11 Do you trust in him because his power [is] great? And do you leave your labor to him?

12 Do you trust in him || That he brings back your seed, || And gathers [it to] your threshing-floor?

13 [The] wing of the crying ostriches exults, but as a pinion and feather of a stork?

14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth, || And she warms them on the dust,

15 And she forgets that a foot may press it, || And a beast of the field treads it down.

16 It has hardened her young ones without her, || Her labor [is] in vain, without fear.

17 For God has caused her to forget wisdom, || And He has not given a portion || To her in understanding;

18 At the time she lifts herself up on high, || She laughs at the horse and his rider.

19 Do you give might to the horse? Do you clothe his neck [with] a mane?

20 Do you cause him to rush as a locust? The splendor of his snorting [is] terrible.

21 They dig in a valley, and he rejoices in power, || He goes forth to meet the armor.

22 He laughs at fear, and is not frightened, || And he does not turn back from the face of the sword.

23 Quiver rattles against him, || The flame of a spear, and a javelin.

24 He swallows the ground with trembling and rage, || And does not remain steadfast || Because of the sound of a horn.

25 Among the horns he says, Aha, || And from afar he smells battle, || Roaring of princes and shouting.

26 By your understanding does a hawk fly? Does he spread his wings to the south?

27 At your command does an eagle go up high? Or lift up his nest?

28 He inhabits a rock, || Indeed, he lodges on the tooth of a rock, and fortress.

29 From there he has sought food, || His eyes look attentively to a far-off place,

30 And his brood sucks up blood, || And where the pierced [are]—there [is] he!"

1 And YHWH answers Job and says:

2 "Is the striver with the Mighty instructed? The reprover of God, let him answer it."

3 And Job answers YHWH and says:

4 "Behold, I have been vile, || What do I return to You? I have placed my hand on my mouth.

⁵ I have spoken once, and I do not answer, || And twice, and I do not add."

⁶ And YHWH answers Job out of the whirlwind and says:

⁷ "Now gird your loins as a man, || I ask you, and you cause Me to know.

⁸ Do you also make My judgment void? Do you condemn Me, || That you may be righteous?

¹¹ Scatter abroad the wrath of your anger, || And see every proud one, and make him low.

¹⁹ He [is] a beginning of the ways of God, || His Maker [alone] brings His sword near;

²⁰ For mountains bear food for him, || And all the beasts of the field play there.

² Do you put a reed in his nose? And pierce his jaw with a thorn?

⁶ (Companions feast on him, || They divide him among the merchants!)

⁸ Place your hand on him, || Remember the battle—do not add!

⁹ Behold, the hope of him is found a liar, || Also, is one not cast down at his appearance?

¹⁵ A pride—strong ones of shields, || Shut up—a close seal.

¹⁷ They adhere to one another, || They stick together and are not separated.

¹⁹ Flames go out of his mouth, sparks of fire escape.

²³ The flakes of his flesh have adhered—Firm on him—it is not moved.

²⁷ He reckons iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.

²⁸ The son of the bow does not cause him to flee, || Stones of the sling are turned into stubble by him.

³⁰ Sharp points of clay [are] under him, || He spreads gold on the mire.

³¹ He causes the deep to boil as a pot, || He makes the sea as a pot of ointment.

³² He causes a path to shine after him, || One thinks the deep to be hoary.

¹ And Job answers YHWH and says:

² “You have known that [for] all things You are able, || And no purpose is withheld from You.

⁴ Please hear, and I speak; [You said], I ask you, and you cause Me to know.

⁷ And it comes to pass after YHWH’s speaking these words to Job, that YHWH says to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger has burned against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken correctly concerning Me, like My servant Job.

⁸ And now, take seven bullocks and seven rams for yourselves, and go to My servant Job, and you have caused a burnt-offering to ascend for yourselves; and Job My servant prays for you, for surely I accept his face, so as not to do folly with you, because you have not spoken correctly concerning Me, like My servant Job.”

¹¹ And all his brothers come to him, and all his sisters, and all his former acquaintances, and they eat bread with him in his house, and bemoan him, and comfort him concerning all the calamity that YHWH had brought on him, and they each gave to him one kesitah, and each one ring of gold.

¹³ And he has seven sons and three daughters;

¹⁶ And Job lives after this one hundred and forty years, and sees his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations;

¹⁷ and Job dies, aged and satisfied [with] days.

¹ O the blessedness of that one, || Who has not walked in the counsel of the wicked, || And has not stood in the way of sinners, || And has not sat in the seat of scorners;

² But his delight [is] in the Law of YHWH, || And in His law he meditates by day and by night:

³ And he has been as a tree, || Planted by streams of water, || That gives its fruit in its season, || And its leaf does not wither, || And all that he does he causes to prosper.

⁶ "And I have anointed My King, || On Zion—My holy hill."

⁹ You rule them with a scepter of iron, || You crush them as a vessel of a potter."

¹¹ Serve YHWH with fear, || And rejoice with trembling.

² Many are saying of my soul, "There is no salvation for him in God." Selah.

³ And You, O YHWH, [are] a shield for me, || My glory, and lifter up of my head.

⁴ My voice [is] to YHWH: I call and He answers me from His holy hill, Selah.

⁵ I have lain down, and I sleep, || I have awoken, for YHWH sustains me.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. WITH STRINGED INSTRUMENTS. A PSALM OF DAVID. In my calling answer me, || O God of my righteousness. In adversity You gave enlargement to me; Favor me, and hear my prayer.

² Sons of men! Until when [is] my glory for shame? You love a vain thing, you seek a lie. Selah.

³ And know that YHWH || Has separated a saintly one to Himself. YHWH hears in my calling to Him.

⁶ Many are saying, "Who shows us good?" Lift on us the light of Your face, O YHWH,

⁷ You have given joy in my heart, || From the time their grain and their wine || Have been multiplied.

² Be attentive to the voice of my cry, || My King and my God, || For I pray to You habitually.

¹¹ And all trusting in You rejoice, || They sing for all time, and You cover them over, || And those loving Your Name exult in You.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. WITH STRINGED INSTRUMENTS, ON THE EIGHTH. A PSALM OF DAVID. O YHWH, do not reprove me in Your anger, || Nor discipline me in Your fury.

² Favor me, O YHWH, for I [am] weak, || Heal me, O YHWH, || For my bones have been troubled,

⁴ Turn back, O YHWH, draw out my soul, || Save me for Your kindness' sake.

⁷ My eye is old from provocation, || It is old because of all my adversaries,

⁸ Turn from me all you workers of iniquity, || For YHWH heard the voice of my weeping,

⁹ YHWH has heard my supplication, || YHWH receives my prayer.

¹ A SHIGGAION OF DAVID, THAT HE SANG TO YHWH CONCERNING THE WORDS OF CUSH, A BENJAMITE. O YHWH, my God, in You I have trusted, || Save me from all my pursuers, and deliver me.

² Lest he tear my soul as a lion, || Tearing, and there is no deliverer.

³ O YHWH, my God, if I have done this, || If there is iniquity in my hands,

⁵ [Then] an enemy pursues my soul, and overtakes, || And treads down my life to the earth, || And places my glory in the dust. Selah.

⁷ And a congregation of peoples surround You, || And over it turn back on high.

⁸ YHWH judges the peoples; Judge me, O YHWH, || According to my righteousness, || And according to my integrity [that is] on me.

¹² If [one] does not turn, || He sharpens His sword, || He has bent His bow [and] He prepares it,

¹³ Indeed, He has prepared for Himself || Instruments of death, || He makes His arrows for burning pursuers.

¹⁵ He has prepared a pit, and he digs it, || And he falls into a ditch he makes.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. ON THE GITTITH. A PSALM OF DAVID. YHWH, our Lord, || How majestic [is] Your Name in all the earth, || Who have set Your splendor on the heavens!

² From the mouths of infants and sucklings || You have founded strength, || Because of Your adversaries, || To still an enemy and a self-avenger.

⁴ What [is] man that You remember him? The son of man that You inspect him?

⁵ You make him a little lower than the gods [[or God]], || And surround him with glory and majesty.

⁶ You cause him to rule || Over the works of Your hands, || You have placed all under his feet.

⁷ Sheep and oxen, all of them, || And also beasts of the field,

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON "DEATH OF THE SON." A PSALM OF DAVID. I confess, O YHWH, with all my heart, || I recount all Your wonders,

³ In my enemies turning backward, || They stumble and perish from Your face.

⁴ For You have done my judgment and my right. You have sat on a throne, || Judging [with] righteousness.

⁸ And He judges the world in righteousness, || He judges the peoples in uprightness.

¹² For He who is seeking for blood || Has remembered them, || He has not forgotten the cry of the afflicted.

¹³ Favor me, O YHWH, || See my affliction by those hating me, || You who lift me up from the gates of death,

¹⁴ So that I recount all Your praise, || In the gates of the daughter of Zion. I rejoice on Your salvation.

¹⁵ Nations have sunk in a pit they made, || Their foot has been captured in a net that they hid.

¹⁶ YHWH has been known, || He has done judgment; By a work of his hands || The wicked has been snared. Meditation. Selah.

¹⁷ The wicked turn back to Sheol, || All nations forgetting God.

¹⁸ For the needy is not forgotten forever, || [Nor] the hope of the humble lost for all time.

² Through the pride of the wicked, || Is the poor inflamed, || They are caught in schemes that they devised.

⁴ The wicked does not inquire according to the height of his face. "There is no God!" [are] all his schemes.

⁵ His ways writhe at all times, || Your judgments [are] on high before him, || All his adversaries—he puffs at them.

⁶ He has said in his heart, "I am not moved, || [And am] not in calamity to generation and generation."

⁷ His mouth is full of oaths, || And deceits, and fraud: Under his tongue [is] perverseness and iniquity,

⁸ He sits in an ambush of the villages, || He slays the innocent in secret places. His eyes secretly watch for the afflicted,

⁹ He lies in wait in a secret place, as a lion in a covert. He lies in wait to catch the poor, || He catches the poor, drawing him into his net.

¹⁰ He is bruised—he bows down, || The afflicted has fallen by his mighty ones.

¹¹ He said in his heart, "God has forgotten, || He has hid His face, || He has never seen."

¹³ Why has the wicked despised God? He has said in his heart, "It is not required."

¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked and the evil, || Seek out his wickedness, find none;

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. BY DAVID. In YHWH I trusted, how do you say to my soul, “They moved to your mountain [as] the bird?”

⁵ YHWH tries the righteous. And the wicked and the lover of violence, || His soul has hated,

² They each speak vanity with his neighbor, || Lip of flattery! With heart and heart they speak.

⁴ Who said, “By our tongue we do mightily: Our lips [are] our own; who [is] lord over us?”

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. Until when, O YHWH, || Do You forget me forever? Until when do You hide Your face from me?

² Until when do I set counsels in my soul, || [With] sorrow in my heart daily? Until when is my enemy exalted over me?

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. BY DAVID. A fool has said in his heart, “There is no God”; They have done corruptly, || They have done abominable actions, || There is not a doer of good.

² YHWH has looked from the heavens on the sons of men, || To see if there is a wise one—seeking God.

³ The whole have turned aside, || Together they have been filthy: There is not a doer of good, not even one.

² He who is walking uprightly, || And working righteousness, || And speaking truth in his heart.

³ He has not slandered by his tongue, || He has not done evil to his friend; And he has not lifted up reproach || Against his neighbor.

¹ A MIKTAM OF DAVID. Preserve me, O God, for I trusted in You.

² You have said to YHWH, “You [are] my Lord”; My goodness [is] not above You;

³ For the holy ones who [are] in the land, || And the honorable, all my delight [is] in them.

⁴ Their griefs are multiplied, [who] have hurried backward; I do not pour out their drink-offerings of blood, || Nor do I take up their names on my lips.

⁷ I bless YHWH who has counseled me; Also [in] the nights my reins instruct me.

⁸ I placed YHWH before me continually, || Because [He is] at my right hand I am not moved.

⁹ Therefore my heart has been glad, || And my glory rejoices, || Also my flesh dwells confidently:

¹⁰ For You do not leave my soul to Sheol, || Nor give your Holy One to see corruption.

² My judgment goes out from before You; Your eyes see uprightly.

³ You have proved my heart, || You have inspected by night, || You have tried me, You find nothing; My thoughts do not pass over my mouth.

⁴ As for doings of man, || Through a word of Your lips I have observed || The paths of a destroyer;

⁵ To uphold my goings in Your paths, || My steps have not slipped.

⁶ I called You, for You answer me, || O God, incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.

⁸ Keep me as the apple, the daughter of the eye; Hide me in the shadow of Your wings,

⁹ From the face of the wicked who spoiled me, || [From] my enemies in soul who go around against me.

¹⁰ They have closed up their fat, || Their mouths have spoken with pride:

¹² His likeness as a lion desirous to tear, || As a young lion dwelling in secret places.

¹³ Arise, O YHWH, go before his face, || Cause him to bend. Deliver my soul from the wicked, Your sword,

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. BY A SERVANT OF YHWH, BY DAVID, WHO HAS SPOKEN TO YHWH THE WORDS OF THIS SONG IN THE DAY YHWH DELIVERED HIM FROM THE HAND OF ALL HIS ENEMIES, AND FROM THE HAND OF SAUL, AND HE SAYS: I love You, O YHWH, my strength.

² YHWH [is] my rock, and my bulwark, || And my deliverer, || My God [is] my rock, || I trust in Him: My shield, and the horn of my salvation, || My high tower.

³ I call on YHWH, the Praised One, || And I am saved from my enemies.

⁴ Cords of death have surrounded me, || And streams of the worthless make me afraid.

⁵ Cords of Sheol have surrounded me, || Snares of death have been before me.

⁶ In my adversity I call YHWH, || And I cry to my God. He hears my voice from His temple, || And My cry comes into His ears before Him.

7 And the earth shakes and trembles, || And foundations of hills are troubled, || And they shake—because He has wrath.

8 Smoke has gone up from His nostrils, || And fire from His mouth consumes, || Coals have been kindled by it.

9 And He inclines the heavens, and comes down, || And thick darkness [is] under His feet.

10 And He rides on a cherub, and flies, || And He flies on wings of wind.

11 He makes darkness His secret place, || Around Him His dwelling place, || Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

12 From the brightness before Him His thick clouds have passed on, || Hail and coals of fire.

13 And YHWH thunders in the heavens, || And the Most High gives forth His voice, || Hail and coals of fire.

14 And He sends His arrows and scatters them, || And much lightning, and crushes them.

15 And the streams of waters are seen, || And foundations of the earth are revealed, || From Your rebuke, O YHWH, || From the breath of the wind of Your anger.

16 He sends from above—He takes me, || He draws me out of many waters.

17 He delivers me from my strong enemy, || And from those hating me, || For they have been stronger than I.

18 They go before me in a day of my calamity || And YHWH is for a support to me.

19 And He brings me forth to a large place, || He draws me out, because He delighted in me.

20 YHWH repays me || According to my righteousness, || According to the cleanness of my hands, || He returns to me.

21 For I have kept the ways of YHWH, || And have not done wickedly against my God.

22 For all His judgments [are] before me, || And I do not turn His statutes from me.

23 And I am perfect with Him, || And I keep myself from my iniquity.

24 And YHWH returns to me, || According to my righteousness, || According to the cleanness of my hands, || Before His eyes.

25 With the kind You show Yourself kind, || With a perfect man You show Yourself perfect.

26 With the pure You show Yourself pure, || And with the perverse You show Yourself a wrestler,

27 For You save a poor people, || And cause the eyes of the high to fall.

28 For You light my lamp, || My God YHWH enlightens my darkness.

29 For by You I run [against] a troop! And by my God I leap a wall.

30 God—perfect [is] His way, || The saying of YHWH is tried, || He [is] a shield to all those trusting in Him.

31 For who [is] God besides YHWH? And who [is] a rock except our God?

32 God—who is girding me [with] strength, || And He makes my way perfect.

33 Making my feet like does, || And on my high places causes me to stand.

³⁴ Teaching my hands for battle, || And a bow of bronze was brought down by my arms.

³⁵ And You give to me the shield of Your salvation, || And Your right hand supports me, || And Your lowliness makes me great.

³⁷ I pursue my enemies, and overtake them, || And do not turn back until they are consumed.

³⁸ I strike them, and they are not able to rise, || They fall under my feet,

³⁹ And You gird me [with] strength for battle, || You cause my withstanders to bow under me.

⁴⁰ As for my enemies—You have given to me the neck, || As for those hating me—I cut them off.

⁴¹ They cry, and there is no savior, || On YHWH, and He does not answer them.

⁴² And I beat them as dust before wind, || I empty them out as mire of the streets.

⁴³ You deliver me || From the strivings of the people, || You place me for a head of nations, || A people I have not known serve me.

⁴⁴ At the hearing of the ear they listen to me, || Sons of a stranger feign obedience to me,

⁴⁵ Sons of a stranger fade away, || And are slain out of their close places.

⁴⁶ YHWH lives—and blessed [is] my rock, || And exalted is the God of my salvation.

⁴⁸ My deliverer from my enemies, || You raise me above my withstanders, || Deliver me from a man of violence.

² Day to day utters speech, || And night to night shows knowledge.

³ There is no speech, and there are no words. Their voice has not been heard.

⁴ Their line has gone forth into all the earth, || And their sayings to the end of the world, || In them He placed a tent for the sun,

⁵ And he, as a bridegroom, goes out from his covering, || He rejoices as a mighty one || To run the path.

⁶ From the end of the heavens [is] his going out, || And his revolution [is] to their ends, || And nothing is hid from his heat.

⁷ The law of YHWH [is] perfect, refreshing the soul, || The testimonies of YHWH [are] steadfast, || Making the simple wise,

⁸ The precepts of YHWH [are] upright, || Rejoicing the heart, || The command of YHWH [is] pure, enlightening the eyes,

¹² [His] errors—who understands? Declare me innocent from hidden ones,

² He sends your help from the sanctuary, || And supports you from Zion,

³ He remembers all your presents, || And reduces your burnt-offering to ashes. Selah.

⁴ He gives to you according to your heart, || And fulfills all your counsel.

⁵ We sing of Your salvation, || And in the Name of our God set up a banner. YHWH fulfills all your requests.

⁶ Now I have known || That YHWH has saved His anointed, || He answers him from His holy heavens, || With the saving might of His right hand.

⁷ Some of chariots, and some of horses, || And we of the Name of our God YHWH || Make mention.

⁸ They have bowed and have fallen, || And we have risen and station ourselves upright.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. YHWH, the king is joyful in Your strength, || How greatly he rejoices in Your salvation.

² You gave the desire of his heart to him, || And You have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.

³ For You put blessings of goodness before him, || You set a crown of fine gold on his head.

⁴ He has asked for life from You, || You have given length of days to him, || For all time and forever.

⁵ Great [is] his glory in Your salvation, || You place splendor and majesty on him.

⁶ For You make him blessings forever, || You cause him to rejoice with joy, || By Your countenance.

⁷ For the king is trusting in YHWH, || And in the kindness of the Most High he is not moved.

⁸ Your hand comes to all Your enemies, || Your right hand finds Your haters.

⁹ You make them as a furnace of fire, || At the time of Your presence. YHWH swallows them in His anger, || And fire devours them.

¹⁰ You destroy their fruit from earth, || And their seed from the sons of men.

¹¹ For they stretched out evil against You, || They devised a wicked scheme, they do not prevail,

¹² For You make them turn their back, || When You prepare Your strings against their faces.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON "DOE OF THE MORNING." A PSALM OF DAVID. My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? Far from My salvation, || The words of My roaring?

² My God, I call by day, and You do not answer, || And by night, and am not silent.

³ And You [are] holy, || Sitting—the Praise of Israel.

⁴ In You our fathers trusted; They trusted, and You deliver them.

⁵ To You they cried, and were delivered, || In You they trusted, and were not disappointed.

⁶ And I [am] a worm, and no man, || A reproach of man, and despised of the people.

⁷ All beholding Me mock at Me, || They make free with the lip—shake the head,

⁸ "Roll to YHWH, He delivers Him, || He delivers Him, for He delighted in Him."

⁹ For You [are] He bringing Me forth from the womb, || Causing Me to trust, || On the breasts of My mother.

¹⁰ On You I have been cast from the womb, || From the belly of My mother You [are] My God.

¹¹ Do not be far from Me, || For adversity is near, for there is no helper.

¹³ They have opened their mouth against Me, || A lion tearing and roaring.

¹⁴ I have been poured out as waters, || And all my bones have separated themselves, || My heart has been like wax, || It is melted in the midst of My bowels.

¹⁵ My power is dried up as an earthen vessel, || And My tongue is cleaving to My jaws.

¹⁶ And You appoint Me to the dust of death, || For dogs have surrounded Me, || A company of evildoers has surrounded Me, || Piercing My hands and My feet.

¹⁷ I count all My bones—they look expectingly, || They look on Me,

¹⁸ They apportion My garments to themselves, || And they cause a lot to fall for My clothing.

¹⁹ And You, O YHWH, do not be far off, || O My strength, hurry to help Me.

²⁰ Deliver My soul from the sword, || My only one from the paw of a dog.

²¹ Save Me from the mouth of a lion || And You have answered Me from the horns of the high places!

²² I declare Your Name to My brothers, || In the midst of the assembly I praise You.

²³ You who fear YHWH, praise Him, || All the seed of Jacob, honor Him,
|| And be afraid of Him, all you seed of Israel.

²⁴ For He has not despised, nor detested, || The affliction of the afflicted,

²⁵ Of You My praise [is] in the great assembly. I complete My vows before His fearers.

²⁶ The humble eat and are satisfied, || Those seeking Him praise YHWH,
|| Your heart lives forever.

²⁷ Remember and return to YHWH, || Do all the ends of the earth, ||
And bow themselves before You, || Do all families of the nations,

²⁸ For to YHWH [is] the kingdom, || And He is ruling among nations.

²⁹ And the fat ones of earth have eaten, || And they bow themselves, ||
All going down to dust bow before Him, || And he [who] has not revived his soul.

³⁰ A seed serves Him, || It is declared of the Lord to the generation.

³¹ They come and declare His righteousness, || To a people that is born, that He has made!

¹ A PSALM OF DAVID. YHWH [is] my shepherd, I do not lack,

² He causes me to lie down in pastures of tender grass, || He leads me
by quiet waters.

³ He refreshes my soul, || He leads me in paths of righteousness || For His Name's sake;

⁴ Also—when I walk in a valley of death-shade, || I fear no evil, for You
[are] with me, || Your rod and Your staff—they comfort me.

⁵ You arrange a table before me, || In front of my adversaries, || You have anointed my head with oil, || My cup is full!

⁶ Surely goodness and kindness pursue me || All the days of my life, ||
And my dwelling [is] in the house of YHWH, || For [the] length of [my]

world and the inhabitants in it.

² For He has founded it on the seas, || And He establishes it on the floods.

³ Who goes up into the hill of YHWH? And who rises up in His holy place?

⁴ The clean of hands, and pure of heart, || Who has not lifted up his soul to vanity, || Nor has sworn to deceit.

⁵ He carries away a blessing from YHWH, || Righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶ This [is] a generation of those seeking Him. Seeking Your face, O Jacob!
Selah.

⁷ Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O perpetual doors! And the King of Glory comes in!

YHWH, the mighty in battle.

⁹ Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O perpetual doors! And the King of Glory comes in!

² My God, in You I have trusted, || Do not let me be ashamed, || Do not let my enemies exult over me.

³ Also let none waiting on You be ashamed, || Let the treacherous dealers without cause be ashamed.

⁴ Your ways, O YHWH, cause me to know, || You teach me Your paths.

⁵ Cause me to tread in Your truth, and teach me, || For You [are] the God of my salvation, || Near You I have waited all the day.

⁶ Remember Your mercies, O YHWH, || And Your kindnesses, for they [are] from the age.

⁷ Sins of my youth, and my transgressions, || Do not remember. According to Your kindness be mindful of me, || For Your goodness' sake, O YHWH.

⁸ Good and upright [is] YHWH, || Therefore He directs sinners in the way.

⁹ He causes the humble to tread in judgment, || And teaches the humble His way.

¹⁰ All the paths of YHWH [are] kindness and truth, || To those keeping His covenant, || And His testimonies.

¹² Who [is] this—the man fearing YHWH? He directs him in the way He chooses.

¹³ His soul remains in good, || And his seed possesses the land.

¹⁴ The secret of YHWH [is] for those fearing Him, || And His covenant—to cause them to know.

¹⁵ My eyes [are] continually to YHWH, || For He brings my feet out from a net.

¹⁶ Turn to me, and favor me, || For I [am] lonely and afflicted.

¹⁷ The distresses of my heart have enlarged themselves, || Bring me out from my distresses.

¹⁸ See my affliction and my misery, || And bear with all my sins.

¹⁹ See my enemies, for they have been many, || And they have hated me with violent hatred.

²⁰ Keep my soul, and deliver me, || Do not let me be ashamed, for I trusted in You.

¹ BY DAVID. Judge me, O YHWH, for I have walked in my integrity, || And I have trusted in YHWH, || I do not slide.

² Try me, O YHWH, and prove me, || My reins and my heart [are] purified,

³ For Your kindness [is] before my eyes, || And I have habitually walked in Your truth.

⁴ I have not sat with vain men, || And I do not enter with pretenders.

⁵ I have hated the assembly of evildoers, || And I do not sit with the wicked.

⁶ I wash my hands in innocence, || And I go around Your altar, O YHWH.

⁷ To sound with a voice of confession, || And to recount all Your wonders.

⁸ YHWH, I have loved the habitation of Your house, || And the place of the Dwelling Place of Your glory.

⁹ Do not gather my soul with sinners, || And my life with men of blood,

¹⁰ In whose hand [is] a wicked scheme, || And their right hand [is] full of bribes.

¹ BY DAVID. YHWH [is] my light and my salvation, || Whom do I fear? YHWH [is] the strength of my life, || Of whom am I afraid?

² When evildoers come near to me to eat my flesh, || My adversaries and my enemies to me, || They have stumbled and fallen.

³ Though a host encamps against me, || My heart does not fear, || Though war rises up against me, || In this I [am] confident.

⁴ One [thing] I asked of YHWH—it I seek: My dwelling in the house of YHWH, || All the days of my life, || To look on the pleasantness of YHWH, || And to inquire in His temple.

⁵ For He hides me in a dwelling place in the day of evil, || He hides me in a secret place of His tent, || He raises me up on a rock.

⁶ And now my head is lifted up, || Above my enemies—my surrounders, || And I sacrifice in His tent sacrifices of shouting, || I sing, indeed, I sing praise to YHWH.

⁸ My heart said to You, “They sought my face, || Your face, O YHWH, I seek.”

⁹ Do not hide Your face from me, || Do not turn Your servant aside in anger, || You have been my help. Do not leave me, nor forsake me, || O God of my salvation.

¹⁰ When my father and my mother || Have forsaken me, then YHWH gathers me.

¹¹ Show me, O YHWH, Your way, || And lead me in a path of uprightness, || For the sake of my beholders.

¹² Do not give me to the will of my adversaries, || For false witnesses have risen against me, || And they breathe out violence to me.

¹³ I had not believed to look on the goodness of YHWH || In the land of the living!

¹ BY DAVID. To You, O YHWH, I call, || My rock, do not be silent to me! Lest You are silent to me, || And I have been compared || With those going down to the pit.

² Hear the voice of my supplications, || In my crying to You, || In my lifting up my hands toward your holy oracle.

³ Do not draw me with the wicked, || And with workers of iniquity, || Speaking peace with their neighbors, || And evil in their heart.

⁵ For they do not attend to the doing of YHWH, || And to the work of His hands. He throws them down, || And does not build them up.

⁶ Blessed [is] YHWH, || For He has heard the voice of my supplications.

⁷ YHWH [is] my strength, and my shield, || In Him my heart trusted, and I have been helped. And my heart exults, || And I thank Him with my song.

⁸ YHWH [is] strength to him, || Indeed, the strength of the salvation of His anointed [is] He.

² Ascribe to YHWH the glory of His Name, || Bow yourselves to YHWH, || In the beauty of holiness.

³ The voice of YHWH [is] on the waters, || The God of glory has thundered, || YHWH [is] on many waters.

⁷ The voice of YHWH is hewing fiery flames,

⁸ The voice of YHWH pains a wilderness, || YHWH pains the wilderness of Kadesh.

⁹ The voice of YHWH pains the oaks, || And makes bare the forests, || And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"

¹ A PSALM. A SONG OF THE DEDICATION OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID. I exalt You, O YHWH, || For You have drawn me up, || And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

² My God YHWH, I have cried to You, || And You heal me.

³ YHWH, You have brought up my soul from Sheol, || You have kept me alive, || From going down [to] the pit.

4 Sing praise to YHWH, you His saints, || And give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness,

5 For—a moment [is] in His anger, || Life [is] in His goodwill, || At evening remains weeping, and at morning singing.

6 And I have said in my ease, “I am not moved for all time.

7 O YHWH, in Your good pleasure, || You have caused strength to remain for my mountain,” || You have hidden Your face—I have been troubled.

8 To You, O YHWH, I call, || And to YHWH I make supplication.

9 “What gain [is] in my blood? In my going down to corruption? Does dust thank You? Does it declare Your truth?

10 Hear, O YHWH, and favor me, O YHWH, be a helper to me.”

11 You have turned my mourning to dancing for me, || You have loosed my sackcloth, || And gird me [with] joy.

12 So that glory praises You, and is not silent, || O YHWH, my God, I thank You for all time!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. In You, O YHWH, I have trusted, || Do not let me be ashamed for all time, || In Your righteousness deliver me.

2 Incline Your ear to me quickly, deliver me, || Be to me for a strong rock, || For a house of bulwarks to save me.

3 For You [are] my rock and my bulwark, || For Your Name’s sake lead me and tend me.

4 Bring me out from the net that they hid for me, || For You [are] my strength.

5 Into Your hand I commit my spirit, || You have redeemed me, YHWH God of truth.

6 I have hated the observers of lying vanities, || And I have been confident toward YHWH.

7 I rejoice, and am glad in Your kindness, || In that You have seen my affliction, || You have known my soul in adversities.

8 And You have not shut me up, || Into the hand of an enemy, || You have caused my feet to stand in a broad place.

9 Favor me, O YHWH, for distress [is] to me, || My eye, my soul, and my body || Have become old by provocation.

10 For my life has been consumed in sorrow || And my years in sighing. My strength has been feeble because of my iniquity, || And my bones have become old.

11 I have been a reproach among all my adversaries, || And to my neighbors exceedingly, || And a fear to my acquaintances, || Those seeing me without—fled from me.

12 I have been forgotten as dead, out of mind, || I have been as a perishing vessel.

13 For I have heard an evil account of many, || Fear [is] all around. In their being united against me, || They have devised to take my life,

14 And I have trusted on You, || O YHWH, I have said, “You [are] my God.”

15 In Your hand [are] my times, || Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, || And from my pursuers.

16 Cause Your face to shine on Your servant, || Save me in Your kindness.

¹⁷ O YHWH, do not let me be ashamed, || For I have called You, let the wicked be ashamed, || Let them become silent to Sheol.

¹⁸ Let lips of falsehood become mute, || That are speaking against the righteous, || Ancient sayings, in pride and contempt.

¹⁹ How abundant is Your goodness, || That You have laid up for those fearing You, || You have worked for those trusting in You, || Before sons of men.

²⁰ You hide them in the secret place of Your presence, || From schemes of man, || You conceal them in a dwelling place, || From the strife of tongues.

²² And I have said in my haste, "I have been cut off from before Your eyes," || But You have heard the voice of my supplications, || In my crying to You.

²³ Love YHWH, all you His saints, || YHWH is keeping the faithful, || And repaying a proud doer abundantly.

¹ AN INSTRUCTION OF DAVID. O the blessedness of him whose transgression [is] forgiven, || Whose sin is covered.

² O the blessedness of a man, || To whom YHWH does not impute iniquity, || And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³ When I have kept silence, my bones have become old, || Through my roaring all the day.

⁴ When by day and by night Your hand is heavy on me, || My moisture has been changed || Into the droughts of summer. Selah.

⁵ I cause You to know my sin, || And I have not covered my iniquity. I have said, "I confess to YHWH concerning My transgressions," || And You have taken away the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

⁶ For every saintly one prays this to You, || In the time to find [You]. Surely at an overflowing of many waters, || They do not come to him.

⁷ You [are] a hiding place for me, || You keep me from distress, || Surround me [with] songs of deliverance. Selah.

⁸ I cause you to act wisely, || And direct you in the way that you go, || I cause My eye to take counsel concerning you.

⁹ Do not be as a horse—as a mule, || Without understanding, || With bridle and bit, its ornaments, to curb, || Not to come near to you.

¹⁰ Many [are] the pains of the wicked; As for him who is trusting in YHWH, || Kindness surrounds him.

² Give thanks to YHWH with a harp, || With stringed instrument of ten strings sing praise to Him,

³ Sing to Him a new song, || Play skillfully with shouting.

4 For the word of YHWH [is] upright, || And all His work [is] in faithfulness.

5 Loving righteousness and judgment, || The earth is full of the kindness of YHWH.

6 By the word of YHWH || The heavens have been made, || And all their host by the breath of His mouth.

7 Gathering the waters of the sea as a heap, || Putting the depths in treasuries.

8 All the earth is afraid of YHWH, || All the inhabitants of the world are afraid of Him.

9 For He has spoken, and it is, || He has commanded, and it stands.

10 YHWH made void the counsel of nations, || He disallowed the thoughts of the peoples.

11 The counsel of YHWH stands for all time, || The thoughts of His heart from generation to generation.

12 O the blessedness of the nation whose God [is] YHWH, || Of the people He chose, || For an inheritance to Him.

13 YHWH has looked from the heavens, || He has seen all the sons of men.

14 From the fixed place of His dwelling, || He looked to all inhabitants of the earth;

15 Who is forming their hearts together, || Who is attending to all their works.

16 The king is not saved by the multitude of a force. A mighty man is not delivered, || By abundance of power.

17 A false thing [is] the horse for safety, || And he does not deliver || By the abundance of his strength.

18 Behold, the eye of YHWH [is] to those fearing Him, || To those waiting for His kindness,

19 To deliver their soul from death, || And to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul has waited for YHWH, || He [is] our help and our shield,

21 For our heart rejoices in Him, || For we have trusted in His Holy Name.

1 BY DAVID, IN HIS CHANGING HIS BEHAVIOR BEFORE ABIMELECH, AND HE DRIVES HIM AWAY, AND HE GOES. [ALEPH-BET] I bless YHWH at all times, || His praise [is] continually in my mouth.

2 In YHWH my soul boasts herself, || The humble hear and rejoice.

3 Ascribe greatness to YHWH with me, || And we exalt His Name together.

4 I sought YHWH, and He answered me, || And delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked expectingly to Him, || And they became bright, || And their faces are not ashamed.

6 This poor [one] called, and YHWH heard, || And saved him from all his distresses.

7 A messenger of YHWH is encamping, || Around those who fear Him, || And He arms them.

⁸ Taste and see that YHWH [is] good, || O the blessedness of the man who trusts in Him.

⁹ Fear YHWH, you His holy ones, || For there is no lack to those fearing Him.

¹⁰ Young lions have lacked and been hungry, || And those seeking YHWH do not lack any good,

¹² Who [is] the man that is desiring life? Loving days to see good?

¹³ Keep your tongue from evil, || And your lips from speaking deceit.

¹⁴ Turn aside from evil and do good, || Seek peace and pursue it.

¹⁵ The eyes of YHWH [are] to the righteous, || And His ears to their cry.

¹⁶ (The face of YHWH [is] on doers of evil, || To cut off their memorial from earth.)

¹⁷ They cried, and YHWH heard, || And delivered them from all their distresses.

¹⁸ YHWH [is] near to the broken of heart, || And He saves the bruised of spirit.

¹⁹ Many [are] the afflictions of the righteous, || YHWH delivers him out of them all.

²⁰ He is keeping all his bones, || Not one of them has been broken.

²¹ Evil puts the wicked to death, || And those hating the righteous are desolate.

² Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise for my help,

³ And draw out spear and lance, || To meet my pursuers. Say to my soul, "I [am] your salvation."

⁵ They are as chaff before wind, || And a messenger of YHWH driving away.

⁶ Their way is darkness and slipperiness, || And a messenger of YHWH—their pursuer.

⁷ For without cause they hid their net [in] a pit for me, || Without cause they dug for my soul.

⁸ Desolation meets him—he does not know, || And his net that he hid catches him, || He falls into it for desolation.

⁹ And my soul is joyful in YHWH, || It rejoices in His salvation.

¹⁰ All my bones say, "YHWH, who is like You, || Delivering the poor from the [one] stronger than he, || And the poor and needy from his plunderer."

¹¹ Violent witnesses rise up, || That which I have not known they ask me.

¹² They pay me evil for good, bereaving my soul,

¹⁴ As [if] a friend, as [if] my brother, || I habitually walked, || As a mourner for a mother, || I have bowed down mourning.

15 And they have rejoiced in my halting, || And have been gathered together, || The strikers were gathered against me, || And I have not known, || They have torn, and they have not ceased;

16 With profane ones, mockers in feasts, || Gnashing their teeth against me.

17 Lord, how long do You behold? Keep my soul back from their desolations, || My only one from young lions.

18 I thank You in a great assembly, || I praise You among a mighty people.

19 Do not let my enemies rejoice over me [with] falsehood, || Those hating me without cause wink the eye.

20 For they do not speak peace, || And against the quiet of the land, || They devise deceitful words,

21 And they enlarge their mouth against me, || They said, "Aha, aha, our eye has seen."

22 You have seen, O YHWH, || Do not be silent, O Lord—do not be far from me,

23 Stir up, and wake to my judgment, || My God, and my Lord, to my plea.

24 Judge me according to Your righteousness, O YHWH my God, || And they do not rejoice over me.

25 They do not say in their heart, "Aha, our desire." They do not say, "We swallowed him up."

26 They are ashamed and confounded together, || Who are rejoicing at my evil. They put on shame and confusion, || Who are magnifying themselves against me.

27 They sing and rejoice, who are desiring my righteousness, || And they continually say, "YHWH is magnified, || Who is desiring the peace of His servant."

28 And my tongue utters Your righteousness, || All the day Your praise!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. BY A SERVANT OF YHWH, BY DAVID. The transgression of the wicked || Is affirming within my heart, "Fear of God is not before his eyes,

2 For he made [it] smooth to himself in his eyes, || To find his iniquity to be hated.

3 The words of his mouth [are] iniquity and deceit, || He ceased to act prudently—to do good.

4 He devises iniquity on his bed, || He stations himself on a way not good, || He does not refuse evil."

5 O YHWH, Your kindness [is] in the heavens, || Your faithfulness [is] to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness [is] as mountains of God, || Your judgments [are] a great deep. You save man and beast, O YHWH.

7 How precious [is] Your kindness, O God, || And the sons of men trust || In the shadow of Your wings.

8 They are filled from the fatness of Your house, || And You cause them to drink the stream of Your delights.

9 For a fountain of life [is] with You, || In Your light we see light.

10 Draw out Your kindness to those knowing You, || And Your righteousness to the upright of heart.

¹¹ Do not let a foot of pride meet me, || And do not let a hand of the wicked move me.

¹² Workers of iniquity have fallen there, || They have been overthrown, || And have not been able to arise!

² For they are cut off speedily as grass, || And fade as the greenness of the tender grass.

³ Trust in YHWH, and do good, || Dwell [in] the land, and enjoy faithfulness,

⁴ And delight yourself on YHWH, || And He gives to you the petitions of your heart.

⁵ Roll your way on YHWH, || And trust on Him, and He works,

⁶ And has brought out your righteousness as light, || And your judgment as noon-day.

⁸ Desist from anger, and forsake fury, || Do not fret yourself to only do evil.

⁹ For evildoers are cut off, || As for those waiting on YHWH, they possess the land.

¹⁰ And yet a little [while], and the wicked is not, || And you have considered his place, and it is not.

¹² The wicked is devising against the righteous, || And gnashing his teeth against him.

¹³ The Lord laughs at him, || For He has seen that his day comes.

¹⁵ Their sword enters into their own heart, || And their bows are shattered.

¹⁶ Better [is] the little of the righteous, || Than the store of many wicked.

¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked are shattered, || And YHWH is sustaining the righteous.

¹⁸ YHWH knows the days of the perfect, || And their inheritance is for all time.

¹⁹ They are not ashamed in a time of evil, || And they are satisfied in days of famine.

²⁰ But the wicked perish, and the enemies of YHWH, || Have been consumed as the preciousness of lambs, || They have been consumed in smoke.

²¹ The wicked is borrowing and does not repay, || And the righteous is gracious and giving.

²² For His blessed ones possess the land, || And His reviled ones are cut off.

²³ The steps of a man [are] from YHWH, || They have been prepared, || And He desires his way.

²⁴ When he falls, he is not cast down, || For YHWH is sustaining his hand.

²⁵ I have been young, || I have also become old, || And I have not seen the righteous forsaken, || And his seed seeking bread.

²⁷ Turn aside from evil, and do good, and dwell for all time.

²⁹ The righteous possess the land, || And they dwell on it forever.

³⁰ The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, || And his tongue speaks judgment.

³¹ The law of his God [is] his heart, || His steps do not slide.

³² The wicked is watching for the righteous, || And is seeking to put him to death.

³³ YHWH does not leave him in his hand, || Nor condemn him in his being judged.

³⁵ I have seen the wicked terrible, || And spreading as a green native plant,

³⁶ And he passes away, and behold, he is not, || And I seek him, and he is not found!

³⁷ Observe the perfect, and see the upright, || For the latter end of each [is] peace.

³⁸ And transgressors were destroyed together, || The latter end of the wicked was cut off.

³⁹ And the salvation of the righteous [is] from YHWH, || Their strong place in a time of adversity.

¹ A PSALM OF DAVID. "TO CAUSE TO REMEMBER." YHWH, do not reprove me in Your wrath, || Nor discipline me in Your fury.

² For Your arrows have come down on me, || And You let down Your hand on me.

³ Soundness is not in my flesh, || Because of Your indignation, || Peace is not in my bones, || Because of my sin.

⁴ For my iniquities have passed over my head, || As a heavy burden—too heavy for me.

⁵ Stunk—my wounds have become corrupt, || Because of my folly.

⁶ I have been bent down, || I have been bowed down—to excess, || I have gone mourning all the day.

⁷ For my flanks have been full of drought, || And soundness is not in my flesh.

⁸ I have been feeble and struck—to excess, || I have roared from quietude of heart.

⁹ Lord, all my desire [is] before You, || And my sighing has not been hid from You.

¹⁰ My heart [is] panting, my power has forsaken me, || And the light of my eyes, || Even they are not with me.

¹¹ My lovers and my friends stand aloof from before my plague. And my neighbors have stood far off.

¹³ And I, as deaf, do not hear. And as a mute one who does not open his mouth.

¹⁴ Indeed, I am as a man who does not hear, || And in his mouth are no reproofs.

¹⁵ Because for You, O YHWH, I have waited, || You answer, O Lord my God.

¹⁶ When I said, "Lest they rejoice over me, || In the slipping of my foot they magnified themselves against me."

¹⁷ For I am ready to halt, || And my pain [is] continually before me.

¹⁸ For I declare my iniquity, || I am sorry for my sin.

¹⁹ And my enemies [are] lively, || They have been strong, and those hating me without cause, || Have been multiplied.

²⁰ And those paying evil for good accuse me, || Because of my pursuing good.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. FOR JEDUTHUN. A PSALM OF DAVID. I have said, "I observe my ways, || Against sinning with my tongue, || I keep a curb for my mouth, || While the wicked [is] before me."

² I was mute [with] silence, || I kept silent from good, and my pain is excited.

³ My heart [is] hot within me, || In my meditating the fire burns, || I have spoken with my tongue.

⁴ "Cause me to know, O YHWH, my end, || And the measure of my days—what it [is]," || I know how frail I [am].

⁶ Only, each habitually walks in an image, || Only, [in] vain, they are disquieted, || He heaps up and does not know who gathers them.

⁷ And now, what have I expected? O Lord, my hope—it [is] of You.

⁸ Deliver me from all my transgressions, || Do not make me a reproach of the fool.

⁹ I have been mute, I do not open my mouth, || Because You have done [it].

¹⁰ Turn aside Your stroke from off me, || From the striving of Your hand I have been consumed.

¹¹ With reproofs against iniquity, || You have corrected man, || And dissolve his desirableness as a moth, || Only, every man [is] vanity. Selah.

¹² Hear my prayer, O YHWH, || And give ear [to] my cry, || Do not be silent to my tear, || For I [am] a sojourner with You, || A settler like all my fathers.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. I have diligently expected YHWH, || And He inclines to me, and hears my cry,

² And He causes me to come up || From a pit of desolation—from mire of mud, || And He raises up my feet on a rock, || He is establishing my steps.

⁴ O the blessedness of the man || Who has made YHWH his trust, || And has not turned to the proud, || And those turning aside to lies.

⁵ You have done much, my God YHWH; Your wonders and Your thoughts toward us, || There is none to arrange to You, || I declare and speak: They have been more than to be numbered.

⁶ Sacrifice and present You have not desired, || But a body You have prepared for me, || Burnt and sin-offering You have not asked.

⁷ Then I said, “Behold, I have come, || In the roll of the scroll it is written of me,

⁸ I have delighted to do Your pleasure, my God, || And Your law [is] within my heart.”

⁹ I have proclaimed tidings of righteousness || In the great assembly, || Behold, I do not restrain my lips, || O YHWH, You have known.

¹⁰ I have not concealed Your righteousness || In the midst of my heart, || I have told of Your faithfulness and Your salvation, || I have not hidden Your kindness and Your truth, || To the great assembly.

¹¹ You, O YHWH, do not restrain Your mercies from me, || Your kindness and Your truth continually keep me.

¹² For innumerable evils have surrounded me, || My iniquities have overtaken me, || And I have not been able to see; They have been more than the hairs of my head, || And my heart has forsaken me.

¹⁵ They are desolate because of their shame, || Who are saying to me, “Aha, aha.”

¹⁶ All seeking You rejoice and are glad in You, || Those loving Your salvation continually say, “YHWH is magnified.”

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. O the blessedness of him || Who is acting wisely to the poor, || In a day of evil YHWH delivers him.

² YHWH preserves him and revives him, || He is blessed in the land, || And You do not give him into the will of his enemies.

³ YHWH supports [him] on a bed of sickness, || You have turned his bed in his weakness.

⁴ I said, "O YHWH, favor me, || Heal my soul, for I sinned against You,"

⁵ My enemies say evil of me: When he dies—his name has perished!

⁶ And if he came to see—he speaks vanity, || His heart gathers iniquity to itself, || He goes out—at the street he speaks.

⁷ All hating me whisper together against me, || Against me they devise evil to me:

⁸ A worthless thing is poured out on him, || And because he lay down he does not rise again.

⁹ Even my ally, in whom I trusted, || One eating my bread, || Made the heel great against me,

¹⁰ And You, YHWH, favor me, || And cause me to rise, || And I give repayment to them.

¹¹ By this I have known, || That You have delighted in me, || Because my enemy does not shout over me.

¹² As for me, in my integrity, || You have taken hold on me, || And cause me to stand before You for all time.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. AN INSTRUCTION OF THE SONS OF KORAH. As a deer pants for streams of water, || So my soul pants toward You, O God.

² My soul thirsted for God, for the living God, || When do I enter and see the face of God?

³ My tear has been bread day and night to me, || In their saying to me all the day, "Where [is] your God?"

⁴ These I remember, and pour out my soul in me, || For I pass over into the shelter, || I go softly with them to the house of God, || With the voice of singing and confession, || The multitude keeping celebration!

⁵ Why bow yourself, O my soul? Indeed, are you troubled within me? Wait for God, for I still confess Him: The salvation of my countenance—my God!

⁶ My soul bows itself in me, || Therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan, || And of the Hermons, from Mount Mizar.

⁷ Deep is calling to deep || At the noise of Your waterspouts, || All Your breakers and Your billows passed over me.

⁸ By day YHWH commands His kindness, || And by night a song [is] with me, || A prayer to the God of my life.

⁹ I say to God my Rock, "Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning in the oppression of an enemy?"

¹¹ Why bow yourself, O my soul? And why are you troubled within me? Wait for God, for I still confess Him, || The salvation of my countenance, and my God!

¹ Judge me, O God, || And plead my cause against a nation not pious, || You deliver me from a man of deceit and perverseness,

² For you [are] the God of my strength. Why have You cast me off? Why do I go up and down mourning, || In the oppression of an enemy?

³ Send forth Your light and Your truth, || They lead me, they bring me in, || To Your holy hill, and to Your dwelling places.

⁴ And I go to the altar of God, || To God, the joy of my rejoicing. And I thank You with a harp, O God, my God.

⁵ Why bow yourself, O my soul? And why are you troubled within me? Wait for God, for I still confess Him, || The salvation of my countenance, and my God!

² You, [with] Your hand, have dispossessed nations. And You plant them. You afflict peoples, and send them away.

³ For they did not possess the land by their sword, || And their arm did not give salvation to them, || But Your right hand, and Your arm, || And the light of Your countenance, || Because You had accepted them.

⁴ You [are] He, my King, O God, || Command the deliverances of Jacob.

⁵ By You we push our adversaries, || By Your Name we tread down our withstanders,

⁷ For You have saved us from our adversaries, || And You have put to shame those hating us.

⁸ In God we have boasted all the day, || And we thank Your Name for all time. Selah.

⁹ In anger You have cast off and cause us to blush, || And do not go forth with our hosts.

¹⁰ You cause us to turn backward from an adversary, || And those hating us, || Have spoiled for themselves.

¹¹ You make us food like sheep, || And You have scattered us among nations.

¹² You sell Your people—without wealth, || And have not become great by their price.

¹³ You make us a reproach to our neighbors, || A scorn and a reproach to our surrounders.

¹⁴ You make us an allegory among nations, || A shaking of the head among peoples.

¹⁵ All the day my confusion [is] before me, || And the shame of my face has covered me.

¹⁶ Because of the voice of a reproacher and reviler, || Because of an enemy and a self-avenger.

¹⁷ All this met us, and we did not forget You, || Nor have we dealt falsely in Your covenant.

¹⁸ We do not turn our heart backward, || Nor turn aside our step from Your path.

¹⁹ But You have struck us in a place of dragons, || And cover us over with death-shade.

²⁰ If we have forgotten the Name of our God, || And spread our hands to a strange God,

²¹ Does God not search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart.

²² Surely, for Your sake we have been slain all the day, || Reckoned as sheep of the slaughter.

²³ Stir up—why do You sleep, O Lord? Awake, do not cast us off forever.

²⁴ Why do You hide Your face? You forget our afflictions and our oppression,

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON "LILIES." AN INSTRUCTION OF THE SONS OF KORAH. A SONG OF LOVES. My heart has stirred a good word, || I am telling my works to the King, || My tongue [is] the pen of a speedy writer.

² You have been beautified above the sons of men, || Grace has been poured into Your lips, || Therefore God has blessed You for all time.

³ Gird Your sword on the thigh, O Mighty [One], || Your splendor and Your majesty!

⁵ Your arrows [are] sharp—Peoples fall under You—In the heart of the enemies of the King.

⁶ Your throne, O God, [is for] all time and forever, || A scepter of uprightness || [Is] the scepter of Your kingdom.

⁸ Myrrh, and aloes, [and] cassia || [Cover] all Your garments; Out of palaces of ivory, || Stringed instruments have made You glad.

⁹ Daughters of kings [are] among Your precious ones, || A queen has stood at Your right hand, || In pure gold of Ophir.

¹⁰ Listen, O daughter, and see, incline your ear, || And forget your people, and your father's house,

¹¹ And the King desires your beauty, || Because He [is] your Lord—bow yourself to Him,

¹² And the daughter of Tyre with a present, || The rich of the people appease your face.

¹³ All glory [is] the daughter of the king within, || Her clothing [is] with filigrees of gold.

¹⁴ In various colors she is brought to the King; Afterward, virgins, her companions, || Are brought to You.

¹⁵ They are brought with joy and gladness, || They come into the palace of the King.

¹⁶ Instead of Your fathers are Your sons, || You appoint them for princes in all the earth.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. BY SONS OF KORAH. FOR GIRLS' [VOICES]. A SONG. God [is] our refuge and strength, || A most sure help in adversities.

² Therefore we do not fear in the changing of earth, || And in the slipping of mountains || Into the heart of the seas.

⁴ A river—its streams make glad the city of God, || Your holy place of the dwelling places of the Most High.

⁵ God [is] in her midst—she is not moved, God helps her at the turn of the morning!

⁶ Nations have been troubled, || Kingdoms have been moved, || He has given forth with His voice—earth melts.

⁷ YHWH of Hosts [is] with us, || The God of Jacob [is] a tower for us. Selah.

⁸ Come, see the works of YHWH, || Who has done astonishing things in the earth,

⁹ Causing wars to cease, || To the end of the earth, He shatters the bow, || And He has cut apart the spear, || He burns chariots with fire.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH. All you peoples, clap the hand, || Shout to God with a voice of singing,

² For YHWH Most High [is] fearful, || A great King over all the earth.

³ He leads peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

⁴ He chooses for us our inheritance, || The excellence of Jacob that He loves. Selah.

⁶ Praise God—praise—give praise to our king, praise.

⁸ God has reigned over nations, God has sat on His holy throne,

¹ A SONG. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH. Great [is] YHWH, and greatly praised, || In the city of our God—His holy hill.

² Beautiful [for] elevation, || A joy of all the land, [is] Mount Zion, || The sides of the north, the city of [the] great King.

³ God is known for a tower in her high places.

⁴ For behold, the kings met, they passed by together,

⁵ They have seen—so they have marveled, || They have been troubled, they were hurried away.

⁶ Trembling has seized them there, || Pain, as of a travailing woman.

⁷ By an east wind You shatter ships of Tarshish.

⁸ As we have heard, so we have seen, || In the city of YHWH of hosts, || In the city of our God, God establishes her for all time. Selah.

¹⁰ As [is] Your Name, O God, so [is] Your praise, || Over the ends of the earth, || Righteousness has filled Your right hand.

¹² Surround Zion, and go around her; count her towers,

¹³ Set your heart to her bulwark, || Consider her high places, || So that you recount to a later generation,

¹⁴ That this God [is] our God—For all time and forever, || He leads us over death!

² Both low and high, together rich and needy.

³ My mouth speaks wise things, || And the meditations of my heart [are] things of understanding.

⁵ Why do I fear in days of evil? The iniquity of my supplanters surrounds me.

⁶ Those trusting on their wealth, || And in the multitude of their riches, || Show themselves foolish.

⁷ A brother ransoms no one at all, || He does not give to God his atonement.

⁸ And precious [is] the redemption of their soul, || And it has ceased for all time.

⁹ And still he lives forever, || He does not see the pit.

¹⁰ For he sees wise men die, || Together the foolish and brutish perish, || And have left their wealth to others.

¹¹ Their heart [is that] their houses [are] for all time, || Their dwelling places from generation to generation. They proclaimed their names over the lands.

¹³ This their way [is] folly for them, || And their posterity are pleased with their sayings. Selah.

¹⁵ Only, God ransoms my soul from the hand of Sheol, || For He receives me. Selah.

¹⁶ Do not fear when one makes wealth, || When the glory of his house is abundant,

¹⁷ For at his death he receives nothing, || His glory does not go down after him.

¹⁸ For he blesses his soul in his life || (And they praise you when you do well for yourself).

¹⁹ It comes to the generation of his fathers, || They do not see the light forever.

²⁰ Man in honor, who does not understand, || Has been like the beasts, they have been cut off!

² From Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shone.

³ Our God comes, and is not silent, || Fire devours before Him, || And around Him it has been very tempestuous.

⁴ He calls to the heavens from above, || And to the earth, to judge His people.

⁵ Gather My saints to Me, || Making covenant with Me over a sacrifice.

⁶ And the heavens declare His righteousness, || For God Himself is judging. Selah.

⁷ Hear, O My people, and I speak, || O Israel, and I testify against you, || God—I [am] your God.

⁸ I do not reprove you for your sacrifices, || Indeed, your burnt-offerings || [Are] continually before Me.

⁹ I do not take a bullock from your house, || [Or] male goats from your folds.

¹⁰ For every beast of the forest [is] Mine, || The livestock on the hills of oxen.

¹¹ I have known every bird of the mountains, || And the wild beast of the field [is] with Me.

¹² If I am hungry I do not tell [it] to you, || For the world and its fullness [is] Mine.

¹³ Do I eat the flesh of bulls, || And drink the blood of male goats?

¹⁴ Sacrifice to God confession, || And complete your vows to the Most High.

¹⁶ And to the wicked God has said: What to you—to recount My statutes? That you lift up My covenant on your mouth?

