we go, with our sons, and with our daughters, with our flock, and our herd, we go, for we have a festival to YHWH.”

¹⁰ And he says to them, “Be it so, YHWH [is] with you when I send you and your infants away; see—for evil [is] before your faces.

¹¹ Not so! Go now, you who [are] men, and serve YHWH, for that you are seeking”; and [one] casts them out from the presence of Pharaoh.

¹³ And Moses stretches out his rod against the land of Egypt, and YHWH has led an east wind over the land all that day, and all the night; the morning has been, and the east wind has lifted up the locust.

¹⁴ And the locust goes up against all the land of Egypt, and rests in all the border of Egypt—very grievous: before it there has not been such a locust as it, and after it there is none such;

¹⁶ And Pharaoh hurries to call for Moses and for Aaron and says, “I have sinned against your God YHWH, and against you,

¹⁷ and now, please bear with my sin, only this time, and make supplication to your God YHWH, that He may turn aside from off me only this death.”

¹⁸ And he goes out from Pharaoh, and makes supplication to YHWH,

¹⁹ and YHWH turns a very strong sea wind, and it lifts up the locust, and blows it into the Red Sea—there has not been left one locust in all the border of Egypt;

²⁰ and YHWH strengthens the heart of Pharaoh, and he has not sent the sons of Israel away.

²¹ And YHWH says to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, and there is darkness over the land of Egypt, and the darkness is felt.”

²² And Moses stretches out his hand toward the heavens, and there is darkness—thick darkness in all the land of Egypt [for] three days;

²³ they have not seen one another, and none has risen from his place [for] three days; but there has been light for all the sons of Israel in their dwellings.

²⁴ And Pharaoh calls to Moses and says, “Go, serve YHWH, only your flock and your herd are stayed, your infants also go with you”;

²⁵ and Moses says, “You also give sacrifices and burnt-offerings in our hand, and we have prepared for our God YHWH;

²⁶ and also our livestock go with us—there is not left a hoof, for we take from it to serve our God YHWH; and we do not know how we serve YHWH until our going there.”

²⁷ And YHWH strengthens the heart of Pharaoh, and he has not been willing to send them away;

²⁸ and Pharaoh says to him, “Go from me, take heed to yourself, do not add to see my face, for in the day you see my face you die”;

²⁹ and Moses says, “You have spoken correctly, I do not add to see your face anymore.”

² now speak in the ears of the people, and they ask—each man from his neighbor, and each woman from her neighbor—[for] vessels of silver and vessels of gold.”

⁴ And Moses says, "Thus said YHWH: About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,

⁶ and there has been a great cry in all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, and such as there is not again;

⁹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Pharaoh does not listen to you, so as to multiply My wonders in the land of Egypt";

¹⁰ and Moses and Aaron have done all these wonders before Pharaoh, and YHWH strengthens Pharaoh's heart, and he has not sent the sons of Israel out of his land.

² "This month [is] the chief of months to you—it [is] the first of the months of the year to you;

³ speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month they take to themselves, each man, a lamb for the house of the fathers, a lamb for a house.

⁵ A lamb, a perfect one, a male, a son of a year, let [it] be to you; you take [it] from the sheep or from the goats.

⁶ And it has become a charge to you, until the fourteenth day of this month, and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel has slaughtered it between the evenings;

⁷ and they have taken of the blood, and have put [it] on the two doorposts, and on the lintel over the houses in which they eat it.

⁸ And they have eaten the flesh in this night, a roast with fire; they eat it with unleavened things and bitters;

⁹ you do not eat of it raw, or boiled in water at all, but a roast with fire, its head with its legs, and with its innards;

¹¹ And thus you eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand, and you have eaten it in haste; it is YHWH's Passover,

¹² and I have passed over through the land of Egypt during this night, and have struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from man even to beast, and I do judgments on all the gods of Egypt; I [am] YHWH.

¹³ And the blood has become a sign for you on the houses where you [are], and I have seen the blood, and have passed over you, and a plague is not on you for destruction in My striking in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ And this day has become a memorial to you, and you have kept it [for] a celebration to YHWH throughout your generations—a continuous statute; you keep it [for] a celebration.

¹⁶ And in the first day [is] a holy convocation, and in the seventh day you have a holy convocation; any work is not done in them, only that which is eaten by any person—it alone is done by you,

¹⁷ and you have observed the Unleavened Things, for in this very day I have brought out your hosts from the land of Egypt, and you have observed this day throughout your generations—a continuous statute.

²⁰ you do not eat anything fermented—in all your dwellings you eat [only] unleavened things.”

²¹ And Moses calls for all [the] elderly of Israel and says to them, “Draw out and take for yourselves [from] the flock, for your families, and slaughter the Passover-sacrifice;

²² and you have taken a bunch of hyssop, and have dipped [it] in the blood which [is] in the basin, and have struck [it] on the lintel, and on the two doorposts, from the blood which [is] in the basin, and you, you do not go out—each from the opening of his house—until morning.

²³ And YHWH has passed on to strike the Egyptians, and has seen the blood on the lintel, and on the two doorposts, and YHWH has passed over the opening, and does not permit the destruction to come into your houses to strike.

²⁴ And you have observed this thing for a statute to you and to your sons for all time;

²⁵ and it has been, when you come to the land which YHWH gives to you as He has spoken, that you have kept this service;

²⁶ and it has come to pass, when your sons say to you, What [is] this service you have?

²⁷ That you have said, It [is] a sacrifice of Passover to YHWH, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt, in His striking the Egyptians, and our houses He delivered.”

²⁸ And the people bow and pay respect, and the sons of Israel go and do as YHWH commanded Moses and Aaron; so they have done.

²⁹ And it comes to pass, at midnight, that YHWH has struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who is sitting on his throne, to the firstborn of the captive who [is] in the prison-house, and every firstborn of beasts.

³⁰ And Pharaoh rises by night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians, and there is a great cry in Egypt, for there is not a house where there is not [one] dead,

³¹ and he calls for Moses and for Aaron by night and says, "Rise, go out from the midst of my people, both you and the sons of Israel, and go, serve YHWH according to your word;

³² take both your flock and your herd as you have spoken, and go; then you have also blessed me."

³³ And the Egyptians are urgent on the people, hastening to send them away out of the land, for they said, "We are all dead";

³⁴ and the people take up their dough before it is fermented, their kneading-troughs [are] bound up in their garments on their shoulder.

³⁵ And the sons of Israel have done according to the word of Moses, and they ask for vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and garments, from the Egyptians;

³⁶ and YHWH has given the grace of the people in the eyes of the Egyptians, and they cause them to ask, and they spoil the Egyptians.

³⁷ And the sons of Israel journey from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, apart from infants;

³⁸ and a great rabble has also gone up with them, and flock and herd—very much livestock.

³⁹ And they bake unleavened cakes with the dough which they have brought out from Egypt, for it has not fermented; for they have been cast out of Egypt, and have not been able to delay, and also they have not made provision for themselves.

⁴³ And YHWH says to Moses and Aaron, "This [is] a statute of the Passover; any son of a stranger does not eat of it;

⁴⁴ and any man's servant, the purchase of money, when you have circumcised him—then he eats of it;

⁴⁵ a settler or hired servant does not eat of it;

⁴⁶ it is eaten in one house, you do not carry out of the house [any] of the flesh outside, and you do not break a bone of it;

⁴⁷ all the congregation of Israel keeps it.

⁴⁸ And when a sojourner sojourns with you, and has made a Passover to YHWH, every male of his [is] to be circumcised, and then he comes near to keep it, and he has been as a native of the land, but any uncircumcised one does not eat of it;

⁴⁹ one law is to a native, and to a sojourner who is sojourning in your midst."

⁵¹ And it comes to pass on this very same day, YHWH has brought out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt by their hosts.

² “Sanctify to Me every firstborn, opening any womb among the sons of Israel, among man and among beast; it [is] Mine.”

³ And Moses says to the people, “Remember this day [in] which you have gone out from Egypt, from the house of servants, for by strength of hand YHWH has brought you out from this, and anything fermented is not eaten;

⁴ you are going out today, in the month of Abib.

⁵ And it has been, when YHWH brings you to the land of the Canaanite, and of the Hittite, and of the Amorite, and of the Hivite, and of the Jebusite, which He has sworn to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you have done this service in this month.

⁶ Seven days you eat unleavened things, and in the seventh day [is] a celebration to YHWH;

⁷ unleavened things are eaten the seven days, and anything fermented is not seen with you; indeed, leaven is not seen with you in all your border.

⁸ And you have declared to your son in that day, saying, [It is] because of what YHWH did to me, in my going out from Egypt,

⁹ and it has been to you for a sign on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, so that the Law of YHWH is in your mouth, for by a strong hand YHWH has brought you out from Egypt;

¹⁰ and you have kept this statute at its appointed time from days to days.

¹¹ And it has been, when YHWH brings you to the land of the Canaanite as He has sworn to you and to your fathers, and has given it to you,

¹² that you have caused everyone opening a womb to pass over to YHWH, and every firstling—the increase of beasts which you have: the males [are] YHWH’s.

¹⁴ And it has been, when your son asks you hereafter, saying, What [is] this? That you have said to him, By strength of hand YHWH has brought us out from Egypt, from a house of servants;

¹⁵ indeed, it comes to pass, when Pharaoh has been pained to send us away, that YHWH slays every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man even to the firstborn of beast; therefore I am sacrificing to YHWH all opening a womb who [are] males, and I ransom every firstborn of my sons;

¹⁶ and it has been for a token on your hand, and for frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand YHWH has brought us out of Egypt.”

¹⁷ And it comes to pass in Pharaoh’s sending the people away, that God has not led them the way of the land of the Philistines, for it [is] near; for God said, “Lest the people sigh in their seeing war, and have turned back toward Egypt”;

¹⁸ and God turns around the people the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea, and the sons of Israel have gone up by fifties from the land of Egypt.

¹⁹ And Moses takes the bones of Joseph with him, for he certainly caused the sons of Israel to swear, saying, "God certainly inspects you, and you have brought up my bones from this [place] with you."

²⁰ And they journey from Succoth, and encamp in Etham at the extremity of the wilderness,

²² He does not remove the pillar of the cloud by day, and the pillar of the fire by night, [from] before the people.

² "Speak to the sons of Israel, and they turn back and encamp before Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Ba'al-Zephon; you encamp in front of it by the sea,

³ and Pharaoh has said of the sons of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has shut on them;

⁴ and I have strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he has pursued after them, and I am honored by Pharaoh, and by all his force, and the Egyptians have known that I [am] YHWH"; and they do so.

⁵ And it is declared to the king of Egypt that the people have fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants is turned against the people, and they say, "What [is] this we have done, that we have sent Israel away from our service?"

⁶ And he harnesses his chariot, and he has taken his people with him,

⁷ and he takes six hundred chosen chariots, even all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over them all;

⁸ and YHWH strengthens the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursues after the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel are going out with a high hand,

⁹ and the Egyptians pursue after them, and all the chariot horses of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his force, overtake them, encamping by the sea, by Pi-Hahiroth, before Ba'al-Zephon.

¹⁰ And Pharaoh has drawn near, and the sons of Israel lift up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians are journeying after them, and they fear exceedingly, and the sons of Israel cry to YHWH.

¹¹ And they say to Moses, "Because there are no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in a wilderness? What is this you have done to us—to bring us out from Egypt?"

¹² Is this not the word which we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, Cease from us, and we serve the Egyptians; for [it is] better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in a wilderness?"

¹³ And Moses says to the people, "Do not fear, station yourselves, and see the salvation of YHWH, which He does for you today; for as you have seen the Egyptians today, you add no more to see them for all time;

¹⁴ YHWH fights for you, and you keep silent."

¹⁵ And YHWH says to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the sons of Israel, and they journey;

¹⁶ and you, lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand toward the sea, and cleave it, and the sons of Israel go into the midst of the sea on dry land.

¹⁷ And I—behold, I am strengthening the heart of the Egyptians, and they go in after them, and I am honored by Pharaoh, and by all his force, by his chariots, and by his horsemen;

¹⁸ and the Egyptians have known that I [am] YHWH, in My being honored by Pharaoh, by his chariots, and by his horsemen.”

¹⁹ And the Messenger of God, who is going before the camp of Israel, journeys and goes at their rear; and the pillar of the cloud journeys from their front, and stands at their rear,

²⁰ and comes in between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel, and the cloud and the darkness are, and he enlightens the night, and the one has not drawn near to the other all the night.

²² and the sons of Israel go into the midst of the sea on dry land, and the waters [are] a wall to them, on their right and on their left.

²³ And the Egyptians pursue, and go in after them (all the horses of Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen) into the midst of the sea,

²⁴ and it comes to pass, in the morning watch, that YHWH looks to the camp of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubles the camp of the Egyptians,

²⁵ and turns aside the wheels of their chariots, and they lead them with difficulty, and the Egyptians say, “Let us flee from the face of Israel, for YHWH is fighting for them against the Egyptians.”

²⁸ and the waters turn back, and cover the chariots and the horsemen, even all the force of Pharaoh, who are coming in after them into the sea—there has not been left even one of them.

²⁹ And the sons of Israel have gone on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters [are] a wall to them, on their right and on their left;

³⁰ and YHWH saves Israel out of the hand of the Egyptians in that day, and Israel sees the Egyptians dead on the seashore,

³¹ and Israel sees the great hand with which YHWH has worked against the Egyptians, and the people fear YHWH, and remain steadfast in YHWH, and in His servant Moses.

¹ Then Moses sings—and the sons of Israel—this song to YHWH, and they speak, saying, “I sing to YHWH, || For triumphing He has triumphed; The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea.

² My strength and song is YAH, || And He is become my salvation: This [is] my God, and I glorify Him; God of my father, and I exalt Him.

³ YHWH [is] a man of battle; YHWH [is] His Name.

⁴ Chariots of Pharaoh and his force || He has cast into the sea; And the choice of his captains || Have sunk in the Red Sea!

⁵ The depths cover them; They went down into the depths as a stone.

⁶ Your right hand, O YHWH, || Has become honorable in power; Your right hand, O YHWH, || Crushes an enemy.

⁷ And in the abundance of Your excellence || You throw down Your withstanders, || You send forth Your wrath—It consumes them as stubble.

⁹ The enemy said, I pursue, I overtake; I apportion spoil; My soul is filled with them; I draw out my sword; My hand destroys them—

¹¹ Who [is] like You among the gods, O YHWH? Who [is] like You—honorable in holiness—Fearful in praises—doing wonders?

¹² You have stretched out Your right hand—Earth swallows them!

¹³ You have led forth in Your kindness || The people whom You have redeemed. You have led on in Your strength || To Your holy habitation.

¹⁵ Then chiefs of Edom have been troubled; Mighty ones of Moab—Trembling seizes them! All inhabitants of Canaan have melted!

¹⁶ Terror and dread fall on them; By the greatness of Your arm || They are still as a stone, || Until Your people pass over, O YHWH; Until the people pass over || Whom You have purchased.

¹⁷ You bring them in, and plant them || In a mountain of Your inheritance, || A fixed place for Your dwelling You have made, O YHWH; A sanctuary, O Lord, Your hands have established;

¹⁸ YHWH reigns—[for] all time and forever!"

²⁰ And Miriam the inspired one, sister of Aaron, takes the timbrel in her hand, and all the women go out after her, with timbrels and with choruses;

²¹ and Miriam answers to them: "Sing to YHWH, || For triumphing He has triumphed; The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!"

²³ and they come to Marah, and have not been able to drink the waters of Marah, for they [are] bitter; therefore [one] has called its name Marah.

²⁴ And the people murmur against Moses, saying, "What do we drink?"

²⁵ And he cries to YHWH, and YHWH shows him a tree, and he casts [it] into the waters, and the waters become sweet. He has made a statute for them there, and an ordinance, and He has tried them there,

²⁶ and He says, "If you really listen to the voice of your God YHWH, and do that which is right in His eyes, and have listened to His commands, and kept all His statutes, none of the sickness which I laid on the Egyptians do I lay on you, for I, YHWH, am healing you.”

²⁷ And they come to Elim, and there [are] twelve fountains of water, and seventy palm trees; and they encamp there by the waters.

² And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmur against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness;

³ and the sons of Israel say to them, “Oh that we had died by the hand of YHWH in the land of Egypt, in our sitting by the flesh-pot, in our eating bread to satiety—for you have brought us out to this wilderness to put all this assembly to death with hunger.”

⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “Behold, I am raining bread from the heavens for you—and the people have gone out and gathered the matter of a day in its day—so that I try them whether they walk in My law or not;

⁵ and it has been on the sixth day, that they have prepared that which they bring in, and it has been double above that which they gather day [by] day.”

⁶ And Moses says—Aaron also—to all the sons of Israel, “Evening—and you have known that YHWH has brought you out from the land of Egypt;

⁷ and morning—and you have seen the glory of YHWH, in His hearing your murmurings against YHWH, and what [are] we, that you murmur against us?”

⁸ And Moses says, “In YHWH’s giving to you flesh to eat in the evening, and bread in the morning to satiety—in YHWH’s hearing your murmurings, which you are murmuring against Him, and what [are] we? Your murmurings [are] not against us, but against YHWH.”

⁹ And Moses says to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, Come near before YHWH, for He has heard your murmurings”;

¹¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹² “I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel; speak to them, saying, Between the evenings you eat flesh, and in the morning you are satisfied [with] bread, and you have known that I [am] your God YHWH.”

¹³ And it comes to pass in the evening, that the quail comes up, and covers the camp, and in the morning there has been the lying of dew around the camp,

¹⁴ and the lying of the dew goes up, and behold, on the face of the wilderness [is] a thin, bare thing, thin as hoarfrost on the earth.

¹⁵ And the sons of Israel see, and say to one another, “What [is] it?” For they have not known what it [is]; and Moses says to them, “It [is] the bread which YHWH has given to you for food.

16 This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded: Gather of it, each according to his eating, an omer for the counted head; and the number of your persons, take, each, for those in his tent."

17 And the sons of Israel do so, and they gather, he who is [gathering] much, and he who is [gathering] little;

18 and they measure with an omer, and he who is [gathering] much has nothing over, and he who is [gathering] little has no lack, each according to his eating they have gathered.

19 And Moses says to them, "Let no man leave of it until morning";

20 and they have not listened to Moses, and some of them leave of it until morning, and it brings up worms and stinks; and Moses is angry with them.

21 And they gather it morning by morning, each according to his eating; when the sun has been warm, then it has melted.

22 And it comes to pass on the sixth day, they have gathered a second bread, two omers for one, and all the princes of the congregation come in, and declare [it] to Moses.

23 And he says to them, "It [is] that which YHWH has spoken: A rest—a holy Sabbath to YHWH—[is] tomorrow; that which you bake, bake; and that which you boil, boil; and all that is remaining, let [it] rest for yourselves for preservation until the morning."

24 And they let it rest until the morning, as Moses has commanded, and it has not stunk, and a worm has not been in it.

25 And Moses says, "Eat it today, for today [is] a Sabbath to YHWH; today you do not find it in the field:

26 six days you gather it, and in the seventh day—the Sabbath—there is none in it."

27 And it comes to pass on the seventh day, some of the people have gone out to gather, and have not found.

28 And YHWH says to Moses, "How long have you refused to keep My commands and My laws?

29 See, because YHWH has given the Sabbath to you, therefore He is giving to you on the sixth day bread of two days; each abide [in] his place, no one goes out from his place on the seventh day."

30 And the people rest on the seventh day,

31 and the house of Israel calls its name Manna, and it [is] as white coriander seed; and its taste [is] as a cake with honey.

32 And Moses says, "This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded: Fill the omer with it, for a charge for your generations, so that they see the bread which I have caused you to eat in the wilderness, in My bringing you out from the land of Egypt."

33 And Moses says to Aaron, "Take one pot, and put the fullness of the omer of manna [in] there, and let it rest before YHWH, for a charge for your generations";

34 as YHWH has given command to Moses, so Aaron lets it rest before the Testimony, for a charge.

35 And the sons of Israel have eaten the manna [for] forty years, until their coming to the land to be inhabited; they have eaten the manna until their coming to the extremity of the land of Canaan.

36 And the omer is a tenth of the ephah.

² and the people strive with Moses, and say, "Give us water, and we drink." And Moses says to them, "Why do you strive with me? Why do you try YHWH?"

³ And the people thirst for water there, and the people murmur against Moses, and say, "Why [is] this [that] you have brought us up out of Egypt to put us to death, also our sons and our livestock, with thirst?"

⁴ And Moses cries to YHWH, saying, "What do I do to this people? Yet a little, and they have stoned me."

⁵ And YHWH says to Moses, "Pass over before the people, and take with you from [the] elderly of Israel, and take your rod in your hand, with which you have struck the River, and you have gone.

⁶ Behold, I am standing before you there on the rock in Horeb, and you have struck on the rock, and waters have come out from it, and the people have drunk." And Moses does so before the eyes of [the] elderly of Israel,

⁷ and he calls the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the strife of the sons of Israel, and because of their trying YHWH, saying, "Is YHWH in our midst or not?"

⁸ And Amalek comes, and fights with Israel in Rephidim,

¹⁰ And Joshua does as Moses has said to him, to fight with Amalek, and Moses, Aaron, and Hur have gone up [to] the top of the height;

¹¹ and it has come to pass, when Moses lifts up his hand, that Israel has been mighty, and when he lets his hands rest, that Amalek has been mighty.

¹² And the hands of Moses [are] heavy, and they take a stone and set [it] under him, and he sits on it, and Aaron and Hur have taken hold on his hands, one on this [side] and one on that [side]; and his hands are steadfast until the going in of the sun;

¹³ and Joshua weakens Amalek and his people by the mouth of the sword.

¹⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, "Write this, a memorial in a Scroll, and set [it] in the ears of Joshua, that I utterly wipe away the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens";

¹⁵ and Moses builds an altar, and calls its name YHWH-Nissi,

¹ And Jethro priest of Midian, father-in-law of Moses, hears all that God has done for Moses and for His people Israel, that YHWH has brought out Israel from Egypt,

² and Jethro, father-in-law of Moses, takes Zipporah, wife of Moses, after her parting,

³ and her two sons, of whom the name of one [is] Gershom, for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a strange land";

⁴ and the name of the other [is] Eliezer; for, “The God of my father [is] for my help, and He delivers me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

⁵ And Jethro, father-in-law of Moses, comes, and his sons, and his wife, to Moses, to the wilderness where he is encamping—the mountain of God;

⁶ and he says to Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, and your wife, and her two sons with her.”

⁷ And Moses goes out to meet his father-in-law, and bows himself, and kisses him, and they ask of one another of welfare, and come into the tent;

⁸ and Moses recounts to his father-in-law all that YHWH has done to Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians, on account of Israel, all the travail which has found them in the way, and [how] YHWH delivers them.

⁹ And Jethro rejoices for all the good which YHWH has done to Israel, whom He has delivered from the hand of the Egyptians;

¹¹ now I have known that YHWH [is] greater than all the gods, for in the thing they have acted proudly—[He is] above them!”

¹² And Jethro, father-in-law of Moses, takes a burnt-offering and sacrifices [it] for God; and Aaron comes in, and all [the] elderly of Israel, to eat bread with the father-in-law of Moses, before God.

¹³ And it comes to pass on the next day, that Moses sits to judge the people, and the people stand before Moses from the morning to the evening;

¹⁴ and the father-in-law of Moses sees all that he is doing for the people and says, “What [is] this thing which you are doing for the people? Why are you sitting by yourself, and all the people standing by you from morning until evening?”

¹⁵ And Moses says to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to seek God;

¹⁶ when they have a matter, it has come to me, and I have judged between a man and his neighbor, and made known the statutes of God, and His laws.”

¹⁷ And the father-in-law of Moses says to him, “The thing which you are doing [is] not good;

¹⁸ you surely wear away, both you, and this people which [is] with you, for the thing is too heavy for you, you are not able to do it by yourself.

¹⁹ Now listen to my voice, I counsel you, and God is with you: be for the people before God, and you have brought in the things to God;

²⁰ and you have warned them [concerning] the statutes and the laws, and have made known to them the way in which they go, and the work which they do.

²² and they have judged the people at all times; and it has come to pass, they bring every great matter to you, and they judge every small matter themselves; and lighten it from off yourself, and they have borne with you.

²³ If you do this thing, and God has commanded you, then you have been able to stand, and all this people also goes to its place in peace.”

²⁴ And Moses listens to the voice of his father-in-law, and does all that he said,

²⁵ and Moses chooses men of ability out of all Israel, and makes them chiefs over the people [for] heads of thousands, heads of hundreds, heads of fifties, and heads of tens,

²⁶ and they have judged the people at all times; they bring the hard matter to Moses, and they judge every small matter themselves.

²⁷ And Moses sends his father-in-law away, and he goes away to his own land.

¹ In the third month of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in this day they have come into the wilderness of Sinai,

² and they journey from Rephidim, and enter the wilderness of Sinai, and encamp in the wilderness; and Israel encamps there before the mountain.

³ And Moses has gone up to God, and YHWH calls to him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus you say to the house of Jacob, and declare to the sons of Israel:

⁴ You have seen that which I have done to the Egyptians, and [how] I carry you on eagles' wings and bring you to Myself.

⁵ And now, if you really listen to My voice, then you have kept My covenant, and have been a special treasure to Me more than all the peoples, for all the earth [is] Mine;

⁶ and you are to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation: these [are] the words which you speak to the sons of Israel."

⁷ And Moses comes, and calls for [the] elderly of the people, and sets before them all these words which YHWH has commanded him;

⁸ and all the people answer together and say, "All that YHWH has spoken we do"; and Moses returns the words of the people to YHWH.

⁹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Behold, I am coming to you in the thickness of the cloud, so that the people hear in My speaking with you, and also believe in you for all time"; and Moses declares the words of the people to YHWH.

¹⁰ And YHWH says to Moses, "Go to the people and you have sanctified them today and tomorrow, and they have washed their garments, ¹¹ and have been prepared for the third day; for on the third day YHWH comes down on Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people.

¹⁴ And Moses comes down from the mountain to the people, and sanctifies the people, and they wash their garments;

¹⁵ and he says to the people, "Be prepared for the third day, do not come near to a woman."

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, on the third day, while it is morning, that there are voices, and lightnings, and a heavy cloud on the mountain, and the sound of a very strong horn; and all the people who [are] in the camp tremble.

¹⁷ And Moses brings out the people from the camp to meet God, and they station themselves at the lower part of the mountain,

¹⁸ and Mount Sinai [is] wholly [in] smoke from the presence of YHWH, who has come down on it in fire, and its smoke goes up as smoke of the furnace, and the whole mountain trembles exceedingly;

¹⁹ and the sound of the horn is going on, and [is] very strong; Moses speaks, and God answers him with a voice.

²⁰ And YHWH comes down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and YHWH calls for Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses goes up.

²¹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Go down, protest to the people, lest they break through to YHWH to see, and many of them have fallen;

²² and also the priests who are coming near to YHWH sanctify themselves, lest YHWH break forth on them."

²³ And Moses says to YHWH, "The people [are] unable to come up to Mount Sinai, for you have protested to us, saying, Make a border [for] the mountain, then you have sanctified it."

²⁴ And YHWH says to him, "Go, descend, then you have come up, you and Aaron with you; and the priests and the people do not break through to come up to YHWH, lest He break forth on them."

²⁵ And Moses goes down to the people and speaks to them.

¹ And God speaks all these words, saying,

² "I [am] your God YHWH, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of servants.

³ You have no other Gods before Me.

⁴ You do not make a carved image for yourself, or any likeness which [is] in the heavens above, or which [is] in the earth beneath, or which [is] in the waters under the earth.

⁵ You do not bow yourself to them, nor serve them: for I, your God YHWH, [am] a zealous God, charging iniquity of fathers on sons, on a third and on a fourth [generation] of those hating Me,

⁶ and doing kindness to thousands, of those loving Me and keeping My commands.

⁷ You do not take up the Name of your God YHWH for a vain thing, for YHWH does not acquit him who takes up His Name for a vain thing.

⁸ Remember the Sabbath day to sanctify it;

⁹ six days you labor and have done all your work,

¹⁰ and the seventh day [is] a Sabbath to your God YHWH; you do not do any work, you, and your son, and your daughter, your manservant, and your handmaid, and your livestock, and your sojourner who is within your gates—

¹¹ for [in] six days YHWH has made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that [is] in them, and rests in the seventh day; therefore YHWH has blessed the Sabbath day and sanctifies it.

¹² Honor your father and your mother, so that your days are prolonged on the ground which your God YHWH is giving to you.

¹³ You do not murder.

¹⁴ You do not commit adultery.

¹⁵ You do not steal.

¹⁶ You do not answer [with] a false testimony against your neighbor.

¹⁸ And all the people are seeing the voices, and the flames, and the sound of the horn, and the mountain smoking; and the people see, and move, and stand far off,

¹⁹ and say to Moses, "Speak with us, and we hear, and do not let God speak with us, lest we die."

²⁰ And Moses says to the people, "Do not fear, for God has come to try you, and in order that His fear may be before your faces—that you do not sin."

²¹ And the people stand far off, and Moses has drawn near to the thick darkness where God [is].

²² And YHWH says to Moses, "Thus you say to the sons of Israel: You have seen that I have spoken with you from the heavens;

²³ you do not make gods of silver and gods of gold [to be] with Me—you do not make [any idol] for yourselves.

²⁴ You make an altar of earth for Me, and you have sacrificed on it your burnt-offerings and your peace-offerings, your flock and your herd; in every place where I cause My Name to be remembered I come to you, and have blessed you.

²⁵ And if you make an altar of stones for Me, you do not build them of hewn work; when you have waved your tool over it, then you defile it;

²⁶ neither do you go up by steps on My altar, that your nakedness is not revealed on it.

¹ And these [are] the judgments which you set before them:

² When you buy a Hebrew servant, he serves [for] six years, and in the seventh he goes out as a freeman for nothing;

³ if he comes in by himself, he goes out by himself; if he [is] owner of a wife, then his wife has gone out with him;

⁵ And if the servant really says: I have loved my lord, my wife, and my sons—I do not go out free,

⁶ then his lord has brought him near to God, and has brought him near to the door, or to the doorpost, and his lord has bored his ear with an awl, and he has served him for all time.

⁷ And when a man sells his daughter for a handmaid, she does not go out according to the going out of the menservants;

⁸ if [it is] evil in the eyes of her lord, so that he has not betrothed her, then he has let her be ransomed; he has no power to sell her to a strange people, in his dealing treacherously with her.

⁹ And if he betroths her to his son, he does to her according to the right of daughters.

¹⁰ If he takes another [woman] for him, he does not withdraw her food, her covering, and her habitation;

11 and if he does not do these three for her, then she has gone out for nothing, without money.

12 He who strikes a man so that he has died is certainly put to death;

13 as for him who has not laid wait, but God has brought [him] to his hand, I have even set a place for you to where he flees.

14 And when a man presumes against his neighbor to slay him with subtlety, you take him from My altar to die.

15 And he who strikes his father or his mother is certainly put to death.

16 And he who steals a man, and has sold him, and he has been found in his hand, is certainly put to death.

17 And he who is reviling his father or his mother is certainly put to death.

18 And when men contend, and a man has struck his neighbor with a stone, or with the fist, and he does not die, but has fallen on the bed;

19 if he rises, and has gone up and down outside on his staff, then the striker has been acquitted; he only gives [for] his cessation, and he is thoroughly healed.

20 And when a man strikes his manservant or his handmaid with a rod, and he has died under his hand—he is certainly avenged;

21 only if he remains a day, or two days, he is not avenged, for he [is] his money.

22 And when men strive, and have struck a pregnant woman, and her children have come out, and there is no harm [to them], he is certainly fined as the husband of the woman lays on him, and he has given through the judges;

23 and if there is harm [to them], then you have given life for life,

24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And when a man strikes the eye of his manservant, or the eye of his handmaid, and has destroyed it, he sends him away as a freeman for his eye;

27 and if he knocks out a tooth of his manservant or a tooth of his handmaid, he sends him away as a freeman for his tooth.

28 And when an ox gores man or woman, and they have died, the ox is certainly stoned, and his flesh is not eaten, and the owner of the ox [is] acquitted;

29 and if the ox is [one] accustomed to gore before, and it has been testified to its owner, and he does not watch it, and it has put to death a man or woman, the ox is stoned, and its owner is also put to death.

30 If atonement is laid on him, then he has given the ransom of his life, according to all that is laid on him;

31 whether it gores a son or gores a daughter, according to this judgment it is done to him.

32 If the ox gores a manservant or a handmaid, he gives thirty silver shekels to their lord, and the ox is stoned.

33 And when a man opens a pit, or when a man digs a pit, and does not cover it, and an ox or donkey has fallen [in] there—

34 the owner of the pit repays, he gives back money to its owner, and the dead is his.

³⁵ And when a man's ox strikes the ox of his neighbor and it has died, then they have sold the living ox, and halved its money, and they also halve the dead one;

³⁶ or, [if] it has been known that the ox is [one] accustomed to gore before, and its owner does not watch it, he certainly repays ox for ox, and the dead is his.

¹ When a man steals an ox or sheep, and has slaughtered it or sold it, he repays [with] five of the herd for the ox, and four of the flock for the sheep.

² If in the breaking through, the thief is found, and he has been struck and has died, there is no blood for him;

³ if the sun has risen on him, blood [is] for him, he certainly repays; if he has nothing, then he has been sold for his theft;

⁴ if the theft is certainly found alive in his hand, whether ox, or donkey, or sheep—he repays double.

⁷ When a man gives silver or vessels to his neighbor to keep, and it has been stolen out of the man's house; if the thief is found, he repays double.

⁸ If the thief is not found, then the master of the house has been brought near to God [to see] whether he has not put forth his hand against the work of his neighbor.

⁹ For every matter of transgression, for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for raiment, for any lost thing of which it is said that it is his, the matter of them both comes to God; he whom God condemns repays double to his neighbor.

¹⁰ When a man gives to his neighbor a donkey, or ox, or sheep, or any beast to keep, and it has died, or has been hurt, or taken captive, [with] none seeing—

¹¹ an oath of YHWH is between them both, that he has not put forth his hand against the work of his neighbor; and its owner has accepted, and he does not repay;

¹² but if it is certainly stolen from him, he repays to its owner;

¹³ if it is certainly torn, he brings it in [as] a witness; he does not repay the torn thing.

¹⁴ And when a man asks for [anything] from his neighbor, and it has been hurt or has died—its owner not being with it—he certainly repays;

¹⁵ if its owner [is] with it, he does not repay—if it [is] a hired thing, it has come for its hire.

¹⁶ And when a man entices a virgin who [is] not betrothed, and has lain with her, he certainly endows her to himself for a wife;

¹⁷ if her father utters refuses to give her to him, he weighs out money according to the dowry of virgins.

¹⁸ You do not keep a witch alive.

¹⁹ Whoever lies with a beast is certainly put to death.

²⁰ He who is sacrificing to a god, except to YHWH alone, is devoted.

²¹ And you do not oppress a sojourner, nor crush him, for you have been sojourners in the land of Egypt.

²² You do not afflict any widow or orphan;

²³ if you really afflict him, surely if he cries to Me at all, I certainly hear his cry;

²⁴ and My anger has burned, and I have slain you by the sword, and your wives have been widows, and your sons orphans.

²⁵ If you lend money [to] My poor people [who are] with you, you are not as a usurer to him; you do not lay usury on him;

²⁶ if you take the garment of your neighbor in pledge at all, you return it to him during the going in of the sun:

²⁷ for it is his only covering, it [is] his garment for his skin; wherein does he lie down? And it has come to pass, when he cries to Me, that I have heard, for I [am] gracious.

²⁸ You do not revile God, and you do not curse a prince among your people.

²⁹ You do not delay your fullness and your liquids; you give the firstborn of your sons to Me;

³⁰ so you do to your ox [and] to your sheep; it is with its mother [for] seven days, on the eighth day you give it to Me.

³¹ And you are holy men to Me, and you do not eat flesh torn in the field, you cast it to a dog.

¹ You do not lift up a vain report; you do not put your hand with a wicked man to be a violent witness.

² You are not after many to [do] evil, nor do you testify concerning a strife, to turn aside after many to cause [others] to turn aside;

³ and you do not honor a poor man in his strife.

⁴ When you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you certainly turn it back to him;

⁵ when you see the donkey of him who is hating you crouching under its burden, then you have ceased from leaving [it] to it—you certainly leave [it] with him.

⁶ You do not turn aside the judgment of your poor in his strife;

⁷ you keep far off from a false matter, and you do not slay an innocent and righteous man; for I do not justify a wicked man.

⁸ And you do not take a bribe, for the bribe binds the open-[eyed] and perverts the words of the righteous.

⁹ And you do not oppress a sojourner, since you have known the soul of the sojourner, for you have been sojourners in the land of Egypt.

¹¹ and [in] the seventh you release it, and have left it, and the needy of your people have eaten, and the beast of the field eats their remainder; so you do to your vineyard [and] to your olive-yard.

¹² Six days you do your work, and on the seventh day you rest, so that your ox and your donkey rest, and the son of your handmaid and the sojourner is refreshed;

13 and in all that which I have said to you—take heed; and you do not mention the name of other gods; it is not heard on your mouth.

14 You keep a celebration to Me three times in a year:

15 you keep the Celebration of Unleavened Things (you eat unleavened things [for] seven days as I have commanded you, at the time appointed [in] the month of Abib; for in it you have come forth out of Egypt, and you do not appear [in] My presence empty);

16 and the Celebration of Harvest, the first-fruits of your works which you sow in the field; and the Celebration of the Ingathering in the outgoing of the year, in your gathering your works out of the field.

17 Three times in a year all your males appear before [the] face of the Lord YHWH.

18 You do not sacrifice the blood of My sacrifice on a fermented thing, and the fat of My festival does not remain until morning;

19 the beginning of the first-fruits of your ground you bring into the house of your God YHWH; you do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

20 Behold, I am sending a Messenger before you to keep you in the way, and to bring you to the place which I have prepared;

21 be watchful because of His presence, and listen to His voice, do not rebel against Him, for He does not bear with your transgression, for My Name [is] in His heart;

22 for if you listen diligently to His voice, and have done all that which I speak, then I have been at enmity with your enemies, and have distressed those distressing you.

23 For My Messenger goes before you, and has brought you to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, and I have cut them off.

24 You do not bow yourself to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their doings, but utterly devote them, and thoroughly break their standing pillars.

25 And you have served your God YHWH, and He has blessed your bread and your water, and I have turned aside sickness from your heart;

26 there is not a miscarrying and barren one in your land; I fulfill the number of your days.

27 I send My terror before you, and I have put to death all the people among whom you come, and I have given the neck of all your enemies to you.

28 And I have sent the hornet before you, and it has cast out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you;

29 I do not cast them out from before you in one year, lest the land be a desolation, and the beast of the field has multiplied against you;

30 I cast them out little [by] little from before you, until you are fruitful, and have inherited the land.

31 And I have set your border from the Red Sea, even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I give the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you have cast them out from before you.

32 You do not make a covenant with them and with their gods;

33 they do not dwell in your land, lest they cause you to sin against Me when you serve their gods, when it becomes a snare to you.”

² and Moses has drawn near to YHWH by himself; and they do not draw near, and the people do not go up with him.

³ And Moses comes in, and recounts to the people all the words of YHWH, and all the judgments, and all the people answer [with] one voice, and say, “All the words which YHWH has spoken we do.”

⁴ And Moses writes all the words of YHWH, and rises early in the morning, and builds an altar under the hill, and twelve standing pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel;

⁶ And Moses takes half of the blood and puts [it] in basins, and he has sprinkled half of the blood on the altar;

⁷ and he takes the Scroll of the Covenant, and proclaims [it] in the ears of the people, and they say, “All that which YHWH has spoken we do, and we obey.”

⁸ And Moses takes the blood and sprinkles [it] on the people, and says, “Behold, the blood of the covenant which YHWH has made with you, concerning all these things.”

⁹ And Moses goes up, Aaron also, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy from [the] elderly of Israel,

¹⁰ and they see the God of Israel, and under His feet [is] as the work of a pavement of sapphire, and as the substance of the heavens for purity;

¹¹ and He has not put forth His hand to those of the sons of Israel who are near, and they see God, and eat and drink.

¹² And YHWH says to Moses, “Come up to Me [on] the mountain and be there, and I give to you the tablets of stone, and the Law, and the command, which I have written to direct them.”

¹³ And Moses rises—his minister Joshua also—and Moses goes up to the mountain of God;

¹⁴ and he has said to the elderly, “Abide for us in this [place] until we return to you, and behold, Aaron and Hur [are] with you—he who has matters comes near to them.”

¹⁵ And Moses goes up to the mountain, and the cloud covers the mountain;

¹⁶ and the glory of YHWH dwells on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covers it [for] six days, and He calls to Moses on the seventh day from the midst of the cloud.

¹⁷ And the appearance of the glory of YHWH [is] as a consuming fire on the top of the mountain, before the eyes of the sons of Israel;

¹⁸ and Moses goes into the midst of the cloud, and goes up to the mountain, and Moses is on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and they take a raised-offering for Me; you take My raised-offering from every man whose heart impels him.

³ And this [is] the raised-offering which you take from them: gold, and silver, and bronze,

⁴ and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and linen, and goats' [hair],

⁵ and rams' skins made red, and tachashim skins, and shittim wood,

⁶ oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil, and for the incense of the spices,

⁷ shoham stones, and stones for setting for an ephod, and for a breastplate.

⁸ And they have made a sanctuary for Me, and I have dwelt in their midst;

⁹ according to all that which I am showing you, the pattern of the Dwelling Place, and the pattern of all its vessels, even so you make [it].

¹⁰ And they have made an ark of shittim wood; two cubits and a half its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height;

¹¹ and you have overlaid it [with] pure gold, you overlay it inside and outside, and you have made a ring of gold on it all around.

¹² And you have cast four rings of gold for it, and have put [them] on its four feet, even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its second side;

¹³ and you have made poles of shittim wood, and have overlaid them [with] gold,

¹⁴ and have brought the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark, to carry the Ark by them;

¹⁵ the poles are in the rings of the Ark, they are not turned aside from it;

¹⁶ and you have put the Testimony which I give to you into the Ark.

¹⁷ And you have made a propitiatory covering of pure gold, two cubits and a half its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth;

¹⁸ and you have made two cherubim of gold; you make them beaten work at the two ends of the propitiatory covering;

¹⁹ and make one cherub at the end on this [side] and one cherub at the end on that [side]; at the propitiatory covering you make the cherubim on its two ends.

²¹ And you have put the propitiatory covering on the Ark above, and you put the Testimony which I give to you into the Ark;

²² and I have met with you there, and have spoken with you from off the propitiatory covering (from between the two cherubim, which [are] on the Ark of the Testimony) all that which I command you concerning the sons of Israel.

²³ And you have made a table of shittim wood, two cubits its length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height,

²⁴ and have overlaid it [with] pure gold, and have made a crown of gold for it all around,

²⁵ and have made a border of a handbreadth for it all around, and have made a crown of gold for its border all around.

²⁶ And you have made four rings of gold for it, and have put the rings on the four corners, which [are] at its four feet;

²⁷ close by the border are the rings for places for poles to carry the table;

²⁸ and you have made the poles of shittim wood, and have overlaid them with gold, and the table has been carried with them;

²⁹ and you have made its dishes, and its bowls, and its covers, and its cups, with which they pour out; you make them of pure gold;

³⁰ and you have put Bread of the Presentation on the table before Me continually.

³¹ And you have made a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand is made of beaten work; its base, and its branch, its calyxes, its knobs, and its flowers are of the same;

³² and six branches are coming out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of the first side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the second side;

³⁴ And in the lampstand [are] four calyxes made like almonds, its knobs and its flowers;

³⁶ their knobs and their branches are of the same, all of it one beaten work of pure gold;

³⁷ and you have made its seven lamps, and [one] has caused its lamps to go up, and it has given light over [and] beyond its front.

³⁸ And its snuffers and its snuff dishes [are] of pure gold;

³⁹ he makes it of a talent of pure gold, with all these vessels.

⁴⁰ Now see and make [them] by their pattern which you are shown on the mountain.”

² the length of the one curtain [is] twenty-eight by the cubit, and the breadth of the one curtain [is] four by the cubit, one measure [is] for all the curtains;

³ five of the curtains are joining to one another, and five curtains are joining to one another.

⁵ You make fifty loops in the first curtain, and you make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which [is] in the joining of the second, causing the loops to take hold to one another;

⁶ and you have made fifty hooks of gold, and have joined the curtains to one another by the hooks, and the Dwelling Place has been one.

⁷ And you have made curtains of goats' [hair] for a tent over the Dwelling Place; you make eleven curtains:

⁸ the length of one curtain [is] thirty by the cubit, and the breadth of one curtain [is] four by the cubit; one measure [is] for the eleven curtains;

⁹ and you have joined the five curtains apart, and the six curtains apart, and have doubled the six curtains at the front of the tent.

¹⁰ And you have made fifty loops on the edge of the first curtain, the outermost in the joining, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is joining the second;

¹¹ and you have made fifty hooks of bronze, and have brought in the hooks into the loops, and have joined the tent, and it has been one.

¹² And the excess remaining in the curtains of the tent—the half of the curtain which is remaining—has spread over the back part of the Dwelling Place;

¹⁴ and you have made a covering for the tent of rams' skins made red, and a covering of tachashim skins above.

¹⁵ And you have made the boards for the Dwelling Place of shittim wood, standing up;

¹⁶ ten cubits [is] the length of the board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of one board;

¹⁷ two handles [are] to one board, joined to one another; so you make for all the boards of the Dwelling Place;

¹⁸ and you have made the boards of the Dwelling Place—twenty boards for the south side southward;

²⁰ And for the second side of the Dwelling Place, for the north side, [are] twenty boards, ²¹ and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

²² And for the sides of the Dwelling Place westward, you make six boards.

²³ And you make two boards for the corners of the Dwelling Place in the two sides.

²⁴ And they are pairs beneath, and together they are pairs above its head to one ring; so is it for them both, they are for the two corners.

²⁶ And you have made bars of shittim wood: five for the boards of the first side of the Dwelling Place,

²⁷ and five bars for the boards of the second side of the Dwelling Place, and five bars for the boards of the side of the Dwelling Place at the two sides, westward;

²⁸ and one has caused the middle bar in the midst of the boards to reach from end to end;

²⁹ and you overlay the boards [with] gold, and you make their rings of gold [for] places for bars, and have overlaid their bars with gold;

³⁰ and you have raised up the Dwelling Place according to its fashion which you have been shown on the mountain.

³² and you have put it on four pillars of shittim wood, overlaid [with] gold, their pegs [are] of gold, on four sockets of silver.

³⁴ And you have put the propitiatory covering on the Ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies.

³⁵ And you have set the table at the outside of the veil, and the lampstand opposite the table on the side of the Dwelling Place southward, and you put the table on the north side.

³⁶ And you have made a covering for the opening of the tent of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen, the work of an embroiderer;

² And you have made its horns on its four corners, its horns are of the same, and you have overlaid it [with] bronze.

³ And you have made its pots to remove its ashes, and its shovels, and its bowls, and its forks, and its fire-pans, even all its vessels you make of bronze.

⁴ And you have made a grate of network of bronze for it, and have made four rings of bronze on the net on its four extremities,

⁵ and have put it under the rim of the altar beneath, and the net has been up to the middle of the altar.

⁶ And you have made poles for the altar, poles of shittim wood, and have overlaid them [with] bronze.

⁸ You make it hollow [with] boards; as it has been showed [to] you on the mountain, so do they make [it].

¹⁰ and its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets [are] of bronze, the pegs of the pillars and their fillets [are] of silver;

¹² And [for] the breadth of the court at the west side [are] hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

¹³ And the breadth of the court at the east side, eastward, [is] fifty cubits.

¹⁴ And the hangings at the side [are] fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

¹⁵ And at the second side [are] hangings of fifteen [cubits], their pillars three, and their sockets three.

¹⁷ All the pillars of the court all around [are] filleted [with] silver, their pegs [are] silver, and their sockets bronze.

¹⁹ for all the vessels of the Dwelling Place, in all its service, and all its pins, and all the pins of the court, [are] bronze.

²⁰ And you command the sons of Israel, and they bring pure oil of beaten olive to you for the light, to cause the lamp to go up continually.

¹ “And you, bring your brother Aaron near to you, and his sons with him, from the midst of the sons of Israel, for his being priest to Me, [even] Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, sons of Aaron;

² and you have made holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty;

³ and you speak to all the wise of heart, whom I have filled [with] a spirit of wisdom, and they have made the garments of Aaron to sanctify him for his being priest to Me.

⁴ And these [are] the garments which they make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and an upper robe, and an embroidered coat, a turban, and a girdle; indeed, they have made holy garments for your brother Aaron, and for his sons, for his being priest to Me.

⁵ And they take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the linen,

⁶ and have made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen, the work of a designer;

⁷ it has two shoulders joining at its two ends, and it is joined.

⁸ And the girdle of his ephod which [is] on him, according to its work, is of the same, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

¹⁰ six of their names on the first stone, and the names of the remaining six on the second stone, according to their births;

¹³ And you have made filigrees of gold,

14 and you make them [with] two chains of pure gold [as] wreathed work, work of thick bands, and you have put the thick chains on the filigrees.

15 And you have made a breastplate of judgment, the work of a designer; you make it according to the work of the ephod; you make it of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen;

16 it is square, doubled, a span its length, and a span its breadth.

17 And you have set settings of stone in it, four rows of stone: a row of sardius, topaz, and carbuncle [is] the first row;

18 and the second row [is] emerald, sapphire, and diamond;

19 and the third row [is] opal, agate, and amethyst;

20 and the fourth row [is] beryl, and onyx, and jasper; they are embroidered with gold in their settings,

21 and the stones are according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, [as] engravings of a signet, each with his name; they are for the twelve tribes.

22 And you have made wreathed chains on the breastplate, [the] work of thick bands of pure gold;

23 and you have made two rings of gold on the breastplate, and have put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate;

24 and you have put the two thick bands of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastplate;

25 and you put the two ends of the two thick bands on the two filigrees, and you have put [them] on the shoulders of the ephod toward the front of its face.

26 And you have made two rings of gold, and have set them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its border, which [is] toward the side of the ephod within it;

27 and you have made two rings of gold, and have put them on the two shoulders of the ephod, from beneath, in front of its face, close by its joining, above the girdle of the ephod,

28 and they bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a ribbon of blue, to be above the girdle of the ephod, and the breastplate is not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron has borne the names of the sons of Israel in the breastplate of judgment, on his heart, in his going into the holy place, for a memorial before YHWH continually.

30 And you have put the Lights and the Perfections into the breastplate of judgment, and they have been on the heart of Aaron, in his going in before YHWH, and Aaron has borne the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before YHWH continually.

31 And you have made the upper robe of the ephod completely of blue,

32 and the opening for his head has been in its midst; there is a border for its opening all around—the work of a weaver—[and] there is as the opening of a [linen] habergeon for it; it is not torn.

33 And you have made on its hem pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, on its hem all around, and bells of gold in their midst all around;

34 a bell of gold and a pomegranate [and] a bell of gold and a pomegranate [are] on the hems of the upper robe all around.

³⁵ And it has been on Aaron to minister in, and its sound has been heard in his coming into the holy place before YHWH, and in his going out, and he does not die.

³⁶ And you have made a flower of pure gold, and have engraved engravings of a signet on it: Holy to YHWH;

³⁷ and you have put it on a blue ribbon, and it has been on the turban—it is toward the front of the face of the turban;

³⁸ and it has been on the forehead of Aaron, and Aaron has borne the iniquity of the holy things which the sons of Israel hallow, even all their holy gifts; and it has been on his forehead continually for a pleasing thing for them before YHWH.

³⁹ And you have embroidered the coat of linen, and have made a turban of linen, and you make a girdle—the work of an embroiderer.

⁴⁰ And you make coats for the sons of Aaron, and you have made girdles for them, and you make caps for them, for glory and for beauty;

⁴¹ and you have clothed your brother Aaron with them, and his sons with him, and have anointed them, and have consecrated their hand, and have sanctified them, and they have been priests to Me.

⁴² And make linen trousers for them to cover the naked flesh; they are from the loins even to the thighs;

² and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil; you make them of fine wheat flour;

³ and you have put them on one basket, and have brought them near in the basket, also the bullock and the two rams.

⁴ And you bring Aaron and his sons near to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and have bathed them with water;

⁵ and you have taken the garments, and have clothed Aaron with the coat, and the upper robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and have girded him with the girdle of the ephod,

⁶ and have set the turban on his head, and have put the holy crown on the turban,

⁷ and have taken the anointing oil, and have poured [it] on his head, and have anointed him.

⁸ And you bring his sons near, and have clothed them [with] coats,

⁹ and have girded them [with] a girdle (Aaron and his sons), and have bound caps on them; and the priesthood has been theirs by a continuous statute, and you have consecrated the hand of Aaron, and the hand of his sons,

¹¹ And you have slaughtered the bullock before YHWH, at the opening of the Tent of Meeting,

12 and have taken of the blood of the bullock, and have put [it] on the horns of the altar with your finger, and you pour out all the blood at the foundation of the altar;

13 and you have taken all the fat which is covering the innards, and the redundance on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat which [is] on them, and have made incense on the altar;

14 and the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, you burn with fire at the outside of the camp; it [is] a sin-offering.

15 And you take the first ram, and Aaron and his sons have laid their hands on the head of the ram,

16 and you have slaughtered the ram, and have taken its blood, and have sprinkled [it] around the altar,

17 and you cut the ram into its pieces, and have washed its innards, and its legs, and have put [them] on its pieces, and on its head;

18 and you have made incense with the whole ram on the altar. It [is] a burnt-offering to YHWH, a refreshing fragrance; it [is] a fire-offering to YHWH.

19 And you have taken the second ram, and Aaron has laid—his sons also—their hands on the head of the ram,

20 and you have slaughtered the ram, and have taken of its blood, and have put [it] on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot, and have sprinkled the blood around the altar;

21 and you have taken of the blood which [is] on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and have sprinkled [it] on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him, and he has been hallowed, he and his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

22 And you have taken from the ram the fat, and the fat tail, and the fat which is covering the innards, and the redundance on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat which [is] on them, and the right leg, for it [is] a ram of consecration,

23 and one round cake of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one thin cake out of the basket of the unleavened things which [is] before YHWH;

24 and you have set the whole on the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sons, and have waved them [for] a wave-offering before YHWH;

25 and you have taken them out of their hand, and have made incense on the altar beside the burnt-offering, for refreshing fragrance before YHWH; it [is] a fire-offering to YHWH.

26 And you have taken the breast from the ram of the consecration which [is] for Aaron, and have waved it [for] a wave-offering before YHWH, and it has become your portion;

27 and you have sanctified the breast of the wave-offering, and the leg of the raised-offering, which has been waved, and which has been lifted up from the ram of the consecration, of that which [is] for Aaron, and of that which [is] for his sons;

28 and it has been for Aaron and for his sons, by a continuous statute from the sons of Israel, for it [is] a raised-offering; and it is a raised-offering from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace-offerings—their raised-offering to YHWH.

²⁹ And the holy garments which are Aaron's are for his sons after him, to be anointed in them and to consecrate their hand in them;

³⁰ [for] seven days the priest in his stead (of his sons) puts them on when he goes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place.

³¹ And you take the ram of the consecration and have boiled its flesh in the holy place;

³² and Aaron has eaten—his sons also—the flesh of the ram, and the bread which [is] in the basket, at the opening of the Tent of Meeting;

³³ and they have eaten those things by which there is atonement to consecrate their hand, to sanctify them; and a stranger does not eat [them], for they [are] holy;

³⁴ and if there is left of the flesh of the consecration or of the bread until the morning, then you have burned that which is left with fire; it is not eaten, for it [is] holy.

³⁵ And you have done thus to Aaron and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you; [for] seven days you consecrate their hand;

³⁶ and a bullock, a sin-offering, you prepare daily for the atonements, and you have atoned for the altar in your making atonement on it, and have anointed it to sanctify it;

³⁷ [for] seven days you make atonement for the altar, and have sanctified it, and the altar has been most holy; all that is coming against the altar is holy.

³⁸ And this [is] that which you prepare on the altar: two lambs, sons of a year, daily continually;

³⁹ you prepare the first lamb in the morning, and you prepare the second lamb between the evenings;

⁴¹ And you prepare the second lamb between the evenings; according to the present of the morning, and according to its drink-offering, you prepare for it, for refreshing fragrance, a fire-offering to YHWH—

⁴³ and I have met with the sons of Israel there, and it has been sanctified by My glory.

⁴⁴ And I have sanctified the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and I sanctify Aaron and his sons for being priests to Me,

⁴⁵ and I have dwelt in the midst of the sons of Israel, and have become their God,

⁴⁶ and they have known that I [am] their God YHWH, who has brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell in their midst; I [am] their God YHWH."

¹ "And you have made an altar [for] making incense; you make it of shittim wood;

² a cubit its length and a cubit its breadth (it is square), and two cubits its height; its horns [are] of the same.

³ And you have overlaid it with pure gold—its top, and around its sides, and its horns; and you have made a crown of gold for it all around;

⁴ and you make two rings of gold for it, under its crown on its two ribs; you make [them] on its two sides, and they have become places for poles to carry it with them.

⁵ And you have made the poles of shittim wood, and have overlaid them with gold;

⁷ And Aaron has made incense on it, incense of spices, morning by morning; in his making the lamps right, he makes incense [on] it,

⁸ and in Aaron's causing the lamps to go up between the evenings, he makes incense [on] it; [it is] a continual incense before YHWH throughout your generations.

⁹ You do not cause strange incense to go up on it—and burnt-offering and present; and you do not pour out a drink-offering on it;

¹⁰ and Aaron has made atonement on its horns once in a year, by the blood of the sin-offering of atonements; once in a year he makes atonement for it, throughout your generations; it [is] most holy to YHWH."

¹¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁵ the rich do not multiply, and the poor do not diminish from the half-shekel, to give the raised-offering of YHWH, to make atonement for your souls.

¹⁶ And you have taken the atonement-money from the sons of Israel, and have given it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; and it has been to the sons of Israel for a memorial before YHWH, to make atonement for your souls."

¹⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁸ "And you have made a laver of bronze (and its base of bronze), for washing; and you have put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and have put water [in] there,

¹⁹ and Aaron and his sons have washed their hands and their feet from it;

²⁰ they wash [with] water in their going into the Tent of Meeting, and do not die; or in their drawing near to the altar to minister, to make incense [as] a fire-offering to YHWH,

²¹ then they have washed their hands and their feet, and they do not die, and it has been a continuous statute to them, to him and to his seed, throughout their generations."

²² And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²³ “And you, take [these] principal spices for yourself: five hundred [shekels] of liquid myrrh, and the half of that—two hundred and fifty [shekels]—of spice-cinnamon, and two hundred and fifty [shekels] of spice-cane,

²⁴ and five hundred [shekels] of cassia, by the shekel of the holy place, and a hin of olive oil;

²⁵ and you have made it a holy anointing oil, a compound mixture, work of a compounder; it is a holy anointing oil.

²⁶ And with it you have anointed the Tent of Meeting, and the Ark of the Testimony,

²⁷ and the table and all its vessels, and the lampstand and its vessels, and the altar of incense,

²⁸ and the altar of burnt-offering and all its vessels, and the laver and its base;

²⁹ and you have sanctified them, and they have been most holy; all that is coming against them is holy;

³⁰ and you anoint Aaron and his sons, and have sanctified them for being priests to Me.

³¹ And you speak to the sons of Israel, saying, This is a holy anointing oil to Me, throughout your generations;

³² it is not poured on [the] flesh of man, and you make nothing [else] like it in its proportion; it [is] holy—it is holy to you;

³³ a man who compounds [any] like it, or who puts of it on a stranger, has even been cut off from his people.”

³⁵ and you have made it an incense, a compound, work of a compounder, salted, pure, holy;

³⁶ and you have beaten [some] of it small, and have put of it before the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, to where I meet with you; it is most holy to you.

³⁷ As for the incense which you make, you do not make [any] for yourselves in its proportion; it is holy to you for YHWH;

³⁸ a man who makes [any] like it—to be refreshed by it—has even been cut off from his people.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “See, I have called by name Bezaleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

³ and I fill him [with] the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all work,

⁵ and in a carving of stone for settings, and in a carving of wood to work in all work.

⁶ And I, behold, have given with him Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and I have given wisdom in the heart of every wise-hearted one, and they have made all that which I have commanded you.

⁷ The Tent of Meeting, and the Ark of Testimony, and the propitiatory covering which [is] on it, and all the vessels of the tent,

⁸ and the table and its vessels, and the pure lampstand and all its vessels, and the altar of the incense,

⁹ and the altar of the burnt-offering and all its vessels, and the laver and its base,

¹⁰ and the colored garments, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, for acting as priests in;

¹¹ and the anointing oil, and the incense of the spices for the holy place; according to all that I have commanded you—they do.”

¹² And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹³ “And you, speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Surely you keep My Sabbaths, for it [is] a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, to know that I, YHWH, am sanctifying you;

¹⁴ and you have kept the Sabbath, for it [is] holy to you, he who is defiling it is certainly put to death—for any who does work in it—that person has even been cut off from the midst of his people.

¹⁵ [For] six days work is done, and in the seventh day [is] a Sabbath of holy rest to YHWH; any who does work in the Sabbath day is certainly put to death,

¹⁶ and the sons of Israel have observed the Sabbath; to keep the Sabbath throughout their generations [is] a perpetual covenant—

¹⁷ it [is] a sign between Me and the sons of Israel for all time; for [in] six days YHWH made the heavens and the earth, and in the seventh day He has ceased and is refreshed.”

¹⁸ And He gives to Moses, when He finishes speaking with him in Mount Sinai, two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

¹ And the people see that Moses is delaying to come down from the mountain, and the people assemble against Aaron, and say to him, “Rise, make gods for us, who go before us, for this Moses—the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt—we have not known what has happened to him.”

² And Aaron says to them, “Break off the rings of gold which [are] in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring [them] to me”;

³ and all the people break off the rings of gold which [are] in their ears, and bring [them] to Aaron,

⁵ And Aaron sees, and builds an altar before it, and Aaron calls, and says, “A festival to YHWH—tomorrow”;

⁷ And YHWH says to Moses, “Go, descend, for your people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt have done corruptly,

⁸ they have quickly turned aside from the way that I have commanded them; they have made a molten calf for themselves, and bow themselves to it, and sacrifice to it, and say, These [are] your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

⁹ And YHWH says to Moses, "I have seen this people, and behold, it [is] a stiff-necked people;

¹⁰ and now, leave Me alone, and My anger burns against them, and I consume them, and I make you become a great nation."

¹¹ And Moses appeases the face of his God YHWH and says, "Why, O YHWH, does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong hand?"

¹³ Be mindful of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, Your servants, to whom You have sworn by Yourself, and to whom You speak: I multiply your seed as stars of the heavens, and all this land, as I have said, I give to your seed, and they have inherited [it] for all time";

¹⁴ and YHWH relents from the evil which He has spoken of doing to His people.

¹⁵ And Moses turns, and goes down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony [are] in his hand, tablets written on both their sides; they [are] written on this [side] and on that [side];

¹⁶ and the tablets are the work of God, and the writing is the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷ And Joshua hears the voice of the people in their shouting and says to Moses, "A noise of battle in the camp!"

¹⁸ And he says, "It is not the voice of the crying of might, nor is it the voice of the crying of weakness—I am hearing a voice of singing."

¹⁹ And it comes to pass, when he has drawn near to the camp, that he sees the calf, and the dancing, and the anger of Moses burns, and he casts the tablets out of his hands, and breaks them below the mountain;

²¹ And Moses says to Aaron, "What has this people done to you, that you have brought in a great sin on it?"

²² And Aaron says, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you have known the people, that it [is beset] with evil;

²³ and they say to me, Make gods for us, who go before us, for this Moses—the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt—we have not known what has happened to him;

²⁴ and I say to them, Whoever has gold, let them break [it] off, and they give [it] to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf comes out."

²⁵ And Moses sees the people, that it [is] unbridled, for Aaron has made it unbridled for contempt among its withstanders,

²⁶ and Moses stands in the gate of the camp and says, "Who [is] for YHWH? [Come] to me!" And all the sons of Levi are gathered to him;

²⁷ and he says to them, "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Each put his sword by his thigh, pass over and turn back from gate to gate through the camp, and each slay his brother, and each his friend, and each his relation.”

²⁸ And the sons of Levi do according to the word of Moses, and there falls of the people on that day about three thousand men,

²⁹ and Moses says, “Consecrate your hand to YHWH today, for a man [is] against his son, and against his brother, so as to bring a blessing on you today.”

³⁰ And it comes to pass, on the next day, that Moses says to the people, “You have sinned a great sin, and now I go up to YHWH, perhaps I can atone for your sin.”

³¹ And Moses turns back to YHWH and says, “Ah, now this people has sinned a great sin, that they make a god of gold for themselves;

³² and now, if You take away their sin—and if not—please blot me out of Your scroll which You have written.”

³³ And YHWH says to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me—I blot him out of My scroll;

³⁴ and now, go, lead the people wherever I have spoken to you of; behold, My Messenger goes before you, and in the day of my charging—then I have charged their sin on them.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, “Go, ascend from this [place], you and the people, whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land which I have sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I give it to your seed.

² And I have sent a Messenger before you, and have cast out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

³ [Go up] to a land flowing with milk and honey, for I do not go up in your midst, for you [are] a stiff-necked people—lest I consume you in the way.”

⁴ And the people hear this sad thing, and mourn; and none puts his ornaments on him.

⁵ And YHWH says to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel: You [are] a stiff-necked people; [in] one moment I could come up into your midst and could have consumed you; and now, put down your ornaments from off you, and I know what I do to you”;

⁶ and the sons of Israel take off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

¹⁰ and all the people have seen the pillar of the cloud standing at the opening of the tent, and all the people have risen and bowed themselves, each at the opening of his tent.

¹² And Moses says to YHWH, "See, You are saying to me, Bring up this people, and You have not caused me to know whom You send with me; and You have said, I have known you by name, and you have also found grace in My eyes.

¹³ And now, if, please, I have found grace in Your eyes, please cause me to know Your way, and I know You, so that I find grace in Your eyes, and consider that this nation [is] Your people";

¹⁴ and He says, "My presence goes, and I have given rest to you."

¹⁵ And he says to Him, "If Your presence is not going—do not take us up from this [place];

¹⁶ and in what is it known now, that I have found grace in Your eyes—I and Your people—is it not in Your going with us? And we have been distinguished—I and Your people—from all the people who [are] on the face of the ground."

¹⁷ And YHWH says to Moses, "Even this thing which you have spoken I do; for you have found grace in My eyes, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ And he says, "Please show me Your glory";

¹⁹ and He says, "I cause all My goodness to pass before your face, and have called concerning the Name of YHWH before you, and favored him whom I favor, and loved him whom I love."

²⁰ He also says, "You are unable to see My face, for man does not see Me and live";

²¹ YHWH also says, "Behold, a place [is] by Me, and you have stood on the rock,

²² and it has come to pass, in the passing by of My glory, that I have set you in a cleft of the rock, and spread out My hands over you until My passing by,

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and I have written on the tablets the words which were on the first tablets which you have broken;

² and be prepared at morning, and you have come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and have stood before Me there, on the top of the mountain,

³ and no man comes up with you, and also no man is seen in all the mountain, also the flock and the herd do not feed toward the front of that mountain."

⁵ And YHWH comes down in a cloud, and stations Himself with him there, and calls in the Name of YHWH,

⁶ and YHWH passes over before his face, and calls: “YHWH, YHWH God, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in kindness and truth,

⁷ keeping kindness for thousands, taking away iniquity, and transgression, and sin, and not entirely acquitting, charging iniquity of fathers on sons and on sons’ sons, on a third and on a fourth [generation].”

⁸ And Moses hurries, and bows to the earth, and pays respect,

⁹ and says, “Now if I have found grace in Your eyes, O my Lord, please let my Lord go in our midst (for it [is] a stiff-necked people), and you have forgiven our iniquity and our sin, and have inherited us.”

¹⁰ And He says, “Behold, I am making a covenant. I do wonders before all your people, which have not been done in all the earth, or in any nation, and all the people in whose midst you [are in] have seen the work of YHWH, for it [is] fearful—that which I am doing with you.

¹¹ Observe for yourself that which I am commanding you today. Behold, I am casting out from before you the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite;

¹² take heed to yourself lest you make a covenant with the inhabitant of the land into which you are going, lest it become a snare in your midst;

¹³ for you break down their altars, and you shatter their standing pillars, and you cut down its Asherim;

¹⁴ for you do not bow yourselves to another god—for YHWH, whose Name [is] Zealous, is a zealous God.

¹⁵ Lest you make a covenant with the inhabitant of the land, and they have gone whoring after their gods, and have sacrificed to their gods, and [one] has called to you, and you have eaten of his sacrifice,

¹⁶ and you have taken of their daughters for your sons, and their daughters have gone whoring after their gods, and have caused your sons to go whoring after their gods;

¹⁷ you do not make a molten god for yourself.

¹⁹ All opening a womb [are] Mine, and every firstling of your livestock born a male, [whether] ox or sheep;

²¹ [For] six days you work, and on the seventh day you rest; in plowing-time and in harvest you rest.

²² And you observe [the] Celebration of Weeks for yourself, of [the] first-fruits of wheat-harvest; and the Celebration of Ingathering at the revolution of the year:

²³ Three times in a year all your males appear before the Lord YHWH, God of Israel;

²⁴ for I dispossess nations from before you, and have enlarged your border, and no man desires your land in your going up to appear before your God YHWH three times in a year.

²⁵ You do not slaughter the blood of My sacrifice with a fermented thing; and the sacrifice of the Celebration of the Passover does not remain until morning.

²⁶ You bring the first of the first-fruits of the land into the house of your God YHWH. You do not boil a kid in its mother's milk."

²⁷ And YHWH says to Moses, "Write these words for yourself, for I have made a covenant with you and with Israel according to the tenor of these words."

²⁸ And he is there with YHWH forty days and forty nights; he has not eaten bread, and he has not drunk water; and he writes on the tablets the matters of the covenant—the Ten Commandments.

²⁹ And it comes to pass, when Moses is coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony [are] in the hand of Moses in his coming down from the mountain), that Moses has not known that the skin of his face has shone in His speaking with him,

³⁰ and Aaron sees—all the sons of Israel also—Moses, and behold, the skin of his face has shone, and they are afraid of coming near to him.

³¹ And Moses calls to them, and Aaron and all the princes in the congregation return to him, and Moses speaks to them;

³² and afterward all the sons of Israel have come near, and he charges them with all that YHWH has spoken with him in Mount Sinai.

³³ And Moses finishes speaking with them, and puts a veil on his face;

³⁴ and in the going in of Moses before YHWH to speak with Him, he turns aside the veil until his coming out; and he has come out and has spoken to the sons of Israel that which he is commanded;

³⁵ and the sons of Israel have seen the face of Moses, that the skin of the face of Moses has shone, and Moses has put back the veil on his face until his going in to speak with Him.

¹ And Moses assembles all the congregation of the sons of Israel and says to them, "These [are] the things which YHWH has commanded—to do them:

² [For] six days work is done, and on the seventh day there is a holy [day] for you, a Sabbath of rest to YHWH; any who does work in it is put to death;

³ you do not burn a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

⁴ And Moses speaks to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded, saying,

⁶ and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and linen, and goats' [hair],

⁷ and rams' skins made red, and tachashim skins, and shittim wood,

⁸ and oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the spice-incense,

⁹ and shoham stones, and stones for settings, for an ephod, and for a breastplate.

¹⁰ And all the wise-hearted among you come in, and make all that YHWH has commanded:

¹¹ the Dwelling Place, its tent, and its covering, its hooks, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets,

¹² the Ark and its poles, the propitiatory covering, and the veil of the covering,

13 the table and its poles, and all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presentation,

14 and the lampstand for the light, and its vessels, and its lamps, and the oil for the light,

15 and the altar of incense, and its poles, and the anointing oil, and the spice-incense, and the covering of the opening at the opening of the Dwelling Place,

16 the altar of burnt-offering and the bronze grate which it has, its poles, and all its vessels, the laver and its base,

17 the hangings of the court, its pillars, and their sockets, and the covering of the gate of the court,

18 the pins of the Dwelling Place, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

19 the colored garments, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons to act as priest in."

20 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel go out from the presence of Moses,

21 and they come in—every man whom his heart has lifted up, and everyone whom his spirit has made willing—they have brought in the raised-offering of YHWH for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they come in—the men with the women—every willing-hearted one—they have brought in nose-ring, and earring, and seal-ring, and necklace, all golden goods, even everyone who has waved a wave-offering of gold to YHWH.

23 And every man with whom has been found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and linen, and goats' [hair], and rams' skins made red, and tachashim skins, have brought [them] in;

24 everyone lifting up a raised-offering of silver and bronze has brought in the raised-offering of YHWH; and everyone with whom has been found shittim wood for any work of the service brought [it] in.

25 And every wise-hearted woman has spun with her hands, and they bring in yarn—of the blue, and the purple, [and] the scarlet—and the linen;

26 and all the women whose heart has lifted them up in wisdom, have spun the goats' [hair].

27 And the princes have brought in the shoham stones, and the stones for settings, for the ephod, and for the breastplate,

28 and the spices, and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the spice-incense;

29 every man and woman of the sons of Israel (whom their heart has made willing to bring in for all the work which YHWH commanded to be done by the hand of Moses) brought in a willing-offering to YHWH.

30 And Moses says to the sons of Israel, "See, YHWH has called Bezaleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, by name,

31 and He fills him [with] the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all work,

32 even to devise inventions to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze,

33 and in a carving of stones for settings, and in a carving of wood to work in any work of design.

³⁴ And He has put [it] in his heart to direct, he and Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan;

³⁵ He has filled them with wisdom of heart to do every work, of engraver, and designer, and embroiderer (in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in linen), and weaver, who does any work, and of designers of designs."

² And Moses calls to Bezaleel, and to Aholiab, and to every wise-hearted man in whose heart YHWH has given wisdom, everyone whom his heart lifted up, to come near to the work to do it.

³ And they take from before Moses all the raised-offering which the sons of Israel have brought in for the work of the service of the holy place to do it; and still they have brought to him a willing-offering morning by morning.

⁴ And all the wise men, who are doing all the work of the holy place, each come from his work which they are doing,

⁵ and speak to Moses, saying, "The people are multiplying to bring in more than sufficient for the service of the work which YHWH commanded [us] to do."

⁶ And Moses commands, and they cause a voice to pass over through the camp, saying, "Do not let man or woman make anymore work for the raised-offering of the holy place"; and the people are restrained from bringing,

⁷ and the work has been sufficient for them, for all the work, to do it, and to leave.

⁹ The length of one curtain [is] twenty-eight by the cubit, and the breadth of one curtain [is] four by the cubit; one measure [is] for all the curtains.

¹⁰ And he joins the five curtains to one another, and the [other] five curtains he has joined to one another;

¹¹ and he makes loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, at the end, in the joining; so he has made in the edge of the outmost curtain, in the joining of the second;

¹³ And he makes fifty hooks of gold, and joins the curtains to one another by the hooks, and the Dwelling Place is one.

¹⁴ And he makes curtains of goats' [hair] for a tent over the Dwelling Place; eleven curtains he has made them;

¹⁵ the length of one curtain [is] thirty by the cubit, and the breadth of one curtain [is] four cubits; one measure [is] for the eleven curtains;

¹⁶ and he joins the five curtains apart, and the six curtains apart.

¹⁷ And he makes fifty loops on the outer edge of the curtain, in the joining; and he has made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is joining the second;

¹⁸ and he makes fifty hooks of bronze to join the tent—to be one;

¹⁹ and he makes a covering for the tent of rams' skins made red, and a covering of tachashim skins above.

²⁰ And he makes the boards for the Dwelling Place of shittim wood, standing up;

²¹ ten cubits [is] the length of the [one] board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of the [one] board;

²² two handles [are] to one board, joined to one another; so he has made for all the boards of the Dwelling Place.

²³ And he makes the boards for the Dwelling Place; twenty boards for the south side southward;

²⁴ and he has made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for its two handles, and two sockets under the other board for its two handles.

²⁵ And for the second side of the Dwelling Place, for the north side, he has made twenty boards,

²⁶ and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under the other board;

²⁷ and for the sides of the Dwelling Place westward, he has made six boards;

²⁸ and he has made two boards for the corners of the Dwelling Place, in the two sides;

²⁹ and they have been twins below, and together they are twins at its head, at one ring; so he has done to both of them at the two corners;

³⁰ and there have been eight boards; and their sockets of silver [are] sixteen sockets, two sockets under one board.

³¹ And he makes bars of shittim wood: five for the boards of the first side of the Dwelling Place,

³² and five bars for the boards of the second side of the Dwelling Place, and five bars for the boards of the Dwelling Place, for the sides westward;

³³ and he makes the middle bar to enter into the midst of the boards from end to end;

³⁴ and he has overlaid the boards with gold, and he has made their rings of gold, places for bars, and he overlays the bars with gold.

³⁵ And he makes the veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen; he has made it [with] cherubim—the work of a designer;

³⁶ and he makes four pillars of shittim [wood] for it, and overlays them with gold; their pegs [are] of gold; and he casts four sockets of silver for them.

³⁷ And he makes a covering for the opening of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen, the work of an embroiderer;

³⁸ also its five pillars, and their pegs; and he overlaid their tops and their fillets [with] gold, and their five sockets [are] bronze.

² and he overlays it with pure gold inside and outside, and makes a wreath of gold for it all around;

³ and he casts four rings of gold for it on its four feet, even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its second side;

⁴ and he makes poles of shittim wood, and overlays them with gold,

⁵ and he brings in the poles into the rings, by the sides of the Ark, to carry the Ark.

⁶ And he makes a propitiatory covering of pure gold, two cubits and a half its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth;

⁷ and he makes two cherubim of gold; he has made them of beaten work at the two ends of the propitiatory covering—

⁸ one cherub at the end on this [side] and one cherub at the end on that [side]; he has made the cherubim from [above] the propitiatory covering, at its two ends;

¹⁰ And he makes the table of shittim wood; two cubits its length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height,

¹¹ and overlays it with pure gold, and makes a wreath of gold for it all around.

¹² And he makes a border for it of a handbreadth around, and makes a wreath of gold around for its border;

¹³ and he casts four rings of gold for it, and puts the rings on the four corners which [are] at its four feet;

¹⁴ the rings have been close by the border; places for poles to carry the table.

¹⁵ And he makes the poles of shittim wood, and overlays them with gold, to carry the table;

¹⁶ and he makes the vessels which [are] on the table, its dishes, and its bowls, and its cups, and the cups by which they pour out, of pure gold.

¹⁷ And he makes the lampstand of pure gold; he has made the lampstand of beaten work, its base, and its branch, its calyxes, its knobs, and its flowers, have been of the same;

¹⁸ and six branches are coming out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its second side;

¹⁹ three calyxes, made like almonds, in one branch, a knob and a flower; and three calyxes, made like almonds, in another branch, a knob and a flower; so for the six branches which are coming out of the lampstand.

²⁰ And in the lampstand [are] four calyxes, made like almonds, its knobs, and its flowers,

²² their knobs and their branches have been of the same; all of it one beaten work of pure gold.

²³ And he makes its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, of pure gold;

²⁴ he has made it of a talent of pure gold, and with all its vessels.

²⁵ And he makes the incense-altar of shittim wood; a cubit its length, and a cubit its breadth (square), and two cubits its height; its horns have been of the same;

²⁶ and he overlays it with pure gold, around its top and its sides, and its horns; and he makes a wreath of gold for it all around;

²⁷ and he has made two rings of gold for it under its wreath, at its two corners, at its two sides, for places for poles to carry it with them.

²⁸ And he makes the poles of shittim wood, and overlays them with gold;

²⁹ and he makes the holy anointing oil, and the pure spice-incense—work of a compounder.

² and he makes its horns on its four corners; its horns have been of the same; and he overlays it with bronze;

³ and he makes all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the sprinkling-pans, the forks, and the fire-pans; he has made all its vessels of bronze.

⁴ And he makes a bronze grate of network for the altar, under its rim beneath, to its midst;

⁵ and he casts four rings for the four ends of the bronze grate—places for bars;

⁶ and he makes the poles of shittim wood, and overlays them with bronze;

⁷ and he brings in the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them; he made it hollow [with] boards.

⁹ And he makes the court: at the south side southward, the hangings of the court of twined linen, one hundred by the cubit,

¹⁰ their pillars [are] twenty, and their bronze sockets twenty, the pegs of the pillars and their fillets [are] silver;

¹³ and at the east side eastward, fifty cubits.

¹⁴ The hangings on the side [are] fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three,

¹⁵ and at the second side at the gate of the court, on this [side] and on that [side]—hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three;

¹⁶ all the hangings of the court around [are] of twined linen,

¹⁹ and their pillars [are] four, and their sockets of bronze four, their pegs [are] of silver, and the overlaying of their tops and their fillets [are] of silver;

²⁰ and all the pins for the Dwelling Place, and for the court all around, [are] of bronze.

²² And Bezaleel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, has made all that YHWH commanded Moses;

²⁵ And the silver of those numbered of the congregation [is] one hundred talents, and one thousand and seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, by the shekel of the holy place;

²⁷ And one hundred talents of silver are for casting the sockets of the holy place, and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the hundred talents, a talent for a socket;

²⁹ And the bronze of the wave-offering [is] seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels;

³⁰ and he makes with it the sockets of the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and the bronze altar, and the bronze grate which it has, and all the vessels of the altar;

² And he makes the ephod, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen,

⁴ they have made shoulder-pieces for it, joining; it is joined at its two ends.

⁶ And they prepare the shoham stones, set [with] filigrees of gold, engraved with engravings of a signet—the names of the sons of Israel on [them];

⁷ and he sets them on the shoulders of the ephod—stones of memorial for the sons of Israel, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

⁸ And he makes the breastplate, the work of a designer, like the work of the ephod, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen;

⁹ it has been square; they have made the breastplate double, a span its length, and a span its breadth, doubled.

¹⁰ And they fill four rows of stones in it: a row of a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle [is] the first row;

¹¹ and the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;

¹² and the third row an opal, an agate, and an amethyst;

¹³ and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper—set [with] filigrees of gold in their settings.

¹⁴ And the stones, according to the names of the sons of Israel, are twelve, according to their names, engravings of a signet, each according to his name, for the twelve tribes.

¹⁵ And they make wreathed chains on the breastplate, [the] work of thick bands of pure gold;

¹⁶ and they make two filigrees of gold, and two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate,

¹⁷ and they put the two thick bands of gold on the two rings on the ends of the breastplate;

¹⁹ And they make two rings of gold, and set [them] on the two ends of the breastplate, on its border, which [is] on the side of the ephod within;

²⁰ and they make two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulders of the ephod below, in front of its front, close by its joining, above the girdle of the ephod;

²¹ and they bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod, with a ribbon of blue, to be above the girdle of the ephod, and the breastplate is not loosed from off the ephod, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²² And he makes the upper robe of the ephod, the work of a weaver, completely of blue;

²³ and the opening of the upper robe [is] in its midst, as the opening of a [linen] habergeon, [with] a border for its opening all around; it is not torn;

²⁴ and they make on the hems of the upper robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, twined.

²⁵ And they make bells of pure gold, and put the bells in the midst of the pomegranates, on the hems of the upper robe, all around, in the midst of the pomegranates;

²⁶ a bell and a pomegranate [and] a bell and a pomegranate [are] on the hems of the upper robe all around, to minister in, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²⁷ And they make the coats of linen, the work of a weaver, for Aaron and for his sons,

²⁸ and the turban of linen, and the beautiful caps of linen, and the linen trousers, of twined linen,

²⁹ and the girdle of twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of an embroiderer, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³⁰ And they make the flower of the holy crown of pure gold, and write a writing on it, engravings of a signet: "Holy to YHWH";

³¹ and they put a ribbon of blue on it, to put [it] on the turban above, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³² And all the service of the Dwelling Place of the Tent of Meeting is completed; and the sons of Israel do according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses; so they have done.

³³ And they bring in the Dwelling Place to Moses, the tent, and all its vessels, its hooks, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets;

³⁴ and the covering of rams' skins, which are made red, and the covering of tachashim skins, and the veil of the covering;

³⁵ the Ark of the Testimony and its poles, and the propitiatory covering;

³⁶ the table, all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presentation;

³⁷ the pure lampstand, its lamps, the lamps of arrangement, and all its vessels, and the oil for the light.

³⁸ And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the spice-incense, and the covering of the opening of the tent;

³⁹ the bronze altar and the bronze grate which it has, its poles, and all its vessels, the laver and its base;

⁴¹ the colored clothes to minister in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to act as priest in.

⁴² According to all that YHWH has commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel have done all the service;

⁴³ and Moses sees all the work, and behold, they have done it as YHWH has commanded; so they have done. And Moses blesses them.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² "On the first day of the month, in the first month, you raise up the Dwelling Place of the Tent of Meeting,

³ and have set the Ark of the Testimony [in] there, and have covered over the Ark with the veil,

⁴ and have brought in the table, and set its arrangement in order, and have brought in the lampstand, and caused its lamps to go up.

⁵ And you have put the golden altar for incense before the Ark of the Testimony, and have put the covering of the opening to the Dwelling Place,

⁶ and have put the altar of the burnt-offering before the opening of the Dwelling Place of the Tent of Meeting,

⁷ and have put the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and have put water [in] there.

⁸ And you have set the court all around, and have placed the covering of the gate of the court,

⁹ and have taken the anointing oil, and anointed the Dwelling Place, and all that [is] in it, and hallowed it, and all its vessels, and it has been holy;

¹⁰ and you have anointed the altar of the burnt-offering, and all its vessels, and sanctified the altar, and the altar has been most holy;

¹¹ and you have anointed the laver and its base, and sanctified it.

¹² And you have brought Aaron and his sons near to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and have bathed them with water;

¹³ and you have clothed Aaron with the holy garments, and anointed him, and sanctified him, and he has acted as priest to Me.

¹⁴ And you bring his sons near, and have clothed them with coats,

¹⁵ and anointed them as you have anointed their father, and they have acted as priests to Me, and their anointing has been to them for a continuous priesthood throughout their generations.”

¹⁶ And Moses does according to all that YHWH has commanded him; so he has done.

¹⁷ And it comes to pass, in the first month, in the second year, on the first of the month, the Dwelling Place has been raised up;

¹⁸ and Moses raises up the Dwelling Place, and sets its sockets, and places its boards, and places its bars, and raises its pillars,

¹⁹ and spreads the tent over the Dwelling Place, and puts the covering of the tent on it above, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²⁰ And he takes and puts the Testimony into the Ark, and sets the poles on the Ark, and puts the propitiatory covering on the Ark above;

²² And he puts the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the side of the Dwelling Place northward, at the outside of the veil, ²³ and sets in order the arrangement of bread on it, before YHWH, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²⁴ And he puts the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the Dwelling Place southward, ²⁵ and causes the lamps to go up before YHWH, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²⁶ And he sets the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting, before the veil,

²⁷ and makes incense on it—spice-incense—as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²⁸ And he sets the covering [at] the opening of the Dwelling Place,

²⁹ and he has set the altar of the burnt-offering [at] the opening of the Dwelling Place of the Tent of Meeting, and causes the burnt-offering to go up on it, and the present, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³⁰ And he puts the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and puts water [in] there for washing,

³¹ and Moses and Aaron and his sons have washed their hands and their feet at the same;

³² in their going into the Tent of Meeting, and in their drawing near to the altar, they wash, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³³ And he raises up the court all around the Dwelling Place, and around the altar, and places the covering of the gate of the court; and Moses completes the work.

³⁴ And the cloud covers the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of YHWH has filled the Dwelling Place;

³⁵ and Moses has not been able to go into the Tent of Meeting, for the cloud has dwelt on it, and the glory of YHWH has filled the Dwelling Place.

³⁶ And in the going up of the cloud from off the Dwelling Place the sons of Israel journey in all their journeys;

³⁷ and if the cloud does not go up then they do not journey, until the day of its going up.

³⁸ For the cloud of YHWH [is] on the Dwelling Place by day, and fire is in it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel in all their journeys.

Leviticus

¹ And YHWH calls to Moses, and speaks to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: Any man of you, when he brings an offering near to YHWH out of the livestock—out of the herd or out of the flock—you bring your offering near.

³ If his offering [is] a burnt-offering out of the herd, he brings a male near, a perfect one, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting; he brings it near at his pleasure before YHWH;

⁴ and he has laid his hand on the head of the burnt-offering, and it has been accepted for him to make atonement for him;

⁵ and he has slaughtered the son of the herd before YHWH; and sons of Aaron, the priests, have brought the blood near, and sprinkled the blood around the altar, which [is] at the opening of the Tent of Meeting.

⁶ And he has stripped the burnt-offering, and has cut it into its pieces;

⁷ and the sons of Aaron the priest have put fire on the altar, and arranged wood on the fire;

⁸ and sons of Aaron, the priests, have arranged the pieces, with the head and the fat, on the wood, which [is] on the fire, which [is] on the altar;

⁹ and he washes its innards and its legs with water; and the priest has made incense with the whole on the altar, a burnt-offering, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

¹⁰ And if his offering [is] out of the flock—out of the sheep or out of the goats—he brings a male near, a perfect one, for a burnt-offering,

¹² and he has cut it into its pieces, and its head and its fat, and the priest has arranged them on the wood, which [is] on the fire, which [is] on the altar;

¹³ and he washes the innards and the legs with water, and the priest has brought the whole near, and has made incense on the altar; it [is] a burnt-offering, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

¹⁴ And if his offering [is] a burnt-offering out of the bird to YHWH, then he has brought his offering near out of the turtle-doves or out of the young pigeons,

¹⁵ and the priest has brought it near to the altar, and has wrung off its head, and has made incense on the altar, and its blood has been wrung out by the side of the altar;

¹⁶ and he has turned aside its crop with its feathers, and has cast it near the altar, eastward, to the place of ashes;

¹⁷ and he has cleaved it with its wings (he does not separate [it]), and the priest has made it an incense on the altar, on the wood, which [is] on the fire; it [is] a burnt-offering, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH.”

¹ “And when a person brings an offering near, a present to YHWH, [and] his offering is of flour, then he has poured oil on it, and has put frankincense on it;

² and he has brought it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and one [of the priests] has taken from there the fullness of his hand of its flour and of its oil, besides all its frankincense, and the priest has made incense with its memorial on the altar, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH;

³ and the remnant of the present [is] for Aaron and for his sons, most holy, of the fire-offerings of YHWH.

⁵ And if your offering [is] a present [made] on the griddle, it is of flour, mixed with oil, unleavened;

⁶ divide it into parts, and you have poured oil on it; it [is] a present.

⁷ And if your offering [is] a present [made] on the frying-pan, it is made of flour with oil,

⁸ and you have brought in the present which is made of these to YHWH, and [one] has brought it near to the priest, and he has brought it near to the altar,

⁹ and the priest has lifted up from the present its memorial, and has made incense on the altar, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH;

¹⁰ and the remnant of the present [is] for Aaron and for his sons, most holy, of the fire-offerings of YHWH.

¹² An offering of first-[fruits]—you bring them near to YHWH, but they do not go up on the altar for refreshing fragrance.

¹³ And every offering—your present—you season with salt, and you do not let the salt of the covenant of your God cease from your present; you bring salt near with all your offerings.

¹⁴ And if you bring a present of first-fruits near to YHWH, you bring the present of your first-fruits near of green ears, roasted with fire, beaten out [grain] of a fruitful field,

¹⁵ and you have put oil on it, and laid frankincense on it, [for] it [is] a present;

² and he has laid his hand on the head of his offering, and has slaughtered it at the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and sons of Aaron, the priests, have sprinkled the blood around the altar.

⁴ and the two kidneys, and the fat which [is] on them, which [is] on the flanks, and the redundance on the liver above the kidneys—he turns it aside,

⁵ and sons of Aaron have made it an incense on the altar, on the burnt-offering which [is] on the wood, which [is] on the fire, [as] a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

⁶ And if his offering [is] out of the flock for a sacrifice of peace-offerings to YHWH, male or female, he brings a perfect one near;

⁷ if he is bringing a sheep near [for] his offering, then he has brought it near before YHWH,

⁸ and has laid his hand on the head of his offering, and has slaughtered it before the Tent of Meeting, and sons of Aaron have sprinkled its blood around the altar.

⁹ And he has brought near from the sacrifice of the peace-offerings a fire-offering to YHWH, its fat, the whole fat tail close by the bone—he turns it aside, and the fat which is covering the innards, and all the fat which [is] on the innards,

¹⁰ and the two kidneys, and the fat which [is] on them, which [is] on the flanks, and the redundance on the liver above the kidneys—he turns it aside,

¹¹ and the priest has made it an incense on the altar [as] bread of a fire-offering to YHWH.

¹³ and has laid his hand on its head, and has slaughtered it before the Tent of Meeting, and sons of Aaron have sprinkled its blood around the altar;

¹⁶ and the priest has made them an incense on the altar [as] bread of a fire-offering, for refreshing fragrance; all the fat [is] YHWH's.

¹⁷ [This is] a continuous statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you do not eat any fat or any blood."

² "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a person sins through ignorance against any of the commands of YHWH [regarding things] which are not to be done, and has done [something] against one of these—

³ if the priest who is anointed sins according to the guilt of the people, then he has brought near for his sin which he has sinned a bullock, a son of the herd, a perfect one, to YHWH, for a sin-offering,

⁶ and the priest has dipped his finger in the blood, and sprinkled of the blood seven times before YHWH, at the front of the veil of the holy place;

¹⁰ as it is lifted up from the ox of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings; and the priest has made them an incense on the altar of the burnt-offering.

¹¹ And the skin of the bullock, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its innards, and its dung—

¹² he has even brought out the whole bullock to the outside of the camp, to a clean place, to the place of the pouring out of the ashes, and he has burned it on the wood with fire; it is burned beside the place of the pouring out of the ashes.

¹³ And if all the congregation of Israel errs ignorantly, and the thing has been hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done [something against] one of all the commands of YHWH [regarding things] which are not to be done, and have been guilty;

¹⁴ when the sin which they have sinned concerning it has been known, then the assembly has brought a bullock near, a son of the herd, for a sin-offering, and they have brought it in before the Tent of Meeting;

¹⁵ and the elderly of the congregation have laid their hands on the head of the bullock, before YHWH, and [one] has slaughtered the bullock before YHWH.

¹⁶ And the priest who is anointed has brought in of the blood of the bullock to the Tent of Meeting,

¹⁷ and the priest has dipped his finger in the blood, and has sprinkled seven times before YHWH at the front of the veil,

¹⁸ and he puts [some] of the blood on the horns of the altar which [is] before YHWH, which [is] in the Tent of Meeting; and he pours out all the blood at the foundation of the altar of the burnt-offering, which [is] at the opening of the Tent of Meeting;

¹⁹ and he lifts up all its fat from it, and has made incense on the altar.

²⁰ And he has done to the bullock as he has done to the bullock of the sin-offering, so he does to it; and the priest has made atonement for them, and it has been forgiven them;

²¹ and he has brought out the bullock to the outside of the camp, and has burned it as he has burned the first bullock; it [is] a sin-offering of the assembly.

²² When a prince sins, and has done [something against] one of all the commands of his God YHWH [regarding things] which are not to be done, through ignorance, and has been guilty,

²³ or his sin wherein he has sinned has been made known to him, then he has brought in his offering, a kid of the goats, a male, a perfect one,

²⁴ and he has laid his hand on the head of the goat, and has slaughtered it in the place where he slaughters the burnt-offering before YHWH; it [is] a sin-offering.

²⁶ and he makes incense on the altar with all its fat, as the fat of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings; and the priest has made atonement for him because of his sin, and it has been forgiven him.

²⁷ And if any person of the people of the land sins through ignorance, by his doing [something against] one of the commands of YHWH [regarding things] which are not to be done, and has been guilty,

²⁸ or his sin which he has sinned has been made known to him, then he has brought in his offering, a kid of the goats, a perfect one, a female, for his sin which he has sinned,

²⁹ and he has laid his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and has slaughtered the sin-offering in the place of the burnt-offering.

³¹ and he turns aside all its fat, as the fat has been turned aside from off the sacrifice of the peace-offerings, and the priest has made incense on the altar for refreshing fragrance to YHWH; and the priest has made atonement for him, and it has been forgiven him.

³² And if he brings in a sheep [for] his offering, a female for a sin-offering, he brings in a perfect one,

³³ and he has laid his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and has slaughtered it for a sin-offering in the place where he slaughters the burnt-offering.

³⁵ and he turns aside all its fat, as the fat of the sheep is turned aside from the sacrifice of the peace-offerings, and the priest has made them an incense on the altar, according to the fire-offerings of YHWH, and the priest has made atonement for him, for his sin which he has sinned, and it has been forgiven him.”

¹ “And when a person sins, and has heard the voice of an oath, and he [is] witness, or has seen, or has known—if he does not declare [it], then he has borne his iniquity.

² Or when a person comes against anything unclean, or against a carcass of an unclean beast, or against a carcass of unclean livestock, or against a carcass of an unclean teeming creature, and it has been hidden from him, then he [is] unclean and guilty;

³ or when he comes against [the] uncleanness of man, even any of his uncleanness whereby he is unclean, and it has been hidden from him, and he has known, then he has been guilty.

⁴ Or when a person swears, speaking wrongfully with the lips to do evil, or to do good, even anything which man speaks wrongfully with an oath, and it has been hid from him—when he has known then he has been guilty of one of these;

⁵ and it has been when he is guilty of one of these, that he has confessed concerning that which he has sinned,

⁶ and has brought in his guilt-offering to YHWH for his sin which he has sinned, a female out of the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sin-offering, and the priest has made atonement for him because of his sin.

⁷ And if his hand does not reach to the sufficiency of a lamb, then he has brought in his guilt-offering—he who has sinned—two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to YHWH, one for a sin-offering and one for a burnt-offering;

⁸ and he has brought them to the priest, and has brought near that which [is] for a sin-offering first, and has wrung off its head from its neck, and does not separate [it],

¹⁰ And he makes the second a burnt-offering, according to the ordinance, and the priest has made atonement for him because of his sin which he has sinned, and it has been forgiven him.

¹¹ And if his hand does not reach to two turtle-doves, or to two young pigeons, then he has brought in his offering—he who has sinned—a tenth of an ephah of flour for a sin-offering; he puts no oil on it, nor does he put frankincense on it, for it [is] a sin-offering,

¹² and he has brought it to the priest, and the priest has taken a handful from it of the fullness of his hand—its memorial—and has made incense on the altar, according to the fire-offerings of YHWH; it [is] a sin-offering.

¹³ And the priest has made atonement for him, for his sin which he has sinned against one of these, and it has been forgiven him, and [the remnant] has been for the priest, like the present."

¹⁴ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁵ "When a person commits a trespass, and has sinned through ignorance against the holy things of YHWH, then he has brought in his guilt-offering to YHWH, a ram, a perfect one, out of the flock, at your valuation [in] silver—shekels by the shekel of the holy place—for a guilt-offering.

¹⁶ And that which he has sinned against the holy thing he repays, and is adding to it its fifth, and has given it to the priest, and the priest makes atonement for him with the ram of the guilt-offering, and it has been forgiven him.

¹⁷ And when any person sins, and has done [something against] one of all the commands of YHWH [regarding things] which are not to be done, and has not known, then he has been guilty, and has borne his iniquity.

¹⁸ Then he has brought in a ram, a perfect one, out of the flock, at your valuation, for a guilt-offering, to the priest; and the priest has made atonement for him, for his ignorance in which he has erred and he has not known, and it has been forgiven him;

² “When any person sins, and has committed a trespass against YHWH, and has lied to his fellow concerning a deposit, or concerning fellowship, or concerning violent robbery, or has oppressed his fellow;

³ or has found a lost thing, and has lied concerning it, and has sworn to a falsehood, concerning one of all [these] which man does, sinning in them:

⁴ then it has been, when he sins and has been guilty, that he has returned the plunder which he has violently taken away, or the thing which he has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which has been deposited with him, or the lost thing which he has found;

⁵ or all that concerning which he swears falsely, he has even repaid it in its principal, and he is adding to it its fifth; he gives it to him whose it [is] in the day of his guilt-offering.

⁶ And he brings his guilt-offering to YHWH, a ram, a perfect one, out of the flock, at your valuation, for a guilt-offering, to the priest,

⁷ and the priest has made atonement for him before YHWH, and it has been forgiven him, concerning one thing of all that he does, by being guilty therein.”

⁸ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁰ And the priest has put on his long robe of fine linen, and he puts his fine linen trousers on his flesh, and has lifted up the ashes which the fire consumes with the burnt-offering on the altar, and has put them near the altar;

¹¹ and he has stripped off his garments, and has put on other garments, and has brought out the ashes to the outside of the camp, to a clean place.

¹² And the fire on the altar is burning on it, it is not quenched, and the priest has burned wood on it morning by morning, and has arranged the burnt-offering on it, and has made incense on it [with] the fat of the peace-offerings;

¹³ fire is continually burning on the altar, it is not quenched.

¹⁴ And this [is] a law of the present: sons of Aaron have brought it near before YHWH to the front of the altar,

¹⁵ and [one] has lifted up of it with his hand from the flour of the present, and from its oil, and all the frankincense which [is] on the present, and has made incense on the altar of refreshing fragrance—its memorial to YHWH.

16 And Aaron and his sons eat the remnant of it; it is eaten [with] unleavened things in a holy place—they eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting.

17 It is not baked [with] anything fermented; I have given it [for] their portion out of My fire-offerings; it [is] most holy, like the sin-offering, and like the guilt-offering.

18 Every male among the sons of Aaron eats it—a continuous statute throughout your generations, out of the fire-offerings of YHWH. All that comes against them is holy.”

19 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

20 “This [is] an offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they bring near to YHWH in the day of his being anointed: a tenth of the ephah of flour [for] a continual present, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening;

21 it is made on a griddle with oil—you bring it in stirred; you bring baked pieces of the present near [for] a refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

22 And the priest who is anointed in his stead, from among his sons, makes it; [it is] a continuous statute of YHWH; it is completely burned as incense;

23 and every present of a priest is a whole burnt-offering; it is not eaten.”

24 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

25 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This [is] a law of the sin-offering: in the place where the burnt-offering is slaughtered, the sin-offering is slaughtered before YHWH; it [is] most holy.

26 The priest who is making atonement with it eats it; it is eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting;

27 all that comes against its flesh is holy, and when [any] of its blood is sprinkled on the garment, that on which it is sprinkled you wash in the holy place;

28 and an earthen vessel in which it is boiled is broken, and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, then it is scoured and rinsed with water.

29 Every male among the priests eats it—it [is] most holy;

30 and no sin-offering, [any] of whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the holy place, is eaten; it is burned with fire.”

1 “And this [is] a law of the guilt-offering: it [is] most holy;

2 in the place where they slaughter the burnt-offering they slaughter the guilt-offering, and he sprinkles its blood on the altar all around,

3 and he brings near all its fat from it, the fat tail, and the fat which is covering the innards,

4 and the two kidneys, and the fat which [is] on them, which [is] on the flanks, and the redundance on the liver above the kidneys—he turns it aside;

5 and the priest has made them an incense on the altar, a fire-offering to YHWH; it [is] a guilt-offering.

6 Every male among the priests eats it; it is eaten in a holy place—it [is] most holy;

7 as [is] a sin-offering, so [is] a guilt-offering; one law [is] for them; the priest who makes atonement by it—it is his.

8 And the priest who is bringing any man's burnt-offering near, the skin of the burnt-offering which he has brought near, it is the priest's, his own;

9 and every present which is baked in an oven, and all done in a frying-pan, and on a griddle, [is] the priest's who is bringing it near; it is his;

10 and every present, mixed with oil or dry, is for all the sons of Aaron—one as another.

11 And this [is] a law of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings which [one] brings near to YHWH:

12 if he brings it near for a thank-offering, then he has brought near with the sacrifice of thank-offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened cakes anointed with oil, and of stirred flour cakes mixed with oil;

13 besides the cakes, he brings fermented bread near [with] his offering, besides the sacrifice of thank-offering of his peace-offerings;

14 and he has brought near from it one [cake] from every offering [as] a raised-offering to YHWH for the priest who is sprinkling the blood of the peace-offerings; it is for him;

15 as for the flesh of the sacrifice of the thank-offering of his peace-offerings, it is eaten in the day of his offering; he does not leave of it until morning.

16 And if the sacrifice of his offering [is] a vow or free-will offering, it is eaten in the day of his bringing his sacrifice near; and on the next day the remnant of it is also eaten;

17 and the remnant of the flesh of the sacrifice is burned with fire on the third day;

18 and if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings is eaten at all on the third day, it is not pleasing; it is not reckoned for him who is bringing it near; it is an abomination, and the person who is eating of it bears his iniquity.

19 And the flesh which comes against any unclean thing is not eaten; it is burned with fire; as for the flesh, every clean one eats of the flesh;

20 and the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings which [are] YHWH's, and his uncleanness [is] on him, indeed, that person has been cut off from his people.

21 And when a person comes against anything unclean, of the uncleanness of man, or of the uncleanness of beasts, or of any unclean teeming creature, and has eaten of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings which [are] YHWH's, indeed, that person has been cut off from his people."

22 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

23 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, You do not eat any fat of ox, and sheep, and goat;

24 and the fat of a carcass, and the fat of a torn thing, is prepared for any work, but you certainly do not eat it;

25 for whoever eats the fat of the beast, of which [one] brings near [as] a fire-offering to YHWH, indeed, the person who eats [it] has been cut off from his people.

26 And you do not eat any blood in all your dwellings, of bird, or of beast;

²⁷ any person who eats any blood, indeed, that person has been cut off from his people.”

²⁸ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁹ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, He who is bringing the sacrifice of his peace-offerings near to YHWH brings in his offering to YHWH from the sacrifice of his peace-offerings;

³⁰ his own hands bring in the fire-offerings of YHWH; the fat beside the breast—he brings it in with the breast to wave it [as] a wave-offering before YHWH.

³¹ And the priest has made incense with the fat on the altar, and the breast has been Aaron’s and his sons;

³² and you give the right leg to the priest [as] a raised-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings;

³³ he from the sons of Aaron who is bringing the blood of the peace-offerings and the fat near—the right leg is for a portion for him.

³⁸ which YHWH has commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day of His commanding the sons of Israel to bring their offerings near to YHWH, in the wilderness of Sinai.

² “Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bullock of the sin-offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened things,

³ and assemble all the congregation to the opening of the Tent of Meeting.”

⁴ And Moses does as YHWH has commanded him, and the congregation is assembled to the opening of the Tent of Meeting,

⁵ and Moses says to the congregation, “This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded to do.”

⁶ And Moses brings Aaron and his sons near, and bathes them with water,

⁸ and puts the breastplate on him, and puts the Lights and the Perfections into the breastplate,

⁹ and puts the turban on his head, and puts the golden flower of the holy crown on the turban, toward the front of its face, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

¹⁰ And Moses takes the anointing oil, and anoints the Dwelling Place, and all that [is] in it, and sanctifies them;

¹¹ and he sprinkles of it on the altar seven times, and anoints the altar, and all its vessels, and the laver, and its base, to sanctify them;

¹² and he pours of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron, and anoints him to sanctify him.

¹⁴ And he brings the bullock of the sin-offering near, and Aaron lays—his sons also—their hands on the head of the bullock of the sin-offering,

¹⁶ And he takes all the fat that [is] on the innards, and the redundance on the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses makes incense on the altar,

¹⁷ and the bullock, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he has burned with fire, at the outside of the camp, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

¹⁸ And he brings the ram of the burnt-offering near, and Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the head of the ram,

¹⁹ and [one] slaughters, and Moses sprinkles the blood around the altar;

²⁰ and he has cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses makes incense with the head, and the pieces, and the fat,

²¹ and he has washed the innards and the legs with water, and Moses makes incense with the whole ram on the altar; it [is] a burnt-offering for refreshing fragrance; it [is] a fire-offering to YHWH, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

²² And he brings the second ram near, a ram of the consecrations, and Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the head of the ram,

²⁵ and takes the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that [is] on the innards, and the redundance on the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right leg;

²⁷ and he puts the whole on the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sons, and waves them [as] a wave-offering before YHWH.

²⁸ And Moses takes them from off their hands, and makes incense on the altar, on the burnt-offering—they [are] consecrations for refreshing fragrance; it [is] a fire-offering to YHWH;

²⁹ and Moses takes the breast, and waves it [as] a wave-offering before YHWH; it has been for Moses for a portion of the ram of the consecrations, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³² And the remnant of the flesh and of the bread you burn with fire;

³³ and you do not go out from the opening of the Tent of Meeting [for] seven days, until the day of the fullness, the days of your consecration—for seven days he consecrates your hand;

³⁴ as he has done on this day, YHWH has commanded to do, to make atonement for you;

³⁶ And Aaron does—his sons also—all the things which YHWH has commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹ And it comes to pass on the eighth day, Moses has called for Aaron and for his sons, and for [the] elderly of Israel,

² and he says to Aaron, “Take a calf for yourself, a son of the herd, for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering, perfect ones, and bring [them] near before YHWH.

⁴ and a bullock and a ram for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before YHWH, and a present mixed with oil; for today YHWH has appeared to you.”

⁵ And they take that which Moses has commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and all the congregation draws near and stands before YHWH;

⁶ and Moses says, “This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded; do [it], and the glory of YHWH appears to you.”

⁷ And Moses says to Aaron, “Draw near to the altar, and make your sin-offering, and your burnt-offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people, and make the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as YHWH has commanded.”

⁸ And Aaron draws near to the altar, and slaughters the calf of the sin-offering, which [is] for himself;

¹⁰ and the fat, and the kidneys, and the redundancy of the liver; of the sin-offering, he has made incense on the altar, as YHWH has commanded Moses;

¹¹ and he has burned the flesh and the skin with fire, at the outside of the camp.

¹² And he slaughters the burnt-offering, and the sons of Aaron have presented the blood to him, and he sprinkles it around the altar;

¹³ and they have presented the burnt-offering to him, by its pieces, and the head, and he makes incense on the altar;

¹⁴ and he washes the innards and the legs, and makes incense for the burnt-offering on the altar.

¹⁵ And he brings the offering of the people near, and takes the goat of the sin-offering which [is] for the people, and slaughters it, and makes it a sin-offering, like the first;

¹⁶ and he brings the burnt-offering near, and makes it, according to the ordinance;

¹⁷ and he brings the present near, and fills his palm with it, and makes incense on the altar, apart from the burnt-offering of the morning.

¹⁸ And he slaughters the bullock and the ram, a sacrifice of the peace-offerings, which [are] for the people, and sons of Aaron present the blood to him (and he sprinkles it around the altar),

¹⁹ and the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the fat tail, and the covering [of the innards], and the kidneys, and the redundancy on the liver;

²⁰ and they set the fat on the breasts, and he makes incense with the fat on the altar;

²¹ and Aaron has waved the breasts and the right leg [as] a wave-offering before YHWH, as He has commanded Moses.

²² And Aaron lifts up his hand toward the people, and blesses them, and comes down from making the sin-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings.

²³ And Moses goes in—Aaron also—to the Tent of Meeting, and they come out, and bless the people, and the glory of YHWH appears to all the people;

² and fire goes out from before YHWH and consumes them, and they die before YHWH.

³ And Moses says to Aaron, "It [is] that which YHWH has spoken, saying, By those drawing near to Me I am sanctified, and in the face of all the people I am honored"; and Aaron is silent.

⁵ and they come near, and carry them in their coats to the outside of the camp, as Moses has spoken.

⁶ And Moses says to Aaron and his sons, to Eleazar and to Ithamar, “You do not uncover your heads, and you do not tear your garments, that you do not die, and He is angry on all the congregation; as for your brothers, the whole house of Israel, they lament the burning which YHWH has kindled;

⁸ And YHWH speaks to Aaron, saying,

⁹ “You do not drink wine and strong drink, you and your sons with you, in your going into the Tent of Meeting, and you do not die—a continuous statute throughout your generations,

¹⁰ so as to make a separation between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the pure;

¹¹ and to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which YHWH has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.”

¹³ and you have eaten it in the holy place, for it [is] your portion, and the portion of your sons, from the fire-offerings of YHWH; for so I have been commanded.

¹⁴ And you eat the breast of the wave-offering and the leg of the raised-offering in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you; they have been given for your portion and the portion of your sons, out of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the sons of Israel;

¹⁵ the leg of the raised-offering, and breast of the wave-offering, besides fire-offerings of the fat, they bring in to wave [as] a wave-offering before YHWH, and it has been to you, and to your sons with you, by a continuous statute, as YHWH has commanded.”

¹⁶ And Moses has diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and behold, it is burned, and he is angry against Eleazar and against Ithamar, sons of Aaron, who are left, saying,

¹⁷ “Why have you not eaten the sin-offering in the holy place, for it [is] most holy—and He has given it to you to take away the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before YHWH?

¹⁸ Behold, its blood has not been brought into the holy place within; eating you eat it in the holy place, as I have commanded.”

²⁰ And Moses listens, and it is good in his eyes.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, This [is] the beast which you eat out of all the beasts which [are] on the earth:

³ any dividing a hoof, and cleaving the cleft of the hooves, bringing up the cud, among the beasts—you eat it.

4 Only, this you do not eat, of those bringing up the cud, and of those dividing the hoof: the camel, though it is bringing up the cud, yet the hoof is not dividing—it [is] unclean to you;

5 and the hyrax, though it is bringing up the cud, yet the hoof is not divided—it [is] unclean to you;

6 and the hare, though it is bringing up the cud, yet the hoof has not divided—it [is] unclean to you;

7 and the sow, though it is dividing the hoof, and cleaving the cleft of the hoof, yet it does not bring up the cud—it [is] unclean to you.

8 You do not eat of their flesh, and you do not come against their carcass—they [are] unclean to you.

9 This you eat of all which [are] in the waters: anything that has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the brooks, them you eat;

10 and anything that does not have fins and scales in the seas, and in the brooks, of any teeming creature of the waters, and of any creature which lives, which [is] in the waters—they [are] an abomination to you;

11 indeed, they are an abomination to you; you do not eat of their flesh, and you detest their carcass.

12 Anything that does not have fins and scales in the waters—it [is] an abomination to you.

13 And these you detest of the bird—they are not eaten, they [are] an abomination: the eagle, and the bearded vulture, and the osprey,

14 and the kite, and the falcon after its kind,

15 every raven after its kind,

16 and the ostrich, and the nightjar [[or male ostrich]], and the seagull, and the hawk after its kind,

17 and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 and the waterhen, and the pelican, and the Egyptian vulture,

19 and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

20 Every teeming creature which is flying, which is going on four [legs]—it [is] an abomination to you.

21 Only, this you eat of any teeming thing which is flying, which is going on four, which has legs above its feet, to move with them on the earth;

22 these of them you eat: the locust after its kind, and the bald locust after its kind, and the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind;

23 and every teeming thing which is flying, which has four feet—it [is] an abomination to you.

24 And you are made unclean by these; anyone who is coming against their carcass is unclean until the evening;

25 and anyone who is lifting up of their carcass washes his garments, and has been unclean until the evening—

26 even every beast which is dividing the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, and is not bringing up the cud—they [are] unclean to you; anyone who is coming against them is unclean.

27 And anything going on its paws, among all the beasts which are going on four—they [are] unclean to you; anyone who is coming against their carcass is unclean until the evening;

28 and he who is lifting up their carcass washes his garments, and has been unclean until the evening—they [are] unclean to you.

²⁹ And this [is] the unclean to you among the teeming things which are teeming on the earth: the weasel, and the murex, and the tortoise [[or large lizard]] after its kind,

³⁰ and the gecko [[or ferret]], and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole;

³¹ these [are] the unclean to you among all which are teeming; anyone who is coming against them in their death is unclean until the evening.

³² And anything on which anyone of them falls, in their death, is unclean, of any vessel of wood or garment or skin or sack, any vessel in which work is done is brought into water, and has been unclean until the evening, then it has been clean;

³³ and any earthen vessel, into the midst of which [any] one of them falls, all that [is] in its midst is unclean, and you break it.

³⁴ Of all the food which is eaten, that on which comes [such] water, is unclean, and all drink which is drunk in any [such] vessel is unclean;

³⁶ Only, a fountain or pit, a collection of water, is clean, but that which is coming against their carcass is unclean;

³⁷ and when [any] of their carcass falls on any sown seed which is sown—it [is] clean;

³⁸ and when water is put on the seed, and [any] of its carcass has fallen on it—it [is] unclean to you.

³⁹ And when any of the beasts which are for food for you dies, he who is coming against its carcass is unclean until the evening;

⁴⁰ and he who is eating of its carcass washes his garments, and has been unclean until the evening; and he who is lifting up its carcass washes his garments, and has been unclean until the evening.

⁴¹ And every teeming thing which is teeming on the earth is an abomination, it is not eaten;

⁴⁴ For I [am] your God YHWH, and you have sanctified yourselves, and you have been holy, for I [am] holy; and you do not defile your persons with any teeming thing which is creeping on the earth;

⁴⁵ for I [am] YHWH who am bringing you up out of the land of Egypt to become your God; and you have been holy, for I [am] holy.

⁴⁷ to make separation between the unclean and the pure, and between the beast that is eaten, and the beast that is not eaten."

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, A woman when she gives seed, and has borne a male, then she has been unclean [for] seven days; she is unclean according to the days of separation for her sickness;

³ and in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin is circumcised;

⁵ And if she bears a female, then she has been unclean [for] two weeks, as in her separation; and she abides by the blood of her cleansing [for] sixty-six days.

⁶ And in the fullness of the days of her cleansing for son or for daughter she brings in a lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove for a sin-offering, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest;

⁷ and he has brought it near before YHWH, and has made atonement for her, and she has been cleansed from the fountain of her blood; this [is] the law of her who is bearing, in regard to a male or to a female.

⁸ And if her hand does not find the sufficiency of a sheep, then she has taken two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt-offering and one for a sin-offering, and the priest has made atonement for her, and she has been cleansed.”

² “When a man has a rising, or scab, or bright spot in the skin of his flesh, and it has become a leprous plague in the skin of his flesh, then he has been brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests;

³ and the priest has seen the plague in the skin of the flesh, and the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague [is] deeper than the skin of his flesh—it [is] a plague of leprosy, and the priest has seen him, and has pronounced him unclean.

⁴ And if the bright spot is white in the skin of his flesh, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest has shut up [him who has] the plague [for] seven days.

⁵ And the priest has seen him on the seventh day, and behold, the plague has stood in his eyes, the plague has not spread in the skin, and the priest has shut him up [for] a second seven days.

⁶ And the priest has seen him on the second seventh day, and behold, the plague has faded, and the plague has not spread in the skin, and the priest has pronounced him clean; it [is] a scab, and he has washed his garments, and has been clean.

⁷ And if the scab spreads greatly in the skin, after his being seen by the priest for his cleansing, then he has been seen a second time by the priest;

⁸ and the priest has seen, and behold, the scab has spread in the skin, and the priest has pronounced him unclean; it [is] leprosy.

⁹ When a plague of leprosy is in a man, then he has been brought to the priest,

11 it [is] an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest has pronounced him unclean; he does not shut him up, for he [is] unclean.

12 And if the leprosy breaks out greatly in the skin, and the leprosy has covered all the skin of [him who has] the plague, from his head even to his feet, to all that appears to the eyes of the priest,

13 then the priest has seen, and behold, the leprosy has covered all his flesh, and he has pronounced [him who has] the plague clean; it has all turned white; he [is] clean.

14 And in the day of raw flesh being seen in him, he is unclean;

15 and the priest has seen the raw flesh, and has pronounced him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean—it [is] leprosy.

16 Or when the raw flesh turns back, and has been turned to white, then he has come to the priest,

17 and the priest has seen him, and behold, the plague has been turned to white, and the priest has pronounced clean [him who has] the plague; he [is] clean.

18 And when flesh has in it, in its skin, an ulcer, and it has been healed,

19 and there has been in the place of the ulcer a white rising, or a bright white spot, reddish, then it has been seen by the priest,

20 and the priest has seen, and behold, its appearance [is] lower than the skin, and its hair has turned white, and the priest has pronounced him unclean; it [is] a plague of leprosy—it has broken out in an ulcer.

21 And if the priest sees it, and behold, there is no white hair in it, and it is not lower than the skin, and has faded, then the priest has shut him up [for] seven days;

22 and if it spreads greatly in the skin, then the priest has pronounced him unclean—it [is] a plague;

23 and if the bright spot stays in its place—it has not spread—it [is] an inflammation of the ulcer; and the priest has pronounced him clean.

24 Or when flesh has a fiery burning in its skin, and the quickening of the burning, the bright white spot, has been reddish or white,

25 and the priest has seen it, and behold, the hair has turned white in the bright spot, and its appearance [is] deeper than the skin, it [is] leprosy; it has broken out in the burning, and the priest has pronounced him unclean; it [is] a plague of leprosy.

26 And if the priest sees it, and behold, there is no white hair on the bright spot, and it is not lower than the skin, and it has faded, then the priest has shut him up [for] seven days;

27 and the priest has seen him on the seventh day, [and] if it spreads greatly in the skin, then the priest has pronounced him unclean; it [is] a plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stays in its place, it has not spread in the skin, and has faded; it [is] a rising of the burning, and the priest has pronounced him clean; for it [is] inflammation of the burning.

29 And when a man (or a woman) has a plague in him, in the head or in the beard,

30 then the priest has seen the plague, and behold, its appearance is deeper than the skin, and a thin, shining hair [is] in it, and the priest has pronounced him unclean; it [is] a scale—it [is] a leprosy of the head or of the beard.

³¹ And when the priest sees the scaly plague, and behold, its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest has shut up [him who has] the scaly plague [for] seven days.

³² And the priest has seen the plague on the seventh day, and behold, the scale has not spread, and a shining hair has not been in it, and the appearance of the scale is not deeper than the skin,

³³ then he has shaved himself, but he does not shave the scale; and the priest has shut up [him who has] the scale [for] a second seven days.

³⁴ And the priest has seen the scale on the seventh day, and behold, the scale has not spread in the skin, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and the priest has pronounced him clean, and he has washed his garments, and has been clean.

³⁶ and the priest has seen him, and behold, the scale has spread in the skin, the priest does not seek for the shining hair—he is unclean;

³⁷ and if in his eyes the scale has stayed, and black hair has sprung up in it, the scale has been healed—he [is] clean—and the priest has pronounced him clean.

³⁸ And when a man or woman has bright spots in the skin of their flesh, white bright spots,

³⁹ and the priest has seen, and behold, white [and] faded bright spots [are] in the skin of their flesh—it [is] a freckled spot broken out in the skin; he [is] clean.

⁴⁰ And when a man's head [is] polished, he [is] bald; he [is] clean;

⁴¹ and if his head is polished from the corner of his face, he [is] bald of the forehead; he [is] clean.

⁴⁴ he [is] a leprous man—he [is] unclean; the priest pronounces him utterly unclean; his plague [is] in his head.

⁴⁶ He is unclean all the days that the plague [is] in him; he [is] unclean. He dwells alone; his dwelling [is] at the outside of the camp.

⁴⁸ or in the warp, or in the woof, of linen or of wool, or in a skin, or in any work of skin—

⁴⁹ and the plague has been greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in any vessel of skin, it [is] a plague of leprosy, and it has been shown [to] the priest.

⁵⁰ And the priest has seen the plague, and has shut up [that which has] the plague [for] seven days;

⁵¹ and he has seen the plague on the seventh day, and the plague has spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, of all that is made of skin for work, the plague [is] a fretting leprosy; it [is] unclean.

⁵² And he has burned the garment, or the warp, or the woof, in wool or in linen, or any vessel of skin in which the plague is; for it [is] a fretting leprosy; it is burned with fire.

⁵³ And if the priest sees, and behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in any vessel of skin,

⁵⁴ then the priest has commanded, and they have washed that in which the plague [is], and he has shut it up [for] a second seven days.

⁵⁵ And the priest has seen [that which has] the plague after it has been washed, and behold, the plague has not changed its aspect, and the plague has not spread—it [is] unclean; you burn it with fire; it [is] a fretting in its back-part or in its front-part.

⁵⁶ And if the priest has seen, and behold, the plague has faded after it has been washed, then he has torn it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof;

⁵⁸ And the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or any vessel of skin which you wash when the plague has turned aside from them, then it has been washed a second time, and has been clean.

² “This is a law of the leper, in the day of his cleansing, that he has been brought to the priest,

³ and the priest has gone out to the outside of the camp, and the priest has seen, and behold, the plague of leprosy has ceased from the leper,

⁴ and the priest has commanded, and he has taken for him who is to be cleansed, two clean living birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

⁵ And the priest has commanded, and he has slaughtered one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water;

⁶ [as for] the living bird, he takes it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and has dipped them and the living bird in the blood of the slaughtered bird, over the running water;

⁷ and he has sprinkled on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and has pronounced him clean, and has sent out the living bird over the face of the field.

⁸ And he who is to be cleansed has washed his garments, and has shaved all his hair, and has bathed with water, and has been clean, and afterward he comes into the camp, and has dwelt at the outside of his tent [for] seven days.

⁹ And it has been, on the seventh day—he shaves all his hair, his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shaves, and he has washed his garments, and has bathed his flesh with water, and has been clean.

¹² and the priest has taken one male lamb, and has brought it near for a guilt-offering, also the log of oil, and has waved them [as] a wave-offering before YHWH.

¹³ And he has slaughtered the lamb in the place where he slaughters the sin-offering and the burnt-offering, in the holy place; for like the sin-offering, the guilt-offering is for the priest; it [is] most holy.

¹⁵ and the priest has taken of the log of oil, and has poured [it] on the left palm of the priest,

¹⁸ and the remnant of the oil which [is] on the palm of the priest, he puts [it] on the head of him who is to be cleansed, and the priest has made atonement for him before YHWH.

¹⁹ And the priest has made the sin-offering, and has made atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness, and afterward he slaughters the burnt-offering;

²⁰ and the priest has caused the burnt-offering to ascend, also the present, on the altar, and the priest has made atonement for him, and he has been clean.

²² and two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, which his hand reaches to, and one has been a sin-offering and one a burnt-offering;

²³ and he has brought them in on the eighth day for his cleansing to the priest, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, before YHWH.

²⁴ And the priest has taken the lamb of the guilt-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest has waved them [as] a wave-offering before YHWH;

²⁶ and the priest pours of the oil on the left palm of the priest;

³⁰ And he has made one of the turtle-doves or of the young pigeons (from that which his hand reaches to, ³¹ [even] that which his hand reaches to), one a sin-offering and one a burnt-offering, besides the present, and the priest has made atonement for him who is to be cleansed before YHWH.

³² This [is] a law of him in whom [is] a plague of leprosy, whose hand does not reach to his cleansing.”

³³ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

³⁴ “When you come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving to you for a possession, and I have put a plague of leprosy in a house [in] the land of your possession,

³⁵ then he whose the house [is] has come in and declared [it] to the priest, saying, Some plague has appeared to me in the house;

³⁶ and the priest has commanded, and they have prepared the house before the priest comes in to see the plague (that all which [is] in the house is not unclean), and afterward the priest comes in to see the house;

³⁷ and he has seen the plague, and behold, the plague [is] in the walls of the house, hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and their appearance [is] lower than the wall,

³⁹ And the priest has turned back on the seventh day, and has seen, and behold, the plague has spread in the walls of the house,

⁴⁰ and the priest has commanded, and they have drawn out the stones in which the plague [is], and have cast them to the outside of the city, to an unclean place;

⁴² and they have taken other stones, and brought [them] to the place of the stones, and he takes other clay and has coated the house.

⁴³ And if the plague returns, and has broken out in the house, after he has drawn out the stones, and after the scraping of the house, and after the coating,

⁴⁴ then the priest has come in and seen, and behold, the plague has spread in the house; it [is] a fretting leprosy in the house; it [is] unclean.

⁴⁵ And he has broken down the house, its stones, and its wood, and all the clay of the house, and he has brought [them] forth to the outside of the city, to an unclean place.

⁴⁶ And he who is going into the house all the days he has shut it up, is unclean until the evening;

47 and he who is lying in the house washes his garments; and he who is eating in the house washes his garments.

48 And if the priest certainly comes in, and has seen, and behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the coating of the house, then the priest has pronounced the house clean, for the plague has been healed.

49 And he has taken two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop for the cleansing of the house;

50 and he has slaughtered one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water;

51 and he has taken the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and has dipped them in the blood of the slaughtered bird, and in the running water, and has sprinkled against the house seven times.

52 And he has cleansed the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet;

53 and he has sent the living bird away to the outside of the city to the face of the field, and has made atonement for the house, and it has been clean.

54 This [is] the law for every plague of the leprosy and for scale,

55 and for leprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 and for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot—

57 to direct in the day of being unclean, and in the day of being clean; this [is] the law of the leprosy.”

15

1 And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When there is discharging out of the flesh of any man, he [is] unclean [from] his discharge;

3 and this is his uncleanness in his discharge—his flesh has run with his discharge, or his flesh has stopped from his discharge; it [is] his uncleanness.

4 Every bed on which he who has the discharging lies is unclean, and every vessel on which he sits is unclean;

5 and anyone who comes against his bed washes his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

6 And he who is sitting on the vessel on which he sits who has the discharging, washes his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

7 And he who is coming against the flesh of him who has the discharging, washes his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

8 And when he who has the discharging spits on him who is clean, then he has washed his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

9 And all the saddle on which he who has the discharging rides is unclean;

10 and anyone who is coming against anything which is under him is unclean until the evening, and he who is carrying them washes his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

11 And anyone against whom he who has the discharging comes (and has not rinsed his hands with water) has even washed his garments, and bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

12 And the earthen vessel which he who has the discharging comes against is broken; and every wooden vessel is rinsed with water.

13 And when he who has the discharging is clean from his discharge, then he has numbered seven days for himself for his cleansing, and has washed his garments, and has bathed his flesh with running water, and been clean.

14 And on the eighth day he takes two turtle-doves or two young pigeons for himself, and has come in before YHWH to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and has given them to the priest;

15 and the priest has made them, one a sin-offering and one a burnt-offering; and the priest has made atonement for him before YHWH, because of his discharge.

16 And when a man's seed [from] intercourse goes out from him, then he has bathed all his flesh with water, and been unclean until the evening.

17 And any garment, or any skin on which there is seed [from] intercourse, has also been washed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

18 And a woman with whom a man lies with seed [from] intercourse, they also have bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

19 And when a woman has discharging—blood is her discharge in her flesh—she is in her separation [for] seven days, and anyone who is coming against her is unclean until the evening.

20 And anything on which she lies in her separation is unclean, and anything on which she sits is unclean;

21 and anyone who is coming against her bed washes his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

22 And anyone who is coming against any vessel on which she sits washes his garments, and has washed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

23 And if it [is] on the bed, or on the vessel on which she is sitting, in his coming against it, he is unclean until the evening.

24 And if a man really lies with her, and her separation is on him, then he has been unclean [for] seven days, and all the bed on which he lies is unclean.

25 And when a woman's discharge of blood flows many days within the time of her separation, or when it flows over her separation—all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness are as the days of her separation; she [is] unclean.

26 Every bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge is as the bed of her separation to her, and every vessel on which she sits is unclean as the uncleanness of her separation;

27 and anyone who is coming against them is unclean, and has washed his garments, and has bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening.

28 And if she has been clean from her discharge, then she has numbered seven days for herself, and afterward she is clean;

29 and on the eighth day she takes two turtle-doves or two young pigeons for herself, and has brought them to the priest, to the opening of the Tent

of Meeting;

³⁰ and the priest has made one a sin-offering and one a burnt-offering, and the priest has made atonement for her before YHWH, because of the discharge of her uncleanness.

³¹ And you have separated the sons of Israel from their uncleanness, and they do not die in their uncleanness, in their defiling My Dwelling Place which [is] in their midst.

³² This [is] the law of him who has the discharging, and of him whose seed [from] intercourse goes out from him, to become unclean with it,

³³ and of her who is sick in her separation, and of him who has the discharging (his discharge, of the male or of the female), and of a man who lies with an unclean woman.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, in their drawing near before YHWH, and they die;

² indeed, YHWH says to Moses, “Speak to your brother Aaron, and he does not come in at all times to the holy place within the veil, to the front of the propitiatory covering, which [is] on the Ark, and he does not die, for I am seen in a cloud on the propitiatory covering.

³ With this Aaron comes into the holy place: with a bullock, a son of the herd, for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering;

⁵ And from the congregation of the sons of Israel he takes two kids of the goats for a sin-offering and one ram for a burnt-offering;

⁶ and Aaron has brought the bullock of the sin-offering near, which is his own, and has made atonement for himself and for his house;

⁷ and he has taken the two goats, and has caused them to stand before YHWH, at the opening of the Tent of Meeting.

⁸ And Aaron has given lots over the two goats, one lot for YHWH and one lot for a goat of departure;

⁹ and Aaron has brought the goat near, on which the lot for YHWH has gone up, and has made it a sin-offering.

¹¹ And Aaron has brought the bullock of the sin-offering near, which is his own, and has made atonement for himself and for his house, and has slaughtered the bullock of the sin-offering which [is] his own,

¹³ and he has put the incense on the fire before YHWH, and the cloud of the incense has covered the propitiatory covering which [is] on the Testimony, and he does not die.

¹⁴ And he has taken of the blood of the bullock, and has sprinkled with his finger on the front of the propitiatory covering eastward; even at the front of the propitiatory covering he sprinkles seven times of the blood with his finger.

¹⁵ And he has slaughtered the goat of the sin-offering which [is] the people's, and has brought in its blood to the inside of the veil, and has done with its blood as he has done with the blood of the bullock, and has sprinkled it on the propitiatory covering, and at the front of the propitiatory covering,

¹⁶ and he has made atonement for the holy place because of the uncleanness of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins; and so he does for the Tent of Meeting which is dwelling with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

¹⁷ And no man is in the Tent of Meeting in his going in to make atonement in the holy place, until his coming out; and he has made atonement for himself, and for his house, and for all the assembly of Israel.

¹⁸ And he has gone out to the altar which [is] before YHWH, and has made atonement for it; and he has taken of the blood of the bullock and of the blood of the goat, and has put [it] around the horns of the altar;

¹⁹ and he has sprinkled on it of the blood with his finger seven times, and has cleansed it, and has hallowed it from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel.

²⁰ And he has ceased from making atonement [for] the holy place, and the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, and has brought the living goat near;

²¹ and Aaron has laid his two hands on the head of the living goat, and has confessed over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, and has put them on the head of the goat, and has sent [it] away by the hand of a ready man into the wilderness;

²² and the goat has borne on himself all their iniquities to a land of separation. And he has sent the goat away into the wilderness,

²³ and Aaron has come into the Tent of Meeting, and has stripped off the linen garments which he had put on in his going into the holy place, and has placed them there;

²⁴ and he has bathed his flesh with water in the holy place, and has put on his garments, and has come out, and has made his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and has made atonement for himself and for the people;

²⁵ and with the fat of the sin-offering he makes incense on the altar.

²⁶ And he who is sending the goat away for a goat of departure washes his garments, and has bathed his flesh with water, and afterward he comes into the camp.

²⁷ And the bullock of the sin-offering and the goat of the sin-offering, whose blood has been brought in to make atonement in the holy place, [one] brings out to the outside of the camp, and they have burned their skins, and their flesh, and their dung with fire;

²⁸ and he who is burning them washes his garments, and has bathed his flesh with water, and afterward he comes into the camp.

²⁹ And it has been for a continuous statute to you, in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, you humble yourselves, and do no work—the native and the sojourner who is sojourning in your midst;

³⁰ for on this day he makes atonement for you, to cleanse you; you are clean from all your sins before YHWH;

³¹ it [is] a Sabbath of rest for you, and you have humbled yourselves—a continuous statute.

³² And the priest whom he anoints, and whose hand he consecrates to act as priest instead of his father, has made atonement, and has put on the linen garments, the holy garments;

³³ and he has made atonement [for] the holy sanctuary; and [for] the Tent of Meeting, even [for] the altar he makes atonement; indeed, he makes atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

³⁴ And this has been for a continuous statute to you, to make atonement for the sons of Israel, because of all their sins, once in a year"; and he does as YHWH has commanded Moses.

² "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel; and you have said to them: This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded, saying,

³ Any man of the house of Israel who slaughters ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or who slaughters [it] at the outside of the camp,

⁴ and has not brought it in to the opening of the Tent of Meeting to bring an offering near to YHWH before the Dwelling Place of YHWH, blood is reckoned to that man—he has shed blood—and that man has been cut off from the midst of his people;

⁵ so that the sons of Israel bring in their sacrifices which they are sacrificing on the face of the field, indeed, they have brought them to YHWH, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and they have sacrificed sacrifices of peace-offerings to YHWH with them.

⁶ And the priest has sprinkled the blood on the altar of YHWH, at the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and has made incense with the fat for refreshing fragrance to YHWH;

⁷ and they do not sacrifice their sacrifices anymore to the goat [idols] after which they are going whoring; this is a continuous statute to them, throughout their generations.

⁸ And you say to them: Any man of the house of Israel, or of the sojourners who sojourns in your midst, who causes burnt-offering or sacrifice to ascend,

¹² Therefore I have said to the sons of Israel: No person among you eats blood, and the sojourner who is sojourning in your midst does not eat blood;

14 for [it is] the life of all flesh, its blood is for its life; and I say to the sons of Israel: You do not eat [the] blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood; anyone eating it is cut off.

15 And any person who eats a carcass or torn thing, among natives or among sojourners, has washed his garments and bathed with water, and been unclean until the evening—then he has been clean;

16 and if he does not wash, and does not bathe his flesh—then he has borne his iniquity.”

18

1 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: I [am] your God YHWH;

3 you do not do according to the work of the land of Egypt in which you have dwelt, and you do not do according to the work of the land of Canaan to where I am bringing you in, and you do not walk in their statutes.

4 You do My judgments and you keep My statutes, to walk in them; I [am] your God YHWH.

5 And you have kept My statutes and My judgments which man does and lives in them; I [am] YHWH.

6 None of you draws near to any relation of his flesh to uncover nakedness; I [am] YHWH.

7 You do not uncover the nakedness of your father and the nakedness of your mother, she [is] your mother; you do not uncover her nakedness.

8 You do not uncover the nakedness of the wife of your father; it [is] the nakedness of your father.

9 The nakedness of your sister, daughter of your father, or daughter of your mother, born at home or born outside—you do not uncover their nakedness.

10 The nakedness of your son’s daughter, or of your daughter’s daughter—you do not uncover their nakedness; for theirs [is] your nakedness.

11 The nakedness of a daughter of your father’s wife, begotten of your father, she [is] your sister—you do not uncover her nakedness.

12 You do not uncover the nakedness of a sister of your father; she [is] a relation of your father.

13 You do not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she [is] your mother’s relation.

14 You do not uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother; you do not draw near to his wife; she [is] your aunt.

15 You do not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she [is] your son’s wife; you do not uncover her nakedness.

16 You do not uncover the nakedness of your brother’s wife; it [is] your brother’s nakedness.

17 You do not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor do you take her son’s daughter and her daughter’s daughter, to uncover her nakedness; they [are] her relations; it [is] wickedness.

18 And you do not take a woman [in addition] to her sister, to be an adversary, to uncover her nakedness beside her, in her life.

19 And you do not draw near to a woman in the separation of her uncleanness to uncover her nakedness.

²⁰ And you do not give your seed [from] intercourse to the wife of your fellow, to become unclean with her.

²¹ And you do not give from your seed to pass over to the Molech, nor do you defile the Name of your God; I [am] YHWH.

²² And you do not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it [is] an abomination.

²³ And you do not commit your intercourse with any beast, to become unclean with it; and a woman does not stand before a beast to mate with it; it [is] perversion.

²⁴ Do not defile yourselves with all these, for with all these the nations have been defiled which I am sending away from before you;

²⁵ and the land is defiled, and I charge its iniquity on it, and the land vomits out its inhabitants.

²⁶ And you have kept My statutes and My judgments, and do not do [any] of all these abominations, the native and the sojourner who is sojourning in your midst,

²⁷ for the men of the land who [are] before you have done all these abominations and the land is defiled,

²⁸ and the land does not vomit you out in your defiling it, as it has vomited out the nation which [is] before you;

²⁹ for anyone who does [any] of all these abominations—even the persons who are doing [so]—have been cut off from the midst of their people;

³⁰ and you have kept My charge, so as not to do [any] of the abominable statutes which have been done before you, and you do not defile yourselves with them; I [am] your God YHWH.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: You are holy, because I, your God YHWH, [am] holy.

³ You each fear his mother and his father, and you keep My Sabbaths; I [am] your God YHWH.

⁴ You do not turn to the idols, and you do not make a molten god for yourselves; I [am] your God YHWH.

⁵ And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of peace-offerings to YHWH, you sacrifice it at your pleasure;

⁶ it is eaten in the day of your sacrificing [it], and on the next day, and that which is left to the third day is burned with fire,

⁷ and if it is really eaten on the third day, it [is] an abomination, it is not pleasing,

⁸ and he who is eating it bears his iniquity, for he has defiled the holy thing of YHWH, and that person has been cut off from his people.

⁹ And in your reaping the harvest of your land you do not completely reap the corner of your field, and you do not gather the gleaning of your harvest,

¹⁰ and you do not glean your vineyard, even the omitted part of your vineyard you do not gather, you leave them for the poor and for the sojourner; I [am] your God YHWH.

¹¹ You do not steal, nor feign, nor lie—each against his fellow.

12 And you do not swear by My Name for falsehood, or you have defiled the Name of your God; I [am] YHWH.

13 You do not oppress your neighbor, nor take plunder; the wages of the hired worker do not remain with you until morning.

14 You do not revile the deaf; and you do not put a stumbling block before the blind; and you have been afraid of your God; I [am] YHWH.

15 You do not do perversity in judgment; you do not lift up the face of the poor, nor honor the face of the great; you judge your fellow in righteousness.

16 You do not go slandering among your people; you do not stand against the blood of your neighbor; I [am] YHWH.

17 You do not hate your brother in your heart; you certainly reprove your fellow, and do not permit sin on him.

18 You do not take vengeance, nor watch the sons of your people; and you have had love for your neighbor as yourself; I [am] YHWH.

19 You keep My statutes. You do not cause your livestock to mate [with] two kinds; you do not sow your field with two kinds; and a garment of two kinds, mixed material, does not go up on you.

20 And when a man lies with a woman with seed [from] intercourse, and she [is] a maidservant, betrothed to a man, and not really ransomed, or freedom has not been given to her, there is an investigation; they are not put to death, for she [is] not free.

21 And he has brought in his guilt-offering to YHWH, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, a ram [for] a guilt-offering,

22 and the priest has made atonement for him with the ram of the guilt-offering before YHWH, for his sin which he has sinned, and it has been forgiven him because of his sin which he has sinned.

23 And when you come into the land and have planted all [kinds] of trees [for] food, then you have reckoned its fruit as uncircumcised, it is uncircumcised to you [for] three years, it is not eaten,

24 and in the fourth year all its fruit is holy—praises for YHWH.

25 And in the fifth year you eat its fruit—to add to you its increase; I [am] your God YHWH.

26 You do not eat with the blood. You do not enchant, nor observe clouds.

27 You do not round the corner of your head, nor destroy the corner of your beard.

28 And you do not put a cutting for the soul in your flesh; and a writing, a cross-mark, you do not put on yourself; I [am] YHWH.

29 You do not defile your daughter to cause her to go whoring, that the land does not go whoring, and the land has been full of wickedness.

30 You keep My Sabbaths and you revere My sanctuary; I [am] YHWH.

31 You do not turn to those having familiar spirits, and you do not seek for wizards, to become unclean by them; I [am] your God YHWH.

32 You rise up at the presence of grey hairs, and you have honored the presence of an old man, and have been afraid of your God; I [am] YHWH.

33 And when a sojourner sojourns with you in your land, you do not oppress him;

34 the sojourner who is sojourning with you is to you as a native among you, and you have had love for him as for yourself, for you have been sojourners in the land of Egypt; I [am] your God YHWH.

³⁵ You do not do perversity in the judgment, in the measure, in the weight, and in the liquid measure;

³⁶ you have righteous balances, righteous weights, a righteous ephah, and a righteous hin; I [am] your God YHWH, who has brought you out from the land of Egypt;

³⁷ and you have observed all my statutes, and all my judgments, and have done them; I [am] YHWH.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “And you say to the sons of Israel: Any man of the sons of Israel, and of the sojourners who is sojourning in Israel, who gives to the Molech from his seed, is certainly put to death; the people of the land stone him with stone;

³ and I set My face against that man, and have cut him off from the midst of his people, for he has given to the Molech from his seed, so as to defile My sanctuary, and to defile My holy Name.

⁴ And if the people of the land really hide their eyes from that man, in his giving to the Molech from his seed, so as not to put him to death,

⁷ And you have sanctified yourselves, and you have been holy, for I [am] your God YHWH;

⁸ and you have kept My statutes and have done them; I [am] YHWH, sanctifying you.

⁹ For any man who reviles his father and his mother is certainly put to death; he has reviled his father and his mother: his blood [is] on him.

¹⁰ And a man who commits adultery with a man’s wife—who commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor—the adulterer and the adulteress are surely put to death.

¹¹ And a man who lies with his father’s wife—he has uncovered the nakedness of his father—both of them are certainly put to death; their blood [is] on them.

¹² And a man who lies with his daughter-in-law—both of them are certainly put to death; they have done perversion; their blood [is] on them.

¹³ And a man who lies with a male as one lies with a woman—both of them have done an abomination; they are certainly put to death; their blood [is] on them.

¹⁴ And a man who takes the woman and her mother—it [is] wickedness; they burn him and them with fire, and there is no wickedness in your midst.

¹⁵ And a man who commits his intercourse with a beast is certainly put to death, and you slay the beast.

²⁰ And a man who lies with his aunt, he has uncovered the nakedness of his uncle; they bear their sin; they die childless.

²¹ And a man who takes his brother's wife—it [is] impurity; he has uncovered the nakedness of his brother; they are childless.

²² And you have kept all My statutes and all My judgments, and have done them, and the land does not vomit you out to where I am bringing you in to dwell in it;

²³ and you do not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am sending away from before you, for they have done all these, and I am wearied with them.

²⁴ And I say to you, You possess their ground, and I give it to you to possess it—a land flowing with milk and honey. I [am] your God YHWH, who has separated you from the peoples.

²⁵ And you have made separation between the pure beasts and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the pure, and you do not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or by anything which creeps [on] the ground which I have separated to you for unclean.

²⁶ And you have been holy to Me, for I, YHWH, [am] holy; and I separate you from the peoples to become Mine.

²⁷ And a man or woman, when there is a familiar spirit in them, or who [are] wizards, are certainly put to death; they stone them with stone; their blood [is] on them."

¹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Speak to the priests, sons of Aaron, and you have said to them: No one defiles himself for a [dead] person among his people,

² except for his relation who [is] near to him: for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

³ and for his sister, the virgin, who is near to him, who has not been to a man; he is defiled for her.

⁴ A master [priest] does not defile himself among his people—to defile himself;

⁵ they do not make baldness on their head, and they do not shave the corner of their beard, and they do not make a cutting in their flesh;

⁶ they are holy to their God, and they do not defile the Name of their God, for the fire-offerings of YHWH, bread of their God, they are bringing near, and have been holy.

⁷ They do not take a woman of harlotry, or defiled, and they do not take a woman cast out from her husband, for he [is] holy to his God;

⁸ and you have sanctified him, for he is bringing the bread of your God near. He is holy to you, for I, YHWH, sanctifying you, [am] holy.

⁹ And when a daughter of any priest defiles herself by going whoring—she is defiling her father; she is burned with fire.

¹¹ nor does he come beside any dead person; he does not defile himself for his father and for his mother;

¹² nor does he go out from the sanctuary, nor does he defile the sanctuary of his God, for the separation of the anointing oil of his God [is] on him; I [am] YHWH.

¹³ And he takes a wife in her virginity;

¹⁴ a widow, or cast out, or defiled, [or] a harlot—these he does not take, but he takes a virgin of his own people [for] a wife,

¹⁵ and he does not defile his seed among his people; for I [am] YHWH, sanctifying him.”

¹⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁷ “Speak to Aaron, saying, No man of your seed throughout their generations in whom there is blemish draws near to bring the bread of his God near,

¹⁸ for no man in whom [is] a blemish draws near: a man blind, or lame, or disfigured, or deformed,

¹⁹ or a man in whom there is a breach in the foot, or a breach in the hand,

²⁰ or hunchbacked, or a dwarf, or [with] a defect in his eye, or [with] an itch, or [with] a scab, or [with] a broken testicle.

²² Bread of his God—from the most holy things and from the holy things—he eats;

²³ only, he does not come toward the veil, and he does not draw near to the altar; for blemish [is] in him; and he does not defile My sanctuaries; for I [am] YHWH, sanctifying them.”

²⁴ And Moses speaks to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel.

² “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and they are separated from the holy things of the sons of Israel, and they do not defile My holy Name in what they are hallowing to Me; I [am] YHWH.

³ Say to them: Throughout your generations, any man who draws near, out of all your seed, to the holy things which the sons of Israel sanctify to YHWH, and his uncleanness [is] on him—indeed, that person has been cut off from before My face; I [am] YHWH.

⁴ Any man of the seed of Aaron, and he is leprous or has discharging—he does not eat of the holy things until he is clean; and he who is coming against any uncleanness of a person, or a man whose seed [from] intercourse goes out from him,

⁵ or a man who comes against any teeming thing which is unclean to him, or against a man who is unclean to him, even any of his uncleanness—

⁶ the person who comes against it has even been unclean until the evening, and does not eat of the holy things, but has bathed his flesh with water;

⁷ and the sun has gone in, and he has been clean, and afterward he eats of the holy things, for it [is] his food;

⁸ he does not eat a carcass or torn thing, to become unclean with it; I [am] YHWH.

⁹ And they have kept My charge, and bear no sin for it, that they have died for it when they defile it; I [am] YHWH sanctifying them.

¹⁰ And no stranger eats of the holy thing; a settler [with] a priest and a hired worker does not eat of the holy thing;

¹¹ but when a priest buys a person, the purchase of his money, he eats of it, also one born in his house; they eat of his bread.

¹² And a priest's daughter, when she is a strange man's, she does not eat of the raised-offering of the holy things;

¹³ but a priest's daughter, when she is a widow, or cast out, and has no seed, and has turned back to the house of her father, as [in] her youth, she eats of her father's bread; but no stranger eats of it.

¹⁴ And when a man eats of a holy thing through ignorance, then he has added its fifth part to it, and has given [it] to the priest, with the holy thing;

¹⁵ and they do not defile the holy things of the sons of Israel—that which they lift up to YHWH,

¹⁶ or have caused them to bear the iniquity of the guilt-offering in their eating their holy things; for I [am] YHWH, sanctifying them.”

¹⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁸ “Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: Any man of the house of Israel, or of the sojourners in Israel, who brings his offering near, of all his vows, or of all his willing offerings which they bring near to YHWH for a burnt-offering—

¹⁹ [you bring near] at your pleasure a perfect one, a male of the herd, of the sheep or of the goats;

²⁰ nothing in which [is] blemish do you bring near, for it is not for a pleasing thing for you.

²² Blind, or broken, or maimed, or [having] an oozing sore [[or a defect of the eye]], or itch, or scab—you do not bring these near to YHWH, and you do not make a fire-offering from them on the altar to YHWH.

²³ As for an ox or sheep [that] is deformed or stunted—you make it a willing-offering, but it is not pleasing for a vow.

²⁴ As for bruised, or beaten, or torn, or cut—you do not bring [it] near to YHWH; and in your land you do not do it.

²⁵ And you do not bring the bread of your God near from the hand of a son of a stranger, from any of these, for their corruption [is] in them; blemish [is] in them; they are not pleasing for you.”

²⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁷ “When ox, or lamb, or goat is born, and it has been under its mother [for] seven days, then from the eighth day and from now on, it is pleasing for an offering, a fire-offering to YHWH;

²⁸ but an ox or sheep—you do not slaughter it and its young one in one day.

²⁹ And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to YHWH, you sacrifice at your pleasure;

³⁰ it is eaten on that day—you do not leave of it until morning; I [am] YHWH.

³¹ And you have kept my commands and have done them; I [am] YHWH;

³² and you do not defile My holy Name, and I have been hallowed in the midst of the sons of Israel; I [am] YHWH, sanctifying you,

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: Appointed times of YHWH, which you proclaim [as] holy convocations, these [are] My appointed times.

³ [For] six days work is done, and in the seventh day [is] a Sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; you do no work; it [is] a Sabbath to YHWH in all your dwellings.

⁴ These [are] appointed times of YHWH, holy convocations, which you proclaim in their appointed times:

⁵ in the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, between the evenings, [is] the Passover to YHWH;

⁶ and on the fifteenth day of this month [is] the Celebration of Unleavened Things to YHWH; [for] seven days you eat unleavened things;

⁷ on the first day you have a holy convocation, you do no servile work;

⁸ and you have brought a fire-offering near to YHWH [for] seven days; in the seventh day [is] a holy convocation; you do no servile work.”

⁹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁰ “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you come into the land which I am giving to you, and have reaped its harvest, and have brought in the sheaf, the beginning of your harvest to the priest,

¹¹ then he has waved the sheaf before YHWH for your acceptance; on the next day of the Sabbath the priest waves it.

¹³ and its present [is] two-tenth parts of flour mixed with oil, a fire-offering to YHWH, a refreshing fragrance, and its drink-offering [is] a fourth of the hin of wine.

¹⁴ And you do not eat bread and roasted grain and full ears until this very day, until your bringing in the offering of your God—a continuous statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

¹⁶ you number fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and you have brought a new present near to YHWH;

¹⁹ And you have prepared one kid of the goats for a sin-offering, and two lambs, sons of a year, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings,

²⁰ and the priest has waved them, besides the bread of the first-[fruits], [as] a wave-offering before YHWH, besides the two lambs; they are holy to YHWH for the priest;

²² And in your reaping the harvest of your land you do not complete the corner of your field in your reaping, and you do not gather the gleanings of your harvest, you leave them for the poor and for the sojourner; I [am] your God YHWH.”

²³ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁴ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first of the month, you have a Sabbath, a memorial of shouting, a holy convocation;

²⁵ you do no servile work, and you have brought a fire-offering near to YHWH.”

²⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁷ “Only—on the tenth of this seventh month is the Day of Atonements; you have a holy convocation, and you have humbled yourselves, and have brought a fire-offering near to YHWH;

²⁸ and you do no work in this very day, for it is a day of atonements, to make atonement for you, before your God YHWH.

²⁹ For any person who is not humbled in this very day has even been cut off from his people;

³⁰ and any person who does any work in this very day, I have even destroyed that person from the midst of his people;

³¹ you do no work—a continuous statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

³² It [is] a Sabbath of rest for yourselves, and you have humbled yourselves in the ninth of the month at evening; you keep your Sabbath from evening until evening.”

³³ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

³⁴ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month [is the] Celebration of Shelters [for] seven days to YHWH;

³⁵ the first day [is] a holy convocation, you do no servile work;

³⁶ [for] seven days you bring a fire-offering near to YHWH, on the eighth day you have a holy convocation, and you have brought a fire-offering near to YHWH; it [is] a restraint, you do no servile work.

³⁸ apart from the Sabbaths of YHWH, and apart from your gifts, and apart from all your vows, and apart from all your willing-offerings, which you give to YHWH.

⁴¹ And you have kept it [as] a celebration to YHWH, seven days in a year—a continuous statute throughout your generations; in the seventh month you keep it [as] a celebration.

⁴² You dwell in shelters [for] seven days; all who are natives in Israel dwell in shelters,

⁴³ so that your generations know that I caused the sons of Israel to dwell in shelters in My bringing them out of the land of Egypt; I [am] your God YHWH.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Command the sons of Israel, and they bring pure oil of beaten olive to you for the lamp, to cause a light to go up continually;

⁴ he arranges the lights on the pure lampstand before YHWH continually.

⁵ And you have taken flour, and have baked twelve cakes with it, twentieth parts are in one cake,

⁶ and you have set them [in] two rows (six in the row) on the pure table before YHWH,

⁷ and you have put pure frankincense on the row, and it has been with the bread for a memorial, a fire-offering to YHWH.

⁸ On each Sabbath day he arranges it before YHWH continually, from the sons of Israel—a perpetual covenant;

⁹ and it has been for Aaron and for his sons, and they have eaten it in the holy place, for it [is] most holy to him, from the fire-offerings of YHWH—a continuous statute.”

¹¹ and the son of the Israeli woman execrates the Name and reviles; and they bring him to Moses; and his mother’s name [is] Shelomith daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan;

¹² and he causes him to rest in confinement—to explain to them by the mouth of YHWH.

¹³ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

14 “Bring out the reviler to the outside of the camp; and all those hearing have laid their hands on his head, and all the congregation has stoned him.

15 And you speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When any man reviles his God—then he has borne his sin;

16 and he who is execrating the Name of YHWH is certainly put to death; all the congregation certainly casts stones at him; as a sojourner so a native, in his execrating the Name, he is put to death.

17 And when a man strikes any soul of man, he is certainly put to death.

18 And he who strikes a beast repays it, body for body.

19 And when a man puts a blemish in his fellow, as he has done so it is done to him;

20 breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he puts a blemish in a man so it is done in him.

21 And he who strikes a beast repays it, and he who strikes [the life of] man is put to death.

22 One judgment is for you; as a sojourner so is a native; for I [am] your God YHWH.”

23 And Moses speaks to the sons of Israel, and they bring out the reviler to the outside of the camp, and stone him [with] stone; and the sons of Israel have done as YHWH has commanded Moses.

1 And YHWH speaks to Moses, in Mount Sinai, saying,

2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you come into the land which I am giving to you, then the land has kept a Sabbath to YHWH.

3 [For] six years you sow your field, and [for] six years you prune your vineyard, and have gathered its increase,

4 and in the seventh year is a Sabbath of rest for the land, a Sabbath to YHWH; you do not sow your field, and you do not prune your vineyard;

5 you do not reap the spontaneous growth of your harvest, and you do not gather the grapes of your separated thing; it is a year of rest for the land.

6 And the Sabbath [increase] of the land has been for you for food, to you, and to your manservant, and to your handmaid, and to your hired worker, and to your settler, who are sojourning with you;

7 and for your livestock, and for the beast which [is] in your land, is all its increase for [them] to eat.

8 And you have numbered seven Sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, and the days of the seven Sabbaths of years have been forty-nine years for you,

9 and you have caused a horn of shouting to pass over in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month; in the Day of Atonements you cause a horn to pass over through all your land;

10 and you have hallowed the year, the fiftieth year; and you have proclaimed liberty in the land to all its inhabitants; it is a Jubilee for you; and you have turned back each to his possession; indeed, you return each to his family.

11 It [is] a Jubilee, the fiftieth year, it is a year for you; you do not sow, nor reap its spontaneous growth, nor gather its separated things;

12 for it [is] a Jubilee—it is holy to you; you eat its increase from the field;

13 you return each to his possession in this Year of the Jubilee.

14 And when you sell anything to your fellow, or buy from the hand of your fellow, you do not oppress one another;

15 you buy from your fellow by the number of years after the Jubilee; he sells to you by the number of the years of increase;

16 you multiply its price according to the multitude of the years, and you diminish its price according to the fewness of the years; for [it is] a number of increases [that] he is selling to you;

17 and you do not oppress one another, and you have been afraid of your God; for I [am] your God YHWH.

18 And you have done My statutes, and you keep My judgments, and have done them, and you have dwelt on the land confidently, 19 and the land has given its fruit, and you have eaten to satiety, and have dwelt confidently on it.

20 And when you say, What do we eat in the seventh year, behold, do we not sow, nor gather our increase?

21 Then I have commanded My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it has made the increase for three years;

22 and you have sown [in] the eighth year, and have eaten of the old increase; you eat the old until the ninth year, until the coming in of its increase.

23 And the land is not sold—to extinction, for the land [is] Mine, for you [are] sojourners and settlers with Me;

24 and in all the land of your possession you give a redemption for the land.

25 When your brother becomes poor, and has sold his possession, then his redeemer who is near to him has come, and he has redeemed the sold thing of his brother;

26 and when a man has no redeemer, and his own hand has attained [means], and he has found [it] as sufficient [for] its redemption,

27 then he has reckoned the years of its sale, and has given back that which is over to the man to whom he sold [it], and he has returned to his possession.

28 And if his hand has not found sufficiency to give back to him, then his sold thing has been in the hand of him who buys it until the Year of Jubilee; and it has gone out in the Jubilee, and he has returned to his possession.

29 And when a man sells a dwelling-house [in] a walled city, then his right of redemption has been until the completion of a year from its selling; his right of redemption is [during these] days;

30 and if it is not redeemed to him until the fullness of a perfect year, then the house which [is] in a walled city has been established to extinction to him buying it, throughout his generations; it does not go out in the Jubilee.

31 And a house of the villages which have no surrounding wall is reckoned on the field of the country; there is redemption for it, and it goes out in the Jubilee.

32 As for cities of the Levites—houses of the cities of their possession—continuous redemption is for the Levites;

33 as for him who redeems from the Levites, then the sale of a house (and [in] the city of his possession) has gone out in the Jubilee, for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession in the midst of the sons of Israel.

³⁴ And a field, a outskirts of their cities, is not sold; for it [is] a continuous possession for them.

³⁵ And when your brother has become poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you have kept hold on him, sojourner and settler, and he has lived with you;

³⁶ you take no usury or increase from him; and you have been afraid of your God; and your brother has lived with you;

³⁷ you do not give your money to him in usury, and you do not give your food for increase.

³⁸ I [am] your God YHWH, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt to give the land of Canaan to you, to become your God.

³⁹ And when your brother becomes poor with you, and he has been sold to you, you do not lay servile service on him;

⁴⁰ he is as a hired worker [and] as a settler with you; he serves with you until the Year of the Jubilee—

⁴¹ then he has gone out from you, he and his sons with him, and has turned back to his family; and he turns back to the possession of his fathers.

⁴² For they [are] My servants, whom I have brought out from the land of Egypt: they are not sold [with] the sale of a servant;

⁴³ you do not rule over him with rigor, and you have been afraid of your God.

⁴⁴ And your manservant and your handmaid whom you have [are] from the nations who [are] around you; you buy manservant and handmaid from them,

⁴⁵ and also from the sons of the settlers who are sojourning with you, you buy from them, and from their families who [are] with you, which they have begotten in your land, and they have been to you for a possession;

⁴⁷ And when the hand of a sojourner or settler with you attains [riches], and your brother with him has become poor, and he has been sold to a sojourner, a settler with you, or to the root of the family of a sojourner,

⁴⁸ after he has been sold, there is a right of redemption for him; one of his brothers redeems him,

⁴⁹ or his uncle or a son of his uncle redeems him, or any of the relations of his flesh, of his family, redeems him, or [if] his own hand has attained [means] then he has been redeemed.

⁵¹ If many years still [remain], he gives back his redemption [money] according to them, from the money of his purchase.

⁵² And if few are left of the years until the Year of Jubilee, then he has reckoned with him [and] he gives back his redemption [money] according to his years;

⁵³ as a hired worker, year by year, he is with him, and he does not rule him with rigor before your eyes.

⁵⁴ And if he is not redeemed in these [years], then he has gone out in the Year of Jubilee, he and his sons with him.

⁵⁵ For the sons of Israel [are] servants to Me; they [are] My servants whom I have brought out of the land of Egypt; I [am] your God YHWH."

¹ "You do not make idols for yourselves; and you do not set up carved image or standing image for yourselves; and you do not put a stone of imagery in your land, to bow yourselves to it; for I [am] your God YHWH.

² You keep My Sabbaths and you revere My sanctuary; I [am] YHWH.

³ If you walk in My statutes, and you keep My commands, and have done them,

⁴ then I have given your rains in their season, and the land has given her produce, and the tree of the field gives its fruit;

⁵ and the threshing has reached to you, [and] the gathering, and the gathering reaches the sowing-[time]; and you have eaten your bread to satiety, and have dwelt confidently in your land.

⁶ And I have given peace in the land, and you have lain down, and there is none causing trembling; and I have caused evil beasts to cease out of the land, and the sword does not pass over into your land.

⁷ And you have pursued your enemies, and they have fallen before you by the sword;

⁸ and five of you have pursued one hundred, and one hundred of you pursue a myriad; and your enemies have fallen before you by the sword.

⁹ And I have turned to you, and have made you fruitful, and have multiplied you, and have established My covenant with you;

¹⁰ and you have eaten old [store], and you bring out the old because of the new.

¹¹ And I have given My Dwelling Place in your midst, and My soul does not loathe you;

¹² and I have habitually walked in your midst, and have become your God, and you become My people;

¹³ I [am] your God YHWH, who has brought you out of the land of the Egyptians, from being their servants; and I break the bars of your yoke and cause you to go erect.

¹⁴ And if you do not listen to Me and do not do all these commands,

¹⁵ and if you kick at My statutes, and if your soul loathes My judgments, so as not to do all My commands—to your breaking My covenant—

¹⁶ I also do this to you: I have even appointed trouble over you, the consumption, and the burning fever, consuming eyes, and causing pain of soul; and you have sowed your seed in vain, and your enemies have eaten it;

¹⁷ and I have set My face against you, and you have been struck before your enemies; and those hating you have ruled over you, and you have fled when there is none pursuing you.

¹⁸ And if up to these you [still] do not listen to Me—then I have added to discipline you sevenfold for your sins;

¹⁹ and I have broken the pride of your strength, and have made your heavens as iron, and your earth as bronze;

²⁰ and your strength has been consumed in vain, and your land does not give her produce, and the tree of the land does not give its fruit.

²¹ And if you walk with Me [in] opposition, and are not willing to listen to Me, then I have added to you a plague sevenfold, according to your sins,

²² and sent the beast of the field against you, and it has bereaved you; and I have cut off your livestock, and have made you few, and your ways have been desolate.

²³ And if by these you are not instructed by Me, and have walked with Me [in] opposition,

²⁴ then I have walked—I also—with you in opposition, and have struck you, even I, sevenfold for your sins;

²⁵ and I have brought in a sword on you, executing the vengeance of a covenant; and you have been gathered to your cities, and I have sent pestilence into your midst, and you have been given into the hand of an enemy.

²⁶ In My breaking your staff of bread, then ten women have baked your bread in one oven, and have given back your bread by weight; and you have eaten and are not satisfied.

²⁷ And if for this you do not listen to Me, and have walked with Me in opposition,

²⁸ then I have walked with you in the fury of opposition, and have disciplined you, even I, sevenfold for your sins.

²⁹ And you have eaten [the] flesh of your sons; and you eat [the] flesh of your daughters.

³⁰ And I have destroyed your high places, and cut down your images, and have put your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols, and My soul has loathed you;

³¹ and I have made your cities a ruin, and have made your sanctuaries desolate, and I do not smell your refreshing fragrance;

³² and I have made the land desolate, and your enemies who are dwelling in it have been astonished at it.

³³ And I scatter you among nations, and have drawn out a sword after you, and your land has been a desolation, and your cities are a ruin.

³⁴ Then the land enjoys its Sabbaths all the days of the desolation—and you [are] in the land of your enemies; then the land rests, and has enjoyed its Sabbaths;

³⁵ it rests all the days of the desolation [for] that which it has not rested in your Sabbaths, in your dwelling on it.

³⁶ And those who are left of you—I have also brought a faintness into their heart in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a leaf driven away has pursued them, and they have fled [as in] flight from a sword—and they have fallen, and there is none pursuing.

³⁷ And they have stumbled on one another, as from the face of a sword, and there is none pursuing, and you have no standing before your enemies,

³⁸ and you have perished among the nations, and the land of your enemies has consumed you.

³⁹ And those who are left of you—they consume away in their iniquity, in the lands of your enemies; and also in the iniquities of their fathers, they consume away with them.

⁴⁰ And [if] they have confessed their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they have trespassed against Me, and also that they have walked with Me in opposition,

⁴¹ when I also walk in opposition to them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies—if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and then they accept the punishment of their iniquity—

⁴² then I have remembered My covenant [with] Jacob, and also My covenant [with] Isaac, and also My covenant [with] Abraham I remember, and I remember the land.

⁴⁴ and also even this, in their being in the land of their enemies, I have not rejected them, nor have I loathed them, to consume them, to break My covenant with them; for I [am] their God YHWH—

⁴⁵ then I have remembered for them the covenant of the ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt before the eyes of the nations to become their God; I [am] YHWH.”

⁴⁶ These [are] the statutes, and the judgments, and the laws, which YHWH has given between Him and the sons of Israel in Mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When a man makes a special vow in your valuation of persons to YHWH,

³ then your valuation has been of the male from a son of twenty years even to a son of sixty years, and your valuation has been fifty shekels of silver by the shekel of the holy place.

⁴ And if it [is] a female, then your valuation has been thirty shekels;

⁵ and if from a son of five years even to a son of twenty years, then your valuation of the male has been twenty shekels, and for the female, ten shekels;

⁶ and if from a son of a month even to a son of five years, then your valuation of the male has been five shekels of silver, and for the female your valuation [is] three shekels of silver;

⁷ and if from a son of sixty years and above, if a male, then your valuation has been fifteen shekels, and for a female, ten shekels.

⁸ And if he is poorer than your valuation, then he has presented himself before the priest, and the priest has valued him; according to that which the hand of him who is vowing reaches, the priest values him.

⁹ And if [it is] a beast of which they bring near [as] an offering to YHWH, all that [one] gives of it to YHWH is holy;

¹⁰ he does not change it nor exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he really exchanges beast for beast, then it has been [holy] and its exchange is holy.

¹¹ And if [it is] any unclean beast of which they do not bring near [as] an offering to YHWH, then he has presented the beast before the priest,

¹² and the priest has valued it, whether good or bad; according to your valuation, O priest, so it is;

¹³ and if he really redeems it, then he has added its fifth to your valuation.

¹⁴ And when a man sanctifies his house [as] a holy thing to YHWH, then the priest has valued it, whether good or bad; as the priest values it so it stands;

¹⁵ and if he who is sanctifying redeems his house, then he has added a fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it has become his.

¹⁶ And if a man sanctifies to YHWH from a field of his possession, then your valuation has been according to its seed—a homer of barley-seed at fifty shekels of silver;

¹⁷ if he sanctifies his field from the Year of the Jubilee, according to your valuation it stands;

¹⁸ and if he sanctifies his field after the Jubilee, then the priest has reckoned the money to him according to the years which are left, to the Year of the Jubilee, and it has been diminished from your valuation.

¹⁹ And if he really redeems the field—he who is sanctifying it—then he has added a fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it has been established to him;

²⁰ and if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it is not redeemed anymore;

²² And if he sanctifies a field of his purchase to YHWH, which [is] not of the fields of his possession,

²³ then the priest has reckoned to him the amount of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee, and he has given your valuation in that day [as] a holy thing to YHWH;

²⁴ in the Year of the Jubilee the field returns to him from whom he bought it, to him who [has] the possession of the land.

²⁵ And all your valuation is by the shekel of the holy place: the shekel is twenty gerahs.

²⁶ Only, a firstling which is YHWH's firstling among beasts—no man sanctifies it, whether ox or sheep; it [is] YHWH's.

²⁷ And if [from] among the unclean beast, then he has ransomed [it] at your valuation, and he has added its fifth to it; and if it is not redeemed, then it has been sold at your valuation.

²⁹ No devoted thing, which is devoted of man, is ransomed, it is surely put to death.

³⁰ And all tithe of the land, of the seed of the land, of the fruit of the tree, is YHWH's; [it is] holy to YHWH.

³¹ And if a man really redeems [any] of his tithe, he adds its fifth to it.

³² And all the tithe of the herd and of the flock—all that passes by under the rod—the tenth is holy to YHWH;

³³ he does not inquire between good and bad, nor does he exchange it; and if he really exchanges it, then it has been [holy] and its exchange is holy; it is not redeemed."

³⁴ These [are] the commands which YHWH has commanded Moses for the sons of Israel in Mount Sinai.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first of the second month, in the second year of their going out of the land of Egypt, saying,

² “Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel by their families, by the house of their fathers, in the number of names—every male by their counted heads;

³ from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host in Israel, you number them by their hosts, you and Aaron;

⁴ and with you there is a man for a tribe, each is a head of the house of his fathers.

⁵ And these [are] the names of the men who stand with you: for Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;

⁶ for Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;

⁷ for Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab;

⁸ for Issachar, Nathaneel son of Zuar;

⁹ for Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;

¹⁰ for the sons of Joseph: for Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; for Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;

¹¹ for Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;

¹² for Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;

¹³ for Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran;

¹⁴ for Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;

¹⁵ for Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.”

¹⁶ These [are] those called of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers; they [are] heads of the thousands of Israel.

¹⁷ And Moses takes—Aaron also—these men, who were defined by name,

¹⁹ as YHWH has commanded Moses; and he numbers them in the wilderness of Sinai.

²¹ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Reuben, are forty-six thousand and five hundred.

²³ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Simeon, [are] fifty-nine thousand and three hundred.

²⁴ Of the sons of Gad—their births, by their families, by the house of their fathers, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host—

²⁵ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Gad, [are] forty-five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

²⁷ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Judah, [are] seventy-four thousand and six hundred.

²⁹ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Issachar, [are] fifty-four thousand and four hundred.

³⁰ Of the sons of Zebulun—their births, by their families, by the house of their fathers, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host—

³¹ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Zebulun, [are] fifty-seven thousand and four hundred.

³³ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Ephraim, [are] forty thousand and five hundred.

³⁴ Of the sons of Manasseh—their births, by their families, by the house of their fathers, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host—

³⁵ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Manasseh, [are] thirty-two thousand and two hundred.

³⁷ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Benjamin, [are] thirty-five thousand and four hundred.

³⁸ Of the sons of Dan—their births, by their families, by the house of their fathers, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host—

³⁹ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Dan, [are] sixty-two thousand and seven hundred.

⁴¹ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Asher, [are] forty-one thousand and five hundred.

⁴³ their numbered ones, for the tribe of Naphtali, [are] fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

⁴⁵ And they are, all those numbered of the sons of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone going out to the host in Israel, ⁴⁶ indeed, all those numbered are six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

⁴⁷ And the Levites, for the tribe of their fathers, have not numbered themselves in their midst,

⁴⁸ seeing YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁴⁹ "Only the tribe of Levi you do not number, and you do not take up their census in the midst of the sons of Israel;

⁵⁰ and you, appoint the Levites over the Dwelling Place of the Testimony, and over all its vessels, and over all that it has; they carry the Dwelling Place, and all its vessels, and they serve it; and they encamp around the Dwelling Place.

⁵¹ And in the journeying of the Dwelling Place, the Levites take it down, and in the encamping of the Dwelling Place, the Levites raise it up; and the stranger who is coming near is put to death."

⁵² And the sons of Israel have encamped, each by his camp, and each by his standard, by their hosts;

⁵³ and the Levites encamp around the Dwelling Place of the Testimony; and there is no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel, and the Levites have kept the charge of the Dwelling Place of the Testimony.

⁵⁴ And the sons of Israel do according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses; so they have done.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

² "The sons of Israel encamp, each by his standard, with ensigns of the house of their fathers; they encamp around, from in sight of the Tent of Meeting."

³ And those encamping eastward toward the sun-rising [are] of the standard of the camp of Judah, by their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Judah [is] Nahshon, son of Amminadab;

⁴ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] seventy-four thousand and six hundred.

⁶ and his host, and its numbered ones, [are] fifty-four thousand and four hundred.

⁷ The tribe of Zebulun [is with them]; and the prince of the sons of Zebulun [is] Eliab son of Helon;

⁸ and his host, and its numbered ones, [are] fifty-seven thousand and four hundred.

⁹ All those numbered of the camp of Judah [are] one hundred thousand and eighty thousand and six thousand and four hundred, by their hosts; they journey first.

¹⁰ The standard of the camp of Reuben [is] southward, by their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Reuben [is] Elizur son of Shedeur;

¹¹ and his host, and its numbered ones, [are] forty-six thousand and five hundred.

¹³ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] fifty-nine thousand and three hundred.

¹⁵ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] forty-five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

¹⁶ All those numbered of the camp of Reuben [are] one hundred thousand and fifty-one thousand and four hundred and fifty, by their hosts; and they journey second.

¹⁸ The standard of the camp of Ephraim, by their hosts, [is] westward; and the prince of the sons of Ephraim [is] Elishama son of Ammihud;

¹⁹ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] forty thousand and five hundred.

²¹ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] thirty-two thousand and two hundred.

²³ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] thirty-five thousand and four hundred.

²⁴ All those numbered of the camp of Ephraim [are] one hundred thousand and eight thousand and one hundred, by their hosts; and they journey third.

²⁵ The standard of the camp of Dan [is] northward, by their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Dan [is] Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;

²⁶ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] sixty-two thousand and seven hundred.

²⁸ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] forty-one thousand and five hundred.

²⁹ And the tribe of Naphtali [is with them]; and the prince of the sons of Naphtali [is] Ahira son of Enan;

³⁰ and his host, and their numbered ones, [are] fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

³¹ All those numbered of the camp of Dan [are] one hundred thousand and fifty-seven thousand and six hundred; they journey at the rear by their standards.

³⁴ And the sons of Israel do according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses; so they have encamped by their standards, and so they have journeyed, each by his families, by the house of his fathers.

² And these [are] the names of the sons of Aaron: the firstborn Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;

³ these [are] the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whose hand he has consecrated for acting as priest.

⁵ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁶ "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and you have caused it to stand before Aaron the priest, and they have served him,

⁷ and kept his charge, and the charge of all the congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the Dwelling Place;

⁸ and they have kept all the vessels of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the Dwelling Place;

⁹ and you have given the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are surely given to him out of the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ And you appoint Aaron and his sons, and they have kept their priesthood, and the stranger who comes near is put to death."

¹¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹² "And I, behold, have taken the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn opening a womb among the sons of Israel, and the Levites have been Mine;

¹³ for every firstborn [is] Mine, in the day of My striking every firstborn in the land of Egypt I have sanctified to Myself every firstborn in Israel, from man to beast; they are Mine; I [am] YHWH."

¹⁴ And YHWH speaks to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

¹⁵ "Number the sons of Levi by the house of their fathers, by their families; every male from a son of a month and upward—you number them."

¹⁶ And Moses numbers them according to the command of YHWH, as he has been commanded.

¹⁷ And these are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁸ And these [are] the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

¹⁹ And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

²⁰ And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi; these are the families of the Levites, by the house of their fathers.

²¹ Of Gershon—the family of the Libnite and the family of the Shimite; these are the families of the Gershonite.

²² Their numbered ones, in number, every male from a son of a month and upward, their numbered ones [are] seven thousand and five hundred.

²³ The families of the Gershonite encamp westward behind the Dwelling Place.

²⁴ And the prince of a father's house for the Gershonite [is] Eliasaph son of Lael.

²⁶ and the hangings of the court, and the veil at the opening of the court, which [is] by the Dwelling Place and by the altar all around, and its cords, to all its service.

²⁸ In number, all the males, from a son of a month and upward, [are] eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the holy place.

²⁹ The families of the sons of Kohath encamp southward by the side of the Dwelling Place.

³⁰ And the prince of a father's house for the families of the Kohathite [is] Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

³¹ And their charge [is] the Ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the vessels of the holy place with which they serve, and the veil, and all its service.

³² And Eleazar son of Aaron the priest [is] the prince of the princes of the Levites, [with] the oversight of the keepers of the charge of the holy place.

³³ Of Merari—the family of the Mahlite and the family of the Mushite; these [are] the families of Merari.

³⁴ And their numbered ones, in number, all the males from a son of a month and upward, [are] six thousand and two hundred.

³⁵ And the prince of a father's house for the families of Merari [is] Zurriel son of Abihail; they encamp northward by the side of the Dwelling Place.

³⁶ And the oversight [and] charge of the sons of Merari [are] the boards of the Dwelling Place, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and all its vessels, and all its service,

³⁷ and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

⁴⁰ And YHWH says to Moses, "Number every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a son of a month and upward, and take up the number of their names;

⁴¹ and you have taken the Levites for Me (I [am] YHWH), instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of every firstling among the livestock of the sons of Israel."

⁴² And Moses numbers, as YHWH has commanded him, all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.

⁴³ And every firstborn male, by the number of names, from a son of a month and upward, of their numbered ones, are twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

⁴⁴ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁴⁵ "Take the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and the Levites have been Mine; I [am] YHWH.

⁴⁶ And [from] those ransomed of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, who are more than the Levites,

⁴⁷ you have even taken five shekels apiece by the counted head—you take by the shekel of the holy place; the shekel [is] twenty gerahs;

⁴⁸ and you have given the money to Aaron and to his sons, whereby those over and above are ransomed."

⁴⁹ And Moses takes the ransom money from those over and above those ransomed by the Levites;

⁵⁰ he has taken the money from the firstborn of the sons of Israel—one thousand and three hundred and sixty-five, by the shekel of the holy place;

⁵¹ and Moses gives the money of those ransomed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the command of YHWH, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

² "Take a census of the sons of Kohath from the midst of the sons of Levi, by their families, by the house of their fathers;

³ from a son of thirty years and upward, even until a son of fifty years, everyone going in to the host, to do work in the Tent of Meeting.

⁴ This [is] the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting [for] the most holy things:

⁶ then they have put a covering of tachash skin on it, and have spread a garment completely of blue above, and have placed its poles.

⁷ And they spread a garment of blue over the table of the presence, and have put the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and the cups of the drink-offering on it, and the bread of continuity is on it,

⁸ and they have spread a garment of scarlet over them, and have covered it with a covering of tachash skin, and have placed its poles,

⁹ and have taken a garment of blue, and have covered the lampstand of the lamp, and its lights, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, and all its oil vessels with which they minister to it;

¹⁰ and they have put it and all its vessels into a covering of tachash skin, and have put [it] on the bar.

¹¹ And they spread a garment of blue over the golden altar, and have covered it with a covering of tachash skin, and have placed its poles,

¹³ and have removed the ashes of the altar, and have spread a garment of purple over it,

¹⁴ and have put on it all its vessels with which they minister on it—the censers, the hooks, and the shovels, and the bowls, all the vessels of the altar—and have spread a covering of tachash skin on it, and have placed its poles.

¹⁵ And Aaron has finished—his sons also—covering the holy place, and all the vessels of the holy place, in the journeying of the camp, and afterward the sons of Kohath come in to carry [it], and they do not come to the holy thing, lest they have died; these [things are] the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

¹⁶ And the oversight of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, [is] the oil of the lamp, and the spice-incense, and the present of continuity, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the Dwelling Place and of all that [is] in it, in the sanctuary and in its vessels.”

¹⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

¹⁸ “You do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathite from the midst of the Levites;

²⁰ and they do not go in to see when the holy thing is swallowed, lest they have died.”

²¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²² “Also take a census of the sons of Gershon by the house of their fathers, by their families;

²³ from a son of thirty years and upward, until a son of fifty years, you number them—everyone who is going in to serve the host, to do the service in the Tent of Meeting.

²⁴ This [is] the service of the families of the Gershonite, to serve and for burden:

²⁶ and the hangings of the court, and the veil at the opening of the gate of the court which [is] by the Dwelling Place, and by the altar all around, and their cords, and all the vessels of their service, and all that is made for them—and they have served.

²⁹ The sons of Merari, by their families, by the house of their fathers—you number them;

³⁰ from a son of thirty years and upward even to a son of fifty years, you number them—everyone who is going in to the host, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting.

³¹ And this [is] the charge of their burden, of all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the boards of the Dwelling Place, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets,

³³ This [is] the service of the families of the sons of Merari, for all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, by the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.”

³⁴ And Moses numbers—Aaron also, and the princes of the congregation—the sons of the Kohathite, by their families, and by the house of their fathers,

³⁵ from a son of thirty years and upward even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting,

³⁶ and their numbered ones, by their families, are two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

³⁸ And those numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families, and by the house of their fathers,

³⁹ from a son of thirty years and upward even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting,

⁴⁰ even their numbered ones, by their families, by the house of their fathers, are two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

⁴² And those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by the house of their fathers,

⁴³ from a son of thirty years and upward even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting,

⁴⁴ even their numbered ones, by their families, are three thousand and two hundred.

⁴⁵ These [are] those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the command of YHWH, by the hand of Moses.

⁴⁶ All those numbered, whom Moses numbered—Aaron also, and the princes of Israel—of the Levites, by their families, and by the house of their fathers,

⁴⁷ from a son of thirty years and upward even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to do the work of the service, even the service of burden in the Tent of Meeting,

⁴⁸ even their numbered ones are eight thousand and five hundred and eighty;

⁴⁹ he has numbered them by the command of YHWH, by the hand of Moses, each man by his service, and by his burden, with his numbered ones, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

² “Command the sons of Israel, and they send out of the camp every leper, and everyone with discharging, and everyone defiled by a body;

³ you send out from male even to female; you send them to the outside of the camp and they do not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell.”

⁴ And the sons of Israel do so, and they send them out to the outside of the camp; as YHWH has spoken to Moses so the sons of Israel have done.

⁵ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁶ “Speak to the sons of Israel: Man or woman, when they do any of the sins of man, by committing a trespass against YHWH, and that person [is] guilty,

⁷ and they have confessed their sin which they have done, then he has restored his guilt in its principal, and is adding its fifth to it, and has given [it] to him in reference to whom he has been guilty.

⁹ And every raised-offering of all the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they bring near to the priest, becomes his;

¹⁰ and any man’s hallowed things become his; that which any man gives to the priest becomes his.”

¹¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When any man’s wife turns aside, and has committed a trespass against him,

¹³ and a man has lain with her [with] the seed [from] intercourse, and it has been hid from the eyes of her husband, and concealed, and she has been defiled, and there is no witness against her, and she has not been caught,

¹⁴ and a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has been jealous [for] his wife, and she has been defiled—or a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has been jealous [for] his wife, and she has not been defiled—

¹⁵ then the man has brought in his wife to the priest, and he has brought in her offering for her—a tenth of the ephah of barley meal; he does not pour oil on it, nor does he put frankincense on it, for it [is] a present of jealousy, a present of memorial, causing remembrance of iniquity.

¹⁶ And the priest has brought her near, and has caused her to stand before YHWH,

¹⁸ and the priest has caused the woman to stand before YHWH, and has uncovered the woman’s head, and has given the present of the memorial into her hands (it [is] a present of jealousy), and the bitter waters which cause the curse are in the hand of the priest.

¹⁹ And the priest has caused her to swear, and has said to the woman, If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside [to] uncleanness under your husband, be free from these bitter waters which cause the curse;

²¹ then the priest has caused the woman to swear with an oath of execration, and the priest has said to the woman—YHWH gives you for an execration and for a curse in the midst of your people, in YHWH's giving your thigh to fall and your belly to swell,

²² and these waters which cause the curse have gone into your bowels to cause the belly to swell and the thigh to fall; and the woman has said, Amen, Amen.

²³ And the priest has written these execrations in a scroll, and has blotted [them] out with the bitter waters,

²⁴ and has caused the woman to drink the bitter waters which cause the curse, and the waters which cause the curse have entered into her for bitter things.

²⁵ And the priest has taken the present of jealousy out of the hand of the woman, and has waved the present before YHWH, and has brought it near to the altar;

²⁶ and the priest has taken a handful of the present, its memorial, and has made incense on the altar, and afterward causes the woman to drink the water;

²⁷ indeed, he has caused her to drink the water, and it has come to pass, if she has been defiled and commits a trespass against her husband, that the waters which cause the curse have gone into her for bitter things, and her belly has swelled, and her thigh has fallen, and the woman has become an execration in the midst of her people.

²⁸ And if the woman has not been defiled, and is clean, then she has been acquitted, and has been sown [with] seed.

²⁹ This [is] the law of jealousies when a wife turns aside under her husband and has been defiled,

³⁰ or when a spirit of jealousy passes over a man and he has been jealous of his wife, then he has caused the woman to stand before YHWH, and the priest has done to her all this law,

³¹ and the man has been acquitted from iniquity, and that woman bears her iniquity."

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When a man or woman does extraordinarily by vowing a vow of a Nazarite, to be separate to YHWH,

⁴ all [the] days of his separation he does not eat of anything which is made of the wine-vine, from kernels even to husk.

⁶ All [the] days of his keeping separate to YHWH, he does not go near a dead person;

⁸ all [the] days of his separation he [is] holy to YHWH.

⁹ And when the dead dies beside him in an instant, suddenly, and he has defiled the head of his separation, then he has shaved his head in the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shaves it,

¹⁰ and on the eighth day he brings in two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting,

¹¹ and the priest has prepared one for a sin-offering and one for a burnt-offering, and has made atonement for him because of that which he has sinned by the body, and he has hallowed his head on that day;

¹² and he has separated to YHWH the days of his separation, and he has brought in a lamb, a son of a year, for a guilt-offering, and the former days are fallen, for his separation has been defiled.

¹³ And this [is] the law of the Nazarite: in the day of the fullness of the days of his separation, he is brought to the opening of the Tent of Meeting,

¹⁵ and a basket of unleavened things of flour, cakes mixed with oil, and thin cakes of unleavened things anointed with oil, and their present, and their drink-offerings.

¹⁶ And the priest has brought [them] near before YHWH, and has made his sin-offering and his burnt-offering;

¹⁷ and he makes the ram [as] a sacrifice of peace-offerings to YHWH, besides the basket of unleavened things; and the priest has made its present and its drink-offering.

²⁰ and the priest has waved them [as] a wave-offering before YHWH; it [is] holy to the priest, besides the breast of the wave-offering, and besides the leg of the raised-offering; and afterward the Nazarite drinks wine.

²¹ This [is] the law of the Nazarite who vows his offering to YHWH for his separation, apart from that which his hand attains; according to his vow which he vows so he does by the law of his separation.”

²² And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²³ “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, Thus you bless the sons of Israel, saying to them:

²⁴ YHWH bless you and keep you;

²⁵ YHWH cause His face to shine on you, || And favor you;

²⁶ YHWH lift up His countenance on you, || And appoint for you—peace.

27 And they have put My Name on the sons of Israel, and I bless them.”

1 And it comes to pass on the day [when] Moses [was] finishing to set up the Dwelling Place, that he anoints it, and sanctifies it, and all its vessels, and the altar, and all its vessels, and he anoints them, and sanctifies them,

2 and the princes of Israel (heads of the house of their fathers, they [are] princes of the tribes, they who are standing over those numbered) bring near,

3 indeed, they bring their offering before YHWH of six covered wagons and twelve oxen—a wagon for two of the princes, and an ox for one—and they bring them near before the Dwelling Place.

4 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

5 “Receive [these] from them, and they have been [used] for doing the service of the Tent of Meeting, and you have given them to the Levites, each according to his service.”

6 And Moses takes the wagons and the oxen, and gives them to the Levites.

7 He has given the two wagons and the four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service,

8 and he has given the four wagons and the eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, by the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest,

9 but he has not given [any] to the sons of Kohath, for the service of the holy place [is] on them, [which] they carry on the shoulder.

10 And the princes bring the dedication of the altar near in the day of its being anointed, indeed, the princes bring their offering near before the altar.

11 And YHWH says to Moses, “One prince a day, one prince a day—they bring their offering near for the dedication of the altar.”

12 And he who is bringing his offering near on the first day is Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah.

13 And his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

14 one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

15 one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

16 one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

17 and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day Nethaneel son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, has brought [an offering] near.

19 He has brought his offering near: one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

20 one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

²¹ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

²² one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

²³ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Nethaneel son of Zuar.

²⁴ On the third day, Eliab son of Helon, prince of the sons of Zebulun—

²⁶ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

²⁷ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

²⁸ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

²⁹ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

³⁰ On the fourth day, Elizur son of Shedeur, prince of the sons of Reuben—

³¹ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

³² one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

³³ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

³⁴ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

³⁵ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

³⁶ On the fifth day, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, prince of the sons of Simeon—

³⁷ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

³⁸ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

³⁹ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁴⁰ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁴² On the sixth day, Eliasaph son of Deuel, prince of the sons of Gad—

⁴³ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁴⁴ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁴⁵ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁴⁶ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁴⁷ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

⁴⁸ On the seventh day, Elishama son of Ammihud, prince of the sons of Ephraim—

⁴⁹ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁵⁰ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁵¹ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁵² one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁵³ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

⁵⁴ On the eighth day, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, prince of the sons of Manasseh—

⁵⁵ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁵⁶ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁵⁷ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁵⁸ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁵⁹ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

⁶⁰ On the ninth day, Abidan son of Gideoni, prince of the sons of Benjamin—

⁶¹ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁶² one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁶³ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁶⁴ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁶⁵ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

⁶⁶ On the tenth day, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, prince of the sons of Dan—

⁶⁷ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁶⁸ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁶⁹ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁷⁰ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁷¹ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

⁷² On the eleventh day, Pagiél son of Ocran, prince of the sons of Asher—

⁷³ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁷⁴ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁷⁵ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁷⁶ one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁷⁷ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Pagiél son of Ocran.

⁷⁸ On the twelfth day, Ahira son of Enan, prince of the sons of Naphtali—

⁷⁹ his offering [is] one silver dish, its weight one hundred and thirty [shekels], [and] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a present;

⁸⁰ one golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense;

⁸¹ one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, one lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt-offering;

⁸² one kid of the goats for a sin-offering;

⁸³ and for a sacrifice of the peace-offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs, sons of a year; this [is] the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

⁸⁵ each silver dish [is] one hundred and thirty [shekels], and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels [is] two thousand and four hundred [shekels], by the shekel of the holy place;

⁸⁹ And in the entering of Moses into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Him, indeed, he hears the voice speaking to him from off the propitiatory covering which [is] on the Ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim; and He speaks to him.

² "Speak to Aaron, and you have said to him: In your causing the lights to go up, the seven lights give light toward the front of the face of the lampstand."

³ And Aaron does so; he has caused its lights to go up toward the front of the face of the lampstand, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

⁴ And this [is] the work of the lampstand: beaten work of gold; from its thigh to its flower it [is] beaten work; as the appearance which YHWH showed Moses, so he has made the lampstand.

⁵ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁶ “Take the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, and you have cleansed them.

⁷ And thus you do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle waters of atonement on them, and they have caused a razor to pass over all their flesh, and have washed their garments, and cleansed themselves,

⁸ and have taken a bullock, a son of the herd, and its present, flour mixed with oil, and you take a second bullock, a son of the herd, for a sin-offering;

⁹ and you have brought the Levites near before the Tent of Meeting, and you have assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel,

¹⁰ and you have brought the Levites near before YHWH, and the sons of Israel have laid their hands on the Levites,

¹¹ and Aaron has waved the Levites [as] a wave-offering before YHWH, from the sons of Israel, and they have been [consecrated] for doing the service of YHWH.

¹³ And you have caused the Levites to stand before Aaron, and before his sons, and have waved them [as] a wave-offering to YHWH;

¹⁴ and you have separated the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, and the Levites have become Mine;

¹⁵ and afterward the Levites come in to serve the Tent of Meeting, and you have cleansed them, and have waved them [as] a wave-offering.

¹⁶ For they are certainly given to Me out of the midst of the sons of Israel, instead of him who opens any womb—the firstborn of all; I have taken them for Myself from the sons of Israel;

¹⁷ for every firstborn among the sons of Israel [is] Mine, among man and among beast; in the day of My striking every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself;

¹⁸ and I take the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel.

¹⁹ And I give the Levites [as] gifts to Aaron and to his sons, from the midst of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the sons of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the sons of Israel, and there is no plague among the sons of Israel in the sons of Israel drawing near to the holy place.”

²⁰ And Moses does—Aaron also, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel—to the Levites according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses concerning the Levites; so the sons of Israel have done to them.

²¹ And the Levites cleanse themselves, and wash their garments, and Aaron waves them [as] a wave-offering before YHWH, and Aaron makes atonement for them to cleanse them,

²² and afterward the Levites have gone in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting, before Aaron and before his sons; as YHWH has commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they have done to them.

²³ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁴ “This [is] who [is] for the Levites: from a son of twenty-five years and upward he goes in to serve the host in the service of the Tent of Meeting,

²⁵ and from a son of fifty years he returns from the host of the service, and does not serve anymore,

²⁶ and he has ministered with his brothers in the Tent of Meeting, to keep the charge, and does not do service; thus you do to the Levites concerning their charge.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, in the wilderness of Sinai, in the second year of their going out of the land of Egypt, in the first month, saying,

² “Also, the sons of Israel prepare the Passover in its appointed time;

³ in the fourteenth day of this month between the evenings you prepare it in its appointed time; you prepare it according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances.”

⁴ And Moses speaks to the sons of Israel to prepare the Passover,

⁵ and they prepare the Passover in the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, between the evenings, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel have done.

⁶ And there are men who have been defiled by the body of a man, and they have not been able to prepare the Passover on that day, and they come near before Moses and before Aaron on that day,

⁷ and those men say to him, “We are defiled by the body of a man; why are we withheld so as not to bring the offering of YHWH near in its appointed time, in the midst of the sons of Israel?”

⁸ And Moses says to them, “Stand, and I hear what YHWH has commanded concerning you.”

⁹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁰ “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Though any man is unclean by a body or in a distant journey (of you or of your generations), he has still prepared a Passover to YHWH;

¹¹ they prepare it in the second month, on the fourteenth day, between the evenings; they eat it with unleavened and bitter things;

¹² they do not leave of [it] until morning; and they do not break a bone in it; they prepare it according to all the statute of the Passover.

¹³ And the man who is clean, and has not been on a journey, and has ceased to prepare the Passover, indeed, that person has been cut off from his people; because he has not brought the offering of YHWH near in its appointed time, that man bears his sin.

¹⁴ And when a sojourner sojourns with you, then he has prepared a Passover to YHWH—according to the statute of the Passover and according to its ordinance, so he does; one statute is for you, indeed, for a sojourner and for a native of the land.”

¹⁵ And in the day of the raising up of the Dwelling Place, the cloud has covered the Dwelling Place, even the Tent of the Testimony; and in the evening there is as an appearance of fire on the Dwelling Place until morning;

¹⁶ so it is continually; the cloud covers it, also the appearance of fire by night.

¹⁷ And according to the going up of the cloud from off the tent, then afterward the sons of Israel journey; and in the place where the cloud dwells, there the sons of Israel encamp;

¹⁸ by the command of YHWH the sons of Israel journey, and by the command of YHWH they encamp; all the days that the cloud dwells over the Dwelling Place they encamp.

¹⁹ And in the cloud prolonging itself over the Dwelling Place many days, then the sons of Israel have kept the charge of YHWH, and do not journey.

²¹ And so when the cloud is from evening until morning, when the cloud has gone up in the morning, then they have journeyed; whether by day or by night, when the cloud has gone up, then they have journeyed.

²² Whether two days, or a month, or days, in the cloud prolonging itself over the Dwelling Place, to dwell over it, the sons of Israel encamp and do not journey; and in its being lifted up they journey.

²³ By the command of YHWH they encamp, and by the command of YHWH they journey; they have kept the charge of YHWH, by the command of YHWH in the hand of Moses.

² "Make two trumpets of silver for yourself; you make them of beaten work, and they have been for you for the convocation of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps;

³ and they have blown with them, and all the congregation has assembled to you at the opening of the Tent of Meeting.

⁴ And if they blow with one, then the princes, heads of the thousands of Israel, have assembled to you;

⁵ and you have blown—a shout, and the camps which are encamping eastward have journeyed.

⁶ And you have blown—a second shout, and the camps which are encamping southward have journeyed; they blow a shout for their journeys.

⁷ And in the assembling of the assembly you blow, and do not shout;

⁸ and sons of Aaron, the priests, blow with the trumpets; and they have been for a continuous statute to you throughout your generations.

⁹ And when you go into battle in your land against the adversary who is distressing you, then you have shouted with the trumpets, and you have been remembered before your God YHWH, and you have been saved from your enemies.

¹⁰ And in the day of your gladness, and in your appointed times, and in the beginnings of your months, you have also blown with the trumpets over your burnt-offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings, and they have been for a memorial to you before your God; I [am] your God YHWH."

¹¹ And it comes to pass, in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, the cloud has gone up from off the Dwelling Place of the Testimony,

¹² and the sons of Israel journey in their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud dwells in the wilderness of Paran;

¹³ and they journey at first by the command of YHWH in the hand of Moses.

¹⁴ And the standard of the camp of the sons of Judah journeys in the first [place], by their hosts, and over its host [is] Nahshon son of Amminadab.

¹⁵ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Issachar [is] Nathaneel son of Zuar.

¹⁶ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun [is] Eliab son of Helon.

¹⁷ And the Dwelling Place has been taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari have journeyed, carrying the Dwelling Place.

¹⁸ And the standard of the camp of Reuben has journeyed, by their hosts, and over its host [is] Elizur son of Shedeur.

¹⁹ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Simeon [is] Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

²⁰ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Gad [is] Eliasaph son of Deuel.

²¹ And the Kohathites have journeyed, carrying the Dwelling Place, and the [others] have raised up the Dwelling Place until their coming in.

²² And the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim has journeyed, by their hosts, and over its host [is] Elishama son of Ammihud.

²³ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh [is] Gamalial son of Pedahzur.

²⁴ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin [is] Abidan son of Gideoni.

²⁶ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Asher [is] Pagiel son of Ocran.

²⁷ And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali [is] Ahira son of Enan.

²⁸ These [are] the journeys of the sons of Israel by their hosts when they journey.

²⁹ And Moses says to Hobab son of Raguel the Midianite, father-in-law of Moses, "We are journeying to the place of which YHWH has said, I give it to you; go with us, and we have done good to you, for YHWH has spoken good concerning Israel."

³⁰ And he says to him, "I do not go; but I go to my land and to my family."

³¹ And he says, "Please do not forsake us, because you have known our encamping in the wilderness, and you have been to us for eyes;

³² and it has come to pass, when you go with us—indeed, it has come to pass—that good which YHWH does kindly with us, we have done it kindly to you."

³⁴ and the cloud of YHWH [is] on them by day, in their journeying from the camp.

³⁵ And it comes to pass in the journeying of the Ark, that Moses says, "Rise, O YHWH, and Your enemies are scattered, and those hating You flee from Your presence."

³⁶ And in its resting he says, "Return, O YHWH, [to] the myriads, the thousands of Israel."

11

¹ And the people are evil, as those sighing habitually in the ears of YHWH, and YHWH hears, and His anger burns, and the fire of YHWH burns among them, and consumes in the extremity of the camp.

² And the people cry to Moses, and Moses prays to YHWH, and the fire is quenched;

³ and he calls the name of that place Taberah, for the fire of YHWH has "burned" among them.

⁴ And the rabble who [are] in its midst have lusted greatly, and the sons of Israel also turn back and weep, and say, "Who gives us flesh?"

⁵ We have remembered the fish which we eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic;

⁶ and now our soul [is] dry, there is not anything, except the manna, before our eyes."

⁷ And the manna is as coriander seed, and its aspect as the aspect of bdellium;

⁸ the people have turned aside and gathered [it], and ground [it] with millstones, or beat [it] in a mortar, and boiled [it] in a pan, and made it cakes, and its taste has been as the taste of the moisture of oil.

⁹ And in the descending of the dew on the camp by night, the manna descends on it.

¹¹ And Moses says to YHWH, "Why have You done evil to Your servant? And why have I not found grace in Your eyes—to put the burden of all this people on me?"

¹² I—have I conceived all this people? I—have I begotten it, that You say to me, Carry it in your bosom, as the one supporting carries the nursing suckling, to the ground which You have sworn to its fathers?

¹³ From where do I have flesh to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, Give flesh to us, and we eat.

¹⁴ I am not able—I alone—to bear all this people, for [it is] too heavy for me;

¹⁵ and if thus You are doing to me—please slay me; slay, if I have found grace in your eyes, and do not let me look on my affliction."

¹⁶ And YHWH says to Moses, "Gather to Me seventy men from [the] elderly of Israel, whom you have known that they are [the] elderly of the people, and its authorities; and you have taken them to the Tent of Meeting, and they have stationed themselves there with you,

¹⁷ and I have come down and spoken with you there, and have kept back of the Spirit which [is] on you, and have put [that One] on them, and they have borne some of the burden of the people with you, and you do not bear [it] alone.

¹⁸ And you say to the people: Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you have eaten flesh, for you have wept in the ears of YHWH, saying, Who gives us flesh? For we [had] good in Egypt; and YHWH has given flesh to you, and you have eaten.

¹⁹ You do not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

²⁰ [but] even to a month of days, until it comes out from your nostrils, and it has become an abomination to you, because that you have loathed YHWH, who [is] in your midst, and weep before Him, saying, Why is this [that] we have come out of Egypt!"

²¹ And Moses says, "Six hundred thousand footmen [are] the people in whose midst I [dwell]; and You, You have said, I give flesh to them, and they have eaten [for] a month of days!

²² Is flock and herd slaughtered for them, that one has found [enough] for them? Are all the fishes of the sea gathered for them, that one has found [enough] for them?"

²³ And YHWH says to Moses, "Has the hand of YHWH become short? Now you see whether My word meets you or not."

²⁴ And Moses goes out, and speaks the words of YHWH to the people, and gathers seventy men from [the] elderly of the people, and causes them to stand around the tent,

²⁵ and YHWH comes down in the cloud, and speaks to him, and keeps back of the Spirit which [is] on him, and puts [that One] on the seventy elderly men; and it comes to pass at the resting of the Spirit on them, that they prophesy, and they have never done [so] again.

²⁷ and the young man runs, and declares [it] to Moses, and says, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

²⁸ And Joshua son of Nun, minister of Moses, [one] of his young men, answers and says, "My lord Moses, restrain them."

²⁹ And Moses says to him, "Are you zealous for me? O that all YHWH's people were prophets! That YHWH would put His Spirit on them!"

³⁰ And Moses is gathered to the camp, he and [the] elderly of Israel.

³² And the people rise all that day, and all the night, and all the day after, and gather the quails—he who has least has gathered ten homers—and they spread them out for themselves around the camp.

³³ The flesh is yet between their teeth—it is not yet cut off—and the anger of YHWH has burned among the people, and YHWH strikes [with] a very great striking among the people;

³⁴ and [one] calls the name of that place Kibroth-Hattaavah, for there they have buried the people who lust.

³⁵ From Kibroth-Hattaavah the people have journeyed to Hazeroth, and they are in Hazeroth.

¹ And Miriam speaks—Aaron also—against Moses concerning the circumstance of the Cushite woman whom he had taken, for he had taken a Cushite woman;

² and they say, “Has YHWH only spoken by Moses? Has he not also spoken by us?” And YHWH hears.

³ And the man Moses [is] very humble, more than any of the men who [are] on the face of the ground.

⁴ And YHWH suddenly says to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting”; and those three come out.

⁵ And YHWH comes down in the pillar of the cloud, and stands at the opening of the tent, and calls Aaron and Miriam, and both of them come out.

⁶ And He says, “Now hear My words: If your prophet is of YHWH, | | I make Myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream.

⁷ Not so My servant Moses; He [is] steadfast in all My house.

⁸ I speak with him mouth to mouth, | | Even [by] an appearance, and not in riddles; And he beholds the form of YHWH attentively. Now why have you not been afraid | | To speak against My servant—against Moses?”

⁹ And the anger of YHWH burns against them, and He goes on,

¹⁰ and the cloud has turned aside from off the tent, and behold, Miriam [is] leprous as snow; and Aaron turns to Miriam, and behold, leprous!

¹¹ And Aaron says to Moses, “O my lord, please do not lay [this] sin on us [in] which we have been foolish, and [in] which we have sinned;

¹² please do not let her be as [one] dead, when in his coming out from the womb of his mother—the half of his flesh is consumed.”

¹³ And Moses cries to YHWH, saying, “O God, please give healing to her! Please!”

¹⁵ And Miriam is shut out at the outside of the camp [for] seven days, and the people have not journeyed until Miriam is gathered;

¹⁶ and afterward the people have journeyed from Hazeroth, and they encamp in the wilderness of Paran.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Send men for yourself, and they spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel; one man—you send one man for the tribe of his fathers, everyone a prince among them.”

³ And Moses sends them from the wilderness of Paran by the command of YHWH; all of them [are] men, [and] they are heads of the sons of Israel,

⁴ and these [are] their names: for the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;

⁵ for the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

⁶ for the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

7 for the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

8 for the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea son of Nun;

9 for the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

10 for the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

11 for the tribe of Joseph (for the tribe of Manasseh), Gaddi son of Susi;

12 for the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

13 for the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

14 for the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vopshi;

15 for the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi.

16 These [are] the names of the men whom Moses has sent to spy out the land; and Moses calls Hoshea son of Nun, Joshua.

17 And Moses sends them to spy out the land of Canaan and says to them, "Go up this [way] into the south, and you have gone up the mountain,

18 and have seen the land, what it [is], and the people which is dwelling on it, whether it [is] strong or feeble, [and] whether it [is] few or many;

19 and what the land [is] in which it is dwelling, whether it [is] good or bad; and what [are] the cities in which it is dwelling, whether in camps or in fortresses.

20 And what the land [is], whether it [is] fat or lean; whether there is wood in it or not; and you have strengthened yourselves, and have taken of the fruit of the land"; now the days [are] days of the first-fruits of grapes.

21 And they go up and spy out the land, from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob at the going in to Hamath;

22 and they go up by the south, and come to Hebron, and there [are] Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, children of Anak (and Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt),

23 and they come to the Brook of Eshcol, and cut down a branch and one cluster of grapes there, and they carry it on a staff by two, also [some] of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 That place has been called the Brook of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut from there.

25 And they return from spying out the land at the end of forty days.

26 And they go and come to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and they bring them and all the congregation back word, and show them the fruit of the land.

27 And they recount to him, and say, "We came to the land to where you have sent us, and it is indeed flowing with milk and honey—and this [is] its fruit;

28 only, surely the people which is dwelling in the land [is] strong; and the cities are fortified [and] very great; and we have also seen children of Anak there.

29 Amalek is dwelling in the land of the south, and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite are dwelling in the hill country, and the Canaanite is dwelling by the sea, and by the side of the Jordan."

30 And Caleb stills the people concerning Moses and says, "Let us certainly go up—and we have possessed it; for we are thoroughly able to [do] it."

31 And the men who have gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for it [is] stronger than we";

³² and they bring out an evil account of the land which they have spied out to the sons of Israel, saying, "The land into which we passed over to spy it out is a land eating up its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in its midst [are] men of stature;

³³ and there we saw the giants, sons of Anak, of the giants; and we are as grasshoppers in our own eyes—and so we were in their eyes."

¹ And all the congregation lifts up, and they give forth their voice, and the people weep during that night;

² and all the sons of Israel murmur against Moses and against Aaron, and all the congregation says to them, "O that we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness, O that we had died!

³ And why is YHWH bringing us to this land to fall by the sword, [that] our wives and our infants become a prey? Is it not good for us to return to Egypt?"

⁴ And they say to one another, "Let us appoint a head and return to Egypt."

⁵ And Moses falls—Aaron also—on their faces, before all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel.

⁶ And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, of those spying out the land, have torn their garments,

⁷ and they speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "The land into which we have passed over to spy it out [is] a very, very good land;

⁸ if YHWH has delighted in us, then He has brought us into this land, and has given it to us, a land which is flowing with milk and honey;

¹⁰ And all the congregation says to stone them with stones, and the glory of YHWH has appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the sons of Israel.

¹¹ And YHWH says to Moses, "Until when does this people despise Me? And until when do they not believe in Me, for all the signs which I have done in its midst?"

¹² I strike it with pestilence, and dispossess it, and make you become a nation greater and mightier than it."

¹³ And Moses says to YHWH, "Then the Egyptians have heard! For with Your power You have brought up this people out of their midst,

¹⁴ and they have said [it] to the inhabitant of this land, they have heard that You, YHWH, [are] in the midst of this people, that You are seen eye to eye—O YHWH, and Your cloud is standing over them—and in a pillar of cloud You are going before them by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.

¹⁵ And You have put to death this people as one man, and the nations who have heard Your fame have spoken, saying,

¹⁶ From YHWH's want of ability to bring in this people to the land which He has sworn to them, He slaughters them in the wilderness.

¹⁷ And now, please let the power of my Lord be great, as You have spoken, saying,

18 YHWH [is] slow to anger and of great kindness, bearing away iniquity and transgression, and not entirely acquitting, charging iniquity of fathers on sons, on a third and on a fourth [generation]—

19 please forgive the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of Your kindness, and as You have borne with this people from Egypt, even until now.”

20 And YHWH says, “I have forgiven according to your word,

21 but nevertheless, as I live, indeed, the whole earth is filled [with] the glory of YHWH,

22 for all the men who are seeing My glory and My signs which I have done in Egypt and in the wilderness, and try Me these ten times, and have not listened to My voice—

23 they do not see the land which I have sworn to their fathers, indeed, none of those despising Me see it;

24 but My servant Caleb, because there has been another spirit with him, and he is fully after Me—I have brought him into the land to where he has entered, and his seed possesses it.

25 And the Amalekite and the Canaanite are dwelling in the valley; tomorrow turn and journey for yourselves into the wilderness—the way of the Red Sea.”

26 And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

27 “Until when [do I bear] with this evil congregation—they who are murmuring against Me? The murmurings of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against Me, I have heard;

28 say to them: As I live—a declaration of YHWH—if, as you have spoken in My ears, do I not do so to you?

29 Your carcasses fall in this wilderness, even all your numbered ones, to all your number, from a son of twenty years and upward, who have murmured against Me;

30 you do not come into the land [for] which I have lifted up My hand to cause you to dwell in it, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

31 As for your infants—of whom you have said, They become a spoil—I have even brought them in, and they have known the land which you have kicked against;

32 as for you—your carcasses fall in this wilderness,

33 and your sons are shepherding in the wilderness [for] forty years, and have borne your whoredoms until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness;

34 by the number of the days [in] which you spied out the land, forty days—a day for a year, a day for a year—you bear your iniquities [for] forty years, and you have known My opposition;

35 I, YHWH, have spoken; if, nonetheless, I do this to all this evil congregation who are meeting against Me—they are consumed in this wilderness, and there they die.”

36 Then the men whom Moses has sent to spy out the land, [who] then return and cause all the congregation to murmur against him by bringing out an evil account concerning the land,

37 even the men bringing out an evil account of the land, they die by the plague before YHWH;

³⁸ and Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh have lived, of those men who go to spy out the land.

³⁹ And Moses speaks these words to all the sons of Israel, and the people mourn exceedingly,

⁴⁰ and they rise early in the morning, and go up to the top of the mountain, saying, "Here we [are], and we have come up to the place which YHWH has spoken of, for we have sinned."

⁴¹ And Moses says, "Why [is] this [that] you are transgressing the command of YHWH? For it does not prosper;

⁴² do not go up, for YHWH is not in your midst, and you are not struck before your enemies;

⁴³ for the Amalekite and the Canaanite [are] there before you, and you have fallen by the sword, because that you have turned back from after YHWH, and YHWH is not with you."

⁴⁴ And they presume to go up to the top of the mountain, but the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and Moses, have not departed out of the midst of the camp.

⁴⁵ And the Amalekite and the Canaanite who are dwelling in that mountain come down and strike them, and beat them down to Hormah.

² "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you come into the land of your dwellings, which I am giving to you,

³ then you have prepared a fire-offering to YHWH, a burnt-offering or a sacrifice, for separating a vow or free-will offering, or in your appointed things, to make a refreshing fragrance to YHWH, out of the herd or out of the flock.

⁴ And he who is bringing his offering near to YHWH has brought a present near of a tenth part of flour mixed with a fourth of the hin of oil;

⁵ and you prepare a fourth of the hin of wine for a drink-offering, with the burnt-offering or for the sacrifice, for one lamb;

⁶ or for a ram you prepare a present of two-tenth parts of flour mixed with a third of the hin of oil;

⁷ and you bring a third part of the hin of wine near for a drink-offering—a refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

⁸ And when you make a son of the herd a burnt-offering, or a sacrifice for separating a vow, or peace-offerings to YHWH,

⁹ then he has brought near for the son of the herd a present of three-tenth parts of flour mixed with a half of the hin of oil;

¹⁰ and you bring a half of the hin of wine near for a drink-offering, [for] a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH;

¹¹ thus it is done for one ox, or for one ram, or for a lamb of the sheep or of the goats.

¹² According to the number that you prepare, so you do to each, according to their number;

¹³ every native does thus with these, for bringing a fire-offering near of refreshing fragrance to YHWH;

¹⁴ and when a sojourner sojourns with you, or whoever [is] in your midst throughout your generations, and he has made a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH, as you do so he does.

¹⁵ One statute is for you of the congregation and for the sojourner who is sojourning, a continuous statute throughout your generations: as you [are] so is the sojourner before YHWH;

¹⁶ one law and one ordinance is for you and for the sojourner who is sojourning with you.”

¹⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁸ “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: In your coming into the land to where I am bringing you in,

¹⁹ then it has been, in your eating of the bread of the land, you raise up a raised-offering to YHWH;

²⁰ you raise up a cake of the first of your dough [as] a raised-offering; as the raised-offering of a threshing-floor, so you raise it up.

²¹ You give to YHWH from the first of your dough [as] a raised-offering throughout your generations.

²² And when you err, and do not do all these commands which YHWH has spoken to Moses—

²³ the whole that YHWH has charged on you by the hand of Moses, from the day that YHWH has commanded and from now on, throughout your generations—

²⁴ then it has been, if from the eyes of the congregation it has been done through ignorance, that all the congregation has prepared one bullock, a son of the herd, for a burnt-offering, for refreshing fragrance to YHWH, and its present, and its drink-offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin-offering.

²⁵ And the priest has made atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and it has been forgiven them, for it [is] ignorance, and they have brought in their offering, a fire-offering to YHWH, and their sin-offering before YHWH for their ignorance;

²⁶ and it has been forgiven to all the congregation of the sons of Israel and to the sojourner who is sojourning in their midst, for that all the people [did it] through ignorance.

²⁷ And if one person sins through ignorance, then he has brought a female goat near, daughter of a year, for a sin-offering;

²⁸ and the priest has made atonement for the person who is erring, in his sinning through ignorance before YHWH, by making atonement for him, and it has been forgiven him;

²⁹ one law is for yourselves—for the native among the sons of Israel and for the sojourner who is sojourning in their midst—for him who is doing [anything] through ignorance.

³⁰ And the person who does [evil] with a high hand—of the native or of the sojourner—he is reviling YHWH, and that person has been cut off from the midst of his people;

³¹ because he despised the word of YHWH and has broken His command, that person is certainly cut off; his iniquity [is] on him.”

³² And the sons of Israel are in the wilderness, and they find a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day,

³³ and those finding him gathering wood bring him near to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation,

³⁴ and they place him in confinement, for it [is] not explained what is [to be] done to him.

³⁵ And YHWH says to Moses, "The man is certainly put to death [by] all the congregation stoning him with stones at the outside of the camp."

³⁶ And all the congregation brings him out to the outside of the camp and stone him with stones, and he dies, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

³⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

³⁸ "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have commanded to them, and they have made fringes on the skirts of their garments for themselves, throughout their generations, and they have put a ribbon of blue on the fringe of the skirt,

³⁹ and it has been to you for a fringe, and you have seen it, and have remembered all the commands of YHWH, and have done them, and you do not search after your heart and after your eyes, after which you are going whoring,

⁴⁰ so that you remember and have done all My commands, and you have been holy to your God.

⁴¹ I [am] your God YHWH, who has brought you out from the land of Egypt to become your God; I [am] your God YHWH."

¹ And Korah, son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, takes both Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth, sons of Reuben,

² and they rise up before Moses with men of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the congregation, called of the convention, men of renown,

³ and they are assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and say to them, "Enough of you! For all the congregation—all of them [are] holy, and YHWH [is] in their midst; and why do you lift yourselves up above the assembly of YHWH?"

⁴ And Moses hears, and falls on his face,

⁵ and he speaks to Korah and to all his congregation, saying, "Indeed, [in the] morning YHWH may cause [you] to know those who are His and him who is holy, and has brought [him] near to Him; even him whom He fixes on He brings near to Him.

⁶ Do this: take censers for yourselves—Korah and all his company—

⁷ and put fire in them and put incense on them before YHWH tomorrow, and it has been, the man whom YHWH chooses, he [is] the holy one—enough of you, sons of Levi!"

⁸ And Moses says to Korah, "Now hear, sons of Levi;

⁹ is it little to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the Dwelling Place of YHWH, and to stand before the congregation to serve them?

¹⁰ Indeed, He brings you near, and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you—and you have also sought the priesthood!

¹¹ Therefore, you and all your congregation are meeting against YHWH; and Aaron, what [is] he, that you murmur against him?"

¹² And Moses sends to call for Dathan and for Abiram, sons of Eliab, and they say, “We do not come up!

¹³ Is it little that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to put us to death in a wilderness, that you also certainly make yourself prince over us?

¹⁴ Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor do you give an inheritance of field and vineyard to us; do you pick out the eyes of these men? We do not come up!”

¹⁷ and let each take his censer and you have put incense on them, and each has brought his censer near before YHWH—two hundred and fifty censers; indeed, you and Aaron, each [with] his censer.”

¹⁹ And Korah assembles all the congregation against them at the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of YHWH is seen by all the congregation.

²⁰ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

²¹ “Be separated from the midst of this congregation, and I consume them in a moment”;

²² and they fall on their faces, and say, “God, God of the spirits of all flesh—one man sins, and are You angry against all the congregation?”

²³ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁴ “Speak to the congregation, saying, Go up from around the dwelling place of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.”

²⁵ And Moses rises, and goes to Dathan and Abiram, and [the] elderly of Israel go after him,

²⁶ and he speaks to the congregation, saying, “Now turn aside from the tents of these wicked men, and do not come against anything that they have, lest you also are consumed in all their sins.”

²⁷ And they go up from the dwelling place of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, from all around, and Dathan and Abiram have come out, standing at the opening of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their infants.

²⁸ And Moses says, “By this you know that YHWH has sent me to do all these works, that [they are] not from my own heart;

²⁹ if these die according to the death of all men, or the charge of all men is charged on them, YHWH has not sent me;

³⁰ but if YHWH does a strange thing, and the ground has opened her mouth and swallowed them and all that they have, and they have gone down alive to Sheol, then you have known that these men have despised YHWH.”

³¹ And it comes to pass at his finishing speaking all these words, that the ground which [is] under them cleaves,

³² and the earth opens her mouth and swallows them, and their houses, and all the men who [are] for Korah, and all the goods,

³³ and they go down—they and all that they have—alive to Sheol, and the earth closes over them, and they perish from the midst of the assembly;

³⁴ and all Israel who [are] around them have fled at their voice, for they said, “Lest the earth swallow us”;

³⁵ and fire has come out from YHWH and consumes the two hundred and fifty men bringing the incense near.

³⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

³⁷ “Say to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to lift up the censers from the midst of the burning and scatter the fire away, for they have been hallowed.

³⁸ [As for] the censers of these sinners against their own souls, indeed, they have made them [into] spread-out plates [for] a covering for the altar, for they have brought them near before YHWH, and they are hallowed; and they become a sign to the sons of Israel.”

³⁹ And Eleazar the priest takes the bronze censers which they who are burned had brought near, and they spread them out [for] a covering for the altar—

⁴⁰ a memorial to the sons of Israel, so that a stranger who is not of the seed of Aaron does not draw near to make incense before YHWH, and is not as Korah and as his congregation, as YHWH has spoken by the hand of Moses to him.

⁴¹ And on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmurs against Moses and against Aaron, saying, “You have put the people of YHWH to death.”

⁴² And it comes to pass, in the congregation being assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they turn toward the Tent of Meeting, and behold, the cloud has covered it and the glory of YHWH is seen;

⁴³ and Moses comes—Aaron also—to the front of the Tent of Meeting.

⁴⁴ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁴⁵ “Get up from the midst of this congregation, and I consume them in a moment”; and they fall on their faces,

⁴⁷ And Aaron takes [it] as Moses has spoken, and runs to the midst of the assembly, and behold, the plague has begun among the people; and he gives the incense, and makes atonement for the people,

⁴⁸ and stands between the dead and the living, and the plague is restrained;

⁴⁹ and those who die by the plague are fourteen thousand and seven hundred, apart from those who die for the matter of Korah;

⁵⁰ and Aaron turns back to Moses, to the opening of the Tent of Meeting, and the plague has been restrained.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, and take a rod from each of them, for a father’s house, from all their princes, for the house of their fathers—twelve rods; you write the name of each on his rod,

³ and you write Aaron's name on the tribe of Levi; for one rod [is] for the head of their fathers' house.

⁴ And you have placed them in the Tent of Meeting before the Testimony, where I meet with you.

⁵ And it has come to pass, the man's rod on whom I fix flourishes, and I have caused the murmurings of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against you, to cease from off Me."

⁶ And Moses speaks to the sons of Israel, and all their princes give to him one rod for a prince, one rod for a prince, for their fathers' house—twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron [is] in the midst of their rods;

⁷ and Moses places the rods before YHWH in the Tent of the Testimony.

⁹ and Moses brings out all the rods from before YHWH to all the sons of Israel, and they look, and each takes his rod.

¹⁰ And YHWH says to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the Testimony, for a charge, for a sign to the sons of rebellion, and you remove their murmurings from off Me, and they do not die";

¹¹ and Moses does as YHWH has commanded him; so he has done.

¹² And the sons of Israel speak to Moses, saying, "Behold, we have expired, we have perished, all of us have perished!

¹³ Any who is at all drawing near to the Dwelling Place of YHWH dies; have we not been consumed—to expire?"

¹ And YHWH says to Aaron, "You, and your sons, and the house of your father with you, bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you bear the iniquity of your priesthood;

² and also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring near with you, and they are joined to you, and serve you, even you and your sons with you, before the Tent of the Testimony.

³ And they have kept your charge, and the charge of all the tent; only, they do not come near to the vessels of the holy place and to the altar, and they do not die, either they or you;

⁴ and they have been joined to you and have kept the charge of the Tent of Meeting for all the service of the tent; and a stranger does not come near to you;

⁵ and you have kept the charge of the holy place and the charge of the altar, and there is no more wrath against the sons of Israel.

⁶ And I, behold, have taken your brothers the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel; they are a gift given to you by YHWH to do the service of the Tent of Meeting;

⁷ and you and your sons with you keep your priesthood for everything of the altar and within the veil, and you have served; I make your priesthood a gift [for] service; and the stranger who is coming near is put to death."

⁸ And YHWH speaks to Aaron: "And I, behold, have given to you the charge of My raised-offerings, of all the hallowed things of the sons of Israel—I have given them to you and to your sons for the anointing, by a continuous statute.

⁹ This is yours from the most holy things, from the fire: all their offering, of all their present, and of all their sin-offering, and of all their guilt-offering, which they give back to Me, is most holy to you and to your sons;

¹⁰ you eat it among the most holy things; every male eats it; it is holy to you.

¹¹ And this [is] yours: the raised-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the sons of Israel; I have given them to you, and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a continuous statute; every clean one in your house eats it;

¹² all the best of the oil, and all the best of the new wine, and wheat—their first-[fruits] which they give to YHWH—I have given them to you.

¹³ The first-fruits of all that [is] in their land, which they bring to YHWH, are yours; every clean one in your house eats it;

¹⁴ every devoted thing in Israel is yours;

¹⁶ And their ransomed ones from a son of a month, you ransom with your valuation [for] five shekels of silver, by the shekel of the holy place; it [is] twenty gerahs.

¹⁸ and their flesh is yours, as the breast of the wave-offering and as the right leg are yours.

¹⁹ All the raised-offerings of the holy things, which the sons of Israel lift up to YHWH, I have given to you, and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a continuous statute—a covenant of salt; it [is] continuous before YHWH to you and to your seed with you.”

²⁰ And YHWH says to Aaron, “You do not inherit in their land, and you do not have a portion in their midst: I [am] your portion and your inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel;

²¹ and to the sons of Levi, behold, have given all the tenth in Israel for inheritance in exchange for their service which they are serving—the service of the Tent of Meeting.

²² And the sons of Israel no longer come near to the Tent of Meeting, to bear sin, to die,

²³ and the Levites have done the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they bear their iniquity; [it is] a continuous statute throughout your generations that they have no inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel;

²⁴ but the tithe of the sons of Israel which they lift up to YHWH, a raised-offering, I have given to the Levites for inheritance; therefore I have said of them, They have no inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.”

²⁵ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

²⁶ “And you speak to the Levites, and you have said to them: When you take the tithe from the sons of Israel which I have given to you from them for your inheritance, then you have lifted up the raised-offering of YHWH from it, a tithe of the tithe;

²⁷ and your raised-offering has been reckoned to you as grain from the threshing-floor and as the fullness from the wine-vat;

²⁸ so you lift up—you also—the raised-offering of YHWH from all your tithes which you receive from the sons of Israel; and you have given the raised-offering of YHWH from it to Aaron the priest;

²⁹ out of all your gifts you lift up every raised-offering of YHWH, out of all its fat—its hallowed part—out of it.

³⁰ And you have said to them: In your lifting up its fat out of it, then it has been reckoned to the Levites as increase of a threshing-floor and as increase of a wine-vat;

³¹ and you have eaten it in every place, you and your households, for it [is] your hire in exchange for your service in the Tent of Meeting;

³² and you bear no sin for it in your lifting up its fat out of it, but you do not defile the holy things of the sons of Israel, and you do not die.”

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

² “This [is] a statute of the law which YHWH has commanded, saying, Speak to the sons of Israel, and they bring a red cow to you, a perfect one, in which there is no blemish, on which no yoke has gone up;

³ and you have given it to Eleazar the priest, and he has brought it out to the outside of the camp, and has slaughtered it before him.

⁴ And Eleazar the priest has taken of its blood with his finger, and has sprinkled [it] toward the front of the face of the Tent of Meeting from its blood seven times;

⁵ and [one] has burned the cow before his eyes; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, besides her dung, he burns;

⁶ and the priest has taken cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and has cast [them] into the midst of the burning of the cow;

⁷ and the priest has washed his garments, and has bathed his flesh with water, and afterward comes into the camp, and the priest is unclean until the evening;

⁸ and he who is burning it washes his garments with water, and has bathed his flesh with water, and is unclean until the evening.

⁹ And a clean man has gathered the ashes of the cow, and has placed [them] at the outside of the camp in a clean place, and it has become a charge for the congregation of the sons of Israel for waters of separation—it [is for] sin;

¹⁰ and he who is gathering the ashes of the heifer has washed his garments and is unclean until the evening; and it has been to the sons of Israel and to the sojourner who is sojourning in their midst for a continuous statute.

¹¹ He who is coming against the dead body of any man is unclean [for] seven days;

¹² he cleanses himself for it on the third day and on the seventh day, [and] he is clean; and if he does not cleanse himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he is not clean.

¹³ Anyone who is coming against the dead, against the body of man who dies, and does not cleanse himself, he has defiled the Dwelling Place of YHWH, and that person has been cut off from Israel, for water of separation is not sprinkled on him; he is unclean; his uncleanness [is] still on him.

¹⁴ This [is] the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who is coming into the tent and all that [is] in the tent are unclean [for] seven days;

¹⁵ and every open vessel which has no covering of thread on it is unclean.

¹⁷ and for the unclean person they have taken from the ashes of the burning of the [cow], and he has put running water over it into a vessel;

¹⁸ and a clean person has taken hyssop, and has dipped [it] in water, and has sprinkled [it] on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the persons who have been there, and on him who is coming against a bone, or against one pierced, or against the dead, or against a grave.

¹⁹ And the clean has sprinkled [it] on the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day, and has cleansed him on the seventh day, and he has washed his garments, and has bathed with water, and has been clean in the evening.

²¹ And it has been for a continuous statute to them, that he who is sprinkling the water of separation washes his garments, and he who is coming against the water of separation is unclean until the evening,

²² and all against which the unclean person comes is unclean, and the person who is coming against [it] is unclean until the evening.”

² And there has been no water for the congregation, and they are assembled against Moses and against Aaron,

³ and the people strive with Moses and speak, saying, “And oh that we had expired when our brothers expired before YHWH!

⁴ And why have you brought in the assembly of YHWH to this wilderness to die there, we and our beasts?

⁶ And Moses and Aaron go in from the presence of the assembly to the opening of the Tent of Meeting and fall on their faces, and the glory of YHWH is seen by them.

⁷ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁸ “Take the rod and assemble the congregation—you and your brother Aaron—and you have spoken to the rock before their eyes, and it has given its water, and you have brought out water to them from the rock, and have watered the congregation and their beasts.”

⁹ And Moses takes the rod from before YHWH as He has commanded him,

¹⁰ and Moses and Aaron assemble the assembly to the front of the rock, and he says to them, “Now hear, O rebels, do we bring out water to you from this rock?”

¹¹ And Moses lifts up his hand and strikes the rock with his rod twice; and much water comes out, and the congregation drinks, and their beasts [drink].

¹² And YHWH says to Moses and to Aaron, “Because you have not believed in Me to sanctify Me before the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you do not bring in this assembly to the land which I have given to them.”

¹³ These [are] the waters of Meribah, because the sons of Israel have “striven” with YHWH, and He is sanctified among them.

¹⁴ And Moses sends messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, “Thus said your brother Israel: You have known all the travail which has found us,

¹⁵ that our fathers go down to Egypt, and we dwell in Egypt [for] many days, and the Egyptians do evil to us and to our fathers;

¹⁶ then we cry to YHWH, and He hears our voice, and sends a Messenger, and is bringing us out of Egypt; and behold, we [are] in Kadesh, a city [in] the extremity of your border.

¹⁸ And Edom says to him, “You do not pass over through me, lest I come out to meet you with the sword.”

¹⁹ And the sons of Israel say to him, “We go in the highway, and if we drink of your waters—I and my livestock—then I have given their price; only, let me pass over on my feet, nothing [more].”

²⁰ And he says, “You do not pass over”; and Edom comes out to meet him with many people and with a strong hand;

²¹ and Edom refuses to permit Israel to pass over through his border, and Israel turns aside from off him.

²² And the sons of Israel, all the congregation, journey from Kadesh and come to Mount Hor,

²³ and YHWH speaks to Moses and to Aaron in Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, saying,

²⁵ Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and cause them to go up Mount Hor,

²⁶ and strip Aaron of his garments, and you have clothed his son Eleazar [with] them, and Aaron is gathered, and dies there.”

²⁷ And Moses does as YHWH has commanded, and they go up to Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congregation,

²⁸ and Moses strips Aaron of his garments, and clothes his son Eleazar with them, and Aaron dies there on the top of the mountain; and Moses comes down—Eleazar also—from the mountain,

²⁹ and all the congregation sees that Aaron has expired, and all the house of Israel laments Aaron [for] thirty days.

¹ And the Canaanite, king of Arad, dwelling in the south, hears that Israel has come the way of the Atharim, and he fights against Israel, and takes [some] of them captive.

² And Israel vows a vow to YHWH and says, "If You certainly give this people into my hand, then I have devoted their cities";

³ and YHWH listens to the voice of Israel and gives up the Canaanite, and he devotes them and their cities, and calls the name of the place Hormah.

⁴ And they journey from Mount Hor; the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom, and the soul of the people is short in the way,

⁵ and the people speak against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in a wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water, and our soul has been weary of this light bread."

⁶ And YHWH sends the burning serpents among the people, and they bite the people, and many people of Israel die;

⁷ and the people come to Moses and say, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against YHWH and against you; pray to YHWH that He turns the serpent aside from us"; and Moses prays in behalf of the people.

⁸ And YHWH says to Moses, "Make a burning [serpent] for yourself, and set it on an ensign; and it has been, everyone who is bitten and has seen it—he has lived."

⁹ And Moses makes a serpent of bronze, and sets it on the ensign, and it has been, if the serpent has bitten any man, and he has looked expectingly to the serpent of bronze—he has lived.

¹⁰ And the sons of Israel journey and encamp in Oboth.

¹¹ And they journey from Oboth and encamp in Ije-Abarim, in the wilderness that [is] on the front of Moab, at the rising of the sun.

¹² From there they have journeyed and encamp in the Valley of Zared.

¹⁴ therefore it is said in [the] scroll of the Wars of YHWH: "Waheb in Suphah, || And the brooks of Arnon;

¹⁵ And the spring of the brooks, || Which turned aside to the dwelling of Ar, || And has leaned to the border of Moab."

¹⁶ And from there [they journeyed] to Beer; it [is] the well [concerning] which YHWH said to Moses, "Gather the people, and I give water to them."

¹⁷ Then Israel sings this song: "Spring up, O well, || Let all answer to it!

¹⁹ and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

²⁰ and from Bamoth, in the valley which [is] in the field of Moab, [to] the top of Pisgah, which has looked on the front of the wilderness.

²¹ And Israel sends messengers to Sihon king of the Amorite, saying,

²² “Let me pass through your land, we do not turn aside into a field or into a vineyard; we do not drink waters of a well; we go in the king’s way until we pass over your border.”

²³ And Sihon has not permitted Israel to pass through his border, and Sihon gathers all his people, and comes out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and comes to Jahaz, and fights against Israel.

²⁴ And Israel strikes him by the mouth of the sword, and possesses his land from Arnon to Jabbok—to the sons of Ammon; for the border of the sons of Ammon [is] strong.

²⁵ And Israel takes all these cities, and Israel dwells in all the cities of the Amorite, in Heshbon and in all its villages;

²⁶ for Heshbon is a city of Sihon king of the Amorite, and he has fought against the former king of Moab, and takes all his land out of his hand as far as Arnon;

²⁷ therefore those using allegories say: “Enter Heshbon, || Let the city of Sihon be built and ready,

²⁸ For fire has gone out from Heshbon, || A flame from the city of Sihon, || It has consumed Ar of Moab, || Owners of the high places of Arnon.

²⁹ Woe to you, O Moab, || You have perished, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons [as] fugitives, || And his daughters into captivity, || To Sihon king of the Amorite!

³⁰ And we shoot them; Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon, || And we make desolate as far as Nophah, || Which [is] as far as Medeba.”

³¹ And Israel dwells in the land of the Amorite,

³² and Moses sends to spy out Jaazer, and they capture its villages, and dispossess the Amorite who [is] there,

³³ and turn and go up the way of Bashan, and Og king of Bashan comes out to meet them, he and all his people, to battle [at] Edrei.

³⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “Do not fear him, for into your hand I have given him, and all his people, and his land, and you have done to him as you have done to Sihon king of the Amorite, who is dwelling in Heshbon.”

³⁵ And they strike him, and his sons, and all his people, until he has no remnant left to him, and they possess his land.

¹ And the sons of Israel journey and encamp in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan, [by] Jericho.

² And Balak son of Zippor sees all that Israel has done to the Amorite,

³ and Moab is exceedingly afraid of the presence of the people, for it [is] numerous; and Moab is distressed by the presence of the sons of Israel,

⁵ and he sends messengers to Balaam son of Beor, to Pethor, which [is] by the River of the land of the sons of his people, to call for him, saying, “Behold, a people has come out of Egypt; behold, it has covered the eye of the land, and it is abiding in front of me;

⁶ and now, come, please curse this people for me, for it [is] mightier than I. It may be I prevail, [and] we strike it, and I cast it out from the land; for

I have known that which you bless is blessed, and that which you curse is cursed.”

⁷ And [the] elderly of Moab and [the] elderly of Midian go with divinations in their hand, and they come to Balaam and speak the words of Balak to him,

⁸ and he says to them, “Lodge here tonight, and I have brought you back word, as YHWH speaks to me”; and the princes of Moab abide with Balaam.

⁹ And God comes to Balaam and says, “Who [are] these men with you?”

¹⁰ And Balaam says to God, “Balak, son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me:

¹¹ Behold, the people that is coming out from Egypt and covers the eye of the land—now come, pierce it for me; it may be I am able to fight against it and have cast it out”;

¹² and God says to Balaam, “You do not go with them; you do not curse the people, for it [is] blessed.”

¹³ And Balaam rises in the morning and says to the princes of Balak, “Go to your land, for YHWH is refusing to permit me to go with you”;

¹⁴ and the princes of Moab rise, and come to Balak, and say, “Balaam is refusing to come with us.”

¹⁵ And Balak adds yet to send princes, more numerous and honored than these,

¹⁶ and they come to Balaam and say to him, “Thus said Balak son of Zippor: Please do not be withheld from coming to me,

¹⁷ for I honor you very greatly, and all that you say to me I do; and come, please pierce this people for me.”

¹⁸ And Balaam answers and says to the servants of Balak, “If Balak gives to me the fullness of his house of silver and gold, I am not able to pass over the command of my God YHWH, to do a little or a great thing;

¹⁹ and now, please abide in this [place], you also, tonight, then I know what YHWH is adding to speak with me.”

²⁰ And God comes to Balaam by night and says to him, “If the men have come to call for you, rise, go with them, and only the thing which I speak to you—do it.”

²¹ And Balaam rises in the morning, and saddles his donkey, and goes with the princes of Moab,

²² and the anger of God burns because he is going, and the Messenger of YHWH stations Himself in the way for an adversary to him, and he is riding on his donkey, and two of his servants [are] with him,

²⁴ And the Messenger of YHWH stands in a narrow path of the vineyards, [with] a wall on this [side] and a wall on that [side],

²⁵ and the donkey sees the Messenger of YHWH, and is pressed to the wall, and presses Balaam’s foot to the wall, and he adds to strike her;

²⁶ and the Messenger of YHWH adds to pass over, and stands in a narrow place where there is no way to turn aside [to] the right or left,

²⁷ and the donkey sees the Messenger of YHWH, and crouches under Balaam, and the anger of Balaam burns, and he strikes the donkey with a staff.

²⁸ And YHWH opens the mouth of the donkey, and she says to Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have struck me these three times?"

²⁹ And Balaam says to the donkey, "Because you have rolled yourself against me; oh that there were a sword in my hand, for now I had slain you";

³⁰ and the donkey says to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden since [I became] yours, even to this day? Have I at all been accustomed to do thus to you?" And he says, "No."

³¹ And YHWH uncovers the eyes of Balaam, and he sees the Messenger of YHWH standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and he bows and pays respect, to his face;

³² and the Messenger of YHWH says to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out for an adversary, for [your] way has been perverse before Me,

³³ and the donkey sees Me and turns aside at My presence these three times; unless she had turned aside from My presence, surely I had also slain you now, and kept her alive."

³⁴ And Balaam says to the Messenger of YHWH, "I have sinned, for I did not know that You [are] standing to meet me in the way; and now, if [it is] evil in Your eyes, I turn back by myself."

³⁵ And the Messenger of YHWH says to Balaam, "Go with the men; and only the word which I speak to you—it you speak"; and Balaam goes with the princes of Balak.

³⁶ And Balak hears that Balaam has come, and goes out to meet him, to a city of Moab, which [is] on the border of Arnon, which [is] in the extremity of the border;

³⁷ and Balak says to Balaam, "Did I not diligently send to you to call for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not truly able to honor you?"

³⁸ And Balaam says to Balak, "Behold, I have come to you; now, am I able to speak anything at all? The word which God sets in my mouth—it I speak."

³⁹ And Balaam goes with Balak, and they come to Kirjath-Huzoth,

⁴⁰ and Balak sacrifices oxen and sheep, and sends [some] to Balaam and to the princes who [are] with him;

⁴¹ and it comes to pass in the morning, that Balak takes Balaam and causes him to go up [to] the high places of Ba'al, and he sees the extremity of the people from there.

¹ And Balaam says to Balak, "Build seven altars for me in this [place], and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me in this [place]."

² And Balak does as Balaam has spoken, and Balak—Balaam also—offers a bullock and a ram on the altar,

³ and Balaam says to Balak, "Station yourself by your burnt-offering and I go on, it may be YHWH comes to meet me, and the thing which He shows me I have declared to you"; and he goes [to] a high place.

⁴ And God comes to Balaam, and he says to Him, "I have arranged the seven altars, and I offer a bullock and a ram on the altar";

⁵ and YHWH puts a word in the mouth of Balaam and says, "Return to Balak, and thus you speak."

⁶ And he returns to him, and behold, he is standing by his burnt-offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

⁷ And he takes up his allegory and says: "Balak king of Moab leads me from Aram; From mountains of the east. Come—curse Jacob for me, || And come—be indignant [with] Israel.

⁸ How do I pierce [when] God has not pierced? And how am I indignant [when] YHWH has not been indignant?

⁹ For from the top of rocks I see him, || And from heights I behold him; Behold a people! He dwells alone, || And does not reckon himself among nations.

¹⁰ Who has counted the dust of Jacob, || And the number of the fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of upright ones, || And let my last end be like his!"

¹¹ And Balak says to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I have taken you to pierce my enemies, and behold, you have certainly blessed";

¹² and he answers and says, "That which YHWH puts in my mouth—do I not take heed to speak it?"

¹³ And Balak says to him, "Come! Come to another place with me, from where you see it—you see only its extremity, and you do not see all of it, and pierce it for me there";

¹⁴ and he takes him [to] the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and builds seven altars, and offers a bullock and a ram on the altar.

¹⁵ And he says to Balak, "Station yourself here by your burnt-offering, and I meet [Him] there";

¹⁶ and YHWH comes to Balaam, and sets a word in his mouth, and says, "Return to Balak, and thus you speak."

¹⁷ And he comes to him, and behold, he is standing by his burnt-offering, and the princes of Moab [are] with him, and Balak says to him: "What has YHWH spoken?"

¹⁸ And he takes up his allegory and says: "Rise, Balak, and hear; Give ear to me, son of Zippor!

¹⁹ God [is] not a man—and lies, || And a son of man—and relents! Has He said—and He does not do [it]? And spoken—and He does not confirm it?

²⁰ Behold, I have received [only] to bless; Indeed, He blesses, and I cannot reverse it.

²¹ He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob, || Nor has He seen perverseness in Israel; His God YHWH [is] with him, || And a shout of a king [is] in him.

²² God is bringing them out from Egypt, || As the swiftness of a wild ox for him;

²³ For no enchantment [is] against Jacob, || Nor divination against Israel; At the time it is said of Jacob and Israel, || O what God has worked!

²⁴ Behold, the people rises as a lioness, || And he lifts himself up as a lion; He does not lie down until he eats prey, || And drinks blood of pierced ones."

²⁵ And Balak says to Balaam, "Neither pierce it at all, nor bless it at all";

²⁶ and Balaam answers and says to Balak, "Have I not spoken to you, saying, All that YHWH speaks—I do it?"

²⁷ And Balak says to Balaam, "Please come, I take you to another place; it may be it is right in the eyes of God to pierce it for me from there."

²⁸ And Balak takes Balaam to the top of Peor, which is looking on the front of the wilderness,

²⁹ and Balaam says to Balak, "Build seven altars for me in this [place], and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me in this [place]";

³⁰ and Balak does as Balaam said, and he offers a bullock and a ram on an altar.

24

¹ And Balaam sees that [it is] good in the eyes of YHWH to bless Israel, and he has not gone as time by time to seek enchantments, and he sets his face toward the wilderness;

² and Balaam lifts up his eyes, and sees Israel dwelling by its tribes, and the Spirit of God is on him,

³ and he takes up his allegory and says: "An affirmation of Balaam son of Beor, || And an affirmation of the man whose eyes are shut,

⁴ An affirmation of him who is hearing sayings of God, || Who sees a vision of the Almighty, || Falling—and eyes uncovered:

⁵ How good have been your tents, O Jacob, || Your dwelling places, O Israel;

⁶ They have been stretched out as valleys, || As gardens by a river; As aloe YHWH has planted, || As cedars by waters;

⁷ He makes water flow from his buckets, || And his seed [is] in many waters; And his King [is] higher than Gog [[or Agag]], || And his kingdom is exalted.

⁸ God is bringing him out of Egypt, || As the swiftness of a wild ox for him, || He eats up nations—his adversaries, || And he breaks their bones, || And he strikes [with] his arrows.

⁹ He has bent, he has lain down as a lion, || And as a lioness, who raises him up? He who is blessing you [is] blessed, || And he who is cursing you [is] cursed."

¹⁰ And the anger of Balak burns against Balaam, and he strikes his hands; and Balak says to Balaam, "I called you to pierce my enemies, and behold, you have certainly blessed these three times;

¹¹ and now, flee for yourself to your place; I have said, I greatly honor you, and behold, YHWH has kept you back from honor."

¹² And Balaam says to Balak, "Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you have sent to me, saying,

¹³ If Balak gives to me the fullness of his house of silver and gold, I am not able to pass over the command of YHWH, to do good or evil of my own heart; that which YHWH speaks—it I speak?

¹⁴ And now, behold, I am going to my people; come, I counsel you [concerning] that which this people does to your people in the latter end of the days."

¹⁵ And he takes up his allegory and says: "An affirmation of Balaam son of Beor, || And an affirmation of the man whose eyes [are] shut;

¹⁶ An affirmation of him who is hearing sayings of God, || And knowing knowledge of the Most High; He sees a vision of the Almighty, || Falling—and eyes uncovered:

¹⁷ I see Him, but not now; I behold Him, but not near; A star has proceeded from Jacob, || And a scepter has risen from Israel, || And has struck corners of Moab, || And has destroyed all sons of Seth.

¹⁸ And Edom has been a possession, || And Seir has been a possession [for] his enemies, || And Israel is doing valiantly;

¹⁹ And [One] rules out of Jacob, || And has destroyed a remnant from the city.”

²⁰ And he sees Amalek, and takes up his allegory, and says: “Amalek [is] first [among] nations, || But his latter end—destruction forever.”

²¹ And he sees the Kenite, and takes up his allegory, and says: “Your dwelling [is] enduring, || And your nest is being set in a rock,

²² But the Kenite is for a burning; Until when does Asshur keep you captive?”

²³ And he takes up his allegory and says: “Woe! Who lives when God does this?

²⁵ And Balaam rises, and goes, and turns back to his place, and Balak has also gone on his way.

25

¹ And Israel dwells in Shittim, and the people begin to go whoring to daughters of Moab,

² and they call for the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people eat and bow themselves to their gods,

³ and Israel is joined to Ba'al-Peor, and the anger of YHWH burns against Israel.

⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “Take all the chiefs of the people and hang them before YHWH in sight of the sun; and the fierceness of the anger of YHWH turns back from Israel.”

⁷ and Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, sees, and rises from the midst of the congregation, and takes a javelin in his hand,

⁸ and goes in after the man of Israel to the hollow place, and pierces them both, the man of Israel and the woman—to her belly, and the plague is restrained from the sons of Israel;

⁹ and the dead by the plague are twenty-four thousand.

¹⁰ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹¹ “Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My fury from the sons of Israel by his being zealous with My zeal in their midst, and I have not consumed the sons of Israel in My zeal.

¹² Therefore say, Behold, I am giving My covenant of peace to him,

¹³ and it has been to him and to his seed after him [for] a covenant of a continuous priesthood, because that he has been zealous for his God, and makes atonement for the sons of Israel.”

¹⁴ And the name of the man of Israel who is struck, who has been struck with the Midianitess, [is] Zimri son of Salu, prince of the house of a father of the Simeonite;

¹⁵ and the name of the woman who is struck, the Midianitess, [is] Cozbi daughter of Zur; he [is] head of peoples of a father’s house in Midian.

¹⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁷ “Distress the Midianites, and you have struck them,

¹⁸ for they are adversaries to you with their frauds, [with] which they have acted fraudulently to you, concerning the matter of Peor and concerning the matter of Cozbi, daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, who is struck in the day of the plague for the matter of Peor.”

26

¹ And it comes to pass, after the plague, that YHWH speaks to Moses and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, saying,

² “Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, from a son of twenty years and upward, by the house of their fathers, everyone going out to the host in Israel.”

³ And Moses speaks—Eleazar the priest also—with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [near] Jericho, saying,

⁴ “From a son of twenty years and upward,” as YHWH has commanded Moses and the sons of Israel who are coming out from the land of Egypt.

⁵ Reuben, firstborn of Israel—sons of Reuben: of Enoch [is] the family of the Enochite; of Pallu the family of the Palluite;

⁶ of Hezron the family of the Hezronite; of Carmi the family of the Carmite.

⁷ These [are] families of the Reubenite, and their numbered ones are forty-three thousand and seven hundred and thirty.

⁸ And the son of Pallu [is] Eliab;

¹¹ but the sons of Korah did not die.

¹² Sons of Simeon by their families: of Nemuel [is] the family of the Nemuelite; of Jamin the family of the Jaminite; of Jachin the family of the Jachinite;

¹³ of Zerah the family of the Zerahite; of Shaul the family of the Shaulite.

¹⁴ These [are] families of the Simeonite—twenty-two thousand and two hundred.

¹⁵ Sons of Gad by their families: of Zephon [is] the family of the Zephonite; of Haggi the family of the Haggite; of Shuni the family of the Shunite;

¹⁶ of Ozni the family of the Oznite; of Eri the family of the Erite;

¹⁷ of Arod the family of the Arodite; of Areli the family of the Arelite.

¹⁸ These [are] families of the sons of Gad by their numbered ones—forty thousand and five hundred.

¹⁹ Sons of Judah [are] Er and Onan; and Er dies—Onan also—in the land of Canaan.

²⁰ And sons of Judah by their families are: of Shelah the family of the Shelanite; of Perez the family of the Perezite; of Zerah the family of the Zerahite;

²¹ and sons of Perez are: of Hezron the family of the Hezronite; of Hamul the family of the Hamulite.

²² These [are] families of Judah by their numbered ones—seventy-six thousand and five hundred.

²³ Sons of Issachar by their families: of Tola [is] the family of the Tolaite; of Pua the family of the Punite;

²⁴ of Jashub the family of the Jashubite; of Shimron the family of the Shimronite.

²⁵ These [are] families of Issachar by their numbered ones—sixty-four thousand and three hundred.

²⁶ Sons of Zebulun by their families: of Sered [is] the family of the Sardite; of Elon the family of the Elonite; of Jahleel the family of the Jahleelite.

²⁷ These [are] families of the Zebulunite by their numbered ones—sixty thousand and five hundred.

²⁸ Sons of Joseph by their families [are] Manasseh and Ephraim.

²⁹ Sons of Manasseh: of Machir [is] the family of the Machirite; and Machir has begotten Gilead; of Gilead [is] the family of the Gileadite.

³⁰ These [are] sons of Gilead: of Jeezer [is] the family of the Jeezerite; of Helek the family of the Helekite;

³¹ and of Asriel the family of the Asrielite; and of Shechem the family of the Shechemite;

³² and of Shemida the family of the Shemidaite; and of Hephher the family of the Hephherite.

³³ And Zelophehad son of Hephher had no sons, but [only] daughters, and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad [are] Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

³⁴ These [are] families of Manasseh, and their numbered ones [are] fifty-two thousand and seven hundred.

³⁵ These [are] sons of Ephraim by their families: of Shuthelah [is] the family of the Shuthelhitite; of Becher the family of the Bachrite; of Tahan the family of the Tahanite.

³⁶ And these [are] sons of Shuthelah: of Eran the family of the Eranite.

³⁷ These [are] families of the sons of Ephraim by their numbered ones—thirty-two thousand and five hundred. These [are] sons of Joseph by their families.

³⁸ Sons of Benjamin by their families: of Bela [is] the family of the Belaite; of Ashbel the family of the Ashbelite; of Ahiram the family of the Ahiramite;

³⁹ of Shupham the family of the Shuphamite; of Hupham the family of the Huphamite.

⁴⁰ And sons of Bela are Ard and Naaman: [of Ard is] the family of the Ardite; of Naaman the family of the Naamite.

⁴¹ These [are] sons of Benjamin by their families, and their numbered ones [are] forty-five thousand and six hundred.

⁴³ all the families of the Shuhamite by their numbered ones—sixty-four thousand and four hundred.

⁴⁴ Sons of Asher by their families: of Jimna [is] the family of the Jimnite; of Jesui the family of the Jesuite; of Beriah the family of the Beriite.

⁴⁵ Of sons of Beriah: of Heber [is] the family of the Heberite; of Malchiel the family of the Malchielite.

⁴⁶ And the name of the daughter of Asher [is] Sarah.

⁴⁷ These [are] families of the sons of Asher by their numbered ones—fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

⁴⁸ Sons of Naphtali by their families: of Jahzeel [is] the family of the Jahzeelite; of Guni the family of the Gunite;

⁴⁹ of Jezer the family of the Jezerite; of Shillem the family of the Shillemite.

⁵⁰ These [are] families of Naphtali by their families, and their numbered ones [are] forty-five thousand and four hundred.

⁵¹ These [are] numbered ones of the sons of Israel—six hundred thousand and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

⁵² And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁵³ “The land is apportioned to these by inheritance, by the number of names;

⁵⁴ to the many you increase their inheritance, and to the few you diminish their inheritance; each is given his inheritance according to his numbered ones.

⁵⁵ Surely the land is apportioned by lot; they inherit by the names of the tribes of their fathers;

⁵⁶ their inheritance is apportioned according to the lot between many and few.”

⁵⁸ These [are] families of the Levite: the family of the Libnite, the family of the Hebronite, the family of the Mahlite, the family of the Mushite, the family of the Korathite. And Kohath has begotten Amram,

⁶⁰ And born to Aaron [are] Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;

⁶¹ and Nadab dies—Abihu also—in their bringing strange fire near before YHWH.

⁶² And their numbered ones are twenty-three thousand, every male from a son of a month and upwards, for they have not numbered themselves in the midst of the sons of Israel, because an inheritance has not been given to them in the midst of the sons of Israel.

⁶⁴ and among these there has not been a man of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai,

⁶⁵ for YHWH said of them, "They certainly die in the wilderness"; and there has not been left a man of them, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

² and stand before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes, and all the congregation, at the opening of the Tent of Meeting, saying,

⁴ why is the name of our father withdrawn from the midst of his family because he has no son? Give a possession to us in the midst of the brothers of our father";

⁵ and Moses brings their cause near before YHWH.

⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

⁸ And you speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a man dies and has no son, then you have caused his inheritance to pass over to his daughter;

⁹ and if he has no daughter, then you have given his inheritance to his brothers;

¹⁰ and if he has no brothers, then you have given his inheritance to his father's brothers;

¹¹ and if his father has no brothers, then you have given his inheritance to his relation who is near to him of his family, and he has possessed it"; and it has been to the sons of Israel for a statute of judgment, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

¹² And YHWH says to Moses, "Go up to this Mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel;

¹³ and you have seen it, and you have been gathered to your people, also you, as your brother Aaron has been gathered,

¹⁴ because you provoked My mouth in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation—to sanctify Me at the waters before their eyes"; they [are] the waters of Meribah, in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin.

¹⁵ And Moses speaks to YHWH, saying,

¹⁶ "YHWH, God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation,

¹⁷ who goes out before them, and who comes in before them, and who takes them out, and who brings them in, and the congregation of YHWH is not as sheep which have no shepherd."

¹⁸ And YHWH says to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun to yourself, a man in whom [is] the Spirit, and you have laid your hand on him,

¹⁹ and have caused him to stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and have charged him before their eyes,

²⁰ and have put of your splendor on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel listens.

²² And Moses does as YHWH has commanded him, and takes Joshua and causes him to stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation,

²³ and lays his hands on him and charges him, as YHWH has spoken by the hand of Moses.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² “Command the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: My offering, My bread for My fire-offerings, My refreshing fragrance, you take heed to bring near to Me in its appointed time.

³ And you have said to them: This [is] the fire-offering which you bring near to YHWH: two lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones, daily, [for] a continual burnt-offering;

⁴ you prepare the first lamb in the morning, and you prepare the second lamb between the evenings;

⁵ and a tenth of the ephah of flour for a present mixed with a fourth of the hin of beaten oil;

⁶ [it is] a continual burnt-offering, which was made in Mount Sinai for refreshing fragrance, [for] a fire-offering to YHWH.

⁷ And its drink-offering [is] a fourth of the hin for one lamb; pour out a drink-offering of strong drink to YHWH in the holy place.

⁸ And you prepare the second lamb between the evenings; as the present of the morning and as its drink-offering, you prepare [it as] a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance to YHWH.

⁹ And on the Sabbath day, two lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones, and two-tenth parts of flour, a present mixed with oil, and its drink-offering—

¹⁰ the burnt-offering of the Sabbath in its Sabbath, besides the continual burnt-offering and its drink-offering.

¹¹ And in the beginnings of your months you bring a burnt-offering near to YHWH: two bullocks, sons of the herd, and one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

¹² and three-tenth parts of flour, a present mixed with oil, for one bullock, and two-tenth parts of flour, a present mixed with oil, for one ram;

¹³ and a tenth—a tenth part of flour, a present mixed with oil, for one lamb, [for] a burnt-offering, a refreshing fragrance, a fire-offering to YHWH;

¹⁴ and their drink-offerings are a half of the hin for a bullock, and a third of the hin for a ram, and a fourth of the hin for a lamb, of wine; this [is] the burnt-offering of every month for the months of the year.

¹⁵ And one kid of the goats is prepared for a sin-offering to YHWH, besides the continual burnt-offering and its drink-offering.

¹⁶ And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, [is] the Passover to YHWH;

¹⁷ and in the fifteenth day of this month [is] a festival; [for] seven days unleavened bread is eaten.

¹⁸ In the first day [is] a holy convocation; you do no servile work;

¹⁹ and you have brought a fire-offering near, a burnt-offering to YHWH: two bullocks, sons of the herd, and one ram, and seven lambs, sons of a year, they are perfect ones for you;

²⁰ and their present of flour mixed with oil—you prepare three-tenth parts for a bullock and two-tenth parts for a ram;

²¹ you prepare a tenth—a tenth part for one lamb, for the seven lambs,

²² and one goat [for] a sin-offering, to make atonement for you.

²³ Apart from the burnt-offering of the morning, which [is] for the continual burnt-offering, you prepare these;

²⁴ like these you prepare bread of a fire-offering daily [for] seven days, a refreshing fragrance to YHWH; it is prepared besides the continual burnt-offering and its drink-offering.

²⁵ And on the seventh day you have a holy convocation; you do no servile work.

²⁶ And on the day of the first-fruits, in your bringing a new present near to YHWH, in your weeks, you have a holy convocation; you do no servile work.

²⁷ And you have brought a burnt-offering near for refreshing fragrance to YHWH: two bullocks, sons of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year,

²⁸ and their present, flour mixed with oil, three-tenth parts for one bullock, two-tenth parts for one ram,

²⁹ a tenth—a tenth part for one lamb, for the seven lambs;

³⁰ one kid of the goats to make atonement for you;

³¹ apart from the continual burnt-offering and its present, you prepare [them] and their drink-offerings; they are perfect ones for you."

¹ "And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, you have a holy convocation; you do no servile work; it is a day of shouting to you;

² and you have prepared a burnt-offering for refreshing fragrance to YHWH: one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

³ and their present of flour mixed with oil: three-tenth parts for the bullock, two-tenth parts for the ram,

⁴ and one-tenth part for one lamb, for the seven lambs;

⁵ and one kid of the goats [for] a sin-offering, to make atonement for you;

⁷ And on the tenth of this seventh month you have a holy convocation, and you have humbled your souls; you do no work;

⁸ and you have brought a burnt-offering near to YHWH, a refreshing fragrance: one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year; they are perfect ones for you;

⁹ and their present of flour mixed with oil: three-tenth parts for the bullock, two-tenth parts for one ram,

¹⁰ a tenth—a tenth part for one lamb, for the seven lambs,

¹¹ one kid of the goats [for] a sin-offering, apart from the sin-offering of the atonements, and the continual burnt-offering and its present, and their drink-offerings.

¹² And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you have a holy convocation; you do no servile work; and you have celebrated a festival to YHWH [for] seven days,

¹³ and have brought a burnt-offering near, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance, to YHWH: thirteen bullocks, sons of the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year; they are perfect ones;

¹⁵ and a tenth—a tenth part for one lamb, for the fourteen lambs;

¹⁶ and one kid of the goats [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, its present, and its drink-offering.

¹⁷ And on the second day: twelve bullocks, sons of the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

¹⁸ and their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the sheep, in their number, according to the ordinance;

¹⁹ and one kid of the goats [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, and its present, and their drink-offerings.

²⁰ And on the third day: eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

²¹ and their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

²² and one goat [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, and its present, and its drink-offering.

²³ And on the fourth day: ten bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

²⁴ their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

²⁵ and one kid of the goats [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, its present, and its drink-offering.

²⁶ And on the fifth day: nine bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

²⁷ and their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

²⁸ and one goat [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, and its present, and its drink-offering.

²⁹ And on the sixth day: eight bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

³⁰ and their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

³¹ and one goat [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, its present, and its drink-offering.

³² And on the seventh day: seven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

³³ and their present and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

³⁴ and one goat [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, its present, and its drink-offering.

³⁵ On the eighth day you have a restraint; you do no servile work;

³⁶ and you have brought a burnt-offering near, a fire-offering of refreshing fragrance, to YHWH: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones;

³⁷ their present and their drink-offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance;

³⁸ and one goat [for] a sin-offering, apart from the continual burnt-offering, and its present, and its drink-offering.

³⁹ You prepare these to YHWH in your appointed times—apart from your vows and your free-will offerings—for your burnt-offerings, and for your presents, and for your drink-offerings, and for your peace-offerings.”

⁴⁰ And Moses speaks to the sons of Israel according to all that YHWH has commanded Moses.

¹ And Moses speaks to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, “This [is] the thing which YHWH has commanded:

² When a man vows a vow to YHWH, or has sworn an oath to bind a bond on his soul, he does not defile his word; he does according to all that is going out from his mouth.

³ And when a woman vows a vow to YHWH, and has bound a bond in the house of her father in her youth,

⁴ and her father has heard her vow and her bond which she has bound on her soul, and her father has kept silent to her, then all her vows have been established, and every bond which she has bound on her soul is established.

⁶ And if she is having a husband, and her vows [are] on her, or a wrongful utterance [on] her lips which she has bound on her soul,

⁷ and her husband has heard, and in the day of his hearing he has kept silent to her, then her vows have been established, and her bonds which she has bound on her soul are established.

⁸ And if in the day of her husband’s hearing he disallows her, then he has broken her vow which [is] on her, and the wrongful utterance of her lips which she has bound on her soul, and YHWH is propitious to her.

⁹ As for the vow of a widow or cast-out woman, all that she has bound on her soul is established on her.

¹⁰ And if she has vowed [in] the house of her husband, or has bound a bond on her soul with an oath,

¹¹ and her husband has heard, and has kept silent to her—he has not disallowed her—then all her vows have been established, and every bond which she has bound on her soul is established.

¹² And if her husband certainly breaks them in the day of his hearing, none of the outgoing of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, is established—her husband has broken them—and YHWH is propitious to her.

¹³ Every vow and every oath—a bond to humble a soul—her husband establishes it, or her husband breaks it;

¹⁴ and if her husband certainly keeps silent to her from day to day, then he has established all her vows or all her bonds which [are] on her; he has established them, for he has kept silent to her in the day of his hearing;

¹⁵ and if he indeed breaks them after his hearing, then he has borne her iniquity.”

¹⁶ These [are] the statutes which YHWH has commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter, in her youth, [in] the house of her father.

² “Execute the vengeance of the sons of Israel against the Midianites—afterward you are gathered to your people.”

³ And Moses speaks to the people, saying, “Arm men from [among] you for the war, and they are against Midian, to put the vengeance of YHWH on Midian;

⁴ one thousand for a tribe—you send one thousand for a tribe, of all the tribes of Israel, to the war.”

⁵ And there are given out of the thousands of Israel one thousand for a tribe—twelve thousand armed ones [for] war;

⁶ and Moses sends them, one thousand for a tribe, to the war; [he sent] them and Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest to the war, with the holy vessels and the trumpets of shouting in his hand.

⁷ And they war against Midian, as YHWH has commanded Moses, and slay every male;

⁸ and they have slain the kings of Midian besides their pierced ones: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba—five kings of Midian; and they have slain Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

⁹ And the sons of Israel take the women of Midian and their infants captive; and they have plundered all their livestock, and all their substance, and all their wealth;

¹⁰ and they have burned all their cities, with their habitations, and all their towers, with fire.

¹¹ And they take all the spoil and all the prey, among man and among beast;

¹² and they bring in the captives, and the prey, and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp, to the plains of Moab, which [are] by the Jordan, [near] Jericho.

¹³ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, go out to meet them, to the outside of the camp,

14 and Moses is angry against the inspectors of the force, chiefs of the thousands, and chiefs of the hundreds, who are coming in from the warfare of battle.

15 And Moses says to them, "Have you kept every female alive?"

16 Behold, they have been to the sons of Israel, through the word of Balaam, to cause a trespass against YHWH in the matter of Peor, and the plague is in the congregation of YHWH.

17 And now, slay every male among the infants, indeed, slay every woman knowing a man by the lying of a male;

18 and all the infants among the women who have not known the lying of a male you have kept alive for yourselves.

19 And you, encamp at the outside of the camp [for] seven days; any who has slain a person, and any who has come against a pierced one, cleanse yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day—you and your captives;

20 and every garment, and every skin vessel, and every work of goats' [hair], and every wooden vessel, you yourselves cleanse."

21 And Eleazar the priest says to the men of war who go to battle, "This [is] the statute of the law which YHWH has commanded Moses:

22 only the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 everything which may go into fire, you cause to pass over through fire, and it has been clean; it is surely cleansed with the water of separation; and all that may not go into fire, you cause to pass over through water;

24 and you have washed your garments on the seventh day and have been clean, and afterward you come into the camp."

25 And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

26 "Take up the sum of the prey of the captives, among man and among beast, you, and Eleazar the priest, and the heads of the fathers of the congregation;

27 and you have halved the prey between those handling the battle, who go out to the war, and all the congregation;

28 and you have raised a tribute to YHWH from the men of battle, who go out to the war, one body out of five hundred, of man, and of the herd, and of the donkeys, and of the flock;

29 you take from their half and have given [it] to Eleazar the priest [as] a raised-offering of YHWH.

30 And from the sons of Israel's half you take one possession out of fifty, of man, of the herd, of the donkeys, and of the flock, of all the livestock, and you have given them to the Levites keeping the charge of the Dwelling Place of YHWH."

31 And Moses does—Eleazar the priest also—as YHWH has commanded Moses.

32 And the prey, the remainder of the spoil which the people of the host have spoiled, is six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand of the flock;

33 and seventy-two thousand of the herd;

34 and sixty-one thousand donkeys;

35 and of mankind—of the women who have not known the lying of a male—all the persons [are] thirty-two thousand.

³⁶ And the half, the portion of those who go out into the war, is [in] number three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred of the flock.

³⁷ And the tribute to YHWH of the sheep is six hundred seventy-five;

³⁸ and the herd [is] thirty-six thousand, and their tribute to YHWH [is] seventy-two;

³⁹ and the donkeys [are] thirty thousand and five hundred, and their tribute to YHWH [is] sixty-one;

⁴⁰ and of mankind [are] sixteen thousand, and their tribute to YHWH [is] thirty-two persons.

⁴¹ And Moses gives the tribute—YHWH's raised-offering—to Eleazar the priest, as YHWH has commanded Moses.

⁴² And of the sons of Israel's half, which Moses halved from the men who war—

⁴³ and the congregation's half is three hundred thousand and thirty thousand [and] seven thousand and five hundred of the flock;

⁴⁴ and thirty-six thousand of the herd;

⁴⁵ and thirty thousand and five hundred donkeys;

⁴⁶ and sixteen thousand of mankind—

⁴⁸ And the inspectors whom the thousands of the host have (heads of the thousands and heads of the hundreds), draw near to Moses,

⁴⁹ and they say to Moses, "Your servants have taken up the sum of the men of war who [are] with us, and not a man of us has been missed;

⁵⁰ and we bring YHWH's offering near, each of that which he has found of vessels of gold—chain, and bracelet, seal-ring, [ear]-ring, and bead—to make atonement for ourselves before YHWH."

⁵¹ And Moses receives—Eleazar the priest also—the gold from them, every vessel of workmanship;

⁵² and all the gold of the raised-offering which they have lifted up to YHWH is sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels, from heads of the thousands and from heads of the hundreds;

⁵³ (the men of the host have each taken spoil for himself);

⁵⁴ and Moses takes—Eleazar the priest also—the gold from the heads of the thousands and of the hundreds, and they bring it into the Tent of Meeting [as] a memorial for the sons of Israel before YHWH.

¹ And much livestock has [belonged] to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad—very many; and they see the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, and behold, the place [is] a place [for] livestock;

² and the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben come in and speak to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying,

³ "Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

⁴ the land which YHWH has struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock."

⁵ And they say, "If we have found grace in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; cause us not to pass over the Jordan."

⁶ And Moses says to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, "Do your brothers go to the battle, and you—do you sit here?"

⁷ And why discourage the heart of the sons of Israel from passing over to the land which YHWH has given to them?

⁸ Thus your fathers did in my sending them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the land;

⁹ and they go up to the Valley of Eshcol, and see the land, and discourage the heart of the sons of Israel so as not to go into the land which YHWH has given to them;

¹⁰ and the anger of YHWH burns in that day, and He swears, saying,

¹¹ They do not see—the men who are coming up out of Egypt from a son of twenty years and upward—the ground which I have sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, for they have not been fully after Me,

¹² except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenezite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have been fully after YHWH;

¹³ and the anger of YHWH burns against Israel, and He causes them to wander in the wilderness [for] forty years, until the consumption of all the generation which is doing evil in the eyes of YHWH.

¹⁴ And behold, you have risen in the stead of your fathers, an increase of sinful men, to add yet to the fury of the anger of YHWH toward Israel;

¹⁵ when you turn back from after Him, then He has added yet to leave him in the wilderness, and you have done corruptly to all this people."

¹⁶ And they come near to him and say, "We build folds for the flock here for our livestock, and cities for our infants;

¹⁷ but we are armed, hastening before the sons of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our infants have dwelt in the cities of defense because of the inhabitants of the land;

¹⁸ We do not return to our houses until the sons of Israel have each inherited his inheritance,

¹⁹ for we do not inherit with them across the Jordan and beyond, for our inheritance has come to us beyond the Jordan at the [sun]-rising."

²⁰ And Moses says to them, "If you do this thing, if you are armed before YHWH for battle,

²¹ and every armed one of you has passed over the Jordan before YHWH, until His dispossessing His enemies from before Him,

²² and the land has been subdued before YHWH, then afterward you return, and have been acquitted by YHWH and by Israel, and this land has been to you for a possession before YHWH.

²³ And if you do not do so, behold, you have sinned against YHWH, and know that your sin finds you;

²⁴ build for yourselves cities for your infants and folds for your flock, and that which is going out from your mouth you do."

²⁵ And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben speak to Moses, saying, "Your servants do as my lord is commanding;

²⁶ our infants, our wives, our livestock, and all our beasts, are there in cities of Gilead,

²⁷ and your servants pass over, every armed one of the host, before YHWH, to battle, as my lord is saying."

²⁸ And Moses commands Eleazar the priest, and Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel concerning them;

²⁹ and Moses says to them, "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben pass over the Jordan with you, everyone armed for battle, before YHWH, and the land has been subdued before you, then you have given the land of Gilead to them for a possession;

³⁰ and if they do not pass over armed with you, then they have possessions in your midst in the land of Canaan."

³¹ And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answer, saying, "That which YHWH has spoken to your servants, so we do;

³² we pass over armed before YHWH [to] the land of Canaan, and with us [is] the possession of our inheritance beyond the Jordan."

³³ And Moses gives to them—to the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Reuben, and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph—the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorite and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land by its cities, in the borders, the cities of the surrounding land.

³⁴ And the sons of Gad build Dihon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

³⁵ and Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah,

³⁶ and Beth-Nimrah, and Beth-Haran, cities of defense, and sheepfolds.

³⁷ And the sons of Reuben have built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim,

³⁸ and Nebo, and Ba'al-Meon (changed in name), and Shibmah, and they call the names of the cities which they have built by [these] names.

³⁹ And sons of Machir son of Manasseh go to Gilead, and capture it, and dispossess the Amorite who [is] in it;

⁴⁰ and Moses gives Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he dwells in it.

⁴¹ And Jair son of Manasseh has gone and captures their towns, and calls them "Towns of Jair";

⁴² and Nobah has gone and captures Kenath and its villages, and calls it Nobah, by his own name.

¹ These [are] the journeys of the sons of Israel who have come out of the land of Egypt, by their hosts, by the hand of Moses and Aaron;

² and Moses writes their outgoings, by their journeys, by the command of YHWH; and these [are] their journeys, by their outgoings:

⁴ and the Egyptians are burying those whom YHWH has struck among them, every firstborn, and YHWH has done judgments on their gods.

⁵ And the sons of Israel journey from Rameses and encamp in Succoth.

⁶ And they journey from Succoth and encamp in Etham, which [is] in the extremity of the wilderness.

⁷ And they journey from Etham and turn back over Pi-Hahiroth, which [is] on the front of Ba'al-Zephon, and they encamp before Migdol.

⁸ And they journey from Pi-Hahiroth, and pass over through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and go a journey of three days in the wilderness of Etham, and encamp in Marah.

⁹ And they journey from Marah and come to Elim, and twelve fountains of waters and seventy palm trees [are] in Elim, and they encamp there.

¹⁰ And they journey from Elim and encamp by the Red Sea.

¹¹ And they journey from the Red Sea and encamp in the wilderness of Sin.

¹² And they journey from the wilderness of Sin and encamp in Dophkah.

¹³ And they journey from Dophkah and encamp in Alush.

¹⁴ And they journey from Alush and encamp in Rephidim; and there was no water there for the people to drink.

¹⁵ And they journey from Rephidim and encamp in the wilderness of Sinai.

¹⁶ And they journey from the wilderness of Sinai and encamp in Kibroth-Hattaavah.

¹⁷ And they journey from Kibroth-Hattaavah and encamp in Hazeroth.

¹⁸ And they journey from Hazeroth and encamp in Rithmah.

¹⁹ And they journey from Rithmah and encamp in Rimmon-Parez.

²⁰ And they journey from Rimmon-Parez and encamp in Libnah.

²¹ And they journey from Libnah and encamp in Rissah.

²² And they journey from Rissah and encamp in Kehelathah.

²³ And they journey from Kehelathah and encamp in Mount Shapher.

²⁴ And they journey from Mount Shapher and encamp in Haradah.

²⁵ And they journey from Haradah and encamp in Makheloth.

²⁶ And they journey from Makheloth and encamp in Tahath.

²⁷ And they journey from Tahath and encamp in Tarah.

²⁸ And they journey from Tarah and encamp in Mithcah.

²⁹ And they journey from Mithcah and encamp in Hashmonah.

³⁰ And they journey from Hashmonah and encamp in Moseroth.

³¹ And they journey from Moseroth and encamp in Bene-Jaakan.

³² And they journey from Bene-Jaakan and encamp at Hor-Hagidgad.

³³ And they journey from Hor-Hagidgad and encamp in Jotbathah.

³⁴ And they journey from Jotbathah and encamp in Ebronah.

³⁵ And they journey from Ebronah and encamp in Ezion-Gaber.

³⁶ And they journey from Ezion-Gaber and encamp in the wilderness of Zin, which [is] Kadesh.

³⁷ And they journey from Kadesh and encamp in Mount Hor, in the extremity of the land of Edom.

³⁹ and Aaron [is] a son of one hundred and twenty-three years in his dying on Mount Hor.

⁴⁰ And the Canaanite, king of Arad, who is dwelling in the south in the land of Canaan, hears of the coming of the sons of Israel.

⁴¹ And they journey from Mount Hor and encamp in Zalmonah.

⁴² And they journey from Zalmonah and encamp in Punon.

⁴³ And they journey from Punon and encamp in Oboth.

⁴⁴ And they journey from Oboth and encamp in Ije-Abarim, in the border of Moab.

⁴⁵ And they journey from Iim and encamp in Dibon-Gad.

⁴⁶ And they journey from Dibon-Gad and encamp in Almon-Diblathaim.

⁴⁷ And they journey from Almon-Diblathaim and encamp in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

⁴⁸ And they journey from the mountains of Abarim and encamp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [near] Jericho.

⁴⁹ And they encamp by the Jordan, from Beth-Jeshimoth as far as Abel-Shittim in the plains of Moab.

⁵⁰ And YHWH speaks to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [near] Jericho, saying,

⁵¹ "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you are passing over the Jordan to the land of Canaan,

⁵² then you have dispossessed all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and have destroyed all their imagery, indeed, you destroy all their molten images, and you lay waste [to] all their high places,

⁵³ and you have possessed the land and dwelt in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.

⁵⁵ And if you do not dispossess the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it has been [that] those whom you let remain of them [are] for pricks in your eyes and for thorns in your sides, and they have distressed you on the land in which you are dwelling,

⁵⁶ and it has come to pass, as I thought to do to them, I do to you."

34

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

² "Command the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you are coming into the land of Canaan—this [is] the land which falls to you by inheritance, the land of Canaan, by its borders—

³ then the south quarter has been to you from the wilderness of Zin, by the sides of Edom, indeed, the south border has been to you from the extremity of the Salt Sea eastward;

⁴ and the border has turned around to you from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and has passed on to Zin, and its outgoings have been from the south to Kadesh-Barnea, and it has gone out at Hazar-Addar, and has passed on to Azmon;

⁵ and the border has turned around from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and its outgoings have been at the sea.

⁶ As for the west border, even the Great Sea has been a border to you; this is the west border to you.

⁷ And this is the north border to you: from the Great Sea you mark out for yourselves Mount Hor;

⁸ from Mount Hor you mark out to go to Hamath, and the outgoings of the border have been to Zedad;

⁹ and the border has gone out to Ziphron, and its outgoings have been at Hazar-Enan; this is the north border to you.

¹⁰ And you have marked out for yourselves for the border eastward, from Hazar-Enan to Shepham;

¹¹ and the border has gone down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east of Ain, and the border has gone down, and has struck against the shoulder of the Sea of Chinnereth eastward;

¹² and the border has gone down to the Jordan, and its outgoings have been at the Salt Sea; this is the land for you by its borders all around."

¹³ And Moses commands the sons of Israel, saying, "This [is] the land which you inherit by lot, which YHWH has commanded to give to the nine tribes and the half of the tribe;

¹⁴ for the tribe of the sons of Reuben, by the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, by the house of their fathers, have received [their inheritance]; and [those of] the half of the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance;

¹⁵ the two tribes and the half of the tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan, [near] Jericho, eastward, at the [sun]-rising."

¹⁶ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁷ "These [are] the names of the men who give the inheritance of the land to you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

¹⁸ And one prince—you take one prince from a tribe to give the land by inheritance.

¹⁹ And these [are] the names of the men: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

²⁰ and of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel son of Aminihud;

²¹ of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad son of Chislon;

²² and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Dan, Bukki son of Jogli;

²³ of the sons of Joseph, a prince of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, Hanniel son of Ephod;

²⁴ and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, Kemuel son of Shiptan;

²⁵ and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun, Elizaphan son of Parnach;

²⁶ and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, Paltiel son of Azzan;

²⁷ and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Asher, Ahihud son of Shelomi;

²⁸ and a prince of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, Pedahel son of Ammihud."

²⁹ These [are] those whom YHWH has commanded to give the sons of Israel inheritance in the land of Canaan.

¹ And YHWH speaks to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [near] Jericho, saying,

² "Command the sons of Israel, and they have given to the Levites cities to inhabit from the inheritance of their possession; you also give [the] outskirts around them, of the cities, to the Levites.

³ And the cities have been for them to inhabit, and their outskirts are for their livestock, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

⁴ And the outskirts of the cities which you give to the Levites [are], from the wall of the city and outside, one thousand cubits around.

⁵ And you have measured from the outside of the city: the east quarter—two thousand by the cubit, and the south quarter—two thousand by the cubit, and the west quarter—two thousand by the cubit, and the north quarter—two thousand by the cubit; and the city [is] in the midst; this is the outskirts of the cities to them.

⁶ And the cities which you give to the Levites [are] the six cities of refuge, which you give for the fleeing there of the manslayer, and besides them you give forty-two cities;

⁷ all the cities which you give to the Levites [are] forty-eight cities, them and their outskirts.

⁸ And the cities which you give [are] from the possession of the sons of Israel; from the many you multiply, and from the few you diminish; each, according to his inheritance which they inherit, gives to the Levites from his cities.”

⁹ And YHWH speaks to Moses, saying,

¹⁰ “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you have said to them: When you are passing over the Jordan to the land of Canaan,

¹¹ and have prepared cities for yourselves—they are cities of refuge to you—then a manslayer, striking a person through ignorance, has fled there,

¹² and the cities have been for a refuge to you from the redeemer, and the manslayer does not die until his standing before the congregation for judgment.

¹³ As for the cities which you give, six [are] cities of refuge to you;

¹⁴ three of the cities you give from beyond the Jordan, and three of the cities you give in the land of Canaan; they are cities of refuge.

¹⁵ For sons of Israel, and for a sojourner, and for a settler in their midst, are these six cities for a refuge, for the fleeing there of anyone striking a person through ignorance.

¹⁶ And if he has struck him with an instrument of iron, and he dies, he [is] a murderer: the murderer is certainly put to death.

¹⁷ And if he has struck him with a stone [in] the hand, with which he could die, and he dies, he [is] a murderer: the murderer is certainly put to death.

¹⁸ Or [if] he has struck him with a wooden instrument [in] the hand, with which he could die, and he dies, he [is] a murderer: the murderer is certainly put to death.

¹⁹ The redeemer of blood puts the murderer to death himself; in his coming against him he puts him to death.

²⁰ And if he pushes him in hatred, or has cast [anything] at him by lying in wait, and he dies,

²² And if, in an instant, without enmity, he has pushed him, or has cast any instrument at him without lying in wait,

²³ or with any stone with which he could die, without seeing, indeed, causes [it] to fall on him, and he dies, and he [is] not his enemy, nor seeking his evil,

²⁴ then the congregation has judged between the striker and the redeemer of blood by these judgments.

²⁵ And the congregation has delivered the manslayer out of the hand of the redeemer of blood, and the congregation has caused him to return to the city of his refuge, to where he has fled, and he has dwelt in it until the death of the chief priest who has been anointed with the holy oil.

²⁶ And if the manslayer indeed goes out [from] the border of the city of his refuge to where he flees,

²⁷ and the redeemer of blood has found him at the outside of the border of the city of his refuge, and the redeemer of blood has slain the manslayer; blood [is] not [reckoned] to him;

²⁸ for he dwells in the city of his refuge until the death of the chief priest; and after the death of the chief priest the manslayer turns back to the city of his possession.

²⁹ And these things have been for a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

³⁰ Whoever strikes a person, by the mouth of witnesses [one] slays the murderer; and one witness does not testify against a person to cause [him] to die.

³¹ And you take no atonement for the life of a murderer who [is] condemned to die, for he is certainly put to death;

³² and you take no atonement for him [who had] to flee to the city of his refuge, to return to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

³⁴ and you do not defile the land in which you are dwelling, in the midst of which I dwell, for I, YHWH, dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel."

² and say, "YHWH commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel, and my lord has been commanded by YHWH to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

³ Now [if] they have been [given] to one from the sons of the [other] tribes of the sons of Israel for wives, and their inheritance has been withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers, and has been added to the inheritance of the tribe which is theirs, and it is withdrawn from the lot of our inheritance,

⁴ and if it is the jubilee of the sons of Israel, then their inheritance has been added to the inheritance of the tribe which is theirs, and their inheritance is withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

⁵ And Moses commands the sons of Israel by the command of YHWH, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph is speaking correctly;

⁷ and the inheritance of the sons of Israel does not turn around from tribe to tribe; for each of the sons of Israel cleaves to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

⁹ and the inheritance does not turn around from [one] tribe to another tribe; for each of the tribes of the sons of Israel cleaves to his inheritance.”

¹⁰ As YHWH has commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad have done,

¹¹ and Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, daughters of Zelophehad, are for wives to the sons of their fathers' brothers;

¹² they have been for wives [to men] from the families of the sons of Manasseh, son of Joseph, and their inheritance is with the tribe of the family of their father.

¹³ These [are] the commands and the judgments which YHWH has commanded by the hand of Moses concerning the sons of Israel, in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, [near] Jericho.

Deuteronomy

² [It takes] eleven days [to go] from Horeb, the way of Mount Seir, to Kadesh-Barnea.

³ And it comes to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses has spoken to the sons of Israel according to all that YHWH has commanded him concerning them,

⁴ after his striking Sihon king of the Amorite who is dwelling in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan who is dwelling in Ashtaroth in Edrei.

⁵ Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses has begun to explain this law, saying,

⁶ "Our God YHWH has spoken to us in Horeb, saying, For you dwell at this mountain long enough;

⁷ turn and journey for yourselves, and go to the mountain of the Amorite, and to all its neighboring places in the plain, in the hill-country, and in the low country, and in the south, and in the haven of the sea, the land of the Canaanite, and of Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates River;

⁸ see, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which YHWH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

⁹ And I speak to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you by myself;

¹⁰ your God YHWH has multiplied you, and behold, today you [are] as the stars of the heavens for multitude;

¹¹ YHWH, God of your fathers, is adding to you, as you [are], one thousand times, and blesses you as He has spoken to you.

¹² How do I bear your pressure, and your burden, and your strife by myself?

¹³ Provide wise and understanding men for yourselves that are known to your tribes, and I set them for your heads;

¹⁴ and you answer me and say, The thing which you have spoken [is] good to do.

¹⁶ And I command your judges at that time, saying, Listen between your brothers—then you have judged [in] righteousness between a man, and his brother, and his sojourner;

¹⁷ you do not discern faces in judgment; you hear the little as well as the great; you are not afraid of the face of any, for the judgment is God's, and the thing which is too hard for you, you bring near to me, and I have heard it.

¹⁸ And I command you at that time all the things which you do.

19 And we journey from Horeb, and go [through] all that great and fearful wilderness which you have seen, the way of the hill-country of the Amorite, as our God YHWH has commanded us, and we come to Kadesh-Barnea.

20 And I say to you, You have come to the hill-country of the Amorite, which our God YHWH is giving to us;

21 see, your God YHWH has set the land before you; go up, possess, as YHWH, God of your fathers, has spoken to you; do not fear, nor be frightened.

22 And you come near to me, all of you, and say, Let us send men before us, and they search the land for us, and they bring us back word [concerning] the way in which we go up into it, and the cities to which we come in;

23 and the thing is good in my eyes, and I take twelve men from you, one man for the tribe.

24 And they turn and go up to the hill-country, and come to the Valley of Eshcol, and spy it out,

25 and they take in their hand from the fruit of the land, and bring [it] down to us, and bring us back word, and say, The land is good which our God YHWH is giving to us.

26 And you have not been willing to go up, and you provoke the mouth of your God YHWH,

27 and murmur in your tents, and say, In YHWH's hating us He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorite—to destroy us;

28 to where are we going up? Our brothers have melted our heart, saying, [The] people [are] greater and taller than we; [the] cities [are] great and fortified up to the heavens, and we have also seen sons of Anakim there.

29 And I say to you, Do not be terrified, nor be afraid of them;

30 your God YHWH, who is going before you—He fights for you, according to all that He has done with you in Egypt before your eyes,

31 and in the wilderness where you have seen that your God YHWH has carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way which you have gone until your coming to this place.

32 And in this thing you are not steadfast in your God YHWH,

33 who is going before you in the way to search out for you a place for your encamping, in fire by night, to show you in the way in which you go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And YHWH hears the voice of your words, and is angry, and swears, saying,

35 Not one of these men of this evil generation sees the good land which I have sworn to give to your fathers,

36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh—he sees it, and to him I give the land on which he has trodden, and to his sons, because that he has been fully after YHWH.

37 Moreover, YHWH has been angry with me for your sake, saying, Indeed, you do not go in there;

38 Joshua son of Nun, who is standing before you, he goes in there; strengthen him, for he causes Israel to inherit [it].

³⁹ And your infants, of whom you have said, They are for a prey, and your sons who today have not known good and evil, they go in there, and I give it to them, and they possess it;

⁴⁰ but you, turn and journey for yourselves toward the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea.

⁴¹ And you answer and say to me, We have sinned against YHWH; we go up and we have fought, according to all that which our God YHWH has commanded us; and you each gird on his weapons of war, and you are ready to go up into the hill-country;

⁴² and YHWH says to me, Say to them, You do not go up, nor fight, for I am not in your midst, and you are not struck before your enemies.

⁴³ And I speak to you, and you have not listened, and provoke the mouth of YHWH, and act proudly, and go up into the hill-country;

⁴⁴ and the Amorite who is dwelling in that hill-country comes out to meet you, and they pursue you as the bees do, and strike you in Seir, even to Hormah.

⁴⁵ And you return and weep before YHWH, and YHWH has not listened to your voice, nor has He given ear to you;

⁴⁶ and you dwell in Kadesh [for] many days, according to the days which you had dwelt.”

¹ “And we turn and journey into the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea, as YHWH has spoken to me, and we go around Mount Seir [for] many days.

² And YHWH speaks to me, saying,

³ For you go around this mountain long enough; turn for yourselves northward.

⁴ And the people command you, saying, You are passing over into the border of your brothers, sons of Esau, who are dwelling in Seir, and they are afraid of you; and you have been very watchful;

⁵ you do not strive with them, for I do not give [any] of their land to you—even the treading of the sole of a foot; I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession.

⁶ You buy food from them with money, and have eaten; and you also buy water from them with money, and have drunk.

⁷ For your God YHWH has blessed you in all the work of your hands; He has known your walking in this great wilderness these forty years; your God YHWH [is] with you; you have not lacked anything.

¹⁰ The Emim have formerly dwelt in it, a people great, and numerous, and tall as the Anakim;

¹¹ they are reckoned [as] Rephaim, they also, as the Anakim; and the Moabites call them Emim.

¹² And the Horim have formerly dwelt in Seir, but the sons of Esau dispossess them, and destroy them from before them, and dwell in their stead, as Israel has done to the land of his possession which YHWH has given to them.

¹³ Now rise and pass over the Brook of Zered for yourselves; and we pass over the Brook of Zered.

¹⁴ And the days which we have walked from Kadesh-Barnea until we have passed over the Brook of Zered [are] thirty-eight years, until the consumption of all the generation of the men of battle from the midst of the camp, as YHWH has sworn to them;

¹⁵ and indeed the hand of YHWH has been against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they are consumed.

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, when all the men of battle have finished dying from the midst of the people,

¹⁷ that YHWH speaks to me, saying,

¹⁸ Today you are passing over the border of Moab, even Ar,

²⁰ It is reckoned [as] a land of Rephaim, even it; Rephaim formerly dwelt in it, and the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

²¹ a people great, and numerous, and tall as the Anakim, and YHWH destroys them before them, and they dispossess them, and dwell in their stead,

²⁴ Rise, journey, and pass over the Brook of Arnon; see, I have given into your hand Sihon king of Heshbon, the Amorite, and his land; begin to possess [it], and stir yourself up against him [in] battle.

²⁵ This [is] the day I begin to put your dread and your fear on the face of the peoples under the whole heavens, who hear your fame, and have trembled and been pained because of you.

²⁶ And I send messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon, [with] words of peace, saying,

²⁷ Let me pass over through your land; in the way—in the way I go, I do not turn aside [to the] right or left.

²⁸ You sell me food for money, and I have eaten; and you give to me water for money, and I have drunk; only, let me pass over on my feet,

²⁹ as the sons of Esau who are dwelling in Seir and the Moabites who are dwelling in Ar have done for me, until I pass over the Jordan to the land which our God YHWH is giving to us.

³⁰ And Sihon king of Heshbon has not been willing to let us pass over by him, for your God YHWH has hardened his spirit and strengthened his heart, so as to give him into your hand as at this day.