¹⁷ Indeed, you have hated instruction, || And cast My words behind you.

¹⁸ If you have seen a thief, || Then you are pleased with him, || And your portion [is] with adulterers.

¹⁹ You have sent forth your mouth with evil, || And your tongue joins deceit together,

²⁰ You sit, you speak against your brother, || You give slander against a son of your mother.

²¹ These you did, and I kept silent, || You have thought that I am like you, || I reprove you, and set in array before your eyes.

²³ He who is sacrificing praise honors Me, || As for him who makes a way, || I cause him to look on the salvation of God!

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID, IN THE COMING OF NATHAN THE PROPHET TO HIM WHEN HE HAS GONE IN TO BATHSHEBA. Favor me, O God, according to Your kindness, || According to the abundance of Your mercies, || Blot out my transgressions.

² Thoroughly wash me from my iniquity, || And cleanse me from my sin,

³ For I know my transgressions, || And my sin [is] continually before me.

⁴ Against You, You only, I have sinned, || And done evil in Your eyes, || So that You are righteous in Your words, || You are pure in Your judging.

⁵ Behold, I have been brought forth in iniquity, || And my mother conceives me in sin.

⁶ Behold, You have desired truth in the inward parts, || And in the hidden part You cause me to know Wisdom.

⁸ You cause me to hear joy and gladness, || You make bones You have bruised joyful.

⁹ Hide Your face from my sin. And blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰ Create for me a clean heart, O God, || And renew a right spirit within me.

¹¹ Do not cast me forth from Your presence, || And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

¹² Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, || And a willing spirit sustains me.

¹⁴ Deliver me from blood, O God, God of my salvation, || My tongue sings of Your righteousness.

¹⁵ O Lord, you open my lips, || And my mouth declares Your praise.

¹⁶ For You do not desire sacrifice, or I give [it], || You do not accept burnt-offering.

¹⁷ The sacrifices of God [are] a broken spirit, || A heart broken and bruised, O God, || You do not despise.

¹⁸ Do good in Your good pleasure with Zion, || You build the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Then You desire sacrifices of righteousness, || Burnt-offering, and whole burnt-offering, || Then they offer bullocks on your altar!

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. AN INSTRUCTION OF DAVID, IN THE COMING IN OF DOEG THE EDMITE, AND HE DECLARES TO SAUL AND SAYS TO HIM, "DAVID CAME TO THE HOUSE OF AHIMELECH." Why do you boast in evil, O mighty one? The kindness of God [is] all the day.

² Your tongue devises mischiefs, || Like a sharp razor, working deceit.

³ You have loved evil rather than good, || Lying, than speaking righteousness. Selah.

⁴ You have loved all devouring words, || O you deceitful tongue.

⁵ Also—God breaks you down forever, || Takes you, and pulls you out of the tent, || And He has uprooted you || Out of the land of the living. Selah.

⁶ And the righteous see, || And fear, and laugh at him.

⁷ "Behold, the man who does not make God his strong place, || And trusts in the abundance of his riches, || He is strong in his mischiefs."

⁸ And I, as a green olive in the house of God, || I have trusted in the kindness of God, || For all time and forever,

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. "ON A DISEASE." AN INSTRUCTION OF DAVID. A fool said in his heart, "There is no God." They have done corruptly, || Indeed, they have done abominable iniquity, || There is none doing good.

² God looked on the sons of men from the heavens, || To see if there is an understanding one, || [One] seeking God.

³ Everyone went back, together they became filthy, || There is none doing good—not even one.

⁴ Workers of iniquity have not known, || Those eating my people have eaten bread, || They have not called God.

⁵ There they feared a fear—there was no fear, || For God has scattered the bones of him || Who is encamping against you, || You have put to shame, || For God has despised them.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. WITH STRINGED INSTRUMENTS. AN INSTRUCTION OF DAVID, IN THE COMING IN OF THE ZIPHIM, AND THEY SAY TO SAUL, "IS DAVID NOT HIDING HIMSELF WITH US?" O God, save me by Your Name, and judge me by Your might.

² O God, hear my prayer, || Give ear to the sayings of my mouth,

³ For strangers have risen up against me || And terrible ones have sought my soul, || They have not set God before them. Selah.

⁴ Behold, God [is] a helper to me, || The Lord [is] with those supporting my soul,

⁵ Turn back the evil to my enemies, || Cut them off in Your truth.

⁶ I sacrifice to You with a free-will offering, || I thank Your Name, O YHWH, for [it is] good,

² Attend to me, and answer me, || I mourn in my meditation, and make a noise,

³ Because of the voice of an enemy, || Because of the oppression of the wicked, || For they cause sorrow to move against me, || And in anger they hate me.

⁴ My heart is pained within me, || And terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵ Fear and trembling come to me, || And horror covers me.

⁶ And I say, "Who gives to me a pinion as a dove?" I fly away and rest,

⁷ Behold, I move far off, || I lodge in a wilderness. Selah.

⁸ I hurry escape for myself, || From a rushing wind, from a whirlwind.

⁹ Swallow up, O Lord, divide their tongue, || For I saw violence and strife in a city.

¹⁰ By day and by night they go around it, on its walls. Both iniquity and perverseness [are] in its midst, ¹¹ Mischiefs [are] in its midst. Fraud and deceit do not depart from its street.

¹² For an enemy does not reproach me, or I bear [it], || He who is hating me || Has not magnified himself against me, || Or I hide from him.

¹⁵ Desolations [are] on them, || They go down [to] Sheol—alive, || For wickedness [is] in their dwelling, in their midst.

¹⁶ I call to God, and YHWH saves me.

¹⁷ Evening, and morning, and noon, || I meditate, and make a noise, and He hears my voice,

¹⁸ He has ransomed my soul in peace || From him who is near to me, || For with the multitude they were with me.

¹⁹ God hears and afflicts them, || And He sits of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, and do not fear God,

²⁰ He has sent forth his hands against his well-wishers, || He has defiled his covenant.

²¹ His mouth has been sweeter than honey, || And his heart [is] war! His words have been softer than oil, || And they [are] drawn [swords].

²³ And You, O God, bring them down || To a pit of destruction, || Men of blood and deceit do not reach to half their days, || And I trust in You!

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON “A SILENT DOVE FAR OFF.” A MIKTAM OF DAVID, IN THE PHILISTINES’ TAKING HOLD OF HIM IN GATH. Favor me, O God, for man swallowed me up, || All the day fighting he oppresses me,

² My enemies have swallowed up all the day, || For many [are] fighting against me, O Most High,

³ [In] the day I praise I am afraid I am confident toward You.

⁴ In God I praise His word, in God I have trusted, || I do not fear what flesh does to me.

⁵ All the day they wrest my words, || All their thoughts [are] for evil concerning me,

⁷ They escape by iniquity, || In anger put down the peoples, O God.

⁹ Then turn back my enemies in the day I call. This I have known, that God [is] for me.

¹⁰ In God I praise the word, || In YHWH I praise the word.

¹¹ In God I trusted, || I do not fear what man does to me,

1 TO THE OVERSEER. "DO NOT DESTROY." A MIKTAM OF DAVID, IN HIS FLEEING FROM THE FACE OF SAUL INTO A CAVE. Favor me, O God, favor me, || For my soul is trusting in You, || And I trust in the shadow of Your wings, || Until the calamities pass over.

2 I call to God Most High, || To God [who] is perfecting for me.

3 He sends from the heavens, and saves me, || He reproached [the one] who is panting after me. Selah. God sends forth His kindness and His truth.

4 My soul [is] in the midst of lions, || I lie down [among] flames—sons of men, || Their teeth [are] a spear and arrows, || And their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be exalted above the heavens, O God, || Your glory above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps, || My soul has bowed down, || They have dug a pit before me, || They have fallen into its midst. Selah.

7 My heart is prepared, O God, || My heart is prepared, || I sing and praise.

8 Awake, my glory, awake, stringed instrument and harp, || I awake the morning dawn.

9 I thank You among the peoples, O Lord, || I praise You among the nations.

10 For Your kindness [is] great to the heavens, || And Your truth to the clouds.

1 TO THE OVERSEER. "DO NOT DESTROY." A MIKTAM OF DAVID. Is it true, O silent one, that you speak righteously? Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men?

2 Even in heart you work iniquities, || In the land you ponder the violence of your hands.

3 The wicked have been estranged from the womb, || They have erred from the belly, speaking lies.

4 Their poison [is] as poison of a serpent, || As a deaf cobra shutting its ear,

5 Which does not listen to the voice of whisperers, || A charmer of most skillful charms.

6 O God, break their teeth in their mouth, || Break down the jaw-teeth of young lions, O YHWH.

7 They are melted as waters, || They go up and down for themselves, || His arrow proceeds as they cut themselves off.

8 He goes on as a snail that melts, || [As] an untimely birth of a woman, || They have not seen the sun.

9 Before your pots discern the bramble, || As living, He whirls away in His burning anger.

10 The righteous rejoices that he has seen vengeance, || He washes his steps in the blood of the wicked.

11 And man says: "Surely fruit [is] for the righteous: Surely there is a God judging in the earth!"

59

1 TO THE OVERSEER. “DO NOT DESTROY.” A MIKTAM OF DAVID, IN SAUL’S SENDING, AND THEY WATCH THE HOUSE TO PUT HIM TO DEATH. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God, || Set me on high from my withstanders.

2 Deliver me from workers of iniquity, || And save me from men of blood.

3 For behold, they laid wait for my soul, || Strong ones are assembled against me, || Not my transgression nor my sin, O YHWH.

4 Without punishment they run and prepare themselves, || Stir up to meet me, and see.

5 And You, YHWH, God of Hosts, God of Israel, || Awake to inspect all the nations. Do not favor any treacherous dealers of iniquity. Selah.

6 They return at evening, || They make a noise like a dog, || And go around the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouths, || Swords [are] in their lips, for “Who hears?”

8 And You, O YHWH, laugh at them, || You mock at all the nations.

9 O my Strength, to You I take heed, || For God [is] my tower—the God of my kindness.

10 God goes before me, || He causes me to look on my enemies.

11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget, || Shake them by Your strength, || And bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 The sin of their mouth [is] a word of their lips, || And they are captured in their pride, || And they recount from the curse and lying.

13 Consume in fury, consume and they are not, || And they know that God is ruling in Jacob, || To the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And they return at evening, || They make a noise like a dog, || And they go around the city.

15 They wander for food, || If they are not satisfied—then they murmur.

16 And I sing of Your strength, || And at morning I sing of Your kindness, || For You have been a tower to me, || And a refuge for me in a day of adversity.

17 O my Strength, I sing praise to You, || For God [is] my tower, the God of my kindness!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON “LILY OF TESTIMONY.” A MIKTAM OF DAVID, TO TEACH, IN HIS STRIVING WITH ARAM-NAHARAIM AND WITH ARAM-ZOBAH, WHEN JOAB TURNS BACK AND STRIKES EDOM IN THE VALLEY OF SALT—TWELVE THOUSAND. O God, You had cast us off, || You had broken us—had been angry! You turn back to us.

2 You have caused the land to tremble, || You have broken it, || Heal its breaches, for it has moved.

3 You have shown Your people a hard thing, || You have caused us to drink wine of trembling.

4 You have given an ensign to those fearing You, || To be lifted up as an ensign || Because of truth. Selah.

5 That Your beloved ones may be drawn out, || Save [with] Your right hand, and answer us.

⁶ God has spoken in His holiness: I exult—I apportion Shechem, || And I measure the Valley of Succoth,

⁷ Gilead [is] Mine, and Manasseh [is] Mine, || And Ephraim [is] the strength of My head, || Judah [is] My lawgiver,

⁸ Moab [is] My pot for washing, || Over Edom I cast My shoe, || Shout, concerning Me, O Philistia.

¹⁰ Is it not You, O God? Have You cast us off? And do You not go forth, O God, with our hosts?

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. ON STRINGED INSTRUMENTS. BY DAVID. Hear, O God, my loud cry, attend to my prayer.

² I call to You from the end of the land, || In the feebleness of my heart, || You lead me into a rock higher than I.

³ For You have been a refuge for me, || A tower of strength because of the enemy.

⁴ I sojourn in Your tent for all ages, || I trust in the secret place of Your wings. Selah.

⁵ For You, O God, have listened to my vows, || You have appointed the inheritance || Of those fearing Your Name.

⁶ You add days to the days of the king, || His years as generation and generation.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. FOR JEDUTHUN. A PSALM OF DAVID. Toward God alone [is] my soul silent, || My salvation [is] from Him.

² He alone [is] my rock, and my salvation, || My tower, I am not much moved.

³ Until when do you devise mischief against a man? All of you are destroyed, || As a wall inclined, a hedge that is cast down.

⁵ For God alone, be silent, O my soul, || For my hope [is] from Him.

⁶ He alone [is] my rock and my salvation, || My tower, I am not moved.

⁷ On God [is] my salvation, and my glory, || The rock of my strength, my refuge [is] in God.

⁹ Surely vanity the low, a lie the high. In balances to go up || They [are] lighter than a breath.

¹⁰ Do not trust in oppression, || And do not become vain in robbery, || Do not set the heart [on] wealth when it increases.

¹ A PSALM OF DAVID, IN HIS BEING IN THE WILDERNESS OF JUDAH. O God, You [are] my God, earnestly I seek You, || My soul has thirsted for You, || My flesh has longed for You, || In a dry and weary land, without waters.

² So I have seen You in the sanctuary, || To behold Your strength and Your glory.

³ Because better [is] Your kindness than life, || My lips praise You.

⁴ So I bless You in my life, || I lift up my hands in Your Name.

⁵ As [with] milk and fatness is my soul satisfied, || And [with] singing lips my mouth praises.

⁷ For You have been a help to me, || And I sing in the shadow of Your wings.

⁸ My soul has cleaved after You, || Your right hand has taken hold on me.

⁹ And they who seek my soul for desolation, || Go into the lower parts of the earth.

¹⁰ They cause him to run on the edge of the sword, || They are a portion for foxes.

² Hide me from the secret counsel of evildoers, || From the tumult of workers of iniquity.

³ Who sharpened their tongue as a sword, || They directed their arrow—a bitter word.

⁴ To shoot the perfect in secret places, || Suddenly they shoot him, and do not fear.

⁵ They strengthen an evil thing for themselves, || They recount of the hiding of snares, || They have said, “Who looks at it?”

⁶ They search out perverse things, “We perfected a searching search,” || And the inward part of man, and the heart, [are] deep.

⁷ And God shoots them [with] an arrow, || Their wounds have been sudden,

⁸ And they cause him to stumble, || Their own tongue [is] against them, || Every looker on them flees away.

1 TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. A SONG. To You, silence [and] praise, O God, in Zion, || And to You a vow is completed.

2 Hearer of prayer, all flesh comes to You.

3 Matters of iniquities were mightier than I, || Our transgressions—You cover them.

4 O the blessedness of [him whom] You choose, || And draw near, he inhabits Your courts, || We are satisfied with the goodness of Your house, || Your holy temple.

5 By fearful things in righteousness You answer us, || O God of our salvation, || The confidence of all far off || The ends of the earth and sea.

6 Establishing mountains by His power, || He has been girded with might,

7 Restraining the noise of seas, the noise of their billows, || And the multitude of the peoples.

8 And the inhabitants of the uttermost parts || Are afraid from Your signs, || You cause the outgoings of morning and evening to sing.

9 You have inspected the earth, and water it, || You make it very rich, the stream of God [is] full of water, || You prepare their grain, || When thus You prepare it,

10 Its ridges have been filled, || Its furrow has been deepened, || You soften it with showers, || Its springing up You bless.

11 You have crowned the year of Your goodness, || And Your paths drop fatness.

12 The pastures of a wilderness drop, || And You gird the hills with joy.

1 TO THE OVERSEER. A SONG. A PSALM. Shout to God, all the earth.

2 Praise the glory of His Name, || Make honorable His praise.

3 Say to God, “How fearful Your works—By the abundance of Your strength, || Your enemies feign obedience to You.

4 All the earth bows to You, || They sing praise to You, they praise Your Name.” Selah.

5 Come, and see the works of God, || Fearful acts toward the sons of men.

6 He has turned a sea to dry land, || Through a river they pass over on foot, || There we rejoice in Him.

7 Ruling by His might for all time, || His eyes watch among the nations, || The stubborn do not exalt themselves. Selah.

8 Bless our God you peoples, || And sound the voice of His praise,

9 Who has placed our soul in life, || And has not permitted our feet to be moved.

10 For You have tried us, O God, || You have refined us as the refining of silver.

11 You have brought us into a net, || You have placed pressure on our loins.

12 You have caused man to ride at our head. We have entered into fire and into water, || And You bring us out to a watered place.

13 I enter Your house with burnt-offerings, || I complete my vows to You,

14 For my lips were opened, || And my mouth spoke in my distress:

15 "I offer to You burnt-offerings of fatlings, || With incense of rams, I prepare a bullock with male goats." Selah.

16 Come, hear, all you who fear God, || And I recount what He did for my soul.

17 I have called to Him [with] my mouth, || And exaltation [is] under my tongue.

18 Iniquity, if I have seen in my heart, || The Lord does not hear.

19 But God has heard, || He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed [is] God, || Who has not turned aside my prayer, || And His loving-kindness, from me!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. WITH STRINGED INSTRUMENTS. A PSALM. A SONG. God favors us and blesses us, || [And] causes His face to shine with us. Selah.

2 For the knowledge of Your way in earth, || Your salvation among all nations.

3 Peoples praise You, O God, || Peoples praise You, all of them.

4 Nations rejoice and sing, || For You judge peoples uprightly, || And comfort peoples on earth. Selah.

5 Peoples confess You, O God, || Peoples confess You—all of them.

6 Earth has given her increase, God blesses us—our God,

7 God blesses us, and all the ends of the earth fear Him!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM. A SONG OF DAVID. God rises [and] His enemies are scattered! And those hating Him flee from His face.

2 You drive them away as the driving away of smoke, || As the melting of wax before fire, || The wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 And the righteous rejoice, they exult before God, || And they rejoice with gladness.

4 Sing to God—praise His Name, || Raise up a highway for Him who is riding in deserts, || In YAH [is] His Name, and exult before Him.

5 Father of the fatherless, and judge of the widows, || [Is] God in His holy habitation.

6 God—causing the lonely to dwell at home, || Bringing out bound ones into prosperity, || Only—the stubborn have inhabited a dry place.

7 O God, in Your going forth before Your people, || In Your stepping through the wilderness, Selah.

8 The earth has shaken, || Indeed, the heavens have dropped before God, || This Sinai—before God, the God of Israel.

9 You shake out a shower of free-will gifts, O God. Your inheritance, when it has been weary, || You have established it.

10 Your creature has dwelt in it, || You prepare for the poor in Your goodness, O God.

11 The Lord gives the saying, || The female proclaimers [are] a numerous host.

12 Kings of hosts utterly flee away, || And a female inhabitant of the house apportioned spoil.

¹⁴ When the Mighty spreads kings in it, it snows in Salmon.

¹⁵ A hill of God [is] the hill of Bashan, || A hill of heights [is] the hill of Bashan.

¹⁶ Why do you envy, O high hills, || The hill God has desired for His seat? YHWH also dwells forever.

¹⁷ The chariots of God [are] myriads, thousands of changes, || The Lord [is] among them, in Sinai, in the sanctuary.

¹⁹ Blessed [is] the Lord, day by day He lays on us. God Himself [is] our salvation. Selah.

²⁰ God Himself [is] to us a God for deliverances, || And YHWH Lord has the outgoings of death.

²¹ Only—God strikes || The head of His enemies, || The hairy crown of a habitual walker in his guilt.

²³ So that you dash your foot || In the blood of enemies—the tongue of Your dogs.”

²⁴ They have seen Your goings, O God, || Goings of my God, my king, in the sanctuary.

²⁵ Singers have been before, || Behind [are] players on instruments, || Virgins playing with timbrels in the midst.

²⁶ In assemblies bless God, || The Lord—from the fountain of Israel.

²⁸ Your God has commanded your strength, || Be strong, O God, You have worked this for us.

³⁰ Rebuke a beast of the reeds, a herd of bulls, || With calves of the peoples, || Each humbling himself with pieces of silver, || You scatter peoples delighting in conflicts.

³¹ Fat ones come out of Egypt, || Cush causes her hands to run to God.

³² Kingdoms of the earth, sing to God, || Praise the Lord! Selah.

³³ To Him who is riding on the heavens of the heavens of old, || Behold, He gives with His voice a strong voice.

³⁴ Ascribe strength to God, || His excellence [is] over Israel, and His strength in the clouds.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON “LILIES.” BY DAVID. Save me, O God, for waters have come to the soul.

² I have sunk in deep mire, || And there is no standing, || I have come into the depths of the waters, || And a flood has overflowed me.

³ I have been wearied with my calling, || My throat has been burned, || My eyes have been consumed, waiting for my God.

⁴ Those hating me without cause || Have been more than the hairs of my head, || Mighty have been my destroyers, || My lying enemies, || That which I did not take away—I bring back.

⁵ O God, You have known || Concerning my overturn, || And my desolations have not been hid from You.

⁶ Do not let those waiting on You be ashamed because of me, || O Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || Do not let those seeking You || Blush because of me, || O God of Israel.

⁸ I have been a stranger to my brother, || And a foreigner to sons of my mother.

⁹ For [my] zeal for Your house has consumed me, || And the reproaches of Your reproachers || Have fallen on me.

¹⁰ And I weep in the fasting of my soul, || And it is for a reproach to me.

¹¹ And I make my clothing sackcloth, || And I am for an allegory to them.

¹² Those sitting at the gate meditate concerning me, || And those drinking strong drink, || Play on instruments.

¹³ And my prayer [is] to You, O YHWH, || A time of good pleasure, O God, || In the abundance of Your kindness, || Answer me in the truth of Your salvation.

¹⁴ Deliver me from the mire, and do not let me sink, || Let me be delivered from those hating me, || And from deep places of waters.

¹⁵ Do not let a flood of waters overflow me, || Nor let the deep swallow me up, || Nor let the pit shut her mouth on me.

¹⁶ Answer me, O YHWH, for Your kindness [is] good, || Turn to me according to the abundance of Your mercies,

¹⁷ And do not hide Your face from Your servant, || For I am in distress—hurry, answer me.

¹⁸ Be near to my soul—redeem it, || Ransom me because of my enemies.

¹⁹ You have known my reproach, || And my shame, and my blushing, || All my adversaries [are] before You.

²⁰ Reproach has broken my heart, and I am sick, || And I look for a bemoaner, and there is none, || And for comforters, and I have found none.

²¹ And they give gall for my food, || And cause me to drink vinegar for my thirst.

²² Their table before them is for a snare, || And for a repayment—for a trap.

²³ Their eyes are darkened from seeing, || And their loins continually shake You.

²⁴ Pour Your indignation on them, || And the fierceness of Your anger seizes them.

²⁵ Their tower is desolated, || There is no dweller in their tents.

²⁶ For they have pursued him [whom] You have struck, || And recount of the pain of Your pierced ones.

²⁷ Give punishment for their iniquity, || And they do not enter into Your righteousness.

²⁸ They are blotted out of the scroll of life, || And are not written with the righteous.

³⁰ I praise the Name of God with a song, || And I magnify Him with thanksgiving,

³¹ And it is better to YHWH than an ox, || A bullock—horned [and] hooped.

³² The humble have seen—they rejoice, || You who seek God—and your heart lives.

³³ For YHWH listens to the needy, || And He has not despised His bound ones.

³⁴ The heavens and earth praise Him, || Seas, and every moving thing in them.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. BY DAVID. "TO CAUSE TO REMEMBER." O God, [hurry] to deliver me, || O YHWH, hurry to help me.

² Let them be ashamed and confounded || Who are seeking my soul, || Let them be turned backward and blush || Who are desiring my evil.

³ Let them turn back because of their shame, || Who are saying, "Aha, aha."

⁴ Let all those seeking You rejoice and be glad in You, || And let those loving Your salvation || Continually say, "God is magnified."

¹ In You, O YHWH, I have trusted, || Do not let me be disappointed for all time.

² You deliver me in Your righteousness, || And cause me to escape, || Incline Your ear to me, and save me.

³ Be a rock to me—a habitation, || To go in continually, || You have given command to save me, || For You [are] my rock and my bulwark.

⁴ O my God, cause me to escape || From the hand of the wicked, || From the hand of the perverse and violent.

⁵ For You [are] my hope, O Lord YHWH, || My trust from my youth.

⁷ I have been as a wonder to many, || And You [are] my strong refuge.

⁸ My mouth is filled [with] Your praise, || All the day [with] Your beauty.

⁹ Do not cast me off at the time of old age, || Do not forsake me according to the consumption of my power.

¹⁰ For my enemies have spoken against me, || And those watching my soul have taken counsel together,

¹¹ Saying, "God has forsaken him, || Pursue and catch him, for there is no deliverer."

¹² O God, do not be far from me, || O my God, make haste for my help.

¹³ They are ashamed, they are consumed, || Who are opposing my soul,
 || They are covered [with] reproach and blushing, || Who are seeking my evil,

¹⁴ And I continually wait with hope, || And have added to all Your praise.

¹⁵ My mouth recounts Your righteousness, || All the day Your salvation,
 || For I have not known the numbers.

¹⁶ I come in [the] might of Lord YHWH, || I mention Your righteousness—Yours alone.

¹⁷ God, You have taught me from my youth, || And until now I declare
 Your wonders.

¹⁸ And also to old age and grey hairs, || O God, do not forsake me, ||
 Until I declare Your strength to a generation, || Your might to everyone that comes.

¹⁹ And Your righteousness, O God, [is] to the heights, || Because You have done great things, || O God, who [is] like You?

²⁰ Because You have showed me many and sad distresses, || You turn back—You revive me, || And from the depths of the earth, || You turn back—You bring me up.

²¹ You increase my greatness, || And You surround—You comfort me,

²² I also thank You with a vessel of stringed instrument, || Your truth,
 O my God, I sing to You with a harp, || O Holy One of Israel,

²³ My lips cry aloud when I sing praise to You, || And my soul that You have redeemed,

²⁴ My tongue also utters Your righteousness all the day, || Because ashamed—because confounded, || Have been those seeking my evil!

 righteousness to the king's Son.

² He judges Your people with righteousness, || And Your poor with judgment.

³ The mountains bear peace to the people, || And the heights by righteousness.

⁴ He judges the poor of the people, || Gives deliverance to the sons of the needy, || And bruises the oppressor.

⁵ They fear You with the sun, and before the moon, || Generation—generations.

⁶ He comes down as rain on mown grass, || As showers—sprinkling the earth.

⁷ The righteous flourish in His days, || And abundance of peace until the moon is not.

⁸ And He rules from sea to sea, || And from the river to the ends of the earth.

⁹ Desert-dwellers bow before Him, || And His enemies lick the dust.

¹⁰ Kings of Tarshish and of the islands send back a present. Kings of Sheba and Seba bring a reward near.

¹¹ And all kings bow themselves to Him, || All nations serve Him,

¹² For He delivers the needy who cries, || And the poor when he has no helper,

¹³ He has pity on the poor and needy, || And He saves the souls of the needy,

¹⁴ He redeems their soul from fraud and from violence, || And their blood is precious in His eyes.

¹⁵ And He lives, and the gold of Sheba [is] given to Him, || And prayer is continually made for Him, || All day He is continually blessed.

¹⁷ His Name is for all time, || Before the sun is His Name continued, || And they bless themselves in Him, || All nations pronounce Him blessed.

¹⁸ Blessed is YHWH God, God of Israel, || He alone is doing wonders,

²⁰ The prayers of David son of Jesse have been ended.

¹ A PSALM OF ASAPH. Surely God [is] good to Israel, to the clean of heart. And I—as a little thing, || My feet have been turned aside,

² As nothing, my steps have slipped, || For I have been envious of the boastful,

³ I see the peace of the wicked, || That there are no bands at their death,

⁴ And their might [is] firm.

⁵ They are not in the misery of mortals, || And they are not plagued with common men.

⁶ Therefore pride has encircled them, || Violence covers them as a dress.

⁷ Their eye has come out from fat. The imaginations of the heart transgressed;

⁸ They do corruptly, || And they speak in the wickedness of oppression, || They speak from on high.

⁹ They have set their mouth in the heavens, || And their tongue walks in the earth.

¹⁰ Therefore His people return here, || And waters of fullness are wrung out to them.

¹¹ And they have said, “How has God known? And is there knowledge in the Most High?”

¹² Behold, these [are] the wicked and easy ones of the age, || They have increased strength.

¹³ Only—a vain thing! I have purified my heart, || And I wash my hands in innocence,

¹⁴ And I am plagued all the day, || And my reproof—every morning.

¹⁵ If I have said, “I recount thus,” || Behold, I have deceived a generation of Your sons.

¹⁶ And I think to know this, || It [is] perverseness in my eyes,

¹⁷ Until I come into the sanctuaries of God, || I attend to their latter end.

¹⁸ Surely You set them in slippery places, || You have caused them to fall to desolations.

¹⁹ How they have become a desolation as in a moment, || They have been ended—consumed from terrors.

²⁰ As a dream from awakening, O Lord, || In awaking, You despise their image.

²¹ For my heart shows itself violent, || And my reins prick themselves,

²² And I am brutish, and do not know. I have been a beast with You.

²³ And I [am] continually with You, || You have laid hold on my right hand.

²⁵ Whom do I have in the heavens? And none have I desired in earth [besides] You.

²⁶ My flesh and my heart have been consumed, || God [is] the rock of my heart and my portion for all time.

¹ AN INSTRUCTION OF ASAPH. Why, O God, have You cast off forever? Your anger smokes against the flock of Your pasture.

² Remember Your congregation || [That] You purchased of old, || You redeemed the rod of Your inheritance, || This Mount Zion—You dwelt in it.

³ Lift up Your steps to the continuous desolations, || Everything the enemy did wickedly in the sanctuary.

⁴ Your adversaries have roared, || In the midst of Your meeting-places, || They have set their ensigns as ensigns.

⁵ He is known as one bringing in on high || Against a thicket of wood—axes.

⁶ And now they break down its engravings, || Together, with axe and hatchet,

⁷ They have sent Your sanctuary into fire, || They defiled the Dwelling Place of Your Name to the earth,

⁸ They said in their hearts, “Let us oppress them together,” || They burned all the meeting-places of God in the land.

¹⁰ Until when, O God, does an adversary reproach? Does an enemy despise Your Name forever?

¹¹ Why do You turn back Your hand, || Even Your right hand? Remove [it] from the midst of Your bosom.

¹² And God [is] my king of old, || Working salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³ You have divided [the] sea by Your strength, || You have shattered heads of dragons by the waters,

¹⁴ You have broken the heads of leviathan, || You make him food for the people of desert-dwellers.

¹⁵ You have cleaved a fountain and a stream, || You have dried up perennial flowings.

¹⁶ The day [is] Yours, || The night [is] also Yours, || You have prepared a light-giver—the sun.

¹⁷ You have set up all the borders of earth, || Summer and winter—You have formed them.

¹⁸ Remember this—an enemy reproached YHWH, || And a foolish people have despised Your Name.

¹⁹ Do not give up to a [wild] creature, || The soul of Your turtle-dove, || Do not forget the life of Your poor ones forever.

²⁰ Look attentively to the covenant, || For the dark places of earth, || Have been full of habitations of violence.

²¹ Do not let the oppressed turn back ashamed, || Let the poor and needy praise Your Name,

²² Arise, O God, plead Your plea, || Remember Your reproach from a fool all the day.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. "DO NOT DESTROY." A PSALM OF ASAPH. A SONG. We have given thanks to You, O God, || We have given thanks, and Your Name [is] near, || They have recounted Your wonders.

² When I receive an appointment, I judge uprightly.

³ The earth and all its inhabitants are melted, || I have pondered its pillars. Selah.

⁴ I have said to the boastful, "Do not be boastful," || And to the wicked, "Do not raise up a horn."

⁵ Do not raise up your horn on high || (You speak with a stiff neck).

⁶ For not from the east, or from the west, || Nor from the wilderness—[is] elevation.

⁷ But God [is] judging, || This He makes low—and this He lifts up.

⁸ For a cup [is] in the hand of YHWH, || And the wine has foamed, || It is full of mixture, and He pours out of it, || Surely wring out its dregs, || And all the wicked of the earth drink,

³ There He has shattered arrows of a bow, || Shield, and sword, and battle. Selah.

⁴ You [are] bright, majestic above hills of prey.

⁵ The mighty of heart have spoiled themselves, || They have slept their sleep, || And none of the men of might found their hands.

⁶ From Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, || Both rider and horse have been fast asleep.

⁷ You, fearful [are] You, || And who stands before You, || Since You have been angry?

⁸ You have sounded judgment from the heavens, || Earth has feared, and has been still,

⁹ In the rising of God to judgment, || To save all the humble of earth. Selah.

¹⁰ For the fierceness of man praises You, || You gird on the remnant of fierceness.

¹¹ Vow and complete to your God YHWH, || All you surrounding Him,

¹² He gathers the spirit of leaders, || Fearful to the kings of earth!

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. FOR JEDUTHUN. A PSALM OF ASAPH. My voice [is] to God, and I cry, || My voice [is] to God, || And He has given ear to me.

² I sought the Lord in a day of my distress, || My hand has been spread out by night, || And it does not cease, || My soul has refused to be comforted.

⁴ You have taken hold of the watches of my eyes, || I have been moved, and I do not speak.

⁵ I have reckoned the days of old, || The years of the ages.

⁷ Does the Lord cast off for all ages? Does He add to be pleased no longer?

⁸ Has His kindness ceased forever? The saying failed from generation to generation?

⁹ Has God forgotten [His] favors? Has He shut up His mercies in anger? Selah.

¹⁰ And I say: "My weakness is, || The changes of the right hand of the Most High."

¹¹ I mention the doings of YAH, || For I remember Your wonders of old,

¹² And I have meditated on all Your working, || And I talk concerning Your doings.

¹⁴ You [are] the God doing wonders. You have made Your strength known among the peoples,

¹⁵ You have redeemed Your people with strength, || The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

¹⁶ The waters have seen You, O God, || The waters have seen You, || They are afraid—also depths are troubled.

¹⁷ Thick clouds have poured out waters, || The skies have given forth a noise, || Also—Your arrows go up and down.

¹⁸ The voice of Your thunder [is] in the spheres, || Lightnings have lightened the world, || The earth has trembled, indeed, it shakes.

¹⁹ Your way [is] in the sea, || And Your paths in many waters, || And Your tracks have not been known.

²⁰ You have led Your people as a flock, || By the hand of Moses and Aaron!

¹ AN INSTRUCTION OF ASAPH. Give ear, O my people, to my law, || Incline your ear to sayings of my mouth.

² I open my mouth with an allegory, || I bring forth hidden things of old,

³ That we have heard and know, || And our fathers have recounted to us.

4 We do not hide from their sons, || Recounting praises of YHWH to a later generation, || And His strength, and His wonders that He has done.

5 And He raises up a testimony in Jacob, || And has placed a law in Israel, || That He commanded our fathers, || To make them known to their sons.

6 So that a later generation knows, || Sons who are born, rise and recount to their sons,

7 And place their confidence in God, || And do not forget the doings of God, || But keep His commands.

8 And they are not like their fathers, || A generation apostatizing and being rebellious, || A generation—it has not prepared its heart, || Nor [is] its spirit steadfast with God.

9 Sons of Ephraim—armed bearers of bow, || Have turned in a day of conflict.

10 They have not kept the covenant of God, || And they have refused to walk in His law,

11 And they forget His doings, || And His wonders that He showed them.

12 He has done wonders before their fathers, || In the land of Egypt—the field of Zoan.

13 He cleft a sea, and causes them to pass over, || Indeed, He causes waters to stand as a heap.

14 And leads them with a cloud by day, || And with a light of fire all the night.

15 He cleaves rocks in a wilderness, || And gives drink—as the great deep.

16 And brings out streams from a rock, || And causes waters to come down as rivers.

17 And they still add to sin against Him, || To provoke the Most High in the dry place.

18 And they try God in their heart, || To ask food for their lust.

19 And they speak against God—they said: “Is God able to array a table in a wilderness?”

20 Behold, He has struck a rock, || And waters flow, indeed, streams overflow. “Also, [is] He able to give bread? Does He prepare flesh for His people?”

21 Therefore YHWH has heard, || And He shows Himself angry, || And fire has been kindled against Jacob, || And anger has also gone up against Israel,

22 For they have not believed in God, || Nor have they trusted in His salvation.

23 And He commands clouds from above, || Indeed, He has opened doors of the heavens.

24 And He rains manna on them to eat, || Indeed, He has given grain of the heavens to them.

25 Each has eaten food of the mighty, || He sent provision to them to satiety.

26 He causes an east wind to journey in the heavens, || And leads a south wind by His strength,

27 And He rains on them flesh as dust, || And as sand of the seas—winged bird,

28 And causes [it] to fall in the midst of His camp, || Around His dwelling places.

²⁹ And they eat, and are greatly satisfied, || And He brings their desire to them.

³⁰ They have not been estranged from their desire, || Their food [is] yet in their mouth,

³¹ And the anger of God has gone up against them, || And He slays among their fat ones, || And He caused youths of Israel to bend.

³³ And He consumes their days in vanity, || And their years in trouble.

³⁴ If He slew them, then they sought Him, || And turned back, and earnestly sought God,

³⁵ And they remember that God [is] their rock, || And God Most High their redeemer.

³⁶ And they deceive Him with their mouth, || And lie to Him with their tongue,

³⁷ And their heart has not been right with Him, || And they have not been steadfast in His covenant.

³⁸ And He, the Merciful One, pardons iniquity, and does not destroy, || And has often turned back His anger, || And does not awaken all His fury.

³⁹ And He remembers that they [are] flesh, || A wind going on—and it does not return.

⁴⁰ How often do they provoke Him in the wilderness, || Grieve Him in the desolate place?

⁴¹ Indeed, they turn back, and try God, || And have limited the Holy One of Israel.

⁴² They have not remembered His hand || The day He ransomed them from the adversary.

⁴³ When He set His signs in Egypt, || And His wonders in the field of Zoan,

⁴⁴ And He turns their streams to blood, || And they do not drink their floods.

⁴⁵ He sends among them the beetle, and it consumes them, || And the frog, and it destroys them,

⁴⁶ And gives their increase to the caterpillar, || And their labor to the locust.

⁴⁷ He destroys their vine with hail, || And their sycamores with frost,

⁴⁸ And delivers their beasts up to the hail, || And their livestock to the burning flames.

⁴⁹ He sends on them the fury of His anger, || Wrath, and indignation, and distress—A discharge of evil messengers.

⁵⁰ He ponders a path for His anger, || He did not keep back their soul from death, || Indeed, He delivered up their life to the pestilence.

⁵¹ And He strikes every firstborn in Egypt, || The first-fruit of the strong in tents of Ham.

⁵² And causes His people to journey as a flock, || And guides them as a drove in a wilderness,

⁵³ And He leads them confidently, || And they have not been afraid, || And the sea has covered their enemies.

⁵⁴ And He brings them to the border of His sanctuary, || This mountain His right hand had acquired,

⁵⁵ And casts out nations from before them, || And causes them to fall in the line of inheritance, || And causes the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents,

⁵⁶ And they tempt and provoke God Most High, || And have not kept His testimonies.

⁵⁷ And they turn back, || And deal treacherously like their fathers, || They have been turned like a deceitful bow,

⁵⁸ And make Him angry with their high places, || And make Him zealous with their carved images, ⁵⁹ God has heard, and shows Himself angry. And kicks exceedingly against Israel.

⁶⁰ And He leaves the Dwelling Place of Shiloh, || The tent He had placed among men,

⁶¹ And He gives His strength to captivity, || And His beauty into the hand of an adversary,

⁶² And delivers His people up to the sword, || And showed Himself angry with His inheritance.

⁶³ Fire has consumed His young men, || And His virgins have not been praised.

⁶⁴ His priests have fallen by the sword, || And their widows do not weep.

⁶⁵ And the Lord wakes as a sleeper, || As a mighty one crying aloud from wine.

⁶⁶ And He strikes His adversaries backward, || He has put a continuous reproach on them,

⁶⁷ And He kicks against the tent of Joseph, || And has not fixed on the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁸ And He chooses the tribe of Judah, || With Mount Zion that He loved,

⁶⁹ And builds His sanctuary as a high place, || Like the earth, He founded it for all time.

⁷¹ He has brought him in from behind suckling ones, || To rule over Jacob His people, || And over Israel His inheritance.

⁷² And he rules them according to the integrity of his heart, || And leads them by the skillfulness of his hands!

¹ A PSALM OF ASAPH. O God, nations have come into Your inheritance, || They have defiled Your holy temple, || They made Jerusalem become heaps,

² They gave the dead bodies of Your servants || [As] food for the birds of the heavens, || The flesh of Your saints || For the wild beast of the earth.

³ They have shed their blood || As water around Jerusalem, || And there is none burying.

⁵ Until when, O YHWH? Are You angry forever? Your jealousy burns as fire.

⁶ Pour Your fury on the nations who have not known You, || And on kingdoms that have not called on Your Name.

⁷ For [one] has devoured Jacob, || And they have made his habitation desolate.

⁹ Help us, O God of our salvation, || Because of the glory of Your Name, || And deliver us, and cover over our sins, || For Your Name's sake.

¹¹ Let the groaning of the prisoner come in before You, || According to the greatness of Your arm, || Leave the sons of death.

¹² And return to our neighbors, || Sevenfold to their bosom, their reproach, || With which they reproached You, O Lord.

¹³ And we, Your people, and the flock of Your pasture, || We give thanks to You for all time, || We recount Your praise from generation to generation!

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] TO "LILIES OF TESTIMONY." A PSALM OF ASAPH. Shepherd of Israel, give ear, || Leading Joseph as a flock, || Inhabiting the cherubim—shine forth,

² Before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh, || Wake up Your might, and come for our salvation.

⁴ YHWH, God of Hosts, until when? You have burned against the prayer of Your people.

⁵ You have caused them to eat bread of tears, || And cause them to drink || With tears a third time.

⁶ You make us a strife to our neighbors, || And our enemies mock at it.

⁷ God of Hosts, turn us back, || And cause Your face to shine, and we are saved.

⁸ You bring a vine out of Egypt, || You cast out nations, and plant it.

⁹ You have looked before it, and root it, || And it fills the land,

¹⁰ Hills have been covered [with] its shadow, || And its boughs [are] cedars of God.

¹¹ It sends forth its branches to the sea, || And its shoots to the river.

¹² Why have You broken down its hedges, || And everyone passing by the way has plucked it?

¹³ A boar out of the forest tears it, || And a wild beast of the fields grazes it.

¹⁴ God of Hosts, turn back, we implore You, || Look from the heavens, and see, and inspect this vine,

¹⁵ And the root that Your right hand planted, || And the branch You made strong for Yourself,

¹⁶ Burned with fire—cut down, || They perish from the rebuke of Your face.

¹⁷ Let Your hand be on the man of Your right hand || On the son of man You have strengthened for Yourself.

¹⁸ And we do not go back from You, || You revive us, and in Your Name we call.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. ON THE GITTITH. BY ASAPH. Cry aloud to God our strength, || Shout to the God of Jacob.

² Lift up a song, and give out a timbrel, || A pleasant harp with stringed instrument.

³ Blow a horn in the month, || In the new moon, at the day of our festival,

⁴ For it [is] a statute to Israel, || An ordinance of the God of Jacob.

⁵ He has placed it—a testimony on Joseph, || In his going forth over the land of Egypt. A lip, I have not known—I hear.

⁶ I turned aside his shoulder from the burden, || His hands pass over from the basket.

⁷ In distress you have called and I deliver you, || I answer you in the secret place of thunder, || I try you by the waters of Meribah. Selah.

⁸ Hear, O My people, and I testify to you, || O Israel, if you listen to me:

⁹ There is not in you a strange god, || And you do not bow yourself to a strange god.

¹⁰ I [am] your God YHWH, || Who brings you up out of the land of Egypt. Enlarge your mouth, and I fill it.

¹¹ But My people did not listen to My voice, || And Israel has not consented to Me.

¹² And I send them away in the enmity of their heart, || They walk in their own counsels.

¹³ O that My people were listening to Me, || Israel would walk in My ways.

¹⁴ As a little thing I cause their enemies to bow, || And I turn back My hand against their adversaries,

¹⁵ Those hating YHWH should have feigned [obedience] to Him, || And their time would last for all time.

¹⁶ He causes him to eat of the fat of wheat, || And I satisfy you [with] honey from a rock!

¹ A PSALM OF ASAPH. God has stood in the congregation of God, || He judges among the gods.

² Until when do you judge perversely? And lift up the face of the wicked? Selah.

³ Judge the weak and fatherless, || Declare the afflicted and the poor righteous.

⁴ Let the weak and needy escape, || Deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

⁵ They did not know, nor do they understand, || They habitually walk in darkness, || All the foundations of earth are moved.

⁸ Rise, O God, judge the earth, || For You have inheritance among all the nations!

83

1 A SONG. A PSALM OF ASAPH. O God, let there be no silence to You, || Do not be silent, nor be quiet, O God.

2 For behold, Your enemies roar, || And those hating You have lifted up the head,

3 They take crafty counsel against Your people, || And consult against Your hidden ones.

4 They have said, "Come, and we cut them off from [being] a nation, || And the name of Israel is not remembered anymore."

5 For they consulted in heart together, || They make a covenant against You,

6 Tents of Edom, and Ishmaelites, Moab, and the Hagarenes,

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia with inhabitants of Tyre,

8 Asshur is also joined with them, || They have been an arm to sons of Lot. Selah.

9 Do to them as Midian, || As Sisera, as Jabin, at the Brook of Kishon.

10 They were destroyed at Endor, || They were dung for the ground!

11 Make their nobles as Oreb and as Zeeb, || And as Zebah and Zalmunna—all their princes,

12 Who have said, "Let us occupy the pastures of God for ourselves."

13 O my God, make them as a rolling thing, || As stubble before wind.

14 As a fire burns a forest, || And as a flame sets hills on fire,

15 So You pursue them with Your whirlwind, || And trouble them with Your windstorm.

16 Fill their faces [with] shame, || And they seek Your Name, O YHWH.

17 They are ashamed and troubled forever, || Indeed, they are confounded and lost.

18 And they know that You—Your Name [is] YHWH—By Yourself [are] the Most High over all the earth!

1 TO THE OVERSEER. ON THE GITTITH. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH. How beloved Your dwelling places, YHWH of Hosts!

2 My soul desired, indeed, it has also been consumed, || For the courts of YHWH, || My heart and my flesh cry aloud to the living God,

3 Even a sparrow has found a house, || And a swallow a nest for herself, || Where she has placed her brood—Your altars, O YHWH of Hosts, || My king and my God.

4 O the blessedness of those inhabiting Your house, || Yet they praise You. Selah.

5 O the blessedness of a man whose strength is in You, || Highways [are] in their heart.

6 Those passing through a valley of weeping make it a spring, || The early rain covers it with pools.

7 They go from strength to strength, || He appears to God in Zion.

8 O YHWH, God of Hosts, hear my prayer, || Give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Our shield, see, O God, || And behold the face of Your anointed,

10 For a day in Your courts [is] good, O Teacher! I have chosen rather to be at the threshold, || In the house of my God, || Than to dwell in tents of wickedness.

¹ TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH. You have accepted, O YHWH, Your land, || You have turned [to] the captivity of Jacob.

² You have carried away the iniquity of Your people, || You have covered all their sin. Selah.

³ You have gathered up all Your wrath, || You have turned back from the fierceness of Your anger.

⁴ Turn back [to] us, O God of our salvation, || And make void Your anger with us.

⁵ Are You angry against us for all time? Do You draw out Your anger || To generation and generation?

⁶ Do You not turn back? You revive us, || And Your people rejoice in You.

⁷ Show us, O YHWH, your kindness, || And You give to us Your salvation.

⁸ I hear what God, YHWH, speaks, || For He speaks peace to His people, || And to His saints, and they do not turn back to folly.

¹⁰ Kindness and truth have met, || Righteousness and peace have kissed,

¹¹ Truth springs up from the earth, || And righteousness looks out from the heavens,

¹ A PRAYER OF DAVID. Incline, O YHWH, Your ear, || Answer me, for I [am] poor and needy.

² Keep my soul, for I [am] pious, || Save Your servant who is trusting to You, O You, my God.

³ Favor me, O Lord, for I call to You all the day.

⁴ Make glad the soul of Your servant, || For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵ For You, Lord, [are] good and forgiving, || And abundant in kindness to all calling You.

⁶ Hear, O YHWH, my prayer, || And attend to the voice of my supplications.

⁷ In a day of my distress I call You, || For You answer me.

⁸ There is none like You among the gods, O Lord, || And like Your works there are none.

⁹ All nations that You have made || Come and bow themselves before You, O Lord, || And give honor to Your Name.

¹⁰ For You [are] great, and doing wonders, || You [are] God alone.

¹¹ Show me, O YHWH, Your way, || I walk in Your truth, || My heart rejoices to fear Your Name.

¹² I confess You, O Lord my God, with all my heart, || And I honor Your Name for all time.

¹⁴ O God, the proud have risen up against me, || And a company of the terrible sought my soul, || And have not placed You before them,

¹⁵ And You, O Lord, [are] God, merciful and gracious, || Slow to anger, and abundant in kindness and truth.

¹⁶ Look to me, and favor me, || Give Your strength to Your servant, || And give salvation to a son of Your handmaid.

¹⁷ Do with me a sign for good, || And those hating me see and are ashamed, || For You, O YHWH, have helped me, || Indeed, You have comforted me!

³ Honorable things are spoken in You, || O city of God. Selah.

⁶ YHWH recounts in the describing of the peoples, "This [one] was born there." Selah.

¹ A SONG. A PSALM OF THE SONS OF KORAH. TO THE OVERSEER. [SET] ON "SICKNESS TO AFFLICT." AN INSTRUCTION OF HEMAN THE EZRAHITE. O YHWH, God of my salvation, || Daily I have cried, nightly before You,

² My prayer comes in before You, || Incline Your ear to my loud cry,

³ For my soul has been full of evils, || And my life has come to Sheol.

⁴ I have been reckoned with those going down [to] the pit, || I have been as a man without strength.

⁶ You have put me in the lowest pit, || In dark places, in depths.

⁷ Your fury has lain on me, || And You have afflicted [with] all Your breakers. Selah.

⁸ You have put my acquaintance far from me, || You have made me an abomination to them, || Shut up—I do not go forth.

⁹ My eye has grieved because of affliction, || I called You, O YHWH, all the day, || I have spread out my hands to You.

¹⁰ Do You do wonders to the dead? Does Rephaim rise? Do they thank You? Selah.

¹¹ Is Your kindness recounted in the grave? Your faithfulness in destruction?

¹² Are Your wonders known in the darkness? And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

¹³ And I, to You, O YHWH, I have cried, || And in the morning my prayer comes before You.

¹⁴ Why, O YHWH, do You cast off my soul? You hide Your face from me.

¹⁵ I [am] afflicted, and expiring from youth, || I have borne Your terrors—I pine away.

¹⁶ Your wrath has passed over me, || Your terrors have cut me off,

¹⁷ They have surrounded me as waters all the day, || They have gone around against me together,

¹ AN INSTRUCTION OF ETHAN THE EZRAHITE. Of the kind acts of YHWH, I sing for all time, || From generation to generation I make known Your faithfulness with my mouth,

² For I said, “Kindness is built for all time, || The heavens! You establish Your faithfulness in them.”

³ I have made a covenant for My chosen, || I have sworn to My servant David:

⁴ “Even for all time I establish your seed, || And have built your throne to generation and generation.” Selah.

⁶ For who in the sky, compares himself to YHWH? [Who] is like to YHWH among sons of the mighty?

⁷ God is very terrible, || In the secret counsel of His holy ones, || And fearful over all surrounding Him.

⁹ You [are] ruler over the pride of the sea, || In the lifting up of its billows You restrain them.

¹⁰ You have bruised Rahab, as one wounded. You have scattered Your enemies with the arm of Your strength.

¹¹ The heavens [are] Yours, || The earth [is] also Yours, || The habitable world and its fullness, || You have founded them.

¹² North and south You have appointed them, || Tabor and Hermon sing in Your Name.

¹³ You have an arm with might, || Strong is Your hand—high Your right hand.

¹⁴ Righteousness and judgment || [Are] the fixed place of Your throne, || Kindness and truth go before Your face.

¹⁵ O the blessedness of the people knowing the shout, || O YHWH, they habitually walk in the light of Your face.

¹⁶ They rejoice in Your Name all the day, || And they are exalted in Your righteousness,

¹⁷ For You [are] the beauty of their strength, || And in Your good will is our horn exalted,

¹⁸ For our shield [is] of YHWH, || And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁹ Then You have spoken in vision, || To Your saint, indeed, || You say, I have placed help on a mighty one, || Exalted a chosen one out of the people,

²⁰ I have found My servant David, || With My holy oil I have anointed him.

²¹ With whom My hand is established, || My arm also strengthens him.

²² An enemy does not exact on him, || And a son of perverseness does not afflict him.

²³ And I have beaten down his adversaries before him, || And I plague those hating him,

²⁴ And My faithfulness and kindness [are] with him, || And in My Name is his horn exalted.

²⁵ And I have set his hand on the sea, || And his right hand on the rivers.

²⁶ He proclaims to Me: "You [are] my Father, || My God, and the rock of my salvation."

²⁷ I also appoint him firstborn, || Highest of the kings of the earth.

²⁸ For all time I keep for him My kindness, || And My covenant [is] steadfast with him.

²⁹ And I have set his seed forever, || And his throne as the days of the heavens.

³⁰ If his sons forsake My law, || And do not walk in My judgments;

³¹ If they defile My statutes, || And do not keep My commands,

³² I have looked after their transgression with a rod, || And their iniquity with strokes,

³³ And I do not break My kindness from him, || Nor do I deal falsely in My faithfulness.

³⁴ I do not profane My covenant, || And I do not change that which is going forth from My lips.

³⁵ Once I have sworn by My holiness, || I do not lie to David,

³⁶ His seed is for all time, || And his throne [is] as the sun before Me,

³⁷ It is established as the moon for all time, || And the witness in the sky is steadfast. Selah.

³⁸ And You, You have cast off, and reject, || You have shown Yourself angry with Your anointed,

³⁹ Have rejected the covenant of Your servant, || You have defiled his crown to the earth,

⁴⁰ You have broken down all his hedges, || You have made his fortifications a ruin.

⁴¹ Everyone passing by the way has spoiled him, || He has been a reproach to his neighbors,

⁴² You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries, || You have caused all his enemies to rejoice.

⁴³ Also—You turn back the sharpness of his sword, || And have not established him in battle,

⁴⁴ Have caused [him] to cease from his brightness, || And have cast down his throne to the earth.

⁴⁶ Until when, O YHWH, are You hidden? Does Your fury burn as fire forever?

⁴⁸ Who [is] the man that lives, and does not see death? He delivers his soul from the hand of Sheol. Selah.

49 Where [are] Your former kindnesses, O Lord, || [Which] You have sworn to David in Your faithfulness?

50 Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants, || I have borne in my bosom all the strivings of the peoples,

51 With which Your enemies reproached, O YHWH, || With which they have reproached || The steps of Your anointed.

52 Blessed [is] YHWH for all time. Amen and amen!

1 A PRAYER OF MOSES, THE MAN OF GOD. Lord, You have been a habitation, || To us—in generation and generation,

2 Before mountains were brought forth, || And You form the earth and the world, || Even from age to age You [are] God.

3 You turn man to a bruised thing, || And say, Return, you sons of men.

4 For one thousand years in Your eyes [are] as yesterday, || For it passes on, indeed, [as] a watch by night.

5 You have inundated them, they are asleep, || In the morning he changes as grass.

6 In the morning it flourishes, and has changed, || At evening it is cut down, and has withered.

7 For we were consumed in Your anger, || And we have been troubled in Your fury.

8 You have set our iniquities before You, || Our hidden things at the light of Your face,

9 For all our days pined away in Your wrath, || We consumed our years as a meditation.

10 The days of our years, in them [are] seventy years, || And if, by reason of might, eighty years, || Yet their enlargement [is] labor and vanity, || For it has been cut off quickly, and we fly away.

11 Who knows the power of Your anger? And according to Your fear—Your wrath?

12 Let [us] know to number our days correctly, || And we bring the heart to wisdom.

13 Turn back, O YHWH, until when? And regret concerning Your servants.

14 Satisfy us at morning [with] Your kindness, || And we sing and rejoice all our days.

15 Cause us to rejoice according to the days || Wherein You have afflicted us, || The years we have seen evil.

16 Let Your work appear to Your servants, || And Your honor on their sons.

17 And let the pleasantness of our God YHWH be on us, || And establish on us the work of our hands, || Indeed, establish the work of our hands!

1 He who is dwelling || In the secret place of the Most High, || Habitually lodges in the shade of the Mighty,

2 He is saying of YHWH, “My refuge, and my bulwark, my God, I trust in Him.”

3 For He delivers you from the snare of a fowler, || From a calamitous pestilence.

- ⁴ He covers you over with His pinion, || And under His wings you trust,
 || His truth [is] a shield and buckler.
- ⁵ You are not afraid of fear by night, || Of arrow that flies by day,
- ⁶ Of pestilence that walks in thick darkness, || Of destruction that destroys at noon,
- ⁷ One thousand fall at your side, || And a myriad at your right hand, ||
 [But] it does not come near to you.
- ⁸ But with your eyes you look, || And you see the reward of the wicked,
- ⁹ (For You, O YHWH, [are] my refuge), || You made the Most High your habitation.
- ¹⁰ Evil does not happen to you, || And a plague does not come near your tent,
- ¹¹ For He charges His messengers for you, || To keep you in all your ways,
- ¹² On the hands they bear you up, || Lest you strike your foot against a stone.
- ¹³ You tread on lion and cobra, || You trample young lion and dragon.
- ¹⁴ Because he has delighted in Me, || I also deliver him—I set him on high, || Because he has known My Name.
- ¹⁵ He calls Me, and I answer him, || I [am] with him in distress, || I deliver him, and honor him.
- ¹⁶ I satisfy him with [the] length of [his] days, || And I cause him to look on My salvation!

- ¹ A PSALM. A SONG FOR THE SABBATH DAY. [It is] good to give thanks to YHWH, || And to sing praises to Your Name, O Most High,
- ² To declare Your kindness in the morning, || And Your faithfulness in the nights.
- ³ On ten strings and on stringed instrument, || On higgsaion, with harp.
- ⁴ For You have caused me to rejoice, O YHWH, in Your work, || I sing concerning the works of Your hands.
- ⁵ How great Your works have been, O YHWH, || Your thoughts have been very deep.
- ⁶ A brutish man does not know, || And a fool does not understand this—
- ⁷ When the wicked flourish as an herb, || And all workers of iniquity blossom—For their being destroyed forever and ever!
- ⁸ And You [are] high for all time, O YHWH.
- ⁹ For behold, Your enemies, O YHWH, || For behold, Your enemies perish, || All workers of iniquity separate themselves.
- ¹⁰ And You exalt my horn as a wild ox, || I have been anointed with fresh oil.
- ¹¹ And my eye looks on my enemies, || Of those rising up against me, || The evildoers, my ears hear.
- ¹² The righteous flourish as a palm-tree, || He grows as a cedar in Lebanon.
- ¹³ Those planted in the house of YHWH, || In the courts of our God, flourish.
- ¹⁴ Still they bring forth in old age, || They are fat and flourishing,
- ¹⁵ To declare that YHWH my Rock [is] upright, || And there is no perverseness in Him!

¹ YHWH has reigned, || He has put on excellence, || YHWH put on strength, He girded Himself, || Also—the world is established, unmoved.

² Your throne is established since then, || You [are] from the age.

³ Floods have lifted up, O YHWH, || Floods have lifted up their voice, || Floods lift up their breakers.

⁴ Mightier than the voices of many mighty waters, breakers of a sea, || [Is] YHWH on high,

¹ God of vengeance—YHWH! God of vengeance, shine forth.

² Be lifted up, judging the earth, || Send back a repayment on the proud.

³ Until when do the wicked, O YHWH—Until when do the wicked exult?

⁴ They utter—they speak arrogance, || All working iniquity boast [about] themselves.

⁵ Your people, O YHWH, they bruise, || And they afflict Your inheritance.

⁶ They slay widow and sojourner, || And they murder fatherless ones.

⁷ And they say, “YAH does not see, || And the God of Jacob does not consider.”

⁸ Consider, you brutish among the people, || And you foolish, when do you act wisely?

¹¹ He knows the thoughts of man, that they [are] vanity.

¹² O the blessedness of the man || Whom You instruct, O YAH, || And teach him out of Your law,

¹³ To give rest to him from days of evil, || While a pit is dug for the wicked.

¹⁴ For YHWH does not leave His people, || And does not forsake His inheritance.

¹⁵ For judgment turns back to righteousness, || And after it all the upright of heart.

¹⁶ Who rises up for me with evildoers? Who stations himself for me with workers of iniquity?

¹⁷ Unless YHWH [were] a help to me, || My soul had almost inhabited silence.

¹⁹ In the abundance of my thoughts within me, || Your comforts delight my soul.

²⁰ Is a throne of mischief joined [with] You? A framer of perverseness by statute?

²¹ They decree against the soul of the righteous, || And declare innocent blood wicked.

²² And YHWH is for a high place to me, || And my God [is] for a rock—my refuge,

¹ Come, we sing to YHWH, || We shout to the rock of our salvation.

² We come before His face with thanksgiving, || We shout to Him with psalms.

³ For YHWH [is] a great God, || And a great King over all gods.

⁴ In whose hand [are] the deep places of earth, || And the strong places of hills [are] His.

⁵ Whose is the sea, and He made it, || And His hands formed the dry land.

⁶ Come in, we bow ourselves, and we bend, || We kneel before YHWH our Maker.

⁷ For He [is] our God, and we the people of His pasture, || And the flock of His hand, || Today, if you listen to His voice,

⁸ Do not harden your heart as [in] Meribah, || As [in] the day of Massah in the wilderness,

⁹ Where your fathers have tried Me, || Have proved Me, indeed, have seen My work.

¹⁰ Forty years I am weary of the generation, || And I say, “A people erring in heart—they! And they have not known My ways”:

² Sing to YHWH, bless His Name, || Proclaim His salvation from day to day.

³ Declare His glory among nations, || His wonders among all the peoples.

⁴ For YHWH [is] great, and greatly praised, || He [is] fearful over all gods.

⁵ For all the gods of the peoples [are] nothing, || And YHWH made the heavens.

⁶ Splendor and majesty [are] before Him, || Strength and beauty in His sanctuary.

⁷ Ascribe to YHWH, O families of the peoples, || Ascribe to YHWH glory and strength.

⁸ Ascribe to YHWH the glory of His Name, || Lift up a present and come into His courts.

⁹ Bow yourselves to YHWH, || In the honor of holiness, || Be afraid of His presence, all the earth.

¹⁰ Say among nations, “YHWH has reigned, || Also—the world is established, unmoved, || He judges the peoples in uprightness.”

¹¹ The heavens rejoice, and the earth is joyful, || The sea and its fullness roar.

¹² The field exults, and all that [is] in it, || Then all trees of the forest sing,

¹³ Before YHWH, for He has come, || For He has come to judge the earth. He judges the world in righteousness, || And the peoples in His faithfulness!

¹ YHWH has reigned, || The earth is joyful, many islands rejoice.

² Cloud and darkness [are] around Him, || Righteousness and judgment the basis of His throne.

³ Fire goes before Him, || And burns around His adversaries.

⁴ His lightnings have lightened the world, || The earth has seen, and is pained.

⁵ Hills, like wax, melted before YHWH, || Before the Lord of all the earth.

⁶ The heavens declared His righteousness, || And all the peoples have seen His glory.

⁷ All servants of a carved image are ashamed, || Those boasting themselves in idols, || Bow yourselves to Him, all you gods.

⁸ Zion has heard and rejoices, || And daughters of Judah are joyful, || Because of Your judgments, O YHWH.

⁹ For You, YHWH, [are] Most High over all the earth, || You have been exalted greatly over all gods.

¹⁰ You who love YHWH, hate evil, || He is keeping the souls of His saints, || He delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

¹¹ Light [is] sown for the righteous, || And joy for the upright of heart.

¹ A PSALM. Sing to YHWH a new song, || For He has done wonders, || His right hand and His holy arm have given salvation to Him.

² YHWH has made His salvation known, || Before the eyes of the nations, || He has revealed His righteousness,

⁴ Shout to YHWH, all the earth, || Break forth, and cry aloud, and sing.

⁷ The sea and its fullness roar, || The world and the inhabitants in it.

⁸ Floods clap hand, together hills cry aloud,

⁹ Before YHWH, || For He has come to judge the earth, || He judges the world in righteousness, || And the people in uprightness!

¹ YHWH has reigned, peoples tremble, || The Inhabitant of the cherubim, the earth shakes.

² YHWH [is] great in Zion, || And He [is] high over all the peoples.

³ They praise Your Name, "Great, and fearful, [it] is holy!"

⁴ And the strength of the king || Has loved judgment, || You have established uprightness; Judgment and righteousness in Jacob, || You have done.

⁵ Exalt our God YHWH, || And bow yourselves at His footstool, He [is] holy.

⁶ Moses and Aaron among His priests, || And Samuel among those proclaiming His Name. They are calling to YHWH, || And He answers them.

⁷ He speaks to them in a pillar of cloud, || They have kept His testimonies, || And He has given the statute to them.

⁸ O YHWH, our God, || You have afflicted them, || You have been a forgiving God to them, || And taking vengeance on their actions.

² Serve YHWH with joy, come before Him with singing.

³ Know that YHWH [is] God, || He made us, and we are His, || His people—and the flock of His pasture.

⁴ Enter His gates with thanksgiving, || His courts with praise, || Give thanks to Him, bless His Name.

⁵ For YHWH [is] good, || His kindness [is] for all time, || And His faithfulness to generation and generation!

² I act wisely in a perfect way, || When do You come to me? I habitually walk in the integrity of my heart, || In the midst of my house.

³ I do not set a worthless thing before my eyes, || I have hated the work of those turning aside, || It does not adhere to me.

⁴ A perverse heart turns aside from me, || I do not know wickedness.

⁵ Whoever slanders his neighbor in secret, || Him I cut off, || The high of eyes and proud of heart, || Him I do not endure.

⁶ My eyes are on the faithful of the land, || To dwell with me, || Whoever is walking in a perfect way, he serves me.

¹ A PRAYER OF THE AFFLICTED WHEN HE IS FEEBLE, AND POURS OUT HIS COMPLAINT BEFORE YHWH. O YHWH, hear my prayer, indeed, my cry comes to You.

² Do not hide Your face from me, || In a day of my adversity, || Incline Your ear to me, || In the day I call, hurry, answer me.

³ For my days have been consumed in smoke, || And my bones have burned as a firebrand.

⁴ Struck as the herb, and withered, is my heart, || For I have forgotten to eat my bread.

⁵ From the voice of my sighing || My bone has cleaved to my flesh.

⁶ I have been like to a pelican of the wilderness, || I have been as an owl of the dry places.

⁷ I have watched, and I am || As a bird alone on the roof.

⁸ All the day my enemies reproached me, || Those mad at me have sworn against me.

9 Because I have eaten ashes as bread, || And have mingled my drink with weeping,

10 From Your indignation and Your wrath, || For You have lifted me up, || And cast me down.

11 My days [are] stretched out as a shadow, || And I am withered as the herb.

12 And You, O YHWH, abide for all time, || And Your memorial from generation to generation.

13 You rise—You pity Zion, || For the time to favor her, || For the appointed time has come.

14 For Your servants have been pleased with her stones, || And they favor her dust.

15 And nations fear the Name of YHWH, || And all kings of the earth Your glory,

16 For YHWH has built Zion, || He has been seen in His glory,

17 He turned to the prayer of the destitute, || And He has not despised their prayer.

18 This is written for a later generation, || And the people created praise YAH.

19 For He has looked || From the high place of His sanctuary. YHWH looked attentively from the heavens to earth,

20 To hear the groan of the prisoner, || To loose sons of death,

21 To declare in Zion the Name of YHWH, || And His praise in Jerusalem,

22 In the peoples being gathered together, || And the kingdoms—to serve YHWH.

23 He has humbled my power in the way, || He has shortened my days.

24 I say, “My God, do not take me up in the midst of my days,” || Your years [are] through all generations.

25 You founded the earth before time, || And the heavens [are] the work of Your hands.

26 They perish, and You remain, || And all of them become old as a garment, || You change them as clothing, || And they are changed.

27 And You [are] the same, and Your years are not finished.

28 The sons of Your servants continue, || And their seed is established before You!

1 BY DAVID. Bless, O my soul, YHWH, || And all my inward parts—His Holy Name.

2 Bless, O my soul, YHWH, || And do not forget all His benefits,

3 Who is forgiving all your iniquities, || Who is healing all your diseases,

4 Who is redeeming your life from destruction, || Who is crowning you [with] kindness and mercies,

5 Who is satisfying your desire with good, || Your youth renews itself as an eagle.

6 YHWH is doing righteousness and judgments || For all the oppressed.

7 He makes His ways known to Moses, || His acts to the sons of Israel.

8 YHWH [is] merciful and gracious, || Slow to anger, and abundant in mercy.

9 He does not strive forever, || Nor does He watch for all time.

¹⁰ He has not done to us according to our sins, || Nor according to our iniquities || Has He conferred benefits on us.

¹¹ For as the height of the heavens [is] above the earth, || His kindness has been mighty over those fearing Him.

¹² He has put our transgressions far from us—as the distance of east from west.

¹³ As a father has mercy on sons, || YHWH has mercy on those fearing Him.

¹⁴ For He has known our frame, || Remembering that we [are] dust.

¹⁵ Mortal man! His days [are] as grass, || He flourishes as a flower of the field;

¹⁶ For a wind has passed over it, and it is not, || And its place does not discern it anymore.

¹⁷ And the kindness of YHWH || [Is] from age even to age on those fearing Him, || And His righteousness to sons' sons,

¹⁸ To those keeping His covenant, || And to those remembering His precepts to do them.

¹⁹ YHWH has established His throne in the heavens, || And His kingdom has ruled over all.

²⁰ Bless YHWH, you His messengers, || Mighty in power—doing His word, || To listen to the voice of His word.

²¹ Bless YHWH, all you His hosts, || His ministers—doing His pleasure.

104

¹ Bless, O my soul, YHWH! YHWH, my God, || You have been very great, || You have put on splendor and majesty.

² Covering Himself [with] light as a garment, || Stretching out the heavens as a curtain,

³ Who is laying the beam of His upper chambers in the waters, || Who is making thick clouds His chariot, || Who is walking on wings of wind,

⁴ Making His messengers—the winds, || His ministers—the flaming fire.

⁵ He has founded earth on its bases, || It is not moved for all time and forever.

⁶ The abyss! You have covered it as with clothing, || Waters stand above hills.

⁷ They flee from Your rebuke, || They hurry away from the voice of Your thunder.

⁸ They go up hills—they go down valleys, || To a place You have founded for them.

⁹ You have set a border, they do not pass over, || They do not turn back to cover the earth.

¹⁰ He is sending forth fountains in valleys, || They go on between hills.

¹¹ They water every beast of the field, || Wild donkeys break their thirst.

¹² The bird of the heavens dwells by them, || From between the branches || They give forth the voice.

¹³ Watering hills from His upper chambers, || The earth is satisfied from the fruit of Your works.

¹⁴ Causing grass to spring up for livestock, || And herb for the service of man, || To bring forth bread from the earth,

15 And wine—it makes the heart of man glad, || To cause the face to shine from oil, || And bread—it supports the heart of man.

16 The trees of YHWH [are] satisfied, || Cedars of Lebanon that He has planted,

17 Where birds make nests, || The stork—the firs [are] her house.

18 The high hills [are] for wild goats, rocks [are] a refuge for hyraxes,

19 He made the moon for seasons, || The sun has known his place of entrance.

20 You set darkness, and it is night, || Every beast of the forest creeps in it.

21 The young lions are roaring for prey, || And to seek their food from God.

22 The sun rises, they are gathered, || And they crouch in their dens.

23 Man goes forth to his work, || And to his service—until evening.

24 How many have been Your works, O YHWH, || You have made all of them in wisdom, || The earth is full of your possessions.

25 This, the sea, great and broad of sides, || There [are] moving things—innumerable, || Living creatures—small with great.

26 There ships go—[and] leviathan, || That You have formed to play in it.

27 All of them look to You, || To give their food in its season.

28 You give to them—they gather, || You open Your hand—they [are] satisfied [with] good.

29 You hide Your face—they are troubled, || You gather their spirit—they expire, || And they return to their dust.

30 You send out Your Spirit, they are created, || And You renew the face of the ground.

31 The glory of YHWH is for all time, || YHWH rejoices in His works,

32 Who is looking to earth, and it trembles, || He comes against hills, and they smoke.

33 I sing to YHWH during my life, || I sing praise to my God while I exist.

34 My meditation on Him is sweet, || I rejoice in YHWH.

35 Sinners are consumed from the earth, || And the wicked are no more. Bless, O my soul, YHWH. Praise YAH!

1 Give thanks to YHWH—call on His Name, || Make His acts known among the peoples.

2 Sing to Him—sing praise to Him, || Meditate on all His wonders.

3 Boast yourselves in His Holy Name, || The heart of those seeking YHWH rejoices.

4 Seek YHWH and His strength, || Seek His face continually.

5 Remember His wonders that He did, || His signs and the judgments of His mouth.

6 O seed of Abraham, His servant, || O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones.

7 He [is] our God YHWH, || His judgments [are] in all the earth.

8 He has remembered His covenant for all time, || The word He commanded to one thousand generations,

9 That He has made with Abraham, || And His oath to Isaac,

10 And establishes it to Jacob for a statute, || To Israel—a perpetual covenant,

11 Saying, "I give the land of Canaan to you, || The portion of your inheritance,"

12 In their being few in number, || But a few, and sojourners in it.

13 And they go up and down, from nation to nation, || From a kingdom to another people.

14 He has not permitted any to oppress them || And He reproves kings for their sakes.

15 "Do not strike against My anointed, || And do no evil to My prophets."

16 And He calls a famine on the land, || He has broken the whole staff of bread.

17 He has sent a man before them, || Joseph has been sold for a servant.

18 They have afflicted his feet with chains, || Iron has entered his soul,

19 Until the time of the coming of His word || The saying of YHWH has tried him.

20 The king has sent, and looses him, || The ruler of the peoples, and draws him out.

21 He has made him lord of his house, || And ruler over all his possessions.

22 To bind his chiefs at his pleasure, || And he makes his elderly wise.

23 And Israel comes into Egypt, || And Jacob has sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And He makes His people very fruitful, || And makes it mightier than its adversaries.

25 He turned their heart to hate His people, || To conspire against His servants.

26 He has sent His servant Moses, || Aaron whom He had fixed on.

27 They have set among them the matters of His signs, || And wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He has sent darkness, and it is dark, || And they have not provoked His word.

29 He has turned their waters to blood, || And puts their fish to death.

30 Their land has teemed [with] frogs, || In the inner chambers of their kings.

31 He has commanded, and the beetle comes, || Lice into all their border.

32 He has made their showers hail, || A flaming fire [is] in their land.

33 And He strikes their vine and their fig, || And shatters the trees of their border.

34 He has commanded, and the locust comes, || And the cankerworm— innumerable,

35 And it consumes every herb in their land, || And it consumes the fruit of their ground.

36 And He strikes every firstborn in their land, || The first-fruit of all their strength,

37 And brings them out with silver and gold, || And there is not a feeble one in its tribes.

38 Egypt has rejoiced in their going forth, || For their fear had fallen on them.

39 He has spread a cloud for a covering, || And fire to enlighten the night.

40 They have asked, and He brings quails, || And satisfies them [with] bread of the heavens.

41 He has opened a rock, and waters flow, || They have gone on in dry places—a river.

42 For He has remembered His holy word, || With His servant Abraham,

43 And He brings forth His people with joy, || His chosen ones with singing.

44 And He gives to them the lands of nations, || And they possess the labor of peoples,

45 That they may observe His statutes, || And may keep His laws. Praise YAH!

1 Praise YAH, give thanks to YHWH, for [He is] good, for His kindness [is] for all time!

2 Who utters the mighty acts of YHWH? Sounds all His praise?

3 O the blessedness of those keeping judgment, || Doing righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O YHWH, || With the favor of Your people, || Look after me in Your salvation.

5 To look on the good of Your chosen ones, || To rejoice in the joy of Your nation, || To boast myself with Your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, || We have done perversely, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers in Egypt, || Have not considered wisely Your wonders, || They have not remembered || The abundance of Your kind acts, || And provoke by the sea, at the Sea of Suph.

8 And He saves them for His Name's sake, || To make His might known,

9 And rebukes the Sea of Suph, and it is dried up, || And causes them to go || Through depths as a wilderness.

10 And He saves them from the hand || Of him who is hating, || And redeems them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And waters cover their adversaries, || One of them has not been left.

12 And they believe in His words, they sing His praise,

13 They have hurried—forgotten His works, || They have not waited for His counsel.

14 And they lust greatly in a wilderness, || And try God in a desert.

15 And He gives to them their request, || And sends leanness into their soul.

16 And they are envious of Moses in the camp, || Of Aaron, YHWH's holy one.

17 Earth opens, and swallows up Dathan, || And covers over the company of Abiram.

18 And fire burns among their company, || A flame sets the wicked on fire.

19 They make a calf in Horeb, || And bow themselves to a molten image,

20 And change their glory || Into the form of an ox eating herbs.

21 They have forgotten God their Savior, || The doer of great things in Egypt,

22 Of wonderful things in the land of Ham, || Of fearful things by the Sea of Suph.

23 And He commands to destroy them, || Unless Moses, His chosen one,
|| Had stood in the breach before Him, || To turn back His wrath from destroying.

24 And they kick against the desirable land, || They have not given credence to His word.

25 And they murmur in their tents, || They have not listened to the voice of YHWH.

26 And He lifts up His hand to them, || To cause them to fall in a wilderness,

27 And to cause their seed to fall among nations, || And to scatter them through lands.

28 And they are coupled to Ba'al-Peor, || And eat the sacrifices of the dead,

29 And they provoke to anger by their actions, || And a plague breaks forth on them,

30 And Phinehas stands, and executes judgment, || And the plague is restrained,

31 And it is reckoned to him for righteousness, || From generation to generation—for all time.

32 And they cause wrath by the waters of Meribah, || And it is evil to Moses for their sakes,

33 For they have provoked his spirit, || And he speaks wrongfully with his lips.

34 They have not destroyed the peoples, || As YHWH had commanded to them,

35 And mix themselves among nations, and learn their works,

36 And serve their idols, || And they are for a snare to them.

37 And they sacrifice their sons and their daughters to the demons,

38 And they shed innocent blood—Blood of their sons and of their daughters, || Whom they have sacrificed to idols of Canaan, || And the land is profaned with blood.

39 And they are defiled with their works, || And commit whoredom in their habitual doings.

40 And the anger of YHWH || Is kindled against His people, || And He detests His inheritance.

41 And gives them into the hand of nations, || And those hating them rule over them,

42 And their enemies oppress them, || And they are humbled under their hand.

43 He delivers them many times, || And they rebel in their counsel, ||
And they are brought low in their iniquity.

44 And He looks on their distress || When He hears their cry,

45 And remembers His covenant for them, || And is comforted, ||
According to the abundance of His kindness.

46 And He appoints them for mercies || Before all their captors.

47 Save us, O our God YHWH, and gather us from the nations, || To give thanks to Your Holy Name, || To glory in Your praise.

48 Blessed [is] YHWH, God of Israel, || From age until age. And all the people said, "Amen, praise YAH!"

² Let the redeemed of YHWH say [so], || Whom He redeemed from the hand of an adversary.

³ And has gathered them from the lands, || From east and from west, || From north, and from the sea.

⁴ They wandered in a wilderness, in a desert by the way, || They have not found a city of habitation.

⁵ Hungry—indeed—thirsty, || Their soul becomes feeble in them,

⁶ And they cry to YHWH in their adversity, || He delivers them from their distress,

⁷ And causes them to tread in a right way, || To go to a city of habitation.

⁸ They confess to YHWH His kindness, || And His wonders to the sons of men.

⁹ For He has satisfied a longing soul, || And has filled a hungry soul [with] goodness.

¹⁰ Inhabitants of dark places and death-shade, || Prisoners of affliction and of iron,

¹¹ Because they changed the saying of God, || And despised the counsel of the Most High.

¹² And He humbles their heart with labor, || They have been feeble, and there is no helper.

¹³ And they cry to YHWH in their adversity, || He saves them from their distresses.

¹⁴ He brings them out from the dark place, || And death-shade, || And He draws away their bands.

¹⁵ They confess to YHWH His kindness, || And His wonders to the sons of men.

¹⁶ For He has broken doors of bronze, || And He has cut bars of iron.

¹⁷ Fools, by means of their transgression, || And by their iniquities, afflict themselves.

¹⁸ Their soul detests all food, || And they come near to the gates of death,

¹⁹ And cry to YHWH in their adversity, || He saves them from their distresses,

²⁰ He sends His word and heals them, || And delivers [them] from their destructions.

²¹ They confess to YHWH His kindness, || And His wonders to the sons of men,

²² And they sacrifice sacrifices of thanksgiving, || And recount His works with singing.

²³ Those going down [to] the sea in ships, || Doing business in many waters,

²⁴ They have seen the works of YHWH, || And His wonders in the deep.

²⁵ And He commands, and appoints a storm, || And it lifts up its billows,

²⁶ They go up [to] the heavens, they go down [to] the depths, || Their soul is melted in evil.

²⁷ They reel to and fro, and move as a drunkard, || And all their wisdom is swallowed up.

²⁸ And they cry to YHWH in their adversity, || And He brings them out from their distresses.

²⁹ He calms a whirlwind, || And their billows are hushed.

³⁰ And they rejoice because they are quiet, || And He leads them to the haven of their desire.

³¹ They confess to YHWH His kindness, || And His wonders to the sons of men,

³² And they exalt Him in [the] assembly of [the] people, || And praise Him in [the] seat of [the] elderly.

³³ He makes rivers become a wilderness, || And fountains of waters become dry land.

³⁴ A fruitful land becomes a barren place, || For the wickedness of its inhabitants.

³⁵ He makes a wilderness become a pool of water, || And a dry land become fountains of waters.

³⁶ And He causes the hungry to dwell there, || And they prepare a city of habitation.

³⁷ And they sow fields, and plant vineyards, || And they make fruits of increase.

³⁸ And He blesses them, and they multiply exceedingly, || And He does not diminish their livestock.

³⁹ And they are diminished, and bow down, || By restraint, evil, and sorrow.

⁴⁰ He is pouring contempt on nobles, || And causes them to wander in vacancy—no way.

⁴¹ And sets the needy on high from affliction, || And places families as a flock.

² Awake, stringed instrument and harp, || I awake the dawn.

³ I thank You among peoples, O YHWH, || And I praise You among the nations.

⁴ For Your kindness [is] great above the heavens, || And Your truth to the clouds.

⁵ Be exalted above the heavens, O God, || And Your glory above all the earth.

⁶ That Your beloved ones may be delivered, || Save [with] Your right hand, and answer us.

⁷ God has spoken in His holiness: I exult, I apportion Shechem, || And I measure the Valley of Succoth,

⁸ Gilead [is] Mine, Manasseh [is] Mine, || And Ephraim [is] the strength of My head, || Judah [is] My lawgiver,

⁹ Moab [is] a pot for My washing, || On Edom I cast My shoe, || Over Philistia I habitually shout.

¹¹ Have You not, O God, cast us off? And You do not go out, O God, with our hosts!

¹² Give to us help from adversity, || And the salvation of man is vain.

1 TO THE OVERSEER. A PSALM OF DAVID. O God of my praise, do not be silent,

2 For the mouth of wickedness, and the mouth of deceit, || They have opened against me, || They have spoken with me—A tongue of falsehood, and words of hatred!

3 They have surrounded me about, || And they fight me without cause.

4 For my love they oppose me, and I—prayer!

5 And they set against me evil for good, || And hatred for my love.

6 Appoint the wicked over him, || And an adversary stands at his right hand.

7 In his being judged, he goes forth wicked, || And his prayer is for sin.

8 His days are few, another takes his oversight,

9 His sons are fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 And his sons wander continually, || Indeed, they have begged, || And have sought out of their dry places.

11 An exactor lays a snare for all that he has, || And strangers spoil his labor.

12 He has none to extend kindness, || Nor is there one showing favor to his orphans.

13 His posterity is for cutting off, || Their name is blotted out in another generation.

14 The iniquity of his fathers || Is remembered to YHWH, || And the sin of his mother is not blotted out.

15 They are continually before YHWH, || And He cuts off their memorial from earth.

16 Because that he has not remembered to do kindness, || And pursues the poor man and needy, || And the struck of heart—to slay,

17 And he loves reviling, and it meets him, || And he has not delighted in blessing, || And it is far from him.

18 And he puts on reviling as his robe, || And it comes in as water into his midst, || And as oil into his bones.

19 It is to him as apparel—he covers himself, || And he girds it on for a continual girdle.

20 This [is] the wage of my accusers from YHWH, || And of those speaking evil against my soul.

21 And You, O Lord YHWH, || Deal with me for Your Name's sake, || Because Your kindness [is] good, deliver me.

22 For I [am] poor and needy, || And my heart has been pierced in my midst.

23 I have gone as a shadow when it is stretched out, || I have been driven away as a locust.

24 My knees have been feeble from fasting, || And my flesh has failed of fatness.

25 And I have been a reproach to them, || They see me, they shake their head.

26 Help me, O YHWH my God, || Save me, according to Your kindness.

27 And they know that this [is] Your hand, || You, O YHWH, You have done it.

28 They revile, and You bless, || They have risen, and are ashamed, || And Your servant rejoices.

²⁹ My accusers put on blushing, and are covered, || Their shame [is] as an upper robe.

³ Your people [are] free-will gifts in the day of Your strength, in the honors of holiness, || From the womb, from the morning, || You have the dew of Your youth.

⁴ YHWH has sworn, and does not relent, "You [are] a priest for all time, || According to the order of Melchizedek."

² Great [are] the works of YHWH, || Sought out by all desiring them.

⁴ He has made a memorial of His wonders, || YHWH [is] gracious and merciful.

⁵ He has given prey to those fearing Him, || He remembers His covenant for all time.

⁶ He has declared the power of His works to His people, || To give to them the inheritance of nations.

⁸ They are sustained forever and for all time. They are made in truth and uprightness.

² His seed is mighty in the earth, || The generation of the upright is blessed.

³ Wealth and riches [are] in his house, || And his righteousness is standing forever.

⁴ Light has risen in darkness to the upright, || Gracious, and merciful, and righteous.

⁶ For he is not moved for all time; For the righteous is a continuous memorial.

⁷ He is not afraid of an evil report, || His heart is prepared [and] confident in YHWH.

⁸ His heart is sustained—he does not fear, || Until he looks on his adversaries.

⁹ He has scattered—has given to the needy, || His righteousness is standing forever, || His horn is exalted with glory.

² The Name of YHWH is blessed, || From now on, and for all time.

³ From the rising of the sun to its going in, || The Name of YHWH [is] praised.

⁶ He is humbling [Himself] to look || On the heavens and on the earth.

⁷ He is raising up the poor from the dust, || He exalts the needy from a dunghill.

⁸ To cause [them] to sit with princes, || With the princes of His people.

⁹ Causing the barren one of the house to sit, || A joyful mother of sons; praise YAH!

¹ In the going out of Israel from Egypt, || The house of Jacob from a strange people,

² Judah became His sanctuary, || Israel his dominion.

³ The sea has seen, and flees, || The Jordan turns backward.

⁵ What is [ailing] you, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan, you turn back!

⁶ O mountains, you skip as rams! O heights, as sons of a flock!

⁷ From before the Lord be afraid, O earth, || From before the God of Jacob,

⁸ He is turning the rock to a pool of waters, || The flint to a fountain of waters!

¹ Not to us, O YHWH, not to us, || But to Your Name give glory, || For Your kindness, for Your truth.

² Why do the nations say, "Where, pray, [is] their God?"

³ And our God [is] in the heavens, || All that He has pleased He has done.

⁴ Their idols [are] silver and gold, work of man's hands,

⁵ They have a mouth, and they do not speak, || They have eyes, and they do not see,

- 6 They have ears, and they do not hear, || They have a nose, and they do not smell,
 7 Their hands, but they do not handle, || Their feet, and they do not walk;
 8 Nor do they mutter through their throat, || Their makers are like them, || Everyone who is trusting in them.
 9 O Israel, trust in YHWH, "He [is] their help and their shield."
 10 O house of Aaron, trust in YHWH, "He [is] their help and their shield."
 11 You fearing YHWH, trust in YHWH, "He [is] their help and their shield."
 12 YHWH has remembered us, He blesses, || He blesses the house of Israel, || He blesses the house of Aaron,
 13 He blesses those fearing YHWH, || The small with the great.
 14 YHWH adds to you—to you and to your sons.
 15 Blessed [are] you of YHWH, || Maker of the heavens and earth,
 16 The heavens—the heavens [are] YHWH's, || And He has given the earth to sons of men;
 17 The dead do not praise YAH, || Nor any going down to silence.
 18 And we, we bless YAH, || From now on, and for all time. Praise YAH!

- 1 I have loved, because YHWH hears My voice, my supplication,
 2 Because He has inclined His ear to me, || And during my days I call.
 3 Cords of death have surrounded me, || And straits of Sheol have found me, || I find distress and sorrow.
 4 And in the Name of YHWH I call: Ah, now, O YHWH, deliver my soul,
 5 YHWH [is] gracious, and righteous, || Indeed, our God [is] merciful,
 6 YHWH [is] a preserver of the simple, || I was low, and He gives salvation to me.
 7 Return, O my soul, to your rest, || For YHWH has conferred benefits on you.
 8 For You have delivered my soul from death, || My eyes from tears, my feet from overthrowing.
 9 I habitually walk before YHWH || In the lands of the living.
 10 I have believed, for I speak, || I have been greatly afflicted.
 11 I said in my haste, "Every man [is] a liar."
 12 What do I return to YHWH? All His benefits [are] on me.
 13 I lift up the cup of salvation, || And in the Name of YHWH I call.
 14 Let me complete my vows to YHWH, || Now, before all His people.
 15 Precious in the eyes of YHWH [is] the death of His saints.
 16 Ah, now, O YHWH, for I [am] Your servant; I [am] Your servant, son of Your handmaid; You have opened my bonds.
 17 I sacrifice a sacrifice of thanks to You, || And in the Name of YHWH I call.
 18 Let me complete my vows to YHWH, || Now, before all His people,
 19 In the courts of the house of YHWH, || In your midst, O Jerusalem, praise YAH!

- 1 Praise YHWH, all you nations, || Glorify Him, all you peoples!

² For His kindness has been mighty to us, || And the truth of YHWH [is] for all time. Praise YAH!

² Now let Israel say, || His kindness [is] for all time.

³ Now let the house of Aaron say, || His kindness [is] for all time.

⁴ Now let those fearing YHWH say, || His kindness [is] for all time.

⁵ I called YAH from the narrow place, || YAH answered me in a broad place.

⁶ YHWH [is] for me, || I do not fear what man does to me.

⁷ YHWH [is] for me among my helpers, || And I look on those hating me.

⁸ Better to take refuge in YHWH, || Than to trust in man,

⁹ Better to take refuge in YHWH, || Than to trust in princes.

¹⁰ All nations have surrounded me, || In the Name of YHWH I surely cut them off.

¹¹ They have surrounded me, || Indeed, they have surrounded me, || In the Name of YHWH I surely cut them off.

¹² They surrounded me as bees, || They have been extinguished as a fire of thorns, || In the Name of YHWH I surely cut them off.

¹⁴ YAH is my strength and song, || And He is to me for salvation.

¹⁵ A voice of singing and salvation, || [Is] in the tents of the righteous, || The right hand of YHWH is doing valiantly.

¹⁶ The right hand of YHWH is exalted, || The right hand of YHWH is doing valiantly.

¹⁷ I do not die, but live, || And recount the works of YAH,

¹⁸ YAH has severely disciplined me, || And has not given me up to death.

¹⁹ Open gates of righteousness to me, || I enter into them—I thank YAH.

²⁰ This [is] the gate to YHWH, || The righteous enter into it.

²¹ I thank You, for You have answered me, || And are to me for salvation.

²² A stone the builders refused || Has become head of a corner.

²³ This has been from YHWH, || It [is] wonderful in our eyes,

²⁴ This [is] the day YHWH has made, || We rejoice and are glad in it.

²⁵ Ah, now, O YHWH, please save, || Ah, now, O YHWH, please prosper.

²⁶ Blessed [is] He who is coming || In the Name of YHWH, || We blessed you from the house of YHWH,

²⁷ God [is] YHWH, and He gives light to us, || Direct the festal-sacrifice with cords, || To the horns of the altar.

²⁸ You [are] my God, and I confess You, || My God, I exalt You.

² O the blessedness of those keeping His testimonies, || They seek Him with the whole heart.

³ Indeed, they have not done iniquity, || They have walked in His ways.

⁴ You have commanded us to diligently keep Your precepts,

⁵ O that my ways were prepared to keep Your statutes,

⁶ Then I am not ashamed || In my looking to all Your commands.

⁷ I confess You with uprightness of heart, || In my learning the judgments of Your righteousness.

⁸ I keep Your statutes, do not utterly leave me!

⁹ [BETH] With what does a young man purify his path? To observe—according to Your word.

¹⁰ I have sought You with all my heart, || Do not let me err from Your commands.

¹² Blessed [are] You, O YHWH, teach me Your statutes.

¹³ With my lips I have recounted || All the judgments of Your mouth.

¹⁴ I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, || As over all wealth.

¹⁵ I meditate on Your precepts, || And I attentively behold Your paths.

¹⁶ I delight myself in Your statutes, || I do not forget Your word.

¹⁷ [GIMEL] Confer benefits on Your servant, || I live, and I keep Your word.

¹⁸ Uncover my eyes, and I behold wonders out of Your law.

¹⁹ I [am] a sojourner on earth, || Do not hide Your commands from me.

²⁰ My soul has broken for desire || To Your judgments at all times.

²¹ You have rebuked the cursed proud, || Who are erring from Your commands.

²² Remove reproach and contempt from me, || For I have kept Your testimonies.

²³ Princes also sat—they spoke against me, || Your servant meditates on Your statutes,

²⁴ Your testimonies [are] also my delight, || The men of my counsel!

²⁵ [DALETH] My soul has cleaved to the dust, || Quicken me according to Your word.

²⁶ I have recounted my ways, || And You answer me, teach me Your statutes,

²⁷ Cause me to understand the way of Your precepts, || And I meditate on Your wonders.

²⁸ My soul has dropped from affliction, || Establish me according to Your word.

²⁹ Turn aside the way of falsehood from me || And favor me with Your law.

³⁰ I have chosen the way of faithfulness, || I have compared Your judgments,

³¹ I have adhered to Your testimonies, || O YHWH, do not put me to shame.

³² I run the way of Your commands, || For You enlarge my heart!

³³ [HE] Show me, O YHWH, the way of Your statutes, || And I keep it—[to] the end.

³⁴ Cause me to understand, and I keep Your law, || And observe it with the whole heart.

³⁵ Cause me to tread in the path of Your commands, || For I have delighted in it.

³⁶ Incline my heart to Your testimonies, || And not to dishonest gain.

³⁷ Remove my eyes from seeing vanity, || Quicken me in Your way.

38 Establish Your saying to Your servant, || That [is] concerning Your fear.

39 Remove my reproach that I have feared, || For Your judgments [are] good.

40 Behold, I have longed for Your precepts, || Quicken me in Your righteousness,

41 [WAW] And Your kindness meets me, O YHWH, || Your salvation according to Your saying.

42 And I answer him who is reproaching me a word, || For I have trusted in Your word.

43 And You do not utterly take away || The word of truth from my mouth, || Because I have hoped for Your judgment.

44 And I keep Your law continually, || For all time and forever.

45 And I habitually walk in a broad place, || For I have sought Your precepts.

46 And I speak of Your testimonies before kings, || And I am not ashamed.

47 And I delight myself in Your commands, || That I have loved,

48 And I lift up my hands to Your commands, || That I have loved, || And I meditate on Your statutes!

49 [ZAYIN] Remember the word to Your servant, || On which You have caused me to hope.

50 This [is] my comfort in my affliction, || That Your saying has quickened me.

51 The proud have utterly scorned me, || I have not turned aside from Your law.

52 I remembered Your judgments of old, O YHWH, || And I comfort myself.

53 Horror has seized me, || Because of the wicked forsaking Your law.

54 Your statutes have been songs to me, || In the house of my sojournings.

55 I have remembered Your Name in the night, O YHWH, || And I keep Your law.

56 This has been to me, || That I have kept Your precepts!

57 [HETH] YHWH [is] my portion; I have said I would keep Your words,

58 I appeased Your face with the whole heart, || Favor me according to Your saying.

59 I have reckoned my ways, || And turn back my feet to Your testimonies.

60 I have made haste, || And did not delay, to keep Your commands.

61 Cords of the wicked have surrounded me, || I have not forgotten Your law.

62 At midnight I rise to give thanks to You, || For the judgments of Your righteousness.

63 I [am] a companion to all who fear You, || And to those keeping Your precepts.

64 Of Your kindness, O YHWH, the earth is full, || Teach me Your statutes!

65 [TETH] You did good with Your servant, O YHWH, || According to Your word.

66 Teach me the goodness of reason and knowledge, || For I have believed in Your commands.

67 Before I am afflicted, I am erring, || And now I have kept Your saying.

68 You [are] good, and doing good, || Teach me Your statutes.

69 The proud have forged falsehood against me, || I keep Your precepts with the whole heart.

70 Their heart has been thick as fat, || I have delighted in Your law.

71 [It is] good for me that I have been afflicted, || That I might learn Your statutes.

72 The Law of Your mouth [is] better to me || Than thousands of gold and silver!

73 [YOD] Your hands made me and establish me, || Cause me to understand, and I learn Your commands.

74 Those fearing You see me and rejoice, || Because I have hoped for Your word.

75 I have known, O YHWH, || That Your judgments [are] righteous, || And [in] faithfulness You have afflicted me.

76 Please let Your kindness be to comfort me, || According to Your saying to Your servant.

77 Your mercies meet me, and I live, || For Your law [is] my delight.

78 The proud are ashamed, || For [with] falsehood they dealt perversely with me. I meditate on Your precepts.

79 Those fearing You turn back to me, || And those knowing Your testimonies.

80 My heart is perfect in Your statutes, || So that I am not ashamed.

81 [KAPH] My soul has been consumed for Your salvation, || I have hoped for Your word.

82 My eyes have been consumed for Your word, || Saying, "When does it comfort me?"

83 For I have been as a bottle in smoke, || I have not forgotten Your statutes.

84 How many [are] the days of Your servant? When do You execute judgment || Against my pursuers?

85 The proud have dug pits for me, || That [are] not according to Your law.

86 All Your commands [are] faithfulness, || They have pursued me [with] falsehood, || Help me.

87 They have almost consumed me on earth, || And I have not forsaken Your precepts.

88 Quicken me according to Your kindness, || And I keep the Testimony of Your mouth!

89 [LAMED] For all time, O YHWH, Your word is set up in the heavens.

90 Your faithfulness from generation to generation, || You established earth, and it stands.

91 According to Your ordinances || They have stood this day, for the whole—Your servants.

92 Unless Your law [were] my delights, || Then had I perished in my affliction.

93 I do not forget Your precepts for all time, || For You have quickened me by them.

94 I [am] Yours, save me, for I have sought Your precepts.

95 Your wicked waited for me to destroy me, || I understand Your testimonies.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection, || Your command [is] exceedingly broad!

97 [MEM] O how I have loved Your law! It [is] my meditation all the day.

98 Your command makes me wiser than my enemies, || For it [is] before me for all time.

99 I have acted wisely above all my teachers. For Your testimonies [are] my meditation.

100 Above elderly—I understand more, || For I have kept Your precepts.

101 I restrained my feet from every evil path, || So that I keep Your word.

102 I did not turn aside from Your judgments, || For You have directed me.

103 How sweet Your saying has been to my palate, || Above honey to my mouth.

104 I have understanding from Your precepts, || Therefore I have hated every false path!

105 [NUN] Your word [is] a lamp to my foot, || And a light to my path.

106 I have sworn, and I confirm, || To keep the judgments of Your righteousness.

107 I have been afflicted very much, || O YHWH, quicken me, according to Your word.

108 Please accept [the] free-will offerings of my mouth, O YHWH, || And teach me Your judgments.

109 My soul [is] in my hand continually, || And I have not forgotten Your law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, || And I did not wander from your precepts.

111 I have inherited Your testimonies for all time, || For they [are] the joy of my heart.

112 I have inclined my heart || To do Your statutes, for all time—[to] the end!

113 [SAMEKH] I have hated doubting ones, || And I have loved Your law.

114 You [are] my hiding place and my shield, || I have hoped for Your word.

115 Turn aside from me, you evildoers, || And I keep the commands of my God.

116 Sustain me according to Your saying, || And I live, and You do not put me to shame because of my hope.

117 Support me, and I am saved, || And I look on Your statutes continually.

118 You have trodden down || All going astray from Your statutes, || For their deceit [is] falsehood.

119 Dross! You have caused to cease || All the wicked of the earth; Therefore I have loved Your testimonies.

120 My flesh has trembled from Your fear, || And I have been afraid from Your judgments!

121 [AYIN] I have done judgment and righteousness, || Do not leave me to my oppressors.

122 Make Your servant sure for good, || Do not let the proud oppress me.

123 My eyes have been consumed for Your salvation. And for the saying of Your righteousness.

124 Do with Your servant according to Your kindness. And teach me Your statutes.

125 I [am] Your servant—cause me to understand, || And I know Your testimonies.

126 Time for YHWH to work! They have made Your law void.

127 Therefore I have loved Your commands || Above gold—even fine gold.

128 Therefore all my appointments I have declared wholly right, || I have hated every path of falsehood!

129 [PE] Your testimonies [are] wonderful, || Therefore my soul has kept them.

130 The opening of Your words enlightens, || Instructing the simple.

131 I have opened my mouth, indeed, I pant, || For I have longed for Your commands.

132 Look to me, and favor me, || As customary to those loving Your Name.

133 Establish my steps by Your saying, || And any iniquity does not rule over me.

134 Ransom me from the oppression of man, || And I observe Your precepts,

135 Cause Your face to shine on Your servant, || And teach me Your statutes.

136 Streams of waters have come down my eyes, || Because they have not kept Your law!

137 [TSADE] You [are] righteous, O YHWH, || And Your judgments [are] upright.

138 You have appointed Your testimonies, || Righteous and exceedingly faithful,

139 My zeal has cut me off, || For my adversaries forgot Your words.

140 Your saying [is] tried exceedingly, || And Your servant has loved it.

141 I [am] small, and despised, || I have not forgotten Your precepts.

142 Your righteousness [is] righteousness for all time, || And Your law [is] truth.

143 Adversity and distress have found me, || Your commands [are] my delights.

144 The righteousness of Your testimonies || [Is] to cause me to understand, and I live!

145 [QOF] I have called with the whole heart, || Answer me, O YHWH, I keep Your statutes,

146 I have called You, save me, || And I keep Your testimonies.

147 I have gone forward in the dawn, and I cry, || I have hoped for Your word.

148 My eyes have gone before the watches, || To meditate on Your saying.

149 Hear my voice, according to Your kindness, || YHWH, quicken me according to Your judgment.

150 My wicked pursuers have been near, || They have been far off from Your law.

151 You [are] near, O YHWH, || And all Your commands [are] truth.

152 I have known Your testimonies of old, || That You have founded them for all time!

153 [RESH] See my affliction, and deliver me, || For I have not forgotten Your law.

154 Plead my plea, and redeem me, || Quicken me according to Your saying.

155 Salvation [is] far from the wicked, || For they have not sought Your statutes.

156 Your mercies [are] many, O YHWH, || Quicken me according to Your judgments.

157 My pursuers and adversaries are many, || I have not turned aside from Your testimonies.

158 I have seen treacherous ones, || And grieve myself, || Because they have not kept Your saying.

159 See, for I have loved Your precepts, || YHWH, quicken me according to Your kindness.

160 The sum of Your word [is] truth, || And every judgment of Your righteousness [is] for all time!

161 [SHIN] Princes have pursued me without cause, || And my heart was afraid because of Your words.

162 I rejoice concerning Your saying, || As one finding abundant spoil.

163 I have hated falsehood, indeed I detest [it], || I have loved Your law.

164 Seven [times] in a day I have praised You, || Because of the judgments of Your righteousness.

165 Those loving Your law have abundant peace, || And they have no stumbling-block.

166 I have waited for Your salvation, O YHWH, || And I have done Your commands.

167 My soul has kept Your testimonies, || And I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept Your precepts and Your testimonies, || For all my ways are before You!

169 [TAW] My loud cry comes near before You, O YHWH; Cause me to understand according to Your word.

170 My supplication comes in before You, || Deliver me according to Your saying.

171 My lips utter praise, || For You teach me Your statutes.

172 My tongue sings of Your saying, || For all Your commands [are] righteous.

173 Your hand is for a help to me, || For I have chosen Your commands.

174 I have longed for Your salvation, O YHWH, || And Your law [is] my delight.

175 My soul lives, and it praises You, || And Your judgments help me.

176 I wandered as a lost sheep, [so] seek Your servant, || For I have not forgotten Your precepts!

1 A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. I have called to YHWH in my distress, || And He answers me.

2 O YHWH, deliver my soul from a lying lip, || From a deceitful tongue!

3 What does He give to you? And what does He add to you? O deceitful tongue!

4 Sharp arrows of a mighty one, with coals of broom trees.

5 Woe to me, for I have inhabited Mesech, || I have dwelt with tents of Kedar.

6 My soul has dwelt too much with him who is hating peace.

7 I—peace, and when I speak they [are] for war!

1 A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. I lift up my eyes to the hills, || From where does my help come?

2 My help [is] from YHWH, || Maker of the heavens and earth,

3 He does not permit your foot to be moved, || He who is preserving you does not slumber.

4 Behold, He does not slumber, nor sleep, || He who is preserving Israel.

5 YHWH [is] He who is preserving you, || YHWH [is] your shade on your right hand,

6 By day the sun does not strike you, || Nor the moon by night.

7 YHWH preserves you from all evil, || He preserves your soul.

8 YHWH preserves your going out and your coming in, || From now on—even for all time!

1 A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. BY DAVID. I have rejoiced in those saying to me, "We go to the house of YHWH."

2 Our feet have been standing in your gates, O Jerusalem!

3 Jerusalem—the built one—[Is] as a city that is joined to itself together.

4 For there tribes have gone up, || Tribes of YAH, companies of Israel, || To give thanks to the Name of YHWH.

5 For there thrones of judgment have sat, || Thrones of the house of David.

6 Ask [for] the peace of Jerusalem, || Those loving you are at rest.

7 Peace is in your bulwark, rest in your high places,

8 For the sake of my brothers and my companions, || Please let me speak, "Peace [be] in you."

9 For the sake of the house of our God YHWH, || I seek good for you!

1 A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. I have lifted up my eyes to You, || O dweller in the heavens.

2 Behold, as eyes of menservants || [Are] to the hand of their masters, || As eyes of a maidservant || [Are] to the hand of her mistress, || So [are] our eyes to our God YHWH, || Until He favors us.

3 Favor us, O YHWH, favor us, || For we have been greatly filled with contempt,

4 Our soul has been greatly filled || With the scorning of the easy ones, || With the contempt of the arrogant!

1 A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. BY DAVID. If YHWH had not been for us || (Pray, let Israel say),

2 If YHWH had not been for us, || In the rising up of man against us,

3 Then they had swallowed us alive, || In the burning of their anger against us,

4 Then the waters had overflowed us, || The stream passed over our soul,

5 Then proud waters had passed over our soul.

6 Blessed [is] YHWH who has not given us, || [As] prey to their teeth.

⁷ Our soul has escaped as a bird from a snare of fowlers, || The snare was broken, and we have escaped.

² Jerusalem! Mountains [are] around her, || And YHWH [is] around His people, || From now on—even for all time.

³ For the rod of wickedness does not rest on the lot of the righteous, || That the righteous do not put forth their hands on iniquity.

126

² Then our mouth is filled [with] laughter, || And our tongue [with] singing, || Then they say among nations, "YHWH did great things with these."

³ YHWH did great things with us, || We have been joyful.

⁵ Those sowing in tears, reap with singing,

¹ A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. BY SOLOMON. If YHWH does not build the house, || Its builders have labored at it in vain, || If YHWH does not watch a city, || A watchman has awoken in vain.

² Vain for you who are rising early, || Who delay sitting, eating the bread of griefs, || So He gives sleep to His beloved one.

³ Behold, sons [are] an inheritance of YHWH, || The fruit of the womb [is] a reward.

⁴ As arrows in the hand of a mighty one, || So [are] the sons of the young men.

² You surely eat the labor of your hands, || You [are] blessed, and good [is] to you.

³ Your wife [is] as a fruitful vine in the sides of your house, || Your sons as olive plants around your table.

⁴ Behold, surely thus is the man blessed who is fearing YHWH.

⁵ YHWH blesses you out of Zion, || Look, then, on the good of Jerusalem, || All the days of your life,

⁶ And see the sons of your sons! Peace on Israel!

² Often they distressed me from my youth, || Yet they have not prevailed over me.

³ Plowers have plowed over my back, || They have made their furrows long.

⁵ All hating Zion [are] confounded and turn backward.

⁶ They are as grass of the roofs, || That withers before it was drawn out,

⁷ That has not filled the hand of a reaper, || And the bosom of a binder of sheaves.

⁸ And the passers by have not said, "The blessing of YHWH [is] on you, || We blessed you in the Name of YHWH!"

² Lord, listen to my voice, || Your ears are attentive to the voice of my supplications.

³ If You observe iniquities, Lord YAH, who stands?

⁴ But forgiveness [is] with You, that You may be feared.

⁵ I hoped [for] YHWH—my soul has hoped, || And I have waited for His word.

⁶ My soul [is] for the Lord, || More than those watching for morning, || Watching for morning!

⁸ And He redeems Israel from all his iniquities!

¹ A SONG OF THE ASCENTS. BY DAVID. YHWH, my heart has not been haughty, || Nor have my eyes been high, || Nor have I walked in great things, || And in things too wonderful for me.

² Have I not compared, and kept my soul silent, || As a weaned one by its mother? As a weaned one by me [is] my soul.

² Who has sworn to YHWH, || He has vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³ "If I enter into the tent of my house, || If I go up on the couch of my bed,

⁵ Until I find a place for YHWH, dwelling places for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶ Behold, we have heard it in Ephratah, || We have found it in the fields of the forest.

⁷ We come into His dwelling places, || We bow ourselves at His footstool.

⁸ Arise, O YHWH, to Your rest, || You, and the Ark of Your strength,

⁹ Your priests put on righteousness, || And Your pious ones cry aloud.

¹⁰ For the sake of Your servant David, || Do not turn back the face of Your anointed.

¹¹ YHWH has sworn truth to David, || He does not turn back from it: "Of the fruit of your body, || I set on the throne for you.

¹² If your sons keep My covenant, || And My testimonies that I teach them, || Their sons also forever and ever || Sit on the throne for you."

¹⁴ "This [is] My rest forever and ever, || Here I sit, for I have desired it.

¹⁵ I greatly bless her provision, || I satisfy her poor [with] bread,

¹⁶ And I clothe her priests [with] salvation, || And her pious ones sing aloud.

¹⁷ There I cause a horn to spring up for David, || I have arranged a lamp for My Anointed.

² As the good oil on the head, || Coming down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, || That comes down on the skirt of his robes,

² Lift up your hands [in] the sanctuary, || And bless YHWH.

² Who are standing in the house of YHWH, || In the courts of the house of our God.

³ Praise YAH! For YHWH [is] good, || Sing praise to His Name, for [it is] pleasant.

⁴ For YAH has chosen Jacob for Himself, || Israel for His peculiar treasure.

⁵ For I have known that YHWH [is] great, || Indeed, our Lord [is] above all gods.

⁶ All that YHWH pleased He has done, || In the heavens and in earth, || In the seas and all deep places,

⁷ Causing vapors to ascend from the end of the earth, || He has made lightnings for the rain, || Bringing forth wind from His treasures.

⁸ Who struck the firstborn of Egypt, || From man to beast.

⁹ He sent tokens and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, || On Pharaoh and on all his servants.

¹⁰ Who struck many nations, and slew strong kings,

¹¹ Even Sihon king of the Amorite, || And Og king of Bashan, || And all kingdoms of Canaan.

¹² And He gave their land an inheritance, || An inheritance to His people Israel,

¹⁴ For YHWH judges His people, || And comforts Himself for His servants.

¹⁵ The idols of the nations [are] silver and gold, || Work of the hands of man.

¹⁶ They have a mouth, and they do not speak, || They have eyes, and they do not see,

¹⁷ They have ears, and they do not give ear, || Nose—there is no breath in their mouth!

¹⁸ Their makers are like them, || Everyone who is trusting in them.