³¹ And YHWH says to me, See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before your faces; begin to possess—to possess his land.

³² And Sihon comes out to meet us, he and all his people, to the battle at Jahaz;

³³ and our God YHWH gives him before our faces, and we strike him, and his sons, and all his people;

³⁴ and we capture all his cities at that time, and devote the whole city—men, and the women, and the infants; we have not left a remnant;

³⁵ only, we have spoiled the livestock for ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we have captured.

³⁶ From Aroer, which [is] by the edge of the Brook of Arnon, and the city which [is] by the brook, even to Gilead, there has not been a city which [is] too high for us; our God YHWH has given the whole before our faces.

³⁷ Only, you have not drawn near to the land of the sons of Ammon—any part of the Brook of Jabbok, and cities of the hill-country, and anything which our God YHWH has [not] commanded.”

¹ “And we turn and go up the way to Bashan, and Og king of Bashan comes out to meet us, he and all his people, to the battle [at] Edrei.

² And YHWH says to me, Do not fear him, for I have given him, and all his people, and his land into your hand, and you have done to him as you have done to Sihon king of the Amorite who is dwelling in Heshbon.

³ And our God YHWH indeed gives Og king of Bashan and all his people into our hands, and we strike him until there has been no remnant left to him;

⁵ All these [are] cities fortified with high walls, double gates, and bar, apart from very many cities of the open place;

⁶ and we devote them, as we have done to Sihon king of Heshbon, devoting [the] men, the women, and the infants of every city;

⁷ and all the livestock, and the spoil of the cities, we have spoiled for ourselves.

⁸ And at that time we take the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorite, which is beyond the Jordan, from the Brook of Arnon to Mount Hermon

⁹ (Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir),

¹⁰ all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

¹² And this land, [which] we had possessed at that time, from Aroer, which [is] by the Brook of Arnon, and the half of Mount Gilead and its cities, I have given to the Reubenite and to the Gadite;

14 Jair son of Manasseh has taken all the region of Argob, as far as the border of Geshuri and Maachathi ([namely] Bashan), and calls them by his own name, Havoth-Jair, to this day.

15 And I have given Gilead to Machir.

16 And to the Reubenite and to the Gadite I have given from Gilead even to the Brook of Arnon, the middle of the valley and the border, even to the Brook of Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon,

17 and the plain, and the Jordan, and the border, from Chinnereth even to the Sea of the Plain (the Salt Sea), under the Springs of Pisgah, at the [sun]-rising.

18 And at that time I command you, saying, Your God YHWH has given this land to you to possess it; you pass over armed before your brothers the sons of Israel, all the sons of might.

19 Only your wives, and your infants, and your livestock—I have known that you have much livestock—dwell in your cities which I have given to you,

20 until YHWH gives rest to your brothers like yourselves, and they also have possessed the land which your God YHWH is giving to them beyond the Jordan; then you have each turned back to his possession which I have given to you.

21 And I have commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Your eyes are seeing all that which your God YHWH has done to these two kings—so YHWH does to all the kingdoms to where you are passing over;

22 do not fear them, for your God YHWH—He is fighting for you.

23 And to YHWH I beg for grace at that time, saying,

24 Lord YHWH, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand; for who [is] a god in the heavens or in earth who does according to Your works and according to Your might?

25 Please let me pass over and see the good land which [is] beyond the Jordan, this good hill-country, and Lebanon.

26 And YHWH shows Himself angry with me for your sake, and has not listened to me, and YHWH says to me, Enough of you; do not add to speak to Me about this thing anymore;

27 go up [to] the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes, for you do not pass over this Jordan;

28 and charge Joshua, and strengthen him, and harden him, for he passes over before this people, and he causes them to inherit the land which you see.

29 And we dwell in a valley opposite Beth-Peor.”

1 “And now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and to the judgments which I am teaching you to do, so that you live, and have gone in, and possessed the land which YHWH God of your fathers is giving to you.

2 You do not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor diminish from it, to keep the commands of your God YHWH which I am commanding you.

3 Your eyes are seeing that which YHWH has done in Ba'al-Peor, for every man who has gone after Ba'al-Peor, your God YHWH has destroyed him from your midst;

⁴ and you who are cleaving to your God YHWH [are] alive today—all of you.

⁵ See, I have taught you statutes and judgments, as my God YHWH has commanded me, to do so in the midst of the land to where you are going in to possess it;

⁶ and you have kept and done [them] (for it [is] your wisdom and your understanding) before the eyes of the peoples who hear all these statutes, and they have said, Surely a people wise and understanding [is] this great nation.

⁷ For which [is] the great nation that has God [so] near to it, as our God YHWH, in all we have called to Him?

⁸ And which [is] the great nation which has righteous statutes and judgments according to all this law which I am setting before you today?

⁹ Only, take heed to yourself, and watch your soul exceedingly, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they turn aside from your heart all [the] days of your life; and you have made them known to your sons and to your sons' sons.

¹⁰ [Never forget] the day when you have stood before your God YHWH in Horeb, in YHWH's saying to me, Assemble the people to Me, and I cause them to hear My words, so that they learn to fear Me all the days that they are alive on the ground, and they teach their sons;

¹¹ and you draw near and stand under the mountain, and the mountain is burning with fire to the heart of the heavens, [with] darkness, cloud, and thick darkness,

¹² and YHWH speaks to you out of the midst of the fire; you are hearing a voice of words, but you are seeing no likeness, only a voice;

¹³ and He declares His covenant to you, which He has commanded you to do, the Ten Commandments, and He writes them on two tablets of stone.

¹⁴ And YHWH has commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, for your doing them in the land to where you are passing over to possess it.

¹⁵ And you have been very watchful of your souls, for you have not seen any likeness in the day of YHWH's speaking to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire,

¹⁶ lest you do corruptly, and have made for yourselves a carved image, a likeness of any figure: a form of male or female,

¹⁷ a form of any beast which [is] in the earth, a form of any winged bird which flies in the heavens,

¹⁸ a form of any creeping thing on the ground, a form of any fish which [is] in the waters below the earth.

¹⁹ And lest you lift up your eyes to the heavens, and have seen the sun, and the moon, and the stars, all the host of the heavens, and have been drawn away, and have bowed yourself to them and served them, which your God YHWH has apportioned to all the peoples under all the heavens.

²⁰ And YHWH has taken you, and He is bringing you out from the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be to Him for a people, an inheritance, as [at] this day.

²¹ And YHWH has showed Himself angry with me because of your words, and swears to my not passing over the Jordan, and to my not going into the good land which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance;

²² for I am dying in this land; I am not passing over the Jordan, but you are passing over and have possessed this good land.

²³ Take heed to yourselves lest you forget the covenant of your God YHWH which He has made with you, and have made a carved image for yourselves, a likeness of anything [concerning] which your God YHWH has charged you;

²⁵ When you beget sons and sons' sons, and you have become old in the land, and have done corruptly, and have made a carved image, a likeness of anything, and have done evil in the eyes of YHWH to provoke Him to anger;

²⁶ I have caused the heavens and the earth to testify against you this day, that you perish utterly quickly from off the land to where you are passing over the Jordan to possess it; you do not prolong days on it, but are utterly destroyed;

²⁷ and YHWH has scattered you among the peoples, and you have been left few in number among the nations to where YHWH leads you,

²⁸ and you have served gods there, work of man's hands, wood and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

²⁹ And you have sought your God YHWH from there, and have found [Him] when you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

³⁰ In the distress of yours, when all these things have found you in the latter end of the days, and you have turned back to your God YHWH and have listened to His voice—

³¹ for your God YHWH [is] a merciful God—He does not fail you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He has sworn to them.

³² For ask now of the former days which have been before you, from the day that God created man on the earth, and from the [one] end of the heavens even to the [other] end of the heavens, whether there has been as this great thing, or [if anything] has been heard like it.

³³ Has a people heard the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, you—and live?

³⁴ Or has God tried to go in to take a nation for Himself from the midst of a nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a strong hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that your God YHWH has done to you in Egypt before your eyes?

³⁵ You—you have been shown [it], to know that He, YHWH, [is] God; there is none else besides Him.

³⁶ He has caused you to hear His voice from the heavens, to instruct you; and on earth He has showed you His great fire, and you have heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

³⁷ And because that He has loved your fathers, He also fixes on their seed after them, and brings you out in His presence, by His great power, from Egypt, ³⁸ to dispossess nations greater and stronger than you from your presence, to bring you in to give their land to you [for] an inheritance, as [at] this day.

³⁹ And you have known today, and have turned [it] back to your heart, that He, YHWH, [is] God in the heavens above and on the earth below—there is none else;

⁴⁰ and you have kept His statutes and His commands which I am commanding you today, so that it is well for you, and for your sons after you, and so that you prolong days on the ground which your God YHWH is giving to you—all the days.”

⁴¹ Then Moses separates three cities beyond the Jordan, toward the sun-rising,

⁴² for the fleeing there of the manslayer who slays his neighbor unknowingly, and he is not hating him before, and he has fled to one of these cities and he has lived:

⁴³ Bezer in the wilderness, in the land of the plain, for the Reubenite; and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadite; and Golan in Bashan for the Manassite.

⁴⁴ And this [is] the law which Moses has set before the sons of Israel;

⁴⁵ these [are] the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses has spoken to the sons of Israel in their coming out of Egypt,

⁴⁷ and they possess his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorite who [are] beyond the Jordan, [toward] the sun-rising,

⁴⁸ from Aroer, which [is] by the edge of the Brook of Arnon, even to Mount Zion, which [is] Hermon—

⁴⁹ and all the plain beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the Sea of the Plain, below the Springs of Pisgah.

¹ And Moses calls to all Israel and says to them, “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the judgments which I am speaking in your ears today, and you have learned them and have observed to do them.

² Our God YHWH made a covenant with us in Horeb;

³ YHWH has not made this covenant with our fathers, but with us, we—these here—all of us living today.

⁴ YHWH has spoken with you face to face on the mountain, out of the midst of the fire;

⁵ I am standing between YHWH and you, at that time, to declare the word of YHWH to you, for you have been afraid from the presence of the fire, and you have not gone up into the mountain; for [He] says:

⁶ I, YHWH, [am] your God who has brought you out from the land of Egypt, from a house of servants.

⁷ You have no other gods in My presence.

⁸ You do not make a carved image for yourself, any likeness which [is] in the heavens above, or which [is] in the earth beneath, or which [is] in the waters under the earth.

⁹ You do not bow yourself to them, nor serve them: for I, your God YHWH, [am] a zealous God, charging iniquity of fathers on sons, and on a third and on a fourth [generation] of those hating Me,

¹⁰ and doing kindness to thousands, of those loving Me and of those keeping My commands.

¹¹ You do not take up the Name of your God YHWH for a vain thing, for YHWH does not acquit him who takes up His Name for a vain thing.

¹² Observe the Sabbath day to sanctify it, as your God YHWH has commanded you;

13 six days you labor and have done all your work,

14 and the seventh day [is] a Sabbath to your God YHWH; you do not do any work, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your handmaid, and your ox, and your donkey, and all your livestock, and your sojourner who [is] within your gates, so that your manservant and your handmaid rest like yourself.

15 And you have remembered that you have been a servant in the land of Egypt, and your God YHWH brings you out from there by a strong hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore your God YHWH has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

16 Honor your father and your mother, as your God YHWH has commanded you, so that your days are prolonged, and so that it is well with you on the ground which your God YHWH is giving to you.

17 You do not murder.

18 You do not commit adultery.

19 You do not steal.

20 You do not answer [with] a false testimony against your neighbor.

21 You do not desire your neighbor's wife, nor do you covet your neighbor's house, his field, and his manservant, and his handmaid, his ox, and his donkey, and anything which [is] your neighbor's.

22 YHWH has spoken these words to all your assembly in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, [and] of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, [with] a great voice; and He has not added; and He writes them on two tablets of stone and gives them to me.

23 And it comes to pass, as you hear the voice out of the midst of the darkness and of the mountain burning with fire, that you come near to me, all [the] heads of your tribes and your elderly,

24 and say, Behold, our God YHWH has showed us His glory and His greatness; and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire; this day we have seen that God speaks with man—and he has lived.

25 And now, why do we die? For this great fire consumes us if we add to hear the voice of our God YHWH anymore—then we have died.

26 For who of all flesh [is] he who has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire like us, and lives?

27 Draw near and hear all that which our God YHWH says, and you, you speak to us all that which our God YHWH speaks to you, and we have listened and done it.

28 And YHWH hears the voice of your words in your speaking to me, and YHWH says to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you; they have done well [in] all that they have spoken.

29 O that their heart had been thus to them, to fear Me and to keep My commands [for] all the days, that it may be well with them and with their sons for all time!

30 Go, say to them, Return for yourselves, to your tents;

31 and you, stand here with Me, and let Me speak to you all the command, and the statutes, and the judgments which you teach them, and they have done [them] in the land which I am giving to them to possess it.

32 And you have observed to do as your God YHWH has commanded you, you do not turn aside [to] the right or left;

33 in all the way which your God YHWH has commanded you—walk, so that you live, and [it is] well with you, and you have prolonged days in the land which you possess.”

1 “And this [is] the command, the statutes and the judgments which your God YHWH has commanded to teach you to do in the land which you are passing over there to possess it,

2 so that you fear your God YHWH, to keep all His statutes and His commands which I am commanding you, you, and your son, and your son’s son, all [the] days of your life, and so that your days are prolonged.

3 And you have heard, O Israel, and observed to do [them], that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply exceedingly, as YHWH, God of your fathers, has spoken to you, [in] the land flowing with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: Our God YHWH—YHWH [is] one!

5 And you have loved your God YHWH with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 And these words which I am commanding you today have been on your heart,

7 and you have repeated them to your sons, and spoken of them in your sitting in your house, and in your walking in the way, and in your lying down, and in your rising up,

8 and have bound them for a sign on your hand, and they have been for frontlets between your eyes,

9 and you have written them on doorposts of your house and on your gates.

10 And it has been, when your God YHWH brings you into the land which He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to you great and good cities which you have not built,

11 and houses full of all good things which you have not filled, and wells dug which you have not dug, vineyards and olive-yards which you have not planted, that you have eaten and been satisfied.

12 Take heed to yourself lest you forget YHWH who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of servants.

13 You fear your God YHWH, and you serve Him, and you swear by His Name.

14 You do not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who [are] around you,

15 for your God YHWH [is] a zealous God in your midst—lest the anger of your God YHWH burns against you, and He has destroyed you from off the face of the ground.

16 You do not try your God YHWH as you tried [Him] in Massah.

17 You diligently keep the commands of your God YHWH, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you,

18 and you have done that which is right and good in the eyes of YHWH, so that it is well with you, and you have gone in and possessed the good land which YHWH has sworn to your fathers,

19 to drive away all your enemies from your presence, as YHWH has spoken.

²⁰ When your son asks you hereafter, saying, What [are] the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments which our God YHWH has commanded you?

²¹ Then you have said to your son, We have been servants of Pharaoh in Egypt, and YHWH brings us out of Egypt by a high hand;

²² and YHWH gives signs and wonders, great and severe, on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes;

²³ and He has brought us out from there, in order to bring us in, to give to us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.

²⁴ And YHWH commands us to do all these statutes, to fear our God YHWH, for good to ourselves [for] all the days, to keep us alive, as [at] this day;

²⁵ and it is righteousness for us when we observe to do all this command before our God YHWH, as He has commanded us."

¹ "When your God YHWH brings you into the land to where you are going in to possess it, and He has cast out many nations from your presence, the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations more numerous and mighty than you,

² and your God YHWH has given them before you, then you have struck them—you utterly devote them—you do not make a covenant with them, nor do you favor them.

³ And you do not join in marriage with them; you do not give your daughter to his son, and you do not take his daughter to your son,

⁴ for he turns aside your son from after Me, and they have served other gods; and the anger of YHWH has burned against you and has destroyed you quickly.

⁵ But thus you do to them: you break down their altars, and you shatter their standing pillars, and you cut down their Asherim, and you burn their carved images with fire.

⁶ For you [are] a holy people to your God YHWH; your God YHWH has fixed on you, to be to Him for a peculiar people, out of all the peoples who [are] on the face of the ground.

⁷ YHWH has delighted in you and fixes on you, not because of your being more numerous than any of the peoples, for you [are] the least of all the peoples,

⁸ but because of YHWH's loving you, and because of His keeping the oath which He has sworn to your fathers; YHWH has brought you out by a strong hand, and ransoms you from a house of servants, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

⁹ And you have known that He, your God YHWH, [is] God, the faithful God keeping the covenant and the kindness with those loving Him and with those keeping His commands, for one thousand generations,

¹⁰ and repaying to those hating Him to their face, to destroy them; He does not delay to him who is hating Him, He repays [it] to him to his face.

¹¹ And you have kept the command, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I am commanding you today to do them.

¹² And it has been, because you hear these judgments, and have kept and done them, that your God YHWH has kept the covenant and the kindness with you which He has sworn to your fathers,

¹³ and has loved you, and blessed you, and multiplied you, and has blessed the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your ground, your grain, and your new wine, and your oil, the increase of your oxen, and the wealth of your flock, on the ground which He has sworn to your fathers to give to you.

¹⁴ Blessed are you above all the peoples; there is not a barren man or a barren woman in you—nor among your livestock;

¹⁵ and YHWH has turned aside every sickness from you, and none of the evil diseases of Egypt (which you have known) does He put on you, and He has put them on all hating you.

¹⁶ And you have consumed all the peoples whom your God YHWH is giving to you; your eye has no pity on them, and you do not serve their gods, for it [is] a snare to you.

¹⁷ When you say in your heart, These nations [are] more numerous than I, how am I able to dispossess them?

¹⁸ You are not afraid of them; you surely remember that which your God YHWH has done to Pharaoh and to all of Egypt,

¹⁹ the great trials which your eyes have seen, and the signs, and the wonders, and the strong hand, and the outstretched arm, with which your God YHWH has brought you out; so does your God YHWH do to all the peoples of whose presence you are afraid.

²⁰ And your God YHWH also sends the locust among them, until the destruction of those who are left, even those who are hidden from your presence;

²¹ you are not terrified by their presence, for your God YHWH [is] in your midst, a God great and fearful.

²² And your God YHWH has cast out these nations from your presence little [by] little (you are not able to consume them quickly, lest the beast of the field multiplies against you),

²³ and your God YHWH has given them before you, and confused them [with] a great destruction until their being destroyed;

²⁴ and He has given their kings into your hand, and you have destroyed their name from under the heavens; no man stations himself in your presence until you have destroyed them.

²⁶ and you do not bring in an abomination to your house, or you have been devoted like it—you utterly detest it and you utterly abhor it; for it [is] devoted.”

¹ “All the command which I am commanding you today you observe to do, so that you live, and have multiplied, and gone in, and possessed the land which YHWH has sworn to your fathers;

² and you have remembered all the way which your God YHWH has caused you to go these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you to try you, to know that which [is] in your heart, whether you keep His commands or not.

³ And He humbles you, and causes you to hunger; and causes you to eat the manna (which you have not known, even your fathers have not known), in order to cause you to know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything proceeding [from] the mouth of YHWH.

⁴ Your raiment has not worn out from off you, and your foot has not swelled these forty years,

⁵ and you have known with your heart that as a man disciplines his son, your God YHWH is disciplining you,

⁶ and you have kept the commands of your God YHWH, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

⁷ For your God YHWH is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of waters, of fountains, and of depths coming out in valley and in mountain;

⁸ a land of wheat, and barley, and vine, and fig, and pomegranate; a land of oil olive and honey;

⁹ a land in which you eat bread without scarcity—you do not lack anything in it; a land whose stones [are] iron, and you dig bronze out of its mountains.

¹⁰ And you have eaten and been satisfied, and have blessed your God YHWH on the good land which he has given to you.

¹¹ Take heed to yourself lest you forget your God YHWH so as not to keep His commands, and His judgments, and His statutes which I am commanding you today;

¹² lest you eat and have been satisfied, and build good houses and have inhabited [them],

¹³ and your herd and your flock are multiplied, and silver and gold are multiplied to you, and all that is yours is multiplied,

¹⁴ and your heart has been high, and you have forgotten your God YHWH who is bringing you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of servants;

¹⁶ who is causing you to eat manna in the wilderness, which your fathers have not known, in order to humble you, and in order to try you, to do you good in your latter end;

¹⁷ and you have said in your heart, My power and the might of my hand have made this wealth for me.

¹⁸ And you have remembered your God YHWH, for it [is] He who is giving power to you to make wealth, in order to establish His covenant which He has sworn to your fathers, as [at] this day.

¹⁹ And it has been, if you really forget your God YHWH, and have gone after other gods, and served them, and bowed yourself to them, I have testified against you today that you utterly perish.

²⁰ As the nations whom YHWH is destroying from your presence, so you perish, because you do not listen to the voice of your God YHWH."

1 "Hear, O Israel: You are passing over the Jordan today to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the heavens,

² a people great and tall, sons of Anakim, whom you have known, and [of whom] you have heard: Who stations himself before sons of Anak?

³ And you have known today that your God YHWH [is] He who is passing over before you [as] a consuming fire; He destroys them, and He humbles them before you, and you have dispossessed them, and destroyed them quickly, as YHWH has spoken to you.

⁴ You do not speak in your heart (in your God YHWH's driving them away from before you), saying, In my righteousness YHWH has brought me in to possess this land; but in YHWH dispossessing these nations from your presence, [it is because of] their being wicked.

⁵ [It is] not in your righteousness and in the uprightness of your heart [that] you are going in to possess their land, but in YHWH dispossessing these nations from your presence, [it is because of] their being wicked, and in order to establish the word which YHWH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob;

⁶ and you have known that [it is] not in your righteousness [that] your God YHWH is giving this good land to you to possess it, for you [are] a people stiff of neck.

⁷ Remember [and] do not forget that [with] which you have made your God YHWH angry in the wilderness; from the day that you have come out of the land of Egypt until your coming to this place, you have been rebellious against YHWH;

⁸ even in Horeb you have made YHWH angry, and YHWH shows Himself angry against you—to destroy you.

⁹ In my going up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone (tablets of the covenant which YHWH has made with you), then I abide on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I have not eaten bread and I have not drunk water;

¹⁰ and YHWH gives to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them [is] according to all the words which YHWH has spoken with you on the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, YHWH has given the two tablets of stone to me—tablets of the covenant.

¹² Then YHWH says to me, Rise, go down, hurry from here, for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have done corruptly; they have quickly turned aside from the way which I have commanded them—they have made a molten thing for themselves!

¹³ And YHWH speaks to me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it [is] a people stiff of neck.

¹⁴ Desist from Me, and I destroy them, and blot out their name from under the heavens, and I make you become a nation more mighty and numerous than it.

¹⁵ And I turn and come down from the mountain, and the mountain is burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant [are] on my two hands,

¹⁶ and I see, and behold, you have sinned against your God YHWH; you have made a molten calf for yourselves; you have quickly turned aside from the way which YHWH has commanded you.

¹⁷ And I lay hold on the two tablets, and cast them out of my two hands, and break them before your eyes,

¹⁸ and I throw myself before YHWH, as at first, [for] forty days and forty nights; I have not eaten bread and I have not drunk water, because of all your sins which you have sinned by doing evil in the eyes of YHWH, to make Him angry.

¹⁹ For I have been afraid because of the anger and the fury with which YHWH has been angry against you, to destroy you; and YHWH also listens to me at this time.

²⁰ And YHWH has showed Himself very angry with Aaron, to destroy him, and I also pray for Aaron at that time.

²¹ And I have taken your sin, the calf which you have made, and I burn it with fire, and beat it, grinding well until it [is] small as dust, and I cast its dust into the brook which is going down out of the mountain.

²² And in Taberah, and in Massah, and in Kibroth-Hattaavah, you have been making YHWH angry;

²³ also in YHWH's sending you from Kadesh-Barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given to you; then you provoke the mouth of your God YHWH, and have not given credence to Him, nor listened to His voice.

²⁴ You have been rebellious against YHWH from the day of my knowing you.

²⁵ And I throw myself before YHWH—the forty days and the forty nights when I had thrown myself—because YHWH has commanded to destroy you;

²⁶ and I pray to YHWH, and say, Lord YHWH, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have ransomed in Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a strong hand;

²⁷ be mindful of Your servants, of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob; do not turn to the stiffness of this people, and to its wickedness, and to its sin,

²⁸ lest the land from which You have brought us out says, Because of YHWH's want of ability to bring them into the land of which He has spoken to them, and because of His hating them, He brought them out to put them to death in the wilderness.

²⁹ And they [are] Your people and Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm!"

¹ "At that time YHWH has said to me, Hew two tablets of stone for yourself like the first, and come up to Me into the mountain, and you have made an ark of wood for yourself,

² and I write on the tablets the words which were on the first tablets, which you have broken, and you have placed them in the Ark.

³ And I make an ark of shittim wood, and hew two tablets of stone like the first, and go up to the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

⁴ And He writes on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which YHWH has spoken to you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly, and YHWH gives them to me,

⁵ and I turn and come down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the Ark which I had made, and they are there, as YHWH commanded me.

⁶ And the sons of Israel have journeyed from Beeroth of the sons of Jaakan to Mosera; Aaron died there, and he is buried there, and his son Eleazar acts as priest in his stead.

⁷ From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jobathah, a land of brooks of water.

⁸ At that time YHWH has separated the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, to stand before YHWH, to serve Him, and to bless in His Name to this day;

⁹ therefore there has not been a portion and inheritance for Levi with his brothers; YHWH Himself [is] his inheritance, as your God YHWH has spoken to him.

¹⁰ And I have stood in the mountain, as the former days, [for] forty days and forty nights, and YHWH also listens to me at that time; YHWH has not willed to destroy you.

¹¹ And YHWH says to me, Rise, go to journey before the people, and they go in and possess the land which I have sworn to their fathers to give to them.

¹² And now, O Israel, what is your God YHWH asking from you, except to fear your God YHWH, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve your God YHWH with all your heart and with all your soul,

¹³ to keep the commands of YHWH, and His statutes which I am commanding you today, for good for you?

¹⁴ Behold, the heavens, even the heavens of the heavens, [belong] to your God YHWH, [as does] the earth and all that [is] in it.

¹⁵ Only, YHWH has delighted in your fathers, to love them, and He fixes on their seed after them—on you, out of all the peoples, as [at] this day.

¹⁶ And you have circumcised the foreskin of your heart, and you do not harden your neck anymore.

¹⁷ For He, your God YHWH, [is] God of the gods and Lord of the lords—the great, the mighty, and the fearful God, who does not accept by appearances, nor takes a bribe;

¹⁸ He is doing the judgment of fatherless and widow, and loving the sojourner, to give bread and raiment to him.

¹⁹ And you have loved the sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

²⁰ You fear your God YHWH, you serve Him, and you cleave to Him, and you swear by His Name.

²¹ He [is] your praise, and He [is] your God, who has done these great and fearful [things] with you which your eyes have seen.

²² Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons, and now your God YHWH has made you as [the] stars of the heavens for multitude.”

¹ “And you have loved your God YHWH, and kept His charge, and His statutes, and His judgments, and His commands, [for] all the days;

² and you have known today—for it is not your sons who have not known and who have not seen the discipline of your God YHWH, His greatness, His strong hand, and His outstretched arm;

³ and His signs and His doings which He has done in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to all his land;

⁴ and that which He has done to the force of Egypt, to its horses, and to its chariot, when He has caused the waters of the Red Sea to flow against their faces in their pursuing after them, and YHWH destroys them, to this day;

⁵ and that which He has done to you in the wilderness until your coming to this place;

⁶ and that which He has done to Dathan and to Abiram, sons of Eliab, sons of Reuben, when the earth has opened her mouth and swallows them, and their houses, and their tents, and all that lives which is at their feet, in the midst of all Israel—

⁷ but [it is] your eyes which are seeing all the great work of YHWH which He has done.

⁸ And you have kept all the command which I am commanding you today, so that you are strong, and have gone in, and possessed the land to where you are passing over to possess it,

⁹ and so that you prolong days on the ground which YHWH has sworn to your fathers to give to them and to their seed—a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁰ For the land to where you are going in to possess it is not as the land of Egypt from where you have come out, where you sow your seed and have watered with your foot, as a garden of the green herb;

¹¹ but the land to where you are passing over to possess it [is] a land of hills and valleys—it drinks water of the rain of the heavens—

¹² a land which your God YHWH is searching; the eyes of your God YHWH [are] continually on it, from the beginning of the year even to the latter end of the year.

¹³ And it has been, if you listen diligently to My commands which I am commanding you today, to love your God YHWH, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

¹⁴ then I have given the rain of your land in its season—autumn rain and spring rain—and you have gathered your grain, and your new wine, and your oil,

¹⁵ and I have given herbs in your field for your livestock, and you have eaten and been satisfied.

¹⁶ Take heed to yourselves lest your heart be enticed, and you have turned aside, and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them,

¹⁷ and the anger of YHWH has burned against you, and He has restrained the heavens and there is no rain, and the ground does not give her increase, and you have perished quickly from off the good land which YHWH is giving to you.

¹⁸ And you have placed these words of mine on your heart and on your soul, and have bound them for a sign on your hand, and they have been for frontlets between your eyes;

¹⁹ and you have taught them to your sons by speaking of them in your sitting in your house, and in your going in the way, and in your lying down, and in your rising up,

²⁰ and have written them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,

²¹ so that your days are multiplied, and the days of your sons, on the ground which YHWH has sworn to your fathers to give to them, as the days of the heavens above the earth.

²² For if you diligently keep all this command which I am commanding you to do—to love your God YHWH, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave to Him—

²³ then YHWH has dispossessed all these nations from before you, and you have possessed nations greater and mightier than you.

²⁴ Every place on which the sole of your foot treads is yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the Euphrates River, even to the Western Sea, is your border.

²⁵ No man stations himself in your presence; your God YHWH puts your dread and your fear on the face of all the land on which you tread, as He has spoken to you.

²⁶ See, today I am setting before you a blessing and a reviling:

²⁷ the blessing when you listen to the commands of your God YHWH which I am commanding you today;

²⁸ and the reviling if you do not listen to the commands of your God YHWH, and have turned aside from the way which I am commanding you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.

³¹ For you are passing over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which your God YHWH is giving to you; and you have possessed it, and dwelt in it,

³² and observed to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am setting before you today.”

² You utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you are dispossessing served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the heights, and under every green tree;

⁴ You do not do so to your God YHWH;

⁵ rather—that you seek after the place which your God YHWH chooses out of all your tribes to put His Name there, for His Dwelling Place, and you have entered there,

⁶ and have brought in there your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the raised-offering of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will offerings, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock;

⁷ and you have eaten there before your God YHWH, and have rejoiced in every putting forth of your hand, you and your households, with which your God YHWH has blessed you.

⁸ You do not do according to all that we are doing here today—each [doing] anything that is right in his own eyes—

⁹ for until now you have not come to the rest and to the inheritance which your God YHWH is giving to you.

¹⁰ When you have passed over the Jordan, and have dwelt in the land which your God YHWH is causing you to inherit, and He has given rest to you from all your surrounding enemies, and you have dwelt confidently,

¹¹ then it has been, the place on which your God YHWH fixes to cause His Name to dwell there, there you bring in all that which I am commanding you: your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the raised-offering of your hand, and all the choice of your vows which you vow to YHWH.

¹² And you have rejoiced before your God YHWH, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your handmaids, and the Levite who [is] within your gates, for he has no part and inheritance with you.

¹³ Take heed to yourself lest you cause your burnt-offerings to ascend in any place which you see;

¹⁴ rather—that in the place which YHWH chooses in one of your tribes, there you cause your burnt-offerings to ascend, and there you do all that which I am commanding you.

¹⁵ Nevertheless, you slaughter anything of the desire of your soul, and have eaten [its] flesh according to the blessing of your God YHWH which He has given to you in all your gates; the unclean and the clean eat it, as [if] the roe and as [if] the deer.

¹⁶ Only, you do not eat the blood—you pour it on the earth as water;

¹⁷ you are not able to eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, and of your new wine, and your oil, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock, and any of your vows which you vow, and your free-will offerings, and a raised-offering of your hand;

¹⁸ but you eat it before your God YHWH in the place which your God YHWH fixes on, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your handmaid, and the Levite who [is] within your gates, and you have rejoiced before your God YHWH in every putting forth of your hand;

¹⁹ take heed to yourself lest you forsake the Levite [for] all your days on your ground.

²⁰ When your God YHWH enlarges your border, as He has spoken to you, and you have said, Let me eat flesh—for your soul desires to eat flesh—you eat flesh of all the desire of your soul.

²¹ When the place is far from you [in] which your God YHWH chooses to put His Name there, then you have sacrificed from your herd and from your flock which YHWH has given to you, as I have commanded you, and have eaten within your gates, of all the desire of your soul;

²² only, as the roe and the deer is eaten, so do you eat it; the unclean and the clean alike eat it.

²³ Only, be sure not to eat the blood, for the blood [is] the life, and you do not eat the life with the flesh;

²⁴ you do not eat it—you pour it on the earth as water;

²⁵ you do not eat it, in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you when you do that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH.

²⁶ Only, your holy things which you have, and your vows, you take up, and have gone to the place which YHWH chooses,

²⁷ and you have made your burnt-offerings—the flesh and the blood—on the altar of your God YHWH; and the blood of your sacrifices is poured out by the altar of your God YHWH, and you eat the flesh.

²⁸ Observe, and you have obeyed all these words which I am commanding you, in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you for all time, when you do that which [is] good and right in the eyes of your God YHWH.

²⁹ When your God YHWH cuts off the nations—to where you are going in to possess them—from your presence, and you have possessed them, and have dwelt in their land—

³² The whole thing which I am commanding you, you observe to do it; you do not add to it, nor diminish from it.”

¹ “When a prophet or a dreamer of a dream arises in your midst, and he has given a sign or wonder to you,

² and the sign and the wonder has come to pass, which he has spoken of to you, saying, Let us go after other gods (which you have not known) and serve them,

³ you do not listen to the words of that prophet or to that dreamer of the dream, for your God YHWH is trying you to know whether you are loving your God YHWH with all your heart and with all your soul;

⁴ you walk after your God YHWH, and you fear Him, and you keep His commands, and you listen to His voice, and you serve Him, and you cleave to Him.

⁵ And that prophet or that dreamer of the dream is put to death, for he has spoken apostasy against your God YHWH (who is bringing you out of the land of Egypt, and has ransomed you out of a house of servants), to drive you out of the way in which your God YHWH has commanded you to walk, and you have put away evil from your midst.

⁶ When your brother, son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who [is] as your own soul, moves you in secret, saying, Let us go and serve other gods (which you have not known, you and your fathers,

⁷ of the gods of the peoples who [are] around you, who are near to you, or who are far off from you, from the end of the earth even to the [other] end of the earth),

⁸ you do not consent to him, nor listen to him, nor does your eye have pity on him, nor do you spare, nor do you cover him over.

⁹ But you surely kill him; your hand is on him in the first place to put him to death, and the hand of all the people last;

¹⁰ and you have stoned him with stones and he has died, for he has sought to drive you away from your God YHWH, who is bringing you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of servants;

¹¹ and all Israel hears and fears, and does not add to do like this evil thing in your midst.

¹² When you hear [someone] in one of your cities, which your God YHWH is giving to you to dwell there, saying,

¹³ Men, sons of worthlessness, have gone out of your midst, and they force away the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods (which you have not known),

¹⁴ then you have inquired, and searched, and asked diligently, and behold, [if] truth, the thing is established; this abomination has been done in your midst—

¹⁶ And you gather all its spoil into the midst of its broad place, and have completely burned the city and all its spoil with fire for your God YHWH, and it has been a continuous heap, it is not built anymore;

¹⁷ and nothing from any of that [which is] devoted stays in your hand, so that YHWH turns back from the fierceness of His anger, and has given mercies to you, and loved you, and multiplied you, as He has sworn to your fathers,

¹⁸ because you listen to the voice of your God YHWH, to keep all his commands which I am commanding you today, to do that which [is] right in the eyes of your God YHWH.”

¹ “You [are] sons of your God YHWH; you do not cut yourselves, nor make baldness between your eyes for the dead;

² for you [are] a holy people to your God YHWH, and YHWH has fixed on you to be to Him for a people, a peculiar treasure, out of all the peoples who [are] on the face of the ground.

³ You do not eat any abomination;

⁴ this [is] the beast which you eat: ox, lamb of the sheep, or kid of the goats,

⁵ deer, and roe, and fallow deer, and wild goat, and ibex, and antelope, and zemer;

⁶ and every beast dividing the hoof, and cleaving the cleft into two hooves, bringing up the cud, among the beasts—you eat it.

⁷ Only, this you do not eat, of those bringing up the cud, and of those dividing the cloven hoof: the camel, and the hare, and the hyrax, for they are bringing up the cud, but the hoof has not divided—they [are] unclean to you;

⁸ and the sow, for it is dividing the hoof, and not [bringing] up the cud—it [is] unclean to you; you do not eat of their flesh, and you do not come against their carcass.

⁹ This you eat of all which [are] in the waters: anything that has fins and scales you eat;

¹⁰ and anything which does not have fins and scales you do not eat—it [is] unclean to you.

11 Any clean bird you eat;
 12 and these [are] they of which you do not eat: the eagle, and the bearded vulture, and the osprey,
 13 and the kite, and the falcon, and the vulture after its kind,
 14 and every raven after its kind;
 15 and the ostrich, and the nightjar [[or male ostrich]], and the seagull, and the hawk after its kind;
 16 the little owl, and the great owl, and the waterhen,
 17 and the pelican, and the Egyptian vulture, and the cormorant,
 18 and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.
 19 And every teeming thing which is flying—it [is] unclean to you; they are not eaten;
 20 any clean bird you eat.
 21 You do not eat of any carcass; you give it to the sojourner who [is] within your gates, and he has eaten it; or sell [it] to a stranger; for you [are] a holy people to your God YHWH. You do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

22 You certainly tithe all the increase of your seed which the field is bringing forth year by year;

23 and you have eaten before your God YHWH, in the place where He chooses to cause His Name to dwell, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstlings of your herd, and of your flock, so that you learn to fear your God YHWH [for] all the days.

24 And when the way is too much for you, that you are not able to carry it—when the place is too far off from you which your God YHWH chooses to put His Name there, when your God YHWH blesses you—

25 then you have given [it] in money, and have bound up the money in your hand, and gone to the place on which your God YHWH fixes;

26 and you have given the money for anything which your soul desires, for oxen, and for sheep, and for wine, and for strong drink, and for anything which your soul asks for, and you have eaten before your God YHWH there, and you have rejoiced, you and your house.

27 As for the Levite who [is] within your gates, you do not forsake him, for he has no portion and inheritance with you.

28 At the end of three years you bring out all the tithe of your increase in that year, and have placed [it] within your gates;

29 and the Levite has come in—for he has no part and inheritance with you—and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who [are] within your gates, and they have eaten, and been satisfied, so that your God YHWH blesses you in all the work of your hand which you do.”

1 “At the end of seven years you make a release,

2 and this [is] the matter of the release: every owner of a loan [is] to release his hand which he lifts up against his neighbor; he does not exact of his neighbor and of his brother, but has proclaimed a release to YHWH;

3 of the stranger you may exact, but that which is yours with your brother your hand releases,

⁴ except there is an end [when] no poor [are] with you; for YHWH greatly blesses you in the land which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance to possess it,

⁵ only if you listen diligently to the voice of your God YHWH, to observe to do all this command which I am commanding you today.

⁶ For your God YHWH has blessed you as He has spoken to you; and you have lent [to] many nations, but you have not borrowed; and you have ruled over many nations, but they do not rule over you.

⁸ for you certainly open your hand to him, and certainly lend him sufficiency for his lack which he lacks.

⁹ Take heed to yourself lest there be a worthless word in your heart, saying, The seventh year [is] near, the year of release; and your eye is evil against your needy brother, and you do not give to him, and he has called to YHWH concerning you, and it has been sin in you;

¹⁰ you certainly give to him, and your heart is not sad in your giving to him, for because of this thing your God YHWH blesses you in all your works and in every putting forth of your hand;

¹¹ because the poor does not cease out of the land, therefore I am commanding you, saying, You certainly open your hand to your brother, to your poor and to your needy one in your land.

¹² When your brother is sold to you, a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, and he has served you [for] six years, then in the seventh year you send him away free from you.

¹³ And when you send him away free from you, you do not send him away empty;

¹⁴ you certainly adorn him from your flock, and from your threshing-floor, and from your wine-vat; you give to him [from] that which your God YHWH has blessed you [with],

¹⁵ and you have remembered that you have been a servant in the land of Egypt, and your God YHWH ransoms you; therefore I am commanding you this thing today.

¹⁶ And it has been, when he says to you, I do not go out from you, because he has loved you and your house, because [it is] good for him with you,

¹⁷ then you have taken the awl, and have put [it] through his ear, and through the door, and he has been a perpetual servant to you; and you also do so to your handmaid.

¹⁸ It is not hard in your eyes in your sending him away free from you; for [his worth has been] double the hire of a hired worker [when] he has served you six years; and your God YHWH has blessed you in all that you do.

²⁰ you eat it before your God YHWH year by year, in the place which YHWH chooses, you and your house.

²¹ And when there is a blemish in it, [or it is] lame or blind, [or has] any evil blemish, you do not sacrifice it to your God YHWH;

²² you eat it within your gates, the unclean and the clean alike, as the roe and as the deer.

²³ Only, you do not eat its blood—you pour it on the earth as water.”

¹ “Observe the month of Abib, and you have made a Passover to your God YHWH, for in the month of Abib your God YHWH has brought you out of Egypt by night;

² and you have sacrificed a Passover to your God YHWH, of the flock and of the herd, in the place which YHWH chooses to cause His Name to dwell there.

³ You do not eat any fermented thing with it; [for] seven days you eat unleavened things with it, bread of affliction (for you have come out of the land of Egypt in haste), so that you remember the day of your coming out of the land of Egypt all [the] days of your life;

⁵ You are not able to sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which your God YHWH is giving to you,

⁷ and you have cooked and eaten in the place on which your God YHWH fixes, and have turned in the morning and gone to your tents;

⁸ [for] six days you eat unleavened things, and on the seventh day [is] a restraint to your God YHWH; you do no work.

⁹ You number seven weeks for yourself; you begin to number seven weeks from the beginning of the sickle among the standing grain,

¹⁰ and you have observed the Celebration of Weeks to your God YHWH, a tribute of a free-will offering of your hand, which you give as your God YHWH blesses you.

¹¹ And you have rejoiced before your God YHWH, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your handmaid, and the Levite who [is] within your gates, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who [are] in your midst, in the place which your God YHWH chooses to cause His Name to dwell there,

¹² and you have remembered that you have been a servant in Egypt, and have observed and done these statutes.

¹³ You observe the Celebration of Shelters for yourself [for] seven days, in your ingathering of your threshing-floor and of your wine-vat;

¹⁴ and you have rejoiced in your celebration, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your handmaid, and the Levite, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who [are] within your gates.

¹⁵ [For] seven days you celebrate before your God YHWH in the place which YHWH chooses, for your God YHWH blesses you in all your increase and in every work of your hands, and you have been only rejoicing.

¹⁶ Three times in a year all of your males appear before your God YHWH in the place which He chooses: in the Celebration of Unleavened Things, and in the Celebration of Weeks, and in the Celebration of Shelters; and they do not appear before YHWH empty;

¹⁷ each [gives] according to the gift of his hand, according to the blessing of your God YHWH, which He has given to you.

¹⁸ You set for yourself judges and authorities within all your gates which your God YHWH is giving to you, for your tribes; and they have judged the people [with] a righteous judgment.

¹⁹ You do not turn aside judgment; you do not discern faces, nor take a bribe, for the bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

²⁰ Righteousness—you pursue righteousness, so that you live and have possessed the land which your God YHWH is giving to you.

²¹ You do not plant an Asherah of any trees for yourself near the altar of your God YHWH, which you make for yourself,

²² and you do not raise up any standing image for yourself which your God YHWH is hating.”

¹ “You do not sacrifice to your God YHWH ox or sheep in which there is a blemish—any bad thing; for it [is] an abomination [to] your God YHWH.

² When there is found in your midst, in one of your cities which your God YHWH is giving to you, a man or a woman who does evil in the eyes of your God YHWH by transgressing His covenant,

³ and he goes and serves other gods, and bows himself to them, and to the sun, or to the moon, or to any of the host of the heavens, which I have not commanded,

⁴ and it has been declared to you, and you have heard, and have searched diligently, and behold, [if] truth, the thing is established; this abomination has been done in Israel—

⁵ then you have brought out that man or that woman who has done this evil thing, to your gates—the man or the woman—and you have stoned them with stones, and they have died.

⁶ By the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses is he who is being put to death put to death; he is not put to death by the mouth of one witness;

⁷ the hand of the witnesses is on him in the first place to put him to death, and the hand of all the people last; and you have put away evil out of your midst.

⁸ When anything is too hard for you for judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke—matters of strife within your gates—then you have risen and gone up to the place on which your God YHWH fixes,

⁹ and have come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge who is in those days, and have inquired, and they have declared the word of judgment to you,

¹⁰ and you have done according to the tenor of the word which they declare to you ([they] of that place which YHWH chooses); and you have observed to do according to all that they direct you.

¹² And the man who acts with presumption, so as not to listen to the priest (who is standing to serve your God YHWH there), or to the judge, even that man has died, and you have put away evil from Israel,

¹³ and all the people hear and fear, and do not presume anymore.

¹⁴ When you come into the land which your God YHWH is giving to you, and have possessed it, and dwelt in it, and you have said, Let me set a king over me like all the nations which [are] around me—

¹⁵ you certainly set a king over you on whom YHWH fixes; you set a king over you from the midst of your brothers; you are not able to set a stranger over you, who is not your brother.

¹⁶ Only, he does not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, so as to multiply horses, seeing YHWH has said to you, You do not add to return in this way anymore.

¹⁷ And he does not multiply wives for himself, and his heart does not turn aside, and he does not exceedingly multiply silver and gold for himself.

¹⁸ And it has been, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he has written a copy of this law for himself, on a scroll, from [that] before the priests, the Levites,

¹⁹ and it has been with him, and he has read in it all [the] days of his life, so that he learns to fear his God YHWH, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes—to do them,

²⁰ so that his heart is not high above his brothers, and so as not to turn aside from the command [to] the right or left, so that he prolongs days over his kingdom, he and his sons in the midst of Israel.”

¹ “There is not for the priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—a portion and inheritance with Israel; they eat fire-offerings of YHWH, even His inheritance,

² and he has no inheritance in the midst of his brothers; YHWH Himself [is] his inheritance, as He has spoken to him.

³ And this is the priest’s right from the people, from those sacrificing a sacrifice, whether ox or sheep, he has even given to the priest the leg, and the two cheeks, and the stomach;

⁴ you give to him the first of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your flock;

⁵ for your God YHWH has fixed on him, out of all your tribes, to stand to serve in the Name of YHWH—him and his sons continually.

⁶ And when the Levite comes from one of your cities, out of all Israel where he has sojourned, and has come with all the desire of his soul to the place which YHWH chooses,

⁷ then he has ministered in the Name of his God YHWH like all his brothers, the Levites, who are standing there before YHWH.

⁸ They eat portion like portion, apart from his sold things from the fathers.

⁹ When you are coming into the land which your God YHWH is giving to you, you do not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations.

¹⁰ There is not found in you one causing his son and his daughter to pass over into fire, a user of divinations, an observer of clouds, and an enchanter, and a sorcerer,

¹¹ and a charmer, and one inquiring from a familiar spirit, and a wizard, and one seeking to the dead.

¹² For everyone doing these [is] an abomination [to] YHWH, and because of these abominations your God YHWH is dispossessing them from your presence.

¹³ You must be perfect with your God YHWH,

¹⁴ for these nations whom you are possessing listen to observers of clouds and to diviners; but you—your God YHWH has not permitted you so.

¹⁵ Your God YHWH raises up for you a Prophet like me out of your midst, out of your brothers—you must listen to Him,

¹⁶ according to all that you asked from your God YHWH in Horeb, in the day of the assembly, saying, Do not let me add to hear the voice of my God YHWH, and do not let me see this great fire anymore, and I do not die;

¹⁷ and YHWH says to me, They have done well [in] what they have spoken;

¹⁸ I raise up for them a Prophet like you out of the midst of their brothers, and I have given My words in His mouth, and He has spoken to them all that which I command Him;

¹⁹ and it has been [that] the man who does not listen to My words which He speaks in My Name, I require [it] of him.

²⁰ Only, the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, and who speaks in the name of other gods, indeed, that prophet has died.

²² That which the prophet speaks in the Name of YHWH, and the thing is not, and does not come—it [is] the word which YHWH has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it in presumption; you are not afraid of him.”

² you separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which your God YHWH is giving to you to possess it.

³ You prepare the way for yourself, and have divided into three parts the border of your land which your God YHWH causes you to inherit, and it has been for the fleeing there of every manslayer.

⁴ And this [is] the matter of the manslayer who flees there, and has lived: he who strikes his neighbor unknowingly, and is not hating him before—

⁵ even he who comes into a forest with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand has driven with an axe to cut the tree, and the iron has slipped from the wood, and has met his neighbor, and he has died—he flees to one of these cities, and has lived,

⁶ lest the redeemer of blood pursue after the manslayer when his heart is hot and has overtaken him, because the way is great, and has struck his life, and he has no sentence of death, for he is not hating him before;

⁷ therefore I am commanding you, saying, You separate three cities for yourself.

⁸ And if your God YHWH enlarges your border, as He has sworn to your fathers, and has given to you all the land which He has spoken to give to your fathers—

⁹ when you keep all this command to do it, which I am commanding you today, to love your God YHWH and to walk in His ways [for] all the days—then you have added three more cities for yourself to these three;

¹⁰ and [do this] lest innocent blood is shed in the midst of your land which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance, and there has been blood on you.

¹¹ And when a man is hating his neighbor, and has lain in wait for him, and risen against him, and struck his life, and he has died, then he has fled to one of these cities,

¹² and [the] elderly of his city have sent and taken him from there, and given him into the hand of the redeemer of blood, and he has died;

¹³ your eye has no pity on him, and you have put away the innocent blood from Israel, and it is well with you.

¹⁴ You do not remove a border of your neighbor, which they of former times have made, in your inheritance, which you inherit in the land which your God YHWH is giving to you to possess it.

¹⁶ When a violent witness rises against a man to testify against him apostasy,

¹⁷ then both of the men who have the strife have stood before YHWH, before the priests and the judges who are in those days,

¹⁸ and the judges have searched diligently, and behold, the witness [is] a false witness who has testified a falsehood against his brother,

¹⁹ then you have done to him as he devised to do to his brother, and you have put away evil out of your midst,

²⁰ and those who are left hear and fear, and do not add to do according to this evil thing in your midst anymore.

²¹ And your eye does not pity—life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.”

² and it has been, in your drawing near to the battle, that the priest has come near, and spoken to the people,

³ and said to them, Hear, O Israel: You are drawing near today to battle against your enemies, do not let your hearts be tender, do not fear, nor make haste, nor be terrified at their presence,

⁴ for your God YHWH [is] He who is going with you, to fight for you with your enemies—to save you.

⁵ And the authorities have spoken to the people, saying, Who [is] the man that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in battle and another man dedicate it.

⁶ And who [is] the man that has planted a vineyard and has not made it common? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in battle, and another man make it common.

⁷ And who [is] the man that has betrothed a woman and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in battle, and another man take her.

⁸ And the authorities have added to speak to the people and said, Who [is] the man that is afraid and tender of heart? Let him go and return to his house, and the heart of his brothers does not melt like his heart.

⁹ And it has come to pass, as the authorities finish to speak to the people, that they have appointed princes of the hosts at the head of the people.

¹⁰ When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then you have called to it for peace,

¹¹ and it has been, if it answers you [with] peace, and has opened to you, then it has come to pass, all the people who are found in it are for tributaries to you, and have served you.

¹² And if it does not make peace with you, and has made war with you, then you have laid siege against it,

¹³ and your God YHWH has given it into your hand, and you have struck every male of it by the mouth of the sword.

¹⁴ Only, the women, and the infants, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you seize for yourself, and you have eaten the spoil of your enemies which your God YHWH has given to you.

¹⁵ So you do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

¹⁶ Only, of the cities of these peoples which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance, you do not keep alive any [that are] breathing;

¹⁷ for you certainly devote the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, as your God YHWH has commanded you,

¹⁸ so that they do not teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you have sinned against your God YHWH.

²⁰ Only, the tree of which you know that it [is] not a fruit-tree, you destroy it, and have cut [it] down, and have built a bulwark against the city which is making war with you until you have subdued it."

¹ "When one is found slain, fallen in a field on the ground which your God YHWH is giving to you to possess it, [and] it is not known who has struck him,

² then your elderly and yours [of those] judging have gone out and measured to the cities which [are] around the slain one,

³ and it has been, the city which [is] near to the slain one, even [the] elderly of that city have taken a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked with, which has not drawn in a yoke,

4 and [the] elderly of that city have brought down the heifer to a hard valley, which is not tilled nor sown, and have beheaded the heifer there in the valley.

5 And the priests, sons of Levi, have come near—for your God YHWH has fixed on them to serve Him and to bless in the Name of YHWH, and by their mouth is every strife and every stroke—

6 and all [the] elderly of that city, who are near to the slain one, wash their hands over the heifer which is beheaded in the valley,

7 and they have answered and said, Our hands have not shed this blood, and our eyes have not seen—

8 receive atonement for Your people Israel, whom You have ransomed, O YHWH, and do not permit innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel; and the blood has been pardoned to them,

9 and you put away the innocent blood out of your midst, for you do that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH.

10 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and your God YHWH has given them into your hand, and you have taken captive its captivity,

11 and have seen a woman of beautiful form in the captivity, and have delighted in her, and have taken [her] to yourself for a wife,

12 then you have brought her into the midst of your household, and she has shaved her head, and prepared her nails,

13 and turned aside the raiment of her captivity from off her, and has dwelt in your house, and lamented her father and her mother [for] a month of days, and afterward you go in to her and have married her, and she has been to you for a wife.

14 And it has been, if you have not delighted in her, that you have sent her away at her desire, and surely you do not sell her for money; you do not tyrannize over her, because that you have humbled her.

15 When a man has two wives, one loved and the other hated, and they have borne sons to him (the loved one and the hated one), and the firstborn son has been to the hated one,

16 then it has been, in the day of his causing his sons to inherit that which he has, he is not able to declare firstborn the son of the loved one, in the face of the son of the hated one—the firstborn.

17 But the firstborn, son of the hated one, he acknowledges, to give to him a double portion of all that is found with him, for he [is] the beginning of his strength; to him [is] the right of the firstborn.

18 When a man has a son apostatizing and being rebellious—he is not listening to the voice of his father and to the voice of his mother, and they have disciplined him, and he does not listen to them—

19 then his father and his mother have laid hold on him, and they have brought him out to [the] elderly of his city, and to the gate of his place,

20 and have said to [the] elderly of his city, Our son—this one—is apostatizing and being rebellious; he is not listening to our voice—a glutton and drunkard.

21 Then all the men of his city have stoned him with stones and he has died, and you have put away the evil out of your midst, and all Israel hears and fears.

22 And when there is a sin in a man [with] a judgment of death, and he has been put to death, and you have hanged him on a tree,

²³ his corpse does not remain on the tree, for you certainly bury him in the day—for he who is hanged [becomes] a curse of God—and you do not defile your ground which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance.”

¹ “You do not see the ox of your brother or his sheep driven away, and have hidden yourself from them, you certainly turn them back to your brother;

² and if your brother [is] not near you, and you have not known him, then you have removed it to the midst of your house, and it has been with you until your brother seeks it, and you have given it back to him;

³ and so you do to his donkey, and so you do to his garment, and so you do to any lost thing of your brother’s, which is lost by him, and you have found it; you are not able to hide yourself.

⁴ You do not see the donkey of your brother, or his ox, falling in the way, and have hid yourself from them; you certainly raise [them] up for him.

⁵ Anything of a man is not on a woman, nor does a man put on the garment of a woman, for anyone doing these [is] an abomination [to] your God YHWH.

⁶ When a bird’s nest comes before you in the way, in any tree, or on the earth, [with] brood or eggs, and the mother is sitting on the brood or on the eggs, you do not take the mother with the young ones;

⁷ you certainly send the mother away, and take the young ones for yourself, so that it is well with you and you have prolonged days.

⁸ When you build a new house, then you have made a parapet for your roof, and you do not put blood on your house when one falls from it.

⁹ You do not sow your vineyard [with] two kinds [of seed], lest the fullness of the seed which you sow and the increase of the vineyard be separated.

¹⁰ You do not plow with an ox and with a donkey together.

¹¹ You do not put on mixed material, wool and linens together.

¹² You make fringes for yourself on the four skirts of your covering with which you cover [yourself].

¹³ When a man takes a wife, and has gone in to her, and hated her,

¹⁴ and laid evil deeds of words against her, and brought out an evil name against her, and said, I have taken this woman, and I draw near to her, and I have not found proofs of virginity in her;

¹⁵ then the father of the girl, and her mother, have taken and brought out the girl’s proofs of virginity to [the] elderly of the city in the gate,

¹⁶ and the father of the girl has said to the elderly, I have given my daughter to this man for a wife, and he hates her;

¹⁷ and behold, he has laid evil deeds of words, saying, I have not found proofs of virginity for your daughter—and these [are] the proofs of virginity of my daughter! And they have spread out the garment before [the] elderly of the city.

¹⁸ And [the] elderly of that city have taken the man, and discipline him,

¹⁹ and fined him one hundred pieces of silver, and given [them] to the father of the girl, because he has brought out an evil name on a virgin of Israel; and she is to him for a wife—he is not able to send her away [for] all his days.

²⁰ And if this thing has been truth—proofs of virginity have not been found for the girl—

²¹ then they have brought out the girl to the opening of her father's house, and the men of her city have stoned her with stones and she has died, for she has done folly in Israel, to go whoring [in] her father's house; and you have put away evil out of your midst.

²² When a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them have died—the man who is lying with the woman, and the woman; and you have put away evil out of Israel.

²³ When there is a girl, a virgin, betrothed to a man, and a man has found her in a city and lain with her,

²⁵ And if the man finds the girl who is betrothed in a field, and the man has laid hold on her, and lain with her, then the man who has lain with her has died alone;

²⁶ and you do not do anything to the girl—the girl has no deadly sin; for as a man rises against his neighbor and has murdered him, [taking] a life, so [is] this thing;

²⁷ for he found her in a field, [and when] she has cried—the girl who is betrothed—then she has no savior.

²⁸ When a man finds a girl, a virgin who is not betrothed, and has caught her, and lain with her, and they have been found,

³⁰ A man does not take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's skirt."

¹ "No one wounded, bruised, or cut in the genitals enters into the assembly of YHWH;

² a bastard does not enter into the assembly of YHWH; even a tenth generation of him does not enter into the assembly of YHWH.

³ An Ammonite and a Moabite do not enter into the assembly of YHWH; even a tenth generation of them do not enter into the assembly of YHWH—for all time,

⁴ because that they have not come before you with bread and with water in the way, in your coming out from Egypt, and because he has hired against you Balaam son of Beor, of Pethor of Aram-Naharaim, to revile you;

⁵ and your God YHWH has not been willing to listen to Balaam, and your God YHWH turns the reviling to a blessing for you, because your God YHWH has loved you;

⁶ you do not seek their peace and their good all your days—for all time.

⁷ You do not detest an Edomite, for he [is] your brother; you do not detest an Egyptian, for you have been a sojourner in his land;

⁸ sons who are begotten of them, a third generation of them, enter into the assembly of YHWH.

⁹ When a camp goes out against your enemies, then you have kept from every evil thing.

¹⁰ When there is a man who is not clean in you, from an accident at night, then he has gone out to the outside of the camp; he does not come into the midst of the camp;

¹¹ and it has been, at the turning of the evening, he bathes with water, and at the going in of the sun he comes into the midst of the camp.

¹² And you have a station at the outside of the camp, and you have gone out there outside;

¹³ and you have a peg on your staff, and it has been, in your sitting outside, that you have dug with it, and turned back, and covered your filth.

¹⁴ For your God YHWH is walking up and down in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and to give your enemies before you, and your camp has been holy, and He does not see the nakedness of anything in you, and has turned back from after you.

¹⁵ You do not shut up a servant to his lord, who escapes to you from his lord;

¹⁶ he dwells with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it is pleasing to him; you do not oppress him.

¹⁷ There is not a whore among the daughters of Israel, nor is there a whoremonger among the sons of Israel;

¹⁸ you do not bring the wage of a whore or the price of a dog into the house of your God YHWH for any vow; for even both of them [are] an abomination [to] your God YHWH.

¹⁹ You do not lend in usury to your brother—usury of money, usury of food, usury of anything which is lent on usury.

²⁰ You may lend in usury to a stranger, but you do not lend in usury to your brother, so that your God YHWH blesses you in every putting forth of your hand on the land to where you go in to possess it.

²¹ When you vow a vow to your God YHWH, you do not delay to complete it; for your God YHWH certainly requires it from you, lest it has been sin in you.

²² And when you refrain to vow, it is not sin in you.

²³ You keep and have done the utterance of your lips, as you have vowed to your God YHWH, a free-will offering which you have spoken with your mouth.

²⁴ When you come into the vineyard of your neighbor, then you have eaten grapes according to your desire, your sufficiency, but you do not put [any] into your vessel.

²⁵ When you come in among the standing grain of your neighbor, then you have plucked the ears with your hand, but you do not wave a sickle over the standing grain of your neighbor.”

¹ “When a man takes a wife and has married her, and it has been, if she does not find grace in his eyes (for he has found nakedness in her of anything), then he has written a writing of divorce for her, and given [it] into her hand, and sent her out of his house;

² when she has gone out of his house, and has gone and been another man's,

³ and the latter man has hated her, and written a writing of divorce for her, and given [it] into her hand, and sent her out of his house, or when the latter man dies, who has taken her to himself for a wife,

⁴ her former husband who sent her away is not able to return to take her to be to him for a wife, after that she has become defiled; for it [is] an abomination before YHWH, and you do not cause the land to sin which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance.

⁵ When a man takes a new wife, he does not go out into the host, and [one] does not pass over to him for anything; he is free at his own house [for] one year, and his wife, whom he has taken, he has made glad.

⁶ No one takes millstones and rider in pledge, for it [is one's] life he is taking in pledge.

⁷ When a man is found stealing a person from his brothers, from the sons of Israel, and has tyrannized over him and sold him, then that thief has died, and you have put away evil out of your midst.

⁸ Take heed in the plague of leprosy, to watch greatly, and to do according to all that the priests, the Levites, teach you; you observe to do as I have commanded them;

⁹ remember that which your God YHWH has done to Miriam in the way, in your coming out of Egypt.

¹⁰ When you lift up a debt of anything on your brother, you do not go into his house to obtain his pledge;

¹¹ you stand at the outside, and the man on whom you are lifting [it] up is bringing out the pledge to you at the outside.

¹² And if he is a poor man, you do not lie down with his pledge;

¹³ you certainly give back the pledge to him at the going in of the sun, and he has lain down in his own raiment and has blessed you; and it is righteousness to you before your God YHWH.

¹⁴ You do not oppress a hired worker, poor and needy, of your brothers or of your sojourner who is in your land within your gates;

¹⁵ you give his hire in his day, and the sun does not go in on it, for he [is] poor, and he is supporting his life on it, lest he cries against you to YHWH, and it has been sin in you.

¹⁶ Fathers are not put to death for sons, and sons are not put to death for fathers—they are each put to death for his own sin.

¹⁷ You do not turn aside the judgment of a fatherless sojourner, nor take the garment of a widow in pledge;

¹⁸ and you have remembered that you have been a servant in Egypt, and your God YHWH ransoms you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

¹⁹ When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in a field, you do not return to take it; it is for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow, so that your God YHWH blesses you in all the work of your hands.

²⁰ When you beat your olive, you do not examine the branch behind you; it is for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

²¹ When you cut your vineyard, you do not glean behind you; it is for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow;

²² and you have remembered that you have been a servant in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.”

¹ “When there is a strife between men, and they have come near to the judgment, and they have judged, and declared righteous the righteous, and declared wrong the wrongdoer;

² then it has come to pass, if the wrongdoer is to be struck, that the judge has caused him to fall down, and [one] has struck him in his presence, according to the sufficiency of his wrongdoing, by number;

³ he strikes him forty [times]; he is not adding, lest he is adding to strike him above these many stripes, and your brother be lightly esteemed in your eyes.

⁴ You do not muzzle an ox in its threshing.

⁶ and it has been, the firstborn which she bears rises for the name of his dead brother, and his name is not wiped away out of Israel.

⁷ And if the man does not delight to take his brother’s wife, then his brother’s wife has gone up to the gate, to the elderly, and said, My husband’s brother is refusing to raise up a name for his brother in Israel; he has not been willing to perform the duty of my husband’s brother;

⁸ and [the] elderly of his city have called for him, and spoken to him, and he has stood and said, I have no desire to take her.

¹⁰ and his name has been called in Israel, The house of him whose shoe is drawn off.

¹¹ When men strive together with one another, and the wife of one has drawn near to deliver her husband out of the hand of his striker, and has put forth her hand, and laid hold on his private parts,

¹² then you have cut off her hand; your eye does not spare.

¹³ You do not have [both] a great stone and a small stone in your bag.

¹⁴ You do not have a great ephah and a small ephah in your house.

¹⁵ You have a complete and just stone, [and] you have a complete and just ephah, so that they prolong your days on the ground which your God YHWH is giving to you;

¹⁶ for anyone doing these things, anyone doing iniquity, [is] an abomination [to] your God YHWH.

¹⁷ Remember that which Amalek has done to you in the way in your going out from Egypt,

¹⁸ that he has met you in the way, and strikes among you all those feeble behind you (when you [were] weary and fatigued), and is not fearing God.

¹⁹ And it has been, in your God YHWH giving rest to you from all your surrounding enemies, in the land which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance to possess it, you blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens—you do not forget.”

¹ “And it has been, when you come into the land which your God YHWH is giving to you [for] an inheritance, and you have possessed it and dwelt in it,

² that you have taken from the first of all the fruits of the ground, which you bring in out of your land which your God YHWH is giving to you, and have put [it] in a basket, and gone to the place which your God YHWH chooses to cause His Name to dwell there.

³ And you have come to the priest who is in those days, and have said to him, I have declared to your God YHWH today that I have come into the land which YHWH has sworn to our fathers to give to us;

⁴ and the priest has taken the basket out of your hand and placed it before the altar of your God YHWH.

⁵ And you have answered and said before your God YHWH, My father [is] a perishing Aramean! And he goes down to Egypt, and sojourns there with few men, and becomes a great, mighty, and populous nation there;

⁶ and the Egyptians do us evil, and afflict us, and put hard service on us;

⁷ and we cry to YHWH, God of our fathers, and YHWH hears our voice, and sees our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression;

⁸ and YHWH brings us out from Egypt by a strong hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great fear, and by signs, and by wonders,

⁹ and He brings us to this place, and gives this land to us—a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁰ And now, behold, I have brought in the first of the fruits of the ground which you have given to me, O YHWH. (And you have placed it before your God YHWH, and bowed yourself before your God YHWH, ¹¹ and rejoiced in all the good which your God YHWH has given to you and to your house—you, and the Levite, and the sojourner who [is] in your midst.)

¹² When you complete to tithe all the tithe of your increase in the third year, the year of the tithe, then you have given to the Levite, to the sojourner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, and they have eaten within your gates and been satisfied,

¹³ and you have said before your God YHWH, I have put away the separated thing out of the house, and have also given it to the Levite, and to the sojourner, and to the orphan, and to the widow, according to all Your command which You have commanded me; I have not passed over from Your commands, nor have I forgotten.

¹⁴ I have not eaten of it in my affliction, nor have I put away of it for uncleanness, nor have I given of it for the dead; I have listened to the voice of my God YHWH; I have done according to all that You have commanded me;

¹⁵ look from Your holy habitation, from the heavens, and bless Your people Israel and the ground which You have given to us, as You have sworn to our fathers—a land flowing [with] milk and honey.

16 This day your God YHWH is commanding you to do these statutes and judgments; and you have listened and done them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 Today you have proclaimed YHWH to be to you for God, that [you are] to walk in His ways, and to keep His statutes, and His commands, and His judgments, and to listen to His voice.

18 And today YHWH has proclaimed you to be to Him for a people, a peculiar treasure, as He has spoken to you, that [you are] to keep all His commands,

19 so as to make you highest above all the nations whom He has made for a praise, and for a name, and for beauty, and for your being a holy people to your God YHWH, as He has spoken."

1 And Moses and [the] elderly of Israel command the people, saying, "Keep all the command which I am commanding you today;

2 and it has been, in the day that you pass over the Jordan to the land which your God YHWH is giving to you, that you have raised up great stones for yourself, and plastered them with plaster,

3 and written on them all the words of this law in your passing over, so that you go into the land which your God YHWH is giving to you—a land flowing with milk and honey, as YHWH, God of your fathers, has spoken to you.

4 And it has been, in your passing over the Jordan, you raise up these stones which I am commanding you today, in Mount Ebal, and you have plastered them with plaster;

5 and built an altar there to your God YHWH, an altar of stones; you do not wave iron over them.

6 You build the altar of your God YHWH [with] complete stones, and have caused burnt-offerings to ascend on it to your God YHWH,

7 and sacrificed peace-offerings, and eaten there, and rejoiced before your God YHWH,

8 and written on the stones all the words of this law, well engraved."

9 And Moses speaks—the priests, the Levites, also—to all Israel, saying, "Keep silent and hear, O Israel: This day you have become a people for your God YHWH;

10 and you have listened to the voice of your God YHWH, and done His commands and His statutes which I am commanding you today."

11 And Moses commands the people on that day, saying,

12 "These stand on Mount Gerizzim to bless the people, in your passing over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these stand, for the reviling, on Mount Ebal: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali."

14 And the Levites have answered and said to every man of Israel [with] a loud voice:

15 "Cursed [is] the man who makes a carved and molten image, an abomination [to] YHWH, work of the hands of a craftsman, and has put [it] in a secret place." And all the people have answered and said, "Amen."

16 "Cursed [is] he who is making light of his father and his mother." And all the people have said, "Amen."

17 “Cursed [is] he who is removing his neighbor’s border.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

18 “Cursed [is] he who is causing the blind to err in the way.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

19 “Cursed [is] he who is turning aside the judgment of fatherless, sojourner, and widow.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

20 “Cursed [is] he who is lying with his father’s wife, for he has uncovered his father’s skirt.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

21 “Cursed [is] he who is lying with any beast.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

22 “Cursed [is] he who is lying with his sister, daughter of his father or daughter of his mother.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

23 “Cursed [is] he who is lying with his mother-in-law.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

24 “Cursed [is] he who is striking his neighbor in secret.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

25 “Cursed [is] he who is taking a bribe to strike a person, innocent blood.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

26 “Cursed [is] he who does not establish the words of this law, to do them.” And all the people have said, “Amen.”

28

1 “And it has been, if you listen diligently to the voice of your God YHWH, to observe to do all His commands which I am commanding you today, that your God YHWH has made you highest above all the nations of the earth,

2 and all these blessings have come on you and overtaken you, because you listen to the voice of your God YHWH:

3 Blessed [are] you in the city, and blessed [are] you in the field.

4 Blessed [is] the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, the increase of your oxen, and the wealth of your flock.

5 Blessed [is] your basket and your kneading-trough.

6 Blessed [are] you in your coming in, and blessed [are] you in your going out.

7 YHWH makes your enemies, who are rising up against you, to be struck before your face; in one way they come out to you, and in seven ways they flee before you.

8 YHWH commands the blessing with you in your storehouses, and in every putting forth of your hand, and has blessed you in the land which your God YHWH is giving to you.

9 YHWH establishes you to Himself for a holy people, as He has sworn to you, when you keep the commands of your God YHWH and have walked in His ways;

10 and all the peoples of the land have seen that the Name of YHWH is called by you, and they have been afraid of you.

11 And YHWH has made you abundant in good, in the fruit of the womb, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, on the ground which YHWH has sworn to your fathers to give to you.

¹² YHWH opens his good treasure to you—the heavens—to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand, and you have lent to many nations, and you do not borrow.

¹³ And YHWH has set you for head and not for tail; and you have been only above, and are not beneath, for you listen to the commands of your God YHWH, which I am commanding you today, to keep and to do,

¹⁴ and you do not turn aside from all the words which I am commanding you today [to] the right or left, to go after other gods, to serve them.

¹⁵ And it has been, if you do not listen to the voice of your God YHWH, to observe to do all His commands and His statutes which I am commanding you today, that all these revilings have come on you and overtaken you:

¹⁶ Cursed [are] you in the city, and cursed [are] you in the field.

¹⁷ Cursed [is] your basket and your kneading-trough.

¹⁸ Cursed [is] the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your land, the increase of your oxen, and the wealth of your flock.

¹⁹ Cursed [are] you in your coming in, and cursed [are] you in your going out.

²⁰ YHWH sends the curse, the trouble, and the rebuke on you, in every putting forth of your hand which you do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of the evil of your doings [by] which you have forsaken Me.

²¹ YHWH causes the pestilence to cleave to you until He consumes you from off the ground to where you are going in to possess it.

²² YHWH strikes you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with extreme burning, and with sword, and with blasting, and with mildew, and they have pursued you until you perish

²³ And your heavens which [are] over your head have been bronze, and the earth which [is] under you iron;

²⁴ YHWH gives dust and ashes [for] the rain of your land; it comes down on you from the heavens until you are destroyed.

²⁵ YHWH makes you struck before your enemies; in one way you go out to them, and in seven ways you flee before them, and you have been for a trembling to all kingdoms of the earth;

²⁶ and your carcass has been for food for every bird of the heavens and for the beast of the earth, and there is none causing [them] to tremble.

²⁷ YHWH strikes you with the ulcer of Egypt, and with lumps, and with scurvy, and with itch, of which you are not able to be healed.

²⁸ YHWH strikes you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart;

²⁹ and you have been groping at noon, as the blind gropes in darkness; and you do not cause your ways to prosper; and you have been only oppressed and plundered [for] all the days, and there is no savior.

³⁰ You betroth a woman, and another man lies with her; you build a house, and do not dwell in it; you plant a vineyard, and do not make it common;

³¹ your ox [is] slaughtered before your eyes, and you do not eat of it; your donkey [is] violently taken away from before you, and it is not given back to you; your sheep [are] given to your enemies, and there is no savior for you.

³² Your sons and your daughters [are] given to another people, and your eyes are looking and consumed for them all the day, but your hand is not to God!

³³ A people whom you have not known eat the fruit of your ground and all your labor; and you have been only oppressed and bruised [for] all the days;

³⁴ and you have been mad because of the sight of your eyes which you see.

³⁵ YHWH strikes you with a severe ulcer on the knees and on the legs (of which you are not able to be healed), from the sole of your foot even to your crown.

³⁶ YHWH causes you and your king whom you raise up over you to go to a nation which you have not known, you and your fathers, and you have served other gods there—wood and stone;

³⁷ and you have been for an astonishment, for an allegory, and for a byword among all the peoples to where YHWH leads you.

³⁸ You take much seed out into the field, and you gather little in, for the locust consumes it;

³⁹ you plant vineyards and have labored, but you do not drink wine, nor gather [grapes], for the worm consumes it;

⁴⁰ olives are yours in all your border, but you do not pour out oil, for your olive falls off.

⁴¹ You beget sons and daughters, but they are not with you, for they go into captivity;

⁴² the locust possesses all your trees and the fruit of your ground;

⁴³ the sojourner who [is] in your midst goes up very high above you, and you go down very low;

⁴⁴ he lends [to] you, and you do not lend [to] him; he is for head and you are for tail.

⁴⁵ And all these curses have come on you, and pursued you, and overtaken you, until you are destroyed, because you have not listened to the voice of your God YHWH, to keep His commands and His statutes which he has commanded you;

⁴⁶ and they have been on you for a sign and for a wonder, also on your seed—for all time.

⁴⁷ Because that you have not served your God YHWH with joy and with gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things—

⁴⁸ you have served your enemies, whom YHWH sends against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in lack of all things; and He has put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you.

⁴⁹ YHWH lifts up a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth—it flies as the eagle—a nation whose tongue you have not heard,

⁵⁰ a nation of fierce countenance, which does not accept the face of the aged and does not favor the young;

⁵¹ and it has eaten the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; which does not leave to you grain, new wine, and oil, the increase of your oxen, and the wealth of your flock, until it has destroyed you.

⁵² And it has laid siege to you in all your gates until your walls come down—the high and the fortified ones in which you are trusting, in all your land; indeed, it has laid siege to you in all your gates, in all your land which your God YHWH has given to you.

⁵³ And you have eaten the fruit of your body, [the] flesh of your sons and your daughters (whom your God YHWH has given to you), in the siege and in the constriction with which your enemies constrict you.

⁵⁴ The man who is tender in you, and who [is] very delicate—his eye is evil against his brother, and against the wife of his bosom, and against the remnant of his sons whom he leaves,

⁵⁵ against giving to one of them of the flesh of his sons whom he eats, because he has nothing left for himself in the siege and in the constriction with which your enemy constricts you in all your gates.

⁵⁶ The tender woman in you, and the delicate, who has not tried the sole of her foot to place on the ground because of delicateness and because of tenderness—her eye is evil against the husband of her bosom, and against her son, and against her daughter,

⁵⁸ If you do not observe to do all the words of this law which are written in this scroll, to fear this honored and fearful Name—your God YHWH—

⁵⁹ then YHWH has made your strokes extraordinary, and the strokes [against] your seed [are] great strokes that are persisting and severe sicknesses that are persisting.

⁶⁰ And He has brought back all the diseases of Egypt on you, from the presence of which you have been afraid, and they have cleaved to you.

⁶¹ Also every sickness and every stroke which is not written in the scroll of this law—YHWH causes them to go up on you until you are destroyed,

⁶² and you have been left with few men, whereas that you would have been as stars of the heavens for multitude, for you have not listened to the voice of your God YHWH.

⁶³ And it has been, as YHWH has rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so YHWH rejoices over you to destroy you and to lay you waste; and you have been pulled away from off the ground to where you are going in to possess it;

⁶⁴ and YHWH has scattered you among all the peoples, from the end of the earth even to the [other] end of the earth; and you have served other gods there which you have not known, you and your fathers—wood and stone.

⁶⁵ And you do not rest among those nations, indeed, there is no resting place for the sole of your foot, and YHWH has given to you a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and grief of soul there;

⁶⁶ and your life has been hanging in suspense before you, and you have been afraid by night and by day, and you do not have assurance in your life;

⁶⁷ in the morning you say, O that it were evening! And in the evening you say, O that it were morning! (From the fear of your heart, with which you are afraid, and from the sight of your eyes which you see.)

⁶⁸ And YHWH has brought you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, You do not add to see it anymore; and you have sold yourselves to your enemies there, for menservants and for maidservants, and there is no buyer.”

29

¹ These [are] the words of the covenant which YHWH has commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, apart from the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

² And Moses calls to all Israel and says to them, “You have seen all that which YHWH has done before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land—

³ the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders.

⁴ And YHWH has not given to you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until this day.

⁵ And I cause you to go in a wilderness [for] forty years; your garments have not been consumed from off you, and your shoe has not worn away from off your foot;

⁶ you have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine and strong drink, so that you know that I [am] your God YHWH.

⁷ And you come to this place, and Sihon king of Heshbon—also Og king of Bashan—comes out to meet us to battle, and we strike them,

⁸ and take their land, and give it for an inheritance to the Reubenite, and to the Gadite, and to the half of the tribe of the Manassite;

⁹ and you have kept the words of this covenant and done them, so that you cause all that you do to prosper.

¹⁰ You are standing today, all of you, before your God YHWH: your heads, your tribes, your elderly, and your authorities, every man of Israel,

¹¹ your infants, your wives, and your sojourner who [is] in the midst of your camps, from the hewer of your wood to the drawer of your water;

¹² for your passing over into the covenant of your God YHWH, and into His oath which your God YHWH is making with you today,

¹³ in order to establish you to Himself for a people today, and He Himself is your God, as He has spoken to you, and as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

¹⁴ And I am not making this covenant and this oath with you alone,

¹⁵ but with him who is here with us, standing before our God YHWH today, and with him who is not here with us today,

¹⁶ for you have known how you dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed by through the midst of the nations which you have passed by;

¹⁷ and you see their abominations, and their idols of wood and stone, silver and gold, which [are] with them,

¹⁸ lest there be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart is turning from our God YHWH today, to go to serve the gods of those nations, lest there be in you a root bearing the fruit of gall and wormwood;

¹⁹ and it has been, in his hearing the words of this oath, that he has blessed himself in his heart, saying, I have peace, though I go on in the stubbornness of my heart—in order to sweep away the watered with the thirsty.

²⁰ YHWH is not willing to be propitious to him, for then the anger of YHWH smokes, also His zeal, against that man, and all the oath which is written in this scroll has lain down on him, and YHWH has blotted out his name from under the heavens,

²¹ and YHWH has separated him for calamity out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the oaths of the covenant which is written in this Scroll of the Law.

²² And the latter generation of your sons who rise after you, and the stranger who comes in from a far-off land, have said, when they have seen the strokes of that land and its sicknesses which YHWH has sent into it:

²⁴ Indeed, all the nations have said, Why has YHWH done thus to this land? Why the heat of this great anger?

²⁵ And they have said, Because that they have forsaken the covenant of YHWH, God of their fathers, which He made with them in His bringing them out of the land of Egypt,

²⁶ and they go and serve other gods, and bow themselves to them—gods which they have not known, and which He has not apportioned to them;

²⁷ and the anger of YHWH burns against that land, to bring in on it all the reviling that is written in this scroll,

²⁸ and YHWH plucks them from off their ground in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath, and casts them into another land, as [at] this day.

²⁹ The things hidden [belong] to our God YHWH, and the things revealed [belong] to us and to our sons for all time, to do all the words of this law.”

¹ “And it has been, when all these things come on you, the blessing and the reviling, which I have set before you, and you have brought [them] back to your heart among all the nations to where your God YHWH has driven you away,

² and have turned back to your God YHWH and listened to His voice, according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your sons, with all your heart and with all your soul—

³ then your God YHWH has turned back [to] your captivity and pitied you, indeed, He has turned back and gathered you out of all the peoples to where your God YHWH has scattered you.

⁴ If your outcast is in the extremity of the heavens, your God YHWH gathers you from there and He takes you from there;

⁵ and your God YHWH has brought you into the land which your fathers have possessed, and you have inherited it, and He has done you good, and multiplied you above your fathers.

⁶ And your God YHWH has circumcised your heart and the heart of your seed, to love your God YHWH with all your heart and with all your soul, for the sake of your life;

⁷ and your God YHWH has put all this oath on your enemies and on those hating you, who have pursued you.

⁸ And you turn back, and have listened to the voice of YHWH, and have done all His commands which I am commanding you today;

⁹ and your God YHWH has made you abundant in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good; for YHWH turns back to rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers,

¹⁰ for you listen to the voice of your God YHWH, to keep His commands and His statutes which are written in the scroll of this law, for you turn back to your God YHWH with all your heart and with all your soul.

¹¹ For this command which I am commanding you today, it is not too wonderful for you, nor [is] it far off.

¹² It is not in the heavens, saying, Who goes up into the heavens for us, and takes it for us, and causes us to hear it, that we may do it?

¹³ And it [is] not beyond the sea, saying, Who passes over beyond the sea for us, and takes it for us, and causes us to hear it, that we may do it?

¹⁴ For the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart—to do it.

¹⁵ See, today I have set before you life and good, and death and evil,

¹⁶ in that today I am commanding you to love your God YHWH, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commands, and His statutes, and His judgments; and you have lived and multiplied, and your God YHWH has blessed you in the land to where you are going in to possess it.

¹⁷ And if your heart turns, and you do not listen, and have been drawn away, and have bowed yourself to other gods and served them,

¹⁸ I have declared to you this day that you certainly perish, you do not prolong days on the ground which you are passing over the Jordan to go in there to possess it.

¹⁹ I have caused the heavens and the earth to testify against you today—I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the reviling, and you have fixed on life, so that you live, you and your seed,

²⁰ to love your God YHWH, to listen to His voice, and to cleave to Him (for He [is] your life and the length of your days), to dwell on the ground which YHWH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them.”

¹ And Moses goes and speaks these words to all Israel,

² and he says to them, “I [am] a son of one hundred and twenty years today; I am not able to go out and to come in anymore, and YHWH has said to me, You do not pass over this Jordan.

³ Your God YHWH—He is passing over before you; He destroys these nations from before you, and you have possessed them; Joshua—he is passing over before you, as YHWH has spoken.

⁴ And YHWH has done to them as he has done to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorite, and to their land, whom He destroyed.

⁵ And YHWH has given them before your face, and you have done to them according to all the command which I have commanded you;

⁶ be strong and courageous, do not fear, nor be terrified because of them, for your God YHWH [is] He who is going with you; He does not fail you nor forsake you.”

⁷ And Moses calls for Joshua and says to him before the eyes of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you go in with this people to the land which

YHWH has sworn to their fathers to give to them, and you cause them to inherit it;

⁸ and YHWH [is] He who is going before you, He Himself is with you; He does not fail you nor forsake you; do not fear, nor be frightened.”

⁹ And Moses writes this law and gives it to the priests (sons of Levi, those carrying the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH), and to all [the] elderly of Israel,

¹⁰ and Moses commands them, saying, “At the end of seven years, in the appointed time, the year of release, in the Celebration of Shelters,

¹¹ in the coming in of all Israel to see the face of YHWH in the place which He chooses, you proclaim this law before all Israel in their ears.

¹² Assemble the people, the men, and the women, and the infants, and your sojourner who [is] within your gates, so that they hear, and so that they learn, and have feared your God YHWH, and observed to do all the words of this law;

¹³ and their sons, who have not known, hear and have learned to fear your God YHWH [for] all the days which you are living on the ground to where you are passing over the Jordan to possess it.”

¹⁴ And YHWH says to Moses, “Behold, your days have drawn near to die; call Joshua, and station yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, and I charge him”; and Moses goes—Joshua also—and they station themselves in the Tent of Meeting,

¹⁵ and YHWH is seen in the tent in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stands at the opening of the tent.

¹⁶ And YHWH says to Moses, “Behold, you are lying down with your fathers, and this people has risen and gone whoring after the gods of the stranger of the land, into the midst of which it has entered, and it has forsaken Me and broken My covenant which I made with it;

¹⁷ and My anger has burned against it in that day, and I have forsaken them, and hidden My face from them, and it has been for consumption, and many evils and distresses have found it, and it has said in that day, [Is] it not because my God is not in my midst that these evils have found me?

¹⁸ And I certainly hide My face in that day for all the evil which it has done, for it has turned to other gods.

²⁰ When I bring them to the ground flowing with milk and honey, which I have sworn to their fathers, and they have eaten, and been satisfied, and been fat, and have turned to other gods, and they have served them, and despised Me, and broken My covenant,

²¹ then it has been, when many evils and distresses meet it, that this song has testified to its face for a witness; for it is not forgotten out of the mouth of its seed, for I have known its imagining which it is doing today, before I bring them into the land of which I have sworn.”

²² And Moses writes this song on that day, and teaches it [to] the sons of Israel.

²³ Then He commands Joshua son of Nun, and says, “Be strong and courageous, for you bring in the sons of Israel to the land which I have sworn to them, and I am with you.”

²⁴ And it comes to pass, when Moses finishes to write the words of this law on a scroll, until their completion,

²⁵ that Moses commands the Levites carrying the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, saying,

²⁶ “Take this Scroll of the Law, and you have set it on the side of the Ark of the Covenant of your God YHWH, and it has been against you for a witness there;

²⁷ for I have known your rebellion and your stiff neck; behold, in my being yet alive with you today, you have been rebelling against YHWH, and surely also after my death.

²⁸ Assemble to me all the elderly of your tribes, and your authorities, and I speak these words in their ears, and cause the heavens and the earth to testify against them,

²⁹ for I have known that you act very corruptly after my death, and have turned aside from the way which I commanded you, and evil has met you in the latter end of the days, because you do evil in the eyes of YHWH, to make Him angry with the work of your hands.”

³⁰ And Moses speaks the words of this song in the ears of all the assembly of Israel, until their completion:

¹ “Give ear, O heavens, and I speak; And you hear, O earth, sayings of my mouth!

² My doctrine drops as rain; My sayings flow as dew; As storms on the tender grass, || And as showers on the herb,

³ For I proclaim the Name of YHWH; Ascribe greatness to our God!

⁴ The Rock—His work [is] perfect, || For all His ways [are] just; God of steadfastness, and without iniquity; Righteous and upright [is] He.

⁵ It has done corruptly to Him; Their blemish is not of His sons, || A generation perverse and crooked!

⁶ Do you act thus to YHWH, || O people foolish and not wise? Is He not your Father—He who bought you? He made you, and establishes you.

⁷ Remember days of old—Understand the years of many generations—Ask your father, and he tells you; Your elderly, and they say to you:

⁹ For YHWH’s portion [is] His people, || Jacob [is] the line of His inheritance.

¹⁰ He finds him in a land—a desert, || And in a void—a howling wilderness, || He turns him around—He causes him to understand—He keeps him as the apple of His eye.

¹¹ As an eagle wakes up its nest, || Flutters over its young ones, || Spreads its wings [and] takes them, || Carries them on its pinions—

¹² YHWH alone leads him, || And there is no strange god with him.

¹³ He makes him ride on high places of earth, || And he eats increase of the fields, || And He makes him suck honey from a rock, || And oil out of the flint of a rock;

14 Butter of the herd, and milk of the flock, || With fat of lambs, and rams of sons of Bashan, || And male goats, with fat of kidneys of wheat; And of the blood of the grape you drink wine!

15 And Yeshurun waxes fat, and kicks: You have been fat, you have been thick, || You have been covered. And he leaves God who made him, || And dishonors the Rock of his salvation.

16 They make Him zealous with strangers, || They make Him angry with abominations.

17 They sacrifice to the demons, not God, || To gods they have not known, || New ones—they came from the vicinity; Your fathers have not feared them!

18 You forget the Rock that begot you, || And neglect God who forms you.

19 And YHWH sees and despises—For the provocation of His sons and His daughters.

20 And He says: I hide My face from them, || I see what their latter end [is]; For they [are] a contrary generation, || Sons in whom is no steadfastness.

21 They have made Me jealous by [what is] not God, || They made Me angry by their vanities; And I make them jealous by [what is] not a people, || I make them angry by a foolish nation.

22 For a fire has been kindled in My anger, || And it burns to the lowest [part] of Sheol, || And consumes earth and its increase, || And sets on fire [the] foundations of mountains.

23 I heap calamities on them, || I consume My arrows on them.

24 Exhausted by famine, || And consumed by heat and bitter destruction—I also send the teeth of beasts on them, || With poison of fearful things of the dust.

25 The sword destroys from outside, || And out of the inner-chambers—terror, || Both youth and virgin, || Suckling with man of grey hair.

26 I have said: I blow them away, || I cause their remembrance to cease from man;

27 If I do not fear the anger of an enemy, || Lest their adversaries know—Lest they say, Our hand is high, || And YHWH has not worked all this.

28 For they [are] a nation lost to counsels, || And there is no understanding in them.

29 If only they were wise, || They would deal wisely [with] this, || They would attend to their latter end!

30 How does one pursue a thousand, || And two cause a myriad to flee, || If not that their Rock has sold them, || And YHWH has shut them up?

31 For their rock [is] not as our Rock || (And our enemies [are] judges!)

32 For their vine [is] of the vine of Sodom, || And of the fields of Gomorrah; Their grapes [are] grapes of gall—They have bitter clusters;

33 The poison of dragons [is] their wine || And the fierce venom of cobras.

34 Is it not laid up with Me? Sealed among My treasures?

35 Vengeance and retribution [are] Mine, || At the due time—their foot slides; For near is a day of their calamity, || And things prepared for them have hastened.

36 For YHWH judges His people, || And gives comfort over His servants. For He sees the going away of power, || And none is restrained and left.

³⁷ And He has said, Where [are] their gods—The rock in which they trusted?

³⁸ Who eat the fat of their sacrifices, || [And] drink the wine of their drink-offering? Let them arise and help you, || Let it be a hiding place for you!

³⁹ See, now, that I [am] He, || And there is no god besides Me; I put to death and I keep alive; I have struck and I heal; And there is not a deliverer from My hand,

⁴⁰ For I lift up My hand to the heavens, || And have said, I live for all time!

⁴¹ If I have sharpened the brightness of My sword, || And My hand lays hold on judgment, || I return vengeance to My adversaries, || And to those hating Me—I repay!

⁴² I make My arrows drunk with blood, || And My sword devours flesh, || From the blood of the pierced and captive, || From the head of the leaders of the enemy.

⁴³ Sing, O nations, [with] His people, || For He avenges the blood of His servants, || And He turns back vengeance on His adversaries, || And has pardoned His land [and] His people.”

⁴⁴ And Moses comes and speaks all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea son of Nun;

⁴⁵ and Moses finishes to speak all these words to all Israel,

⁴⁶ and says to them, “Set your heart to all the words which I am testifying against you today, that you command your sons to observe to do all the words of this law,

⁴⁷ for it [is] not a vain thing for you, for it [is] your life, and by this thing you prolong days on the ground to where you are passing over the Jordan to possess it.”

⁴⁸ And YHWH speaks to Moses on this very same day, saying,

⁵⁰ and die on the mountain to where you are going up, and be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron has died on Mount Hor and is gathered to his people;

⁵² Indeed, you see the land before [you], but you do not go in there to the land which I am giving to the sons of Israel.”

¹ And this [is] the blessing [with] which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death,

² and he says: “YHWH has come from Sinai, || And has risen from Seir for them; He has shone from Mount Paran, || And has come [with] myriads of holy ones; At His right hand [came] a fiery law [[or a flaming fire]] for them.

³ Indeed, He [is] loving the peoples; All His holy ones [are] in Your hand, || And they sat down at Your foot, || [Each] lifts up Your words.

4 Moses has commanded a law for us, || A possession of the assembly of Jacob.

5 And He is King in Yeshurun, || In the heads of the people gathering together, || The tribes of Israel!

6 Let Reuben live, and not die, || And let his men be an [incalculable] number.

7 And this [is] for Judah, and he says: Hear, O YHWH, the voice of Judah, || And You bring him in to his people; His hand has striven for him, || And You are a help from his adversaries.

8 And of Levi he said: Your Perfections and your Lights [are] for your pious one, || Whom You have tried in Massah, || You strive with him at the waters of Meribah;

9 Who is saying of his father and his mother, || I have not seen him; And he has not discerned his brothers, || And he has not known his sons; For they have observed Your saying, || And they keep Your covenant.

10 They teach Your judgments to Jacob, || And Your law to Israel; They put incense in Your nose, || And whole burnt-offering on Your altar.

11 Bless, O YHWH, his strength, || And accept the work of his hands, || Strike the loins of his withstanders, || And of those hating him—that they do not rise!

12 Of Benjamin he said: The beloved of YHWH dwells confidently by Him, || Covering him over every day; Indeed, he dwells between His shoulders.

13 And of Joseph he said: His land [is] blessed [by] YHWH, || By a precious thing of the heavens, || By dew, and by the deep crouching beneath,

14 And by a precious thing—fruits of the sun, || And by a precious thing—cast forth by the months,

15 And by a chief thing—of the ancient mountains, || And by a precious thing—of the continuous heights,

16 And by a precious thing—of earth and its fullness, || And the good pleasure of Him who is dwelling in the bush; Let it come for the head of Joseph, || And for the crown of him [who is] separate from his brothers.

17 His splendor [is] a firstling of his ox, || And his horns [are] horns of a wild ox; With them he pushes the peoples || Altogether to the ends of the earth; And they [are] the myriads of Ephraim, || And they [are] the thousands of Manasseh.

18 And of Zebulun he said: Rejoice, O Zebulun, in your going out, || And, O Issachar, in your tents;

19 They call peoples [to] the mountain, || There they sacrifice righteous sacrifices; For they suck up the abundance of the seas, || And hidden things hidden in the sand.

20 And of Gad he said: Blessed is he who is enlarging Gad, || He dwells as a lioness, || And has torn the arm—also the crown!

21 And he provides the first part for himself, || For there the portion of the lawgiver is covered, || And he comes [with] the heads of the people; He has done the righteousness of YHWH, || And His judgments with Israel.

22 And of Dan he said: Dan [is] a lion's whelp; He leaps from Bashan.

23 And of Naphtali he said: O Naphtali, satisfied with pleasure, || And full of the blessing of YHWH, || Possess [the] west and [the] south.

²⁴ And of Asher he said: Asher [is] blessed with sons, || Let him be accepted by his brothers, || And dipping his foot in oil.

²⁵ Iron and bronze [are] your shoes, || And as your days—your strength.

²⁶ [There is] none like the God of Yeshurun, || Riding the heavens to your help, || And in His excellence the skies.

²⁸ And Israel dwells [in] confidence alone; The eye of Jacob [is] to a land of grain and wine; Also His heavens drop down dew.

²⁹ O your blessedness, O Israel! Who is like you? A people saved by YHWH, || The shield of your help, || And He who [is] the sword of your excellence! And your enemies are subdued for you, || And you tread on their high places.”

¹ And Moses goes up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the top of Pisgah, which [is] on the front of Jericho, and YHWH shows him all the land—Gilead to Dan,

² and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah to the Western Sea,

³ and the south, and the circuit of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palms, to Zoar.

⁴ And YHWH says to him, “This [is] the land which I have sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I give it to your seed; I have caused you to see with your eyes, but you do not pass over there.”

⁵ And Moses, servant of the Lord, dies there in the land of Moab, according to the command of YHWH;

⁶ and He buries him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-Peor, and no man has known his burying place to this day.

⁷ And Moses [is] a son of one hundred and twenty years when he dies; his eye has not become dim, nor has his moisture fled.

⁸ And the sons of Israel lament Moses in the plains of Moab [for] thirty days; and the days of weeping [and] mourning for Moses are completed.

⁹ And Joshua son of Nun is full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him, and the sons of Israel listen to him, and do as YHWH commanded Moses.

¹⁰ And there has not arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses anymore, whom YHWH has known face to face,

¹¹ in reference to all the signs and the wonders which YHWH sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

¹² and in reference to all the strong hand and to all the great fear which Moses did before the eyes of all Israel.

Joshua

¹ And it comes to pass after the death of Moses, servant of YHWH, that YHWH speaks to Joshua son of Nun, minister of Moses, saying,

² “My servant Moses is dead, and now, rise, pass over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.

³ Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you, as I have spoken to Moses.

⁴ From this wilderness and Lebanon, and to the great river, the Euphrates River, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea—the going in of the sun—is your border.

⁵ No man stations himself before you all [the] days of your life; as I have been with Moses, I am with you, I do not fail you, nor forsake you;

⁶ be strong and courageous, for you cause this people to inherit the land which I have sworn to their fathers to give to them.

⁸ the scroll of this Law does not depart out of your mouth, and you have meditated in it by day and by night, so that you observe to do according to all that is written in it, for then you cause your way to prosper, and then you act wisely.

⁹ Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous; do not be terrified nor frightened, for your God YHWH [is] with you in every [place] to where you go.”

¹⁰ And Joshua commands the authorities of the people, saying,

¹² And to the Reubenite, and to the Gadite, and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, Joshua has spoken, saying,

¹³ “Remember the word which Moses, servant of YHWH, commanded you, saying, Your God YHWH is giving rest to you, and He has given this land to you;

¹⁴ your wives, your infants, and your substance, abide in the land which Moses has given to you beyond the Jordan, and you pass over by fifties, before your brothers, all the mighty men of valor, and have helped them,

¹⁵ until YHWH gives rest to your brothers as to yourselves, and they have possessed, even they, the land which your God YHWH is giving to them; then you have turned back to the land of your possession, and have possessed it, which Moses, servant of YHWH, has given to you beyond the Jordan, [at] the sun-rising.”

¹⁶ And they answer Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we do; and to every [place] to where you send us, we go;

¹⁷ according to all that we listened to [from] Moses, so we listen to you; surely your God YHWH is with you as He has been with Moses.

¹⁸ Any man who provokes your mouth, and does not hear your words, in all that you command him, is put to death; only, be strong and courageous.”

² And it is told to the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men have come in here tonight, from the sons of Israel, to search the land.”

³ And the king of Jericho sends to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who are coming to you, who have come into your house, for they have come to search the entirety of the land.”

⁴ And the woman takes the two men, and hides them, and says thus: “The men came to me, and I have not known where they [are] from;

⁵ and it comes to pass—the gate is to [be] shut—in the dark, and the men have gone out; I have not known to where the men have gone; pursue, hurry after them, for you overtake them”;

⁶ and she has caused them to go up on the roof, and hides them with the flax wood, which is arranged for her on the roof.

⁷ And the men have pursued after them the way of the Jordan, by the fords, and they have shut the gate afterward when the pursuers have gone out after them.

⁸ And before they lie down, she has gone up to them on the roof,

⁹ and she says to the men, “I have known that YHWH has given the land to you, and that your terror has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted at your presence.

¹⁰ For we have heard how YHWH dried up the waters of the Red Sea at your presence, in your going out of Egypt, and that which you have done to the two kings of the Amorite who [are] beyond the Jordan; to Sihon and to Og whom you devoted.

¹¹ And we hear, and our heart melts, and there has not stood anymore spirit in [any] man from your presence, for He, your God YHWH, [is] God in the heavens above and on the earth below.

¹² And now, please swear to me by YHWH—because I have done kindness with you—that you have done, even you, kindness with the house of my father, and have given a true token to me,

¹³ and have kept alive my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and have delivered our souls from death.”

¹⁴ And the men say to her, “Our soul to die for yours; if you do not declare this—our matter, then it has been, in YHWH’s giving this land to us, that we have done kindness and truth with you.”

¹⁵ And she causes them to go down by a rope through the window, for her house [is] in the side of the wall, and she [is] dwelling in the wall;

¹⁶ and she says to them, “Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers come on you; and you have been hidden there three days until the turning back of the pursuers, and afterward you go on your way.”

¹⁷ And the men say to her, “We are acquitted of this, your oath, which you have caused us to swear:

¹⁸ behold, we are coming into the land, bind this line of scarlet thread to the window by which you have caused us to go down, and gather your father, and your mother, and your brothers, and all the house of your father to you, to the house;

¹⁹ and it has been, anyone who goes out from the doors of your house outside, his blood [is] on his head, and we are innocent; and anyone who is with you in the house, his blood [is] on our head, if a hand is on him;

²⁰ and if you declare this—our matter; then we have been acquitted from your oath which you have caused us to swear.”

²¹ And she says, “According to your words, so it [is]”; and she sends them away, and they go; and she binds the scarlet line to the window.

²² And they go, and come to the mountain, and abide there three days until the pursuers have turned back; and the pursuers seek in all the way, and have not found.

²³ And the two men turn back, and come down from the hill, and pass over, and come to Joshua son of Nun, and recount to him all that has come on them;

²⁴ and they say to Joshua, “Surely YHWH has given all the land into our hand; and also, all the inhabitants of the land have melted at our presence.”

¹ And Joshua rises early in the morning, and they journey from Shittim, and come to the Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel, and they lodge there before they pass over.

² And it comes to pass, at the end of three days, that the authorities pass over into the midst of the camp,

³ and command the people, saying, “When you see the Ark of the Covenant of your God YHWH, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it, then you journey from your place, and have gone after it;

⁴ only, a distance is between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure; you do not come near to it, so that you know the way in which you go, for you have not passed over in the way before.”

⁵ And Joshua says to the people, “Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow YHWH does wonders in your midst.”

⁶ And Joshua speaks to the priests, saying, “Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and pass over before the people”; and they take up the Ark of the Covenant, and go before the people.

⁷ And YHWH says to Joshua, “This day I begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel, so that they know that as I was with Moses I am with you;

⁸ and you, command the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant, saying, When you come to the extremity of the waters of the Jordan, stand in the Jordan.”

⁹ And Joshua says to the sons of Israel, “Come near here, and hear the words of your God YHWH”;

¹⁰ and Joshua says, “By this you know that the living God [is] in your midst, and He certainly dispossesses from before you the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite:

¹¹ behold, the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth is passing over before you into the Jordan;

¹² and now, take for yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, one man—one man for a tribe;

¹³ and it has been, at the resting of the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the Ark of YHWH, Lord of all the earth, in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan are cut off—the waters which are coming down from above—and they stand—one heap.”

¹⁴ And it comes to pass, in the journeying of the people from their tents to pass over the Jordan, and of the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant before the people,

¹⁷ and the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH stand on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan—established, and all Israel are passing over on dry ground until all the nation has completed to pass over the Jordan.

¹ And it comes to pass, when all the nation has completed to pass over the Jordan, that YHWH speaks to Joshua, saying,

² “Take for yourselves twelve men out of the people, one man—one man out of a tribe;

⁴ And Joshua calls to the twelve men whom he prepared out of the sons of Israel, one man—one man out of a tribe;

⁶ so that this is a sign in your midst when your children ask hereafter, saying, What [are] these stones to you?

⁷ That you have said to them, Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off, at the presence of the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH; in its passing over into the Jordan the waters of the Jordan were cut off; and these stones have been for a memorial to the sons of Israel for all time.”

⁸ And the sons of Israel do so as Joshua commanded, and take up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as YHWH has spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and remove them over with them to the lodging-place, and place them there,

¹⁰ And the priests carrying the Ark are standing in the midst of the Jordan until the completion of the whole thing which YHWH commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua, and the people hurry and pass over.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, when all the people have completed to pass over, that the Ark of YHWH passes over, and the priests, in the presence of the people;

¹² and the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, pass over, by fifties, before the sons of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them;

¹³ about forty thousand, armed ones of the host, passed over before YHWH for battle, to the plains of Jericho.

¹⁴ On that day YHWH has made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel, and they fear him, as they feared Moses, all [the] days of his life.

¹⁵ And YHWH speaks to Joshua, saying,

¹⁶ “Command the priests carrying the Ark of the Testimony, and they come up out of the Jordan.”

¹⁷ And Joshua commands the priests, saying, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

¹⁹ And the people have come up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and encamp in Gilgal, in the extremity east of Jericho;

²⁰ and these twelve stones, which they have taken out of the Jordan, Joshua has raised up in Gilgal.

²¹ And he speaks to the sons of Israel, saying, “When your sons ask their fathers hereafter, saying, What [are] these stones?”

²² Then you have caused your sons to know, saying, Israel passed over this Jordan on dry land;

²⁴ so that all the people of the land know the hand of YHWH—that it [is] strong, so that you have feared your God YHWH [for] all the days.”

¹ And it comes to pass, when all the kings of the Amorite which [are] beyond the Jordan, toward the sea, and all the kings of the Canaanite which [are] by the sea, hear how that YHWH has dried up the waters of the Jordan at the presence of the sons of Israel until their passing over, that their heart is melted, and there has not been anymore spirit in them because of the presence of the sons of Israel.

² At that time YHWH said to Joshua, “Make knives of flint for yourself, and return, circumcise the sons of Israel a second time”;

³ and Joshua makes knives of flint for himself, and circumcises the sons of Israel at the height of the foreskins.

⁵ for all the people who are coming out were circumcised, and all the people who [are] born in the wilderness, in the way, in their coming out from Egypt, they have not circumcised;

⁷ and He raised up their sons in their stead, Joshua has circumcised them, for they have been uncircumcised, for they have not circumcised them in the way.

⁸ And it comes to pass, when all the nation has completed to be circumcised, that they abide in their places in the camp until their recovering;

⁹ and YHWH says to Joshua, "Today I have rolled the reproach of Egypt from off you"; and [one] calls the name of that place Gilgal to this day.

¹⁰ And the sons of Israel encamp in Gilgal, and make the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the plains of Jericho;

¹¹ and they eat of the old grain of the land on the next day of the Passover, unleavened things and roasted [grain], on this very same day;

¹³ And it comes to pass in Joshua's being by Jericho, that he lifts up his eyes, and looks, and behold, [there is] one standing in front of him, and his drawn sword [is] in his hand, and Joshua goes to him, and says to him, "Are you for us or for our adversaries?"

¹⁴ And He says, "No, for I [am] Prince of YHWH's host; now I have come"; and Joshua falls on his face to the earth, and pays respect, and says to Him, "What is my Lord speaking to His servant?"

¹⁵ And the Prince of YHWH's host says to Joshua, "Cast off your shoe from off your foot, for the place on which you are standing is holy"; and Joshua does so.

¹ And Jericho shuts itself up, and is shut up, because of the presence of the sons of Israel—none going out, and none coming in.

² And YHWH says to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho and its king into your hand—mighty men of valor,

³ and you have surrounded the city—all the men of battle—going around the city once; thus you do [for] six days;

⁴ and seven priests carry seven horns of the rams before the Ark, and on the seventh day you go around the city seven times, and the priests blow with the horns,

⁵ and it has been, in the prolonging of the horn of the ram, in your hearing the voice of the horn, all the people shout [with] a great shout, and the wall of the city has fallen under it, and the people have gone up, each straight before him.”

⁶ And Joshua son of Nun calls to the priests and says to them, “Carry the Ark of the Covenant, and seven priests carry seven horns of the rams before the Ark of YHWH”;

⁷ and He said to the people, “Pass over, and go around the city, and he who is armed passes over before the Ark of YHWH.”

⁸ And it comes to pass, when Joshua speaks to the people, that the seven priests carrying seven horns of the rams before YHWH have passed over and blown with the horns, and the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH is going after them;

⁹ and he who is armed is going before the priests blowing the horns, and he who is gathering up is going after the Ark, going on and blowing with the horns;

¹⁰ and Joshua has commanded the people, saying, “Do not shout, nor cause your voice to be heard, nor does a word go out from your mouth, until the day of my saying to you, Shout! Then you have shouted.”

¹² And Joshua rises early in the morning, and the priests carry the Ark of YHWH,

¹³ and seven priests carrying seven horns of the rams before the Ark of YHWH are walking, going on, and they have blown with the horns—and he who is armed is going before them, and he who is gathering up is going behind the Ark of YHWH—going on and blowing with the horns.

¹⁴ And they go around the city once on the second day, and return to the camp; thus they have done [for] six days.

¹⁵ And it comes to pass, on the seventh day, that they rise early, at the ascending of the dawn, and go around the city, according to this manner; seven times; (only on that day have they gone around the city seven times);

¹⁶ and it comes to pass, at the seventh time, the priests have blown with the horns, and Joshua says to the people, “Shout! For YHWH has given the city to you;

¹⁷ and the city has been devoted, it and all that [is] in it, to YHWH; only Rahab the harlot lives, she and all who [are] with her in the house, for she hid the messengers whom we sent;

¹⁸ and surely you have kept from the devoted thing, lest you devote [yourselves], and have taken from the devoted thing, and have made the camp of Israel become a devoted thing, and have troubled it;

¹⁹ and all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron—it [is] holy to YHWH; it comes into the treasury of YHWH.”

²⁰ And the people shout, and blow with the horns, and it comes to pass, when the people hear the voice of the horn, that the people shout [with] a great shout, and the wall falls under it, and the people goes up into the city, each straight before him, and they capture the city;

²¹ and they devote all that [is] in the city, from man even to woman, from young even to aged, even to ox, and sheep, and donkey, by the mouth of the sword.

²² And Joshua said to the two men who are spying out the land, “Go into the house of the woman, the harlot, and bring out the woman from there, and all whom she has, as you have sworn to her.”

²⁴ And they have burned the city with fire, and all that [is] in it; only, the silver and the gold, and the vessels of bronze, and of iron, they have given [to] the treasury of the house of YHWH;

²⁵ and Rahab the harlot, and the house of her father, and all whom she has, Joshua has kept alive; and she dwells in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

² And Joshua sends men from Jericho to Ai, which [is] near Beth-Aven, on the east of Bethel, and speaks to them, saying, “Go up and spy out the land”; and the men go up and spy Ai,

³ and they return to Joshua, and say to him, “Do not let all the people go up; let about two thousand men, or about three thousand men, go up, and they strike Ai; do not cause all the people to labor there; for they [are] few.”

⁴ So about three thousand men of the people go up from there, and they flee before the men of Ai,

⁷ And Joshua says, “Aah! Lord YHWH, why have You caused this people to pass over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hand of the Amorite to destroy us? And oh that we had been willing—and we dwell beyond the Jordan!

⁸ Oh, Lord, what do I say, after that Israel has turned the neck before its enemies?”

⁹ And the Canaanite and all the inhabitants of the land hear, and have come around against us, and cut off our name from the earth; and what do You do for Your great Name?”

¹⁰ And YHWH says to Joshua, “Rise, for you—why this—[that] you [are] falling on your face?”

¹¹ Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them, and also taken of the devoted thing, and also stolen, and also deceived, and also put [it] among their vessels,

¹³ Rise, sanctify the people, and you have said, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for thus said YHWH, God of Israel: A devoted thing [is] in your midst, O Israel, you are not able to stand before your enemies until your turning aside the devoted thing from your midst;

¹⁴ and you have been brought near in the morning by your tribes, and it has been [that] the tribe which YHWH captures draws near by families, and the family which YHWH captures draws near by households, and the household which YHWH captures draws near by men;

¹⁵ and it has been, he who is captured with the devoted thing is burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of YHWH, and because he has done folly in Israel."

¹⁶ And Joshua rises early in the morning, and brings Israel near by its tribes, and the tribe of Judah is captured;

¹⁷ and he brings the family of Judah near, and he captures the family of the Zerahite; and he brings the family of the Zerahite near by men, and Zabdi is captured;

¹⁸ and he brings his household near by men, and Achan—son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah—is captured.

¹⁹ And Joshua says to Achan, "My son, please give glory to YHWH, God of Israel, and give thanks to Him, and now declare to me what you have done—do not hide [it] from me."

²⁰ And Achan answers Joshua and says, "Truly I have sinned against YHWH, God of Israel, and I have done thus and thus;

²² And Joshua sends messengers, and they run to the tent, and behold, it is hidden in his tent, and the silver [is] under it;

²³ and they take them out of the midst of the tent, and bring them to Joshua, and to all the sons of Israel, and pour them out before YHWH.

²⁴ And Joshua takes Achan son of Zerah, and the silver, and the robe, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his ox, and his donkey, and his flock, and his tent, and all that he has, and all Israel with him, and they brought them up [to] the Valley of Achor.

²⁵ And Joshua says, "Why have you troubled us? YHWH troubles you this day!" And all Israel cast stone at him, and they burn them with fire, and they stone them with stones,

²⁶ and they raise up a great heap of stones over him to this day, and YHWH turns back from the heat of His anger, therefore [one] has called the name of that place "Valley of Achor" until this day.

¹ And YHWH says to Joshua, "Do not fear, nor be frightened, take with you all the people of war, and rise, go up to Ai; see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land,

² and you have done to Ai and to her king as you have done to Jericho and to her king; only spoil its spoil and its livestock for yourselves; for you set an ambush for the city at its rear.”

³ And Joshua rises, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai, and Joshua chooses thirty thousand men, mighty men of valor, and sends them away by night,

⁵ and I and all the people who [are] with me draw near to the city, and it has come to pass, when they come out to meet us as at the first, and we have fled before them,

⁶ and they have come out after us until we have drawn them out of the city, for they say, They are fleeing before us as at the first, and we have fled before them,

⁷ and you rise from the ambush, and have occupied the city, and your God YHWH has given it into your hand;

⁸ and it has been, when you capture the city, you burn the city with fire, you do according to the word of YHWH, see, I have commanded you.”

¹⁰ And Joshua rises early in the morning, and inspects the people, and goes up, he and [the] elderly of Israel, before the people to Ai;

¹¹ and all the people of war who [are] with him have gone up, and draw near and come in before the city, and encamp on the north of Ai; and the valley [is] between him and Ai.

¹² And he takes about five thousand men, and sets them [for] an ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west of the city;

¹⁴ And it comes to pass, when the king of Ai sees [it], that he hurries, and rises early, and the men of the city go out to meet Israel for battle, he and all his people, at the appointed time, at the front of the plain, and he has not known that an ambush [is] against him, on the rear of the city.

¹⁵ And Joshua and all Israel [seem] struck before them, and flee the way of the wilderness,

¹⁶ and all the people who [are] in the city are called to pursue after them, and they pursue after Joshua, and are drawn away out of the city,

¹⁷ and there has not been a man left in Ai and Bethel who has not gone out after Israel, and they leave the city open, and pursue after Israel.

²⁰ And the men of Ai look behind them, and see, and behold, the smoke of the city has gone up to the heavens, and there has not been power in them to flee here and there—and the people who are fleeing to the wilderness have turned against the pursuer—

²¹ and Joshua and all Israel have seen that the ambush has captured the city, and that the smoke of the city has gone up, and they turn back and strike the men of Ai;

²² and these have come out from the city to meet them, and they are in the midst of Israel, some on this [side], and some on that [side], and they strike them until he has not left a remnant and escaped one to them;

²³ and they have caught the king of Ai alive, and bring him near to Joshua.

²⁴ And it comes to pass, at Israel's finishing to slay all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them (and all of them fall by the mouth of the sword until their consumption), that all of Israel turns back to Ai, and strikes it by the mouth of the sword;

²⁵ and all who fall during the day, of men and of women, are twelve thousand—all men of Ai.

²⁶ And Joshua has not brought back his hand which he stretched out with the javelin until he has devoted all the inhabitants of Ai;

²⁸ And Joshua burns Ai, and makes it a continuous heap—a desolation to this day;

²⁹ and he has hanged the king of Ai on the tree until evening, and at the going in of the sun Joshua has commanded, and they take down his carcass from the tree, and cast it to the opening of the gate of the city, and raise a great heap of stones over it until this day.

³⁰ Then Joshua builds an altar to YHWH, God of Israel, in Mount Ebal,

³¹ as Moses, servant of YHWH, commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the Scroll of the Law of Moses—an altar of whole stones, over which he has not waved iron—and they cause burnt-offerings to go up on it to YHWH, and sacrifice peace-offerings;

³² and he writes there on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which he has written in the presence of the sons of Israel.

³⁴ And afterward he has proclaimed all the words of the Law, the blessing and the reviling, according to all that is written in the Scroll of the Law;

³⁵ there has not been a thing of all that Moses commanded which Joshua has not proclaimed before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the infants, and the sojourner who is going in their midst.

² that they gather themselves together to fight with Joshua, and with Israel—[with] one mouth.

³ And the inhabitants of Gibeon have heard that which Joshua has done to Jericho and to Ai,

⁴ and they work, even they, with subtlety, and go, and feign to be ambassadors, and take old sacks for their donkeys, and wine-bottles, old, and split, and bound up,

⁵ and sandals, old and patched, on their feet, and old garments on them, and all the bread of their provision is dry—it was crumbs.

⁶ And they go to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and say to him, and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far-off land, and now, make a covenant with us”;

⁷ and the men of Israel say to the Hivite, “It may be [that] you are dwelling in our midst, so how do we make a covenant with you?”

⁸ And they say to Joshua, “We [are] your servants.” And Joshua says to them, “Who [are] you? And where do you come from?”

⁹ And they say to him, “Your servants have come from a very far-off land, for the Name of your God YHWH, for we have heard His fame, and all that He has done in Egypt,

¹⁰ and all that He has done to the two kings of the Amorite who [are] beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, who [is] in Ashtaroth.

¹¹ And our elderly, and all the inhabitants of our land speak to us, saying, Take provision in your hand for the way, and go to meet them, and you have said to them: We [are] your servants, and now, make a covenant with us;

¹² this bread of ours—we provided ourselves with it hot out of our houses, on the day of our coming out to go to you, and now, behold, it is dry, and has been crumbs;

¹⁴ And the men take of their provision, and have not asked the mouth of YHWH;

¹⁵ and Joshua makes peace with them, and makes a covenant with them, to keep them alive; and the princes of the congregation swear to them.

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, that at the end of three days after they have made a covenant with them, that they hear that they [are] their neighbors—that they are dwelling in their midst.

¹⁷ And the sons of Israel journey and come to their cities on the third day—and their cities [are] Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-Jearim—

¹⁸ and the sons of Israel have not struck them, for the princes of the congregation have sworn to them by YHWH, God of Israel, and all the congregation murmur against the princes.

¹⁹ And all the princes say to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by YHWH, God of Israel; and now, we are not able to come against them;

²⁰ we do this to them, and have kept them alive, and wrath is not on us, because of the oath which we have sworn to them.”

²¹ And the princes say to them, “They live, and are hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the princes spoke to them.”

²² And Joshua calls for them, and speaks to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you, yet you [are] dwelling in our midst?”

²³ And now you are cursed, and none of you is cut off [from being] a servant, even hewers of wood and drawers of water, for the house of my God.”

²⁴ And they answer Joshua and say, “Because it was certainly declared to your servants that your God YHWH commanded His servant Moses to give all the land to you, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; and we fear greatly for ourselves because of you, and we do this thing;

²⁵ and now, behold, we [are] in your hand, as [it is] good, and as [it is] right in your eyes to do to us—do.”

²⁶ And he does to them so, and delivers them from the hand of the sons of Israel, and they have not slain them;

¹ And it comes to pass, when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem hears that Joshua has captured Ai, and devotes it (as he had done to Jericho and to her king so he has done to Ai and to her king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon have made peace with Israel, and are in their midst—

² that they are greatly afraid, because Gibeon [is] a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it [is] greater than Ai, and all its men [are] heroes.

³ And Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sends to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

⁴ “Come up to me, and help me, and we strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua, and with the sons of Israel.”

⁷ And Joshua goes up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, even all the mighty men of valor.

⁸ And YHWH says to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand, there does not stand a man of them in your presence.”

⁹ And Joshua comes to them suddenly (all the night he has gone up from Gilgal),

¹⁰ and YHWH crushes them before Israel, and strikes them [with] a great striking at Gibeon, and pursues them the way of the ascent of Beth-Horon, and strikes them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, in their fleeing from the face of Israel—they [are] in the descent of Beth-Horon—and YHWH has cast great stones on them out of the heavens, to Azekah, and they die; more are they who have died by the hailstones than they whom the sons of Israel have slain by the sword.

¹² Then Joshua speaks to YHWH in the day of YHWH's giving up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he says before the eyes of Israel, "Sun—stand still in Gibeon; and moon—in the Valley of Ajalon";

¹³ and the sun stands still, and the moon has stood—until the nation takes vengeance [on] its enemies; is it not written on the Scroll of the Upright, "and the sun stands in the midst of the heavens, and has not hurried to go in—as a perfect day?"

¹⁴ And there has not been like that day before it or after it, for YHWH's listening to the voice of a man; for YHWH is fighting for Israel.

¹⁵ And Joshua turns back, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

¹⁶ And these five kings flee, and are hidden in a cave at Makkedah,

¹⁷ and it is declared to Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in a cave at Makkedah."

¹⁸ And Joshua says, "Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave, and appoint men over it to watch them;

¹⁹ and you, do not stand, pursue after your enemies, and you have struck them from the rear; do not permit them to go into their cities, for your God YHWH has given them into your hand."

²⁰ And it comes to pass, when Joshua and the sons of Israel finish to strike them [with] a very great striking until they are consumed, and the remnant who have remained of them go into the fortified cities,

²¹ that all the people return to the camp, to Joshua, [at] Makkedah, in peace; none moved his tongue sharply against the sons of Israel.

²² And Joshua says, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out to me these five kings from the cave";

²³ and they do so, and bring out to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon.

²⁴ And it comes to pass, when they bring out these kings to Joshua, that Joshua calls to every man of Israel, and says to the captains of the men of war, who have gone with him, "Draw near, set your feet on the necks of these kings"; and they draw near, and set their feet on their necks.

²⁵ And Joshua says to them, "Do not fear, nor be frightened; be strong and courageous; for thus does YHWH do to all your enemies with whom you are fighting";

²⁶ and Joshua strikes them afterward, and puts them to death, and hangs them on five trees; and they are hanging on the trees until the evening.

²⁷ And it comes to pass, at the time of the going in of the sun, Joshua has commanded, and they take them down from off the trees, and cast them into the cave where they had been hid, and put great stones on the mouth of the cave until this very day.

²⁸ And Joshua has captured Makkedah on that day, and he strikes it by the mouth of the sword, and he has devoted its king, them and every person who [is] in it—he has not left a remnant; and he does to the king of Makkedah as he did to the king of Jericho.

²⁹ And Joshua passes over, and all Israel with him, from Makkedah [to] Libnah, and fights with Libnah;

³⁰ and YHWH also gives it into the hand of Israel, and its king, and [Joshua] strikes it by the mouth of the sword, and every person who [is] in it—he does not leave a remnant in it; and he does to its king as he did to the king of Jericho.

³¹ And Joshua passes over, and all Israel with him, from Libnah to Lachish, and encamps against it, and fights against it.

³² And YHWH gives Lachish into the hand of Israel, and [Joshua] captures it on the second day, and strikes it by the mouth of the sword, and every person who [is] in it, according to all that he did to Libnah.

³³ Then Horam king of Gezer has come up to help Lachish, and Joshua strikes him and his people, until he has not left a remnant to him.

³⁴ And Joshua passes over, and all Israel with him, from Lachish to Eglon, and they encamp against it, and fight against it,

³⁵ and capture it on that day, and strike it by the mouth of the sword, and every person who [is] in it he has devoted on that day, according to all that he did to Lachish.

³⁶ And Joshua goes up, and all Israel with him, from Eglon to Hebron, and they fight against it, ³⁷ and capture it, and strike it by the mouth of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and every person who [is] in it—he has not left a remnant—according to all that he did to Eglon—and devotes it, and every person who [is] in it.

³⁸ And Joshua turns back, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fights against it,

³⁹ and captures it, and its king, and all its cities, and they strike them by the mouth of the sword, and devote every person who [is] in it—he has not left a remnant; as he did to Hebron so he did to Debir, and to its king, and as he did to Libnah, and to its king.

⁴⁰ And Joshua strikes all the land of the hill-country, and of the south, and of the low-country, and of the springs, and all their kings—he has not left a remnant, and he has devoted all that breathe, as YHWH, God of Israel, commanded.

⁴¹ And Joshua strikes them from Kadesh-Barnea, even to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen, even to Gibeon;

⁴² and Joshua has captured all these kings and their land [at] one time, for YHWH, God of Israel, is fighting for Israel.

⁴³ And Joshua turns back, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

² and to the kings who [are] on the north in the hill-country, and in the plain south of Chinneroth, and in the low country, and in the elevations of Dor, on the west,

³ [to] the Canaanite on the east, and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill-country, and the Hivite under Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh—

⁵ and all these kings are met together, and they come and encamp together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

⁶ And YHWH says to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of their presence, for about this time tomorrow I am giving all of them slain before Israel; hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.”

⁷ And Joshua comes, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom, and they suddenly fall on them;

⁸ and YHWH gives them into the hand of Israel, and they strike them and pursue them to the great Sidon, and to Misrephoth-Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpeh eastward, and they strike them, until he has not left a remnant to them;

⁹ and Joshua does to them as YHWH commanded to him; he has hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.

¹⁰ And Joshua turns back at that time, and captures Hazor, and he has struck its king by the sword; for Hazor [was] formerly head of all these kingdoms;

¹¹ and they strike every person who [is] in it by the mouth of the sword; he has devoted—he has not left anyone breathing, and he has burned Hazor with fire;

¹² and all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, Joshua has captured, and he strikes them by the mouth of the sword; he devoted them, as Moses, servant of YHWH, commanded.

¹³ Only, all the cities which are standing by their hill, Israel has not burned them—except Joshua has burned Hazor, only;

¹⁵ As YHWH commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua has done; he has not turned aside a thing of all that YHWH commanded Moses.

¹⁶ And Joshua takes all this land: the hill-country, and all the south, and all the land of Goshen, and the low country, and the plain, even the hill-country of Israel and its low lands,

¹⁷ from the Mount of Halak, which is going up [to] Seir, and to Ba'al-Gad, in the Valley of Lebanon, under Mount Hermon; and he has captured all their kings, and he strikes them, and puts them to death.

¹⁸ Joshua has made war with all these kings [for] many days;

¹⁹ there has not been a city which made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivite, inhabitants of Gibeon; they have taken the whole in battle;

²⁰ for it has been from YHWH to strengthen their heart, to meet in battle with Israel, in order to devote them, so that they have no grace, but in order to destroy them, as YHWH commanded Moses.

²² There has not been Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, were they left.

²³ And Joshua takes the whole of the land, according to all that YHWH has spoken to Moses, and Joshua gives it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes; and the land has rest from war.

² Sihon, king of the Amorite, who is dwelling in Heshbon, ruling from Aroer which [is] on the border of the Brook of Arnon, and the middle of the brook, and half of Gilead, and to the Brook of Jabok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

⁴ And the border of Og king of Bashan (of the remnant of the Rephaim), who is dwelling in Ashtaroth and in Edrei,

⁶ Moses, servant of YHWH, and the sons of Israel have struck them, and Moses, servant of YHWH, gives it—a possession to the Reubenite, and to the Gadite, and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh.

⁷ And these [are] kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel have struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Ba'al-Gad, in the Valley of Lebanon, and to the Mount of Halak, which is going up to Seir; and Joshua gives it to the tribes of Israel—a possession according to their divisions;

⁸ in the hill-country, and in the low country, and in the plain, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

⁹ the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which [is] beside Bethel, one;

¹⁰ the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

¹¹ the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

¹² the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

¹³ the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

¹⁴ the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

¹⁵ the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

¹⁶ the king of Mekkedah, one; the king of Beth-El, one;

¹⁷ the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;

¹⁸ the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

¹⁹ the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

- ²⁰ the king of Shimron-Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;
²¹ the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
²² the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one;
²³ the king of Dor, at the elevation of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one;
²⁴ the king of Tirzah, one; all the kings [are] thirty-one.

¹ And Joshua is old, entering into days, and YHWH says to him, "You have become aged, you have entered into days; as for the land, very much has been left to possess.

² This [is] the land that is left: all the circuits of the Philistines, and all Geshuri,

⁴ from the south, all the land of the Canaanite, and Mearah, which [is] to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorite;

⁵ and the land of the Gibleite, and all Lebanon, at the sun-rising, from Ba'al-Gad under Mount Hermon, to the going in to Hamath:

⁷ And now, apportion this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and half of the tribe of Manasseh."

⁸ With [the other half], the Reubenite and the Gadite have received their inheritance, which Moses has given to them beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses servant of YHWH has given to them;

⁹ from Aroer, which [is] on the edge of the Brook of Arnon, and the city which [is] in the midst of the brook, and all the plain of Medeba to Dihon,

¹⁰ and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorite, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the sons of Ammon,

¹¹ and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurite, and of the Maachathite, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salcah;

¹² all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei; he was left of the remnant of the Rephaim, and Moses strikes them, and dispossesses them;

¹³ and the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurite, and the Maachathite; and Geshur and Maachath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.

¹⁴ Only, he has not given an inheritance to the tribe of Levi; fire-offerings of YHWH, God of Israel, [are] its inheritance, as He has spoken to it.

¹⁵ And Moses gives to the tribe of the sons of Reuben, for their families;

¹⁶ and the border is to them from Aroer, which [is] on the edge of the Brook of Arnon, and the city which [is] in the midst of the brook, and all the plain by Medeba,

¹⁷ Heshbon, and all its cities which [are] in the plain, Dibon, and Bamoth-Ba'al, and Beth-Ba'al-Meon,

¹⁸ and Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

¹⁹ and Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-Shahar, on the mountain of the valley,

²⁰ and Beth-Peor, and the Springs of Pisgah, and Beth-Jeshimoth,

²² And the sons of Israel have slain Balaam, son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword, among their wounded ones.

²³ And the border of the sons of Reuben is the Jordan, and [its] border; this [is] the inheritance of the sons of Reuben, for their families, the cities and their villages.

²⁴ And Moses gives to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, for their families;

²⁵ and the border to them is Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half of the land of the sons of Ammon, to Aroer which [is] on the front of Rabbah,

²⁶ and from Heshbon to Ramath-Mispeh, and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir,

²⁸ This [is] the inheritance of the sons of Gad, for their families, the cities and their villages.

²⁹ And Moses gives to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it is to the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh, for their families.

³⁰ And their border is from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the small towns of Jair, which [are] in Bashan—sixty cities;

³¹ and half of Gilead, and Ashteroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, [are] to the sons of Machir, son of Manasseh, to the half of the sons of Machir, for their families.

³² These [are] they whom Moses caused to inherit in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan, [by] Jericho, eastward;

³³ and Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi; YHWH, God of Israel, Himself, [is] their inheritance, as He has spoken to them.

² their inheritance [is] by lot, as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe;

³ for Moses has given the inheritance of two of the tribes, and of half of the tribe, beyond the Jordan, and he has not given an inheritance to the Levites in their midst;

⁴ for the sons of Joseph have been two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and they have not given a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, and their outskirts for their livestock, and for their possessions;

⁵ as YHWH commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel have done, and they apportion the land.

⁶ And the sons of Judah come near to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenezite says to him, “You have known the word that YHWH has spoken to Moses, the man of God, concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh-Barnea:

⁷ I [was] a son of forty years in Moses, servant of YHWH, sending me from Kadesh-Barnea, to spy out the land, and I bring him back word as with my heart;

⁸ and my brothers who have gone up with me have caused the heart of the people to melt, and I have been fully after my God YHWH;

⁹ and Moses swears in that day, saying, Nevertheless—the land on which your foot has trodden, it is to you for an inheritance, and to your sons—for all time, for you have been fully after my God YHWH.

¹⁰ And now, behold, YHWH has kept me alive, as He has spoken, these forty-five years, since YHWH spoke this word to Moses when Israel went in the wilderness; and now, behold, I [am] a son of eighty-five years today;

¹¹ yet today I [am] strong as in the day of Moses’ sending me; as my power [was] then, so [is] my power now, for battle, and to go out, and to come in.

¹² And now, give this hill-country to me, of which YHWH spoke in that day, for you heard in that day, for Anakim [are] there, and great, fortified cities; if [it] so be [that] YHWH [is] with me, then I have dispossessed them, as YHWH has spoken.”

¹³ And Joshua blesses him, and gives Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance,

¹⁴ therefore Hebron has been to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenezite for an inheritance to this day, because that he was fully after YHWH, God of Israel;

¹⁵ and the name of Hebron [was] formerly Kirjath-Arba (the man [was] the greatest among the Anakim); and the land has rest from war.

² and to them the south border is at the extremity of the Salt Sea, from the bay which is looking southward;

³ and it has gone out to the south to Maaleh-Akrabbim, and passed over to Zin, and gone up on the south to Kadesh-Barnea, and passed over [to] Hezron, and gone up to Adar, and turned around to Karkaa,

⁵ And the east border [is] the Salt Sea, to the extremity of the Jordan, and the border at the north quarter [is] from the bay of the sea, at the extremity of the Jordan;

⁶ and the border has gone up [to] Beth-Hoglah, and passed over on the north of Beth-Arabah, and the border has gone up [to] the stone of Bohan son of Reuben:

⁷ and the border has gone up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and northward looking to Gilgal, which [is] opposite the ascent of Adummim, which [is] on the south of the brook, and the border has passed over to the waters of En-Shemesh, and its outgoings have been to En-Rogel;

⁹ and the border has been marked out, from the top of the hill-country to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah, and has gone out to the cities of Mount Ephron, and the border has been marked out [to] Ba'alalah (it [is] Kirjath-Jearim);

¹⁰ and the border has gone around from Ba'alalah westward, to Mount Seir, and passed over to the side of Mount Jearim (it [is] Chesalon), on the north, and gone down [to] Beth-Shemesh, and passed over to Timnah;

¹¹ and the border has gone out to the side of Ekron northward, and the border has been marked out [to] Shicron, and has passed over to Mount Ba'alalah, and gone out [to] Jabneel; and the outgoings of the border have been at the sea.

¹² And the west border [is] to the Great Sea, and [its] border; this [is] the border of the sons of Judah all around for their families.

¹³ And to Caleb son of Jephunneh he has given a portion in the midst of the sons of Judah, according to the command of YHWH to Joshua, [even] the city of Arba, father of Anak—it [is] Hebron.

¹⁴ And Caleb is dispossessing there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, children of Anak,

¹⁵ and he goes up there to the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir [was] formerly Kirjath-Sepher.

¹⁶ And Caleb says, "He who strikes Kirjath-Sephar, and has captured it—I have given my daughter Achsah to him for a wife."

¹⁷ And Othniel son of Kenaz, brother of Caleb, captures it, and he gives his daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

¹⁸ And it comes to pass, in her coming in, that she persuades him to ask [for] a field from her father, and she comes down off the donkey, and Caleb says to her, "What do you [want]?"

¹⁹ And she says, "Give a blessing to me; when you have given me the land of the south, then you have given springs of waters to me"; and he gives the upper springs and the lower springs to her.

²⁰ This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah, for their families.

²¹ And the cities at the extremity of the tribe of the sons of Judah are to the border of Edom in the south, Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,

²² and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,

²³ and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

²⁴ Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

²⁵ and Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, Hezron (it [is] Hazor),

²⁶ Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,

²⁷ and Hazar-Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-Palet,

²⁸ and Hazar-Shual, and Beer-Sheba, and Bizjothjah,

²⁹ Ba'alalah, and Im, and Azem,

³⁰ and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,

³¹ and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,

³² and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon; all the cities [are] twenty-nine, and their villages.

³³ In the low country: Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah,

³⁴ and Zanoah, and En-Gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,

³⁵ Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,

³⁶ and Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities and their villages.

³⁷ Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-Gad,

³⁸ and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,

³⁹ Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,

⁴⁰ and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish,

⁴¹ and Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities and their villages.

⁴² Libnah, and Ether; and Ashan,

⁴³ and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,

⁴⁴ and Keilah, and Achzib, and Maresah; nine cities and their villages.

⁴⁵ Ekron and its towns and its villages,

⁴⁶ from Ekron and westward, all that [are] by the side of Ashdod, and their villages.

⁴⁷ Ashdod, its towns and its villages, Gaza, its towns and its villages, to the Brook of Egypt, and the Great Sea, and [its] border.

⁴⁸ And in the hill-country: Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,

⁴⁹ and Dannah, and Kirjath-Sannah (it [is] Debir),

⁵⁰ and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,

⁵¹ and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities and their villages.

⁵² Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean,

⁵³ and Janum, and Beth-Tappuah, and Aphekah,

⁵⁴ and Humtah, and Kirjath-Arba (it [is] Hebron), and Zior; nine cities and their villages.

⁵⁵ Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah,

⁵⁶ and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,

⁵⁷ Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities and their villages.

⁵⁸ Halhul, Beth-Zur, and Gedor,

⁵⁹ and Maarath, and Beth-Anoth, and Eltekon; six cities and their villages.

⁶⁰ Kirjath-Ba'al (it [is] Kirjath-Jearim), and Rabbah; two cities and their villages.

⁶¹ In the wilderness: Beth-Arabah, Middin, and Secacah,

⁶² and Nibshan, and the City of Salt, and En-Gedi; six cities and their villages.

⁶³ As for the Jebusites, inhabitants of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah have not been able to dispossess them, and the Jebusite dwells with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

¹ And the lot for the sons of Joseph goes out from Jordan [by] Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness going up from Jericho in the hill-country of Beth-El,

² and has gone out from Beth-El to Luz, and passed over to the border of Archi [to] Ataroth,

³ and gone down westward to the border of Japhleti, to the border of the lower Beth-Horon, and to Gezer, and its outgoings have been at the sea.

⁴ And the sons of Joseph—Manasseh and Ephraim—inherit.

⁵ And the border of the sons of Ephraim is by their families; and the border of their inheritance is on the east, Atroth-Addar to the upper Beth-Horon;

⁷ and gone down from Janohah [to] Ataroth, and to Naarath, and touched against Jericho, and gone out at the Jordan.

⁸ From Tappuah the border goes westward to the Brook of Kanah, and its outgoings have been at the sea: this [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, for their families.

⁹ And the separate cities of the sons of Ephraim [are] in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages;

¹⁰ and they have not dispossessed the Canaanite who is dwelling in Gezer, and the Canaanite dwells in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and is for forced labor—serving.

² And there is [a lot] for the sons of Manasseh who are left, for their families; for the sons of Abiezer, and for the sons of Helek, and for the sons of Asriel, and for the sons of Shechem, and for the sons of Hopher, and for the sons of Shemida; these [are] the children of Manasseh son of Joseph—the males—by their families.

⁵ And ten portions fall [to] Manasseh, apart from the land of Gilead and Bashan, which [are] beyond the Jordan;

⁶ for the daughters of Manasseh have inherited an inheritance in the midst of his sons, and the land of Gilead has been for the sons of Manasseh who are left.

⁷ And the border of Manasseh is from Asher to Michmethah, which [is] on the front of Shechem, and the border has gone on to the right, to the inhabitants of En-Tappuah.

⁸ The land of Tappuah has been for Manasseh, and Tappuah to the border of Manasseh for the sons of Ephraim.

¹⁰ Southward [is] for Ephraim and northward for Manasseh, and the sea is his border, and in Asher they meet on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

¹¹ And in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh has Beth-Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three counties.

¹² And the sons of Manasseh have not been able to occupy these cities, and the Canaanite is desirous to dwell in this land,

¹³ and it comes to pass, when the sons of Israel have been strong, that they put the Canaanite to forced labor, and have not utterly dispossessed him.

¹⁴ And the sons of Joseph speak with Joshua, saying, “Why have you given an inheritance to me—one lot and one portion, and I [am] a numerous people? YHWH has blessed me until now.”

¹⁵ And Joshua says to them, “If you [are] a numerous people, go up to the forest for yourself, then you have created [a place] for yourself there in the land of the Perizzite and of the Rephaim, when Mount Ephraim has been narrow for you.”

¹⁷ And Joshua speaks to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, “You [are] a numerous people, and have great power; you do not have [only] one lot,

¹⁸ because the mountain is yours; because it [is] a forest—you have created it, and its outgoings have been yours; because you dispossess the Canaanite, though it has chariots of iron—though it [is] strong.”

¹ And all the congregation of the sons of Israel is assembled [at] Shiloh, and they cause the Tent of Meeting to dwell there, and the land has been subdued before them.

² And there are seven tribes left among the sons of Israel who have not shared their inheritance,

³ and Joshua says to the sons of Israel, “Until when are you remiss to go in to possess the land which He, YHWH, God of your fathers, has given to you?”

⁴ Give three men from you for [each] tribe, and I send them, and they rise and go up and down through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance, and come to me,

⁵ and they have divided it into seven portions—Judah stays by its border on the south, and the house of Joseph stays by their border on the north—

⁶ and you describe the land [in] seven portions, and have brought [it] to me here, and I have cast a lot for you here before our God YHWH;

⁸ And the men rise and go; and Joshua commands those who are going to describe the land, saying, “Go, and walk up and down through the land, and describe it, and return to me, and here I cast a lot for you before YHWH in Shiloh.”

⁹ And the men go, and pass over through the land, and describe it by cities, in seven portions, on a scroll, and they come to Joshua, to the camp [at] Shiloh.

¹⁰ And Joshua casts a lot for them in Shiloh before YHWH, and there Joshua apports the land to the sons of Israel, according to their divisions.

¹³ and the border has gone over there to Luz, to the side of Luz (it [is] Beth-El) southward, and the border has gone down [to] Atroth-Addar, by the hill that [is] on the south of the lower Beth-Horon;

¹⁵ And the south quarter [is] from the end of Kirjath-Jearim, and the border has gone out westward, and has gone out to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah;

¹⁶ and the border has come down to the extremity of the hill which [is] on the front of the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which [is] in the Valley of the Rephaim northward, and has gone down the Valley of Hinnom to the side of Jebusi southward, and gone down [to] En-Rogel,

¹⁸ and passed over to the side in front of the Arabah northward, and gone down to Arabah;

²⁰ and the Jordan borders it at the east quarter; this [is] the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, by its borders all around, for their families.

²¹ And the cities for the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, for their families, have been Jericho, and Beth-Hoglah, and the Valley of Keziz,

²² and Beth-Arabah, Zemaraim, and Beth-El,

²³ and Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

²⁴ and Chephar-Haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities and their villages.

²⁵ Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

²⁶ and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

²⁷ and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

²⁸ and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi (it [is] Jerusalem), Gibeath, Kirjath; fourteen cities and their villages. This [is] the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, for their families.

² and they have in their inheritance Beer-Sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

³ and Hazar-Shual, and Balah, and Azem,

⁴ and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

⁵ and Ziklag, and Beth-Marcaboth, and Hazar-Susah,

⁶ and Beth-Lebaoth, and Sharuhem; thirteen cities and their villages.

⁷ Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages;

⁸ also all the villages which [are] around these cities, to Ba'alath-Ber, Ramoth of the south. This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, for their families;

¹⁰ And the third lot goes up for the sons of Zebulun, for their families; and the border of their inheritance is to Sarid,

¹² and turned back from Sarid eastward, at the sun-rising, by the border of Chisloth-Tabor, and gone out to Daberath, and gone up to Japhia,

¹³ and there it has passed over eastward, to the east, to Gittah-Hepher, [to] Ittah-Kazin, and gone out [to] Rimmon-Methoar to Neah;

¹⁴ and the border has gone around it, from the north to Hannathon; and its outgoings have been [in] the Valley of Jiphthah-El,

¹⁵ and Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-Lehem; twelve cities and their villages.

¹⁶ This [is] the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun, for their families, these cities and their villages.

¹⁷ The fourth lot has gone out for Issachar, for the sons of Issachar, for their families;

¹⁸ and their border is [at] Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

¹⁹ and Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath,

²⁰ and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

²¹ and Remeth, and En-Gannim, and En-Haddah, and Beth-Pazzez;

²² and the border has touched against Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-Shemesh, and the outgoings of their border have been [at] the Jordan; sixteen cities and their villages.

²³ This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, for their families, the cities and their villages.

²⁴ And the fifth lot goes out for the tribe of the sons of Asher, for their families;

²⁵ and their border is Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

²⁶ and Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and it touches against Carmel westward, and against Shihor-Libnath;

²⁸ and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, to great Sidon;

²⁹ and the border has turned back to Ramah, and to the fortified city Tyre; and the border has turned back to Hosah, and its outgoings are at the sea, from the coast to Achzib,

³⁰ and Ummah, and Aphek, and Rehob; twenty-two cities and their villages.

³¹ This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher, for their families, these cities and their villages.

³² The sixth lot has gone out for the sons of Naphtali—for the sons of Naphtali, for their families;

³³ and their border is from Heleph, from Allon in Zaananim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakkum, and its outgoings are [at] the Jordan;

³⁵ and the cities of defense [are] Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,

³⁶ and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

³⁷ and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-Hazor,

³⁸ and Iron, and Migdal-El, Horem, and Beth-Anath, and Beth-Shemesh; nineteen cities and their villages.

³⁹ This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, for their families, the cities and their villages.

⁴⁰ The seventh lot has gone out for the tribe of the sons of Dan, for their families;

⁴¹ and the border of their inheritance is Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-Shemesh,

⁴² and Shalabbin, and Aijalon, and Jethlah,

⁴³ and Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,

⁴⁴ and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Ba'alath,

⁴⁵ and Jehud, and Bene-Barak, and Gath-Rimmon,

⁴⁶ and Me-Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border in front of Joppa.

⁴⁸ This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan, for their families, these cities and their villages.

⁴⁹ And they finish to give the land in inheritance, by its borders, and the sons of Israel give an inheritance to Joshua son of Nun in their midst;

⁵⁰ by the command of YHWH they have given to him the city which he asked for, Timnath-Serah, in the hill-country of Ephraim, and he builds the city and dwells in it.

² “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Give cities of refuge for yourselves, as I have spoken to you by the hand of Moses,

³ for the fleeing there of a manslayer striking life through ignorance, without knowledge; and they have been for a refuge to you from the redeemer of blood.

⁴ When [one] has fled to one of these cities, and has stood [at] the opening of the gate of the city, and has spoken his matter in the ears of [the] elderly of that city, then they have gathered him into the city to them, and have given a place to him, and he has dwelt with them.

⁶ and he has dwelt in that city until his standing before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the chief priest who is in those days—then the manslayer turns back and has come to his city, and to his house, to the city from where he fled.”

⁷ And they sanctify Kedesh in Galilee, in the hill-country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and Kirjath-Arba (it [is] Hebron), in the hill-country of Judah;

¹ And the heads of the fathers of the Levites draw near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel,

² and they speak to them in Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, saying, “YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses to give to us cities to dwell in, and their outskirts for our livestock.”

³ And the sons of Israel give to the Levites, out of their inheritance, at the command of YHWH, these cities and their outskirts:

⁷ For the sons of Merari, for their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, [are] twelve cities.

⁸ And the sons of Israel give these cities and their outskirts to the Levites, as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses, by lot.

⁹ And they give out of the tribe of the sons of Judah, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, these cities which are called by name;

¹⁰ and they are for the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathite, of the sons of Levi, for the first lot has been theirs;

¹¹ and they give to them the city of Arba father of Anak (it [is] Hebron), in the hill-country of Judah, and its outskirts around it;

¹² and they have given the field of the city and its villages to Caleb son of Jephunneh for his possession.

¹³ And to the sons of Aaron the priest they have given the city of refuge [for] the manslayer, Hebron and its outskirts, and Libnah and its outskirts,

¹⁴ and Jattir and its outskirts, and Eshtemoa and its outskirts,

¹⁵ and Holon and its outskirts, and Debir and its outskirts,

¹⁶ and Ain and its outskirts, and Juttah and its outskirts, Beth-Shemesh and its outskirts; nine cities out of these two tribes.

¹⁷ And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and its outskirts, Geba and its outskirts,

¹⁸ Anathoth and its outskirts, and Almon and its outskirts—four cities;

¹⁹ all the cities of the sons of Aaron the priests, [are] thirteen cities and their outskirts.

²⁰ And for the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, who are left of the sons of Kohath, even the cities of their lot are of the tribe of Ephraim;

²¹ and they give to them the city of refuge [for] the manslayer, Shechem and its outskirts, in the hill-country of Ephraim, and Gezer and its outskirts,

²² and Kibzaim and its outskirts, and Beth-Horon and its outskirts—four cities.

²³ And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and its outskirts, Gibbethon and its outskirts, ²⁴ Aijalon and its outskirts, Gath-Rimmon and its outskirts—four cities.

²⁵ And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach and its outskirts, and Gath-Rimmon and its outskirts—two cities;

²⁶ all the cities [are] ten and their outskirts, for the families of the sons of Kohath who are left.

²⁸ And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon and its outskirts, Dabarath and its outskirts, ²⁹ Jarmuth and its outskirts, En-Gannim and its outskirts—four cities.

³⁰ And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its outskirts, Abdon and its outskirts,

³¹ Helkath and its outskirts, and Rehob and its outskirts—four cities.

³² And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge [for] the manslayer, Kedesh in Galilee and its outskirts, and Hammoth-Dor and its outskirts, and Kartan and its outskirts—three cities;

³³ all the cities of the Gershonite, for their families, [are] thirteen cities and their outskirts.

³⁴ And for the families of the sons of Merari, the Levites, who are left, [are,] out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam and its outskirts, Kartah and its outskirts, ³⁵ Dimnah and its outskirts, Nahalal and its outskirts—four cities.

³⁶ And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and its outskirts, and Jahazah and its outskirts, ³⁷ Kedemoth and its outskirts, and Mephaath and its outskirts—four cities.

³⁸ And out of the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge [for] the manslayer, Ramoth in Gilead and its outskirts, and Mahanaim and its outskirts, ³⁹ Heshbon and its outskirts, Jazer and its outskirts—four cities [in] all.

⁴⁰ All the cities for the sons of Merari, for their families, who are left of the families of the Levites—their lot is twelve cities.

⁴¹ All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel [are] forty-eight cities, and their outskirts.

⁴² These cities are each city and its outskirts around it; so to all these cities.

⁴³ And YHWH gives to Israel the whole of the land which He has sworn to give to their fathers, and they possess it, and dwell in it;

⁴⁴ and YHWH gives rest to them all around, according to all that which He has sworn to their fathers, and there has not stood a man in their presence of all their enemies, YHWH has given the whole of their enemies into their hand;

⁴⁵ there has not fallen a thing of all the good thing which YHWH spoke to the house of Israel—the whole has come.

¹ Then Joshua calls for the Reubenite, and for the Gadite, and for the half-tribe of Manasseh,

² and says to them, “You have kept the whole of that which Moses, servant of YHWH, commanded you, and you listen to my voice, to all that I have commanded you;

³ you have not left your brothers these many days to this day, and have kept the charge—the command of your God YHWH.

⁴ And now, your God YHWH has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them; and now, turn, and go for yourselves to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses, servant of YHWH, has given to you beyond the Jordan.

⁵ Only, be very watchful to do the command and the Law which Moses, servant of YHWH, commanded you, to love your God YHWH, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commands, and to cleave to Him, and to serve Him, with all your heart, and with all your soul.”

⁶ And Joshua blesses them, and sends them away, and they go to their tents.

⁷ And to the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses has given, in Bashan, and to its [other] half Joshua has given with their brothers beyond the Jordan westward; and also when Joshua has sent them away to their tents, then he blesses them,

⁹ And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, turn back and go from the sons of Israel out of Shiloh, which [is] in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, in which they have possession, according to the command of YHWH, by the hand of Moses;

¹⁰ and they come to the districts of the Jordan, which [are] in the land of Canaan, and the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, build an altar there by the Jordan—a great altar in appearance.

¹² And the sons of Israel hear, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel is assembled at Shiloh, to go up against them to war;

¹³ and the sons of Israel send to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh—to the land of Gilead—Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest,

¹⁵ And they come to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and speak with them, saying,

¹⁷ Is the iniquity of Peor little to us, from which we have not been cleansed until this day—and the plague is in the congregation of YHWH, ¹⁸ that you turn back today from after YHWH? And it has been [that] you rebel against YHWH today, and tomorrow He is angry against all the congregation of Israel.

¹⁹ And surely, if the land of your possession is unclean, pass over for yourselves to the land of the possession of YHWH, where the Dwelling Place of YHWH has dwelt, and have possession in our midst; and do not rebel against YHWH, and do not rebel against us, by your building an altar for yourselves, besides the altar of our God YHWH.

²¹ And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, answer and speak with the heads of the thousands of Israel:

²² “The God of gods—YHWH, the God of gods—YHWH, He is knowing, and Israel—he knows, if [we are] in rebellion, and if in trespass against YHWH, do not save us this day!

²³ [If we] are building an altar for ourselves to turn back from after YHWH, and if to cause burnt-offering and present to go up on it, and if to make peace-offerings on it—YHWH Himself requires [it].

²⁴ And nevertheless, we have done it from fear of [this] thing, saying, Hereafter your sons speak to our sons, saying, And what have you to [do with] YHWH God of Israel?

²⁵ For YHWH has put a border between us and you, O sons of Reuben, and sons of Gad—Jordan; you have no portion in YHWH—and your sons have caused our sons to cease, not to fear YHWH.

²⁶ And we say, Now let us prepare to build the altar for ourselves—not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice—

²⁷ but it [is] a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, to do the service of YHWH before Him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings, and your sons do not say hereafter to our sons, You have no portion in YHWH.

²⁸ And we say, And it has been, when they say [so] to us, and to our generations hereafter, that we have said, See the pattern of the altar of YHWH, which our fathers made—not for burnt-offering nor for sacrifice—but it [is] a witness between us and you.

³⁰ And Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and the heads of the thousands of Israel, who [are] with him, hear the words which the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the sons of Manasseh have spoken, and it is good in their eyes.

³¹ And Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest says to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Manasseh, “Today we have known that YHWH [is] in our midst, because you have not committed this trespass against YHWH—then you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of YHWH.”

³² And Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, turn back from the sons of Reuben, and from the sons of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and bring them back word;

³³ and the thing is good in the eyes of the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel bless God, and have not spoken to go up against them to war, to destroy the land which the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, are dwelling in.

³⁴ And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad proclaim concerning the altar, that, “[It is] a witness between us that YHWH [is] God.”

¹ And it comes to pass, many days after that YHWH has given rest to Israel from all their surrounding enemies, that Joshua is old, entering into days,

² and Joshua calls for all Israel, for his elderly, and for his heads, and for his judges, and for his authorities, and says to them, “I have become old; I have entered into days;

³ and you have seen all that your God YHWH has done to all these nations because of you, for your God YHWH [is] He who is fighting for you;

⁵ As for your God YHWH, He thrusts them from your presence, and has dispossessed them from before you, and you have possessed their land, as your God YHWH has spoken to you,

⁶ and you have been very strong to keep and to do the whole that is written in the Scroll of the Law of Moses, so as not to turn aside from it right or left,

⁷ so as not to go in among these nations, these who are left with you; and you do not make mention of the name of their gods, nor do you swear, nor do you serve them, nor do you bow yourselves to them;

⁸ but you cleave to your God YHWH, as you have done until this day.

⁹ And YHWH is dispossessing great and mighty nations from before you; as for you, none has stood in your presence until this day;

¹⁰ one man of you pursues a thousand, for your God YHWH [is] He who is fighting for you, as He has spoken to you;

¹¹ and you have been very watchful for yourselves to love your God YHWH.

¹³ certainly know that your God YHWH is not continuing to dispossess these nations from before you, and they have been to you for a trap, and for a snare, and for a scourge, in your sides, and for thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good ground which your God YHWH has given to you.

¹⁴ And behold, I am going, today, in the way of all the earth, and you have known—with all your heart, and with all your soul—that there has not fallen one thing of all the good things which your God YHWH has spoken concerning you; the whole have come to you; there has not failed of it one thing.

¹⁵ And it has been, as there has come on you all the good thing which your God YHWH has spoken to you, so YHWH brings on you the whole of the evil thing, until His destroying you from off this good ground which your God YHWH has given to you;

¹⁶ in your transgressing the covenant of your God YHWH which He commanded you, and you have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them, then the anger of YHWH has burned against you, and you have perished quickly from off the good land which He has given to you.”

¹ And Joshua gathers all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and calls for [the] elderly of Israel, and for his heads, and for his judges, and for his authorities, and they station themselves before God.

² And Joshua says to all the people, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Beyond the River your fathers have dwelt of old—Terah father of Abraham and father of Nachor—and they serve other gods;

³ and I take your father Abraham from beyond the River, and cause him to go through all the land of Canaan, and multiply his seed, and give Isaac to him.

4 And I give Jacob and Esau to Isaac; and I give Mount Seir to Esau, to possess it; and Jacob and his sons have gone down to Egypt.

5 And I send Moses and Aaron, and plague Egypt, as I have done in its midst, and afterward I have brought you out.

6 And I bring out your fathers from Egypt, and you go to the sea, and the Egyptians pursue after your fathers, with chariot and with horsemen, to the Red Sea;

7 and they cry to YHWH, and He sets thick darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brings the sea over him, and covers them, and your eyes see that which I have done in Egypt; and you dwell in a wilderness [for] many days.

8 And I bring you into the land of the Amorite who is dwelling beyond the Jordan, and they fight with you, and I give them into your hand, and you possess their land, and I destroy them out of your presence.

9 And Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, rises and fights against Israel, and sends and calls for Balaam son of Beor, to revile you,

10 and I have not been willing to listen to Balaam, and he greatly blesses you, and I deliver you out of his hand.

11 And you pass over the Jordan, and come to Jericho, and the possessors of Jericho fight against you—the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—and I give them into your hand.

12 And I send the hornet before you, and it casts them out from your presence—two kings of the Amorite—not by your sword, nor by your bow.

13 And I give a land to you for which you have not labored, and cities which you have not built, and you dwell in them; you are eating of vineyards and olive-yards which you have not planted.

14 And now, fear YHWH, and serve Him, in perfection and in truth, and turn aside the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve YHWH;

15 and if [it is] wrong in your eyes to serve YHWH—choose for yourselves today whom you serve—whether the gods whom your fathers served, which [are] beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorite in whose land you are dwelling; but me and my house—we serve YHWH."

16 And the people answer and say, "Far be it from us to forsake YHWH, to serve other gods;

17 for our God YHWH [is] He who is bringing us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of servants, and who has done these great signs before our eyes, and keeps us in all the way in which we have gone, and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed;

18 and YHWH casts out the whole of the peoples, even the Amorite inhabiting the land, from our presence; we also serve YHWH, for He [is] our God."

19 And Joshua says to the people, "You are not able to serve YHWH, for He [is] a most holy God; He [is] a zealous God; He does not bear with your transgression and with your sins.

20 When you forsake YHWH, and have served gods of a stranger, then He has turned back and done harm to you, and consumed you, after that He has done good to you."

21 And the people say to Joshua, "No, but we serve YHWH!"

²² And Joshua says to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen YHWH for yourselves, to serve Him," and they say, "Witnesses!"

²³ "And now, turn aside the gods of the stranger which [are] in your midst, and incline your heart to YHWH, God of Israel."

²⁴ And the people say to Joshua, "We serve our God YHWH, and we listen to His voice."

²⁵ And Joshua makes a covenant with the people on that day, and lays a statute and an ordinance on it, in Shechem.

²⁶ And Joshua writes these words in the Scroll of the Law of God, and takes a great stone, and raises it up there under the oak which [is] in the sanctuary of YHWH.

²⁷ And Joshua says to all the people, "Behold, this stone is for a witness against us, for it has heard all the sayings of YHWH which He has spoken with us, and it has been for a witness against you, lest you lie against your God."

²⁸ And Joshua sends the people away, each to his inheritance.

²⁹ And it comes to pass, after these things, that Joshua son of Nun, servant of YHWH, dies, a son of one hundred and ten years,

³⁰ and they bury him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-Serah, which [is] in the hill-country of Ephraim, on the north of the hill of Gaash.

³¹ And Israel serves YHWH all [the] days of Joshua, and all [the] days of the elderly who prolonged days after Joshua, and who knew all the work of YHWH which He did to Israel.

³³ And Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they bury him in a hill of his son Phinehas, which was given to him in the hill-country of Ephraim.

Judges

¹ And it comes to pass after the death of Joshua, that the sons of Israel ask of YHWH, saying, "Who goes up for us to the Canaanite, at the commencement, to fight against it?"

² And YHWH says, "Judah goes up; behold, I have given the land into his hand."

³ And Judah says to his brother Simeon, "Go up with me into my lot, and we fight against the Canaanite—and I have gone, even I, with you into your lot"; and Simeon goes with him.

⁴ And Judah goes up, and YHWH gives the Canaanite and the Perizzite into their hand, and they strike them in Bezek—ten thousand men;

⁵ and they find Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fight against him, and strike the Canaanite and the Perizzite.

⁶ And Adoni-Bezek flees, and they pursue after him, and seize him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes,

⁷ and Adoni-Bezek says, "Seventy kings—their thumbs and their great toes cut off—have been gathering under my table; as I have done so God has repaid to me"; and they bring him to Jerusalem, and he dies there.

⁸ And the sons of Judah fight against Jerusalem, and capture it, and strike it by the mouth of the sword, and they have sent the city into fire;

⁹ and afterward the sons of Judah have gone down to fight against the Canaanite inhabiting the hill-country, and the south, and the low country;

¹⁰ and Judah goes to the Canaanite who is dwelling in Hebron (and the name of Hebron [was] formerly Kirjath-Arba), and they strike Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

¹¹ And he goes there to the inhabitants of Debir (and the name of Debir [was] formerly Kirjath-Sepher),

¹² and Caleb says, "He who strikes Kirjath-Sepher and has captured it—then I have given my daughter Achsah to him for a wife."

¹³ And Othniel son of Kenaz, younger brother of Caleb, captures it, and he gives his daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

¹⁴ And it comes to pass in her coming in, that she persuades him to ask from her father the field, and she comes down off the donkey, and Caleb says to her, "What do you [want]?"

¹⁵ And she says to him, "Give a blessing to me; when you have given me the south land—then you have given springs of water to me"; and Caleb gives the upper springs and the lower springs to her.

¹⁶ And the sons of the Kenite, father-in-law of Moses, have gone up out of the city of palms with the sons of Judah [to] the wilderness of Judah, which [is] in the south of Arad, and they go and dwell with the people.

¹⁷ And Judah goes with his brother Simeon, and they strike the Canaanite inhabiting Zephath, and devote it; and [one] calls the name of the city Hormah.

¹⁸ And Judah captures Gaza and its border, and Askelon and its border, and Ekron and its border;

¹⁹ and YHWH is with Judah, and he occupies the hill-country, but not to dispossess the inhabitants of the valley, for they have chariots of iron.

²⁰ And they give Hebron to Caleb, as Moses has spoken, and he dispossesses the three sons of Anak there.

²¹ And the sons of Benjamin have not dispossessed the Jebusite inhabiting Jerusalem; and the Jebusite dwells with the sons of Benjamin, in Jerusalem, until this day.

²² And the house of Joseph goes up—even they—to Beth-El, and YHWH [is] with them;

²³ and the house of Joseph causes [men] to spy out Beth-El (and the name of the city [was] formerly Luz),

²⁴ and the watchers see a man coming out from the city, and say to him, “Please show us the entrance of the city, and we have done kindness with you.”

²⁵ And he shows them the entrance of the city, and they strike the city by the mouth of the sword, and they have sent the man and all his family away;

²⁶ and the man goes to the land of the Hittites, and builds a city, and calls its name Luz—it [is] its name to this day.

²⁷ And Manasseh has not occupied Beth-Shean and its towns, and Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Iblaim and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, and the Canaanite is desirous to dwell in that land;

²⁸ and it comes to pass, when Israel has been strong, that he sets the Canaanite to forced labor, and has not utterly dispossessed it.

²⁹ And Ephraim has not dispossessed the Canaanite who is dwelling in Gezer, and the Canaanite dwells in its midst, in Gezer.

³⁰ Zebulun has not dispossessed the inhabitants of Kitron, and the inhabitants of Nahalol, and the Canaanite dwells in its midst, and they become forced labor.

³¹ Asher has not dispossessed the inhabitants of Accho, and the inhabitants of Sidon, and Ahlab, and Achzib, and Helbah, and Aphik, and Rehob;

³² and the Asherite dwells in the midst of the Canaanite, the inhabitants of the land, for it has not dispossessed them.

³³ Naphtali has not dispossessed the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh, and the inhabitants of Beth-Anath, and he dwells in the midst of the Canaanite, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and of Beth-Anath were for forced labor for them.

³⁴ And the Amorites press the sons of Dan to the mountain, for they have not permitted them to go down to the valley;

³⁵ and the Amorite is desirous to dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbin, and the hand of the house of Joseph is heavy, and they are for forced labor;

³⁶ and the border of the Amorite [is] from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock and upward.

² and says, “I cause you to come up out of Egypt, and bring you into the land which I have sworn to your fathers, and say, I do not break My covenant with you for all time; and you make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land—you break down their altars; and you have not listened to My voice—what [is] this you have done?

³ And I have also said, I do not cast them out from your presence, and they have been for adversaries to you, and their gods are for a snare to you.”

⁴ And it comes to pass, when the Messenger of YHWH speaks these words to all the sons of Israel, that the people lift up their voice and weep, ⁵ and they call the name of that place Bochim, and sacrifice to YHWH there.

⁶ And Joshua sends the people away, and the sons of Israel go, each to his inheritance, to possess the land;

⁷ and the people serve YHWH all [the] days of Joshua, and all [the] days of [the] elderly who prolonged days after Joshua, who saw all the great work of YHWH which He did to Israel.

⁸ And Joshua son of Nun, servant of YHWH, dies, a son of one hundred and ten years,

⁹ and they bury him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-Heres, in the hill-country of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash;

¹⁰ and all that generation have also been gathered to their fathers, and another generation rises after them who have not known YHWH, and even the work which He has done to Israel.

¹³ indeed, they forsake YHWH, and do service to Ba'al and to Ashtaroth.

¹⁵ in every [place] where they have gone out, the hand of YHWH has been against them for calamity, as YHWH has spoken, and as YHWH has sworn to them, and they are greatly distressed.

¹⁶ And YHWH raises up judges, and they save them from the hand of their spoilers;

¹⁷ and they have also not listened to their judges, but have gone whoring after other gods, and bow themselves to them; they have turned aside [with] haste out of the way [in] which their fathers walked to obey the commands of YHWH—they have not done so.

¹⁹ And it has come to pass, when the judge dies—they turn back and have done corruptly above their fathers, to go after other gods, to serve them, and to bow themselves to them; they have not fallen from their doings, and from their stiff way.

²⁰ And the anger of YHWH burns against Israel, and He says, “Because that this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not listened to My voice—

²¹ I also do not continue to dispossess any from before them of the nations which Joshua has left when he dies,

²² in order to try Israel by them, whether they are keeping the way of YHWH, to go in it, as their fathers kept [it], or not.”

²³ And YHWH leaves these nations, so as not to dispossess them quickly, and did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

¹ And these [are] the nations which YHWH left, to try Israel by them, all who have not known all the wars of Canaan;

² (only for the sake of the generations of the sons of Israel knowing, to teach them war, only those who formerly have not known them)—

³ five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanite, and the Zidonian, and the Hivite inhabiting Mount Lebanon, from Mount Ba'al-Hermon to the entering in of Hamath;

⁴ and they are to prove Israel by them, to know whether they obey the commands of YHWH that He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

⁵ And the sons of Israel have dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite, the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite,

⁶ and take their daughters to them for wives, and have given their daughters to their sons, and they serve their gods;

⁷ and the sons of Israel do evil in the eyes of YHWH, and forget their God YHWH, and serve the Ba'alim and the Asheroth.

⁸ And the anger of YHWH burns against Israel, and He sells them into the hand of Chushan-Rishathaim king of Aram-Naharaim, and the sons of Israel serve Chushan-Rishathaim eight years;

⁹ and the sons of Israel cry to YHWH, and YHWH raises a savior to the sons of Israel, and he saves them—Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother;

¹¹ and the land rests forty years. And Othniel son of Kenaz dies,

¹² and the sons of Israel add to do evil in the eyes of YHWH; and YHWH strengthens Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because that they have done evil in the eyes of YHWH;

¹³ and he gathers the sons of Ammon and Amalek to himself, and goes and strikes Israel, and they possess the city of palms;

¹⁴ and the sons of Israel serve Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.

¹⁶ and Ehud makes a sword for himself, and it has two mouths (its length [is] a cubit), and he girds it under his long robe on his right thigh;

¹⁷ and he brings the present near to Eglon king of Moab, and Eglon [is] a very fat man.

¹⁸ And it comes to pass, when he has finished to bring the present near, that he sends the people carrying the present away,

¹⁹ and he himself has turned back from the carved images which [are] at Gilgal and says, "I have a secret word for you, O king"; and he says, "Hush!" And all those standing by him go out from him.

²⁰ And Ehud has come to him, and he is sitting in the cool upper chamber which he has for himself, and Ehud says, "I have a word of God for you"; and he rises from off the throne;

²² and the hilt also goes in after the blade, and the fat shuts on the blade, that he has not drawn the sword out of his belly, and he goes out [through] the antechamber [[or and the dung came out]].

²³ And Ehud goes out at the porch, and shuts the doors of the upper chamber on him, and has bolted [it];

²⁶ And Ehud escaped during their lingering, and has passed by the images, and escapes to Seirath.

²⁷ And it comes to pass, in his coming in, that he blows with a horn in the hill-country of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel go down with him from the hill-country, and he before them;

²⁸ and he says to them, "Pursue after me, for YHWH has given your enemies, the Moabites, into your hand"; and they go down after him, and capture the passages of the Jordan toward Moab, and have not permitted a man to pass over.

²⁹ And they strike Moab at that time, about ten thousand men, all robust, and everyone a man of valor, and no man has escaped,

³⁰ and Moab is humbled in that day under the hand of Israel; and the land rests [for] eighty years.

³¹ And after him has been Shamgar son of Anath, and he strikes the Philistines—six hundred men—with an ox-goad, and he also saves Israel.

¹ And the sons of Israel add to do evil in the eyes of YHWH when Ehud is dead,

² and YHWH sells them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who has reigned in Hazor, and Sisera [is] the head of his host, and he is dwelling in Harosheth of the nations;

³ and the sons of Israel cry to YHWH, for he has nine hundred chariots of iron, and he has oppressed the sons of Israel mightily [for] twenty years.

⁴ And Deborah, a woman, a prophetess, wife of Lapidoth, she is judging Israel at that time,

⁵ and she is dwelling under the palm-tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Beth-El, in the hill-country of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel go up to her for judgment.

⁶ And she sends and calls for Barak son of Abinoam, out of Kedesh-Naphtali, and says to him, "Has YHWH, God of Israel, not commanded? Go, and you have drawn toward Mount Tabor, and have taken with you ten thousand men, out of the sons of Naphtali, and out of the sons of Zebulun,

⁷ and I have drawn to you, to the Brook of Kishon, Sisera, head of the host of Jabin, and his chariot, and his multitude, and have given him into your hand."

⁸ And Barak says to her, "If you go with me, then I have gone; and if you do not go with me, I do not go";

¹⁰ And Barak calls Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and he goes up—ten thousand men [are] at his feet—and Deborah goes up with him.

¹² And they declare to Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam has gone up to Mount Tabor;

¹³ and Sisera calls all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who [are] with him, from Harosheth of the nations, to the Brook of Kishon.

¹⁴ And Deborah says to Barak, "Rise, for this [is] the day in which YHWH has given Sisera into your hand; has YHWH not gone out before you?" And Barak goes down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

¹⁵ And YHWH destroys Sisera, and all the chariots, and all the camp, by the mouth of the sword, before Barak, and Sisera comes down from off the chariot, and flees on his feet.

¹⁹ And he says to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty"; and she opens the bottle of milk, and gives him to drink, and covers him.

²⁰ And he says to her, "Stand at the opening of the tent, and it has been, if any comes in, and has asked you and said, Is there a man here? That you have said, There is not."

²² And behold, Barak is pursuing Sisera, and Jael comes out to meet him, and says to him, "Come, and I show you the man whom you are seeking"; and he comes to her, and behold, Sisera is fallen—dead, and the pin [is] in his temples.

²³ And God humbles Jabin king of Canaan before the sons of Israel on that day,

24 and the hand of the sons of Israel goes, going on and becoming hard on Jabin king of Canaan, until they have cut off Jabin king of Canaan.

1 And Deborah sings—also Barak son of Abinoam—on that day, saying,
2 “For freeing leaders in Israel, || For a people willingly offering themselves, || Bless YHWH.

3 Hear, you kings; give ear, you princes, || I sing to YHWH, || I sing praise to YHWH, God of Israel.

4 YHWH, in Your going forth out of Seir, || In Your stepping out of the field of Edom, || The earth trembled and the heavens dropped, || And thick clouds dropped water.

5 Hills flowed from the face of YHWH, || This one—Sinai—From the face of YHWH, God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath—In the days of Jael—The ways have ceased, || And those going in the paths go [in] crooked ways.

7 Villages ceased in Israel—they ceased, || Until I arose—Deborah, || That I arose, a mother in Israel.

8 He chooses new gods, || Then war [is] at the gates! A shield is not seen—and a spear || Among forty thousand in Israel.

9 My heart [is] to the lawgivers of Israel, || Who are offering themselves willingly among the people, || Bless YHWH!

10 Riders on white donkeys—Sitters on a long robe—And walkers by the way—meditate!

11 By the voice of shouters || Between the places of drawing water, || There they give out righteous acts of YHWH, || Righteous acts of His villages in Israel, || Then the people of YHWH have gone down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake, Deborah; Awake, awake, utter a song; Rise, Barak, and take your captivity captive, || Son of Abinoam.

13 Then him who is left of the majestic ones He caused to rule the people of YHWH, || He caused me to rule among the mighty.

14 From Ephraim [are] those whose root [is] in Amalek, || After you, Benjamin, among your peoples, || From Machir lawgivers came down, || And from Zebulun those drawing with the reed of a writer.

15 And princes in Issachar [are] with Deborah, || Indeed, Issachar [is] right with Barak, || Into the valley he was sent on his feet. In the divisions of Reuben, || The decrees of heart [are] great!

16 Why have you abided between the boundaries, || To hear lowings of herds? For the divisions of Reuben, || The searchings of heart [are] great!

17 Gilead dwelt beyond the Jordan, || And why does Dan sojourn [in] ships? Asher has abided at the haven of the seas, || And dwells by his creeks.

18 Zebulun [is] a people who exposed its soul to death, || Naphtali also—on high places of the field.

19 Kings came—they fought; Then kings of Canaan fought, || In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; They did not take gain of money!

20 They fought from the heavens: The stars fought with Sisera from their highways.

²¹ The Brook of Kishon swept them away, || The most ancient brook—the Brook of Kishon. You tread down strength, O my soul!

²² Then the horse-heels were broken, || By galloping—galloping of its mighty ones.

²³ Curse Meroz, said a messenger of YHWH, || Cursing, curse its inhabitants! For they did not come to the help of YHWH, || To the help of YHWH among the mighty!

²⁵ He asked for water—she gave milk; She brought butter near in a lordly dish.

²⁶ She sends forth her hand to the pin, || And her right hand to the laborers' hammer, || And she hammered Sisera—she struck his head, || Indeed, she struck, and it passed through his temple.

²⁷ He bowed between her feet—He fell, he lay down; He bowed between her feet, he fell; Where he bowed, there he fell—destroyed.

²⁹ The wise ones, her princesses, answer her, || Indeed, she returns her sayings to herself:

³¹ So do all Your enemies perish, O YHWH, || And those loving Him [are] || As the going out of the sun in its might!" And the land rests [for] forty years.

¹ And the sons of Israel do evil in the eyes of YHWH, and YHWH gives them into the hand of Midian [for] seven years,

² and the hand of Midian is strong against Israel, [so] the sons of Israel have made for themselves the nooks which [are] in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds [to hide] from the presence of Midian.

³ And it has been, if Israel has sowed, that Midian has come up, and Amalek, and the sons of the east, indeed, they have come up against him,

⁴ and encamp against them, and destroy the increase of the land until your entering Gaza; and they leave no sustenance in Israel, either sheep, or ox, or donkey;

⁶ And Israel is very weak from the presence of Midian, and the sons of Israel cry to YHWH.

⁷ And it comes to pass, when the sons of Israel have cried to YHWH concerning Midian,

⁸ that YHWH sends a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel, and he says to them, "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: I have brought you up out of Egypt, and I bring you out from a house of servants,

⁹ and I deliver you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all your oppressors, and I cast them out from your presence, and I give their land to you,

¹⁰ and I say to you, I [am] your God YHWH, you do not fear the gods of the Amorite in whose land you are dwelling—and you have not listened to My voice.”

¹¹ And the Messenger of YHWH comes and sits under the oak which [is] in Ophrah, which [is] to Joash the Abi-Ezrite, and his son Gideon is beating out wheat in the winepress, to remove [it] from the presence of the Midianites;

¹² and the Messenger of YHWH appears to him and says to him, “YHWH [is] with you, O mighty man of valor.”

¹³ And Gideon says to Him, “O my Lord, [if] YHWH is indeed with us, then why has all this found us? And where [are] all His wonders which our fathers recounted to us, saying, Has YHWH not brought us up out of Egypt? And now YHWH has left us, and gives us into the hand of Midian.”

¹⁴ And YHWH turns to him and says, “Go in this—your power; and you have saved Israel out of the hand of Midian—have I not sent you?”

¹⁵ And he says to Him, “O my Lord, with what do I save Israel? Behold, my chief [is] weak in Manasseh, and I [am] the least in the house of my father.”

¹⁶ And YHWH says to him, “Because I am with you—you have struck the Midianites as one man.”

¹⁷ And he says to Him, “Now if I have found grace in Your eyes, then You have done a sign for me that You are speaking with me.”

¹⁸ Please do not move from here until my coming to You, and I have brought out my present, and put it before You”; and He says, “I abide until your return.”

¹⁹ And Gideon has gone in, and prepares a kid of the goats, and an ephah of flour [worth] of unleavened things; he has put the flesh in a basket, and he has put the broth in a pot, and he brings [them] out to Him, to the place of the oak, and brings [them] near.

²⁰ And the Messenger of God says to him, “Take the flesh and the unleavened things, and place [them] on this rock—and pour out the broth”; and he does so.

²² And Gideon sees that He [is] the Messenger of YHWH, and Gideon says, “Aah, Lord YHWH! For so I have looked on the Messenger of YHWH face to face!”

²³ And YHWH says to him, “Peace to you; do not fear; you do not die.”

²⁴ And Gideon builds an altar to YHWH there, and calls it YHWH-Shalom, it [is] yet in Ophrah of the Abi-Ezrites to this day.

²⁵ And it comes to pass, on that night, that YHWH says to him, “Take the young ox which your father has, and the second bullock of seven years, and you have thrown down the altar of Ba’al which your father has, and cut down the Asherah which [is] by it,

²⁶ and you have built an altar to your God YHWH on the top of this stronghold, by the arrangement, and have taken the second bullock, and caused a burnt-offering to ascend with the wood of the Asherah which you cut down."

²⁷ And Gideon takes ten men of his servants, and does as YHWH has spoken to him, and it comes to pass, because he has been afraid of the house of his father, and the men of the city, to do [it] by day, that he does [it] by night.

²⁸ And the men of the city rise early in the morning, and behold, the altar of Ba'al has been broken down, and the Asherah which is by it has been cut down, and the second bullock has been offered on the altar which is built.

²⁹ And they say to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And they inquire and seek, and they say, "Gideon son of Joash has done this thing."

³⁰ And the men of the city say to Joash, "Bring out your son, and he dies, because he has broken down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the Asherah which [is] by it."

³¹ And Joash says to all who have stood against him, "You, do you plead for Ba'al? You—do you save him? He who pleads for him is put to death during the morning; if he [is] a god he pleads against him himself, because he has broken down his altar."

³² And he calls him, on that day, Jerubba'al, saying, "The Ba'al pleads against him, because he has broken down his altar."

³³ And all Midian and Amalek and the sons of the east have been gathered together, and pass over, and encamp in the Valley of Jezreel,

³⁴ and the Spirit of YHWH has clothed Gideon, and he blows with a horn, and Abi-Ezer is called after him;

³⁵ and he has sent messengers into all Manasseh, and it is also called after him; and he has sent messengers into Asher, and into Zebulun, and into Naphtali, and they come up to meet them.

³⁶ And Gideon says to God, "If You are Savior of Israel by my hand, as You have spoken,

³⁷ behold, I am placing the fleece of wool in the threshing-floor: if dew is only on the fleece, and dryness on all the earth—then I have known that You save Israel by my hand, as You have spoken";

³⁸ and it is so, and he rises early on the next day, and presses the fleece, and wrings dew out of the fleece—the fullness of the bowl of waters.

³⁹ And Gideon says to God, "Do not let Your anger burn against me, and I only speak this time; please let me try only this time with the fleece—please let there be only dryness on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the earth."

⁴⁰ And God does so on that night, and there is only dryness on the fleece, and there has been dew on all the earth.

¹ And Jerubba'al (he [is] Gideon) rises early, and all the people who [are] with him, and they encamp by the well of Harod, and the camp of Midian has been on the south of him, on the height of Moreh, in the valley.

² And YHWH says to Gideon, "The people who [are] with you [are] too many for My giving Midian into their hand, lest Israel beautify itself against Me, saying, My hand has given salvation to me;

³ and now, please call in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever [is] afraid and trembling, let him turn back and go early from Mount Gilead"; and there return twenty-two thousand of the people, and ten thousand have been left.

⁴ And YHWH says to Gideon, "The people [are] yet too many; bring them down to the water, and I refine him for you there; and it has been, he of whom I say to you, This goes with you—he goes with you; and any of whom I say to you, This does not go with you—he does not go."

⁶ And the number of those lapping with their hand to their mouth is three hundred men, and all the rest of the people have bowed down on their knees to drink water.

⁷ And YHWH says to Gideon, "I save you by the three hundred men who are lapping, and have given Midian into your hand, and all the people go, each to his place."

⁸ And the people take the provision in their hand, and their horns, and he has sent every man of Israel away, each to his tents; and he has kept hold on the three hundred men, and the camp of Midian has been by him at the lower part of the valley.

⁹ And it comes to pass, on that night, that YHWH says to him, "Rise, go down into the camp, for I have given it into your hand;

¹⁰ and if you are afraid to go down—go down, you and your young man Phurah, to the camp,

¹¹ and you have heard what they speak, and afterward your hands are strengthened, and you have gone down against the camp." And he goes down, he and his young man Phurah, to the extremity of the fifties who [are] in the camp;

¹³ And Gideon comes in, and behold, a man is recounting a dream to his companion, and says, "Behold, I have dreamed a dream, and behold, a cake of barley-bread is turning itself over into the camp of Midian, and it comes to the tent, and strikes it, and it falls, and turns it upwards, and the tent has fallen."

¹⁴ And his companion answers and says, "This is nothing except the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given Midian and all the camp into his hand."

¹⁵ And it comes to pass, when Gideon hears the narration of the dream and its interpretation, that he bows himself, and turns back to the camp of Israel, and says, "Rise, for YHWH has given the camp of Midian into your hand."

¹⁶ And he divides the three hundred men [into] three detachments, and puts horns into the hand of all of them, and empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

¹⁷ And he says to them, "Look at me, and thus do; and behold, I am coming into the extremity of the camp—and it has been—as I do so you do;

¹⁸ and I have blown with a horn—I and all who [are] with me, and you have blown with horns, even you, around all the camp, and have said, For YHWH and for Gideon!"

²¹ And they each stand in his place, around the camp, and all the camp runs, and they shout, and flee;

²³ And the men of Israel are called from Naphtali, and from Asher, and from all Manasseh, and pursue after Midian.

²⁴ And Gideon has sent messengers into all the hill-country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down to meet Midian, and capture the waters from them as far as Beth-Barah, and the Jordan”; and every man of Ephraim is called, and they capture the waters as far as Beth-Barah, and the Jordan,

¹ And the men of Ephraim say to him, “What [is] this thing you have done to us—not to call for us when you went to fight with Midian?” And they strive with him severely;

² and he says to them, “What have I now done like you? Are the gleanings of Ephraim not better than the harvest of Abi-Ezer?”

³ God has given the heads of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hand; and what have I been able to do like you?” Then their temper desisted from off him in his speaking this thing.

⁴ And Gideon comes to the Jordan, passing over, he and the three hundred men who [are] with him—wearied, yet pursuing—

⁶ And the heads of Succoth say, “Is the hand of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we give bread to your host?”

⁷ And Gideon says, “Therefore—in YHWH’s giving Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand—I have threshed your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness, and with the threshing instruments.”

⁸ And he goes up there [to] Penuel, and speaks to them thus; and the men of Penuel answer him as the men of Succoth answered.

⁹ And he also speaks to the men of Penuel, saying, “In my turning back in peace, I break down this tower.”

¹¹ And Gideon goes up the way of those who dwell in tents, on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and strikes the camp, and the camp was confident;

¹² and Zebah and Zalmunna flee, and he pursues after them, and captures the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and he has caused all the camp to tremble.

¹³ And Gideon son of Joash turns back from the battle, at the going up of the sun,

¹⁴ and captures a young man of the men of Succoth, and asks him, and he describes to him the heads of Succoth, and its elderly—seventy-seven men.

¹⁵ And he comes to the men of Succoth and says, “Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom you reproached me, saying, Is the hand of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand that we give bread to your men who [are] wearied?”

¹⁷ and he has broken down the Tower of Penuel, and slays the men of the city.

¹⁸ And he says to Zebah and to Zalmunna, “What manner of men [were they] whom you slew in Tabor?” And they say, “As you—so they, [each] one as the form of the king’s sons.”

¹⁹ And he says, “They [were] my brothers—sons of my mother; YHWH lives, if you had kept them alive—I would not kill you.”

²⁰ And he says to his firstborn Jether, “Rise, slay them”; and the young man has not drawn his sword, for he has been afraid, for he [is] yet a youth.

²¹ And Zebah and Zalmunna say, “Rise and fall on us; for as the man—his might”; and Gideon rises, and slays Zebah and Zalmunna, and takes the crescents which [are] on the necks of their camels.

²² And the men of Israel say to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you, and your son, and your son’s son, for you have saved us from the hand of Midian.”

²³ And Gideon says to them, “I do not rule over you, nor does my son rule over you; YHWH rules over you.”

²⁴ And Gideon says to them, “Let me ask a petition of you, and each give to me the ring of his prey, for they have rings of gold, for they [are] Ishmaelites.”

²⁵ And they say, “We certainly give”; and they spread out the garment, and each casts the ring of his prey there;

²⁷ and Gideon makes it into an ephod, and sets it up in his city, in Ophrah, and all Israel go whoring after it there, and it is for a snare to Gideon and to his house.

²⁸ And Midian is humbled before the sons of Israel, and have not added to lift up their head; and the land rests [for] forty years in the days of Gideon.

²⁹ And Jerubba’al son of Joash goes and dwells in his own house,

³⁰ and there have been seventy sons of Gideon, coming out of his loins, for he had many wives;

³¹ and his concubine, who [is] in Shechem, has borne to him—even she—a son, and he appoints his name Abimelech.

³² And Gideon son of Joash dies, in a good old age, and is buried in the burying-place of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abi-Ezrite.

³³ And it comes to pass, when Gideon [is] dead, that the sons of Israel turn back and go whoring after the Ba'alim, and set Ba'al-Berith over them for a god;

³⁴ and the sons of Israel have not remembered their God YHWH, who is delivering them out of the hand of all their surrounding enemies,

³⁵ neither have they done kindness with the house of Jerubba'al—Gideon—according to all the good which he did with Israel.

¹ And Abimelech son of Jerubba'al goes to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and speaks to them, and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

² "Now speak in the ears of all the masters of Shechem, Which [is] good for you—seventy men ruling over you (all the sons of Jerubba'al), or one man ruling over you? And you have remembered that I [am] your bone and your flesh."

³ And his mother's brothers speak concerning him, in the ears of all the masters of Shechem, all these words, and their heart inclines after Abimelech, for they said, "He [is] our brother";

⁴ and they give seventy [pieces] of silver out of the house of Ba'al-Berith to him, and Abimelech hires vain and unstable men with them, and they go after him;

⁵ and he goes into the house of his father at Ophrah, and slays his brothers, sons of Jerubba'al, seventy men, on one stone; and Jotham, youngest son of Jerubba'al, is left, for he was hidden.

⁶ And all the masters of Shechem are gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and come and cause Abimelech to reign for king at the oak of the camp which [is] in Shechem;

⁷ and they declare [it] to Jotham, and he goes and stands on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifts up his voice, and calls, and says to them, "Listen to me, O masters of Shechem, and God listens to you:

⁸ The trees have diligently gone to anoint a king over them, and they say to the olive, Reign over us.

⁹ And the olive says to them, Have I ceased from my fatness, by which they honor gods and men, that I have gone to stagger over the trees?

¹⁰ And the trees say to the fig, Come, reign over us.

¹¹ And the fig says to them, Have I ceased from my sweetness, and my good increase, that I have gone to stagger over the trees?

¹² And the trees say to the vine, Come, reign over us.

¹³ And the vine says to them, Have I ceased from my new wine, which is making gods and men glad, that I have gone to stagger over the trees?

¹⁴ And all the trees say to the bramble, Come, reign over us.

¹⁵ And the bramble says to the trees, If in truth you are anointing me for king over you, come, take refuge in my shadow; and if not—fire comes out from the bramble, and devours the cedars of Lebanon.

¹⁶ And now, if you have acted in truth and in sincerity when you make Abimelech king; and if you have done good with Jerubba'al, and with his house; and if you have done to him according to the deed of his hands—

¹⁷ because my father has fought for you, and casts his life away from [him], and delivers you from the hand of Midian;

¹⁹ indeed, if in truth and in sincerity you have acted with Jerubba'al and with his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech, and he rejoices—even he—in you;

²¹ And Jotham hurries, and flees, and goes to Beer, and dwells there, from the face of his brother Abimelech.

²² And Abimelech is prince over Israel [for] three years,

²³ and God sends an evil spirit between Abimelech and the masters of Shechem, and the masters of Shechem deal treacherously with Abimelech,

²⁵ And the masters of Shechem set ambushes for him on the top of the hills, and rob everyone who passes over by them in the way, and it is declared to Abimelech.

²⁶ And Gaal son of Ebed comes—also his brothers—and they pass over into Shechem, and the masters of Shechem trust in him,

²⁷ and go out into the field, and gather their vineyards, and tread, and make praises, and go into the house of their god, and eat and drink, and revile Abimelech.

²⁸ And Gaal son of Ebed says, “Who [is] Abimelech, and who [is] Shechem, that we serve him? Is [he] not son of Jerubba'al? And his commander Zebul? The men of Hamor father of Shechem serve you, and why do we serve him—we?”

²⁹ And oh that this people were in my hand—then I turn Abimelech aside”; and he says to Abimelech, “Increase your host, and come out.”

³⁰ And Zebul, prince of the city, hears the words of Gaal son of Ebed, and his anger burns,

³¹ and he sends messengers to Abimelech deceitfully, saying, “Behold, Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers are coming into Shechem, and behold, they are fortifying the city against you;

³² and now, rise by night, you and the people who [are] with you, and lay wait in the field,

³³ and it has been, in the morning, about the rising of the sun, you rise early, and have pushed against the city; and behold, he and the people who [are] with him are going out to you—and you have done to him as your hand finds.”

³⁵ and Gaal son of Ebed goes out, and stands at the opening of the gate of the city, and Abimelech rises—also the people who [are] with him—from the ambush,

³⁷ And Gaal adds yet to speak and says, “Behold, people are coming down from the high part of the land, and another detachment is coming by the way of the oak of Meonenim.”

³⁸ And Zebul says to him, “Where [is] your mouth now, in that you say, Who [is] Abimelech that we serve him? Is this not the people against which you have kicked? Please go out now and fight against it.”

³⁹ And Gaal goes out before the masters of Shechem, and fights against Abimelech,

⁴⁰ and Abimelech pursues him, and he flees from his presence, and many fall wounded—to the opening of the gate.

⁴¹ And Abimelech abides in Arumah, and Zebul casts out Gaal and his brothers from dwelling in Shechem.

⁴² And it comes to pass, on the next day, that the people go out to the field, and they declare [it] to Abimelech,

⁴⁴ And Abimelech and the detachments who [are] with him have pushed on, and stand at the opening of the gate of the city, and the two detachments have pushed against all who are in the field, and strike them,

⁴⁵ and Abimelech has fought against the city all that day, and captures the city, and has slain the people who [are] in it, and he breaks down the city, and sows it [with] salt.

⁴⁶ And all the masters of the Tower of Shechem hear, and go into the high place of the house of the god Berith,

⁴⁷ and it is declared to Abimelech that all the masters of the Tower of Shechem have gathered themselves together;

⁵⁰ And Abimelech goes to Thebez, and encamps against Thebez, and captures it,

⁵² And Abimelech comes to the tower, and fights against it, and draws near to the opening of the tower to burn it with fire,

⁵³ and a certain woman casts a piece of a millstone on the head of Abimelech, and breaks his skull,

⁵⁴ and he calls quickly to the young man carrying his weapons and says to him, "Draw your sword, and you have put me to death, lest they say of me—A woman slew him"; and his young man pierced him through, and he dies.

⁵⁵ And the men of Israel see that Abimelech [is] dead, and each one goes to his place;

⁵⁶ and God turns back the evil of Abimelech which he did to his father to slay his seventy brothers;

⁵⁷ and God has returned all the evil of the men of Shechem on their [own] head, and the cursing of Jotham son of Jerubba'al comes to them.

¹ And there rises after Abimelech, to save Israel, Tola son of Puah, son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, and he is dwelling in Shamir, in the hill-country of Ephraim,

² and he judges Israel [for] twenty-three years, and he dies, and is buried in Shamir.

³ And there rises Jair the Gileadite after him, and he judges Israel [for] twenty-two years,

⁴ and he has thirty sons riding on thirty donkey-colts, and they have thirty cities (they call them Havoth-Jair to this day), which [are] in the land of Gilead;

⁵ and Jair dies, and is buried in Kamon.

⁶ And the sons of Israel add to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, and serve the Ba'alim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsake YHWH, and have not served Him;

⁷ and the anger of YHWH burns against Israel, and He sells them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the sons of Ammon,

⁸ and they crush and oppress the sons of Israel in that year; [and for] eighteen years—all the sons of Israel [who] are beyond the Jordan, in the land of the Amorite, which [is] in Gilead.

¹⁰ And the sons of Israel cry to YHWH, saying, "We have sinned against You, because we have even forsaken our God, and serve the Ba'alim."

¹¹ And YHWH says to the sons of Israel, "[Have I] not [saved you] from the Egyptians, and from the Amorite, from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines?"

¹² And the Zidonians, and Amalek, and Maon have oppressed you, and you cry to Me, and I save you out of their hand;

¹³ and you have forsaken Me, and serve other gods, therefore I do not add to save you.

¹⁴ Go and cry to the gods on which you have fixed; they save you in the time of your tribulation."

¹⁵ And the sons of Israel say to YHWH, "We have sinned, do to us according to all that is good in Your eyes; only please deliver us this day."

¹⁶ And they turn aside the gods of the stranger out of their midst, and serve YHWH, and His soul is grieved with the misery of Israel.

¹⁷ And the sons of Ammon are called together, and encamp in Gilead, and the sons of Israel are gathered together, and encamp in Mizpah.

¹⁸ And the people—heads of Gilead—say to one another, “Who [is] the man that begins to fight against the sons of Ammon? He is for head to all inhabitants of Gilead.”

¹ And Jephthah the Gileadite has been a mighty man of valor, and he [is the] son of a harlot woman; and Gilead begets Jephthah,

² and the wife of Gilead bears sons to him, and the wife’s sons grow up and cast Jephthah out, and say to him, “You do not inherit in the house of our father; for you [are the] son of another woman.”

³ And Jephthah flees from the face of his brothers, and dwells in the land of Tob; and vain men gather themselves together to Jephthah, and they go out with him.

⁴ And it comes to pass, after a time, that the sons of Ammon fight with Israel,

⁵ and it comes to pass, when the sons of Ammon have fought with Israel, that [the] elderly of Gilead go to take Jephthah from the land of Tob;

⁶ and they say to Jephthah, “Come, and you have been for a captain to us, and we fight against the sons of Ammon.”

⁷ And Jephthah says to [the] elderly of Gilead, “Have you not hated me? And you cast me out from the house of my father, and why have you come to me now when you are in distress?”

⁸ And [the] elderly of Gilead say to Jephthah, “Therefore, now, we have turned back to you; and you have gone with us, and have fought against the sons of Ammon, and you have been for head to us—to all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

⁹ And Jephthah says to [the] elderly of Gilead, “If you are taking me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and YHWH has given them before me—am I for a head to you?”

¹⁰ And [the] elderly of Gilead say to Jephthah, “YHWH is listening between us—if we do not do so according to your word.”

¹¹ And Jephthah goes with [the] elderly of Gilead, and the people set him over them for head and for captain, and Jephthah speaks all his words before YHWH in Mizpeh.

¹² And Jephthah sends messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, “What [is this] to me and to you, that you have come to me, to fight in my land?”

¹³ And the king of the sons of Ammon says to the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took my land in his coming up out of Egypt, from Arnon, and to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan; and now, restore them in peace.”

¹⁴ And Jephthah adds yet and sends messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon,

¹⁵ and says to him, “Thus said Jephthah: Israel did not take the land of Moab, and the land of the sons of Ammon,

¹⁶ for in their coming up out of Egypt, Israel goes in the wilderness to the Red Sea, and comes to Kadesh,

¹⁷ and Israel sends messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Please let me pass over through your land, and the king of Edom did not listen; and

[Israel] has also sent to the king of Moab, and he has not been willing; and Israel abides in Kadesh,

¹⁹ And Israel sends messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and Israel says to him, Please let us pass over through your land, to my place,

²⁰ and Sihon has not trusted Israel to pass over through his border, and Sihon gathers all his people, and they encamp in Jahaz, and fight with Israel;

²¹ and YHWH, God of Israel, gives Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they strike them, and Israel possesses all the land of the Amorite, the inhabitant of that land,

²² and they possess all the border of the Amorite from Arnon, and to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness, and to the Jordan.

²³ And now, YHWH, God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorite from the presence of His people Israel, and you would possess it!

²⁴ That which your god Chemosh causes you to possess—do you not possess it? And all that which our God YHWH has dispossessed from our presence—we possess it.

²⁵ And now, [are] you at all better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he strive with Israel at all? Did he fight against them at all?

²⁶ In Israel's dwelling in Heshbon and in its towns, and in Aroer and in its towns, and in all the cities which [are] by the sides of Arnon [for] three hundred years—and why have you not delivered them in that time?

²⁷ And I have not sinned against you, and you are doing evil with me—to fight against me. YHWH, the Judge, judges between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon today.”

²⁸ And the king of the sons of Ammon has not listened to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him,

²⁹ and the Spirit of YHWH is on Jephthah, and he passes over Gilead and Manasseh, and passes over Mizpeh of Gilead, and he has passed over from Mizpeh of Gilead to the sons of Ammon.

³⁰ And Jephthah vows a vow to YHWH and says, “If You give the sons of Ammon into my hand at all—

³¹ then it has been, that which comes out from the doors of my house at all to meet me in my turning back in peace from the sons of Ammon—it has been for YHWH, or I have offered up a burnt-offering for it.”

³² And Jephthah passes over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them, and YHWH gives them into his hand,

³⁴ And Jephthah comes into Mizpeh, to his house, and behold, his daughter is coming out to meet him with timbrels, and with choruses, and except her alone, he has no son or daughter.

³⁵ And it comes to pass, when he sees her, that he tears his garments and says, “Aah! My daughter, you have caused me to bend greatly, and you have been among those troubling me; and I have opened my mouth to YHWH, and I am not able to turn back.”

³⁶ And she says to him, “My father, you have opened your mouth to YHWH, do to me as it has gone out from your mouth, after that YHWH has done vengeance for you on your enemies, on the sons of Ammon.”

³⁷ And she says to her father, “Let this thing be done to me; desist from me [for] two months, and I go on, and have gone down on the hills, and I weep for my virginity—I and my friends.”

³⁸ And he says, “Go”; and he sends her away [for] two months, and she goes, she and her friends, and she weeps for her virginity on the hills;

³⁹ and it comes to pass at the end of two months that she turns back to her father, and he does to her his vow which he has vowed, and she did not know a man; and it is a statute in Israel:

⁴⁰ from time to time the daughters of Israel go to talk to the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

¹ And the men of Ephraim are called together, and pass over northward, and say to Jephthah, “Why have you passed over to fight against the sons of Ammon, and have not called on us to go with you? We burn your house with fire over you.”

² And Jephthah says to them, “I have been a man of great strife (I and my people) with the sons of Ammon, and I call you, and you have not saved me out of their hand,

³ and I see that you are not a savior, and I put my life in my hand, and pass over to the sons of Ammon, and YHWH gives them into my hand—and why have you come up to me this day to fight against me?”

⁴ And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fights with Ephraim, and the men of Gilead strike Ephraim, because they said, “You Gileadites [are] fugitives of Ephraim, in the midst of Ephraim—in the midst of Manasseh.”

⁵ And Gilead captures the passages of the Jordan to Ephraim, and it has been, when [any of] the fugitives of Ephraim say, “Let me pass over,” and the men of Gilead say to him, “[Are] you an Ephraimite?” And he says, “No”;

⁷ And Jephthah judged Israel [for] six years, and Jephthah the Gileadite dies, and is buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.

⁸ And after him Ibzan of Beth-Lehem judges Israel,

⁹ and he has thirty sons, and thirty daughters he gave away [in marriage], and thirty daughters he brought in from outside for his sons; and he judges Israel [for] seven years.

¹⁰ And Ibzan dies, and is buried in Beth-Lehem.

¹¹ And after him Elon the Zebulunite judges Israel, and he judges Israel [for] ten years,

¹² and Elon the Zebulunite dies, and is buried in Aijalon, in the land of Zebulun.

¹³ And after him, Abdon son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judges Israel,
¹⁴ and he has forty sons, and thirty grandsons, riding on seventy donkey-colts, and he judges Israel [for] eight years.
¹⁵ And Abdon son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, dies, and is buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the hill-country of the Amalekite.

¹ And the sons of Israel add to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, and YHWH gives them into the hand of the Philistines [for] forty years.

² And there is a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danite, and his name [is] Manoah, his wife [is] barren, and has not borne;

³ and the Messenger of YHWH appears to the woman and says to her, "Now behold, you [are] barren and have not borne; when you have conceived, then you have borne a son.

⁴ And now, please take heed and do not drink wine and strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing,

⁶ And the woman comes and speaks to her husband, saying, "A Man of God has come to me, and His appearance [is] as the appearance of the Messenger of God, very fearful, and I have not asked Him where He [is] from, and he has not declared His Name to me;

⁸ And Manoah makes plea to YHWH and says, "O my Lord, the Man of God whom You sent, please let Him come in again to us, and direct us what we do to the youth who is born."

⁹ And God listens to the voice of Manoah, and the Messenger of God comes again to the woman, and she [is] sitting in a field, and her husband Manoah is not with her,

¹⁰ and the woman hurries, and runs, and declares [it] to her husband, and says to him, "Behold, He has appeared to me—the Man who came on [that] day to me."

¹¹ And Manoah rises, and goes after his wife, and comes to the Man, and says to Him, "Are you the Man who spoke to the woman?" And He says, "I [am]."

¹² And Manoah says, "Now let Your words come to pass; what is the custom of the youth—and his work?"

¹³ And the Messenger of YHWH says to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her take heed;

¹⁵ And Manoah says to the Messenger of YHWH, "Please let us detain You, and we prepare a kid of the goats before You."

¹⁶ And the Messenger of YHWH says to Manoah, "If you detain Me—I do not eat of your bread; and if you prepare a burnt-offering—offer it to YHWH"; for Manoah has not known that He [is] the Messenger of YHWH.

¹⁷ And Manoah says to the Messenger of YHWH, “What [is] Your Name? When Your words come to pass, then we have honored You.”

¹⁸ And the Messenger of YHWH says to him, “Why do you ask this, My Name, since it [is] incomprehensible?”

¹⁹ And Manoah takes the kid of the goats, and the present, and offers on the rock to YHWH, and He is doing wonderfully, and Manoah and his wife are looking on,

²¹ and the Messenger of YHWH has not added again to appear to Manoah, and to his wife, then Manoah has known that He [is] the Messenger of YHWH.

²² And Manoah says to his wife, “We certainly die, for we have seen God.”

²³ And his wife says to him, “If YHWH were desirous to put us to death, He had not received burnt-offering and present from our hands, nor showed us all these things, nor caused us to hear [anything] like this as [at this] time.”

²⁴ And the woman bears a son, and calls his name Samson, and the youth grows, and YHWH blesses him,

²⁵ and the Spirit of YHWH begins to move him in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

¹ And Samson goes down to Timnath, and sees a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines,

² and comes up and declares [it] to his father and to his mother, and says, “I have seen a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines; and now, take her for me for a wife.”

³ And his father says to him—also his mother, “Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers, and among all my people, that you are going to take a woman from the uncircumcised Philistines?” And Samson says to his father, “Take her for me, for she is right in my eyes.”

⁵ And Samson goes down—also his father and his mother, to Timnath, and they come to the vineyards of Timnath, and behold, a lion’s whelp roars at meeting him,

⁶ and the Spirit of YHWH prospers over him, and he tears it as the tearing of a kid, and there is nothing in his hand, and he has not declared to his father and to his mother that which he has done.

⁷ And he goes down and speaks to the woman, and she is right in the eyes of Samson;

⁹ And he takes it down on to his hands, and goes on, going and eating; and he goes to his father, and to his mother, and gives to them, and they eat, and he has not declared to them that he took down the honey from the body of the lion.

¹⁰ And his father goes down to the woman, and Samson makes a banquet there, for so the young men does;

¹¹ and it comes to pass, when they see him, that they take thirty companions, and they are with him.

¹² And Samson says to them, "Now let me put forth a riddle to you; if you certainly declare it to me [in] the seven days of the banquet, and have found [it] out, then I have given thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of garments to you;

¹³ and if you are not able to declare [it] to me, then you have given thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of garments to me." And they say to him, "Put forth your riddle, and we hear it!"

¹⁴ And he says to them: "Out of the eater came forth something to eat, || And out of the strong came forth [something] sweet"; and they were not able to declare the riddle [in] three days.

¹⁵ And it comes to pass, on the seventh day, that they say to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, that he declare the riddle to us, lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire; have you not called for us [here] to rob us?"

¹⁶ And Samson's wife weeps for it and says, "You have only hated me, and have not loved me; you have put forth the riddle to the sons of my people, but have not declared it to me"; and he says to her, "Behold, I have not declared [it] to my father and to my mother—and I declare [it] to you?"

¹⁷ And she weeps for it the seven days [in] which their banquet has been, and it comes to pass on the seventh day that he declares [it] to her, for she has distressed him; and she declares the riddle to the sons of her people.

¹⁸ And the men of the city say to him on the seventh day, before the sun goes in: "What [is] sweeter than honey? And what [is] stronger than a lion?" And he says to them: "Unless you had plowed with my heifer, || You had not found out my riddle."

¹⁹ And the Spirit of YHWH prospers over him, and he goes down to Ashkelon, and strikes down thirty of their men, and takes their armor, and gives the changes to those declaring the riddle; and his anger burns, and he goes up to the house of his father;

²⁰ and Samson's wife becomes his companion's, who had attended to him.

² and her father says, "I certainly said that you surely hated her, and I give her to your companion; is her younger sister not better than she? Please let her be to you instead of her."

³ And Samson says of them, "I am more innocent this time than the Philistines, though I am doing evil with them."

⁴ And Samson goes and catches three hundred foxes, and takes torches, and turns tail to tail, and puts a torch between the two tails, in the midst,

⁵ and kindles fire in the torches, and sends [them] out into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burns [it] from heap even to standing grain, even to vineyard [and] olive-yard.

⁷ And Samson says to them, “Though you do thus, nevertheless I am avenged on you, and afterward I cease!”

⁸ And he strikes them hip and thigh [with] a great striking, and goes down and dwells in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

⁹ And the Philistines go up, and encamp in Judah, and are spread out in Lehi,

¹⁰ and the men of Judah say, “Why have you come up against us?” And they say, “We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.”

¹¹ And three thousand men of Judah go down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and say to Samson, “Have you now known that the Philistines are rulers over us? And what [is] this you have done to us?” And he says to them, “As they did to me, so I did to them.”

¹² And they say to him, “We have come down to bind you—to give you into the hand of the Philistines.” And Samson says to them, “Swear to me, lest you fall on me yourselves.”

¹³ And they speak to him, saying, “No, but we certainly bind you, and have given you into their hand, and we certainly do not put you to death”; and they bind him with two thick bands, new ones, and bring him up from the rock.

¹⁴ He has come to Lehi—and the Philistines have shouted at meeting him—and the Spirit of YHWH prospers over him, and the thick bands which [are] on his arms are as flax which they burn with fire, and his bands are melted from off his hands,

¹⁵ and he finds a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and puts forth his hand and takes it, and strikes down one thousand men with it.

¹⁶ And Samson says, “With the jawbone of a donkey, heap on heaps—I have struck down one thousand men with the jawbone of a donkey!”

¹⁷ And it comes to pass, when he finishes speaking, that he casts away the jawbone out of his hand, and calls that place Ramath-Lehi;

¹⁸ and he thirsts exceedingly, and calls to YHWH, and says, “You have given this great salvation by the hand of Your servant; and now, I die with thirst, and have fallen into the hand of the uncircumcised.”

¹⁹ And God cleaves the hollow place which [is] in Lehi, and waters come out of it, and he drinks, and his spirit comes back, and he revives; therefore [one] has called its name “The fountain of him who is calling,” which [is] in Lehi to this day.

²⁰ And he judges Israel in the days of the Philistines [for] twenty years.

¹ And Samson goes to Gaza, and sees a woman there, a harlot, and goes in to her;

² [it is told] to the Gazathites, saying, “Samson has come in here”; and they go around and lay wait for him all the night at the gate of the city, and keep themselves silent all the night, saying, "Until the morning light—then we have slain him."

⁴ And it comes to pass afterward that he loves a woman in the Valley of Sorek, and her name [is] Delilah,

⁵ and the princes of the Philistines come up to her, and say to her, "Entice him, and see wherein his great power [is], and wherein we are able for him—and we have bound him to afflict him, and each one of us gives eleven hundred pieces of silver to you."

⁶ And Delilah says to Samson, "Please declare to me wherein your great power [is], and with what you are bound, to afflict you."

⁷ And Samson says to her, "If they bind me with seven green cords which have not been dried, then I have been weak, and have been as one of mankind."

⁸ And the princes of the Philistines bring up to her seven green cords which have not been dried, and she binds him with them.

¹⁰ And Delilah says to Samson, "Behold, you have played on me, and speak lies to me; now, please declare to me with what you are bound."

¹¹ And he says to her, "If they certainly bind me with thick bands, new ones, by which work has not been done, then I have been weak, and have been as one of mankind."

¹³ And Delilah says to Samson, "Until now you have played on me, and speak lies to me; declare to me with what you are bound." And he says to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web."

¹⁴ And she fixes [it] with the pin and says to him, "Philistines [are] on you, Samson!" And he awakens out of his sleep, and pulls out the pin of the loom, and with the web.

¹⁵ And she says to him, "How do you say, I have loved you, and your heart is not with me? These three times you have played on me, and have not declared to me wherein your great power [is]."

¹⁷ that he declares all his heart to her, and says to her, "A razor has not gone up on my head, for I [am] a Nazarite to God from the womb of my mother; if I have been shaven, then my power has turned aside from me, and I have been weak, and have been as all of mankind."

¹⁸ And Delilah sees that he has declared all his heart to her, and she sends and calls for the princes of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this time, for he has declared all his heart to me"; and the princes of the Philistines have come up to her, and bring up the money in their hand.

¹⁹ And she makes him sleep on her knees, and calls for a man, and shaves the seven locks of his head, and begins to afflict him, and his power turns aside from off him;

²⁰ and she says, "Philistines [are] on you, Samson!" And he awakens out of his sleep and says, "I go out as time by time, and shake free"; but he has not known that YHWH has turned aside from off him.

²¹ And the Philistines seize him, and pick out his eyes, and bring him down to Gaza, and bind him with two bronze chains; and he is grinding in the prison-house.

²² And the hair of his head begins to shoot up when he has been shaven,

²³ and the princes of the Philistines have been gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to rejoice; and they say, "Our god has given our enemy Samson into our hand."

²⁴ And the people see him, and praise their god, for they said, "Our god has given into our hand our enemy, and he who is laying waste to our land, and who multiplied our wounded."

²⁵ And it comes to pass, when their heart [is] glad, that they say, "Call for Samson, and he entertains for us"; and they call for Samson out of the prison-house, and he entertains their faces, and they cause him to stand between the pillars.

²⁶ And Samson says to the young man who is keeping hold on his hand, "Let me also feel the pillars on which the house is established, and I lean on them."

²⁷ And the house has been full of the men and the women, and all the princes of the Philistines [are] there, and about three thousand men and women [are] on the roof, who are watching Samson entertain.

²⁸ And Samson calls to YHWH and says, "Lord YHWH, please remember me and please strengthen me only this time, O God; and I am avenged—vengeance at once—because of my two eyes, on the Philistines."

²⁹ And Samson turns aside [to] the two middle pillars, on which the house is established, and on which it is supported, [to] one with his right hand and one with his left;

³⁰ and Samson says, "Let me die with the Philistines," and he inclines himself powerfully, and the house falls on the princes, and on all the people who [are] in it, and the dead whom he has put to death in his death are more than those whom he put to death in his life.

³¹ And his brothers come down, and all the house of his father, and lift him up, and bring him up, and bury him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of his father Manoah; and he has judged Israel [for] twenty years.

¹ And there is a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, and his name [is] Micah,

² and he says to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver which have been taken of yours, and [of which] you have sworn, and also spoken in my ears; behold, the silver [is] with me, I have taken it"; and his mother says, "Blessed [is] my son of YHWH."

³ And he gives back the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother says, "I had certainly sanctified the silver to YHWH, from my hand, for my son, to make a carved image, and a molten image; and now, I give it back to you.”

⁵ As for the man Micah, he has a house of gods, and he makes an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrates the hand of one of his sons, and he is for a priest to him;

⁶ in those days there is no king in Israel, each does that which is right in his own eyes.

⁷ And there is a young man of Beth-Lehem-Judah, of the family of Judah, and he [is] a Levite, and he [is] a sojourner there.

⁸ And the man goes out of the city, out of Beth-Lehem-Judah, to sojourn where he finds, and comes to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to work his way.

⁹ And Micah says to him, “Where do you come from?” And he says to him, “I [am] a Levite of Beth-Lehem-Judah, and I am going to sojourn where I find.”

¹⁰ And Micah says to him, “Dwell with me, and be for a father and for a priest to me, and I give ten pieces of silver to you for the days, and a suit of garments, and your sustenance”; and the Levite goes [in].

¹¹ And the Levite is willing to dwell with the man, and the young man is to him as one of his sons.

¹² And Micah consecrates the hand of the Levite, and the young man is for a priest to him, and he is in the house of Micah,

¹³ and Micah says, “Now I have known that YHWH does good to me, for the Levite has been for a priest to me.”

² And the sons of Dan send, out of their family, five of their men—men, sons of valor—from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to traverse the land, and to search it, and they say to them, “Go, search the land”; and they come into the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodge there.

³ They [are] with the household of Micah, and they have discerned the voice of the young man, the Levite, and turn aside there, and say to him, “Who has brought you here? And what are you doing in this [place]? And why are you here?”

⁴ And he says to them, “Thus and thus has Micah done to me; and he hires me, and I am for a priest to him.”

⁵ And they say to him, “Please ask of God, and we know whether our way on which we are going is prosperous.”

⁶ And the priest says to them, “Go in peace; before YHWH [is] your way in which you go.”

⁷ And the five men go, and come to Laish, and see the people which [is] in its midst, dwelling confidently, according to the custom of Zidonians, quiet and confident; and there is none putting to shame in the land in [any] thing, possessing restraint, and they [are] far off from the Zidonians, and have no word with [any] man.

⁸ And they come to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers say to them, “What [did] you [find]?”

¹⁰ When you go, you come to a confident people, and the land [is] large on both hands, for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything which [is] in the land.”

¹¹ And there journey there, of the family of the Danite, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, six hundred men girded with weapons of war.

¹³ And they pass over there [to] the hill-country of Ephraim, and come to the house of Micah.

¹⁴ And the five men, those going to traverse the land of Laish, answer and say to their brothers, “Have you known that in these houses there is an ephod, and teraphim, and carved image, and molten image? And now, know what you do.”

¹⁵ And they turn aside there, and come to the house of the young man, the Levite, the house of Micah, and ask of him of welfare—

¹⁶ (and the six hundred men girded with their weapons of war, who [are] of the sons of Dan, are standing at the opening of the gate)—

¹⁷ indeed, the five men, those going to traverse the land, go up—they have come in there—they have taken the carved image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image—and the priest is standing at the opening of the gate, and the six hundred men who are girded with weapons of war—

¹⁸ indeed, these have entered the house of Micah, and take the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image; and the priest says to them, “What are you doing?”

¹⁹ And they say to him, “Keep silent, lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be for a father and for a priest to us: is it better your being a priest for the house of one man, or your being priest for a tribe and for a family in Israel?”

²⁰ And the heart of the priest is glad, and he takes the ephod, and the teraphim, and the carved image, and goes into the midst of the people,

²¹ and they turn and go, and put the infants, and the livestock, and the baggage, before them.

²² They have been far off from the house of Micah—and the men who [are] in the houses which [are] near the house of Micah have been called together, and overtake the sons of Dan,

²³ and call to the sons of Dan, and they turn their faces around, and say to Micah, “What [is this] to you that you have been called together?”

²⁴ And he says, “You have taken my gods which I made, and the priest, and you go; and what more do I [have]? And what [is] this you say to me, What [is this] to you?”

²⁶ and the sons of Dan go on their way, and Micah sees that they are stronger than he, and turns, and goes back to his house.

²⁷ And they have taken that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and come in against Laish, against a people quiet and confident, and strike them by the mouth of the sword, and have burned the city with fire,

²⁸ and there is no deliverer; for it [is] far off from Sidon, and they have no word with [any] man, and it [is] in the valley which [is] by Beth-Rehob; and they build the city, and dwell in it,

²⁹ and call the name of the city Dan, by the name of their father Dan, who was born to Israel; and yet Laish [is] the name of the city at the first.

³¹ And they appoint for themselves the carved image of Micah, which he had made, all the days of the house of God being in Shiloh.

² and his concubine commits whoredom against him, and she goes from him to the house of her father, to Beth-Lehem-Judah, and is there four months of days.

³ And her husband rises and goes after her, to speak to her heart, to bring her back, and his young man [is] with him, and a couple of donkeys; and she brings him into the house of her father, and the father of the young woman sees him, and rejoices to meet him.

⁴ And his father-in-law keeps hold on him, father of the young woman, and he abides with him three days, and they eat and drink, and lodge there.

⁵ And it comes to pass, on the fourth day, that they rise early in the morning, and he rises to go, and the father of the young woman says to his son-in-law, "Support your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward you go on."

⁶ And both of them sit, and eat and drink together; and the father of the young woman says to the man, "Please be willing and lodge all night, and let your heart be glad."

⁷ And the man rises to go, and his father-in-law presses on him, and he turns back and lodges there.

⁸ And he rises early in the morning, on the fifth day, to go, and the father of the young woman says, "Please support your heart"; and they have tarried until the turning of the day, and both of them eat.

⁹ And the man rises to go, he, and his concubine, and his young man, but his father-in-law, father of the young woman, says to him, "Now behold, the day has fallen toward evening, please lodge all night; behold, the declining of the day! Lodge here and let your heart be glad—and you have risen early tomorrow for your journey, and you have gone to your tent.”

¹⁰ And the man has not been willing to lodge all night, and he rises, and goes, and comes in until [he is] opposite Jebus (it [is] Jerusalem), and a couple of saddled donkeys [are] with him; and his concubine [is] with him.

¹¹ They [are] near Jebus, and the day has greatly gone down, and the young man says to his lord, “Please come, and we turn aside to this city of the Jebusite and lodge in it.”

¹² And his lord says to him, “Let us not turn aside to the city of a stranger, that is not of the sons of Israel there, but we have passed over to Gibeah.”

¹³ And he says to his young man, “Come, and we draw near to one of the places, and have lodged in Gibeah, or in Ramah.”

¹⁴ And they pass over, and go on, and the sun goes in on them near Gibeah, which is of Benjamin;

¹⁵ and they turn aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah, and he goes in and sits in a broad place of the city, and there is no man gathering them into the house to lodge.

¹⁷ And he lifts up his eyes, and sees the man, the traveler, in a broad place of the city, and the old man says, “To where do you go? And where do you come from?”

¹⁸ And he says to him, “We are passing over from Beth-Lehem-Judah to the sides of the hill-country of Ephraim—I [am] from there, and I go to Beth-Lehem-Judah; and I am going to the house of YHWH, and there is no man gathering me into the house,

¹⁹ and there is both straw and provender for our donkeys, and there is also bread and wine for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything.”

²⁰ And the old man says, “Peace to you; only, all your lack [is] on me, but do not lodge in the broad place.”

²¹ And he brings him into his house, and mixes [food] for the donkeys, and they wash their feet, and eat and drink.

²² They are making their heart glad, and behold, men of the city, men—sons of worthlessness—have gone around the house, beating on the door, and they speak to the old man, the master of the house, saying, “Bring out the man who has come into your house, and we know him.”

²³ And the man, the master of the house, goes out to them and says to them, “No, my brothers, please do not do evil after that this man has come into my house; do not do this folly;

²⁵ And the men have not been willing to listen to him, and the man takes hold on his concubine and brings [her] out to them outside, and they know her and roll themselves on her all the night until the morning, and they send her away in the ascending of the dawn;

²⁶ and the woman comes in at the turning of the morning, and falls at the opening of the man's house where her lord [is], until the light.

²⁸ and he says to her, "Rise, and we go"; but there is no answering, and he takes her on the donkey, and the man rises and goes to his place,

²⁹ and comes into his house, and takes the knife, and lays hold on his concubine, and cuts her in pieces to her bones—into twelve pieces, and sends her into all the border of Israel.

³⁰ And it has come to pass, everyone who sees has said, "There has not been—indeed, there has not been seen [anything] like this, from the day of the coming up of the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt until this day; set your [heart] on it, take counsel, and speak."

20

² And the chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, station themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen drawing sword.

³ And the sons of Benjamin hear that the sons of Israel have gone up to Mizpeh. And the sons of Israel say, "Speak! How has this evil been?"

⁴ And the man, the Levite, husband of the woman who has been murdered, answers and says, "My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which [is] of Benjamin, to lodge;

⁵ and the masters of Gibeah rise against me—and they go around the house against me by night—they thought to slay me, and they have humbled my concubine, and she dies;

⁶ and I lay hold on my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and send her into all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have done wickedness and folly in Israel;

⁷ behold, you [are] all sons of Israel; give for yourselves a word and counsel here."

⁸ And all the people rise as one man, saying, "None of us goes to his tent, and none of us turns aside to his house;

⁹ and now, this [is] the thing which we do to Gibeah: [we go up] against it by lot!

¹¹ And every man of Israel is gathered to the city, as one man—companions.

¹² And the tribes of Israel send men among all the tribes of Benjamin, saying, "What [is] this evil which has been among you?"

13 And now, give up the men—sons of worthlessness—which [are] in Gibeah, and we put them to death, and we put away evil from Israel.” And [the sons of] Benjamin have not been willing to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel;

14 and the sons of Benjamin are gathered out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle with the sons of Israel.

15 And the sons of Benjamin number themselves on that day; out of the cities [are] twenty-six thousand men drawing sword, apart from the inhabitants of Gibeah, [who] numbered themselves, seven hundred chosen men;

16 among all this people [are] seven hundred chosen men, their right hand bound, each of these slinging with a stone at the hair, and he does not err.

17 And the men of Israel numbered themselves, apart from Benjamin, four hundred thousand men, drawing sword, each of these a man of war.

18 And they rise and go up to Beth-El, and ask of God, and the sons of Israel say, “Who goes up for us at the commencement to battle with the sons of Benjamin?” And YHWH says, “Judah—at the commencement.”

19 And the sons of Israel rise in the morning, and encamp against Gibeah,

20 and the men of Israel go out to battle with Benjamin, and the men of Israel set themselves in array [for] battle with them, against Gibeah,

21 and the sons of Benjamin come out from Gibeah, and destroy twenty-two thousand men in Israel on that day—to the earth.

22 And the people, the men of Israel, strengthen themselves, and add to set in array [for] battle in the place where they arranged themselves on the first day.

23 And the sons of Israel go up and weep before YHWH until the evening, and ask of YHWH, saying, “Do I add to draw near to battle with the sons of my brother Benjamin?” And YHWH says, “Go up against him.”

24 And the sons of Israel draw near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day,

25 and Benjamin comes out to meet them from Gibeah on the second day, and destroy eighteen thousand men among the sons of Israel again—to the earth; all these are drawing sword.

26 And all the sons of Israel go up, even all the people, and come to Beth-El, and weep, and sit there before YHWH, and fast on that day until the evening, and cause burnt-offerings and peace-offerings to ascend before YHWH.

27 And the sons of Israel ask of YHWH—and the Ark of the Covenant of God [is] there in those days,

28 and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, is standing before it in those days, saying, “Do I add to go out to battle again with the sons of my brother Benjamin, or do I cease?” And YHWH says, “Go up, for tomorrow I give him into your hand.”

29 And Israel sets ones lying in wait against Gibeah, all around,

30 and the sons of Israel go up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and arrange themselves against Gibeah, as time by time.

31 And the sons of Benjamin come out to meet the people; they have been drawn away out of the city, and begin to strike [some] of the people—wounded as time by time—in the highways (of which one is going up to Beth-El, and the other to Gibeah in the field), [are] about thirty men of Israel.

³² And the sons of Benjamin say, “They are struck before us as at the beginning”; but the sons of Israel said, “Let us flee, and draw them away out of the city, to the highways.”

³⁵ And YHWH strikes Benjamin before Israel, and the sons of Israel destroy in Benjamin, on that day, twenty-five thousand and one hundred men; all these [are] drawing sword.

³⁶ And the sons of Benjamin see that they have been struck—and the men of Israel give place to Benjamin, for they have trusted in the ambush which they had set against Gibeah,

³⁸ And the appointed sign of the men of Israel with the ambush was their causing a great volume of smoke to go up from the city.

³⁹ And the men of Israel turn in battle, and Benjamin has begun to strike the wounded among the men of Israel, about thirty men, for they said, “Surely they are utterly struck before us, as [at] the first battle”;

⁴⁰ but the volume has begun to go up from the city—a pillar of smoke—and Benjamin turns behind, and behold, the perfection of the city has gone up toward the heavens.

⁴¹ And the men of Israel have turned, and the men of Benjamin are troubled, for they have seen that the calamity has struck against them—

⁴² and they turn before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness, and the battle has followed them; and those who [are] from the cities are destroying them in their midst;

⁴⁴ And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fall—all these [were] men of valor;

⁴⁶ And all those falling of Benjamin are twenty-five thousand men drawing sword, on that day—all these [were] men of valor;

⁴⁷ but six hundred men turn and flee into the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon, and they dwell in the rock of Rimmon four months.

⁴⁸ And the men of Israel have turned back to the sons of Benjamin, and strike them by the mouth of the sword out of the city—men even to livestock, even to all that is found; they have also sent all the cities which are found into the fire.

¹ And the men of Israel have sworn in Mizpeh, saying, “None of us gives his daughter to Benjamin for a wife.”

² And the people come to Beth-El, and sit there until the evening before God, and lift up their voice, and weep [with] a great weeping,

³ and say, “Why, O YHWH, God of Israel, has this been in Israel—to be lacking one tribe from Israel today?”

⁴ And it comes to pass on the next day, that the people rise early, and build an altar there, and cause burnt-offerings and peace-offerings to ascend.

⁵ And the sons of Israel say, “Who [is] he that has not come up in the assembly to YHWH out of all the tribes of Israel?” For the great oath has been concerning him who has not come up to YHWH to Mizpeh, saying, “He is surely put to death.”

⁶ And the sons of Israel sigh concerning their brother Benjamin, and say, “Today there has been one tribe cut off from Israel,

⁷ what do we do for them—for those who are left—for wives, since we have sworn by YHWH not to give to them from our daughters for wives?”

⁸ And they say, “Who is [that] one out of the tribes of Israel who has not come up to YHWH to Mizpeh?” And behold, none has come to the camp from Jabesh-Gilead—to the assembly.

⁹ And the people numbered themselves, and behold, there is no man from the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead.

¹¹ And this [is] the thing which you do; every male, and every woman knowing the lying of a male, you devote.”

¹³ And all the congregation sends [word] and speaks to the sons of Benjamin who [are] in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaims peace to them;

¹⁴ and Benjamin turns back at that time, and they give to them the women whom they have kept alive of the women of Jabesh-Gilead, and they have not found for [all of] them so.

¹⁵ And the people sighed concerning Benjamin, for YHWH had made a breach among the tribes of Israel.

¹⁶ And [the] elderly of the congregation say, “What do we do to the remnant for wives—for the women have been destroyed out of Benjamin?”

¹⁷ And they say, “A possession of an escaped party [is] to Benjamin, and a tribe is not blotted out from Israel;

¹⁸ and we are not able to give wives to them out of our daughters, for the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed [is] he who is giving a wife to Benjamin.”

¹⁹ And they say, “Behold, a festival of YHWH [is] in Shiloh, from time to time, which [is] on the north of Beth-El, at the rising of the sun, by the highway which is going up from Beth-El to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.”

²⁰ And they command the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go—and you have laid wait in the vineyards,

²¹ and have seen, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances—then you have gone out from the vineyards, and each caught his wife out of the daughters of Shiloh for yourselves, and have gone to the land of Benjamin;

²² and it has been, when their fathers or their brothers come in to plead to us, that we have said to them, Favor us [by] them, for we have not each taken his wife in battle, for you have not given [wives] to them at this time, [so] you are [not] guilty.”

²³ And the sons of Benjamin do so, and take women according to their number, out of the dancers whom they have seized; and they go, and return to their inheritance, and build the cities, and dwell in them.

²⁴ And the sons of Israel go up and down there at that time, each to his tribe, and to his family; and they each go out there to his inheritance.

²⁵ In those days there is no king in Israel; each does that which is right in his own eyes.

Ruth

¹ And it comes to pass, in [the] days [when] the ones judging judge, that there is a famine in the land, and there goes a man from Beth-Lehem-Judah to sojourn in the fields of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

² And the name of the man [is] Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephraimites from Beth-Lehem-Judah; and they come into the fields of Moab, and are there.

³ And Elimelech husband of Naomi dies, and she is left, she and her two sons;

⁵ And they die also, both of them—Mahlon and Chilion—and the woman is left of her two children and of her husband.

⁶ And she rises, she and her daughters-in-law, and turns back from the fields of Moab, for she has heard in the fields of Moab that God has looked after His people—to give to them bread.

⁷ And she goes out from the place where she has been, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they go in the way to return to the land of Judah.

⁸ And Naomi says to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return, each to the house of her mother; YHWH does with you kindness as you have done with the dead, and with me;

⁹ YHWH grants to you, and you find rest each in the house of her husband”; and she kisses them, and they lift up their voice and weep.

¹⁰ And they say to her, “Surely with you we go back to your people.”

¹¹ And Naomi says, “Turn back, my daughters; why do you go with me? Are there yet to me sons in my bowels that they have been to you for husbands?

¹² Turn back, my daughters, go, for I am too aged to be to a husband; though I had said, There is for me hope, also, I have been tonight to a husband, and also I have borne sons:

¹⁴ And they lift up their voice, and weep again, and Orpah kisses her mother-in-law, and Ruth has cleaved to her.

¹⁵ And she says, “Behold, your sister-in-law has turned back to her people, and to her god, turn back after your sister-in-law.”

¹⁶ And Ruth says, “Do not urge me to leave you—to turn back from after you; for to where you go I go, and where you lodge I lodge; your people [is] my people, and your God my God.

¹⁷ Where you die I die, and there I am buried; thus does YHWH to me, and thus He adds—for death itself parts between me and you.”

¹⁸ And she sees that she is strengthening herself to go with her, and she ceases to speak to her;

²⁰ And she says to them, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly to me,

²¹ I went out full, and YHWH has brought me back empty, why do you call me Naomi, and YHWH has testified against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me?"

²² And Naomi turns back, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who has turned back from the fields of Moab, and they have come to Beth-Lehem at the commencement of barley-harvest.

¹ And Naomi has an acquaintance of her husband's, a man mighty in wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name [is] Boaz.

² And Ruth the Moabitess says to Naomi, "Please let me go into the field, and I gather among the ears of grain after him in whose eyes I find grace"; and she says to her, "Go, my daughter."

³ And she goes and comes and gathers in a field after the reapers, and her chance happens—the portion of the field is Boaz's who [is] of the family of Elimelech.

⁴ And behold, Boaz has come from Beth-Lehem, and says to the reapers, "YHWH [is] with you"; and they say to him, "YHWH blesses you."

⁵ And Boaz says to his young man who is set over the reapers, "Whose [is] this young person?"

⁶ And the young man who is set over the reapers answers and says, "A young woman—Moabitess—she [is], who came back with Naomi from the fields of Moab,

⁷ and she says, Please let me glean and I have gathered among the sheaves after the reapers; and she comes and remains since the morning and until now; she sat in the house a little [while]."

⁸ And Boaz says to Ruth, "Have you not heard, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and also, do not pass over from here, and thus you cleave to my young women:

⁹ your eyes [are] on the field which they reap, and you have gone after them; have I not charged the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty then you have gone to the vessels, and have drunk from that which the young men draw."

¹⁰ And she falls on her face, and bows herself to the earth, and says to him, "Why have I found grace in your eyes, to discern me, and I a stranger?"

¹¹ And Boaz answers and says to her, "It has been thoroughly declared to me all that you have done with your mother-in-law, after the death of your husband, and you leave your father, and your mother, and the land of your birth, and come to a people which you have not known before.

¹² YHWH repays your work, and your reward is complete from YHWH, God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

¹³ And she says, "Let me find grace in your eyes, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken to the heart of your maidservant, and I am not as one of your maidservants."

14 And Boaz says to her, "At meal-time come near here, and you have eaten of the bread, and dipped your morsel in the vinegar." And she sits at the side of the reapers, and he reaches to her roasted grain, and she eats, and is satisfied, and leaves.

15 And she rises to glean, and Boaz charges his young men, saying, "Even between the sheaves she gleans, and you do not cause her to blush;

16 and also you surely cast to her of the handfuls—and have left, and she has gleaned, and you do not push against her."

17 And she gleans in the field until the evening, and beats out that which she has gleaned, and it is about an ephah of barley;

18 and she takes [it] up, and goes into the city, and her mother-in-law sees that which she has gleaned, and she brings out and gives to her that which she left from her satiety.

19 And her mother-in-law says to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where have you worked? May he who is discerning you be blessed." And she declares to her mother-in-law with whom she has worked, and says, "The name of the man with whom I have worked today [is] Boaz."

20 And Naomi says to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed [is] he of YHWH who has not forsaken His kindness with the living and with the dead"; and Naomi says to her, "The man is a relation of ours; he [is] of our redeemers."

21 And Ruth the Moabitess says, "Also he surely said to me, Near the young people whom I have you cleave until they have completed the whole of the harvest which I have."

22 And Naomi says to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "Good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and they do not come against you in another field."

23 And she cleaves to the young women of Boaz to glean, until the completion of the barley-harvest, and of the wheat-harvest, and she dwells with her mother-in-law.

1 And her mother-in-law Naomi says to her, "My daughter, do I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you?"

2 And now, is not Boaz of our acquaintance, with whose young women you have been? Behold, he is winnowing the threshing-floor of barley tonight,

3 and you have bathed, and anointed yourself, and put your garments on you, and gone down to the threshing-floor; do not let yourself be known to the man until he completes to eat and to drink;

4 and it comes to pass, when he lies down, that you have known the place where he lies down, and have gone in, and uncovered his feet, and lain down—and he declares to you that which you do."

5 And she says to her, "All that you say—I do."

6 And she goes down [to] the threshing-floor, and does according to all that her mother-in-law commanded her

7 And Boaz eats and drinks, and his heart is glad; and he goes in to lie down at the end of the heap; and she comes in gently, and uncovers his feet, and lies down.

8 And it comes to pass, at the middle of the night, that the man trembles, and turns himself, and behold, a woman is lying at his feet.

⁹ And he says, “Who [are] you?” And she says, “I [am] Ruth your handmaid, and you have spread your skirt over your handmaid, for you [are] a redeemer.”

¹⁰ And he says, “Blessed [are] you of YHWH, my daughter; you have dealt more kindly at the latter end than at the beginning—not to go after the young men, either poor or rich.

¹¹ And now, my daughter, do not fear, all that you say I do to you, for all the gate of my people knows that you [are] a virtuous woman.

¹² And now, surely, true, that I [am] a redeemer, but also there is a redeemer nearer than I.

¹³ Lodge tonight, and it has been in the morning, if he redeems you, well: he redeems; and if he does not delight to redeem you, then I have redeemed you—I; YHWH lives! Lie down until the morning.”

¹⁴ And she lies down at his feet until the morning, and rises before one discerns another; and he says, “Let it not be known that the woman has come into the floor.”

¹⁵ And he says, “Give the covering which [is] on you, and keep hold on it”; and she keeps hold on it, and he measures six [measures] of barley, and lays [it] on her; and he goes into the city.

¹⁶ And she comes to her mother-in-law, and she says, “Who [are] you, my daughter?” And she declares to her all that the man has done to her.

¹⁷ And she says, “These six [measures] of barley he has given to me, for he said, You do not go in empty to your mother-in-law.”

¹⁸ And she says, “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter falls, for the man does not rest except he has completed the matter today.”

² And he takes ten men from [the] elderly of the city, and says, “Sit down here”; and they sit down.

³ And he says to the redeemer, “A portion of the field which [is] to our brother, to Elimelech, has Naomi sold, who has come back from the fields of Moab;

⁴ and I said, I uncover your ear, saying, Buy before the inhabitants and before [the] elderly of my people; if you redeem—redeem, and if none redeems—declare [it] to me and I know, for there is none except you to redeem, and I after you.” And he says, “I redeem [it].”

⁸ And the redeemer says to Boaz, “Buy [it] for yourself,” and draws off his sandal.

⁹ And Boaz says to the elderly, and [to] all the people, “You [are] witnesses today that I have bought all that [belonged] to Elimelech, and all that [belonged] to Chilion and Mahlon, from the hand of Naomi;

¹¹ And all the people who [are] in the gate say—also the elderly, “Witnesses! YHWH makes the woman who is coming to your house as Rachel and as Leah, both of whom built the house of Israel; and you do virtuously in Ephrathah, and proclaim the name in Beth-Lehem;

¹² and let your house be as the house of Perez (whom Tamar bore to Judah), of the seed which YHWH gives to you of this young woman.”

¹³ And Boaz takes Ruth, and she becomes his wife, and he goes in to her, and YHWH gives conception to her, and she bears a son.

¹⁴ And the women say to Naomi, “Blessed [is] YHWH who has not let a redeemer cease to you today, and his name is proclaimed in Israel, ¹⁵ and he has been to you for a restorer of life, and for a nourisher of your old age, for your daughter-in-law who has loved you—who is better to you than seven sons—has borne him.”

¹⁶ And Naomi takes the boy, and lays him in her bosom, and is to him for a nurse;

¹⁷ and the neighboring women give a name to him, saying, “There has been a son born to Naomi,” and they call his name Obed; he [is] father of Jesse, father of David.

¹⁸ And these are generations of Perez: Perez begot Hezron,

¹⁹ and Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminidab,

²⁰ and Amminidab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon,

²¹ and Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed,

²² and Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

First Samuel

¹ And there is a certain man of Ramathaim-Zophim, of the hill-country of Ephraim, and his name [is] Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite,

² and he has two wives, the name of the first [is] Hannah, and the name of the second Peninnah, and Peninnah has children, and Hannah has no children.

⁴ And the day comes, and Elkanah sacrifices, and he has given portions to his wife Peninnah, and to all her sons and her daughters,

⁵ and he gives a certain portion to Hannah—double, for he has loved Hannah, and YHWH has shut her womb;

⁶ and her rival has also provoked her greatly, so as to make her tremble, for YHWH has shut up her womb.

⁷ And so is done year by year, from the time of her going up into the house of YHWH, so she provokes her, and she weeps, and does not eat.

⁸ And her husband Elkanah says to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart afflicted? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

⁹ And Hannah rises after eating in Shiloh, and after drinking, and Eli the priest is sitting on the throne by the doorpost of the temple of YHWH.

¹⁰ And she is bitter in soul, and prays to YHWH, and weeps greatly,

¹¹ and vows a vow, and says, "YHWH of Hosts, if You certainly look on the affliction of Your handmaid, and have remembered me, and do not forget Your handmaid, and have given to Your handmaid seed of men—then I have given him to YHWH all [the] days of his life, and a razor does not go up on his head."

¹² And it has been, when she multiplied praying before YHWH, that Eli is watching her mouth,

¹³ and Hannah, she is speaking over her heart—only her lips are moving, and her voice is not heard, and Eli reckons her to be drunken.

¹⁴ And Eli says to her, "Until when are you drunken? Turn aside your wine from you."

¹⁵ And Hannah answers and says, "No, my lord, I [am] a woman sharply pained in spirit, and I have not drunk wine and strong drink, and I pour out my soul before YHWH;

¹⁶ do not put your handmaid before a daughter of worthlessness, for from the abundance of my meditation, and of my provocation, I have spoken until now."

¹⁷ And Eli answers and says, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel gives your petition which you have asked of Him."

¹⁹ And they rise early in the morning, and bow themselves before YHWH, and turn back, and come to their house in Ramah, and Elkanah knows his wife Hannah, and YHWH remembers her;

²⁰ and it comes to pass, at the revolution of the days, that Hannah conceives, and bears a son, and calls his name Samuel, for, "I have asked for him from YHWH."

²¹ And the man Elkanah goes up, and all his house, to sacrifice to YHWH the sacrifice of the days, and his vow.

²² And Hannah has not gone up, for she said to her husband, "Until the youth is weaned—then I have brought him in, and he has appeared before the face of YHWH, and dwelt there for all time."

²³ And her husband Elkanah says to her, "Do that which is good in your eyes; abide until your weaning him; only, let YHWH establish His word"; and the woman abides and suckles her son until she has weaned him,

²⁵ And they slaughter the bullock, and bring in the youth to Eli,

²⁶ and she says, "O my lord, your soul lives! My lord, I [am] the woman who stood with you in this [place], to pray to YHWH;

²⁷ I prayed for this youth, and YHWH gives to me my petition which I asked of Him;

²⁸ and I also have called him to YHWH, all the days that he has lived—he is called to YHWH"; and he bows himself there before YHWH.

¹ And Hannah prays and says: "My heart has exulted in YHWH, || My horn has been high in YHWH, || My mouth has been large over my enemies, || For I have rejoiced in Your salvation.

² There is none holy like YHWH, || For there is none except You, || And there is no rock like our God.

³ You do not multiply—you speak haughtily—The old saying goes out from your mouth, || For YHWH [is] a God of knowledge, || And actions are weighed by Him.

⁴ Bows of the mighty are broken, || And the stumbling have girded on strength.

⁶ YHWH puts to death, and keeps alive, || He brings down to Sheol, and brings up.

⁷ YHWH dispossesses, and He makes rich, || He makes low, indeed, He makes high.

⁹ He keeps the feet of His saints, || And the wicked are silent in darkness, || For man does not become mighty by power.

¹⁰ YHWH—His adversaries are broken down, || He thunders against them in the heavens: YHWH judges the ends of the earth, || And gives strength to His king, || And exalts the horn of His anointed."

11 And Elkanah goes to Ramath, to his house, and the youth has been serving YHWH [in] the presence of Eli the priest;

12 and the sons of Eli [are] sons of worthlessness, they have not known YHWH.

13 And the custom of the priests with the people [is that when] any man is sacrificing a sacrifice, then the servant of the priest has come in when the flesh is boiling, and [with] the hook of three teeth in his hand,

14 and has struck [it] into the pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot; all that the hook brings up the priest takes for himself; thus they do to all Israel who are coming in there in Shiloh.

15 Also, before they make incense with the fat, then the priest's servant has come in and said to the man who is sacrificing, "Give flesh to roast for the priest, and he does not take boiled flesh from you, but raw";

16 and the man says to him, "Let them surely make incense with the fat according to the [custom] today, then take to yourself as your soul desires"; and he has said to him, "Surely you give now; and if not—I have taken by strength."

17 And the sin of the young men is very great [in] the presence of YHWH, for the men have despised the offering of YHWH.

18 And Samuel is ministering [in] the presence of YHWH, a youth girl [with] an ephod of linen;

19 and his mother makes a small upper coat for him, and she has brought it up to him from time to time, in her coming up with her husband to sacrifice the sacrifice of the time.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, "YHWH appoints seed of this woman for you, for the petition which she asked for YHWH"; and they have gone to their place.

21 When YHWH has looked after Hannah, then she conceives and bears three sons and two daughters; and the youth Samuel grows up with YHWH.

22 And Eli [is] very old, and has heard all that his sons do to all Israel, and how that they lie with the women who are assembling [at] the opening of the Tent of Meeting,

23 and he says to them, "Why do you do things like these? For I am hearing of your evil words from all the people—these!

24 No, my sons; for the report which I am hearing is not good, causing the people of YHWH to transgress.

25 If a man sins against a man, then God has judged him; but if a man sins against YHWH, who prays for him?" And they do not listen to the voice of their father, though YHWH has delighted to put them to death.

26 And the youth Samuel is going on and growing up, and [is] good with both YHWH, and also with men.

27 And a man of God comes to Eli and says to him, "Thus said YHWH: Was I really revealed to the house of your father in their being in Egypt, before Pharaoh's house,

28 even to choose him out of all the tribes of Israel for a priest for Myself, to go up on My altar, to make incense, to bear an ephod before Me, and I give to the house of your father all the fire-offerings of the sons of Israel?

29 Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering, which I commanded [in] My habitation, and honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat from the first part of every offering of Israel, of My people?

³⁰ Therefore—a declaration of YHWH, God of Israel—I certainly said, Your house and the house of your father walk up and down before Me for all time; and now—a declaration of YHWH—Far be it from Me! For he who is honoring Me, I honor, and those despising Me, are lightly esteemed.

³¹ Behold, days [are] coming, and I have cut off your arm, and the arm of the house of your father, that an old man is not in your house;

³² and you have beheld an adversary [in My] habitation, in all that He does good with Israel, and there is not an old man in your house all the days.

³³ And the man of yours I do not cut off from My altar—[My purpose is] to consume your eyes, and to grieve your soul; and all the increase of men [in] your house die;

³⁴ and this [is] the sign to you that comes to your two sons, to Hophni and Phinehas—in one day both of them die;

³⁵ and I have raised up a steadfast priest for Myself; he does as in My heart and in My soul; and I have built a steadfast house for him, and he has walked up and down before My anointed all the days;

³⁶ and it has been, everyone who is left in your house comes to bow himself to him for a wage of silver and a cake of bread, and has said, Please admit me to one of the priest's offices, to eat a morsel of bread."

¹ And the youth Samuel is serving YHWH before Eli, and the word of YHWH has been precious in those days—there is no vision breaking forth.

² And it comes to pass, at that time, that Eli is lying down in his place, and his eyes have begun [to be] faded—he is not able to see.

³ And the lamp of God is not yet extinguished, and Samuel is lying down in the temple of YHWH, where the Ark of God [is],

⁴ and YHWH calls to Samuel, and he says, "Here I [am]."

⁵ And he runs to Eli and says, "Here I [am], for you have called for me"; and he says, "I did not call; turn back, lie down"; and he goes and lies down.

⁶ And YHWH adds to call Samuel again, and Samuel rises and goes to Eli, and says, "Here I [am], for you have called for me"; and he says, "I have not called, my son, turn back, lie down."

⁷ And Samuel has not yet known YHWH, and the word of YHWH is not yet revealed to him.

⁸ And YHWH adds to call Samuel the third time, and he rises and goes to Eli, and says, "Here I [am], for you have called for me"; and Eli understands that YHWH is calling to the youth.

⁹ And Eli says to Samuel, "Go, lie down, and it has been, if He calls to you, that you have said, Speak, YHWH, for Your servant is hearing"; and Samuel goes and lies down in his place.

¹⁰ And YHWH comes, and stations Himself, and calls as time by time, "Samuel, Samuel"; and Samuel says, "Speak, for Your servant is hearing."

¹² In that day I establish to Eli all that I have spoken to his house, beginning and completing;

¹³ and I have declared to him that I am judging his house for all time, for the iniquity which he has known, for his sons are making themselves vile, and he has not restrained them,

¹⁴ and therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli: the iniquity of the house of Eli is not atoned for, by sacrifice, and by offering—for all time.”

¹⁵ And Samuel lies until the morning, and opens the doors of the house of YHWH, and Samuel is afraid of declaring the vision to Eli.

¹⁶ And Eli calls Samuel and says, “Samuel, my son”; and he says, “Here I [am].”

¹⁷ And he says, “What [is] the word which He has spoken to you? Please do not hide it from me; so God does to you, and so does He add, if you hide from me a word of all the words that He has spoken to you.”

¹⁸ And Samuel declares to him the whole of the words, and has not hid from him; and he says, “It [is] YHWH; that which is good in His eyes He does.”

¹⁹ And Samuel grows up, and YHWH has been with him, and has not let any of his words fall to the earth;

²⁰ and all Israel knows, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, that Samuel is established for a prophet to YHWH.

¹ And the word of Samuel is to all Israel, and Israel goes out to meet the Philistines for battle, and they encamp by Eben-Ezer, and the Philistines have encamped in Aphek,

² and the Philistines set themselves in array to meet Israel, and the battle spreads itself, and Israel is struck before the Philistines, and they strike among the ranks in the field about four thousand men.

³ And the people come into the camp, and [the] elderly of Israel say, “Why has YHWH struck us today before the Philistines? We take the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH from Shiloh to ourselves, and it comes into our midst, and He saves us out of the hand of our enemies.”

⁵ And it comes to pass, at the coming in of the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH to the camp, that all Israel shouts [with] a great shout, and the earth is moved.

⁶ And the Philistines hear the noise of the shouting, and say, “What [is] the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?” And they perceive that the Ark of YHWH has come into the camp.

⁷ And the Philistines are afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp”; and they say, “Woe to us, for there has been nothing like this before.

⁹ Strengthen yourselves, and become men, O Philistines, lest you do service to Hebrews, as they have done to you—then you have become men, and have fought.”

¹⁰ And the Philistines fight, and Israel is struck, and they each flee to his tents, and the slaughter is very great, and thirty thousand footmen of Israel fall;

¹¹ and the Ark of God has been taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, have died.

¹² And a man of Benjamin runs out of the ranks, and comes into Shiloh, on that day, and his long robes [are] torn, and earth [is] on his head;

¹³ and he comes in, and behold, Eli is sitting on the throne by the side of the way, watching, for his heart has been trembling for the Ark of God, and the man has come into the city and declares [it], and all the city cries out.

¹⁴ And Eli hears the noise of the cry and says, "What [is] the noise of this tumult?" And the man hurried, and comes in, and tells Eli.

¹⁵ And Eli is a son of ninety-eight years, and his eyes have stood, and he has not been able to see.

¹⁶ And the man says to Eli, "I [am] he who has come out of the ranks, and I have fled out of the ranks today"; and he says, "What has been the matter, my son?"

¹⁷ And he who is bearing tidings answers and says, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and also a great slaughter has been among the people, and also your two sons have died—Hophni and Phinehas—and the Ark of God has been captured."

¹⁸ And it comes to pass, at his mentioning the Ark of God, that he falls backward from off the throne, by the side of the gate, and his neck is broken, and he dies, for the man [is] old and heavy, and he has judged Israel [for] forty years.

²⁰ And at the time of her death, the women who are standing by her say, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son," she has not answered, nor set her heart [to it];

²² And she says, "Glory has removed from Israel, for the Ark of God has been taken."

¹ And the Philistines have taken the Ark of God, and bring it in from Eben-Ezer to Ashdod,

² and the Philistines take the Ark of God and bring it into the house of Dagon, and set it near Dagon.

⁵ therefore the priests of Dagon, and all those coming into the house of Dagon, do not tread on the threshold of Dagon, in Ashdod, until this day.

⁶ And the hand of YHWH is heavy on the Ashdodites, and He makes them desolate, and strikes them with lumps, Ashdod and its borders.

⁷ And the men of Ashdod see that [it is] so, and have said, "The Ark of the God of Israel does not abide with us, for His hand has been hard on us, and on our god Dagon."

⁸ And they send and gather all the princes of the Philistines to them, and say, "What do we do to the Ark of the God of Israel?" And they say, "Let the Ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath"; and they bring around the Ark of the God of Israel;

¹⁰ And they send the Ark of God to Ekron, and it comes to pass, at the coming in of the Ark of God to Ekron, that the Ekronites cry out, saying, "They have brought around the Ark of the God of Israel to us, to put us and our people to death."

¹¹ And they send and gather all the princes of the Philistines, and say, "Send the Ark of the God of Israel away, and it turns back to its place, and it does not put us and our people to death"; for there has been a deadly destruction throughout all the city, the hand of God has been very heavy there,

¹² and the men who have not died have been struck with lumps, and the cry of the city goes up into the heavens.

¹ And the Ark of YHWH is in the field of the Philistines [for] seven months,

² and the Philistines call for priests and for diviners, saying, "What do we do to the Ark of YHWH? Let us know with what we send it to its place."

³ And they say, "If you are sending the Ark of the God of Israel away, you do not send it away empty; for you certainly send back a guilt-offering to Him; then you are healed, and it has been known to you why His hand does not turn aside from you."

⁴ And they say, "What [is] the guilt-offering which we send back to Him?" And they say, "The number of the princes of the Philistines—five golden lumps, and five golden muroids—for one plague [is] to you all, and to your princes,

⁵ and you have made images of your lumps, and images of your muroids that are corrupting the land, and have given glory to the God of Israel; it may be [that] He lightens His hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land;

⁶ and why do you harden your heart as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heart? Do they not—when He has rolled Himself on them—send them away, and they go?

⁷ And now, take and make one new cart, and two suckling cows, on which a yoke has not gone up, and you have bound the cows in the cart, and caused their young ones to turn back from after them to the house,

⁸ and you have taken the Ark of YHWH, and put it on the cart, and the vessels of gold which you have returned to Him—a guilt-offering—you put in a coffer on its side, and have sent it away, and it has gone;

⁹ and you have seen if it goes up the way of its own border, to Beth-Shemesh—He has done this great evil to us; and if not, then we have known that His hand has not come against us; it has been an accident to us.”

¹⁰ And the men do so, and take two suckling cows, and bind them in the cart, and they shut up their young ones in the house;

¹¹ and they place the Ark of YHWH on the cart, and the coffer, and the golden mureids, and the images of their lumps.

¹² And the cows go straight in the way, on the way to Beth-Shemesh, they have gone in one highway, going and lowing, and have not turned aside right or left; and the princes of the Philistines are going after them to the border of Beth-Shemesh.

¹³ And the Beth-Shemeshites are reaping their wheat-harvest in the valley, and they lift up their eyes, and see the Ark, and rejoice to see [it].

¹⁴ And the cart has come into the field of Joshua the Beth-Shemeshite, and stands there, and there [is] a great stone, and they cleave the wood of the cart, and they have caused the cows to ascend [as] a burnt-offering to YHWH.

¹⁵ And the Levites have taken down the Ark of YHWH, and the coffer which [is] with it, in which [are] the vessels of gold, and place [them] on the great stone; and the men of Beth-Shemesh have caused burnt-offerings to ascend and sacrifice sacrifices in that day to YHWH;

¹⁶ and the five princes of the Philistines have seen [it], and return [to] Ekron, on that day.

¹⁷ And these [are] the golden lumps which the Philistines have sent back—a guilt-offering to YHWH: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

¹⁹ And He strikes among the men of Beth-Shemesh, for they looked into the Ark of YHWH, indeed, He strikes seventy men [out] of fifty thousand men [[or fifty thousand and seventy men]] among the people; and the people mourn, because YHWH struck among the people [with] a great striking.

²¹ And they send messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have sent back the Ark of YHWH; come down, take it up with you.”

² And it comes to pass, from the day of the dwelling of the Ark in Kirjath-jearim, that the days are multiplied—indeed, they are twenty years—and all the house of Israel wails after YHWH.

³ And Samuel speaks to all the house of Israel, saying, “If you are turning back to YHWH with all your heart—turn aside the gods of the stranger from your midst, and Ashtaroth; and prepare your heart for YHWH, and serve Him only, and He delivers you out of the hand of the Philistines.”

⁴ And the sons of Israel turn aside the Ba’alim and Ashtaroth, and serve YHWH alone;

⁵ and Samuel says, “Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I pray to YHWH for you.”

⁶ And they are gathered to Mizpeh, and draw water, and pour out before YHWH, and fast on that day, and say there, “We have sinned against YHWH”; and Samuel judges the sons of Israel in Mizpeh.

⁷ And the Philistines hear that the sons of Israel have gathered themselves to Mizpeh; and the princes of the Philistines go up against Israel, and the sons of Israel hear, and are afraid of the presence of the Philistines.

⁸ And the sons of Israel say to Samuel, “Do not keep silent for us from crying to our God YHWH, and He saves us out of the hand of the Philistines.”

⁹ And Samuel takes a fat lamb, and causes it to go up—a whole burnt-offering to YHWH; and Samuel cries to YHWH for Israel, and YHWH answers him;

¹¹ And the men of Israel go out from Mizpeh, and pursue the Philistines, and strike them to the place of Beth-Car.

¹² And Samuel takes a stone, and sets [it] between Mizpeh and Shen, and calls its name Eben-Ezer, saying, “Until now YHWH has helped us.”

¹³ And the Philistines are humbled, and have not added anymore to come into the border of Israel, and the hand of YHWH is on the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

¹⁴ And the cities which the Philistines have taken from Israel are restored to Israel—from Ekron even to Gath—and Israel has delivered their border out of the hand of the Philistines; and there is peace between Israel and the Amorite.

¹⁵ And Samuel judges Israel all the days of his life,

¹⁶ and he has gone from year to year, and gone around Beth-El, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel [in] all these places;

¹⁷ and his returning [is] to Ramath, for his house [is] there, and he has judged Israel there, and he builds an altar to YHWH there.

¹ And it comes to pass, when Samuel [is] aged, that he makes his sons judges over Israel.

² And the name of his firstborn son is Joel, and the name of his second Abiah, judges in Beer-Sheba:

³ and his sons have not walked in his ways, and turn aside after the dishonest gain, and take a bribe, and turn aside judgment.

⁴ And all [the] elderly of Israel gather themselves together, and come to Samuel at Ramath,

⁵ and say to him, "Behold, you have become aged, and your sons have not walked in your ways; now, appoint a king to us, to judge us, like all the nations."

⁶ And the thing is evil in the eyes of Samuel when they have said, "Give a king to us, to judge us"; and Samuel prays to YHWH.

⁷ And YHWH says to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people, to all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them.

⁸ According to all the works that they have done from the day of My bringing them up out of Egypt, even to this day, when they forsake Me, and serve other gods—so they are also doing to you.

⁹ And now, listen to their voice; only, surely you certainly protest to them, and have declared to them the custom of the king who reigns over them."

¹⁰ And Samuel speaks all the words of YHWH to the people who are asking [for] a king from him,

¹¹ and says, "This is the custom of the king who reigns over you: he takes your sons, and has appointed for himself among his chariots, and among his horsemen, and they have run before his chariots;

¹³ And he takes your daughters for perfumers, and for cooks, and for bakers;

¹⁴ and your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards—he takes the best, and has given to his servants.

¹⁵ And he tithes your seed and your vineyards, and has given to his eunuchs, and to his servants.

¹⁶ And your menservants and your maidservants, and the best of your young men and your donkeys, he takes, and has prepared for his own work;

¹⁷ he tithes your flock, and you are for servants to him.

¹⁸ And you have cried out in that day because of the king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and YHWH does not answer you in that day."

¹⁹ And the people refuse to listen to the voice of Samuel, and say, "No, but a king is over us,

²⁰ and we have been, even we, like all the nations; and our king has judged us, and gone out before us, and fought our battles."

²¹ And Samuel hears all the words of the people, and speaks them in the ears of YHWH;

²² and YHWH says to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and you have caused a king to reign over them." And Samuel says to the men of Israel, "Go, each man, to his city."

¹ And there is a man of Benjamin, and his name [is] Kish, son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Bechorath, son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor;

² and he has a son, and his name [is] Saul, a choice youth and handsome, and there is not a man among the sons of Israel more handsome than he—from his shoulder and upward, higher than any of the people.

³ And the donkeys of Kish, father of Saul, are lost, and Kish says to his son Saul, “Now take one of the young men with you, and rise, go, seek the donkeys.”

⁴ And he passes over through the hill-country of Ephraim, and passes over through the land of Shalisha, and they have not found [them]; and they pass over through the land of Shaalim, and they are not; and he passes over through the land of Benjamin, and they have not found [them].

⁵ They have come to the land of Zuph, and Saul has said to his young man who [is] with him, “Come, and we return, lest my father leave off from the donkeys, and has been sorrowful for us.”

⁶ And he says to him, “Now behold, a man of God [is] in this city, and the man is honored; all that he speaks certainly comes; now, we go there, it may be he declares to us our way on which we have gone.”

⁷ And Saul says to his young man, “And behold, we go, and what do we bring to the man? For the bread has gone from our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God—what [is] with us?”

⁸ And the young man adds to answer Saul and says, “Behold, there is found a fourth of a shekel of silver with me: and I have given to the man of God, and he has declared our way to us.”

⁹ Formerly in Israel, thus said the man in his going to seek God: “Come and we go to the seer.” For the “prophet” of today is formerly called “the seer.”

¹⁰ And Saul says to his young man, “Your word [is] good; come, we go”; and they go to the city where the man of God [is].

¹¹ They are going up in the ascent of the city, and have found young women going out to draw water, and say to them, “Is the seer in this [place]?”

¹² And they answer them and say, “He is; behold, before you! Hurry, now, for he has come to the city today, for the people [have] a sacrifice today in a high place.

¹⁴ And they go up to the city; they are coming into the midst of the city, and behold, Samuel is coming out to meet them, to go up to the high place;

¹⁵ and YHWH had uncovered the ear of Samuel one day before the coming of Saul, saying,

¹⁶ “At this time tomorrow, I send to you a man out of the land of Benjamin—and you have anointed him for leader over My people Israel, and he has saved My people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen My people, for its cry has come to Me.”

¹⁷ When Samuel has seen Saul, then YHWH has answered him, “Behold, the man of whom I have spoken to you; this [one] restrains My people.”

¹⁸ And Saul draws near to Samuel in the midst of the gate and says, “Please declare to me where this seer’s house [is].”

¹⁹ And Samuel answers Saul and says, “I [am] the seer; go up before me into the high place, and you have eaten with me today, and I have sent you away in the morning, and all that [is] in your heart I declare to you.

²⁰ And as for the donkeys which are lost from you [for] three days as of today, do not set your heart to them, for they have been found; and to whom [is] all the desire of Israel? Is it not to you and to all your father’s house?”

²¹ And Saul answers and says, “Am I not a Benjamite—of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? And why have you spoken to me according to this word?”

²² And Samuel takes Saul, and his young man, and brings them into the chamber, and gives a place to them at the head of those called; and they [are] about thirty men.

²³ And Samuel says to the cook, “Give the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, Set it by you.”

²⁴ (And the cook lifts up the leg, and that which [is] on it, and sets [it] before Saul), and he says, “Behold, that which is left; [it] is set before your face—eat, for it is kept for you for this appointed time, [at my] saying, I have called the people”; and Saul eats with Samuel on that day.

²⁵ And they come down from the high place to the city, and he speaks with Saul on the roof.

²⁶ And they rise early, and it comes to pass, at the ascending of the dawn, that Samuel calls to Saul, on the roof, saying, “Rise, and I send you away”; and Saul rises, and they go out, both of them—he and Samuel, outside.

²⁷ They are going down in the extremity of the city, and Samuel has said to Saul, “Say to the young man that he should pass on before us (and he passes on), and you, stand at this time, and I cause you to hear the word of God.”

¹ And Samuel takes the vial of the oil, and pours [it] on his head, and kisses him, and says, “Is it not because YHWH has appointed you over His inheritance for leader?”

² In your going from me today—then you have found two men by the grave of Rachel, in the border of Benjamin, at Zelzah, and they have said to you, The donkeys have been found which you have gone to seek; and behold, your father has left the matter of the donkeys, and has sorrowed for you, saying, What do I do for my son?

³ And you have passed on there, and beyond, and have come to the oak of Tabor, and three men going up to God to Beth-El have found you there, one carrying three kids, and one carrying three cakes of bread, and one carrying a bottle of wine,

⁴ and they have asked of your welfare, and given two loaves to you, and you have received from their hand.

⁵ Afterward you come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines [is], and it comes to pass, at your coming in there to the city, that you have met a band of prophets coming down from the high place, and before them stringed instrument, and tambourine, and pipe, and harp, and they are prophesying;

⁶ and the Spirit of YHWH has prospered over you, and you have prophesied with them, and have turned into a [new] man;

⁷ and it has been, when these signs come to you—do for yourself as your hand finds, for God [is] with you.

⁸ And you have gone down before me to Gilgal, and behold, I am going down to you, to cause burnt-offerings to ascend, to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings; you wait [for] seven days until my coming to you, and I have made known to you that which you do.”

⁹ And it has been, at his turning his shoulder to go from Samuel, that God turns to him another heart, and all these signs come on that day,

¹⁰ and they come in there to the height, and behold, a band of prophets [is there] to meet him, and the Spirit of God prospers over him, and he prophesies in their midst.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, all knowing him before, see, and behold, he has prophesied with prophets, and the people say to one another, “What [is] this [that] has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

¹² And a man there answers and says, “And who [is] their father?” Therefore it has been for an allegory, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

¹³ And he ceases from prophesying, and comes to the high place,

¹⁴ and the uncle of Saul says to him, and to his young man, “To where did you go?” And he says, “To seek the donkeys; and we see that they are not, and we come to Samuel.”

¹⁵ And the uncle of Saul says, “Please declare to me what Samuel said to you.”

¹⁶ And Saul says to his uncle, “He certainly declared to us that the donkeys were found”; and of the matter of the kingdom he has not declared to him that which Samuel said.

¹⁷ And Samuel calls the people to YHWH to Mizpeh,

¹⁸ and says to the sons of Israel, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: I have brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I deliver you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms who are oppressing you;

¹⁹ and you have rejected your God today, who [is] Himself your Savior out of all your evils and your distresses, and you say, No, but you set a king over us; and now, station yourselves before YHWH, by your tribes, and by your thousands.”

²⁰ And Samuel brings all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin is captured,

²¹ and he brings the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of Matri is captured, and Saul son of Kish is captured, and they seek him, and he has not been found.

²² And they ask again of YHWH, “Has the man come here yet?” And YHWH says, “Behold, he has been hidden near the vessels.”

²³ And they run and bring him there, and he stationed himself in the midst of the people, and he is higher than any of the people from his shoulder and upward.

²⁴ And Samuel says to all the people, “Have you seen him on whom YHWH has fixed, for there is none like him among all the people?” And all the people shout, and say, “Let the king live!”

²⁵ And Samuel speaks to the people the right of the kingdom, and writes in a scroll, and places [it] before YHWH; and Samuel sends all the people away, each to his house.

²⁶ And Saul has also gone to his house, to Gibeah, and the force goes with him whose heart God has touched;

²⁷ and the sons of worthlessness have said, "How can this one save us?" And they despise him, and have not brought a present to him; and he is as one being deaf.

11

¹ And Nahash the Ammonite comes up, and encamps against Jabesh-Gilead, and all the men of Jabesh say to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we serve you."

² And Nahash the Ammonite says to them, "For this I cut [a covenant] with you, in picking out every right eye of yours—and I have set it [for] a reproach on all Israel."

³ And [the] elderly of Jabesh say to him, "Leave us alone [for] seven days, and we send messengers into all the border of Israel: and if there is none saving us—then we have come out to you."

⁴ And the messengers come to Gibeah of Saul, and speak the words in the ears of the people, and all the people lift up their voice and weep;

⁵ and behold, Saul has come out of the field after the herd, and Saul says, "What [is that] to the people, that they weep?" And they recount the words of the men of Jabesh to him.

⁶ And the Spirit of God prospers over Saul, in his hearing these words, and his anger burns greatly,

⁸ And he inspects them in Bezek, and the sons of Israel are three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

⁹ And they say to the messengers who are coming, "Thus you say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead: Tomorrow you have safety—by the heat of the sun"; and the messengers come and declare [it] to the men of Jabesh, and they rejoice;

¹⁰ and the men of Jabesh say [to the Ammonites], "Tomorrow we come out to you, and you have done to us according to all that [is] good in your eyes."

¹² And the people say to Samuel, "Who is he that says, Saul reigns over us? Give up the men, and we put them to death."

¹³ And Saul says, "There is no man put to death on this day, for today YHWH has worked salvation in Israel."

¹⁴ And Samuel says to the people, "Come and we go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there";

¹⁵ and all the people go to Gilgal, and cause Saul to reign there before YHWH in Gilgal, and sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings there before YHWH, and Saul rejoices there—and all the men of Israel—very greatly.

¹ And Samuel says to all Israel, “Behold, I have listened to your voice, to all that you said to me, and I cause a king to reign over you,

² and now, behold, the king is habitually walking before you, and I have become aged and gray-headed, and my sons, behold, they [are] with you, and I have habitually walked before you from my youth until this day.

³ Behold, here I [am]; testify against me before YHWH, and before His anointed; whose ox have I taken, and whose donkey have I taken, and whom have I oppressed; whom have I bruised, and of whose hand have I taken a ransom, and hide my eyes with it? And I restore [it] to you.”

⁴ And they say, “You have not oppressed us, nor have you crushed us, nor have you taken anything from the hand of anyone.”

⁵ And he says to them, “YHWH [is] a witness against you, and His anointed [is] a witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand”; and they say, “A witness.”

⁶ And Samuel says to the people, “YHWH [is] He who made Moses and Aaron, and who brought up your fathers out of the land of Egypt!

⁷ And now, station yourselves, and I judge you before YHWH, with all the righteous acts of YHWH, which He did with you, and with your fathers.

⁸ When Jacob has come to Egypt, and your fathers cry to YHWH, then YHWH sends Moses and Aaron, and they bring out your fathers from Egypt, and cause them to dwell in this place,

¹⁰ and they cry to YHWH, and say, We have sinned, because we have forsaken YHWH, and serve the Ba’alim, and Ashtaroth, and now, deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we serve You.

¹¹ And YHWH sends Jerubba’al, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivers you out of the hand of your surrounding enemies, and you dwell confidently.

¹² And you see that Nahash king of the sons of Ammon has come against you, and you say to me, No, but a king reigns over us; and your God YHWH [is] your king!

¹³ And now, behold the king whom you have chosen—whom you have asked for! And behold, YHWH has placed a king over you.

¹⁴ If you fear YHWH, and have served Him, and listened to His voice, then you do not provoke the mouth of YHWH, and you have been—both you and the king who has reigned over you—after your God YHWH.

¹⁵ And if you do not listen to the voice of YHWH—then you have provoked the mouth of YHWH, and the hand of YHWH has been against you, and against your fathers.

¹⁶ Also now, station yourselves and see this great thing which YHWH is doing before your eyes;

17 is it not wheat-harvest today? I call to YHWH, and He gives voices and rain; and know and see that your evil is great which you have done in the eyes of YHWH, to ask [for] a king for yourselves.”

18 And Samuel calls to YHWH, and YHWH gives voices and rain on that day, and all the people greatly fear YHWH and Samuel;

19 and all the people say to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to your God YHWH, and we do not die, for we have added evil to all our sins to ask [for] a king for ourselves.”

20 And Samuel says to the people, “Do not fear; you have done all this evil; only, do not turn aside from after YHWH—and you have served YHWH with all your heart,

21 and you do not turn aside after the vain things which do not profit nor deliver, for they [are] vain,

22 for YHWH does not leave His people, on account of His great Name; for YHWH has been pleased to make you for a people to Him.

23 I, also, far be it from me to sin against YHWH, by ceasing to pray for you, and I have directed you in the good and upright way;

24 only, fear YHWH, and you have served Him in truth with all your heart, for see that which He has made great with you;

25 and if you really do evil, both you and your king are consumed.”

1 Saul [is] a son of [[thirty]] years in his reigning, and he has reigned over Israel [forty]-two years,

2 then Saul chooses for himself three thousand [men] out of Israel; and two thousand are with Saul in Michmash, and in the hill-country of Beth-El; and one thousand have been with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; and he has sent each one of the remnant of the people to his tents.

3 And Jonathan strikes the garrison of the Philistines which [is] in Geba, and the Philistines hear, and Saul has blown with a horn through all the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear.”

4 And all Israel have heard, saying, “Saul has struck the garrison of the Philistines,” and also, “Israel has been abhorred by the Philistines”; and the people are called after Saul to Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines have been gathered to fight with Israel; thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and a people as the sand which [is] on the seashore for multitude; and they come up and encamp in Michmash, east of Beth-Aven.

6 And the men of Israel have seen that they are distressed, that the people have been oppressed, and the people hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And Hebrews have passed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; and Saul [is] yet in Gilgal, and all the people have trembled after him.

8 And he waits seven days, according to the appointment with Samuel, and Samuel has not come to Gilgal, and the people are scattered from off him.

9 And Saul says, “Bring the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings near to me”; and he causes the burnt-offering to ascend.

¹⁰ And it comes to pass at his completing to cause the burnt-offering to ascend, that behold, Samuel has come, and Saul goes out to meet him, to bless him;

¹¹ and Samuel says, "What have you done?" And Saul says, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from off me, and you had not come at the appointment of the days, and the Philistines are gathered to Michmash, ¹² and I say, Now the Philistines come down to me to Gilgal, and I have not appeased the face of YHWH; and I force myself, and cause the burnt-offering to ascend."

¹³ And Samuel says to Saul, "You have been foolish; you have not kept the command of your God YHWH, which He commanded you, for now YHWH had established your kingdom over Israel for all time;

¹⁴ and now, your kingdom does not stand, YHWH has sought [for] a man for Himself according to His own heart, and YHWH charges him for leader over His people, for you have not kept that which YHWH commanded you."

¹⁵ And Samuel rises, and goes up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin; and Saul inspects the people who are found with him, about six hundred men,

¹⁷ And the destroyer goes out from the camp of the Philistines—three detachments: one detachment turns to the way of Ophrah, to the land of Shual, ¹⁸ and one detachment turns the way of Beth-Horon, and one detachment turns the way of the border which is looking on the Valley of the Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

¹⁹ And a craftsman is not found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make sword or spear";

²⁰ and all Israel goes down to the Philistines, to each sharpen his plowshare, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock;

²¹ and there has been the file for mattocks, and for coulters, and for three-pronged rakes, and for the axes, and to set up the goads.

²² And it has been, in the day of battle, that there has not been found a sword and spear in the hand of any of the people who [are] with Saul and with Jonathan—but it is found with Saul and with his son Jonathan.

²³ And the station of the Philistines goes out to the passage of Michmash.

² And Saul is abiding at the extremity of Gibeah, under the pomegranate which [is] in Migron, and the people who [are] with him [are] about six hundred men,

³ and Ahiah, son of Ahitub, brother of Ichabod, son of Phinehas son of Eli priest of YHWH in Shiloh, [was] bearing an ephod; and the people did not know that Jonathan has gone.

⁴ And between the passages where Jonathan sought to pass over to the station of the Philistines [is] the edge of a rock on one side, and the edge of a rock on the other side, and the name of one is Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

⁵ One edge [is] fixed on the north in front of Michmash, and the one on the south in front of Gibeah.

⁶ And Jonathan says to the young man carrying his weapons, "Come, and we pass over to the station of these uncircumcised; it may be YHWH works for us, for there is no restraint to YHWH to save by many or by few."

⁷ And the bearer of his weapons says to him, "Do all that [is] in your heart; turn for yourself; behold, I [am] with you, as your own heart."

⁸ And Jonathan says, "Behold, we are passing over to the men, and are revealed to them;

⁹ if they thus say to us, Stand still until we have come to you, then we have stood in our place, and do not go up to them;

¹⁰ and if they thus say, Come up against us, then we have gone up, for YHWH has given them into our hand, and this [is] the sign to us."

¹¹ And both of them are revealed to the station of the Philistines, and the Philistines say, "Behold, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hid themselves."

¹² And the men of the station answer Jonathan, and the bearer of his weapons, and say, "Come up to us, and we cause you to know something." And Jonathan says to the bearer of his weapons, "Come up after me, for YHWH has given them into the hand of Israel."

¹³ And Jonathan goes up on his hands, and on his feet, and the bearer of his weapons after him; and they fall before Jonathan, and the bearer of his weapons is putting [them] to death after him.

¹⁴ And the first striking which Jonathan and the bearer of his weapons have struck is of about twenty men, in about half a furrow of a yoke of a field,

¹⁵ and there is a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people, the station and the destroyers have trembled—even they, and the earth shakes, and it becomes a trembling of God.

¹⁶ And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin see, and behold, the multitude has melted away, and it goes on, and is beaten down.

¹⁷ And Saul says to the people who [are] with him, "Now inspect and see; who has gone from us?" And they inspect, and behold, Jonathan and the bearer of his weapons are not.

¹⁸ And Saul says to Ahiah, "Bring the Ark of God near"; for the Ark of God has been with the sons of Israel on that day.

¹⁹ And it comes to pass, while Saul spoke to the priest, that the noise which [is] in the camp of the Philistines goes on, going on and becoming great, and Saul says to the priest, "Remove your hand."

²⁰ And Saul is called, and all the people who [are] with him, and they come to the battle, and behold, the sword of each has been against his neighbor—a very great destruction.

²¹ And the Hebrews [who] have been with the Philistines before the day prior, who had gone up with them into the camp, have turned around, even they, to be with Israel who [are] with Saul and Jonathan,

²² and all the men of Israel, who are hiding themselves in the hill-country of Ephraim, have heard that the Philistines have fled, and they pursue—even they—after them in battle.

²³ And YHWH saves Israel on that day, and the battle has passed over to Beth-Aven.

²⁴ And the men of Israel have been distressed on that day, and Saul adjures the people, saying, "Cursed [is] the man who eats food until the evening, and I have been avenged of my enemies"; and none of the people have tasted food.

²⁵ And all [those of] the land have come into a forest, and there is honey on the face of the field;

²⁶ and the people come into the forest, and behold, the honey dropped, and none is moving his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

²⁸ And a man of the people answers and says, "Your father certainly adjured the people, saying, Cursed [is] the man who eats food today; and the people are weary."

²⁹ And Jonathan says, "My father has troubled the land; now see that my eyes have become bright because I tasted a little of this honey.

³⁰ How much more if the people had well eaten today of the spoil of its enemies which it has found, for now the striking has not been great among the Philistines."

³¹ And they strike on that day among the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon, and the people are very weary,

³² and the people make toward the spoil, and take sheep, and oxen, and sons of the herd, and slaughter on the earth, and the people eat with the blood.

³³ And they declare to Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against YHWH, to eat with the blood." And he says, "You have dealt treacherously, roll a great stone to me today."

³⁴ And Saul says, "Be scattered among the people, and you have said to them: Each bring his ox to me, and each his sheep; and you have slain [them] in this place, and eaten, and you do not sin against YHWH to eat with the blood." And all the people bring [them]—each one [with] his ox in his hand, that night—and slaughter [them] there.

³⁵ And Saul builds an altar to YHWH; with it he has begun to build altars to YHWH.

³⁶ And Saul says, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and we prey on them until the morning light, and do not leave a man of them." And they say, "Do all that is good in your eyes." And the priest says, "Let us draw near to God here."

³⁷ And Saul asks of God, "Do I go down after the Philistines? Do You give them into the hand of Israel?" And He has not answered him on that day.

³⁸ And Saul says, "Everyone draw near here, the chiefs of the people, and know and see in what this sin has been today; ³⁹ for YHWH lives, who is saving Israel: surely if it is in my son Jonathan, surely he certainly dies"; and none is answering him out of all the people.

⁴⁰ And he says to all Israel, "You are on one side, and I and my son Jonathan are on another side"; and the people say to Saul, "Do that which is good in your eyes."

⁴¹ And Saul says to YHWH, God of Israel, "Give perfection"; and Jonathan and Saul are captured, and the people went out.

⁴² And Saul says, "Cast between me and my son Jonathan"; and Jonathan is captured.

⁴³ And Saul says to Jonathan, "Declare to me, what have you done?" And Jonathan declares to him and says, "I certainly tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that [is] in my hand; behold, I die!"

⁴⁴ And Saul says, "Thus God does, and thus does He add, for you certainly die, Jonathan."

⁴⁵ And the people say to Saul, "Does Jonathan die who worked this great salvation in Israel? Certainly not! YHWH lives, if there falls to the earth [even one] hair from his head, for with God he has worked this day"; and the people rescue Jonathan, and he has not died.

⁴⁶ And Saul goes up from after the Philistines, and the Philistines have gone to their place;

⁴⁸ And he makes a force, and strikes Amalek, and delivers Israel out of the hand of its spoiler.

⁴⁹ And the sons of Saul are Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-Shua; as for the name of his two daughters, the name of the firstborn [is] Merab, and the name of the younger Michal;

⁵⁰ and the name of the wife of Saul [is] Ahinoam, daughter of Ahimaaz; and the name of the head of his host [is] Abner son of Ner, uncle of Saul;

⁵¹ and Kish [is] the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abner, [is] the son of Ahiel.

⁵² And the war is severe against the Philistines all the days of Saul; when Saul has seen any mighty man, and any son of valor, then he gathers him to himself.

¹ And Samuel says to Saul, "YHWH sent me to anoint you for king over His people, over Israel; and now, listen to the voice of the words of YHWH.

² Thus said YHWH of Hosts: I have looked after that which Amalek did to Israel, that which he laid for him in the way in his going up out of Egypt.

³ Now go, and you have struck Amalek, and devoted all that he has, and you have no pity on him, and have put to death from man to woman, from infant to suckling, from ox to sheep, from camel to donkey."

⁴ And Saul summons the people, and inspects them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand [are] men of Judah.

⁵ And Saul comes to a city of Amalek, and lays wait in a valley;

⁷ And Saul strikes Amalek from Havilah [to] your going to Shur, which [is] on the front of Egypt,

⁸ and he catches Agag king of Amalek alive, and he has devoted all the people by the mouth of the sword;

⁹ and Saul has pity—also the people—on Agag, and on the best of the flock, and of the herd, and of the seconds, and on the lambs, and on all that [is] good, and have not been willing to devote them; and all the work, despised and wasted—it they devoted.

¹⁰ And the word of YHWH is to Samuel, saying,

¹¹ “I have regretted that I caused Saul to reign for king, for he has turned back from after Me, and he has not performed My words”; and it is displeasing to Samuel, and he cries to YHWH all the night.

¹⁴ And Samuel says, “And what [is] the noise of this flock in my ears—and the noise of the herd which I am hearing?”

¹⁵ And Saul says, “They have brought them from Amalek, because the people had pity on the best of the flock, and of the herd, in order to sacrifice to your God YHWH, and we have devoted the remnant.”

¹⁶ And Samuel says to Saul, “Desist, and I declare to you that which YHWH has spoken to me tonight”; and he says to him, “Speak.”

¹⁷ And Samuel says, “Are you not, if you [are] little in your own eyes, head of the tribes of Israel? And YHWH anoints you for king over Israel,

¹⁸ and YHWH sends you in the way, and says, Go, and you have devoted the sinners, the Amalekite, and fought against them until they are consumed;

¹⁹ and why have you not listened to the voice of YHWH—and fly to the spoil, and do evil in the eyes of YHWH?”

²⁰ And Saul says to Samuel, “Because—I have listened to the voice of YHWH, and I go in the way which YHWH has sent me, and bring in Agag king of Amalek, and I have devoted Amalek;

²¹ and the people take of the spoil of the flock and herd, the first part of the devoted thing, for sacrifice to your God YHWH in Gilgal.”

²³ for rebellion [is as] a sin of divination, and stubbornness [is as] iniquity and teraphim; because you have rejected the word of YHWH, He also rejects you from [being] king.”

²⁴ And Saul says to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I passed over the command of YHWH, and your words; because I have feared the people, I also listen to their voice;

²⁵ and now, please bear with my sin, and return with me, and I bow myself to YHWH.”

²⁶ And Samuel says to Saul, “I do not return with you; for you have rejected the word of YHWH, and YHWH rejects you from being king over Israel.”

²⁷ And Samuel turns around to go, and he lays hold on the skirt of his upper robe—and it is torn!

²⁸ And Samuel says to him, “YHWH has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and given it to your neighbor who is better than you;

²⁹ and also, the Preeminence of Israel does not lie nor relent, for He [is] not a man that He should relent.”

³⁰ And he says, “I have sinned; now please honor me before [the] elderly of my people and before Israel, and return with me; and I have bowed myself to your God YHWH.”

³¹ And Samuel turns back after Saul, and Saul bows himself to YHWH;

³² and Samuel says, “Bring Agag king of Amalek to me,” and Agag comes to him daintily, and Agag says, “Surely the bitterness of death has turned aside.”

³³ And Samuel says, “As your sword bereaved women—so is your mother bereaved above women”; and Samuel hews Agag in pieces before YHWH in Gilgal.

³⁴ And Samuel goes to Ramath, and Saul has gone to his house—to Gibeah of Saul.

³⁵ And Samuel has not added to see Saul until the day of his death, for Samuel mourned for Saul, and YHWH regretted that He had caused Saul to reign over Israel.

¹ And YHWH says to Samuel, “Until when are you mourning for Saul, and I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go, I send you to Jesse the Beth-Lehemite, for I have seen among his sons a king for Myself.”

² And Samuel says, “How do I go? When Saul has heard, then he has slain me.” And YHWH says, “You take a heifer of the herd in your hand, and have said, I have come to sacrifice to YHWH;

³ and you have called for Jesse in the sacrifice, and I cause you to know that which you do, and you have anointed for Me him of whom I speak to you.”

⁴ And Samuel does that which YHWH has spoken, and comes to Beth-Lehem, and [the] elderly of the city tremble to meet him, and [one] says, “Is your coming peace?”

⁵ And he says, “Peace; I have come to sacrifice to YHWH, sanctify yourselves, and you have come in with me to the sacrifice”; and he sanctifies Jesse and his sons, and calls them to the sacrifice.

⁶ And it comes to pass, in their coming in, that he sees Eliab and says, “Surely His anointed [is] here before YHWH.”

⁷ And YHWH says to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance, and at the height of his stature, for I have rejected him; for [it is] not as man sees—for man looks at the eyes, and YHWH looks at the heart.”

⁸ And Jesse calls to Abinadab, and causes him to pass by before Samuel; and he says, “Indeed, YHWH has not fixed on this [one].”

⁹ And Jesse causes Shammah to pass by, and he says, “Indeed, YHWH has not fixed on this [one].”

¹⁰ And Jesse causes seven of his sons to pass by before Samuel, and Samuel says to Jesse, “YHWH has not fixed on these.”

¹¹ And Samuel says to Jesse, “Are the young men finished?” And he says, “Yet the youngest has been left; and behold, he delights himself among the flock"; and Samuel says to Jesse, "Send and take him, for we do not turn around until his coming in here."

¹² And he sends, and brings him in, and he [is] ruddy, with beautiful eyes, and of good appearance; and YHWH says, "Rise, anoint him, for this [is] he."

¹⁴ And the Spirit of YHWH turned aside from Saul, and a spirit of sadness from YHWH terrified him;

¹⁵ and the servants of Saul say to him, "Now behold, a spirit of sadness [from] God is terrifying you;

¹⁶ now let our lord command your servants before you [that] they seek a skillful man playing on a harp, and it has come to pass, in the spirit of sadness [from] God being on you, that he has played with his hand and [it is] well with you."

¹⁷ And Saul says to his servants, "Now provide for me a man playing well—then you have brought [him] to me."

¹⁸ And one of the servants answers and says, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-Lehemite, skillful in playing, and a mighty, virtuous man, and a man of battle, and intelligent in word, and a man of form, and YHWH [is] with him."

¹⁹ And Saul sends messengers to Jesse and says, "Send to me your son David, who [is] with the flock."

²⁰ And Jesse takes a donkey, bread, and a bottle of wine, and one kid of the goats, and sends [them] by the hand of his son David to Saul.

²¹ And David comes to Saul, and stands before him, and he loves him greatly; and he is a bearer of his weapons.

²² And Saul sends to Jesse, saying, "Please let David stand before me, for he has found grace in my eyes."

²³ And it has come to pass, in the spirit of [sadness from] God being on Saul, that David has taken the harp, and played with his hand, and Saul has refreshment and gladness, and the spirit of sadness has turned aside from off him.

² and Saul and the men of Israel have been gathered, and encamp by the Valley of Elah, and set in array [for] battle to meet the Philistines.

⁵ and a helmet of bronze [is] on his head, and he is clothed [with] a scaled coat of mail, and the weight of the coat of mail [is] five thousand shekels of bronze,

6 and a frontlet of bronze [is] on his feet, and a javelin of bronze between his shoulders,

7 and the wood of his spear [is] like a weavers' beam, and the flame of his spear [is] six hundred shekels of iron, and the bearer of the buckler is going before him.

8 And he stands and calls to the ranks of Israel, and says to them, "Why do you come out to set in array for battle? [Am] I not the Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me;

9 if he is able to fight with me, and has struck me, then we have been for servants to you; and if I prevail against him, and have struck him, then you have been for servants to us, and have served us."

10 And the Philistine says, "I have reproached the ranks of Israel this day; give a man to me and we fight together!"

11 And Saul hears—and all Israel—these words of the Philistine, and they are broken down and greatly afraid.

12 And David [is] son of this Ephraimite of Beth-Lehem-Judah, whose name [is] Jesse, and he has eight sons, and the man has become aged among men in the days of Saul;

13 and the three eldest sons of Jesse go, they have gone after Saul to battle; and the name of his three sons who have gone into battle [are] Eliab the firstborn, and his second Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David is the youngest, and the three eldest have gone after Saul, 15 and David is going and returning from Saul, to feed the flock of his father at Beth-Lehem.

16 And the Philistine draws near, morning and evening, and stations himself [for] forty days.

17 And Jesse says to his son David, "Now take an ephah of this roasted [grain] and these ten loaves for your brothers, and run to the camp to your brothers;

18 and take these ten cuttings of the cheese to the head of the one thousand, and inspect your brothers for welfare, and receive their pledge."

19 And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, [are] in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rises early in the morning, and leaves the flock to a keeper, and lifts up, and goes, as Jesse commanded him, and he comes to the path, and to the force which is going out to the rank, and they have shouted for battle;

21 and Israel and the Philistines set in array rank to meet rank.

22 And David lets down the goods from off him on the hand of a keeper of the goods, and runs into the rank, and comes and asks of his brothers of [their] welfare.

23 And he is speaking with them, and behold, a man, the champion, is coming up, his name [is] Goliath the Philistine, from Gath, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and he speaks according to those words, and David hears;

24 and all the men of Israel, when they see the man, flee from his presence, and are greatly afraid.

25 And the men of Israel say, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? For he is coming up to reproach Israel, and it has been—the man who strikes him, the king enriches him with great riches, and he gives his daughter to him, and makes his father's house free in Israel."

²⁶ And David speaks to the men who are standing by him, saying, "What is done to the man who strikes this Philistine, and has turned aside reproach from Israel? For who [is] this uncircumcised Philistine that he has reproached the ranks of the living God?"

²⁷ And the people speak to him according to this word, saying, "Thus it is done to the man who strikes him."

²⁸ And Eliab, his eldest brother, hears when he speaks to the men, and the anger of Eliab burns against David, and he says, "Why [is] this—[that] you have come down? And to whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I have known your pride, and the evil of your heart—for you have come down to see the battle."

²⁹ And David says, "What have I done now? Is it not a word?"

³⁰ And he turns around from him to another, and says according to this word, and the people return him word as the first word.

³¹ And the words which David has spoken are heard, and they declare [them] before Saul, and he receives him;

³² and David says to Saul, "Let no man's heart fall because of him, your servant goes, and has fought with this Philistine."

³³ And Saul says to David, "You are not able to go to this Philistine, to fight with him, for you [are] a youth, and he [has been] a man of war from his youth."

³⁴ And David says to Saul, "Your servant has been a shepherd among the sheep for his father, and the lion has come—and the bear—and has taken away a sheep out of the drove,

³⁵ and I have gone out after him, and struck him, and delivered [it] out of his mouth, and he rises against me, and I have taken hold on his beard, and struck him, and put him to death.

³⁶ Your servant has struck both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine has been as one of them, for he has reproached the ranks of the living God."

³⁸ And Saul clothes David with his long robe, and has put a helmet of bronze on his head, and clothes him with a coat of mail.

⁴¹ And the Philistine goes on, going and drawing near to David, and the man carrying the buckler [is] before him,

⁴² and the Philistine looks attentively, and sees David, and despises him, for he was a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance.