¹⁹ O house of Israel, bless YHWH, || O house of Aaron, bless YHWH,

²⁰ O house of Levi, bless YHWH, || Those fearing YHWH, bless YHWH.

² Give thanks to the God of gods, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

³ Give thanks to the Lord of lords, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁴ To Him doing great wonders by Himself alone, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁵ To Him making the heavens by understanding, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁶ To Him spreading the earth over the waters, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁷ To Him making great lights, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁸ The sun to rule by day, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

⁹ The moon and stars to rule by night, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹⁰ To Him striking Egypt in their firstborn, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹¹ And bringing forth Israel from their midst, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹² By a strong hand and an outstretched-arm, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹³ To Him cutting the Sea of Suph into parts, || For His kindness [is] for all time,

¹⁴ And caused Israel to pass through its midst, || For His kindness [is] for all time,

¹⁵ And shook out Pharaoh and his force in the Sea of Suph, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹⁶ To Him leading His people in a wilderness, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹⁷ To Him striking great kings, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹⁸ Indeed, He slays majestic kings, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

¹⁹ Even Sihon king of the Amorite, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²⁰ And Og king of Bashan, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²¹ And He gave their land for inheritance, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²² An inheritance to Israel His servant, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²³ Who has remembered us in our lowliness, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²⁴ And He delivers us from our adversaries, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²⁵ Giving food to all flesh, || For His kindness [is] for all time.

²⁶ Give thanks to the God of the heavens, || For His kindness [is] for all time!

² We hung our harps on willows in its midst.

³ For there our captors asked us the words of a song, || And our spoilers—joy: “Sing to us of a song of Zion.”

⁵ If I forget you, O Jerusalem, my right hand forgets!

⁶ My tongue cleaves to my palate, || If I do not remember you, || If I do not exalt Jerusalem above my chief joy.

⁷ Remember, YHWH, for the sons of Edom, || The day of Jerusalem, || Those saying, “Raze, raze to its foundation!”

¹ BY DAVID. I confess You with all my heart, || I praise You before the gods.

² I bow myself toward Your holy temple, || And I confess Your Name, || For Your kindness, and for Your truth, || For You have made Your saying great above all Your Name.

³ In the day I called, when You answer me, || You strengthen me in my soul [with] strength.

⁴ O YHWH, all kings of earth confess You, || When they have heard the sayings of Your mouth.

⁵ And they sing in the ways of YHWH, || For the glory of YHWH [is] great.

⁶ For YHWH [is] high, and He sees the lowly, || And He knows the haughty from afar.

² You have known my sitting down, || And my rising up, || You have attended to my thoughts from afar.

³ You have fanned my path and my lying down, || And have been acquainted [with] all my ways.

⁴ For there is not a word in my tongue, || Behold, O YHWH, You have known it all!

⁵ You have besieged me behind and before, || And You place Your hand on me.

⁷ To where do I go from Your Spirit? And to where do I flee from Your face?

⁸ If I ascend the heavens—You [are] there, || And spread out a bed in Sheol, behold, You!

⁹ I take the wings of morning, || I dwell in the uttermost part of the sea,

¹⁰ Also there Your hand leads me, || And Your right hand holds me.

¹¹ And I say, “Surely darkness bruises me,” || Then night [is] light to me.

¹² Also darkness does not hide from You, || And night shines as day, || As [is] darkness so [is] light.

¹³ For You have possessed my reins, || You cover me in my mother’s belly.

¹⁴ I confess You, because I have been fearfully distinguished. Your works [are] wonderful, || And my soul is knowing [it] well.

¹⁵ My substance was not hid from You, || When I was made in secret, || Curiously worked in the lower part of earth.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw my unformed substance, || And all of them are written on Your scroll, || The days they were formed—And not one among them.

¹⁷ And how precious Your thoughts have been to me, || O God, how great has been their sum!

¹⁸ I recount them! They are more than the sand, || I have awoken, and I am still with You.

¹⁹ Do You slay, O God, the wicked? Then, men of blood, turn aside from me!

²⁰ Who exchange You for wickedness, || Your enemies [are] lifted up to vanity.

²¹ Do I not hate, YHWH, those hating You? And grieve myself with Your withstanders?

²² I have hated them [with] perfect hatred, || They have become enemies to me.

²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart, || Try me, and know my thoughts,

² Who have devised evils in the heart, || All the day they assemble [for] wars.

³ They sharpened their tongue as a serpent, || Poison of a viper [is] under their lips. Selah.

⁴ Preserve me, YHWH, from the hands of the wicked, || Keep me from one of violence, || Who have devised to overthrow my steps.

⁵ The proud hid a snare for me—and cords, || They spread a net by the side of the path, || They have set snares for me. Selah.

⁶ I have said to YHWH, “You [are] my God, || Hear, YHWH, the voice of my supplications.”

⁷ O YHWH, my Lord, strength of my salvation, || You have covered my head in the day of armor.

⁸ Do not grant, O YHWH, the desires of the wicked, || Do not bring forth his wicked scheme, || They are high. Selah.

⁹ The chief of my surrounders, || The perverseness of their lips covers them.

¹⁰ They cause burning coals to fall on themselves, || He casts them into fire, || Into deep pits—they do not arise.

¹¹ A talkative man is not established in the earth, || One of violence—evil hunts to overflowing.

¹² I have known that YHWH executes || The judgment of the afflicted, || The judgment of the needy.

¹ A PSALM OF DAVID. O YHWH, I have called You, hurry to me, || Give ear [to] my voice when I call to You.

² My prayer is prepared—incense before You, || The lifting up of my hands—the evening present.

³ Set, O YHWH, a watch for my mouth, || Watch over the door of my lips.

⁴ Do not incline my heart to an evil thing, || To habitually do actions in wickedness, || Working iniquity with men, || Indeed, I do not eat of their pleasant things.

⁶ Their judges have been released by the sides of a rock, || And they have heard my sayings, || For they have been pleasant.

⁷ As one tilling and ripping up in the land, || Have our bones been scattered at the command of Saul.

⁸ But to You, O YHWH, my Lord, [are] my eyes, || In You I have trusted, || Do not make my soul bare.

⁹ Keep me from the trap they laid for me, || Even snares of workers of iniquity.

¹ AN INSTRUCTION OF DAVID. A PRAYER WHEN HE IS IN THE CAVE. My voice [is] to YHWH, I cry, || My voice [is] to YHWH, I beg [for] grace.

² I pour forth my meditation before Him, || I declare my distress before Him.

³ When my spirit has been feeble in me, || Then You have known my path; In the way [in] which I walk, || They have hid a snare for me.

⁴ Looking on the right hand—and seeing, || And I have none recognizing; Refuge has perished from me, || There is none inquiring for my soul.

⁵ I have cried to you, O YHWH, || I have said, “You [are] my refuge, || My portion in the land of the living.”

⁷ Bring forth my soul from prison to confess Your Name, || The righteous surround me about, || When You confer benefits on me!

² And do not enter into judgment with Your servant, || For no one living is justified before You.

³ For an enemy has pursued my soul, || He has bruised my life to the earth, || He has caused me to dwell in dark places, || As the dead of old.

⁴ And my spirit has become feeble in me, || My heart has become desolate within me.

⁵ I have remembered days of old, || I have meditated on all Your acts, || I muse on the work of Your hand.

⁷ Hurry, answer me, O YHWH, || My spirit has been consumed, || Do not hide Your face from me, || Or I have been compared with those going down [to] the pit.

⁸ Cause me to hear Your kindness in the morning, || For I have trusted in You, || Cause me to know the way that I go, || For I have lifted up my soul to You.

⁹ Deliver me from my enemies, O YHWH, || Near You I am covered.

¹⁰ Teach me to do Your good pleasure, || For You [are] my God—Your Spirit [is] good, || Lead me into a land of uprightness.

¹¹ You quicken me for Your Name’s sake, O YHWH, || In Your righteousness, You bring out my soul from distress,

¹² And in Your kindness cut off my enemies, || And have destroyed all the adversaries of my soul, || For I [am] Your servant!

¹ BY DAVID. Blessed [is] YHWH my Rock, || Who is teaching My hands for war, || My fingers for battle.

² My kind one, and my bulwark, || My tower, and my deliverer, || My shield, and in whom I have trusted, || Who is subduing my people under me!

³ YHWH, what [is] man that You know him? The son of man, that You esteem him?

⁴ Man has been like a breath, || His days [are] as a shadow passing by.

⁵ YHWH, incline Your heavens and come down, || Strike against mountains, and they smoke.

⁶ Send forth lightning, and scatter them, || Send forth Your arrows, and trouble them,

⁷ Send forth Your hand from on high, || Free me, and deliver me from many waters, || From the hand of sons of a stranger,

⁸ Because their mouth has spoken vanity, || And their right hand [is] a right hand of falsehood.

⁹ O God, I sing to You a new song, || I sing praise to You on a stringed instrument of ten strings.

¹⁰ Who is giving deliverance to kings, || Who is freeing His servant David from the sword of evil.

¹¹ Free me, and deliver me || From the hand of sons of a stranger, || Because their mouth has spoken vanity, || And their right hand [is] a right hand of falsehood,

¹² Because our sons [are] as plants, || Becoming great in their youth, || Our daughters as hewn stones, || Polished—the likeness of a palace,

¹³ Our granaries [are] full, bringing out from kind to kind, || Our flocks are bringing forth thousands, || Ten thousands in our out-places,

¹⁴ Our oxen are carrying, there is no breach, || And there is no outgoing, || And there is no crying in our broad places.

¹⁵ O the blessedness of the people that is thus, || O the blessedness of the people whose God [is] YHWH!

¹ A PRAISE [SONG] OF DAVID. [ALEPH-BET] I exalt You, my God, O king, || And bless Your Name for all time and forever.

² Every day I bless You, || And praise Your Name for all time and forever.

³ YHWH [is] great, and greatly praised, || And there is no searching of His greatness.

⁴ Generation to generation praises Your works, || And they declare Your mighty acts.

⁵ The majesty, the glory of Your splendor, || And the matters of Your wonders, I declare.

⁶ And they tell of the strength of Your fearful acts, || And I recount Your greatness.

⁷ They send forth the memorial of the abundance of Your goodness. And they sing of Your righteousness.

⁸ YHWH [is] gracious and merciful, || Slow to anger, and great in kindness.

⁹ YHWH [is] good to all, || And His mercies [are] over all His works.

¹⁰ O YHWH, all Your works confess You, || And Your saints bless You.

¹¹ They tell of the glory of Your kingdom, || And they speak of Your might,

¹² To make His mighty acts known to sons of men, || The glory of the majesty of His kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom [is] a kingdom of all ages, || And Your dominion [is] in all generations. [[YHWH [is] faithful in all His words, || And kind in all His works.]]

¹⁴ YHWH is supporting all who are falling, || And raising up all who are bowed down.

¹⁵ The eyes of all look to You, || And You are giving their food to them in its season,

¹⁶ Opening Your hand, and satisfying || The desire of every living thing.

¹⁷ YHWH [is] righteous in all His ways, || And kind in all His works.

¹⁸ YHWH [is] near to all those calling Him, || To all who call Him in truth.

¹⁹ He does the desire of those fearing Him, || And He hears their cry, and saves them.

²⁰ YHWH preserves all those loving Him, || And He destroys all the wicked.

² I praise YHWH during my life, || I sing praise to my God while I exist.

³ Do not trust in princes—in a son of man, || For he has no deliverance.

⁴ His spirit goes forth, he returns to his earth, || In that day his thoughts have perished.

⁵ O the blessedness of him || Who has the God of Jacob for his help, || His hope [is] on his God YHWH,

⁶ Making the heavens and earth, || The sea and all that [is] in them, || Who is keeping truth for all time,

⁷ Doing judgment for the oppressed, || Giving bread to the hungry.

⁸ YHWH is loosing the prisoners, || YHWH is opening (the eyes of) the blind, || YHWH is raising the bowed down, || YHWH is loving the righteous,

⁹ YHWH is preserving the strangers, || He causes the fatherless and widow to stand, || And He turns the way of the wicked upside down.

² YHWH [is] building Jerusalem, || He gathers the driven away of Israel.

³ Who is giving healing to the broken of heart, || And is binding up their griefs.

⁴ Appointing the number of the stars, || He gives names to all of them.

⁵ Our Lord [is] great, and abundant in power, || There is no narration of His understanding.

⁶ YHWH is causing the meek to stand, || Making the wicked low to the earth.

⁷ Answer to YHWH with thanksgiving, || Sing to our God with a harp.

⁸ Who is covering the heavens with clouds, || Who is preparing rain for the earth, || Who is causing grass to spring up [on] mountains,

⁹ Giving to the beast its food, || To the young of the ravens that call.

¹⁰ He does not delight in the might of the horse, || He is not pleased in the legs of a man.

¹¹ YHWH is pleased with those fearing Him, || With those waiting for His kindness.

¹² Glorify, O Jerusalem, YHWH, || Praise your God, O Zion.

¹³ For He strengthened the bars of your gates, || He has blessed your sons in your midst.

¹⁴ Who is making your border peace, || He satisfies you [with] the fat of wheat.

¹⁵ Who is sending forth His saying [on] earth, || His word runs very speedily.

¹⁶ Who is giving snow like wool, || He scatters hoarfrost as ashes.

¹⁷ Casting forth His ice like morsels, || Who stands before His cold?

¹⁸ He sends forth His word and melts them, || He causes His wind to blow—the waters flow.

¹⁹ Declaring His words to Jacob, || His statutes and His judgments to Israel.

²⁰ He has not done so to any nation, || As for judgments, they have not known them. Praise YAH!

² Praise Him, all His messengers, || Praise Him, all His hosts.

³ Praise Him, sun and moon, || Praise Him, all stars of light.

⁴ Praise Him, heavens of heavens, || And you waters that are above the heavens.

⁵ They praise the Name of YHWH, || For He commanded, and they were created.

⁶ And He establishes them forever and for all time, || He gave a statute, and they do not pass over.

⁷ Praise YHWH from the earth, || Dragons and all deeps,

⁸ Fire and hail, snow and vapor, || Whirlwind doing His word;

⁹ The mountains and all heights, || Fruit tree, and all cedars,

¹⁰ The wild beast, and all livestock, || Creeping thing, and winged bird,

¹¹ Kings of earth, and all peoples, || Chiefs, and all judges of earth,

¹² Young men, and also maidens, || Aged men, with youths,

¹³ They praise the Name of YHWH, || For His Name alone has been set on high, || His splendor [is] above earth and heavens.

³ They praise His Name in a dance, || Sing praise to Him with timbrel and harp.

⁴ For YHWH is pleased with His people, || He beautifies the humble with salvation.

⁵ Saints exult in glory, || They sing aloud on their beds.

⁶ The exaltation of God [is] in their throat, || And a two-edged sword in their hand.

⁷ To do vengeance among nations, || Punishments among the peoples.

⁸ To bind their kings with chains, || And their honored ones with chains of iron,

⁹ To do among them the judgment written, || It [is] an honor for all his saints. Praise YAH!

⁶ All that breathes praise YAH! Praise YAH!

Proverbs

¹ Proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:

² For knowing wisdom and instruction, || For understanding sayings of intelligence,

³ For receiving the instruction of wisdom, || Righteousness, judgment, and uprightness,

⁴ For giving to simple ones—prudence, || To a youth—knowledge and discretion.

⁵ (The wise hear and increase learning, || And the intelligent obtain counsels.)

⁶ For understanding a proverb and its sweetness, || Words of the wise and their acute sayings.

⁷ Fear of YHWH [is the] beginning of knowledge, || Fools have despised wisdom and instruction!

⁸ Hear, my son, the instruction of your father, || And do not leave the law of your mother,

⁹ For they [are] a graceful wreath to your head, || And chains to your neck.

¹⁰ My son, if sinners entice you, do not be willing.

¹¹ If they say, “Come with us, we lay wait for blood, || We watch secretly for the innocent without cause,

¹² We swallow them as Sheol—alive, || And whole—as those going down [to] the pit,

¹³ We find every precious substance, || We fill our houses [with] spoil,

¹⁴ You cast your lot among us, || One purse is—to all of us.”

¹⁵ My son! Do not go in the way with them, || Withhold your foot from their path,

¹⁶ For their feet run to evil, || And they hurry to shed blood.

¹⁷ Surely in vain is the net spread out before the eyes of any bird.

¹⁸ And they lay wait for their own blood, || They watch secretly for their own lives.

¹⁹ So [are] the paths of every gainer of dishonest gain, || It takes the life of its owners.

²⁰ Wisdom cries aloud in an out-place, || She gives forth her voice in broad places,

²¹ She calls at the head of the multitudes, || In the openings of the gates, || In the city she says her sayings:

²² “Until when, you simple, do you love simplicity? And have scorners desired their scorning? And do fools hate knowledge?

²³ Turn back at my reproof, behold, || I pour forth my spirit to you, || I make known my words with you.

²⁴ Because I have called, and you refuse, || I stretched out my hand, and none is attending,

²⁵ And you slight all my counsel, || And you have not desired my reproof.

²⁶ I also laugh in your calamity, || I deride when your fear comes,

²⁷ When your fear comes as destruction, || And your calamity comes as a windstorm, || When adversity and distress come on you.

²⁸ Then they call me, and I do not answer, || They seek me earnestly, and do not find me.

²⁹ Because that they have hated knowledge, || And have not chosen the fear of YHWH.

³⁰ They have not consented to my counsel, || They have despised all my reproof,

³¹ And they eat of the fruit of their way, || And they are filled from their own counsels.

³² For the turning of the simple slays them, || And the security of the foolish destroys them.

³³ And whoever is listening to me dwells confidently, || And [is] quiet from fear of evil!"

¹ My son, if you accept my sayings, || And lay up my commands with you,

² To cause your ear to attend to wisdom, || You incline your heart to understanding,

³ For if you call for intelligence, || [And] give forth your voice for intelligence,

⁴ If you seek her as silver, || And search for her as hid treasures,

⁵ Then you understand the fear of YHWH, || And you find the knowledge of God.

⁶ For YHWH gives wisdom, || Knowledge and understanding from His mouth.

⁷ Even to lay up substance for the upright, || A shield for those walking uprightly.

⁸ To keep the paths of judgment, || And He preserves the way of His saints.

⁹ Then you understand righteousness, || And judgment, and uprightness—every good path.

¹⁰ For wisdom comes into your heart, || And knowledge is pleasant to your soul,

¹¹ Thoughtfulness watches over you, || Understanding keeps you,

¹² To deliver you from an evil way, || From any speaking contrary things,

¹³ Who are forsaking paths of uprightness, || To walk in ways of darkness,

¹⁴ Who are rejoicing to do evil, || They delight in [the] contrariness of the wicked,

¹⁵ Whose paths [are] crooked, || Indeed, they are perverted in their ways.

¹⁶ To deliver you from the strange woman, || From the stranger who has made her sayings smooth,

¹⁷ Who is forsaking the guide of her youth, || And has forgotten the covenant of her God.

¹⁸ For her house has inclined to death, || And her paths to Rephaim.

¹⁹ None going in to her return, || Nor do they reach the paths of life.

²⁰ That you go in the way of the good, || And keep the paths of the righteous.

22 And the wicked are cut off from the earth, || And treacherous dealers plucked out of it!

1 My son! Do not forget my law, || And let your heart keep my commands,

2 For [the] length of [your] days and years, || Life and peace they add to you.

3 Do not let kindness and truth forsake you, || Bind them on your neck, || Write them on the tablet of your heart,

4 And find grace and good understanding || In the eyes of God and man.

5 Trust to YHWH with all your heart, || And do not lean to your own understanding.

6 In all your ways know Him, || And He makes your paths straight.

7 Do not be wise in your own eyes, || Fear YHWH, and turn aside from evil.

8 It is healing to your navel, || And moistening to your bones.

9 Honor YHWH from your substance, || And from the beginning of all your increase;

10 And your barns are filled [with] plenty, || And your presses break forth [with] new wine.

11 Discipline of YHWH, my son, do not despise, || And do not be distressed with His reproof,

12 For whom YHWH loves He reproves, || Even as a father the son He is pleased with.

13 O the blessedness of a man [who] has found wisdom, || And of a man [who] brings forth understanding.

14 For better [is] her merchandise || Than the merchandise of silver, || And than gold—her increase.

15 She [is] precious above rubies, || And all your pleasures are not comparable to her.

16 Length of days [is] in her right hand, || In her left [are] wealth and honor.

17 Her ways [are] ways of pleasantness, || And all her paths [are] peace.

18 She [is] a tree of life to those laying hold on her, || And whoever is retaining her [is] blessed.

19 YHWH founded the earth by wisdom, || He prepared the heavens by understanding.

20 By His knowledge depths have been broken, || And clouds drop dew.

21 My son! Do not let them turn from your eyes, || Keep wisdom and thoughtfulness,

22 And they are life to your soul, and grace to your neck.

23 Then you go your way confidently, || And your foot does not stumble.

24 If you lie down, you are not afraid, || Indeed, you have lain down, || And your sleep has been sweet.

25 Do not be afraid of sudden fear, || And of the desolation of the wicked when it comes.

26 For YHWH is at your side, || And He has kept your foot from capture.

27 Do not withhold good from its owners, || When your hand [is] toward God to do [it].

²⁸ Do not say to your friend, || “Go, and return, and tomorrow I give,”
|| When substance [is] with you.

²⁹ Do not devise evil against your neighbor, || And he sitting confidently with you.

³⁰ Do not strive with a man without cause, || If he has not done you evil.

³¹ Do not be envious of a man of violence, || Nor fix on any of his ways.

counsel [is] with the upright.

³³ The curse of YHWH [is] in the house of the wicked. And He blesses the habitation of the righteous.

³⁴ If He scorns the scorners, || Yet He gives grace to the humble.

³⁵ The wise inherit glory, || And fools are bearing away shame!

know understanding.

² For I have given to you good learning, do not forsake my law.

³ For I have been a son to my father—tender, || And an only one before my mother.

⁴ And he directs me, and he says to me: “Let your heart retain my words,
|| Keep my commands, and live.

⁵ Get wisdom, get understanding, || Do not forget, nor turn away ||
From the sayings of my mouth.

⁶ Do not forsake her, and she preserves you, || Love her, and she keeps you.

⁷ The first thing [is] wisdom—get wisdom, || And with all your getting get understanding.

⁸ Exalt her and she lifts you up, || She honors you when you embrace her.

⁹ She gives a wreath of grace to your head, || She gives you a crown of beauty freely.”

¹⁰ Hear, my son, and receive my sayings, || And years of life [are] multiplied to you.

¹¹ I have directed you in a way of wisdom, || I have caused you to tread in paths of uprightness.

¹² In your walking your step is not restricted, || And if you run, you do not stumble.

¹³ Lay hold on instruction, do not desist, || Keep her, for she [is] your life.

¹⁴ Do not enter into the path of the wicked, || And do not be blessed in a way of evildoers.

¹⁵ Avoid it, do not pass over into it, || Turn aside from it, and pass on.

¹⁶ For they do not sleep if they do no evil, || And their sleep has been taken away violently, || If they do not cause [some] to stumble.

¹⁷ For they have eaten bread of wickedness, || And they drink wine of violence.

¹⁸ And the path of the righteous [is] as a shining light, || Going and brightening until the day is established,

¹⁹ The way of the wicked [is] as darkness, || They have not known at what they stumble.

²⁰ My son, give attention to my words, || Incline your ear to my sayings,

21 Do not let them turn aside from your eyes, || Preserve them in the midst of your heart.

22 For they [are] life to those finding them, || And healing to all their flesh.

23 Above every charge keep your heart, || For out of it [are] the outgoings of life.

24 Turn aside a contrary mouth from you, || And put perverse lips far from you,

25 Your eyes look straightforward, || And your eyelids look straight before you.

26 Ponder the path of your feet, || And all your ways [are] established.

1 My son! Give attention to my wisdom, || Incline your ear to my understanding,

2 To observe thoughtfulness, || And your lips keep knowledge.

3 For the lips of a strange woman drop honey, || And her mouth [is] smoother than oil,

4 And her latter end [is] bitter as wormwood, || Sharp as a sword [with] mouths.

5 Her feet are going down to death, || Her steps take hold of Sheol.

6 The path of life—lest you ponder, || Her paths have moved—you do not know.

7 And now, you sons, listen to me, || And do not turn from sayings of my mouth.

8 Keep your way far from off her, || And do not come near to the opening of her house,

9 Lest you give your splendor to others, || And your years to the fierce,

10 Lest strangers be filled [with] your power, || And your labors in the house of a stranger,

11 And you have howled in your latter end, || In the consumption of your flesh and your food,

12 And have said, "How I have hated instruction, || And my heart has despised reproof,

13 And I have not listened to the voice of my teachers, || And have not inclined my ear to my teachers.

14 As a little thing I have been all evil, || In the midst of an assembly and a congregation."

15 Drink waters out of your own cistern, || Even flowing ones out of your own well.

16 Let your fountains be scattered abroad, || In broad places streams of waters.

17 Let them be to you for yourself, || And not to strangers with you.

18 Let your fountain be blessed, || And rejoice because of the wife of your youth,

19 A doe of loves, and a roe of grace! Let her loves satisfy you at all times, || Magnify yourself in her love continually.

20 And why do you magnify yourself, || My son, with a stranger? And embrace the bosom of a strange woman?

²¹ For the ways of each are before the eyes of YHWH, || And He is pondering all his paths.

²² His own iniquities capture the wicked, || And he is holden with the ropes of his sin.

²³ He dies without instruction, || And magnifies himself in the abundance of his folly!

¹ My son! If you have been guarantor for your friend, || Have struck your hand for a stranger,

² Have been snared with sayings of your mouth, || Have been captured with sayings of your mouth,

³ Do this now, my son, and be delivered, || For you have come into the hand of your friend. Go, trample on yourself, and strengthen your friend,

⁴ Do not give sleep to your eyes, || And slumber to your eyelids,

⁵ Be delivered as a roe from the hand, || And as a bird from the hand of a fowler.

⁷ Which has no captain, overseer, and ruler,

⁸ She prepares her bread in summer, || She has gathered her food in harvest.

⁹ Until when, O slothful one, do you lie? When do you arise from your sleep?

¹⁰ A little sleep, a little slumber, || A little clasping of the hands to rest,

¹¹ And your poverty has come as a traveler, || And your want as an armed man.

¹² A man of worthlessness, a man of iniquity, || Walking [with] perverseness of mouth,

¹³ Winking with his eyes, speaking with his feet, || Directing with his fingers,

¹⁴ Contrariness [is] in his heart, devising evil at all times, || He sends forth contentions.

¹⁵ Therefore his calamity comes suddenly, || He is broken instantly—and no healing.

¹⁶ These six has YHWH hated, || Indeed, seven [are] abominations to His soul:

¹⁷ High eyes, || False tongues, || And hands shedding innocent blood,

¹⁸ A heart devising thoughts of vanity, || Feet hastening to run to evil,

¹⁹ A false witness [who] breathes out lies, || And one sending forth contentions between brothers.

²⁰ Keep, my son, the command of your father, || And do not leave the law of your mother.

²¹ Bind them on your heart continually, || Tie them on your neck.

²² In your going up and down, it leads you, || In your lying down, it watches over you, || And you have awoken—it talks [with] you.

²³ For the command [is] a lamp, || And the Law a light, || And a way of life [are] reproofs of instruction,

²⁴ To preserve you from an evil woman, || From the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

²⁵ Do not desire her beauty in your heart, || And do not let her take you with her eyelids.

²⁶ For a harlot consumes to a cake of bread, || And an adulteress hunts the precious soul.

¹ My son! Keep my sayings, || And lay up my commands with you.

³ Bind them on your fingers, || Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴ Say to wisdom, "You [are] my sister." And cry to understanding, "Relative!"

⁵ To preserve you from a strange woman, || From a stranger who has made her sayings smooth.

⁶ For at a window of my house, || I have looked out through my casement,

⁷ And I see among the simple ones, || I discern among the sons, || A young man lacking understanding,

⁸ Passing on in the street, near her corner, || And the way [to] her house he steps,

⁹ In the twilight—in the evening of day, || In the darkness of night and blackness.

¹⁰ And behold, a woman to meet him—(A harlot's dress, and watchful of heart,

¹¹ She [is] noisy, and stubborn, her feet do not rest in her house.

¹² Now in an out-place, now in broad places, || And she lies in wait near every corner)—

¹³ And she laid hold on him and kissed him, || She has hardened her face and says to him,

¹⁴ "Sacrifices of peace-offerings [are] by me, || Today I have completed my vows.

¹⁵ Therefore I have come forth to meet you, || To earnestly seek your face, and I find you.

¹⁶ I decked my bed [with] ornamental coverings, || Carved works—cotton of Egypt.

¹⁷ I sprinkled my bed [with] myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

¹⁸ Come, we are filled [with] love until the morning, || We delight ourselves in loves.

¹⁹ For the man is not in his house, || He has gone on a long journey.

²⁰ He has taken a bag of money in his hand, || At the day of the new moon he comes to his house.”

²¹ She turns him aside with the abundance of her speech, || She forces him with the flattery of her lips.

²⁴ And now, you sons, listen to me, || And give attention to sayings of my mouth.

²⁵ Do not let your heart turn to her ways, || Do not wander in her paths,

²⁶ For many [are] the wounded she caused to fall, || And mighty [are] all her slain ones.

¹ Does wisdom not call? And understanding give forth her voice?

² At the head of high places by the way, || She has stood between the paths,

³ At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the city, || The entrance of the openings, she cries aloud,

⁴ “To you, O men, I call, || And my voice [is] to the sons of men.

⁵ Understand, you simple ones, prudence, || And you fools, understand the heart,

⁶ Listen, for I speak noble things, || And the opening of my lips [is] uprightness.

⁷ For my mouth utters truth, || And wickedness [is] an abomination to my lips.

⁸ All the sayings of my mouth [are] in righteousness, || Nothing in them is contrary and perverse.

⁹ All of them [are] plain to the intelligent, || And upright to those finding knowledge.

¹⁰ Receive my instruction, and not silver, || And knowledge rather than choice gold.

¹¹ For wisdom [is] better than rubies, || Indeed, all delights are not comparable with it.

¹² I, wisdom, have dwelt with prudence, || And I find out a knowledge of purposes.

¹³ The fear of YHWH [is] to hate evil; Pride, and arrogance, and an evil way, || And a contrary mouth, I have hated.

¹⁴ Counsel and substance [are] mine, || I [am] understanding, I have might.

¹⁵ By me kings reign, and princes decree righteousness,

¹⁶ By me chiefs rule, and nobles, || All judges of earth.

¹⁷ I love those loving me, || And those seeking me earnestly find me.

¹⁸ Wealth and honor [are] with me, || Lasting substance and righteousness.

¹⁹ My fruit [is] better than gold, even fine gold, || And my increase than choice silver.

²⁰ I cause to walk in a path of righteousness, || In midst of paths of judgment,

²¹ To cause my lovers to inherit substance, || Indeed, I fill their treasures.

²² YHWH possessed me—the beginning of His way, || Before His works since then.

²³ I was anointed from the age, from the first, || From former states of the earth.

²⁴ In there being no depths, I was brought forth, || In there being no fountains heavy [with] waters,

²⁵ Before mountains were sunk, || Before heights, I was brought forth.

²⁶ While He had not made the earth, and out-places, || And the top of the dusts of the world.

²⁷ In His preparing the heavens I [am] there, || In His decreeing a circle on the face of the deep,

²⁸ In His strengthening clouds above, || In His making strong fountains of the deep,

²⁹ In His setting for the sea its limit, || And the waters do not transgress His command, || In His decreeing the foundations of earth,

³⁰ Then I am near Him, a workman, || And I am a delight—day by day. Rejoicing before Him at all times,

³¹ Rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth, || And my delights [are] with the sons of men.

³³ Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not slight.

³⁴ O the blessedness of the man listening to me, || To watch at my doors day by day, || To watch at the doorposts of my entrance.

³⁵ For whoever is finding me, has found life, || And brings out goodwill from YHWH.

17 The friend is loving at all times, || And a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man lacking heart is striking hands, || He becomes a guarantor before his friend.

19 Whoever is loving transgression is loving debate, || Whoever is making his entrance high is seeking destruction.

20 The perverse of heart does not find good, || And the [one] turned in his tongue falls into evil.

21 Whoever is begetting a fool has affliction for it, || Indeed, the father of a fool does not rejoice.

22 A rejoicing heart does good to the body, || And a struck spirit dries the bone.

23 The wicked takes a bribe from the bosom, || To turn aside the paths of judgment.

24 The face of the intelligent [is] to wisdom, || And the eyes of a fool—at the end of the earth.

25 A foolish son [is] a provocation to his father, || And bitterness to her bearing him.

26 Also, [it] is not good to fine the righteous, || To strike nobles for uprightness.

27 One acquainted with knowledge is sparing his words, || And the cool of temper [is] a man of understanding.

28 Even a fool keeping silence is reckoned wise, || He who is shutting his lips [seems] intelligent!

² A fool does not delight in understanding, || But in uncovering his heart.

³ Contempt has also come with the coming of the wicked, || And with shame—reproach.

⁴ The words of a man's mouth [are] deep waters, || The fountain of wisdom [is] a flowing brook.

⁵ Favoring of the face of the wicked [is] not good, || To turn aside the righteous in judgment.

⁶ The lips of a fool enter into strife, || And his mouth calls for stripes.

⁷ The mouth of a fool [is] ruin to him, || And his lips [are] the snare of his soul.

⁸ The words of a tale-bearer [are] as self-inflicted wounds, || And they have gone down [to] the inner parts of the heart.

⁹ He also that is remiss in his work, || He [is] a brother to a destroyer.

¹⁰ The Name of YHWH [is] a tower of strength, || The righteous runs into it, and is set on high.

¹¹ The wealth of the rich [is] the city of his strength, || And as a wall set on high in his own imagination.

¹² The heart of man is high before destruction, || And humility [is] before honor.

¹³ Whoever is answering a matter before he hears, || It is folly to him—and shame.

¹⁴ The spirit of a man sustains his sickness, || And who bears a struck spirit?

¹⁵ The heart of the intelligent gets knowledge, || And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

¹⁶ The gift of a man makes room for him, || And it leads him before the great.

¹⁷ The first in his own cause [seems] righteous, || [But] his neighbor comes and has searched him.

¹⁸ The lot causes contentions to cease, || And it separates between the mighty.

¹⁹ A brother transgressed against is as a strong city, || And contentions as the bar of a palace.

²⁰ From the fruit of a man's mouth is his belly satisfied, || [From the] increase of his lips he is satisfied.

²¹ Death and life [are] in the power of the tongue, || And those loving it eat its fruit.

²² [Whoever] has found a wife has found good, || And brings out goodwill from YHWH.

19

² Also, without knowledge the soul [is] not good, || And the hasty in feet is sinning.

³ The folly of man perverts his way, || And his heart is angry against YHWH.

⁴ Wealth adds many friends, || And the poor is separated from his neighbor.

⁶ Many beg the face of the noble, || And all have made friendship to a man of gifts.

⁷ All the brothers of the poor have hated him, || Surely his friends have also been far from him, || He is pursuing words—they are not!

⁸ Whoever is getting heart is loving his soul, || He is keeping understanding to find good.

⁹ A false witness is not acquitted, || And whoever breathes out lies perishes.

¹⁰ Luxury is not fitting for a fool, || Much less for a servant to rule among princes.

¹¹ The wisdom of a man has deferred his anger, || And his glory [is] to pass over transgression.

¹² The wrath of a king [is] a growl as of a young lion, || And his goodwill as dew on the herb.

¹³ A foolish son [is] a calamity to his father, || And the contentions of a wife [are] a continual dropping.

¹⁴ House and wealth [are] the inheritance of fathers, || And an understanding wife [is] from YHWH.

¹⁵ Sloth causes deep sleep to fall, || And an indolent soul hungers.

¹⁶ Whoever is keeping the command is keeping his soul, || Whoever is despising His ways dies.

¹⁷ Whoever is lending [to] YHWH is favoring the poor, || And He repays his deed to him.

¹⁸ Discipline your son, for there is hope, || And do not lift up your soul to put him to death.

¹⁹ A man of great wrath is bearing punishment, || For if you deliver, yet again you add.

²⁰ Hear counsel and receive instruction, || So that you are wise in your latter end.

²¹ The purposes in a man's heart [are] many, || And the counsel of YHWH—it stands.

²² The desirableness of a man [is] his kindness, || And the poor [is] better than a liar.

²³ The fear of YHWH [is] to life, || And he remains satisfied—he is not charged with evil.

²⁴ The slothful has hidden his hand in a dish, || Even to his mouth he does not bring it back.

²⁵ Strike a scorner, and the simple acts prudently, || And give reproof to the intelligent, || He understands knowledge.

²⁶ Whoever is spoiling a father causes a mother to flee, || A son causing shame, and bringing confusion.

²⁷ Cease, my son, to hear instruction—To err from sayings of knowledge.

²⁸ A worthless witness scorns judgment, || And the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.

² The fear of a king [is] a growl as of a young lion, || He who is causing him to be angry is wronging his soul.

³ Cessation from strife is an honor to a man, || And every fool interferes.

⁴ The slothful does not plow because of winter, || He asks in harvest, and there is nothing.

⁵ Counsel in the heart of a man [is] deep water, || And a man of understanding draws it up.

⁶ A multitude of men each proclaim his kindness, || And a man of steadfastness who finds?

⁷ The righteous is habitually walking in his integrity, || O the blessedness of his sons after him!

⁸ A king sitting on a throne of judgment, || Is scattering all evil with his eyes,

⁹ Who says, “I have purified my heart, || I have been cleansed from my sin?”

¹⁰ A stone and a stone, an ephah and an ephah, || Even both of them [are] an abomination to YHWH.

¹¹ Even by his actions a youth makes himself known, || Whether his work is pure or upright.

¹² A hearing ear, and a seeing eye—YHWH has even made both of them.

¹³ Do not love sleep, lest you become poor, || Open your eyes—be satisfied [with] bread.

¹⁴ “Bad, bad,” says the buyer, || And then he boasts himself going his way.

¹⁵ Substance, gold, and a multitude of rubies, || Indeed, a precious vessel, [are] lips of knowledge.

¹⁶ When a stranger has been guarantor, take his garment, || And pledge it for strangers.

¹⁷ The bread of falsehood [is] sweet to a man, || And afterward his mouth is filled [with] gravel.

¹⁸ You establish purposes by counsel, || And with plans you make war.

¹⁹ The busybody is a revealer of secret counsels, || And do not make yourself guarantor for a deceiver [with] his lips.

²⁰ Whoever is vilifying his father and his mother, his lamp is extinguished in blackness of darkness.

²¹ An inheritance gotten wrongly at first, || Even its latter end is not blessed.

²² Do not say, “I repay evil,” || Wait for YHWH, and He delivers you.

²³ A stone and a stone [are] an abomination to YHWH, || And balances of deceit [are] not good.

²⁴ The steps of a man [are] from YHWH, || And man—how does he understand his way?

²⁵ A snare to a man [that] he has swallowed a holy thing, || And to make inquiry after vows.

²⁶ A wise king is scattering the wicked, || And turns the wheel back on them.

²⁷ The breath of man [is] a lamp of YHWH, || Searching all the inner parts of the heart.

²⁸ Kindness and truth keep a king, || And he has supported his throne by kindness.

²⁹ The beauty of young men is their strength, || And the honor of old men is grey hairs.

¹ The heart of a king [is] streams of waters in the hand of YHWH, || He inclines it wherever He pleases.

² Every way of a man [is] right in his own eyes, || And YHWH is pondering hearts.

³ To do righteousness and judgment, || Is chosen of YHWH rather than sacrifice.

⁴ Loftiness of eyes, and breadth of heart, || Tillage of the wicked [is] sin.

⁵ The purposes of the diligent [are] only to advantage, || And of every hasty one, only to want.

⁶ The making of treasures by a lying tongue, || [Is] a vanity driven away of those seeking death.

⁷ The spoil of the wicked catches them, || Because they have refused to do judgment.

⁸ The way of a man who is vile [is] contrary, || And the pure—his work [is] upright.

⁹ Better to sit on a corner of the roof, || Than [with] a woman of contentions and a house of company.

¹⁰ The soul of the wicked has desired evil, his neighbor is not gracious in his eyes.

¹¹ When the scorner is punished, the simple becomes wise, || And in giving understanding to the wise He receives knowledge.

¹² The Righteous One is acting wisely || Toward the house of the wicked, || He is overthrowing the wicked for wickedness.

¹³ Whoever is shutting his ear from the cry of the poor, || He also cries, and is not answered.

¹⁴ A gift in secret pacifies anger, || And a bribe in the bosom—strong fury.

¹⁵ To do justice [is] joy to the righteous, || But ruin to workers of iniquity.

¹⁶ A man who is wandering from the way of understanding, || Rests in an assembly of Rephaim.

¹⁷ Whoever [is] loving mirth [is] a poor man, || Whoever is loving wine and oil makes no wealth.

¹⁸ The wicked [is] an atonement for the righteous, || And the treacherous dealer for the upright.

¹⁹ Better to dwell in a wilderness land, || Than [with] a woman of contentions and anger.

²⁰ A treasure to be desired, and oil, || [Is] in the habitation of the wise,
|| And a foolish man swallows it up.

²¹ Whoever is pursuing righteousness and kindness, || Finds life, righteousness, and honor.

²² The wise has gone up a city of the mighty, || And brings down the strength of its confidence.

²³ Whoever is keeping his mouth and his tongue, || Is keeping his soul from adversities.

²⁴ Proud, haughty, scorner—his name, || Who is working in the wrath of pride.

²⁵ The desire of the slothful slays him, || For his hands have refused to work.

²⁶ All the day desiring he has desired, || And the righteous gives and does not withhold.

²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked [is] abomination, || Much more when he brings it in wickedness.

²⁸ A false witness perishes, || And an attentive man speaks forever.

²⁹ A wicked man has hardened by his face, || And the upright—he prepares his way.

³⁰ There is no wisdom, nor understanding, || Nor counsel against
YHWH.

³¹ A horse is prepared for a day of battle, || And the deliverance [is] of

22

¹ A name is chosen rather than much wealth, || Than silver and than gold—good grace.

² Rich and poor have met together, || YHWH [is] the Maker of them all.

³ The prudent has seen the evil, and is hidden, || And the simple have passed on, and are punished.

⁴ The end of humility [is] the fear of YHWH, riches, and honor, and life.

⁵ Thorns [and] snares [are] in the way of the perverse, || Whoever is keeping his soul is far from them.

⁶ Give instruction to a youth about his way, || Even when he is old he does not turn from it.

⁷ The rich rules over the poor, || And a servant [is] the borrower to the lender.

⁸ Whoever is sowing perverseness reaps sorrow, || And the rod of his anger wears out.

⁹ The good of eye—he is blessed, || For he has given of his bread to the poor.

¹⁰ Cast out a scorner—and contention goes out, || And strife and shame cease.

¹¹ Whoever is loving cleanness of heart, || His lips [are] grace, || A king
[is] his friend.

¹² The eyes of YHWH have kept knowledge, || And He overthrows the words of the treacherous.

¹³ The slothful has said, “A lion [is] outside, || I am slain in the midst of the broad places.”

¹⁴ The mouth of strange women [is] a deep pit, || The abhorred of YHWH falls there.

¹⁵ Folly is bound up in the heart of a youth, || The rod of discipline puts it far from him.

¹⁶ He [who] is oppressing the poor to multiply his [riches], || Is giving to the rich—only to want.

¹⁷ Incline your ear, and hear words of the wise, || And set your heart to my knowledge,

¹⁸ For they are pleasant when you keep them in your heart, || They are prepared together for your lips.

¹⁹ That your trust may be in YHWH, || I caused you to know today, even you.

²⁰ Have I not written to you three times || With counsels and knowledge?

²¹ To cause you to know the certainty of sayings of truth, || To return sayings of truth to those sending you.

²² Do not rob the poor because he [is] poor, || And do not bruise the afflicted in the gate.

²³ For YHWH pleads their cause, || And has spoiled the soul of their spoilers.

²⁴ Do not show yourself friendly with an angry man, || And do not go in with a man of fury,

²⁵ Lest you learn his paths, || And have received a snare to your soul.

²⁶ Do not be among those striking hands, || Among sureties [for] burdens.

²⁷ If you have nothing to pay, || Why does he take your bed from under you?

²⁸ Do not remove a border of ancient times, || That your fathers have made.

¹ When you sit to eat with a ruler, || Diligently consider that which [is] before you,

² And you have put a knife to your throat, || If you [are] a man of appetite.

³ Have no desire to his delicacies, seeing it [is] lying food.

⁴ Do not labor to make wealth, || Cease from your own understanding, || Do you cause your eyes to fly on it? Then it is not.

⁵ For wealth makes wings to itself, || It flies to the heavens as an eagle.

⁶ Do not eat the bread of an evil eye, || And have no desire to his delicacies,

⁷ For as he has thought in his soul, so he [is]. “Eat and drink,” he says to you, || And his heart [is] not with you.

⁸ You vomit up your morsel you have eaten, || And have marred your words that [are] sweet.

⁹ Do not speak in the ears of a fool, || For he treads on the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Do not remove a border of ancient times, || And do not enter into fields of the fatherless,

¹¹ For their Redeemer [is] strong, || He pleads their cause with you.

¹² Bring your heart to instruction, || And your ear to sayings of knowledge.

¹³ Do not withhold discipline from a youth, || When you strike him with a rod he does not die.

¹⁴ You strike him with a rod, || And you deliver his soul from Sheol.

¹⁵ My son, if your heart has been wise, || My heart rejoices, even mine,

¹⁶ And my reins exult when your lips speak uprightly.

¹⁷ Do not let your heart be envious at sinners, || But—in the fear of YHWH all the day.

¹⁸ For is there a posterity? Then your hope is not cut off.

¹⁹ Hear, my son, and be wise, || And make your heart blessed in the way,

²⁰ Do not become drunk with wine, || Among gluttonous ones of flesh,

²¹ For the drunkard and glutton become poor, || And drowsiness clothes with rags.

²² Listen to your father, who begot you, || And do not despise your mother when she has become old.

²³ Buy truth, and do not sell, || Wisdom, and instruction, and understanding,

²⁴ The father of the righteous rejoices greatly, || The begetter of the wise rejoices in him.

²⁵ Your father and your mother rejoice, || Indeed, she bearing you is joyful.

²⁶ Give, my son, your heart to me, || And let your eyes watch my ways.

²⁷ For a harlot [is] a deep ditch, || And a strange woman [is] a narrow pit.

²⁸ She also, as catching prey, lies in wait, || And she increases the treacherous among men.

²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions? Who has complaint? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?

³⁰ Those lingering by the wine, || Those going in to search out mixed wine.

³¹ Do not see wine when it shows itself red, || When it gives its color in the cup, || It goes up and down through the upright.

³² Its latter end—it bites as a serpent, || And it stings as a viper.

³³ Your eyes see strange women, || And your heart speaks perverse things.

³⁴ And you have been as one lying down in the heart of the sea, || And as one lying down on the top of a mast.

³⁵ “They struck me, I have not been sick, || They beat me, I have not known. When I awake—I seek it yet again!”

² For their heart meditates [on] destruction, || And their lips speak perverseness.

³ A house is built by wisdom, || And it establishes itself by understanding.

⁴ And the inner parts are filled by knowledge, || [With] all precious and pleasant wealth.

⁵ The wise [is] mighty in strength, || And a man of knowledge is strengthening power,

⁶ For you make war for yourself by plans, || And deliverance [is] in a multitude of counselors.

⁷ Wisdom [is] high for a fool, he does not open his mouth in the gate.

⁸ Whoever is devising to do evil, || They call him a master of wicked thoughts.

⁹ The thought of folly [is] sin, || And a scorner [is] an abomination to man.

¹⁰ You have showed yourself weak in a day of adversity, || Your power is restricted,

¹¹ If [from] delivering those taken to death, || And you take back those slipping to the slaughter.

¹² When you say, "Behold, we did not know this." Is the Ponderer of hearts not He who understands? And the Keeper of your soul He who knows? And He has rendered to man according to his work.

¹³ My son, eat honey that [is] good, || And the honeycomb [is] sweet to your palate.

¹⁴ So [is] the knowledge of wisdom to your soul, || If you have found that there is a posterity || And your hope is not cut off.

¹⁵ Do not lay wait, O wicked one, || At the habitation of the righteous. Do not spoil his resting place.

¹⁶ For the righteous fall and rise seven [times], || And the wicked stumble in evil.

¹⁷ Do not rejoice in the falling of your enemy, || And do not let your heart be joyful in his stumbling,

¹⁹ Do not fret yourself at evildoers, do not be envious at the wicked,

²⁰ For there is not a posterity to the evil, || The lamp of the wicked is extinguished.

²¹ Fear YHWH, my son, and the king, || Do not mix yourself up with changers,

²³ These are also for the wise: [It] is not good to discern faces in judgment.

²⁴ Whoever is saying to the wicked, "You [are] righteous," || Peoples execrate him—nations abhor him.

²⁵ And it is pleasant to those reproving, || And a good blessing comes on them.

²⁶ He who is returning straightforward words kisses lips.

²⁷ Prepare your work in an out-place, || And make it ready in the field—go afterward, || Then you have built your house.

²⁸ Do not be a witness against your neighbor for nothing, || Or you have enticed with your lips.

²⁹ Do not say, "As he did to me, so I do to him, || I render to each according to his work."

³⁰ I passed by near the field of a slothful man, || And near the vineyard of a man lacking heart.

³¹ And behold, it has gone up—all of it—thorns! Nettles have covered its face, || And its stone wall has been broken down.

³³ A little sleep—a little slumber—A little folding of the hands to lie down.

² The glory of God [is] to hide a thing, || And the glory of kings [is] to search out a matter.

³ The heavens for height, and the earth for depth, || And the heart of kings—[are] unsearchable.

⁴ Take away dross from silver, || And a vessel goes forth for the refiner,

⁵ Take away the wicked before a king, || And his throne is established in righteousness.

⁶ Do not honor yourself before a king, || And do not stand in the place of the great.

⁷ For better [that] he has said to you, “Come up here,” || Than [that] he humbles you before a noble, || Whom your eyes have seen.

⁸ Do not go forth to strive, hurry, turn, || What do you do in its latter end, || When your neighbor causes you to blush?

⁹ Plead your cause with your neighbor, || And do not reveal the secret counsel of another,

¹⁰ Lest the hearer put you to shame, || And your evil report not turn back.

¹¹ Apples of gold in imagery of silver, || [Is] the word spoken at its fit times.

¹² A ring of gold, and an ornament of pure gold, || [Is] the wise reprovee to an attentive ear.

¹³ As a vessel of snow in a day of harvest, || [So is] a faithful ambassador to those sending him, || And he refreshes the soul of his masters.

¹⁴ Clouds and wind without rain, || [Is] a man boasting himself in a false gift.

¹⁵ A ruler is persuaded by long-suffering, || And a soft tongue breaks a bone.

¹⁶ You have found honey—eat your sufficiency, || Lest you are satiated [with] it, and have vomited it.

¹⁷ Withdraw your foot from your neighbor’s house, || Lest he is satiated [with] you, and has hated you.

¹⁸ A maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow, || [Is] the man testifying a false testimony against his neighbor.

¹⁹ A bad tooth, and a tottering foot, || [Is] the confidence of the treacherous in a day of adversity.

²⁰ Whoever is taking away a garment in a cold day, || [Is as] vinegar on natron, || And a singer of songs on a sad heart.

²¹ If he who is hating you hungers, cause him to eat bread, || And if he thirsts, cause him to drink water.

²² For you are putting coals on his head, || And YHWH gives repayment to you.

²³ A north wind brings forth rain, || And a secret tongue—indignant faces.

²⁴ Better to sit on a corner of a roof, || Than [with] a woman of contentions, and a house of company.

²⁵ [As] cold waters for a weary soul, || So [is] a good report from a far country.

²⁶ A spring troubled, and a fountain corrupt, || [Is] the righteous falling before the wicked.

²⁷ The eating of much honey is not good, || Nor a searching out of one's own honor—honor.

²⁸ A city broken down without walls, || [Is] a man without restraint over his spirit!

¹ As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, || So honor [is] not fitting for a fool.

² As a bird by wandering, as a swallow by flying, || So reviling without cause does not come.

³ A whip is for a horse, a bridle for a donkey, || And a rod for the back of fools.

⁴ Do not answer a fool according to his folly, || Lest you are like to him—even you.

⁵ Answer a fool according to his folly, || Lest he is wise in his own eyes.

⁶ He is cutting off feet, he is drinking injury, || Who is sending things by the hand of a fool.

⁷ The two legs of the lame have been weak, || And an allegory in the mouth of fools.

⁸ As one who is binding a stone in a sling, || So [is] he who is giving honor to a fool.

⁹ A thorn has gone up into the hand of a drunkard, || And an allegory in the mouth of fools.

¹⁰ The Former of all [is] great, || And He is rewarding a fool, || And is rewarding transgressors.

¹¹ As a dog has returned to its vomit, || A fool is repeating his folly.

¹² You have seen a man wise in his own eyes, || More hope of a fool than of him!

¹³ The slothful has said, || "A lion [is] in the way, || A lion [is] in the broad places."

¹⁴ The door turns around on its hinge, || And the slothful on his bed.

¹⁵ The slothful has hid his hand in a dish, || He is weary of bringing it back to his mouth.

¹⁶ Wiser [is] the slothful in his own eyes, || Than seven [men] returning a reason.

¹⁷ Laying hold on the ears of a dog, || [Is] a passer-by making himself wrath for strife [that is] not his own.

¹⁸ As [one] pretending to be feeble, || Who is casting sparks, arrows, and death,

¹⁹ So has a man deceived his neighbor, || And has said, "Am I not playing?"

²⁰ Fire is going out without wood, || And contention ceases without a tale-bearer,

²¹ Coal to burning coals, and wood to fire, || And a man of contentions to kindle strife.

²² The words of a tale-bearer [are] as self-inflicted wounds, || And they have gone down [to] the inner parts of the heart.

²³ Silver of dross spread over potsherd, || [Are] burning lips and an evil heart.

²⁴ A hater pretends by his lips, || And he places deceit in his heart,

²⁵ When his voice is gracious do not trust in him, || For seven abominations [are] in his heart.

²⁶ Hatred is covered by deceit, || Its wickedness is revealed in an assembly.

²⁷ Whoever is digging a pit falls into it, || And the roller of a stone, it turns to him.

²⁸ A lying tongue hates its bruised ones, || And a flattering mouth works an overthrow!

¹ Do not boast about tomorrow, || For you do not know what a day brings forth.

² Let another praise you, and not your own mouth, || A stranger, and not your own lips.

³ A stone [is] heavy, and the sand [is] heavy, || And the anger of a fool || Is heavier than them both.

⁴ Fury [is] fierce, and anger [is] overflowing, || And who stands before jealousy?

⁵ Better [is] open reproof than hidden love.

⁶ The wounds of a lover are faithful, || And the kisses of an enemy [are] abundant.

⁷ A satiated soul treads down a honeycomb, || And every bitter thing [is] sweet [to] a hungry soul.

⁸ As a bird wandering from her nest, || So [is] a man wandering from his place.

⁹ Perfume and incense make the heart glad, || And the sweetness of one's friend—from counsel of the soul.

¹¹ Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, || And I return a word [to] my reproacher.

¹² The prudent has seen the evil, he is hidden, || The simple have passed on, they are punished.

¹³ Take his garment when a stranger has been guarantor, || And pledge it for a strange woman.

¹⁴ Whoever is greeting his friend with a loud voice, || Rising early in the morning, || It is reckoned a light thing to him.

¹⁵ A continual dropping in a day of rain, || And a woman of contentions are alike,

¹⁶ Whoever is hiding her has hidden the wind, || And the ointment of his right hand calls out.

¹⁷ Iron is sharpened by iron, || And a man sharpens the face of his friend.

¹⁸ The keeper of a fig tree eats its fruit, || And the preserver of his master is honored.

¹⁹ As [in] water the face [is] to face, || So the heart of man to man.

²⁰ Sheol and destruction are not satisfied, || And the eyes of man are not satisfied.

²¹ A refining pot [is] for silver, and a furnace for gold, || And a man according to his praise.

²² If you beat the foolish in a mortar, || Among washed things—with a pestle, || His folly does not turn aside from off him.

²³ Know the face of your flock well, || Set your heart to the droves,

²⁴ For riches [are] not for all time, || Nor a crown to generation and generation.

²⁵ The hay was revealed, and the tender grass seen, || And the herbs of mountains gathered.

²⁶ Lambs [are] for your clothing, || And the price of the field [are] male goats,

28

¹ The wicked have fled and there is no pursuer, || And the righteous is confident as a young lion.

² By the transgression of a land its heads are many, || And by an understanding man, || Who knows right—it is prolonged.