⁴³ And the Philistine says to David, "Am I a dog that you are coming to me with sticks?" And the Philistine reviles David by his gods,

⁴⁴ and the Philistine says to David, “Come to me, and I give your flesh to the bird of the heavens, and to the beast of the field.”

⁴⁵ And David says to the Philistine, “You are coming to me with sword, and with spear, and with buckler, and I am coming to you in the Name of YHWH of Hosts, God of the ranks of Israel, which you have reproached!”

⁴⁶ This day YHWH shuts you up into my hand—and I have struck you, and turned aside your head from off you, and given the carcass of the camp of the Philistines this day to the bird of the heavens, and to the beast of the earth, and all the earth knows that God is for Israel!

⁴⁷ And all this assembly knows that YHWH does not save by sword and by spear, for the battle [is] YHWH’s, and He has given you into our hand.”

⁴⁸ And it has come to pass, that the Philistine has risen, and goes, and draws near to meet David, and David hurries and runs to the rank to meet the Philistine,

⁴⁹ and David puts forth his hand into the vessel, and takes a stone from there, and slings, and strikes the Philistine on his forehead, and the stone sinks into his forehead, and he falls on his face to the earth.

⁵⁰ And David is stronger than the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and strikes the Philistine, and puts him to death, and there is no sword in the hand of David,

⁵² And the men of Israel rise—also Judah—and shout, and pursue the Philistines until you enter the valley, and to the gates of Ekron, and the wounded of the Philistines fall in the way of Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron, ⁵³ and the sons of Israel return from burning after the Philistines, and spoil their camps.

⁵⁴ And David takes the head of the Philistine, and brings it to Jerusalem, and he has put his weapons in his own tent.

⁵⁵ And when Saul sees David going out to meet the Philistine, he has said to Abner, head of the host, “Whose son [is] this—the youth, Abner?” And Abner says, “Your soul lives, O king, I have not known.”

⁵⁶ And the king says, “Ask whose son this [is]—the young man.”

⁵⁷ And when David turns back from striking the Philistine, then Abner takes him and brings him in before Saul, and the head of the Philistine [is] in his hand;

⁵⁸ and Saul says to him, “Whose son [are] you, O youth?” And David says, “Son of your servant Jesse, the Beth-Lehemite.”

18

¹ And it comes to pass, when he finishes to speak to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan has been bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loves him as his own soul.

² And Saul takes him on that day, and has not permitted him to return to the house of his father.

³ And Jonathan makes—David also—a covenant, because he loves him as his own soul,

4 and Jonathan strips himself of the upper robe which [is] on him, and gives it to David, and his long robe, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David goes out wherever Saul sends him; he acted wisely, and Saul sets him over the men of war; and it is good in the eyes of all the people, and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

6 And it comes to pass, in their coming in, in David's returning from striking the Philistine, that the women come out from all the cities of Israel to sing—also the dancers—to meet Saul the king, with tambourines, with joy, and with three-stringed instruments;

7 and the women answer—those playing, and say, "Saul has struck among his thousands, || And David among his myriads."

8 And it is exceedingly displeasing to Saul, and this thing is evil in his eyes, and he says, "They have given myriads to David, and they have given the thousands to me, and what more [is there] for him but the kingdom?"

9 And Saul is eyeing David from that day and from then on.

10 And it comes to pass, on the next day, that the spirit of sadness [from] God prospers over Saul, and he prophesies in the midst of the house, and David is playing with his hand, as [he did] day by day, and the javelin [is] in the hand of Saul,

11 and Saul casts the javelin and says, "I strike through David, even through the wall"; and David turns around out of his presence twice.

12 And Saul is afraid of the presence of David, for YHWH has been with him, and He has turned aside from Saul;

13 and Saul turns him aside from him, and appoints him to himself [for] head of one thousand, and he goes out and comes in, before the people.

14 And David is acting wisely in all his ways, and YHWH [is] with him,

15 and Saul sees that he is acting very wisely, and is afraid of him,

16 and all Israel and Judah love David when he is going out and coming in before them.

17 And Saul says to David, "Behold, my elder daughter Merab—I give her to you for a wife; only, be for a son of valor to me, and fight the battles of YHWH"; and Saul said, "Do not let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him."

18 And David says to Saul, "Who [am] I? And what [is] my life—the family of my father in Israel—that I am son-in-law of the king?"

19 And it comes to pass, at the time of the giving of Merab daughter of Saul to David, that she has been given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

20 And Michal daughter of Saul loves David, and they declare [it] to Saul, and the thing is right in his eyes,

21 and Saul says, "I give her to him, and she is for a snare to him, and the hand of the Philistines is on him"; and Saul says to David, "By the second—you become my son-in-law today."

22 And Saul commands his servants, "Speak to David gently, saying, Behold, the king has delighted in you, and all his servants have loved you, and now, be son-in-law of the king."

23 And the servants of Saul speak these words in the ears of David, and David says, "Is it a light thing in your eyes to be son-in-law of the king—and I a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

²⁴ And the servants of Saul declare [it] to him, saying, “David has spoken according to these words.”

²⁶ And his servants declare these words to David, and the thing is right in the eyes of David, to be son-in-law of the king; and the days have not been full,

²⁸ And Saul sees and knows that YHWH [is] with David, and Michal daughter of Saul has loved him,

²⁹ and Saul adds to be afraid of the presence of David still; and Saul is an enemy of David [for] all the days.

³⁰ And the princes of the Philistines come out, and it comes to pass from the time of their coming out, David has acted more wisely than any of the servants of Saul, and his name is very precious.

¹ And Saul speaks to his son Jonathan, and to all his servants, to put David to death,

² and Jonathan son of Saul delighted in David exceedingly, and Jonathan declares [it] to David, saying, “My father Saul is seeking to put you to death, and now, please take heed in the morning, and you have abided in a secret place and been hidden,

³ and I go out, and have stood by the side of my father in the field where you [are], and I speak of you to my father, and have seen what [is coming], and have declared [it] to you.”

⁶ And Saul listens to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swears, “YHWH lives—he does not die.”

⁷ And Jonathan calls for David, and Jonathan declares all these words to him, and Jonathan brings in David to Saul, and he is before him as before.

⁸ And there adds to be war, and David goes out and fights against the Philistines, and strikes among them [with] a great striking, and they flee from his face.

¹² And Michal causes David to go down through the window, and he goes on, and flees, and escapes;

¹³ and Michal takes the teraphim, and lays [it] on the bed, and she has put the mattress of goats' [hair for] his pillows, and covers [it] with a garment.

¹⁴ And Saul sends messengers to take David, and she says, "He [is] sick."

¹⁵ And Saul sends the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up in the bed to me in order to put him to death."

¹⁶ And the messengers come in, and behold, the teraphim [are] on the bed, and the mattress of goats' [hair for] his pillows.

¹⁷ And Saul says to Michal, "Why have you thus deceived me—that you send my enemy away, and he escapes?" And Michal says to Saul, "He said to me, Send me away. Why do I put you to death?"

¹⁸ And David has fled, and escapes, and comes to Samuel at Ramath, and declares to him all that Saul has done to him, and he goes, he and Samuel, and they dwell in Naioth.

¹⁹ And it is declared to Saul, saying, "Behold, David [is] in Naioth in Ramah."

²⁰ And Saul sends messengers to take David, and they see the assembly of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing, set over them, and the Spirit of God is on Saul's messengers, and they prophesy—they also.

²¹ And they declare [it] to Saul, and he sends other messengers, and they prophesy—they also; and Saul adds and sends messengers a third time, and they prophesy—they also.

²² And he goes—he also—to Ramath, and comes to the great well which [is] in Sechu, and asks and says, "Where [are] Samuel and David?" And [one] says, "Behold, in Naioth in Ramah."

²³ And he goes there—to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God is on him also; and he goes, going on, and he prophesies until his coming to Naioth in Ramah,

²⁴ and he strips off—he also—his garments, and prophesies—he also—before Samuel, and falls down naked all that day and all the night; therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

¹ And David flees from Naioth in Ramah, and comes, and says before Jonathan, "What have I done? What [is] my iniquity? And what [is] my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?"

² And he says to him, "Far be it! You do not die; behold, my father does not do anything great or small and does not uncover my ear; and why does my father hide this thing from me? This [thing] is not."

³ And David swears again and says, "Your father has certainly known that I have found grace in your eyes, and he says, Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he is grieved; and yet, YHWH lives, and your soul lives, but—as a step between me and death."

⁴ And Jonathan says to David, "What does your soul [desire]? Command and I do it for you."

⁵ And David says to Jonathan, “Behold, the new moon [is] tomorrow; and I certainly sit with the king to eat; and you have sent me away, and I have been hidden in a field until the third evening;

⁶ if your father looks after me at all, then you have said, David earnestly asked of me to run to his city of Beth-Lehem, for there [is] a sacrifice of the days for all the family.

⁷ If thus he says: Good; [there is] peace for your servant; and if it is very displeasing to him—know that the evil has been determined by him;

⁸ and you have done kindness to your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of YHWH with you—and if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself; for why [is] this [that] you bring me to your father?”

⁹ And Jonathan says, “Far be it from you! For I certainly do not know that the evil has been determined by my father to come on you, and I do not declare it to you.”

¹⁰ And David says to Jonathan, “Who declares [it] to me? Or what [if] your father answers you sharply?”

¹¹ And Jonathan says to David, “Come, and we go out into the field”; and both of them go out into the field.

¹² And Jonathan says to David, “YHWH, God of Israel, [is my witness]—when I search out my father about [this] time tomorrow [or] the third [day], and behold, [there is] good toward David, and I do not then send to you, and have uncovered your ear—

¹³ thus YHWH does to Jonathan, and thus He adds; when the evil concerning you is good to my father; then I have uncovered your ear, and sent you away, and you have gone in peace, and YHWH is with you, as he was with my father;

¹⁴ and not only while I am alive do you do the kindness of YHWH with me, and I do not die,

¹⁵ but you do not cut off your kindness from my house for all time, nor in YHWH’s cutting off the enemies of David, each one from off the face of the ground.”

¹⁶ So Jonathan cuts [a covenant] with the house of David, and YHWH has sought [it] from the hand of the enemies of David;

¹⁷ and Jonathan adds to cause David to swear, because he loves him, for he has loved him [as] the love [for] his own soul.

¹⁸ And Jonathan says to him, “Tomorrow [is] the new moon, and you have been looked after; for your seat is looked after;

¹⁹ and on the third day you certainly come down, and have come to the place where you were hidden in the day of the work, and have remained near the stone of Ezel.

²⁰ And I shoot three of the arrows at the side, sending out at a mark for myself;

²¹ and behold, I send the youth, [saying], Go, find the arrows. If I say to the youth at all, Behold, the arrows [are] on this side of you—take them and come, for [there is] peace for you, and there is no [adverse] word—[as] YHWH lives.

²² And if thus I say to the young man, Behold, the arrows [are] beyond you—go, for YHWH has sent you away;

23 as for the thing which you and I have spoken, behold, YHWH [is] between me and you for all time.”

24 And David is hidden in the field, and it is the new moon, and the king sits down by the food to eat,

25 and the king sits on his seat, as time by time, on a seat by the wall, and Jonathan rises, and Abner sits at the side of Saul, and David’s place is looked after.

26 And Saul has not spoken anything on that day, for he said, “It [is] an accident; he is not clean—surely not clean.”

27 And it comes to pass on the second day of the new moon, that David’s place is looked after, and Saul says to his son Jonathan, “Why has the son of Jesse not come in, either yesterday or today, to the food?”

28 And Jonathan answers Saul, “David has earnestly asked [permission] from me [to go] to Beth-Lehem,

29 and he says, Please send me away, for we have a family sacrifice in the city, and my brother has given command to me himself, and now, if I have found grace in your eyes, please let me go away and see my brothers; therefore he has not come to the table of the king.”

30 And the anger of Saul burns against Jonathan, and he says to him, “Son of a perverse [woman] of rebellion! Have I not known that you are fixing on the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother?”

31 For all the days that the son of Jesse lives on the ground you are not established, you and your kingdom; and now, send and bring him to me, for he [is] a son of death.”

32 And Jonathan answers his father Saul and says to him, “Why is he put to death? What has he done?”

33 And Saul casts the javelin at him to strike him, and Jonathan knows that it has been determined by his father to put David to death.

34 And Jonathan rises from the table in the heat of anger, and has not eaten food on the second day of the new moon, for he has been grieved for David, for his father put him to shame.

35 And it comes to pass in the morning, that Jonathan goes out into the field for the appointment with David, and a little youth [is] with him.

36 And he says to his youth, “Now run, find the arrows which I am shooting”; the youth is running, and he has shot the arrow, causing [it] to pass over him.

37 And the youth comes to the place of the arrow which Jonathan has shot, and Jonathan calls after the youth, and says, “Is the arrow not beyond you?”

38 And Jonathan calls after the youth, “Speed, hurry, do not stand”; and Jonathan’s youth gathers the arrows, and comes to his lord.

39 And the youth has not known anything, only Jonathan and David knew the word.

40 And Jonathan gives his weapons to the youth whom he has and says to him, “Go, carry into the city.”

41 The youth has gone, and David has risen from Ezel, at the south, and falls on his face to the earth, and bows himself three times, and they kiss one another, and they weep with one another, until David exerted himself;

⁴² and Jonathan says to David, “Go in peace, in that we have sworn—the two of us—in the Name of YHWH, saying, YHWH is between me and you, and between my seed and your seed—for all time”; and he rises and goes; and Jonathan has gone into the city.

¹ And David comes to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest, and Ahimelech trembles at meeting David and says to him, “Why [are] you alone, and no man [is] with you?”

² And David says to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commanded me [on] a matter, and he says to me, Let no man know anything of the matter about which I send you, and which I have commanded you; and [my] young men know [to go] to such and such a place.

³ And now, what is there under your hand? Give five loaves into my hand, or that which is found.”

⁴ And the priest answers David and says, “There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if only the youths have been kept from women.”

⁵ And David answers the priest and says to him, “Surely, if women have been restrained from us as before in my going out, then the vessels of the young men are holy, and it [is] a common way; and also, surely it is sanctified today in the vessel.”

⁶ And the priest gives the holy thing to him, for there was no bread there except the Bread of the Presentation, which is turned aside from the presence of YHWH to put hot bread [there] in the day of its being taken away.

⁹ And the priest says, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck in the Valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a garment behind the ephod, if you take it to yourself, take; for there is none other except it in this [place].” And David says, “There is none like it—give it to me.”

¹⁰ And David rises and flees on that day from the face of Saul, and comes to Achish king of Gath;

¹² And David lays these words in his heart, and is exceedingly afraid of the face of Achish king of Gath,

¹³ and changes his behavior before their eyes, and feigns himself mad in their hand, and scribbles on the doors of the gate, and lets down his spittle to his beard.

¹⁴ And Achish says to his servants, “Behold, you see a man acting as a madman; why do you bring him to me?”

¹⁵ Am I lacking madmen, that you have brought in this one to act as a madman before me? Does this one come into my house?”

22

1 And David goes from there, and escapes to the cave of Adullam, and his brothers hear, and all the house of his father, and they go down to him there;

2 and every man in distress gathers themselves to him, and every man who has an exactor, and every man bitter in soul, and he is for head over them, and there are about four hundred men with him.

3 And David goes from there to Mizpeh of Moab and says to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come out with you, until I know what God does for me";

4 and he leads them before the king of Moab, and they dwell with him all the days of David's being in the fortress.

5 And the prophet Gad says to David, "You do not abide in a fortress, go, and you have entered the land of Judah for yourself"; and David goes and enters the forest of Hareth.

6 And Saul hears that David has become known, and the men who [are] with him, and Saul is abiding in Gibeah, under the grove in Ramah, and his spear [is] in his hand, and all his servants [are] standing by him.

7 And Saul says to his servants who are standing by him, "Now hear, sons of Benjamin; does the son of Jesse also give fields and vineyards to all of you? Does he appoint all of you [to be] heads of thousands and heads of hundreds?"

8 For all of you have conspired against me, and there is none uncovering my ear about my son's cutting [a covenant] with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you grieving for me, and uncovering my ear, that my son has raised up my servant against me, to lie in wait as [at] this day."

9 And Doeg the Edomite answers, who is set over the servants of Saul, and says, "I have seen the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub,

10 and he inquires of YHWH for him, and has given provision to him, and has given the sword of Goliath the Philistine to him."

11 And the king sends to call Ahimelech son of Ahitub, the priest, and all the house of his father, the priests, who [are] in Nob, and all of them come to the king;

12 and Saul says, "Now hear, son of Ahitub"; and he says, "Here I [am], my lord."

13 And Saul says to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by your giving bread and a sword to him, and to inquire of God for him, to rise against me, to lie in wait, as [at] this day?"

14 And Ahimelech answers the king and says, "And who among all your servants [is] as David—faithful, and son-in-law of the king, and has turned aside to your council, and is honored in your house?"

15 Today have I begun to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Do not let the king lay anything against his servant, against any of the house of my father, for your servant has known nothing of all this, little or much."

16 And the king says, "You surely die, Ahimelech, you and all the house of your father."

17 And the king says to the runners, those standing by him, "Turn around, and put the priests of YHWH to death, because their hand [is] also with David, and because they have known that he is fleeing, and have not uncovered my ear"; and the servants of the king have not been willing to put forth their hand to come against the priests of YHWH.

¹⁸ And the king says to Doeg, "Turn around, and come against the priests"; and Doeg the Edomite turns around, and comes against the priests himself, and in that day puts to death eighty-five men bearing a linen ephod,

¹⁹ and Nob, the city of the priests, he has struck by the mouth of the sword, from man and to woman, from infant and to suckling, and ox, and donkey, and sheep, by the mouth of the sword.

²⁰ And one son of Ahimelech, son of Ahitub, escapes, and his name [is] Abiathar, and he flees after David,

²¹ and Abiathar declares to David that Saul has slain the priests of YHWH.

²² And David says to Abiathar, "I have known on that day when Doeg the Edomite [is] there, that he certainly declares [it] to Saul; I have brought [it] around to every person of the house of your father;

²³ dwell with me; do not fear; for he who seeks my life seeks your life; for you [are my] charge with me."

¹ And they declare to David, saying, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are spoiling the threshing-floors."

² And David inquires of YHWH, saying, "Do I go? And have I struck among these Philistines?" And YHWH says to David, "Go, and you have struck among the Philistines, and saved Keilah."

³ And David's men say to him, "Behold, we here in Judah are afraid; and how much more when we go to Keilah, to the ranks of the Philistines?"

⁴ And David adds again to inquire of YHWH, and YHWH answers him and says, "Rise, go down to Keilah, for I am giving the Philistines into your hand."

⁶ And it comes to pass, in the fleeing of Abiathar son of Ahimelech to David, to Keilah, an ephod came down in his hand.

⁷ And it is declared to Saul that David has come to Keilah, and Saul says, "God has made him known for my hand, for he has been shut in, to enter into a city of doors and bars."

⁸ And Saul summons all the people to the battle, to go down to Keilah, to lay siege to David and to his men.

⁹ And David knows that Saul is devising the evil against him and says to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod near."

¹⁰ And David says, "YHWH, God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account.

¹¹ Do the possessors of Keilah shut me up into his hand? Does Saul come down as Your servant has heard? YHWH, God of Israel, please declare [it] to Your servant." And YHWH says, "He comes down."

¹² And David says, "Do the possessors of Keilah shut up me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And YHWH says, "They shut [you] up."

¹³ And David rises—and his men—about six hundred men, and they go out from Keilah, and go up and down where they go up and down; and it has been declared to Saul that David has escaped from Keilah, and he ceases to go out.

¹⁴ And David abides in the wilderness, in fortresses, and abides in the hill-country, in the wilderness of Ziph; and Saul seeks him [for] all the days, and God has not given him into his hand.

¹⁵ And David sees that Saul has come out to seek his life, and David [is] in the wilderness of Ziph, in a forest.

¹⁶ And Jonathan son of Saul rises, and goes to David [in the] forest, and strengthens his hand in God,

¹⁷ and says to him, “Do not fear, for the hand of my father Saul does not find you, and you reign over Israel, and I am to you for second, and also so knows my father Saul.”

¹⁸ And both of them make a covenant before YHWH; and David abides in the forest, and Jonathan has gone to his house.

¹⁹ And the Ziphites go up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding himself with us in fortresses, in the forest, in the height of Hachilah, which [is] on the south of the desolate place?”

²⁰ And now, by all the desire of your soul, O king, to come down, come down, and ours [is] to shut him up into the hand of the king.”

²¹ And Saul says, “Blessed [are] you of YHWH, for you have pity on me;

²² now go prepare yet, and know and see his place where his foot is; who has seen him there? For [one] has said to me, He is very cunning.

²³ And see and know of all the hiding places where he hides himself, and you have turned back prepared to me, and I have gone with you, and it has been, if he is in the land, that I have searched him out through all the thousands of Judah.”

²⁴ And they rise and go to Ziph before Saul, and David and his men [are] in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain, at the south of the desolate place.

²⁶ And Saul goes on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain, and David is hurried to go from the face of Saul, and Saul and his men are surrounding David and his men, to catch them.

²⁷ And a messenger has come to Saul, saying, “Hurry, and come, for the Philistines have pushed against the land.”

²⁹ And David goes up there, and abides in fortresses [at] En-gedi.

¹ And it comes to pass, when Saul has turned back from after the Philistines, that they declare to him, saying, “Behold, David [is] in the wilderness of En-gedi.”

² And Saul takes three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and goes to seek David and his men, on the front of the rocks of the wild goats,

⁴ And the men of David say to him, “Behold, the day of which YHWH said to you, Behold, I am giving your enemy into your hand, and you have done to him as it is good in your eyes”; and David rises and cuts off the skirt of the upper robe which [is] on Saul with stealth.

⁵ And it comes to pass afterward that the heart of David strikes him, because that he has cut off the skirt which [is] on Saul,

⁷ And David subdues his men by words, and has not permitted them to rise against Saul; and Saul has risen from the cave, and goes on the way;

⁹ And David says to Saul, “Why do you hear the words of man, saying, Behold, David is seeking your calamity?”

¹⁰ Behold, this day your eyes have seen how that YHWH has given you into my hand today in the cave; and [one] said to slay you, and [my eye] has pity on you, and I say, I do not put forth my hand against my lord, for he [is] the anointed of YHWH.

¹¹ And my father, see, indeed see the skirt of your upper robe in my hand; for by cutting off the skirt of your upper robe, and I have not slain you, know and see that there is not evil and transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, and you are hunting my soul to take it!

¹² YHWH judges between me and you, and YHWH has avenged me of you, and my hand is not on you;

¹³ as the allegory of the ancients says, Wickedness goes out from the wicked, and my hand is not on you.

¹⁴ After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog! After one flea!

¹⁵ And YHWH has been for judge, and has judged between me and you, indeed, He sees and pleads my cause, and delivers me out of your hand.”

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, when David completes to speak these words to Saul, that Saul says, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifts up his voice, and weeps.

¹⁷ And he says to David, “You [are] more righteous than I; for you have done me good, and I have done you evil;

¹⁸ and you have declared today how that you have done good with me, how that YHWH shut me up into your hand, and you did not slay me,

¹⁹ and that a man finds his enemy, and has sent him away in a good manner; and YHWH repays you good for that which you did to me this day.

²⁰ And now, behold, I have known that you certainly reign, and the kingdom of Israel has stood in your hand;

²¹ and now, swear to me by YHWH [that] you do not cut off my seed after me, nor do you destroy my name from the house of my father.”

²² And David swears to Saul, and Saul goes to his house, and David and his men have gone up to the fortress.

¹ And Samuel dies, and all Israel is gathered, and mourns for him, and buries him in his house, in Ramah; and David rises and goes down to the wilderness of Paran.

² And [there is] a man in Maon, and his work [is] in Carmel; and the man [is] very great, and he has three thousand sheep and one thousand goats; and he is shearing his flock in Carmel.

⁴ And David hears in the wilderness that Nabal is shearing his flock,

⁵ and David sends ten young men, and David says to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and you have come to Nabal, and asked of him in my name of welfare,

⁶ and said thus to the living: And peace to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!

⁷ And now, I have heard that you have shearers; now, the shepherds whom you have have been with us, we have not put them to shame, nor has anything been looked after by them, all the days of their being in Carmel.

⁸ Ask your young men, and they declare [it] to you, and the young men find grace in your eyes, for we have come on a good day; please give that which your hand finds to your servants and to your son, to David."

⁹ And the young men of David come in, and speak to Nabal according to all these words, in the name of David—and rest.

¹⁰ And Nabal answers the servants of David and says, "Who [is] David, and who [is] the son of Jesse? Have servants been multiplied today who are each breaking away from his master?"

¹¹ And have I taken my bread, and my water, and my flesh, which I slaughtered for my shearers, and have given [it] to men whom I have not known where they [are] from?"

¹² And the young men of David turn on their way, and turn back, and come in, and declare to him according to all these words.

¹³ And David says to his men, "Each gird on his sword"; and they each gird on his sword, and David also girds on his sword, and about four hundred men go up after David, and two hundred have remained by the vessels.

¹⁴ And one young man of the youths has declared [it] to Abigail wife of Nabal, saying, "Behold, David has sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our lord, and he flies on them;

¹⁵ and the men [are] very good to us, and have not put us to shame, and we have not looked after anything all the days we have gone up and down with them, in our being in the field;

¹⁶ they have been a wall to us both by night and by day, all the days of our being with them, feeding the flock.

¹⁷ And now, know and consider what you do; for evil has been determined against our lord, and against all his house, and he [is] too much a son of worthlessness to be spoken to."

18 And Abigail hurries, and takes two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep, prepared, and five measures of roasted grain, and one hundred bunches of raisins, and two hundred bunches of figs, and sets [them] on the donkeys.

19 And she says to her young men, “Pass over before me; behold, I am coming after you”; and she has not declared [it] to her husband Nabal;

20 and it has come to pass, she is riding on the donkey and is coming down in the secret part of the hill-country, and behold, David and his men are coming down to meet her, and she meets them.

21 And David said, “Surely in vain I have kept all that this [one] has in the wilderness, and nothing has been looked after of all that he has, and he turns back to me evil for good;

22 thus God does to the enemies of David, and thus He adds, if I leave of all that he has until the morning light—of those sitting on the wall.”

23 And Abigail sees David, and hurries and comes down from off the donkey, and falls on her face before David, and bows herself to the earth,

24 and falls at his feet and says, “On me, my lord, the iniquity; and please let your handmaid speak in your ear, and hear the words of your handmaid.

25 Please do not let my lord set his heart to this man of worthlessness, on Nabal, for as his name [is] so [is] he; Nabal [is] his name, and folly [is] with him; and I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent;

26 and now, my lord, YHWH lives, and your soul lives, in that YHWH has withheld you from coming in with blood, and to save your hand from yourself—now let your enemies be as Nabal, even those seeking evil toward my lord.

27 And now, this blessing which your maidservant has brought to my lord—it has been given to the young men who are going up and down at the feet of my lord.

28 Please bear with the transgression of your handmaid, for YHWH certainly makes a steadfast house for my lord; for my lord has fought the battles of YHWH, and evil is not found in you [all] your days.

29 And man rises to pursue you and to seek your soul, and the soul of my lord has been bound in the bundle of life with your God YHWH; as for the soul of your enemies, He slings them out in the midst of the hollow of the sling.

30 And it has been, when YHWH does to my lord according to all the good which He has spoken concerning you, and appointed you for leader over Israel,

31 that this is not to you for a stumbling-block, and for an offense of heart to my lord—either to shed blood for nothing, or my lord’s restraining himself; and YHWH has done good to my lord, and you have remembered your handmaid.”

32 And David says to Abigail, “Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me this day,

33 and blessed [is] your discretion, and blessed [are] you in that you have restrained me this day from coming in with blood, and to restrain my hand to myself.

³⁴ And yet, YHWH lives, God of Israel, who has kept me back from doing evil with you, for unless you had hurried, and come to meet me, surely there had not been left to Nabal until the morning light, of those sitting on the wall.”

³⁵ And David receives from her hand that which she has brought to him, and he has said to her, “Go up in peace to your house; see, I have listened to your voice, and accept your face.”

³⁶ And Abigail comes to Nabal, and behold, he has a banquet in his house, like a banquet of the king, and the heart of Nabal [is] glad within him, and he [is] drunk to excess, and she has not declared anything to him, little or much, until the morning light.

³⁷ And it comes to pass in the morning, when the wine is gone out from Nabal, that his wife declares these things to him, and his heart dies within him, and he has been as a stone.

³⁸ And it comes to pass [in] about ten days, that YHWH strikes Nabal and he dies,

³⁹ and David hears that Nabal [is] dead and says, “Blessed [is] YHWH who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and His servant has kept back from evil, and YHWH has turned back the wickedness of Nabal on his own head”; and David sends and speaks with Abigail, to take her to himself for a wife.

⁴⁰ And the servants of David come to Abigail at Carmel, and speak to her, saying, “David has sent us to you to take you to himself for a wife.”

⁴¹ And she rises and bows herself—face to the earth—and says, “Behold, your handmaid [is] for a maidservant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.”

⁴³ And David has taken Ahinoam from Jezreel, and they are—even both of them—for wives to him;

⁴⁴ and Saul gave his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Phalti son of Laish, who [is] of Gallim.

¹ And the Ziphites come to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding himself in the height of Hachilah, on the front of the desert?”

² And Saul rises, and goes down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him [are] three thousand men, chosen ones of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

⁴ and David sends spies, and knows that Saul has come to Nachon,

⁵ and David rises, and comes to the place where Saul has encamped, and David sees the place where Saul has lain, and Abner son of Ner, head of his host, and Saul is lying in the path, and the people are encamping around him.

⁶ And David answers and says to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, saying, “Who goes down with me to Saul, to the camp?” And Abishai says, “I go down with you.”

⁸ And Abishai says to David, “God has shut up your enemy into your hand today; and now, please let me strike him with [the] spear, even into the earth, at once—and not repeat [it] to him.”

⁹ And David says to Abishai, “Do not destroy him; for who has put forth his hand against the anointed of YHWH and been acquitted?”

¹⁰ And David says, “YHWH lives; except YHWH strikes him, or his day comes that he has died, or he goes down into battle and has been consumed—

¹¹ far be it from me, by YHWH, from putting forth my hand against the anointed of YHWH; and now, please take the spear which [is] by his pillow, and the jug of water, and we go away.”

¹² And David takes the spear, and the jug of water by the pillow of Saul, and they go away, and there is none seeing, and there is none knowing, and there is none awaking, for all of them are sleeping, for a deep sleep [from] YHWH has fallen on them.

¹³ And David passes over to the other side, and stands on the top of the hill far off—great [is] the place between them;

¹⁴ and David calls to the people, and to Abner son of Ner, saying, “Do you not answer, Abner?” And Abner answers and says, “Who [are] you [who] have called to the king?”

¹⁵ And David says to Abner, “Are you not a man? And who [is] like you in Israel? But why have you not watched over your lord the king? For one of the people had come in to destroy the king, your lord.

¹⁶ This thing which you have done is not good; YHWH lives, but you [are] sons of death, in that you have not watched over your lord, over the anointed of YHWH; and now, see where the king’s spear [is], and the jug of water which [is] by his pillow.”

¹⁷ And Saul discerns the voice of David and says, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And David says, “My voice, my lord, O king!”

¹⁸ And he says, “Why [is] this—my lord is pursuing after his servant? For what have I done, and what evil [is] in my hand?”

¹⁹ And now, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: if YHWH has moved you against me, let Him accept a present; but if [merely] the sons of men, they [are] cursed before YHWH, for today they have cast me out from being admitted into the inheritance of YHWH, saying, Go, serve other gods.

²⁰ And now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of YHWH, for the king of Israel has come out to seek one flea, as [one] pursues the partridge in mountains.”

²¹ And Saul says, “I have sinned; return, my son David, for I do evil to you no more, because that my soul has been precious in your eyes this day; behold, I have acted foolishly, and err very greatly.”

²² And David answers and says, “Behold, the king’s spear; and let one of the young men pass over, and receive it;

²³ and YHWH turns each back to his righteousness and his faithfulness, in that YHWH has given you into [my] hand today, and I have not been willing to put forth my hand against the anointed of YHWH,

²⁴ and behold, as your soul has been great in my eyes this day, so is my soul great in the eyes of YHWH, and He delivers me out of all distress.”

²⁵ And Saul says to David, “Blessed [are] you, my son David, also working you work, and also prevailing you prevail.” And David goes on his way, and Saul has turned back to his place.

² And David rises, and passes over; he and six hundred men who [are] with him, to Achish son of Maach king of Gath;

³ and David dwells with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each one with his household, [even] David and his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail wife of Nabal the Carmelitess.

⁴ And it is declared to Saul that David has fled to Gath, and he has not added to seek him anymore.

⁷ And the number of the days which David has dwelt in the field of the Philistines [is one year] of days and four months;

⁸ and David and his men go up, and they push toward the Geshurite, and the Gerizite, and the Amalekite (for they are inhabitants of the land from of old), as you come to Shur and to the land of Egypt,

⁹ and David has struck the land, and does not keep alive man and woman, and has taken sheep, and oxen, and donkeys, and camels, and garments, and turns back, and comes to Achish.

¹² And Achish believes in David, saying, “He has made himself utterly abhorred among his people in Israel, and has been for a perpetual servant to me.”

² And David says to Achish, “Therefore you know that which your servant does.” And Achish says to David, “Therefore I appoint you keeper of my head [for] all the days.”

³ And Samuel has died, and all Israel mourns for him, and buries him in Ramah, even in his city, and Saul has turned aside those having familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

⁴ And the Philistines are gathered, and come in, and encamp in Shunem, and Saul gathers all Israel, and they encamp in Gilboa,

⁵ and Saul sees the camp of the Philistines, and fears, and his heart trembles greatly,

⁶ and Saul inquires of YHWH, and YHWH has not answered him, either by the dreams, or by the Lights, or by the prophets.

⁸ And Saul disguises himself and puts on other garments, and goes, he and two of the men with him, and they come to the woman by night, and he says, "Please divine to me by the familiar spirit, and cause him whom I say to you to come up to me."

⁹ And the woman says to him, "Behold, you have known that which Saul has done, that he has cut off those having familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land; and why are you laying a snare for my soul—to put me to death?"

¹⁰ And Saul swears to her by YHWH, saying, "YHWH lives, punishment does not meet you for this thing."

¹¹ And the woman says, "Whom do I bring up to you?" And he says, "Bring up Samuel to me."

¹² And the woman sees Samuel, and cries with a loud voice, and the woman speaks to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you [are] Saul!"

¹³ And the king says to her, "Do not fear; for what have you seen?" And the woman says to Saul, "I have seen gods coming up out of the earth."

¹⁴ And he says to her, "What [is] his form?" And she says, "An aged man is coming up, and he [is] covered with an upper robe"; and Saul knows that he [is] Samuel, and bows—face to her earth—and pays respect.

¹⁵ And Samuel says to Saul, "Why have you troubled me, to bring me up?" And Saul says, "I have great distress, and the Philistines are fighting against me, God has turned aside from me, and has not answered me anymore, either by the hand of the prophets, or by dreams; and I call for you to let me know what I [should] do."

¹⁶ And Samuel says, "And why do you ask me, and YHWH has turned aside from you, and is your enemy?"

¹⁷ And YHWH does for Himself as He has spoken by my hand, and YHWH tears the kingdom out of your hand, and gives it to your neighbor—to David.

¹⁸ Because you have not listened to the voice of YHWH, nor did the fierceness of His anger on Amalek—therefore YHWH has done this thing to you this day;

¹⁹ indeed, YHWH also gives Israel into the hand of the Philistines with you, and tomorrow you and your sons [are] with me; YHWH also gives the camp of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

²⁰ And Saul hurries and falls—the fullness of his stature—to the earth, and fears greatly because of the words of Samuel; also power was not in him, for he had not eaten bread all the day, and all the night.

²¹ And the woman comes to Saul, and sees that he has been greatly troubled, and says to him, "Behold, your maidservant has listened to your voice, and I put my soul in my hand, and I obey your words which you have spoken to me;

²² And now, please listen, you also, to the voice of your maidservant, and I set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, and there is power in you when you go in the way."

²³ And he refuses and says, "I do not eat"; and his servants urge him on, and also the woman, and he listens to their voice, and rises from the earth, and sits on the bed.

²⁴ And the woman has a calf of the stall in the house, and she hurries and slaughters it, and takes flour, and kneads, and bakes it [into] unleavened things,

²⁵ and brings [them] near before Saul, and before his servants, and they eat, and rise, and go on during that night.

¹ And the Philistines gather all their camps to Aphek, and Israel is encamping at a fountain which [is] in Jezreel,

² and the princes of the Philistines are passing on by hundreds, and by thousands, and David and his men are passing on in the rear with Achish.

³ And the heads of the Philistines say, "What [are] these Hebrews?" And Achish says to the heads of the Philistines, "Is this not David, servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me these days or these years, and I have not found anything in him [wrong] from the day of his falling away until this day?"

⁴ And the heads of the Philistines are angry against him, and the heads of the Philistines say to him, "Send back the man, and he turns back to his place to where you have appointed him, and does not go down with us into battle, and is not for an adversary to us in battle; and with what does this one reconcile himself to his lord—is it not with the heads of those men?"

⁵ Is this not David, of whom they answer in choruses, saying, Saul has struck among his thousands, and David among his myriads?"

⁶ And Achish calls to David and says to him, "YHWH lives, surely you [are] upright, and good in my eyes is your going out, and your coming in with me in the camp, for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me until this day; but you are not good in the eyes of the princes;

⁷ and now, return, and go in peace, and you do no evil in the eyes of the princes of the Philistines."

⁸ And David says to Achish, "But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day that I have been before you until this day—that I do not go in and have fought against the enemies of my lord the king?"

⁹ And Achish answers and says to David, "I have known that you [are] good in my eyes as a messenger of God; only, the princes of the Philistines have said, He does not go up with us into battle;

¹⁰ and now, rise early in the morning—and the servants of your lord who have come with you. When you have risen early in the morning, and have light, then go."

¹¹ And David rises early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines have gone up to Jezreel.

¹ And it comes to pass, in the coming in of David and his men to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites have pushed toward the south, and to Ziklag, and strike Ziklag, and burn it with fire,

² and they take the women who [are] in it captive; they have not put anyone to death from small to great, and they lead [them] away, and go on their way.

³ And David comes in—and his men—to the city, and behold, [it is] burned with fire, and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters have been taken captive.

⁴ And David lifts up—and the people who [are] with him—their voice and weep, until they have no power to weep.

⁵ And the two wives of David have been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail wife of Nabal the Carmelite;

⁶ and David has great distress, for the people have said to stone him, for the soul of all the people has been bitter, each for his sons and for his daughters; and David strengthens himself in his God YHWH.

⁷ And David says to Abiathar the priest, son of Ahimelech, “Please bring the ephod near to me”; and Abiathar brings the ephod near to David,

⁸ and David inquires of YHWH, saying, “I pursue after this troop—do I overtake it?” And He says to him, “Pursue, for you certainly overtake, and certainly deliver.”

⁹ And David goes on, he and six hundred men who [are] with him, and they come to the Brook of Besor, and those left have stood still,

¹⁰ and David pursues, he and four hundred men (and two hundred men stand still who have been too faint to pass over the Brook of Besor),

¹¹ and they find a man, an Egyptian, in the field, and take him to David, and give bread to him, and he eats, and they cause him to drink water,

¹² and give to him a piece of a bunch of dried figs, and two bunches of raisins, and he eats, and his spirit returns to him, for he has not eaten bread nor drunk water [for] three days and three nights.

¹³ And David says to him, “Whose [are] you? And where [are] you from?” And he says, “I [am] an Egyptian youth, servant to a man, an Amalekite, and my lord forsakes me, for I have been sick [for] three days, ¹⁴ we pushed [to] the south of the Cherethite, and against that which [is] to Judah, and against the south of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire.”

¹⁵ And David says to him, “Do you bring me down to this troop?” And he says, “Swear to me by God [that] you do not put me to death, nor do you shut me up into the hand of my lord, and I bring you down to this troop.”

¹⁶ And he brings him down, and behold, they are spread out over the face of all the earth, eating, and drinking, and celebrating, with all the great spoil which they have taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

¹⁸ And David delivers all that the Amalekites have taken; David has also delivered his two wives.

¹⁹ And nothing of theirs has lacked, from small to great, and to sons and daughters, and from the spoil, even to all that they had taken to themselves, David has brought back the whole,

²⁰ and David takes the whole of the flock and of the herd [that] they have led on before these livestock, and they say, "This [is] David's spoil."

²¹ And David comes to the two hundred men who were too faint to go after David, and whom they cause to abide at the Brook of Besor, and they go out to meet David, and to meet the people who [are] with him, and David approaches the people, and asks of them of welfare.

²² And every bad and worthless man, of the men who have gone with David, answers, indeed, they say, "Because that they have not gone with us we do not give to them of the spoil which we have delivered, except each his wife and his children, and they lead away and go."

²³ And David says, "You do not do so, my brothers, with that which YHWH has given to us, and He preserves us, and gives the troop which comes against us into our hand;

²⁴ and who listens to you in this thing? For as the portion of him who was brought down into battle, so also [is] the portion of him who is abiding by the vessels—they share alike."

²⁵ And it comes to pass from that day and forward, that he appoints it for a statute and for an ordinance for Israel to this day.

²⁶ And David comes to Ziklag, and sends of the spoil to [the] elderly of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Behold, a blessing for you of the spoil of the enemies of YHWH,"

²⁷ to those in Beth-El, and to those in South Ramoth, and to those in Jattir, ²⁸ and to those in Aroer, and to those in Siphmoth, and to those in Eshtemoa,

²⁹ and to those in Rachal, and to those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those in the cities of the Kenites,

³⁰ and to those in Hormah, and to those in Chor-Ashan, and to those in Athach, ³¹ and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where David—he and his men—had gone up and down.

¹ And the Philistines are fighting against Israel, and the men of Israel flee from the face of the Philistines, and fall wounded in Mount Gilboa,

² and the Philistines follow Saul and his sons, and the Philistines strike Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

³ And the battle is hard against Saul, and the archers find him—men with bow—and he is greatly pained by the archers;

⁴ and Saul says to the bearer of his weapons, "Draw your sword, and pierce me with it, lest they come—these uncircumcised—and have pierced me, and rolled themselves on me"; and the bearer of his weapons has not been willing, for he is greatly afraid, and Saul takes the sword, and falls on it.

⁵ And the bearer of his weapons sees that Saul [is] dead, and he falls—he also—on his sword, and dies with him;

⁶ and Saul dies, and three of his sons, and the bearer of his weapons, also all his men, together on that day.

⁷ And they see—the men of Israel, who [are] beyond the valley, and who [are] beyond the Jordan—that the men of Israel have fled, and that Saul and his sons have died, and they forsake the cities and flee, and Philistines come in, and dwell in them.

⁸ And it comes to pass on the next day, that the Philistines come to strip the wounded, and they find Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa,

⁹ and they cut off his head, and strip off his weapons, and send [them] into the land of the surrounding Philistines, to proclaim tidings [in] the house of their idols, and [among] the people;

¹⁰ and they place his weapons [in] the house of Ashtaroth, and they have fixed his body on the wall of Beth-Shan.

¹¹ And they hear regarding it—the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead—that which the Philistines have done to Saul,

¹² and all the men of valor arise, and go all the night, and take the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-Shan, and come to Jabesh, and burn them there,

¹³ and they take their bones, and bury [them] under the tamarisk in Jabesh, and fast seven days.

Second Samuel

¹ And it comes to pass after the death of Saul, that David has returned from striking the Amalekite, and David dwells in Ziklag [for] two days,

² and it comes to pass, on the third day, that behold, a man has come in out of the camp from Saul, and his garments [are] torn, and earth [is] on his head; and it comes to pass in his coming to David, that he falls to the earth and pays respect.

³ And David says to him, "Where do you come from?" And he says to him, "I have escaped out of the camp of Israel."

⁴ And David says to him, "What has been the matter? Please declare [it] to me." And he says, "That the people have fled from the battle, and also a multitude of the people have fallen, and they die; and also Saul and his son Jonathan have died."

⁵ And David says to the youth who is declaring [it] to him, "How have you known that Saul and his son Jonathan [are] dead?"

⁶ And the youth who is declaring [it] to him says, "I happened to meet in Mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul is leaning on his spear; and behold, the chariots and those possessing horses have followed him;

⁷ and he turns behind him, and sees me, and calls to me, and I say, Here I [am].

⁸ And he says to me, Who [are] you? And I say to him, I [am] an Amalekite.

⁹ And he says to me, Please stand over me and put me to death, for the arrow has seized me, for all my soul [is] still in me.

¹¹ And David takes hold on his garments, and tears them, and also all the men who [are] with him,

¹² and they mourn, and weep, and fast until the evening, for Saul, and for his son Jonathan, and for the people of YHWH, and for the house of Israel, because they have fallen by the sword.

¹³ And David says to the youth who is declaring [it] to him, "Where [are] you from?" And he says, "I [am] the son of a sojourner, an Amalekite."

¹⁴ And David says to him, "How were you not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the anointed of YHWH?"

¹⁵ And David calls to one of the youths and says, "Draw near—fall on him"; and he strikes him, and he dies;

¹⁶ And David says to him, "Your blood [is] on your own head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I put to death the anointed of YHWH."

¹⁷ And David laments with this lamentation over Saul, and over his son Jonathan;

¹⁸ and he says to teach the sons of Judah "The Bow"; behold, it is written on the Scroll of the Upright:

¹⁹ "The beauty of Israel || [Is] wounded on your high places; How the mighty have fallen!

²⁰ Do not declare [it] in Gath, || Do not proclaim the tidings in the streets of Ashkelon, || Lest they rejoice—The daughters of the Philistines, || Lest they exult—The daughters of the uncircumcised!

²² From the blood of the wounded, || From the fat of the mighty, || The bow of Jonathan || Has not turned backward; And the sword of Saul does not return empty.

²⁴ Daughters of Israel! Weep for Saul, || Who is clothing you [in] scarlet with delights. Who is lifting up ornaments of gold on your clothing.

²⁵ How the mighty have fallen || In the midst of the battle! Jonathan [was] wounded on your high places!

²⁶ I am in distress for you, my brother Jonathan, || You were very pleasant to me; Your love was wonderful to me, || Above the love of women!

²⁷ How the mighty have fallen, || Indeed, the weapons of war perish!"

¹ And it comes to pass afterward, that David inquires of YHWH, saying, "Do I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" And YHWH says to him, "Go up." And David says, "To where do I go up?" And He says, "To Hebron."

² And David goes up there, and also his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail wife of Nabal the Carmelite;

³ and David has brought up his men who [are] with him—a man and his household—and they dwell in the cities of Hebron.

⁴ And the men of Judah come, and anoint David there for king over the house of Judah; and they declare to David, saying, "The men of Jabesh-Gilead [are] they who buried Saul."

⁵ And David sends messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead and says to them, "Blessed [are] you of YHWH, in that you have done this kindness with your lord, with Saul, that you bury him.

⁶ And now YHWH does kindness and truth with you, and I also do this good with you because you have done this thing;

⁷ and now your hands are strong, and be for sons of valor, for your lord Saul [is] dead, and the house of Judah has also anointed me for king over them."

⁸ And Abner, son of Ner, head of the host which Saul has, has taken Ish-Bosheth, son of Saul, and causes him to pass over to Mahanaim,

⁹ and causes him to reign over Gilead, and over the Ashurite, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over Israel—all of it.

¹⁰ Ish-Bosheth son of Saul [is] a son of forty years in his reigning over Israel, and he has reigned [for] two years; only the house of Judah has been after David.

¹¹ And the number of the days that David has been king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, is seven years and six months.

¹² And Abner son of Ner goes out, and servants of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

¹⁴ And Abner says to Joab, "Now let the youths rise and they play before us"; and Joab says, "Let them rise."

¹⁵ And they rise and pass over, in number twelve of Benjamin, even of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

¹⁷ and the battle is very hard on that day, and Abner is struck, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

¹⁸ And there are three sons of Zeruiah there: Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel [is] light on his feet, as one of the roes which [are] in the field,

¹⁹ and Asahel pursues after Abner, and has not turned aside to go to the right or to the left, from after Abner.

²⁰ And Abner looks behind him and says, "Are you he—Asahel?" And he says, "I [am]."

²¹ And Abner says to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and seize one of the youths for yourself, and take his armor for yourself"; and Asahel has not been willing to turn aside from after him.

²² And Abner adds again, saying to Asahel, "Turn aside from after me, why do I strike you to the earth? And how do I lift up my face to your brother Joab?"

²³ And he refuses to turn aside, and Abner strikes him with the back part of the spear to the fifth [rib], and the spear comes out from behind him, and he falls there, and dies under it; and it comes to pass, everyone who has come to the place where Asahel has fallen and dies—they stand still.

²⁵ And the sons of Benjamin gather themselves together after Abner, and become one troop, and stand on the top of a certain height,

²⁶ and Abner calls to Joab and says, "Does the sword consume forever? Have you not known that it is bitterness in the latter end? And until when do you not say to the people to turn back from after their brothers?"

²⁷ And Joab says, "God lives! For unless you had spoken, surely then from the morning each of the people had gone up from after his brother."

²⁸ And Joab blows with a horn, and all the people stand still, and no longer pursue after Israel, nor have they added to fight anymore.

³¹ and the servants of David have struck of Benjamin, even among the men of Abner, three hundred and sixty men—they died.

³² And they lift up Asahel, and bury him in the burying-place of his father, which [is] in Beth-Lehem, and they go all the night—Joab and his men—and [dawn's light] shines on them in Hebron.

¹ And the war is long between the house of Saul and the house of David, and David is going on and [is] strong, and the house of Saul is going on and [is] weak.

² And there are sons born to David in Hebron, and his firstborn is Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess,

³ and his second [is] Chileab, of Abigail wife of Nabal the Carmelite, and the third [is] Absalom son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur,

⁴ and the fourth [is] Adonijah son of Haggith, and the fifth [is] Shephatiah son of Abital,

⁵ and the sixth [is] Ithream, of Eglah wife of David; these have been born to David in Hebron.

⁶ And it comes to pass, in the war being between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner has been strengthening himself in the house of Saul,

⁷ and Saul has a concubine, and her name [is] Rizpah daughter of Aiah, and [Ish-Bosheth] says to Abner, "Why have you gone in to the concubine of my father?"

⁸ And it is exceedingly displeasing to Abner, because of the words of Ish-Bosheth, and he says, "[Am] I the head of a dog—that in reference to Judah, today I do kindness with the house of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David—that you charge against me iniquity concerning the woman today?"

⁹ Thus God does to Abner, and thus He adds to him, surely as YHWH has sworn to David—surely so I do to him:

¹¹ And he is not able to return a word [to] Abner anymore, because of his fearing him.

¹² And Abner sends messengers to David for himself, saying, "Whose [is] the land?" [And] saying, "Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand [is] with you, to bring around all Israel to you."

¹³ And [David] says, "Good—I make a covenant with you; only, one thing I am asking of you, that is, you do not see my face, except [that] you first bring in Michal daughter of Saul in your coming in to see my face."

¹⁴ And David sends messengers to Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, saying, "Give up my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself with one hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

¹⁵ And Ish-Bosheth sends, and takes her from a man, from Phaltiel son of Laish,

¹⁶ and her husband goes with her, going on and weeping behind her, to Bahurim, and Abner says to him, "Go, return"; and he turns back.

¹⁷ And the word of Abner was with [the] elderly of Israel, saying, "Thus far you have been seeking David for king over you,

18 and now, do [it], for YHWH has spoken of David saying, [It is] by the hand of my servant David to save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.”

19 And Abner also speaks in the ears of Benjamin, and Abner also goes to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that [is] good in the eyes of Israel, and in the eyes of all the house of Benjamin,

20 and Abner comes to David, to Hebron, and twenty men [are] with him, and David makes a banquet for Abner and for the men who [are] with him.

21 And Abner says to David, “I arise, and go, and gather the whole of Israel to my lord the king, and they make a covenant with you, and you have reigned over all that your soul desires”; and David sends Abner away, and he goes in peace.

22 And behold, the servants of David, and Joab, have come from the troop, and have brought much spoil with them, and Abner is not with David in Hebron, for he has sent him away, and he goes in peace;

23 and Joab and all the host that [were] with him have come, and they declare to Joab, saying, “Abner son of Ner has come to the king, and he sends him away, and he goes in peace.”

24 And Joab comes to the king and says, “What have you done? Behold, Abner has come to you! Why [is] this—you have sent him away, and he is really gone?

25 You have known Abner son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.”

26 And Joab goes out from David, and sends messengers after Abner, and they bring him back from the well of Sirah, and David did not know.

27 And Abner turns back to Hebron, and Joab turns him aside to the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and strikes him there in the fifth [rib]—and he dies—for the blood of his brother Asahel.

28 And David hears afterward and says, “My kingdom and I [are] acquitted by YHWH for all time, from the blood of Abner son of Ner;

29 it stays on the head of Joab, and on all the house of his father, and there is not cut off from the house of Joab one who has discharging, and leprous, and laying hold on a staff, and falling by a sword, and lacking bread.”

30 And Joab and his brother Abishai slew Abner because that he put their brother Asahel to death in Gibeon, in battle.

31 And David says to Joab, and to all the people who [are] with him, “Tear your garments, and gird on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner”; and King David is going after the bier.

32 And they bury Abner in Hebron, and the king lifts up his voice, and weeps at the grave of Abner, and all the people weep;

33 and the king laments for Abner and says, “Does Abner die as the death of a fool?

34 Your hands not bound, || And your feet not brought near to chains! You have fallen as one falling before sons of evil!” And all the people add to weep over him.

35 And all the people come to cause David to eat bread while yet day, and David swears, saying, “Thus God does to me, and thus He adds, for—before the going in of the sun, I taste no bread or any other thing.”

³⁶ And all the people have discerned [it], and it is good in their eyes, as all that the king has done is good in the eyes of all the people;

³⁷ and all the people know, even all Israel, in that day, that it has not been from the king—to put Abner son of Ner to death.

³⁸ And the king says to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great one has fallen this day in Israel?”

³⁹ And today I [am] tender, and an anointed king: and these men, sons of Zeruah, [are] too hard for me; YHWH repays to the doer of the evil according to his evil.”

¹ And the son of Saul hears that Abner [is] dead in Hebron, and his hands are feeble, and all of Israel has been troubled.

² And two men, heads of troops, have been [to] the son of Saul, the name of the first [is] Baanah, and the name of the second Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin, for Beeroth is also reckoned to Benjamin,

³ and the Beerothites flee to Gittaim, and are sojourners there to this day.

⁴ And to Jonathan son of Saul [is] a son—lame; he was a son of five years at the coming in of the rumor of [the death of] Saul and Jonathan, out of Jezreel, and his nurse lifts him up, and flees, and it comes to pass in her hastening to flee, that he falls, and becomes lame, and his name [is] Mephibosheth.

⁵ And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, go, and come in at the heat of the day to the house of Ish-Bosheth, and he is lying down—the lying down of noon;

⁶ and they have come there, to the midst of the house, taking wheat, and they strike him to the fifth [rib], and Rechab and his brother Baanah have escaped;

⁹ And David answers Rechab and his brother Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and says to them, “YHWH lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

¹⁰ when one is declaring to me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, and he was as a bearer of tidings in his own eyes, then I take hold on him, and slay him in Ziklag, instead of my giving to him [for] the tidings.

¹¹ Also—when wicked men have slain the righteous man in his own house, on his bed; and now, do I not require his blood from your hand, and have taken you away from the earth?”

¹² And David commands the young men, and they slay them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hang [them] over the pool in Hebron, and they have taken the head of Ish-Bosheth, and bury [it] in the burying-place of Abner in Hebron.

¹ And all the tribes of Israel come to David, to Hebron, and speak, saying, "Behold, we [are] your bone and your flesh;

² also thus far, in Saul's being king over us, you have been he who is bringing out and bringing in Israel, and YHWH says to you, You feed My people Israel, and you are for leader over Israel."

³ And all [the] elderly of Israel come to the king, to Hebron, and King David makes a covenant with them in Hebron before YHWH, and they anoint David for king over Israel.

⁴ A son of thirty years [is] David in his being king; he has reigned [for] forty years;

⁵ he reigned over Judah in Hebron [for] seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned [for] thirty-three years, over all Israel and Judah.

⁶ And the king goes, and his men, to Jerusalem, to the Jebusite, the inhabitant of the land, and they speak to David, saying, "You do not come in here, except [that] you turn aside the blind and the lame," saying, "David does not come in here."

⁷ And David captures the fortress of Zion, it [is] the City of David.

⁸ And on that day David says, "Anyone striking the Jebusite, let him go up by the watercourse (and the lame and the blind—the hated of David's soul)." Therefore they say, "The blind and lame—he does not come into the house."

⁹ And David dwells in the fortress, and calls it the City of David, and David builds all around, from Millo and inward,

¹⁰ and David goes, going on and becoming great, and YHWH, God of Hosts, [is] with him.

¹¹ And Hiram king of Tyre sends messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and craftsmen of wood, and craftsmen of stone, for walls, and they build a house for David,

¹² and David knows that YHWH has established him for king over Israel, and that He has lifted up his kingdom, because of His people Israel.

¹³ And again David takes concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after his coming from Hebron, and again there are born to David sons and daughters.

¹⁴ And these [are] the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

¹⁵ and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

¹⁶ and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

¹⁷ And the Philistines hear that they have anointed David for king over Israel, and all the Philistines come up to seek David, and David hears, and goes down to the fortress,

¹⁸ and the Philistines have come, and are spread out in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁹ And David asks of YHWH, saying, "Do I go up to the Philistines? Do You give them into my hand?" And YHWH says to David, "Go up, for I certainly give the Philistines into your hand."

²⁰ And David comes to Ba'al-Perazim, and David strikes them there, and says, "YHWH has broken forth [on] my enemies before me, as the breaking forth of waters"; therefore he has called the name of that place Ba'al-Perazim.

²¹ And they forsake their idols there, and David and his men lift them up.

²² And the Philistines add again to come up, and are spread out in the Valley of Rephaim,

²³ and David asks of YHWH, and He says, “You do not go up, turn around to their rear, and you have come to them from the front [[or in front]] of the mulberries, ²⁴ and it comes to pass, in your hearing the sound of a stepping in the tops of the mulberries, then you move sharply, for then YHWH has gone out before you to strike in the camp of the Philistines.”

²⁵ And David does so, as YHWH commanded him, and strikes the Philistines from Geba to your coming to Gazer.

² and David rises and goes, and all the people who [are] with him, from Ba’ale-Judah, to bring up the Ark of God from there, whose name has been called—the Name of YHWH of Hosts, inhabiting the cherubim—on it.

³ And they cause the Ark of God to ride on a new cart, and lift it up from the house of Abinadab, which [is] in the height, and Uzzah and Ahio sons of Abinadab are leading the new cart;

⁴ and they lift it up from the house of Abinadab, which [is] in the height, with the Ark of God, and Ahio is going before the Ark,

⁵ and David and all the house of Israel are playing before YHWH, with all kinds of [instruments] of fir-wood, even with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with horns, and with cymbals.

⁶ And they come to the threshing-floor of Nachon, and Uzzah puts forth [his hand] to the Ark of God, and lays hold on it, for they released the oxen;

⁷ and the anger of YHWH burns against Uzzah, and God strikes him there for the error, and he dies there by the Ark of God.

⁸ And it is displeasing to David, because that YHWH has broken forth a breach on Uzzah, and [one] calls that place Perez-Uzzah to this day;

⁹ and David fears YHWH on that day and says, “How does the Ark of YHWH come to me?”

¹⁰ And David has not been willing to turn aside the Ark of YHWH to himself, to the City of David, and David turns it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite,

¹¹ and the Ark of YHWH inhabits the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite [for] three months, and YHWH blesses Obed-Edom and all his house.

¹² And it is declared to King David, saying, “YHWH has blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he has, because of the Ark of God”; and David goes and brings up the Ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with joy.

¹³ And it comes to pass, when those carrying the Ark of YHWH have stepped six steps, that he sacrifices an ox and a fatling.

¹⁴ And David is dancing with all [his] strength before YHWH, and David is girded with a linen ephod,

¹⁵ and David and all the house of Israel are bringing up the Ark of YHWH with shouting, and with the voice of a horn,

¹⁶ and it has come to pass, the Ark of YHWH has come into the City of David, and Michal daughter of Saul has looked through the window and sees King David moving and dancing before YHWH, and she despises him in her heart.

¹⁸ And David finishes from causing the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings to ascend, and blesses the people in the Name of YHWH of Hosts, ¹⁹ and he apportions to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, from man and to woman, to each, one cake of bread, and one eshpar, and one ashisha, and all the people go, each to his house.

²¹ And David says to Michal, "Before YHWH, who fixed on me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me leader over the people of YHWH, and over Israel—indeed, I played before YHWH;

²² and I have been more vile than this, and have been low in my eyes, and with the handmaids whom you have spoken of, I am honored with them."

²³ As for Michal daughter of Saul, she had no child until the day of her death.

¹ And it comes to pass, when the king sat in his house, and YHWH has given rest to him all around, from all his enemies,

² that the king says to Nathan the prophet, "Now see, I am dwelling in a house of cedars, but the Ark of God is dwelling in the midst of the curtain."

³ And Nathan says to the king, "All that [is] in your heart—go, do, for YHWH [is] with you."

⁴ And it comes to pass in that night, that the word of YHWH is to Nathan, saying,

⁵ "Go, and you have said to My servant, to David, Thus said YHWH: Do you build for Me a house for My dwelling in?

⁶ For I have not dwelt in a house even from the day of My bringing up the sons of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, and am walking up and down in a tent and in a dwelling place.

⁷ During all [the time] that I have walked up and down among all the sons of Israel, have I spoken a word with one of the tribes of Israel, which I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why have you not built a house of cedars for Me?

⁸ And now, thus you say to My servant, to David, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: I have taken you from the pasture, from after the flock, to be leader over My people, over Israel;

⁹ and I am with you wherever you have gone, and I cut off all your enemies from your presence, and have made a great name for you, as the name of the great ones who [are] in the earth,

¹⁰ and I have appointed a place for My people, for Israel, and have planted it, and it has dwelt in its place, and it is not troubled anymore, and the sons of perverseness do not add to afflict it anymore, as in the beginning,

¹¹ even from the day that I appointed judges over My people Israel; and I have given rest to you from all your enemies, and YHWH has declared to you that YHWH makes a house for you.

¹² When your days are full, and you have lain with your fathers, then I have raised up your seed after you which goes out from your bowels, and have established his kingdom;

¹³ he builds a house for My Name, and I have established the throne of his kingdom for all time.

¹⁴ I am to him for a father, and he is to Me for a son; whom in his dealing perversely I have even reprov'd with a rod of men, and with strokes of the sons of Adam,

¹⁵ and My kindness does not turn aside from him, as I turned it aside from Saul, whom I turned aside from before you,

¹⁶ and your house and your kingdom [are] steadfast before you for all time, your throne is established for all time."

¹⁷ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so spoke Nathan to David.

¹⁸ And King David comes in and sits before YHWH, and says, "Who [am] I, Lord YHWH? And what [is] my house, that You have brought me here?"

¹⁹ And yet this [is] little in Your eyes, Lord YHWH, and You also speak concerning the house of Your servant far off; and this [is] the law of the man, Lord YHWH.

²⁰ And what does David add more to speak to You? And You, You have known Your servant, Lord YHWH.

²¹ Because of Your word, and according to Your heart, You have done all this greatness, to cause Your servant to know [it].

²² Therefore You have been great, YHWH God, for there is none like You, and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

²³ And who [is] as Your people, as Israel—one nation in the earth, whom God has gone to redeem for a people for Himself, and to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself the greatness—even fearful things for Your land, at the presence of Your people, whom You have redeemed for Yourself out of Egypt—[among the] nations and their gods?

²⁴ Indeed, You establish Your people Israel for Yourself, for a people for Yourself for all time, and You, YHWH, have been to them for God.

²⁵ And now, YHWH God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, establish for all time, and do as You have spoken.

²⁶ And Your Name is great for all time, saying, YHWH of Hosts [is] God over Israel, and the house of Your servant David is established before You, ²⁷ for You, YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, have uncovered the ear of Your servant, saying, I build a house for you, therefore Your servant has found his heart to pray this prayer to You.

²⁸ And now, Lord YHWH, You [are] God Himself, and Your words are truth, and You speak this goodness to Your servant,

²⁹ and now, begin and bless the house of Your servant, to be before You for all time, for You, Lord YHWH, have spoken, and by Your blessing the house of Your servant is blessed for all time.”

¹ And it comes to pass afterward that David strikes the Philistines, and humbles them, and David takes the bridle of the metropolis out of the hand of the Philistines.

² And he strikes Moab, and measures them with a line, causing them to lie down on the earth, and he measures two lines to put to death, and the fullness of the line to keep alive, and the Moabites are for servants to David, bearers of a present.

³ And David strikes Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, in his going to bring back his power by the River [Euphrates];

⁵ And Aram of Damascus comes to give help to Hadadezer king of Zobah, and David strikes twenty-two thousand men of Aram;

⁶ and David puts garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and Aram is for a servant to David, carrying a present; and YHWH saves David wherever he has gone;

⁷ and David takes the shields of gold which were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brings them to Jerusalem;

⁸ and from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David has taken very much bronze.

⁹ And Toi king of Hamath hears that David has struck all the force of Hadadezer,

¹⁰ and Toi sends his son Joram to King David to ask of him of welfare, and to bless him (because that he has fought against Hadadezer, and strikes him, for Hadadezer had been a man of wars [with] Toi), and in his hand have been vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of bronze,

¹¹ also King David sanctified them to YHWH, with the silver and the gold which he sanctified of all the nations which he subdued:

¹² of Aram, and of Moab, and of the sons of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob king of Zobah.

¹³ And David makes a name in his turning back from his striking Aram in the Valley of Salt—eighteen thousand;

¹⁴ and he puts garrisons in Edom—he has put garrisons in all of Edom, and all Edom are servants to David; and YHWH saves David wherever he has gone.

¹⁵ And David reigns over all Israel, and David is doing judgment and righteousness to all his people,

¹⁶ and Joab son of Zeruiah [is] over the host, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud [is] remembrancer,

¹⁷ and Zadok son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech son of Abiathar, [are] priests, and Seraiah [is] scribe,

¹⁸ and Benaiah son of Jehoiada [is over] both the Cherethite and the Pelethite, and the sons of David have been ministers.

¹ And David says, "Is there yet any left of the house of Saul, and I do with him kindness because of Jonathan?"

² And the house of Saul has a servant, and his name [is] Ziba, and they call for him to David; and the king says to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he says, "Your servant."

³ And the king says, "Is there not yet a man of the house of Saul, and I do with him the kindness of God?" And Ziba says to the king, "Jonathan has yet a son—lame."

⁴ And the king says to him, "Where [is] he?" And Ziba says to the king, "Behold, he [is] in the house of Machir, son of Ammiel, in Behold-Debar."

⁵ And King David sends, and takes him out of the house of Machir son of Ammiel, of Behold-Debar;

⁶ and Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, son of Saul, comes to David, and falls on his face, and pays respect, and David says, "Mephibosheth"; and he says, "Behold, your servant."

⁸ And he bows himself and says, "What [is] your servant, that you have turned to the dead dog—such as I?"

⁹ And the king calls to Ziba servant of Saul and says to him, "All that was of Saul and of all his house, I have given to the son of your lord,

¹⁰ and you have served the land for him, you and your sons, and your servants, and have brought in, and there has been bread for the son of your lord, and he has eaten it; and Mephibosheth, son of your lord, continually eats bread at my table"; and Ziba has fifteen sons and twenty servants.

¹³ And Mephibosheth is dwelling in Jerusalem, for he is continually eating at the table of the king, and he [is] lame [in] his two feet.

¹ And it comes to pass afterward, that the king of the sons of Ammon dies, and his son Hanun reigns in his stead,

² and David says, "I do kindness with Hanun son of Nahash, as his father did kindness with me"; and David sends to comfort him by the hand of his servants concerning his father, and the servants of David come into the land of the sons of Ammon.

³ And the heads of the sons of Ammon say to their lord Hanun, "Is David honoring your father in your eyes because he has sent comforters to you? For has David not sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it, and to overthrow it?"

⁴ And Hanun takes the servants of David, and shaves off the half of their beard, and cuts off their long robes in the midst—to their buttocks, and sends them away;

⁶ And the sons of Ammon see that they have been abhorred by David, and the sons of Ammon send and hire Aram of Beth-Rehob, and Aram of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah [with] one thousand men, and Ish-Tob [with] twelve thousand men;

⁷ and David hears, and sends Joab, and all the host—the mighty men.

⁸ And the sons of Ammon come out, and set in array [for] battle, at the opening of the gate, and Aram of Zoba, and Rehob, and Ish-Tob, and Maacah, [are] by themselves in the field;

⁹ and Joab sees that the front of the battle has been to him before and behind, and he chooses [out] of all the chosen in Israel, and sets in array to meet Aram,

¹⁰ and he has given the rest of the people into the hand of his brother Abishai, and sets in array to meet the sons of Ammon.

¹¹ And he says, "If Aram is stronger than I, then you have been for salvation to me, and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I have come to give salvation to you;

¹² be strong and strengthen yourself for our people, and for the cities of our God, and YHWH does that which is good in His eyes."

¹³ And Joab draws near, and the people who [are] with him, to battle against Aram, and they flee from his presence;

¹⁴ and the sons of Ammon have seen that Aram has fled, and they flee from the presence of Abishai, and go into the city; and Joab turns back from the sons of Ammon, and comes to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And Aram sees that it is struck before Israel, and they are gathered together;

¹⁷ And it is declared to David, and he gathers all Israel, and passes over the Jordan, and comes to Helam, and Aram sets itself in array to meet David, and they fight with him;

¹⁸ and Aram flees from the presence of Israel, and David slays seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of Aram, and he has struck Shobach, [the] head of its host, and he dies there.

¹⁹ And all the kings—servants of Hadadezer—see that they have been struck before Israel, and make peace with Israel, and serve them; and Aram is afraid to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

¹ And it comes to pass, at the revolution of the year—at the time of the going out of the messengers—that David sends Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel, and they destroy the sons of Ammon, and lay siege against Rabbah, but David is dwelling in Jerusalem.

² And it comes to pass, at evening-time, that David rises from off his bed, and walks up and down on the roof of the king's house, and sees a woman bathing from the roof, and the woman [is] of very good appearance,

³ and David sends and inquires about the woman, and [someone] says, "Is this not Bathsheba, daughter of Eliam, wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

⁴ And David sends messengers, and takes her, and she comes to him, and he lies with her—and she is purifying herself from her uncleanness—and she turns back to her house;

⁵ and the woman conceives, and sends, and declares [it] to David, and says, "I [am] conceiving."

⁶ And David sends to Joab, [saying], "Send Uriah the Hittite to me," and Joab sends Uriah to David;

⁷ and Uriah comes to him, and David asks of the prosperity of Joab, and of the prosperity of the people, and of the prosperity of the war.

⁹ and Uriah lies down at the opening of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord, and has not gone down to his house.

¹⁰ And they declare [it] to David, saying, "Uriah has not gone down to his house"; and David says to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house?"

¹¹ And Uriah says to David, "The ark, and Israel, and Judah, are abiding in shelters, and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamping on the face of the field; and should I go to my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? [By] your life and the life of your soul—if I do this thing."

¹² And David says to Uriah, "Also abide in this [place] today, and tomorrow I send you away"; and Uriah abides in Jerusalem on that day and on the next day,

¹⁴ And it comes to pass in the morning that David writes a letter to Joab and sends [it] by the hand of Uriah;

¹⁵ and he writes in the letter, saying, "Place Uriah in front of the face of the most severe battle, and you have turned back from after him, and he has been struck, and has died."

¹⁶ And it comes to pass in Joab's watching of the city, that he appoints Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men [were];

¹⁷ and the men of the city go out and fight with Joab, and [some] of the people, from the servants of David, fall; and Uriah the Hittite also dies.

¹⁸ And Joab sends and declares to David all the matters of the war,

¹⁹ and commands the messenger, saying, "At your finishing all the matters of the war to speak to the king,

²⁰ then, it has been, if the king's fury ascends, and he has said to you, Why did you draw near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they shoot from off the wall?

²¹ Who struck Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth? Did a woman not cast a piece of a rider from the wall on him, and he dies in Thebez? Why did you draw near to the wall? That you have said, Also—your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead."

²² And the messenger goes, and comes in, and declares to David all that with which Joab sent him,

²³ and the messenger says to David, "Surely the men have been mighty against us, and come out to us into the field, and we are on them to the opening of the gate,

²⁴ and those shooting shoot at your servants from off the wall, and [some] of the servants of the king are dead, and also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead."

²⁶ And the wife of Uriah hears that her husband Uriah [is] dead, and laments for her lord;

²⁷ and the mourning passes by, and David sends and gathers her to his house, and she is to him for a wife, and bears a son to him; and the thing which David has done is evil in the eyes of YHWH.

¹ And YHWH sends Nathan to David, and he comes to him, and says to him: "Two men have been in one city, one rich and one poor.

² The rich has very many flocks and herds,

⁶ and [for] the ewe-lamb he repays fourfold, because that he has done this thing, and because that he had no pity."

⁷ And Nathan says to David, "You [are] the man! Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: I anointed you for king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul;

⁸ and I give to you the house of your lord, and the wives of your lord, into your bosom, and I give the house of Israel and Judah to you; and if [that is] too little, then I add such and such [things] to you.

⁹ Why have you despised the word of YHWH, to do evil in His eyes? You have struck Uriah the Hittite by the sword, and you have taken his wife for a wife for yourself, and you have slain him by the sword of the sons of Ammon.

¹⁰ And now, the sword does not turn aside from your house for all time, because you have despised Me, and take the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be for a wife for yourself;

¹¹ thus said YHWH: Behold, I am raising up calamity against you, out of your [own] house, and have taken your wives before your eyes, and given

[them] to your neighbor, and he has lain with your wives before the eyes of this sun;

¹² for you have done [it] in secret, and I do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun."

¹³ And David says to Nathan, "I have sinned against YHWH." And Nathan says to David, "Also—YHWH has caused your sin to pass away; you do not die;

¹⁴ only, because you have caused the enemies of YHWH to greatly despise by this thing, also—the son who is born to you surely dies."

¹⁵ And Nathan goes to his house, and YHWH strikes the boy, whom the wife of Uriah has borne to David, and it is incurable;

¹⁶ and David seeks God for the youth, and David keeps a fast, and has gone in and lodged, and lain on the earth.

¹⁷ And [the] elderly of his house rise against him, to raise him up from the earth, and he has not been willing, nor has he eaten bread with them;

¹⁸ and it comes to pass on the seventh day, that the boy dies, and the servants of David fear to declare to him that the boy is dead, for they said, "Behold, in the boy being alive we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice; and how do we say to him, The boy is dead? Then he has done evil."

¹⁹ And David sees that his servants are whispering, and David understands that the boy is dead, and David says to his servants, "Is the boy dead?" And they say, "Dead."

²⁰ And David rises from the earth, and bathes and anoints [himself], and changes his raiment, and comes into the house of YHWH, and bows himself, and comes to his house, and asks and they place bread for him, and he eats.

²¹ And his servants say to him, "What [is] this thing you have done? Because of the living boy you have fasted and you weep, and when the boy is dead you have risen and eat bread."

²² And he says, "While the boy is alive I have fasted and I weep, for I said, Who knows [if] YHWH pities me and the boy has lived?"

²³ And now, he has died, why [is] this—I fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I am going to him, and he does not return to me."

²⁴ And David comforts his wife Bathsheba, and goes in to her, and lies with her, and she bears a son, and he calls his name Solomon; and YHWH has loved him,

²⁵ and sends by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and calls his name Jedidiah, because of YHWH.

²⁶ And Joab fights against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and captures the royal city,

²⁷ and Joab sends messengers to David and says, "I have fought against Rabbah—I have also captured the city of waters;

²⁸ and now, gather the rest of the people, and encamp against the city, and capture it, lest I capture the city, and my name has been called on it."

²⁹ And David gathers all the people, and goes to Rabbah, and fights against it, and captures it;

³¹ and he has brought out the people who [are] in it, and sets [them] to the saw, and to cutting instruments of iron, and to axes of iron, and has caused them to pass over into the brick-kiln; and so he does to all the cities of the sons of Ammon; and David turns back, and all the people, to Jerusalem.

¹ And it comes to pass afterward that Absalom son of David has a beautiful sister, and her name [is] Tamar, and Amnon son of David loves her.

² And Amnon has distress—even to become sick, because of his sister Tamar; for she [is] a virgin, and it is hard in the eyes of Amnon to do anything to her.

³ And Amnon has a friend, and his name [is] Jonadab, son of Shimeah, David's brother, and Jonadab [is] a very wise man,

⁴ and says to him, "Why [are] you thus lean, O king's son, morning by morning? Do you not declare [it] to me?" And Amnon says to him, "Tamar—sister of my brother Absalom—I am loving."

⁵ And Jonadab says to him, "Lie down on your bed, and feign yourself sick, and your father has come in to see you, and you have said to him: Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me bread to eat; and she has made the food before my eyes so that I see [it], and have eaten from her hand."

⁶ And Amnon lies down, and feigns himself sick, and the king comes in to see him, and Amnon says to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come, and she makes two cakes before my eyes, and I eat from her hand."

⁷ And David sends to Tamar, to the house, saying, "Now go to the house of your brother Amnon and make food for him."

⁸ And Tamar goes to the house of her brother Amnon, and he is lying down, and she takes the dough, and kneads, and makes cakes before his eyes, and cooks the cakes,

⁹ and takes the frying-pan, and pours out before him, and he refuses to eat, and Amnon says, "Have everyone go out from me"; and everyone goes out from him.

¹⁰ And Amnon says to Tamar, "Bring the food into the inner chamber, and I eat from your hand"; and Tamar takes the cakes that she has made and brings [them] to her brother Amnon [in] the inner chamber,

¹¹ and she brings [them] near to him to eat, and he lays hold on her, and says to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

¹² And she says to him, "No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done so in Israel; do not do this folly.

¹³ And I—to where do I cause my reproach to go? And you are as one of the fools in Israel; and now, please speak to the king; for he does not withhold me from you."

¹⁴ And he has not been willing to listen to her voice, and is stronger than she, and humbles her, and lies with her.

¹⁵ And Amnon hates her—a very great hatred—that greater [is] the hatred with which he has hated her than the love with which he loved her, and Amnon says to her, "Rise, go."

¹⁶ And she says to him, "Because of the circumstances this evil is greater than the other that you have done with me—to send me away"; and he has not been willing to listen to her,

¹⁷ and calls his young man, his servant, and says, "Now send this one away from me outside, and bolt the door after her."

¹⁸ And a long coat [is] on her; for such upper robes daughters of the king who [are] virgins put on—and his servant takes her outside, and has bolted the door after her.

¹⁹ And Tamar takes ashes for her head, and has torn the long coat that [is] on her; and puts her hand on her head, and goes, going on and crying;

²⁰ and her brother Absalom says to her, "Has your brother Amnon been with you? And now, my sister, keep silent, he [is] your brother; do not set your heart to this thing"; and Tamar dwells—but desolate—in the house of her brother Absalom.

²¹ And King David has heard all these things, and it is very displeasing to him;

²² and Absalom has not spoken with Amnon either evil or good, for Absalom is hating Amnon, because that he humbled his sister Tamar.

²³ And it comes to pass, after two years of days, that Absalom has shearers in Ba'al-Hazor, which [is] near Ephraim, and Absalom calls for all the sons of the king.

²⁴ And Absalom comes to the king and says, "Now behold, your servant has shearers, please let the king go—and his servants—with your servant."

²⁵ And the king says to Absalom, "No, my son, please let us not all go, and we are not too heavy on you"; and he presses on him, and he has not been willing to go, and he blesses him.

²⁶ And Absalom says, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us"; and the king says to him, "Why does he go with you?"

²⁷ And Absalom urges for him, and he sends Amnon and all the sons of the king with him.

²⁸ And Absalom commands his young men, saying, "Now see, when the heart of Amnon [is] glad with wine, and I have said to you, Strike Amnon, that you have put him to death; do not fear; is it not because I have commanded you? Be strong, indeed, become sons of valor."

²⁹ And the young men of Absalom do to Amnon as Absalom commanded, and all the sons of the king rise, and they ride, each on his mule, and flee.

³⁰ And it comes to pass—they [are] in the way—and the report has come to David, saying, "Absalom has struck all the sons of the king, and there is not left [even] one of them";

³¹ and the king rises, and tears his garments, and lies on the earth, and all his servants are standing by [with] torn garments.

³³ and now, do not let my lord the king lay the word to his heart, saying, All the sons of the king have died, for Amnon alone [is] dead."

³⁴ And Absalom flees, and the young man who is watching lifts up his eyes and looks, and behold, many people are coming by the way behind him, on the side of the hill.

³⁵ And Jonadab says to the king, "Behold, the sons of the king have come; as the word of your servant, so it has been."

³⁶ And it comes to pass at his finishing to speak, that behold, the sons of the king have come, and they lift up their voice, and weep, and also the king and all his servants have wept—a very great weeping.

³⁷ And Absalom has fled, and goes to Talmi, son of Ammihud, king of Geshur, and [David] mourns for his son all the days.

³⁸ And Absalom has fled, and goes to Geshur, and is there [for] three years;

³⁹ and King David determines to go out to Absalom, for he has been comforted for Amnon, for [he is] dead.

¹ And Joab son of Zeruiel knows that the heart of the king [is] on Absalom,

² and Joab sends to Tekoah, and takes a wise woman from there, and says to her, "Please feign yourself a mourner, and now put on garments of mourning, and do not anoint yourself with oil, and you have been as a woman mourning for the dead [for] these many days, ³ and you have gone to the king, and spoken to him, according to this word"; and Joab puts the words into her mouth.

⁴ And the woman of Tekoah speaks to the king, and falls on her face to the earth, and pays respect, and says, "Save, O king."

⁵ And the king says to her, "What do you [want]?" And she says, "I [am] truly a widow woman, and my husband dies,

⁶ and your maidservant has two sons; and both of them strive in a field, and there is no deliverer between them, and one strikes the other, and puts him to death;

⁷ and behold, the whole family has risen against your maidservant, and say, Give up him who strikes his brother, and we put him to death for the life of his brother whom he has slain, and we also destroy the heir; and they have quenched my coal which is left—so as not to set a name and remnant on the face of the ground for my husband."

⁸ And the king says to the woman, "Go to your house, and I give charge concerning you."

⁹ And the woman of Tekoah says to the king, "On me, my lord, O king, [is] the iniquity, and on the house of my father; and the king and his throne [are] innocent."

¹⁰ And the king says, "He who speaks to you, and you have brought him to me, then he does not add to come against you anymore."

¹¹ And she says, "Please let the king remember by your God YHWH, that the redeemer of blood does not add to destroy, and they do not destroy my son"; and he says, "YHWH lives; if there falls [even one] hair of your son to the earth."

¹² And the woman says, "Please let your maidservant speak a word to my lord the king"; and he says, "Speak."

¹³ And the woman says, "And why have you thought thus concerning the people of God? Indeed, the king is speaking this thing as a guilty one, in that the king has not brought back his outcast;

14 for we surely die, and [are] as water which is running down to the earth, which is not gathered, and God does not accept a person, and has devised plans in that the outcast is not outcast by Him.

15 And now that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, [it is] because the people made me afraid, and your maidservant says, Please let me speak to the king; it may be the king does the word of his handmaid,

16 for the king listens to deliver his handmaid out of the paw of the man [seeking] to destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God,

17 and your maidservant says, Please let the word of my lord the king be for ease; for as a messenger of God so [is] my lord the king, to understand the good and the evil; and your God YHWH is with you."

18 And the king answers and says to the woman, "Please do not hide from me the thing that I am asking you"; and the woman says, "Please let my lord the king speak."

19 And the king says, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" And the woman answers and says, "Your soul lives, my lord, O king, none [turn] to the right or to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

20 Your servant Joab has done this thing in order to bring around the appearance of the thing, and my lord [is] wise, according to the wisdom of a messenger of God, to know all that [is] in the land."

21 And the king says to Joab, "Now behold, you have done this thing; and go, bring back the young man Absalom."

22 And Joab falls on his face to the earth, and pays respect, and blesses the king, and Joab says, "Today your servant has known that I have found grace in your eyes, my lord, O king, in that the king has done the word of his servant."

23 And Joab rises and goes to Geshur, and brings in Absalom to Jerusalem,

24 and the king says, "Let him turn around to his house, and he does not see my face." And Absalom turns around to his house, and he has not seen the face of the king.

25 And there was no man [so] beautiful in all Israel like Absalom, to praise greatly; from the sole of his foot even to his crown there was no blemish in him;

26 and in his shaving his head—and it has been at the end of year by year that he shaves [it], for it [is] heavy on him, and he has shaved it—he has even weighed out the hair of his head—two hundred shekels by the king's weight.

27 And there are born to Absalom three sons and one daughter, and her name [is] Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28 And Absalom dwells in Jerusalem [for] two years of days, and he has not seen the face of the king;

29 and Absalom sends to Joab, to send him to the king, and he has not been willing to come to him; and he sends again a second time, and he has not been willing to come.

30 And he says to his servants, "See, the portion of Joab [is] by the side of mine, and he has barley there; go and burn it with fire"; and the servants of Absalom burn the portion with fire.

³¹ And Joab rises and comes to Absalom in the house, and says to him, "Why have your servants burned the portion that I have with fire?"

³² And Absalom says to Joab, "Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here, and I send you to the king to say, Why have I come in from Geshur? [It was] good for me while I [was] there—and now, let me see the king's face, and if there is iniquity in me then you have put me to death."

³³ And Joab comes to the king, and declares [it] to him, and he calls to Absalom, and he comes to the king, and bows himself to him, on his face, to the earth, before the king, and the king gives a kiss to Absalom.

¹ And it comes to pass afterward that Absalom prepares a chariot and horses for himself, and fifty men are running before him;

² and Absalom has risen early, and stood by the side of the way of the gate, and it comes to pass, every man who has a pleading to come to the king for judgment, that Absalom calls to him and says, "Of what city [are] you?" And he says, "Your servant [is] of one of the tribes of Israel."

³ And Absalom says to him, "See, your matters [are] good and straightforward—and there is none listening to you from the king."

⁴ And Absalom says, "Who makes me judge in the land, that every man who has a plea and judgment comes to me? Then I have declared him righteous."

⁵ And it has come to pass, in the drawing near of anyone to bow himself to him, that he has put forth his hand, and laid hold on him, and given a kiss to him;

⁶ and Absalom does according to this thing to all Israel who come in for judgment to the king, and Absalom steals the heart of the men of Israel.

⁷ And it comes to pass, at the end of forty years, that Absalom says to the king, "Please let me go, and I complete my vow that I vowed to YHWH in Hebron,

⁸ for your servant has vowed a vow in my dwelling in Geshur, in Aram, saying, If YHWH certainly brings me back to Jerusalem, then I have served YHWH."

⁹ And the king says to him, "Go in peace"; and he rises and goes to Hebron,

¹⁰ and Absalom sends spies through all the tribes of Israel, saying, "At your hearing the voice of the horn, then you have said, Absalom has reigned in Hebron."

¹¹ And two hundred men have gone with Absalom out of Jerusalem, invited ones, and they are going in their simplicity, and have not known anything;

¹² and Absalom sends Ahithophel the Gilonite, a counselor of David, out of his city, out of Gilo, in his sacrificing sacrifices; and the conspiracy is strong, and the people are going and increasing with Absalom.

¹³ And he who is declaring tidings comes to David, saying, "The heart of the men of Israel has been after Absalom."

¹⁴ And David says to all his servants who [are] with him in Jerusalem, "Rise, and we flee, for we have no escape from the face of Absalom; hurry to go, lest he hurries, and has overtaken us, and forced evil on us, and struck the city by the mouth of the sword."

¹⁵ And the servants of the king say to the king, "According to all that my lord the king chooses—behold, your servants do."

¹⁶ And the king goes out, and all his household at his feet, and the king leaves ten women—concubines—to keep the house.

¹⁷ And the king goes out, and all the people at his feet, and they stand still at the farthest off house.

¹⁸ And all his servants are passing on at his side, and all the Cherethite, and all the Pelethite, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came at his feet from Gath, are passing on at the front of the king.

¹⁹ And the king says to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you go—you also—with us? Return and abide with the king, for you [are] a stranger, and also an exile, you—to your place.

²⁰ Your coming in [was only] yesterday, and should I move you to go with us today, since I am going over [to] where [I do not know where] I am going? Return, and take your brothers back. Kindness and truth [be] with you."

²¹ And Ittai answers the king and says, "YHWH lives, and my lord the king lives, surely in the place where my lord the king is—if for death, if for life, surely your servant is there."

²² And David says to Ittai, "Go and pass over"; and Ittai the Gittite passes over, and all his men, and all the infants who [are] with him.

²⁴ and behold, also Zadok, and all the Levites with him, are carrying the Ark of the Covenant of God, and they make the Ark of God firm, and Abiathar goes up, until the completion of all the people to pass over out of the city.

²⁵ And the king says to Zadok, "Take back the Ark of God to the city; if I find grace in the eyes of YHWH, then He has brought me back, and shown me it and His habitation;

²⁶ and if thus He says, I have not delighted in you; here I [am], He does to me as [is] good in His eyes."

²⁷ And the king says to Zadok the priest, "Are you a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your son Ahimaaz, and Jonathan son of Abiathar, your two sons with you;

²⁸ see, I am lingering in the plains of the wilderness until the coming in of a word from you to declare to me."

³⁰ And David is going up in the ascent of the [Mount of] Olives, going up and weeping, and he has the head covered, and he is going barefooted, and all the people who [are] with him have each covered his head, and have gone up, going up and weeping;

³¹ and David declared, saying, "Ahithophel [is] among the conspirators with Absalom"; and David says, "Please make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish, O YHWH."

³² And it comes to pass, David has come to the top, where he bows himself to God, and behold, Hushai the Archite [is there] to meet him, [with] his coat torn, and earth on his head;

³³ and David says to him, “If you have passed on with me then you have been for a burden on me,

³⁴ and if you return to the city and have said to Absalom, I am your servant, O king; I [am] also servant of your father until now, and presently, I [am] also your servant; then you have made void the counsel of Ahithophel for me;

³⁵ and are Zadok and Abiathar the priests not with you there? And it has been, the whole of the matter that you hear from the house of the king you declare to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests.

³⁶ Behold, their two sons [are] there with them: Ahimaaz to Zadok, and Jonathan to Abiathar, and you have sent to me by their hand anything that you hear.”

³⁷ And Hushai, David’s friend, comes to the city, and Absalom comes to Jerusalem.

² And the king says to Ziba, “What [are] these to you?” And Ziba says, “The donkeys for the household of the king to ride on, and the bread and the summer-fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for the wearied to drink in the wilderness.”

³ And the king says, “And where [is] the son of your lord?” And Ziba says to the king, “Behold, he is abiding in Jerusalem, for he said, Today the house of Israel gives back the kingdom of my father to me.”

⁴ And the king says to Ziba, “Behold, all that Mephibosheth has [is] for you”; and Ziba says, “I have bowed myself—I find grace in your eyes, my lord, O king.”

⁶ and he stones David with stones, and all the servants of King David, and all the people, and all the mighty men on his right and on his left.

⁷ And thus said Shimei in his reviling: “Go out, go out, O man of blood, and man of worthlessness!

⁸ YHWH has turned back on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead you have reigned, and YHWH gives the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom; and behold, you [are] in your evil, for you [are] a man of blood.”

⁹ And Abishai son of Zeruiah says to the king, “Why does this dead dog revile my lord the king? Please let me pass over and I turn aside his head.”

¹⁰ And the king says, “And what do I [have to do] with you, O sons of Zeruiah? For let him revile; even because YHWH has said to him, Revile David; and who says, Why have You done so?”

¹¹ And David says to Abishai, and to all his servants, “Behold, my son who came out of my bowels is seeking my life, and also surely now the Benjamite; leave him alone, and let him revile, for YHWH has commanded [so] to him;

¹² it may be YHWH looks on my affliction, and YHWH has turned back good to me for his reviling this day.”

¹³ And David goes with his men in the way, and Shimei is going at the side of the hill opposite him, going on, and he reviles, and stones with stones close by him, and has dusted with dust.

¹⁴ And the king comes in, and all the people who [are] with him, wearied, and they are refreshed there.

¹⁵ And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, have come to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him,

¹⁶ and it comes to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, has come to Absalom, that Hushai says to Absalom, “Let the king live! Let the king live!”

¹⁷ And Absalom says to Hushai, “[Is] this your kindness with your friend? Why have you not gone with your friend?”

¹⁸ And Hushai says to Absalom, “No, for he whom YHWH has chosen, and this people, even all the men of Israel, I am his, and I abide with him;

¹⁹ and secondly, for whom do I labor? Is it not before his son? As I served before your father, so I am before you.”

²⁰ And Absalom says to Ahithophel, “Give counsel for yourself [for] what we do.”

²¹ And Ahithophel says to Absalom, “Go in to the concubines of your father, whom he left to keep the house, and all Israel has heard that you have been abhorred by your father, and the hands of all who [are] with you have been strong.”

²² And they spread out the tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom goes in to the concubines of his father before the eyes of all Israel.

²³ And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those days [is] as [when] one inquires at the word of God; so [is] all the counsel of Ahithophel both to David and to Absalom.

¹ And Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Please let me choose twelve thousand men, and I arise and pursue after David tonight,

² and come on him, and he [will be] weary and feeble-handed, and I have caused him to tremble, and all the people who [are] with him have fled, and I have struck the king by himself,

³ and I bring back all the people to you—as the turning back of the whole [except] the man whom you are seeking—[then] all the people are [at] peace.”

⁴ And the word is right in the eyes of Absalom, and in the eyes of all [the] elderly of Israel.

⁵ And Absalom says, “Now call for Hushai the Archite also, and we hear what [is] in his mouth—even he.”

⁶ And Hushai comes to Absalom, and Absalom speaks to him, saying, “According to this word Ahithophel has spoken; do we do his word? If not, you—speak.”

⁷ And Hushai says to Absalom, “The counsel that Ahithophel has counseled [is] not good at this time.”

⁸ And Hushai says, “You have known your father and his men, that they [are] heroes, and they are bitter in soul as a bereaved bear in a field, and your father [is] a man of war, and does not lodge with the people;

⁹ behold, now, he is hidden in one of the pits, or in one of the places, and it has been at the falling among them at the commencement, that the hearer has heard and said, There has been a slaughter among the people who [are] after Absalom;

¹⁰ and he also, the son of valor, whose heart [is] as the heart of the lion, utterly melts, for all Israel knows that your father is a hero, and those with him [are] sons of valor.

¹¹ So that I have counseled: let all Israel be diligently gathered to you, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, as the sand that [is] by the sea for multitude, and you yourself are going in the midst;

¹² and we have come to him in one of the places where he is found, and we [are] on him as the dew falls on the ground, and there has not been left of him and of all the men who [are] with him even one.

¹³ And if he is gathered to a city, then they have caused all Israel to carry ropes to that city, and we have drawn it to the brook until there has not even been found a stone there."

¹⁵ And Hushai says to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Thus and thus Ahithophel has counseled Absalom and the elderly of Israel, and thus and thus I have counseled;

¹⁶ and now, send quickly, and declare [it] to David, saying, Do not lodge in the plains of the wilderness tonight, and also, certainly pass over, lest there is a swallowing up of the king and of all the people who are with him."

¹⁷ And Jonathan and Ahimaaz are standing at En-Rogel, and the maidservant has gone and declared [it] to them—and they go and have declared [it] to King David—for they are not able to be seen to go into the city.

¹⁸ And a youth sees them, and declares [it] to Absalom; and both of them go on quickly, and come to the house of a man in Bahurim, and he has a well in his court, and they go down there,

¹⁹ and the woman takes and spreads the covering over the face of the well, and spreads the ground grain on it, and the thing has not been known.

²⁰ And the servants of Absalom come to the woman at the house, and say, "Where [are] Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman says to them, "They passed over the brook of water"; and they seek, and have not found, and return to Jerusalem.

²¹ And it comes to pass, after their going on, that they come up out of the well, and go and declare [it] to King David, and say to David, "Rise, and pass over the waters quickly, for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you."

²² And David rises, and all the people who [are] with him, and they pass over the Jordan, until the morning light, until not one has been lacking who has not passed over the Jordan.

²³ And Ahithophel has seen that his counsel was not done, and he saddles the donkey, and rises and goes to his house, to his city, and gives charge to his household, and strangles himself, and dies, and he is buried in the burying-place of his father.

²⁴ And David came to Mahanaim, and Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him;

²⁵ and Absalom has set Amasa over the host instead of Joab, and Amasa [is] a man's son whose name is Ithra the Israeli who has gone in to Abigail, daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, mother of Joab;

²⁶ and Israel encamps with Absalom [in] the land of Gilead.

²⁹ and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of cows; they have brought [these] near for David, and for the people who [are] with him to eat, for they said, "Your people [are] hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness."

¹ And David inspects the people who [are] with him, and sets over them heads of thousands and heads of hundreds,

² and David sends the third of the people by the hand of Joab, and the third by the hand of Abishai, son of Zeruiah, brother of Joab, and the third by the hand of Ittai the Gittite, and the king says to the people, "I certainly go out—I also—with you."

³ And the people say, "You do not go out, for if we utterly flee, they do not set [their] heart on us; and if half of us die, they do not set [their] heart to us—for [you are] now like ten thousand of us; and now, [it is] better that you are for a helper to us from the city."

⁴ And the king says to them, "That which is good in your eyes I do"; and the king stands at the side of the gate, and all the people have gone out by hundreds and by thousands,

⁵ and the king charges Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "[Deal] gently—for me, for the youth, for Absalom"; and all the people heard in the king's charging all the heads concerning Absalom.

⁶ And the people go out into the field to meet Israel, and the battle is in a forest of Ephraim;

⁷ and the people of Israel are struck there before the servants of David, and the striking there is great on that day—twenty thousand;

⁸ and the battle there is scattered over the face of all the land, and the forest multiplies to devour among the people more than those whom the sword has devoured in that day.

⁹ And Absalom meets before the servants of David, and Absalom is riding on the mule, and the mule comes in under an entangled bough of the great oak, and his head takes hold on the oak, and he is placed between the heavens and the earth, and the mule that [is] under him has passed on.

¹⁰ And one man sees, and declares [it] to Joab, and says, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

¹¹ And Joab says to the man who is declaring [it] to him, "And behold, you have seen—and why did you not strike him there to the earth—and [it would be] on me to give to you ten pieces of silver and one girdle?"

¹² And the man says to Joab, “Indeed, though I am weighing on my hand one thousand pieces of silver, I do not put forth my hand to the son of the king; for in our ears the king has charged you, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Observe who [is] against the youth—against Absalom;

¹³ or I had done a vain thing against my soul, and no matter is hid from the king, and you would station yourself opposite from [me].”

¹⁵ And they go around—ten youths carrying weapons of Joab—and strike Absalom, and put him to death.

¹⁶ And Joab blows with a horn, and the people turn back from pursuing after Israel, for Joab has kept back the people;

¹⁷ and they take Absalom and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and set up a very great heap of stones over him, and all Israel has fled—each to his tent.

¹⁸ And Absalom has taken, and sets up for himself in his life, the standing-pillar that [is] in the king’s valley, for he said, “I have no son to cause my name to be remembered”; and he calls the standing-pillar by his own name, and it is called “The Monument of Absalom” to this day.

¹⁹ And Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, “Please let me run, and I bear the king tidings, for YHWH has delivered him out of the hand of his enemies”;

²⁰ and Joab says to him, “You are not a man of tidings this day, but you have borne tidings on another day, and this day you do not bear tidings, because the king’s son [is] dead.”

²¹ And Joab says to Cushi, “Go, declare to the king that which you have seen”; and Cushi bows himself to Joab, and runs.

²² And Ahimaaz son of Zadok adds again and says to Joab, “And whatever it is, please let me run, I also, after the Cushite.” And Joab says, “Why [is] this—you are running, my son, and [there are] no tidings found from you?”

²³ “And whatever happens,” he said, “let me run.” And he says to him, “Run”; and Ahimaaz runs the way of the circuit, and passes by the Cushite.

²⁴ And David is sitting between the two gates, and the watchman goes to the roof of the gate, to the wall, and lifts up his eyes, and looks, and behold, a man running by himself.

²⁵ And the watchman calls, and declares [it] to the king, and the king says, “If [he is] by himself, tidings [are] in his mouth”; and he comes, coming on and drawing near.

²⁷ And the watchman says, “I see the running of the first as the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” And the king says, “This [is] a good man, and he comes with good tidings.”

²⁹ And the king says, “Peace to the youth—for Absalom?” And Ahimaaz says, “I saw the great multitude, at the sending away of the servant of the king, even your servant [by] Joab, and I have not known what [it is].”

³⁰ And the king says, “Turn around, station yourself here”; and he turns around and stands still.

³¹ And behold, the Cushite has come, and the Cushite says, “Let tidings be proclaimed, my lord, O king; for today YHWH has delivered you out of the hand of all those rising up against you.”

³² And the king says to the Cushite, “Peace to the youth—for Absalom?” And the Cushite says, “Let them be—as the youth—the enemies of my lord the king, and all who have risen up against you for evil.”

³³ And the king trembles, and goes up on the upper chamber of the gate, and weeps, and thus he has said in his going, “My son Absalom! My son! My son Absalom! Oh that I had died for you, Absalom, my son, my son!”

¹ And it is declared to Joab, “Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom”;

² and the salvation on that day becomes mourning to all the people, for the people have heard on that day, saying, “The king has been grieved for his son.”

³ And the people steals away, on that day, to go into the city, as the people steal away, who are ashamed, in their fleeing in battle;

⁴ and the king has covered his face, indeed, the king cries [with] a loud voice, “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

⁵ And Joab comes into the house to the king and says, “Today you have put to shame the faces of all your servants, those delivering your life today, and the life of your sons, and of your daughters, and the life of your wives, and the life of your concubines,

⁶ to love your enemies, and to hate those loving you, for today you have declared that you have no princes and servants, for today I have known that if Absalom [were] alive, and all of us dead today, that then it were right in your eyes.

⁷ And now, rise, go out and speak to the heart of your servants, for I have sworn by YHWH, that [if] you are not going out—there does not lodge a man with you tonight; and this [is] worse for you than all the evil that has come on you from your youth until now.”

⁹ And it comes to pass, all the people are contending through all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, indeed, he himself delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom,

¹⁰ and Absalom whom we anointed over us [is] dead in battle, and now, why are you silent—to bring back the king?”

¹¹ And King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to [the] elderly of Judah, saying, Why are you last to bring back the king to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, to his house;

¹² you [are] my brothers, you [are] my bone and my flesh, and why are you last to bring back the king?

¹³ And say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? Thus God does to me, and thus He adds, if you are not head of the host before me instead of Joab [for] all the days.”

¹⁴ And he inclines the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, and they send to the king, “Return, you and all your servants.”

¹⁵ And the king turns back, and comes to the Jordan, and Judah has come to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan,

¹⁶ and Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite, who [is] from Bahurim, hurries, and comes down with the men of Judah, to meet King David,

¹⁸ And the ferry-boat has passed over to carry over the household of the king, and to do that which [is] good in his eyes, and Shimei son of Gera has fallen before the king in his passing over into the Jordan,

¹⁹ and he says to the king, “Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me; neither remember that which your servant did perversely in the day that my lord the king went out from Jerusalem—for the king to set [it] to his heart;

²⁰ for your servant has known that I have sinned; and behold, I have come today, first of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.”

²¹ And Abishai son of Zeruiah answers and says, “Is Shimei not put to death for this—because he reviled the anointed of YHWH?”

²² And David says, “And what do I [have to do] with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that today you are for an adversary to me? Is any man put to death in Israel today? For have I not known that today I [am] king over Israel?”

²³ And the king says to Shimei, “You do not die”; and the king swears to him.

²⁴ And Mephibosheth son of Saul has come down to meet the king—and he did not prepare his feet, nor did he prepare his upper lip, indeed, he did not wash his garments, even from the day of the going away of the king, until the day that he came in peace—

²⁵ and it comes to pass, when he has come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king says to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

²⁶ And he says, “My lord, O king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said, I saddle the donkey for myself, and ride on it, and go with the king, for your servant [is] lame;

²⁷ and he utters slander against your servant to my lord the king, and my lord the king [is] as a messenger of God; and do that which is good in your eyes,

²⁹ And the king says to him, “Why do you speak anymore of your matters? I have said, You and Ziba—share the field.”

³⁰ And Mephibosheth says to the king, “Indeed, let him take the whole, after that my lord the king has come in peace to his house.”

³¹ And Barzillai the Gileadite has gone down from Rogelim, and passes over the Jordan with the king, to send him away over the Jordan;

³² and Barzillai [is] very aged, a son of eighty years, and he has sustained the king in his abiding in Mahanaim, for he [is] a very great man;

³³ and the king says to Barzillai, "Pass over with me, and I have sustained you in Jerusalem with me."

³⁴ And Barzillai says to the king, "How many [are] the days of the years of my life, that I go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

³⁵ I [am] a son of eighty years today; do I know between good and evil? Does your servant taste that which I am eating, and that which I drink? Do I listen anymore to the voice of male and female singers? And why is your servant for a burden to my lord the king anymore?

³⁶ As a little thing, your servant passes over the Jordan with the king, and why does the king repay me this repayment?

³⁷ Please let your servant turn back again, and I die in my own city, near the burying-place of my father and of my mother—and behold, your servant Chimham, let him pass over with my lord the king, and do to him that which [is] good in your eyes."

³⁸ And the king says, "Chimham goes over with me, and I do to him that which [is] good in your eyes, indeed, all that you fix on me I do to you."

³⁹ And all the people pass over the Jordan, and the king has passed over, and the king gives a kiss to Barzillai, and blesses him, and he turns back to his place.

⁴⁰ And the king passes over to Gilgal, and Chimham has passed over with him, and all the people of Judah, and they bring over the king, and also the half of the people of Israel.

⁴² And all the men of Judah answer against the men of Israel, "Because the king [is] near to us, and why [is] this [that] you are displeased about this matter? Have we eaten of the king's [substance] at all? Has he lifted up a gift to us?"

⁴³ And the men of Israel answer the men of Judah, and say, "We have ten parts in the king, and also more than you in David; and why have you lightly esteemed us, that our word has not been first to bring back our king?" And the word of the men of Judah is sharper than the word of the men of Israel.

¹ And there happened to be a man of worthlessness there, and his name [is] Sheba, son of Bichri, a Benjamite, and he blows with a horn and says, "We have no portion in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; each [goes] to his tents, O Israel."

² And every man of Israel goes up from after David, after Sheba son of Bichri, and the men of Judah have cleaved to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

³ And David comes to his house at Jerusalem. And the king takes the ten women-concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and puts them in a house of ward and sustains them, and he has not gone in to them, and they are shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

⁴ And the king says to Amasa, "Call the men of Judah for me [within] three days, and you, stand here,"

⁵ and Amasa goes to call Judah, and tarries beyond the appointed time that he had appointed him;

⁶ and David says to Abishai, "Now Sheba son of Bichri does evil to us more than Absalom; you, take the servants of your lord, and pursue after him, lest he has found fortified cities for himself, and delivered himself [from] our eye."

⁷ And the men of Joab go out after him, and the Cherethite, and the Pelethite, and all the mighty men, and they go out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba son of Bichri;

⁸ they [are] near the great stone that [is] in Gibeon, and Amasa has gone before them, and Joab [is] girded; he has put his long robe on him, and on it a girdle—a sword [is] fastened on his loins in its sheath; and he has gone out, and it falls.

⁹ And Joab says to Amasa, "Are you [in] peace, my brother?" And the right hand of Joab lays hold on the beard of Amasa to give a kiss to him;

¹⁰ and Amasa has not been watchful of the sword that [is] in the hand of Joab, and he strikes him with it to the fifth [rib], and sheds out his bowels to the earth, and he has not repeated [it] to him, and he dies; and Joab and his brother Abishai have pursued after Sheba son of Bichri.

¹¹ And a man has stood by him, of the young men of Joab, and says, "He who has delight in Joab, and he who [is] for David—after Joab!"

¹³ When he has been removed out of the highway, every man has passed on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba son of Bichri.

¹⁴ And he passes over through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-Maachah, and to all the Berites, and they are assembled, and also go in after him,

¹⁶ And a wise woman calls out of the city, "Hear! Hear! Please say to Joab, Come near here, and I speak to you."

¹⁷ And he comes near to her, and the woman says, "Are you Joab?" And he says, "I [am]." And she says to him, "Hear the words of your handmaid"; and he says, "I am hearing."

¹⁸ And she speaks, saying, "They spoke often in former times, saying, Let them diligently inquire at Abel, and so they finished.

¹⁹ I [am] of the peaceable, faithful ones of Israel; you are seeking to destroy a city and mother in Israel; why do you swallow up the inheritance of YHWH?"

²⁰ And Joab answers and says, "Far be it—far be it from me; I do not swallow up nor destroy.

²¹ The matter [is] not so; for a man of the hill-country of Ephraim—Sheba son of Bichri [is] his name—has lifted up his hand against the king, against David; give him up by himself, and I go away from the city.” And the woman says to Joab, “Behold, his head is cast to you over the wall.”

²² And the woman comes to all the people in her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri, and cast [it] to Joab, and he blows with a horn, and they are scattered from the city, each [goes] to his tents, and Joab has turned back to Jerusalem to the king.

²³ And Joab [is] over all the host of Israel, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada [is] over the Cherethite, and over the Pelethite,

²⁴ and Adoram [is] over the tribute, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud [is] the remembrancer,

²⁵ and Sheva [is] scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar [are] priests,

²⁶ and also, Ira the Jairite has been minister to David.

² And the king calls for the Gibeonites and says to them—as for the Gibeonites, they [are] not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorite, and the sons of Israel had sworn to them, and Saul seeks to strike them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah—

³ indeed, David says to the Gibeonites, “What do I do for you? And with what do I make atonement? And bless the inheritance of YHWH.”

⁴ And the Gibeonites say to him, “We have no silver and gold by Saul and by his house, and we have no man to put to death in Israel”; and he says, “What you are saying I do to you.”

⁵ And they say to the king, “The man who consumed us, and who devised against us—we have been destroyed from stationing ourselves in all the border of Israel—

⁶ let there be given to us seven men of his sons, and we have hanged them before YHWH, in the height of Saul, the chosen of YHWH.” And the king says, “I give”;

⁷ and the king has pity on Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, son of Saul, because of the oath of YHWH that [is] between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul;

⁸ and the king takes the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal daughter of Saul whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite,

¹¹ And it is declared to David that which Rizpah daughter of Aiah, concubine of Saul, has done,

¹² and David goes and takes the bones of Saul, and the bones of his son Jonathan, from the possessors of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the broad place of Beth-Shan, where the Philistines hanged them, in the day of the Philistines striking Saul in Gilboa;

¹³ and he brings up there the bones of Saul, and the bones of his son Jonathan, and they gather the bones of those hanged,

¹⁵ And again the Philistines have war with Israel, and David goes down, and his servants with him, and they fight with the Philistines; and David is weary,

¹⁶ and Ishbi-Benob, who [is] among the children of the giant—the weight of his spear [is] three hundred [shekels in] weight of bronze, and he is girded with a new one—speaks of striking David,

¹⁸ And it comes to pass afterward that the battle is again in Gob with the Philistines. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite has struck Saph, who [is] among the children of the giant.

²⁰ And the battle is again in Gath, and there is a man of [great] stature, and the fingers of his hands [are] six, and the toes of his feet [are] six—twenty-four in number, and he has also been born to the giant,

²¹ and he reproaches Israel, and Jonathan son of Shimeah, David’s brother, strikes him;

²² these four have been born to the giant in Gath, and they fall by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

22

¹ And David speaks the words of this song to YHWH in the day YHWH has delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul,

² and he says: “YHWH [is] my rock, || And my bulwark, and a deliverer to me,

³ My God [is] my rock—I take refuge in Him; My shield, and the horn of my salvation, || My high tower, and my refuge! My Savior, You save me from violence!

⁴ I call on YHWH, [who is worthy] to be praised: And I am saved from my enemies.

⁵ When the breakers of death surrounded me, || The streams of the worthless terrify me,

⁶ The cords of Sheol have surrounded me, || The snares of death have been before me.

7 In my adversity I call on YHWH, || And I call to my God, || And He hears my voice from His temple, || And my cry [is] in His ears,

8 And the earth shakes and trembles, || Foundations of the heavens are troubled, || And are shaken, for He has wrath!

9 Smoke has gone up by His nostrils, || And fire devours from His mouth; Brands have been kindled by it.

10 And He inclines the heavens and comes down, || And thick darkness [is] under His feet.

11 And He rides on a cherub and flies, || And is seen on the wings of the wind.

12 And He sets darkness around Him [for His] dwelling places, || Darkness of waters [and] thick clouds of the skies.

13 From the brightness before Him || Brands of fire were kindled!

14 YHWH thunders from the heavens, || And the Most High gives forth His voice.

15 And He sends forth arrows, and scatters them; Lightning, and troubles them;

16 And the streams of the sea are seen, || [The] foundations of the world are revealed, || By the rebuke of YHWH, || From the breath of the spirit of His anger.

17 He sends from above—He takes me, || He draws me out of many waters.

18 He delivers me from my strong enemy, || From those hating me, || For they were stronger than me.

19 They are before me in a day of my calamity, || And YHWH is my support,

20 And He brings me out to a large place, || He draws me out for He delighted in me.

21 YHWH repays me, || According to my righteousness, || According to the cleanness of my hands, He returns to me.

22 For I have kept the ways of YHWH, || And have not done wickedly against my God.

23 For all His judgments [are] before me, || As for His statutes, I do not turn from them.

24 And I am perfect before Him, || And I keep myself from my iniquity.

25 And YHWH returns to me, || According to my righteousness, || According to my cleanness before His eyes.

26 With the kind You show Yourself kind, || With the perfect man You show Yourself perfect,

27 With the pure You show Yourself pure, || And with the perverse You show Yourself a wrestler.

28 And You save the poor people, || But Your eyes on the high cause [them] to fall.

29 For You [are] my lamp, O YHWH, || And YHWH lightens my darkness.

30 For by You I run [against] a troop, || By my God I leap a wall.

31 God—His way [is] perfect, || The saying of YHWH is tried, || He [is] a shield to all those trusting in Him.

32 For who is God except YHWH? And who [is the] Rock except our God?

33 God—my bulwark, [my] strength, || And He makes my way perfect;

34 Making my feet like does, || And causes me to stand on my high places,

³⁵ Teaching my hands for battle, || And a bow of bronze was brought down by my arms,

³⁶ And You give the shield of Your salvation to me, || And Your lowliness makes me great.

³⁷ You enlarge my step under me, || And my ankles have not slipped.

³⁸ I pursue my enemies and destroy them, || And I do not turn until they are consumed.

³⁹ And I consume them, and strike them, || And they do not rise, and fall under my feet.

⁴⁰ And You gird me [with] strength for battle, || You cause my withstanders to bow under me.

⁴¹ And my enemies—You give to me the neck, || Those hating me—and I cut them off.

⁴² They look, and there is no savior; To YHWH, and He has not answered them.

⁴³ And I beat them as dust of the earth, || As mire of the streets I beat them small—I spread them out!

⁴⁴ And You deliver me || From the strivings of my people, || You place me for a head of nations; A people I have not known serve me.

⁴⁵ Sons of a stranger feign obedience to me, || At the hearing of the ear they listen to me.

⁴⁶ Sons of a stranger fade away, || And gird themselves by their close places.

⁴⁷ YHWH lives, and blessed [is] my Rock, || And exalted is my God—The Rock of my salvation.

⁴⁸ God—who is giving vengeance to me, || And bringing down peoples under me,

⁴⁹ And bringing me forth from my enemies, || Indeed, You raise me up above my withstanders. You deliver me from a man of violence.

⁵⁰ Therefore I confess You, O YHWH, among nations, || And I sing praise to Your Name.

⁵¹ Magnifying the salvations of His king, || And doing loving-kindness to His anointed, || To David, and to his seed—for all time!"

¹ And these [are] the last words of David: "A declaration of David son of Jesse, || And a declaration of the man raised up—Concerning the anointed of the God of Jacob, || And the sweetness of the songs of Israel:

² The Spirit of YHWH has spoken by me, || And His word [is] on my tongue.

³ He said—the God of Israel—to me, || He spoke—the Rock of Israel: He who is ruling over man [is] righteous, || He is ruling in the fear of God.

⁴ And he rises as the light of morning, || A morning sun [with] no clouds! By the shining, by the rain, || Tender grass of the earth!

⁵ For though my house [is] not so with God; So He made a perpetual covenant with me, || Arranged in all things, and kept; For all my salvation, and all desire, || For He has not caused [it] to spring up.

⁶ As for the worthless—All of them [are] driven away as a thorn, || For they are not taken away by hand;

⁷ And the man who comes against them || Is filled with iron and the staff of a spear, || And they are utterly burned with fire || In the cessation."

⁸ These [are] the names of the mighty ones whom David has: sitting in the seat [is] the Tachmonite, head of the captains—he [is] Adino, who hardened himself against eight hundred—wounded at one time.

¹⁰ he has arisen, and strikes among the Philistines until his hand has been weary, and his hand cleaves to the sword, and YHWH works a great salvation on that day, and the people turn back after him only to strip off.

¹¹ And after him [is] Shammah son of Agee the Hararite, and the Philistines are gathered into a company, and there is a portion of the field full of lentils there, and the people have fled from the presence of the Philistines,

¹² and he stations himself in the midst of the portion, and delivers it, and strikes the Philistines, and YHWH works a great salvation.

¹³ And three of the thirty heads go down and come to the harvest, to David, to the cave of Adullam, and the company of the Philistines are encamping in the Valley of Rephaim,

¹⁴ and David [is] then in a fortress, and the station of the Philistines [is] then in Beth-Lehem,

¹⁵ and David longs and says, “Who gives me a drink of the water of the well of Beth-Lehem, which [is] by the gate?”

¹⁶ And the three mighty ones cleave through the camp of the Philistines, and draw water out of the well of Beth-Lehem, which [is] by the gate, and take [it] up, and bring [it] to David; and he was not willing to drink it, and pours it out to YHWH,

¹⁸ And Abishai brother of Joab, son of Zeruah, he [is] head of three, and he is lifting up his spear against three hundred—wounded, and he has a name among three.

¹⁹ Is he not the honored of the three? And he becomes their head; and he has not come to the [first] three.

²² Benaiah son of Jehoiada has done these [things], and has a name among the three mighty ones.

²³ He is honored more than the thirty, but he did not come to the three; and David sets him over his guard.

²⁴ Asahel brother of Joab [is] of the thirty; Elhanan son of Dodo of Beth-Lehem,

²⁵ Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite,

²⁶ Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

²⁷ Abiezer the Annethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

²⁸ Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

- 29 Heleb son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin,
 30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,
 31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,
 32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,
 33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite,
 34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai, son of the Maachathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,
 35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,
 36 Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani the Gadite,
 37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, bearer of the weapons of Joab son of Zeruiah,
 38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
 39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

24

1 And the anger of YHWH adds to burn against Israel, and [an adversary] moves David about them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

2 And the king says to Joab, head of the host that [is] with him, "Now go to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, and inspect the people; then I have known the number of the people."

3 And Joab says to the king, "Indeed, your God YHWH adds to the people, as they are, one hundred times, and the eyes of my lord the king are seeing; and my lord the king, why is he desirous of this thing?"

4 And the word of the king is severe toward Joab, and against the heads of the force, and Joab goes out, and the heads of the force, [from] before the king to inspect the people, even Israel;

5 and they pass over the Jordan, and encamp in Aroer, on the right of the city that [is] in the midst of the Brook of Gad, and to Jazer,

6 and they come to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-Hodshi, and they come to Dan-Jaan, and around to Sidon,

7 and they come to the fortress of Tyre, and all the cities of the Hivite, and of the Canaanite, and go out to the south of Judah, to Beer-Sheba.

8 And they go to and fro through all the land, and come in to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days,

9 and Joab gives the account of the inspection of the people to the king, and Israel is eight hundred thousand men of valor, drawing sword, and the men of Judah five hundred thousand men.

10 And the heart of David strikes him, after that he has numbered the people, and David says to YHWH, "I have greatly sinned in that which I have done, and now, O YHWH, please cause the iniquity of Your servant to pass away, for I have acted very foolishly."

11 And David rises in the morning, and the word of YHWH has been to Gad the prophet, seer of David, saying,

12 "Go, and you have spoken to David, Thus said YHWH: I am lifting up three [choices] for you, choose one of them, and I do [it] to you."

13 And Gad comes to David, and declares [it] to him, and says to him, "Does seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or are you fleeing before your adversary [for] three months—and he is pursuing you? Or is there pestilence [for] three days in your land? Now, know and see what word I take back to Him sending me.”

¹⁴ And David says to Gad, “I have great distress; please let us fall into the hand of YHWH, for His mercies [are] many, but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

¹⁵ And YHWH gives a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed, and there dies of the people, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, seventy thousand men,

¹⁷ And David speaks to YHWH when he sees the messenger who is striking among the people, and says, “Behold, I have sinned, indeed, I have done perversely; and these—the flock—what have they done? Please let Your hand be on me and on the house of my father.”

¹⁸ And Gad comes to David on that day and says to him, “Go up, raise an altar to YHWH in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite”;

¹⁹ and David goes up, according to the word of Gad, as YHWH commanded.

²⁰ And Araunah looks, and sees the king and his servants passing over to him, and Araunah goes out and bows himself to the king [with] his face to the earth.

²² And Araunah says to David, “Let my lord the king take [it] and cause that which is good in his eyes to ascend; see, [here are] the oxen for a burnt-offering, and the threshing instruments, and the instruments of the oxen, for wood”;

²³ Araunah has given the whole [as] a king to a king; and Araunah says to the king, “Your God YHWH accepts you.”

²⁵ and David builds an altar to YHWH there, and causes burnt-offerings and peace-offerings to ascend, and YHWH accepts the plea for the land, and the plague is restrained from Israel.

First Kings

¹ And King David [is] old, entering into days, and they cover him with garments, and he has no heat,

² and his servants say to him, "Let them seek [for] a young woman, a virgin, for my lord the king, and she has stood before the king, and is a companion to him, and has lain in your bosom, and my lord the king has heat."

³ And they seek [for] a beautiful young woman in all the border of Israel, and find Abishag the Shunammite, and bring her to the king,

⁴ and the young woman [is] very, very beautiful, and she is a companion to the king, and serves him, and the king has not known her.

⁵ And Adonijah son of Haggith is lifting himself up, saying, "I reign"; and he prepares for himself a chariot and horsemen, and fifty men running before him,

⁶ and his father has not grieved him [all] his days, saying, "Why have you done this?" And he also [is] of a very good form, and [his mother] bore him after Absalom.

⁷ And his words are with Joab son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest, and they help after Adonijah;

⁸ and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty ones whom David has, have not been with Adonijah.

¹⁰ and he has not called Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty ones, and his brother Solomon.

¹¹ And Nathan speaks to Bathsheba, mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has reigned, and our lord David has not known?"

¹² And now, come, please let me counsel you, and deliver your life and the life of your son Solomon;

¹³ go and enter in to King David, and you have said to him: Have you not, my lord, O king, sworn to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon reigns after me, and he sits on my throne? And why has Adonijah reigned?

¹⁴ Behold, you are yet speaking there with the king, and I come in after you, and have completed your words."

¹⁵ And Bathsheba comes in to the king, [into] the inner chamber, and the king [is] very aged, and Abishag the Shunammite is serving the king;

¹⁶ and Bathsheba bows and pays respect to the king, and the king says, "What do you [want]?"

¹⁷ And she says to him, "My lord, you have sworn by your God YHWH to your handmaid, [saying], Surely your son Solomon reigns after me, and he sits on my throne;

¹⁸ and now, behold, Adonijah has reigned, and now, my lord, O king, you have not known;

¹⁹ and he sacrifices ox, and fatling, and sheep in abundance, and calls for all the sons of the king, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab head of the host—and he has not called for your servant Solomon.

²⁰ And you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel [are] on you, to declare to them who sit on the throne of my lord the king after him;

²¹ and it has been, when my lord the king lies with his fathers, that I have been, I and my son Solomon—[reckoned] sinners.”

²² And behold, she is yet speaking with the king, and Nathan the prophet has come in;

²³ and they declare to the king, saying, “Behold, Nathan the prophet”; and he comes in before the king, and bows himself to the king, on his face to the earth.

²⁴ And Nathan says, “My lord, O king, you have said, Adonijah reigns after me, and he sits on my throne;

²⁵ for he has gone down today, and sacrifices ox, and fatling, and sheep, in abundance, and calls for all the sons of the king, and for the heads of the host, and for Abiathar the priest, and behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and they say, Let King Adonijah live!

²⁶ But he has not called for me, your servant, and for Zadok the priest, and for Benaiah, son of Jehoiada, and for your servant Solomon;

²⁷ if this thing has been from my lord the king, then you have not caused your servant to know who sits on the throne of my lord the king after him.”

²⁸ And King David answers and says, “Call for Bathsheba for me”; and she comes in before the king, and stands before the king.

²⁹ And the king swears and says, “YHWH lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity;

³⁰ surely as I swore to you by YHWH, God of Israel, saying, Surely your son Solomon reigns after me, and he sits on my throne in my stead; surely so I do this day.”

³¹ And Bathsheba bows—face to the earth—and pays respect to the king, and says, “Let my lord, King David, live for all time.”

³³ And the king says to them, “Take the servants of your lord with you, and you have caused my son Solomon to ride on my own mule, and caused him to go down to Gihon,

³⁴ and Zadok the priest has anointed him there—and Nathan the prophet—for king over Israel, and you have blown with a horn and said, Let King Solomon live;

³⁵ and you have come up after him, and he has come in and has sat on my throne, and he reigns in my stead, and I have appointed him to be leader over Israel, and over Judah.”

³⁶ And Benaiah son of Jehoiada answers the king and says, “Amen! So does YHWH, God of my lord the king, say;

³⁷ as YHWH has been with my lord the king, so is He with Solomon, and makes his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.”

³⁸ And Zadok the priest goes down, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethite, and the Pelethite, and they cause Solomon to ride on the mule of King David, and cause him to go to Gihon,

³⁹ and Zadok the priest takes the horn of oil out of the tent, and anoints Solomon, and they blow with a horn, and all the people say, "Let King Solomon live."

⁴⁰ And all the people come up after him, and the people are piping with pipes, and rejoicing [with] great joy, and the earth splits with their voice.

⁴¹ And Adonijah hears, and all those called who [are] with him, and they have finished to eat, and Joab hears the noise of the horn and says, "Why [is] the noise of the city roaring?"

⁴² He is yet speaking, and behold, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest has come in, and Adonijah says, "Come in, for you [are] a man of valor, and you bear good tidings."

⁴³ And Jonathan answers and says to Adonijah, "Truly our lord King David has caused Solomon to reign,

⁴⁴ and the king sends with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethite, and the Pelethite, and they cause him to ride on the king's mule,

⁴⁵ and they anoint him—Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet—for king in Gihon, and have come up there rejoicing, and the city is moved; it [is] the noise that you have heard.

⁴⁶ And also Solomon has sat on the throne of the kingdom,

⁴⁷ and also the servants of the king have come into bless our lord King David, saying, Your God makes the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne; and the king bows himself on the bed,

⁴⁸ and also thus the king has said, Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, who has given [one] sitting on my throne today, and my eyes are seeing."

⁴⁹ And they tremble, and rise—all those called who [are] for Adonijah—and go, each on his way;

⁵⁰ and Adonijah fears because of Solomon, and rises, and goes, and lays hold on the horns of the altar.

⁵² And Solomon says, "If he becomes a virtuous man—there does not fall [even one] hair of his to the earth, and if evil is found in him—then he has died."

⁵³ And King Solomon sends, and they bring him down from off the altar, and he comes in and bows himself to King Solomon, and Solomon says to him, "Go to your house."

¹ And the days of David to die draw near, and he charges his son Solomon, saying,

² "I am going in the way of all the earth, and you have been strong, and become a man,

³ and you have kept the charge of your God YHWH, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commands, and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, so that you do wisely [in] all that you do, and wherever you turn,

⁵ And also, you have known that which he did to me—Joab son of Zeruah—that which he did to two heads of the hosts of Israel, to Abner son of Ner, and to Amasa son of Jether—that he slays them, and makes the blood of war in peace, and puts the blood of war in his girdle, that [is] on his loins, and in his sandals that [are] on his feet;

⁷ And you do kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and they have been among those eating at your table, for so they drew near to me in my fleeing from the face of your brother Absalom.

⁸ And behold, Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim, [is] with you, and he reviled me—a grievous reviling—in the day of my going to Mahanaim; and he has come down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swear to him by YHWH, saying, I do not put you to death by the sword;

¹⁰ And David lies down with his fathers, and is buried in the City of David,

¹¹ and the days that David has reigned over Israel [are] forty years; he has reigned seven years in Hebron, and he has reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

¹² And Solomon has sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom is established greatly,

¹³ and Adonijah son of Haggith comes to Bathsheba, mother of Solomon, and she says, “Is your coming peace?” And he says, “Peace.”

¹⁴ And he says, “I have a word for you,” and she says, “Speak.”

¹⁵ And he says, “You have known that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their faces toward me for reigning, and the kingdom is turned around, and is my brother’s, for it was his from YHWH;

¹⁶ and now, I am asking one petition of you—do not turn back my face”; and she says to him, “Speak.”

¹⁷ And he says, “Please speak to Solomon the king, for he does not turn back your face, and he gives Abishag the Shunammite to me for a wife.”

¹⁸ And Bathsheba says, “Good; I speak to the king for you.”

²⁰ And she says, “I ask one small petition of you, do not turn back my face”; and the king says to her, “Ask, my mother, for I do not turn back your face.”

²¹ And she says, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah for a wife.”

²² And King Solomon answers and says to his mother, “And why are you asking [for] Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Also ask [for] the kingdom for him—for he [is] my elder brother—even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab son of Zeruiah.”

²³ And King Solomon swears by YHWH, saying, “Thus God does to me, and thus He adds—surely Adonijah has spoken this word against his [own] soul;

²⁴ and now, YHWH lives, who has established me, and causes me to sit on the throne of my father David, and who has made a house for me as He spoke—surely Adonijah is put to death today.”

²⁵ And King Solomon sends by the hand of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he falls on him, and he dies.

²⁶ And the king said to Abiathar the priest, “Go to Anathoth, to your fields; for you [are] a man of death, but I do not put you to death in this day, because you have carried the Ark of Lord YHWH before my father David, and because you were afflicted in all that my father was afflicted in.”

²⁷ And Solomon casts out Abiathar from being priest of YHWH, to fulfill the word of YHWH which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

²⁸ And the report has come to Joab—for Joab has turned aside after Adonijah, though he did not turn aside after Absalom—and Joab flees to the tent of YHWH, and lays hold on the horns of the altar.

²⁹ And it is declared to King Solomon that Joab has fled to the tent of YHWH, and behold, [is] near the altar; and Solomon sends Benaiah son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, fall on him.”

³⁰ And Benaiah comes into the tent of YHWH and says to him, “Thus said the king: Come out”; and he says, “No, but I die here.” And Benaiah brings back word [to] the king, saying, “Thus spoke Joab, indeed, thus he answered me.”

³¹ And the king says to him, “Do as he has spoken, and fall on him, and you have buried him, and turned aside the causeless blood which Joab shed from off me, and from off the house of my father;

³² and YHWH has turned back his blood on his own head, [on him] who has fallen on two men more righteous and better than he, and slays them with the sword—and my father David did not know—Abner son of Ner, head of the host of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, head of the host of Judah;

³⁴ And Benaiah son of Jehoiada goes up and falls on him, and puts him to death, and he is buried in his own house in the wilderness,

³⁵ and the king puts Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the host in his stead, and the king has put Zadok the priest in the stead of Abiathar.

³⁶ And the king sends and calls for Shimei, and says to him, “Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem, and you have dwelt there, and do not go out [from] there anywhere;

³⁷ and it has been, in the day of your going out, and you have passed over the Brook of Kidron, you certainly know that you surely die—your blood is on your head.”

³⁸ And Shimei says to the king, “The word [is] good; as my lord the king has spoken so your servant does”; and Shimei dwells in Jerusalem many days.

⁴⁰ and Shimei rises, and saddles his donkey, and goes to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants, and Shimei goes and brings his servants from Gath.

⁴¹ And it is declared to Solomon that Shimei has gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and returns,

⁴² and the king sends and calls for Shimei, and says to him, "Have I not caused you to swear by YHWH—and I testify against you, saying, In the day of your going out, and you have gone anywhere, you certainly know that you surely die; and you say to me, The word I have heard [is] good?"

⁴³ And why have you not kept the oath of YHWH, and the charge that I charged on you?"

⁴⁴ And the king says to Shimei, "You have known all the evil that your heart has known, which you did to my father David, and YHWH has turned back your evil on your head,

⁴⁵ and King Solomon [is] blessed, and the throne of David is established before YHWH for all time."

¹ And Solomon joins in marriage with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and takes the daughter of Pharaoh, and brings her to the City of David, until he completes to build his own house, and the house of YHWH, and the wall of Jerusalem all around.

² Only, the people are sacrificing in high places, for there has not been built a house for the Name of YHWH until those days.

³ And Solomon loves YHWH, to walk in the statutes of his father David—only, he is sacrificing and making incense in high places—

⁴ and the king goes to Gibeon, to sacrifice there, for it [is] the great high place; Solomon causes one thousand burnt-offerings to ascend on that altar.

⁵ YHWH has appeared to Solomon in Gibeon, in a dream of the night, and God says, "Ask—what do I give to you?"

⁶ And Solomon says, "You have done with Your servant, my father David, great kindness, as he walked before You in truth and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You, and You keep this great kindness for him, and give to him a son sitting on his throne, as [at] this day.

⁷ And now, O YHWH my God, You have caused Your servant to reign instead of my father David; and I [am] a little child, I do not know [how] to go out and to come in;

⁸ and Your servant [is] in the midst of your people, whom You have chosen, a people numerous, that is not numbered nor counted for multitude,

⁹ and You have given an understanding heart to Your servant, to judge Your people, to discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

¹⁰ And the thing is good in the eyes of the Lord, that Solomon has asked this thing,

11 and God says to him, "Because that you have asked for this thing, and have not asked for many days for yourself, nor asked for riches for yourself, nor asked for the life of your enemies, and have asked for discernment for yourself to understand judgment,

12 behold, I have done according to your words; behold, I have given a wise and understanding heart to you, that there has not been [one] like you before you, and after you there does not arise [one] like you;

13 and also, that which you have not asked for I have given to you, both riches and honor, that there has not been a man like you among the kings [for] all your days;

14 and if you walk in My ways to keep My statutes, and My commands, as your father David walked, then I have prolonged your days."

15 And Solomon awakens, and behold, [it was] a dream; and he comes to Jerusalem, and stands before the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and causes burnt-offerings to ascend, and makes peace-offerings, and he makes a banquet for all his servants.

16 Then two women, harlots, come to the king, and they stand before him,

17 and the first woman says, "O my lord, this woman and I are dwelling in one house, and I bring forth with her, in the house;

18 and it comes to pass on the third day of my bringing forth, that this woman also brings forth, and we [are] together, there is no stranger with us in the house, except the two of us, in the house.

19 And the son of this woman dies at night, because she has lain on him,

20 and she rises in the middle of the night, and takes my son from beside me—and your handmaid is asleep—and lays him in her bosom, and she has laid her dead son in my bosom;

21 and I rise in the morning to suckle my son, and behold, [he is] dead; and I consider in the morning concerning it, and behold, it was not my son whom I bore."

22 And the other woman says, "No, but my son [is] the living, and your son the dead"; and this [one] says, "No, but your son [is] the dead, and my son the living." And they speak before the king.

23 And the king says, "This [one] says, This [is] my son, the living, and your son [is] the dead; and that [one] says, No, but your son [is] the dead, and my son the living."

24 And the king says, "Take a sword for me"; and they bring the sword before the king,

25 and the king says, "Cut the living child into two, and give half to one, and half to the other."

26 And the woman whose son [is] the living one says to the king (for her bowels yearned over her son), indeed, she says, "O my lord, give the living child to her, and do not put him to death at all"; and this [one] says, "Let him be neither mine or yours—cut [him]."

27 And the king answers and says, "Give the living child to her [who wants him], and do not put him to death at all; she [is] his mother."

28 And all [in] Israel hear of the judgment that the king has judged, and fear because of the king, for they have seen that the wisdom of God [is] in his heart to do judgment.

² and these [are] the heads whom he has: Azariah son of Zadok [is] the priest;

³ Elihoreph and Ahiah sons of Shisha [are] scribes; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud [is] remembrancer;

⁴ and Benaiah son of Jehoiada [is] over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar [are] priests;

⁵ and Azariah son of Nathan [is] over the officers; and Zabud son of Nathan [is] minister, friend of the king;

⁶ and Ahishar [is] over the household, and Adoniram son of Abda [is] over the tribute.

⁷ And Solomon has twelve officers over all Israel, and they have sustained the king and his household—a month in the year is on each one for sustenance;

⁸ and these [are] their names: Ben-Hur in the hill-country of Ephraim;

⁹ Ben-Dekar in Makaz, and Shaalbim, and Beth-Shemesh, and Elon-Beth-Hanan;

¹⁰ Ben-Hesed, in Aruboth, has Sochoh and all the land of Hopher;

¹¹ Ben-Abinadab [has] all the elevation of Dor; Taphath daughter of Solomon became his wife;

¹² Baana Ben-Ahilud [has] Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-Shean, which [is] by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-Shean to Abel-Meholah, to beyond Jokneam;

¹³ Ben-Geber, in Ramoth-Gilead, has the small towns of Jair son of Manasseh, which [are] in Gilead; he has a portion of Argob that [is] in Bashan—sixty great cities [with] wall and bronze bar;

¹⁴ Ahinadab son of Iddo [has] Mahanaim;

¹⁵ Ahimaaz [is] in Naphtali; he also has taken Basemath daughter of Solomon for a wife;

¹⁶ Baanah Ben-Hushai [is] in Asher, and in Aloth;

¹⁷ Jehoshaphat Ben-Paruah [is] in Issachar;

¹⁸ Shimei Ben-Elah [is] in Benjamin;

¹⁹ Geber Ben-Uri [is] in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorite, and of Og king of Bashan: and [he is] the one officer who [is] in the land.

²⁰ Judah and Israel [are] many, as the sand that [is] by the sea for multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

²² And the provision of Solomon for one day is thirty cors of flour, and sixty cors of meal,

²³ ten fat oxen, and twenty feeding oxen, and one hundred sheep, apart from deer, and roe, and fallow-deer, and fatted beasts of the stalls,

²⁴ for he is ruling over all beyond the river, from Tiphseh and to Gaza, over all the kings beyond the River, and he has peace from all his surrounding servants.

²⁵ And Judah dwells—and Israel—in confidence, each under his vine, and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, all the days of Solomon.

²⁶ And Solomon has forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

²⁷ And these officers have sustained King Solomon and everyone drawing near to the table of King Solomon, each [in] his month; they let nothing be lacking.

²⁸ And the barley and the straw, for horses and for dromedaries, they bring to the place where they are, each according to his ordinance.

²⁹ And God gives very much wisdom and understanding to Solomon, and breadth of heart, as the sand that [is] on the edge of the sea;

³⁰ and the wisdom of Solomon is greater than the wisdom of any of the sons of the east, and [greater] than all the wisdom of Egypt;

³² And he speaks three thousand allegories, and his songs [are] one thousand and five;

³⁴ and there come out [those] of all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth who have heard of his wisdom.

² and Solomon sends to Hiram, saying,

³ “You have known my father David, that he has not been able to build a house for the Name of his God YHWH, because of the wars that have been all around him, until YHWH’s putting them under the soles of his feet.

⁴ And now, my God YHWH has given rest to me all around, there is no adversary nor evil occurrence,

⁵ and behold, I am saying to build a house for the Name of my God YHWH, as YHWH spoke to my father David, saying, Your son whom I appoint in your stead on your throne, he builds the house for My Name.

⁶ And now, command, and they cut down cedars for me out of Lebanon, and my servants are with your servants, and I give the hire of your servants to you according to all that you say, for you have known that there is not a man among us acquainted with cutting wood, like the Sidonians.”

⁷ And it comes to pass at Hiram’s hearing the words of Solomon, that he rejoices exceedingly and says, “Blessed [is] YHWH today, who has given to David a wise son over this numerous people.”

⁸ And Hiram sends to Solomon, saying, “I have heard that which you have sent to me, I do all your desire concerning cedar-wood and fir-wood;

⁹ my servants bring [them] down from Lebanon to the sea, and I make them floats in the sea to the place that you send to me, and I have spread them out there; and you take [them] up, and you execute my desire, to give the food [for] my house.”

¹⁰ And Hiram is giving cedar-trees and fir-trees to Solomon—all his desire,

¹¹ and Solomon has given twenty thousand cors of wheat to Hiram, [the] food for his house, and twenty cors of beaten oil; thus Solomon gives to Hiram year by year.

¹² And YHWH has given wisdom to Solomon as He spoke to him, and there is peace between Hiram and Solomon, and both of them make a covenant.

¹³ And King Solomon lifts up a tribute out of all Israel, and the tribute is thirty thousand men,

¹⁵ And King Solomon has seventy thousand bearing burdens, and eighty thousand hewing in the mountain,

¹⁶ apart from the three thousand and three hundred heads of the officers of Solomon who [are] over the work—those ruling over the people who are working in the business.

¹⁷ And the king commands, and they bring great stones, precious stones, [and] hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the house;

¹⁸ and the builders of Solomon, and the builders of Hiram, and the Giblites hew [them], and prepare the wood and the stones to build the house.

² As for the house that King Solomon has built for YHWH, its length [is] sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty, and its height thirty cubits.

⁴ and he makes frames of narrowing windows for the house.

⁵ And he builds a couch against the wall of the house all around, [even] the walls of the house all around, of the temple and of the oracle, and makes sides all around.

⁷ And the house, in its being built, has been built of perfect stone [that was] brought; and hammer and the axe—any instrument of iron—was not heard in the house in its being built.

⁸ The opening of the middle side [is] at the right shoulder of the house, and with windings they go up on the middle one, and from the middle one to the third.

⁹ And he builds the house, and completes it, and covers the house [with] beams and rows of cedars.

¹⁰ And he builds the couch against all the house, its breadth [is] five cubits, and it takes hold of the house by cedar-wood.

¹¹ And the word of YHWH is to Solomon, saying,

¹² “This house that you are building—if you walk in My statutes, and do My judgments, indeed, have done all My commands, to walk in them, then I have established My word with you, which I spoke to your father David,

¹³ and have dwelt in the midst of the sons of Israel, and do not forsake My people Israel.”

¹⁴ And Solomon builds the house and completes it;

¹⁶ And he builds the twenty cubits on the sides of the house with ribs of cedar, from the floor to the walls; and he builds for it within, for the oracle, for the Holy of Holies.

¹⁷ And [this area of] the house was forty by the cubit; it [is the area of] the temple before My face.

¹⁸ And the cedar for the house within [is] carvings of knobs and openings of flowers; the whole [is] cedar; there is not a stone seen.

¹⁹ And he has prepared the oracle in the midst of the house within, to put the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH there.

²¹ And Solomon overlays the house within with gold refined, and causes [it] to pass over in chains of gold before the oracle, and overlays it with gold.

²² And he has overlaid the whole of the house with gold, until the completion of all the house; and the whole of the altar that the oracle has, he has overlaid with gold.

²³ And he makes two cherubim of the oil-tree within the oracle; their height [is] ten cubits;

²⁴ and the first wing of the cherub [is] five cubits, and the second wing of the cherub five cubits—ten cubits from the ends of his wings even to the ends of his wings;

²⁵ and the second cherub [is] ten by the cubit; one measure and one form [are] of the two cherubim,

²⁶ the height of the first cherub [is] ten by the cubit, and so [is] the second cherub;

²⁷ and he sets the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and they spread out the wings of the cherubim, and a wing of the first comes against the wall, and a wing of the second cherub is coming against the second wall, and their wings [stretched] into the midst of the house, coming wing against wing;

²⁸ and he overlays the cherubim with gold,

²⁹ and he has carved all around the walls of the house with engravings of carvings, cherubim, and palm trees, and openings of flowers, inside and outside.

³⁰ And he has overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inside and outside;

³¹ as for the opening of the oracle, he made doors of the oil-tree; the lintel [and] doorposts [are] a fifth [of the wall].

³² And the two doors [are] of the oil-tree, and he has carved on them carvings of cherubim, and palm-trees, and openings of flowers, and overlaid with gold, and he causes the gold to go down on the cherubim and on the palm-trees.

³³ And so he has made for the opening of the temple, doorposts of the oil-tree, from the fourth [of the wall].

³⁴ And the two doors [are] of fir-tree, the two sides of the first door are revolving, and the two hangings of the second door are revolving.

³⁵ And he has carved cherubim, and palms, and openings of flowers, and overlaid the carved work with straightened gold.

³⁶ And he builds the inner court, three rows of hewn work, and a row of beams of cedar.

³⁷ In the fourth year the house of YHWH has been founded, in the month of Ziv, ³⁸ and in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul (the eighth month), the house has been finished in all its matters, and in all its ordinances, and he builds it [in] seven years.

¹ And Solomon has built his own house [in] thirteen years, and he finishes all his house.

² And he builds the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length [is] one hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar-beams on the pillars;

³ and [it is] covered with cedar above, on the sides that [are] on the forty-five pillars, fifteen in the row.

⁴ And frames [are] in three rows, and window [is] toward window three times.

⁵ And all the openings and the doorposts [are of] square frame; and window [is] toward window three times.

⁶ And he has made the porch of the pillars; its length fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits, and the porch [is] before them, and pillars and a thick place [are] before them.

⁷ And the porch of the throne where he judges—the porch of judgment—he has made, and [it is] covered with cedar from the floor to the floor.

⁸ As for his house where he dwells, the other court [is] within the porch—it has been as this work; and he makes a house for the daughter of Pharaoh—whom Solomon has taken—like this porch.

¹⁰ And the foundation [is] of precious stones, great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits;

¹¹ and precious stones [are] above, according to the measures of hewn work, and cedar;

¹² and the great court around [is] three rows of hewn work, and a row of cedar-beams, even for the inner court of the house of YHWH, and for the porch of the house.

¹³ And King Solomon sends and takes Hiram out of Tyre—

¹⁴ he [is the] son of a woman, a widow, of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father [is] a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze, and he is filled with the wisdom and the understanding, and the knowledge to do all work in bronze—and he comes to King Solomon, and does all his work.

¹⁵ And he forms the two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits [is] the height of the first pillar, and a cord of twelve cubits goes around the second pillar.

¹⁶ And he has made two chapters to put on the tops of the pillars, cast in bronze; five cubits the height of the first capital, and five cubits the height of the second capital.

¹⁷ Nets of network, wreaths of chain-work [are] for the chapters that [are] on the top of the pillars, seven for the first capital, and seven for the second capital.

¹⁸ And he makes the pillars, and two rows around on the one network, to cover the chapters that [are] on the top, with the pomegranates, and so he has made for the second capital.

¹⁹ And the chapters that [are] on the top of the pillars [are] of lily-work in the porch, four cubits;

²² and on the top of the pillars [is] lily-work; and the work of the pillars [is] completed.