³ A man—poor and oppressing the weak, || [Is] a sweeping rain, and there is no bread.

⁴ Those forsaking the Law praise the wicked, || Those keeping the Law plead against them.

⁵ Evil men do not understand judgment, || And those seeking YHWH understand all.

⁶ Better [is] the poor walking in his integrity, || Than the perverse of ways who is rich.

⁷ Whoever is keeping the Law is an intelligent son, || And a friend of gluttons || Causes his father to blush.

⁸ Whoever is multiplying his wealth by biting and usury, || Gathers it for one favoring the poor.

⁹ Whoever is turning his ear from hearing the Law, || Even his prayer [is] an abomination.

¹⁰ Whoever is causing the upright to err in an evil way, || He falls into his own pit, || And the perfect inherits good.

¹¹ A rich man is wise in his own eyes, || And the intelligent poor searches him.

¹² In the exulting of the righteous the glory [is] abundant, || And in the rising of the wicked man is apprehensive.

¹³ Whoever is covering his transgressions does not prosper, || And he who is confessing and forsaking has mercy.

¹⁴ O the blessedness of a man fearing continually, || And whoever is hardening his heart falls into evil.

¹⁵ A growling lion, and a ranging bear, || [Is] the wicked ruler over a poor people.

¹⁶ A leader lacking understanding multiplies oppressions, || Whoever is hating dishonest gain prolongs days.

¹⁷ A man oppressed with the blood of a soul, || Flees to the pit, [and] none takes hold on him [to help].

¹⁸ Whoever is walking uprightly is saved, || And the perverted of ways falls at once.

¹⁹ Whoever is tilling his ground is satisfied [with] bread, || And whoever is pursuing vanity, || Is filled [with] poverty.

²⁰ A steadfast man has multiplied blessings, || And whoever is hastening to be rich is not acquitted.

²¹ [It] is not good to discern faces, || And a man transgresses for a piece of bread.

²² The man [with] an evil eye [is] troubled for wealth, || And he does not know that want meets him.

²³ Whoever is reproving a man finds grace afterward, || More than a flatterer with the tongue.

²⁴ Whoever is robbing his father or his mother, || And is saying, "It is not transgression," || He is a companion to a destroyer.

²⁵ Whoever is proud in soul stirs up contention, || And whoever is trusting on YHWH is made fat.

²⁶ Whoever is trusting in his heart is a fool, || And whoever is walking in wisdom is delivered.

²⁷ Whoever is giving to the poor has no lack, || And whoever is hiding his eyes multiplied curses.

²⁸ A man is hidden in the rising of the wicked, || And the righteous multiply in their destruction!

¹ A man often reproved, hardening the neck, || Is suddenly broken, and there is no healing.

² In the multiplying of the righteous the people rejoice, || And in the ruling of the wicked the people sigh.

³ A man loving wisdom makes his father glad, || And a friend of harlots destroys wealth.

⁴ A king establishes a land by judgment, || And one receiving gifts throws it down.

⁵ A man taking a portion above his neighbor, || Spreads a net for his own steps.

⁶ A snare [is] in the transgression of the evil, || And the righteous sing and rejoice.

⁷ The righteous knows the plea of the poor, || The wicked does not understand knowledge.

⁸ Men of scorning ensnare a city, || And the wise turn back anger.

⁹ A wise man is judged by the foolish man, || And he has been angry, || And he has laughed, and there is no rest.

¹⁰ Men of blood hate the perfect, || And the upright seek his soul.

¹¹ A fool brings out all his mind, || And the wise restrains it until afterward.

¹² A ruler who is attending to lying words, || All his ministers [are] wicked.

¹³ The poor and the man of frauds have met together, || YHWH is enlightening the eyes of them both.

¹⁴ A king that is judging the poor with truth, || His throne is established forever.

¹⁵ A rod and reproof give wisdom, || And a youth let away is shaming his mother.

¹⁶ In the multiplying of the wicked transgression multiplies, || And the righteous look on their fall.

¹⁷ Discipline your son, and he gives you comfort, || Indeed, he gives delights to your soul.

¹⁸ A people is made naked without a vision, || And whoever is keeping the Law, O his blessedness!

²⁰ You have seen a man hasty in his words! More hope of a fool than of him.

²¹ Whoever is bringing up his servant delicately, from youth, || [At] his latter end he is also continuator.

²² An angry man stirs up contention, || And a furious man is multiplying transgression.

²³ The pride of man humbles him, || And humility of spirit upholds honor.

²⁴ Whoever is sharing with a thief is hating his own soul, || He hears execration, and does not tell.

²⁵ Fear of man causes a snare, || And the confident in YHWH is set on high.

²⁶ Many are seeking the face of a ruler, || And the judgment of each [is] from YHWH.

30

¹ Words of Agur, son of Jakeh, the burden, a declaration of the man to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal: I have wearied myself [for] God, || I have wearied myself [for] God, and am consumed.

² For I am more brutish than anyone, || And do not have the understanding of a man.

³ Nor have I learned wisdom, || Yet I know the knowledge of the Holy Ones.

⁴ Who went up to the heavens, and comes down? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound waters in a garment? Who established all ends of the earth? What [is] His Name? And what [is] His Son's Name? Surely you know!

⁵ Every saying of God [is] tried, || He [is] a shield to those trusting in Him.

⁶ Do not add to His words, lest He reason with you, || And you have been found false.

⁷ Two things I have asked from You, || Do not withhold from me before I die.

⁸ Put vanity and a lying word far from me, || Do not give poverty or wealth to me, || Cause me to eat the bread of my portion,

⁹ Lest I become satiated, and have denied, || And have said, "Who [is] YHWH?" And lest I am poor, and have stolen, || And have laid hold of the Name of my God.

¹⁰ Do not accuse a servant to his lord, || Lest he disapprove of you, and you are found guilty.

11 A generation lightly esteems their father, || And does not bless their mother.

12 A generation—pure in their own eyes, || But not washed from their own filth.

13 A generation—how high are their eyes, || Indeed, their eyelids are lifted up.

14 A generation—their teeth [are] swords, || And their jaw-teeth [are] knives, || To consume the poor from earth, || And the needy from [among] men.

15 To the leech [are] two daughters—Give! Give! Behold, three things are not satisfied, || Four have not said “Sufficiency”;

16 Sheol, and a restrained womb, || Earth—it [is] not satisfied [with] water, || And fire—it has not said, “Sufficiency,”

17 An eye that mocks at a father, || And despises to obey a mother, || Ravens of the valley dig it out, || And young eagles eat it.

18 Three things have been too wonderful for me, || Indeed, four that I have not known:

19 The way of the eagle in the heavens, || The way of a serpent on a rock, || The way of a ship in the heart of the sea, || And the way of a man in youth.

20 So—the way of an adulterous woman, || She has eaten and has wiped her mouth, || And has said, “I have not done iniquity.”

21 For three things has earth been troubled, || And for four—it is not able to bear:

22 For a servant when he reigns, || And a fool when he is satisfied with bread,

23 For a hated one when she rules, || And a maidservant when she succeeds her mistress.

24 Four [are] little ones of earth, || And they are made wiser than the wise:

25 The ants [are] a people not strong, || And they prepare their food in summer,

26 hyraxes [are] a people not strong, || And they place their house in a rock,

27 There is no king to the locust, || And it goes out—each one shouting,

28 A spider with two hands takes hold, || And is in the palaces of a king.

29 There are three going well, || Indeed, four are good in going:

30 An old lion—mighty among beasts, || That does not turn back from the face of any,

31 A girt one of the loins, || Also a male goat, || And a king—troops with him.

32 If you have been foolish in lifting yourself up, || And if you have devised evil—hand to mouth!

33 For the churning of milk brings out butter, || And the wringing of the nose brings out blood, || And the forcing of anger brings out strife!

1 Words of Lemuel, a king, a declaration that his mother taught him:

2 “What, my son? And what, son of my womb? And what, son of my vows?”

3 Do not give your strength to women, || And your ways to wiping away of kings.

4 [It is] not for kings, O Lemuel, || Not for kings, to drink wine, || And for princes—a desire of strong drink.

5 Lest he drink, and forget the decree, || And change the judgment of any of the sons of affliction.

6 Give strong drink to the perishing, || And wine to the bitter in soul,

7 He drinks, and forgets his poverty, || And he does not remember his misery again.

8 Open your mouth for the mute, || For the right of all sons of change.

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, || Both the cause of the poor and needy!"

10 [ALEPH-BET] A woman of worth who finds? Indeed, her price [is] far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband has trusted in her, || And he does not lack spoil.

12 She has done him good, and not evil, || All [the] days of her life.

13 She has sought wool and flax, || And with delight she works [with] her hands.

14 She has been as ships of the merchant, || She brings in her bread from afar.

15 Indeed, she rises while yet night, || And gives food to her household, || And a portion to her girls.

16 She has considered a field, and takes it, || She has planted a vineyard from the fruit of her hands.

17 She has girded her loins with might, || And strengthens her arms.

18 She has perceived when her merchandise [is] good, || Her lamp is not extinguished in the night.

19 She has sent forth her hands on a spindle, || And her hands have held a distaff.

20 She has spread forth her hand to the poor, || Indeed, she sent forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of her household from snow, || For all her household are clothed [with] scarlet.

22 She has made ornamental coverings for herself, || Silk and purple [are] her clothing.

23 Her husband is known in the gates, || In his sitting with [the] elderly of [the] land.

24 She has made linen garments, and sells, || And she has given a girdle to the merchant.

25 Strength and honor [are] her clothing, || And she rejoices at a latter day.

26 She has opened her mouth in wisdom, || And the law of kindness [is] on her tongue.

27 She [is] watching the ways of her household, || And she does not eat bread of sloth.

28 Her sons have risen up, and pronounce her blessed, || Her husband, and he praises her,

29 "The daughters who have done worthily [are] many, || You have gone up above them all."

30 Favor [is] deceitful, and beauty [is] vain, || A woman fearing YHWH, she may boast herself.

³¹ Give to her of the fruit of her hands, | | And her works praise her in the gates!

Ecclesiastes

¹ Words of a preacher, son of David, king in Jerusalem:

² Vanity of vanities, said the Preacher, vanity of vanities: the whole [is] vanity.

³ What advantage [is] to man by all his labor that he labors at under the sun?

⁴ A generation is going, and a generation is coming, and the earth is standing for all time.

⁵ Also, the sun has risen, and the sun has gone in, and to its place panting it is rising there.

⁶ Going to the south, and turning around to the north, turning around, turning around, the wind is going, and by its circuits the wind has returned.

⁷ All the streams are going to the sea, and the sea is not full; to a place to where the streams are going, there they are turning back to go.

⁸ All these things are wearying; a man is not able to speak, the eye is not satisfied by seeing, nor is the ear filled from hearing.

⁹ What [is] that which has been? It [is] that which is, and what [is] that which has been done? It [is] that which is done, and there is not an entirely new thing under the sun.

¹⁰ There is a thing of which [one] says: "See this, it [is] new!" Already it has been in the ages that were before us!

¹¹ There is not a remembrance of former [generations]; and also of the latter that are, there is no remembrance of them with those that are at the last.

¹² I, a preacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³ And I have given my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that has been done under the heavens. It [is] a sad travail God has given to the sons of man to be humbled by it.

¹⁴ I have seen all the works that have been done under the sun, and behold, the whole [is] vanity and distress of spirit!

¹⁵ A crooked thing [one] is not able to make straight, and a lacking thing is not able to be numbered.

¹⁶ I spoke with my heart, saying, "I, behold, have magnified and added wisdom above everyone who has been before me at Jerusalem, and my heart has seen wisdom and knowledge abundantly.

¹⁷ And I give my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I have known that even this [is] distress of spirit;

¹⁸ for in abundance of wisdom [is] abundance of sadness, and he who adds knowledge adds pain."

¹ I said in my heart, "Pray, come, I try you with mirth, and look on gladness"; and behold, even it [is] vanity.

² Of laughter I said, "Foolish!" And of mirth, "What [is] this it is doing?"

³ I have sought in my heart to draw out with wine my appetite (and my heart leading in wisdom), and to take hold on folly until I see where this [is]—the good to the sons of man of that which they do under the heavens, the number of the days of their lives.

⁴ I made great my works, I built for myself houses, I planted for myself vineyards.

⁵ I made for myself gardens and paradises, and I planted in them trees of every fruit.

⁶ I made for myself pools of water, to water from them a forest shooting forth trees.

⁷ I acquired menservants, and maidservants, and sons of the house were to me; also, I had much substance—herd and flock—above all who had been before me in Jerusalem.

⁸ I also gathered for myself silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces. I prepared for myself men-singers and women-singers, and the luxuries of the sons of man—a wife and wives.

¹⁰ And all that my eyes asked I did not keep back from them; I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this has been my portion, from all my labor,

¹¹ and I have looked on all my works that my hands have done, and on the labor that I have labored to do, and behold, the whole [is] vanity and distress of spirit, and there is no advantage under the sun!

¹² And I turned to see wisdom, and madness, and folly, but what [is] the man who comes after the king? That which [is] already—they have done it!

¹³ And I saw that there is an advantage to wisdom above folly, like the advantage of the light above the darkness.

¹⁴ The wise—his eyes [are] in his head, and the fool is walking in darkness, and I also knew that one event happens with them all;

¹⁵ and I said in my heart, “As it happens with the fool, it happens also with me, and why am I then more wise?” And I spoke in my heart, that also this [is] vanity:

¹⁶ That there is no remembrance to the wise—with the fool—for all time, for that which [is] already, [in] the days that are coming is all forgotten, and how dies the wise? With the fool!

¹⁷ And I have hated life, for sad to me [is] the work that has been done under the sun, for the whole [is] vanity and distress of spirit.

¹⁸ And I have hated all my labor that I labor at under the sun, because I leave it to a man who is after me.

¹⁹ And who knows whether he is wise or foolish? Yet he rules over all my labor that I have labored at, and that I have done wisely under the sun! This [is] also vanity.

²⁰ And I turned around to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor that I labored at under the sun.

²² For what has been to a man by all his labor, and by the thought of his heart that he labored at under the sun?

²³ For all his days are sorrows, and his travail sadness; even at night his heart has not lain down; this [is] also vanity.

²⁴ There is nothing good in a man who eats, and has drunk, and has shown his soul good in his labor. This also I have seen that it [is] from the hand of God.

²⁵ For who eats and who hurries out more than I?

²⁶ For to a man who [is] good before Him, He has given wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; and to a sinner He has given travail, to gather and to heap up, to give to the good before God. Even this [is] vanity and distress of spirit.

¹ To everything—a season, and a time to every delight under the heavens:

² A time to bring forth, || And a time to die. A time to plant, || And a time to eradicate the planted.

³ A time to slay, || And a time to heal, || A time to break down, || And a time to build up.

⁴ A time to weep, || And a time to laugh. A time to mourn, || And a time to skip.

⁵ A time to cast away stones, || And a time to heap up stones. A time to embrace, || And a time to be far from embracing.

⁶ A time to seek, || And a time to destroy. A time to keep, || And a time to cast away.

⁷ A time to tear, || And a time to sew. A time to be silent, || And a time to speak.

⁸ A time to love, || And a time to hate. A time of war, || And a time of peace.

⁹ What advantage does the doer have in that which he is laboring at?

¹⁰ I have seen the travail that God has given to the sons of man to be humbled by it.

¹¹ The whole He has made beautiful in its season; also, that knowledge He has put in their heart without which man does not find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end.

¹² I have known that there is no good for them except to rejoice and to do good during their life,

¹³ indeed, even every man who eats and has drunk and seen good by all his labor, it [is] a gift of God.

¹⁴ I have known that all that God does is for all time, to it nothing is to be added, and from it nothing is to be withdrawn; and God has worked that they fear before Him.

¹⁵ What is that which has been? Already it is, and that which [is] to be has already been, and God requires that which is pursued.

¹⁶ And again, I have seen under the sun the place of judgment—there [is] the wicked; and the place of righteousness—there [is] the wicked.

¹⁷ I said in my heart, “The righteous and the wicked God judges, for a time [is] to every matter and for every work there.”

¹⁸ I said in my heart concerning the matter of the sons of man that God might cleanse them, so as to see that they themselves [are] beasts.

¹⁹ For an event [is to] the sons of man, and an event [is to] the beasts, even one event [is] to them; as the death of this, so [is] the death of that; and one spirit [is] to all, and the advantage of man above the beast is nothing, for the whole [is] vanity.

²⁰ The whole are going to one place, the whole have been from the dust, and the whole are turning back to the dust.

²¹ Who knows the spirit of the sons of man that is going up on high, and the spirit of the beast that is going down below to the earth?

²² And I have seen that there is nothing better than that man rejoice in his works, for it [is] his portion; for who brings him to look on that which is after him?

¹ And I have turned, and I see all the oppressions that are done under the sun, and behold, the tear of the oppressed, and they have no comforter; and at the hand of their oppressors [is] power, and they have no comforter.

² And I am praising the dead who have already died above the living who are yet alive.

³ And better than both of them [is] he who has not yet been, in that he has not seen the evil work that has been done under the sun.

⁴ And I have seen all the labor, and all the benefit of the work, because for it a man is the envy of his neighbor. Even this [is] vanity and distress of spirit.

⁵ The fool is clasping his hands, and eating his own flesh:

⁶ "Better [is] a handful [with] quietness, than two handfuls [with] labor and distress of spirit."

⁷ And I have turned, and I see a vain thing under the sun:

⁸ There is one, and there is not a second; even son or brother he has not, and there is no end to all his labor! His eye also is not satisfied with riches, and [he does not say], "For whom am I laboring and bereaving my soul of good?" This also is vanity, it is a sad travail.

⁹ The two [are] better than the one, in that they have a good reward by their labor.

¹⁰ For if they fall, the one raises up his companion, but woe to the one who falls and there is not a second to raise him up!

¹¹ Also, if two lie down, then they have heat, but how has one heat?

¹² And if the one strengthens himself, the two stand against him; and the threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³ Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who has not known to be warned anymore.

¹⁴ For from a house of prisoners he has come out to reign, for even in his own kingdom he has been poor.

¹⁵ I have seen all the living, who are walking under the sun, with the second youth who stands in his place;

¹⁶ there is no end to all the people, to all who were before them; also, the latter do not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and distress of spirit.

¹ Keep your feet when you go to a house of God, and draw near to hear rather than to give of fools the sacrifice, for they do not know they do evil.

² Do not cause your mouth to hurry, and do not let your heart hurry to bring out a word before God, for God is in the heavens, and you on the earth, therefore let your words be few.

³ For the dream has come by abundance of business, and the voice of a fool by abundance of words.

⁴ When you vow a vow to God, do not delay to complete it, for there is no pleasure in fools; that which you vow—complete.

⁵ Better that you do not vow, than that you vow and do not complete.

⁶ Do not permit your mouth to cause your flesh to sin, nor say before the messenger that it [is] ignorance. Why is God angry because of your voice and has destroyed the work of your hands?

⁷ For in the abundance of dreams both vanities and words abound; but fear God.

⁸ If oppression of the poor, and violent taking away of judgment and righteousness you see in a province, do not marvel at the matter, for a higher than the high is observing, and high ones [are] over them.

⁹ And the abundance of a land is for all. A king for a field is served.

¹⁰ Whoever is loving silver is not satisfied [with] silver, nor he who is in love with stores [with] increase. Even this [is] vanity.

¹¹ In the multiplying of good have its consumers been multiplied, and what benefit [is] to its possessor except the sight of his eyes?

¹² Sweet [is] the sleep of the laborer whether he eat little or much; and the sufficiency of the wealthy is not permitting him to sleep.

¹³ There is a painful evil I have seen under the sun: wealth kept for its possessor, for his evil.

¹⁴ And that wealth has been lost in an evil business, and he has begotten a son and there is nothing in his hand!

¹⁵ As he came out from the belly of his mother, naked he turns back to go as he came, and he does not take away anything of his labor, that goes in his hand.

¹⁶ And this also [is] a painful evil, just as he came, so he goes, and what advantage [is] to him who labors for wind?

¹⁷ He also consumes all his days in darkness, and sadness, and wrath, and sickness abound.

¹⁸ Behold, that which I have seen: [It is] good, because beautiful, to eat, and to drink, and to see good in all one's labor that he labors at under the sun, the number of the days of his life that God has given to him, for it [is] his portion.

¹⁹ Every man also to whom God has given wealth and riches, and has given him power to eat of it, and to accept his portion, and to rejoice in his labor, this is a gift of God.

²⁰ For he does not much remember the days of his life, for God is answering through the joy of his heart.

¹ There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it [is] great on man:

² A man to whom God gives wealth, and riches, and honor, and there is no lack to his soul of all that he desires, and God does not give him power to eat of it, but a stranger eats it; this [is] vanity, and it [is] an evil disease.

³ If a man begets one hundred, and lives many years, and is great, because they are the days of his years, and his soul is not satisfied from the goodness, and also he has not had a grave, I have said, "Better than he [is] the untimely birth."

⁴ For in vanity he came in, and in darkness he goes, and in darkness his name is covered,

⁵ even the sun he has not seen nor known, more rest has this than that.

⁶ And though he had lived one thousand years twice over, yet he has not seen good; does not everyone go to the same place?

⁷ All the labor of man [is] for his mouth, || And yet the soul is not filled.

⁸ For what advantage [is] to the wise above the fool? What to the poor who knows to walk before the living?

⁹ Better [is] the sight of the eyes than the going of the soul. This [is] also vanity and distress of spirit.

¹⁰ What [is] that which has been? Already is its name called, and it is known that it [is] man, || And he is not able to contend with him who is stronger than he.

¹ Better [is] a name than good perfume, || And the day of death than the day of birth.

² Better to go to a house of mourning, || Than to go to a house of banqueting, || For that is the end of all men, || And the living lays [it] to his heart.

³ Better [is] sorrow than laughter, || For by the sadness of the face the heart becomes better.

⁴ The heart of the wise [is] in a house of mourning, || And the heart of fools in a house of mirth.

⁵ Better to hear a rebuke of a wise man, || Than [for] a man to hear a song of fools,

⁶ For as the noise of thorns under the pot, || So [is] the laughter of a fool, even this [is] vanity.

⁷ Surely oppression makes the wise mad, || And a gift destroys the heart.

⁸ Better [is] the latter end of a thing than its beginning, || Better [is] the patient of spirit, than the haughty of spirit.

⁹ Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, || For anger in the bosom of fools rests.

¹⁰ Do not say, "What was it, || That the former days were better than these?" For you have not asked wisely of this.

¹¹ Wisdom [is] good with an inheritance, || And an advantage [it is] to those beholding the sun.

¹² For wisdom [is] a defense, money [is] a defense, || And the advantage of the knowledge of wisdom [is], || She revives her possessors.

¹³ See the work of God, || For who is able to make straight that which He made crooked?

¹⁴ In a day of prosperity be in gladness, || And in a day of calamity consider: God has also made this alongside of that, || To the intent that man does not find anything after him.

¹⁶ Do not be over-righteous, nor show yourself too wise, why are you desolate?

¹⁷ Do not do much wrong, neither be a fool, why do you die within your time?

¹⁸ [It is] good that you lay hold on this, and also, do not withdraw your hand from that, for whoever is fearing God goes out with them all.

¹⁹ The wisdom gives strength to a wise man, more than wealth the rulers who have been in a city.

²⁰ Because there is not a righteous man on earth that does good and does not sin.

²¹ Also to all the words that they speak do not give your heart, that you do not hear your servant reviling you.

²² For many times also has your heart known that you yourself have also reviled others.

²³ All this I have tried by wisdom; I have said, "I am wise," and it [is] far from me.

²⁵ I have turned around, also my heart, to know and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and reason, and to know the wrong of folly, and the madness of foolishness.

²⁶ And I am finding more bitter than death, the woman whose heart [is] nets and snares, her hands [are] bands; the good before God escapes from her, but the sinner is captured by her.

²⁷ See, this I have found, said the Preacher, one to one, to find out the reason

²⁸ (that still my soul had sought, and I had not found), || One man, a teacher, I have found, and a woman among all these I have not found.

²⁹ See, this alone I have found, that God made man upright, and they have sought out many inventions.

² I [counsel]: keep the command of a king, even for the sake of an oath [to] God.

³ Do not be troubled at his presence, you may go, do not stand in an evil thing, for all that he pleases he does.

⁴ Where the word of a king [is] power [is], and who says to him, "What do you do?"

⁵ Whoever is keeping a command knows no evil thing, and time and judgment the heart of the wise knows.

⁶ For to every delight there is a time and a judgment, for the misfortune of man is great on him.

⁷ For he does not know that which will be, for when it will be who declares to him?

⁸ There is no man ruling over the spirit to restrain the spirit, and there is no authority over the day of death, and there is no discharge in battle, and wickedness does not deliver its possessors.

⁹ All this I have seen so as to give my heart to every work that has been done under the sun; a time that man has ruled over man to his own evil.

¹⁰ And so I have seen the wicked buried, and they went in, even from the Holy Place they go, and they are forgotten in the city whether they had so done. This [is] also vanity.

¹¹ Because sentence has not been done [on] an evil work speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of man is full within them to do evil.

¹² Though a sinner is doing evil one hundred [times], and prolonging [himself] for it, surely also I know that there is good to those fearing God, who fear before Him.

¹³ And good is not to the wicked, and he does not prolong days as a shadow, because he is not fearing before God.

¹⁴ There is a vanity that has been done on the earth, that there are righteous ones to whom it is coming according to the work of the wicked, and there are wicked ones to whom it is coming according to the work of the righteous. I have said that this [is] also vanity.

¹⁵ And I have praised mirth because there is no good to man under the sun except to eat and to drink, and to rejoice, and it remains with him of his labor the days of his life that God has given to him under the sun.

¹⁶ When I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that has been done on the earth (for there is also a spectator in whose eyes sleep is not by day and by night),

¹⁷ then I considered all the work of God, that man is not able to find out the work that has been done under the sun, because though man labor to seek, yet he does not find; and even though the wise man speak of knowing he is not able to find.

² The whole [is] as to the whole; one event is to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean, and to him who is sacrificing, and to him who is not sacrificing; as [is] the good, so [is] the sinner, he who is swearing as he who is fearing an oath.

⁴ But [to] him who is joined to all the living there is confidence, for to a living dog it [is] better than to the dead lion.

⁵ For the living know that they die, and the dead do not know anything, and there is no more reward to them, for their remembrance has been forgotten.

⁶ Their love also, their hatred also, their envy also, has already perished, and they have no more portion for all time in all that has been done under the sun.

⁷ Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a glad heart, for already has God been pleased with your works.

⁸ At all times let your garments be white, and do not let oil be lacking on your head.

⁹ See life with the wife whom you have loved, all the days of the life of your vanity, that He has given to you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for it [is] your portion in life, even of your labor that you are laboring at under the sun.

¹⁰ All that your hand finds to do, with your power do, for there is no work, and plan, and knowledge, and wisdom in Sheol to where you are going.

¹¹ I have turned so as to see under the sun, that not to the swift [is] the race, nor to the mighty the battle, nor even to the wise bread, nor even to the intelligent wealth, nor even to the skillful grace, for time and chance happen with them all.

¹³ This also I have seen: wisdom under the sun, and it is great to me.

¹⁴ A little city, and few men in it, and a great king has come to it, and has surrounded it, and has built against it great bulwarks;

¹⁵ and there has been found in it a poor wise man, and he has delivered the city by his wisdom, and men have not remembered that poor man!

¹⁶ And I said, "Better [is] wisdom than might, and the wisdom of the poor is despised, and his words are not heard."

¹⁷ The words of the wise are heard in quiet, || More than the cry of a ruler over fools.

² The heart of the wise [is] at his right hand, || And the heart of a fool at his left.

³ And also, when he that is a fool || Is walking in the way, his heart is lacking, || And he has said to everyone, "He [is] a fool."

⁴ If the spirit of the ruler goes up against you, do not leave your place, || For yielding quiets great sinners.

⁵ There is an evil I have seen under the sun, || As ignorance that goes out from the ruler;

⁶ He has set the fool in many high places, || And the rich sits in a low place.

⁷ I have seen servants on horses, || And princes walking as servants on the earth.

⁸ Whoever is digging a pit falls into it, || And whoever is breaking a hedge, a serpent bites him.

⁹ Whoever is removing stones is grieved by them, || Whoever is cleaving trees endangered by them.

¹⁰ If the iron has been blunt, || And he has not sharpened the face, || Then he increases strength, || And wisdom [is] advantageous to make right.

¹¹ If the serpent bites without enchantment, || Then there is no advantage to a master of the tongue.

¹² Words of the mouth of the wise [are] gracious, || And the lips of a fool swallow him up.

¹³ The beginning of the words of his mouth [is] folly, || And the latter end of his mouth || [Is] mischievous madness.

¹⁴ And the fool multiplies words: "Man does not know that which is— And that which is after him, who declares to him?"

¹⁵ The labor of the foolish wearies him, || In that he has not known to go to the city.

¹⁶ Woe to you, O land, when your king [is] a youth, || And your princes eat in the morning.

¹⁷ Blessed are you, O land, || When your king [is] a son of nobles, || And your princes eat in due season, || For might, and not for drunkenness.

¹⁸ By slothfulness is the wall brought low, || And by idleness of the hands the house drops.

¹⁹ For mirth they are making a feast, || And wine makes life joyful, || And the silver answers with all.

¹ Send forth your bread on the face of the waters, || For in the multitude of the days you find it.

² Give a portion to seven, and even to eight, || For you do not know what evil is on the earth.

³ If the thick clouds are full of rain, || On the earth they empty [themselves]; And if a tree falls in the south or to the north, || The place where the tree falls, there it is.

⁴ Whoever is observing the wind does not sow, || And whoever is looking on the thick clouds does not reap.

⁵ As you do not know what [is] the way of the spirit, || How—bones in the womb of the full one, || So you do not know the work of God who makes the whole.

⁷ Sweet also [is] the light, || And good for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸ But if man lives many years, || In all of them let him rejoice, || And remember the days of darkness, || For they are many! All that is coming [is] vanity.

⁹ Rejoice, O young man, in your childhood, || And let your heart gladden you in days of your youth, || And walk in the ways of your heart, || And in the sight of your eyes, || And know that for all these, God brings you into judgment.

² While that the sun is not darkened, and the light, || And the moon, and the stars, || And the thick clouds returned after the rain.

⁴ And doors have been shut in the street. When the noise of the grinding is low, || And [one] rises at the voice of the bird, || And all daughters of song are bowed down.

⁵ Also of that which is high they are afraid, || And of the low places in the way, || And the almond-tree is despised, || And the grasshopper has become a burden, || And want is increased, || For man is going to his perpetual home, || And the mourners have gone around through the street.

⁶ While that the silver cord is not removed, || And the golden bowl broken, || And the pitcher broken by the fountain, || And the wheel broken at the well.

⁷ And the dust returns to the earth as it was, || And the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸ Vanity of vanities, said the preacher, the whole [is] vanity.

⁹ And further, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge, and gave ear, and sought out—he made right many allegories.

¹⁰ The preacher sought to find out pleasing words, and [that] written [by] the upright—words of truth.

¹¹ Words of the wise [are] as the goads, and as nails planted [by] the masters of collections, they have been given by one Shepherd.

¹² And further, from these, my son, be warned; the making of many scrolls has no end, and much study [is] a weariness of the flesh.

¹³ The end of the whole matter let us hear: “Fear God, and keep His commands, for this [is] the whole of man.

¹⁴ For every work God brings into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether good or bad.”

Song of Songs

² Let him kiss me with kisses of his mouth, || For better [are] your loves than wine.

³ For fragrance [are] your good perfumes. Perfume emptied out—your name, || Therefore have virgins loved you!

⁴ Draw me: we run after you, || The king has brought me into his inner chambers, || We delight and rejoice in you, || We mention your loves more than wine, || Uprightly they have loved you!

⁵ I [am] dark and lovely, daughters of Jerusalem, as tents of Kedar, as curtains of Solomon.

⁶ Do not fear me, because I [am] very dark, || Because the sun has scorched me, || The sons of my mother were angry with me, || They made me keeper of the vineyards, || My vineyard—my own—I have not kept.

⁷ Declare to me, you whom my soul has loved, || Where you delight, || Where you lie down at noon, || For why am I as one veiled, || By the ranks of your companions?

⁸ If you do not know, || O beautiful among women, || Go forth by the traces of the flock, || And feed your kids by the shepherds' dwellings!

⁹ To my joyous one in chariots of Pharaoh, I have compared you, my friend,

¹⁰ Your cheeks have been lovely with garlands, your neck with chains.

¹¹ We make garlands of gold for you, with studs of silver!

¹² While the king [is] in his circle, || My spikenard has given its fragrance.

¹³ A bundle of myrrh [is] my beloved to me, || Between my breasts it lodges.

¹⁴ A cluster of cypress [is] my beloved to me, || In the vineyards of En-Gedi!

¹⁵ Behold, you [are] beautiful, my friend, || Behold, you [are] beautiful, your eyes [are] doves!

¹⁶ Behold, you [are] beautiful, my love, indeed, pleasant, || Indeed, our bed [is] green,

¹⁷ The beams of our houses [are] cedars, || Our rafters [are] firs, I [am] a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys!

¹ As a lily among the thorns,

² So [is] my friend among the daughters!

³ As a citron among trees of the forest, || So [is] my beloved among the sons, || In his shade I delighted, and sat down, || And his fruit [is] sweet to my palate.

⁵ Sustain me with grape-cakes, || Support me with citrons, for I [am] sick with love.

⁷ I have adjured you, daughters of Jerusalem, || By the roes or by the does of the field, || Do not stir up nor wake the love until she pleases!

⁸ The voice of my beloved! Behold, this—he is coming, || Leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills.

⁹ My beloved [is] like to a roe, || Or to a young one of the harts. Behold, this—he is standing behind our wall, || Looking from the windows, || Blooming from the lattice.

¹⁰ My beloved has answered and said to me, || “Rise up, my friend, my beautiful one, and come away,

¹¹ For behold, the winter has passed by, || The rain has passed away—it has gone.

¹² The flowers have appeared in the earth, || The time of the singing has come, || And the voice of the turtle was heard in our land,

¹³ The fig tree has ripened her green figs, || And the sweet-smelling vines have given forth fragrance, || Rise, come, my friend, my beautiful one, indeed, come away.

¹⁴ My dove, in clefts of the rock, || In a secret place of the ascent, || Cause me to see your appearance, || Cause me to hear your voice, || For your voice [is] sweet, and your appearance lovely.”

¹⁵ Seize for us foxes, || Little foxes—destroyers of vineyards, || Even our sweet-smelling vineyards.

¹⁶ My beloved [is] mine, and I [am] his, || Who is delighting among the lilies,

¹⁷ Until the day breaks forth, || And the shadows have fled away, || Turn, be like, my beloved, || To a roe, or to a young one of the harts, || On the mountains of separation!

¹ On my bed by night, I sought him whom my soul has loved; I sought him, and I did not find him!

² Now let me rise, and go around the city, || In the streets and in the broad places, || I seek him whom my soul has loved! I sought him, and I did not find him.

³ The watchmen have found me || (Who are going around the city), || “Have you seen him whom my soul has loved?”

⁴ But I passed on a little from them, || Until I found him whom my soul has loved! I seized him, and did not let him go, || Until I brought him to the house of my mother—And the chamber of her that conceived me.

⁵ I have adjured you, daughters of Jerusalem, || By the roes or by the does of the field, || Do not stir up nor wake the love until she pleases!

⁷ Behold, his couch, that [is] of Solomon, || Sixty mighty ones [are] around it, || Of the mighty of Israel,

⁸ All of them holding sword, taught of battle, || Each his sword by his thigh, for fear at night.

⁹ A palanquin King Solomon made for himself, || Of the wood of Lebanon,

¹⁰ Its pillars he made of silver, || Its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
|| Its midst lined [with] love, || By the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹ Go forth, and look, you daughters of Zion, || On King Solomon, with the crown, || With which his mother crowned him, || In the day of his espousals, || And in the day of the joy of his heart!

¹ Behold, you [are] beautiful, my friend, behold, you [are] beautiful, ||
Your eyes [are] doves behind your veil, || Your hair as a row of the goats that have shone from Mount Gilead,

² Your teeth as a row of the shorn ones that have come up from the washing, || For all of them are forming twins, || And a bereaved one is not among them.

³ As a thread of scarlet [are] your lips, || And your speech [is] lovely, ||
As the work of the pomegranate [is] your temple behind your veil,

⁴ As the Tower of David [is] your neck, built for an armory, || The chief of the shields are hung on it, || All shields of the mighty.

⁵ Your two breasts [are] as two fawns, || Twins of a roe, that are feeding among lilies.

⁶ Until the day breaks forth, || And the shadows have fled away, || I go for myself to the mountain of myrrh, || And to the hill of frankincense.

⁷ You [are] all beautiful, my friend, || And there is not a blemish in you.
Come from Lebanon, O spouse,

⁸ Come from Lebanon, come in. Look from the top of Amana, || From the top of Shenir and Hermon, || From the habitations of lions, || From the mountains of leopards.

⁹ You have emboldened me, my sister-spouse, || Emboldened me with one of your eyes, || With one chain of your neck.

¹⁰ How beautiful have been your loves, my sister-spouse, || How much better have been your loves than wine, || And the fragrance of your perfumes than all spices.

¹¹ Your lips drop honey, O spouse, || Honey and milk [are] under your tongue, || And the fragrance of your garments || [Is] as the fragrance of Lebanon.

¹² A garden shut up [is] my sister-spouse, || A spring shut up—a fountain sealed.

¹³ Your shoots a paradise of pomegranates, || With precious fruits,

¹⁴ Cypressess with nard—nard and saffron, || Cane and cinnamon, ||
With all trees of frankincense, || Myrrh and aloes, with all chief spices.

¹⁵ A fount of gardens, a well of living waters, || And flowings from Lebanon!

¹⁶ Awake, O north wind, and come, O south, || Cause my garden to breathe forth, its spices let flow, || Let my beloved come to his garden, ||
And eat its pleasant fruits!

¹ I have come to my garden, my sister-spouse, || I have plucked my myrrh with my spice, || I have eaten my comb with my honey, || I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends, drink, || Indeed, drink abundantly, O beloved ones!

² I am sleeping, but my heart wakes: The sound of my beloved knocking! “Open to me, my sister, my friend, || My dove, my perfect one, || For my head is filled [with] dew, || My locks [with] drops of the night.”

³ I have put off my coat, how do I put it on? I have washed my feet, how do I defile them?

⁴ My beloved sent his hand from the network, || And my bowels were moved for him.

⁵ I rose to open to my beloved, || And my hands dripped myrrh, || Indeed, my fingers were flowing [with] myrrh, || On the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened to my beloved, || But my beloved withdrew—he passed on, || My soul went forth when he spoke, I sought him, and did not find him. I called him, and he did not answer me.

⁷ The watchmen who go around the city, || Found me, struck me, wounded me, || Keepers of the walls lifted up my veil from off me.

⁸ I have adjured you, daughters of Jerusalem, || If you find my beloved—What do you tell him? That I [am] sick with love!

⁹ What [is] your beloved above [any] beloved, || O beautiful among women? What [is] your beloved above [any] beloved, || That thus you have adjured us?

¹⁰ My beloved [is] clear and ruddy, || Conspicuous above a myriad!

¹¹ His head [is] pure gold—fine gold, || His locks flowing, dark as a raven,

¹² His eyes as doves by streams of water, || Washing in milk, sitting in fullness.

¹³ His cheeks [are] as a bed of the spice, towers of perfumes, || His lips—lilies, dripping [and] flowing [with] myrrh,

¹⁴ His hands rings of gold, set with beryl, || His heart bright ivory, covered with sapphires,

¹⁵ His limbs pillars of marble, || Founded on sockets of fine gold, || His appearance as Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

¹⁶ His mouth is sweetness—and all of him desirable, || This [is] my beloved, and this my friend, || O daughters of Jerusalem!

¹ To where has your beloved gone, || O beautiful among women? To where has your beloved turned, || And we seek him with you?

² My beloved went down to his garden, || To the beds of the spice, || To delight himself in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

³ I [am] my beloved’s, and my beloved [is] mine, || Who is delighting himself among the lilies.

⁴ You [are] beautiful, my friend, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, || Awe-inspiring as bannered hosts.

⁵ Turn around your eyes from before me, || Because they have made me proud. Your hair [is] as a row of the goats, || That have shone from Gilead,

⁷ As the work of the pomegranate [is] your temple behind your veil.

8 Sixty are queens, and eighty concubines, || And virgins without number.

9 One is my dove, my perfect one, || She [is] one of her mother, || She [is] the choice one of her that bore her, || Daughters saw, and pronounce her blessed, || Queens and concubines, and they praise her.

10 “Who [is] this that is looking forth as morning, || Beautiful as the moon—clear as the sun, || Awe-inspiring as bannered hosts?”

11 To a garden of nuts I went down, || To look on the buds of the valley, || To see to where the vine had flourished, || The pomegranates had blossomed—

12 I did not know my soul, || It made me—chariots of my people Nadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamith! Return, return, and we look on you. What do you see in Shulamith?

1 As the chorus of “Mahanaim.” How beautiful were your feet with sandals, O daughter of Nadib. The turnings of your sides [are] as ornaments, || Work of the hands of a craftsman.

2 Your waist [is] a basin of roundness, || It does not lack the mixture, || Your body a heap of wheat, fenced with lilies,

3 Your two breasts as two young ones, twins of a roe,

4 Your neck as a tower of the ivory, || Your eyes pools in Heshbon, near the Gate of Bath-Rabbim, || Your face as a tower of Lebanon looking to Damascus,

5 Your head on you as Carmel, || And the locks of your head as purple, || The king is bound with the flowings!

6 How beautiful and how pleasant you have been, || O love, in delights.

7 This your stature has been like to a palm, || And your breasts to clusters.

8 I said, “Let me go up on the palm, || Let me lay hold on its boughs,” || Indeed, let your breasts now be as clusters of the vine, || And the fragrance of your face as citrons,

9 And your palate as the good wine—Flowing to my beloved in uprightness, || Strengthening the lips of the aged!

10 I [am] my beloved’s, and on me [is] his desire.

11 Come, my beloved, we go forth to the field,

12 We lodge in the villages, we go early to the vineyards, || We see if the vine has flourished, || The sweet smelling-flower has opened. The pomegranates have blossomed, || There I give to you my loves;

13 The mandrakes have given fragrance, || And at our openings all pleasant things, || New, indeed, old, my beloved, I laid up for you!

1 Who makes you as a brother to me, || Suckling the breasts of my mother? I find you outside, I kiss you, || Indeed, they do not despise me,

2 I lead you, I bring you into my mother’s house, || She teaches me, I cause you to drink of the spiced wine, || Of the juice of my pomegranate,

3 His left hand [is] under my head, || And his right embraces me.

4 I have adjured you, daughters of Jerusalem, || How you stir up, || And how you wake the love until she pleases!

⁵ Who [is] this coming from the wilderness, || Hastening herself for her beloved? Under the citron-tree I have awoken you, || There your mother pledged you, || There she [who] bore you gave a pledge.

⁶ Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm, || For strong as death is love, || Sharp as Sheol is jealousy, || Its burnings [are] burnings of fire, a flame of YAH!

⁷ Many waters are not able to quench the love, || And floods do not wash it away. If one gives all the wealth of his house for love, || Treading down—they tread on it.

⁸ We have a little sister, and she does not have breasts, || What do we do for our sister, || In the day that it is told of her?

⁹ If she is a wall, we build by her a palace of silver. And if she is a door, || We fashion by her board-work of cedar.

¹⁰ I [am] a wall, and my breasts as towers, || Then I have been in his eyes as one finding peace.

¹¹ Solomon has a vineyard in Ba'al-Hamon, || He has given the vineyard to keepers, || Each brings for its fruit one thousand pieces of silver;

¹³ The companions are attending to your voice, || Cause me to hear. Flee, my beloved, and be like to a roe, ¹⁴ Or to a young one of the harts on mountains of spices!

Isaiah

¹ The visions of Isaiah son of Amoz, that he has seen concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, || For YHWH has spoken: “I have nourished and brought up sons, || And they transgressed against Me.

³ An ox has known its owner, || And a donkey the crib of its master, || Israel has not known, || My people have not understood.”

⁵ Why are you struck anymore? You add apostasy! Every head has become diseased, and every heart [is] sick.

⁷ Your land [is] a desolation, your cities burned with fire, || Your ground—strangers are consuming it before you, || And a desolation as overthrown by strangers!

⁸ And the daughter of Zion has been left, || As a shelter in a vineyard, || As a lodge in a place of cucumbers—as a city besieged.

⁹ Unless YHWH of Hosts had left a remnant to us, || Shortly—we had been as Sodom, || We had been like to Gomorrah!

¹⁰ Hear the word of YHWH, you rulers of Sodom, || Give ear to the Law of our God, you people of Gomorrah,

¹² When you come to appear before Me, || Who has required this of your hand, || To trample My courts?

¹³ Do not add to bring in a vain present, || Incense—it [is] an abomination to Me, || New moon, and Sabbath, calling of convocation! Do not render iniquity—and a restraint!

¹⁴ My soul has hated your new moons and your set seasons, || They have been on Me for a burden, || I have been weary of bearing.

¹⁵ And in your spreading forth your hands, I hide My eyes from you, || Also when you increase prayer, I do not hear, || Your hands have been full of blood.

¹⁶ Wash yourselves, make yourselves pure, || Turn aside the evil of your doings, from before My eyes, || Cease to do evil, learn to do good.

¹⁷ Seek judgment, make the oppressed blessed, || Judge the fatherless, strive [for] the widow.

¹⁸ Now come, and we settle this,” says YHWH, “If your sins are as scarlet, they will be white as snow, || If they are red as crimson, they will be as wool!

¹⁹ If you are willing, and have listened, || The good of the land you consume,

²⁰ And if you refuse, and have rebelled, || You are consumed [by] the sword," || For the mouth of YHWH has spoken.

²¹ How has a faithful city become a harlot? I have filled it [with] judgment, || Righteousness lodges in it—now murderers.

²² Your silver has become dross, || Your drink defiled with water.

²³ Your princes [are] apostates, and companions of thieves, || Everyone loving a bribe, and pursuing rewards, || They do not judge the fatherless, || And the plea of the widow does not come to them.

²⁴ Therefore—a declaration of the Lord—YHWH of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel: "Oh, I relieve Myself from My adversaries, || And avenge Myself against My enemies,

²⁵ And I turn back My hand on you, || And I refine your dross as purity, || And I turn aside all your tin,

²⁶ And I give back your judges as at the first, || And your counselors as in the beginning, || After this you are called, A city of righteousness—a faithful city."

²⁷ Zion is redeemed in judgment, || And her captivity in righteousness.

²⁸ And the destruction of transgressors and sinners [is] together, || And those forsaking YHWH are consumed.

²⁹ For [men] are ashamed because of the oaks || That you have desired, || And you are confounded because of the gardens || That you have chosen.

³⁰ For you are as an oak whose leaf is fading, || And as a garden that has no water.

³¹ And the strong has been for tow, || And his work for a spark, || And both of them have burned together, || And there is none quenching!

¹ The thing that Isaiah son of Amoz has seen concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

² And it has come to pass, || In the latter end of the days, || The mountain of YHWH's house is established, || Above the top of the mountains, || And it has been lifted up above the heights, || And all the nations have flowed to it.

³ And many peoples have gone and said, "Come, and we go up to the mountain of YHWH, || To the house of the God of Jacob, || And He teaches us of His ways, || And we walk in His paths, || For a law goes forth from Zion, || And a word of YHWH from Jerusalem.

⁴ And He has judged between the nations, || And has given a decision to many peoples, || And they have beat their swords to plowshares, || And their spears to pruning-hooks, || Nation does not lift up sword to nation, || Nor do they learn anymore—war.

⁵ O house of Jacob, come, || And we walk in the light of YHWH."

⁶ For You have left Your people, the house of Jacob. For they have been filled from the east, || And [are] sorcerers like the Philistines, || And strike hands with the children of strangers.

⁷ And its land is full of silver and gold, || And there is no end to its treasures, || And its land is full of horses, || And there is no end to its chariots,

8 And its land is full of idols, || It bows itself to the work of its hands,
 || To that which its fingers have made,

9 And the low bows down, and the high is humbled, || And You do not accept them.

10 Enter into a rock, and be hidden in dust, || Because of the fear of YHWH, || And because of the honor of His excellence.

11 The haughty eyes of man have been humbled, || And the loftiness of men has been bowed down, || And YHWH alone has been set on high in that day.

12 For a day [is] to YHWH of Hosts, || For every proud and high one, || And for every lifted up and low one,

13 And for all cedars of Lebanon, || The high and the exalted ones, || And for all oaks of Bashan,

14 And for all the high mountains, || And for all the exalted heights,

15 And for every high tower, || And for every fortified wall,

16 And for all ships of Tarshish, || And for all desirable pictures.

17 And the haughtiness of man has been bowed down, || And the loftiness of men humbled, || And YHWH alone has been set on high in that day.

18 And the idols—they completely pass away.

19 And [men] have entered into caverns of rocks, || And into caves of dust, || Because of the fear of YHWH, || And because of the honor of His excellence, || In His rising to terrify the earth.

20 In that day man casts his idols of silver, || And his idols of gold, || That they have made for him to worship, || To moles, and to bats,

21 To enter into cavities of the rocks, || And into clefts of the high places, || Because of the fear of YHWH, || And because of the honor of His excellence, || In His rising to terrify the earth.

22 Cease yourselves from man, || Whose breath [is] in his nostrils, || For—in what is he esteemed?

1 For behold, the Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || Is turning aside from Jerusalem and from Judah || [Both] stay and staff: Every stay of bread and every stay of water;

2 Mighty and man of war, judge and prophet, || And diviner and elderly,

3 Head of fifty, and accepted of faces, || And counselor, and wise craftsmen, || And discerning charmer.

4 And I have made youths their heads, || And sucklings rule over them.

5 And the people has exacted—man on man, || Even a man on his neighbor, || The youths enlarge themselves against the aged, || And the lightly esteemed against the honored.

6 When one lays hold on his brother, || Of the house of his father, [by] the garment, “Come, you are a ruler to us, || And this ruin [is] under your hand.”

7 He lifts up, in that day, saying, “I am not a binder up, || And in my house is neither bread nor garment, || You do not make me a ruler of the people.”

8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, || For their tongue and their doings [are] against YHWH, || To provoke the eyes of His glory.

⁹ The appearance of their faces witnessed against them, || And their sin, as Sodom, they declared, || They have not hidden! Woe to their soul, || For they have done evil to themselves.

¹⁰ Say to the righteous that [it is] good, || Because they eat the fruit of their doings.

¹¹ Woe to the wicked—evil, || Because the deed of his hand is done to him.

¹² My people—its exactors [are] sucklings, || And women have ruled over it. My people—your eulogists are causing to err, || And the way of your paths swallowed up.

¹³ YHWH has stood up to plead, || And He is standing to judge the peoples.

¹⁵ Why? Why do you [do this]? You bruise My people, || And you grind the faces of the poor.” A declaration of the Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || And YHWH says:

¹⁶ “Because that daughters of Zion have been haughty, || And they walk stretching out the neck, || And deceiving [with] the eyes, || They go walking and mincing, || And they make a jingling with their feet,

¹⁷ The Lord has also scabbed || The crown of the head of daughters of Zion, || And YHWH exposes their simplicity.

¹⁸ In that day the Lord turns aside || The beauty of the jingling ornaments, || And of the embroidered works, || And of the crescents,

¹⁹ Of the pendants, and the bracelets, and the veils,

²⁰ Of the headdresses, and the ornaments of the legs, || And of the bands, || And of the perfume boxes, and the amulets,

²¹ Of the seals, and of the nose-rings,

²² Of the costly apparel, and of the mantles, || And of the coverings, and of the purses,

²³ Of the mirrors, and of the linen garments, || And of the hoods, and of the veils,

²⁴ And it has been, instead of spice is muck, || And instead of a girdle, a rope, || And instead of curled work, baldness, || And instead of a stomacher a girdle of sackcloth.

²⁵ For instead of glory, your men fall by sword, || And your might in battle.

² In that day is the Shoot of YHWH for desire and for glory, || And the fruit of the earth || For excellence and for beauty to the escaped of Israel.

³ And it has been, he who is left in Zion, || And he who is remaining in Jerusalem, “Holy” is said of him, || Of everyone who is written for life in Jerusalem.

⁶ And a covering may be, || For a shadow from drought by day, || And for a refuge, and for a hiding place, || From inundation and from rain!

¹ Now let me sing for my Beloved, || A song of my Beloved as to His vineyard: My beloved has a vineyard in a fruitful hill,

² And He fences it, and casts out its stones, || And plants it [with] a choice vine, || And builds a tower in its midst, || And has also hewn out a winepress in it, || And He waits for the yielding of grapes, || And it yields bad ones!

³ And now, O inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah, || Please judge between Me and My vineyard.

⁴ What [is there] to do still to My vineyard, || That I have not done in it? For what reason have I waited for the yielding of grapes, || And it yields [only] bad ones?

⁵ And now, pray, let Me cause you to know, || That which I am doing to My vineyard, || To turn its hedge aside, || And it has been for consumption, || To break down its wall, || And it has been for a treading-place.

⁷ Because the vineyard of YHWH of Hosts || [Is] the house of Israel, || And the man of Judah His pleasant plant, || And He waits for judgment, and behold, oppression, || For righteousness, and behold, a cry.

⁸ Woe [to] those joining house to house, || They bring field near to field, || Until there is no place, || And you have been settled by yourselves || In the midst of the land!

⁹ Do many houses not become a desolation by the weapons of YHWH of Hosts? Great and good without inhabitant!

¹⁰ For ten acres of vineyard yield one bath, || And a homer of seed yields an ephah.

¹¹ Woe [to] those rising early in the morning, || They pursue strong drink! Lingered in twilight, wine inflames them!

¹² And harp, and stringed instrument, tambourine, and pipe, || And wine, have been their banquets, || And they do not behold the work of YHWH, || Indeed, they have not seen the work of His hands.

¹³ Therefore my people removed without knowledge, || And its honorable ones are famished, || And its multitude dried up of thirst.

¹⁴ Therefore Sheol has enlarged herself, || And has opened her mouth without limit. And its honor has gone down, and its multitude, || And its noise, and its exulting one—into her.

¹⁵ And the low is bowed down, and the high humbled, || And the eyes of the haughty become low,

16 And YHWH of Hosts is high in judgment, || And the Holy God sanctified in righteousness,

17 And lambs have fed according to their leading, || And sojourners consume wastelands of the fat ones.

18 Woe [to] those drawing out iniquity with cords of vanity, || And as [with] thick ropes of the cart—sin.

19 Who are saying, “Let Him hurry, || Let Him hurry His work, that we may see, || And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel || Draw near and come, and we know.”

20 Woe [to] those saying to evil “good,” and to good “evil,” || Putting darkness for light, and light for darkness, || Putting bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.

21 Woe [to] the wise in their own eyes, || And—before their own faces—intelligent!

22 Woe [to] the mighty to drink wine, || And men of strength to mingle strong drink.

23 Declaring righteous the wicked for a bribe, || And the righteousness of the righteous || They turn aside from him.

24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire devours stubble, || And flaming hay falls, || Their root is as muck, || And their flower goes up as dust. Because they have rejected the Law of YHWH of Hosts, || And despised the saying of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore the anger of YHWH has burned among His people, || And He stretches out His hand against it, || And strikes it, and the mountains tremble, || And their carcass is as filth in the midst of the out-places. With all this His anger did not turn back, || And still His hand is stretched out!

26 And He lifted up an ensign to the far-off nations, || And hissed to it from the end of the earth, || And behold, with haste, it comes swiftly.

27 There is none weary, nor stumbling in it, || It does not slumber, nor sleep, || Nor has the girdle of its loins been opened, || Nor the strap of its sandals drawn away.

28 Whose arrows [are] sharp, and all its bows bent, || Hooves of its horses have been reckoned as flint, || And its wheels as a windstorm!

29 Its roaring [is] like a lioness, || It roars like young lions, || And it howls, and seizes prey, || And carries away safely, and there is none delivering.

30 And it howls against it in that day as the howling of a sea, || And it has looked attentively to the land, || And behold, darkness—distress, || And light has been darkened by its abundance!

1 In the year of the death of King Uzziah—I see the Lord, sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and His train is filling the temple.

2 Seraphim are standing above it: each one has six wings; with two [each] covers its face, and with two [each] covers its feet, and with two [each] flies.

3 And this one has called to that, and has said: “HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, [is] YHWH of Hosts, || The fullness of all the earth [is] His glory!”

4 And the posts of the thresholds are moved by the voice of him who is calling, and the house is full of smoke.

⁶ And one of the seraphim flees to me, and in his hand—a burning coal (with tongs he has taken [it] from off the altar),

⁷ and he strikes against my mouth and says: “Behold, this has struck against your lips, || And your iniquity is turned aside, || And your sin is covered.”

⁸ And I hear the voice of the Lord, saying, “Whom do I send? And who goes for Us?” And I say, “Here I [am], send me.”

⁹ And He says, “Go, and you have said to this people, Hearing you hear, and you do not understand, || And seeing you see, and you do not know.

¹⁰ Declare the heart of this people fat, || And declare its ears heavy, || And declare its eyes dazzled, || Lest it see with its eyes, || And hear with its ears, and consider with its heart, || And it has turned back, and has health.”

¹¹ And I say, “Until when, O Lord?” And He says, “Surely until cities have been ruined without inhabitant, || And houses without man, || And the ground is ruined—a desolation,

¹³ And yet a tenth in it, and it has turned, || And has been for a burning, || As a teil-tree, and as an oak, that in falling, || Has substance in them, || The holy seed [is] its substance!”

² And it is declared to the house of David, saying, “Aram has been led toward Ephraim,” and his heart and the heart of his people is moved, like the moving of trees of a forest by the presence of wind.

³ And YHWH says to Isaiah, “Now go forth to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-Jashub, to the end of the conduit of the upper pool, to the highway of the fuller’s field,

⁴ and you have said to him: Take heed, and be quiet, do not fear, || And do not let your heart be timid, || Because of these two tails of smoking brands, || For the fierceness of the anger of Rezin and Aram, || And the son of Remaliah.

⁵ Because that Aram counseled evil against you, Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, saying,

⁶ We go up into Judah, and we distress it, || And we divide it to ourselves, || And we cause a king to reign in its midst—The son of Tabeal.

⁷ Thus said Lord YHWH: It does not stand, nor will it be!

⁸ For the head of Aram [is] Damascus, || And the head of Damascus [is] Rezin, || And within sixty-five years || Is Ephraim broken from [being] a people.

⁹ And the head of Ephraim [is] Samaria, || And the head of Samaria [is] the son of Remaliah. If you do not give credence, || Surely you are not steadfast.”

¹⁰ And YHWH adds to speak to Ahaz, saying,

¹¹ “Ask for a sign from your God YHWH, || Make the request deep, or make [it] high upwards.”

¹² And Ahaz says, “I do not ask nor try YHWH.”

¹³ And he says, “Now hear, O house of David, || Is it a little thing for you to weary men, || That you also weary my God?”

¹⁴ Therefore the Lord Himself gives a sign to you, || Behold, the virgin is conceiving, || And is bringing forth a Son, || And has called His Name Immanuel,

¹⁵ He eats butter and honey, || When He knows to refuse evil, and to fix on good.

¹⁶ For before the youth knows || To refuse evil, and to fix on good, || The land you are distressed with is forsaken, because of her two kings.

¹⁷ YHWH brings on you, and on your people, || And on the house of your father, || Days that have not come, || Even from the day of the turning aside of Ephraim from Judah, || By the king of Asshur.”

¹⁸ And it has come to pass in that day, || YHWH hisses for a fly that [is] in the extremity of the brooks of Egypt, || And for a bee that [is] in the land of Asshur.

¹⁹ And they have come, and all of them rested in the desolate valleys, || And in holes of the rocks, and on all the thorns, || And on all the commendable things.

²⁰ In that day the Lord shaves, || By a razor that is hired beyond the river, || By the king of Asshur, || The head, and the hair of the feet, || Indeed, it also consumes the beard.

²¹ And it has come to pass in that day, || A man keeps alive a heifer of the herd, || And two of the flock,

²² And it has come to pass, || He eats butter from the abundance of the yielding of milk, || For everyone who is left in the heart of the land eats butter and honey.

²³ And it has come to pass in that day, || Every place where there are one thousand vines, || At one thousand pieces of silver, || Is for briers and for thorns.

²⁴ He comes there with arrows and with bow, || Because all the land is brier and thorn.

²⁵ And all the hills that are kept in order with a mattock, || There does not come [for] fear of brier and thorn, || And it has been for the sending forth of ox, || And for the treading of sheep!

¹ And YHWH says to me, “Take a great tablet to yourself, and write on it with an engraving tool of man, || To hurry spoil, enjoy prey.”

² And I cause faithful witnesses to testify to me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.

³ And I draw near to the prophetess, and she conceives, and bears a son; and YHWH says to me, “Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz, ⁴ for before the youth knows to cry, My father, and, My mother, one takes away the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria, before the king of Asshur."

⁵ And YHWH adds to speak to me again, saying,

⁶ "Because that this people has refused || The waters of Shiloah that go softly, || And is rejoicing with Rezin and the son of Remaliah,

⁷ Therefore, behold, the Lord is bringing up on them, || The waters of the river, the mighty and the great || (The king of Asshur, and all his glory), || And it has gone up over all its streams, || And has gone on over all its banks.

⁸ And it has passed on into Judah, || It has overflowed and passed over, || It comes to the neck, || And the stretching out of its wings || Has been the fullness of the breadth of your land, O Immanuel!

⁹ Be friends, O nations, and be broken, || And give ear, all you far-off ones of earth, || Gird yourselves, and be broken, || Gird yourselves, and be broken.

¹⁰ Take counsel, and it is broken, || Speak a word, and it does not stand, || Because of Immanuel!"

¹¹ For thus has YHWH spoken to me with strength of hand, and instructs me against walking in the way of this people, saying,

¹² "You do not say, A confederacy, || To all to whom this people says, A confederacy, || And its fear you do not fear, || Nor declare fearful.

¹³ YHWH of Hosts—Him you sanctify, || And He [is] your Fear, and He your Dread,

¹⁵ And many among them have stumbled and fallen, || And been broken, and snared, and captured."

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony, || Seal the Law among My disciples.

¹⁷ And I have waited for YHWH, || Who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob, || And I have looked for Him.

¹⁸ Behold, I, and the children whom YHWH has given to me, || [Are] for signs and for wonders in Israel, || From YHWH of Hosts, who is dwelling in Mount Zion.

¹⁹ And when they say to you, "Seek to those having familiar spirits, || And to wizards, who chatter and mutter," || Does a people not seek to its God? To the dead on behalf of the living?

²⁰ To the Law and to the testimony! If not, let them say after this manner, "That there is no dawn to it."

²¹ And it has passed over into it, hardened and hungry, || And it has come to pass, || That it is hungry, and has been angry, || And made light of its king, and of its God, || And has looked upwards.

2 The people who are walking in darkness || Have seen a great light, || Dwellers in a land of death-shade, || Light has shone on them.

3 You have multiplied the nation, || You have made its joy great, || They have rejoiced before You as the joy in harvest, || As [men] rejoice in their apportioning spoil.

4 Because the yoke of its burden, || And the staff of its shoulder, the rod of its exactor, || You have broken as [in] the day of Midian.

5 For every battle of a warrior [is] with rushing, and raiment rolled in blood, || And it has been for burning—fuel of fire.

6 For a Child has been born to us, || A Son has been given to us, || And the dominion is on His shoulder, || And He calls His Name || Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, || Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of [His] dominion, || And of peace, there is no end, || On the throne of David, and on His kingdom, || To establish it, and to support it, || In judgment and in righteousness, || From now on, even for all time, || The zeal of YHWH of Hosts does this.

8 The Lord has sent a word into Jacob, || And it has fallen in Israel.

9 And the people have known—all of it, Ephraim, and the inhabitant of Samaria, || In pride and in greatness of heart, saying,

10 “Bricks have fallen, and we build hewn work, || Sycamores have been cut down, and we renew cedars.”

11 And YHWH sets the adversaries of Rezin on high above him, || And he joins his enemies together,

12 Aram from before, and Philistia from behind, || And they devour Israel with the whole mouth. With all this His anger has not turned back, || And His hand is still stretched out.

13 And the people has not turned back to Him who is striking it, || And they have not sought YHWH of Hosts.

14 And YHWH cuts off head and tail from Israel, || Branch and reed—the same day.

15 Elderly and accepted of faces—he [is] the head, || And prophet teaching falsehood—he [is] the tail.

16 And the eulogists of this people are causing to err, || And its eulogized ones are consumed.

17 Therefore, the Lord does not rejoice over its young men, || And He does not pity its orphans and its widows, || For everyone [is] profane, and an evildoer, || And every mouth is speaking folly. With all this His anger has not turned back, || And His hand is still stretched out.

18 For wickedness has burned as a fire, || It devours brier and thorn, || And it kindles in thickets of the forest, || And they lift themselves up, an exaltation of smoke!

19 In the wrath of YHWH of Hosts || The land has been consumed, || And the people is as fuel of fire; A man has no pity on his brother,

20 And cuts down on the right, and has been hungry, || And he devours on the left, || And they have not been satisfied, || They each devour the flesh of his own arm.

21 Manasseh—Ephraim, and Ephraim—Manasseh, || Together they [are] against Judah, || With all this His anger has not turned back. And His hand is still stretched out!

¹ “Woe [to] those decreeing decrees of iniquity, || And writers who have prescribed perverseness,

² Of My people, || That widows may be their prey, || That they may spoil the fatherless.

³ And what do you do at a day of inspection? And at desolation that comes from afar? Near whom do you flee for help? And where do you leave your glory?

⁵ “Woe [to] Asshur, a rod of My anger, || And My indignation [is] a staff in their hand.

⁶ I send him against a profane nation, || And concerning a people of My wrath || I charge him, || To spoil spoil, and to seize prey, || And to make it a treading-place as the clay of out places.

⁷ And he does not think [it] so, || And his heart does not reckon [it] so, || For—to destroy [is] in his heart, || And to cut off nations—not a few.

⁸ For he says, Are my princes not altogether kings?

⁹ Is not Calno as Carchemish? Is not Hamath as Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus?

¹⁰ As my hand has gotten to the kingdoms of a worthless thing, and their carved images, || [Greater] than Jerusalem and than Samaria,

¹¹ Do I not—as I have done to Samaria, || And to her worthless things, || So do to Jerusalem and to her grievous things?”

¹² And it has come to pass, || When the Lord fulfills all His work || In Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, || I see concerning the fruit of the greatness || Of the heart of the king of Asshur, || And concerning the glory of the height of his eyes.

¹³ For he has said, “I have worked by the power of my hand, || And by my wisdom, for I have been intelligent, || And I remove borders of the peoples, || And I have spoiled their chief ones, || And I put down the inhabitants as a mighty one,

¹⁶ Therefore the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, || Sends leanness among his fat ones, || And under his glory || He kindles a burning || As the burning of a fire.

¹⁷ And the light of Israel has been for a fire, || And his Holy One for a flame, || And it has burned, and devoured his thorn || And his brier in one day.

¹⁹ And the rest of the trees of his forest [are] few, || And a youth writes them.

²⁰ And it has come to pass in that day, || The remnant of Israel, || And the escaped of the house of Jacob, || Do not add anymore to lean on its striker, || And have leaned on YHWH, || The Holy One of Israel, in truth.

²¹ A remnant returns—a remnant of Jacob, || To the Mighty God.

²² For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, || A remnant of it returns, || A consumption determined, || Overflowing [with] righteousness.

²³ For a consumption that is determined, || The Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || Is making in the midst of all the land.

²⁵ For yet a very little [while], || And the indignation has been completed, || And My anger by their wearing out.”

²⁶ And YHWH of Hosts is awaking for him, || A scourge like the striking of Midian at the rock Oreb, || And his rod [is] over the sea, || And he has lifted it in the way of Egypt.

²⁷ And it has come to pass in that day, || His burden is turned from off your shoulder, || And his yoke from off your neck, || And the yoke has been destroyed, because of prosperity.

²⁸ He has come in against Aiath, || He has passed over into Migron, || At Michmash he looks after his vessels.

²⁹ They have gone over the passage, || They have made Geba a lodging place, || Rama has trembled, || Gibeah of Saul fled.

³⁰ Cry aloud [with] your voice, daughter of Gallim, || Give attention, Laish! Answer her, Anathoth.

³¹ Madmenah has fled away, || The inhabitants of the high places have hardened themselves.

³² Yet today to remain in Nob, || The mountain of the daughter of Zion waves its hand, || The hill of Jerusalem.

³³ Behold, the Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || Is lopping a branch with violence, || And the high of stature are cut down, || And the lofty have become low,

³⁴ And He has gone around the thickets of the forest with iron, || And Lebanon falls by a mighty one!

¹ And a Rod has come out from the stock of Jesse, || And a Branch is fruitful from his roots.

² The Spirit of YHWH has rested on Him, || The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, || The Spirit of counsel and might, || The Spirit of knowledge and fear of YHWH.

³ To refresh Him in the fear of YHWH, || And He does not judge by the sight of His eyes, || Nor decides by the hearing of His ears.

⁵ And righteousness has been the girdle of His loins, || And faithfulness—the girdle of His reins.

⁶ “And a wolf has sojourned with a lamb, || And a leopard lies down with a kid, || And calf, and young lion, and fatling [are] together, || And a little youth is leader over them.

⁷ And cow and bear feed, || Together their young ones lie down, || And a lion eats straw as an ox.

⁸ And a suckling has played by the hole of a cobra, || And on the den of a viper || The weaned one has put his hand.

⁹ They do no evil, nor destroy in all My holy mountain, || For the earth has been full with the knowledge of YHWH, || As the waters are covering the sea.”

¹² And He has lifted up an ensign to nations, || And gathers the driven away of Israel, || And He assembles the scattered of Judah, || From the four wings of the earth.

¹⁴ And they have flown on the shoulder of the Philistines westward, || Together they spoil the sons of the east, || Edom and Moab sending forth their hand, || And sons of Ammon obeying them.

¹⁵ And YHWH has devoted to destruction || The tongue of the Sea of Egypt, || And has waved His hand over the river, || In the terror of His wind, || And has struck it at the seven streams, || And has caused [men] to tread [it] with shoes.

¹ And you have said in that day: “I thank you, O YHWH, || Though You have been angry with me, || Your anger turns back, || And You comfort me.

² Behold, God [is] my salvation, I trust, and do not fear, || For my strength and song [is] YAH—YHWH, || And He is to me for salvation.

³ And you have drawn waters with joy || Out of the fountains of salvation,

⁴ And you have said in that day, || Give praise to YHWH, call on His Name. Make His acts known among the peoples. Make mention that His Name is set on high.

⁵ Praise YHWH, for He has done excellence, || This is known in all the earth.

1 The burden of Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz has seen:

2 "Lift up an ensign on a high mountain, || Raise the voice to them, wave the hand, || And they go into the openings of nobles.

3 I have given charge to My sanctified ones, || Also I have called My mighty ones for My anger, || Those rejoicing at My excellence."

4 A voice of a multitude in the mountains, || A likeness of a numerous people, || A voice of noise from the kingdoms of nations who are gathered, || YHWH of Hosts inspecting a host of battle!

5 They are coming in from a far-off land, || From the end of the heavens, || YHWH and the instruments of His indignation, || To destroy all the land.

6 Howl, for the Day of YHWH [is] near, || It comes as destruction from the Mighty.

7 Therefore, all hands fail, || And every heart of man melts.

8 And they have been troubled, || Pains and pangs take them, || They are pained as a travailing woman, || A man marvels at his friend, || The appearance of flames—their faces!

9 Behold, the Day of YHWH comes, || Fierce, with wrath, and heat of anger, || To make the land become a desolation, || Indeed, He destroys its sinning ones from it.

10 For the stars of the heavens, and their constellations, || Do not cause their light to shine, || The sun has been darkened in its going out, || And the moon does not cause its light to come forth.

11 "And I have appointed evil on the world, || And on the wicked their iniquity, || And have caused the excellence of the proud to cease, || And I make the excellence of the terrible low.

12 I make man more rare than fine gold, || And a common man than pure gold of Ophir.

13 Therefore I cause the heavens to tremble, || And the earth shakes from its place, || In the wrath of YHWH of Hosts, || And in a day of the heat of His anger.

14 And it has been, as a roe driven away, || And as a flock that has no gatherer, || Each to his people—they turn, || And each to his land—they flee.

15 Everyone who is found is thrust through, || And everyone who is added falls by sword.

16 And their sucklings are dashed to pieces before their eyes, || Their houses are spoiled, and their wives lain with.

17 Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them, || Who do not esteem silver, || And gold—they do not delight in it.

18 And bows dash young men to pieces, || And they do not pity the fruit of the womb, || Their eye has no pity on sons.

19 And Babylon, the beauty of kingdoms, || The glory, the excellence of the Chaldeans, || Has been as overthrown by God, || With Sodom and with Gomorrah.

20 She does not sit forever, || Nor continue to many generations, || Nor does Arab pitch tent there, || And shepherds do not lie down there.

²¹ And desert-dwellers have lain down there, || And their houses have been full of howlers, || And daughters of an ostrich have dwelt there, || And goats skip there.

¹ For YHWH loves Jacob, || And has fixed again on Israel, || And given them rest on their own land, || And the sojourner has been joined to them, || And they have been admitted to the house of Jacob.

² And peoples have taken them, || And have brought them to their place, || And the house of Israel has inherited them, || On the land of YHWH, || For menservants and for maidservants, || And they have been captors of their captors, || And have ruled over their exactors.

³ And it has come to pass, || In the day of YHWH’s giving rest to you, || From your grief, and from your trouble, || And from the sharp bondage, || That has been served on you,

⁴ That you have taken up this allegory || Concerning the king of Babylon, and said, “How the exactor has ceased,

⁵ The golden one has ceased. YHWH has broken the staff of the wicked, || The scepter of rulers.

⁶ He who is striking peoples in wrath, || A striking without intermission, || He who is ruling nations in anger, || Pursuing without restraint!

⁷ At rest—all the earth has been quiet, || They have broken forth [into] singing.

⁸ Even firs have rejoiced over you, || Cedars of Lebanon, [saying], Since you have lain down, || The hewer does not come up against us.

¹⁰ All of them answer and say to you, Even you have become weak like us! You have become like to us!

¹¹ Your excellence has been brought down to Sheol, || The noise of your stringed instruments, || The worm has been spread out under you, || Indeed, the worm is covering you.

¹² How you have fallen from the heavens, || O shining one, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to earth, || O weakener of nations.

¹⁴ I go up above the heights of a thick cloud, I am like to the Most High.

¹⁵ Only—you are brought down to Sheol, || To the sides of the pit.

¹⁶ Your beholders look to you, they attend to you, || Is this the man causing the earth to tremble, || Shaking kingdoms?

¹⁷ He has made the world as a wilderness, || And he has broken down his cities, || He did not open the house of his bound ones.

¹⁸ All kings of nations—all of them, || Have lain down in glory, each in his house,

19 And you have been cast out of your grave, || As an abominable branch, raiment of the slain, || Thrust through ones of the sword, || Going down to the sons of the pit, || As a carcass trodden down.

20 You are not united with them in burial, || For you have destroyed your land, || You have slain your people, || The seed of evildoers is not named for all time.

21 Prepare slaughter for his sons; Because of the iniquity of their fathers, || They do not rise, nor have possessed the land, || Nor filled the face of the world [with] cities.

22 And I have risen up against them," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || "And have cut off, in reference to Babylon, || Name and remnant, and continuator and successor;" || A declaration of YHWH.

23 "And have made it for a possession of a hedgehog, || And ponds of waters, || And swept it with the broom of destruction," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts!

24 YHWH of Hosts has sworn, saying, "As I thought—so has it not been? And as I counseled—it stands;

25 To break Asshur in My land, || And I tread him down on My mountain, || And his yoke has turned from off them, || Indeed, his burden turns aside from off their shoulder.

26 This [is] the counsel that is counseled for all the earth, || And this [is] the hand that is stretched out for all the nations.

27 For YHWH of Hosts has purposed, || And who makes void? And His hand that is stretched out, || Who turns it back?"

28 In the year of the death of King Ahaz was this burden:

29 "Do not rejoice, Philistia, all of you, || That the rod of your striker has been broken, || For from the root of a serpent comes out a viper, || And its fruit [is] a flying, burning serpent.

30 And the firstborn of the poor have delighted, || And the needy lie down in confidence, || And I have put to death your root with famine, || And it slays your remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city, || You are melted, Philistia, all of you, || For smoke has come from the north, || And there is none alone in his set places."

32 And what does one answer the messengers of a nation? That YHWH has founded Zion, || And the poor of His people take refuge in it!

15

1 The burden of Moab. Because in a night Ar of Moab was destroyed—It has been cut off, || Because in a night Kir of Moab was destroyed—It has been cut off.

2 He has gone up to Bajith and Dibon, || The high places—to weep, || Moab howls on Nebo and on Medeba, || Baldness [is] on all its heads, every beard cut off.

3 In its out-places they girded on sackcloth, || On its pinnacles, and in its broad places, || Everyone howls—going down with weeping.

4 And Heshbon and Elealeh cry, || Their voice has been heard to Jahaz, || Therefore the armed ones of Moab shout, || His life has been grievous to him.

⁵ My heart [is] toward Moab, || Her fugitives cry to Zoar, a heifer of the third [year], || For—the ascent of Luhith—He goes up in it with weeping, || For in the way of Horonaim, || They wake up a cry of destruction.

⁶ For the waters of Nimrim are desolations, || For the hay has been withered, || The tender grass has been finished, || There has not been a green thing.

⁷ Therefore the abundance he made, and their store, || They carry to the Brook of the Willows.

⁸ For the cry has gone around the border of Moab, || Its howling [is] to Eglaim, || And its howling [is] to Beer-Elim.

¹ Send a lamb [to] the ruler of the land, || From Selah in the wilderness, || To the mountain of the daughter of Zion.

² And it has come to pass, || As a wandering bird, cast out of a nest, || Are daughters of Moab, [at] fords of Arnon.

³ Bring in counsel, do judgment, || Make your shadow as night in the midst of noon, || Hide outcasts, do not reveal the wanderer.

⁵ And the throne is established in kindness, || And [One] has sat on it in truth, in the tent of David, || Judging and seeking judgment, and hastening righteousness.

⁶ We have heard of the pride of Moab—very proud, || His pride, and his arrogance, and his wrath—his boastings [are] not right.

⁷ Therefore Moab howls for Moab, all of it howls, || It meditates for the grape-cakes of Kir-Hareseth, || They are surely struck.

⁹ Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer, || The vine of Sibmah, || I water you [with] my tear, || O Heshbon and Elealeh, || For—for your summer fruits, and for your harvest, || The shouting has fallen.

¹¹ Therefore my bowels sound as a harp for Moab, || And my inward parts for Kir-Haresh.

¹² And it has come to pass, when it has been seen, || That Moab has been weary on the high place, || And he has come to his sanctuary to pray, || And is not able.

¹⁴ And now YHWH has spoken, saying, “In three years, as years of a hired worker, || The glory of Moab is lightly esteemed, || With all the great multitude, || And the remnant [is] little, small, not mighty!”

17

¹ The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from [being] a city, || And it has been a heap—a ruin.

² The cities of Arero are forsaken, || They are for droves, and they have lain down, || And there is none troubling.

³ And the fortress has ceased from Ephraim, || And the kingdom from Damascus, || And the remnant of Aram are as the glory of the sons of Israel, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts!

⁴ And it has come to pass in that day, || The glory of Jacob waxes poor, || And the fatness of his flesh waxes lean.

⁵ And it has come to pass, || As the gathering of the standing grain by the reaper, || And his arm reaps the ears, || And it has come to pass, || As the gathering of the ears in the Valley of Rephaim,

⁷ In that day man looks to His Maker, || Indeed, his eyes look to the Holy One of Israel,

⁸ And he does not look to the altars. The work of his own hands, || And that which his own fingers made, He does not see—the Asherim and the images.

⁹ In that day the cities of his strength are || As the forsaken thing of the forest, || And the branch that they have left, || Because of the sons of Israel, || It has also been a desolation.

¹⁰ Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, || And have not remembered the Rock of your strength, || Therefore you plant plants of pleasantness, || And sow it with a strange shoot,

¹² Woe [to] the multitude of many peoples, || They sound as the sounding of seas; And the roaring of nations, || As the roaring of mighty waters [that] make a crashing.

¹⁴ At evening, behold, terror, before morning it is not, || This [is] the portion of our spoilers, || And the lot of our plunderers!

² That is sending ambassadors by sea, || Even with implements of reed on the face of the waters—Go, swift messengers, || To a nation drawn out and peeled, || To a people fearful from its beginning and onward, || A nation meeting out by line, and treading down, || Whose land floods have spoiled.

⁴ For thus said YHWH to me: “I rest, and I look on My settled place, || As a clear heat on an herb. As a thick cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

⁵ For before harvest, when the flower is perfect, || And the blossom is producing unripe fruit, || Then [One] has cut the sprigs with pruning hooks, || And the branches He has turned aside, cut down.

19

¹ The burden of Egypt. Behold, YHWH is riding on a swift thick cloud, || And He has entered Egypt, || And the idols of Egypt have been moved at His presence, || And the heart of Egypt melts in its midst.

² And I armed Egyptians against Egyptians, || And they fought, each against his brother, || And each against his neighbor, || City against city, kingdom against kingdom.

³ And the spirit of Egypt has been emptied out in its midst. And I swallow up its counsel, || And they have sought to the idols, || And to the charmers, || And to those having familiar spirits, || And to the wizards.

⁴ And I have delivered the Egyptians || Into the hand of a hard lord, || And a strong king rules over them, || A declaration of the Lord, YHWH of Hosts.

⁵ And waters have failed from the sea, || And a river is desolated and dried up.

⁶ And they have turned away the flowings, || Brooks of the bulwark have been weak and dried up, || Reed and flag have withered.

⁷ Exposed things by the brook, by the edge of the brook, || And every sown thing of the brook, has withered, || It has been driven away, and is not.

⁸ And the fishers have lamented, || And all casting a hook into the brook have mourned, || And those spreading dragnets on the face of the waters have languished.

⁹ And makers of fine flax have been ashamed, || And weavers of networks.

¹⁰ And its foundations have been struck, || All making wages [are] afflicted in soul.

¹² Where [are] they now, your wise ones? Indeed, let them now tell [it] to you, || And they know what YHWH of Hosts has counseled against Egypt!

¹³ Princes of Zoan have been foolish, || Princes of Noph have been lifted up, || And they have caused Egypt to err, || The chief of her tribes.

¹⁴ YHWH has mingled in her midst || A spirit of perverseness, || And they have caused Egypt to err in all its work, || As a drunkard errs in his vomit.

¹⁵ And there is no work to Egypt, || That head or tail, branch or reed, may do.

¹⁶ In that day Egypt is like women, || And it has mourned, and been afraid, || Because of the waving of the hand of YHWH of Hosts, || That He is waving over it.

¹⁷ And the land of Judah has been to Egypt for a cause of staggering, || Everyone who mentions it, fears for himself, || Because of the counsel of YHWH of Hosts, || That He is counseling against it.

¹⁸ In that day there are five cities in the land of Egypt, || Speaking the lip of Canaan, || And swearing to YHWH of Hosts, || “The city of destruction,” is said of one.

¹⁹ In that day there is an altar to YHWH || In the midst of the land of Egypt, || And a standing pillar to YHWH near its border,

²⁰ And it has been for a sign and for a testimony, || To YHWH of Hosts in the land of Egypt, || For they cry to YHWH from the face of oppressors, || And He sends a Savior to them, || Even a great one, and has delivered them.

²¹ And YHWH has been known to Egypt, || And the Egyptians have known YHWH in that day, || And done sacrifice and present, || And vowed a vow to YHWH, and completed [it].

²² And YHWH has struck Egypt, striking and healing, || And they have turned back to YHWH, || And He has accepted their plea, || And has healed them.

²³ In that day a highway is out of Egypt to Asshur, || And the Assyrians have come into Egypt, || And the Egyptians into Asshur, || And the Egyptians have served with the Assyrians.

²⁴ In that day Israel is third, || With Egypt, and with Asshur, || A blessing in the heart of the earth.

²⁵ In that YHWH of Hosts blessed it, saying, “Blessed [is] My people—Egypt, || And the work of My hands—Asshur, || And My inheritance—Israel!”

¹ In the year of the coming in of Tartan to Ashdod, when Sargon king of Asshur sends him, and he fights against Ashdod and captures it,

² at that time YHWH spoke by the hand of Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, “Go, and you have loosed the sackcloth from off your loins, and you draw your sandal from off your foot,” and he does so, going naked and barefoot.

³ And YHWH says, “As My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot three years, a sign and a wonder for Egypt and for Cush,

⁴ so the king of Asshur leads the captivity of Egypt, and the expulsion of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, with seat uncovered—the nakedness of Egypt;

⁵ and they have been frightened and ashamed of Cush their confidence, and of Egypt their beauty,

⁶ and the inhabitant of this island has said in that day—Behold, thus [is] our trust, || To where we have fled for help, || To be delivered from the king of Asshur, || And how do we escape—we?”

¹ The burden of the wilderness of the sea. Like windstorms in the south for passing through, || It has come from the wilderness, || From a fearful land.

² A hard vision has been declared to me, || The treacherous dealer is dealing treacherously, || And the destroyer is destroying. Go up, O Elam, besiege, O Media, || I have caused all its sighing to cease.

³ Therefore my loins have been filled [with] great pain, || Pangs have seized me as pangs of a travailing woman, || I have been bent down by hearing, || I have been troubled by seeing.

⁴ My heart has wandered, trembling has terrified me, || He has made the twilight of my desire a fear to me,

⁵ Arrange the table, watch in the watchtower, || Eat, drink, rise, you heads, anoint the shield,

⁶ For thus said the Lord to me: "Go, station the watchman, || Let him declare that which he sees."

⁷ And he has seen a chariot—a couple of horsemen, || The rider of a donkey, the rider of a camel, || And he has given attention—He has increased attention!

⁸ And he cries, "A lion, my lord! I am continually standing on a watchtower by day, || And I am stationed on my ward whole nights.

⁹ And behold, this, the chariot of a man is coming, || A couple of horsemen." And he answers and says: "Fallen, fallen has Babylon, || And He has broken all the carved images of her gods to the earth.

¹⁰ O my threshing, and the son of my floor, || That which I heard from YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, || I have declared to you!"

¹¹ The burden of Dumah. [One] is calling to me from Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"

¹² The watchman has said, "Morning has come, and also night, || If you inquire, inquire, return, come."

¹³ The burden on Arabia. You lodge in a forest in Arabia, || O caravans of Dedanim.

¹⁴ Inhabitants of the land of Tema || Have brought water to meet the thirsty, || With his bread they came before a fugitive.

¹⁵ For they fled from the face of destructions, || From the face of an outstretched sword, || And from the face of a trodden bow, || And from the face of the grievousness of battle.

¹⁶ For thus said the Lord to me: "Within a year, as years of a hired worker, || All the glory of Kedar has been consumed.

¹⁷ And the remnant of the number of bow-men, || The mighty of the sons of Kedar, are few, || For YHWH, God of Israel, has spoken!"

22

¹ The burden of the Valley of Vision. What is [troubling] you now, that you have gone up, || All of you—to the roofs?

² Full of stirs—a noisy city—an exulting city, || Your pierced are not pierced of the sword, || Nor dead in battle.

³ All your rulers fled from the bow together, || All found of you have been bound, || They have been kept bound together, || They have fled far off.

4 Therefore I said, “Look [away] from me, || I am bitter in my weeping, do not hurry to comfort me, || For the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

5 For a day of noise, and of treading down, || And of perplexity, [is] to the Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || In the Valley of Vision, digging down a wall, || And crying to the mountain.

6 And Elam has carried a quiver, || In a chariot of men—horsemen, || And Kir has exposed a shield.

7 And it comes to pass, || The choice of your valleys have been full of chariots, || And the horsemen diligently place themselves at the gate.

8 And one removes the covering of Judah, || And in that day you look || To the armor of the house of the forest,

9 And you have seen the breaches of the City of David, || For they have become many, || And you gather the waters of the lower pool,

10 And you numbered the houses of Jerusalem, || And you break down the houses to fortify the wall.

11 And you made a ditch between the two walls, || For the waters of the old pool, || And you have not looked to its Maker, || And you have not seen its Framer of old.

12 And the Lord calls, YHWH of Hosts, || In that day, to weeping and to lamentation, || And to baldness and to girding on of sackcloth,

13 And behold, joy and gladness, slaying of oxen, || And slaughtering of sheep, || Eating of flesh, and drinking of wine, || Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.

14 And it has been revealed in my ears, || [By] YHWH of Hosts: This iniquity is not pardoned to you, || Until you die, said the Lord, YHWH of Hosts.

15 Thus said the Lord, YHWH of Hosts: “Go forth, go to this steward, || To Shebna, who [is] over the house:

16 What are you [doing] here? And who has [allowed] you here? That you have hewn out a tomb for yourself here? Hewing his tomb on high, || Carving a dwelling for himself in a rock.

17 Behold, YHWH is casting you up and down, || A casting up and down, O mighty one,

18 And your coverer covering, wrapping around, || Wraps you around, O babblers, || On a land of broad sides—there you die, || And there the chariots of your glory [are] the shame of the house of your lord.

19 And I have thrust you from your station, || And he throws you down from your office.

20 And it has come to pass in that day, || That I have called to My servant, || To Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

21 And I have clothed him with your coat, || And I strengthen him with your girdle, || And I give your garment into his hand, || And he has been for a father to the inhabitant of Jerusalem, || And to the house of Judah.

22 And I have placed the key || Of the house of David on his shoulder, || And he has opened, and none is shutting, || And has shut, and none is opening.

23 And I have fixed him [as] a nail in a steadfast place, || And he has been for a throne of glory || To the house of his father.

²⁴ And they have hanged on him || All the glory of the house of his father, || The offspring and the issue, || All vessels of small quality, || From vessels of basins to all vessels of flagons.

²⁵ In that day—a declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || The nail that is fixed is moved || In a steadfast place, || Indeed, it has been cut down, and has fallen, || And the burden that [is] on it has been cut off, || For YHWH has spoken!

¹ The Burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish, || For it has been destroyed, || Without house, without entrance, || From the land of Chittim it was revealed to them.

² Be silent, you inhabitants of the island, || Trader of Sidon, passing the sea, they filled you.

³ And the seed of Sihor [is] in many waters, || Her increase [is] the harvest of the brook, || And she is a market of nations.

⁵ As they are pained [at] the report of Egypt, || So [at] the report of Tyre.

⁶ Pass over to Tarshish, howl, you inhabitants of the island,

⁷ Is this your exulting one? Her antiquity [is] from the days of old, || Her own feet carry her far off to sojourn.

⁸ Who has counseled this against Tyre, || The crowning one, whose traders [are] princes, || Her merchants—the honored of earth?

⁹ YHWH of Hosts has counseled it, || To defile the excellence of all beauty, || To make light all the honored of earth.

¹⁰ Pass through your land as a brook, || Daughter of Tarshish, || There is no longer a girdle.

¹¹ He has stretched out His hand over the sea, || He has caused kingdoms to tremble, || YHWH has charged concerning the merchant one, || To destroy her strong places.

¹² And He says, “You do not add to exult anymore, || O oppressed one, virgin daughter of Sidon, || To Chittim arise, pass over, || Even there—there is no rest for you.”

¹⁴ Howl, you ships of Tarshish, || For your strength has been destroyed.

¹⁵ And it has come to pass in that day, || That Tyre is forgotten seventy years, || According to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years there is to Tyre as the song of the harlot.

¹⁶ Take a harp, go around the city, O forgotten harlot, play well, || Multiply song that you may be remembered.

¹ Behold, YHWH is emptying the earth, || And is making it desolate, || And has overturned [it on] its face, || And has scattered its inhabitants.

² And it has been—as a people so a priest, || As the servant so his master, || As the maidservant so her mistress, || As the buyer so the seller, || As the lender so the borrower, || As the usurer so he who is lifting [it] on himself.

³ The earth is utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled, || For YHWH has spoken this word:

⁴ The earth has mourned, faded, || The world has languished, faded, || They have languished—the high place of the people of the earth.

⁵ And the earth has been defiled under its inhabitants, || Because they have transgressed laws, || They have changed a statute, || They have made void a perpetual covenant.

⁶ Therefore a curse has consumed the earth, || And the inhabitants in it become desolate, || Therefore inhabitants of the earth have been consumed, || And few men have been left.

⁷ The new wine has mourned, the vine languished, || All the joyful of heart have sighed.

⁸ The joy of tambourines has ceased, || The noise of exulting ones has ceased, || The joy of a harp has ceased.

⁹ They do not drink wine with a song, || Strong drink is bitter to those drinking it.

¹⁰ It was broken down—a city of emptiness, || Every house has been shut from [its] entrance.

¹¹ In out-places [is] a cry over the wine, || All joy has been darkened, || The joy of the land has been removed.

¹² Desolation [is] left in the city, || And the gate is struck [with] ruin.

¹³ When thus it is in the heart of the land, || In the midst of the peoples, || As the surrounding of the olive, || As gleanings when harvest has been finished,

¹⁴ They lift up their voice, || They sing of the excellence of YHWH, || They have cried aloud from the sea.

¹⁵ Therefore honor YHWH in prosperity, || In islands of the sea, the Name of YHWH, God of Israel.

¹⁶ From the skirt of the earth we heard songs, || The desire of the righteous. And I say, “Leanness [is] to me, || Leanness [is] to me, woe [is] to me.” Treacherous dealers dealt treacherously, || Indeed, treachery, treacherous dealers dealt treacherously.

¹⁷ Fear, and a snare, and a trap, || [Are] on you, O inhabitant of the earth.

¹⁸ And it has come to pass, || He who is fleeing from the noise of the fear falls into the snare, || And he who is coming up from the midst of the snare, || Is captured by the trap, || For windows have been opened on high, || And foundations of the earth are shaken.

¹⁹ The earth has been utterly broken down, || The earth has been utterly broken, || The earth has been utterly moved.

²⁰ The earth staggers greatly as a drunkard, || And it has been moved as a lodge, || And its transgression has been heavy on it, || And it has fallen, and does not add to rise.

²¹ And it has come to pass in that day, || YHWH lays a charge on the host of the high place in the high place, || And on the kings of the earth on the earth.

²³ And the moon has been confounded, || And the sun has been ashamed, || For YHWH of Hosts has reigned || In Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, || And before His elderly—glory!

¹ O YHWH, You [are] my God, I exalt You, I confess Your Name, || For You have done a wonderful thing, || Counsels of old, steadfastness, O steadfast One.

² For You made of a city a heap, || Of a fortified city a ruin, || A high place of strangers from [being] a city, || It is not built for all time.

³ Therefore a strong people honors You, || A city of the terrible nations fears You.

⁴ For You have been a stronghold for the poor, || A stronghold for the needy in his distress, || A refuge from storm, a shadow from heat, || When the spirit of the terrible [is] as a storm—a wall.

⁸ He has swallowed up death in victory, || And Lord YHWH has wiped [the] tear from off all faces, || And He turns aside the reproach of His people from off all the earth, || For YHWH has spoken.

⁹ And [one] has said in that day, “Behold, this [is] our God, || We waited for Him, and He saves us, || This [is] YHWH, we have waited for Him, || We are glad and rejoice in His salvation!”

¹⁰ For the hand of YHWH rests on this mountain, || And Moab is trodden down under Him, || As straw is trodden down on a dunghill.

¹¹ And He spread out His hands in its midst, || As the swimmer spreads out to swim; And He has humbled his excellence || With the machinations of his hands.

¹² And the fortress of the high place of your walls || He has bowed down—He has made low, || He has caused [it] to come to the earth—to dust.

¹ In that day this song is sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city, || He makes salvation [for] walls and bulwark.

² Open the gates, || That a righteous nation may enter, || Preserving steadfastness.

³ You keep [him] in peace [whose] imagination [is] stayed—peace! For he is confident in You.

⁴ Trust in YHWH forever, || For in YAH—YHWH [is] a rock of ages,

⁵ For He bowed down the dwellers on high, || A city set on high He makes low, || He makes it low to the earth, || He causes it to come to the dust,

⁶ A foot treads it down, || Feet of the poor—steps of the weak.

⁷ The path for the righteous [is] uprightness, || O upright One, || You ponder the path of the righteous.

⁸ Also, [in] the path of Your judgments, || O YHWH, we have waited [for] You, || To Your Name and to Your remembrance || [Is] the desire of the soul.

⁹ I desired You in the night [with] my soul, || Also, I seek You earnestly [with] my spirit within me, || For when Your judgments [are] on the earth, || The inhabitants of the world have learned righteousness.

¹⁰ The wicked finds favor, || He has not learned righteousness, || He deals perversely in a land of straightforwardness, || And does not see the excellence of YHWH.

¹¹ O YHWH, Your hand [is] high—they do not see, || They see the zeal of the people, and are ashamed, || Also, the fire consumes Your adversaries.

¹² O YHWH, You appoint peace to us, || For You have also worked all our works for us.

¹³ O our God YHWH, lords have ruled us besides You, || Only, by You we make mention of Your Name.

¹⁴ Dead—they do not live, || Rephaim, they do not rise, || Therefore You have inspected and destroy them, || Indeed, you destroy all their memory.

¹⁵ You have added to the nation, O YHWH, || You have added to the nation, || You have been honored, || You have put all the ends of the earth far off.

¹⁶ O YHWH, in distress they missed You, || They have poured out a whisper, || Your discipline [is] on them.

¹⁷ When a pregnant woman comes near to the birth, || She is pained—she cries in her pangs, || So we have been from Your face, O YHWH.

¹⁸ We have conceived, we have been pained. We have brought forth, as it were, wind, || We do not work salvation in the earth, || Nor do the inhabitants of the world fall.

²⁰ Come, My people, enter into your inner chambers, || And shut your doors behind you, || Hide yourself shortly [for] a moment until the indignation passes over.

¹ In that day YHWH lays a charge, || With His sword—the sharp, and the great, and the strong, || On leviathan—a fleeing serpent, || And on leviathan—a crooked serpent, || And He has slain the dragon that [is] in the sea.

² In that day respond to her, “A desirable vineyard,

³ I, YHWH, am its keeper, || I water it every moment, || Lest any lay a charge against it, || Night and day I keep it!

⁴ Fury is not in Me; Who gives Me a brier—a thorn in battle? I step into it, || I burn it at once.

⁵ Or—he takes hold on My strength, || [That] he makes peace with Me, || [And] he makes peace with Me.”

⁷ Has He struck him as the striking of his striker? Does He slay as the slaying of his slain?

⁸ In measure, in sending it forth, you strive with it, || He has taken away by His sharp wind, || In the day of an east wind,

⁹ Therefore the iniquity of Jacob is covered by this, || And this [is] all the fruit—To take away his sin, || In his setting all the stones of an altar, || As chalkstones beaten in pieces, || They do not rise—Asherim and images.

¹⁰ For the fortified city [is] alone, || A habitation cast out and forsaken as a wilderness, || There the calf delights, || And there it lies down, || And has consumed its branches.

¹² And it has come to pass in that day, || YHWH beats out from the branch of the river, || To the stream of Egypt, || And you are gathered one by one, O sons of Israel.

¹³ And it has come to pass in that day, || It is blown with a great horn, || And those perishing in the land of Asshur have come in, || And those cast out in the land of Egypt, || And have bowed themselves to YHWH, || In the holy mountain—in Jerusalem!

¹ Woe [to] the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim. And the fading flower of the beauty of his glory, || That [is] on the head of the fat valley of the broken down of wine.

² Behold, a mighty and strong one [is] to the Lord, || As a storm of hail—a destructive shower, || As an inundation of mighty waters overflowing, || He cast down to the earth with the hand.

³ The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim is trodden down by feet,

⁵ In that day YHWH of Hosts is || For a crown of beauty, and for a circlet of glory, || To the remnant of His people.

⁶ And for a spirit of judgment || To him who is sitting in the judgment, || And for might [to] those turning back the battle to the gate.

⁷ And even these have erred through wine, || And have wandered through strong drink, || Priest and prophet erred through strong drink, || They have been swallowed up of the wine, || They wandered because of the strong drink, || They have erred in seeing, || They have stumbled judicially.

⁸ For all tables have been full of vomit, || Filth—without place!

⁹ By whom does He teach knowledge? And by whom does He cause to understand the report? The weaned from milk, the removed from breasts,

¹⁰ For rule on rule, rule on rule, || Line on line, line on line, || A little here, a little there,

¹¹ For by scorned lip, and by another tongue, || Does He speak to this people.

¹² To whom He has said, “This [is] the rest, give rest to the weary, || And this—the refreshing”: And they have not been willing to hear,

¹⁴ Therefore, hear a word of YHWH, you men of scorning, || Ruling this people that [is] in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Because you have said: “We have made a covenant with death, || And we have made a provision with Sheol, || An overflowing scourge, when it passes over, || Does not meet us, || Though we have made a lie our refuge, || And have been hidden in falsehood.”

¹⁶ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “Behold, I am laying a foundation in Zion, || A stone—a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a settled foundation, || He who is believing does not make haste.

¹⁷ And I have put judgment for a line, || And righteousness for a plummet, || And hail sweeps away the refuge of lies, || And waters overflow the secret hiding place.

¹⁸ And your covenant with death has been annulled, || And your provision with Sheol does not stand, || An overflowing scourge, when it passes over, || Then you have been to it for a treading-place.

¹⁹ From the fullness of its passing over it takes you, || For it passes over morning by morning, || By day and by night, || And it has been only a trembling to consider the report.

²⁰ For the bed has been shorter || Than to stretch one’s self out in, || And the covering has been narrower || Than to wrap one’s self up in.

²¹ For as YHWH rises [at] Mount Perazim, || As He is troubled [at] the valley in Gibeon, || To do His work—strange [is] His work, || And to do His deed—strange [is] His deed.”

²³ Give ear, and hear my voice, || Attend, and hear my saying:

²⁴ Does the plowman plow the whole day to sow? He opens and harrows his ground!

²⁵ Has he not, if he has made its face level, || Then scattered fitches, and sprinkles cumin, || And has placed the principal wheat, || And the appointed barley, || And the rye [in] its own border?

²⁶ And his God instructs him for judgment, || He directs him.

²⁷ For fitches are not threshed with a sharp-pointed thing, || And the wheel of a cart turned around on cumin, || For fitches are beaten out with a staff, || And cumin with a rod.

²⁸ Bread-[grain] is beaten small, || For he does not severely thresh it forever, || Nor has a wheel of his cart crushed [it], || Nor do his hooves beat it small.

²⁹ Even this from YHWH of Hosts has gone out, || He has made counsel wonderful, || He has made wisdom great!

¹ Woe [to] Ariel, Ariel, || The city of the encampment of David! Add year to year, let festivals go around.

² And I have sent distress to Ariel, || And it has been lamentation and mourning, || And it has been to me as Ariel.

³ And I encamped, O babbler, against you, || And I laid siege against you—a camp. And I raised up bulwarks against you.

⁴ And you have been low, || You speak from the earth, || And make your saying low from the dust, || And your voice has been from the earth, || As one having a familiar spirit, || And your saying whispers from the dust,

⁵ And as small dust has been || The multitude of those scattering you, || And as chaff passing on the multitude of the terrible, || And it has been in an instant—suddenly.

⁷ And as a dream, a vision of night, || Has been the multitude of all the nations || Who are warring against Ariel, || And all its warriors, and its bulwark, || Even of those distressing her.

⁸ And it has been, as when the hungry dreams, || And behold, he is eating, || And he has awoken, || And his soul [is] empty, || And as when the thirsty dreams, || And behold, he is drinking, || And he has awoken, || And behold, he is weary, || And his soul is longing, || So is the multitude of all the nations || Who are warring against Mount Zion.

⁹ Linger and wonder, look, indeed, look, || Be drunk, and not with wine, || Stagger, and not with strong drink.

¹⁰ For YHWH has poured out a spirit of deep sleep on you, || And He closes your eyes—the prophets, || And your heads—the seers—He covered.

¹¹ And the vision of the whole is to you, || As words of the sealed scroll, || That they give to one knowing scrolls, || Saying, “Please read this,” || And he has said, “I am not able, for it [is] sealed”;

¹² And the scroll is given to him who has not known scrolls, || Saying, “Please read this,” || And he has said, “I have not known scrolls.”

¹³ And the Lord says: “Because this people has drawn near with its mouth, || And they have honored Me with its lips, || And it has put its heart far off from Me, || And their fear of Me is a precept taught by men!

¹⁴ Therefore, behold, I am adding to do wonderfully with this people, || A wonder, and a marvel, || And the wisdom of its wise ones has perished, || And the understanding of its intelligent ones hides itself.”

¹⁵ Woe [to] those going deep from YHWH to hide counsel, || And whose works have been in darkness. And they say, “Who is seeing us? And who is knowing us?”

¹⁶ Your perversion! Is the potter esteemed as clay, || That the work says of its maker, "He has not made me?" And the framed thing said of its framer, "He did not understand?"

¹⁷ Is it not yet a very little [while], || And Lebanon has turned into a fruitful field, || And the fruitful field is reckoned for a forest?

¹⁸ And the deaf have heard the words of a scroll in that day, || And out of thick darkness, and out of darkness, || The eyes of the blind see.

²⁰ For the terrible one has ceased, || And the scorner has been consumed, || And all watching for iniquity have been cut off,

²¹ Who cause men to sin in word, || And lay a snare for a reprover in the gate, || And turn aside the righteous into emptiness.

²² Therefore, thus said YHWH, || Who ransomed Abraham, || Concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob is not ashamed now, || Nor does his face now become pale,

²⁴ And the erring in spirit have known understanding, || And murmurers learn doctrine!"

¹ Woe [to] apostate sons, || A declaration of YHWH! To do counsel, and not from Me, || And to spread out a covering, and not of My Spirit, || So as to add sin to sin.

² Who are walking to go down to Egypt, || And have not asked My mouth, || To be strong in the strength of Pharaoh, || And to trust in the shadow of Egypt.

³ And the strength of Pharaoh || Has been to you for shame, || And the trust in the shadow of Egypt confusion,

⁴ For his princes were in Zoan, || And his messengers reach Hanes.

⁵ He made all ashamed of a people that do not profit, || Not for help, and not for profit, || But for shame, and also for reproach!

⁷ Indeed, Egyptians [are] vanity, and help in vain, || Therefore I have cried concerning this: "Their strength [is] to sit still."

⁸ No, go in, write it on a tablet with them, || And inscribe it on a scroll, || And it is for a latter day, for a witness for all time,

⁹ That this [is] a people of rebellion, sons—liars, || Sons not willing to hear the Law of YHWH.

¹⁰ Who have said to seers, "Do not see," || And to prophets, "Do not prophesy to us straightforward things, || Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits,

¹¹ Turn aside from the way, || Decline from the path, || Cause the Holy One of Israel || To cease from before us."

12 Therefore, thus said the Holy One of Israel: “Because of your kicking against this word, || And you trust in oppression, || And perverseness, and rely on it,

13 Therefore this iniquity is to you as a breach falling, || Swelled out in a wall set on high, || Whose destruction comes suddenly, in an instant.

14 And He has broken it || As the breaking of the potters’ bottle, || Beaten down—He does not spare, || Nor is there found, in its beating down, || A potsherd to take fire from the burning, || And to draw out waters from a ditch.”

15 For thus said Lord YHWH, || The Holy One of Israel: “In returning and rest you are saved, || In keeping quiet and in confidence is your might,” || And you have not been willing.

16 And you say, “No, for we flee on a horse,” || Therefore you flee, || And, “We ride on the swift!” Therefore your pursuers are swift.

17 One thousand [flee] because of the rebuke of one, || Because of the rebuke of five you flee, || Until you have surely been left as a pole || On the top of the mountain, || And as an ensign on the height.

18 And therefore YHWH waits to favor you, || And therefore He is exalted to pity you, || For YHWH [is] a God of judgment, || O the blessedness of all waiting for Him.

19 For the people in Zion dwell in Jerusalem, || Do not weep—weeping, || Pitying, He pities you at the voice of your cry, || When He hears He answers you.

20 And the Lord has given to you bread of adversity, || And water of oppression. And your teachers remove no longer, || And your eyes have seen your teachers,

21 And your ear hears a word behind you, saying, “This [is] the way, go in it,” || When you turn to the right, || And when you turn to the left.

22 And you have defiled the covering of Your carved images of silver, || And the ephod of your molten image of gold, || You scatter them as a sickening thing, “Go out,” you say to it.

23 And He has given rain [for] your seed, || With which you sow the ground, || And bread, the increase of the ground, || And it has been fat and plentiful, || Your livestock enjoy an enlarged pasture in that day.

24 And the oxen and the young donkeys serving the ground, || Eat fermented provender, || That one is winnowing with shovel and fan.

25 And there has been on every high mountain, || And on every exalted hill, || Streams—conduits of waters, || In a day of much slaughter, in the falling of towers.

26 And the light of the moon has been as the light of the sun, || And the light of the sun is sevenfold, || As the light of seven days, || In the day of YHWH’s binding up the breach of His people, || When He heals the stroke of its wound.

27 Behold, the Name of YHWH is coming from far, || His anger is burning, and the flame [is] great, || His lips have been full of indignation, || And His tongue [is] as a devouring fire.

28 And His breath [is] as an overflowing stream, || It divides to the neck, || To sift nations with a sieve of vanity, || And a bridle causing to err, || [Is] on the jaws of the peoples.

²⁹ Singing is to you as in a night sanctified for a festival, || And joy of heart as he who is going with a pipe, || To go to the mountain of YHWH, || To the rock of Israel.

³¹ For from the voice of YHWH Asshur [is] broken down, || He strikes with a rod.

³² And every passage of the settled staff, || That YHWH causes to rest on him, || Has been with tambourines and with harps, || And in battles of shaking He has fought with it.

³³ For Tophet is arranged from former time, || Even it is prepared for the king, || He has made deep, || He has made large, || Its pile [is] fire and much wood, || The breath of YHWH, || As a stream of brimstone, is burning in it!

¹ Woe [to] those going down to Egypt for help, || And [who] lean on horses, || And trust on chariots, because [they are] many, || And on horsemen, because [they are] very strong, || And have not looked on the Holy One of Israel, || And have not sought YHWH.

² And He [is] also wise, and brings in evil, || And He has not turned aside His words, || And He has risen against a house of evildoers, || And against the help of workers of iniquity.

³ And the Egyptians [are men], and not God, || And their horses [are] flesh, and not spirit, || And YHWH stretches out His hand, || And the helper has stumbled, || And the helped one has fallen, || And together all of them are consumed.

⁶ Turn back to Him from whom sons of Israel || Have deepened apostasy.

⁷ For in that day each despises His idols of silver, and his idols of gold, || That your hands made to you—a sin.

¹ Behold, a king reigns for righteousness, || As for princes, they rule for judgment.

² And each has been as a hiding place [from] wind, || And as a secret hiding place [from] inundation, || As streams of waters in a dry place, || As a shadow of a heavy rock in a weary land.

³ And the eyes of beholders are not dazzled, || And the ears of hearers attend.

⁴ And the heart of those hurried understands to know, || And the tongue of stammerers hurries to speak clearly.

⁵ A fool is no more called “noble,” || And to a miser it is not said, “rich”;

⁶ For a fool speaks folly, || And his heart does iniquity, to do profanity, || And to speak error concerning YHWH, || To empty the soul of the hungry, || Indeed, he causes the thirsty to lack [their] drink.

⁷ And the miser—his instruments [are] evil, || He has counseled wicked schemes, || To corrupt the poor with lying sayings, || Even when the needy speaks justly.

⁸ And the noble counseled noble things, || And he rises up for noble things.

⁹ Women, easy ones, rise, hear my voice, || Daughters, confident ones, give ear [to] my saying,

¹⁰ In days and a year || You are troubled, O confident ones, || For harvest has been consumed, || The gathering does not come.

¹¹ Tremble, you women, you easy ones, || Be troubled, you confident ones, || Strip and make bare, with a girdle on the loins,

¹² They are lamenting for breasts, || For fields of desire, for the fruitful vine.

¹³ Over the ground of my people thorn [and] brier go up, || Surely over all houses of joy of the exulting city,

¹⁴ The palace has been left, || The multitude of the city forsaken, || Fort and watchtower have been for dens for all time, || A joy of wild donkeys—a pasture of herds;

¹⁵ Until the Spirit is emptied out on us from on high, || And a wilderness has become a fruitful field, || And the fruitful field is reckoned for a forest.

¹⁶ And judgment has dwelt in the wilderness, || And righteousness remains in the fruitful field.

¹⁷ And a work of the righteousness has been peace, || And a service of the righteousness—Keeping quiet and confidence for all time.

¹⁸ And My people have dwelt in a peaceful habitation, || And in steadfast dwelling places, || And in quiet resting places.

¹⁹ And it has hailed in the going down of the forest, || And the city is low in the valley.

²⁰ Blessed [are] you sowing by all waters, || Sending forth the foot of the ox and the donkey!

² O YHWH, favor us, || We have waited for You, || Be their arm, in the mornings, || Indeed, our salvation in time of adversity.