²⁴ and knobs beneath its brim around are going around it, ten by the cubit, going around the sea; the knobs [are] in two rows, cast in its being cast.

²⁶ And its thickness [is] a handbreadth, and its edge [is] as the work of the edge of a cup, [as] flowers of lilies; it contains two thousand baths.

²⁸ And this [is] the work of the base: they have borders, and the borders [are] between the joinings;

²⁹ and on the borders that [are] between the joinings [are] lions, oxen, and cherubim, and on the joinings a base above, and beneath the lions and the oxen [are] additions—sloping work.

³² And the four wheels [are] under the borders, and the spokes of the wheels [are] in the base, and the height of the one wheel [is] a cubit and half a cubit.

³³ And the work of the wheels [is] as the work of the wheel of a chariot, their spokes, and their axles, and their felloes, and their naves; the whole

[is] molten.

³⁴ And four shoulders [are] for the four corners of the one base; its shoulders [are] out of the base.

³⁵ And in the top of the base [is] the half of a cubit in the height all around; and on the top of the base its spokes and its borders [are] of the same.

³⁷ Thus he has made the ten bases; they all have one casting, one measure, one form.

⁴⁰ And Hiram makes the lavers, and the shovels, and the bowls; and Hiram completes to do all the work that he made for King Solomon, [for] the house of YHWH:

⁴¹ two pillars, and bowls of the chapiters that [are] on the top of the two pillars, and the two nets to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that [are] on the top of the pillars;

⁴² and the four hundred pomegranates for the two nets (two rows of pomegranates for the one net to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that [are] on the front of the pillars);

⁴³ and the ten bases, and the ten lavers on the bases;

⁴⁴ and the one sea, the twelve oxen under the sea,

⁴⁵ and the pots, and the shovels, and the bowls; and all these vessels, that Hiram has made for King Solomon [for] the house of YHWH, [are] of polished bronze.

⁴⁶ The king has cast them in the circuit of the Jordan, in the thick soil of the ground, between Succoth and Zarthan.

⁴⁷ And Solomon places the whole of the vessels; because of the very great abundance, the weight of the bronze has not been searched out.

⁴⁸ And Solomon makes all the vessels that [are] in the house of YHWH: the altar of gold, and the table of gold (on which [is] the Bread of the Presentation),

⁴⁹ and the lampstands, five on the right, and five on the left, before the oracle, of refined gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold,

⁵⁰ and the basins, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the censers, of refined gold, and the hinges for the doors of the inner-house, for the Holy of Holies, for the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.

⁵¹ And it is complete—all the work that King Solomon has made [for] the house of YHWH, and Solomon brings in the sanctified things of his father David; he has put the silver, and the gold, and the vessels in the treasuries of the house of YHWH.

² and all the men of Israel are assembled to King Solomon, in the month of Ethanim, in the festival (the seventh month).

³ And all [the] elderly of Israel come in, and the priests lift up the Ark,

⁴ and bring up the Ark of YHWH, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that [are] in the tent, indeed, the priests and the Levites bring them up.

⁵ And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who are assembled to him [are] with him before the Ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that are not counted nor numbered for multitude.

⁷ for the cherubim are spreading forth two wings to the place of the Ark, and the cherubim cover over the Ark, and over its poles from above;

⁹ There is nothing in the Ark, only the two tablets of stone which Moses put there in Horeb when YHWH covenanted with the sons of Israel in their going out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ And it comes to pass, in the going out of the priests from the holy [place], that the cloud has filled the house of YHWH,

¹¹ and the priests have not been able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of YHWH has filled the house of YHWH.

¹² Then Solomon said, "YHWH has said [He is] to dwell in thick darkness;

¹³ I have surely built a house of habitation for You; a fixed place for Your abiding for all ages."

¹⁴ And the king turns his face around, and blesses the whole assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel is standing.

¹⁵ And he says, "Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, who spoke by His mouth with my father David, and by His hand has fulfilled [it], saying,

¹⁶ From the day that I brought out My people, even Israel, from Egypt, I have not fixed on a city out of all the tribes of Israel, to build a house for My Name being there; and I fix on David to be over My people Israel.

¹⁷ And it is with the heart of my father David to build a house for the Name of YHWH, God of Israel,

¹⁸ and YHWH says to my father David, Because that it has been with your heart to build a house for My Name, you have done well that it has been with your heart;

¹⁹ only, you do not build the house, but your son who is coming out from your loins, he builds the house for My Name.

²⁰ And YHWH establishes His word which He spoke, and I am risen up instead of my father David, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as YHWH spoke, and build the house for the Name of YHWH, God of Israel,

²¹ and I set a place for the Ark there, where the covenant of YHWH [is], which He made with our fathers in His bringing them out from the land of Egypt.”

²² And Solomon stands before the altar of YHWH, in front of all the assembly of Israel, and spreads his hands toward the heavens,

²³ and says, “YHWH, God of Israel, there is not a God like You, in the heavens above and on the earth below, keeping the covenant and the kindness for Your servants, those walking before You with all their heart,

²⁴ which You have kept for Your servant, my father David, that which You spoke to him; indeed, You speak with Your mouth, and with Your hand have fulfilled [it], as [at] this day.

²⁵ And now, YHWH, God of Israel, keep for Your servant, my father David, that which You spoke to him, saying, A man of yours is never cut off from before My face, sitting on the throne of Israel—only, if your sons watch their way, to walk before Me as you have walked before Me.

²⁶ And now, O God of Israel, please let Your word be established which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David.

²⁷ But is it true [that] God dwells on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built!

²⁸ Then You have turned to the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O YHWH my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today,

²⁹ for Your eyes being open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, My Name is there; to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.

³⁰ Then You have listened to the supplication of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, which they pray toward this place; indeed, You listen in the place of Your dwelling, in the heavens—and You have listened, and have forgiven,

³¹ that which a man sins against his neighbor, and he has lifted up an oath on him to cause him to swear, and the oath has come in before Your altar in this house,

³³ In Your people Israel being struck before an enemy, because they sin against You, and they have turned back to You, and have confessed Your Name, and prayed, and made supplication to You in this house,

³⁴ then you hear in the heavens, and have forgiven the sin of Your people Israel, and brought them back to the ground that You gave to their fathers.

³⁵ In the heavens being restrained, and there is no rain, because they sin against You, and they have prayed toward this place, and confessed Your Name, and turn back from their sin, for You afflict them,

³⁶ then You hear in the heavens, and have forgiven the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, for You direct them [to] the good way in which they go, and have given rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for inheritance.

³⁷ Famine—when it is in the land; pestilence—when it is [in the land]; blasting, mildew, locust; caterpillar—when it is [in the land]; when its enemy has distressed it in the land [in] its gates, any plague, any sickness—

38 any prayer, any supplication that [is] of any man of all Your people Israel, each who knows the plague of his own heart, and has spread his hands toward this house,

39 then You hear in the heavens, the settled place of Your dwelling, and have forgiven, and have done, and have given to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You have known—You alone—the heart of all the sons of man),

40 so that they fear You all the days that they are living on the face of the ground that You have given to our fathers.

41 And also, to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, and has come from a far-off land for Your Name's sake—

42 for they hear of Your great Name, and of Your strong hand, and of Your outstretched arm—and he has come in and prayed toward this house,

43 You hear in the heavens, the settled place of Your dwelling, and have done according to all that the stranger calls to You for, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your Name, to fear You like Your people Israel, and to know that Your Name has been called on this house which I have built.

44 When Your people go out to battle against its enemy, in the way that You send them, and they have prayed to YHWH [in] the way of the city which you have fixed on, and of the house which I have built for Your Name,

45 then You have heard their prayer and their supplication in the heavens, and have maintained their cause.

46 When they sin against You (for there is not a man who does not sin), and You have been angry with them, and have given them up before an enemy, and they have taken captive their captivity to the land of the enemy far off or near;

47 and they have turned [it] back to their heart in the land to where they have been taken captive, and have turned back, and made supplication to You in the land of their captors, saying, We have sinned and done perversely—we have done wickedly;

48 indeed, they have turned back to You with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and have prayed to You [in] the way of their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your Name:

49 then You have heard in the heavens, the settled place of Your dwelling, their prayer and their supplication, and have maintained their cause,

50 and have forgiven Your people who have sinned against You, even all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You, and have given them mercies before their captors, and they have had mercy [on] them—

51 for they [are] Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the midst of the furnace of iron—

52 for Your eyes being open to the supplication of Your servant, and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them in all they call to You for;

53 for You have separated them to Yourself for an inheritance, out of all the peoples of the earth, as You spoke by the hand of Your servant Moses, in Your bringing out our fathers from Egypt, O Lord YHWH.”

⁵⁴ And it comes to pass, at Solomon’s finishing to pray to YHWH all this prayer and supplication, he has risen from before the altar of YHWH, from bending on his knees and [having] his hands spread out to the heavens,

⁵⁵ and he stands and blesses all the assembly of Israel [with] a loud voice, saying,

⁵⁶ “Blessed [is] YHWH who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He has spoken; not [even] one word has fallen of all His good word, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Moses.

⁵⁷ Our God YHWH is with us as He has been with our fathers; He does not forsake us nor leave us;

⁵⁸ to incline our heart to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commands, and His statutes, and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers;

⁵⁹ and these, my words, with which I have made supplication before YHWH, are near to our God YHWH by day and by night, to maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel, the matter of a day in its day,

⁶⁰ that all the peoples of the earth may know that He, YHWH, [is] God; there is none else;

⁶¹ and your heart has been perfect with our God YHWH, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commands, as [at] this day.”

⁶² And the king and all Israel with him are sacrificing a sacrifice before YHWH;

⁶⁴ On that day the king has sanctified the middle of the court that [is] before the house of YHWH, for he has made the burnt-offering, and the present, and the fat of the peace-offerings there; for the altar of bronze that [is] before YHWH [is] too small to contain the burnt-offering, and the present, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

⁶⁶ On the eighth day he has sent the people away, and they bless the king, and go to their tents, rejoicing and glad of heart for all the good that YHWH has done to His servant David, and to His people Israel.

² that YHWH appears to Solomon a second time, as He appeared to him in Gibeon,

³ and YHWH says to him, “I have heard your prayer and your supplication with which you have made supplication before Me; I have hallowed this house that you have built to put My Name there for all time, and My eyes and My heart have been there [for] all the days.

4 And you—if you walk before Me as your father David walked, in simplicity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, [and] you keep My statutes and My judgments,

5 then I have established the throne of your kingdom over Israel for all time, as I spoke to your father David, saying, A man of yours is never cut off from [being] on the throne of Israel.

6 If you at all turn back—you and your sons—from after Me, and do not keep My commands [and] My statutes that I have set before you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them,

7 then I have cut off Israel from the face of the ground that I have given to them, and the house that I have hallowed for My Name I send away from My presence, and Israel has been for an allegory and for a byword among all the peoples;

8 as for this house [that] is high, everyone passing by it is astonished, and has hissed, and they have said, Why has YHWH done this to this land and to this house?

9 And they have said, Because that they have forsaken their God YHWH, who brought out their fathers from the land of Egypt, and they lay hold on other gods, and bow themselves to them and serve them; therefore YHWH has brought all this calamity on them."

10 And it comes to pass, at the end of twenty years, that Solomon has built the two houses, the house of YHWH, and the house of the king.

11 Hiram king of Tyre has assisted Solomon with cedar-trees, and with fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire; then King Solomon gives to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram comes out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon has given to him, and they have not been right in his eyes,

13 and he says, "What [are] these cities that you have given to me, my brother?" And one calls them the land of Cabul to this day.

14 And Hiram sends one hundred and twenty talents of gold to the king.

15 And this [is] the matter of the tribute that King Solomon has lifted up, to build the house of YHWH, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer

16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt has gone up and captures Gezer, and burns it with fire, and he has slain the Canaanite who is dwelling in the city, and gives it [as] presents to his daughter, wife of Solomon).

17 And Solomon builds Gezer, and the lower Beth-Horon,

18 and Ba'alath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 and all the cities of stores that King Solomon has, and the cities of the chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and the desire of Solomon that he desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 The whole of the people that is left of the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, who [are] not of the sons of Israel—

21 their sons who are left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel have not been able to devote—he has even lifted up a tribute of service [on] them to this day.

22 And Solomon has not appointed a servant out of the sons of Israel, for they [are] the men of war, and his servants, and his heads, and his captains, and the heads of his chariots, and his horsemen.

²³ These [are] the five hundred and fifty heads of the officers who [are] over the work of Solomon, those ruling among the people who are laboring in the work.

²⁴ Only, the daughter of Pharaoh went up out of the City of David to her house that [Solomon] built for her; then he built Millo.

²⁶ And King Solomon has made a navy in Ezion-Geber, that is beside Eloth, on the edge of the Sea of Suph, in the land of Edom.

²⁷ And Hiram sends his servants in the navy, shipmen knowing the sea, with servants of Solomon, ²⁸ and they come to Ophir, and take four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and bring [it] to King Solomon.

¹ And the queen of Sheba is hearing of the fame of Solomon concerning the Name of YHWH, and comes to try him with enigmas,

² and she comes to Jerusalem, with a very great company, camels carrying spices, and very much gold, and precious stone, and she comes to Solomon, and speaks to him all that has been with her heart.

³ And Solomon declares to her all her matters—there has not been a thing hid from the king that he has not declared to her.

⁴ And the queen of Sheba sees all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he built,

⁶ And she says to the king, “The word that I heard in my land has been true concerning your matters and your wisdom;

⁷ and I gave no credence to the words until I have come, and my eyes see, and behold, not [even] half was declared to me; you have added wisdom and goodness to the report that I heard.

⁸ O the blessedness of your men, O the blessedness of your servants—these—who are standing before you continually, who are hearing your wisdom!

⁹ Your God YHWH is blessed, who delighted in you, to put you on the throne of Israel; in YHWH’s loving Israel for all time He sets you for king, to do judgment and righteousness.”

¹¹ And also, the navy of Hiram that bore gold from Ophir, brought in very much almug-trees and precious stone from Ophir;

¹⁴ And the weight of the gold that has come to Solomon in one year is six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

¹⁵ apart from [that of] the tourists, and of the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the land.

¹⁶ And King Solomon makes two hundred bucklers of alloyed gold—six hundred [shekels] of gold go up on the one buckler;

¹⁷ and three hundred shields of alloyed gold—three pounds of gold go up on the one shield; and the king puts them [in] the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

¹⁸ And the king makes a great throne of ivory, and overlays it with refined gold;

¹⁹ the throne has six steps, and a round top [is] to the throne behind it, and hands [are] on this [side] and on that, to the place of the sitting, and two lions are standing near the hands,

²⁰ and twelve lions are standing there on the six steps, on this [side] and on that; it has not been made so for any kingdom.

²² for the king has a navy of Tarshish at sea with a navy of Hiram; once in three years the navy of Tarshish comes, carrying gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks [[or monkeys]].

²³ And King Solomon is greater than any of the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom,

²⁴ and all the earth is seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God has put into his heart,

²⁵ and they are each bringing his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, the matter of a year in a year.

²⁷ And the king makes the silver in Jerusalem as stones, and he has made the cedars as the sycamores that [are] in the low country, for abundance.

²⁸ And the outgoing of the horses that King Solomon has [is] from Egypt, and from Keveh; merchants of the king take from Keveh at a price;

²⁹ and a chariot comes up and comes out of Egypt for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty, and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Aram; they bring out by their hand.

¹ And King Solomon has loved many strange women, and the daughter of Pharaoh, females of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, [and] of the Hittites,

² of the nations of which YHWH said to the sons of Israel, “You do not go in to them, and they do not go in to you; surely they turn aside your heart after their gods”; Solomon has cleaved to them for love.

³ And he has seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turn aside his heart.

⁵ And Solomon goes after Ashtoreth goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites;

⁶ and Solomon does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and has not been fully after YHWH, like his father David.

⁸ and so he has done for all his strange women, who are perfuming and sacrificing to their gods.

⁹ And YHWH shows Himself angry with Solomon, for his heart has turned aside from YHWH, God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

¹⁰ and given a charge to him concerning this thing, not to go after other gods; and he has not kept that which YHWH commanded,

¹¹ and YHWH says to Solomon, "Because that this has been with you, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes that I charged on you, I surely tear the kingdom from you, and have given it to your servant.

¹² Only, I do not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I tear it out of the hand of your son;

¹³ only, I do not tear away all of the kingdom; I give one tribe to your son, for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem that I have chosen."

¹⁴ And YHWH raises up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he [is] of the seed of the king in Edom;

¹⁵ and it comes to pass, in David's being with Edom, in the going up of Joab head of the host to bury the slain, that he strikes every male in Edom—

¹⁶ for six months Joab abided there, and all Israel, until the cutting off of every male in Edom—

¹⁷ and Hadad flees, he and certain Edomites, of the servants of his father, with him, to go to Egypt, and Hadad [is] a little youth,

¹⁸ and they rise out of Midian, and come into Paran, and take men with them out of Paran, and come into Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he gives a house to him, and has commanded bread for him, and has given land to him.

¹⁹ And Hadad finds grace in the eyes of Pharaoh exceedingly, and he gives to him a wife, the sister of his own wife, sister of Tahpenes the mistress;

²¹ And Hadad has heard in Egypt that David has lain with his fathers, and that Joab head of the host is dead, and Hadad says to Pharaoh, "Send me away, and I go to my land."

²² And Pharaoh says to him, "But what are you lacking with me, that behold, you are seeking to go to your own land?" And he says, "Nothing, but you certainly send me away."

²³ And God raises an adversary against him, Rezon son of Eliadah, who has fled from Hadadezer king of Zobah, his lord,

²⁴ and gathers men to himself, and is head of a troop in David's slaying them, and they go to Damascus, and dwell in it, and reign in Damascus;

²⁵ and he is an adversary against Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the evil that Hadad [did]), and he cuts off in Israel, and reigns over Aram.

²⁷ and this [is] the thing [for] which he lifted up a hand against the king: Solomon built Millo—he shut up the breach of the city of his father David,

²⁸ and the man Jeroboam [is] mighty in valor, and Solomon sees that the young man is doing business, and appoints him over all the burden of the house of Joseph.

²⁹ And it comes to pass, at that time, that Jeroboam has gone out from Jerusalem, and Ahijah the Shilonite, the prophet, finds him in the way, and he is covering himself with a new garment; and both of them [are] by themselves in a field,

³⁰ and Ahijah lays hold on the new garment that [is] on him, and tears it [into] twelve pieces,

³¹ and says to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Behold, I am tearing the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and have given the ten tribes to you,

³² but he has the one tribe for My servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have fixed on, out of all the tribes of Israel,

³³ because they have forsaken Me, and bow themselves to Ashtoreth, goddess of the Zidonians, to Chemosh god of Moab, and to Milcom god of the sons of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways, to do that which [is] right in My eyes, and My statutes and My judgments, like his father David.

³⁴ And I do not take the whole of the kingdom out of his hand, for I make him prince all [the] days of his life, for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, who kept My commands and My statutes;

³⁵ and I have taken the kingdom out of the hand of his son, and given it to you—the ten tribes;

³⁶ and to his son I give one tribe, for there being a lamp before Me for My servant David in Jerusalem [for] all the days, the city that I have chosen for Myself to put My Name there.

³⁷ And I take you, and you have reigned over all that your soul desires, and you have been king over Israel;

³⁸ and it has been, if you hear all that I command you, and have walked in My ways, and done that which is right in My eyes, to keep My statutes and My commands, as My servant David did, that I have been with you, and have built a steadfast house for you, as I built for David, and have given Israel to you,

³⁹ and I humble the seed of David for this; only, not [for] all the days."

⁴⁰ And Solomon seeks to put Jeroboam to death, and Jeroboam rises and flees to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and he is in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

⁴¹ And the rest of the matters of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written on the scroll of the matters of Solomon?

⁴² And the days that Solomon has reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel [are] forty years,

⁴³ and Solomon lies with his fathers, and is buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam reigns in his stead.

¹ And Rehoboam goes to Shechem, for all Israel has come to Shechem to make him king.

² And it comes to pass, at Jeroboam son of Nebat's hearing (and he [is] yet in Egypt where he has fled from the presence of Solomon the king, and Jeroboam dwells in Egypt),

³ that they send and call for him; and they come—Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel—and speak to Rehoboam, saying,

⁴ "Your father hardened our yoke, and you, now, lighten [some] of the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke that he put on us, and we serve you."

⁵ And he says to them, "Yet go [for] three days, and come back to me"; and the people go.

⁶ And King Rehoboam consults with the elderly who have been standing in the presence of his father Solomon, in his being alive, saying, "How are you counseling to answer this people?"

⁷ And they speak to him, saying, "If, today, you are a servant of this people, and have served them, and answered them, and spoken good words to them, then they have been servants to you [for] all the days."

⁸ And he forsakes the counsel of the elderly which they counseled him, and consults with the boys who have grown up with him, who are standing before him;

⁹ and he says to them, "What are you counseling, and we answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten [some] of the yoke that your father put on us?"

¹⁰ And they speak to him—the boys who had grown up with him—saying, "Thus you say to this people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and you, make [it] light on us; thus you speak to them, My little [finger] is thicker than the loins of my father;

¹¹ and now, my father laid a heavy yoke on you, and I add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I discipline you with scorpions."

¹² And they come—Jeroboam and all the people—to Rehoboam, on the third day, as the king had spoken, saying, "Come back to me on the third day."

¹³ And the king answers the people sharply, and forsakes the counsel of the elderly which they counseled him,

¹⁴ and speaks to them, according to the counsel of the boys, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, and I add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I discipline you with scorpions";

¹⁶ And all Israel sees that the king has not listened to them, and the people send the king back word, saying, "What portion do we have in David? Indeed, there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse; [return] to your tents, O Israel; now see your house, O David!" And Israel goes to its tents.

¹⁷ As for the sons of Israel, those dwelling in the cities of Judah—Rehoboam reigns over them.

¹⁸ And King Rehoboam sends Adoram who [is] over the tribute, and all Israel casts stones at him, and he dies; and King Rehoboam has strengthened himself to go up into a chariot to flee to Jerusalem;

¹⁹ and Israel transgresses against the house of David to this day.

²⁰ And it comes to pass, at all Israel hearing that Jeroboam has returned, that they send and call him to the congregation, and cause him to reign over all Israel; none has been after the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.

²¹ And Rehoboam comes to Jerusalem, and assembles all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors, to fight with the house of Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.

²² And the word of God is to Shemaiah a man of God, saying,

²³ "Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying,

²⁴ Thus said YHWH: You do not go up nor fight with your brothers the sons of Israel; let each return to his house, for this thing has been from Me"; and they hear the word of YHWH, and turn back to go according to the word of YHWH.

²⁵ And Jeroboam builds Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and dwells in it, and goes out there, and builds Penuel;

²⁶ and Jeroboam says in his heart, "Now the kingdom turns back to the house of David—

²⁷ if this people goes up to make sacrifices in the house of YHWH in Jerusalem, then the heart of this people has turned back to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they have slain me, and turned back to Rehoboam king of Judah."

²⁸ And the king takes counsel, and makes two calves of gold, and says to them, "Enough of you from going up to Jerusalem; behold, your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt."

²⁹ And he sets the one in Beth-El, and the other he has put in Dan,

³⁰ and this thing becomes a sin, and the people go before the one—to Dan.

³¹ And he makes the house of high places, and makes priests from the extremities of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi;

³² and Jeroboam makes a festival in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the festival that [is] in Judah, and he offers on the altar—so he did in Beth-El—to sacrifice to the calves which he made, and he has appointed in Beth-El the priests of the high places that he made.

³³ And he offers up on the altar that he made in Beth-El, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month that he devised from his own heart, and he makes a festival for the sons of Israel, and offers on the altar—to make incense.

¹ And behold, a man of God has come from Judah, by the word of YHWH, to Beth-El, and Jeroboam is standing by the altar—to make incense;

² and he calls against the altar, by the word of YHWH, and says, “Altar! Altar! Thus said YHWH: Behold, a son is born to the house of David—Josiah [is] his name—and he has sacrificed on you the priests of the high places who are making incense on you, and bones of man are burned on you.”

³ And he has given a sign on that day, saying, “This [is] the sign that YHWH has spoken, Behold, the altar is torn, and the ashes that [are] on it [are] poured forth.”

⁴ And it comes to pass, at the king’s hearing the word of the man of God that he calls against the altar in Beth-El, that Jeroboam puts forth his hand from off the altar, saying, “Catch him”; and his hand that he has put forth against him is dried up, and he is not able to bring it back to himself,

⁵ and the altar is torn, and the ashes [are] poured forth from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of YHWH.

⁶ And the king answers and says to the man of God, “Please appease the face of your God YHWH, and pray for me, and my hand comes back to me”; and the man of God appeases the face of YHWH, and the hand of the king comes back to him, and it is as at the beginning.

⁷ And the king speaks to the man of God, “Come in with me to the house, and refresh yourself, and I give a gift to you.”

⁸ And the man of God says to the king, “If you give to me the half of your house, I do not go in with you, nor do I eat bread, nor do I drink water, in this place;

⁹ for so He commanded me by the word of YHWH, saying, You do not eat bread nor drink water, nor return in the way that you have come.”

¹⁰ And he goes on in another way, and has not turned back in the way in which he came in to Beth-El.

¹¹ And a certain aged prophet is dwelling in Beth-El, and his son comes and recounts to him every deed that the man of God has done today in Beth-El, the words that he has spoken to the king—indeed, they recount them to their father.

¹² And their father says to them, “Where [is] this—the way he has gone?” And his sons see the way that the man of God who came from Judah has gone.

¹³ And he says to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me,” and they saddle the donkey for him, and he rides on it,

¹⁴ and goes after the man of God, and finds him sitting under the oak, and says to him, “Are you the man of God who has come from Judah?” And he says, “I [am].”

¹⁵ And he says to him, “Come with me to the house and eat bread.”

¹⁶ And he says, “I am not able to return with you, and to go in with you, nor do I eat bread or drink water with you in this place,

¹⁷ for [there is] a word to me by the word of YHWH, You do not eat bread nor drink water there [and] you do not return to go in the way in which you came.”

¹⁸ And he says to him, “I [am] also a prophet like you, and a messenger spoke to me by the word of YHWH, saying, Bring him back with you to your house, and he eats bread and drinks water.” He has lied to him.

¹⁹ And he turns back with him, and eats bread in his house, and drinks water.

²⁰ And it comes to pass—they are sitting at the table—and [there] is a word of YHWH to the prophet who brought him back,

²¹ and he calls to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus said YHWH: Because that you have provoked the mouth of YHWH, and have not kept the command that your God YHWH charged you,

²⁶ And the prophet who brought him back out of the way hears and says, “It [is] the man of God who provoked the mouth of YHWH, and YHWH gives him to the lion, and it destroys him, and puts him to death, according to the word of YHWH that he spoke to him.”

²⁷ And he speaks to his sons saying, “Saddle the donkey for me,” and they saddle [it].

²⁸ And he goes and finds his carcass cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion are standing near the carcass—the lion has not eaten the carcass nor destroyed the donkey.

²⁹ And the prophet takes up the carcass of the man of God, and places it on the donkey, and brings it back, and the old prophet comes to the city to mourn and to bury him,

³⁰ and he places his carcass in his own grave, and they mourn for him, “Oh, my brother!”

³¹ And it comes to pass, after his burying him, that he speaks to his sons, saying, “At my death—you have buried me in the burying-place in which the man of God is buried; place my bones near his bones;

³⁴ And in this thing is the sin of the house of Jeroboam, even to cut [it] off, and to destroy [it] from off the face of the ground.

¹ At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam was sick,

² and Jeroboam says to his wife, “Now rise and change yourself, and they do not know that you [are the] wife of Jeroboam, and you have gone to Shiloh; behold, Ahijah the prophet [is] there; he spoke to me of [being] king over this people;

³ and you have taken in your hand ten loaves, and crumbs, and a bottle of honey, and have gone to him; he declares to you what becomes of the youth.”

⁴ And the wife of Jeroboam does so, and rises, and goes to Shiloh, and enters the house of Ahijah, and Ahijah is not able to see, for his eyes have stood because of his age.

⁶ And it comes to pass, at Ahijah’s hearing the sound of her feet [as] she came to the opening, that he says, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam, why is this [that] you are making yourself strange? And I am sent to you [with] a sharp thing.

⁷ Go, say to Jeroboam, Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Because that I have made you high out of the midst of the people, and appoint you leader over my people Israel,

⁸ and tear the kingdom from the house of David, and give it to you—and you have not been as My servant David who kept My commands, and who walked after Me with all his heart, to only do that which [is] right in My eyes,

⁹ and you do evil above all who have been before you, and go, and make other gods and molten images for yourself to provoke Me to anger, and you have cast Me behind your back—

¹¹ the dogs eat him who dies of Jeroboam in a city, and birds of the heavens eat him who dies in a field, for YHWH has spoken.

¹² And you, rise, go to your house; in the going in of your feet to the city, the boy has died;

¹³ and all Israel has mourned for him, and buried him, for this one—by himself—of Jeroboam comes to a grave, because there has been found in him a good thing toward YHWH, God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

¹⁴ And YHWH has raised up for Himself a king over Israel who cuts off the house of Jeroboam this day—and what? Even now!

¹⁵ And YHWH has struck Israel as the reed is moved by the waters, and has plucked Israel from off this good ground that He gave to their fathers, and scattered them beyond the River, because that they made their Asherim, provoking YHWH to anger;

¹⁶ and He gives up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin.”

¹⁷ And the wife of Jeroboam rises, and goes, and comes to Tirzah; she has come to the threshold of the house, and the youth dies;

¹⁸ and they bury him, and all Israel mourns for him, according to the word of YHWH that he spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet.

²⁰ And the days that Jeroboam reigned [are] twenty-two years, and he lies with his fathers, and his son Nadab reigns in his stead.

²¹ And Rehoboam son of Solomon has reigned in Judah; Rehoboam [is] a son of forty-one years in his reigning, and he has reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that YHWH chose to set His Name there, out of all the tribes of Israel, and the name of his mother [is] Naamah the Ammonitess.

²² And Judah does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and they make Him zealous above all that their fathers did by their sins that they have sinned.

²³ And they build—they also—for themselves high places, and standing-pillars, and Asherim, on every high height, and under every green tree;

²⁴ and a whoremonger has also been in the land; they have done according to all the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel.

²⁵ And it comes to pass, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt has gone up against Jerusalem,

²⁷ And King Rehoboam makes shields of bronze in their stead, and has made [them] a charge on the hand of the heads of the runners, those keeping the opening of the house of the king,

²⁸ and it comes to pass, from the going in of the king to the house of YHWH, the runners carry them, and have brought them back to the chamber of the runners.

²⁹ And the rest of the matters of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

³⁰ And there has been war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam [for] all the days;

¹ And in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam has reigned over Judah;

² he has reigned three years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Maachah daughter of Abishalom;

⁴ but for David's sake his God YHWH has given to him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem,

⁶ and there has been war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

⁷ And the rest of the matters of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there has been war between Abijam and Jeroboam;

⁸ and Abijam lies with his fathers, and they bury him in the City of David, and his son Asa reigns in his stead.

⁹ And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa has reigned over Judah,

¹⁰ and he has reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Maachah daughter of Abishalom.

¹¹ And Asa does that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH, like his father David,

¹² and removes the whoremongers out of the land, and turns aside all the idols that his fathers made;

¹³ and also his mother Maachah—he turns her aside from being mistress, in that she made a horrible thing for an Asherah, and Asa cuts down her horrible thing, and burns [it] by the Brook of Kidron;

¹⁴ but the high places have not been removed; only, the heart of Asa has been perfect with YHWH [for] all his days,

¹⁵ and he brings in the sanctified things of his father, and his own sanctified things, to the house of YHWH: silver, and gold, and vessels.

¹⁶ And there has been war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel [for] all their days,

¹⁷ and Baasha king of Israel goes up against Judah, and builds Ramah, not to permit anyone going out and coming in to Asa king of Judah.

²¹ and it comes to pass at Baasha’s hearing, that he ceases from building Ramah, and dwells in Tirzah.

²² And King Asa has summoned all Judah—there is none exempt—and they lift up the stones of Ramah, and its wood, that Baasha has built, and King Asa builds with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

²³ And the rest of all the matters of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? Only, at the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet;

²⁴ and Asa lies with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and his son Jehoshaphat reigns in his stead.

²⁵ And Nadab son of Jeroboam has reigned over Israel, in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigns over Israel two years,

²⁶ and does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and goes in the way of his father, and in his sin that he made Israel to sin.

²⁷ And Baasha son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspires against him, and Baasha strikes him in Gibbethon, which [belonged] to the Philistines—and Nadab and all Israel are laying siege against Gibbethon—

²⁸ indeed, Baasha puts him to death in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigns in his stead.

²⁹ And it comes to pass, at his reigning, he has struck the whole house of Jeroboam, he has not left any breathing to Jeroboam until his destroying him, according to the word of YHWH, that He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰ because of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin, by his provocation with which he provoked YHWH, God of Israel, to anger.

³¹ And the rest of the matters of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

³² And there has been war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel [for] all their days.

³³ In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah has reigned over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty-four years, ³⁴ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and walks in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin.

² “Because that I have raised you up out of the dust, and appoint you leader over My people Israel, and you walk in the way of Jeroboam, and cause My people Israel to sin—to provoke Me to anger with their sins;

³ behold, I am putting away the posterity of Baasha, even the posterity of his house, and have given up your house as the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat;

⁴ the dogs eat him who dies of Baasha in a city, and [the] bird of the heavens eats him who dies of his in a field.”

⁵ And the rest of the matters of Baasha, and that which he did, and his might, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

⁶ And Baasha lies with his fathers, and is buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah reigns in his stead.

⁷ And also by the hand of Jehu son of Hanani the prophet a word of YHWH has been concerning Baasha, and concerning his house, and concerning all the evil that he did in the eyes of YHWH to provoke Him to anger with the work of his hands, to be like the house of Jeroboam, and concerning that for which he struck him.

⁸ In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha has reigned over Israel in Tirzah, two years;

⁹ and his servant Zimri conspires against him (head of the half of the chariots) and he [is] in Tirzah drinking—a drunkard in the house of Arza, who [is] over the house in Tirzah.

¹⁰ And Zimri comes in and strikes him, and puts him to death, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigns in his stead;

¹² And Zimri destroys the whole house of Baasha, according to the word of YHWH that He spoke concerning Baasha, by the hand of Jehu the prophet,

¹⁴ And the rest of the matters of Elah and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹⁵ In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri has reigned seven days in Tirzah; and the people are encamping against Gibbethon, which [belonged] to the Philistines;

¹⁶ and the people who are encamping hear, saying, “Zimri has conspired, and also has struck the king”; and all Israel causes Omri head of the host to reign over Israel on that day in the camp.

¹⁷ And Omri goes up, and all Israel with him, from Gibbethon, and they lay siege to Tirzah.

¹⁸ And it comes to pass, at Zimri’s seeing that the city has been captured, that he comes into a high place of the house of the king, and burns the house of the king over himself with fire, and he dies,

¹⁹ for his sins that he sinned, to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, to walk in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he did, to cause Israel to sin;

²⁰ and the rest of the matters of Zimri and his conspiracy that he made, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

²¹ Then the sons of Israel are parted into halves; half of the people have been after Tibni son of Ginath to cause him to reign, and the [other] half after Omri;

²² and the people that are after Omri are stronger than the people that are after Tibni son of Ginath, and Tibni dies, and Omri reigns.

²³ In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri has reigned over Israel twelve years; he has reigned in Tirzah six years,

²⁵ And Omri does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and does evil above all who [are] before him,

²⁶ and walks in all the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin, to provoke YHWH, God of Israel, with their vanities.

²⁷ And the rest of the matters of Omri that he did and his might that he exercised, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

²⁸ And Omri lies with his fathers, and is buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab reigns in his stead.

²⁹ And Ahab son of Omri has reigned over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab son of Omri reigns over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years,

³⁰ and Ahab son of Omri does evil in the eyes of YHWH above all who [are] before him.

³¹ And it comes to pass, as if it had been trivial—his walking in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat—that he takes a wife, Jezebel daughter of Ethba’al, king of the Zidonians, and goes and serves Ba'al, and bows himself to it, ³² and raises up an altar for Ba'al in the house of the Ba'al, which he built in Samaria;

³³ and Ahab makes the Asherah, and Ahab adds to do so as to provoke YHWH, God of Israel, above all the kings of Israel who have been before him.

³⁴ In his days Hiel the Beth-Elite has built Jericho; he laid its foundation with Abiram his firstborn, and he set up its doors with Segub his youngest, according to the word of YHWH that He spoke by the hand of Joshua son of Nun.

¹ And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, says to Ahab, "YHWH, God of Israel, lives, before whom I have stood, there is not dew and rain these years, except according to my word."

² And the word of YHWH is to him, saying,

³ "Go from this [place]; and you have turned for yourself eastward, and been hidden by the Brook of Cherith that [is] on the front of the Jordan,

⁴ and it has been [that] you drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to sustain you there."

⁵ And he goes and does according to the word of YHWH, indeed, he goes and dwells by the Brook of Cherith, that [is] on the front of the Jordan,

⁶ and the ravens are bringing bread and flesh to him in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening, and he drinks from the brook.

⁷ And it comes to pass, at the end of [the] days, that the brook dries up, for there has been no rain in the land,

⁸ and the word of YHWH is to him, saying,

⁹ "Rise, go to Zarephath, that [belongs] to Sidon, and you have dwelt there; behold, I have commanded a widow woman to sustain you there."

¹⁰ And he rises, and goes to Zarephath, and comes to the opening of the city, and behold, there [is] a widow woman gathering sticks, and he calls to her and says, "Please bring a little water to me in a vessel, and I drink."

¹¹ And she goes to bring [it], and he calls to her and says, "Please bring a morsel of bread to me in your hand."

¹² And she says, "Your God YHWH lives, I do not have a cake, but the fullness of the hand of meal in a pitcher, and a little oil in a dish; and behold, I am gathering two sticks, and have gone in and prepared it for myself, and for my son, and we have eaten it—and died."

¹³ And Elijah says to her, "Do not fear, go, do according to your word, only make a little cake for me there, in the first place, and you have brought [it] out to me; and for you and for your son make [it] last;

¹⁵ And she goes, and does according to the word of Elijah, and she eats, she and he and her household [for many] days;

¹⁶ the pitcher of meal was not consumed, and the dish of oil did not lack, according to the word of YHWH that He spoke by the hand of Elijah.

¹⁷ And it comes to pass, after these things, the son of the woman, mistress of the house, has been sick, and his sickness is very severe until no breath has been left in him.

¹⁸ And she says to Elijah, “What [is this] to me and to you, O man of God? You have come to me to cause my iniquity to be remembered, and to put my son to death!”

¹⁹ And he says to her, “Give your son to me”; and he takes him out of her bosom, and takes him up to the upper chamber where he is abiding, and lays him on his own bed,

²⁰ and cries to YHWH and says, “My God YHWH, have You also brought calamity on the widow with whom I am sojourning, to put her son to death?”

²¹ And he stretches himself out on the boy three times, and calls to YHWH and says, “O YHWH my God, please let the soul of this boy return into his midst”;

²² and YHWH listens to the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the boy turns back into his midst, and he lives.

²³ And Elijah takes the boy, and brings him down from the upper chamber of the house, and gives him to his mother, and Elijah says, “See, your son lives!”

²⁴ And the woman says to Elijah, “Now [by] this I have known that you [are] a man of God, and the word of YHWH in your mouth [is] truth.”

¹ And the days are many, and the word of YHWH has been to Elijah in the third year, saying, “Go, appear to Ahab, and I give rain on the face of the ground”;

² and Elijah goes to appear to Ahab. And the famine is severe in Samaria,

³ and Ahab calls to Obadiah, who [is] over the house—and Obadiah has been fearing YHWH greatly,

⁴ and it comes to pass, in Jezebel’s cutting off the prophets of YHWH, that Obadiah takes one hundred prophets, and hides them, fifty men in a cave, and has sustained them with bread and water—

⁶ And they apportion the land to themselves, to pass over into it; Ahab has gone in one way by himself, and Obadiah has gone in another way by himself;

⁷ and Obadiah [is] in the way, and behold, Elijah [is there] to meet him; and he discerns him, and falls on his face and says, “Are you he—my lord Elijah?”

⁸ And he says to him, “I [am]; go, say to your lord, Behold, Elijah.”

⁹ And he says, “What have I sinned, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab—to put me to death?”

¹⁰ Your God YHWH lives, if there is a nation and kingdom to where my lord has not sent to seek [for] you; and they said, He is not, then he caused the kingdom and the nation to swear, that it does not find you;

¹¹ and now, you are saying, Go, say to your lord, Behold, Elijah;

¹² and it has been, I go from you, and the Spirit of YHWH lifts you up to where I do not know, and I have come to declare to Ahab, and he does not find you, and he has slain me; and your servant is fearing YHWH from my youth.

¹³ Has it not been declared to my lord that which I have done in Jezebel's slaying the prophets of YHWH, that I hide one hundred men of the prophets of YHWH, fifty by fifty in a cave, and sustained them with bread and water?

¹⁴ And now you are saying, Go, say to my lord, Behold, Elijah—and he has slain me!"

¹⁵ And Elijah says, "YHWH of Hosts lives, before whom I have stood, surely I appear to him today."

¹⁶ Obadiah goes to meet Ahab, and declares [it] to him, and Ahab goes to meet Elijah.

¹⁷ [And it] comes to pass at Ahab's seeing Elijah that Ahab says to him, "Are you he—the troubler of Israel?"

¹⁸ And he says, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and the house of your father, in your forsaking the commands of YHWH, and you go after the Ba'alim;

²⁰ And Ahab sends among all the sons of Israel, and gathers the prophets to the Mount of Carmel;

²¹ and Elijah comes near to all the people and says, "Until when are you leaping on the two branches? If YHWH [is] God, go after Him; and if Ba'al, go after him"; and the people have not answered him a word.

²² And Elijah says to the people, "I have been left, by myself, a prophet of YHWH; and the prophets of Ba'al [are] four hundred and fifty men;

²³ and let them give two bullocks to us, and they choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and place [it] on the wood, and place no fire; and I prepare the other bullock, and have put [it] on the wood, and I do not place fire—

²⁴ and you have called in the name of your god, and I call in the Name of YHWH, and it has been, the god who answers by fire—He [is] the God." And all the people answer and say, "The word [is] good."

²⁵ And Elijah says to the prophets of Ba'al, "Choose one bullock for yourselves, and prepare [it] first, for you [are] the multitude, and call in the name of your god, and place no fire."

²⁶ And they take the bullock that [one] gave to them, and prepare [it], and call in the name of Ba'al from the morning even until the noon, saying, "O Ba'al, answer us!" And there is no voice, and there is none answering; and they leap on the altar that one had made.

²⁷ And it comes to pass, at noon, that Elijah mocks at them and says, "Call with a loud voice, for he [is] a god, for he is meditating, or pursuing, or on a journey; it may be he is asleep, and awakes."

²⁸ And they call with a loud voice, and cut themselves, according to their ordinance, with swords and with spears, until a flowing of blood [is] on them;

²⁹ and it comes to pass, at the passing by of the noon, that they feign themselves prophets until the going up of the present, and there is no voice, and there is none answering, and there is none attending.

³⁰ And Elijah says to all the people, "Come near to me"; and all the people come near to him, and he repairs the altar of YHWH that is broken down;

³¹ and Elijah takes twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of YHWH was, saying, "Israel is your name";

³² and he builds an altar with the stones, in the Name of YHWH, and makes a trench, as about the space of two measures of seed, around the altar.

³³ And he arranges the wood, and cuts the bullock in pieces, and places [it] on the wood, and says, "Fill four pitchers of water, and pour [them] on the burnt-offering, and on the wood";

³⁴ and he says, "Do [it] a second time"; and they do [it] a second time; and he says, "Do [it] a third time"; and they do [it] a third time;

³⁵ and the water goes around the altar, and he has also filled the trench with water.

³⁶ And it comes to pass, at the going up of the [evening] present, that Elijah the prophet comes near and says, "YHWH, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that You [are] God in Israel, and that I, Your servant, have done the whole of these things by Your word;

³⁷ answer me, O YHWH, answer me, and this people [then] knows that You [are] YHWH God; and You have turned their heart backward."

³⁸ And a fire falls [from] YHWH, and consumes the burnt-offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and it has licked up the water that [is] in the trench.

³⁹ And all the people see, and fall on their faces, and say, "YHWH, He [is] the God! YHWH, He [is] the God!"

⁴¹ And Elijah says to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, because of the sound of the noise of the shower."

⁴⁴ And it comes to pass, at the seventh, that he says, "Behold, a little thickness as the palm of a man is coming up out of the sea." And he says, "Go up, say to Ahab, Bind and go down, and the shower does not restrain you."

⁴⁵ And it comes to pass, in the meantime, that the heavens have become black—thick clouds and wind—and the shower is great; and Ahab rides, and goes to Jezreel,

⁴⁶ and the hand of YHWH has been on Elijah, and he girds up his loins, and runs before Ahab, until your entering Jezreel.

¹ And Ahab declares to Jezebel all that Elijah did, and all of how he slew all the prophets by the sword,

² and Jezebel sends a messenger to Elijah, saying, “Thus the gods do, and thus do they add—surely about this time tomorrow, I make your life as the life of one of them.”

³ And he fears, and rises, and goes for his life, and comes to Beer-Sheba, that [is] Judah’s, and leaves his young man there,

⁵ And he lies down and sleeps under a certain broom tree, and behold, a messenger is reaching toward him and says to him, “Rise, eat”;

⁶ and he looks attentively, and behold, at his bolster [is] a cake [on] burning stones, and a dish of water, and he eats, and drinks, and turns, and lies down.

⁷ And the messenger of YHWH turns back a second time, and is reaching toward him, and says, “Rise, eat, for the way is too great for you”;

⁸ and he rises, and eats, and drinks, and goes in the power of that food [for] forty days and forty nights, to the mountain of God—Horeb.

⁹ And he comes in there, to the cave, and lodges there, and behold, the word of YHWH [is] to him, and says to him, “What are you [doing] here, Elijah?”

¹⁰ And he says, “I have been very zealous for YHWH, God of Hosts, for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant—they have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your prophets by the sword, and I am left, I, by myself, and they seek my life—to take it.”

¹² and after the shaking [is] a fire, [but] YHWH [is] not in the fire; and after the fire [is] a voice [like] a small whisper;

¹⁴ And he says, “I have been very zealous for YHWH, God of Hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, they have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your prophets by the sword, and I am left, I, by myself, and they seek my life—to take it.”

¹⁵ And YHWH says to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and you have gone in, and anointed Hazael for king over Aram,

¹⁶ and you anoint Jehu son of Nimshi for king over Israel, and you anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel-Meholah, for prophet in your stead.

¹⁷ And it has been, he who has escaped from the sword of Hazael, Jehu puts to death, and he who has escaped from the sword of Jehu, Elisha puts to death;

¹⁸ and I have left in Israel seven thousand—all the knees that have not bowed to Ba’al, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

¹⁹ And he goes there, and finds Elisha son of Shaphat, and he is plowing;

twelve yoke [are] before him, and he [is] with the twelfth; and Elijah passes over to him, and casts his robe at him,

²⁰ and he forsakes the ox, and runs after Elijah, and says, "Please let me give a kiss to my father and to my mother, and I go after you." And he says to him, "Go, turn back, for what have I done to you?"

²¹ And he turns back from after him, and takes the yoke of the ox, and sacrifices it, and with [the] instruments of the ox he has boiled its flesh, and gives to the people, and they eat, and he rises, and goes after Elijah, and serves him.

² and sends messengers to Ahab king of Israel, to the city,

³ and says to him, "Thus said Ben-Hadad: Your silver and your gold are mine, and your wives and your sons—the best—the best—are mine."

⁴ And the king of Israel answers and says, "According to your word, my lord, O king: I [am] yours, and all that I have."

⁵ And the messengers turn back and say, "Thus spoke Ben-Hadad, saying, Surely I sent to you, saying, Your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your sons, you give to me;

⁶ for if, at this time tomorrow, I send my servants to you, then they have searched your house, and the houses of your servants, and it has been [that] every desirable thing of your eyes they place in their hand, and have taken [them] away."

⁷ And the king of Israel calls to all [the] elderly of the land and says, "Please know and see that this [one] is seeking evil, for he sent to me for my wives, and for my sons, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I did not withhold from him."

⁸ And all the elderly and all the people say to him, "Do not listen, nor consent."

⁹ And he says to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Say to my lord the king, All that you sent to your servant for at the first I do, and this thing I am not able to do"; and the messengers go and take him back word.

¹⁰ And Ben-Hadad sends to him and says, "Thus the gods do to me, and thus do they add, if the dust of Samaria suffice for handfuls for all the people who [are] at my feet."

¹¹ And the king of Israel answers and says, "Speak: Do not let him who is girding on boast himself as him who is loosing [his armor]."

¹² And it comes to pass at the hearing of this word—and he is drinking, he and the kings, in the shelters—that he says to his servants, "Set yourselves"; and they set themselves against the city.

¹³ And behold, a certain prophet has come near to Ahab king of Israel and says, "Thus said YHWH: Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I am giving it into your hand today, and you have known that I [am] YHWH."

¹⁴ And Ahab says, "By whom?" And he says, "Thus said YHWH: By the young men of the heads of the provinces"; and he says, "Who directs the battle?" And he says, "You."

15 And he inspects the young men of the heads of the provinces, and they are two hundred and thirty-two, and after them he has mustered all the people, all the sons of Israel—seven thousand,

16 and they go out at noon, and Ben-Hadad is drinking—drunk in the shelters, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings helping him.

17 And the young men of the heads of the provinces go out at the first, and Ben-Hadad sends, and they declare to him, saying, “Men have come out of Samaria.”

18 And he says, “If they have come out for peace, catch them alive; and if they have come out for battle, catch them alive.”

19 And these have gone out of the city—the young men of the heads of the provinces—and the force that [is] after them,

20 and each strikes his man, and Aram flees, and Israel pursues them, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram escapes on a horse—and the horsemen;

21 and the king of Israel goes out, and strikes the horses, and the charioteers, and has struck among the Arameans a great striking.

22 And the prophet comes near to the king of Israel and says to him, “Go, strengthen yourself, and know and see that which you do, for at the turn of the year the king of Aram is coming up against you.”

23 And the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods [are] gods of hills, therefore they were stronger than us; and yet, we fight with them in the plain—are we not stronger than they?”

24 And this thing you do: turn aside each of the kings out of his place, and set captains in their stead;

25 and you, number for yourself a force as the force that is fallen from you, and horse for horse, and chariot for chariot, and we fight with them in the plain; are we not stronger than they?” And he listens to their voice, and does so.

26 And it comes to pass at the turn of the year, that Ben-Hadad inspects the Arameans, and goes up to Aphek, to battle with Israel, 27 and the sons of Israel have been inspected, and supported, and go to meet them, and the sons of Israel encamp before them, like two flocks of goats, and the Arameans have filled the land.

28 And a man of God comes near, and speaks to the king of Israel and says, “Thus said YHWH: Because that the Arameans have said, YHWH [is] God of [the] hills, but He [is] not God of [the] valleys—I have given the whole of this great multitude into your hand, and you have known that I [am] YHWH.”

29 And they encamp opposite one another [for] seven days, and it comes to pass on the seventh day, that the battle draws near, and the sons of Israel strike one hundred thousand footmen of Aram in one day.

30 And those left flee to Aphek, into the city, and the wall falls on twenty-seven chief men who are left, and Ben-Hadad has fled, and comes into the city, into the innermost part.

31 And his servants say to him, “Now behold, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel—that they are kind kings; please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and we go out to the king of Israel; it may be he keeps you alive.”

32 And they gird sackcloth on their loins, and ropes [are] on their heads, and they come to the king of Israel, and say, “Your servant Ben-Hadad has said, Please let me live"; and he says, "Is he still alive? He [is] my brother."

³³ And the men observe diligently, and hurry, and catch [the word] from him, and say, "Your brother Ben-Hadad"; and he says, "Go in, bring him"; and Ben-Hadad comes out to him, and he causes him to come up on the chariot.

³⁴ And he says to him, "The cities that my father took from your father, I give back, and you make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria; and I, with a covenant, send you away"; and he makes a covenant with him, and sends him away.

³⁵ And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor by the word of YHWH, "Please strike me"; and the man refuses to strike him,

³⁶ and he says to him, "Because that you have not listened to the voice of YHWH, behold, you are going from me, and the lion has struck you"; and he goes from him, and the lion finds him, and strikes him.

³⁷ And he finds another man and says, "Please strike me"; and the man strikes him, striking and wounding, ³⁸ and the prophet goes and stands for the king on the way, and disguises himself with ashes on his eyes.

³⁹ And it comes to pass—the king is passing by—that he has cried to the king and says, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle, and behold, a man has turned aside and brings a man to me, and says, Keep this man; if he is at all missing, then your life has been for his life, or you weigh out a talent of silver;

⁴⁰ and it comes to pass, your servant is working here and there, and he is not!" And the king of Israel says to him, "Your judgment [is] right; you have determined [it]."

⁴¹ And he hurries and turns aside the ashes from off his eyes, and the king of Israel discerns him, that he [is] of the prophets,

⁴² and he says to him, "Thus said YHWH: Because you have sent away the man I devoted, out of [your] hand, even your life has been for his life, and your people for his people";

⁴³ and the king of Israel goes to his house, sulky and angry, and comes to Samaria.

¹ And it comes to pass after these things, a vineyard has been to Naboth the Jezreelite, that [is] in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab king of Samaria,

² and Ahab speaks to Naboth, saying, "Give your vineyard to me, and it is for a garden of green herbs for me, for it [is] near by my house, and I give to you a better vineyard than it in its stead; if [this is] good in your eyes, I give to you its price [in] silver."

³ And Naboth says to Ahab, "Far be it from me, by YHWH, my giving the inheritance of my fathers to you";

⁴ and Ahab comes to his house, sulky and angry, because of the word that Naboth the Jezreelite has spoken to him when he says, "I do not give the inheritance of my fathers to you," and he lies down on his bed, and turns around his face, and has not eaten bread.

⁵ And his wife Jezebel comes to him, and speaks to him, "Why [is] this [that] your spirit [is] sulky, and you are not eating bread?"

⁶ And he says to her, "Because I speak to Naboth the Jezreelite, and say to him, Give your vineyard to me for money, or if you desire, I give a vineyard to you in its stead; and he says, I do not give my vineyard to you.”

⁷ And his wife Jezebel says to him, “You now execute rule over Israel! Rise, eat bread, and let your heart be glad—I give the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to you.”

⁸ And she writes letters in the name of Ahab, and seals with his seal, and sends the letters to the elderly and to the nobles who are in his city, those dwelling with Naboth,

⁹ and she writes in the letters, saying, “Proclaim a fast, and cause Naboth to sit at the head of the people,

¹⁰ and cause two men—sons of worthlessness—to sit opposite him, and they testify of him, saying, You have blessed [[or cursed]] God and [the] king; and they have brought him out, and stoned him, and he dies.”

¹¹ And the men of his city, the elderly and the nobles who are dwelling in his city, do as Jezebel has sent to them, as written in the letters that she sent to them,

¹² they have proclaimed a fast, and caused Naboth to sit at the head of the people,

¹³ and two men—sons of worthlessness—come in, and sit opposite him, and the men of worthlessness testify of him, even Naboth, before the people, saying, “Naboth blessed [[or cursed]] God and [the] king”; and they take him out to the outside of the city, and stone him with stones, and he dies;

¹⁴ and they send to Jezebel, saying, “Naboth was stoned, and is dead.”

¹⁵ And it comes to pass, at Jezebel’s hearing that Naboth has been stoned, and is dead, that Jezebel says to Ahab, “Rise, possess the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, that he refused to give to you for money, for Naboth is not alive but dead.”

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, at Ahab’s hearing that Naboth is dead, that Ahab rises to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to possess it.

¹⁷ And the word of YHWH is to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

¹⁸ “Rise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who [is] in Samaria—behold, in the vineyard of Naboth, to where he has gone down to possess it,

¹⁹ and you have spoken to him, saying, Thus said YHWH: Have you murdered, and also possessed? And you have spoken to him, saying, Thus said YHWH: In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs lick your blood, even yours.”

²⁰ And Ahab says to Elijah, “Have you found me, O my enemy?” And he says, “I have found—because of your selling yourself to do evil in the eyes of YHWH;

²¹ behold, I am bringing calamity on you, and have taken away your posterity, and cut off from Ahab those sitting on the wall, and restrained, and left, in Israel,

²² and given up your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah, for the provocation with which you have provoked [Me], and cause Israel to sin.

²³ And YHWH has also spoken of Jezebel, saying, The dogs eat Jezebel in the bulwark of Jezreel;

²⁴ the dogs eat him who dies of Ahab in a city, and [the] bird of the heavens eats him who dies in a field;

²⁵ surely there has been none like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, whom his wife Jezebel has moved,

²⁶ and he does very abominably to go after the idols, according to all that the Amorite did whom YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel."

²⁷ And it comes to pass, at Ahab's hearing these words, that he tears his garments, and puts sackcloth on his flesh, and fasts, and lies in sackcloth, and goes gently.

²⁸ And the word of YHWH is to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

²⁹ "Have you seen that Ahab has been humbled before Me? Because that he has been humbled before Me, I do not bring in the calamity in his days; I bring in the calamity on his house in the days of his son."

22

¹ And they sit still three years; there is no war between Aram and Israel.

² And it comes to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat king of Judah comes down to the king of Israel,

³ and the king of Israel says to his servants, "Have you not known that Ramoth-Gilead [is] ours? And we are keeping silent from taking it out of the hand of the king of Aram!"

⁴ And he says to Jehoshaphat, "Do you go with me to battle [against] Ramoth-Gilead?" And Jehoshaphat says to the king of Israel, "As I am, so [are] you; as my people, so your people; as my horses, so your horses."

⁵ And Jehoshaphat says to the king of Israel, "Please seek the word of YHWH today";

⁷ And Jehoshaphat says, "[Is there] not a prophet of YHWH still here that we may seek from him?"

⁸ And the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat, "Yet one man [remains] to seek YHWH from him, and I have hated him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil—Micaiah son of Imlah"; and Jehoshaphat says, "Do not let the king say so."

⁹ And the king of Israel calls to a certain eunuch and says, "Hurry along Micaiah son of Imlah."

¹¹ And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah makes horns of iron for himself and says, "Thus said YHWH: By these you push the Arameans until they are consumed";

¹² and all the prophets are prophesying so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prosper, and YHWH has given [it] into the hand of the king."

¹³ And the messenger who has gone to call Micaiah has spoken to him, saying, "Now behold, the words of the prophets, with one mouth, [are] good toward the king; please let your word be as the word of one of them—and you have spoken good."

¹⁴ And Micaiah says, "YHWH lives; surely that which YHWH says to me—it I speak."

¹⁵ And he comes to the king, and the king says to him, "Micaiah, do we go to Ramoth-Gilead, to battle, or do we refrain?" And he says to him, "Go up, and prosper, and YHWH has given [it] into the hand of the king."

¹⁶ And the king says to him, "How many times am I adjuring you that you speak nothing to me but truth in the Name of YHWH?"

¹⁷ And he says, "I have seen all Israel scattered on the hills as sheep that have no shepherd, and YHWH says, These have no master; let them return—each to his house in peace."

¹⁸ And the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat, "Have I not said to you, He does not prophesy of me good, but evil?"

¹⁹ And he says, "Therefore, hear a word of YHWH! I have seen YHWH sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing by Him, on His right and on His left;

²⁰ and YHWH says, Who entices Ahab, and he goes up and falls in Ramoth-Gilead? And this one says thus, and that one is saying thus.

²¹ And the spirit goes out and stands before YHWH, and says, I entice him; and YHWH says to him, By what?

²² And he says, I go out, and have been a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets; and He says, You entice, and also you are able; go out and do so.

²³ And now, behold, YHWH has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and YHWH has spoken calamity concerning you."

²⁴ And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah draws near and strikes Micaiah on the cheek, and says, "Where [is] this [that] the spirit [from] YHWH has passed over from me to speak with you?"

²⁵ And Micaiah says, "Behold, you are seeing on that day when you go into the innermost chamber to be hidden."

²⁶ And the king of Israel says, "Take Micaiah, and turn him back to Amon head of the city, and to Joash son of the king,

²⁷ and you have said, Thus said the king: Place this one in the house of restraint, and cause him to eat bread of oppression, and water of oppression, until my coming in peace."

²⁸ And Micaiah says, "If you return in peace at all, YHWH has not spoken by me"; and he says, "Hear, O peoples, all of them."

²⁹ And the king of Israel goes up—and Jehoshaphat king of Judah—to Ramoth-Gilead.

³⁰ And the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat to disguise himself, and to go into battle, "And you, put on your garments." And the king of Israel disguises himself, and goes into battle.

³¹ And the king of Aram commanded the thirty-two heads of the charioteers whom he has, saying, "You do not fight with small or with great, but with the king of Israel by himself."

³² And it comes to pass, at the heads of the charioteers seeing Jehoshaphat, that they said, "He [is] surely the king of Israel!" And they turn aside to him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cries out,

³³ and it comes to pass, at the heads of the charioteers seeing that he [is] not the king of Israel, that they turn back from after him.

³⁴ And a man has drawn with a bow in his simplicity, and strikes the king of Israel between the joinings and the coat of mail, and he says to his charioteer, "Turn your hand, and take me out from the camp, for I have become sick."

³⁵ And the battle increases on that day, and the king has been caused to stand in the chariot, in front of Aram, and he dies in the evening, and the blood of the wound runs out to the midst of the chariot,

³⁶ and he causes the cry to pass over through the camp, at the going in of the sun, saying, "Each to his city, and each to his land!"

³⁷ And the king dies, and comes into Samaria, and they bury the king in Samaria;

³⁸ and [one] rinses the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs lick his blood when they had washed the armor, according to the word of YHWH that He spoke.

³⁹ And the rest of the matters of Ahab, and all that he did, and the house of ivory that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

⁴⁰ And Ahab lies with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah reigns in his stead.

⁴¹ And Jehoshaphat son of Asa has reigned over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel,

⁴² Jehoshaphat [is] a son of thirty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

⁴³ And he walks in all the way of his father Asa, he has not turned aside from it, to do that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH; only, the high places have not been removed—the people are still sacrificing and making incense in high places.

⁴⁴ And Jehoshaphat makes peace with the king of Israel;

⁴⁵ and the rest of the matters of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he exercised, and with which he fought, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

⁴⁶ And the remnant of the whoremongers who were left in the days of his father Asa he took away out of the land;

⁴⁷ and there is no king in Edom; he set up a king.

⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, and they did not go, for the ships were broken in Ezion-Geber.

⁴⁹ Then Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships"; and Jehoshaphat was not willing.

⁵⁰ And Jehoshaphat lies with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and his son Jehoram reigns in his stead.

⁵¹ Ahaziah son of Ahab has reigned over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigns over Israel two years,

⁵² and does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and walks in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat who caused Israel to sin,

⁵³ and serves the Ba'al, and bows himself to it, and provokes YHWH, God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

Second Kings

¹ And Moab transgresses against Israel after the death of Ahab,

² and Ahaziah falls through the lattice in his upper chamber that [is] in Samaria, and is sick, and sends messengers, and says to them, "Go, inquire of Ba'al-Zebub god of Ekron if I recover from this sickness."

³ And a messenger of YHWH has spoken to Elijah the Tishbite, "Rise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and speak to them, Is it because there is not a God in Israel—you are going to inquire of Ba'al-Zebub god of Ekron?"

⁴ And therefore, thus said YHWH: The bed to where you have gone up, you do not come down from it, for you certainly die"; and Elijah goes on.

⁶ And they say to him, "A man has come up to meet us and says to us, Go, return to the king who sent you, and you have said to him, Thus said YHWH: Is it because there is not a God in Israel—you are sending to inquire of Ba'al-Zebub god of Ekron? Therefore, the bed to where you have gone up, you do not come down from it, for you certainly die."

⁷ And he says to them, "What [is] the fashion of the man who has come up to meet you, and speaks these words to you?"

⁸ And they say to him, "A hairy man, and a girdle of skin girt around his loins"; and he says, "He [is] Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹ And he sends to him a head of fifty and his fifty, and he goes up to him (and behold, he is sitting on the top of the hill), and he speaks to him, "O man of God, the king has spoken, Come down."

¹⁰ And Elijah answers and speaks to the head of the fifty, "And if I [am] a man of God, fire comes down from the heavens and consumes you and your fifty"; and fire comes down from the heavens and consumes him and his fifty.

¹¹ And he turns and sends to him another head of fifty and his fifty, and he answers and speaks to him, "O man of God, thus said the king: Hurry, come down."

¹² And Elijah answers and speaks to them, "If I [am] a man of God, fire comes down from the heavens and consumes you and your fifty"; and fire of God comes down from the heavens and consumes him and his fifty.

¹³ And he turns and sends a third head of fifty and his fifty, and the third head of fifty goes up, and comes in, and bows on his knees before Elijah, and makes supplication to him, and speaks to him, "O man of God, please let my soul and the soul of your servants—these fifty—be precious in your eyes.

¹⁴ Behold, fire has come down from the heavens and consumes the two heads of the former fifties and their fifties; and now, let my soul be precious in your eyes."

¹⁵ And a messenger of YHWH speaks to Elijah, "Go down with him, do not be afraid of him"; and he rises and goes down with him to the king,

¹⁶ and speaks to him, "Thus said YHWH: Because that you have sent messengers to inquire of Ba'al-Zebub god of Ekron—is it because there is not a God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore, the bed to where you have gone up—you do not come down from it, for you certainly die.”

¹⁷ And he dies, according to the word of YHWH that Elijah spoke, and Jehoram reigns in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, for he had no son.

¹⁸ And the rest of the matters of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹ And it comes to pass, at YHWH’s taking up Elijah to the heavens in a whirlwind, that Elijah goes, and Elisha, from Gilgal,

² and Elijah says to Elisha, “Please abide here, for YHWH has sent me to Beth-El”; and Elisha says, “YHWH lives, and your soul lives, if I leave you”; and they go down to Beth-El.

³ And sons of the prophets who [are] in Beth-El come out to Elisha, and say to him, “Have you known that today YHWH is taking your lord from your head?” And he says, “I also have known—keep silent.”

⁴ And Elijah says to him, “Elisha, please abide here, for YHWH has sent me to Jericho”; and he says, “YHWH lives, and your soul lives, if I leave you”; and they come to Jericho.

⁵ And sons of the prophets who [are] in Jericho come near to Elisha, and say to him, “Have you known that today YHWH is taking your lord from your head?” And he says, “I also have known—keep silent.”

⁶ And Elijah says to him, “Please abide here, for YHWH has sent me to the Jordan”; and he says, “YHWH lives, and your soul lives, if I leave you”; and both of them go on—

⁷ and fifty men of the sons of the prophets have gone on, and stand opposite [them] far off—and both of them have stood by the Jordan.

⁸ And Elijah takes his robe, and wraps [it] together, and strikes the waters, and they are halved, here and there, and both of them pass over on dry land.

⁹ And it comes to pass, at their passing over, that Elijah has said to Elisha, “Ask what I do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha says, “Indeed, please let there be a double portion of your spirit to me”;

¹⁰ and he says, “You have asked a hard thing; if you see me taken from you, it is to you so; and if not, it is not.”

¹¹ And it comes to pass, they are going, going on and speaking, and behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire [appear], and they separate between them both, and Elijah goes up to the heavens in a whirlwind.

¹² And Elisha is seeing, and he is crying, “My father! My father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!” And he has not seen him again; and he takes hold on his garments and tears them into two pieces.

¹³ And he takes up the robe of Elijah that fell from off him, and turns back and stands on the edge of the Jordan,

¹⁵ And they see him—the sons of the prophets who [are] in Jericho—from opposite [them], and they say, “The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha”; and they come to meet him, and bow themselves to him to the earth,

¹⁷ And they press on him, until he is ashamed, and he says, “Send”; and they send fifty men, and they seek three days, and have not found him;

¹⁸ and they return to him—and he is abiding in Jericho—and he says to them, “Did I not say to you, Do not go?”

¹⁹ And the men of the city say to Elisha, “Now behold, the site of the city [is] good, as my lord sees, and the waters [are] bad, and the earth sterile.”

²⁰ And he says, “Bring a new dish to me, and place salt there”; and they bring [it] to him,

²¹ and he goes out to the source of the waters, and casts salt there, and says, “Thus said YHWH: I have given healing to these waters; there is not anymore death and sterility there.”

²² And the waters are healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha that he spoke.

²⁵ And he goes from there to the hill of Carmel, and from there he has turned back to Samaria.

¹ And Jehoram son of Ahab has reigned over Israel, in Samaria, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigns twelve years,

² and does evil in the eyes of YHWH, only not like his father, and like his mother, and he turns aside the standing-pillar of Ba'al that his father made;

³ surely he has cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin; he has not turned aside from it.

⁴ And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master, and he rendered to the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and one hundred thousand rams, [with] wool,

⁵ and it comes to pass at the death of Ahab, that the king of Moab transgresses against the king of Israel.

⁶ And King Jehoram goes out from Samaria in that day, and inspects all Israel,

⁷ and goes and sends to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has transgressed against me; do you go with me to Moab for battle?” And he says, “I go up, as I, so you; as my people, so your people; as my horses, so your horses.”

⁸ And he says, “Where [is] this—the way we go up?” And he says, “The way of the wilderness of Edom.”

⁹ And the king of Israel goes, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom, and they turn around the way seven days, and there has been no water for the camp, and for the livestock that [are] at their feet,

¹⁰ and the king of Israel says, "Aah! For YHWH has called for these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

¹² And Jehoshaphat says, "The word of YHWH is with him"; and the king of Israel goes down to him, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom.

¹³ And Elisha says to the king of Israel, "And what do I [have to do] with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother"; and the king of Israel says to him, "No, for YHWH has called for these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

¹⁴ And Elisha says, "YHWH of Hosts lives, before whom I have stood; for unless I am lifting up the face of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I do not look to you, nor see you;

¹⁵ and now, bring a musician to me"; and it has been, at the playing of the musician, that the hand of YHWH is on him,

¹⁶ and he says, "Thus said YHWH: Make this valley ditches—ditches;

¹⁷ for thus said YHWH: You do not see wind, nor do you see rain, and that valley is full of water, and you have drunk—you, and your livestock, and your beasts.

¹⁸ And this has been light in the eyes of YHWH, and he has given Moab into your hand,

²⁰ And it comes to pass in the morning, at the ascending of the [morning] present, that behold, waters are coming in from the way of Edom, and the land is filled with the waters,

²¹ and all of Moab has heard that the kings have come up to fight against them, and they are called together, from everyone girding on a girdle and upward, and they stand by the border.

²² And they rise early in the morning, and the sun has shone on the waters, and the Moabites see, from opposite [them], [that] the waters [are] red as blood,

²³ and say, "This [is] blood; the kings have been surely destroyed, and they each strike his neighbor; and now for spoil, Moab!"

²⁴ And they come to the camp of Israel, and Israel rises, and strikes the Moabites, and they flee from their face; and they enter into Moab, so as to strike Moab,

²⁶ And the king of Moab sees that the battle has been too strong for him, and he takes with him seven hundred men drawing sword, to cleave through to the king of Edom, and they have not been able,

²⁷ and he takes his son, the firstborn who reigns in his stead, and causes him to ascend [as] a burnt-offering on the wall, and there is great wrath against Israel, and they journey from off him, and return to the land.

¹ And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets has cried to Elisha, saying, "Your servant, my husband, is dead, and you have known that your servant was fearing YHWH, and the lender has come to take my two children to himself for servants."

² And Elisha says to her, "What do I do for you? Declare to me, what do you have in the house?" And she says, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a pot of oil."

³ And he says, "Go, ask [for] vessels for yourself from outside, from all your neighbors—empty vessels—let [them] not be few;

⁴ and you have entered, and have shut the door on you, and on your sons, and have poured it into all these vessels, and the full ones you remove."

⁵ And she goes from him, and shuts the door on her, and on her sons; they are bringing [them] near to her, and she is pouring [it] out,

⁶ and it comes to pass, at the filling of the vessels, that she says to her son, "Bring another vessel near to me," and he says to her, "There is not another vessel"; and the oil stays.

⁷ And she comes and declares [it] to the man of God, and he says, "Go, sell the oil, and repay your loan; and you [and] your sons live off the rest."

⁸ And the day comes that Elisha passes over to Shunem, and there [is] a great woman, and she lays hold on him to eat bread, and it comes to pass, at the time of his passing over, he turns aside there to eat bread,

⁹ and she says to her husband, "Now behold, I have known that he is a holy man of God, passing over by us continually;

¹⁰ please let us make a little upper chamber of the wall, and we set for him there a bed, and a table, and a high seat, and a lampstand; and it has been, in his coming to us, he turns aside there."

¹¹ And the day comes that he comes in there, and turns aside to the upper chamber, and lies there,

¹² and he says to his young man Gehazi, "Call for this Shunammite"; and he calls for her, and she stands before him.

¹³ And he says to him, "Now say to her, Behold, you have troubled yourself concerning us with all this trouble; what can [I] do for you? Is it to speak for you to the king, or to the head of the host?" And she says, "I am dwelling in the midst of my people."

¹⁴ And he says, "And what can [I] do for her?" And Gehazi says, "Truly she has no son, and her husband [is] aged."

¹⁵ And he says, "Call for her"; and he calls for her, and she stands at the opening,

¹⁶ and he says, "At this season, according to the time of life, you are embracing a son"; and she says, "No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your maidservant."

¹⁷ And the woman conceives and bears a son, at this season, according to the time of life that Elisha spoke of to her.

¹⁸ And the boy grows, and the day comes that he goes out to his father, to the reapers,

¹⁹ and he says to his father, "My head, my head"; and he says to the young man, "Carry him to his mother";

²⁰ and he carries him, and brings him to his mother, and he sits on her knees until the noon, and dies.

²¹ And she goes up, and lays him on the bed of the man of God, and shuts [the door] on him, and goes out,

²² and calls to her husband and says, "Please send one of the young men and one of the donkeys to me, and I run to the man of God, and return."

²³ And he says, "Why are you going to him today? [It is] neither new moon nor Sabbath!" And she says, "Peace [to you]!"

²⁴ And she saddles the donkey and says to her young man, "Lead, and go, do not restrain riding for me, except I have commanded [so] to you."

²⁵ And she goes, and comes to the man of God, to the hill of Carmel, and it comes to pass, at the man of God's seeing her from within view, that he says to his young man Gehazi, "Behold, this Shunammite;

²⁶ now please run to meet her, and say to her, Is there peace to you? Is there peace to your husband? Is there peace to the boy?" And she says, "Peace."

²⁷ And she comes to the man of God, to the hill, and lays hold on his feet, and Gehazi comes near to thrust her away, and the man of God says, "Leave her alone, for her soul [is] bitter to her, and YHWH has hidden [it] from me, and has not declared [it] to me."

²⁸ And she says, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?"

²⁹ And he says to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go; when you meet a man, you do not greet him; and when a man greets you, you do not answer him; and you have laid my staff on the face of the youth."

³⁰ And the mother of the youth says, "YHWH lives, and your soul lives—if I leave you"; and he rises and goes after her.

³¹ And Gehazi has passed on before them, and lays the staff on the face of the youth, and there is no voice, and there is no attention, and he turns back to meet him, and declares to him, saying, "The youth has not awoken."

³² And Elisha comes into the house, and behold, the youth is dead, laid on his bed,

³³ and he goes in and shuts the door on them both, and prays to YHWH.

³⁵ and he turns back and walks in the house, once here and once there, and goes up and stretches himself on him, and the youth sneezes until seven times, and the youth opens his eyes.

³⁶ And he calls to Gehazi and says, "Call to this Shunammite"; and he calls her, and she comes to him, and he says, "Lift up your son."

³⁷ And she goes in, and falls at his feet, and bows herself to the earth, and lifts up her son, and goes out.

³⁹ And one goes out to the field to gather herbs, and finds a vine of the field, and gathers gourds of the field from it—the fullness of his garment—and comes in and splits [them] into the pot of stew, for they did not know [them];

⁴¹ And he says, “Then bring a meal”; and he casts into the pot and says, “Pour out for the people, and they eat”; and there was no bad thing in the pot.

⁴² And a man has come from Ba’al-Shalishah, and brings to the man of God bread of first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of grain in its husk, and he says, “Give to the people, and they eat.”

⁴⁴ and he gives before them, and they eat and leave, according to the word of YHWH.

² And the Arameans have gone out [by] troops, and they take a little girl captive out of the land of Israel, and she is before the wife of Naaman,

³ and she says to her mistress, “O that my lord [were] before the prophet who [is] in Samaria; then he recovers him from his leprosy.”

⁴ And [one] goes in and declares [it] to his lord, saying, “Thus and thus the girl who [is] from the land of Israel has spoken.”

⁵ And the king of Aram says, “Go, enter, and I send a letter to the king of Israel”; and he goes and takes in his hand ten talents of silver, and six thousand [pieces] of gold, and ten changes of garments.

⁶ And he brings in the letter to the king of Israel, saying, “And now, at the coming in of this letter to you, behold, I have sent my servant Naaman to you, and you have recovered him from his leprosy.”

⁷ And it comes to pass, at the king of Israel’s reading the letter, that he tears his garments and says, “Am I God, to put to death and to keep alive, that this [one] is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy? For surely know now, and see, for he is presenting himself to me.”

⁸ And it comes to pass, at Elisha the man of God’s hearing that the king of Israel has torn his garments, that he sends to the king, saying, “Why have you torn your garments? Please let him come to me, and he knows that there is a prophet in Israel.”

⁹ And Naaman comes, with his horses and with his chariot, and stands at the opening of the house for Elisha;

¹⁰ and Elisha sends a messenger to him, saying, “Go, and you have washed seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh turns back to you—and be clean.”

11 And Naaman is angry, and goes on and says, "Behold, I said, He certainly comes out to me, and has stood and called in the Name of his God YHWH, and waved his hand over the place, and recovered the leper.

12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Do I not wash in them and I have been clean?" And he turns and goes on in fury.

13 And his servants come near, and speak to him, and say, "My father, the prophet had spoken a great thing to you—do you not do [it]? And surely, when he has said to you, Wash, and be clean."

14 And he goes down and dips in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh turns back as the flesh of a little youth, and is clean.

15 And he turns back to the man of God, he and all his camp, and comes in, and stands before him, and says, "Now behold, I have known that there is not a God in all the earth except in Israel; and now, please take a blessing from your servant."

16 And he says, "YHWH lives, before whom I have stood—if I take [it]"; and he presses on him to take, and he refuses.

17 And Naaman says, "If not, please let a couple of mules' burden of earth be given to your servant, for your servant makes no more burnt-offering and sacrifice to other gods, but [only sacrifices] to YHWH.

18 For in this thing may YHWH be propitious to your servant, in the coming in of my lord into the house of Rimmon to bow himself there, and he was supported by my hand, and I bowed myself [in] the house of Rimmon; for my bowing myself in the house of Rimmon, may YHWH now be propitious to your servant in this thing."

19 And he says to him, "Go in peace." And he goes from him a distance of land,

20 and Gehazi, servant of Elisha the man of God, says, "Behold, my lord has spared this Aramean Naaman, not to receive from his hand that which he brought; for YHWH lives; if I have run after him, then I have taken something from him."

21 And Gehazi pursues after Naaman, and Naaman sees one running after him, and comes down off the chariot to meet him, and says, "Is there peace?"

22 And he says, "Peace; my lord has sent me, saying, Behold, now, this, two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim; please give a talent of silver and two changes of garments to them."

23 And Naaman says, "Be pleased, take two talents"; and he urges him, and binds two talents of silver in two purses, and two changes of garments, and gives [them] to two of his young men, and they carry [them] before him;

24 and he comes to the high place, and takes [them] out of their hand, and lays [them] up in the house, and sends the men away, and they go.

25 And he has come in, and stands by his lord, and Elisha says to him, "From where—Gehazi?" And he says, "Your servant did not go here or there."

26 And he says to him, "My heart did not go when the man turned from off his chariot to meet you; is it a time to take silver, and to take garments, and olives, and vines, and flock, and herd, and menservants, and maidservants?

²⁷ Indeed, the leprosy of Naaman cleaves to you and to your seed for all time"; and he goes out from before him—leprous as snow.

¹ And sons of the prophet say to Elisha, "Now behold, the place where we are dwelling before you is too narrow for us;

² please let us go to the Jordan, and we each take one beam from there, and we make a place there for ourselves to dwell there"; and he says, "Go."

³ And the one says, "Please be willing, and go with your servants"; and he says, "I go."

⁴ And he goes with them, and they come to the Jordan, and cut down the trees,

⁵ and it comes to pass, the one is felling the beam, and the iron [ax head] has fallen into the water, and he cries and says, "Aah! My lord, for it was borrowed!"

⁶ And the man of God says, "To where has it fallen?" And he shows him the place, and he cuts a stick, and casts [it] there, and causes the iron to swim,

⁷ and says, "Raise [it] up for yourself"; and he puts forth his hand and takes it.

⁸ And the king of Aram has been fighting against Israel, and takes counsel with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place [is] my encamping."

⁹ And the man of God sends to the king of Israel, saying, "Take heed of passing by this place, for the Arameans are coming down there";

¹⁰ and the king of Israel sends to the place of which the man of God spoke to him, and warned him, and he is preserved there not [just] once and not [just] twice.

¹¹ And the heart of the king of Aram is tossed about concerning this thing, and he calls to his servants and says to them, "Do you not declare to me who of us [is] for the king of Israel?"

¹³ And he says, "Go and see where he [is], and I send and take him"; and it is declared to him, saying, "Behold—in Dothan."

¹⁴ And he sends horses and chariot, and a heavy force there, and they come in by night, and go around against the city.

¹⁵ And the servant of the man of God rises early, and goes out, and behold, a force is surrounding the city, and horse and chariot, and his young man says to him, "Aah! My lord, how do we do?"

¹⁶ And he says, "Do not fear, for more [are] they who [are] with us than they who [are] with them."

¹⁸ And they come down to it, and Elisha prays to YHWH and says, "Please strike this nation with blindness"; and He strikes them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha says to them, "This [is] not the way, nor [is] this the city; come after me, and I lead you to the man whom you seek"; and he leads them to Samaria.

20 And it comes to pass, at their coming to Samaria, that Elisha says, "YHWH, open the eyes of these, and they see"; and YHWH opens their eyes, and they see, and behold, [they are] in the midst of Samaria!

21 And the king of Israel says to Elisha at his seeing them, "My father, do I strike, do I strike?"

22 And he says, "You do not strike; are you striking those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, and they eat, and drink, and go to their lord."

23 And he prepares great provision for them, and they eat and drink, and he sends them away, and they go to their lord: and troops of Aram have not added to come into the land of Israel anymore.

24 And it comes to pass afterward, that Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathers all his camp, and goes up, and lays siege to Samaria,

25 and there is a great famine in Samaria, and behold, they are laying siege to it, until the head of a donkey is at eighty pieces of silver, and a fourth of the cab of dove's dung at five pieces of silver.

26 And it comes to pass, the king of Israel is passing by on the wall, and a woman has cried to him, saying, "Save, my lord, O king."

27 And he says, "YHWH does not save you—from where do I save you? Out of the threshing-floor or out of the wine-vat?"

28 And the king says to her, "What is [troubling] you?" And she says, "This woman said to me, Give your son, and we eat him today, and we eat my son tomorrow;

29 and we boil my son and eat him, and I say to her on the next day, Give your son, and we eat him; and she hides her son."

30 And it comes to pass, at the king's hearing the words of the woman, that he tears his garments, and he is passing by on the wall, and the people see, and behold, the sackcloth [is] within on his flesh.

31 And he says, "Thus God does to me and thus He adds, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on him this day."

32 And Elisha is sitting in his house, and the elderly are sitting with him, and [the king] sends a man from before him; before the messenger comes to him, even he himself said to the elderly, "Have you seen that this son of the murderer has sent [him] to turn aside my head? See, at the coming in of the messenger, shut the door, and you have held him fast at the door, is not the sound of the feet of his lord behind him?"

33 He is yet speaking with them, and behold, the messenger is coming down to him, and he says, "Behold, this [is] the calamity from YHWH; why do I wait for YHWH anymore?"

1 And Elisha says, "Hear a word of YHWH! Thus said YHWH: About this time tomorrow, a measure of fine flour [is] at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, in the Gate of Samaria."

2 And the captain whom the king has, by whose hand he has been supported, answers the man of God and says, "Behold, YHWH is making windows in the heavens—will this thing be?” And he says, “Behold, you are seeing it with your eyes, and you do not eat thereof.”

³ And four men have been leprous at the opening of the gate, and they say to one another, “Why are we sitting here until we have died?”

⁴ If we have said, We go into the city, then the famine [is] in the city and we have died there; and if we have sat here, then we have died; and now, come and we go down to the camp of Aram; if they keep us alive, we live, and if they put us to death—we have died.”

⁵ And they rise in the twilight, to go to the camp of Aram, and they come to the extremity of the camp of Aram, and behold, there is not a man there,

⁷ And they rise and flee in the twilight, and forsake their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys—the camp as it [is]—and flee for their life.

⁸ And these lepers come to the extremity of the camp, and come into one tent, and eat, and drink, and lift up silver, and gold, and garments from there, and go and hide; and they turn back and go into another tent, and lift up from there, and go and hide.

⁹ And they say to one another, “We are not doing right this day; it [is] a day of tidings, and we are keeping silent; and we have waited until the morning light, then punishment has found us; and now, come and we go in and declare [it] to the house of the king.”

¹⁰ And they come in, and call to the gatekeeper of the city, and declare for themselves, saying, “We have come to the camp of Aram, and behold, there is no man or sound of man there, but the bound horse, and the bound donkey, and tents as they [are].”

¹¹ And he calls the gatekeepers, and they declare [it] to the house of the king within.

¹² And the king rises by night and says to his servants, “Now let me declare to you that which the Arameans have done to us; they have known that we are famished, and they go out from the camp to be hidden in the field, saying, When they come out from the city, then we catch them alive, and we enter into the city.”

¹⁴ And they take two chariot-horses, and the king sends [them] after the camp of Aram, saying, “Go, and see.”

¹⁶ And the people go out and spoil the camp of Aram, and there is a measure of fine flour at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, according to the word of YHWH.

¹⁷ And the king has appointed the captain, by whose hand he is supported, over the gate, and the people tread him down in the gate, and he dies, as the man of God spoke, which he spoke in the coming down of the king to him,

¹⁸ indeed, it comes to pass, according to the speaking of the man of God to the king, saying, “Two measures of barley at a shekel, and a measure of fine flour at a shekel are, at this time tomorrow, in the Gate of Samaria”;

¹⁹ and the captain answers the man of God and says, “And behold, YHWH is making windows in the heavens—will this thing be?” And he says, “Behold, you are seeing it with your eyes, and you do not eat thereof”;

²⁰ and it comes to him so, and the people tread him down in the gate, and he dies.

¹ And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had revived, saying, “Rise and go, you and your household, and sojourn where you sojourn, for YHWH has called for a famine, and also, it is coming to the land [for] seven years.”

² And the woman rises, and does according to the word of the man of God, and goes, she and her household, and sojourns in the land of the Philistines [for] seven years.

⁴ And the king is speaking to Gehazi, servant of the man of God, saying, “Please recount to me the whole of the great things that Elisha has done.”

⁵ And it comes to pass, he is recounting to the king how he had revived the dead, and behold, the woman whose son he had revived is crying to the king for her house and for her field, and Gehazi says, “My lord, O king, this [is] the woman, and this [is] her son, whom Elisha revived.”

⁶ And the king inquires of the woman, and she recounts to him, and the king appoints a certain eunuch to her, saying, “Give back all that she has, and all the increase of the field from the day of her leaving the land even until now.”

⁷ And Elisha comes to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram is sick, and it is declared to him, saying, “The man of God has come here.”

⁸ And the king says to Hazael, “Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and you have sought YHWH by him, saying, Do I revive from this sickness?”

⁹ And Hazael goes to meet him, and takes a present in his hand, even of every good thing of Damascus, a burden of forty camels, and he comes in and stands before him, and says, “Your son Ben-Hadad, king of Aram, has sent me to you, saying, Do I revive from this sickness?”

¹⁰ And Elisha says to him, “Go, say, You certainly do not revive, seeing [that] YHWH has showed me that he surely dies.”

¹¹ And he sets his face, indeed, he sets [it] until he is ashamed, and the man of God weeps.

¹² And Hazael says, “Why is my lord weeping?” And he says, “Because I have known the evil that you do to the sons of Israel—you send their fortifications into fire, and you slay their young men with sword, and you dash their sucklings to pieces, and you rip up their pregnant women.”

¹³ And Hazael says, "But what [is] your servant—the dog, that he does this great thing?" And Elisha says, "YHWH has showed me you—king of Aram."

¹⁴ And he goes from Elisha, and comes to his lord, and he says to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he says, "He said to me, You certainly recover."

¹⁷ he was a son of thirty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

¹⁸ And he walks in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab did, for a daughter of Ahab was to him for a wife, and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, ¹⁹ and YHWH was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, as He said to him, to give a lamp to him—to his sons [for] all the days.

²⁰ In his days Edom has revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they cause a king to reign over them,

²¹ and Joram passes over to Zair, and all the chariots with him, and he himself has risen by night, and strikes Edom that is coming around to him, and the heads of the chariots, and the people flee to their tents;

²² and Edom revolts from under the hand of Judah until this day; then Libnah revolts at that time.

²³ And the rest of the matters of Joram and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²⁴ And Joram lies with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Ahaziah reigns in his stead.

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, has reigned;

²⁶ Ahaziah [is] a son of twenty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned one year in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Athaliah daughter of Omri, king of Israel,

²⁷ and he walks in the way of the house of Ahab, and does evil in the eyes of YHWH, like the house of Ahab, for he [is] son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

²⁸ And he goes with Joram son of Ahab to battle with Hazael king of Aram in Ramoth-Gilead, and the Arameans strike Joram, ²⁹ and Joram the king turns back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds with which the Arameans strike him in Ramah, in his fighting with Hazael king of Aram, and Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, has gone down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he is sick.

¹ And Elisha the prophet has called to one of the sons of the prophets and says to him, "Gird up your loins, and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-Gilead,

² and you have gone in there, and see Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, there, and you have gone in, and caused him to rise out of the midst of his brothers, and brought him into the inner part of an inner-chamber,

³ and taken the vial of oil, and poured [it] on his head, and said, Thus said YHWH: I have anointed you for king to Israel; and you have opened the door, and fled, and do not wait."

⁴ And the young man goes—the young man the prophet—to Ramoth-Gilead,

⁵ and comes in, and behold, chiefs of the force are sitting, and he says, "I have a word for you, O chief!" And Jehu says, "To which of all of us?" And he says, "To you, O chief."

⁶ And he rises and comes into the house, and he pours the oil on his head, and says to him, "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: I have anointed you for king to the people of YHWH, to Israel,

⁷ and you have struck the house of your lord Ahab, and I have required the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of YHWH, from the hand of Jezebel;

⁸ and all the house of Ahab has perished, and I have cut off from Ahab those sitting on the wall, and restrained, and left, in Israel,

⁹ and I have given up the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and as the house of Baasha son of Ahijah,

¹⁰ and dogs eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there is none burying"; and he opens the door and flees.

¹¹ And Jehu has gone out to the servants of his lord, and [one] says to him, "Is there peace? Why did this madman come to you?" And he says to them, "You have known the man and his talk."

¹² And they say, "False! Declare to us now"; and he says, "He spoke thus and thus to me, saying, Thus said YHWH: I have anointed you for king to Israel."

¹³ And they hurry—each [one]—and take his garment, and put [it] under him at the top of the stairs, and blow with a horn, and say, "Jehu has reigned!"

¹⁴ And Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, conspires against Joram. And Joram was keeping in Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel, from the presence of Hazael king of Aram,

¹⁶ And Jehu rides, and goes to Jezreel, for Joram is lying there, and Ahaziah king of Judah has gone down to see Joram.

¹⁷ And the watchman is standing on the tower in Jezreel, and sees the company of Jehu in his coming, and says, "I see a company"; and Joram says, "Take a rider and send [him] to meet them, and let him say, Is there peace?"

¹⁸ And the rider on the horse goes to meet him and says, "Thus said the king: Is there peace?" And Jehu says, "And what is peace to you? Turn around behind me." And the watchman declares, saying, "The messenger came to them, and he has not returned."

19 And he sends a second rider on a horse, and he comes to them and says, "Thus said the king: Is there peace?" And Jehu says, "And what is peace to you? Turn around behind me."

20 And the watchman declares, saying, "He came to them, and he has not returned, and the driving [is] like the driving of Jehu son of Nimshi, for he drives with madness."

21 And Jehoram says, "Harness"; and his chariot is harnessed, and Jehoram king of Israel goes out, and Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his chariot, and they go out to meet Jehu, and find him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it comes to pass, at Jehoram's seeing Jehu, that he says, "Is there peace, Jehu?" And he says, "What [is] the peace, while the whoredoms of your mother Jezebel, and her witchcrafts, are many?"

23 And Jehoram turns his hands and flees, and says to Ahaziah, "Deceit, O Ahaziah!"

24 And Jehu has filled his hand with a bow, and strikes Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow goes out from his heart, and he bows down in his chariot.

25 And [Jehu] says to his captain Bidkar, "Lift up, cast him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite—for remember, you and I were riding together after his father Ahab, and YHWH lifted this burden on him:

26 Have I not seen the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons last night—a declaration of YHWH—indeed, I have repaid to you in this portion—a declaration of YHWH—and now, lift up, cast him into the portion, according to the word of YHWH."

27 And Ahaziah king of Judah has seen, and flees the way of the garden-house, and Jehu pursues after him, and says, "Strike him—also him—in the chariot," in the going up to Gur, that [is] Ibleam, and he flees to Megiddo, and dies there,

28 and his servants carry him to Jerusalem in a chariot, and bury him in his burying-place with his fathers in the City of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah reigned over Judah.

30 And Jehu comes to Jezreel, and Jezebel has heard, and puts her eyes in paint and beautifies her head, and looks out through the window.

31 And Jehu has come into the gate, and she says, "Was there peace [for] Zimri—slayer of his lord?"

32 And he lifts up his face to the window and says, "Who [is] with me? Who?" And two [or] three eunuchs look out to him;

33 and he says, "Let her go"; and they let her go, and [some] of her blood is sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses, and he treads her down.

34 And he comes in, and eats, and drinks, and says, "Now look after this cursed one and bury her, for she [is] a king's daughter."

35 And they go to bury her, and have not found [anything] of her except the skull, and the feet, and the palms of the hands.

36 And they turn back, and declare [it] to him, and he says, "It [is] the word of YHWH that He spoke by the hand of this servant, Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel, 37 and the carcass of Jezebel has been as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, that they do not say, This [is] Jezebel."

² “And now, at the coming in of this letter to you, and sons of your lord [are] with you, and the chariots and the horses, and a fortified city, and the armor, [are] with you,

³ that you have seen the best and the most upright of the sons of your lord, and have set [him] on the throne of his father; and fight for the house of your lord.”

⁴ And they fear very greatly, and say, “Behold, the two kings have not stood before him, and how do we stand—we?”

⁵ And he who [is] over the house, and he who [is] over the city, and the elderly, and those supporting, send to Jehu, saying, “We [are] your servants, and all that you say to us we do; we do not make anyone king—do that which [is] good in your eyes.”

⁶ And he writes a letter to them a second time, saying, “If you [are] for me, and are listening to my voice, take the heads of the men—the sons of your lord, and come to me about this time tomorrow, to Jezreel”; and the sons of the king [are] seventy men, with the great ones of the city—those bringing them up.

⁸ and the messenger comes in, and declares [it] to him, saying, “They have brought in the heads of the sons of the king,” and he says, “Make them two heaps at the opening of the gate until the morning.”

⁹ And it comes to pass in the morning, that he goes out, and stands, and says to all the people, “You are righteous; behold, I have conspired against my lord, and slay him—and who struck all these?”

¹¹ And Jehu strikes all those left to the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his acquaintances, and his priests, until he has not left a remnant to him.

¹² And he rises, and comes in and goes to Samaria; he [is] at the shepherds’ shearing-house in the way,

¹³ and Jehu has found the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah and says, “Who [are] you?” And they say, “We [are] brothers of Ahaziah, and we go down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the mistress.”

¹⁴ And he says, “Catch them alive”; and they catch them alive, and slaughter them at the pit of the shearing-house, forty-two men, and he has not left [even one] man of them.

¹⁵ And he goes there, and finds Jehonadab son of Rechab to meet him, and blesses him, and says to him, “Is your heart right, as my heart [is] with your heart?” And Jehonadab says, “It is.” “Then it is; give your hand”; and he gives his hand, and he causes him to come up into the chariot to him,

¹⁶ and says, “Come with me, and look on my zeal for YHWH”; and they cause him to ride in his chariot.

¹⁸ And Jehu gathers the whole of the people and says to them, "Ahab served Ba'al a little—Jehu serves him much:

¹⁹ and now, all the prophets of Ba'al, all his servants, and all his priests, call to me; do not let a man be lacking, for I have a great sacrifice for Ba'al; everyone who is lacking—he does not live"; and Jehu has done [it] in subtlety, in order to destroy the servants of Ba'al.

²⁰ And Jehu says, "Sanctify a restraint for Ba'al"; and they proclaim [it].

²¹ And Jehu sends into all Israel, and all the servants of Ba'al come in, and there has not been left a man who has not come in; and they come into the house of Ba'al, and the house of Ba'al is full—mouth to mouth.

²² And he says to him who [is] over the wardrobe, "Bring out clothing for all those serving Ba'al"; and he brings out the clothing to them.

²³ And Jehu goes in—and Jehonadab son of Rechab—to the house of Ba'al, and says to the servants of Ba'al, "Search and see, lest there be [any] from the servants of YHWH here with you—but [only] the servants of Ba'al by themselves."

²⁴ And they come in to make sacrifices and burnt-offerings, and Jehu has set eighty men for himself in an out-place, and says, "The man who lets [any] of the men whom I am bringing into your hand escape—his soul for his soul."

²⁵ And it comes to pass, at his finishing to make the burnt-offering, that Jehu says to the runners and to the captains, "Go in, strike them, let none come out"; and they strike them by the mouth of the sword, and the runners and the captains cast [them] out; and they go to the city, to the house of Ba'al,

²⁶ and bring out the standing-pillars of the house of Ba'al, and burn them,

²⁷ and break down the standing-pillar of Ba'al, and break down the house of Ba'al, and appoint it for a latrine to this day.

²⁸ And Jehu destroys Ba'al out of Israel,

²⁹ only [not]—the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, that he caused Israel to sin, Jehu has not turned aside from after them—the calves of gold that [are] at Beth-El and in Dan.

³⁰ And YHWH says to Jehu, "Because that you have done well, to do that which [is] right in My eyes—according to all that [is] in My heart you have done to the house of Ahab—the sons of the fourth [generation] sit on the throne of Israel for you."

³¹ And Jehu has not taken heed to walk in the Law of YHWH, God of Israel, with all his heart; he has not turned aside from the sins of Jeroboam that he caused Israel to sin.

³² In those days YHWH has begun to cut off [some] in Israel, and Hazael strikes them in all the border of Israel,

³⁴ And the rest of the matters of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

³⁵ And Jehu lies with his fathers, and they bury him in Samaria, and his son Jehoahaz reigns in his stead.

³⁶ And the days that Jehu has reigned over Israel in Samaria [are] twenty-eight years.

¹ And Athaliah [is] mother of Ahaziah, and she has seen that her son [is] dead, and she rises, and destroys all the seed of the kingdom;

² and Jehosheba daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, takes Joash son of Ahaziah, and steals him out of the midst of the sons of the king who are put to death, him and his nurse, in the inner part of the bed-chambers, and they hide him from the presence of Athaliah, and he has not been put to death,

³ and he is with her, in the house of YHWH, hiding himself, six years, and Athaliah is reigning over the land.

⁵ and commands them, saying, "This [is] the thing that you do; the third of you [are] going in on the Sabbath, and keepers of the charge of the house of the king,

⁶ and the third [is] at the Gate of Sur, and the third at the gate behind the runners, and you have kept the charge of the house pulled down;

⁷ and two parts of you, all going out on the Sabbath—they have kept the charge of the house of YHWH about the king,

¹⁰ and the priest gives to the heads of the hundreds the spears and the shields that King David had, that [are] in the house of YHWH.

¹² and he brings out the son of the king, and puts the crown on him, and the Testimony, and they make him king, and anoint him, and strike the hand, and say, "Let the king live."

¹³ And Athaliah hears the voice of the runners [and] of the people, and she comes to the people [in] the house of YHWH,

¹⁵ And Jehoiada the priest commands the heads of the hundreds, inspectors of the force, and says to them, "Bring her out to the outside of the ranges, and him who is going after her, put to death by the sword":

for the priest had said, "Do not let her be put to death in the house of YHWH."

¹⁶ And they make sides for her, and she enters the way of the entering in of the horses to the house of the king, and is put to death there.

¹⁷ And Jehoiada makes the covenant between YHWH and the king and the people, to be for a people to YHWH, and between the king and the people.

¹⁸ And all the people of the land go to the house of Ba'al, and break it down; they have thoroughly broken its altars and its images, and they have slain Mattan priest of Ba'al before the altars; and the priest sets inspectors over the house of YHWH,

²⁰ And all the people of the land rejoice, and the city [is] quiet, and they have put Athaliah to death by the sword in the house of the king;

²¹ Jehoash is a son of seven years in his reigning.

¹ In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash has reigned, and he has reigned forty years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Zibiah of Beer-Sheba,

² and Jehoash does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH all his days in which Jehoiada the priest directed him,

³ only, the high places have not been removed—the people are still sacrificing and making incense in high places.

⁵ the priests take to themselves, each from his acquaintance, and they strengthen the breach of the house in all [places] there where a breach is found."

⁶ And it comes to pass, in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests have not strengthened the breach of the house,

⁷ and King Jehoash calls to Jehoiada the priest, and to the priests, and says to them, "Why are you not strengthening the breach of the house? And now, receive no money from your acquaintances, but give it for the breach of the house."

⁸ And the priests do not consent to receive money from the people, nor to strengthen the breach of the house,

¹¹ and have given the weighed money into the hands of those doing the work, those inspecting the house of YHWH, and they bring it out to those working in the wood, and to builders who are working in the house of YHWH,

¹² and to those [repairing] the wall, and to hewers of stone, and to buy wood and hewn stones to strengthen the breach of the house of YHWH, and for all that goes out on the house, to strengthen it.

¹³ Only, there is not made for the house of YHWH basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessel of gold, and vessel of silver, out of the money that is brought into the house of YHWH;

¹⁴ for they give it to those doing the work, and they have strengthened the house of YHWH with it,

¹⁵ and they do not reckon with the men into whose hand they give the money to give to those doing the work, for they are dealing in faithfulness.

¹⁶ The money of a trespass-offering and the money of sin-offerings is not brought into the house of YHWH—it is for the priests.

¹⁷ Then Hazael king of Aram goes up and fights against Gath, and captures it, and Hazael sets his face to go up against Jerusalem;

¹⁹ And the rest of the matters of Joash and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²⁰ And his servants rise, and make a conspiracy, and strike Joash in the house of Millo, that is going down to Silla.

²¹ Indeed, Jozachar son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad son of Shemer, his servants, have struck him, and he dies, and they bury him with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Amaziah reigns in his stead.

¹ In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu has reigned over Israel in Samaria, seventeen years,

² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, and goes after the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, that he caused Israel to sin—he did not turn aside from it,

³ and the anger of YHWH burns against Israel, and He gives them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael, all the days.

⁴ And Jehoahaz appeases the face of YHWH, and YHWH listens to him, for He has seen the oppression of Israel, for the king of Aram has oppressed them—

⁵ and YHWH gives a savior to Israel, and they go out from under the hand of Aram, and the sons of Israel dwell in their tents as before;

⁶ only, they have not turned aside from the sins of the house of Jeroboam that he caused Israel to sin, therein they walked, and also, the Asherah has remained in Samaria—

⁷ for he did not leave to Jehoahaz of the people except fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, for the king of Aram has destroyed them, and makes them as dust for threshing.

⁸ And the rest of the matters of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

⁹ And Jehoahaz lies with his fathers, and they bury him in Samaria, and his son Joash reigns in his stead.

¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz has reigned over Israel in Samaria, sixteen years,

¹¹ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, he has not turned aside from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin, therein he walked.

¹³ And Joash lies with his fathers, and Jeroboam has sat on his throne, and Joash is buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴ And Elisha has been sick with his sickness in which he dies, and Joash king of Israel comes down to him and weeps on his face, and says, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and its horsemen."

¹⁵ And Elisha says to him, "Take bow and arrows": and he takes bow and arrows for himself.

¹⁶ And he says to the king of Israel, "Place your hand on the bow"; and he places his hand, and Elisha puts his hands on the hands of the king,

¹⁷ and says, "Open the window eastward"; and he opens, and Elisha says, "Shoot," and he shoots; and he says, "An arrow of salvation from YHWH, and an arrow of salvation against Aram, and you have struck Aram, in Aphek, until consuming."

¹⁸ And he says, "Take the arrows," and he takes; and he says to the king of Israel, "Strike to the earth"; and he strikes three times, and stays.

¹⁹ And the man of God is angry against him and says, "By striking five or six times then you had struck Aram until consuming; but now you [only] strike Aram three times."

²⁰ And Elisha dies, and they bury him, and troops of Moab come into the land at the coming in of the year,

²¹ and it comes to pass, they are burying a man, and behold, they have seen the troop, and cast the man into the grave of Elisha, and the man goes and comes against the bones of Elisha, and lives, and rises on his feet.

²² And Hazael king of Aram has oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz,

²⁴ And Hazael king of Aram dies, and his son Ben-Hadad reigns in his stead,

²⁵ and Jehoash son of Jehoahaz turns and takes the cities out of the hand of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael that he had taken out of the hand of his father Jehoahaz in war; Joash has struck him three times, and he brings back the cities of Israel.

¹ In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, has reigned;

² he was a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jehoaddan of Jerusalem,

³ and he does that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH, only not like his father David; he has done according to all that his father Joash did,

⁵ And it comes to pass, when the kingdom has been strong in his hand, that he strikes his servants, those striking his father the king,

⁶ and the sons of those striking [him] he has not put to death, as it is written in the Scroll of the Law of Moses that YHWH commanded, saying, “Fathers are not put to death for sons, and sons are not put to death for fathers, but each is put to death for his own sin.”

⁷ He has struck ten thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt, and seized Selah in war, and [one] calls its name Joktheel to this day,

⁸ then Amaziah has sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, we look one another in the face.”

⁹ And Jehoash king of Israel sends to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thorn that [is] in Lebanon has sent to the cedar that [is] in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife; and a beast of the field that [is] in Lebanon passes by, and treads down the thorn.

¹⁰ You have certainly struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up; be honored, and abide in your house; and why do you stir yourself up in evil, that you have fallen, you and Judah with you?”

¹¹ And Amaziah has not listened, and Jehoash king of Israel goes up, and they look one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, in Beth-Shemesh, that [is] Judah’s,

¹² and Judah is struck before Israel, and they each flee to his tent.

¹⁴ and has taken all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that are found in the house of YHWH, and in the treasures of the house of the king, and the sons of the pledges, and turns back to Samaria.

¹⁶ And Jehoash lies with his fathers, and is buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and his son Jeroboam reigns in his stead.

¹⁷ And Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lives after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, fifteen years,

¹⁸ and the rest of the matters of Amaziah, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

¹⁹ And they make a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he flees to Lachish, and they send after him to Lachish, and put him to death there,

²⁰ and lift him up on the horses, and he is buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

²¹ And all the people of Judah take Azariah, and he [is] a son of sixteen years, and cause him to reign instead of his father Amaziah;

²² he has built Elath, and brings it back to Judah, after the lying of the king with his fathers.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, has reigned in Samaria, forty-one years,

²⁴ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH; he has not turned aside from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin.

²⁵ He has brought back the border of Israel, from the entering in of Hamath to the sea of the desert, according to the word of YHWH, God of Israel, that He spoke by the hand of His servant Jonah son of Amittai the prophet, who [is] of Gath-Hepher;

²⁶ for YHWH has seen the very bitter affliction of Israel, and there is none restrained, and there is none left, and there is no helper for Israel;

²⁷ and YHWH has not spoken to blot out the name of Israel from under the heavens, and saves them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.

²⁸ And the rest of the matters of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought, and with which he brought back Damascus, and Hamath of Judah, into Israel, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

²⁹ And Jeroboam lies with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah reigns in his stead.

¹ In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah, king of Judah, has reigned;

² he was a son of sixteen years in his reigning, and he has reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jecholiah of Jerusalem,

³ and he does that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Amaziah did,

⁶ And the rest of the matters of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

⁷ And Azariah lies with his fathers, and they bury him with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Jotham reigns in his stead.

⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam has reigned over Israel in Samaria, six months,

⁹ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH as his fathers did; he has not turned aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin.

¹⁰ And Shallum son of Jabesh conspires against him, and strikes him before the people, and puts him to death, and reigns in his stead.

11 And the rest of the matters of Zechariah, behold, they are written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

12 It [is] the word of YHWH that He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Sons of the fourth [generation] sit on the throne of Israel for you"; and it is so.

13 Shallum son of Jabesh has reigned in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigns a month of days in Samaria;

14 and Menahem son of Gadi goes up from Tirzah and comes to Samaria, and strikes Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, and puts him to death, and reigns in his stead.

15 And the rest of the matters of Shallum and his conspiracy that he made, behold, they are written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem strikes Tiphseh, and all who [are] in it, and its borders from Tirzah, for it did not open [to him], and he strikes [it], [and] he has ripped up all its pregnant women.

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi has reigned over Israel in Samaria, ten years.

18 And he does evil in the eyes of YHWH; he has not turned aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin, all his days.

19 Pul king of Asshur has come against the land, and Menahem gives one thousand talents of silver to Pul, for his hand being with him to strengthen the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem brings out the silver [from] Israel, [from] all the mighty men of wealth, to give to the king of Asshur, fifty shekels of silver for each one, and the king of Asshur turns back and has not stayed there in the land.

21 And the rest of the matters of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem lies with his fathers, and his son Pekahiah reigns in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem has reigned over Israel in Samaria, two years,

24 and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH; he has not turned aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin.

25 And Pekah son of Remaliah, his captain, conspires against him, and strikes him in Samaria, in the high place of the house of the king with Argob and Arieah; and fifty men of the sons of the Gileadites [were] with him, and he puts him to death, and reigns in his stead.

26 And the rest of the matters of Pekahiah and all that he did, behold, they are written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah has reigned over Israel in Samaria, twenty years,

28 and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, he has not turned aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Asshur has come, and takes Ijon, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and removes them to Asshur.

30 And Hoshea son of Elah makes a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah, and strikes him, and puts him to death, and reigns in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

³¹ And the rest of the matters of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

³² In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, has reigned.

³³ He was a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jerusha daughter of Zadok, ³⁴ and he does that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH; he has done according to all that his father Uzziah did.

³⁵ Only, the high places have not been removed—the people are still sacrificing and making incense in high places; he has built the high gate of the house of YHWH.

³⁶ And the rest of the matters of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

³⁷ In those days YHWH has begun to send Rezin king of Amram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.

³⁸ And Jotham lies with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and his son Ahaz reigns in his stead.

¹ In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham, king of Judah, has reigned.

² Ahaz [is] a son of twenty years in his reigning, and he has reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and he has not done that which [is] right in the eyes of his God YHWH, like his father David,

³ and he walks in the way of the kings of Israel, and he has also caused his son to pass over into fire, according to the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel,

⁴ and he sacrifices and makes incense in high places, and on the heights, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, go up to Jerusalem, to battle, and they lay siege to Ahaz, and they have not been able to fight.

⁶ At that time Rezin king of Aram has brought back Elath to Aram, and casts out the Jews from Elath, and the Arameans have come to Elath, and dwell there to this day.

⁸ And Ahaz takes the silver and the gold that is found in the house of YHWH, and in the treasures of the house of the king, and sends to the king of Asshur [as] a bribe.

⁹ And the king of Asshur listens to him, and the king of Asshur goes up to Damascus, and seizes it, and removes [the people of] it to Kir, and he has put Rezin to death.

¹⁰ And King Ahaz goes to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Asshur [at] Damascus, and sees the altar that [is] in Damascus, and King Ahaz sends to Urijah the priest the likeness of the altar, and its pattern, according to all its work,

¹¹ and Urijah the priest builds the altar according to all that King Ahaz has sent from Damascus; so Urijah the priest did until the coming in of King Ahaz from Damascus.

¹² And the king comes in from Damascus, and the king sees the altar, and the king draws near on the altar, and offers on it,

¹⁵ And King Ahaz commands him—Urijah the priest—saying, “On the great altar burn as incense the burnt-offering of the morning, and the present of the evening, and the burnt-offering of the king, and his present, and the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their present, and their drink-offerings; and all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, you sprinkle on it, and the altar of bronze is for me to inquire [by].”

¹⁶ And Urijah the priest does according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

¹⁹ And the rest of the matters of Ahaz that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²⁰ And Ahaz lies with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Hezekiah reigns in his stead.

¹ In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah has reigned over Israel in Samaria, nine years,

² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, only, not as the kings of Israel who were before him;

³ Shalmaneser king of Asshur came up against him, and Hoshea is a servant to him, and renders a present to him.

⁴ And the king of Asshur finds in Hoshea a conspiracy, in that he has sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and has not caused a present to go up to the king of Asshur, as year by year, and the king of Asshur restrains him, and binds him in a house of restraint.

⁵ And the king of Asshur goes up into all the land, and he goes up to Samaria, and lays siege against it [for] three years;

⁶ in the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Asshur has captured Samaria, and removes Israel to Asshur, and causes them to dwell in Halah, and in Habor, [by] the river Gozan, and [in] the cities of the Medes.

7 And it comes to pass, because the sons of Israel have sinned against their God YHWH—who brings them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt—and fear other gods,

8 and walk in the statutes of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel that they made;

9 and the sons of Israel covertly do things that [are] not right against their God YHWH, and build high places for themselves in all their cities, from a tower of the watchers to the fortified city,

10 and set up standing-pillars and Asherim for themselves on every high height, and under every green tree,

11 and make incense there in all high places, like the nations that YHWH removed from their presence, and do evil things to provoke YHWH,

12 and serve the idols, of which YHWH said to them, “You do not do this thing.”

13 And YHWH testifies against Israel, and against Judah, by the hand of every prophet, and every seer, saying, “Turn back from your evil ways, and keep My commands, My statutes, according to all the Law that I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by the hand of My servants the prophets”;

14 and they have not listened, and harden their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who did not remain steadfast in their God YHWH,

15 and reject His statutes and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies that He testified against them, and go after the vain thing, and become vain, and after the nations that are around them, of whom YHWH commanded them not to do like them.

16 And they forsake all the commands of their God YHWH, and make a molten image for themselves—two calves, and make an Asherah, and bow themselves to all the host of the heavens, and serve Ba'al,

17 and cause their sons and their daughters to pass over through fire, and divine divinations, and use enchantments, and sell themselves to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, to provoke Him.

18 And YHWH shows Himself very angry against Israel, and turns them aside from His presence; none has been left, only the tribe of Judah by itself.

19 Also Judah has not kept the commands of their God YHWH, and they walk in the statutes of Israel that they had made.

20 And YHWH kicks against all the seed of Israel, and afflicts them, and gives them into the hand of spoilers, until He has cast them out of His presence,

21 for He has torn Israel from the house of David, and they make Jeroboam son of Nebat king, and Jeroboam drives Israel from after YHWH, and has caused them to sin a great sin,

22 and the sons of Israel walk in all the sins of Jeroboam that he did, they have not turned aside from them,

23 until YHWH has turned Israel aside from His presence, as He spoke by the hand of all His servants the prophets, and Israel is removed from off its land to Asshur; to this day.

24 And the king of Asshur brings in [people] from Babylon and from Cutha, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and causes

[them] to dwell in the cities of Samaria instead of the sons of Israel, and they possess Samaria, and dwell in its cities;

²⁵ and it comes to pass, at the commencement of their dwelling there, they have not feared YHWH, and YHWH sends the lions among them, and they are destroying among them.

²⁶ And they speak to the king of Asshur, saying, "The nations that you have removed and place in the cities of Samaria have not known the custom of the God of the land, and He sends the lions among them, and behold, they are destroying them, as they do not know the custom of the God of the land."

²⁸ And one of the priests whom they removed from Samaria comes in, and dwells in Beth-El, and he is teaching them how they fear YHWH,

²⁹ and each nation is making its gods, and they place [them] in the houses of the high places that the Samaritans have made—each nation in their cities where they are dwelling.

³⁰ And the men of Babylon have made Succoth-Benoth, and the men of Cuth have made Nergal, and the men of Hamath have made Ashima, ³¹ and the Avites have made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites are burning their sons with fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, gods of Sepharvim.

³² And they are fearing YHWH, and make for themselves from their extremities priests of high places, and they are working for them in the house of the high places.

³³ They are fearing YHWH, and they are serving their gods, according to the custom of the nations from where they removed them.

³⁴ To this day they are doing according to the former customs—they are not fearing YHWH, and are not doing according to their statutes, and according to their ordinances, and according to the Law, and according to the command, that YHWH commanded the sons of Jacob whose name He made Israel,

³⁵ and YHWH makes a covenant with them and charges them, saying, "You do not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them,

³⁶ but YHWH who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with an outstretched arm, Him you fear, and to Him you bow yourselves, and to Him you sacrifice;

³⁷ and the statutes, and the judgments, and the Law, and the command, that He wrote for you, you observe to do all the days, and you do not fear other gods;

³⁸ and you do not forget the covenant that I have made with you, and you do not fear other gods;

³⁹ but you fear your God YHWH, and He delivers you out of the hand of all your enemies";

⁴⁰ and they have not listened, but they are doing according to their former custom,

⁴¹ and these nations are fearing YHWH, and they have served their carved images, both their sons and their sons' sons; as their fathers did, they are doing to this day.

¹ And it comes to pass, in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz, king of Judah, has reigned;

² he was a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Abi daughter of Zechariah.

³ And he does that which [is] right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father David did,

⁴ he has turned aside the high places, and broken in pieces the standing-pillars, and cut down the Asherah, and beaten down the bronze serpent that Moses made, for up to these days the sons of Israel were making incense to it, and he calls it "a piece of bronze."

⁵ In YHWH, God of Israel, he has trusted, and after him there has not been like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among any] who were before him;

⁶ and he cleaves to YHWH, he has not turned aside from after Him, and keeps His commands that YHWH commanded Moses.

⁷ And YHWH has been with him; in every place where he goes out he acts wisely, and he rebels against the king of Asshur, and has not served him;

⁸ he has struck the Philistines, even to Gaza and its borders, from a tower of watchers to the fortified city.

⁹ And it comes to pass, in the fourth year of King Hezekiah—it [is] the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel—Shalmaneser king of Asshur has come up against Samaria and lays siege to it,

¹⁰ and they capture it at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hezekiah—it [is] the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel—Samaria has been captured,

¹¹ and the king of Asshur removes Israel to Asshur, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor [by] the river Gozan, and [in] cities of the Medes,

¹³ And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Asshur has come up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and seizes them,

¹⁴ and Hezekiah king of Judah sends to the king of Asshur at Lachish, saying, "I have sinned, turn back from off me; that which you put on me I bear"; and the king of Asshur lays on Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold,

¹⁵ and Hezekiah gives all the silver that is found in the house of YHWH and in the treasures of the house of the king;

¹⁶ at that time Hezekiah has cut off the doors of the temple of YHWH, and the pillars that Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gives them to the king of Asshur.

¹⁷ And the king of Asshur sends Tartan, and the chief of the eunuchs, and the chief of the butlers, from Lachish, to King Hezekiah, with a heavy force, to Jerusalem, and they go up and come to Jerusalem, and they go up, and come in and stand by the conduit of the upper pool that [is] in the highway of the fuller's field.

¹⁸ And they call to the king, and Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who [is] over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the remembrancer, go out to them.

¹⁹ And the chief of the butlers says to them, "Now say to Hezekiah, Thus said the great king, the king of Asshur: What [is] this confidence in which you have confided?"

²⁰ You have said: Only a word of the lips! Counsel and might [are] for battle; now, on whom have you trusted that you have rebelled against me?"

²¹ Now behold, you have trusted for yourself on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; which a man leans on, and it has gone into his hand and pierced it! So [is] Pharaoh king of Egypt to all those trusting on him.

²² And when you say to me, We have trusted in our God YHWH, is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has turned aside, and says to Judah and to Jerusalem, You bow yourselves before this altar in Jerusalem?"

²³ And now, please give a pledge for yourself to my lord the king of Asshur, and I give two thousand horses to you, if you are able to give riders for yourself on them.

²⁴ And how do you turn back the face of one captain of the least of the servants of my lord, that you trust for yourself on Egypt for chariot and for horsemen?"

²⁵ Have I now come up without YHWH against this place to destroy it? YHWH said to me, Go up against this land, and you have destroyed it."

²⁶ And Eliakim son of Hilkiah says—and Shebna and Joah—to the chief of the butlers, "Please speak to your servants [in] Aramaic, for we are understanding, but do not speak with us [in] Jewish, in the ears of the people who [are] on the wall."

²⁷ And the chief of the butlers says to them, "For your lord, and to you, has my lord sent me to speak these words? Is it not for the men—those sitting on the wall—to eat their own dung and to drink their own water, with you?"

²⁸ And the chief of the butlers stands and calls with a great voice [in] Jewish, and speaks and says, "Hear a word of the great king, the king of Asshur—

²⁹ thus said the king: Do not let Hezekiah lift you up, for he is not able to deliver you out of his hand;

³⁰ and do not let Hezekiah make you trust in YHWH, saying, YHWH certainly delivers us, and this city is not given into the hand of the king of Asshur.

³² until my coming in, and I have taken you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil, and honey; and live, and do not die; and do not listen to Hezekiah when he persuades you, saying, YHWH delivers us.

³³ Have each of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Asshur?"

³⁴ Where [are] the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where [are] the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah, that they have delivered Samaria out of my hand?

³⁵ Who [are they] among all the gods of the lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that YHWH delivers Jerusalem out of my hand?"

³⁶ And the people have kept silent, and have not answered him a word, for the command of the king is, saying, "Do not answer him."

³⁷ And Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who [is] over the house, comes in, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the remembrancer, to Hezekiah, with torn garments, and they declare to him the words of the chief of the butlers.

¹ And it comes to pass, at King Hezekiah's hearing, that he tears his garments, and covers himself with sackcloth, and enters the house of YHWH,

² and sends Eliakim, who [is] over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elderly of the priests, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz,

⁴ It may be your God YHWH hears all the words of the chief of the butlers with which the king of Asshur his lord has sent him to reproach the living God, and has decided concerning the words that your God YHWH has heard, and you have lifted up prayer for the remnant that is found."

⁵ And the servants of King Hezekiah come to Isaiah,

⁶ and Isaiah says to them, "Thus you say to your lord, Thus said YHWH: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Asshur have reviled Me.

⁷ Behold, I am giving a spirit in him, and he has heard a report, and has turned back to his land, and I have caused him to fall by the sword in his land."

⁹ And he hears concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, saying, "Behold, he has come out to fight with you"; and he turns and sends messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

¹⁰ "Thus you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you are trusting lift you up, saying, Jerusalem is not given into the hand of the king of Asshur.

¹¹ Behold, you have heard that which the kings of Asshur have done to all the lands—to devote them; and are you delivered?

¹² Did the gods of the nations deliver them whom my fathers destroyed—Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden, who [are] in Thelassar?

¹³ Where [is] the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

14 And Hezekiah takes the letters out of the hand of the messengers and reads them, and goes up to the house of YHWH, and Hezekiah spreads it before YHWH.

15 And Hezekiah prays before YHWH and says, “O YHWH, God of Israel, inhabiting the cherubim, You [are] God Himself—You alone—to all the kingdoms of the earth: You have made the heavens and the earth.

16 Incline, O YHWH, Your ear; and hear; open, O YHWH, Your eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib with which he has sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Truly, O YHWH, kings of Asshur have laid waste the nations and their land, 18 and have put their gods into fire, for they [are] no gods, but work of the hands of man, wood and stone, and destroy them.

19 And now, O our God YHWH, please save us out of his hand, and all kingdoms of the earth know that You [are] YHWH God—You alone.”

20 And Isaiah son of Amoz sends to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: That which you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Asshur I have heard;

21 this [is] the word that YHWH spoke concerning him: Trampled on you—laughed at you || Has the virgin daughter of Zion; Shaken the head behind you || Has the daughter of Jerusalem!

22 Whom have you reproached and reviled? And against whom lifted up a voice? Indeed, you lift up your eyes on high—Against the Holy One of Israel!

23 By the hand of your messengers || You have reproached the Lord, and say, || In the multitude of my chariots I have come up to a high place of mountains—The sides of Lebanon, || And I cut down the height of its cedars, || The choice of its firs, || And I enter the lodging of its extremity, || The forest of its Carmel.

24 I have dug, and drunk strange waters, || And I dry up with the sole of my steps || All floods of a bulwark.

25 Have you not heard from afar [that] I made it, || From days of old that I formed it? Now I have brought it in, || And it becomes a desolation, || Ruinous heaps [are] fortified cities,

26 And their inhabitants [are] feeble-handed, || They were broken down, and are dried up, || They have been the herb of the field, || And the greenness of the tender grass, || Grass of the roofs, || And blasted grain—before it has risen up!

27 And your sitting down, and your going out, || And your coming in, I have known, || And your anger toward Me;

28 Because of your anger toward Me, || And your noise—it came up into My ears, || I have put My hook in your nose, || And My bridle in your lips, || And have caused you to turn back || In the way in which you came.

29 And this [is] the sign to you, || Food of the year [is] the spontaneous growth, || And in the second year the self-produced, || And in the third year you sow, and reap, || And plant vineyards, and eat their fruits.

30 And it has continued—The escaped of the house of Judah || That has been left—to take root beneath, || And has made fruit upward.

³¹ For a remnant goes out from Jerusalem, || And an escape from Mount Zion; The zeal of YHWH [of Hosts] does this.

³³ In the way that he comes in—In it he turns back, || And to this city he does not come in, || A declaration of YHWH—

³⁴ And I have covered over this city, || To save it for My own sake, || And for the sake of My servant David.”

³⁶ And Sennacherib king of Asshur journeys, and goes, and turns back, and dwells in Nineveh;

³⁷ and it comes to pass, he is bowing himself in the house of his god Nisroch, and [his sons] Adramelech and Sharezar have struck him with the sword, and they have escaped to the land of Ararat, and his son Esar-Haddon reigns in his stead.

¹ In those days Hezekiah has been sick to death, and Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet comes to him and says to him, “Thus said YHWH: Give a charge to your house, for you are dying, and do not live.”

² And he turns around his face to the wall, and prays to YHWH, saying,

⁴ And it comes to pass, [when] Isaiah has not [yet] gone out to the middle court, that the word of YHWH has been to him, saying,

⁵ “Return, and you have said to Hezekiah, leader of My people, Thus said YHWH, God of your father David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tear, behold, I give healing to you. On the third day you go up to the house of YHWH;

⁶ and I have added fifteen years to your days, and I deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Asshur, and have covered over this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David.”

⁷ And Isaiah says, “Take a cake of figs”; and they take and lay [it] on the boil, and he revives.

⁸ And Hezekiah says to Isaiah, “What [is] the sign that YHWH gives healing to me, that I have gone up to the house of YHWH on the third day?”

⁹ And Isaiah says, “This [is] the sign to you from YHWH, that YHWH does the thing that He has spoken—[will] the shadow have gone on ten degrees, or does it turn back ten degrees?”

¹⁰ And Hezekiah says, “It has been light for the shadow to incline ten degrees; no, but let the shadow turn backward ten degrees.”

¹¹ And Isaiah the prophet calls to YHWH, and He brings back the shadow by the degrees that it had gone down in the degrees of Ahaz—backward ten degrees.

¹² At that time Berodach-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, has sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick;

¹³ and Hezekiah listens to them, and shows them all the house of his treasury, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the good ointment, and all the house of his vessels, and all that has been found in his treasuries; there has not been a thing that Hezekiah has not showed them in his house and in all his dominion.

¹⁴ And Isaiah the prophet comes to King Hezekiah and says to him, “What did these men say? And from where do they come to you?” And Hezekiah says, “They have come from a far-off land—from Babylon.”

¹⁵ And he says, “What did they see in your house?” And Hezekiah says, “They saw all that [is] in my house; there has not been a thing that I have not showed them among my treasures.”

¹⁶ And Isaiah says to Hezekiah, “Hear a word of YHWH:

¹⁷ Behold, days are coming, and all that [is] in your house, and [all] that your father has treasured up until this day, has been carried to Babylon; there is not a thing left, said YHWH;

¹⁸ and of your sons who go out from you, whom you beget, they take away, and they have been eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

¹⁹ And Hezekiah says to Isaiah, “The word of YHWH that you have spoken [is] good”; and he says, “Why not, if there is peace and truth in my days?”

²⁰ And the rest of the matters of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brings in the waters to the city, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²¹ And Hezekiah lies with his fathers, and his son Manasseh reigns in his stead.

¹ Manasseh [is] a son of twelve years in his reigning, and he has reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Hephzi-Bah;

² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, according to the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel,

³ and he turns and builds the high places that his father Hezekiah destroyed, and raises altars for Ba'al, and makes an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel did, and bows himself to all the host of the heavens, and serves them.

⁴ And he has built altars in the house of YHWH, of which YHWH said, “In Jerusalem I put My Name.”

⁵ And he builds altars to all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of YHWH;

⁶ and he has caused his son to pass through fire, and observed clouds, and used enchantment, and dealt with a familiar spirit and wizards; he has multiplied to do evil in the eyes of YHWH—to provoke to anger.

⁷ And he sets the carved image of the Asherah that he made in the house of which YHWH said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this house, and in Jerusalem, that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I put My Name for all time;

⁸ and I do not add to cause the foot of Israel to move from the ground that I gave to their fathers, only, if they observe to do according to all that I commanded them, and to all the Law that My servant Moses commanded them.”

¹⁰ And YHWH speaks by the hand of his servants the prophets, saying,

¹¹ “Because that Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations—he has done evil above all that the Amorites have done who [are] before him, and also causes Judah to sin by his idols—

¹² therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing in calamity on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, his two ears tingle.

¹³ And I have stretched out the line of Samaria over Jerusalem, and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and wiped Jerusalem as one wipes the dish—he has wiped, and has turned [it] on its face.

¹⁴ And I have left the remnant of My inheritance, and given them into the hand of their enemies, and they have been for a prey and for a spoil to all their enemies,

¹⁵ because that they have done evil in My eyes, and are provoking Me to anger from the day that their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.”

¹⁶ And also, Manasseh has shed very much innocent blood, until he has filled Jerusalem mouth to mouth, apart from his sin that he has caused Judah to sin, to do evil in the eyes of YHWH.

¹⁷ And the rest of the matters of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

¹⁸ And Manasseh lies with his fathers, and is buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza, and his son Amon reigns in his stead.

¹⁹ Amon [is] a son of twenty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned two years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah,

²⁰ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, as his father Manasseh did,

²¹ and walks in all the way that his father walked in, and serves the idols that his father served, and bows himself to them,

²² and forsakes YHWH, God of his fathers, and has not walked in the way of YHWH.

²³ And the servants of Amon conspire against him, and put the king to death in his own house,

²⁴ and the people of the land strike all those conspiring against King Amon, and the people of the land cause his son Josiah to reign in his stead.

²⁵ And the rest of the matters of Amon that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

²⁶ And [one] buries him in his burying-place in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah reigns in his stead.

¹ Josiah [is] a son of eight years in his reigning, and he has reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jedidah daughter of Adaiah of Boskath,

² and he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, and walks in all the way of his father David, and has not turned aside [to] the right or left.

³ And it comes to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king has sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of YHWH, saying,

⁴ “Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and he completes the silver that is brought into the house of YHWH, that the keepers of the threshold have gathered from the people,

⁵ and they give it into the hand of those doing the work, the overseers, in the house of YHWH, and they give it to those doing the work, that [are] in the house of YHWH, to strengthen the breach of the house,

⁶ to craftsmen, and to builders, and [to repairers of] the wall, and to buy wood and hewn stones to strengthen the house;

⁷ only, the silver that is given into their hand is not reckoned with them, for they are dealing in faithfulness.”

⁸ And Hilkiah the high priest says to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found [the] Scroll of the Law in the house of YHWH”; and Hilkiah gives the scroll to Shaphan, and he reads it.

⁹ And Shaphan the scribe comes to the king, and brings the king back word, and says, “Your servants have poured out the silver that has been found in the house, and give it into the hand of those doing the work, the inspectors, in the house of YHWH.”

¹⁰ And Shaphan the scribe declares to the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest has given a scroll to me”; and Shaphan reads it before the king.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, at the king’s hearing the words of the Scroll of the Law, that he tears his garments,

¹² and the king commands Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam son of Shaphan, and Achbor son of Michaiiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah servant of the king, saying,

¹³ “Go, seek YHWH for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this scroll that is found, for great [is] the fury of YHWH that is kindled against us, because that our fathers have not listened to the words of this scroll, to do according to all that is written for us.”

¹⁴ And Hilkiah the priest goes, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, to Huldah the prophetess, wife of Shallum, son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the garments, and she is dwelling in Jerusalem in the second [quarter], and they speak to her.

¹⁵ And she says to them, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Say to the man who has sent you to me,

¹⁶ Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am bringing in calamity to this place and on its inhabitants, all the words of the scroll that the king of Judah has read,

¹⁷ because that they have forsaken Me, and make incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger with every work of their hands, and My wrath has been kindled against this place, and it is not quenched.

¹⁸ And to the king of Judah, who is sending you to seek YHWH, thus you say to him, Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: The words that you have heard—

¹⁹ because your heart [is] tender, and you are humbled because of YHWH, in your hearing that which I have spoken against this place, and against its inhabitants, to be for a desolation, and for a reviling, and you tear your garments and weep before Me—I also have heard—a declaration of YHWH—

²⁰ therefore, behold, I am gathering you to your fathers, and you have been gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes do not look on any of the calamity that I am bringing in on this place”; and they bring the king back word.

¹ And the king sends, and they gather all [the] elderly of Judah and Jerusalem to him,

² and the king goes up to the house of YHWH, and every man of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, from small to great, and he reads in their ears all the words of the Scroll of the Covenant that is found in the house of YHWH.

⁵ And he has caused to cease the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah have appointed (and they make incense in high places, in cities of Judah and outskirts of Jerusalem), and those making incense to Ba'al, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the twelve signs, and to all the host of the heavens.

⁷ And he breaks down the houses of the whoremongers that [are] in the house of YHWH, where the women are weaving houses for the Asherah.

⁹ only, the priests of the high places do not come up to the altar of YHWH in Jerusalem, but they have eaten unleavened things in the midst of their brothers.

¹⁰ And he has defiled Topheth that [is] in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, so that no man causes his son and his daughter to pass over through fire to Molech.

11 And he causes to cease the horses that the kings of Judah have given to the sun from the entering in of the house of YHWH, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech the eunuch, that [is] in the outskirts; and he has burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that [are] on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, that the kings of Judah made, and the altars that Manasseh made in the two courts of the house of YHWH, the king has broken down, and removes from there, and has cast their dust into the Brook of Kidron.

13 And the high places that [are] on the front of Jerusalem, that [are] on the right of the Mount of Corruption, that Solomon king of Israel had built to Ashtoreth, abomination of the Zidonians, and Chemosh, abomination of Moab, and to Milcom, abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king has defiled.

14 And he has broken the standing-pillars in pieces, and cuts down the Asherim, and fills their place with bones of men;

15 and also the altar that [is] in Beth-El, the high place that Jeroboam son of Nebat made, by which he made Israel sin, both that altar and the high place he has broken down, and burns the high place—he has beat it small to dust, and has burned the Asherah.

16 And Josiah turns, and sees the graves that [are] there on the mountain, and sends and takes the bones out of the graves, and burns [them] on the altar, and defiles it, according to the word of YHWH that the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

17 And he says, “What [is] this sign that I see?” And the men of the city say to him, “The grave of the man of God who has come from Judah, and proclaims these things that you have done concerning the altar of Beth-El.”

18 And he says, “Leave him alone, let no man touch his bones”; and they let his bones escape with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.

19 And also all the houses of the high places that [are] in the cities of Samaria, that the kings of Israel made to provoke to anger, Josiah has turned aside, and does to them according to all the deeds that he did in Beth-El.

20 And he slays all the priests of the high places who [are] there by the altars, and burns the bones of man on them, and turns back to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commands the whole of the people, saying, “Make a Passover to your God YHWH, as it is written on this scroll of the covenant.”

22 Surely there has not been made like this Passover from the days of the ones judging who judged Israel, even all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah;

23 but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover has been made to YHWH in Jerusalem.

24 And also, those having familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah, and in Jerusalem, Josiah has put away, in order to establish the words of the Law that are written on the scroll that Hilkiyah the priest has found in the house of YHWH.

25 And like him there has not been before him a king who turned back to YHWH with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, and after him there has none risen like him.

²⁶ Only, YHWH has not turned back from the fierceness of His great anger with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh provoked him,

²⁷ and YHWH says, "I also turn Judah aside from my presence, as I turned Israel aside, and I have rejected this city that I have chosen—Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My Name is there."

²⁸ And the rest of the matters of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

³⁰ And his servants cause him to ride dying from Megiddo, and bring him to Jerusalem, and bury him in his own grave, and the people of the land take Jehoahaz son of Josiah, and anoint him, and cause him to reign instead of his father.

³¹ Jehoahaz [is] a son of twenty-three years in his reigning, and he has reigned three months in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah,

³² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his fathers did,

³³ and Pharaoh Necho binds him in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, from reigning in Jerusalem, and he puts a fine on the land—one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

³⁴ And Pharaoh Necho causes Eliakim son of Josiah to reign instead of his father Josiah, and turns his name to Jehoiakim, and he has taken Jehoahaz away, and he comes to Egypt, and dies there.

³⁵ And Jehoiakim has given the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; only he valued the land to give the silver by the command of Pharaoh; from each, according to his valuation, he exacted the silver and the gold, from the people of the land, to give to Pharaoh Necho.

³⁶ Jehoiakim [is] a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Zebudah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah, ³⁷ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his fathers did.

¹ In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has come up, and Jehoiakim is a servant to him [for] three years; and he turns and rebels against him,

² and YHWH sends against him the troops of the Chaldeans, and the troops of Aram, and the troops of Moab, and the troops of the sons of Ammon, and He sends them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of YHWH that He spoke by the hand of His servants the prophets;

³ only, by the command of YHWH it has been against Judah to turn [them] aside from His presence, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did,

⁴ and also the innocent blood that he has shed, and he fills Jerusalem with innocent blood, and YHWH was not willing to forgive.

⁵ And the rest of the matters of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

⁶ And Jehoiakim lies with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin reigns in his stead.

⁷ And the king of Egypt has not added anymore to go out from his own land, for the king of Babylon has taken, from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River, all that had been to the king of Egypt.

⁸ Jehoiachin [is] a son of eighteen years in his reigning, and he has reigned three months in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem,

⁹ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his fathers did.

¹⁰ At that time servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon have come up to Jerusalem, and the city goes into siege,

¹¹ and Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon comes against the city, and his servants are laying siege to it,

¹² and Jehoiachin king of Judah goes out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his chiefs, and his eunuchs, and the king of Babylon takes him in the eighth year of his reign,

¹³ and brings out from there all the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the house of the king, and cuts in pieces all the vessels of gold that Solomon king of Israel made in the temple of YHWH, as YHWH had spoken.

¹⁵ And he removes Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the mother of the king, and the wives of the king, and his eunuchs, and the mighty ones of the land—he has caused a removal to go from Jerusalem to Babylon,

¹⁷ And the king of Babylon causes his father's brother Mattaniah to reign in his stead, and turns his name to Zedekiah.

¹⁸ Zedekiah [is] a son of twenty-one years in his reigning, and he has reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah,

¹⁹ and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH according to all that Jehoiakim did,

²⁰ for by the anger of YHWH it has been against Jerusalem and against Judah, until He [finally] cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebels against the king of Babylon.

² And the city enters into siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

³ On the ninth of the month, when the famine is severe in the city, then there has not been bread for the people of the land.

⁵ And the force of the Chaldeans pursue after the king, and overtake him in the plains of Jericho, and all his force have been scattered from him;

⁶ and they seize the king, and bring him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah, and they speak judgment with him.

⁷ And they have slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he has blinded the eyes of Zedekiah, and binds him with bronze chains, and they bring him to Babylon.

⁹ and he burns the house of YHWH, and the house of the king, and all the houses of Jerusalem, indeed, he has burned every great house with fire;

¹⁰ and all the forces of the Chaldeans, who [are] with the chief of the executioners, have broken down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

¹² and of the poor of the land the chief of the executioners has left for vinedressers and for farmers.

¹³ And the pillars of bronze that [are] in the house of YHWH, and the bases, and the sea of bronze, that [is] in the house of YHWH, the Chaldeans have broken in pieces, and carry away their bronze to Babylon.

¹⁴ And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they minister, they have taken;

¹⁵ and the fire-pans, and the bowls that [are] wholly of silver, the chief of the executioners has taken.

¹⁶ The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases that Solomon made for the house of YHWH, there was no weighing of the bronze of all these vessels;

¹⁷ eighteen cubits [is] the height of the one pillar, and the capital on it [is] of bronze, and the height of the capital [is] three cubits, and the net and the pomegranates [are] on the capital all around—the whole [is] of bronze; and the second pillar has like these, with the net.

¹⁸ And the chief of the executioners takes Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold;

¹⁹ and he has taken out of the city a certain eunuch who is appointed over the men of war, and five men of those seeing the king's face who have been found in the city, and the head scribe of the host who musters the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who are found in the city;

²⁰ and Nebuzaradan chief of the executioners takes them, and causes them to go to the king of Babylon, to Libnah,

²¹ and the king of Babylon strikes them, and puts them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, and he removes Judah from off its land.

²² And the people that are left in the land of Judah whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has left—he appoints Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, over them.

²³ And all the heads of the forces hear—they and the men—that the king of Babylon has appointed Gedaliah, and they come to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, even Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and Johanan son of Kareah, and Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maachathite—they and their men;

²⁸ and speaks good things with him and puts his throne above the throne of the kings who [are] with him in Babylon,

²⁹ and has changed the garments of his restraint, and he has eaten bread continually before him all [the] days of his life,

³⁰ and his allowance—a continual allowance—has been given to him from the king, the matter of a day in its day, all [the] days of his life.

¹⁵ And sons of Josiah: the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.

¹⁶ And sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.

¹⁷ And sons of Jeconiah: Assir; Salathiel his son;

¹⁸ also Malchiram and Pedaiah, and Shenazzar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ And sons of Pedaiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei. And sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam, and Hananiah, and their sister Shelomith, ²⁰ and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-Hesed—five.

²¹ And sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah, and Jesaiah, sons of Rephaiah, sons of Arnan, sons of Obadiah, sons of Shechaniah.

²² And sons of Shechaniah: Shemaiah; and sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat—six.

²³ And sons of Neariah: Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam—three.

² And Reaiah son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad; these [are] families of the Zorathite.

³ And these [are] of the father of Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister [is] Hazzelelponi;

⁴ and Penuel [is] father of Gedor, and Ezer father of Hushah. These [are] sons of Hur, firstborn of Ephratah, father of Beth-Lehem.

⁵ And to Ashhur father of Tekoa were two wives, Helah and Naarah;

⁶ and Naarah bears to him Ahuzzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari: these [are] sons of Naarah.

⁷ And sons of Helah: Zereth, and Zohar, and Ethnan.

⁸ And Coz begot Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel son of Harum.

⁹ And Jabez is honored above his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I have brought forth with grief."

¹⁰ And Jabez calls to the God of Israel, saying, "If blessing You bless me, then You have made my border great, and Your hand has been with me, and You have kept [me] from evil—not to grieve me"; and God brings in that which he asked.

¹¹ And Chelub brother of Shuah begot Mehir; he [is] father of Eshton.

¹² And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah father of Ir-Nahash; these [are] men of Rechah.

¹³ And sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah; and sons of Othniel: Hathath.

¹⁴ And Meonothai begot Ophrah, and Seraiah begot Joab father of the Valley of the Craftsmen, for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵ And sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam; and sons of Elah: even Kenaz.

¹⁶ And sons of Jehaleleel: Ziph and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel.

¹⁷ And sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon. And she bears Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah father of Eshtemoa.

¹⁸ And his wife Jehudijah bore Jered father of Gedor, and Heber father of Socho, and Jekuthiel father of Zanoah. And these [are] sons of Bithiah daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took,

¹⁹ and sons of the wife of Hodiah sister of Nahom: Abi-Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

²⁰ And sons of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-Hanon, and Tilon; and sons of Ishi: Zoheth, and Ben-Zoheth.

²¹ Sons of Shelah son of Judah: Er father of Lecah, and Laadah father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the service of fine linen, of the house of Ashbea;

²² and Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who ruled over Moab and Jashubi-Lehem; and these things [are] ancient.

²³ They [are] the potters and inhabitants of Netaim and Gedera; they dwelt there with the king in his work.

²⁴ Sons of Simeon: Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul;

²⁵ Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son.

²⁶ And sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son.

²⁷ And to Shimei [are] sixteen sons and six daughters, and to his brothers there are not many sons, and none of their families have multiplied as much as the sons of Judah.

²⁸ And they dwell in Beer-Sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-Shaul,

²⁹ and in Bilhah, and in Ezem, and in Tolad,

³⁰ and in Bethuel, and in Hormah, and in Ziklag,

³¹ and in Beth-Marcaboth, and in Hazar-Susim, and in Beth-Birei, and in Shaarim; these [are] their cities until the reigning of David.

³² And their villages [are] Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan—five cities,

³³ and all their villages that [are] around these cities to Ba'al; these [are] their dwellings, and they have their genealogy:

³⁴ even Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah son of Amaziah,

³⁵ and Joel, and Jehu son of Josibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel,

³⁶ and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah,

³⁷ and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah.

³⁸ These who are coming in by name [are] princes in their families, and the house of their fathers has broken forth into a multitude;

³⁹ and they go to the entrance of Gedor, to the east of the valley, to seek pasture for their flock,

⁴⁰ and they find pasture, fat and good, and the land broad of sides, and quiet, and safe, for those dwelling there before are of Ham.

⁴³ and they strike the remnant of those escaped of Amalek, and dwell there to this day.

¹ As for sons of Reuben, firstborn of Israel—for he [is] the firstborn, and on account of his profaning the bed of his father his birthright has been given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel, and [he is] not to be reckoned by genealogy for the birthright,

² for Judah has been mighty over his brother, and for leader above him, and the birthright [is] to Joseph—

³ sons of Reuben, firstborn of Israel: Enoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴ Sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

⁵ Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Ba'al his son,

⁶ Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-Pilneser king of Asshur removed; he [is] prince of the Reubenite.

⁷ And his brothers, by their families, in the genealogy of their generations, [are] heads: Jeiel, and Zechariah,

⁸ and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel—he is dwelling in Aroer, even to Nebo and Ba'al-Meon;

¹⁰ And they have made war with the Hagarites in the days of Saul, who fall by their hand, and they dwell in their tents over all the face of the east of Gilead.

¹¹ And the sons of Gad have dwelt opposite them in the land of Bashan to Salcah:

¹² Joel the head, and Shapham the second, and Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan;

¹³ and their brothers of the house of their fathers [are] Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber—seven.