³ From the voice of a multitude peoples have fled, || From Your exaltation nations have been scattered.

⁴ And Your spoil has been gathered, || A gathering of the caterpillar, || As a running to and fro of locusts || He is running on it.

⁵ YHWH is set on high, for He is dwelling on high, || He filled Zion [with] judgment and righteousness,

⁶ And has been the steadfastness of your times, || The strength of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge, || Fear of YHWH—it [is] His treasure.

⁷ Behold, “Their Ariel,” they have cried outside, || Messengers of peace weep bitterly.

⁸ Highways have been desolated, || He who passes along the path has ceased, || He has broken covenant, || He has despised enemies, || He has not esteemed a man.

¹¹ You conceive chaff, you bear stubble; Your spirit—a fire [that] devours you.

¹² And peoples have been [as] burnings of lime, || Thorns, as sweepings, they burn with fire.

¹³ Hear, you far off, that which I have done, || And know, you near ones, My might.

¹⁴ Sinners have been afraid in Zion, || Trembling has seized the profane: Who dwells for us—consuming fire, || Who dwells for us—burnings of the age?

¹⁶ He inhabits high places, || Strongholds of rock [are] his high tower, || His bread has been given, his waters steadfast.

¹⁷ Your eyes see a king in his beauty, || They see a far-off land.

¹⁸ Your heart meditates [on] terror, || Where [is] he who is counting? Where [is] he who is weighing? Where [is] he who is counting the towers?

¹⁹ You do not see the strong people, || A people deeper of lip than to be understood, || Of a scorned tongue, there is no understanding.

²⁰ See Zion, the city of our meetings, || Your eyes see Jerusalem—a quiet habitation, || A tent not taken down, its pins are not removed forever, || And none of its cords are broken.

²² For YHWH, ours who is judging, || YHWH our lawgiver, || YHWH our King—He saves us.

²⁴ Nor does an inhabitant say, “I was sick”; The people dwelling in it [are] forgiven of [their] iniquity!

¹ Come near, you nations, to hear, || And you peoples, give attention, || The earth and its fullness hear, || The world, and all its productions.

² For to YHWH [is] wrath against all the nations, || And fury against all their host, || He has devoted them to destruction, || He has given them to slaughter.

³ And their wounded are cast out, || And their carcasses cause their stench to ascend, || And mountains have been melted from their blood.

⁵ For My sword was soaked in the heavens, || Behold, it comes down on Edom, || On the people of My curse for judgment.

⁷ And reems have come down with them, || And bullocks with bulls, || And their land has been soaked from blood, || And their dust is made fat from fatness.

⁸ (For a day of vengeance [is] to YHWH, || A year of recompenses for Zion's strife),

⁹ And her streams have been turned to pitch, || And her dust to brimstone, || And her land has become burning pitch.

¹⁰ She is not quenched by night and by day, || Her smoke goes up for all time, || She is desolate from generation to generation, || Forever and ever, none is passing into her.

¹² They call her nobles [to] the kingdom, || But there are none there, || And all her princes are at an end.

¹³ And thorns have gone up her palaces, || Nettle and bramble [are] in her fortresses, || And it has been a habitation of dragons, || A court for daughters of an ostrich.

¹⁴ And desert-dwellers have met with howlers, || And the goat calls for its companion, || Surely the night-owl has rested there, || And has found a place of rest for herself.

¹⁵ The owl has made her nest there, || Indeed, she lays, and has hatched, || And has gathered under her shadow, || Surely vultures have been gathered there, || Each with its companion.

¹⁶ Seek out of the scroll of YHWH, and read, || One of these has not been lacking, || None has missed its companion, || For My mouth—it has commanded, || And His Spirit—He has gathered them.

¹⁷ And He has cast a lot for them, || And His hand has apportioned [it] to them by line, || They possess it for all time, || They dwell in it from generation to generation!

¹ They rejoice from the wilderness and dry place, || And the desert

rejoices, || And flourishes as the rose,

² Flourishing it flourishes, and rejoices, || Indeed, [with] joy and singing, || The glory of Lebanon has been given to it, || The beauty of Carmel and Sharon, || They see the glory of YHWH, || The majesty of our God.

³ Strengthen the feeble hands, || Indeed, strengthen the stumbling knees.

⁴ Say to the hurried of heart, “Be strong, || Do not fear, behold, your God; vengeance comes, || The repayment of God, || He Himself comes and saves you.”

⁵ Then eyes of the blind are opened, || And ears of the deaf are unstopped,

⁷ And the mirage has become a pond, || And the thirsty land—fountains of waters, || In the habitation of dragons, || Its place of lying down, || A court for reed and rush.

⁸ And a highway has been there, and a way, || And it is called the “Way of Holiness.” The unclean do not pass over it, || And He Himself [is] by them, || Whoever is going in the way—even fools do not err.

¹ And it comes to pass, in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Asshur has come up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and seizes them.

² And the king of Asshur sends Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah, with a heavy force, and he stands by the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller’s field,

³ and Eliakim son of Hilkiah goes forth to him, who [is] over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the remembrancer.

⁵ I have said, Only a word of the lips! Counsel and might [are] for battle. Now, on whom have you trusted, that you have rebelled against me?

⁶ Behold, you have trusted on the staff of this broken reed—on Egypt—which a man leans on, and it has gone into his hand, and pierced it—so [is] Pharaoh king of Egypt to all those trusting on him.

⁷ And do you say to me, We have trusted in our God YHWH? Is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has turned aside, and says to Judah and to Jerusalem, Bow yourselves before this altar?

⁸ And now, please negotiate with my lord the king of Asshur, and I give two thousand horses to you, if you are able to put riders on them for yourself.

⁹ And how do you turn back the face of one captain of the least of the servants of my lord, and trust on Egypt for yourself, for chariot and for horsemen?

¹⁰ And now, without YHWH have I come up against this land to destroy it? YHWH said to me, Go up to this land, and you have destroyed it."

¹¹ And Eliakim says—and Shebna and Joah—to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants [in] Aramaic, for we are understanding; and do not speak to us [in] Jewish, in the ears of the people who [are] on the wall."

¹² And Rabshakeh says, "To your lord, and to you, has my lord sent me to speak these words? Is it not for the men—those sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and to drink their own water with you?"

¹³ And Rabshakeh stands and calls with a great voice [in] Jewish, and says, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Asshur—

¹⁴ thus said the king: Do not let Hezekiah lift you up, for he is not able to deliver you;

¹⁵ and do not let Hezekiah make you trust to YHWH, saying, YHWH certainly delivers us, this city is not given into the hand of the king of Asshur.

¹⁷ until my coming in, and I have taken you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards;

¹⁸ lest Hezekiah persuades you, saying, YHWH delivers us. Have the gods of the nations each delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Asshur?

¹⁹ Where [are] the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where [are] the gods of Sepharvaim, that they have delivered Samaria out of my hand?

²⁰ Who among all the gods of these lands [are] they who have delivered their land out of my hand, that YHWH delivers Jerusalem out of my hand?"

²¹ And they keep silent, and have not answered him a word, for a command of the king is, saying, "Do not answer him."

²² And Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who [is] over the house, comes in, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the remembrancer, to Hezekiah, with torn garments, and they declare to him the words of Rabshakeh.

¹ And it comes to pass, at King Hezekiah's hearing, that he tears his garments, and covers himself with sackcloth, and enters the house of YHWH,

² and sends Eliakim, who [is] over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and [the] elderly of the priests, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz the prophet,

³ and they say to him, "Thus said Hezekiah: A day of distress, and rebuke, and despising, [is] this day; for sons have come to the birth, and there is not power to bear.

⁴ It may be your God YHWH hears the words of Rabshakeh with which the king of Asshur his lord has sent him to reproach the living God, and has decided concerning the words that your God YHWH has heard, and you have lifted up prayer for the remnant that is found."

⁵ And the servants of King Hezekiah come to Isaiah,

⁶ and Isaiah says to them, “Thus you say to your lord, Thus said YHWH: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Asshur have reviled Me.

⁷ Behold, I am giving a spirit in him, and he has heard a report, and has turned back to his land, and I have caused him to fall by the sword in his land.”

⁸ And Rabshakeh turns back and finds the king of Asshur fighting against Libnah, for he has heard that he has journeyed from Lachish.

⁹ And he hears concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, saying, “He has come out to fight with you”; and he hears, and sends messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

¹⁰ “Thus you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you are trusting lift you up, saying, Jerusalem is not given into the hand of the king of Asshur.

¹¹ Behold, you have heard that which the kings of Asshur have done to all the lands—to devote them—and you are delivered!

¹² Did the gods of the nations deliver them whom my fathers destroyed—Gozan, and Haran, and Rezep, and the sons of Eden, who [are] in Telassar?

¹³ Where [is] the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?”

¹⁴ And Hezekiah takes the letters out of the hand of the messengers, and reads them, and Hezekiah goes up to the house of YHWH, and Hezekiah spreads it before YHWH.

¹⁵ And Hezekiah prays to YHWH, saying,

¹⁶ “YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, inhabiting the cherubim, You [are] God Himself—You alone—to all kingdoms of the earth, You have made the heavens and the earth.

¹⁷ Incline, O YHWH, Your ear, and hear; open, O YHWH, Your eyes and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib that he has sent to reproach the living God.

¹⁸ Truly, O YHWH, kings of Asshur have laid waste all the lands and their land, ¹⁹ so as to put their gods into fire—for they [are] no gods, but work of the hands of man, wood and stone—and they destroy them.

²⁰ And now, our God YHWH, save us from his hand, and all kingdoms of the earth know that You [are] YHWH, You alone.”

²¹ And Isaiah son of Amoz sends to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: That which you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Asshur—

²² this [is] the word that YHWH spoke concerning him: Trampled on you, laughed at you, || Has the virgin daughter of Zion, || The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken the head behind you.

²³ Whom have you reproached and reviled? And against whom—lifted up the voice? Indeed, you lift up your eyes on high || Against the Holy One of Israel.

²⁴ By the hand of your servants || You have reviled the Lord, and say: In the multitude of my chariots || I have come up to a high place of hills, || The sides of Lebanon, || And I cut down the height of its cedars, ||

The choice of its firs, || And I enter the high place of its extremity, || The forest of its Carmel.

²⁵ I have dug and drunk waters, || And I dry up with the sole of my steps || All floods of a bulwark.

²⁶ Have you not heard from afar [that] I did it, || From days of old—that I formed it? Now I have brought it in, || And it is to make desolate, || Ruinous heaps—fortified cities,

²⁷ And their inhabitants are feeble-handed, || They were broken down, and are dried up. They have been the herb of the field, || And the greenness of the tender grass, || Grass of the roofs, || And blasted grain, before it has risen up.

²⁸ And your sitting down, and your going out, || And your coming in, I have known, || And your anger toward Me.

²⁹ Because of your anger toward Me, || And your noise—it came up into My ears, || I have put My hook in your nose, || And My bridle in your lips, || And I have caused you to turn back || In the way in which you came.

³⁰ And this [is] the sign to you, || Self-sown grain [is] food of the year, || And in the second year the spontaneous growth, || And in the third year, sow and reap, || And plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

³¹ And it has continued—The escaped of the house of Judah that has been left—To take root beneath, || And it has made fruit upward.

³² For a remnant goes forth from Jerusalem, || And an escape from Mount Zion, || The zeal of YHWH of Hosts does this.

³⁴ In the way that he came, in it he turns back, || And to this city he does not come in, || A declaration of YHWH,

³⁵ And I have covered over this city, || To save it, for My own sake, || And for the sake of My servant David.”

³⁷ And he journeys, and goes, and Sennacherib king of Asshur turns back, and dwells in Nineveh.

³⁸ And it comes to pass, he is bowing himself in the house of his god Nisroch, and his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer have struck him with the sword, and they have escaped to the land of Ararat, and his son Esar-Haddon reigns in his stead.

¹ In those days has Hezekiah been sick to death, and Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, comes to him and says to him, “Thus said YHWH: Give a charge to your house, for you [are] dying, and do not live.”

² And Hezekiah turns around his face to the wall, and prays to YHWH,

³ and says, “Ah, now, O YHWH, please remember how I have habitually walked before You in truth, and with a perfect heart, and I have done that which [is] good in your eyes”; and Hezekiah weeps [with] a great weeping.

⁴ And a word of YHWH is to Isaiah, saying,

⁵ “Go, and you have said to Hezekiah, Thus said YHWH, God of your father David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tear, behold, I am adding fifteen years to your days,

⁶ and out of the hand of the king of Asshur I deliver you and this city, and have covered over this city.

⁷ And this [is] to you the sign from YHWH, that YHWH does this thing that He has spoken.

⁸ Behold, I am bringing back the shadow of the degrees that it has gone down on the degrees of Ahaz, by the sun, backward ten degrees”; and the sun turns back ten degrees in the degrees that it had gone down.

⁹ A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah concerning his being sick when he revives from his sickness:

¹⁰ “I said in the cutting off of my days, || I go to the gates of Sheol, || I have numbered the remnant of my years.

¹¹ I said, I do not see YAH—YAH! In the land of the living, || I do not behold man anymore, || With the inhabitants of the world.

¹² My sojourning has departed, || And been removed from me as a shepherd’s tent, || I have drawn together, as a weaver, my life, || By weakness it cuts me off, || From day to night You end me.

¹³ I have set [Him] as a lion until morning, || So He breaks all my bones, || From day to night You end me.

¹⁴ As a crane—a swallow—so I chatter, || I mourn as a dove, || My eyes have been drawn up on high, || O YHWH, oppression [is] on me, be my guarantor.

¹⁵ What do I say? Seeing He spoke to me, || And He Himself has worked, || I go softly all my years for the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶ Lord, [men] live by these, || And by all in them [is] the life of my spirit, || And You save me, make me to also live,

¹⁷ Behold, He changed bitterness to peace for me, || And You have delighted in my soul without corruption, || For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸ For Sheol does not confess You, || Death does not praise You, || Those going down to the pit do not hope for Your truth.

¹⁹ The living, the living, he confesses You,

²⁰ Like myself today; A father makes known to [his] sons of Your faithfulness, || O YHWH—to save me: And we sing my songs all [the] days of our lives || In the house of YHWH.”

²¹ And Isaiah says, “Let them take a bunch of figs, and plaster over the ulcer, and he lives.”

39

¹ At that time, Merodach-Baladan, son of Baladan, king of Babylon, has sent letters and a present to Hezekiah when he hears that he has been sick and has become strong.

² And Hezekiah rejoices over them, and shows them the house of his spices, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the good ointment, and all the house of his vessels, and all that has been found in his treasures;

there has not been a thing in his house, and in all his dominion, that Hezekiah has not showed them.

³ And Isaiah the prophet comes to King Hezekiah and says to him, "What did these men say? And from where do they come to you?" And Hezekiah says, "They have come to me from a far-off land—from Babylon."

⁴ And he says, "What did they see in your house?" And Hezekiah says, "They saw all that [is] in my house; there has not been a thing that I have not showed them among my treasures."

⁵ And Isaiah says to Hezekiah, "Hear a word of YHWH of Hosts:

⁶ Behold, days are coming, and all that [is] in your house, and that your fathers have treasured up until this day, has been carried to Babylon; there is not a thing left, said YHWH;

⁷ and of your sons who come forth from you, whom you beget, they take, and they have been eunuchs in a palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸ And Hezekiah says to Isaiah, "The word of YHWH that you have spoken [is] good"; and he says, "Because there is peace and truth in my days."

¹ "Comfort, comfort My people," says your God.

² Speak to the heart of Jerusalem, and call to her, || That her warfare has been completed, || That her punishment has been accepted, || That she has received from the hand of YHWH || Double for all her sins.

³ A voice is crying in a wilderness: "Prepare the way of YHWH, || Make straight in a desert a highway for our God.

⁴ Every valley is raised up, || And every mountain and hill become low, || And the crooked place has become a plain, || And the entangled places a valley.

⁵ And the glory of YHWH has been revealed, || And all flesh have seen [it] together, || For the mouth of YHWH has spoken."

⁶ A voice is saying, "Call," || And he said, "What do I call?" All flesh [is] grass, and all its goodness || [Is] as a flower of the field:

⁷ Grass has withered, the flower faded, || For the Spirit of YHWH blew on it, || Surely the people [is] grass;

⁸ Grass has withered, the flower faded, || But a word of our God rises forever.

⁹ Get up on a high mountain, O Zion, || Proclaiming tidings, || Lift up your voice with power, O Jerusalem, proclaiming tidings, || Lift up, do not fear, say to cities of Judah, "Behold, your God."

¹⁰ Behold, Lord YHWH comes with strength, || And His arm is ruling for Him, || Behold, His hire [is] with Him, and His wage before Him.

¹¹ He feeds His flock as a shepherd, || He gathers lambs with His arm, || And He carries [them] in His bosom: He leads suckling ones.

¹² Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, || And has meted out the heavens by a span, || And comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, || And has weighed the mountains in scales, || And the hills in a balance?

¹³ Who has meted out the Spirit of YHWH, || And [being] His counselor, teaches Him?

¹⁴ With whom [did] He consult, || That he causes Him to understand?
And teaches Him in the path of judgment, || And teaches Him knowledge?
And causes Him to know the way of understanding?

¹⁵ Behold, nations [are] as a drop from a bucket, || And have been reckoned as small dust of the balance, || Behold, He takes up islands as a small thing.

¹⁶ And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, || Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt-offering.

¹⁷ All the nations [are] as nothing before Him, || Less than nothing and emptiness, || They have been reckoned to Him.

¹⁸ And to whom do you liken God, || And what likeness do you compare to Him?

¹⁹ An artisan has poured out the carved image, || And a refiner spreads
it over with gold, || And he is refining chains of silver.

²⁰ He who is poor [by] raised-offerings, || Chooses a tree [that is] not rotten, || He seeks a skillful artisan for it, || To establish a carved image—not moved.

²¹ Do you not know—do you not hear? Has it not been declared from the first to you? Have you not understood || [From] the foundations of the earth?

²² He who is sitting on the circle of the earth, || And its inhabitants [are]
as grasshoppers, || He who is stretching out the heavens as a thin thing,
|| And spreads them as a tent to dwell in.

²³ He who is making princes become nothing, || Has made judges of earth formless;

²⁴ Indeed, they have not been planted, || Indeed, they have not been sown, || Indeed, their stock is not taking root in the earth, || And He has also blown on them, and they wither, || And a whirlwind takes them away as stubble.

²⁵ And to whom do you liken Me, || And [to whom] I equal? Says the Holy One.

²⁶ Lift up your eyes on high, || And see—who has created these? He who is bringing out their host by number, || He calls to all of them by name, || By the abundance of His strength || And mighty power, || Not one is lacking.

²⁷ Why say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, “My way has been hid from YHWH, || And from my God my judgment passes over?”

²⁸ Have you not known? Have you not heard? The God of the age—
YHWH, || Preparer of the ends of the earth, || Is not wearied nor fatigued,
|| There is no searching of His understanding.

²⁹ He is giving power to the weary, || And to those not strong He increases might.

³⁰ Even youths are wearied and fatigued, || And young men utterly stumble,

³¹ But those expecting YHWH pass [to] power, || They raise up the pinion
as eagles, || They run and are not fatigued, || They go on and do not faint!

¹ Keep silent toward Me, O islands, || And the peoples pass on [to] power,
|| They come near, then they speak, “Together we draw near to judgment.”

² Who stirred up a righteous one from the east? He calls him to His foot, || He gives nations before him, || And He causes him to rule kings, || He gives [them] as dust [to] his sword, || As driven stubble [to] his bow.

³ He pursues them, he passes over in safety || A path he does not enter with his feet.

⁴ Who has worked and done, || Calling the generations from the first? I, YHWH, the first, and with the last I [am] He.

⁵ Islands have seen and fear, || The ends of the earth tremble, || They have drawn near, indeed, they come.

⁶ They each help his neighbor, || And to his brother he says, "Be strong."

⁸ And you, O Israel, My servant, || Jacob, whom I have chosen, || Seed of Abraham, My lover,

⁹ Whom I have taken hold of, from the ends of the earth, || And from its near places I have called you, || And I say to you, You [are] My servant, || I have chosen you, and not rejected you.

¹¹ Behold, all those displeased with you, || They are ashamed and blush, || They are as nothing, indeed, || The men who strive with you perish.

¹² You seek them, and do not find them, || The men who debate with you, || They are as nothing, indeed, as nothing, || The men who war with you.

¹³ For I, your God YHWH, || Am strengthening your right hand, || He who is saying to you, "Do not fear, I have helped you."

¹⁴ Do not fear, O worm Jacob, || You men of Israel, || I helped you, a declaration of YHWH, || Even your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ Behold, I have set you for a new sharp threshing instrument, || Possessing teeth, you thresh mountains, || And beat small, and make hills as chaff.

¹⁶ You winnow them, and a wind lifts them up, || And a whirlwind scatters them, || And you rejoice in YHWH, || [And] boast yourself in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷ The poor and the needy are seeking water, || And there is none, || Their tongue has failed with thirst, || I, YHWH, answer them, || The God of Israel—I do not forsake them.

¹⁹ I give in a wilderness the cedar, || Shittah, and myrtle, and oil-tree, || I set in a desert the fir-pine and box-wood together.

²⁰ So that they see, and know, || And regard, and act wisely together, || For the hand of YHWH has done this, || And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹ Bring your cause near, says YHWH, || Bring your mighty ones near, says the King of Jacob.

22 They bring [them] near, and declare to us that which happens, || Declare the first things—what they [are], || And we set our heart, and know their latter end, || Or cause us to hear the coming things.

23 Declare the things that are coming hereafter, || And we know that you [are] gods, || Indeed, you may do good or do evil, || And we look around and see [it] together.

24 Behold, you [are] of nothing, and your work of nothing, || An abomination—it fixes on you.

25 I have stirred up [one] from the north, || And he comes, || From the rising of the sun he calls in My Name, || And he comes in [on] prefects as [on] clay, || And as a potter treads down mire.

26 Who has declared from the first, and we know? And formerly, and we say, “Righteous?” Indeed, there is none declaring, || Indeed, there is none proclaiming, || Indeed, there is none hearing your sayings.

27 First to Zion, || Behold, behold them, || And to Jerusalem I give one proclaiming tidings,

28 And I see that there is no man, || Indeed, of these that there is no counselor, || And I ask them, and they return word:

29 “Behold, all of them [are] vanity, || Their works [are] nothing, || Their molten images [are] wind and emptiness!”

42

1 Behold, My servant, I take hold on Him, || My Chosen One—My soul has accepted, I have put My Spirit on Him, || He brings forth judgment to nations.

2 He does not cry, nor lift up, || Nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed He does not break, || And faded flax He does not quench, || He brings forth judgment to truth.

4 He does not become weak nor bruised, || Until He sets judgment in the earth, || And islands wait with hope for His law.

5 Thus said God, YHWH, || Creating the heavens, and stretching them out, || Spreading out the earth and its productions, || Giving breath to the people on it, || And spirit to those walking in it.

6 I, YHWH, called you in righteousness, || And I lay hold on your hand, and keep you, || And I give you for a covenant of a people, || And a light of nations.

7 To open the eyes of the blind, || To bring forth the bound one from prison, || Those sitting in darkness from the house of restraint.

8 I [am] YHWH, this [is] My Name, || And I do not give My glory to another, || Nor My praise to carved images.

9 The former things, behold, have come, || And I am declaring new things, || Before they spring up I cause you to hear.

10 Sing a new song to YHWH, || His praise from the end of the earth, || You who are going down to the sea, and its fullness, || Islands, and their inhabitants.

11 The wilderness and its cities lift up [their voice], || Kedar inhabits the villages, || The inhabitants of Sela sing, || They cry from the top of mountains.

12 They ascribe to YHWH glory, || And they declare His praise in the islands.

¹³ YHWH goes forth as a mighty one. He stirs up zeal as a man of war,
 || He cries, indeed, He shrieks, || He shows Himself mighty against His enemies.

¹⁴ I have kept silent from of old, || I keep silent, I refrain Myself, || I cry out as a travailing woman, || I desolate and swallow up together.

¹⁵ I make desolate mountains and hills, || And I dry up all their herbs,
 || And I have made rivers become islands, || And I dry up ponds.

¹⁶ And I have caused the blind to go, || In a way they have not known,
 || I cause them to tread in paths they have not known, || I make a dark place become light before them, || And unlevelled places become a plain,
 || These [are] the things I have done to them, || And I have not forsaken them.

¹⁷ Removed backward—utterly ashamed, || Are those trusting in a carved image, || Those saying to a molten image, “You [are] our gods.”

¹⁸ You deaf, hear; and you blind, look to see.

¹⁹ Who [is] blind but My servant? And deaf as My messenger I send?
 Who [is] blind as he who is at peace, || Indeed, blind, as the servant of
 YHWH?

²⁰ Seeing many things, and you do not observe, || Opening ears, and he does not hear.

²¹ YHWH has delight for the sake of His righteousness, || He magnifies law, and makes honorable.

²² And this [is] a people seized and spoiled, || Snared in holes—all of them, || And they were hidden in houses of restraint, || They have been for a prey, || And there is no deliverer, || A spoil, and none is saying, “Restore.”

²³ Who among you gives ear [to] this? Attends, and hears afterward?

²⁴ Who has given Jacob for a spoil, || And Israel to the spoilers? Is it not YHWH—He against whom we sinned? Indeed, they have not been willing to walk in His ways, || Nor have they listened to His law.

²⁵ And He pours fury on him, || His anger, and the strength of battle,
 || And it sets him on fire all around, || And he has not known, || And it burns against him, and he does not lay it to heart!

43

¹ And now, thus said YHWH, Your Creator, O Jacob, and your Fashioner,
 O Israel: Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you, || I have called on your name—you [are] Mine.

² When you pass into waters, I [am] with you, || And into floods, they do not overflow you, || When you go into fire, you are not burned, || And a flame does not burn against you.

³ For I—your God YHWH, || The Holy One of Israel, your Savior, || I have appointed Egypt your atonement, || Cush and Seba in your stead.

⁴ Since you were precious in My eyes, || You were honored, and I have loved you, || And I appoint men in your stead, || And peoples instead of your life.

⁵ Do not be afraid, for I [am] with you, || I bring in your seed from the east, || And I gather you from the west.

⁶ I am saying to the north, “Give up,” || And to the south, “Do not restrain.” Bring in My sons from afar, || And My daughters from the end of the earth.

⁷ Everyone who is called by My Name, || Even for My glory I have created him, || I have formed him, indeed, I have made him.

⁸ He brought out a blind people who have eyes, || And deaf ones who have ears.

¹⁰ You [are] My witnesses, a declaration of YHWH, || And My servant whom I have chosen, || So that you know and give credence to Me, || And understand that I [am] He, || Before Me there was no God formed, || And after Me there is none.

¹¹ I [am] YHWH, || And besides Me there is no savior.

¹² I declared, and saved, and proclaimed, || And there is no stranger with you, || And you [are] My witnesses, a declaration of YHWH, || And I [am] God.

¹³ Even from the day I [am] He, || And there is no deliverer from My hand, || I work, and who turns it back?

¹⁴ Thus said YHWH, your Redeemer, || The Holy One of Israel: "I have sent to Babylon for your sake, || And caused bars to descend—all of them, || And the Chaldeans, whose song [is] in the ships.

¹⁵ I [am] YHWH, your Holy One, || Creator of Israel, your King."

¹⁶ Thus said YHWH, || Who is giving a way in the sea, || And a path in the strong waters.

¹⁷ Who is bringing forth chariot and horse, || A force, even a strong one: "They lie down together—they do not rise, || They have been extinguished, || They have been quenched as flax."

¹⁸ Do not remember former things, || And do not consider ancient things.

¹⁹ Behold, I am doing a new thing, now it springs up, || Do you not know it? Indeed, I put a way in a wilderness, || In a desolate place—floods.

²¹ I have formed this people for Myself, || They recount My praise.

²² And you have not called Me, O Jacob, || For you have been wearied of Me, O Israel,

²³ You have not brought to Me, || The lamb of your burnt-offerings, || And [with] your sacrifices you have not honored Me, || I have not caused you to serve with a present, || Nor wearied you with frankincense.

²⁴ You have not bought Me sweet cane with money, || And have not filled Me [with] the fat of your sacrifices, || Only—you have caused Me to serve with your sins, || You have wearied Me with your iniquities.

²⁵ I [am] He who is blotting out Your transgressions for My own sake, || And I do not remember your sins.

²⁶ Cause Me to remember—we are judged together, || Declare that you may be justified.

²⁷ Your first father sinned, || And your interpreters transgressed against Me,

²⁸ And I defile princes of the sanctuary, || And I give Jacob to destruction, and Israel to revilings!

¹ “And now, hear, O Jacob, My servant, || And Israel, whom I have fixed on—

² Thus said YHWH, your Maker, and your Former, || From the womb He helps you: Do not fear, My servant Jacob, || And Yeshurun, whom I have fixed on.

³ For I pour waters on a thirsty one, || And floods on a dry land, || I pour My Spirit on your seed, || And My blessing on your offspring.

⁴ And they have sprung up as among grass, || As willows by conduits of water.

⁵ This [one] says, For I [am] YHWH’s, || And this calls [himself] by the name of Jacob, || And this [one] writes [with] his hand, For YHWH, || And surnames himself by the name of Israel.”

⁶ Thus said YHWH, King of Israel, || And his Redeemer, YHWH of Hosts: “I [am] the first, and I [am] the last, || And besides Me there is no God.

⁷ And who [is] as I, call and declare it, || And arrange it for Me, || Since My placing the people of antiquity, || And things that are coming, || And those that come, they declare to them.

⁸ Do not fear, nor be afraid, || Have I not caused you to hear from that time, and declared? And you [are] My witnesses, || Is there a God besides Me? Indeed, there is none, || I have not known another Rock.”

¹⁰ Who has formed a god, || And poured out a molten image—not profitable?

¹¹ Behold, all his companions are ashamed, || As for artisans—they [are] of men, || All of them gather together, they stand up, || They fear, they are ashamed together.

¹² He has worked iron [with] an axe, || And has worked with coals, || And forms it with hammers, || And works it by his powerful arm, || Indeed, he is hungry, and there is no power, || He does not drink water, and he is wearied.

¹³ He has worked [with] wood, || He has stretched out a rule, || He marks it out with a line, || He makes it with carving tools, || And he marks it out with a compass, || And makes it according to the form of a man, || According to the beauty of a man, || To remain in the house.

¹⁴ Cutting down cedars for himself, || He also takes a cypress, and an oak, || And he strengthens [it] for himself || Among the trees of a forest, || He has planted an ash, and the shower nourishes [it].

¹⁵ And it has been for man to burn, || And he takes of them, and becomes warm, || Indeed, he kindles [it], and has baked bread, || Indeed, he makes a god, and bows himself, || He has made it a carved image, || And he falls down to it.

¹⁶ Half of it he has burned in the fire, || By [this] half of it he eats flesh, || He roasts a roasting and is satisfied, || Indeed, he is warm and says: “Aha, I have become warm, I have enjoyed the light.”

¹⁷ And he has made its remnant for a god—For his carved image, || He falls down to it, and worships, || And prays to it, and he says, “Deliver me, for you [are] my god.”

¹⁸ They have not known, nor do they understand, || For He has coated their eyes from seeing, || Their heart from acting wisely.

¹⁹ And none turn [it] back to his heart, || Nor has knowledge nor understanding to say, "I have burned half of it in the fire, || Indeed, I have also baked bread over its coals, || I roast flesh and I eat, || And I make its remnant for an abomination, || I fall down to the stock of a tree."

²⁰ Feeding on ashes, the heart is deceived, || It has turned him aside, || And he does not deliver his soul, nor says: "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

²¹ "Remember these, O Jacob, and Israel, || For you [are] My servant, || I formed you, you [are] a servant to Me, || O Israel, you do not forget Me.

²² I have blotted out, as [by] a thick cloud, || Your transgressions, || And as [by] a cloud, your sins, || Return to Me, for I have redeemed you."

²³ Sing, O heavens, for YHWH has worked, || Shout, O lower parts of earth, || Break forth, O mountains, with singing, || Forest, and every tree in it, || For YHWH has redeemed Jacob, || And He beautifies Himself in Israel.

²⁴ Thus said YHWH, your Redeemer, || And your Framer from the womb: "I [am] YHWH, doing all things, || Stretching out the heavens by Myself, || Spreading out the earth—who [is] with Me?"

²⁵ Making void the tokens of devisers, || And makes diviners mad, || Turning the wise backward, || And makes their knowledge foolish.

²⁶ Confirming the word of His servant, || He perfects the counsel of His messengers, || Who is saying of Jerusalem, || She is inhabited, || And of cities of Judah, || They will be built, and her ruins I raise up,

²⁷ Who is saying to the deep, || Be dry, and your rivers I cause to dry up,

²⁸ Who is saying of Cyrus, My shepherd, || And he perfects all My delight, || So as to say of Jerusalem, You are built, || And of the temple, You are founded."

45

² "I go before you, and make crooked places straight, || I shatter doors of bronze, || And I cut bars of iron apart,

³ And have given to you treasures of darkness, || Even treasures of secret places, || So that you know that I, YHWH, || Who am calling on your name—[am] the God of Israel.

⁴ For the sake of My servant Jacob, || And of Israel My chosen, || I also call you by your name, I surname you, || And you have not known Me.

⁵ I [am] YHWH, and there is none else, || There is no God except Me, || I gird you, and you have not known Me.

⁶ So that they know from the rising of the sun, || And from the west, that there is none besides Me, || I [am] YHWH, and there is none else,

⁷ Forming light, and creating darkness, || Making peace, and creating calamity, || I [am] YHWH, doing all these things.

⁸ Drop, you heavens, from above, || And clouds cause righteousness to flow, || Earth opens, and they are fruitful, || Salvation and righteousness spring up together, || I, YHWH, have created it.

⁹ Woe [to] him who is striving with his Former || (A potsherd with potsherds of the ground!) Does clay say to its Framer, What [are] you doing? And your work, He has no hands?

¹⁰ Woe [to] him who is saying to a father, What do you beget? Or to a wife, What do you bring forth?"

¹¹ Thus said YHWH, The Holy One of Israel, and his Former: "Ask Me of the things coming concerning My sons, || Indeed, concerning the work of My hands, you command Me.

¹³ I have stirred him up in righteousness, || And I make all his ways straight, || He builds My city, and sends out My captivity, || Not for price, nor for bribe," said YHWH of Hosts.

¹⁴ Thus said YHWH: "The labor of Egypt, || And the merchandise of Cush, || And of the Sebam—men of measure, || Pass over to you, and they are yours, || They go after you, they pass over in chains, || And they bow themselves to you, || They pray to you: Surely God [is] in you, || And there is none else, no [other] God."

¹⁵ Surely You [are] a God hiding Yourself, God of Israel—Savior!

¹⁶ They have been ashamed, || And they have even blushed—all of them, || Those carving images have gone together in confusion.

¹⁷ Israel has been saved in YHWH, || A perpetual salvation! You are not ashamed nor confounded || For all ages of eternity!

¹⁸ For thus said YHWH, Creator of the heavens, || He is God, || Former of earth, and its Maker, || He established it—He did not create it empty, || For He formed it to be inhabited: "I [am] YHWH, and there is none else.

¹⁹ I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth, || I have not said to the seed of Jacob, || Seek Me in vain, || I [am] YHWH, speaking righteousness, || Declaring uprightness.

²⁰ Be gathered, and come in, || Come near together, you escaped of the nations, || They have not known, || Who are lifting up the wood of their carved image, || And praying to a god [that] does not save.

²¹ Declare, and bring near, || Indeed, they take counsel together, || Who has proclaimed this from of old? [Who] has declared it from that time? Is it not I—YHWH? And there is no other god besides Me, || A God righteous and saving, there is none except Me.

²² Turn to Me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth, || For I [am] God, and there is none else.

²³ I have sworn by Myself, || A word has gone out from My mouth in righteousness, || And it does not return, || That to Me, every knee bows, every tongue swears.

²⁴ Only in YHWH, one has said, || Do I have righteousness and strength, || He comes to Him, || And all those displeased with Him are ashamed.

¹ Bel has bowed down, Nebo is stooping, || Their idols have been for

the beast and for livestock, || Your burdens are loaded, a burden to the weary.

² They have stooped, they have bowed together, || They have not been able to deliver the burden, || And have gone into captivity themselves.

³ "Listen to Me, O house of Jacob, || And all the remnant of Israel, || Who are borne from the belly, || Who are carried from the womb,

⁴ Even to old age, I [am] He, and to grey hairs I carry, || I made, and I bear, indeed, I carry and deliver.

⁵ To whom do you liken Me, and make equal? And compare Me, that we may be like?

⁶ They are pouring out gold from a bag, || And they weigh silver on the beam, || They hire a refiner, and he makes it a god, || They fall down, indeed, they bow themselves.

⁸ Remember this, and show yourselves men, || Turn [it] back, O transgressors, to the heart.

⁹ Remember former things of old, || For I [am] Mighty, and there is none else, || God—and there is none like Me.

¹⁰ Declaring the latter end from the beginning, || And from of old that which has not been done, || Saying, My counsel stands, || And all My delight I do.

¹² Listen to Me, you mighty in heart, || Who are far from righteousness.

¹³ I have brought My righteousness near, || It is not far off, || And My salvation—it does not linger, || And I have given salvation in Zion, || For Israel My glory!"

¹ "Come down, and sit on the dust, || O virgin daughter of Babylon, || Sit on the earth, there is no throne, || O daughter of the Chaldeans, || For they no longer cry to you, || O tender and delicate one.

² Take millstones, and grind flour, || Remove your veil, draw up the skirt, || Uncover the leg, pass over the floods.

³ Your nakedness is revealed, indeed, your reproach is seen, || I take vengeance, and I do not meet a man."

⁴ Our redeemer [is] YHWH of Hosts, || His Name [is] the Holy One of Israel.

⁵ "Sit silent, and go into darkness, || O daughter of the Chaldeans, || For they no longer cry to you, Mistress of kingdoms.

⁶ I have been angry against My people, I have defiled My inheritance || And I give them into your hand, || You have not appointed mercies for them, || You have made your yoke very heavy on the aged,

⁷ And you say, I am mistress for all time, || While you have not laid these things to your heart, || You have not remembered the latter end of it.

⁸ And now, hear this, O luxurious one, || Who is sitting confidently—Who is saying in her heart, I [am], and none else, || I do not sit [as] a widow, nor know bereavement.

⁹ And these two things come to you, || In a moment, in one day: childlessness and widowhood, || They have come on you according to their perfection, || In the multitude of your sorceries, || In the exceeding might of your charms.

¹⁰ And you are confident in your wickedness, || You have said, There is none seeing me, || Your wisdom and your knowledge, || It is turning you back, || And you say in your heart, I [am], and none else.

¹¹ And evil has come in on you, || You do not know its rising, || And disaster falls on you, || You are not able to pacify it, || And desolation comes on you suddenly, || You do not know.

¹² Now stand in your charms, || And in the multitude of your sorceries, || In which you have labored from your youth, || It may be you are able to profit, || It may be you terrify!

¹³ You have been wearied in the multitude of your counsels, || Now stand up and let them save you—The charmers of the heavens, || Those looking on the stars, || Those teaching concerning the months—From those things that come on you!

¹⁴ Behold, they have been as stubble! Fire has burned them, || They do not deliver themselves from the power of the flame, || There is not a coal to warm them, a light to sit before it.

¹⁵ So they have been to you with whom you have labored, || Your merchants from your youth, || They have each wandered to his passage, || None is saving you!”

48

¹ “Hear this, O house of Jacob, || Who are called by the name of Israel, || And from the waters of Judah came out, || Who are swearing by the Name of YHWH, || And make mention of the God of Israel, || Not in truth nor in righteousness.

² For they have been called from the Holy City, || And been supported on the God of Israel, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

³ I declared the former things from that time, || And they have gone forth from My mouth, || And I proclaim them, || Suddenly I have done, and it comes.

⁴ From My knowing that you are obstinate, || And your neck—a sinew of iron, || And your forehead—bronze,

⁵ And from that time I declare [it] to you, || Before it comes I have caused you to hear, || Lest you say, My idol has done them, || And my carved image, || And my molten image commanded them.

⁶ You have heard, see the whole of it, || And you, do you not declare? I have caused you to hear new things from this time, || And things reserved that you did not know.

⁷ Now they have been produced and not from that time, || Indeed, before the day, and you have not heard them, || Lest you say, Behold, I have known them.

⁸ Indeed, you have not heard, || Indeed, you have not known, || Indeed, your ear has not opened from that time, || For I have known you deal treacherously, || And [are] a transgressor from the belly, || One is crying to you.

⁹ I defer My anger for My Name's sake, || And [for] My praise I restrain for you, || So as not to cut you off.

¹⁰ Behold, I have refined you, and not with silver, || I have chosen you in a furnace of affliction.

¹¹ For My sake, for My own sake, I do [it], || For how is it defiled? And I do not give My glory to another.

¹² Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel, My called one, || I [am] He, || I [am] first, and I [am] last;

¹³ Also, My hand has founded earth, || And My right hand stretched out the heavens, || I am calling to them, they stand together.

¹⁴ Be gathered, all of you, and hear, || Who among them declared these things? YHWH has loved him, || He does His pleasure on Babylon, || And His arm [is on] the Chaldeans.

¹⁵ I have spoken, indeed, I have called him, I have brought him in, || And he has made his way prosperous.

¹⁶ Come near to Me, hear this, || I have not spoken in secret from the beginning, || From the time of its being, I [am] there, || And now Lord YHWH has sent Me, and His Spirit."

¹⁷ Thus said YHWH, your Redeemer, || The Holy One of Israel: "I [am] your God YHWH, teaching you to profit, || Causing you to tread in the way you go.

¹⁸ O that you had attended to My commands, || Then your peace is as a river, || And your righteousness as billows of the sea,

¹⁹ And your seed is as sand, || And the offspring of your bowels as gravel, || His name would not be cut off nor destroyed before Me."

²⁰ Go out from Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans, || Declare with a voice of singing, || Cause this to be heard, || Bring it forth to the end of the earth, || Say, "YHWH has redeemed His servant Jacob."

²¹ And they have not thirsted in wastelands, || He has caused them to go on, || He has caused waters from a rock to flow to them, || Indeed, he cleaves a rock, and waters flow.

²² "There is no peace," said YHWH, "for the wicked!"

49

¹ Listen, O islands, to Me, || And attend, O peoples, from afar, || YHWH has called Me from the womb, || From the bowels of My mother || He has made mention of My Name.

² And He makes My mouth as a sharp sword, || He has hid Me in the shadow of His hand, || And He makes Me for a clear arrow, || He has hid Me in His quiver.

³ And He says to me, "You are My servant, O Israel, || In whom I beautify Myself."

⁴ And I said, "I labored in vain, || I consumed my power for emptiness and vanity, || But my judgment [is] with YHWH, || And my wage with my God."

⁵ "And now," said YHWH, who is forming Me from the belly—His Servant, || To bring Jacob back to Him || (Though Israel is not gathered, || Yet I am honored in the eyes of YHWH, || And My God has been My strength).

⁶ And He says, “It has been a light thing || That You are My Servant || To raise up the tribes of Jacob, || And to bring back the preserved of Israel, || And I have given You for a light to the nations, || To be My salvation to the end of the earth.”

⁷ Thus said YHWH, Redeemer of Israel, His Holy One, || To the despised in soul, || To the detested of a nation, || To the Servant of rulers: “Kings see, and have risen, princes, and worship, || For the sake of YHWH, who is faithful, || The Holy of Israel, and He chooses You.”

⁸ Thus said YHWH: “In a time of good pleasure I answered You, || And in a day of salvation I helped You, || And I keep You, and give You, || For a covenant of the people, || To establish the earth, || To cause to inherit desolate inheritances.

⁹ To say to the bound, Go out, || To those in darkness, Be uncovered. They feed on the ways, || And their pasture is in all high places.

¹⁰ They do not hunger, nor thirst, || Nor do mirage and sun strike them, || For He who is pitying them leads them, || And tends them by fountains of waters.

¹¹ And I have made all My mountains for a way, || And My highways are lifted up.

¹² Behold, these come in from afar, || And behold, these from the north, and from the sea, || And these from the land of Sinim.”

¹³ Sing, O heavens, and rejoice, O earth, || And break forth, O mountains, with singing, || For YHWH has comforted His people, || And He pities His afflicted ones.

¹⁴ And Zion says, “YHWH has forsaken me, || And my Lord has forgotten me.”

¹⁵ “Does a woman forget her suckling, || The loved one—the son of her womb? Indeed, these forget—but I do not forget you.

¹⁶ Behold, I have carved you on the palms of the hand, || Your walls [are] continually before Me.

¹⁷ Those building you have hurried, || Those destroying you, and laying you waste, go out from you.

¹⁸ Lift up your eyes, [look] around and see, || All of them have been gathered, || They have come to you. [As] I live,” a declaration of YHWH! “Surely you put on all of them as an ornament, || And you bind them on like a bride.

¹⁹ Because your ruins, and your desolate places, || And the land of your ruins, || Are now surely restricted because of inhabitants, || And those consuming you have been far off.

²⁰ Again the sons of your bereavement say in your ears: The place is too narrow for me, || Come near to me—and I dwell.

²¹ And you have said in your heart: Who has begotten these for me? And I [am] bereaved and barren, || A captive, and turned aside, || And who has nourished these? Behold, I was left by myself, these—where [are] they from?”

²³ And kings have been your nursing fathers, || And their princesses—your nursing mothers; Face to the earth—they bow down to you, || And they lick up the dust of your feet, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || That those expecting Me are not ashamed.”

²⁴ Is prey taken from the mighty? And the captive of the righteous delivered?

²⁵ For thus said YHWH: “Even the captive of the mighty is taken, || And the prey of the terrible is delivered, || And I strive with your striver, and I save your sons.

¹ Thus said YHWH: “Where [is] this—the bill of your mother’s divorce, || Whom I sent away? Or to which of My creditors have I sold you? Behold, you have been sold for your iniquities, || And for your transgressions || Your mother has been sent away.

² Why have I come, and there is no one? I called, and there is none answering, || Has My hand been at all short of redemption? And is there not power in Me to deliver? Behold, by My rebuke I dry up a sea, || I make rivers a wilderness, || Their fish stink, for there is no water, || And die with thirst.

³ I clothe the heavens [with] blackness, || And I make their covering sackcloth.”

⁴ Lord YHWH has given to Me || The tongue of taught ones, || To know to aid the weary [by] a word, || He awakens [Me] morning by morning, || He awakens [My] ear to hear as taught ones.

⁵ Lord YHWH opened My ear, || And I did not rebel—I did not move backward.

⁶ I have given My back to those striking, || And My cheeks to those plucking out, || I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

⁷ And Lord YHWH gives help to Me, || Therefore I have not been ashamed, || Therefore I have set My face as a flint, || And I know that I am not ashamed.

⁸ Near [is] He who is justifying Me, || Who contends with Me? We stand together, who [is] My opponent? Let him come near to Me.

⁹ Behold, Lord YHWH gives help to Me, || Who [is] he that declares Me wicked? Behold, all of them wear out as a garment, || A moth eats them.

¹⁰ “Who [is] among you, fearing YHWH, || Listening to the voice of His Servant, || That has walked in dark places, || And there is no brightness for him? Let him trust in the Name of YHWH, || And lean on his God.

¹¹ Behold, all you kindling a fire, girding on sparks, || Walk in the light of your fire, || And in the sparks you have caused to burn, || This has been to you from My hand, || You lie down in grief!”

¹ “Listen to Me, you pursuing righteousness, || Seeking YHWH, || Look attentively to the rock—you have been hewn, || And to the hole of the pit—you have been dug.

² Look attentively to your father Abraham, || And to Sarah—she brings you forth, || For—one—I have called him, || And I bless him, and multiply him.”

³ For YHWH has comforted Zion, || He has comforted all her ruins, || And He sets her wilderness as Eden, || And her desert as a garden of YHWH, || Joy, indeed, gladness is found in her, || Confession, and the voice of song.

⁴ “Attend to Me, O My people, || And, O My nation, give ear to Me. For a law goes out from Me, || And My judgment to the light, || I cause peoples to rest.

⁵ My righteousness [is] near, || My salvation has gone out, || And My arms judge peoples, || Islands wait on Me, || Indeed, on My arm they wait with hope.

⁶ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, || And look attentively to the earth beneath, || For the heavens have vanished as smoke, || And the earth wears out as a garment, || And its inhabitants die as gnats, || And My salvation is for all time, || And My righteousness is not broken.

⁸ For a moth eats them as a garment, || And a worm eats them as wool, || And My righteousness is for all time, || And My salvation from generation to generation.”

⁹ Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of YHWH, || Awake, as [in] days of old, generations of the ages, || Are You not it that is hewing down Rahab, || Piercing a dragon?

¹⁰ Are You not it that is drying up a sea, || Waters of a great deep? That has made deep places of a sea || A way for the passing of the redeemed?

¹¹ And the ransomed of YHWH return, || And they have come to Zion with singing, || And continuous joy [is] on their head, || They attain gladness and joy, || Sorrow and sighing have fled away,

¹² “I [am] He who comforts you, || Who [are] you—and you are afraid of man? He dies! And of the son of man—he is made [like] grass!

¹³ And you forget YHWH your Maker, || Who is stretching out the heavens, and founding earth, || And you continually fear all the day, || Because of the fury of the oppressor, || As he has prepared to destroy. And where [is] the fury of the oppressor?

¹⁴ A wanderer has hurried to be loosed, || And he does not die in the pit, || And his bread is not lacking.

¹⁵ And I [am] your God YHWH, || Quieting the sea when its billows roar, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

¹⁶ And I put My words in your mouth, || And have covered you with the shadow of My hand, || To plant the heavens, and to found earth, || And to say to Zion, You [are] My people.”

¹⁷ Stir yourself, stir yourself, rise, Jerusalem, || You who have drunk from the hand of YHWH || The cup of His fury, || The goblet, the cup of trembling, you have drunk, || You have wrung out.

¹⁸ There is not a leader to her || Out of all the sons she has borne, || And there is none laying hold on her hand || Out of all the sons she has nourished.

¹⁹ These two are meeting you, || Who is moved for you? Spoiling and destruction, famine and sword! By whom do I comfort you?

²⁰ Your sons have been wrapped up, they have lain down, || At the head of all out places, as an antelope [in] a dragnet, || They are full of the fury of YHWH, || The rebuke of Your God.

²¹ Therefore, please hear this, || O afflicted and drunken one, and not with wine,

²² Thus said your Lord YHWH, and your God, || He pleads [for] His people: “Behold, I have taken the cup of trembling out of your hand, || The goblet, the cup of My fury, || You do not add to drink it anymore.

²³ And I have put it into the hand of those afflicting you, || Who have said to your soul, || Bow down, and we pass over, || And you make your body as the earth, || And as the street to those passing by!”

¹ Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion, || Put on the garments of your beauty, Jerusalem—the Holy City; For the uncircumcised and unclean no longer enter into you again.

² Shake yourself from dust, arise, sit, O Jerusalem, || Bands of your neck have loosed themselves, || O captive daughter of Zion.

³ For thus said YHWH: “You have been sold for nothing, || And you are redeemed without money.”

⁴ For thus said Lord YHWH: “My people went down at first || To Egypt to sojourn there, || And Asshur—he has oppressed it for nothing.

⁵ And now, what [have] I here,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “That My people are taken for nothing? Its rulers cause howling,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And My Name is continually despised all the day.

⁶ Therefore My people know My Name, || Therefore, in that day, || Surely I [am] He who is speaking, behold Me.”

⁷ How lovely on the mountains, || Have been the feet of one proclaiming tidings, || Sounding peace, proclaiming good tidings, || Sounding salvation, || Saying to Zion, “Your God has reigned.”

⁹ Break forth, sing together, || O ruins of Jerusalem, || For YHWH has comforted His people, || He has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰ YHWH has made His holy arm bare || Before the eyes of all the nations, || And all the ends of the earth have seen || The salvation of our God.

¹¹ Turn aside, turn aside, go out from there, || Do not touch the unclean, || Go out from her midst, || Be pure, who are carrying the weapons of YHWH.

¹² For you do not go out in haste, || Indeed, you do not go on with flight, || For YHWH [is] going before you, || And the God of Israel [is] gathering you!

¹³ “Behold, My Servant acts wisely, || He is high, and has been lifted up, || And has been very high.”

¹⁴ As many have been astonished at You || (His appearance so marred by man, || And His form by sons of men),

¹⁵ So He sprinkles many nations. Kings shut their mouth concerning Him, || For that which was not recounted to them they have seen, || And that which they had not heard they have understood!

¹ Who has given credence to that which we heard? And the arm of YHWH, || On whom has it been revealed?

² Indeed, He comes up as a tender plant before Him, || And as a root out of dry land, || He has no form or splendor when we observe Him, || Nor appearance, that we desire Him.

³ He is despised, and left of men, || A Man of pains, and acquainted with sickness, || And as one hiding the face from us, || He is despised, and we did not esteem Him.

⁴ Surely He has borne our sicknesses, || And our pains—He has carried them, || And we have esteemed Him [as] plagued, struck of God, and afflicted.

⁶ All of us, like sheep, have wandered, || Man has turned to his own way, || And YHWH has laid on Him the punishment of us all.

⁷ It has been exacted, and He has answered, || And He does not open His mouth, || He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, || And as a sheep before its shearers is silent, || So He does not open His mouth.

⁸ By restraint and by judgment He has been taken, || And of His generation who meditates, || That He has been cut off from the land of the living? He is plagued by the transgression of My people,

⁹ And He appoints His grave with the wicked, || And with the rich at His death, || Because He has done no violence, || Nor [is] deceit in His mouth.

¹⁰ And YHWH has delighted to crush Him, || He has made Him sick; If His soul makes an offering for guilt, || He sees [His] seed—He prolongs [His] days, || And the pleasure of YHWH prospers in His hand.

¹² Therefore I give a portion to Him among the many, || And He apports spoil with the mighty, || Because that He exposed His soul to death, || And He was numbered with transgressors, || And He has borne the sin of many, || And He intercedes for transgressors.

² “Enlarge the place of your tent, || And they stretch out the curtains of your dwelling places, || Do not restrain—lengthen your cords, || And make your pins strong.

⁴ And they cause desolate cities to be inhabited. Do not fear, for you are not ashamed, || Nor blush, for you are not confounded, || For you forget the shame of your youth, || And the reproach of your widowhood || You do not remember anymore.

⁵ For your Maker [is] your husband, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name, || And your Redeemer [is] the Holy One of Israel, || He is called God of all the earth.

⁶ For as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, || YHWH has called you, || Even a youthful wife when she is refused," said your God.

⁷ "In a small moment I have forsaken you, || And in great mercies I gather you,

⁸ In overflowing wrath I hid My face [for] a moment from you, || And in perpetual kindness I have loved you, || Said your Redeemer—YHWH!

⁹ For this [is as] the days of Noah to Me, || In that I have sworn that the waters of Noah || Do not pass over the earth again—So I have sworn, || Wrath is not on you, || Nor rebuke against you.

¹⁰ For the mountains depart, and the hills remove, || And My kindness does not depart from you, || And the covenant of My peace does not remove," || Says YHWH, your loving one.

¹¹ "O afflicted, storm-tossed, not comforted, || Behold, I am laying your stones with cement, || And have founded you with sapphires,

¹² And have made your pinnacles of agate, || And your gates of carbuncle stones, || And all your border of stones of delight,

¹³ And all your sons are taught of YHWH, || And the peace of your sons [is] abundant.

¹⁴ You establish yourself in righteousness, || Be far from oppression, for you do not fear, || And from ruin, for it does not come near to you.

¹⁵ Behold, he diligently assembles without My desire, || Whoever has assembled near you falls by you!

¹⁶ Behold, I have created an artisan, || Blowing on a fire of coals, || And bringing out an instrument for his work, || And I have created a destroyer to destroy.

¹ "Behold, every thirsty one, || Come to the waters, || And he who has no money, || Come, buy and eat, || Indeed, come, buy wine and milk || Without money and without price.

² Why do you weigh money for that which is not bread? And your labor for that which is not for satiety? Listen diligently to Me, and eat good, || And your soul delights itself in fatness.

³ Incline your ear, and come to Me, || Hear, and your soul lives, || And I make a perpetual covenant for you, || The kind blessings of David that are steadfast.

⁴ Behold, I have given him [as] a witness to peoples, || A leader and commander to peoples.

⁵ Behold, a nation you do not know, you call, || And a nation who does not know you runs to you, || For the sake of your God YHWH, || And for the Holy One of Israel, || Because He has beautified you."

⁶ Seek YHWH while He may be found, || Call Him while He is near,

⁷ Let the wicked forsake his way, || And the man of iniquity his thoughts,
 || And he returns to YHWH, || And He pities him, || And to our God, ||
 For He multiplies to pardon.