¹⁴ These [are] sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz;

¹⁵ Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni, [is] head of the house of their fathers;

¹⁶ and they dwell in Gilead in Bashan, and in her small towns, and in all outskirts of Sharon, on their outskirts;

¹⁷ all of them reckoned themselves by genealogy in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸ Sons of Reuben, and the Gadite, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, of sons of valor, men carrying shield and sword, and treading bow, and taught in battle, [are] forty-four thousand and seven hundred and sixty, going out to the host.

¹⁹ And they make war with the Hagarites, and Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab,

²¹ And they take their livestock captive—fifty thousand of their camels, and two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, and two thousand donkeys, and one hundred thousand of mankind;

²² for many have fallen pierced, for the battle [is] of God; and they dwell in their stead until the expulsion.

²³ And the sons of the half of the tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land, from Bashan to Ba'al-Hermon, and Senir, and Mount Hermon; they have multiplied.

²⁴ And these [are] heads of the house of their fathers: even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, men mighty in valor, men of renown, heads of the house of their fathers.

²⁵ And they trespass against the God of their fathers, and go whoring after the gods of the peoples of the land whom God destroyed from their presence;

²⁶ and the God of Israel stirs up the spirit of Pul king of Asshur, and the spirit of Tilgath-Pilneser king of Asshur, and he removes them—even the Reubenite, and the Gadite, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh—and brings them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and the River of Gozan to this day.

² And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

³ And sons of Amram: Aaron, and Moses, and [his daughter] Miriam. And sons of Aaron: Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

⁴ Eleazar begot Phinehas, Phinehas begot Abishua,

⁵ and Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki begot Uzzi,

⁶ and Uzzi begot Zerariah, and Zerariah begot Meraioth,

⁷ Meraioth begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub,

⁸ and Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Ahimaaz,

⁹ and Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan,

¹⁰ and Johanan begot Azariah—him who acted as priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem.

¹¹ And Azariah begets Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub,

¹² and Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Shallum,

¹³ and Shallum begot Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begot Azariah,

¹⁴ and Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak;

¹⁵ and Jehozadak has gone in YHWH's removing Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶ Sons of Levi: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁷ And these [are] names of sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei.

¹⁸ And sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

¹⁹ Sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. And these [are] families of the Levite according to their fathers;

²⁰ of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,

²¹ Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeaterai his son.

²² Sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son,

²³ Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son,

²⁴ Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uziah his son, and Shaul his son.

²⁵ And sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth.

²⁶ Elkanah—sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son,

¹¹ And of Hushim he begot Ahitub and Elpaal.

¹² And sons of Elpaal: Eber, and Misheam, and Shamer (he built Ono and Lod and its small towns),

¹³ and Beriah and Shema (they [are] the heads of fathers to the inhabitants of Aijalon—they caused the inhabitants of Gath to flee),

¹⁴ and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth,

¹⁵ and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader,

¹⁶ and Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, sons of Beriah,

¹⁷ and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber,

¹⁸ and Ishmerai, and Jezliah, and Jobab, sons of Elpaal;

¹⁹ and Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi,

²⁰ and Elienai, and Zillethai, and Eliel,

²¹ and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, sons of Shimei;

²² and Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel,

²³ and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan,

²⁴ and Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah,

²⁵ and Iphedeiah, and Penuel, sons of Shashak;

²⁶ and Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah,

²⁷ and Jaareshiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, sons of Jeroham.

²⁸ These [are] heads of fathers, by their generations, [the] heads. These dwelt in Jerusalem.

²⁹ And the father of Gibeon has dwelt in Gibeon, and the name of his wife [is] Maachah;

³⁰ and his son, the firstborn, [is] Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Ba'al, and Nadab,

³¹ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher;

³² and Mikloth begot Shimeah. And they also dwelt opposite their brothers—with their brothers in Jerusalem.

³³ And Ner begot Kish, and Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, and Malchi-Shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-Ba'al.

³⁴ And a son of Jonathan [is] Merib-Ba'al, and Merib-Ba'al begot Micah;

³⁵ and sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz;

³⁶ and Ahaz begot Jehoadah, and Jehoadah begot Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza, ³⁷ and Moza begot Binea, Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

³⁹ And sons of his brother Eshek: Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

² And the first inhabitants, who [are] in their possession, in their cities, of Israel, [are] the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim.

³ And those who dwell in Jerusalem of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin, and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh:

⁴ Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, of the sons of Perez, son of Judah.

⁵ And of the Shilonite: Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.

⁶ And of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brothers—six hundred and ninety.

⁷ And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah,

⁸ and Ibneiah son of Jeroham, and Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri, and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah.

⁹ And their brothers, according to their generations, [are] nine hundred and fifty-six. All these [are] men, heads of fathers, according to the house of their fathers.

¹⁰ And of the priests: Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin,

¹¹ and Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, leader in the house of God;

¹² and Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah, and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer.

13 And their brothers, heads of the house of their fathers, [are] one thousand and seven hundred and sixty, mighty in valor, for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hashshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah son of Micah, son of Zichri, son of Asaph;

16 and Obadiah son of Shemariah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah, son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who is dwelling in the villages of the Netophathite.

17 And the gatekeepers [are] Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brothers—Shallum [is] the head;

18 and until now they [are] at the gate of the king eastward; they [are] the gatekeepers for the companies of the sons of Levi.

19 And Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his brothers, of the house of his father, the Korahites, [are] over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent, and their fathers [are] over the camp of YHWH, keepers of the entrance;

20 and Phinehas son of Eleazar has been leader over them formerly; YHWH [is] with him.

21 Zechariah son of Meshelemiah [is] gatekeeper at the opening of the Tent of Meeting.

22 All of those who are chosen for gatekeepers at the thresholds [are] two hundred and twelve; they [are] in their villages, by their genealogy; they whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their office.

23 And they and their sons [are] over the gates of the house of YHWH, even of the house of the tent, by watches.

24 The gatekeepers are at [the] four sides: east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brothers in their villages [are] to come in with these for seven days from time to time.

26 For the four chiefs of the gatekeepers in office, they are Levites, and they have been over the chambers, and over the treasuries of the house of God,

27 and they lodge around the house of God, for the watch [is] on them, and they [are] over the opening, even morning by morning.

28 And [some] of them [are] over the vessels of service, for they bring them in by number; and by number they take them out.

29 And [some] of them are appointed over the vessels, even over all the vessels of the holy place, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And [some] of the sons of the priests are mixing the mixture for spices.

31 And Mattithiah of the Levites (he [is] the firstborn to Shallum the Korahite), [is] in office over the work of the pans.

32 And of the sons of the Kohathite, [some] of their brothers [are] over the bread of the arrangement, to prepare [it] Sabbath by Sabbath.

33 And these who sing, heads of fathers of the Levites, in the chambers, [are] free, for [they are:] over them in the work by day and by night.

34 These heads of the fathers of the Levites [are] heads throughout their generations. These have dwelt in Jerusalem.

³⁵ And the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, has dwelt in Gibeon, and the name of his wife [is] Maachah;

³⁶ and his son, the firstborn, [is] Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Ba'al, and Ner, and Nadab, ³⁷ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

³⁸ And Mikloth begot Shimeam, and they have also dwelt opposite their brothers—with their brothers in Jerusalem.

³⁹ And Ner begot Kish, and Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, and Malchi-Shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-Ba'al.

⁴⁰ And a son of Jonathan [is] Merib-Ba'al, and Merib-Ba'al begot Micah.

⁴¹ And sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea,

⁴² and Ahaz—he begot Jaarah, and Jaarah begot Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri begot Moza, ⁴³ and Moza begot Binea, and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

⁴⁴ And to Azel [are] six sons, and these [are] their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; these [are] sons of Azel.

¹ And the Philistines have fought with Israel, and the men of Israel flee from the face of the Philistines, and fall wounded in Mount Gilboa,

² and the Philistines pursue after Saul, and after his sons, and the Philistines strike Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-Shua, sons of Saul.

³ And the battle [is] heavy on Saul, and those shooting with the bow find him, and he is wounded by those shooting,

⁴ and Saul says to the bearer of his weapons, "Draw your sword and pierce me with it, lest these uncircumcised come and have abused me." And the bearer of his weapons has not been willing, for he fears exceedingly, and Saul takes the sword, and falls on it;

⁵ and the bearer of his weapons sees that Saul [is] dead, and falls, he also, on the sword, and dies;

⁶ and Saul dies, and his three sons, and all his house—they died together.

⁷ And all the men of Israel who [are] in the valley see that they have fled and that Saul and his sons have died, and they forsake their cities and flee, and the Philistines come and dwell in them.

⁸ And it comes to pass, on the next day, that the Philistines come to strip the wounded, and find Saul and his sons fallen in Mount Gilboa,

⁹ and strip him, and carry away his head and his weapons, and send [them] into the land of the surrounding Philistines to proclaim tidings [to] their idols and the people;

¹⁰ and they put his weapons in the house of their gods, and have fixed his skull in the house of Dagon.

¹¹ And all Jabesh-Gilead hears of all that the Philistines have done to Saul,

¹³ And Saul dies because of his trespass that he trespassed against YHWH, against the word of YHWH that he did not keep, and also for asking to inquire of a familiar spirit;

¹⁴ and he did not inquire of YHWH, and He puts him to death, and turns around the kingdom to David son of Jesse.

¹ And all Israel is gathered to David at Hebron, saying, “Behold, we [are] your bone and your flesh;

² even in time past, even in Saul’s being king, it is you who are taking out and bringing in Israel, and your God YHWH says to you: You feed My people Israel, and you are leader over My people Israel.”

³ And all [the] elderly of Israel come to the king at Hebron, and David makes a covenant with them in Hebron before YHWH, and they anoint David for king over Israel, according to the word of YHWH by the hand of Samuel.

⁴ And David goes, and all Israel, to Jerusalem—it [is] Jebus—and the Jebusite [is] there, the inhabitants of the land.

⁵ And the inhabitants of Jebus say to David, “You do not come in here”; and David captures the fortress of Zion—it [is] the City of David.

⁶ And David says, “Whoever strikes the Jebusite first becomes head and prince”; and Joab son of Zeruiah goes up first and becomes head.

⁷ And David dwells in the fortress, therefore they have called it the City of David;

⁸ and he builds the city all around, from Millo, and to the circumference, and Joab restores the rest of the city.

⁹ And David goes, going on and becoming great, and YHWH of Hosts [is] with him.

¹⁰ And these [are] heads of the mighty ones whom David has, who are strengthening themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to cause him to reign, according to the word of YHWH, over Israel.

¹¹ And this [is] an account of the mighty ones whom David has: Jashobeam son of a Hachmonite [is] head of the thirty; he is lifting up his spear against three hundred—wounded, at one time.

¹² And after him [is] Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite, he [is] among the three mighty;

¹³ he has been with David in Pas-Dammim, and the Philistines have been gathered there to battle, and a portion of the field is full of barley, and the people have fled from the face of the Philistines,

¹⁴ and they station themselves in the midst of the portion, and deliver it, and strike the Philistines, and YHWH saves [with] a great salvation.

¹⁵ And three of the thirty heads go down on the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam, and the host of the Philistines is encamping in the Valley of Rephaim,

¹⁶ and David [is] then in the fortress, and the station of the Philistines [is] then in Beth-Lehem,

¹⁷ and David longs and says, “Who gives me water to drink from the well of Beth-Lehem that [is] at the gate!”

¹⁹ and says, “Far be it from me, by my God, to do this; do I drink the blood of these men with their lives? For with their lives they have brought it”; and he was not willing to drink it; these [things] the three mighty ones did.

²⁰ And Abishai brother of Joab, he has been head of the three: and he is lifting up his spear against three hundred—wounded, and has a name among three.

²¹ Of the three he is more honored than the [other] two, and becomes their head; but he has not come to the [first] three.

²² Benaiah son of Jehoiada, son of a man of valor, of great deeds, from Kabzeel: he has struck the two lion-like Moabites, and he has gone down and struck the lion in the midst of the pit, in the day of snow.

²⁴ These [things] Benaiah son of Jehoiada has done, and has a name among the three mighty ones.

²⁵ Of the thirty, behold, he [is] honored, but he has not come to the [first] three, and David sets him over his guard.

²⁶ And the mighty ones of the forces [are] Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo of Beth-Lehem,

²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸ Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abi-Ezer the Annethothite,

²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

³¹ Ithai son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

³² Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shage the Hararite,

³⁵ Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai son of Ur,

³⁶ Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

³⁷ Hezor the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,

³⁸ Joel brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Haggeri,

³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, bearer of the weapons of Joab son of Zeruiah,

⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite, Zabadi son of Ahlai,

⁴² Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, head of the Reubenites, and thirty by him,

⁴³ Hanan son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel sons of Hothan the Aroerite,

⁴⁵ Jedaiel son of Shimri, and his brother Joha the Tizite,

⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷ Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mesobaite.

of Saul son of Kish, and they [are] among the mighty ones, helping the battle,

³ The head [is] Ahiezer, and Joash, sons of Shemaab the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth, and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite,

⁵ Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

⁶ Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam the Korahites,

⁷ and Joelah, and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

⁸ And of the Gadite there have been separated to David, to the fortress, to the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men of the host for battle, setting in array buckler and spear, and their faces [are as] the face of the lion, and as roes on the mountains for speed:

⁹ Ezer the head, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

¹⁰ Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

¹¹ Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

¹² Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

¹³ Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

¹⁴ These [are] of the sons of Gad, heads of the host; the least [is] one of one hundred, and the greatest, of one thousand;

¹⁵ these [are] they who have passed over the Jordan in the first month—and it is full over all its banks—and cause all [those in] the valley to flee to the east and to the west.

¹⁶ And [some] from the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold,

¹⁷ and David goes out before them, and answers and says to them, “If you have come to me for peace, to help me, I have a heart to unite with you; and if to betray me to my adversaries—without violence in my hands—the God of our fathers sees and reproves.”

¹⁸ And the Spirit has clothed Amasai, head of the captains: “To you, O David, and with you, O son of Jesse—peace! Peace to you, and peace to your helper, for your God has helped you”; and David receives them, and puts them among the heads of the troop.

²¹ and they have helped with David over the troop, for all of them [are] mighty men of valor, and they are captains in the host,

²² for at that time, day by day, they come to David to help him, until it is a great camp, like a camp of God.

²⁴ The sons of Judah, carrying buckler and spear, [are] six thousand and eight hundred, armed ones of the host.

²⁵ Of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the host, [are] seven thousand and one hundred.

²⁶ Of the sons of Levi [are] four thousand and six hundred;

²⁷ and Jehoiada [is] the leader of the Aaronite, and with him [are] three thousand and seven hundred,

²⁸ and Zadok, a young man, a mighty man of valor, and of the house of his father [are] twenty-two heads.

²⁹ And of the sons of Benjamin, brothers of Saul, [are] three thousand, and until now their greater part are keeping the charge of the house of Saul.

³⁰ And of the sons of Ephraim [are] twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valor, men of renown, according to the house of their fathers.

³¹ And of the half of the tribe of Manasseh [are] eighteen thousand, who have been defined by name, to come to cause David to reign.

³² And of the sons of Issachar, having understanding for the times, to know what Israel should do; their heads [are] two hundred, and all their brothers [are] at their command.

³³ Of Zebulun, going forth to the host, arranging battle with all instruments of battle, [are] fifty thousand, and keeping rank without a double heart.

³⁴ And of Naphtali, one thousand heads, and with them, with buckler and spear, [are] thirty-seven thousand.

³⁵ And of the Danite, arranging battle, [are] twenty-eight thousand and six hundred.

³⁶ And of Asher, going forth to the host, to arrange battle, [are] forty thousand.

³⁷ And from beyond the Jordan, of the Reubenite, and of the Gadite, and of the half of the tribe of Manasseh, with all instruments of the host for battle, [are] one hundred and twenty thousand.

³⁸ All these [are] men of war, keeping rank—they have come to Hebron with a perfect heart, to cause David to reign over all Israel, and also all the rest of Israel [are] of one heart, to cause David to reign,

³⁹ and they are there, with David, three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers have prepared for them.

⁴⁰ And also those near to them—to Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali—are bringing in bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen—food of fine flour, fig-cakes and grape-cakes, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep, in abundance, for joy [is] in Israel.

¹ And David consults with the heads of the thousands and of the hundreds, [and] with every leader,

² and David says to all the assembly of Israel, “If it is good to you, and it has broken forth from our God YHWH—we send to our brothers, those left in all the lands of Israel, and the priests and the Levites with them in the cities of their outskirts, and they are gathered to us,

³ and we bring around the Ark of our God to us, for we did not seek Him in the days of Saul.”

⁴ And all the assembly says to do so, for the thing is right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵ And David assembles all Israel from Shihor of Egypt even to the entering in of Hamath, to bring in the Ark of God from Kirjath-Jearim,

⁶ and David goes up, and all Israel, to Ba‘alah, to Kirjath-Jearim that [belongs] to Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of God, YHWH, inhabiting the cherubim, where the Name is called on.

⁷ And they place the Ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio are leading the cart,

⁸ and David and all Israel are playing before God, with all strength, and with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

⁹ And they come to the threshing-floor of Chidon, and Uzza puts forth his hand to seize the Ark, for the oxen were released,

¹⁰ and the anger of YHWH is kindled against Uzza, and He strikes him, because that he has put forth his hand on the Ark, and he dies there before God.

¹¹ And it is displeasing to David, because YHWH has made a breach on Uzza, and one calls that place “Breach of Uzza” to this day.

¹² And David fears God on that day, saying, “How do I bring the Ark of God to me?”

¹³ And David has not turned aside the Ark to himself, to the City of David, and turns it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

¹⁴ And the Ark of God dwells with the household of Obed-Edom, in his house, three months, and YHWH blesses the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he has.

¹ And Hiram king of Tyre sends messengers to David, and cedar-wood, and craftsmen of walls, and craftsmen of wood, to build a house for him.

² And David knows that YHWH has established him for king over Israel, because of the lifting up on high of his kingdom, for the sake of His people Israel.

³ And David takes wives again in Jerusalem, and David begets sons and daughters again;

⁴ and these [are] the names of the children whom he has in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

⁵ and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

⁶ and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

⁷ and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

⁹ And the Philistines have come, and rush into the Valley of Rephaim,

¹⁰ and David asks of God, saying, “Do I go up against the Philistines—and have You given them into my hand?” And YHWH says to him, “Go up, and I have given them into your hand.”

¹¹ And they go up into Ba'al-Perazim, and David strikes them there, and David says, "God has broken up my enemies by my hand, like the breaking up of waters"; therefore they have called the name of that place Ba'al-Perazim.

¹² And they leave their gods there, and David commands, and they are burned with fire.

¹³ And the Philistines add again, and rush into the valley,

¹⁴ and David asks again of God, and God says to him, "Do not go up after them, turn around from them, and you have come to them from the front [[or in front]] of the mulberries;

¹⁶ And David does as God commanded him, and they strike the camp of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer;

¹⁷ and the name of David goes out into all the lands, and YHWH has put his fear on all the nations.

¹ And he makes houses for himself in the City of David, and prepares a place for the Ark of God, and stretches out a tent for it.

² Then David said, "None [are] to carry the Ark of God, except the Levites, for YHWH has fixed on them to carry the Ark of God and to serve Him for all time."

³ And David assembles all Israel to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of YHWH to its place that he had prepared for it.

⁴ And David gathers the sons of Aaron and the Levites—

⁵ of sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief and one hundred and twenty of his brothers;

⁶ of sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief and two hundred and twenty of his brothers;

⁷ of sons of Gershon: Joel the chief and one hundred and thirty of his brothers;

⁸ of sons of Elizaphan: Shemaiah the chief and two hundred of his brothers;

⁹ of sons of Hebron: Eliel the chief and eighty of his brothers;

¹⁰ of sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief and one hundred and twelve of his brothers.

¹¹ And David calls to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, and to the Levites, to Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,

¹² and says to them, "You [are] heads of the fathers of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and you have brought up the Ark of YHWH, God of Israel, to [the place] I have prepared for it;

¹³ because you [did] not [do it] at the first, our God YHWH made a breach on us, because we did not seek Him according to the ordinance."

¹⁴ And the priests and the Levites sanctify themselves to bring up the Ark of YHWH, God of Israel;

¹⁵ and sons of the Levites carry the Ark of God, as Moses commanded, according to the word of YHWH, above them with poles on their shoulder.

¹⁶ And David says to the heads of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of song, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, to lift up with the voice for joy.

¹⁷ And the Levites appoint Heman son of Joel, and of his brothers, Asaph son of Berechiah, and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan son of Kushaiah;

¹⁸ and with them their brothers, the seconds [in rank]: Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah; and Obed-Edom and Jeiel the gatekeepers;

¹⁹ and the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, [are] to sound with cymbals of bronze;

²⁰ and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jeheil, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries over the girls' [voices],

²¹ and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, to oversee with harps on the eighth.

²² And Chenaniah, head of the Levites, [is] over the burden; he instructs about the burden, for he [is] intelligent.

²³ And Berechiah and Elkanah [are] gatekeepers for the Ark.

²⁴ And Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests, are blowing with trumpets before the Ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah [are] gatekeepers for the Ark.

²⁵ And it is David, and [the] elderly of Israel, and the heads of the thousands, who are going to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH from the house of Obed-Edom with joy;

²⁹ and it comes to pass, the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH is entering into the City of David, and Michal daughter of Saul is looking through the window, and sees King David dancing and playing, and despises him in her heart.

¹ And they bring in the Ark of God, and set it up in the midst of the tent that David has stretched out for it, and they bring burnt-offerings and peace-offerings near before God;

² and David ceases from offering the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings, and blesses the people in the Name of YHWH,

³ and gives a portion to every man of Israel, both man and woman: to each a cake of bread, and a measure of wine, and a grape-cake.

⁴ And he puts before the Ark of YHWH, those ministering from the Levites, even to make mention of, and to thank, and to give praise to YHWH, God of Israel:

⁵ Asaph the head, and his second Zechariah; Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with instruments of psalteries, and with harps; and Asaph is sounding with cymbals;

⁶ and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests [are] continually [sounding] with trumpets before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

⁷ On that day, at that time, David has given at the beginning to give thanks to YHWH by the hand of Asaph and his brothers:

⁸ "Give thanks to YHWH, call on His Name, || Make His doings known among the peoples.

⁹ Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him, || Meditate on all His wonders.

¹⁰ Boast yourselves in His Holy Name, || The heart of those seeking YHWH rejoices.

¹¹ Seek YHWH and His strength, || Seek His face continually.

¹² Remember His wonders that He did, || His signs, and the judgments of His mouth,

¹³ O seed of Israel, His servant, || O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

¹⁴ He [is] our God YHWH, || His judgments [are] in all the earth.

¹⁵ Remember His covenant for all time, || The word He commanded—To one thousand generations,

¹⁶ Which He has made with Abraham, || And His oath—to Isaac,

¹⁷ And He establishes it to Jacob for a statute, || To Israel [for] a perpetual covenant,

¹⁸ Saying, To you I give the land of Canaan, || The portion of your inheritance,

¹⁹ When you were few in number, || As a little thing, and sojourners in it.

²⁰ And they go up and down, || From nation to nation, || And from a kingdom to another people.

²¹ He has not permitted any to oppress them, || And reproves kings on their account:

²² Do not come against My anointed ones, || And do no evil against My prophets.

²³ Sing to YHWH, all the earth, || Proclaim His salvation from day to day.

²⁴ Recount His glory among nations, || His wonders among all the peoples.

²⁵ For great [is] YHWH, and greatly praised, || And He [is] fearful above all gods.

²⁶ For all gods of the peoples [are] nothing, || And YHWH has made the heavens.

²⁷ Splendor and majesty [are] before Him, || Strength and joy [are] in His place.

²⁸ Ascribe to YHWH, you families of peoples, || Ascribe to YHWH glory and strength.

²⁹ Ascribe to YHWH the glory of His Name, || Lift up a present, and come before Him. Bow yourselves to YHWH, || In the beauty of holiness.

³⁰ Be pained before Him, all the earth; Also, the world is established, || It is not moved!

³¹ The heavens rejoice, and the earth is glad, || And they say among nations, YHWH has reigned!

³² The sea roars, and its fullness, || The field exults, and all that [is] in it,

³³ Then trees of the forest sing, || From the presence of YHWH, || For He has come to judge the earth!

³⁴ Give thanks to YHWH, for [He is] good, || For His kindness [is] for all time,

³⁵ And say, Save us, O God of our salvation, || And gather us, and deliver us from the nations, || To give thanks to Your Holy Name, || To triumph in Your praise.

³⁶ Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, || From age to age"; And all the people say, "Amen," and have given praise to YHWH.

³⁷ And he leaves there [those] of Asaph and of his brothers, before the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, to minister before the Ark continually, according to the matter of a day in its day;

³⁸ both Obed-Edom and their sixty-eight brothers, and Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, for gatekeepers;

³⁹ and Zadok the priest, and his brothers the priests, before the Dwelling Place of YHWH, in a high place that [is] in Gibeon,

⁴⁰ to cause burnt-offerings to ascend continually to YHWH on the altar of burnt-offering, morning and evening, and for all that is written in the Law of YHWH that He charged on Israel.

⁴¹ And with them [are] Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest of those chosen, who were defined by name, to give thanks to YHWH, for His kindness [is] for all time;

⁴³ And all the people go, each to his house, and David turns around to bless his house.

¹ And it comes to pass as David sat in his house, that David says to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I am dwelling in a house of cedars, and the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH [is] under curtains";

² and Nathan says to David, "All that [is] in your heart do, for God [is] with you."

³ And it comes to pass on that night that a word of God is to Nathan, saying,

⁴ "Go, and you have said to My servant David, Thus said YHWH: You do not build for Me the house to dwell in.

⁵ For I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought up Israel until this day, and I am [going] from tent to tent, and from the Dwelling Place.

⁷ And now, thus you say to My servant, to David, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: I have taken you from the habitation, from after the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel, ⁸ and I am with you wherever you have walked, and I cut off all your enemies from your presence, and have made a name for you like the name of the great ones who [are] in the earth.

⁹ And I have prepared a place for My people Israel, and planted it, and it has dwelt in its place, and is not troubled anymore, and the sons of perverseness do not add to wear it out as at first,

¹⁰ indeed, even from the days that I appointed judges over My people Israel. And I have humbled all your enemies, and I declare to you that YHWH builds a house for you.

¹¹ And it has come to pass, when your days have been fulfilled to go with your fathers, that I have raised up your seed after you, who is of your sons, and I have established his kingdom;

¹² he builds a house for Me, and I have established his throne for all time;

¹³ I am to him for a father, and he is to Me for a son, and I do not turn aside My kindness from him as I turned it aside from him who was before you,

¹⁴ and I have established him in My house, and in My kingdom for all time, and his throne is established for all time.”

¹⁵ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so spoke Nathan to David.

¹⁶ And David the king comes in and sits before YHWH, and says, “Who [am] I, O YHWH God, and what [is] my house, that You have brought me here?”

¹⁸ What more does David add to You for the honor of Your servant; and You have known Your servant.

¹⁹ O YHWH, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart You have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

²⁰ O YHWH, there is none like You, and there is no god except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

²¹ And who [is] as Your people Israel, one nation in the earth whom God has gone to ransom to Himself for a people, to make a great and fearful name for Yourself, to cast out nations from the presence of Your people whom You have ransomed out of Egypt?

²² Indeed, You appoint Your people Israel to Yourself for a people for all time, and You, O YHWH, have been to them for God.

²³ And now, O YHWH, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, be steadfast for all time, and do as You have spoken;

²⁴ and let it be steadfast, and Your Name is great for all time, saying, YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, [is] God to Israel, and the house of Your servant David is established before You;

²⁵ for You, O my God, have uncovered the ear of Your servant—to build a house for him, therefore Your servant has found [desire] to pray before You.

²⁶ And now, YHWH, You [are] God Himself, and You speak this goodness concerning Your servant;

²⁷ and now, You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, to be before You for all time; for You, O YHWH, have blessed, and it is blessed for all time.”

18

¹ And it comes to pass after this, that David strikes the Philistines, and humbles them, and takes Gath and its small towns out of the hand of the Philistines;

² and he strikes Moab, and the Moabites are servants to David, bringing a present.

³ And David strikes Hadarezer king of Zobah, at Hamath, in his going to establish his power by the Euphrates River;

⁴ and David captures from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and David utterly destroys all the chariots, and leaves of them [only] one hundred chariots.

⁵ And Aram of Damascus comes to give help to Hadarezer king of Zobah, and David strikes twenty-two thousand men in Aram,

⁶ and David puts [garrisons] in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans are for servants to David, carrying a present, and YHWH gives salvation to David wherever he has gone.

⁷ And David takes the shields of gold that have been on the servants of Hadarezer, and brings them to Jerusalem;

⁹ And Tou king of Hamath hears that David has struck the whole force of Hadarezer king of Zobah,

¹⁰ and he sends his son Hadoram to King David, to ask of him of peace, and to bless him, because that he has fought against Hadarezer and strikes him (for Hadarezer had been a man of wars with Tou); and [with him were] all kinds of vessels, of gold, and silver, and bronze;

¹¹ King David has also sanctified them to YHWH with the silver and the gold that he has taken from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

¹² And Abishai son of Zeruiah has struck Edom in the Valley of Salt—eighteen thousand,

¹³ and he puts garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites are servants to David; and YHWH saves David wherever he has gone.

¹⁴ And David reigns over all Israel, and he is doing judgment and righteousness to all his people,

¹⁵ and Joab son of Zeruiah [is] over the host, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud [is] remembrancer,

¹⁶ and Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar [are] priests, and Shavsha [is] scribe,

¹⁷ and Benaiah son of Jehoiada [is] over the Cherethite and the Pelethite, and the chief sons of David [are] at the hand of the king.

¹ And it comes to pass after this, that Nahash king of the sons of Ammon dies, and his son reigns in his stead,

² and David says, "I do kindness with Hanun son of Nahash, for his father did kindness with me"; and David sends messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David come to the land of the sons of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him,

³ and the heads of the sons of Ammon say to Hanun, "Is David honoring your father in your eyes because he has sent comforters to you? Have his servants not come to you in order to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?"

⁴ And Hanun takes the servants of David and shaves them, and cuts their long robes in the midst, to the buttocks, and sends them away.

⁷ and they hire for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, and they come in and encamp before Medeba, and the sons of Ammon have been gathered out of their cities, and come to the battle.

⁸ And David hears, and sends Joab, and all the host of the mighty men,

⁹ and the sons of Ammon come out and set in array [for] battle at the opening of the city, and the kings who have come [are] by themselves in the field.

¹⁰ And Joab sees that the front of the battle has been to him, before and behind, and he chooses out of all the choice in Israel, and sets in array to meet Aram,

¹¹ and he has given the remnant of the people into the hand of his brother Abishai, and they set in array to meet the sons of Ammon.

¹² And he says, "If Aram is stronger than me, then you have been for salvation to me; and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I have saved you;

¹³ be strong, and we strengthen ourselves, for our people, and for the cities of our God, and YHWH does that which is good in His eyes."

¹⁴ And Joab draws near, and the people who [are] with him, before Aram to battle, and they flee from his face;

¹⁵ and the sons of Ammon have seen that Aram has fled, and they flee—they also—from the face of his brother Abishai, and go into the city. And Joab comes to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ And Aram sees that they have been struck before Israel, and send messengers, and bring out Aram that [is] beyond the River, and Shophach head of the host of Hadarezer [is] before them.

¹⁷ And it is declared to David, and he gathers all Israel, and passes over the Jordan, and comes to them, and sets in array against them; indeed, David sets in array [for] battle to meet Aram, and they fight with him;

¹⁸ and Aram flees from the face of Israel, and David slays seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand footmen of Aram, and he has put Shophach head of the host to death.

¹⁹ And the servants of Hadarezer see that they have been struck before Israel, and they make peace with David and serve him, and Aram has not been willing to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

² And David takes the crown of their king from off his head, and finds it [to be] a talent of gold [in] weight, and [with] precious stone in it, and it is on the head of David; and he has brought out very much spoil of the city,

³ and he has brought out the people who [are] in it, and sets [them] to the saw, and to cutting instruments of iron, and to axes; and thus David does to all cities of the sons of Ammon, and David turns back—and all the people—to Jerusalem.

⁵ And there is war with the Philistines again, and Elhanan son of Jair strikes Lahmi, brother of Goliath the Gittite, the wood of whose spear [is] like a weavers' beam.

⁶ And there is war in Gath again, and there is a man of [great] measure, and his fingers and his toes [are] six and six—twenty-four [total], and he has also been born to the giant.

⁷ And he reproaches Israel, and Jonathan son of Shimea, brother of David, strikes him.

⁸ These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fall by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

¹ Then Satan stands up against Israel, and persuades David to number Israel,

² and David says to Joab and to the heads of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beer-Sheba even to Dan, and bring [the account] to me, and I know their number."

³ And Joab says, "YHWH adds to His people as they are one hundred times; are they not, my lord, O king, all of them for servants to my lord? Why does my lord seek this? Why is he for a cause of guilt to Israel?"

⁴ And the word of the king [is] severe against Joab, and Joab goes out, and goes up and down in all Israel, and comes to Jerusalem.

⁶ And he has not numbered Levi and Benjamin in their midst, for the word of the king was abominable with Joab.

⁷ And it is evil in the eyes of God concerning this thing, and He strikes Israel,

⁸ and David says to God, "I have sinned exceedingly in that I have done this thing; and now, please cause the iniquity of Your servant to pass away, for I have acted very foolishly."

9 And YHWH speaks to Gad, seer of David, saying,

10 “Go, and you have spoken to David, saying, Thus said YHWH: I am extending three [choices] to you; choose one of these for yourself, and I do [it] to you.”

11 And Gad comes to David and says to him, “Thus said YHWH: Take for yourself—

12 either famine for three years, or three months to be consumed from the face of your adversaries (even [for] the sword of your enemies to overtake), or three days of the sword of YHWH (even pestilence in the land, and a messenger of YHWH destroying in all the border of Israel); and now, see; what word do I return to Him who is sending me?”

13 And David says to Gad, “I am greatly distressed, please let me fall into the hand of YHWH, for His mercies [are] very many, and do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

14 And YHWH gives a pestilence in Israel, and there falls from Israel seventy thousand men,

15 and God sends a messenger to Jerusalem to destroy it, and as he is destroying, YHWH has seen, and is comforted concerning the calamity, and says to the messenger who [is] destroying, “Enough now, cease your hand.” And the messenger of YHWH is standing by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite,

16 and David lifts up his eyes, and sees the messenger of YHWH standing between the earth and the heavens, and his sword [is] drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem, and David falls, and the elderly, covered with sackcloth, on their faces.

17 And David says to God, “Did I not command to number the people? Indeed, it [is] I who have sinned, and done great evil: and these, the flock, what did they do? O YHWH, my God, please let Your hand be on me, and on the house of my father, and not on Your people—to be plagued.”

18 And the messenger of YHWH commanded to Gad to say to David, “Surely David goes up to raise an altar to YHWH in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.”

19 And David goes up by the word of Gad, that he spoke in the Name of YHWH.

20 And Ornan turns back and sees the messenger, and his four sons [are] with him hiding themselves, and Ornan is threshing wheat.

21 And David comes to Ornan, and Ornan looks attentively and sees David, and goes out from the threshing-floor, and bows himself to David—face to the earth.

22 And David says to Ornan, “Give the place of the threshing-floor to me, and I build an altar to YHWH in it; give it to me for full price, and the plague is restrained from the people.”

23 And Ornan says to David, “Take [it] to yourself, and my lord the king does that which is good in his eyes; see, I have given the oxen for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for a present; I have given the whole.”

24 And King David says to Ornan, “No, for I surely buy [it] for full price; for I do not lift up that which is yours to YHWH, so as to offer a burnt-offering without cost.”

²⁵ And David gives to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold [in] weight for the place;

²⁶ and David builds an altar to YHWH there, and offers burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and calls to YHWH, and He answers him from the heavens with fire on the altar of the burnt-offering.

²⁷ And YHWH speaks to the messenger, and he turns back his sword to its sheath.

²⁸ At that time, when David sees that YHWH has answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrifices there;

²⁹ and the Dwelling Place of YHWH that Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt-offering, [are] at that time at a high place in Gibeon;

³⁰ and David is not able to go before it to seek God, for he has been afraid because of the sword of the messenger of YHWH.

22

¹ And David says, “This is the house of YHWH God, and this [is] the altar for burnt-offering for Israel.”

² And David says to gather the sojourners who [are] in the land of Israel, and appoints hewers to hew hewn-stones to build a house of God.

³ And David has prepared iron in abundance for nails for leaves of the gates and for couplings, and bronze in abundance—there is no weighing,

⁴ and cedar-trees without number, for the Zidonians and the Tyrians brought in cedar-trees in abundance to David.

⁶ And he calls for his son Solomon, and charges him to build a house for YHWH, God of Israel,

⁷ and David says to his son Solomon, “As for me, it has been with my heart to build a house for the Name of my God YHWH,

⁸ and the word of YHWH [is] against me, saying, You have shed blood in abundance, and you have made great wars; you do not build a house for My Name, for you have shed much blood to the earth before Me.

¹⁰ he builds a house for My Name, and he is to Me for a son, and I [am] to him for a father, and I have established the throne of his kingdom over Israel for all time.

¹¹ Now my son, YHWH is with you, and you have prospered, and have built the house of your God YHWH, as He spoke concerning you.

¹² Only, may YHWH give wisdom and understanding to you, and charge you concerning Israel, even to keep the Law of your God YHWH;

¹³ then you prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the judgments that YHWH charged Moses with concerning Israel; be strong and courageous; do not fear, nor be cast down.

¹⁴ And behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of YHWH one hundred thousand talents of gold, and one million talents of silver; and of bronze and of iron there is no weighing, for it has been in abundance; and I have prepared wood and stones, and you add to them.

¹⁵ And with you in abundance [are] workmen, hewers and craftsmen of stone and of wood, and every skillful man for every work.

¹⁶ Of the gold, of the silver, and of the bronze, and of the iron, there is no number; arise and do, and YHWH is with you."

¹⁷ And David gives charge to all heads of Israel to give help to his son Solomon, [saying],

¹⁸ "Is your God YHWH not with you? Indeed, He has given rest to you all around, for He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land has been subdued before His people.

¹⁹ Now give your heart and your soul to seek for your God YHWH, and rise and build the sanctuary of YHWH God, to bring in the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and the holy vessels of God, to the house that is built for the Name of YHWH."

¹ And David was old and satisfied with days, and he causes his son Solomon to reign over Israel,

² and gathers all the heads of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites;

³ and the Levites are numbered from a son of thirty years and upward, and their number, for their counted heads, is of thirty-eight thousand mighty men.

⁴ Of these, twenty-four thousand [are] to preside over the work of the house of YHWH, and six thousand officers and judges,

⁵ and four thousand gatekeepers, and four thousand giving praise to YHWH, "with instruments that I made for praising," [says David.]

⁶ And David distributes them into divisions of the sons of Levi—of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷ Of the Gershonite: Laadan and Shimei.

⁸ Sons of Laadan: the head [is] Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel—three.

⁹ Sons of Shimei: Shelomith, and Haziël, and Haran—three; these [are] heads of the fathers of Laadan.

¹⁰ And sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah; these [are] the four sons of Shimei.

¹¹ And Jahath is the head, and Zizah the second, and Jeush and Beriah have not multiplied sons, and they become the house of a father by one numbering.

¹² Sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four.

¹³ Sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron is separated for his sanctifying the Holy of Holies, he and his sons, for all time, to make incense before YHWH, to serve Him, and to bless in His Name for all time.

¹⁴ As for Moses, the man of God, his sons are called after the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵ Sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶ Sons of Gershom: Shebuel the head.

¹⁷ And sons of Eliezer are Rehabiah the head, and Eliezer had no other sons, and the sons of Rehabiah have multiplied exceedingly.

¹⁸ Sons of Izhar: Shelomith the head.

¹⁹ Sons of Hebron: Jeriah the head, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰ Sons of Uzziel: Micah the head, and Ishshiah the second.

²¹ Sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

²² And Eleazar dies, and he had no sons, but daughters, and their brothers, sons of Kish, take them.

²³ Sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth—three.

²⁴ These [are] sons of Levi, by the house of their fathers, heads of the fathers, by their appointments, in the number of names, by their counted heads, doing the work for the service of the house of YHWH, from a son of twenty years and upward,

²⁵ for David said, “YHWH, God of Israel, has given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem for all time”;

²⁶ and also of the Levites, “None [are] to carry the Dwelling Place and all its vessels for its service”;

²⁷ for by the last words of David they [took] the number of the sons of Levi from a son of twenty years and upward,

²⁸ for their station [is] at the side of the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of YHWH, over the courts, and over the chambers, and over the cleansing of every holy thing, and the work of the service of the house of God,

²⁹ and for the bread of the arrangement, and for fine flour for present, and for the thin unleavened cakes, and for [the work of] the pan, and for that which is stirred, and for all [liquid] measure and [solid] measure;

³⁰ and to stand, morning by morning, to give thanks, and to give praise to YHWH, and so at evening;

³¹ and for all the burnt-offerings—burnt-offerings to YHWH for Sabbaths, for new moons, and for appointed times, by number, according to the ordinance on them continually, before YHWH.

³² And they have kept the charge of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of their brothers, the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of YHWH.

² And Nadab dies—and Abihu—in the presence of their father, and they had no sons, and Eleazar and Ithamar act as priests.

³ And David distributes them—and Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar—according to their office in their service;

⁵ And they distribute them by lots, with one another, for they have been princes of the holy place and princes of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

⁷ And the first lot goes out for Jehoiarib, for Jedaiah the second,

- 8 for Harim the third, for Seorim the fourth,
 9 for Malchijah the fifth, for Mijamin the sixth,
 10 for Hakkoz the seventh, for Abijah the eighth,
 11 for Jeshuah the ninth, for Shecaniah the tenth,
 12 for Eliashib the eleventh, for Jakim the twelfth,
 13 for Huppah the thirteenth, for Jeshebeab the fourteenth,
 14 for Bilgah the fifteenth, for Immer the sixteenth,
 15 for Hezir the seventeenth, for Apses the eighteenth,
 16 for Pethahiah the nineteenth, for Jehezekel the twentieth,
 17 for Jachin the twenty-first, for Gamul the twenty-second,
 18 for Delaiah the twenty-third, for Maaziah the twenty-fourth.
 19 These [are] their appointments for their service, to come into the house of YHWH, according to their ordinance by the hand of their father Aaron, as YHWH God of Israel commanded them.
 20 And of the sons of Levi who are left—of sons of Amram: Shubael; of sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.
 21 Of Rehabiah, of sons of Rehabiah: the head Ishshiah.
 22 Of the Izharite: Shelomoth; of sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.
 23 And sons of Jeriah: Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.
 24 Sons of Uzziel: Michah; of sons of Michah: Shamir.
 25 Ishshiah [is] a brother of Michah; of sons of Ishshiah: Zechariah;
 26 sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; sons of Jaaziah: Beno;
 27 sons of Merari, of Jaaziah: Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibrî.
 28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons;
 29 of Kish, sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.
 30 And sons of Mushi [are] Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth; these [are] sons of the Levites, for the house of their fathers,
 31 and they also cast lots just as their brothers, the sons of Aaron, before David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and heads of the fathers for priests and for Levites; the chief father just as his younger brother.

- 1 And David and the heads of the host separate for service, of the sons of Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, who are prophesying with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals; and the number of the workmen is according to their service.
 2 Of sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelâh; sons of Asaph [are] by the side of Asaph, who is prophesying by the side of the king.
 3 Of Jeduthun, sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiâh, [and Shimei, and] Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, by the side of their father Jeduthun; he is prophesying with a harp, for giving of thanks and of praise for YHWH.
 4 Of Heman, sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth;
 5 all these [are] sons of Heman, seer of the king in the things of God, to lift up a horn; and God gives fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.

⁷ And their number, with their brothers taught in the song of YHWH—all who are intelligent—[is] two hundred and eighty-eight.

⁸ And they cause lots to fall, charge next to [charge], the small as well as the great, the intelligent with the learner.

⁹ And the first lot goes out for Asaph to Joseph; the second, Gedaliah—him, and his brothers and his sons—twelve;

¹⁰ the third, Zaccur, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹¹ the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹² the fifth, Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹³ the sixth, Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁴ the seventh, Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁵ the eighth, Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁶ the ninth, Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁷ the tenth, Shimei, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁸ eleventh, Azareel, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

¹⁹ the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁰ for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²¹ for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²² for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²³ the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁴ the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁵ the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁶ the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁷ the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁸ the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

²⁹ the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

³⁰ the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers—twelve;

³¹ the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers—twelve.

¹ For the divisions of the gatekeepers, of the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph;

² and sons of Meshelemiah: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

⁴ And moreover, sons of Obed-Edom: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth, for God has blessed him.

⁶ And sons have been born to his son Shemaiah, who are ruling throughout the house of their father, for they [are] mighty men of valor.

⁷ Sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, [and] Elzabad; his brothers Elihu and Semachiah [are] sons of valor.

⁸ All these [are] of the sons of Obed-Edom; they, and their sons, and their brothers, men of valor with might for service—sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

⁹ And sons and brothers of Meshelemiah, sons of valor—eighteen;

¹⁰ and of Hosah, of the sons of Merari, [are these] sons: Shimri the head (though he was not firstborn, yet his father sets him for head),

¹¹ Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brothers of Hosah—thirteen.

¹² For these [are] the divisions of the gatekeepers, of the heads of the mighty ones, [with] charges just as their brothers, to minister in the house of YHWH,

¹³ and they cause lots to fall, the small as well as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

¹⁴ And the lot falls eastward to Shelemiah; and [for] his son Zechariah, a counselor with understanding, they cause lots to fall, and his lot goes out northward;

¹⁵ to Obed-Edom southward, and to his sons, the house of the gatherings;

¹⁶ to Shuppim and to Hosah to the west, with Shallecheth Gate, in the highway, the ascent, watch next to watch;

¹⁷ to the east [are] six Levites, to the north [are] four each day, to the south [are] four each day, and for the gatherings, two by two;

¹⁸ at Parbar, to the west, [are] four at the highway, two at Parbar.

¹⁹ These are the divisions of the gatekeepers, of the sons of the Korahite, and of the sons of Merari.

²⁰ And of the Levites, Ahijah [is] over the treasures of the house of God, even for the treasures of the holy things.

²¹ Sons of Laadan, sons of the Gershonite, of Laadan, heads of the fathers of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

²² Sons of Jehieli: Zetham and his brother Joel, over the treasures of the house of YHWH.

²³ Of the Amramite, of the Izharite, of the Hebronite, of [the] Uzzielite—

²⁴ and Shebuel son of Gershom, son of Moses, [is] president over the treasures.

²⁵ And his brothers, of Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

²⁶ This Shelomith and his brothers [are] over all the treasures of the holy things that David the king, and heads of the fathers, even heads of thousands, and of hundreds, and heads of the host, sanctified;

²⁷ from the battles and from the spoil, they sanctified to strengthen the house of YHWH;

²⁸ and all that Samuel the seer, and Saul son of Kish, and Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah sanctified, everyone sanctifying [anything—it is] by the side of Shelomith and his brothers.

²⁹ Of the Izharite, Chenaniah and his sons [are] for the outward work over Israel, for officers and for judges.

² Over the first division for the first month [is] Jashobeam son of Zabdiel, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division;

³ [he was] of the sons of Perez, [and] the head of all princes of the hosts for the first month.

⁴ And over the division of the second month [is] Dodai the Ahohite, and Mikloth [is] also president of his division, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

⁵ Head of the third host, for the third month, [is] Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the head priest, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

⁶ This Benaiah [is] a mighty one of the thirty, and over the thirty, and his son Ammizabad [is in] his division.

⁷ The fourth, for the fourth month, [is] Asahel brother of Joab, and his son Zebadiah after him, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

⁸ The fifth, for the fifth month, [is] the prince Shamhuth the Izrahite, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

⁹ The sixth, for the sixth month, [is] Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹⁰ The seventh, for the seventh month, [is] Helez the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹¹ The eighth, for the eighth month, [is] Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahite, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹² The ninth, for the ninth month, [is] Abiezer the Antothite, of the Benjaminite, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹³ The tenth, for the tenth month, [is] Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahite, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹⁴ Eleventh, for the eleventh month, [is] Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the sons of Ephraim, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹⁵ The twelfth, for the twelfth month, [is] Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel, and twenty-four thousand [are] on his division.

¹⁶ And over the tribes of Israel: the leader of the Reubenite [is] Eliezer son of Zichri; of the Simeonite, Shephatiah son of Maachah;

¹⁷ of the Levite, Hashabiah son of Kemuel; of the Aaronite, Zadok;

¹⁸ of Judah, Elihu, of the brothers of David; of Issachar, Omri son of Michael;

¹⁹ of Zebulun, Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jerimoth son of Azriel;

²⁰ of the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Azaziah; of the half of the tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Pedaiiah;

²¹ of the half of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel son of Abner; of Dan, Azareel son of Jeroham.

²² These [are the] heads of the tribes of Israel.

²³ But David has not taken up their number from a son of twenty years and under, for YHWH had said [He would] multiply Israel as the stars of the heavens.

²⁴ Joab son of Zeruiah has begun to number, but has not finished; and there is wrath against Israel for this, and the number has not gone up in the account of the Chronicles of King David.

²⁶ and Ezri son of Chelub [is] over workmen of the field for the service of the ground;

²⁷ and Shimei the Ramathite [is] over the vineyards; and Zabdi the Shiphmite [is] over what [is] in the vineyards for the treasures of wine;

²⁸ and Ba'al-Hanan the Gederite [is] over the olives and the sycamores that [are] in the low country; and Joash [is] over the treasures of oil;

²⁹ and Shitrai the Sharonite [is] over the herds that are feeding in Sharon; and Shaphat son of Adlai [is] over the herds in the valleys;

³⁰ and Obil the Ishmaelite [is] over the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite [is] over the donkeys;

³¹ and Jaziz the Hagerite [is] over the flock; all these [are] heads of the substance that King David has.

³² And Jonathan, David's uncle, [is] counselor, a man of understanding, [and] he is also a scribe; and Jehiel son of Hachmoni [is] with the sons of the king;

³³ and Ahithophel [is] counselor to the king; and Hushai the Archite [is] the friend of the king;

³⁴ and after Ahithophel [is] Jehoiada son of Benaiah, and Abiathar; and the head of the host of the king [is] Joab.

¹ And David assembles all the heads of Israel, heads of the tribes, and heads of the divisions who are serving the king, and heads of the thousands, and heads of the hundreds, and heads of all the substance and possessions of the king, and of his sons, with the officers and the mighty ones, and of every mighty man of valor—to Jerusalem.

² And David the king rises on his feet and says, "Hear me, my brothers and my people, I [had it] with my heart to build a house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and for the footstool of our God, and I prepared to build,

³ and God has said to me, You do not build a house for My Name, for you [are] a man of wars, and you have shed blood.

⁴ And YHWH, God of Israel, fixes on me out of all the house of my father to be for king over Israel for all time, for He has fixed on Judah for a leader, and in the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He has been pleased with me to make [me] king over all Israel;

⁵ and out of all my sons—for YHWH has given many sons to me—He also fixes on my son Solomon, to sit on the throne of the kingdom of YHWH over Israel,

⁶ and says to me, Your son Solomon builds My house and My courts, for I have fixed on him [to be] to Me for a son, and I am to him for a father.

⁷ And I have established his kingdom for all time, if he is strong to do My commands and My judgments, as at this day.

⁸ And now, before the eyes of all Israel, the assembly of YHWH, and in the ears of our God, keep and seek all the commands of your God YHWH, so that you possess this good land, and have caused your sons to inherit after you for all time.

⁹ And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind, for YHWH is seeking all hearts, and He is understanding every imagination of the thoughts; if you seek Him, He is found by you, and if you forsake Him, He casts you off forever.

¹⁰ See, now, for YHWH has fixed on you to build a house for a sanctuary; be strong, and do."

¹¹ And David gives to his son Solomon the pattern of the porch, and of its houses, and of its treasures, and of its upper chambers, and of its innermost chambers, and of the house of the atonement;

¹² and the pattern of all that has been with him by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of YHWH, and for all the surrounding chambers, for the treasures of the house of God, and for the treasures of the things sacrificed;

¹³ and for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of YHWH, and for all vessels of service of the house of YHWH,

¹⁴ even gold by weight, for [things of] gold, for all instruments of every service; for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every service;

¹⁶ and the gold [by] weight for tables of the arrangement, for table and table, and silver for the tables of silver;

¹⁷ and the forks, and the bowls, and the cups of pure gold, and for the basins of gold, by weight for basin and basin, and for the basins of silver, by weight for basin and basin,

¹⁸ and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight, and for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubim of gold, spreading and covering over the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH.

¹⁹ The whole [is] in writing from the hand of YHWH, "He caused me to understand all the work of the pattern," [said David.]

²⁰ And David says to his son Solomon, "Be strong and courageous, and do; do not fear nor be frightened, for YHWH God, my God, [is] with you; He does not fail you, nor forsake you, to the completion of all the work of the service of the house of YHWH.

²¹ And behold, divisions of the priests and of the Levites [are] for all the service of the house of God; and with you in all work [is] every willing one with wisdom, for every service; and the heads and all the people [are] according to all your words."

¹ And David the king says to all the assembly, "My son Solomon—the one on whom God has fixed—[is] young and tender, and the work [is] great, for the palace is not for man, but for YHWH God;

² and with all my power I have prepared for the house of my God, the gold for [things of] gold, and the silver for [things of] silver, and the bronze for [things of] bronze, the iron for [things of] iron, and the wood for [things of] wood, shoham stones, and settings, and stones of painting and of diverse colors, and all [kinds of] precious stone, and stones of white marble, in abundance.

³ And again, because of my delighting in the house of my God, the substance I have—a peculiar treasure of gold and silver—I have given for the house of my God, even over and above all I have prepared for the holy house:

⁴ three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses,

⁵ even gold for [things of] gold, and silver for [things of] silver, and for all the work by the hand of craftsmen; and who [is] he that is offering to willingly consecrate his hand to YHWH today?"

⁶ And the heads of the fathers, and the heads of the tribes of Israel, and the heads of the thousands, and of the hundreds, and of the heads of the work of the king, offer willingly.

⁸ and he with whom stones are found has given [them] to the treasury of the house of YHWH, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

⁹ And the people rejoice because of their offering willingly, for with a perfect heart they have offered willingly to YHWH; and David the king has also rejoiced [with] great joy.

¹⁰ And David blesses YHWH before the eyes of all the assembly, and David says, "Blessed [are] You, YHWH, God of Israel, our Father, from age even to age.

¹¹ To You, O YHWH, [is] the greatness, and the might, and the beauty, and the victory, and the splendor, because of all in the heavens and in the earth; to You, O YHWH, [is] the kingdom, and He who is lifting up Himself over all for head;

¹² and the riches, and the honor [are] from before You, and You are ruling over all, and in Your hand [is] power and might, and [it is] in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all.

¹³ And now, our God, we are giving thanks to You, and giving praise to Your beautiful Name;

¹⁴ indeed, because who [am] I, and who [are] my people, that we retain power to offer thus willingly? But the whole [is] from You, and we have given to You out of Your [own] hand;

¹⁵ for we [are] sojourners and settlers before You, like all our fathers; our days on the land [are] as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

¹⁶ O our God YHWH, all this store [with] which we have prepared to build a house for You, for Your Holy Name, [is] out of Your [own] hand, and the whole [is] of You.

¹⁷ And I have known, my God, that You are trying the heart, and desire uprightness; I, in the uprightness of my heart, have willingly offered all these; and now, I have seen Your people who are found here with joy to offer willingly to You.

¹⁸ O YHWH, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this for all time for the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and prepare their heart for You;

¹⁹ and give a perfect heart to my son Solomon, to keep Your commands, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do the whole, even to build the palace [for] which I have prepared.”

²⁰ And David says to all the assembly, “Now bless your God YHWH”; and all the assembly blesses YHWH, God of their fathers, and bows and pays respect to YHWH and to the king.

²² And they eat and drink before YHWH on that day with great joy, and cause Solomon son of David to reign a second time, and anoint [him] before YHWH for leader, and Zadok for priest.

²³ And Solomon sits on the throne of YHWH for king instead of his father David, and prospers, and all of Israel listens to him,

²⁴ and all the heads, and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David have given a hand under Solomon the king;

²⁵ and YHWH makes Solomon exceedingly great before the eyes of all Israel, and puts on him the splendor of the kingdom that has not been on any king over Israel before him.

²⁶ And David son of Jesse has reigned over all Israel,

²⁷ and the days that he has reigned over Israel [are] forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three;

²⁸ and he dies in a good old age, satisfied with days, riches, and honor, and his son Solomon reigns in his stead.

³⁰ with all his reign, and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all kingdoms of the lands.

Second Chronicles

¹ And Solomon son of David strengthens himself over his kingdom, and his God YHWH [is] with him, and makes him exceedingly great.

² And Solomon says to all Israel, to heads of the thousands, and of the hundreds, and to the ones judging, and to every honorable one of all Israel, heads of the fathers,

³ and they go—Solomon, and all the assembly with him—to the high place that [is] in Gibeon, for God’s Tent of Meeting has been there, that Moses, servant of YHWH, made in the wilderness,

⁴ but David had the Ark of God brought up from Kirjath-Jearim to the [place] David had prepared for it, for he stretched out a tent for it in Jerusalem;

⁵ and the altar of bronze that Bezaleel son of Uri, son of Hur made, he put before the Dwelling Place of YHWH; and Solomon and the assembly seek Him [there].

⁶ And Solomon goes up there, on the altar of bronze, before YHWH, that [is] at the Tent of Meeting, and causes one thousand burnt-offerings to ascend on it.

⁷ In that night God has appeared to Solomon and says to him, “Ask—what do I give to you?”

⁸ And Solomon says to God, “You have done great kindness with my father David, and have caused me to reign in his stead.

⁹ Now, O YHWH God, Your word with my father David is steadfast, for You have caused me to reign over a people [as] numerous as the dust of the earth;

¹⁰ now, give wisdom and knowledge to me, and I go out before this people, and I come in, for who judges this—Your great people?”

¹¹ And God says to Solomon, “Because that this has been with your heart, and you have not asked for riches, wealth, and honor, and the life of those hating you, and also have not asked for many days, and ask for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, so that you judge My people over which I have caused you to reign—

¹² the wisdom and the knowledge is given to you, and riches and wealth and honor I [also] give to you, that there has not been so to the kings who [are] before you, and after you it is not so.”

¹³ And Solomon comes in to Jerusalem [from] the high place that [is] in Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, and reigns over Israel,

¹⁴ and Solomon gathers chariots and horsemen, and he has one thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, and he places them in the cities of the chariots, and with the king in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And the king makes the silver and the gold in Jerusalem as stones, and the cedars he made as sycamores that [are] in the low country, for abundance.

¹⁶ And the source of the horses that [are] for Solomon [is] from Egypt and from Keva; merchants of the king take [them] from Keva at a price,

¹⁷ and they come up, and bring out a chariot from Egypt for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty, and so for all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram—they bring [them] out by their hand.

¹ And Solomon says to build a house for the Name of YHWH, and a house for his kingdom,

² and Solomon numbers seventy thousand men bearing burden, and eighty thousand men hewing in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers over them.

³ And Solomon sends to Hiram king of Tyre, saying, “When you have dealt with my father David, then you send cedars to him to build a house for him to dwell in;

⁴ behold, I am building a house for the Name of my God YHWH, to sanctify [it] to Him, to make incense before Him, incense of spices, and a continual arrangement, and burnt-offerings at morning and at evening, at Sabbaths, and at new moons, and at appointed times of our God YHWH; this [is] on Israel for all time.

⁵ And the house that I am building [is] great, for our God [is] greater than all gods;

⁶ and who retains strength to build a house for Him, since the heavens, even the heavens of the heavens, do not contain Him? And who [am] I that I build a house for Him, except to make incense before Him?

⁷ And now, send a wise man to me to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and knowing to engrave engravings with the wise men who [are] with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom my father David prepared;

⁸ and send to me cedar-trees, firs, and aliums from Lebanon, for I have known that your servants know to cut down trees of Lebanon, and behold, my servants [are] with your servants,

⁹ even to prepare trees in abundance for me, for the house that I am building [is] great and wonderful.

¹¹ And Hiram king of Tyre answers in writing, and sends [it] to Solomon: “In the love of YHWH for His people, He has set you [as] king over them.”

¹² And Hiram says, “Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given a wise son to David the king, knowing wisdom and understanding, who builds a house for YHWH, and a house for his kingdom.

¹³ And now, I have sent a wise man having understanding, of [my] father Hiram

¹⁴ (son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father a man of Tyre), knowing to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stones, and in wood, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, and to engrave any engraving, and to devise any invention that is given to him, with your wise men, and the wise men of my lord, your father David.

¹⁵ And now, the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, as my lord said, let him send to his servants,

¹⁶ and we cut trees out of Lebanon, according to all your need, and bring them to you—floats by sea, to Joppa, and you take them up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁸ and he makes from them seventy thousand burden-bearers, and eighty thousand hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers, to cause the people to work.

² and he begins to build in the second [day], in the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

³ And [in] these Solomon has been instructed to build the house of God: the length [in] cubits by the former measure [is] sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

⁵ And he has covered the large house with fir-trees, and he covers it with fine gold, and causes palms and chains to ascend on it,

⁶ and he overlays the house with precious stone for beauty, and the gold [is] gold of Parvaim,

⁷ and he covers the house, the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors, with gold, and has engraved cherubim on the walls.

⁸ And he makes the most holy house: its length by the front of the breadth of the house—twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits, and he covers it with six hundred talents of fine gold;

⁹ and the weight of the nails [is] fifty shekels of gold, and he has covered the upper chambers with gold.

¹⁰ And he makes two cherubim in the most holy house, image work, and he overlays them with gold;

¹² And the wing of the other cherub [is] five cubits touching the wall of the house, and the other wing [is] five cubits, adhering to the wing of the other cherub.

¹³ The wings of these cherubim are spreading forth twenty cubits, and they are standing on their feet and their faces [are] inward.

¹⁴ And he makes the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and causes cherubim to go up on it.

¹⁵ And he makes two pillars at the front of the house, thirty-five cubits in length, and the ornament that [is] on their heads [is] five cubits.

¹⁶ And he makes chains in the oracle, and puts [them] on the heads of the pillars, and makes one hundred pomegranates, and puts [them] on the chains.

17 And he raises up the pillars on the front of the temple, one on the right and one on the left, and calls the name of that on the right Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

1 And he makes an altar of bronze: twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height.

2 And he makes the molten sea; ten by the cubit, from its edge to its edge, round in encompassment, and its height [is] five by the cubit, and a line of thirty by the cubit surrounds it around.

3 And the likeness of oxen [is] under it, encompassing it all around, ten to the cubit, surrounding the sea around; two rows of oxen are cast in its being cast.

4 It is standing on twelve oxen, three facing the north, and three facing the west, and three facing the south, and three facing the east, and the sea [is] on them above, and all their back parts [are] within.

5 And its thickness [is] a handbreadth, and its lip as the work of the lip of a cup flowered with lilies; holding [within]—it contains three thousand baths.

6 And he makes ten lavers, and puts five on the right, and five on the left, to wash with them; they purge the work of the burnt-offering with them; and the sea [is] for priests to wash with.

7 And he makes the ten lampstands of gold, according to their ordinance, and places [them] in the temple, five on the right, and five on the left.

8 And he makes ten tables, and places [them] in the temple, five on the right, and five on the left; and he makes one hundred bowls of gold.

9 And he makes the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and he has overlaid their doors with bronze.

10 And he has placed the sea on the right shoulder eastward, from toward the south.

11 And Hiram makes the pots, and the shovels, and the bowls, and Hiram finishes to make the work that he made for King Solomon in the house of God;

12 two pillars, and the bowls, and the crowns on the heads of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the crowns that [are] on the heads of the pillars;

13 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for the one network, to cover the two bowls of the crowns that [are] on the front of the pillars.

14 And he has made the bases; and he has made the lavers on the bases;

15 the one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.

16 and the pots, and the shovels, and the forks, and all their vessels, his father Hiram has made for King Solomon, for the house of YHWH, of bronze purified.

17 The king has cast them in the circuit of the Jordan, in the thick soil of the ground, between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 And Solomon makes all these vessels in great abundance, that the weight of the bronze has not been searched out.

19 And Solomon makes all the vessels that [are for] the house of God, and the altar of gold, and the tables, and on them [is] Bread of the Presentation;

²⁰ and the lampstands, and their lamps, for their burning according to the ordinance, before the oracle, of gold refined;

²¹ and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold—it [is] the perfection of gold;

²² and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the censers, of gold refined, and the opening of the house, its innermost doors to the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house to the temple, of gold.

² Then Solomon assembles the elderly of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, princes of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH from the City of David—it [is] Zion.

³ And all the men of Israel are assembled to the king in the celebration—it [is] the seventh month;

⁴ and all [the] elderly of Israel come in, and the Levites lift up the Ark,

⁵ and they bring up the Ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that [are] in the tent; the priests, the Levites, have brought them up;

⁶ and King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who are convened to him before the Ark are sacrificing sheep and oxen that are not counted nor numbered from multitude.

⁸ and the cherubim are spreading out wings over the place of the Ark, and the cherubim cover over the Ark, and over its poles, from above;

¹⁰ There is NOTHING in the Ark but the two tablets that Moses gave in Horeb, where YHWH covenanted with the sons of Israel, in their going out from Egypt.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, in the going out of the priests from the holy place—for all the priests who are present have sanctified themselves, there is none to watch by divisions,

¹⁴ and the priests have not been able to stand to minister from the presence of the cloud, for the glory of YHWH has filled the house of God.

¹ Then Solomon said, "YHWH said [He would] dwell in thick darkness,
² and I have built a house of habitation for You, and a fixed place for Your dwelling for all ages."

³ And the king turns around his face, and blesses the whole assembly of Israel, and the whole assembly of Israel is standing,

⁴ and he says, "Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, who has spoken with His mouth with my father David, and with His hands has fulfilled [it], saying,

⁵ From the day that I brought out My people from the land of Egypt, I have not fixed on a city out of any of the tribes of Israel to build a house for my name being there, and I have not fixed on a man to be leader over My people Israel;

⁶ and I fix on Jerusalem for My Name being there, and I fix on David to be over My people Israel.

⁷ And it is with the heart of my father David to build a house for the Name of YHWH God of Israel,

⁸ and YHWH says to my father David, Because that it has been with your heart to build a house for My Name, you have done well that it has been with your heart,

⁹ but you do not build the house, for your son who comes forth out from your loins, he builds the house for My Name.

¹⁰ And YHWH establishes His word that He spoke, and I rise up in the stead of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as YHWH spoke, and I build the house for the Name of YHWH, God of Israel,

¹¹ and I place the Ark there, where the covenant of YHWH [is] that He made with the sons of Israel."

¹² And he stands before the altar of YHWH, in front of all the assembly of Israel, and spreads out his hand—

¹³ for Solomon has made a scaffold of bronze, and puts it in the midst of the court, five cubits its length, and five cubits its breadth, and three cubits its height, and he stands on it, and kneels on his knees in front of all the assembly of Israel, and spreads forth his hands toward the heavens—

¹⁴ and says, "O YHWH God of Israel, there is not like You a god in the heavens and in the earth, keeping the covenant and the kindness for Your servants who are walking before You with all their heart;

¹⁵ who has kept for Your servant, my father David, that which You spoke to him; indeed, You speak with Your mouth, and with Your hand have fulfilled [it], as at this day.

¹⁶ And now, O YHWH, God of Israel, keep for Your servant, my father David, that which You spoke to him, saying, A man of yours is never cut off from before My face, sitting on the throne of Israel—only, if your sons watch their way to walk in My law, as you have walked before Me.

¹⁷ And now, O YHWH, God of Israel, let Your word be steadfast that You have spoken to Your servant, to David.

18 For is it true [that] God dwells with man on the earth? Behold, the heavens, and the heavens of the heavens, do not contain You, how much less this house that I have built?

19 And You have turned to the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O YHWH my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer that Your servant is praying before You,

20 for Your eyes being open toward this house by day and by night, toward the place that You have said to put Your Name there, to listen to the prayer that Your servant prays toward this place.

21 And You have listened to the supplications of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, that they pray toward this place, and You hear from the place of Your dwelling, from the heavens, and have listened, and forgiven.

22 If a man sins against his neighbor, and he has lifted up an oath on him to cause him to swear, and the oath has come in before Your altar in this house—

23 then You hear from the heavens, and have done, and have judged Your servants, to give back to the wicked, to put his way on his head, and to declare righteous the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness.

24 And if Your people Israel is struck before an enemy because they sin against You, and they have turned back and confessed Your Name, and prayed and made supplication before You in this house—

25 then You hear from the heavens and have forgiven the sin of Your people Israel, and caused them to return to the ground that You have given to them, and to their fathers.

26 In the heavens being restrained and there is no rain because they sin against You, and they have prayed toward this place and confessed Your Name, [and] they turn back from their sin because You afflict them—

27 then You hear in the heavens, and have forgiven the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, because You direct them to the good way in which they walk, and have given rain on Your land that You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

28 Famine, when it is in the land, [and] pestilence, when it is [in the land], blasting and mildew, locust and caterpillar, when they are [in the land], when its enemies have distressed it in the land—its gates, any plague and any sickness;

29 any prayer, any supplication that is for any man, and for all Your people Israel, when they each know his own plague, and his own pain, and he has spread out his hands toward this house—

30 then You hear from the heavens, the settled place of Your dwelling, and have forgiven, and have given to each according to all his ways (because You know his heart, for You alone have known the heart of the sons of men),

31 so that they fear You, to walk in Your ways, all the days that they are living on the face of the ground that You have given to our fathers.

32 And also, to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, and he has come from a far-off land for the sake of Your great Name, and Your strong hand, and Your outstretched arm, and they have come in and prayed toward this house—

33 then You hear from the heavens, from the settled place of Your dwelling, and have done according to all that the stranger calls to You for, so that all the peoples of the earth know Your Name, so as to fear You, as You people Israel, and to know that Your Name is called on this house that I have built.

³⁴ When Your people go out to battle against its enemies in the way that You send them, and they have prayed to You [in] the way of this city that You have fixed on, and the house that I have built for Your Name—

³⁵ then You have heard their prayer and their supplication from the heavens, and have maintained their cause.

³⁶ When they sin against You—for there is not a man who does not sin—and You have been angry with them, and have given them before an enemy, and their captors have taken them captive to a land far off or near;

³⁷ and they have turned [it] back to their heart in the land to where they have been taken captive, and have turned back and made supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have done wickedly;

³⁸ indeed, they have turned back to You with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, to where they have taken them captive, and they have prayed [in] the way of their land that You have given to their fathers, and of the city that You have chosen, and of the house that I have built for Your Name—

³⁹ then You have heard from the heavens, from the settled place of Your dwelling, their prayer and their supplications, and have maintained their cause, and forgiven Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰ Now my God, I implore You, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer of this place.

⁴¹ And now, rise, O YHWH God, to Your rest, You and the Ark of Your strength; Your priests, O YHWH God, are clothed with salvation, and Your saints rejoice in the goodness.

⁴² O YHWH God, do not turn back the face of Your anointed, be mindful of the kind acts of Your servant David.”

¹ And at Solomon’s finishing to pray, then the fire has come down from the heavens and consumes the burnt-offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of YHWH has filled the house,

² and the priests have not been able to go into the house of YHWH, because the glory of YHWH has filled the house of YHWH.

³ And all the sons of Israel are looking on the descending of the fire, and the glory of YHWH on the house, and they bow—faces to the earth—on the pavement, and pay respect, and give thanks to YHWH, [saying], “For [He is] good, for His kindness [is] for all time!”

⁴ And the king and all the people are sacrificing a sacrifice before YHWH,

⁵ and King Solomon sacrifices the sacrifice: twenty-two thousand of the herd and one hundred and twenty thousand of the flock; and the king and all the people dedicate the house of God.

7 And Solomon sanctifies the middle of the court that [is] before the house of YHWH, for he has made the burnt-offerings and the fat of the peace-offerings there, for the altar of bronze that Solomon made has not been able to contain the burnt-offering, and the present, and the fat.

8 And Solomon makes the celebration at that time [for] seven days, and all Israel with him—a very great assembly—from the entering in of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

9 And they make a restraint on the eighth day, because they have made the dedication of the altar [for] seven days, and the celebration [for] seven days.

10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he has sent the people to their tents, rejoicing, and glad in heart, for the goodness that YHWH has done to David, and to Solomon, and to His people Israel.

11 And Solomon finishes the house of YHWH, and the house of the king; and all that has come on the heart of Solomon to do in the house of YHWH, and in his own house, he has caused to prosper.

12 And YHWH appears to Solomon by night and says to him, “I have heard your prayer, and have fixed on this place for Myself for a house of sacrifice.

13 If I restrain the heavens and there is no rain, and if I lay charge on the locust to consume the land, and if I send pestilence among My people—

14 and My people on whom My Name is called are humbled, and pray, and seek My face, and turn back from their evil ways, then I hear from the heavens, and forgive their sin, and heal their land.

15 Now My eyes are open and My ears attentive to the prayer of this place;

16 and now, I have chosen and sanctified this house for My Name being there for all time; indeed, My eyes and My heart have been there [for] all the days.

17 And you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, even to do according to all that I have commanded you, and keep My statutes and My judgments—

18 then I have established the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with your father David, saying, A man of yours is never cut off [from] ruling in Israel;

19 and if you turn back—you—and have forsaken My statutes and My commands that I have placed before you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them—then I have plucked them from off My ground that I have given to them,

20 and this house that I have sanctified for My Name, I cast from before My face, and make it for a proverb and for a byword among all the peoples.

21 And this house that has been high is an astonishment to everyone passing by it, and he has said, Why has YHWH done thus to this land and to this house?

22 And they have said, Because that they have forsaken YHWH, God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and lay hold on other gods, and bow themselves to them, and serve them, therefore He has brought all this calamity on them.”

¹ And it comes to pass at the end of twenty years that Solomon has built the house of YHWH and his own house.

² As for the cities that Hiram has given to Solomon, Solomon has built them, and he causes the sons of Israel to dwell there.

³ And Solomon goes to Hamath-Zobah, and lays hold on it;

⁴ and he builds Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the cities of store that he has built in Hamath.

⁵ And he builds Beth-Horon the upper, and Beth-Horon the lower—cities of defense, with walls, double gates, and bar—

⁷ All the people who are left of the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, who are not of Israel—

⁸ of their sons who have been left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel did not consume—Solomon lifts up a tribute to this day.

⁹ And Solomon has made none of the sons of Israel servants for his work, but they [are] men of war, and heads of his captains, and heads of his charioteers, and of his horsemen;

¹⁰ and these [are] heads of the officers whom King Solomon has, two hundred and fifty who are rulers among the people.

¹¹ And Solomon has brought up the daughter of Pharaoh from the City of David to the house that he built for her, for he said, "My wife does not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, for they are holy to whom the Ark of YHWH has come."

¹² Then Solomon has caused burnt-offerings to ascend to YHWH on the altar of YHWH that he built before the porch,

¹³ even by the matter of a day in its day, to cause to ascend according to the command of Moses, on Sabbaths, and on new moons, and on appointed times, three times in a year—in the Celebration of Unleavened Things, and in the Celebration of Weeks, and in the Celebration of Shelters.

¹⁵ And they have not turned aside [from] the command of the king concerning the priests and the Levites, in reference to any matter, and to the treasures.

¹⁷ Then Solomon has gone to Ezion-Geber, and to Elath, on the border of the sea, in the land of Edom;

² and Solomon declares all her matters to her; and there has not been hid a thing from Solomon that he has not declared to her.

³ And the queen of Sheba sees the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he has built,

⁵ And she says to the king, "The word [is] true that I heard in my land concerning your matters and concerning your wisdom,

⁶ and I have given no credence to their words until I have come and my eyes see, and behold, there has not been declared to me the half of the abundance of your wisdom—you have added to the report that I heard.

⁷ O the blessedness of your men, and the blessedness of your servants—these—who are standing before you continually, and hearing your wisdom.

⁸ Let your God YHWH be blessed who has delighted in you to put you on His throne for king for your God YHWH; in the love of your God to Israel, to establish it for all time, He has put you over them for king, to do judgment and righteousness."

¹⁰ And also, servants of Hiram, and servants of Solomon, who brought in gold from Ophir, have brought in algum-trees and precious stone.

¹³ And the weight of the gold that is coming to Solomon in one year is six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

¹⁵ And King Solomon makes two hundred bucklers of alloyed gold—he causes six hundred [shekels] of alloyed gold to go up on the one buckler;

¹⁶ and three hundred shields of alloyed gold—he causes three hundred [shekels] of gold to go up on the one shield, and the king puts them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

¹⁷ And the king makes a great throne of ivory, and overlays it with pure gold;

¹⁸ and six steps [are] to the throne, and a footstool of gold, [and] they are fastened to the throne; and [places for] hands [are] on this [side] and on that [side] on the place of the sitting, and two lions are standing near the hands,

¹⁹ and twelve lions are standing there on the six steps on this [side] and on that [side]: it has not been made so for any kingdom.

²² And King Solomon becomes greater than any of the kings of the earth for riches and wisdom;

²³ and all the kings of the earth are seeking the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom that God has put in his heart,

²⁴ and they are each bringing in his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

²⁵ And there are four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen for Solomon, and he placed them in cities of the chariot, and with the king in Jerusalem.

²⁶ And he is ruling over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

²⁷ And the king makes the silver in Jerusalem as stones, and he has made the cedars as sycamores that [are] in the low country, for abundance,

²⁸ and they are bringing out horses from Egypt to Solomon, and from all the lands.

³⁰ And Solomon reigns in Jerusalem over all Israel [for] forty years,

³¹ and Solomon lies with his fathers, and they bury him in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam reigns in his stead.

¹ And Rehoboam goes to Shechem, for all of Israel has come [to] Shechem to cause him to reign.

² And it comes to pass, at Jeroboam son of Nebat—who [is] in Egypt because he has fled from the face of Solomon the king—hearing, that Jeroboam turns back out of Egypt;

³ and they send and call for him, and Jeroboam comes in, and all of Israel, and they speak to Rehoboam, saying,

⁴ “Your father made our yoke sharp, and now, make light [some] of the sharp service of your father, and [some] of his heavy yoke that he put on us, and we serve you.”

⁵ And he says to them, “Yet three days—then return to me”; and the people go.

⁶ King Rehoboam consults with the aged men who have been standing before his father Solomon in his being alive, saying, “How are you counseling to answer this people?”

⁷ And they speak to him, saying, “If you become good to this people, and have been pleased with them, and spoken to them good words, then they have been servants to you [for] all the days.”

⁸ And he forsakes the counsel of the aged men that they counseled him, and consults with the boys who have grown up with him, those standing before him,

⁹ and he says to them, “What are you counseling, and we answer this people that have spoken to me, saying, Make light [some] of the yoke that your father put on us?”

¹⁰ And the boys who have grown up with him speak with him, saying, “Thus you say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and you, make light [some] of our yoke; thus you say to them, My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father;

¹¹ and now, my father laid a heavy yoke on you, and I add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I—with scorpions.”

¹² And Jeroboam comes in, and all the people, to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king spoke, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

¹³ And the king answers them sharply, and King Rehoboam forsakes the counsel of the aged men,

¹⁴ and speaks to them according to the counsel of the boys, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, and I add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, and I—with scorpions.”

¹⁵ And the king has not listened to the people, for the revolution has been from God, for the sake of YHWH’s establishing His word that He spoke by the hand of Abijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

¹⁶ And all Israel have seen that the king has not listened to them, and the people send back [word to] the king, saying, “What portion do we have in David? Indeed, there is no inheritance in a son of Jesse; [go], each to your tents, O Israel! Now see your house, O David!” And all [in] Israel go to their tents.

¹⁷ As for the sons of Israel who are dwelling in the cities of Judah—Rehoboam reigns over them.

¹⁹ and Israel transgresses against the house of David to this day.

11

¹ And Rehoboam comes to Jerusalem, and assembles the house of Judah and Benjamin—one hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors—to fight with Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam.

² And a word of YHWH is to Shemaiah, a man of God, saying,

³ “Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

⁴ Thus said YHWH: You do not go up nor fight with your brothers! Let each return to his house, for this thing has been from Me”; and they hear the words of YHWH, and turn back from going against Jeroboam.

⁵ And Rehoboam dwells in Jerusalem, and builds cities for a bulwark in Judah,

⁶ indeed, he builds Beth-Lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 and Beth-Zur, and Shocho, and Adullam,
 8 and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,
 9 and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,
 10 and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, that [are] in Judah and in Benjamin, cities of bulwarks.

11 And he strengthens the bulwarks, and puts leaders in them, and treasures of food, and oil, and wine,

12 and in each and every city [he puts] bucklers and spears, and strengthens them very greatly; and he has Judah and Benjamin.

13 And the priests and the Levites that [are] in all Israel have stationed themselves by him, out of all their border,

14 for the Levites have left their outskirts and their possession, and they come to Judah and to Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons have cast them off from acting as priests for YHWH,

15 and he establishes for himself priests for high places, and for goat [idols] and for calf [idols] that he made.

16 And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, those giving their heart to seek YHWH, God of Israel, have come to Jerusalem to sacrifice to YHWH, God of their father.

17 And they strengthen the kingdom of Judah, and strengthen Rehoboam son of Solomon, for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

18 And Rehoboam takes a wife for himself, Mahalath, child of Jerimoth son of David, [and of] Abigail daughter of Eliab son of Jesse.

19 And she bears sons to him: Jeush, and Shamaria, and Zaham.

20 And after her he has taken Maachah daughter of Absalom, and she bears to him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loves Maachah daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines—for he has taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines—and he begets twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

22 And Rehoboam appoints Abijah son of Maachah for head, for leader among his brothers, for to cause him to reign.

23 And he has understanding, and disperses from all his sons to all lands of Judah and Benjamin, to all cities of the bulwarks, and gives provision in abundance to them; and he asks for a multitude of wives [for them].

1 And it comes to pass, at the establishing of the kingdom of Rehoboam, and at his strengthening himself, he has forsaken the Law of YHWH, and all Israel with him.

2 And it comes to pass, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt has come up against Jerusalem—because they trespassed against YHWH—

3 with one thousand and two hundred chariots, and with sixty thousand horsemen, and there is no number to the people who have come with him out of Egypt—Lubim, Sukkiim, and Cushim—

4 and he captures the cities of the bulwarks that [are] of Judah, and comes to Jerusalem.

5 And Shemaiah the prophet has come to Rehoboam and the heads of Judah who have been gathered to Jerusalem [to escape] from the presence of Shishak, and says to them, “Thus said YHWH: You have forsaken Me, and also, I have left you in the hand of Shishak”;

⁶ and the heads of Israel are humbled—and the king—and they say, “YHWH [is] righteous.”

⁷ And when YHWH sees that they have been humbled, a word of YHWH has been [sent] to Shemaiah, saying, “They have been humbled; I do not destroy them, and I have given to them as a little thing for an escape, and I do not pour out My fury in Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak;

⁸ but they become servants to him, and they know My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the lands.”

⁹ And Shishak king of Egypt comes up against Jerusalem, and takes the treasures of the house of YHWH and the treasures of the house of the king—he has taken the whole—and he takes the shields of gold that Solomon had made;

¹⁰ and King Rehoboam makes shields of bronze in their stead, and has given [them] a charge on the hand of the heads of the runners who are keeping the opening of the house of the king;

¹² And in his being humbled, the wrath of YHWH has turned back from him, so as not to destroy to completion; and also, there have been good things in Judah.

¹³ And King Rehoboam strengthens himself in Jerusalem and reigns; for Rehoboam [is] a son of forty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that YHWH has chosen to put His Name there, out of all the tribes of Israel, and the name of his mother [is] Naamah the Ammonitess,

¹⁴ and he does evil, for he has not prepared his heart to seek YHWH.

¹⁵ And the matters of Rehoboam, the first and the last, are they not written among the matters of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogy? And the wars of Rehoboam and Jeroboam [are for] all the days;

¹⁶ and Rehoboam lies with his fathers, and is buried in the City of David, and his son Abijah reigns in his stead.

² he has reigned three years in Jerusalem (and the name of his mother [is] Michaiah daughter of Uriel, from Gibeah), and there has been war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

⁴ And Abijah rises up on the hill of Zemaraim that [is] in the hill-country of Ephraim, and says, “Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel!

⁵ Is it not for you to know that YHWH, God of Israel, has given the kingdom over Israel to David for all time, to him and to his sons—a covenant of salt?

⁶ And Jeroboam, son of Nebat, servant of Solomon son of David, rises up and rebels against his lord!

⁷ And vain men are gathered to him, sons of worthlessness, and they strengthen themselves against Rehoboam son of Solomon, and Rehoboam was a youth, and tender of heart, and has not strengthened himself against them.

⁸ And now you are saying to strengthen yourselves before the kingdom of YHWH in the hand of the sons of David, and you [are] a numerous multitude, and calves of gold [are] with you that Jeroboam has made for you for gods.

⁹ Have you not cast out the priests of YHWH, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests for yourselves like the peoples of the lands? Everyone who has come to fill his hand with a bullock, a son of the herd, and seven rams, even he has been a priest for [those which are] not gods!

¹⁰ As for us, YHWH [is] our God, and we have not forsaken Him, and priests are ministering to YHWH, sons of Aaron and the Levites, in the work,

¹² And behold, with us—at [our] head—[is] God, and His priests and trumpets of shouting to shout against you; O sons of Israel, do not fight with YHWH, God of your fathers, for you do not prosper.”

¹³ And Jeroboam has brought around the ambush to come in from behind them, and they are before Judah, and the ambush [is] behind them.

¹⁴ And Judah turns, and behold, the battle [is] against them, before and behind, and they cry to YHWH, and the priests are blowing with trumpets, ¹⁵ and the men of Judah shout; and it comes to pass, at the shouting of the men of Judah, that God has struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

¹⁶ And the sons of Israel flee from the face of Judah, and God gives them into their hand,

¹⁷ and Abijah and his people strike among them a great striking, and five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fall wounded.

¹⁸ And the sons of Israel are humbled at that time, and the sons of Judah are strong, for they have leaned on YHWH, God of their fathers.

¹⁹ And Abijah pursues after Jeroboam and captures cities from him: Beth-El and its small towns, and Jeshanah and its small towns, and Ephraim and its small towns.

²⁰ And Jeroboam has not retained power anymore in the days of Abijah, and YHWH strikes him, and he dies.

²¹ And Abijah strengthens himself, and takes fourteen wives for himself, and begets twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters; and his son Asa reigns in his stead. In his days the land was quiet [for] ten years.

²² and the rest of the matters of Abijah, and his ways, and his words, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

¹ And Abijah lies with his fathers, and they bury him in the City of David,

² And Asa does that which is good and that which is right in the eyes of his God YHWH,

³ and turns aside the altars of the stranger, and the high places, and breaks the standing-pillars, and cuts down the Asherim,

⁴ and commands to Judah to seek YHWH, God of their fathers, and to do the Law and the command;

⁵ and he turns aside the high places and the images out of all cities of Judah, and the kingdom is quiet before him.

⁶ And he builds cities of bulwarks in Judah, for the land has quiet; and there is no war with him in these years, because YHWH has given rest to him.

⁷ And he says to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and surround [them] with wall, and towers, double gates, and bars, while the land [is] before us, because we have sought our God YHWH, we have sought, and He gives rest to us all around"; and they build and prosper.

⁹ And Zerah the Cushite comes out to them with a force of one million [men] and three hundred chariots, and he comes to Mareshah,

¹⁰ and Asa goes out before him, and they set in array [for] battle in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

¹¹ And Asa calls to his God YHWH and says, "YHWH, it is nothing for You to help, between the mighty and those who have no power; help us, O YHWH, our God, for we have leaned on You, and in Your Name we have come against this multitude; O YHWH, You [are] our God; do not let mortal man prevail against You!"

¹² And YHWH strikes the Cushim before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushim flee,

¹³ and Asa and the people who [are] with him pursue them even to Gerar; and there falls [many] from the Cushim, for they have no preserving, because they have been broken before YHWH and before His camp; and [those of Judah] carry away very much spoil,

¹⁴ and strike all the cities around Gerar, for a fear of YHWH has been on them, and they spoil all the cities, for abundant spoil has been in them;

¹⁵ and they have also struck tents of livestock, and they capture sheep in abundance, and camels, and return to Jerusalem.

¹ And the Spirit of God has been on Azariah son of Oded,

² and he goes out before Asa and says to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; YHWH [is] with you—in your being with Him, and if you seek Him, He is found by you, and if you forsake Him, He forsakes you;

³ and many days [are] to Israel without [the] true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law,

⁴ and it turns back in its distress to YHWH, God of Israel, and they seek Him, and He is found by them,

⁵ and in those times there is no peace for him who is going out, and for him who is coming in, for many troubles [are] on all the inhabitants of the lands,

⁶ and they have been beaten down, nation by nation, and city by city, for God has troubled them with every adversity;

⁷ and you, be strong, and do not let your hands be feeble, for there is a reward for your work.”

⁸ And at Asa’s hearing these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he has strengthened himself, and causes the abominations to pass away out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities that he has captured from the hill-country of Ephraim, and renews the altar of YHWH that [is] before the porch of YHWH,

⁹ and gathers all Judah and Benjamin, and the sojourners with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and out of Simeon—for they have defected to him from Israel in abundance, in their seeing that his God YHWH [is] with him.

¹⁰ And they are gathered to Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa,

¹¹ and sacrifice to YHWH on that day from the spoil they have brought in—seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep,

¹² and they enter into a covenant to seek YHWH, God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul,

¹³ and everyone who does not seek for YHWH, God of Israel, is put to death, from small to great, from man to woman.

¹⁴ And they swear to YHWH with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with horns,

¹⁶ And also Maachah, mother of Asa the king—he has removed her from [being] mistress, in that she has made for an Asherah a horrible thing, and Asa cuts down her horrible thing, and beats [it] small, and burns [it] by the Brook of Kidron:

¹⁷ yet the high places have not been removed from Israel; only, the heart of Asa has been perfect all his days.

¹⁸ And he brings in the sanctified things of his father, and his own sanctified things, to the house of God: silver, and gold, and vessels.

¹⁹ And war has not been until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

² And Asa brings out silver and gold from the treasures of the house of YHWH and of the house of the king, and sends [them] to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who is dwelling in Damascus, saying,

⁵ And it comes to pass, at Baasha's hearing, that he ceases from building Ramah, and lets his work rest;

⁶ and Asa the king has taken all Judah, and they carry away the stones of Ramah and its wood that Baasha has built [with], and he builds Geba and Mizpah with them.

⁷ And at that time Hanani the seer has come to Asa king of Judah and says to him, "Because of your leaning on the king of Aram, and you have not leaned on your God YHWH, therefore the force of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand.

⁸ Did the Cushim and the Lubim not become a very great force for multitude, for chariot, and for horsemen? And in your leaning on YHWH He gave them into your hand,

¹¹ And behold, the matters of Asa, the first and the last, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel.

¹² And Asa is diseased—in the thirty-ninth year of his reign—in his feet, until his disease is excessive; and also in his disease he has not sought YHWH, but among physicians.

¹³ And Asa lies with his fathers, and dies in the forty-first year of his reign,

¹⁴ and they bury him in [one of] his graves that he had prepared for himself in the City of David, and they cause him to lie on a bed that [one] has filled [with] spices, and various kinds of mixtures, with perfumed work; and they burn a very great burning for him.

17

¹ And his son Jehoshaphat reigns in his stead, and he strengthens himself against Israel,

² and puts a force in all the fortified cities of Judah, and puts garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

³ And YHWH is with Jehoshaphat, for he has walked in the first ways of his father David, and has not sought for the Ba'alim,

⁴ for he has sought for the God of his father, and he has walked in His commands, and not according to the work of Israel.

⁵ And YHWH establishes the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah gives a present to Jehoshaphat, and he has riches and honor in abundance,

⁶ and his heart is high in the ways of YHWH, and again he has turned aside the high places and the Asherim out of Judah.

⁷ And in the third year of his reign he has sent for his heads, for Ben-Hail, and for Obadiah, and for Zechariah, and for Nethaneel, and for Michaiah, to teach in cities of Judah;

⁸ and with them the Levites: Shemaiah, and Nathaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijath, and Tob-Adonijah—the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

⁹ And they teach in Judah, and the Scroll of the Law of YHWH [is] with them, and they go around into all cities of Judah, and teach among the people.

¹⁰ And there is a fear of YHWH on all kingdoms of the lands that [are] around Judah, and they have not fought with Jehoshaphat;

¹² And Jehoshaphat is going on and becoming very great, and he builds palaces and cities of store in Judah,

¹³ and he has much work in cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, [are] in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ And these [are] their numbers, for the house of their fathers—of Judah, heads of thousands: Adnah the head, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor;

¹⁵ and at his hand [is] Jehohanan the head, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

¹⁶ and at his hand [is] Amasiah son of Zichri, who is willingly offering himself to YHWH, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

¹⁷ And of Benjamin, mighty men of valor: Eliada, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield;

¹⁸ and at his hand [is] Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand armed ones of the host.

¹⁹ These [are] those serving the king, apart from those whom the king put in the fortress cities in all of Judah.

¹ And Jehoshaphat has riches and honor in abundance, and joins affinity to Ahab,

² and goes down at the end of [certain] years to Samaria to [visit] Ahab, and Ahab sacrifices sheep and oxen in abundance for him and for the people who [are] with him, and persuades him to go up to Ramoth-Gilead.

³ And Ahab king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Do you go with me [to] Ramoth-Gilead?” And he says to him, “As I—so you, and as your people—my people, and [we go] with you into the battle.”

⁴ And Jehoshaphat says to the king of Israel, “Please seek the word of YHWH this day.”

⁶ And Jehoshaphat says, “[Is there] not still a prophet of YHWH here, and we seek from him?”

⁷ And the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat, “[There is] still one man to seek YHWH from him, and I have hated him, for he is not prophesying of good concerning me, but of evil [for] all his days, he [is] Micaiah son of Imlah"; and Jehoshaphat says, "Do not let the king say so."

⁸ And the king of Israel calls to a certain officer and says, "Hurry Micaiah son of Imlah."

¹⁰ And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah makes horns of iron for himself and says, "Thus said YHWH:

¹¹ With these you push Aram until you have consumed them." And all the prophets are prophesying so, saying, "Go up [to] Ramath-Gilead and prosper, and YHWH has given [it] into the hand of the king."

¹² And the messenger who has gone to call for Micaiah has spoken to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets [as] one mouth [are] good toward the king, and please let your word be like one of theirs: and you have spoken good."

¹³ And Micaiah says "YHWH lives, surely that which my God says, I speak it."

¹⁴ And he comes to the king, and the king says to him, "Micaiah, do we go to Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or do I refrain?" And he says, "Go up, and prosper, and they are given into your hand."

¹⁵ And the king says to him, "How many times am I adjuring you that you speak to me only truth in the Name of YHWH?"

¹⁶ And he says, "I have seen all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd, and YHWH says, There are no masters for these, they each return to his house in peace."

¹⁷ And the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not say to you [that] he does not prophesy good concerning me, but rather of evil?"

¹⁸ And [Micaiah] says, "Therefore, hear a word of YHWH: I have seen YHWH sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing on His right and His left;

¹⁹ and YHWH says, Who entices Ahab king of Israel, and he goes up and falls in Ramoth-Gilead? And this speaker says thus, and that speaker thus.

²⁰ And the spirit goes out, and stands before YHWH, and says, I entice him; and YHWH says to him, With what?

²¹ And he says, I go out, and have become a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets. And He says, You entice, and also, you are able; go out and do so.

²² And now, behold, YHWH has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and YHWH has spoken calamity concerning you."

²³ And Zedekiah son of Chenaanah comes near and strikes Micaiah on the cheek, and says, "Where [is] this—the way the spirit [from] YHWH passed over from me to speak with you?"

²⁴ And Micaiah says, "Behold, you see in that day that you enter into the innermost chamber to be hidden."

²⁵ And the king of Israel says, "Take Micaiah, and turn him back to Amon head of the city, and to Joash son of the king,

²⁶ and you have said, Thus said the king: Put this [one] in the house of restraint, and cause him to eat bread of oppression, and water of oppression, until my return in peace.”

²⁷ And Micaiah says, “If you certainly return in peace, YHWH has not spoken by me”; and he says, “Hear, O peoples, all of them!”

²⁸ And the king of Israel goes up—and Jehoshaphat king of Judah—to Ramoth-Gilead;

²⁹ and the king of Israel says to Jehoshaphat to disguise himself, and to go into battle, “And you, put on your garments.” And the king of Israel disguises himself, and they go into battle.

³⁰ And the king of Aram has commanded the heads of the charioteers whom he has, saying, “You do not fight with small or with great, except with the king of Israel by himself.”

³¹ And it comes to pass at the heads of the charioteers seeing Jehoshaphat, that they have said, “He is the king of Israel,” and they turn around against him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cries out, and YHWH has helped him, and God entices them from him;

³² indeed, it comes to pass, at the heads of the charioteers seeing that it has not been the king of Israel—they turn back from after him.

³³ And a man has drawn with a bow in his simplicity, and strikes the king of Israel between the joinings and the coat of mail, and he says to the charioteer, “Turn your hand, and you have brought me out of the camp, for I have become [gravely] sick.”

³⁴ And the battle increases on that day, and the king of Israel has been propped up in the chariot in front of Aram until the evening, and he dies at the time of the going in of the sun.

¹ And Jehoshaphat king of Judah turns back to his house in peace, to Jerusalem,

² and Jehu son of Hanani the seer goes out to his presence and says to King Jehoshaphat, “Do you love to give help to the wicked and to those hating YHWH? And for this, wrath [is] against you from before YHWH, ³ but good things have been found with you, for you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God.”

⁵ And he establishes judges in the land, in all the fortified cities of Judah, for every city,

⁶ and says to the ones judging, “See what you are doing—for you do not judge for man, but for YHWH, who [is] with you in the matter of judgment;

⁷ and now, let fear of YHWH be on you, observe and do, for there is not perverseness with our God YHWH, and favoring by appearance, and taking of a bribe.”

⁸ And also in Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat has appointed of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the heads of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of YHWH, and for strife; and they return to Jerusalem,

⁹ and he lays a charge on them, saying, “Thus do you do in the fear of YHWH, in faithfulness, and with a perfect heart,

¹⁰ and any strife that comes to you of your brothers who are dwelling in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and command, statutes, and judgments, then you have warned them and they do not become guilty before YHWH, and wrath has not been on you and on your brothers; thus do you do, and you are not guilty.

¹¹ And behold, Amariah the head priest [is] over you for every matter of YHWH, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the house of Judah, [is] for every matter of the king, and the Levites [are] officers before you; be strong and do, and YHWH is with the good."

¹ And it comes to pass after this, the sons of Moab have come in, and the sons of Ammon, and with them of the peoples, to battle against Jehoshaphat.

² And [some] come in and declare [it] to Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude has come against you from beyond the sea, from Aram, and behold, they [are] in Hazezon-Tamar—it [is] En-Gedi."

³ And Jehoshaphat fears, and sets his face to seek for YHWH, and proclaims a fast over all Judah;

⁴ and Judah is gathered to inquire of YHWH; also, from all the cities of Judah they have come to seek YHWH.

⁵ And Jehoshaphat stands in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of YHWH, at the front of the new court,

⁶ and says, "O YHWH, God of our fathers, are You not God in the heavens? Indeed, You are ruling over all kingdoms of the nations, and power and might [are] in Your hand, and there is none with You to station himself.

⁷ Are You not our God? You have dispossessed the inhabitants of this land from before Your people Israel, and gave it to the seed of Your friend Abraham for all time,

⁸ and they dwell in it, and build a sanctuary in it for You, for Your Name, saying,

⁹ If evil comes on us—sword, judgment, and pestilence, and famine—we stand before this house, and before You, for Your Name [is] in this house, and cry to You out of our distress, and You hear and save.

¹¹ and behold, they are repaying to us—to come to drive us out of Your possession that You have caused us to possess.

¹² O our God, do You not execute judgment on them? For there is no power in us before this great multitude that has come against us, and we do not know what we do, but our eyes [are] on You."

¹³ And all Judah is standing before YHWH, also their infants, their wives, and their sons.

¹⁴ And the Spirit of YHWH has been on Jahaziel, son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly,

¹⁵ and he says, "Attend, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and O King Jehoshaphat, Thus said YHWH to you: You do not fear, nor be afraid of the face of this great multitude, for the battle [is] not for you, but for God.

16 Tomorrow, go down against them, behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz, and you have found them in the end of the valley, the front of the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 [It is] not for you to fight in this; station yourselves, stand, and see the salvation of YHWH with you, O Judah and Jerusalem—do not be afraid nor fear—tomorrow go out before them, and YHWH [is] with you.”

18 And Jehoshaphat bows—face to the earth—and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem have fallen before YHWH, to bow themselves to YHWH.

19 And the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites, and of the sons of the Korahites, rise to give praise to YHWH, God of Israel, with a loud voice on high.

20 And they rise early in the morning, and go out to the wilderness of Tekoa, and in their going out Jehoshaphat has stood and says, “Hear me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, remain steadfast in your God YHWH, and be steadfast; remain steadfast in His prophets and prosper.”

21 And he takes counsel with the people, and appoints singers for YHWH, and those giving praise for the honor of holiness, in the going out before the armed [men], and saying, “Give thanks to YHWH, for His kindness [is] for all time.”

22 And at the time they have begun with singing and praise, YHWH has put ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who are coming in to Judah, and they are struck,

23 and the sons of Ammon stand up, and Moab, against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, to devote and to destroy, and at their finishing with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped, a man against his neighbor, to destroy.

24 And Judah has come to the watchtower in the wilderness, and they look toward the multitude, and behold, they [are] carcasses fallen to the earth, and none [had] an escape,

25 and Jehoshaphat comes in, and his people, to seize their spoil, and they find among them, in abundance, both goods and carcasses, and desirable vessels, and they take spoil for themselves without prohibition, and they are seizing the spoil [for] three days, for it [is] abundant.

26 And on the fourth day they have been assembled at the Valley of Blessing, for there they blessed YHWH: therefore they have called the name of that place, “Valley of Blessing,” to this day.

27 And they return, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat at their head, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for YHWH has made them rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they come to Jerusalem with psalteries, and with harps, and with trumpets, to the house of YHWH.

29 And there is a fear of God on all kingdoms of the lands in their hearing that YHWH has fought with the enemies of Israel,

30 and the kingdom of Jehoshaphat is quiet, and his God gives rest to him all around.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigns over Judah, a son of thirty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walks in the way of his father Asa, and has not turned aside from it, to do that which is right in the eyes of YHWH.

³³ Only, the high places have not been removed, and still the people have not prepared their heart for the God of their fathers.

³⁴ And the rest of the matters of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last, behold, they are written among the matters of Jehu son of Hanani, who has been mentioned on the scroll of the kings of Israel.

³⁵ And after this Jehoshaphat king of Judah has joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel (he did wickedly in doing [this]),

³⁶ and he joins him with himself to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they make ships in Ezion-Geber, ³⁷ and Eliezer son of Dodavah, of Mareshah, prophesies against Jehoshaphat, saying, "For your joining yourself with Ahaziah, YHWH has broken up your works"; and the ships are broken, and have not retained [power] to go to Tarshish.

² And he has brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah; all these [are] sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel,

³ and their father gives to them many gifts of silver and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah, and he has given the kingdom to Jehoram, for he [is] the firstborn.

⁵ Jehoram [is] a son of thirty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned eight years in Jerusalem,

⁶ and he walks in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab did, for a daughter of Ahab has been to him for a wife, and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH,

⁷ and YHWH has not been willing to destroy the house of David, for the sake of the covenant that He made with David, and as He had said to give a lamp to him and to his sons [for] all the days.

⁸ In his days Edom has revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they cause a king to reign over them;

⁹ and Jehoram passes over with his heads, and all the chariots with him, and it comes to pass, he has risen by night and strikes the Edomites who are coming around against him, and the princes of the chariots,

¹⁰ and Edom revolts from under the hand of Judah to this day; then Libnah revolts at that time from under his hand, because he has forsaken YHWH, God of his fathers;

¹¹ also, he has made high places on the mountains of Judah, and causes the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit whoredom, and compels Judah.

¹² And a writing from Elijah the prophet comes to him, saying, "Thus said YHWH, God of your father David: Because that you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat, and in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

¹³ and you walk in the way of the kings of Israel, and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit whoredom like the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also your brothers, the house of your father, who are better than yourself, you have slain;

¹⁴ behold, YHWH is striking [with] a great striking among your people, and among your sons, and among your wives, and among all your goods—

¹⁵ and you, with many sicknesses, with disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out by the sickness, day by day.”

¹⁶ And YHWH wakes up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabians, who [are] beside the Cushim,

¹⁸ And after all this YHWH has plagued him in his bowels by a disease for which there is no healing,

²⁰ He was a son of thirty-two [years] in his reigning, and he has reigned eight years in Jerusalem, and he goes without desire, and they bury him in the City of David, and not in the graves of the kings.

² Ahaziah [is] a son of twenty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned one year in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Athaliah daughter of Omri;

³ he has also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother has been his counselor to do wickedly.

⁵ Also, he has walked in their counsel, and goes with Jehoram son of Ahab, king of Israel, to battle against Hazael king of Aram in Ramoth-Gilead, and they of Ramah strike Joram;

⁶ and he turns back to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds with which they had struck him in Ramah, in his fighting with Hazael king of Aram. And Azariah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, has gone down to see Jehoram son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he [is] sick;

⁹ And he seeks Ahaziah, and they capture him (and he is hiding himself in Samaria), and bring him to Jehu, and put him to death, and bury him, for they said, "He [is] son of Jehoshaphat, who sought YHWH with all his heart"; and there is none of the house of Ahaziah to retain power for the kingdom.

¹⁰ And Athaliah mother of Ahaziah has seen that her son is dead, and she rises and destroys the whole seed of the kingdom of the house of Judah.

¹² And he is with them in the house of God hiding himself [for] six years, and Athaliah is reigning over the land.

² And they go around in Judah, and gather the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and heads of the fathers of Israel, and come to Jerusalem,

³ and all the assembly make a covenant in the house of God with the king, and he says to them, "Behold, the son of the king reigns, as YHWH spoke concerning the sons of David.

⁴ This [is] the thing that you do: the third of you, going in on the Sabbath, of the priests, and of the Levites, [are] for gatekeepers of the thresholds,

⁶ And none enter the house of YHWH except the priests, and those ministering of the Levites (they go in for they [are] holy), and all the people keep the watch of YHWH;

⁸ And the Levites and all Judah do according to all that Jehoiada the priest has commanded, and each takes his men going in on the Sabbath, with those going out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest has not let away the divisions.

¹¹ And they bring out the son of the king, and put the crown on him, and [give him] the Testimony, and cause him to reign; and Jehoiada and his sons anoint him, and say, "Let the king live!"

¹² And Athaliah hears the voice of the people who are running, and who are praising the king, and she comes to the people [in] the house of YHWH,

¹⁵ And they make sides for her, and she comes to the entrance of the Horse Gate at the house of the king, and they put her to death there.

¹⁶ And Jehoiada makes a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, to be for a people to YHWH;

¹⁹ and he stations the gatekeepers over the gates of the house of YHWH, and the unclean in anything do not go in.

²¹ And all the people of the land rejoice, and the city has been quiet, and they have put Athaliah to death by the sword.

¹ Joash [is] a son of seven years in his reigning, and he has reigned forty years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Zibiah of Beer-Sheba.

² And Joash does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

³ And Jehoiada takes two wives for him, and he begets sons and daughters.

⁴ And it comes to pass after this, it has been with the heart of Joash to renew the house of YHWH,

⁵ and he gathers the priests and the Levites, and says to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money from all Israel to strengthen the house of your God sufficiently year by year, and you, hurry to the matter"; and the Levites have not hurried.

⁶ And the king calls for Jehoiada the head and says to him, "Why have you not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tribute of Moses, servant of YHWH, and of the assembly of Israel, for the Tent of the Testimony?"

⁸ And the king commands, and they make one chest, and put it at the gate of the house of YHWH outside,

⁹ and give an intimation in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring to YHWH the tribute of Moses, servant of God, [laid] on Israel in the wilderness.

¹⁰ And all the heads, and all the people rejoice, and they bring in, and cast into the chest, to completion.

¹¹ And it comes to pass, at the time one brings in the chest for the inspection of the king by the hand of the Levites, and at their seeing that the money [is] abundant, that a scribe of the king has come in, and an officer of the head-priest, and they empty the chest, and take it up and turn it back to its place; thus they have done day by day, and gather money in abundance.

¹² And the king and Jehoiada give it to the doers of the work of the service of the house of YHWH, and they are hiring hewers and craftsmen to renew the house of YHWH, and also—to craftsmen in iron and bronze to strengthen the house of YHWH.

¹³ And those doing the business work, and there goes up lengthening to the work by their hand, and they establish the house of God by its proper measure, and strengthen it.

¹⁵ And Jehoiada is aged and satisfied with days, and dies—a son of one hundred and thirty years in his death,

¹⁶ and they bury him in the City of David with the kings, for he has done good in Israel, and with God and his house.

¹⁷ And after the death of Jehoiada, heads of Judah have come in, and bow themselves to the king; then the king has listened to them,

¹⁸ and they forsake the house of YHWH, God of their fathers, and serve the Asherim and the idols, and there is wrath on Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.

¹⁹ And He sends among them prophets, to bring them back to YHWH, and they testify against them, and they have not given ear;

²⁰ and the Spirit of God has clothed Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stands above the people, and says to them, “Thus said God: Why are you transgressing the commands of YHWH, and do not prosper? Because you have forsaken YHWH, He forsakes you.”

²¹ And they conspire against him, and stone him [with] stone by the command of the king, in the court of the house of YHWH,

²² and Joash the king has not remembered the kindness that his father Jehoiada did with him, and slays his son, and in his death he said, “YHWH sees and requires.”

²³ And it comes to pass, at the turn of the year, the force of Aram has come up against him, and they come to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroy all the heads of the people from the people, and they have sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus,

²⁴ for with few men the force of Aram has come in, and YHWH has given into their hand a mighty force for multitude, because they have forsaken

YHWH, God of their fathers; and they have executed judgments with Joash.

²⁶ And these [are] those conspiring against him: Zabad son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabite.

²⁷ As for his sons, and the greatness of the burden on him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written on the commentary of the scroll of the Kings; and his son Amaziah reigns in his stead.

¹ Amaziah [was] a son of twenty-five years [when] he has reigned, and he has reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jehoaddan of Jerusalem,

² and he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH—only, not with a perfect heart.

³ And it comes to pass, when the kingdom has been strong on him, that he slays his servants, those striking his father the king,

⁶ And he hires out of Israel one hundred thousand mighty men of valor, with one hundred talents of silver;

⁷ and a man of God has come to him, saying, “O king, the host of Israel does not go with you; for YHWH is not with Israel—all the sons of Ephraim;

⁸ but if you are going, do [it], be strong for battle, God causes you to stumble before an enemy, for there is power in God to help, and to cause to stumble.”

⁹ And Amaziah says to the man of God, “But what to do about the hundred talents that I have given to the troop of Israel?” And the man of God says, “YHWH has more to give to you than this.”

¹¹ And Amaziah has strengthened himself, and leads his people, and goes to the Valley of Salt, and strikes ten thousand of the sons of Seir.

¹² And the sons of Judah have taken captive ten thousand alive, and they bring them to the top of the rock, and cast them from the top of the rock, and all of them have been broken.

¹⁴ And it comes to pass after the coming in of Amaziah from striking the Edomites, that he brings in the gods of the sons of Seir, and establishes them for gods for himself, and bows himself before them, and he makes incense to them.

¹⁵ And the anger of YHWH burns against Amaziah, and He sends a prophet to him, and he says to him, “Why have you sought the gods of the people that have not delivered their people out of your hand?”

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, in his speaking to him, that he says to him, “Have we appointed you for a counselor to the king? For you [must] cease; why do they strike you?” And the prophet ceases and says, “I have known that God has counseled to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

¹⁷ And Amaziah king of Judah takes counsel, and sends to Joash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying,

¹⁸ “Come, we look one another in the face.” And Joash king of Israel sends to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thorn that [is] in Lebanon has sent to the cedar that [is] in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife; and a beast of the field that [is] in Lebanon passes by and treads down the thorn.

¹⁹ You have said, Behold, I have struck Edom; and your heart has lifted you up to boast; now, abide in your house, why do you stir yourself up in evil, that you have fallen, you and Judah with you?”

²⁰ And Amaziah has not listened, for it [is] from God in order to give them into [their] hand, because they have sought the gods of Edom;

²¹ and Joash king of Israel goes up, and they look one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, in Beth-Shemesh, that [is] Judah’s, ²² and Judah is struck before Israel, and they flee—each to his tents.

²³ And Joash king of Israel has caught Amaziah king of Judah, son of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, in Beth-Shemesh, and brings him to Jerusalem, and breaks down in the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits,

²⁵ And Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lives after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, fifteen years;

²⁶ and the rest of the matters of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written on the scrolls of the kings of Judah and Israel?

²⁷ And from the time that Amaziah has turned aside from after YHWH—they make a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he flees to Lachish, and they send after him to Lachish, and put him to death there,

²⁸ and lift him up on the horses, and bury him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

¹ And all the people of Judah take Uzziah (and he [is] a son of sixteen years), and cause him to reign instead of his father Amaziah.

² He has built Eloth, and restores it to Judah after the king's lying with his fathers.

³ Uzziah [is] a son of sixteen years in his reigning, and he has reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

⁴ And he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Amaziah did,

⁵ and he is as one seeking God in the days of Zechariah who has understanding in visions of God: and in the days of his seeking YHWH, God has caused him to prosper.

⁶ And he goes forth and fights with the Philistines, and breaks down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and builds cities [around] Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

⁷ And God helps him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who are dwelling in Gur-Ba'al and the Mehunim.

⁸ And the Ammonites give a present to Uzziah, and his name goes to the entering in of Egypt, for he strengthened himself greatly.

⁹ And Uzziah builds towers in Jerusalem, by the Corner Gate, and by the Valley Gate, and by the angle, and strengthens them;

¹⁰ and he builds towers in the wilderness, and digs many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the low country and in the plain, farmers and vinedressers in the mountains, and in Carmel; for he was a lover of the ground.

¹² The whole number of heads of the fathers of the mighty men of valor [is] two thousand and six hundred;

¹³ and by their hand [is] the force of the host—three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred warriors, with mighty power to give help to the king against the enemy.

¹⁴ And Uzziah prepares for them, for all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, even to stones of the slings.

¹⁷ And Azariah the priest goes in after him, and with him eighty priests of YHWH, sons of valor,

¹⁸ and they stand up against Uzziah the king, and say to him, “[It is] not for you, O Uzziah, to make incense to YHWH, but for priests, sons of Aaron, who are sanctified to make incense; go forth from the sanctuary, for you have trespassed, indeed, for you [will] not [have] honor from YHWH God.”

¹⁹ And Uzziah is angry, and in his hand [is] a censer to make incense, and in his being angry with the priests—the leprosy has risen in his forehead, before the priests, in the house of YHWH, from beside the altar of incense.

²⁰ And Azariah the head priest looks toward him, and all the priests, and behold, he [is] leprous in his forehead, and they hurry him there, and also he himself has hurried to go out, for YHWH has plagued him.

²² And the rest of the matters of Uzziah, the first and the last, Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet has written;

²³ and Uzziah lies with his fathers, and they bury him with his fathers in the field of the burying-place that the kings have, for they said, “He [is] a leper”; and his son Jotham reigns in his stead.

¹ Jotham [is] a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Jerushah daughter of Zadok.

² And he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Uzziah did; only, he has not come into the temple of YHWH; and again the people are doing corruptly.

³ He has built the Upper Gate of the house of YHWH, and in the wall of Ophel he has built abundantly;

⁴ and he has built cities in the hill-country of Judah, and he has built palaces and towers in the forests.

⁵ And he has fought with the king of the sons of Ammon, and prevails over them, and the sons of Ammon give to him in that year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand cors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley; the sons of Ammon have returned this to him both in the second year and in the third.

⁶ And Jotham strengthens himself, for he has prepared his ways before his God YHWH.

⁸ He was a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem;

⁹ and Jotham lies with his fathers, and they bury him in the City of David, and his son Ahaz reigns in his stead.

¹ Ahaz [is] a son of twenty years in his reigning, and he has reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and he has not done that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, as his father David,

² and walks in the ways of the kings of Israel, and has also made molten images for Ba'alim,

³ and has made incense himself in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burns his sons with fire according to the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel,

⁴ and sacrifices and makes incense in high places, and on the heights, and under every green tree.

⁵ And his God YHWH gives him into the hand of the king of Aram, and they strike him, and take captive a great captivity from him, and bring [them] to Damascus, and he has also been given into the hand of the king of Israel, and he strikes him [with] a great striking.

⁶ And Pekah son of Remaliah slays one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day (the whole [are] sons of valor), because of their forsaking YHWH, God of their fathers.

⁷ And Zichri, a mighty one of Ephraim, slays Maaseiah son of the king, and Azrikam leader of the house, and Elkanah second to the king.

⁸ And the sons of Israel take captive of their brothers: two hundred thousand wives, sons, and daughters; and they have also seized much spoil from them, and they bring in the spoil to Samaria.

⁹ And there has been a prophet of YHWH there (Oded [is] his name), and he goes out before the host that has come to Samaria, and says to them, "Behold, in the fury of YHWH, God of your fathers, against Judah, He has given them into your hand, and you slay among them in rage—it has come to the heavens;

¹⁰ and now you are saying to subdue sons of Judah and Jerusalem for menservants and for maidservants for yourselves; but are there not causes of guilt with you before your God YHWH?

¹¹ And now, hear me, and send back the captives whom you have taken captive of your brothers, for the heat of the anger of YHWH [is] on you."

¹² And certain of the heads of the sons of Ephraim (Azariah son of Johanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai), rise up against those coming in from the host,

¹³ and say to them, "You do not bring in the captives here, for guilt against YHWH [is already] on us, you are saying to add to our sin and to our guilt. For abundant [is] the guilt we have, and the fierceness of anger on Israel."

¹⁴ And the armed men leave the captives and the prey before the heads and all the assembly;

¹⁶ At that time King Ahaz has sent to the king of Asshur to give help to him;

¹⁷ and again the Edomites have come, and strike in Judah, and take captive a captivity.

¹⁸ And the Philistines have rushed against the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and capture Beth-Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho and its villages, and Timnah and its villages, and Gimzo and its villages, and dwell there,

¹⁹ for YHWH has humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he made free with Judah, even to commit a trespass against YHWH.

²⁰ And Tilgath-Pilneser king of Asshur comes to him, and does distress him, and has not strengthened him,

²¹ though Ahaz has taken a portion [out] of the house of YHWH, and [out] of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gives to the king of Asshur, yet it is no help to him.

²² And in the time of his distress—he adds to trespass against YHWH (this King Ahaz),

²³ and he sacrifices to the gods of Damascus [which were] those striking him, and says, “Because the gods of the kings of Aram are helping them, I sacrifice to them, and they help me,” and they have been to him to cause him to stumble, and to all Israel.

²⁴ And Ahaz gathers the vessels of the house of God, and cuts in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shuts the doors of the house of YHWH, and makes altars for himself in every corner in Jerusalem.

²⁵ And in each and every city of Judah he has made high places to make incense to other gods, and provokes YHWH, God of his fathers.

²⁶ And the rest of his matters, and all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel.

¹ Hezekiah [was] a son of twenty-five years [when] he has reigned, and he has reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Abijah daughter of Zechariah;

² and he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father David did.

³ He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, has opened the doors of the house of YHWH, and strengthens them,

⁴ and brings in the priests and the Levites, and gathers them to the broad place to the east.

⁵ And he says to them, “Hear me, O Levites, now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of YHWH, God of your fathers, and bring out the impurity from the holy place,

⁶ for our fathers have trespassed, and done that which is evil in the eyes of our God YHWH, and forsake him, and turn around their faces from the Dwelling Place of YHWH, and give the neck.

⁷ They have also shut the doors of the porch, and quench the lamps, and they have not made incense, and have not caused burnt-offering to ascend in the holy place to the God of Israel,

⁸ and the wrath of YHWH is on Judah and Jerusalem, and He gives them for a trembling, for an astonishment, and for a hissing, as you are seeing with your eyes.

⁹ And behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives [are] in captivity for this.

¹⁰ Now [it is] with my heart to make a covenant before YHWH, God of Israel, and the fierceness of His anger turns back from us.

¹¹ My sons, do not be at rest now, for YHWH has fixed on you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be ministering and making incense to Him.”

¹² And the Levites rise—Mahath son of Amasai, and Joel son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathite; and of the sons of Merari: Kish son of Abdi, and Azariah son of Jehalelel; and of the Gershonite: Joah son of Zimmah, and Eden son of Joah;

¹³ and of the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeiel; and of the sons of Asaph: Zechariah and Mattaniah;

¹⁴ and of the sons of Heman: Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel—

¹⁶ and the priests come into the inner part of the house of YHWH to cleanse [it], and bring out all the uncleanness that they have found in the temple of YHWH to the court of the house of YHWH, and the Levites receive [it], to take [it] out to the Brook of Kidron outside.

¹⁷ And they begin to sanctify on the first of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they have come to the porch of YHWH, and they sanctify the house of YHWH in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they have finished.

¹⁸ And they come in to Hezekiah the king within, and say, “We have cleansed all the house of YHWH, and the altar of the burnt-offering, and all its vessels, and the table of the arrangement, and all its vessels,

¹⁹ and all the vessels that King Ahaz cast away in his reign—in his trespass—we have prepared and sanctified, and behold, they [are] before the altar of YHWH.”

²⁰ And Hezekiah the king rises early, and gathers the heads of the city, and goes up to the house of YHWH;

²¹ and they bring in seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven young male goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah; and he commands to sons of Aaron, the priests, to cause [them] to ascend on the altar of YHWH.

²² And they slaughter the oxen, and the priests receive the blood, and sprinkle on the altar; and they slaughter the rams, and sprinkle the blood on the altar; and they slaughter the lambs, and sprinkle the blood on the altar;

²³ and they bring the male goats of the sin-offering near before the king and the assembly, and they lay their hands on them;

²⁴ and the priests slaughter them, and make a sin-offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel, that “For all Israel,” said the king, “[is] the burnt-offering and the sin-offering.”

²⁶ and the Levites stand with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

²⁸ And all the assembly are worshiping, and the singers singing, and the trumpeters blowing; the whole [is] until the completion of the burnt-offering.

²⁹ And at the completion of the offering up, the king and all those found with him have bowed, and pay respect.

³¹ And Hezekiah answers and says, “Now you have filled your hand for YHWH, come near, and bring in sacrifices and thank-offerings to the house of YHWH”; and the assembly brings in sacrifices and thank-offerings, and every willing-hearted one—burnt-offerings.

³³ And the sanctified things [are] six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

³⁴ Only, the priests have become few, and have not been able to strip the whole of the burnt-offerings, and their brothers the Levites strengthen them until the completion of the work, and until the priests sanctify themselves, for the Levites [are] more upright of heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

³⁵ And also, burnt-offerings [are] in abundance, with fat of the peace-offerings, and with oblations for the burnt-offering; and the service of the house of YHWH is established,

³⁶ and Hezekiah and all the people rejoice because of God’s giving preparation to the people, for the thing has been suddenly.

¹ And Hezekiah sends to all Israel and Judah, and he has also written letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, [to cause them] to come to the house of YHWH in Jerusalem, to make a Passover to YHWH, God of Israel.

² And the king takes counsel, and his heads, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to make the Passover in the second month,

⁴ And the thing is right in the eyes of the king, and in the eyes of all the assembly,

⁵ and they establish the thing, to cause an intimation to pass over into all Israel, from Beer-Sheba even to Dan, to come to make a Passover to YHWH, God of Israel, in Jerusalem; for they had not done as it is written for a long time.

⁷ and do not be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against YHWH, God of their fathers, and He gives them to desolation, as you see.

⁸ Now do not harden your neck like your fathers, give a hand to YHWH, and come into His sanctuary that He has sanctified for all time, and serve your God YHWH, and the fierceness of His anger turns back from you;

⁹ for in your turning back to YHWH, your brothers and your sons have mercies before their captors, even to return to this land, for your God YHWH [is] gracious and merciful, and He does not turn aside the face from you if you turn back to Him.”

¹⁰ And the runners are passing over from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun, but they are laughing at them and mocking at them,

¹¹ only, certain from Asher, and Manasseh, and from Zebulun, have been humbled, and come to Jerusalem.

¹² Also, in Judah the hand of God has been to give one heart to them to do the command of the king and of the heads in the matter of YHWH;

¹³ and many people are gathered to Jerusalem to make the Celebration of Unleavened Things in the second month—a mighty assembly for multitude.

¹⁴ And they arise and turn aside the altars that [are] in Jerusalem, and they have turned aside all the incense altars, and cast [them] into the Brook of Kidron;

¹⁵ and they slaughter the Passover-offering on the fourteenth of the second month, and the priests and the Levites have been ashamed, and sanctify themselves, and bring in burnt-offerings to the house of YHWH.

¹⁶ And they stand on their station according to their ordinance, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests are sprinkling the blood out of the hand of the Levites,

¹⁷ for many [are] in the assembly who have not sanctified themselves, and the Levites [are] over the slaughtering of the Passover-offerings for everyone not clean, to sanctify [him] to YHWH:

¹⁹ who has prepared his heart to seek God—YHWH, God of his fathers—yet not according to the cleansing of the holy place”;

²⁰ and YHWH listens to Hezekiah and heals the people.

²³ And all the assembly take counsel to keep [it] another seven days, and they keep [it for] seven days [with] joy;

²⁵ And all the assembly of Judah rejoices, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the assembly, those coming in from Israel, and the sojourners—those coming in from the land of Israel and those dwelling in Judah,

²⁶ and there is great joy in Jerusalem; for from the days of Solomon son of David, king of Israel, there is not like this in Jerusalem,

²⁷ and the priests, the Levites, rise and bless the people, and their voice is heard, and their prayer comes into His holy habitation in the heavens.

² And Hezekiah appoints the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, by their divisions, each according to his service, of the priests and of the Levites, for burnt-offering and for peace-offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to give praise in the gates of the camps of YHWH.

⁴ And he commands to the people, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests and of the Levites, so that they are strengthened in the Law of YHWH;

⁶ And the sons of Israel and Judah, those dwelling in cities of Judah, have also brought in a tithe of herd and flock, and a tithe of the holy things that are sanctified to their God YHWH, and they set [them in] heaps of heaps.

⁷ In the third month they have begun to lay the foundation of the heaps, and in the seventh month they have finished.

⁸ And Hezekiah and the heads come in and see the heaps, and bless YHWH and His people Israel,

⁹ and Hezekiah inquires at the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps,

¹¹ And Hezekiah commands to prepare chambers in the house of YHWH, and they prepare,

¹² and they bring in the raised-offering, and the tithe, and the holy things faithfully; and over them is a leader, Conaniah the Levite, and his brother Shimei [is] second;

¹³ and Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, [are] inspectors under the hand of Conaniah and his brother Shimei, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah leader of the house of God.

¹⁴ And Kore son of Imnah the Levite, the gatekeeper at the east, [is] over the willing-offerings of God, to give the raised-offering of YHWH, and the most holy things.

¹⁷ and the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and of the Levites, from a son of twenty years and upward, in their charges, in their divisions;

¹⁸ and to the genealogy among all their infants, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters to all the congregation, for in their faithfulness they sanctify themselves in holiness.

²⁰ And Hezekiah does thus in all Judah, and does that which is good, and that which is right, and that which is true, before his God YHWH;

²¹ and in every work that he has begun for the service of the house of God, and for the Law, and for the command, to seek for his God with all his heart, he has worked and prospered.

¹ After these things and this truth, Sennacherib king of Asshur has come, indeed, he comes to Judah, and encamps against the cities of the bulwarks, and says to break into them himself.

² And Hezekiah sees that Sennacherib has come, and his face [is] to the battle against Jerusalem,

³ and he takes counsel with his heads and his mighty ones, to stop the waters of the fountains that [are] at the outside of the city—and they help him,

⁶ And he puts heads of war over the people, and gathers them to him, to the broad place of a gate of the city, and speaks to their heart, saying,

8 With him [is] an arm of flesh, but with us [is] our God YHWH to help us and to fight our battles"; and the people are supported by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this Sennacherib king of Asshur has sent his servants to Jerusalem—and he [is] by Lachish, and all his power with him—against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all Judah who [are] in Jerusalem, saying,

10 "Thus said Sennacherib king of Asshur: On what are you trusting and abiding in the bulwark in Jerusalem?

11 Is Hezekiah not persuading you to give you up to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Our God YHWH delivers us from the hand of the king of Asshur?

12 Has Hezekiah himself not turned aside His high places and His altars, and speaks to Judah and to Jerusalem, saying, You bow yourselves before one altar and you make incense on it?

13 Do you not know what I have done—I and my fathers—to all peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands at all able to deliver their land out of my hand?

14 Who among all the gods of these nations whom my fathers have devoted to destruction [is] he who has been able to deliver his people out of my hand, that your God is able to deliver you out of my hand?

15 And now, do not let Hezekiah lift you up, nor persuade you thus, nor give credence to him, for no god of any nation and kingdom is able to deliver his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers: also, surely your God does not deliver you from my hand!"

16 And again his servants have spoken against YHWH God and against His servant Hezekiah,

17 and he has written letters to give reproach to YHWH, God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of the lands that have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah does not deliver His people from my hand."

18 And they call with a great voice [in] Jewish against the people of Jerusalem who [are] on the wall, to frighten them and to trouble them, that they may capture the city,

19 and they speak against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the peoples of the land—work of the hands of man.

20 And Hezekiah the king prays, and Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet, concerning this, and they cry to the heavens,

21 and YHWH sends a messenger and cuts off every mighty man of valor—both leader and head—in the camp of the king of Asshur, and he turns back with shame of face to his land and enters the house of his god, and those coming out of his bowels have caused him to fall there by the sword.

22 And YHWH saves Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Asshur and from the hand of all, and He leads them around;

23 and many are bringing in an offering to YHWH, to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah, and he is lifted up before the eyes of all the nations after this.

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah has been sick even to death, and he prays to YHWH, and He speaks to him and has appointed a wonder for him;

²⁵ and Hezekiah has not returned according to the deed [done] to him, for his heart has been lofty, and there is wrath on him and on Judah and Jerusalem;

²⁶ and Hezekiah is humbled for the loftiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the wrath of YHWH has not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷ And Hezekiah has very much riches and honor, and he has made treasures for himself of silver, and of gold, and of precious stone, and of spices, and of shields, and of all [kinds] of desirable vessels,

²⁸ and storehouses for the increase of grain, and new wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and herds for stalls;

²⁹ and he has made cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance, for God has given very much substance to him.

³⁰ And Hezekiah himself has stopped the upper source of the waters of Gihon, and directs them beneath to the west of the City of David, and Hezekiah prospers in all his work;

³¹ and so with the ambassadors of the heads of Babylon, those sending to him to inquire of the wonder that has been in the land, God has left him to try him, to know all in his heart.

³² And the rest of the matters of Hezekiah and his kind acts, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet, on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel.

³³ And Hezekiah lies with his fathers, and they bury him in the highest of the graves of the sons of David, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem have done honor to him at his death, and his son Manasseh reigns in his stead.

¹ Manasseh is a son of twelve years in his reigning, and he has reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem;

² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, like the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel,

³ and he turns and builds the high places that his father Hezekiah has broken down, and raises altars for Ba'alim, and makes Asherim, and bows himself to all the host of the heavens, and serves them.

⁴ And he has built altars in the house of YHWH of which YHWH had said, "My Name is in Jerusalem for all time."

⁵ And he builds altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of YHWH.

⁶ And he has caused his sons to pass over through fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and observed clouds and used enchantments and witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and a wizard; he has multiplied to do evil in the eyes of YHWH, to provoke him to anger.

⁷ And he places the carved image of the idol that he made in the house of God, of which God said to David, and to his son Solomon, "In this house, and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I put My Name for all time,

⁸ and I do not add to turn aside the foot of Israel from off the ground that I appointed to your fathers, only, if they watch to do all that I have commanded them—to all the Law, and the statutes, and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.”

⁹ And Manasseh causes Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, to do evil above the nations that YHWH destroyed from the presence of the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ And YHWH speaks to Manasseh and to his people, and they have not attended,

¹² And when he is in distress he has appeased the face of his God YHWH, and is exceedingly humbled before the God of his fathers,

¹³ and prays to Him, and He accepts his plea, and hears his supplication, and brings him back to Jerusalem, to his kingdom, and Manasseh knows that He, YHWH, [is] God.

¹⁵ And he turns aside the gods of the stranger, and the idol, out of the house of YHWH, and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the house of YHWH and in Jerusalem, and casts [them] to the outside of the city.

¹⁶ And he builds the altar of YHWH, and sacrifices on it sacrifices of peace-offerings and thank-offering, and commands to Judah to serve YHWH, God of Israel;

¹⁷ but still the people are sacrificing in high places, only—to their God YHWH.

¹⁸ And the rest of the matters of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the matters of the seers, those speaking to him in the Name of YHWH, God of Israel, behold, they are [on the scroll of] the matters of the kings of Israel;

²⁰ And Manasseh lies with his fathers, and they bury him in his own house, and his son Amon reigns in his stead.

²¹ Amon [is] a son of twenty-two years in his reigning, and he has reigned two years in Jerusalem,

²² and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, as his father Manasseh did, and Amon has sacrificed to all the carved images that his father Manasseh had made, and serves them,

²³ and has not been humbled before YHWH, like the humbling of his father Manasseh, for Amon himself has multiplied guilt.

²⁴ And his servants conspire against him and put him to death in his own house,

²⁵ and the people of the land strike all those conspiring against King Amon, and the people of the land cause his son Josiah to reign in his stead.

34

¹ Josiah [is] a son of eight years in his reigning, and he has reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem,

² and he does that which is right in the eyes of YHWH, and walks in the ways of his father David, and has not turned aside [to] the right or left.

⁴ And they break down the altars of the Ba'alim before him, and he has cut down the images that [are] on high above them, and the Asherim, and the carved images, and the molten images, he has broken and beaten small, and strews [them] on the surface of the graves of those sacrificing to them,

⁵ and he has burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleanses Judah and Jerusalem,

⁶ and in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their tools, all around.

⁷ And he breaks down the altars and the Asherim, and he has beaten down the carved images very small, and he has cut down all the images in all the land of Israel, and turns back to Jerusalem.

⁸ And in the eighteenth year of his reign, to purify the land and the house, he has sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah head of the city, and Joah son of Johaz the remembrancer, to strengthen the house of his God YHWH.

⁹ And they come to Hilkiyah the high priest, and they give the money that is brought into the house of God, that the Levites, keeping the threshold, have gathered from the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah, and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

¹⁰ and they give [it] into the hand of the workmen, those appointed over the house of YHWH, and they give it [to] the workmen who are working in the house of YHWH, to repair and to strengthen the house;

¹¹ and they give [it] to craftsmen and to builders to buy hewn stones, and wood for couplings and for beams [for] the houses that the kings of Judah had destroyed.

¹⁴ And in their bringing out the money that is brought into the house of YHWH, Hilkiyah the priest has found the Scroll of the Law of YHWH by the hand of Moses,

¹⁵ and Hilkiyah answers and says to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found [the] Scroll of the Law in the house of YHWH"; and Hilkiyah gives the scroll to Shaphan,

16 and Shaphan brings in the scroll to the king, and brings the king back word again, saying, "All that has been given into the hand of your servants they are doing,

17 and they pour out the money that is found in the house of YHWH, and give it into the hand of those appointed and into the hands of those doing the work."

18 And Shaphan the scribe declares [it] to the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given a scroll to me"; and Shaphan reads in it before the king.

19 And it comes to pass, at the king's hearing the words of the Law, that he tears his garments,

20 and the king commands Hilkiah, and Ahikam son of Shaphan, and Abdon son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah, servant of the king, saying,

21 "Go, seek YHWH for me, and for him who is left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the scroll that is found, for great [is] the fury of YHWH that is poured on us, because that our fathers did not keep the word of YHWH to do according to all that is written on this scroll."

22 And Hilkiah goes, and they of the king, to Huldah the prophetess, wife of Shallum son of Tikvath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the garments, and she is dwelling in Jerusalem in the Second [Quarter], and they speak to her thus.

23 And she says to them, "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Say to the man who has sent you to me,

24 Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am bringing in calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the execrations that are written on the scroll that they read before the king of Judah,

25 because that they have forsaken Me, and make incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me with all the works of their hands, and My fury is poured out on this place, and it is not quenched.

26 And to the king of Judah who is sending you to inquire of YHWH, thus you say to him, Thus said YHWH God of Israel, whose words you have heard:

27 Because your heart [is] tender, and you are humbled before God in your hearing His words concerning this place and concerning its inhabitants, and are humbled before Me, and tear your garments, and weep before Me, indeed, I have also heard [you]—a declaration of YHWH.

28 Behold, I am gathering you to your fathers, and you have been gathered to your graves in peace, and your eyes do not look on all the calamity that I am bringing on this place and on its inhabitants"; and they bring the king back word.

29 And the king sends and gathers all the elderly of Judah and Jerusalem,

30 and the king goes up to the house of YHWH, and [to] every man of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, even all the people, from great even to small, and he reads in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant that is found in the house of YHWH.

31 And the king stands on his station, and makes the covenant before YHWH to walk after YHWH, and to keep His commands, and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart and with all his soul, to do the words of the covenant that are written on this scroll.

³² And he presents everyone who is found in Jerusalem and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem do according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

³³ And Josiah turns aside all the abominations out of all the lands that the sons of Israel have, and causes everyone who is found in Israel to serve, to serve their God YHWH; all his days they did not turn aside from after YHWH, God of their fathers.

¹ And Josiah makes a Passover to YHWH in Jerusalem, and they slaughter the Passover-offering on the fourteenth of the first month,

² and he stations the priests over their charges, and strengthens them for the service of the house of YHWH,

³ and says to the Levites who are teaching all Israel, who are sanctified to YHWH, "Put the holy Ark in the house that Solomon son of David, king of Israel, built; it is not a burden on the shoulder to you. Now serve your God YHWH and His people Israel,

⁴ and prepare, by the house of your fathers, according to your divisions, by the writing of David king of Israel, and by the writing of his son Solomon,

⁵ and stand in the holy place, by the divisions of the house of the fathers of your brothers, sons of the people, and the portion of the house of a father of the Levites,

⁶ and slaughter the Passover-offering and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of YHWH by the hand of Moses."

⁸ And his heads, for a willing-offering to the people, to the priests and to the Levites, have lifted up; Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, leaders in the house of God, have given two thousand and six hundred to the priests for Passover-offerings, and three hundred oxen;

⁹ and Conaniah, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, and Jeiel, and Jozabad, heads of the Levites, have lifted up five thousand to the Levites for Passover-offerings, and five hundred oxen.

¹⁰ And the service is prepared, and the priests stand on their station, and the Levites on their divisions, according to the command of the king,

¹¹ and they slaughter the Passover-offering, and the priests sprinkle out of their hand, and the Levites are stripping [them];

¹³ And they cook the Passover with fire according to the ordinance, and they have cooked the sanctified things in pots, and in kettles, and in pans—for all the sons of the people.

¹⁴ And afterward they have prepared for themselves and for the priests; for the priests, sons of Aaron, [are occupied] in the offering up of the burnt-offering and of the fat until night; and the Levites have prepared for themselves and for the priests, sons of Aaron.

¹⁶ And all the service of YHWH is prepared on that day to keep the Passover and to cause burnt-offering to ascend on the altar of YHWH, according to the command of King Josiah.

¹⁷ And the sons of Israel who are found make the Passover at that time, and the Celebration of Unleavened Things, [for] seven days.

¹⁸ And there has not been made a Passover like it in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet, and none of the kings of Israel made such a Passover as Josiah has made, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who are found, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover has been made.

²⁰ After all this, when Josiah has prepared the house, Necho king of Egypt has come up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates, and Josiah goes forth to meet him;

²¹ and he sends messengers to him, saying, "And what do I [have to do] with you, O king of Judah? I do not come against you today, but to the house with which I have war, and God commanded to hurry me; cease for yourself from God who [is] with me, and He does not destroy you."

²² And Josiah has not turned around his face from him, but has disguised himself to fight against him, and has not listened to the words of Necho, from the mouth of God, and comes to fight in the Valley of Megiddo;

²³ and the archers shoot at King Josiah, and the king says to his servants, "Remove me, for I have become very sick."

²⁴ And his servants remove him from the chariot, and cause him to ride on the second chariot that he has, and cause him to go to Jerusalem, and he dies, and is buried in the graves of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem are mourning for Josiah,

²⁶ And the rest of the matters of Josiah and his kind acts, according as it is written in the Law of YHWH,

²⁷ even his matters, the first and the last, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Israel and Judah.

¹ And the people of the land take Jehoahaz son of Josiah and cause him to reign instead of his father in Jerusalem.

² Jehoahaz [is] a son of twenty-three years in his reigning, and he has reigned three months in Jerusalem,

³ and the king of Egypt turns him aside in Jerusalem, and fines the land one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold;

⁴ and the king of Egypt causes his brother Eliakim to reign over Judah and Jerusalem, and turns his name to Jehoiakim; and Necho has taken his brother Jehoahaz and brings him to Egypt.

⁵ Jehoiakim [is] a son of twenty-five years in his reigning, and he has reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and he does evil in the eyes of his God YHWH;

⁶ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has come up against him, and binds him in bronze chains to take him away to Babylon.

⁷ And Nebuchadnezzar has brought from the vessels of the house of YHWH to Babylon, and puts them in his temple in Babylon.

⁸ And the rest of the matters of Jehoiakim, and his abominations that he has done, and that which is found against him, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Israel and Judah, and his son Jehoiachin reigns in his stead.

⁹ Jehoiachin [is] a son of eight years in his reigning, and he has reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he does evil in the eyes of YHWH;

¹¹ Zedekiah [is] a son of twenty-one years in his reigning, and he has reigned eleven years in Jerusalem;

¹² and he does evil in the eyes of his God YHWH, he has not been humbled before Jeremiah the prophet [speaking] from the mouth of YHWH;

¹³ and he has also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had caused him to swear by God, and he hardens his neck and strengthens his heart against turning back to YHWH, God of Israel.

¹⁴ Also, all the heads of the priests and the people have multiplied to commit a trespass according to all the abominations of the nations, and they defile the house of YHWH that He has sanctified in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And YHWH, God of their fathers, sends to them by the hand of His messengers—rising early and sending—for He has had pity on His people and on His habitation,

¹⁸ And all the vessels of the house of God, the great and the small, and the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king and of his princes—he has brought the whole to Babylon.

¹⁹ And they burn the house of God, and break down the wall of Jerusalem, and they have burned all its palaces with fire, and all its desirable vessels—to destruction.

²⁰ And he removes those left of the sword to Babylon, and they are to him and to his sons for servants, until the reigning of the kingdom of Persia,

²¹ to fulfill the word of YHWH in the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land has enjoyed its Sabbaths; all the days of the desolation it kept Sabbath—to the fullness of seventy years.

²² And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, at the completion of the word of YHWH in the mouth of Jeremiah, YHWH has awoken the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he causes an intimation to pass over into all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying,

²³ “Thus said Cyrus king of Persia: YHWH, God of the heavens, has given all kingdoms of the earth to me, and He has laid a charge on me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem which [is] in Judah; who is among you of all His people? His God YHWH [is] with him, and he goes up!”

Ezra

² “Thus said Cyrus king of Persia: YHWH, God of the heavens, has given all kingdoms of the earth to me, and He has laid a charge on me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem, that [is] in Judah;

³ who [is] among you of all His people? His God is with him, and he goes up to Jerusalem, that [is] in Judah, and builds the house of YHWH, God of Israel (He [alone is] God), that [is] in Jerusalem.

⁵ And heads of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin rise, and the priests and the Levites, even everyone whose spirit God has awoken, to go up to build the house of YHWH, that [is] in Jerusalem;

⁷ And King Cyrus has brought out the vessels of the house of YHWH that Nebuchadnezzar has brought out of Jerusalem, and puts them in the house of his gods;

⁸ indeed, Cyrus king of Persia brings them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbers them to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

⁹ And this [is] their number: dishes of gold thirty, dishes of silver one thousand, knives twenty-nine,

¹⁰ basins of gold thirty, basins of silver (seconds) four hundred and ten, other vessels one thousand.

¹ And these [are] sons of the province who are going up—of the captives of the expulsion that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed to Babylon, and they return to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city—

² who have come in with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

³ sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two;

 51 sons of Bakbuk, sons of Hakupha, sons of Harhur,

⁵² sons of Bazluth, sons of Mehida, sons of Harsha,

⁵³ sons of Barkos, sons of Sisera, sons of Thamah,

⁵⁴ sons of Neziah, sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵ Sons of the servants of Solomon: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereth, sons of Peruda,

⁵⁶ sons of Jaalah, sons of Darkon, sons of Giddel,

⁵⁷ sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, sons of Ami.

⁵⁸ All the Nethinim, and the sons of the servants of Solomon [are] three hundred ninety-two.

⁶⁰ sons of Delaiah, sons of Tobiah, sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two.

⁶² these have sought their register among those reckoning themselves by genealogy, and they have not been found, and they are redeemed from the priesthood,

⁶³ and the Tirshatha says to them that they do not eat of the most holy things until the standing up of a priest with [the] Lights and with [the] Perfections.

⁶⁴ All the assembly together [is] forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,

⁶⁵ apart from their servants and their handmaids; these [are] seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and of them [are] two hundred male and female singers.

⁶⁶ Their horses [are] seven hundred thirty-six, their mules, two hundred forty-five,

⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred thirty-five, donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸ And some of the heads of the fathers in their coming to the house of YHWH that [is] in Jerusalem, have offered willingly for the house of God, to establish it on its base;

⁷⁰ And the priests dwell, and the Levites, and of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, in their cities; even all Israel in their cities.

¹ And the seventh month comes, and the sons of Israel [are] in the cities, and the people are gathered, as one man, to Jerusalem.

² And Jeshua son of Jozadak rises, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and they build the altar of the God of Israel, to cause to ascend on it burnt-offerings, as it is written in the Law of Moses, the man of God.

⁴ And they make the Celebration of the Shelters as it is written, and the burnt-offering of the day daily in number according to the ordinance, the matter of a day in its day;

⁵ and after this a continual burnt-offering, and for new moons, and for all appointed times of YHWH that are sanctified; and for everyone who is willingly offering a willing-offering to YHWH.

⁶ From the first day of the seventh month they have begun to cause burnt-offerings to ascend to YHWH, and the temple of YHWH has not been founded,

⁷ and they give money to hewers and to craftsmen, and food, and drink, and oil to Zidonians and to Tyrians, to bring in cedar-trees from Lebanon to the Sea of Joppa, according to the permission of Cyrus king of Persia concerning them.

⁸ And in the second year of their coming to the house of God, to Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those coming from the captivity to Jerusalem, and they appoint the Levites from a son of twenty years and upward, to overlook the work of the house of YHWH.

¹¹ And they respond in praising and in giving thanks to YHWH, "For [He is] good, for His kindness [is] for all time over Israel!" And all the people have shouted [with] a great shout in giving praise to YHWH, because the house of YHWH has been founded.

¹³ and the people are not discerning the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people are shouting [with] a great shout, and the noise has been heard to a distance.

¹ And adversaries of Judah and Benjamin hear that the sons of the captivity are building a temple to YHWH, God of Israel,

² and they draw near to Zerubbabel, and to heads of the fathers, and say to them, "Let us build with you; for, like you, we seek to your God, and we are not sacrificing since the days of Esar-Haddon king of Asshur, who brought us up here."

³ And Zerubbabel says to them, also Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Israel, "Not for you, and for us, to build a house to our God; but we ourselves together build to YHWH God of Israel, as King Cyrus, king of Persia, commanded us."

⁴ And it comes to pass, the people of the land are making the hands of the people of Judah feeble, and troubling them in building,

⁵ and are hiring against them counselors to make void their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

⁶ And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the commencement of his reign, they have written an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem;

⁸ Rehum counselor, and Shimshai scribe have written a letter concerning Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king, thus:

⁹ Then Rehum counselor, and Shimshai scribe, and the rest of their companions, Dinaites, and Apharsathchites, Tarpelites, Apharsites, Archevites, Babylonians, Susanchites (who are Elamites),

¹⁰ and the rest of the nations that the great and honorable Asnapper removed and set in the city of Samaria, and the rest beyond the river, and at such a time:

¹¹ This [is] a copy of a letter that they have sent to him, to Artaxerxes the king: "Your servants, men beyond the river, and at such a time;

¹² be it known to the king, that the Jews who have come up from you to us, have come to Jerusalem, the rebellious and base city they are building, and the walls they have finished, and the foundations they join.

¹³ Now let it be known to the king, that if this city is built and the walls finished, that they do not give toll, tribute, and custom; and at length it causes loss [to] the kings.

¹⁴ Now because that the salt of the palace [is] our salt, and we have no patience to see the nakedness of the king, therefore we have sent and made known to the king;

¹⁵ so that he seeks in the scroll of the records of your fathers, and you find in the scroll of the records, and know, that this city [is] a rebellious city, and causing loss [to] kings and provinces, and makers of sedition [are] in its midst from the days of old, therefore this city has been ruined.

¹⁶ We are making known to the king that, if this city be built and the walls finished, by this means you have no portion beyond the river."

¹⁷ The king has sent an answer to Rehum counselor, and Shimshai scribe, and the rest of their companions who are dwelling in Samaria, and the rest beyond the river, "Peace, and at such a time:

¹⁸ The letter that you sent to us, explained, has been read before me,

¹⁹ and by me a decree has been made, and they sought, and have found that this city is lifting up itself against kings from the days of old, and rebellion and sedition is made in it,

²⁰ and mighty kings have been over Jerusalem, even rulers over all beyond the river, and toll, tribute, and custom is given to them.

²¹ Now make a decree to cause these men to cease, and this city is not built, until a decree is made by me.

²² And beware of negligence in doing this; why does the hurt become great to the loss of the kings?"

²³ Then from the time that a copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes is read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they have gone in haste to Jerusalem, to the Jews, and caused them to cease by force and strength;

²⁴ then ceased the service of the house of God that [is] in Jerusalem, and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

¹ And the prophets have prophesied (Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah son of Iddo) to the Jews who [are] in Judah and in Jerusalem, in the Name of the God of Israel—to them.

² Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jozadak, have risen, and begun to build the house of God, that [is] in Jerusalem, and with them are the prophets of God supporting them.

³ At that time have come to them Tatnai, governor beyond the river, and Shethar-Boznai, and their companions, and thus they are saying to them, “Who has made for you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?”

⁴ Then we have said thus to them, “What [are] the names of the men who are building this building?”

⁵ And the eye of their God has been on [the] elders of [the] Jews, and they have not caused them to cease until [the] matter goes to Darius, and then they send back a letter concerning this thing.

⁶ The copy of a letter that Tatnai, governor beyond the river, has sent, and Shethar-Boznai and his companions, the Apharsachites who [are] beyond the river, to Darius the king.

⁷ A letter they have sent to him, and thus is it written in it:

⁹ Then we have asked of these elders, thus we have said to them, Who has made for you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?

¹⁰ And also their names we have asked of them, to let you know, that we might write the names of the men who [are] at their head.

¹¹ And thus they have returned us word, saying, We [are] servants of the God of the heavens and earth, and are building the house that was built many years before this, that a great king of Israel built and finished:

¹² but after that our fathers made the God of the heavens angry, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon the Chaldean, and this house he destroyed, and the people he removed to Babylon;

¹³ but in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God,

¹⁴ and also, the vessels of the house of God, of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had taken forth out of the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, and brought them to the temple of Babylon, then has Cyrus the king brought forth out of the temple of Babylon, and they have been given to [one], Sheshbazzar [is] his name, whom he made governor,

¹⁵ and said to him, Lift up these vessels, go, put them down in the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, and the house of God is built on its place.

¹⁶ Then this Sheshbazzar has come—he has laid the foundations of the house of God that [is] in Jerusalem, and from there even until now it has been building, and is not finished.

¹⁷ And now, if it is good to the king, let a search be made in the treasure-house of the king, that [is] there in Babylon, whether it be that there was a decree made by Cyrus the king to build this house of God in Jerusalem, and the will of the king concerning this thing he sends to us.”

¹ Then Darius the king made a decree, and they sought in the house of the scrolls of the treasuries placed there in Babylon,

² and there has been found at Achmetha, in a palace that [is] in the province of Media, a scroll, and a record thus written within it [is]:

⁴ three rows of rolled stones, and a row of new wood, and let the outlay be given out of the king’s house.

⁵ And also, the vessels of the house of God, of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, let be given back, and go to the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, [each] to its place, and put [them] down in the house of God.

⁶ Now Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions, the Apharsachites, who [are] beyond the river, be far from here;

⁷ let alone the work of this house of God, let the governor of the Jews, and [the] elders of the Jews, build this house of God on its place.

⁸ And a decree is made by me concerning that which you do with [the] elders of these Jews to build this house of God, that of [the] riches of [the] king, that [are] of [the] tribute beyond [the] river, let the outlay be given speedily to these men, that they do not cease;

⁹ and what they are needing—both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs for burnt-offerings to the God of the heavens, wheat, salt, wine, and oil according to the saying of the priests who [are] in Jerusalem—let be given to them day by day without fail,

¹⁰ that they are bringing sweet savors near to the God of the heavens, and praying for the life of the king, and of his sons.

¹¹ And a decree is made by me, that anyone who changes this thing, let wood be pulled down from his house, and being raised up, let him be struck on it, and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

¹² And God, who caused His Name to dwell there, casts down any king and people that puts forth his hand to change, to destroy this house of God that [is] in Jerusalem; I Darius have made a decree; let it be done speedily.”

¹³ Then Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king has sent, so they have done speedily;

¹⁴ and [the] elders of [the] Jews are building and prospering through [the] prophecy of Haggai [the] prophet, and Zechariah son of Iddo, and they have built and finished by [the] decree of [the] God of Israel, and by [the] decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

¹⁵ And this house has gone out until the third day of the month Adar, that is [in] the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

¹⁶ And the sons of Israel have made, [and] the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity, a dedication of this house of God with joy,

¹⁷ and have brought near for the dedication of this house of God: one hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and twelve young male goats for a sin-offering for all Israel according to the number of the tribes of Israel;

¹⁸ and they have established the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, over the service of God that [is] in Jerusalem, as it is written in the scroll of Moses.

¹⁹ And the sons of the captivity make the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month,

²⁰ for the priests and the Levites have been purified together—all of them [are] pure—and they slaughter the Passover for all the sons of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves.

²¹ And the sons of Israel, those returning from the captivity, and everyone who is separated from the uncleanness of the nations of the land to them, to seek to YHWH, God of Israel, eat,

²² and they make the Celebration of Unleavened Things seven days with joy, for YHWH made them to rejoice, and turned around the heart of the king of Asshur to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

¹ And after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

² son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

³ son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

⁴ son of Zerariah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

⁵ son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the head priest;

⁶ Ezra himself has come up from Babylon, and he [is] a scribe ready in the Law of Moses, that YHWH God of Israel gave, and the king gives to him—according to the hand of his God YHWH on him—all his request.

⁷ And there go up of the sons of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

⁸ And he comes to Jerusalem in the fifth month, that [is in] the seventh year of the king,

⁹ for on the first of the month he has founded the ascent from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he has come to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him,

¹⁰ for Ezra has prepared his heart to seek the Law of YHWH, and to do, and to teach in Israel statute and judgment.

¹¹ And this [is] a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commands of YHWH, and of His statutes on Israel:

¹² “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a perfect scribe of the Law of the God of the heavens, and at such a time:

13 By me has been made a decree that everyone who is willing, in my kingdom, of the people of Israel and of its priests and Levites, to go to Jerusalem with you, go;

14 because that from the king and his seven counselors you are sent, to inquire concerning Judah and concerning Jerusalem, with the Law of God that [is] in your hand,

15 and to carry silver and gold that the king and his counselors willingly offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling place [is] in Jerusalem,

16 and all the silver and gold that you find in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will offerings of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly, for the house of their God that [is] in Jerusalem,

17 therefore you speedily buy with this money, bullocks, rams, lambs, and their presents, and their drink-offerings, and bring them near to the altar of the house of your God that [is] in Jerusalem,

18 and that which to you and to your brothers is good to do with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of your God you do.

19 And the vessels that are given to you, for the service of the house of your God, make perfect before the God of Jerusalem;

20 and the rest of the necessary things of the house of your God, that it falls to you to give, you give from the treasure-house of the king.

21 And by me—I Artaxerxes the king—is made a decree to all treasurers who [are] beyond the river, that all that Ezra the priest, scribe of the Law of the God of the heavens, asks of you, be done speedily:

22 To silver one hundred talents, and to wheat one hundred cors, and to wine one hundred baths, and to oil one hundred baths, and salt without reckoning;

23 all that [is] by the decree of the God of the heavens, let be done diligently for the house of the God of the heavens; for why is there wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons?

24 And to you we are making known, that on any of the priests and Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, and servants of the house of God, tribute and custom there is no authority to lift up.

25 And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God, that [is] in your hand, appoint magistrates—even judges who may be judging—judging all the people who are beyond the river, to all knowing the Law of your God, and he who has not known, you cause to know;

26 and any who does not do the Law of your God, and the law of the king, judgment is done speedily on him, whether to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of riches, and to bonds.”

27 Blessed [is] YHWH, God of our fathers, who has given such a thing as this in the heart of the king, to beautify the house of YHWH that [is] in Jerusalem,

28 and to me has stretched out kindness before the king and his counselors, and before all the mighty heads of the king: and I have strengthened myself as the hand of my God YHWH [is] on me, and I gather out of Israel heads to go up with me.

1 And these [are] heads of their fathers, and the genealogy of those going up with me, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king, from Babylon.

² From the sons of Phinehas: Gershom; from the sons of Ithamar: Daniel; from the sons of David: Hattush;

³ from the sons of Shechaniah, from the sons of Pharosh: Zechariah, and with him, reckoning themselves by genealogy, of males one hundred and fifty.

⁴ From the sons of Pahath-Moab: Elihoenai son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred who are males.

⁵ From the sons of Shechaniah: the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred who are males.

⁶ And from the sons of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him fifty who are males.

⁷ And from the sons of Elam: Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and with him seventy who are males.

⁸ And from the sons of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him eighty who are males.

⁹ From the sons of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen who are males.

¹⁰ And from the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty who are males.

¹¹ And from the sons of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight who are males.

¹² And from the sons of Azgad: Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten who are males.

¹³ And from the younger sons of Adonikam—and these [are] their names—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty who are males.

¹⁴ And from the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy who are males.

¹⁵ And I gather them to the river that is going to Ahava, and we encamp there three days; and I consider about the people, and about the priests, and of the sons of Levi I have found none there;

¹⁶ and I send for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, heads, and for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding;

¹⁷ and I charge them for Iddo the head, in the place Casiphia, and put in their mouth words to speak to Iddo, [and] his brothers the Nethinim, in the place Casiphia, to bring to us servants for the house of our God.

¹⁸ And they bring to us, according to the good hand of our God on us, a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, son of Levi, son of Israel, and Sherebiah, and his sons, and his brothers, eighteen;

¹⁹ and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah, of the sons of Merari, his brothers, and their sons, twenty;

²⁰ and from the Nethinim, whom David and the heads gave for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim, all of them defined by name.

²¹ And I proclaim there a fast, by the river Ahava, to afflict ourselves before our God, to seek from Him a right way for us, and for our infants, and for all our substance,

²² for I was ashamed to ask from the king a force and horsemen to help us because of the enemy in the way, for we spoke to the king, saying, "The hand of our God [is] on all seeking Him for good, and His strength and His wrath [is] on all forsaking Him."

²³ And we fast, and seek from our God for this, and He accepts our plea.

²⁴ And I separate from the heads of the priests, twelve, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them of their brothers ten,

²⁵ and I weigh to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, a raised-offering of the house of our God, that the king, and his counselors, and his heads, and all Israel—those present—lifted up;

²⁶ and I weigh to their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and one hundred talents of vessels of silver, one hundred talents of gold,

²⁷ and twenty basins of gold, of one thousand drams, and two vessels of good shining bronze, desirable as gold.

²⁸ And I say to them, “You [are] holy to YHWH, and the vessels [are] holy, and the silver and the gold [are] a willing-offering to YHWH, God of your fathers;

²⁹ watch, and keep, until you weigh before the heads of the priests, and of the Levites, and the heads of the fathers of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of YHWH.”

³⁰ And the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and of the gold, and of the vessels, to bring to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

³¹ And we journey from the river Ahava, on the twelfth of the first month, to go to Jerusalem, and the hand of our God has been on us, and He delivers us from the hand of the enemy and the one lying in wait by the way;

³² and we come to Jerusalem, and dwell there three days.

³³ And on the fourth day has been weighed the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, in the house of our God, to the hand of Meremoth son of Uriah the priest, and with him Eleazar son of Phinehas, and with them Jozabad son of Jeshua, and Noadiah son of Binnui, the Levites:

³⁴ by number, by weight of everyone, and all the weight is written at that time.

³⁵ Those coming in of the captives—sons of the expulsion—have brought burnt-offerings near to the God of Israel: twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve young male goats for a sin-offering—the whole a burnt-offering to YHWH;

³⁶ and they give the laws of the king to the lieutenants of the king and the governors beyond the river, and they have lifted up the people and the house of God.

¹ And at the completion of these things, the heads have drawn near to me, saying, “The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not been separated from the peoples of the lands, as to their abominations, even the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Ammonite, the Moabite, the Egyptian, and the Amorite,

² for they have taken of their daughters to them, and to their sons, and the holy seed have mingled themselves among the peoples of the lands, and the hand of the heads and of the seconds have been first in this trespass.”

³ And at my hearing this word, I have torn my garment and my upper robe, and pluck out of the hair of my head, and of my beard, and sit astonished,

⁴ and to me are gathered everyone trembling at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of the expulsion, and I am sitting astonished until the present of the evening.

⁵ And at the present of the evening I have risen from my affliction, and at my tearing my garment and my upper robe, then I bow down on my knees, and spread out my hands to my God YHWH,

⁶ and say, “O my God, I have been ashamed, and have blushed to lift up, O my God, my face to You, for our iniquities have increased over the head, and our guilt has become great to the heavens.

⁷ From the days of our fathers we [are] in great guilt to this day, and in our iniquities we have been given—we, our kings, our priests—into the hand of the kings of the lands, with sword, with captivity, and with spoiling, and with shame of face, as [at] this day.

⁸ And now, as a small moment grace has been from our God YHWH, to leave an escape for us, and to give to us a nail in His holy place, by our God’s enlightening our eyes, and by giving us a little quickening in our servitude;

⁹ for we [are] servants, and in our servitude our God has not forsaken us, and stretches out to us kindness before the kings of Persia, to give to us a quickening to lift up the house of our God, and to cause its ruins to cease, and to give to us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And now, what do we say, O our God, after this? For we have forsaken Your commands,

¹¹ that You have commanded by the hands of Your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you are going to possess it, [is] a land of impurity, by the impurity of the people of the lands, by their abominations with which they have filled it—from mouth to mouth—by their uncleanness;

¹² and now, your daughters you do not give to their sons, and their daughters you do not take to your sons, and you do not seek their peace, and their good—for all time, so that you are strong, and have eaten the good of the land, and given possession to your sons for all time.

¹³ And after all that has come on us for our evil works, and for our great guilt (for You, O our God, have kept back of the rod from our iniquities, and have given to us an escape like this),

¹⁴ do we turn back to break Your commands, and to join ourselves in marriage with the people of these abominations? Are You not angry against us—even to consumption—until there is no remnant and escaped part?

² And Shechaniah son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, answers and says to Ezra, “We have trespassed against our God, and we settle strange women of the peoples of the land; and now there is hope for Israel concerning this,

³ and now, let us make a covenant with our God, to cause all the women to go out, and that which is born of them, by the counsel of the Lord, and of those trembling at the command of our God, and according to law it is done;

⁴ rise, for on you [is] the matter, and we [are] with you; be strong, and do."

⁵ And Ezra rises, and causes the heads of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear to do according to this word—and they swear.

⁶ And Ezra rises from before the house of God, and goes to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Eliashib; indeed, he goes there, bread he has not eaten, and water he has not drunk, for he is mourning because of the trespass of the expulsion.

⁷ And they cause a voice to pass over into Judah and Jerusalem, to all sons of the expulsion, to be gathered to Jerusalem,

⁹ And all the men of Judah and Benjamin are gathered to Jerusalem by the third day, it [is] the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month, and all the people sit in the broad place of the house of God, trembling on account of the matter and of the showers.

¹⁰ And Ezra the priest rises and says to them, "You have trespassed, and you settle strange women, to add to the guilt of Israel;

¹¹ and now, make confession to YHWH, God of your fathers, and do His good pleasure, and be separated from the peoples of the land, and from the strange women."

¹² And all the assembly answers and says [with] a great voice, "Right; according to your word—on us to do;

¹³ but the people [are] many, and [it is] the time of showers, and there is no power to stand outside, and the work [is] not for one day, nor for two, for we have multiplied to transgress in this thing.

¹⁴ Please let our heads of all the assembly stand; and all who [are] in our cities, who have settled strange wives, come in at [the] appointed times, and with them [the] elderly of city and city, and judges in it, until the turning back of the fury of the wrath of our God from us, for this thing."

¹⁵ Only Jonathan son of Asahel, and Jahaziah son of Tikvah, stood against this, and Meshullam, and Shabbethai the Levite, helped them.

¹⁷ and they finish with all the men who have settled strange women to the first day of the first month.

¹⁹ and they give their hand to send out their wives, and being guilty, a ram of the flock for their guilt.

²⁰ And of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

²¹ and of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah;

²² and of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasa.

²³ And of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (he [is] Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴ And of the singers: Eliashib. And of the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

²⁵ And of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchijah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

²⁶ And of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.

²⁷ And of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

²⁸ And of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai.

²⁹ And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

³⁰ And of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

³¹ And of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah.

³³ Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei.

³⁴ Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel,

³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhu,

³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau,

³⁸ and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,

³⁹ and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,

⁴⁰ Machnadbai, Shashai, Sharai,

⁴¹ Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,

⁴² Shallum, Amariah, Joseph.

⁴³ Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah;

⁴⁴ all these have taken strange women, and there are of them women who adopt sons.

Nehemiah

¹ Words of Nehemiah son of Hachaliah. And it comes to pass, in the month of Chisleu, the twentieth year, and I have been in Shushan the palace,

² and Hanani, one of my brothers, he and men of Judah come in, and I ask them concerning the Jews, the escaped part that have been left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem;

³ and they say to me, “Those left, who have been left of the captivity there in the province, [are] in great evil, and in reproach, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

⁴ And it comes to pass, at my hearing these words, I have sat down, and I weep and mourn [for] days, and I am fasting and praying before the God of the heavens.

⁵ And I say, “Ah, now, O YHWH, God of the heavens, God, the great and the fearful, keeping the covenant and kindness for those loving Him, and for those keeping His commands,

⁶ please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, to listen to the prayer of Your servant, that I am praying before You today, by day and by night, concerning the sons of Israel, Your servants, and confessing concerning the sins of the sons of Israel, that we have sinned against You; indeed, I and the house of my father have sinned;

⁷ we have acted very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commands, and the statutes, and the judgments, that You commanded Your servant Moses.

⁸ Please remember the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, You trespass—I scatter you among peoples;

⁹ and you have turned back to Me, and kept My commands, and done them—if your outcast is in the end of the heavens, there I gather them, and have brought them to the place that I have chosen to cause My Name to dwell there.

¹⁰ And they [are] Your servants, and Your people, whom You have ransomed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand.

¹¹ Ah, now, O Lord, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants, those delighting to fear Your Name; and please give prosperity to Your servant today, and give him for mercies before this man”; and I have been butler to the king.

² and the king says to me, “Why [is] your face sad, and you not sick? This is nothing except sadness of heart”; and I fear very much,

³ and say to the king, “Let the king live for all time! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of the graves of my fathers, [is] a desolation, and its gates have been consumed with fire?”

4 And the king says to me, "For what are you seeking?" And I pray to the God of the heavens,

5 and say to the king, "If [it is] good to the king, and if your servant is pleasing before you, that you send me to Judah, to the city of the graves of my fathers, and I have built it."

6 And the king says to me (and the queen is sitting near him), "How long is your journey? And when do you return?" And it is good before the king, and he sends me away, and I set to him a time.

7 And I say to the king, "If [it is] good to the king, let letters be given to me for the governors beyond the River, that they let me pass over until I come to Judah:

8 and a letter to Asaph, keeper of the paradise that the king has, that he give to me trees for beams [for] the gates of the palace that the house has, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I enter"; and the king gives to me, according to the good hand of my God on me.

9 And I come to the governors beyond the River, and give to them the letters of the king; and the king sends with me heads of a force, and horsemen;

10 and Sanballat the Horonite hears, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and it is evil to them—a great evil—that a man has come to seek good for the sons of Israel.

11 And I come to Jerusalem, and I am there three days,

12 and I rise by night, I and a few men with me, and have not declared to a man what my God is giving to my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there is no beast with me except the beast on which I am riding.

13 And I go out through the Valley Gate by night, and to the front of the Dragon Fountain, and to the Refuse Gate, and I am inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, that are broken down, and its gates consumed with fire.

14 And I pass over to the Fountain Gate, and to the King's Pool, and there is no place for the beast under me to pass over,

15 and I am going up through the brook by night, and am inspecting the wall, and turn back, and come in through the Valley Gate, and turn back.

16 And the prefects have not known to where I have gone, and what I am doing; and to the Jews, and to the priests, and to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of those doing the work, until now I have not declared [it];

17 and I say to them, "You are seeing the evil that we are in, in that Jerusalem [is] desolate, and its gates have been burned with fire; come and we build the wall of Jerusalem, and we are not a reproach anymore."

18 And I declare to them the hand of my God that is good on me, and also the words of the king that he said to me, and they say, "Let us rise, and we have built"; and they strengthen their hands for good.

19 And Sanballat the Horonite hears, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, and they mock at us, and despise us, and say, "What [is] this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

20 And I return them word, and say to them, "The God of the heavens—He gives prosperity to us, and we His servants rise and have built; and to you there is no portion, and right, and memorial in Jerusalem."

² and by his hand men of Jericho have built; and by their hand Zaccur son of Imri has built;

³ and sons of Hassenaaah have built the Fish Gate; they have walled it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars.

⁴ And by their hand Merimoth son of Urijah, son of Koz, has strengthened; and by his hand Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabeel, has strengthened; and by his hand Zadok son of Baana has strengthened;

⁵ and by his hand the Tekoites have strengthened, and their majestic ones have not brought in their neck to the service of their Lord.

⁶ And Jehoiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah have strengthened the Old Gate; they have walled it, and set up its doors, and its locks, and its bars.

⁷ And by their hand Melatiah the Gibeonite has strengthened, and Jadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, [belonging] to the throne of the governor beyond the River.

⁹ And by their hand Rephaiah son of Hur, head of the half of the district of Jerusalem, has strengthened.

¹⁰ And by their hand Jedaiah son of Harumaph has strengthened, and opposite his own house; and by his hand Hattush son of Hashabniah has strengthened.

¹¹ A second measure Malchijah son of Harim has strengthened, and Hashub son of Pahath-Moab, even the Tower of the Furnaces.

¹² And by his hand Shallum son of Halohesh, head of the half of the district of Jerusalem, has strengthened, he and his daughters.

¹³ Hanun has strengthened the Valley Gate, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they have built it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its bars, and one thousand cubits in the wall to the Refuse Gate.

¹⁸ After him their brothers have strengthened, [and] Bavvai son of Henadad, head of the half of the district of Keilah.

¹⁹ And Ezer son of Jeshua, head of Mizpah, strengthens, by his hand, a second measure, from in front of the ascent of the armory at the angle.

²⁰ After him Baruch son of Zabbai has hurried to strengthen a second measure from the angle to the opening of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

²² And after him the priests, men of the circuit, have strengthened.

²⁴ After him Binnui son of Henadad has strengthened a second measure, from the house of Azariah to the angle, and to the corner.

²⁶ And the Nethinim have been dwelling in Ophel, to opposite the Water Gate at the east, and the tower that goes out.

²⁷ After him the Tekoites have strengthened a second measure, from opposite the great tower that goes out, and to the wall of Ophel.

²⁸ From above the Horse Gate the priests have strengthened, each opposite his house.

³⁰ After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah has strengthened, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, a second measure; after him Meshullam son of Berechiah has strengthened opposite his chamber.

³² And between the ascent of the corner and the Sheep Gate, the refiners and the merchants have strengthened.

¹ And it comes to pass, when Sanballat has heard that we are building the wall, that it is displeasing to him, and he is very angry and mocks at the Jews,

² and says before his brothers and the force of Samaria, indeed, he says, "What [are] the weak Jews doing? Are they left to themselves? Do they sacrifice? Do they complete in a day? Do they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish—and they are burned?"

³ And Tobiah the Ammonite [is] by him and says, "Also, that which they are building—if a fox goes up, then it has broken down their stone wall."

⁴ Hear, O our God, for we have been despised; and return their reproach on their own head, and give them for a spoil in a land of captivity;

⁵ and do not cover over their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You, for they have provoked [You] to anger in front of those building.

⁶ And we build the wall, and all the wall is joined—to its half, and the people have a heart to work.

⁷ And it comes to pass, when Sanballat has heard, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, that lengthening has gone up to the walls of Jerusalem, that the breeches have begun to be stopped, then it is very displeasing to them,

⁸ and they conspire, all of them together, to come to fight against Jerusalem, and to do to it injury.

⁹ And we pray to our God, and appoint a watch against them, by day and by night, because of them.

¹⁰ And Judah says, “The power of the burden-bearers has become feeble, and the rubbish [is] abundant, and we are not able to build on the wall.”

¹¹ And our adversaries say, “They do not know, nor see, until we come into their midst, and have slain them, and caused the work to cease.”

¹² And it comes to pass, when the Jews have come who are dwelling near them, that they say to us ten times from all the places to where you return—[they are] against us.

¹³ And I appoint at the lowest of the places, at the back of the wall, in the clear places, indeed, I appoint the people, by their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

¹⁴ And I see, and rise up, and say to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them; remember the Lord, the great and the fearful, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

¹⁵ And it comes to pass, when our enemies have heard that it has been known to us, and God frustrates their counsel, and we return, all of us, to the wall, each to his work;

¹⁶ indeed, it comes to pass, from that day, half of my servants are working in the business, and half of them are keeping hold of both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the heads [are] behind all the house of Judah.

¹⁷ The builders on the wall, and the bearers of the burden, those loading, [each] with one of his hands is working in the business, and one is laying hold of the missile.

¹⁸ And the builders [are] each with his sword, girded on his loins, and building, and he who is blowing with a horn [is] beside me.

¹⁹ And I say to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “The work is abundant, and large, and we are separated on the wall, far off from one another;

²⁰ in the place that you hear the voice of the horn there you are gathered to us; our God fights for us.”

²¹ And we are working in the business, and half of them are keeping hold of the spears, from the going up of the dawn until the coming forth of the stars.

²² Also, at that time I said to the people, “Let each lodge with his servant in the midst of Jerusalem, and they have been a watch for us by night, and [for] the work by day”:

²³ and there are none—I, and my brothers, and my servants, the men of the watch who [are] after me—there are none of us putting off our garments, each [has] his vessel of water.

¹ And there is a great cry of the people and their wives, concerning their brothers the Jews,

² indeed, there are [those] who are saying, "Our sons, and our daughters, we—are many, and we receive grain, and eat, and live."

³ And there are [those] who are saying, "Our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses, we are pledging, and we receive grain for the famine."

⁴ And there are [those] who are saying, "We have borrowed money for the tribute of the king, [on] our fields, and our vineyards;

⁵ and now, as the flesh of our brothers [is] our flesh, as their sons [are] our sons, and behold, we are subduing our sons and our daughters for servants, and there are [those] of our daughters subdued, and our hand has no might, and our fields and our vineyards [are] to others."

⁶ And it is very displeasing to me when I have heard their cry and these words,

⁷ and my heart reigns over me, and I strive with the nobles, and with the prefects, and say to them, "You are exacting usury on one another"; and I set against them a great assembly,

⁸ and say to them, "We have acquired our brothers the Jews, those sold to the nations, according to the ability that [is] in us, and you also sell your brothers, and they have been sold to us!" And they are silent, and have not found a word.

⁹ And I say, "The thing that you are doing [is] not good; do you not walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies?"

¹⁰ And also, I, my brothers, and my servants, are exacting silver and grain on them; please let us leave off this usury.

¹² And they say, "We give back, and we seek nothing from them; so we do as you are saying." And I call the priests, and cause them to swear to do according to this thing;

¹³ also, I have shaken my lap, and I say, "Thus God shakes out every man from his house and from his labor who does not perform this thing; indeed, thus is he shaken out and empty"; and all the assembly says, "Amen," and praises YHWH; and the people do according to this thing.

¹⁴ Also, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king—twelve years—I, and my brothers, have not eaten the bread of the governor:

¹⁵ the former governors who [are] before me have made themselves heavy on the people, and take of them in bread and wine, besides forty shekels in silver; also, their servants have ruled over the people—and I have not done so, because of the fear of God.

¹⁶ And also, in the work of this wall I have done mightily, even a field we have not bought, and all my servants are gathered there for the work;

¹⁷ and of the Jews, and of the prefects, one hundred and fifty men, and those coming to us of the nations that [are] around us, [are] at my table;

¹⁸ and that which has been prepared for one day [is] one ox, six fat sheep, also birds have been prepared for me, and once in ten days of all wines abundantly, and with this, the bread of the governor I have not sought, for heavy is the service on this people.

¹⁹ Remember for me, O my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

¹ And it comes to pass, when it has been heard by Sanballat, and Tobiah, and by Geshem the Arabian, and by the rest of our enemies, that I have built the wall, and there has not been left in it a breach (also, until that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),

² that Sanballat sends, also Geshem, to me, saying, “Come and we meet together in the villages, in the Valley of Ono”; and they are thinking to do to me evil.

³ And I send to them messengers, saying, “A great work I am doing, and I am not able to come down; why does the work cease when I let it alone, and have come down to you?”

⁴ And they send to me, according to this word, four times, and I return them [word] according to this word.

⁵ And Sanballat sends to me, according to this word, a fifth time, his servant, and an open letter in his hand;

⁶ it is written in it, “Among the nations it has been heard, and Gashmu is saying: You and the Jews are thinking to rebel, therefore you are building the wall, and you have been to them for a king—according to these words!

⁷ And also, you have appointed prophets to call for you in Jerusalem, saying, A king [is] in Judah, and now it is heard by the king according to these words; and now come, and we take counsel together.”

⁸ And I send to him, saying, “It has not been according to these words that you are saying, for from your own heart you are devising them”;

⁹ for all of them are making us afraid, saying, “Their hands are too feeble for the work, and it is not done”; and now, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰ And I have entered the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabeel—and he is restrained—and he says, “Let us meet at the house of God, at the inside of the temple, and we shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to slay you—indeed, by night they are coming to slay you.”

¹¹ And I say, “A man such as I—does he flee? And who as I, that goes into the temple, and lives? I do not go in.”

¹² And I discern, and behold, God has not sent him, for in the prophecy he has spoken to me both Tobiah and Sanballat hired him,

¹³ so that he [is] a hired worker, that I may fear and do so, and I had sinned, and it had been to them for an evil name that they may reproach me.

¹⁴ Be mindful, O my God, of Tobiah, and of Sanballat, according to these his works, and also, of Noadiah the prophetess, and of the rest of the prophets who have been making me afraid.

¹⁵ And the wall is completed in the twenty-fifth of Elul, on the fifty-second day;

¹⁶ and it comes to pass, when all our enemies have heard, and all the nations who are all around us see, that they fall greatly in their own eyes, and know that by our God has this work been done.

¹⁷ Also, in those days the nobles of Judah are multiplying their letters going to Tobiah, and those of Tobiah are coming to them;

¹⁸ for many in Judah are sworn to him, for he [is] son-in-law to Shechaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan has taken the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah;

¹⁹ also, they have been speaking of his good deeds before me, and they have been taking my words out to him; Tobiah has sent letters to make me afraid.

¹ And it comes to pass, when the wall has been built, that I set up the doors, and the gatekeepers are appointed, and the singers, and the Levites,

² and I charge my brother Hanani, and Hananiah head of the palace, concerning Jerusalem—for he [is] as a man of truth, and fearing God above many—

³ and I say to them, “Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the heat of the sun, and while they are standing by let them shut the doors, and fasten, and appoint guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each at his watch, and each in front of his house.”

⁴ And the city [is] broad on both sides, and there are no houses built;

⁶ These [are] sons of the province, those coming up of the captives of the expulsion that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed—and they return to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his city—

⁷ who are coming in with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

 57 Sons of the servants of Solomon: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereth, sons of Perida,
 58 sons of Jaala, sons of Darkon, sons of Giddel,
 59 sons of Shephatiah, sons of Hattil, sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, sons of Amon.
 60 All the Nethinim and the sons of the servants of Solomon [are] three hundred ninety-two.
 61 And these [are] those coming up from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer—and they have not been able to declare the house of their fathers, and their seed, whether they [are] of Israel—
 62 sons of Delaiah, sons of Tobiah, sons of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two.
 63 And of the priests: sons of Habaiah, sons of Koz, sons of Barzillai (who has taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and is called by their name).

⁶⁴ These have sought their register among those reckoning themselves by genealogy, and it has not been found, and they are redeemed from the priesthood,

⁶⁶ All the assembly together [is] forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

⁶⁷ apart from their servants and their handmaids—these [are] seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; and of them [are] male and female singers, two hundred forty-five.

⁶⁸ Their horses [are] seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred [and] forty-five;

⁶⁹ camels, four hundred thirty-five; donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁷¹ And of the heads of the fathers they have given to the treasure of the work, twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

⁷² And that which the rest of the people have given [is] twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and sixty-seven priests' coats.

⁷³ And they dwell—the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and [some] of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel—in their cities, and the seventh month comes, and the sons of Israel [are] in their cities.

² And Ezra the priest brings the Law before the assembly, both of men and women, and everyone intelligent to hear, on the first day of the seventh month,

⁵ And Ezra opens the scroll before the eyes of all the people—for he has been above all the people—and at his opening [it] all the people have stood up,

⁶ and Ezra blesses YHWH, the great God, and all the people answer, "Amen, Amen," with lifting up of their hands, and they bow and pay respect to YHWH—faces to the earth.

⁷ And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, giving the people understanding in the Law, and the people, [are] on their station,

⁸ and they read in the Scroll, in the Law of God, explaining—so as to give the meaning, and they give understanding to the convocation.

⁹ And Nehemiah—he [is] the Tirshatha—says (and Ezra the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who are instructing the people) to all the people, “Today is holy to your God YHWH, do not mourn, nor weep”: for all the people are weeping at their hearing the words of the Law.

¹¹ And the Levites are keeping all the people silent, saying, “Be silent, for today [is] holy, and do not be grieved.”

¹² And all the people go to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great joy, because they have understood concerning the words that they made known to them.

¹³ And on the second day have been gathered heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to act wisely concerning the words of the Law.

¹⁴ And they find written in the Law that YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses, that the sons of Israel dwell in shelters in the celebration, in the seventh month,

¹⁶ And the people go out, and bring in, and make for themselves shelters, each on his roof, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the Water Gate, and in the broad place of the Gate of Ephraim.

¹⁷ And they make—all the assembly of the captives of the captivity—shelters, and they sit in shelters; for the sons of Israel had not done, from the days of Jeshua son of Nun, so to that day, and there is very great joy.

¹⁸ And he reads in the Scroll of the Law of God day by day, from the first day until the last day, and they make a celebration seven days, and on the eighth day a restraint, according to the ordinance.

¹ And in the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel have been gathered with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them;

² and the seed of Israel are separated from all sons of a stranger, and stand and confess concerning their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers,

³ and rise up on their station, and read in the Scroll of the Law of their God YHWH a fourth of the day, and a fourth they are confessing and bowing themselves to their God YHWH.

⁴ And there stand up on the ascent, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, Chenani, and they cry with a loud voice to their God YHWH.

⁵ And the Levites say, [even] Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, Pethahiah, “Rise, bless your God YHWH, || From age to age, || And they bless the Name of Your glory || That [is] exalted above all blessing and praise.

⁶ You [are] He, O YHWH, Yourself—You have made the heavens, || The heavens of the heavens, and all their host, || The earth and all that [are] on it, || The seas and all that [are] in them, || And You are keeping all of them alive, || And the host of the heavens are bowing themselves to You.

⁷ You [are] He, O YHWH God, || Who fixed on Abraham, || And brought him out from Ur of the Chaldeans, || And made his name Abraham,

⁸ And found his heart steadfast before You, || So as to make with him the covenant, || To give the land of the Canaanite, || The Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, || To give [it] to his seed. And You establish Your words, || For You [are] righteous,

⁹ And see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, || And their cry have heard by the Sea of Suph,

¹⁰ And give signs and wonders on Pharaoh, || And on all his servants, || And on all the people of his land, || For You have known that they have acted proudly against them, || And You make to Yourself a name as [at] this day.

¹¹ And You have cleaved the sea before them, || And they pass over into the midst of the sea on the dry land, || And their pursuers You have cast into the depths, || As a stone, into the strong waters.

¹² And by a pillar of cloud You have led them by day, || And by a pillar of fire by night, || To lighten to them the way in which they go.

¹³ And on Mount Sinai You have come down, || Even to speak with them from the heavens, || And You give to them right judgments, || And true laws, good statutes and commands.

¹⁴ And Your holy Sabbath You have made known to them, || And commands, and statutes, and law, || You have commanded for them, || By the hand of Your servant Moses;

¹⁵ And bread from the heavens You have given to them for their hunger, || And water from a rock have brought out to them for their thirst, || And say to them to go in to possess the land || That You have lifted up Your hand to give to them.

¹⁶ And they and our fathers have acted proudly, || And harden their neck, || And have not listened to Your commands,

¹⁷ Indeed, they refuse to listen, || And have not remembered Your wonders that You have done with them, || And harden their neck and appoint a head, || To turn back to their service, in their rebellion; And You [are] a God of pardons, || Gracious, and merciful, long-suffering, and abundant in kindness, || And have not forsaken them.

¹⁸ Also, when they have made to themselves a molten calf, || And say, This [is] your god || That brought you up out of Egypt, || And do great despisings,

¹⁹ and You, in Your abundant mercies, || Have not forsaken them in the wilderness—The pillar of the cloud has not turned aside from off them by day, || To lead them in the way, || And the pillar of the fire by night, || To give light to them and the way in which they go.

20 And Your good Spirit You have given, || To cause them to act wisely; And Your manna You have not withheld from their mouth, || And water You have given to them for their thirst,

21 And forty years You have nourished them in a wilderness; They have not lacked; Their garments have not worn out, || And their feet have not swelled.

22 And You give to them kingdoms, and peoples, || And apportion them to the corner, || And they possess the land of Sihon, || And the land of the king of Heshbon, || And the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 And You have multiplied their sons as the stars of the heavens, || And bring them into the land || That You have said to their fathers to go in to possess.

24 And the sons come in, and possess the land, || And You humble the inhabitants of the land—the Canaanites—before them, || And give them into their hand, and their kings, || And the peoples of the land, || To do with them according to their pleasure.

25 And they capture fortified cities, and fat ground, || And possess houses full of all good, || Dug-wells, vineyards, and olive-yards, || And fruit-trees in abundance, || And they eat, and are satisfied, || And become fat, || And delight themselves in Your great goodness.

26 And they are disobedient, || And rebel against You, || And cast Your law behind their back, || And Your prophets they have slain, || Who testified against them, || To bring them back to You, || And they do great despisings,

27 And You give them into the hand of their adversaries, || And they distress them, || And in the time of their distress they cry to You, || And You, from the heavens, hear, || And according to Your abundant mercies, || Give saviors to them, || And they save them out of the hand of their adversaries.

28 And when they have rest, || They turn back to do evil before You, || And You leave them in the hand of their enemies, || And they rule over them; And they return, and call You, || And You hear from the heavens, || And deliver them many times, || According to Your mercies,

29 And testify against them, || To bring them back to Your law; And they have acted proudly, || And have not listened to Your commands, || And against Your judgments have sinned—Which man does and has lived in them—And they give a stubborn shoulder, || And have hardened their neck, || And have not listened.

30 And You draw over them many years, || And testify against them by Your Spirit, || By the hand of Your prophets, || And they have not given ear, || And You give them into the hand of peoples of the lands,

31 and in Your abundant mercies || You have not made them a consumption, || Nor have forsaken them; For a God, gracious and merciful, [are] You.

32 And now, O our God—God, the great, the mighty, || And the fearful, || Keeping the covenant and the kindness—Do not let all the travail that has found us be little before You, || For our kings, for our heads, and for our priests, || And for our prophets, and for our fathers, || And for all Your people, || From the days of the kings of Asshur to this day;

33 And You [are] righteous concerning all that has come on us, || For

You have done truth, || And we have done wickedly;

³⁴ And our kings, our heads, || Our priests, and our fathers, || Have not done Your law, || Nor attended to Your commands, || And to Your testimonies, || That You have testified against them;

³⁵ And they, in their kingdom, || And in Your abundant goodness, || That You have given to them, || And in the land, the large and the fat, || That You have set before them, || Have not served You, || Nor turned back from their evil doings.

³⁶ Behold, we—today—[are] servants, || And the land that You have given to our fathers, || To eat its fruit and its good, || Behold, we [are] servants on it,

³⁷ And its increase it is multiplying to the kings || Whom You have set over us || In our sins; And over our bodies they are ruling, || And over our livestock, || According to their pleasure, || And we [are] in great distress.

³⁸ And for all this we are making a steadfast covenant, || And are writing, || And over him who is sealed || [Are] our heads, our Levites, [and] our priests.”

¹ And over those sealed [are] Nehemiah the Tirshatha, son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

² Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

³ Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

⁴ Huttush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these [are] the priests.

⁹ And the Levites: both Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

¹⁰ and their brothers: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

¹¹ Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹² Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹³ Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

¹⁴ Heads of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

¹⁵ Bunki, Azgad, Bebai,

¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

¹⁷ Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur,

¹⁸ Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,

¹⁹ Hariaph, Anathoth, Nebai,

²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

²¹ Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,

²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,

²⁴ Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

²⁶ and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

²⁷ Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and everyone who has been separated from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every knowing intelligent one,

²⁹ are laying hold on their brothers, their majestic ones, and coming into an execration and an oath, to walk in the Law of God, that was given by the hand of Moses, servant of God, and to observe and to do all the commands of YHWH our Lord, and His judgments, and His statutes;

³⁰ and that we do not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we do not take their daughters to our sons;

³¹ and the peoples of the land who are bringing in the wares and any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we do not receive of them on the Sabbath, and on a holy day, and we leave the seventh year, and usury on every hand.

³² And we have appointed for ourselves commands, to put on ourselves the third of a shekel in a year, for the service of the house of our God,

³³ for bread of the arrangement, and the continual present, and the continual burnt-offering of the Sabbaths, of the new moons, for appointed times, and for holy things, and for sin-offerings, to make atonement for Israel, even all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴ And we have caused the lots to fall for the offering of wood, [among] the priests, the Levites, and the people, to bring into the house of our God, by the house of our fathers, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of our God YHWH, as it is written in the Law,

³⁵ and to bring in the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of YHWH,

³⁶ and the firstlings of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the Law, and the firstlings of our herds and our flocks, to bring into the house of our God, to the priests who are ministering in the house of our God.

³⁷ And the beginning of our dough, and our raised-offerings, and the fruit of every tree, of new wine, and of oil, we bring to the priests, into the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites; and they—the Levites—have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage;

³⁸ and the priest, son of Aaron, has been with the Levites in the tithing of the Levites, and the Levites bring up the tithe of the tithe to the house of our God to the chambers, to the treasure-house;

³⁹ for they bring to the chambers—the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi—the raised-offering of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and there [are] vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests, those ministering, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and we do not forsake the house of our God.

² and the people give a blessing to all the men who are offering themselves willingly to dwell in Jerusalem.

⁴ And in Jerusalem have dwelt of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah: Athaiah son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalaleel, of the sons of Perez;

⁵ and Masseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-Hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of Shiloni;

⁶ all the sons of Perez who are dwelling in Jerusalem [are] four hundred sixty-eight, men of valor.

⁷ And these [are] sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jesaiah;

⁸ and after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight.

⁹ And Joel son of Zichri [is] inspector over them, and Judah son of Senuah [is] over the city—second.

¹⁰ Of the priests: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin,

¹¹ Seraiah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, leader of the house of God,

¹² and their brothers doing the work of the house [are] eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchiah,

¹³ and his brothers, heads of fathers, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai son of Azareel, son of Ahazai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,

¹⁴ and their brothers, one hundred twenty-eight mighty men of valor; and an inspector over them [is] Zabdiel, son of [one of] the great men.

¹⁵ And of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hashub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni,

¹⁶ and Shabbethai, and Jozabad, [are] over the outward work of the house of God, of the heads of the Levites,

¹⁷ and Mattaniah son of Micha, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, [is] head—at the commencement he gives thanks in prayer; and Bakbukiah [is] second among his brothers, and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

¹⁸ All the Levites, in the holy city, [are] two hundred eighty-four.

¹⁹ And the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, those watching at the gates, [are] one hundred seventy-two.

²⁰ And the rest of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, [are] in all cities of Judah, each in his inheritance;

²¹ and the Nethinim are dwelling in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa [are] over the Nethinim.

²³ for the command of the king [is] on them, and support [is] for the singers, a matter of a day in its day.

²⁴ And Pethahiah son of Meshezabeel, of the sons of Zerah, son of Judah, [is] by the hand of the king, for every matter of the people.

²⁵ And at the villages with their fields, of the sons of Judah there have dwelt, in Kirjath-Arba and its small towns, and in Dibon and its small towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

²⁶ and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and in Beth-Phelet,

- 27 and in Hazar-Shaul, and in Beer-Sheba and its small towns,
 28 and in Ziklag, and in Mekonah and in its small towns,
 29 and En-Rimmon, and in Zareah, and in Jarmuth,
 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its small towns; and they encamp from Beer-Sheba to the Valley of Hinnom.
 31 And sons of Benjamin [are] at Geba, Michmash, and Aija, and Beth-El,
 and its small towns,
 32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,
 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,
 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,
 35 Lod, and Ono, the Valley of the Craftsmen.
 36 And of the Levites, the divisions of Judah [are] for Benjamin.

12

- 1 And these [are] the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
 2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
 3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
 4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,
 5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
 6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,
 7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah; these [are] heads of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua.
 8 And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, Mattaniah, he [is] over the thanksgiving, and his brothers, 9 and Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, [are] opposite them in charges.
 10 And Jeshua has begotten Joiakim, and Joiakim has begotten Eliashib, and Eliashib has begotten Joiada,
 11 and Joiada has begotten Jonathan, and Jonathan has begotten Jaddua.
 12 And in the days of Joiakim have been priests, heads of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;
 13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;
 14 of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;
 15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;
 16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
 17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin; of Moadiah, Piltai;
 18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jonathan;
 19 and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
 20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;
 21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.
 22 The Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, are written, heads of fathers, and of the priests, in the kingdom of Darius the Persian.
 23 Sons of Levi, heads of the fathers, are written on the scroll of the Chronicles even until the days of Johanan son of Eliashib;
 24 and heads of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their brothers, [are] opposite them, to give praise, to give thanks, by command of David the man of God, charge close by charge.

²⁵ Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, [are] gatekeepers, keeping watch in the gatherings of the gates.

²⁸ and sons of the singers are gathered together even from the circuit around Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi,

²⁹ and from the house of Gilgal, and from fields of Geba and Azmaveth, the singers have built for villages for themselves around Jerusalem;

³⁰ and the priests and the Levites are cleansed, and they cleanse the people, and the gates, and the wall.

³² and after them goes Hoshaiah, and half of the heads of Judah,

³³ and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

³⁴ Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah;

³⁵ and of the sons of the priests with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Michaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph,

³⁶ and his brothers Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with instruments of song of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe [is] before them;

³⁸ And the second thanksgiving company that is going opposite, and I after it, and half of the people on the wall from beyond the Tower of the Furnaces and to the broad wall,

⁴⁰ And the two thanksgiving companies stand in the house of God, and I and half of the prefects with me,

⁴¹ and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets,

⁴³ and they sacrifice on that day great sacrifices and rejoice, for God has made them rejoice [with] great joy, and also, the women and the children have rejoiced, and the joy of Jerusalem is heard—to a distance.

⁴⁴ And certain are appointed on that day over the chambers for treasures, for raised-offerings, for first-fruits, and for tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for priests, and for Levites, for the joy of Judah [is] over the priests, and over the Levites, who are standing up.

⁴⁶ for in the days of David and Asaph of old [were] heads of the singers, and a song of praise and thanksgiving to God.

¹ On that day there was read in the scroll of Moses, in the ears of the people, and it has been found written in it that an Ammonite and Moabite does not come into the assembly of God for all time,

² because they have not come before the sons of Israel with bread and with water, and hire against them Balaam to revile them, and our God turns the reviling into a blessing.

³ And it comes to pass, at their hearing the Law, that they separate all the mixed people from Israel.

⁴ And before this Eliashib the priest, appointed over chambers of the house of our God, [is] a relation of Tobiah,

⁵ and he makes for him a great chamber, and there they were formerly putting the present, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil—the commanded thing of the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers—and the raised-offering of the priests.

⁷ and I come to Jerusalem, and understand concerning the evil that Eliashib has done for Tobiah, to make to him a chamber in the courts of the house of God,

⁸ and it is very displeasing to me, and I cast all the vessels of the house of Tobiah outside, out of the chamber,

⁹ and I command, and they cleanse the chambers, and I bring back there the vessels of the house of God with the present and the frankincense.

¹⁰ And I know that the portions of the Levites have not been given, and they flee each to his field—the Levites and the singers, doing the work.

¹¹ And I strive with the prefects, and say, “Why has the house of God been forsaken?” And I gather them, and set them on their station;

¹² and all Judah has brought in the tithe of the grain, and of the new wine, and of the oil, to the treasuries.

¹³ And I appoint treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites; and by their hand [is] Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, for they have been reckoned steadfast, and on them [it is] to give a portion to their brothers.

¹⁴ Be mindful of me, O my God, for this, and do not blot out my kind acts that I have done, for the house of my God, and for its charges.

¹⁵ In those days I have seen in Judah those treading wine-vats on Sabbath, and bringing in the sheaves, and loading on the donkeys, and also, wine, grapes, and figs, and every burden, indeed, they are bringing into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, and I testify in the day of their selling provision.

¹⁶ And the Tyrians have dwelt in it, bringing in fish, and every ware, and selling on Sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁷ And I strive with the nobles of Judah, and say to them, "What [is] this evil thing that you are doing, and defiling the Sabbath day?"

¹⁸ Thus did not your fathers do? And our God brings in on us all this evil, and on this city, and you are adding fierceness on Israel, to defile the Sabbath."

¹⁹ And it comes to pass, when the gates of Jerusalem have been dark before the Sabbath, that I command, and the doors are shut, and I command that they do not open them until after the Sabbath; and of my servants I have stationed at the gates; there does not come in a burden on the Sabbath day.

²⁰ And they lodge—the merchants and sellers of all ware—at the outside of Jerusalem, once or twice,

²¹ and I testify against them, and say to them, "Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you repeat [it], I put forth a hand on you"; from that time they have not come in on the Sabbath.

²² And I command to the Levites that they be cleansed, and coming in, keeping the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Also, this, remember for me, O my God, and have pity on me, according to the abundance of Your kindness.

²³ Also, in those days, I have seen the Jews [who] have settled women of Ashdod, of Ammon, of Moab.

²⁴ And of their sons, half are speaking Ashdoditish—and are not knowing to speak Jewish—and according to the language of people and people.

²⁵ And I strive with them, and declare them vile, and strike certain of them, and pluck off their hair, and cause them to swear by God, "You do not give your daughters to their sons, nor do you take of their daughters to your sons, and to yourselves.

²⁶ By these did not Solomon king of Israel sin? And among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved by his God, and God makes him king over all Israel—even him [whom] the strange women caused to sin.

²⁷ And do we listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God, to settle strange women?"

²⁸ And [one] of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest, [is] son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite, and I cause him to flee from off me.

²⁹ Be mindful of them, O my God, for the redeemed of the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

³⁰ And I have cleansed them from every stranger, and appoint charges to priests and to Levites, each in his work,

³¹ and for the wood-offering at appointed times, and for first-fruits. Be mindful of me, O my God, for good.

Esther

¹ And it comes to pass, in the days of Ahasuerus—he [is] Ahasuerus who is reigning from Hodu even to Cush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces—

² in those days, at the sitting of King Ahasuerus on the throne of his kingdom, that [is] in Shushan the palace,

³ in the third year of his reign, he has made a banquet to all his heads and his servants; of the force of Persia and Media, the chiefs and heads of the provinces [are] before him,

⁴ in his showing the wealth of the glory of his kingdom, and the glory of the beauty of his greatness, many days—one hundred eighty days.

⁵ And at the fullness of these days the king has made a banquet to all the people who are found in Shushan the palace, from great even to small, [for] seven days, in the court of the garden of the house of the king—

⁷ and the giving of drink in vessels of gold, and the vessels [are] various vessels, and the royal wine [is] abundant, as a memorial of the king.

⁸ And the drinking [is] according to law, none is pressing, for so the king has appointed for every chief one of his house, to do according to the pleasure of man and man.

⁹ Also Vashti the queen has made a banquet for women, in the royal house that King Ahasuerus has.

¹¹ to bring in Vashti the queen before the king, with a royal crown, to show the peoples and the heads her beauty, for she [is] of good appearance,

¹³ And the king says to wise men, knowing the times—for so [is] the word of the king before all knowing law and judgment,

¹⁴ and he who is near to him [is] Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Memucan, seven heads of Persia and Media seeing the face of the king, who are sitting first in the kingdom—

¹⁵ “According to law, what should [I] do with Queen Vashti, because that she has not done the saying of King Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?”

¹⁸ indeed, this day princesses of Persia and Media, who have heard the word of the queen, say [so] to all heads of the king, even according to the sufficiency of contempt and wrath.

²⁰ and the sentence of the king that he makes has been heard in all his kingdom—for it [is] great—and all the wives give honor to their husbands, from great even to small.”

²¹ And the thing is good in the eyes of the king, and of the princes, and the king does according to the word of Memucan,

²² and sends letters to all provinces of the king, to province and province according to its writing, and to people and people according to its tongue, for every man being head in his own house—and speaking according to the language of his people.

² and servants of the king, his ministers, say, “Let them seek for the king young women, virgins, of good appearance,

³ and the king appoints inspectors in all provinces of his kingdom, and they gather every young woman—virgin, of good appearance—to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the hand of Hegai eunuch of the king, keeper of the women, and to give their purifications,

⁴ and the young woman who is good in the eyes of the king reigns instead of Vashti”; and the thing is good in the eyes of the king, and he does so.

⁵ A man, a Jew, there has been in Shushan the palace, and his name [is] Mordecai son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjamite—

⁶ who had been removed from Jerusalem with the expulsion that was removed with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed—

⁹ and the young woman is good in his eyes, and she receives kindness before him, and he hurries her purifications and her portions—to give to her, and the seven young women who are provided—to give to her, from the house of the king, and he changes her and her young women to a good [place in] the house of the women.

¹⁰ Esther has not declared her people, and her family, for Mordecai has laid a charge on her that she does not declare [it];

¹¹ and during every day Mordecai is walking up and down before the court of the house of the women to know the welfare of Esther, and what is done with her.

¹⁴ in the evening she has gone in, and in the morning she has turned back to the second house of the women, to the hand of Shaashgaz eunuch of the king, keeper of the concubines; she does not come in anymore to the king except the king has delighted in her, and she has been called by name.

¹⁶ And Esther is taken to King Ahasuerus, to his royal house, in the tenth month—it [is] the month of Tebeth—in the seventh year of his reign,

¹⁸ and the king makes a great banquet to all his heads and his servants—the banquet of Esther—and has made a release to the provinces, and gives gifts as a memorial of the king.

¹⁹ And in the virgins being gathered a second time, then Mordecai is sitting in the gate of the king;

²⁰ Esther is not declaring her family and her people, as Mordecai has laid a charge on her, and the saying of Mordecai Esther is doing as when she was truly with him.

²² and the thing is known to Mordecai, and he declares [it] to Esther the queen, and Esther speaks to the king in the name of Mordecai,

²³ and the thing is sought out, and found, and both of them are hanged on a tree, and it is written in the scroll of the Chronicles before the king.

¹ After these things has King Ahasuerus exalted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and lifts him up, and sets his throne above all the heads who [are] with him,

² and all servants of the king, who [are] in the gate of the king, are bowing and doing homage to Haman, for so the king has commanded for him; and Mordecai does not bow nor pay respect.

³ And the servants of the king, who [are] in the gate of the king, say to Mordecai, "Why [are] you transgressing the command of the king?"

⁴ And it comes to pass, in their speaking to him, day by day, and he has not listened to them, that they declare [it] to Haman, to see whether the words of Mordecai stand, for he has declared to them that he [is] a Jew.

⁵ And Haman sees that Mordecai is not bowing and doing homage to him, and Haman is full of fury,

⁶ and it is contemptible in his eyes to put forth a hand on Mordecai by himself, for they have declared to him the people of Mordecai, and Haman seeks to destroy all the Jews who [are] in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

⁸ And Haman says to King Ahasuerus, "There is one people scattered and separated among the peoples, in all provinces of your kingdom, and their laws [are] diverse from all people, and the laws of the king they are not doing, and for the king it is not profitable to permit them;

¹⁰ And the king turns aside his signet from off his hand, and gives it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, adversary of the Jews;

¹¹ and the king says to Haman, "The silver is given to you, and the people, to do with it as [it is] good in your eyes."

¹² And scribes of the king are called, on the first month, on the thirteenth day of it, and it is written according to all that Haman has commanded, to lieutenants of the king, and to the governors who [are] over province and province, and to the heads of people and people, province and province, according to its writing, and people and people according to its tongue, in the name of King Ahasuerus it has been written and sealed with the signet of the king,

¹⁴ a copy of the writing to be made law in each and every province is revealed to all the peoples, to be ready for this day.

¹⁵ The runners have gone forth, hurried by the word of the king, and the law has been given in Shushan the palace, and the king and Haman have sat down to drink, and the city Shushan is perplexed.

¹ And Mordecai has known all that has been done, and Mordecai tears his garments, and puts on sackcloth and ashes, and goes forth into the midst of the city and cries—a cry loud and bitter,

² and he comes to the front of the gate of the king, but none is to come to the gate of the king with a sackcloth-garment.

⁶ And Hatach goes out to Mordecai, to a broad place of the city, that [is] before the gate of the king,

⁷ and Mordecai declares to him all that has met him, and the explanation of the money that Haman said to weigh to the treasuries of the king for the Jews, to destroy them,

⁸ and the copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Shushan to destroy them he has given to him, to show Esther, and to declare [it] to her, and to lay a charge on her to go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to seek from before him, for her people.

⁹ And Hatach comes in and declares to Esther the words of Mordecai,

¹⁰ and Esther speaks to Hatach, and charges him for Mordecai:

¹¹ “All servants of the king, and people of the provinces of the king, know that any man and woman who comes to the king, into the inner court, who is not called—one law of his [is] to put [them] to death, apart from him to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, then he has lived; and I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days.”

¹² And they declare to Mordecai the words of Esther,

¹³ and Mordecai commands to send back to Esther: “Do not think in your soul to be delivered [in] the house of the king, more than all the Jews,

¹⁴ but if you keep entirely silent at this time, respite and deliverance remains to the Jews from another place, and you and the house of your fathers are destroyed; and who knows whether for a time like this you have come to the kingdom?”

¹⁵ And Esther commands to send back to Mordecai:

¹⁶ “Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Shushan, and fast for me, and do not eat nor drink three days, by night and by day; also I and my young women fast likewise, and so I go in to the king, that [is] not according to law, and when I have perished—I have perished.”

¹⁷ And Mordecai passes on, and does according to all that Esther has charged on him.

² and it comes to pass, at the king's seeing Esther the queen standing in the court, she has received grace in his eyes, and the king holds out to

Esther the golden scepter that [is] in his hand, and Esther draws near, and touches the top of the scepter.

³ And the king says to her, "What do you [want], Esther, O queen? And what [is] your request? To the half of the kingdom—and it is given to you."

⁴ And Esther says, "If to the king [it be] good, the king comes in, and Haman, today, to the banquet that I have made for him";

⁵ and the king says, "Hurry Haman—to do the word of Esther"; and the king comes in, and Haman, to the banquet that Esther has made.

⁶ And the king says to Esther, during the banquet of wine, "What [is] your petition? And it is given to you; and what [is] your request? To the half of the kingdom—and it is done."

⁷ And Esther answers and says, "My petition and my request [is]:

⁸ if I have found grace in the eyes of the king, and if to the king [it be] good, to give my petition, and to perform my request, the king comes, and Haman, to the banquet that I make for them, and tomorrow I do according to the word of the king."

¹⁰ And Haman forces himself, and comes into his house, and sends, and brings in his friends, and his wife Zeresh,

¹² And Haman says, "Indeed, Esther the queen brought none in with the king, to the feast that she made, except myself, and also for tomorrow I am called to her, with the king,

¹³ and all this is not profitable to me, during all the time that I am seeing Mordecai the Jew sitting in the gate of the king."

¹⁴ And his wife Zeresh says to him, and all his friends, "Let them prepare a tree, in height fifty cubits, and in the morning speak to the king, and they hang Mordecai on it, and go in with the king to the banquet rejoicing"; and the thing is good before Haman, and he prepares the tree.

² and it is found written that Mordecai had declared concerning Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs of the king, of the keepers of the threshold, who sought to put forth a hand on King Ahasuerus.

³ And the king says, "What honor and greatness has been done to Mordecai for this?" And the servants of the king, his ministers, say, "Nothing has been done with him."

⁴ And the king says, "Who [is] in the court?" And Haman has come into the outer court of the house of the king, to say to the king to hang Mordecai on the tree that he had prepared for him.

⁵ And the servants of the king say to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the court"; and the king says, "Let him come in."

⁶ And Haman comes in, and the king says to him, "What should [I] do with the man in whose honor the king has delighted?" And Haman says in his heart, "To whom does the king delight to do honor more than myself?"

⁷ And Haman says to the king, "The man in whose honor the king has delighted,

⁸ let them bring in royal clothing that the king has put on himself, and a horse on which the king has ridden, and that the royal crown be put on his head,

⁹ and to give the clothing and the horse into the hand of a man of the heads of the king, the chiefs, and they have clothed the man in whose honor the king has delighted, and caused him to ride on the horse in a broad place of the city, and called before him: Thus it is done to the man in whose honor the king has delighted."

¹⁰ And the king says to Haman, "Hurry, take the clothing and the horse, as you have spoken, and do so to Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting in the gate of the king; there does not fall a thing of all that you have spoken."

¹¹ And Haman takes the clothing, and the horse, and clothed Mordecai, and causes him to ride in a broad place of the city, and calls before him, "Thus it is done to the man in whose glory the king has delighted."

¹² And Mordecai turns back to the gate of the king, and Haman has been hurried to his house mourning, and with covered head,

¹⁴ They are yet speaking with him, and eunuchs of the king have come, and hurry to bring in Haman to the banquet that Esther has made.

¹ And the king comes in, and Haman, to drink with Esther the queen,

² and the king says to Esther also on the second day, during the banquet of wine, "What [is] your petition, Esther, O queen? And it is given to you; and what [is] your request? To the half of the kingdom—and it is done."

³ And Esther the queen answers and says, "If I have found grace in your eyes, O king, and if to the king [it be] good, let my life be given to me at my petition, and my people at my request;

⁴ for we have been sold, I and my people, to cut off, to slay, and to destroy; and if for menservants and for maidservants we had been sold I had kept silent—but the adversity is not equal to the loss of the king."

⁵ And King Ahasuerus says, indeed, he says to Esther the queen, "Who [is] he—this one? And where [is] this one whose heart has filled him to do so?"

⁶ And Esther says, "The man—adversary and enemy—[is] this wicked Haman"; and Haman has been afraid at the presence of the king and of the queen.

⁸ And the king has turned back out of the garden of the house to the house of the banquet of wine, and Haman is falling on the couch on which

Esther [is], and the king says, “Also to subdue the queen with me in the house?” The word has gone out from the mouth of the king, and the face of Haman they have covered.

⁹ And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, says before the king, “Also behold, the tree that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing in the house of Haman, in height fifty cubits”; and the king says, “Hang him on it.”

¹⁰ And they hang Haman on the tree that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the fury of the king has lain down.

¹ On that day has King Ahasuerus given to Esther the queen the house of Haman, adversary of the Jews, and Mordecai has come in before the king, for Esther has declared what he [is] to her,

² and the king turns aside his signet, that he has caused to pass away from Haman, and gives it to Mordecai, and Esther sets Mordecai over the house of Haman.

⁴ and the king holds out to Esther the golden scepter, and Esther rises, and stands before the king,

⁵ and says, “If to the king [it be] good, and if I have found grace before him, and the thing has been right before the king, and I [am] good in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters—a scheme of Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite—that he wrote to destroy the Jews who [are] in all provinces of the king,

⁶ for how do I endure when I have looked on the evil that finds my people? And how do I endure when I have looked on the destruction of my family?”

⁷ And King Ahasuerus says to Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, the house of Haman I have given to Esther, and him they have hanged on the tree, because that he put forth his hand on the Jews,

⁹ And the scribes of the king are called, at that time, in the third month—it [is] the month of Sivan—in the twenty-third [day] of it, and it is written, according to all that Mordecai has commanded, to the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the governors, and the heads of the provinces, that [are] from Hodu even to Cush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces—province and province according to its writing, and people and people according to its tongue, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their tongue.

¹¹ that the king has given to the Jews who [are] in each and every city, to be assembled, and to stand for their life, to cut off, to slay, and to destroy the whole force of the people and province who are distressing them, infants and women, and their spoil to seize.

¹² In one day, in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month—it [is] the month of Adar—

¹⁴ The runners, riding on the dromedary, [and] the mules, have gone out, hurried and pressed by the word of the king, and the law has been given in Shushan the palace.

¹⁵ And Mordecai went out from before the king, in royal clothing of blue and white, and a great crown of gold, and a garment of fine linen and purple, and the city of Shushan has rejoiced and been glad;

¹⁶ to the Jews has been light, and gladness, and joy, and honor,

¹⁷ and in each and every province, and in each and every city, the place where the word of the king, even his law, is coming, gladness and joy [are] to the Jews, a banquet, and a good day; and many of the peoples of the land are becoming Jews, for a fear of the Jews has fallen on them.

¹ And in the twelfth month—it [is] the month of Adar—on the thirteenth day of it, in which the word of the king, even his law, has come to be done, in the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to rule over them, and it is turned that the Jews rule over those hating them—

² the Jews have been assembled in their cities, in all provinces of King Ahasuerus, to put forth a hand on those seeking their evil, and no man has stood in their presence, for their fear has fallen on all the peoples.

³ And all heads of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the governors, and those doing the work that the king has, are lifting up the Jews, for a fear of Mordecai has fallen on them;

⁴ for great [is] Mordecai in the house of the king, and his fame is going into all the provinces, for the man Mordecai is going on and becoming great.

⁵ And the Jews strike among all their enemies—a striking of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction—and do with those hating them according to their pleasure,

⁶ and in Shushan the palace the Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men;

⁷ and Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

⁸ and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

⁹ and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

¹⁰ ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, adversary of the Jews, they have slain, and on the prey they have not put forth their hand.

¹¹ On that day has come the number of the slain in Shushan the palace before the king,

¹² and the king says to Esther the queen, “In Shushan the palace the Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men, and the ten sons of Haman; in the rest of the provinces of the king what have they done? And what [is] your petition? And it is given to you; and what your request again? And it is done.”

¹³ And Esther says, "If [it is] good to the king, let it also be given tomorrow, to the Jews who [are] in Shushan, to do according to the law of today; and the ten sons of Haman they hang on the tree."

¹⁴ And the king commands [for it] to be done so; and a law is given in Shushan, and they have hanged the ten sons of Haman.

¹⁵ And the Jews who [are] in Shushan are also assembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they slay three hundred men in Shushan, and they have not put forth their hand on the prey.

¹⁷ on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, even to rest on the fourteenth of it, and to make it a day of banquet and of joy.

²⁰ And Mordecai writes these things, and sends letters to all the Jews who [are] in all provinces of King Ahasuerus, who are near and who are far off,

²¹ to establish on them, to be keeping the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and the fifteenth day of it, in every year and year,

²² as days on which the Jews have rested from their enemies, and the month that has been turned to them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning to a good day, to make them days of banquet and of joy, and of sending portions to one another, and gifts to the needy.

²³ And the Jews have received that which they had begun to do, and that which Mordecai has written to them,

²⁵ and in her coming in before the king, he commanded with the letter, "Let his evil scheme that he devised against the Jews return on his own head," and they have hanged him and his sons on the tree,

²⁶ therefore they have called these days Purim—by the name of the lot—therefore, because of all the words of this letter, and what they have seen concerning this, and what has come to them,

²⁷ the Jews have established and received on them, and on their seed, and on all those joined to them, and it does not pass away, to be keeping these two days according to their writing, and according to their season, in every year and year;

²⁹ And Esther the queen, daughter of Abihail, writes, and Mordecai the Jew, with all might, to establish this second letter of Purim,

³⁰ and he sends letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus—words of peace and truth—

³² And a saying of Esther has established these matters of Purim, and it is written in the Scroll.

² and all the work of his strength, and his might, and the explanation of the greatness of Mordecai with which the king made him great, are they not written on the scroll of the Chronicles of Media and Persia?

³ For Mordecai the Jew [is] second to King Ahasuerus, and a great man of the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brothers, seeking good for his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

Job

¹ There has been a man in the land of Uz—his name Job—and that man has been perfect and upright—both fearing God, and turning aside from evil.

² And seven sons and three daughters are borne to him,

⁴ And his sons have gone and made a banquet—the house of each [in] his day—and have sent and called to their three sisters to eat and to drink with them;

⁵ and it comes to pass, when they have gone around the days of the banquet, that Job sends and sanctifies them, and has risen early in the morning, and caused burnt-offerings to ascend—the number of them all—for Job said, “Perhaps my sons have sinned, yet blessed God in their heart.” Thus Job does all the days.

⁶ And the day is, that sons of God come to station themselves by YHWH, and there also comes Satan in their midst.

⁷ And YHWH says to Satan, “Where do you come from?” And Satan answers YHWH and says, “From going to and fro in the land, and from walking up and down on it.”

⁸ And YHWH says to Satan, “Have you set your heart against My servant Job because there is none like him in the land, a man perfect and upright, fearing God, and turning aside from evil?”

⁹ And Satan answers YHWH and says, “Is Job fearing God for nothing?”

¹⁰ Have You not made a hedge for him, and for his house, and for all that he has—all around?

¹¹ You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance has spread in the land, and yet, put forth Your hand now, and strike against anything that he has—if not, he blesses You to Your face!”

¹² And YHWH says to Satan, “Behold, all that he has [is] in your hand, only do not put forth your hand to him.” And Satan goes out from the presence of YHWH.

¹³ And the day is, that his sons and his daughters are eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the firstborn.

¹⁴ And a messenger has come to Job and says, “The oxen have been plowing, and the female donkeys feeding by their sides,

¹⁵ and Sheba falls, and takes them, and they have struck the young men by the mouth of the sword, and I have escaped—only I alone—to declare [it] to you.”

¹⁶ While this [one] is speaking another has also come and says, “Fire of God has fallen from the heavens, and burns among the flock, and among the young men, and consumes them, and I have escaped—only I alone—to declare [it] to you.”

¹⁷ While this [one] is speaking another also has come and says, “Chaldeans made three heads, and rush on the camels, and take them, and they have struck the young men by the mouth of the sword, and I have escaped—only I alone—to declare [it] to you.”

¹⁸ While this [one] is speaking another has also come and says, “Your sons and your daughters are eating, and drinking wine, in the house of their brother, the firstborn.

¹⁹ And behold, a great wind has come from over the wilderness, and strikes against the four corners of the house, and it falls on the young men, and they are dead, and I have escaped—only I alone—to declare [it] to you.”

²⁰ And Job rises, and tears his robe, and shaves his head, and falls to the earth, and pays respect,

²¹ and he says, “I came forth naked from the womb of my mother, | | And naked I return there. YHWH has given and YHWH has taken; Let the Name of YHWH be blessed.”

²² In all this Job has not sinned, nor given folly to God.

¹ And the day is, that sons of God come to station themselves by YHWH, and there also comes Satan in their midst to station himself by YHWH.

² And YHWH says to Satan, “From where have you come?” And Satan answers YHWH and says, “From going to and fro in the land, and from walking up and down in it.”

³ And YHWH says to Satan, “Have you set your heart to My servant Job because there is none like him in the land, a man perfect and upright, fearing God and turning aside from evil? And still he is keeping hold on his integrity, and you move Me against him to swallow him up for nothing!”

⁴ And Satan answers YHWH and says, “A skin for a skin, and all that a man has he gives for his life.

⁵ Yet, put forth Your hand now, and strike to his bone and to his flesh—if not, he blesses You to Your face!”

⁶ And YHWH says to Satan, “Behold, he [is] in your hand; only take care of his life.”

⁷ And Satan goes forth from the presence of YHWH, and strikes Job with a severe ulcer from the sole of his foot to his crown.

⁸ And he takes to him a potsherd to scrape himself with it, and he is sitting in the midst of the ashes.

⁹ And his wife says to him, “You are still keeping hold on your integrity: bless God and die.”

¹¹ And three of the friends of Job hear of all this evil that has come on him, and they each come in from his place—Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite—and they have met together to come to bemoan him, and to comfort him;

¹² and they lift up their eyes from afar and have not discerned him, and they lift up their voice and weep, and each tears his robe, and sprinkle dust on their heads—heavenward.

¹³ And they sit with him on the earth seven days and seven nights, and there is none speaking to him a word when they have seen that the pain has been very great.

² And Job answers and says:

³ "Let the day perish in which I am born, || And the night that has said:
A man-child has been conceived.

⁴ That day—let it be darkness, || Do not let God require it from above,
|| Nor let light shine on it.

⁵ Let darkness and death-shade redeem it, || Let a cloud dwell on it, ||
Let them terrify it as the most bitter of days.

⁶ That night—let thick darkness take it, || Let it not be united to days of the year, || Let it not come into the number of months.

⁷ Behold! That night—let it be barren, || Let no singing come into it.

⁸ Let the cursers of day mark it, || Who are ready to wake up Leviathan.

⁹ Let the stars of its twilight be dark, || Let it wait for light, and there is none, || And let it not look on the eyelids of the dawn.

¹⁰ Because it has not shut the doors || Of the womb that was mine! And hide misery from my eyes.

¹¹ Why do I not die from the womb? I have come forth from the belly and gasp!

¹² Why have knees been before me? And what [are] breasts, that I suck?

¹³ For now, I have lain down, and am quiet, I have slept—then there is rest to me,

¹⁴ With kings and counselors of earth, || These building ruins for themselves.

¹⁵ Or with princes—they have gold, || They are filling their houses [with] silver.

¹⁶ (Or I am not as a hidden abortion, || As infants—they have not seen light.)

¹⁷ There the wicked have ceased troubling, || And there the wearied rest in power.

¹⁸ Together prisoners have been at ease, || They have not heard the voice of an exactor,

¹⁹ Small and great [are] the same there. And a servant [is] free from his lord.

²⁰ Why does He give light to the miserable, and life to the bitter soul?

²¹ Who are waiting for death, and it is not, || And they seek it above hid treasures.

²² Who are glad—to joy, || They rejoice when they find a grave.

²³ To a man whose way has been hidden, || And whom God shuts up?

²⁴ For before my food, my sighing comes, || And my roarings [are] poured out as waters.

²⁵ For I feared a fear and it meets me, || And what I was afraid of comes to me.

²⁶ I was not safe—nor was I quiet—Nor was I at rest—and trouble comes!"

¹ And Eliphaz the Temanite answers and says:

² "Has one tried a word with you? You are weary! And who is able to keep in words?"

³ Behold, you have instructed many, || And feeble hands you make strong.

⁴ Your words raise up the stumbling one, || And you strengthen bowing knees.

⁵ But now, it comes to you, || And you are weary; It strikes to you, and you are troubled.

⁶ Is your reverence not your confidence? Your hope—the perfection of your ways?

⁷ Now remember, || Who, being innocent, has perished? And where have the upright been cut off?

⁸ As I have seen—plowers of iniquity, || And sowers of misery, reap it!

⁹ From the breath of God they perish, || And from the spirit of His anger [are] consumed.

¹⁰ The roaring of a lion, || And the voice of a fierce lion, || And teeth of young lions have been broken.

¹¹ An old lion is perishing without prey, || And the whelps of the lioness separate.

¹² And a thing is secretly brought to me, || And my ear receives a little of it.

¹³ In thoughts from visions of the night, || In the falling of deep sleep on men,

¹⁴ Fear has met me, and trembling, || And the multitude of my bones caused to fear.

¹⁵ And a spirit passes before my face, || The hair of my flesh stands up;

¹⁶ It stands, and I do not discern its aspect, || A likeness [is] before my eyes, || Silence! And I hear a voice:

¹⁷ Is mortal man more righteous than God? Is a man cleaner than his Maker?

¹⁸ Behold, He puts no credence in His servants, || Nor sets praise in His messengers.

¹⁹ Also—the inhabitants of houses of clay || (Whose foundation [is] in the dust, || They bruise them before a moth).

²⁰ From morning to evening are beaten down, || Without any regarding, they perish forever.

²¹ Has their excellence not been removed with them? They die, and not in wisdom!"

¹ "Pray, call, is there any to answer you? And to which of the holy ones do you turn?"

² For provocation slays the perverse, || And envy puts to death the simple,

³ I have seen the perverse taking root, || And I mark his habitation straight away,

⁴ His sons are far from safety, || And they are bruised in the gate, || And there is no deliverer.

⁵ Whose harvest the hungry eat, || And even take it from the thorns, || And the designing swallowed their wealth.

⁶ For sorrow does not come forth from the dust, || Nor does misery spring up from the ground.

⁷ For man is born to misery, || And the sparks go high to fly.

⁸ Yet I inquire for God, || And for God I give my word,

⁹ Doing great things, and there is no searching. Wonderful, until there is no numbering.

¹⁰ Who is giving rain on the face of the land, || And is sending waters on the out-places.

¹¹ To set the low on a high place, || And the mourners have been high [in] safety.

¹² Making void thoughts of the cunning, || And their hands do not execute wisdom.

¹³ Capturing the wise in their subtlety, || And the counsel of wrestling ones was hurried,

¹⁴ By day they meet darkness, || And as night—they grope at noon.

¹⁵ He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth, || And from a strong hand,

¹⁶ And there is hope for the poor, || And perverseness has shut her mouth.

¹⁷ Behold, the blessedness of mortal man, || God reproves him: And do not despise the discipline of the Mighty,

¹⁸ For He pains, and He binds up, || He strikes, and His hands heal.

¹⁹ In six distresses He delivers you, || And in seven evil does not strike on you.

²⁰ In famine He has redeemed you from death, || And in battle from the hands of the sword.

²¹ When the tongue scourges you are hid, || And you are not afraid of destruction, || When it comes.

²² At destruction and at hunger you mock, || And of the beast of the earth, || You are not afraid.

²³ (For with sons of the field [is] your covenant, || And the beast of the field || Has been at peace with you.)

²⁴ And you have known that your tent [is] peace, || And inspected your habitation, and do not err,

²⁵ And have known that your seed [is] numerous, || And your offspring as the herb of the earth;

²⁷ Behold, this—we searched it out—it [is] right, listen; And you, know for yourself!"

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "O that my provocation were thoroughly weighed, || And my calamity in balances || They would lift up together!

³ For now it is heavier than the sands of the sea, || Therefore my words have been rash.

⁴ For arrows of the Mighty [are] with me, || Whose poison is drinking up my spirit. Terrors of God array themselves [for] me!

⁵ Does a wild donkey bray over tender grass? Does an ox low over his provender?

⁶ Is an insipid thing eaten without salt? Is there sense in the drivel of dreams?

⁷ My soul is refusing to touch! They [are] as my sickening food.

8 O that my request may come, || That God may grant my hope!

9 That God would please—and bruise me, || Loose His hand and cut me off!

10 And yet it is my comfort || (And I exult in pain—He does not spare), || That I have not hidden || The sayings of the Holy One.

11 What [is] my power that I should hope? And what [is] my end that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Is my flesh bronze?

13 Is my help not with me, || And substance driven from me?

14 To a despiser of his friends [is] shame, || And the fear of the Mighty he forsakes.

15 My brothers have deceived as a brook, || As a stream of brooks they pass away.

16 That are black because of ice, || By them snow hides itself.

17 By the time they are warm they have been cut off, || By its being hot they have been || Extinguished from their place.

18 The paths turn aside of their way, || They ascend into emptiness, and are lost.

19 Passengers of Tema looked expectingly, || Travelers of Sheba hoped for them.

20 They were ashamed that one has trusted, || They have come to it and are confounded.

21 Surely now you have become the same! You see a downfall, and are afraid.

22 Is it because I said, Give to me? And, By your power bribe for me?

23 And, Deliver me from the hand of an adversary? And, Ransom me from the hand of terrible ones?

24 Show me, and I keep silent, || And what I have erred, let me understand.

25 How powerful have been upright sayings, || And what reproof from you reproves?

26 For reproof—do you reckon words? And for wind—sayings of the desperate?

27 You cause anger to fall on the fatherless, || And are strange to your friend.

28 And now, please, look on me, || Even to your face do I lie?

29 Please turn back, let it not be perverseness, || Indeed, turn back again—my righteousness [is] in it.

30 Is there perverseness in my tongue? Does my palate not discern calamity?"

1 "Is there not warfare to man on earth? And his days as the days of a hired worker?

2 As a servant desires the shadow, || And as a hired worker expects his wage,

3 So I have been caused to inherit months of vanity, || And they numbered nights of misery to me.

4 If I lay down, then I have said, When do I rise, || And evening has been measured? And I have been full of tossings until dawn.

⁵ My flesh has been clothed [with] worms, || And a clod of dust, || My skin has been shriveled and is loathsome,

⁶ My days swifter than a loom, || And they are consumed without hope.

⁷ Remember that my life [is] a breath, || My eye does not turn back to see good.

⁸ The eye of my beholder does not behold me. Your eyes [are] on me—and I am not.

⁹ A cloud has been consumed, and it goes, || So he who is going down to Sheol does not come up.

¹⁰ He does not turn to his house again, || Nor does his place discern him again.

¹¹ Also I do not withhold my mouth—I speak in the distress of my spirit, I talk in the bitterness of my soul.

¹² Am I a sea [monster], or a dragon, || That You set a watch over me?

¹³ When I said, My bed comforts me, || In my talking He takes away my couch.

¹⁴ And You have frightened me with dreams, || And You terrify me from visions,

¹⁵ And my soul chooses strangling, || Death rather than my bones.

¹⁶ I have wasted away—I do not live for all time. Cease from me, for my days [are] vanity.

¹⁷ What [is] man that You magnify him? And that You set Your heart to him?

¹⁸ And inspect him in the mornings, || [And] in the evenings try him?

¹⁹ How long do You not look from me? You do not desist until I swallow my spittle.

²⁰ I have sinned, what do I do to You, || O watcher of man? Why have You set me for a mark to You, || And I am for a burden to myself—and what?

²¹ You do not take away my transgression, || And [do not] cause my iniquity to pass away, || Because now, I lie down in dust, || And You have sought me—and I am not!"

¹ And Bildad the Shuhite answers and says:

² "Until when do you speak these things? And a strong wind—sayings of your mouth?

³ Does God pervert judgment? And does the Mighty One pervert justice?

⁴ If your sons have sinned before Him, || And He sends them away, || By the hand of their transgression,

⁵ If you seek for God early, || And make supplication to the Mighty,

⁶ If you [are] pure and upright, || Surely now He wakes for you, || And has completed || The habitation of your righteousness.

⁷ And your beginning has been small, || And your latter end is very great.

⁸ For inquire, please, of a former generation, || And prepare for a search of their fathers,

⁹ For we [are] of yesterday, and we do not know, || For our days [are] a shadow on earth.

¹⁰ Do they not show you—speak to you, || And from their heart bring forth words?

¹¹ Does a rush rise without a marsh? A reed increase without water?

¹² While it [is] in its budding—uncropped, || Even before any herb it withers.

¹³ So [are] the paths of all forgetting God, || And the hope of the profane perishes,

¹⁴ Whose confidence is loathsome, || And the house of a spider his trust.

¹⁵ He leans on his house—and it does not stand, || He takes hold on it—and it does not abide.

¹⁶ He [is] green before the sun, || And over his garden his branch goes out.

¹⁷ His roots are wrapped by a heap, || He looks for a house of stones.

¹⁸ If [one] destroys him from his place, || Then it has feigned concerning him, || I have not seen you!

¹⁹ Behold, this [is] the joy of His way, || And from the dust others spring up.

²⁰ Behold, God does not reject the perfect, || Nor takes hold on the hand of evildoers.

²¹ While He fills your mouth with laughter, || And your lips with shouting,

²² Those hating you put on shame, || And the tent of the wicked is not!"

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "Truly I have known that [it is] so, || But how is man righteous with God?

³ If he delights to strive with Him—He does not answer him one of a thousand.

⁴ Wise in heart and strong in power—Who has hardened toward Him and is at peace?

⁵ Who is removing mountains, || And they have not known, || Who has overturned them in His anger.

⁶ Who is shaking earth from its place, || And its pillars move themselves.

⁷ Who is commanding to the sun, and it does not rise, || And the stars He seals up.

⁸ Stretching out the heavens by Himself, || And treading on the heights of the sea,

⁹ Making the Great Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, || And the inner chambers of the south.

¹⁰ Doing great things until there is no searching, || And wonderful, until there is no numbering.

¹¹ Behold, He goes over by me, and I do not see, || And He passes on, and I do not attend to it.

¹² Behold, He snatches away, who brings it back? Who says to Him, What [are] You doing?

¹³ God does not turn back His anger, || Proud helpers have bowed under Him.

¹⁴ How much less do I answer Him? Choose out my words with Him?

¹⁵ Whom, though I were righteous, I do not answer, || For my judgment I make supplication.

¹⁶ Though I had called and He answers me, I do not believe that He gives ear [to] my voice.

¹⁷ Because He bruises me with a storm, || And has multiplied my wounds for nothing.

¹⁸ He does not permit me to refresh my spirit, || But fills me with bitter things.

¹⁹ If of power, behold, the Strong One; And if of judgment—who convenes me?

²⁰ If I am righteous, my mouth declares me wicked; [If] I am perfect, it declares me perverse.

²¹ I am perfect; I do not know my soul, I despise my life.

²² It is the same thing, therefore I said, || He is consuming the perfect and the wicked.

²³ If a scourge puts to death suddenly, He laughs at the trial of the innocent.

²⁴ Earth has been given || Into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of her judges, || If not—where, who [is] he?

²⁵ My days have been swifter than a runner, || They have fled, they have not seen good,

²⁶ They have passed on with ships of reed, || As an eagle darts on food.

²⁷ Though I say, I forget my talking, || I forsake my corner, and I brighten up!

²⁸ I have been afraid of all my griefs, || I have known that You do not acquit me.

²⁹ I become wicked; why [is] this? I labor [in] vain.

³⁰ If I have washed myself with snow-water, || And purified my hands with soap,

³¹ Then You dip me in corruption, || And my garments have detested me.

³² But if a man like myself—I answer Him, || We come together into judgment.

³³ If there were a mediator between us, || He places his hand on us both.

³⁴ He turns aside His rod from off me, || And His terror does not make me afraid,

³⁵ I speak, and do not fear Him, but I am not right with myself.”

¹ “My soul has been weary of my life, I leave off my talking to myself, I speak in the bitterness of my soul.

² I say to God, Do not condemn me, || Let me know why You strive [with] me.

³ Is it good for You that You oppress? That You despise the labor of Your hands, || And shine on the counsel of the wicked?

⁴ Do you have eyes of flesh? Do You see as man sees?

⁵ [Are] Your days as the days of man? Your years as the days of a man?

⁶ That You inquire for my iniquity, || And seek for my sin?

⁷ For You know that I am not wicked, || And there is no deliverer from Your hand.

⁸ Your hands have taken pains about me, || And they make me together all around, || And You swallow me up!

⁹ Please remember || That You have made me as clay, || And You bring me back to dust.

¹⁰ Do You not pour me out as milk? And curdle me as cheese?

¹¹ Skin and flesh You put on me, || And fence me with bones and sinews.

¹² Life and kindness You have done with me. And Your inspection has preserved my spirit.

¹³ And these You have laid up in Your heart, I have known that this [is] with You.

¹⁴ If I sinned, then You have observed me, || And do not acquit me from my iniquity,

¹⁵ If I have done wickedly—woe to me, || And righteously—I do not lift up my head, || Full of shame—then see my affliction,

¹⁶ And it rises—as a lion You hunt me. And You turn back—You show Yourself wonderful in me.

¹⁷ You renew Your witnesses against me, and multiply Your anger with me, || Changes and warfare [are] with me.

¹⁸ And why from the womb || Have You brought me forth? I expire, and the eye does not see me.

¹⁹ I am as [if] I had not been, || I am brought from the belly to the grave,

²⁰ Are my days not few? Cease then, and put from me, || And I brighten up a little,

²¹ Before I go, and do not return, || To a land of darkness and death-shade,

²² A land of obscurity as thick darkness, || Death-shade—and no order, || And the shining [is] as thick darkness.”

¹ And Zophar the Naamathite answers and says:

² “Is a multitude of words not answered? And is a man of lips justified?

³ Your boastings make men keep silent, || You scorn, and none is causing blushing!

⁴ And you say, My discourse [is] pure, || And I have been clean in Your eyes.

⁵ And yet, O that God had spoken! And opens His lips with you.

⁶ And declares to you secrets of wisdom, for counsel has foldings. And know that God forgets of your iniquity for you.

⁷ Do you find out God by searching? To perfection find out the Mighty One?

⁸ Heights of the heavens—what [can] you do? Deeper than Sheol—what [can] you know?

⁹ Its measure [is] longer than earth, and broader than the sea.

¹⁰ If He passes on, and shuts up, and assembles, || Who then reverses it?

¹¹ For He has known men of vanity, || And He sees iniquity, || And one does not consider [it]!

¹² And empty man is bold, || And man is born [as] the colt of a wild donkey.

¹³ If you have prepared your heart, || And have spread out your hands to Him,

¹⁴ If iniquity [is] in your hand, put it far off, || And do not let perverseness dwell in your tents.

¹⁵ For then you lift up your face from blemish, || And you have been firm, and do not fear.

16 For you forget misery, || As waters passed away you remember.

17 And age rises above the noon, || You fly—you are as the morning.

18 And you have trusted because there is hope, || And searched—in confidence you lie down,

19 And you have rested, || And none is causing trembling, || And many have begged [at] your face;

20 And the eyes of the wicked are consumed, || And refuge has perished from them, || And their hope [is] a breathing out of soul!"

12

1 And Job answers and says:

2 "Truly—you [are] the people, and wisdom dies with you.

3 I also have a heart like you, I am not fallen more than you, || And with whom is there not like these?

4 I am a laughter to his friend: He calls to God, and He answers him, || A laughter [is] the perfect righteous one.

5 A torch—despised in the thoughts of the secure || Is prepared for those sliding with the feet.

6 The tents of spoilers are at peace, || And those provoking God have confidence, || Into whose hand God has brought.

7 And yet, now ask [one of] the beasts, || And it shows you, || And a bird of the heavens, || And it declares to you.

8 Or talk to the earth, and it shows you, || And fishes of the sea recount to you:

9 Who has not known in all these, || That the hand of YHWH has done this?

10 In whose hand [is] the breath of every living thing, || And the spirit of all flesh of man.

11 Does the ear not try words? And the palate taste food for itself?

12 With the very aged [is] wisdom, || And [with] length of days [is] understanding.

13 With Him [are] wisdom and might, || To Him [are] counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, He breaks down, and it is not built up, || He shuts against a man, || And it is not opened.

15 Behold, He keeps in the waters, and they are dried up, || And He sends them forth, || And they overturn the land.

16 With Him [are] strength and wisdom, || His the deceived and deceiver.

17 Causing counselors to go away [as] a spoil, || Indeed, He makes fools of judges.

18 He has opened the bands of kings, || And He binds a girdle on their loins.

19 Causing ministers to go away [as] a spoil || And strong ones He overthrows.

20 Turning aside the lip of the steadfast, || And the reason of the aged He takes away.

21 Pouring contempt on princes, || And the girdle of the mighty He made feeble.

22 Removing deep things out of darkness, || And He brings out to light death-shade.

²³ Magnifying the nations, and He destroys them, || Spreading out the nations, and He quiets them.

²⁴ Turning aside the heart || Of the heads of the people of the land, || And He causes them to wander || In vacancy—no way!

²⁵ They feel darkness, and not light, || He causes them to wander as a drunkard.”

¹ “Behold, my eye has seen all, || My ear has heard, and it attends to it.

² According to your knowledge I have known—also I. I am not more fallen than you.

³ Yet I speak for the Mighty One, || And I delight to argue for God.

⁴ And yet, you [are] forgers of falsehood, || Physicians of nothing—all of you,

⁵ O that you would keep perfectly silent, || And it would be to you for wisdom.

⁶ Please hear my argument, || And attend to the pleadings of my lips,

⁷ Do you speak perverseness for God? And do you speak deceit for Him?

⁸ Do you accept His face, if you strive for God?

⁹ Is [it] good that He searches you, || If, as one mocks at a man, you mock at Him?

¹⁰ He surely reproves you, if you accept faces in secret.

¹¹ Does His excellence not terrify you? And His dread fall on you?

¹² Your remembrances [are] allegories of ashes, || For high places of clay [are] your heights.

¹³ Keep silent from me, and I speak, || And pass over me what will.

¹⁴ Why do I take my flesh in my teeth? And my soul put in my hand?

¹⁵ Behold, He slays me—I do not wait! Only, I argue my ways to His face.

¹⁶ Also—He [is] to me for salvation, || For the profane do not come before Him.

¹⁷ Hear my word diligently, || And my declaration with your ears.

¹⁸ Now behold, I have set the cause in order, || I have known that I am righteous.

¹⁹ Who [is] he that strives with me? For now I keep silent and gasp.

²⁰ Only two things, O God, do with me, || Then I am not hidden from Your face:

²¹ Put Your hand far off from me, || And do not let Your terror terrify me.

²² And You call, and I answer, || Or—I speak, and You answer me.

²³ How many iniquities and sins do I have? Let me know my transgression and my sin.

²⁴ Why do You hide Your face? And reckon me for an enemy to You?

²⁵ Do You terrify a leaf driven away? And do You pursue the dry stubble?

²⁶ For You write bitter things against me, || And cause me to possess iniquities of my youth,

²⁷ And you put my feet in the stocks, || And observe all my paths—You set a print on the roots of my feet,

²⁸ And he, as a rotten thing, wears away, || A moth has consumed him as a garment.”

¹ “Man, born of woman! Of few days, and full of trouble!

² As a flower he has gone forth, and is cut off, || And he flees as a shadow and does not stand.

³ Also—on this You have opened Your eyes, and bring me into judgment with You.

⁴ Who gives a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one.

⁵ If his days are determined, || The number of his months [are] with You, || You have made his limit, || And he does not pass over;

⁶ Look away from off him that he may cease, || Until he enjoy as a hired worker his day.

⁷ For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, || That it changes again, || That its tender branch does not cease.

⁸ If its root becomes old in the earth, || And its stem dies in the dust,

⁹ From the fragrance of water it flourishes, || And has made a crop as a plant.

¹⁰ And a man dies, and becomes weak, || And man expires, and where [is] he?

¹¹ Waters have gone away from a sea, || And a river becomes waste and dry.

¹² And man has lain down, and does not rise, || Until the wearing out of the heavens they do not awaken, || Nor are roused from their sleep.

¹³ O that You would conceal me in Sheol, || Hide me until the turning of Your anger, || Set a limit for me, and remember me.

¹⁴ If a man dies—does he revive? All [the] days of my warfare I wait, until my change comes.

¹⁵ You call, and I answer You; To the work of Your hands You have desire.

¹⁶ But now, You number my steps, || You do not watch over my sin.

¹⁷ My transgression [is] sealed up in a bag, and You sew up my iniquity.

¹⁸ And yet, a falling mountain wastes away, and a rock is removed from its place.

¹⁹ Waters have worn away stones, || Their outpourings wash away the dust of earth, || And You have destroyed the hope of man.

²⁰ You prevail [over] him forever, and he goes, || He is changing his countenance, || And You send him away.

²² Only—his flesh is pained for him, || And his soul mourns for him.”

¹ And Eliphaz the Temanite answers and says:

² “Does a wise man answer [with] vain knowledge? And fill his belly [with] an east wind?

³ To reason with a word not useful? And speeches—no profit in them?

⁴ Indeed, you make reverence void, and diminish meditation before God.

⁵ For your mouth teaches your iniquity, || And you choose the tongue of the cunning.

⁶ Your mouth declares you wicked, and not I, || And your lips testify against you.

⁷ Are you the first man born? And were you formed before the heights?

⁸ Do you hear of the secret counsel of God? And withdraw wisdom to you?

⁹ What have you known, and we do not know? [What] do you understand, and it is not with us?

¹⁰ Both the gray-headed || And the very aged [are] among us—Greater than your father [in] days.

¹¹ Are the comforts of God too few for you? And a gentle word [is] with you, ¹² Why does your heart take you away? And why are your eyes high?

¹³ Do you turn your spirit against God? And have brought out words from your mouth:

¹⁴ What [is] man that he is pure, || And that he is righteous, one born of woman?

¹⁵ Behold, He puts no credence in His holy ones, || And the heavens have not been pure in His eyes.

¹⁶ Also—surely abominable and filthy || Is man drinking perverseness as water.

¹⁷ I show you—listen to me—And this I have seen and declare,

¹⁸ Which the wise declare—And have not hid—from their fathers.

¹⁹ To them alone was the land given, || And a stranger did not pass over into their midst:

²⁰ All [the] days of the wicked he is paining himself, || And few years have been laid up for the terrible one.

²¹ A fearful voice [is] in his ears, || In peace a destroyer comes to him.

²² He does not believe to return from darkness, || And he watches for the sword.

²³ He is wandering for bread: Where [is] it? He has known that ready at his hand || Is a day of darkness.

²⁴ Adversity and distress terrify him, || They prevail over him as a king ready for a boaster.

²⁵ For he stretched out his hand against God, || And against the Mighty he makes himself mighty.

²⁶ He runs to Him with a neck, || With thick bosses of his shields.

²⁷ For he has covered his face with his fat, || And makes vigor over [his] confidence.

²⁸ And he inhabits cities cut off, houses not dwelt in, || That have been ready to become heaps.

²⁹ He is not rich, nor does his wealth rise, || Nor does he stretch out their continuance on earth.

³⁰ He does not turn aside from darkness, || A flame dries up his tender branch, || And he turns aside at the breath of His mouth!

³¹ Do not let him put credence in vanity, || He has been deceived, || For vanity is his exchange.

³² It is not completed in his day, || And his bending branch is not green.

³³ He shakes off his unripe fruit as a vine, || And casts off his blossom as an olive.

³⁴ For the company of the profane [is] barren, || And fire has consumed tents of bribery.

³⁵ To conceive misery, and to bear iniquity, || Even their heart prepares deceit.”

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "I have heard many such things, || Miserable comforters [are] you all.

³ Is there an end to words of wind? Or what emboldens you that you answer?

⁴ I also, like you, might speak, || If your soul were in my soul's stead. I might join against you with words, || And nod at you with my head.

⁵ I might harden you with my mouth, || And the moving of my lips might be sparing.

⁶ If I speak, my pain is not restrained, || And I cease—what goes from me?

⁷ Only, now, it has wearied me; You have desolated all my company,

⁸ And You loathe me, || For it has been a witness, || And my failure rises up against me, || It testifies in my face.

⁹ His anger has torn, and He hates me, || He has gnashed at me with His teeth, || My adversary sharpens His eyes for me.

¹⁰ They have gaped on me with their mouth, || In reproach they have struck my cheeks, || Together they set themselves against me.

¹¹ God shuts me up to the perverse, || And turns me over to the hands of the wicked.

¹² I have been at ease, and He breaks me, || And He has laid hold on my neck, || And He breaks me in pieces, || And He raises me to Him for a mark.

¹³ His archers go around against me. He split my reins, and does not spare, || He pours out my gall to the earth.

¹⁴ He breaks me—breach on breach, || He runs on me as a mighty one.

¹⁵ I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, || And have rolled my horn in the dust.

¹⁶ My face is foul with weeping, || And on my eyelids [is] death-shade.

¹⁷ Not for violence in my hands, || And my prayer [is] pure.

¹⁸ O earth, do not cover my blood! And let there not be a place for my cry.

¹⁹ Also, now, behold, my witness [is] in the heavens, || And my testifier in the high places.

²⁰ My interpreter [is] my friend, || My eye has dropped to God;

²¹ And He reasons for a man with God, || As a son of man for his friend.

²² When a few years come, || Then I go [on] the path of no return."

17

² If not—mockeries [are] with me. And my eye lodges in their provocations.

³ Now place my pledge with You; Who is he that strikes hand with me?

⁴ For You have hidden their heart from understanding, || Therefore You do not exalt them.

⁵ For a portion he shows friendship, || And the eyes of his sons are consumed.

⁶ And He set me up for a proverb of the peoples, || And I am a wonder before them.

7 And my eye is dim from sorrow, || And my members—all of them—as a shadow.

8 The upright are astonished at this, and the innocent stirs himself up against the profane.

9 And the righteous lays hold [on] his way, || And the clean of hands adds strength.

10 But please return and come in, all of you, || And I do not find a wise man among you.

11 My days have passed by, || My plans have been broken off, || The possessions of my heart!

12 They appoint night for day, || Light [is] near because of darkness.

13 If I wait—Sheol [is] my house, || In darkness I have spread out my bed.

14 To corruption I have called: You [are] my father. To the worm: My mother and my sister.

15 And where [is] my hope now? Indeed, my hope, who beholds it?

16 You go down [to] the parts of Sheol, || If we may rest together on the dust.”

18

1 And Bildad the Shuhite answers and says:

2 “When do you set an end to words? Consider, and afterward we speak.

3 Why have we been reckoned as livestock? We have been defiled in your eyes!

4 He is tearing himself in his anger. Is earth forsaken for your sake? And is a rock removed from its place?

5 Also, the light of the wicked is extinguished. And there does not shine a spark of his fire.

6 The light has been dark in his tent, || And his lamp over him is extinguished.

7 The steps of his strength are restricted, || And his own counsel casts him down.

8 For he is sent into a net by his own feet, || And he habitually walks on a snare.

9 A trap seizes on the heel, || The designing prevails over him.

10 His cord is hidden in the earth, || And his trap on the path.

11 Terrors have terrified him all around, || And they have scattered him—at his feet.

12 His sorrow is hungry, || And calamity is ready at his side.

13 It consumes the parts of his skin, || Death’s firstborn consumes his parts.

14 His confidence is drawn from his tent, || And it causes him to step to the king of terrors.

15 It dwells in his tent—out of his provender, || Sulfur is scattered over his habitation.

16 From beneath his roots are dried up, || And from above his crop is cut off.

17 His memorial has perished from the land, || And he has no name on the street.

18 They thrust him from light to darkness, || And cast him out from the habitable earth.

¹⁹ He has no continuator, || Nor successor among his people, || And none is remaining in his dwellings.

²⁰ At this day, those [in the] west have been astonished, || And those [in the] east have taken fright.

²¹ Only these [are] dwelling places of the perverse, || And this [is] the place God has not known.”

¹ And Job answers and says:

² “Until when do you afflict my soul, || And bruise me with words?

³ These ten times you put me to shame, you do not blush. You make yourselves strange to me—

⁴ And also—truly, I have erred, || My error remains with me.

⁵ If, truly, you magnify yourselves over me, || And decide my reproach against me;

⁶ Know now, that God turned me upside down, || And has set around His net against me,

⁷ Behold, I cry out—violence, and am not answered, I cry aloud, and there is no judgment.

⁸ He hedged up my way, and I do not pass over, || And He places darkness on my paths.

⁹ He has stripped my honor from off me, || And He turns the crown from my head.

¹⁰ He breaks me down all around, and I go, || And removes my hope like a tree.

¹¹ And He kindles His anger against me, || And reckons me to Him as His adversaries.

¹² His troops come in together, || And they raise up their way against me, || And encamp around my tent.

¹³ He has put my brothers far off from me, || And my acquaintances have surely been estranged from me.

¹⁴ My neighbors have ceased || And my familiar friends have forgotten me,

¹⁵ Sojourners of my house and my maids, || Reckon me for a stranger; I have been an alien in their eyes.

¹⁶ I have called to my servant, || And he does not answer, || With my mouth I make supplication to him.

¹⁷ My spirit is strange to my wife, || And my favors to the sons of my [mother’s] womb.

¹⁸ Also sucklings have despised me, I rise, and they speak against me.

¹⁹ All the men of my counsel detest me, || And those I have loved, || Have been turned against me.

²⁰ To my skin and to my flesh || My bone has cleaved, || And I deliver myself with the skin of my teeth.

²¹ Pity me, pity me, you my friends, || For the hand of God has struck against me.

²² Why do you pursue me as God? And are not satisfied with my flesh?

²³ Who grants now, that my words may be written? Who grants that they may be inscribed in a scroll?

²⁴ With a pen of iron and lead—They may be hewn in a rock forever.

²⁵ That—I have known my Redeemer, || The Living and the Last, || For He raises the dust.

²⁶ And after my skin has surrounded this [body], || Then from my flesh I see God—

²⁷ Whom I see on my side, || And my eyes have beheld, and not a stranger, || My reins have been consumed in my bosom.

²⁸ But you say, Why do we pursue after him? And the root of the matter has been found in me.

²⁹ Be afraid because of the sword, || For the punishments of the sword [are] furious, || That you may know that [there is] a judgment.”

¹ And Zophar the Naamathite answers and says:

² “Therefore my thoughts cause me to answer, || And because of my sensations in me.

³ I hear the discipline of my shame, || And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer:

⁴ Have you known this from antiquity? Since the placing of man on earth?

⁵ That the singing of the wicked [is] short, || And the joy of the profane for a moment,

⁶ Though his excellence goes up to the heavens, || He strikes his head against a cloud—

⁷ He perishes as his own dung forever, || His beholders say, Where [is] he?

⁸ He flees as a dream, and they do not find him, || And he is driven away as a vision of the night,

⁹ The eye has not seen him, and does not add. And his place does not behold him again.

¹⁰ His sons oppress the poor, || And his hands give back his wealth.

¹¹ His bones have been full of his youth, and it lies down with him on the dust.

¹² Though he sweetens evil in his mouth, hides it under his tongue,

¹³ has pity on it, and does not forsake it, and keeps it back in the midst of his palate,

¹⁴ his food is turned in his bowels, the bitterness of cobras [is] in his heart.

¹⁵ He has swallowed wealth, and vomits it. God drives it out from his belly.

¹⁶ He sucks [the] gall of cobras, the tongue of a viper slays him.

¹⁷ He does not look on streams, || Flowing of brooks of honey and butter.

¹⁸ He is giving back [what] he labored for, and does not consume [it]; As a bulwark [is] his exchange, and he does not exult.

¹⁹ For he oppressed—he forsook the poor, || He has taken a house away violently, || And he does not build it.

²⁰ For he has not known ease in his belly. With his desirable thing he does not deliver himself.

²¹ There is not a remnant to his food, || Therefore his good does not stay.

²² In the fullness of his sufficiency he is constricted. Every perverse hand meets him.

²³ It comes to pass, at the filling of his belly, || He sends forth against him
|| The fierceness of His anger, || Indeed, He rains on him in his eating.

²⁴ He flees from an iron weapon, || A bow of bronze passes through him.

²⁵ One has drawn, || And it comes out from the body, || And a glittering weapon proceeds from his gall. Terrors [are] on him.

²⁶ All darkness is hid for his treasures, || A fire not blown consumes him, || The remnant is broken in his tent.

²⁷ The heavens reveal his iniquity, || And earth is raising itself against him.

²⁸ The increase of his house is removed, || Poured forth in a day of His anger.

²⁹ This [is] the portion of a wicked man from God. And an inheritance appointed him by God."

21

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "Hear my word diligently, || And this is your consolation.

³ Bear with me, and I speak, || And after my speaking—you may deride.

⁴ [Is] my complaint [against] man? And if [so], why may my temper not become short?

⁵ Turn to me, and be astonished, || And put hand to mouth.

⁶ Indeed, if I have remembered, then I have been troubled. And my flesh has taken fright.

⁷ Why do the wicked live? They have become old, || Indeed, they have been mighty in wealth.

⁸ Their seed is established, || Before their face with them, || And their offspring before their eyes.

⁹ Their houses [are] peace without fear, || Nor [is] a rod of God on them.

¹⁰ His bullock breeds without fail. His cow brings forth safely, and does not miscarry.

¹¹ They send forth their sucklings as a flock, || And their children skip,

¹² They lift [themselves] up at timbrel and harp, || And rejoice at the sound of a pipe.

¹³ They wear out their days in good, || And in a moment go down [to] Sheol.

¹⁴ And they say to God, Turn aside from us, || And the knowledge of Your ways || We have not desired.

¹⁵ What [is] the Mighty One that we serve Him? And what do we profit when we meet with Him?

¹⁶ Behold, their good [is] not in their hand || (The counsel of the wicked || Has been far from me).

¹⁷ How often is the lamp of the wicked extinguished, || And their calamity comes on them? He apportioned pangs in His anger.

¹⁸ They are as straw before wind, || And as chaff a windstorm has stolen away,

¹⁹ God lays up for his sons his sorrow, || He gives repayment to him—and he knows.

²⁰ His own eyes see his destruction, || And he drinks of the wrath of the Mighty.

²¹ For what [is] his delight in his house after him, || And the number of his months cut off?

²² Does [one] teach knowledge to God, || Since He judges [those] on high?

²³ This [one] dies in his perfect strength, || Wholly at ease and quiet.

²⁴ His breasts have been full of milk, || And marrow moistens his bones.

²⁵ And this [one] dies with a bitter soul, || And has not eaten with gladness.

²⁶ Together they lie down on the dust, || And the worm covers them over.

²⁷ Behold, I have known your thoughts, || And the schemes against me you do wrongfully.

²⁸ For you say, Where [is] the house of the noble? And where the tent—the dwelling places of the wicked?

²⁹ Have you not asked those passing by the way? And do you not know their signs?

³⁰ That the wicked is spared to a day of calamity. They are brought to a day of wrath.

³¹ Who declares his way to his face? And [for] that which he has done, || Who gives repayment to him?

³² And he is brought to the graves, || And a watch is kept over the heap.

³³ The clods of the valley have been sweet to him, || And he draws every man after him, || And there is no numbering before him.

³⁴ And how do you comfort me [with] vanity, || And trespass has been left in your answers?"

¹ And Eliphaz the Temanite answers and says:

² "Is a man profitable to God, || Because a wise man is profitable to himself?

³ Is it a delight to the Mighty One || That you are righteous? Is it gain, || That you make your ways perfect?

⁴ Because of your reverence || Does He reason [with] you? He enters with you into judgment:

⁵ Is your wickedness not abundant? And there is no end to your iniquities.

⁶ For you take a pledge of your brother for nothing, || And you strip off the garments of the naked.

⁷ You do not cause the weary to drink water, || And you withhold bread from the hungry.

⁸ As for the man of arm—he has the earth, || And the accepted of face—he dwells in it.

⁹ You have sent widows away empty, || And the arms of the fatherless are bruised.

¹⁰ Therefore snares [are] all around you, || And sudden fear troubles you.

¹¹ Or darkness—you do not see, || And abundance of waters covers you.

¹² Is God not high [in] the heavens? And see the summit of the stars, || That they are high.

¹³ And you have said, How has God known? Does He judge through thickness?

¹⁴ Thick clouds [are] a secret place to Him, || And He does not see, || And He habitually walks [above] the circle of the heavens.

¹⁵ Do you observe the path of the age, || That men of iniquity have trodden,

¹⁶ Who have been cut down unexpectedly? A flood is poured out on their foundation.

¹⁷ Those saying to God, Turn aside from us, || And what does the Mighty One do to them?

¹⁸ And He has filled their houses [with] good (And the counsel of the wicked || Has been far from me).

¹⁹ The righteous see and they rejoice, || And the innocent mocks at them:

²⁰ Surely our substance has not been cut off, || And fire has consumed their excellence.

²¹ Now acquaint yourself with Him, and be at peace, || Thereby your increase [is] good.

²² Please receive a law from His mouth, || And set His sayings in your heart.

²³ If you return to the Mighty you are built up, || You put iniquity far from your tents.

²⁴ So as to set a defense on the dust, || And a covering on a rock of the valleys.

²⁵ And the Mighty has been your defense, || And silver [is] strength to you.

²⁶ For then you delight yourself on the Mighty, || And lift up your face to God,

²⁷ You make supplication to Him, || And He hears you, || And you complete your vows.

²⁸ And you decree a saying, || And it is established to you, || And light has shone on your ways.

²⁹ For they have made low, || And you say, Lift up. And He saves the bowed down of eyes.

³⁰ He delivers the one [who is] not innocent, || Indeed, he has been delivered || By the cleanness of your hands."

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "Also—today my complaint [is] bitter, || My hand has been heavy because of my sighing.

³ O that I had known—and I find Him, || I come to His seat,

⁴ I arrange the cause before Him, || And fill my mouth [with] arguments.

⁵ I know the words He answers me, || And understand what He says to me.

⁶ Does He strive with me in the abundance of power? No! Surely He puts [it] in me.

⁷ There the upright reason with Him, || And I escape from mine who is judging—forever.

⁸ Behold, I go forward—and He is not, || And backward—and I do not perceive Him.

⁹ [To] the left in His working—and I do not see, || He is covered [on] the right, and I do not behold.

¹⁰ For He has known the way with me, || He has tried me—I go forth as gold.

¹¹ My foot has laid hold on His step, || I have kept His way, and do not turn aside,

¹² The command of His lips, and I do not depart. I have laid up above my allotted portion || The sayings of His mouth.

¹³ And He [is] in one [mind], || And who turns Him back? And His soul has desired—and He does [it].

¹⁴ For He completes my portion, || And many such things [are] with Him.

¹⁵ Therefore, I am troubled at His presence, I consider, and am afraid of Him.

¹⁶ And God has made my heart soft, || And the Mighty has troubled me.

¹⁷ For I have not been cut off before darkness, || And before me He covered thick darkness.”

¹ “For this reason from the Mighty One || Times have not been hidden, || And those knowing Him have not seen His days.

² They reach the borders, || They have taken a drove away violently, || Indeed, they do evil.

³ They lead away the donkey of the fatherless, || They take in pledge the ox of the widow,

⁴ They turn aside the needy from the way, || Together have hid the poor of the earth.

⁵ Behold, wild donkeys in a wilderness, || They have gone out about their work, || Seeking early for prey, || A mixture for himself—food for young ones.

⁶ They reap his provender in a field, || And they glean the vineyard of the wicked.

⁷ They cause the naked to lodge without clothing. And there is no covering in the cold.

⁸ From the inundation of hills they are wet, || And without a refuge—have embraced a rock.

⁹ They take away violently || The orphan from the breast, || And they lay a pledge on the poor.

¹⁰ Naked, they have gone without clothing, || And hungry—have taken away a sheaf.

¹¹ They make oil between their walls, || They have trodden winepresses, and thirst.

¹² Men groan because of enmity, || And the soul of pierced ones cries, || And God does not give praise.

¹³ They have been those rebelling against light, || They have not discerned His ways, || Nor abided in His paths.

¹⁴ The murderer rises at the light, || He slays the poor and needy, || And in the night he is as a thief.

¹⁵ And the eye of an adulterer || Has observed the twilight, || Saying, No eye beholds me. And he puts the face in secret.

¹⁶ He has dug in the darkness—houses; By day they shut themselves up, || They have not known light.

¹⁷ When together, morning [is] death-shade to them, || When he discerns the terrors of death-shade.

¹⁸ He [is] light on the face of the waters, || Their portion is vilified in the earth, || He does not turn the way of vineyards.

¹⁹ Drought—also heat—consume snow-waters, || Sheol—[those who] have sinned.

²⁰ The womb forgets him, || The worm sweetens [on] him, || He is remembered no more, || And wickedness is broken as a tree.

²¹ Treating evil the barren [who] does not bear, || And he does no good [to] the widow,

²² And [God] has drawn the mighty by His power, || He rises, and none believes in life.

²³ He gives to him confidence, and he is supported, || And His eyes [are] on their ways.

²⁴ They were high [for] a little, and they are not, || And they have been brought low. They are shut up as all [others], || And cut off as the head of an ear of grain.

²⁵ And if not now, who proves me a liar, || And makes my word of nothing?"

¹ And Bildad the Shuhite answers and says:

² "The rule and fear [are] with Him, || Making peace in His high places.

³ Is their [any] number to His troops? And on whom does His light not arise?

⁴ And what? Is man righteous with God? And what? Is he pure—born of a woman?

⁵ Behold—to the moon, and it does not shine, || And stars have not been pure in His eyes.

⁶ How much less man—a grub, || And the son of man—a worm!"

¹ And Job answers and says:

² "How you have helped the powerless, || Saved an arm not strong!

³ How you have given counsel to the unwise, || And made known wise plans in abundance.

⁴ With whom have you declared words? And whose breath came forth from you?

⁵ The Rephaim are formed, || Also their inhabitants beneath the waters.

⁶ Sheol [is] naked before Him, || And there is no covering to destruction.

⁷ Stretching out the north over desolation, || Hanging the earth on nothing,

⁸ Binding up the waters in His thick clouds, || And the cloud is not burst under them.

⁹ Taking hold of the face of the throne, || Spreading His cloud over it.

¹⁰ He has placed a limit on the waters, || To the boundary of light with darkness.

¹¹ Pillars of the heavens tremble, || And they wonder because of His rebuke.

¹² By His power He has quieted the sea, || And by His understanding struck the proud.

¹³ He beautified the heavens by His Spirit, || His hand has formed the fleeing serpent.

¹⁴ Behold, these [are] the borders of His way, and how little a matter is heard of Him, and who understands the thunder of His might?"

27

¹ And Job adds to lift up his allegory and says:

² "God lives! He turned aside my judgment, || And the Mighty—He made my soul bitter.

³ For all the while my breath [is] in me, || And the wind of God in my nostrils.

⁴ My lips do not speak perverseness, || And my tongue does not utter deceit.

⁵ Defilement to me—if I justify you, || Until I expire I do not turn aside my integrity from me.

⁶ On my righteousness I have laid hold, || And I do not let it go, || My heart does not reproach me while I live.

⁷ My enemy is as the wicked, || And my withstander as the perverse.

⁸ For what [is] the hope of the profane, || When He cuts off? When God casts off his soul?

⁹ [Does] God hear his cry, || When distress comes on him?

¹⁰ Does he delight himself on the Mighty? Call God at all times?

¹¹ I show you by the hand of God, || That which [is] with the Mighty I do not hide.

¹² Behold, you—all of you—have seen, || And why [is] this—you are altogether vain?

¹³ This [is] the portion of wicked man with God, || And the inheritance of terrible ones || They receive from the Mighty.

¹⁴ If his sons multiply—a sword [is] for them. And his offspring [are] not satisfied [with] bread.

¹⁵ His remnant are buried in death, || And his widows do not weep.

¹⁶ If he heaps up silver as dust, || And prepares clothing as clay,

¹⁷ He prepares—and the righteous puts [it] on, || And the innocent apportioned the silver.

¹⁸ He has built his house as a moth, || And as a shelter a watchman has made.

¹⁹ He lies down rich, and he is not gathered, || He has opened his eyes, and he is not.

²⁰ Terrors overtake him as waters, || By night a whirlwind has stolen him away.

²¹ An east wind takes him up, and he goes, || And it frightens him from his place,

²² And it casts at him, and does not spare, || He diligently flees from its hand.

²³ It claps its hands at him, || And it hisses at him from his place."

¹ "Surely there is a source for silver, || And a place for the gold they refine;

² Iron is taken from the dust, || And bronze [from] the firm stone.

³ He has set an end to darkness, || And he is searching to all perfection,
|| A stone of darkness and death-shade.

⁴ A stream has broken out from a sojourner, || Those forgotten of the foot, || They were low, they wandered from man.

⁵ The earth! Bread comes forth from it, || And its under-part is turned like fire.

⁶ A place of the sapphire [are] its stones, || And it has dust of gold.

⁷ A path—a ravenous bird has not known it, || Nor has an eye of the falcon scorched it,

⁸ Nor have the sons of pride trodden it, || The fierce lion has not passed over it.

⁹ He sent forth his hand against the flint, || He overturned mountains from the root.

¹⁰ Among rocks, he has cleaved brooks, || And his eye has seen every precious thing.

¹¹ He has bound overflowing rivers, || And the hidden thing brings out
[to] light.

¹² And the wisdom—from where is it found? And where [is] this, the place of understanding?

¹³ Man has not known its arrangement, || Nor is it found in the land of the living.

¹⁴ The deep has said, It [is] not in me, || And the sea has said, It is not with me.

¹⁵ Gold is not given for it, || Nor is silver weighed—its price.

¹⁶ It is not valued with pure gold of Ophir, || With precious onyx and sapphire,

¹⁷ Gold and crystal do not equal it, || Nor [is] its exchange a vessel of fine gold.

¹⁸ Corals and pearl are not remembered, || The acquisition of wisdom
[is] above rubies.

¹⁹ The topaz of Cush does not equal it, || It is not valued with pure gold.

²⁰ And the wisdom—from where does it come? And where [is] this, the place of understanding?

²¹ It has been hid from the eyes of all living. And from the bird of the heavens || It has been hidden.

²² Destruction and death have said: With our ears we have heard its fame.

²³ God has understood its way, || And He has known its place.

²⁴ For He looks to the ends of the earth, || He sees under the whole heavens,

²⁵ To make a weight for the wind, || And He meted out the waters in measure.

²⁶ In His making for the rain a limit, || And a way for the brightness of the voices,

²⁷ Then He has seen and declares it, || He has prepared it, and also searched it out,

²⁸ And He says to man: Behold, fear of the Lord, that [is] wisdom, ||
And to turn from evil [is] understanding.”

¹ And Job adds to lift up his allegory and says:

² “Who makes me as [in] months past, || As [in] the days of God’s preserving me?”

³ In His causing His lamp to shine on my head, || By His light I walk [through] darkness.

⁴ As I have been in days of my maturity, || And the counsel of God on my tent.

⁵ When yet the Mighty One [is] with me. Around me—my young ones,

⁶ When washing my goings with butter, || And the firm rock [is] with me—streams of oil.

⁷ When I go out to the gate by the city, || In a broad place I prepare my seat.

⁸ Youths have seen me, and they have been hidden, || And the aged have risen—they stood up.

⁹ Princes have kept in words, || And they place a hand on their mouth.

¹⁰ The voice of leaders has been hidden, || And their tongue has cleaved to the palate.

¹¹ For the ear heard, and declares me blessed, || And the eye has seen, and testifies [to] me.

¹² For I deliver the afflicted who is crying, || And the fatherless who has no helper.

¹³ The blessing of the perishing comes on me, || And I cause the heart of the widow to sing.

¹⁴ I have put on righteousness, and it clothes me, || My justice as a robe and a crown.

¹⁵ I have been eyes to the blind, || And I [am] feet to the lame.

¹⁶ I [am] a father to the needy, || And the cause I have not known I search out.

¹⁷ And I break the jaw-teeth of the perverse, || And from his teeth I cast away prey.

¹⁸ And I say, I expire with my nest, || And I multiply days as the sand.

¹⁹ My root is open to the waters, || And dew lodges on my branch.

²⁰ My glory [is] fresh with me, || And my bow is renewed in my hand.

²¹ They have listened to me, || Indeed, they wait, and are silent for my counsel.

²² After my word they do not change, || And my speech drops on them,

²³ And they wait for me as [for] rain, || And they have opened wide their mouth || [As] for the spring rain.

²⁴ I laugh at them—they give no credence, || And do not cause the light of my face to fall.

²⁵ I choose their way, and sit [as] head, || And I dwell as a king in a troop, || When he comforts mourners.”

30

¹ “And now, laughed at me, || Have the younger in days than I, || Whose fathers I have loathed to set || With the dogs of my flock.

² Also—the power of their hands, why [is it] to me? On them old age has perished.

³ With want and with harsh famine, || They are gnawing a dry place [in] the recent night, || [In] desolation and ruin,

⁴ Those cropping mallows near a shrub, || And their food [is] root of broom trees.

5 They are cast out from the midst || (They shout against them as a thief),

6 To dwell in a frightful place of valleys, || Holes of earth and clefts.

7 They groan among shrubs, || They are gathered together under nettles.

8 Sons of folly—even sons without name, || They have been struck from the land.

9 And now, I have been their song, || And I am to them for a byword.

10 They have detested me, || They have kept far from me, || And from before me have not spared to spit.

11 Because He loosed His cord and afflicts me, || And the bridle from before me, || They have cast away.

12 A brood arises on the right hand, || They have cast away my feet, || And they raise up against me, || Their paths of calamity.

13 They have broken down my path, || They profit by my calamity: He has no helper.

14 They come as a wide breach, || Under the desolation have rolled themselves.

15 He has turned terrors against me, || It pursues my abundance as the wind, || And as a thick cloud, || My safety has passed away.

16 And now, in me my soul pours itself out, || Days of affliction seize me.

17 [At] night my bone has been pierced in me, || And my gnawing [pain] does not lie down.

18 By the abundance of power, || Is my clothing changed, || As the mouth of my coat it girds me.

19 Casting me into mire, || And I have become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry to You, || And You do not answer me, I have stood, and You consider me.

21 You are turned to be fierce to me, || With the strength of Your hand, || You oppress me.

22 You lift me up, || You cause me to ride on the wind, || And You melt—You level me.

23 For I have known You bring me back [to] death, || And [to] the house appointed for all living.

24 Surely not against the heap || Does He send forth the hand, || Though they have safety in its ruin.

25 Did I not weep for him whose day is hard? My soul has grieved for the needy.

26 When I expected good, then comes evil, || And I wait for light, and darkness comes.

27 My bowels have boiled, and have not ceased, || Days of affliction have gone before me.

28 I have gone mourning without the sun, || I have risen, I cry in an assembly.

29 I have been a brother to dragons, || And a companion to daughters of the ostrich.

30 My skin has been black on me, || And my bone has burned from heat,

31 And my harp becomes mourning, || And my pipe the sound of weeping."

31

1 “I made a covenant for my eyes, || And how do I attend to a virgin?

2 And what [is] the portion of God from above? And the inheritance of the Mighty from the heights?

3 Is not calamity to the perverse? And strangeness to workers of iniquity?

4 Does He not see my ways, || And number all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, || And my foot hurries to deceit,

6 He weighs me in righteous balances, || And God knows my integrity.

7 If my step turns aside from the way, || And my heart has gone after my eyes, || And blemish has cleaved to my hands,

8 Let me sow—and another eat, || And let my products be rooted out.

9 If my heart has been enticed by a woman, || And I laid wait by the opening of my neighbor,

10 Let my wife grind to another, || And let others bend over her.

11 For it [is] a wicked thing, and a judicial iniquity;

12 For it [is] a fire, it consumes to destruction, || And takes root among all my increase,

13 If I despise the cause of my manservant, || And of my handmaid, || In their contending with me,

14 Then what do I do when God arises? And when He inspects, || What do I answer Him?

15 Did He that made me in the womb not make him? Indeed, One prepares us in the womb.

16 If I withhold the poor from pleasure, || And consume the eyes of the widow,

17 And I eat my morsel by myself, || And the orphan has nothing [to] eat of it,

18 (But from my youth || He grew up with me as [with] a father, || And from the belly of my mother I am led),

19 If I see [any] perishing without clothing, || And there is no covering for the needy,

20 If his loins have not blessed me, || And from the fleece of my sheep || He does not warm himself,

21 If I have waved my hand at the fatherless, || When I see [him] in the gate of my court,

22 Let my shoulder fall from its blade, || And the bone from my arm be broken.

23 For calamity [from] God [is] a dread to me, || And because of His excellence I am not able.

24 If I have made gold my confidence, || And to the pure gold have said, My trust;

25 If I rejoice because my wealth [is] great, || And because my hand has found abundance,

26 If I see the light when it shines, || And the precious moon walking,

27 And my heart is enticed in secret, || And my hand kisses my mouth,

28 It also [is] a judicial iniquity, || For I had lied to God above.

29 If I rejoice at the ruin of my hater, || And stirred up myself when evil found him,

30 Indeed, I have not permitted my mouth to sin, || To ask with an oath his life.

³¹ If not, say, O men of my tent: O that we had of his flesh, we are not satisfied.

³² A stranger does not lodge in the street, || I open my doors to the traveler.

³³ If I have covered my transgressions as Adam, || To hide my iniquity in my bosom,

³⁴ Because I fear a great multitude, || And the contempt of families frightens me, || Then I am silent, I do not go out of the opening.

³⁵ Who gives to me a hearing? Behold, my mark. The Mighty One answers me, || And my adversary has written a bill.

³⁶ If not—on my shoulder I take it up, || I bind it [as] a crown on myself.

³⁷ The number of my steps I tell Him, || As a leader I approach Him.

³⁸ If my land cries out against me, || And together its furrows weep,

³⁹ If I consumed its strength without money, || And the life of its possessors, I have caused to breathe out,

⁴⁰ Instead of wheat let a thorn go forth, || And instead of barley a useless weed!" The words of Job are finished.

¹ And these three men cease from answering Job, for he [is] righteous in his own eyes,

² and the anger of Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite burns, of the family of Ram; his anger has burned against Job, because of his justifying himself more than God;

³ and his anger has burned against his three friends, because that they have not found an answer, and condemn Job.

⁴ And Elihu has waited earnestly beside Job with words, for they are older than he in days.

⁵ And Elihu sees that there is no answer in the mouth of the three men, and his anger burns.

⁶ And Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite answers and says: "I [am] young in days, and you [are] aged; Therefore I have feared, || And am afraid of showing you my opinion.

⁷ I said, Days speak, || And a multitude of years teach wisdom.

⁸ Surely a spirit is in man, || And the breath of the Mighty One || Causes them to understand.

⁹ The multitude are not wise, || Nor do the aged understand judgment.

¹⁰ Therefore I have said: Listen to me, I show my opinion—even I.

¹¹ Behold, I have waited for your words, I give ear to your reasons, || Until you search out sayings.

¹² And to you I attend, || And behold, there is no reasoner for Job, || [Or] answerer of his sayings among you.

¹³ Lest you say, We have found wisdom, || God thrusts him away, not man.

¹⁴ And he has not set words in array for me, || And I do not answer him with your sayings.

¹⁵ (They have broken down, || They have not answered again, || They removed words from themselves.

¹⁶ And I have waited, but they do not speak, || For they have stood still, || They have not answered anymore.)

¹⁷ I answer, even I—my share, || I show my opinion—even I.

¹⁸ For I have been full of words, || The spirit of my breast has distressed me,

¹⁹ Behold, my breast [is] as wine not opened, || It is broken up like new bottles.

²⁰ I speak, and there is refreshment to me, || I open my lips and answer.

²¹ Please do not let me accept the face of any, || Nor give flattering titles to man,

²² For I have not known to give flattering titles, || My Maker takes me away in a little.”

33

¹ “And yet, please, O Job, || Hear my speech and give ear [to] all my words.

² Now behold, I have opened my mouth, || My tongue has spoken in the palate.

³ Of the uprightness of my heart [are] my sayings, || And my lips have clearly spoken knowledge.

⁴ The Spirit of God has made me, || And the breath of the Mighty quickens me.

⁵ If you are able—answer me, || Set in array before me—station yourself.

⁶ Behold, I [am], according to your word, for God, || I have also been formed from the clay.

⁷ Behold, my terror does not frighten you, || And my burden on you is not heavy.

⁸ Surely you have spoken in my ears, || And the sounds of words I hear:

⁹ I [am] pure, without transgression, || I [am] innocent, and I have no iniquity.

¹⁰ Behold, He develops hindrances against me, || He reckons me for an enemy to Him,

¹¹ He puts my feet in the stocks, || He watches all my paths.

¹² Behold, you have not been righteous [in] this, || I answer you, that God is greater than man.

¹³ Why have you striven against Him, || When [for] all His matters He does not answer?

¹⁴ For once God speaks, and twice (he does not behold it),

¹⁵ In a dream—a vision of night, || In the falling of deep sleep on men, || In slumberings on a bed.

¹⁶ Then He uncovers the ear of men, || And seals for their instruction,

¹⁷ To turn aside man [from] doing, || And He conceals pride from man.

¹⁸ He keeps back his soul from corruption, || And his life from passing away by a dart.

¹⁹ And he has been reproved || With pain on his bed, || And the strife of his bones [is] enduring.

²⁰ And his life has nauseated bread, || And his soul desirable food.

²¹ His flesh is consumed from being seen, || And his bones are high, they were not seen!

²² And his soul draws near to the pit, || And his life to those causing death.

²³ If there is a messenger by him, || An interpreter—one of a thousand, || To declare for man his uprightness,

²⁴ Then He favors him and says, || Ransom him from going down to the pit, || I have found an atonement.

²⁵ Fresher [is] his flesh than a child's, || He returns to the days of his youth.

²⁶ He makes supplication to God, || And He accepts him. And he sees His face with shouting, || And He returns to man His righteousness.

²⁷ [Then] he looks on men and says, || I sinned, and I have perverted uprightness, || And it has not been profitable to me.

²⁸ He has ransomed my soul || From going over into the pit, || And my life looks on the light.

²⁹ Behold, God works all these, || Twice, [even] three times with man,

³⁰ To bring back his soul from the pit, || To be enlightened with the light of the living.

³¹ Attend, O Job, listen to me, || Keep silent, and I speak.

³² If there are words—answer me, || Speak, for I have a desire to justify you.

³³ If there are not—listen to me, || Keep silent, and I teach you wisdom.”

34

¹ And Elihu answers and says:

² “Hear, O wise men, my words, || And, O knowing ones, give ear to me.

³ For the ear tries words, || And the palate tastes to eat.

⁴ Let us choose judgment for ourselves, || Let us know among ourselves what [is] good.

⁵ For Job has said, I have been righteous, || And God has turned aside my right,

⁶ Against my right do I lie? My arrow [is] mortal—without transgression.

⁷ Who [is] a man like Job? He drinks scoffing like water,

⁸ And he has traveled for company || With workers of iniquity, || So as to go with men of wickedness.

⁹ For he has said, It does not profit a man || When he delights himself with God.

¹⁰ Therefore, O men of heart, listen to me; Far be it from God to do wickedness, || And [from] the Mighty to do perverseness,

¹¹ For He repays the work of man to him, || And according to the path of each He causes him to find.

¹² Indeed, truly, God does not do wickedly, || And the Mighty does not pervert judgment.

¹³ Who has inspected for Himself the earth? And who has placed all the habitable world?

¹⁴ If He sets His heart on him, || [If] He gathers His Spirit and His breath to Himself,

¹⁵ All flesh expires together, || And man returns to dust.

¹⁶ And if [there is] understanding, hear this, || Give ear to the voice of my words.

¹⁷ Indeed, does one hating justice govern? Or do you condemn the Most Just?

¹⁸ Who has said to a king, Worthless, || To princes, Wicked?

¹⁹ That has not accepted the person of princes, || Nor has known the rich before the poor, || For all of them [are] a work of His hands.

20 [In] a moment they die, || And at midnight people shake, || And they pass away, || And they remove the mighty without hand.

21 For His eyes [are] on the ways of each, || And He sees all his steps.

22 There is no darkness nor death-shade, || For workers of iniquity to be hidden there;

23 For He does not permit man anymore, || To go to God in judgment,

24 He breaks the mighty—no searching! And He appoints others in their stead.

25 Therefore He knows their works, || And He has overturned by night, || And they are bruised.

26 As wicked He has struck them, || In the place of beholders.

27 Because that against right || They have turned aside from after Him, || And have considered none of His ways,

28 To cause to come to Him || The cry of the poor, || And He hears the cry of the afflicted.

29 And He gives rest, and who makes wrong? And hides the face, and who beholds it? And in reference to a nation and to a man, || [It is] the same.

30 From the reigning of a profane man, || From the snares of a people;

31 For has any said to God: I have taken away, || I do not do corruptly,

32 Besides [that which] I see, You show me, || If I have done iniquity—I do not add?

33 Does He repay by you, that you have refused—That you choose, and not I? And what you have known, speak.

34 Let men of heart say to me, || And a wise man is listening to me:

35 Job—he does not speak with knowledge, || And his words [are] not with wisdom.

36 My Father! Let Job be tried—to victory, || Because of answers for men of iniquity,

37 For he adds to his sin, || He vomits transgression among us, || And multiplies his sayings to God.”

35

1 And Elihu answers and says:

2 “Have you reckoned this for judgment [when] you have said, || My righteousness [is] more than God’s?

3 For you say, What does it profit You? What do I profit from my sin?

4 I return words, and your friends with you,

5 Behold attentively the heavens—and see, || And behold the clouds, || They have been higher than you.

6 If you have sinned, what do you do against Him? And your transgressions have been multiplied, || What do you do to Him?

7 If you have been righteous, || What do you give to Him? Or what does He receive from your hand?

8 For a man like yourself [is] your wickedness, || And for a son of man your righteousness.

9 Because of the multitude of oppressions || They cause to cry out, || They cry because of the arm of the mighty.

10 And none said, Where [is] God my Maker? Giving songs in the night,

¹¹ Teaching us more than the beasts of the earth, || Indeed, He makes us wiser than the bird of the heavens.

¹² There they cry, and He does not answer, || Because of the pride of evildoers.

¹³ Surely God does not hear vanity, || And the Mighty does not behold it.

¹⁴ Indeed, though you say you do not behold Him, || Judgment [is] before Him, and stays for Him.

¹⁵ And now, because there is not, || He has appointed His anger, || And He has not known in great extremity.

¹⁶ And Job opens his mouth [with] vanity, || He multiplies words without knowledge.”

¹ And Elihu adds and says:

² “Honor me a little, and I show you, || That yet for God [are] words.

³ I lift up my knowledge from afar, || And I ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

⁴ For my words [are] truly not false, || The perfect in knowledge [is] with you.

⁵ Behold, God [is] mighty, and does not despise, || Mighty [in] power [and] heart.

⁶ He does not revive the wicked, || And appoints the judgment of the poor;

⁷ He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous, || And [from] kings on the throne, || And causes them to sit forever, and they are high,

⁸ And if prisoners in chains || They are captured with cords of affliction,

⁹ Then He declares to them their work, || And their transgressions, || Because they have become mighty,

¹⁰ And He uncovers their ear for instruction, || And commands that they turn back from iniquity.

¹¹ If they hear and serve, || They complete their days in good, || And their years in pleasantness.

¹² And if they do not listen, || They pass away by the dart, || And expire without knowledge.

¹³ And the profane in heart set the face, || They do not cry when He has bound them.

¹⁴ Their soul dies in youth, || And their life among the defiled.

¹⁵ He draws out the afflicted in his affliction, || And uncovers their ear in oppression.

¹⁶ And He also moved you from a narrow place || [To] a broad place—no constriction under it, || And the sitting beyond of your table has been full of fatness.

¹⁷ And you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked, || Judgment and justice are upheld because of fury,

¹⁸ Lest He move you with a stroke, || And the abundance of an atonement not turn you aside.

¹⁹ Does He value your riches? He has gold, and all the forces of power.

²⁰ Do not desire the night, || For the going up of peoples in their stead.

²¹ Take heed—do not turn to iniquity, || For you have fixed on this || Rather than [on] affliction.

²² Behold, God sits on high by His power, || Who [is] like Him—a teacher?

²³ Who has appointed to Him His way? And who said, You have done iniquity?

²⁴ Remember that you magnify His work || That men have beheld.

²⁵ All men have looked on it, || Man looks attentively from afar.

²⁶ Behold, God [is] high, || And we do not know the number of His years, || Indeed, there [is] no searching.

²⁷ When He diminishes droppings of the waters, || They refine rain according to its vapor,

²⁸ Which clouds drop, || They distill on man abundantly.

²⁹ Indeed, do [any] understand || The spreadings out of a cloud? The noises of His dwelling place?

³⁰ Behold, He has spread His light over it, || And He has covered the roots of the sea,

³¹ For He judges peoples by them, || He gives food in abundance.

³² By two palms He has covered the light, || And lays a charge over it in meeting,

³³ His shout shows it, || The livestock also, the rising [storm].”

37

¹ “Also, my heart trembles at this, || And it moves from its place.

² Listen diligently to the trembling of His voice, || Indeed, the sound goes forth from His mouth.

³ He directs it under the whole heavens, || And its light [is] over the skirts of the earth.

⁴ A voice roars after it—He thunders with the voice of His excellence, || And He does not hold them back, || When His voice is heard.

⁵ God thunders with His voice wonderfully, || Doing great things and we do not know.

⁶ For He says to snow: Be [on] the earth. And the small rain and great rain of His power.

⁷ Into the hand of every man he seals, || For the knowledge by all men of His work.

⁸ And the beast enters into [its] lair, || And it continues in its habitations.

⁹ From the inner chamber comes a windstorm, || And from scatterings winds—cold,

¹⁰ From the breath of God is frost given, || And the breadth of waters is constricted,

¹¹ Indeed, by filling He presses out a cloud, [and] His light scatters a cloud.

¹² And it is turning itself around by His counsels, || For their doing all He commands them, || On the face of the habitable earth.

¹³ Whether for a rod, or for His land, || Or for kindness—He causes it to come.

¹⁴ Hear this, O Job, || Stand and consider the wonders of God.

¹⁵ Do you know when God places them, || And caused the light of His cloud to shine?

¹⁶ Do you know the balancings of a cloud? The wonders of the Perfect in knowledge?

¹⁷ How your garments [are] warm, || In the quieting of the earth from the south?

¹⁸ You have made an expanse with Him || For the clouds—strong as a hard mirror!

¹⁹ Let us know what we say to Him, || We do not set in array because of darkness.

²⁰ Is it declared to Him that I speak? If a man has spoken, surely he is swallowed up.

²¹ And now, they have not seen the light, || It [is] bright in the clouds, || And the wind has passed by and cleanses them.

²² It comes from the golden north, || Fearful splendor [is] beside God.

²³ The Mighty! We have not found Him out, || High in power and judgment, || He does not answer! And abundant in righteousness,

²⁴ Therefore men fear Him, || He does not see any of the wise of heart.”

38

¹ And YHWH answers Job out of the whirlwind and says:

² “Who [is] this—darkening counsel, || By words without knowledge?

³ Now gird your loins as a man, || And I ask you, and you cause Me to know.

⁴ Where were you when I founded the earth? Declare, if you have known understanding.

⁵ Who placed its measures—if you know? Or who has stretched out a line on it?

⁶ On what have its sockets been sunk? Or who has cast its cornerstone—

⁷ In the singing together of [the] stars of morning, || When all [the] sons of God shout for joy?

⁸ And He shuts up the sea with doors, || In its coming forth, it goes out from the womb.

⁹ In My making a cloud its clothing, || And thick darkness its swaddling band,

¹⁰ And I measure My statute over it, || And place bar and doors,

¹¹ And say, To here you come, and no more, || And a command is placed || On the pride of your billows.

¹² Have you commanded morning since your days? Do you cause the dawn to know its place?

¹³ To take hold on the skirts of the earth, || And the wicked are shaken out of it,

¹⁴ It turns itself as clay of a seal || And they station themselves as clothed.

¹⁵ And their light is withheld from the wicked, || And the arm lifted up is broken.

¹⁶ Have you come to springs of the sea? And in searching the deep || Have you walked up and down?

¹⁷ Were the gates of death revealed to you? And do you see the gates of death-shade?

¹⁸ You have understanding, || Even to the broad places of earth! Declare—if you have known it all.

¹⁹ Where [is] this—the way light dwells? And darkness, where [is] this—its place?

²⁰ That you take it to its boundary, || And that you understand the paths of its house.

²¹ You have known—for then you are born, || And the number of your days [are] many!

²² Have you come to the treasure of snow? Indeed, do you see the treasures of hail,

²³ That I have kept back for a time of distress, || For a day of conflict and battle?

²⁴ Where [is] this, the way light is apportioned? It scatters an east wind over the earth.

²⁵ Who has divided a conduit for the flood? And a way for the lightning of the voices?

²⁶ To cause [it] to rain on a land [with] no man, || A wilderness [with] no man in it.

²⁷ To satisfy a desolate and ruined place, || And to cause to shoot up || The produce of the tender grass?

²⁸ Does the rain have a father? Or who has begotten the drops of dew?

²⁹ From whose belly came forth the ice? And the hoarfrost of the heavens, || Who has begotten it?

³⁰ Waters are hidden as a stone, || And the face of the deep is captured.

³¹ Do you bind the chains of the Pleiades? Or do you open the cords of Orion?

³² Do you bring out the twelve signs in [their] season? And do you comfort the Great Bear over her sons?

³³ Have you known the statutes of the heavens? Or do you appoint || Its dominion in the earth?

³⁴ Do you lift up your voice to the cloud, || And abundance of water covers you?

³⁵ Do you send out lightnings, and they go || And say to you, Behold us?

³⁶ Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the covered part?

³⁷ Who numbers the clouds by wisdom? And the bottles of the heavens, || Who causes to lie down,

³⁸ In the hardening of dust into hardness, || And clods cleave together?

³⁹ Do you hunt prey for a lion? And fulfill the desire of young lions?

⁴⁰ When they bow down in dens—Abide in a thicket for a covert?

⁴¹ Who prepares for a raven his provision, || When his young ones cry to God? They wander without food.”

¹ “Have you known the time of || The bearing of the wild goats of the rock? Do you mark the bringing forth of does?

² Do you number the months they fulfill? And have you known the time of their bringing forth?

³ They bow down, || They bring forth their young ones safely, || They cast forth their pangs.

⁴ Their young ones are safe, || They grow up in the field, they have gone out, || And have not returned to them.

⁵ Who has sent forth the wild donkey free? Indeed, who opened the bands of the wild donkey?

⁶ Whose house I have made the wilderness, || And his dwellings the barren land,

⁷ He laughs at the multitude of a city, || He does not hear the cries of an exactor.

8 The range of mountains [is] his pasture, || And he seeks after every green thing.

9 Is a wild ox willing to serve you? Does he lodge by your crib?

10 Do you bind a wild ox in a furrow [with] his thick band? Does he harrow valleys after you?