⁸ “For My thoughts [are] not your thoughts, || Nor your ways My ways,”
 || A declaration of YHWH,

⁹ “For [as] high [as] the heavens have been above the earth, || So high have been My ways above your ways, || And My thoughts above your thoughts.

¹⁰ For as the shower comes down, || And the snow from the heavens,
 || And does not return there, || But has watered the earth, || And has caused it to yield, and to spring up, || And has given seed to the sower,
 and bread to the eater,

¹¹ So is My word that goes out of My mouth, || It does not return to Me
 empty, || But has done that which I desired, || And prosperously effected that [for] which I sent it.

¹² For you go forth with joy, || And you are brought in with peace, ||
 The mountains and the hills || Break forth before you [with] singing, ||
 And all trees of the field clap the hand.

¹³ Instead of the thorn comes up fir, || Instead of the brier comes up myrtle, || And it has been to YHWH for a name, || For a perpetual sign—it is not cut off!”

¹ Thus said YHWH: “Keep judgment, and do righteousness, || For My salvation [is] near to come, || And My righteousness to be revealed.”

² O the blessedness of a man who does this, || And of a son of man who keeps hold on it, || Keeping the Sabbath from defiling it, || And keeping his hand from doing any evil.

³ Do not let a son of the stranger speak, || Who is joined to YHWH, saying, “YHWH certainly separates me from His people.” Nor let the eunuch say, “Behold, I am a dried up tree,”

⁴ For thus said YHWH: “To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, ||
 And have fixed on that which I desired, || And are keeping hold on My covenant:

⁵ I have given to them in My house, || And within My walls a station and a name, || Better than sons and than daughters, || I give a continuous name to him || That is not cut off.

⁶ And sons of the stranger, who are joined to YHWH, || To serve Him, and to love the Name of YHWH, || To be for servants to Him, || All keeping from defiling the Sabbath, || And those keeping hold on My covenant,

⁷ I have brought them to My holy mountain, || And caused them to rejoice in My house of prayer, || Their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices
 || [Are] for a pleasing thing on My altar, || For My house is called a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

⁸ A declaration of Lord YHWH, || Who is gathering the outcasts of Israel:
 “Again I gather to him—to his gathered ones.”

⁹ Every beast of the field, || Come to devour, every beast in the forest.

¹⁰ His watchmen [are] blind—all of them, || They have not known, ||
 All of them [are] mute dogs, they are not able to bark, || Dozing, lying down, loving to slumber.

¹¹ And the dogs [are] strong of desire, || They have not known sufficiency, || And they [are] shepherds! They have not known understanding, || All of them turned to their own way, || Each to his dishonest gain from his quarter:

¹² "Come, I take wine, || And we drink, gulp strong drink, || And tomorrow has been as this day, || Great—exceedingly abundant!"

¹ The righteous has perished, || And there is none laying [it] to heart, || And men of kindness are gathered, || Without any considering that from the face of evil || The righteous one is gathered.

² He enters into peace, they rest on their beds, || [Each] is going straightforward.

³ "And you, come near here, || O sons of a sorceress, seed of an adulterer, || Even you commit whoredom.

⁴ Against whom do you sport yourselves? Against whom do you enlarge the mouth || [And] prolong the tongue? Are you not children of transgression? A false seed?

⁵ Who are inflamed among oaks, under every green tree, || Slaughtering the children in valleys, || Under clefts of the rocks.

⁶ Your portion [is] among the smooth things of a brook, || They [are] your lot, || You have also poured out an oblation to them, || You have caused a present to ascend, || Am I comforted in these things?

⁷ On a mountain, high and exalted, || You have set your bed, || You have also gone up there to make a sacrifice.

⁹ And go joyfully to the king in ointment, || And multiply your perfumes, || And send your ambassadors far off, || And humble yourself to Sheol.

¹⁰ You have labored in the greatness of your way, || You have not said, It is desperate. You have found the life of your hand, || Therefore you have not been sick.

¹¹ And of whom have you been afraid, and fear, || That you lie, and have not remembered Me? You have not laid [it] to your heart, || Am I not silent, even from of old? And you do not fear Me?

¹² I declare your righteousness, and your works, || And they do not profit you.

¹³ When you cry, let your gatherings deliver you, || And wind carries all of them away, || Vanity takes away, || And whoever is trusting in Me inherits the land, || And possesses My holy mountain."

¹⁴ And He has said, "Raise up, raise up, prepare a way, || Lift a stumbling-block out of the way of My people."

¹⁵ For thus said the high and exalted One, || Inhabiting eternity, and His Name [is] holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, || And with the bruised and humble of spirit, || To revive the spirit of the humble, || And to revive the heart of bruised ones,

¹⁶ For I do not strive for all time, nor am I angry forever, || For the spirit is feeble before Me, || And the souls I have made.

¹⁷ For the iniquity of his dishonest gain, || I have been angry, and I strike him, || Hiding—and am angry, || And he goes on turning back in the way of his heart.

¹⁸ I have seen his ways, and I heal him, indeed, I lead him, || And repay comforts to him and to his mourning ones.

¹⁹ Producing the fruit of the lips, || Peace, peace, to the far off, and to the near, || And I have healed him,” said YHWH.

²⁰ And the wicked [are] as the driven out sea, || For it is not able to rest, || And its waters cast out filth and mire.

²¹ “There is no peace,” said my God, “for the wicked!”

¹ “Call with the throat, do not restrain, lift up your voice as a horn, || And declare to My people their transgression, || And to the house of Jacob their sins;

² They seek Me day by day, || And they desire the knowledge of My ways, || As a nation that has done righteousness, || And has not forsaken the judgment of its God, || They ask of Me judgments of righteousness, || They desire the drawing near of God:

³ Why have we fasted, and You have not seen? We have afflicted our soul, and You do not know. Behold, you find pleasure in the day of your fast, || And exact all your laborers.

⁶ Is this not the fast that I chose—To loose the bands of wickedness, || To shake off the burdens of the yoke, || And to send out the oppressed free, || And draw off every yoke?

⁷ Is it not to deal your bread to the hungry, || And bring home the wandering poor, || That you see the naked and cover him, || And do not hide yourself from your own flesh?

⁸ Then your light breaks forth as the dawn, || And your health springs up in haste, || Your righteousness has gone before you, || The glory of YHWH gathers you.

⁹ Then you call, and YHWH answers, || You cry, and He says, Behold Me. If you turn aside the yoke from your midst, || The sending forth of the finger, || And the speaking of vanity,

¹⁰ And bring out your soul to the hungry, || And satisfy the afflicted soul, || Then your light has risen in the darkness, || And your thick darkness [is] as noon.

¹¹ And YHWH continually leads you, || And has satisfied your soul in drought, || And He arms your bones, || And you have been as a watered garden, || And as an outlet of waters, whose waters do not lie.

¹² And they have built the ancient ruins from you, || You raise up the foundations of many generations, || And one calls you, Repairer of the breach, || Restorer of paths to rest in.

¹⁴ Then you delight yourself on YHWH, || And I have caused you to ride on high places of earth, || And have caused you to eat the inheritance of your father Jacob, || For the mouth of YHWH has spoken!"

¹ Behold, the hand of YHWH || Has not been shortened from saving, || Nor His ear heavy from hearing.

² But your iniquities have been separating || Between you and your God, || And your sins have hidden || The Presence from you—from hearing.

³ For your hands have been defiled with blood, || And your fingers with iniquity, || Your lips have spoken falsehood, || Your tongue mutters perverseness.

⁵ They have hatched eggs of a viper, || And weave webs of a spider, || Whoever is eating their eggs dies, and the crushed hatches a viper.

⁷ Their feet run to evil, || And they hurry to shed innocent blood, || Their thoughts [are] thoughts of iniquity, || Spoiling and destruction [are] in their highways.

⁸ They have not known a way of peace, || And there is no judgment in their paths, || They have made their paths perverse for themselves, || None treading in it has known peace.

⁹ Therefore judgment has been far from us, || And righteousness does not reach us, || We wait for light, and behold, darkness, || For brightness—in thick darkness we go,

¹⁰ We feel [for] the wall like the blind, || Indeed, we feel as without eyes, || We have stumbled at noon as at twilight, || In desolate places as the dead.

¹¹ We make a noise as bears—all of us, || And we coo severely as doves; We wait for judgment, and there is none, || For salvation—it has been far from us.

¹² For our transgressions have been multiplied before You, || And our sins have testified against us, || For our transgressions [are] with us, || And our iniquities—we have known them.

¹⁴ And judgment is removed backward, || And righteousness stands far off, || For truth has been feeble in the street, || And straightforwardness is not able to enter,

¹⁵ And the truth is lacking, || And whoever is turning aside from evil, || Is making himself a spoil. And YHWH sees, and it is evil in His eyes, || That there is no judgment.

¹⁶ And He sees that there is no man, || And is astonished that there is no intercessor, || And His own arm gives salvation to Him, || And His righteousness—it sustained Him.

¹⁸ According to deeds—so He repays. Fury to His adversaries, [their] deed to His enemies, || To the islands He repays [their] deed.

²⁰ “And the Redeemer has come to Zion, || Even to captives of transgression in Jacob,” || A declaration of YHWH.

²¹ “And I—this [is] My covenant with them,” said YHWH, “My Spirit that [is] on you, || And My words that I have put in your mouth, || Do not depart from your mouth, || And from the mouth of your seed, || And from the mouth of your seed’s seed,” said YHWH, “From now on, even for all time!”

¹ Arise, shine, for your light has come, || And the glory of YHWH has risen on you.

² For behold, the darkness covers the earth, || And thick darkness the peoples, || And YHWH rises on you, || And His glory is seen on you.

³ And nations have come to your light, || And kings to the brightness of your rising.

⁴ “Lift up your eyes around and see, || All of them have been gathered, they have come to you, || Your sons come from afar, || And your daughters are supported on the side.

⁵ Then you see, and have become bright, || And your heart has been afraid and enlarged, || For the multitude of the sea turn to you, || The forces of nations come to you.

⁶ A multitude of camels covers you, || Dromedaries of Midian and Ephah, || All of them from Sheba come, || They carry gold and frankincense, || And they proclaim the praises of YHWH.

⁷ All the flock of Kedar are gathered to you, || The rams of Nebaioth serve you, || They ascend My altar for acceptance, || And I beautify the house of My beauty.

⁸ Who [are] these—they fly as a thick cloud, || And as doves to their windows?

⁹ Surely islands wait for Me, || And ships of Tarshish first, || To bring your sons from afar, || Their silver and their gold with them, || To the Name of your God YHWH, || And to the Holy One of Israel, || Because He has beautified you.

¹⁰ And sons of a stranger have built your walls, || And their kings serve you, || For in My wrath I have struck you, || And in My good pleasure I have pitied you.

¹¹ And your gates have continually opened, || They are not shut by day and by night, || To bring the force of nations to you, || Even their kings are led.

¹² For the nation and the kingdom that does not serve you perishes, || Indeed, the nations are utterly desolated.

¹³ The glory of Lebanon comes to you, || Fir, pine, and box together, || To beautify the place of My sanctuary, || And I make the place of My feet honorable.

¹⁴ And the sons of those afflicting you || Have come to you, bowing down, || And all despising you || Have bowed themselves to the soles of your feet, || And they have cried to you: The City of YHWH, || Zion of the Holy One of Israel!

¹⁵ Instead of your being forsaken and hated, || And none passing through, || I have made you for a continuous excellence, || A joy of generation and generation.

¹⁶ And you have sucked the milk of nations, || Indeed, you suckle the breast of kings, || And you have known that I, YHWH, || Your Savior, and Your Redeemer, || [Am] the Mighty One of Jacob.

¹⁷ Instead of the bronze I bring in gold, || And instead of the iron I bring in silver, || And instead of the wood bronze, || And instead of the stone iron, || And I have made your inspection peace, || And your exactors righteousness.

¹⁹ The sun is no longer your light by day, || And for brightness the moon does not give light to you, || And YHWH has become to you || A continuous light, and your God your beauty.

²⁰ Your sun goes in no more, || And your moon is not removed, || For YHWH becomes a continuous light to you. And the days of your mourning have been completed.

²¹ And all your people [are] righteous, || They possess the earth for all time, || A branch of My planting, || A work of My hands, to be beautified.

²² The little one becomes a chief, || And the small one a mighty nation, || I, YHWH, hurry it in its own time!"

¹ "[The] Spirit of Lord YHWH [is] on Me, || Because YHWH anointed Me || To proclaim tidings to the humble, || He sent Me to bind the broken of heart, || To proclaim liberty to the captives, || And an opening of bands to [those] bound.

² To proclaim the year of the favor of YHWH, || And the day of vengeance of our God, || To comfort all mourners.

⁴ And they have built the ancient ruins, || They raise up the desolations of the ancients, || And they have renewed ruined cities, || The desolations of generation and generation.

⁵ And strangers have stood and fed your flock, || And the sons of a foreigner || [Are] your farmers and your vinedressers.

⁶ And you are called priests of YHWH, || It is said of you [that you are] ministers of our God, || You consume the strength of nations, || And you boast yourselves in their glory.

⁷ Instead of your shame—double [honor], || And [instead of] confusion, || They rejoice in their portion, || Therefore they take possession in their land a second time, || Continuous joy [is] for them.

⁸ “For I [am] YHWH, loving judgment, || Hating plunder for a burnt-offering, || And I have given their wage in truth, || And I make a perpetual covenant for them.

⁹ And their seed has been known among the nations, || And their offspring in the midst of the peoples, || All their beholders acknowledge them, || For they [are] a seed YHWH has blessed.”

¹⁰ I greatly rejoice in YHWH, || My soul rejoices in my God, || For He clothed me with garments of salvation, || [And] covered me with a robe of righteousness, || As a bridegroom prepares ornaments, || And as a bride puts on her jewels.

¹ For Zion’s sake I am not silent, || And for Jerusalem’s sake I do not rest, || Until her righteousness goes out as brightness, || And her salvation burns as a torch.

² And nations have seen your righteousness, || And all kings your glory, || And He is giving a new name to you, || That the mouth of YHWH defines.

³ And you have been a crown of beauty in the hand of YHWH, || And a turban of royalty in the hand of your God,

⁴ It is not said of you anymore, “Forsaken!” And of your land it is not said anymore, “Desolate,” || For to you is cried, “My delight [is] in her,” || And to your land, “Married,” || For YHWH has delighted in you, || And your land is married.

⁵ For a young man marries a virgin, || Your builders marry you, || With the joy of a bridegroom over a bride, || Your God rejoices over you.

⁷ And do not give silence to Him, || Until He establishes, and until He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

⁹ For those gathering it eat it, and have praised YHWH, || And those collecting it drink it in My holy courts.”

¹⁰ Pass on, pass on through the gates, || Prepare the way of the people, || Raise up, raise up the highway, clear it from stones, || Lift up an ensign over the peoples.

11 Behold, YHWH has proclaimed to the end of the earth: “Say to the daughter of Zion, || Behold, your salvation has come, || Behold, His hire [is] with Him, || And His wage before Him.”

12 And they have cried to them, “The People of the Holy One! The Redeemed of YHWH!” Indeed, to you is called, “The sought out one, a city not forsaken!”

63

1 Who [is] this coming from Edom? With dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is honorable in His clothing, || Traveling in the abundance of His power? “I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save.”

2 Why [is] Your clothing red? And Your garments as treading in a winepress?

3 “I have trodden a wine vat by Myself, || And of the peoples there is no one with Me, || And I tread them in My anger, || And I trample them in My fury, || Their strength is sprinkled on My garments, || And I have defiled all My clothing.

4 For the day of vengeance [is] in My heart, || And the year of My redeemed has come.

5 And I look attentively, and there is none helping, || And I am astonished that there is none supporting, || And My own arm gives salvation to Me. And My wrath—it has supported Me.

6 And I tread down peoples in My anger, || And I make them drunk in My fury, || And I bring down their strength to earth.”

7 I make mention of the kind acts of YHWH, || The praises of YHWH, || According to all that YHWH has done for us, || And the abundance of the goodness to the house of Israel, || That He has done for them, || According to His mercies, || And according to the abundance of His kind acts.

8 And He says, “Surely they [are] My people, || Sons—they do not lie,” and He is to them for a Savior.

9 In all their distress [He is] no adversary, || And the Messenger of His Presence saved them, || In His love and in His pity He redeemed them, || And He lifts them up, || And carries them all the days of old.

10 And they have been rebellious and have grieved His Holy Spirit, || And He turns to them for an enemy, || He Himself has fought against them.

11 And He remembers the days of old, || Moses—his people. Where [is] He who is bringing them up from the sea, || The shepherd of His flock? Where [is] He who is putting in its midst His Holy Spirit?

12 Leading by the right hand of Moses, the arm of His glory, || Cleaving waters from before them, || To make to Himself a continuous Name.

13 Leading them through the depths, || They do not stumble as a horse in a plain.

14 As a beast goes down into a valley, || The Spirit of YHWH causes him to rest, || So You have led Your people, || To make to Yourself a glorious Name.

15 Look attentively from the heavens, || And see from Your holy and beautiful habitation, || Where [is] Your zeal and Your might? The multitude of Your bowels and Your mercies—Are they restrained?

¹⁶ For You [are] our Father, || For Abraham has not known us, || And Israel does not acknowledge us, || You, O YHWH, [are] our Father, || Our Redeemer from the Age, [is] Your Name.

¹⁷ Why cause us to wander, O YHWH, from Your ways? You harden our heart from Your fear, || Turn back for Your servants' sake, || The tribes of Your inheritance.

¹⁸ For a little while Your holy people possessed, || Our adversaries have trodden down Your sanctuary.

64

¹ Did You not tear the heavens? You came down, || Mountains flowed from Your presence,

² (As fire kindles stubble—Fire causes water to boil), || To make Your Name known to Your adversaries, || Nations tremble from Your presence.

³ In Your doing fearful things [that] we do not expect, || You came down, || Mountains flowed from Your presence.

⁴ Even from antiquity [men] have not heard, || They have not given ear, || Eye has not seen a God except You, || He works for those waiting for Him.

⁵ You have met with the rejoicer || And the doer of righteousness, || In Your ways they remember You, || Behold, You have been angry when we sin, || By them [is] continuance, and we are saved.

⁶ And we are as unclean—all of us, || And all our righteous acts [are] as garments of menstruation; And we fade as a leaf—all of us. And our iniquities take us away as wind.

⁷ And there is none calling on Your Name, || Stirring himself up to lay hold on You, || For You have hid Your face from us, || And You melt us away by our iniquities.

⁸ And now, O YHWH, You [are] our Father, || We [are] the clay, and You [are] our Framer, || And the work of Your hand—all of us.

⁹ Do not be angry, O YHWH, very severely, || Nor remember iniquity forever, || Behold, look attentively, we implore You, || We [are] all Your people.

¹⁰ Your holy cities have been a wilderness, || Zion has been a wilderness, || Jerusalem a desolation.

¹ "I have been inquired of by those who did not ask, || I have been found by those who did not seek Me, || I have said, Behold Me, behold Me, || To a nation not calling on My Name.

² I have spread out My hands all the day || To an apostate people, || Who are going in the way [that is] not good, || After their own thoughts.

³ The people who are continually provoking Me to anger, || To My face, || Sacrificing in gardens, and making incense on the bricks:

4 Who are dwelling among tombs, || And lodge in reserved places, || Who are eating flesh of the sow, || And a piece of abominations—their vessels.

5 Who are saying, Keep to yourself, do not come near to me, || For I have declared you unholy. These [are] smoke in My anger, || A fire burning all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before Me: I am not silent, but have repaid; And I have repaid into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together,” said YHWH, “Who have made incense on the mountains, || And have reproached Me on the heights, || And I have measured their former work into their bosom.”

8 Thus said YHWH: “As the new wine is found in the cluster, || And one has said, Do not destroy it for a blessing [is] in it, || So I do for My servants’ sake, || Not to destroy the whole.

9 And I have brought out a Seed from Jacob, || And from Judah a Possessor of My mountain, || And My chosen ones possess it, || And My servants dwell there.

10 And Sharon has been for the habitation of a flock, || And the Valley of Achor for the lying down of a herd, || For My people who have sought Me.

11 And you [are] those forsaking YHWH, || Who are forgetting My holy mountain, || Who are setting a table in array for Gad, || And who are filling a mixture for Meni.

12 And I have numbered you for the sword, || And all of you bow down for slaughter, || Because I called, and you have not answered, || I have spoken, and you have not listened, || And you do evil in My eyes, || And on that which I did not desire—fixed.”

13 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “Behold, My servants eat, and you hunger, || Behold, My servants drink, and you thirst, || Behold, My servants rejoice, and you are ashamed,

14 Behold, My servants sing from joy of heart, || And you cry from pain of heart, || And you howl from breaking of spirit.

15 And you have left your name || For an oath for My chosen ones, || And Lord YHWH has put you to death, || And He gives another name to His servants;

16 So that he who is blessing himself in the earth, || Blesses himself in the God of faithfulness, || And he who is swearing in the earth, || Swears by the God of faithfulness, || Because the former distresses have been forgotten, || And because they have been hid from My eyes.

17 For behold, I am creating new heavens and a new earth, || And the former things are not remembered, || Nor do they ascend on the heart.

18 But rejoice, and rejoice forever, that I [am] Creator, || For behold, I am creating Jerusalem [to be] a rejoicing, || And her people a joy.

19 And I have rejoiced in Jerusalem, || And have rejoiced in My people, || And the voice of weeping is not heard in her anymore, and the voice of crying.

20 There is not a suckling of [mere] days there anymore, || And an aged man who does not complete his days, || For the youth dies one hundred years old, || And the sinner, one hundred years old, is lightly esteemed.

²¹ And they have built houses, and inhabited, || And planted vineyards, and eaten their fruit.

²³ They do not labor for a vain thing, || Nor do they bring forth for trouble, || For they [are] the seed of the blessed of YHWH, || And their offspring with them.

²⁴ And it has come to pass, || They do not yet call, and I answer, || They are yet speaking, and I hear.

¹ Thus said YHWH: “The heavens [are] My throne, || And the earth My footstool, || Where [is] this—the house that you build for Me? And where [is] this—the place—My rest?”

² And My hand has made all these, || And all these things are,” || A declaration of YHWH! “And to this one I look attentively, || To the humble and bruised in spirit, || And who is trembling at My word.

³ Whoever slaughters the ox strikes a man, || Whoever sacrifices the lamb beheads a dog, || Whoever is bringing up a present—The blood of a sow, || Whoever is making mention of frankincense, || Is blessing iniquity. Indeed, they have fixed on their own ways, || And their soul has delighted in their abominations.

⁴ I also—I fix on their distress, || And I bring in their fears to them, || Because I have called, and there is none answering, || I spoke, and they have not listened, || And they do evil in My eyes, || And on that which I did not desire—fixed.”

⁶ A voice of noise from the city, || A voice from the temple, || The voice of YHWH, || Giving repayment to His enemies.

⁷ “Before she is pained she has brought forth, || Before a pang comes to her, || She has delivered a male.

⁸ Who has heard anything like this? Who has seen anything like these? Is earth caused to bring forth in one day? Is a nation born at once? For she has been pained, || Zion has also borne her sons.

⁹ Do I bring to the birth, || And not cause to bring forth?” says YHWH, || “Am I not He who is causing to beget? I have also restrained,” said your God.

¹⁰ “Rejoice with Jerusalem, || And be glad in her, all you loving her, || Rejoice with her for joy, || All you who are mourning for her,

¹¹ So that you suckle, and have been satisfied, || From the breast of her consolations, || So that you wring out, and have delighted yourselves || From the abundance of her glory.”

¹² For thus said YHWH: “Behold, I am stretching out to her peace as a river, || And the glory of nations as an overflowing stream, || And you have sucked, || You are carried on the side, || And you are dandled on the knees.

¹³ As one whom his mother comforts, so do I comfort you, || Indeed, you are comforted in Jerusalem."

¹⁴ And you have seen, and your heart has rejoiced, || And your bones flourish as tender grass, || And the hand of YHWH has been known to His servants, || And He has been indignant with His enemies.

¹⁵ For behold, YHWH comes in fire, || And His chariots as a windstorm, || To refresh His anger in fury, || And His rebuke in flames of fire.

¹⁶ For by fire and by His sword, || YHWH does judgment with all flesh. And many have been YHWH's pierced ones.

¹⁷ "Those sanctifying and cleansing themselves [to go] to the gardens, || One after another in the midst, || Eating flesh of the sow, || And of the abomination, and of the mureid, || Are consumed together," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁸ "And I—their works and their thoughts, || I come to gather all the nations and tongues, || And they have come and seen My glory.

¹⁹ And I have set a sign among them, || And have sent out of them those escaping to the nations || (Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, drawing bow, Tubal and Javan, the islands that are far off), || Who have not heard My fame, nor seen My glory, || And they have declared My glory among nations.

²⁰ And they have brought all your brothers out of all the nations, || A present to YHWH, || On horses, and on chariot, and on litters, || And on mules, and on dromedaries, || To My holy mountain Jerusalem," said YHWH, "As the sons of Israel bring the present in a clean vessel, || Into the house of YHWH.

²² "For as the new heavens and the new earth that I am making, || Are standing before Me," || A declaration of YHWH, || "So your seed and your name remain.

²³ And it has been from month to month, || And from Sabbath to Sabbath, || All flesh come to bow themselves before Me," said YHWH.

²⁴ "And they have gone forth, || And looked on the carcasses of the men || Who are transgressing against Me, || For their worm does not die, || And their fire is not quenched, || And they have been an abhorrence to all flesh!"

Jeremiah

¹ Words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, of the priests who [are] in Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin,

² to whom the word of YHWH has been in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign,

⁴ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁵ “Before I form you in the belly, I have known you; and before you come forth from the womb I have separated you; I have made you a prophet to the nations.”

⁶ And I say, “Aah! Lord YHWH! Behold, I have not known—to speak, for I [am] a youth.”

⁷ And YHWH says to me, “Do not say, I [am] a youth, for to all to whom I send you—go, and all that I command you—speak.

⁸ Do not be afraid of their faces, for I [am] with you to deliver you,” a declaration of YHWH.

⁹ And YHWH puts forth His hand, and strikes against my mouth, and YHWH says to me, “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

¹⁰ See, I have charged you this day concerning the nations, and concerning the kingdoms, to pluck up, and to break down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.”

¹¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying, “What are you seeing, Jeremiah?” And I say, “I am seeing a rod of an almond tree.”

¹² And YHWH says to me, “You have seen well: for I am watching over My word to do it.”

¹³ And there is a word of YHWH to me a second time, saying, “What are you seeing?” And I say, “I am seeing a blown pot, and its face [is] from the north.”

¹⁴ And YHWH says to me, “From the north the evil is loosed against all inhabitants of the land.

¹⁶ And I have spoken My judgments with them concerning all their evil, in that they have forsaken Me, and make incense to other gods, and bow themselves to the works of their own hands.

¹⁷ And you, you gird up your loins, and have arisen, and spoken to them all that I command you: do not be frightened because of them, lest I frighten you before them.

¹⁸ And I, behold, have given you this day for a fortified city, and for an iron pillar, and for bronze walls over all the land, to the kings of Judah, to its heads, to its priests, and to the people of the land;

¹⁹ and they have fought against you, and they do not prevail against you; for I [am] with you,” a declaration of YHWH, “to deliver you.”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Go, and you have called in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus said YHWH: I have remembered for you || The kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, || Your going after Me in a wilderness, in a land not sown.

³ Israel [is] holy to YHWH, || The first-fruit of His increase, || All consuming him are guilty, || Calamity comes to them,” || A declaration of YHWH.

⁴ Hear a word of YHWH, O house of Jacob, || And all you families of the house of Israel—

⁵ Thus said YHWH: “What perversity have your fathers found in Me, || That they have gone far off from Me, || And go after vanity, and become vain,

⁶ And have not said, Where [is] YHWH, || Who brings us up out of the land of Egypt, || Who leads us in a wilderness, || In a land of deserts and pits, || In a dry land, and of death-shade, || In a land that none has passed through, || Nor has man dwelt there?

⁷ Indeed, I bring you into a land of fruitful fields, || To eat its fruit and its goodness, || And you come in and defile My land, || And have made My inheritance an abomination.

⁸ The priests have not said, Where [is] YHWH? And those handling the Law have not known Me. And the shepherds transgressed against Me, || And the prophets have prophesied by Ba’al, || And have gone after those who do not profit.

⁹ Therefore, I yet plead with you,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I plead with your sons’ sons.

¹⁰ For pass to the islands of Chittim and see, || And send to Kedar and consider well, || And see if there has been [anything] like this:

¹¹ Has a nation changed gods? (And they [are] no gods!) And My people has changed its glory || For that which does not profit.

¹² Be astonished, you heavens, at this, || Indeed, be frightened, be greatly desolated,” || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁴ [Is] Israel a servant? Is he a child of the house? Why has he been for a prey?

¹⁵ Young lions roar against him, || They have given forth their voice, || And make his land become a desolation, || His cities have been burned without inhabitant.

¹⁶ Also sons of Noph and Tahapanes || Consume you—the crown of the head!

¹⁷ Do you not do this to yourself? [By] your forsaking your God YHWH, || At the time He is leading you in the way?

¹⁸ And now, why do you [go] in the way of Egypt, || To drink the waters of Sihor? And why do you [go] in the way of Asshur, || To drink the waters of the River?

¹⁹ Your wickedness instructs you, || And your backslidings reprove you, || Know and see that an evil and a bitter thing [is] your forsaking your

God YHWH, || And My fear not being on you," || A declaration of Lord YHWH of Hosts.

²⁰ "For from of old you have broken your yoke, || Drawn away your bands, and say, I do not serve, || For on every high height, and under every green tree, || You are wandering—a harlot.

²¹ And I planted you [as] a choice vine, wholly of true seed, || And how have you been turned || Into the degenerate shoots of a strange vine to Me?

²² But though you wash with natron, || And multiply soap to yourself, || Your iniquity is marked before Me," || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

²⁶ As the shame of a thief when he is found, || So has the house of Israel been put to shame, || They, their kings, their heads, || And their priests, and their prophets,

²⁷ Saying to wood, You [are] my father! And to a stone, You have brought me forth, || For they turned to me the back and not the face, || And in the time of their distress, || They say, Arise, and save us.

²⁸ And where [are] your gods, that you have made to yourself? Let them arise, if they may save you, || In the time of your distress, || For—the number of your cities have been your gods, O Judah,

³⁰ "I have struck your sons in vain, || They have not accepted instruction, || Your sword has devoured your prophets, || As a destroying lion.

³¹ O generation, see the word of YHWH: Have I been a wilderness to Israel? A land of thick darkness? Why have My people said, || We wandered freely, || We do not come to You again.

³² Does a virgin forget her ornaments? A bride her bands? And My people have forgotten Me [for] days without number.

³³ Why do you make your ways pleasing to seek love? Therefore you have even taught the wicked your ways.

³⁴ Also the blood of innocent needy souls || Has been found on your skirts, || I have not found them by digging, || But on all these.

³⁵ And you say, Because I have been innocent, || Surely His anger has turned back from me? Behold, I have been judged with you, || Because of your saying, I have not sinned.

³⁷ Also you go out from this, || And your hands on your head, || For YHWH has kicked at your confidences, || And you do not give prosperity to them!"

¹ “Saying, Behold, one sends his wife away, || And she has gone from him, || And she has been to another man, || Does he return to her again? Is that land not greatly defiled? And you have committed whoredom with many lovers, || And turn to Me again,” || A declaration of YHWH.

² “Lift your eyes to the high places, and see, || Where have you not been lain with? You have sat for them on the ways, || As an Arab in a wilderness, || And you defile the land, || By your fornications, and by your wickedness.

³ And showers are withheld, and there has been no spring rain. You have the forehead of a whorish woman, || You have refused to be ashamed.

⁴ Have you not from now on called to Me, || My Father, You [are] the leader of my youth?

⁵ Does He keep for all time? Watch forever? Behold, you have spoken these things, || And you do evil, and prevail.”

⁶ And YHWH says to me, in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She is going on every high mountain, and to the place of every green tree, and commits fornication there.

⁷ And I say, after her doing all these, Return to Me, and she has not returned, and her treacherous sister Judah sees it.

⁸ And I see that for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I have sent her away, and I give the bill of her divorce to her; and her treacherous sister Judah has not feared, and goes and commits fornication—she also.

⁹ And it has come to pass, from the vileness of her fornication, that the land is defiled, and she commits fornication with stone and with wood.

¹⁰ And even in all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned back to Me with all her heart, but with falsehood,” a declaration of YHWH.

¹¹ And YHWH says to me: “Backsliding Israel has justified herself, || More than treacherous Judah.

¹² Go, and you have proclaimed these words toward the north, and have said, Return, O backsliding Israel,” || A declaration of YHWH! “I do not cause My anger to fall on you, for I [am] kind,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “I do not watch for all time.

¹³ Only, know your iniquity, || For you have transgressed against your God YHWH, || And you scatter your ways to strangers, || Under every green tree, || And you have not listened to My voice,” || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁴ “Return, O backsliding sons,” || A declaration of YHWH. “For I have ruled over you, || And taken you—one from a city, and two from a family, || And have brought you to Zion,

¹⁵ And I have given shepherds to you || According to My own heart, || And they have fed you with knowledge and understanding.

¹⁶ And it has come to pass, when you are multiplied, || And have been fruitful in the land, || In those days,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “They no longer say, The Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, || Nor does it go up on the heart, || Nor do they remember concerning it, || Nor do they inspect, nor is it made again.

17 At that time they cry to Jerusalem, O throne of YHWH, || And all the nations have been gathered to her, || For the Name of YHWH, to Jerusalem, || Nor do they go after the stubbornness of their evil heart anymore.

18 In those days the house of Judah || Goes to the house of Israel, || And they come together from the land of the south, || To the land that I caused your fathers to inherit.

19 And I have said, How do I put you among the sons, || And give a desirable land to you, || A beautiful inheritance of the hosts of nations, || And I say, You call Me—My Father, || And you do not turn back from after Me.

20 But a woman has deceived her friend, || So you have dealt treacherously with Me, || O house of Israel," || A declaration of YHWH.

21 A voice is heard on high places—weeping, || Supplications of the sons of Israel, || For they have made their way perverse, || They have forgotten their God YHWH.

22 "Return, O backsliding sons, || I cause your backslidings to cease." "Behold us, we have come to You, || For You [are] our God YHWH.

23 Surely in vain—from the heights, || The multitude of mountains—Surely the salvation of Israel [is] in our God YHWH.

24 And the shameful thing has devoured || The labor of our fathers from our youth, || Their flock and their herd, || Their sons and their daughters.

25 We have lain down in our shame, and our confusion covers us, || For we have sinned against our God YHWH, || We, and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, || Nor have we listened to the voice of our God YHWH!"

1 "If you return, O Israel," || A declaration of YHWH, || "Return to Me, || And if you turn aside Your abominations from My face, || Then you do not bemoan.

2 And you have sworn—YHWH lives, || In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness, || And nations have blessed themselves in Him, || And they boast themselves in Him."

3 For thus said YHWH, || To the man of Judah, and to Jerusalem: "Till for yourselves tillage, || And do not sow to the thorns.

4 Be circumcised to YHWH, || And turn aside the foreskins of your heart, || O man of Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, || Lest My fury goes out as fire, and has burned, || And there is none quenching, || Because of the evil of your doings."

5 Declare in Judah, and sound in Jerusalem, and say: "Blow a horn in the land, || Call, Fill up together, || And say, Assemble yourselves and let us go into the fortified cities.

6 Lift up an ensign toward Zion, || Strengthen yourselves, do not stand still, || For I am bringing evil in from the north, || And a great destruction."

7 A lion has gone up from his thicket, || And a destroyer of nations has journeyed, || He has come forth from his place || To make your land become a desolation, || Your cities are laid waste, without inhabitant.

8 For this, gird on sackcloth, lament and howl, || For the fierce anger of YHWH has not turned back from us.

9 “And it has come to pass in that day,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “The heart of the king perishes, || And the heart of the princes, || And the priests have been astonished, || And the prophets wonder.”

10 And I say, “Aah! Lord YHWH, || Surely you have entirely forgotten this people and Jerusalem, || Saying, Peace is for you, || And a sword has struck to the soul!”

11 At that time it is said of this people, || And of Jerusalem: “A dry wind of high places in the wilderness, || The way of the daughter of My people || (Not for winnowing, nor for cleansing),

12 A full wind from these comes for Me, || Now also, I speak judgments with them.”

13 “Behold, he comes up as clouds, || And his chariots as a windstorm, || His horses have been lighter than eagles, || Woe to us, for we have been spoiled.”

14 Wash evil from your heart, O Jerusalem, || That you may be saved, || Until when do you lodge in your heart || Thoughts of your strength?

15 For a voice is declaring from Dan, || And sounding sorrow from Mount Ephraim:

16 “Make mention to the nations, || Behold, sound to Jerusalem, || Besiegers are coming from the far-off land, || And they give forth their voice against cities of Judah.

17 As the keepers of a field || They have been against her all around, || For she has been rebellious with Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

18 “Your way and your doings have done these to you, || This [is] your distress, for [it is] bitter, || For it has struck to your heart.”

19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained [in] the walls of my heart, || My heart makes a noise for me, I am not silent, || For I have heard the voice of a horn, || O my soul—a shout of battle!

20 Destruction on destruction is proclaimed, || For all the land has been spoiled, || My tents have suddenly been spoiled, || In a moment—my curtains.

21 Until when do I see an ensign? Do I hear the voice of a horn?

22 “For My people [are] foolish, || They have not known Me, || They [are] foolish sons, || Indeed, they [are] not intelligent, || They [are] wise to do evil, || And they have not known to do good.”

23 I looked [to] the earth, and behold—formless and void, || And to the heavens, and they [had] no light.

24 I have looked [to] the mountains, || And behold, they are trembling. And all the hills moved themselves lightly.

25 I have looked, and behold, man is not, || And all birds of the heavens have fled.

26 I have looked, and behold, || The fruitful place [is] a wilderness, || And all its cities have been broken down, || Because of YHWH, || Because of the fierceness of His anger.

27 For thus said YHWH: “All the land is a desolation, but I do not make a completion.

28 For this the earth mourns, || And the heavens above have been black, || Because I have spoken—I have purposed, || And I have not relented, || Nor do I turn back from it.

²⁹ From the voice of the horseman, || And of him shooting with the bow, || All the city is fleeing, || They have come into thickets, || And they have gone up on cliffs, || All the city is forsaken, || And there is no one dwelling in them.

² And if they say, YHWH lives, || Surely they swear to a falsehood."

³ YHWH, Your eyes, are they not on steadfastness? You have struck them, and they have not grieved, || You have consumed them, || They have refused to receive instruction, || They made their faces harder than a rock, || They have refused to turn back.

⁴ And I said, "Surely these [are] poor, || They have been foolish, || For they have not known the way of YHWH, || The judgment of their God.

⁵ I go to the great, and I speak with them, || For they have known the way of YHWH, || The judgment of their God." Surely they have broken the yoke together, || They have drawn away the bands.

⁷ "I am not propitious to you for this, || Your sons have forsaken Me, || And are satisfied by [those who are] not gods, || I satisfy them, and they commit adultery, || And at the house of a harlot || They gather themselves together.

⁸ Fed horses—they have been early risers, || They each neigh to the wife of his neighbor.

⁹ Do I not lay a charge for these?" A declaration of YHWH, "And on a nation such as this, || Does My soul not avenge itself?

¹⁰ Go up on her walls, and destroy, || And I do not make a completion, || Turn her branches aside, || For they [are] not YHWH's,

¹¹ For the house of Israel has dealt treacherously against Me, || And the house of Judah," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹² They have lied against YHWH, || And they say, "[It is] not He, || Nor does evil come in against us, || Indeed, we do not see sword and famine.

¹³ And the prophets become wind, || And the word is not in them, || Thus it is done to them."

¹⁴ Therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Hosts: "Because of your speaking this word, || Behold, I am making My words become fire in your mouth, || And this people wood, || And it has devoured them.

¹⁵ Behold, I am bringing against you a nation from afar, || O house of Israel," || A declaration of YHWH, || "It [is] a strong nation, || It [is] an ancient nation, || A nation whose tongue you do not know, || Nor understand what it speaks.

¹⁶ Its quiver [is] as an open tomb, || All of them—mighty ones.

¹⁷ And it has consumed your harvest and your bread, || They consume your sons, and your daughters, || It consumes your flock, and your herd, || It consumes your vine and your fig tree, || It makes your fortified cities poor, || In which you are trusting—by the sword.

¹⁸ And even in those days," || A declaration of YHWH, || "I do not make you a completion.

¹⁹ And it has come to pass, when you say, Why has our God YHWH done all these [things] to us? That you have said to them, As you have forsaken Me, || And serve the gods of a foreigner in your land, || So you serve strangers in a land [that is] not yours.

²⁰ Declare this in the house of Jacob, || And sound it in Judah, saying,

²¹ Now hear this, || O people, foolish and without heart, || They have eyes, and they do not see, || They have ears, and they do not hear.

²² Do you not fear Me?" A declaration of YHWH; "Are you not pained from My presence? Who has made sand the border of the sea, || A perpetual limit, and it does not pass over it, || They shake themselves, and they are not able, || Indeed, its billows have sounded, and they do not pass over.

²³ And this people has an apostatizing and rebelling heart, || They have turned aside, and they go on.

²⁴ And they have not said in their heart, || Now let us fear our God YHWH, who is giving rain, || The autumn rain and the spring rain, in its season, || He keeps the appointed weeks of harvest for us.

²⁵ Your iniquities have turned these away, || And your sins have kept the good from you.

²⁶ For the wicked have been found among My people. He watches like one who sets snares, || They have found set up a trap—they capture men.

²⁷ As a cage full of birds, || So their houses are full of deceit, || Therefore they have been great, and are rich.

²⁸ They have been fat, they have shone, || Indeed, they have surpassed the acts of the evil, || They have not judged judgment, || The judgment of the fatherless—and they prosper, || And they have not judged the judgment of the needy.

³⁰ An astonishing and horrible thing has been in the land:

³¹ The prophets have prophesied falsely, || And the priests bear rule by their means, || And My people have loved [it] so, || And what do they do at its latter end?"

² I have cut off the lovely and delicate one, || The daughter of Zion.

³ Shepherds and their droves come to her, || They have struck tents by her all around, || They have each fed [in] his own station."

⁴ "Sanctify the battle against her, || Rise, and we go up at noon. Woe to us, for the day has turned, || For the shades of evening are stretched out,

⁵ Rise, and we go up by night, || And we destroy her palaces."

⁶ For thus said YHWH of Hosts: "Cut down her wood, || And pour out a mound against Jerusalem, || She [is] the city to be inspected, || She [is] full of oppression in her midst.

⁸ Be instructed, O Jerusalem, || Lest My soul be alienated from you, || Lest I make you a desolation, || A land [that is] not inhabited."

⁹ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: "They surely glean, as a vine, the remnant of Israel, || Put your hand back, as a gatherer to the baskets."

¹² And their houses have been turned to others, || Fields and wives together, || For I stretch out My hand against the inhabitants of the land," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹³ "For from their least to their greatest, || Everyone is gaining dishonest gain, || And from prophet even to priest, || Everyone is dealing falsely,

¹⁴ And they heal the breach of the daughter of My people slightly, || Saying, Peace, peace! And there is no peace.

¹⁵ They were ashamed when they did abomination! Indeed, they are not at all ashamed, || Indeed, they have not known blushing, || Therefore they fall among those falling, || In the time I have inspected them, || They stumble," said YHWH.

¹⁷ And I have raised up watchmen for you, || Attend to the voice of the horn. And they say, We do not attend.

¹⁸ Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, || That which [is] on them.

¹⁹ Hear, O earth, behold, I am bringing evil on this people, || The fruit of their plans, || For they gave no attention to My words, || And My law—they kick against it.

²⁰ Why [is] this to Me? Frankincense comes from Sheba, || And the sweet cane from a far-off land, || Your burnt-offerings [are] not for acceptance, || And your sacrifices have not been sweet to Me."

²¹ Therefore, thus said YHWH: "Behold, I give stumbling blocks to this people, || And fathers and sons have stumbled against them together, || The neighbor and his friend perish."

22 Thus said YHWH: “Behold, a people has come from a north country,
 || And a great nation is stirred up from the sides of the earth.

23 They take hold of bow and javelin, || It [is] fierce, and they have no mercy, || Their voice sounds as a sea, || And they ride on horses, || Set in array as a man of war, || Against you, O daughter of Zion.”

24 We have heard its sound, our hands have been feeble, || Distress has seized us, pain as of a travailing woman.

25 Do not go forth to the field, || And do not walk in the way, || For the enemy has a sword, || Fear [is] all around.

26 O daughter of my people, || Gird on sackcloth, || And roll yourself in ashes, || Make mourning [as for] an only one, || A most bitter lamentation, || For the spoiler suddenly comes against us.

27 “I have given you a watchtower, || A fortress among My people, ||
 And you know, and have tried their way.

28 All of them are turned aside by apostates, || Walking slanderously—
 bronze and iron, || All of them are corrupters.

29 The bellows have been burned, || The lead has been consumed by fire, || A refiner has refined in vain, || And the wicked have not been drawn away.

30 They have called them rejected silver, || For YHWH has kicked against

1 The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

2 “Stand in the gate of the house of YHWH, and you have proclaimed this word there, and have said, Hear a word of YHWH, all you of Judah, who are coming in at these gates, to bow before YHWH.”

3 Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: “Amend your ways, and your doings, || And I cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Do not trust for yourselves || To the words of falsehood, saying, || The temple of YHWH! The temple of YHWH! These [are] the temple of YHWH!

5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, || If you thoroughly do judgment || Between a man and his neighbor,

6 You do not oppress sojourner, fatherless, and widow, || And innocent blood is not shed in this place, || And [you] do not walk after other gods, for evil to yourselves,

7 Then I have caused you to dwell in this place, || In the land that I gave to your fathers, || From age even to age.

8 Behold, you are trusting for yourselves || On the words of falsehood, so as not to profit.

9 Stealing, murdering, and committing adultery, || And swearing to falsehood, and giving incense to Ba'al, || And going after other gods whom you did not know.

10 And you have come in and stood before Me, || In this house on which
 My Name is called, || And have said, We have been delivered, || In order to do all these abominations.

11 Has this house, || On which My Name is called, || Been a den of burglars in your eyes? Even I, behold, have seen,” || A declaration of YHWH.

12 “But go now to My place that [is] in Shiloh, || Where I caused My Name to dwell at first, || And see that which I have done to it, || For the wickedness of My people Israel.

13 And now, because of your doing all these works,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I speak to you, rising early and speaking, || And you have not listened, || And I call you, and you have not answered,

14 I also have done to the house on which My Name is called, || In which you are trusting, || And to the place that I gave to you, and to your fathers, || As I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I have cast you from before My face, || As I have cast out all your brothers, || The whole seed of Ephraim.

16 And you do not pray for this people, || Nor lift up crying and prayer for them, || Nor intercede with Me, for I do not hear you.

17 Are you not seeing what they are doing || In cities of Judah, and in streets of Jerusalem?

18 The sons are gathering wood, || And the fathers are causing the fire to burn, || And the women are kneading dough, || To make cakes to the queen of the heavens, || And to pour out drink-offerings to other gods, || So as to provoke Me to anger.

19 Are they provoking Me to anger?” A declaration of YHWH, “Is it not themselves, || For the shame of their own faces?”

20 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “Behold, My anger and My fury is poured out on this place, || On man, and beast, and on tree of the field, || And on fruit of the ground, || And it has burned, and it is not quenched.”

21 Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: “Add your burnt-offerings to your sacrifices and eat flesh.

22 For I did not speak with your fathers, || Nor did I command them in the day of My bringing them out of the land of Egypt, || Concerning the matters of burnt-offering and sacrifice,

23 But this thing I commanded them, saying, || Listen to My voice, || And I have been to you for God, || And you are to Me for a people, || And have walked in all the way that I command you, || So that it is well for you.

24 And they have not listened, nor inclined their ear, || And they walk in the counsels, || [And] in the stubbornness, of their evil hearts, || And are backward and not forward.

25 Even from the day when your fathers || Went out of the land of Egypt until this day, || I send all My servants the prophets to you, || Daily rising early and sending,

26 And they have not listened to Me, || Nor inclined their ear—and they harden their neck, || They have done evil above their fathers.

27 And you have spoken all these words to them, || And they do not listen to you, || And you have called to them, || And they do not answer you.

28 And you have said to them: This [is] the nation that has not listened, || To the voice of its God YHWH, || Nor have they accepted instruction, || Steadfastness has perished, || Indeed, it has been cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off your crown, and cast [it] away, || And lift up lamentation on high places, || For YHWH has rejected, || And He leaves the generation of His wrath.

³⁰ For the sons of Judah || Have done evil in My eyes," || A declaration of YHWH, || "They have set their abominations in the house || On which My Name is called—to defile it,

³¹ And have built the high places of Tophet, || That [are] in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, || To burn their sons and their daughters with fire, || Which I did not command, || Nor did it come up on My heart.

³² Therefore, behold, days are coming," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And it is no longer said, The Tophet, || And, Valley of the Son of Hinnom, || But, Valley of the Slaughter, || And they have buried in Tophet—without place.

³³ And the carcass of this people has been for food || To a bird of the heavens, and to a beast of the earth, || And there is none troubling.

² And have spread them to sun, and to moon, || And to all the host of the heavens, that they have loved, || And that they have served, || And that they have walked after, || And that they have sought, || And to which they have bowed themselves, || They are not gathered, nor buried, || They are for dung on the face of the ground.

⁴ "And you have said to them, Thus said YHWH: Do they fall, and not rise? Does he turn back, and not return?

⁵ Why has this people of Jerusalem || Turned back—a continuous backsliding? They have kept hold on deceit, || They have refused to turn back.

⁷ Even a stork in the heavens has known her seasons, || And turtle, and swallow, and crane, || Have watched the time of their coming, || And—My people have not known the judgment of YHWH.

⁸ How do you say, We [are] wise, || And the Law of YHWH [is] with us? Surely, behold, it has worked falsely, || The false pen of scribes.

⁹ The wise have been ashamed, || They have been frightened, and are captured, || Behold, they kicked against a word of YHWH, || And what wisdom do they have?

¹⁰ Therefore, I give their wives to others, || Their fields to dispossessors, || For from the least even to the greatest, || Everyone is gaining dishonest gain, || From prophet even to priest, everyone is dealing falsely.

¹¹ And they heal the breach of the daughter of My people slightly, || Saying, Peace, peace! And there is no peace.

¹² They were ashamed when they did abomination! Indeed, they are not ashamed at all, || And they have not known blushing, || Therefore, they fall among falling ones, || They stumble in the time of their inspection, said YHWH.

¹³ I utterly consume them," || A declaration of YHWH, || "There are no grapes in the vine, || Indeed, there are no figs in the fig tree, || And the leaf has faded, || And the strength they have passes from them.

¹⁴ Why are we sitting still? Be gathered, and we go into the fortified cities, || And we are silent there, || For our God YHWH has made us silent, || Indeed, He causes us to drink water of gall, || For we have sinned against YHWH.

¹⁵ Looking for peace—and there is no good, || For a time of healing, and behold—terror.

¹⁷ For behold, I am sending serpents among you, || Vipers that have no charmer, || And they have bitten you," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁸ My sorrow [is] beyond comfort, || My heart [is] sick in me.

¹⁹ Behold, the voice of a cry of the daughter of my people from a far-off land, || Is YHWH not in Zion? Is her King not in her? "Why have they provoked Me with their carved images, || With the vanities of a foreigner?"

²⁰ Harvest has passed, summer has ended, || And we have not been saved.

²¹ For a breach of the daughter of my people I have been broken, || I have been dark, || Astonishment has seized me.

²² Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why has the health of the daughter of my people not gone up?

¹ Who makes my head waters, || And my eye a fountain of tears? And I weep by day and by night, || For the wounded of the daughter of my people.

² Who gives me in a wilderness || A lodging-place for travelers? And I leave my people, and go from them, || For all of them [are] adulterers, || An assembly of treacherous ones.

⁴ "You each beware of his friend, || And do not trust any brother, || For every brother utterly supplants, || For every friend slanderously walks,

⁶ Your dwelling [is] in the midst of deceit, || Through deceit they refused to know Me," || A declaration of YHWH.

⁷ Therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts: “Behold, I am refining them, and have tried them, || For how do I deal with the daughter of My people?”

⁹ Do I not see after them for these things?” A declaration of YHWH, “Does My soul not avenge itself against a nation such as this?”

¹⁰ I lift up weeping and wailing for the mountains, || And a lamentation for the habitations of the wilderness, || For they have been burned up without any passing over, || Nor have they heard the voice of livestock, || From the bird of the heavens and to the beast—they have fled, || They have gone.

¹¹ “And I make Jerusalem become heaps, || A habitation of dragons, || And I make the cities of Judah a desolation, || Without inhabitant.”

¹² Who [is] the wise man? And he understands this, || And he to whom the mouth of YHWH spoke? And he declares it, || For why has the land perished? It has been burned up as a wilderness, || Without any passing through.

¹³ And YHWH says: “Because of their forsaking My law that I set before them, || And they have not listened to My voice nor walked in it,

¹⁴ And they walk after the stubbornness of their heart, || And after the Ba’alim, || That their fathers taught them,”

¹⁵ Therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: “Behold, I am causing them—this people—to eat wormwood, || And I have caused them to drink water of gall,

¹⁶ And I have scattered them among nations || Which they did not know, they and their fathers, || And have sent the sword after them, || Until I have consumed them.”

¹⁷ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: “Consider, and call for mourning women, || And they come, || And send to the wise women, || And they come,

¹⁸ And they hurry, and lift up a wailing for us. And tears run down our eyes, || And waters flow from our eyelids.

¹⁹ For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion: How we have been spoiled! We have been greatly ashamed, || Because we have forsaken the land, || Because they have cast down our dwelling places.”

²⁰ But hear, you women, a word of YHWH, || And your ear receives a word of His mouth, || And teach your daughters wailing, || And each her neighbor lamentation.

²¹ For death has come up into our windows, || It has come into our palaces, || To cut off the suckling from outside, || Young men from the broad places.

²² Speak thus, “A declaration of YHWH, || And the carcass of man has fallen, || As dung on the face of the field, || And as a handful after the reaper, || And there is none gathering.”

²³ Thus said YHWH: “Do not let the wise boast himself in his wisdom, || Nor let the mighty boast himself in his might, || Do not let the rich boast himself in his riches,

²⁴ But let the boaster boast himself in this, || In understanding and knowing Me, || For I [am] YHWH, doing kindness, || Judgment, and righteousness, in the earth, || For I have delighted in these,” || A declaration of YHWH.

²⁵ “Behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I have laid a charge on all circumcised in the foreskin,

²⁶ On Egypt, and on Judah, and on Edom, || And on the sons of Ammon, and on Moab, || And on all cutting the corner [of the beard], || Who are dwelling in the wilderness, || For all the nations [are] uncircumcised, || And all the house of Israel [are] uncircumcised in heart!”

¹ Hear the word, O house of Israel, || That YHWH has spoken for you.

² Thus said YHWH: “Do not accustom yourselves to the way of the nations, || And do not be frightened by the signs of the heavens, || For the nations are frightened by them.

³ For the statutes of the peoples are vanity, || For one has cut a tree from a forest, || Work of the hands of a craftsman, with an axe,

⁴ They beautify it with silver and with gold, || They fix it with nails and with hammers, || And it does not stumble.

⁶ Because there is none like You, O YHWH, || You [are] great, and Your Name [is] great in might.

⁷ Who does not fear You, King of the nations? For it is befitting to You, || For among all the wise of the nations, || And in all their kingdom, there is none like You.

⁸ And as one they are brutish and foolish, || An instruction of vanities [is] the tree itself.

⁹ Spread-out silver is brought from Tarshish, || And gold from Uphaz, || Work of an artisan, and of the hands of a refiner, || Their clothing [is] blue and purple, || Work of the skillful—all of them.

¹⁰ And YHWH [is] a God of truth, || He [is] a living God, and a perpetual King, || The earth shakes from His wrath, || And nations do not endure His indignation.

¹¹ Thus you say to them, “The gods who have not made the heavens and earth, || They perish from the earth, || And from under these heavens.”

¹² The Maker of the earth by His power, || The Establisher of the world by His wisdom, || Who, by His understanding, stretched forth the heavens—

¹⁴ Every man is brutish by knowledge, || Every refiner is put to shame by a carved image, || For his molten image [is] false. And there is no breath in them.

¹⁵ They [are] vanity, work of erring ones, || They perish in the time of their inspection.

¹⁶ The Portion of Jacob [is] not like these, || For He [is] the Framer of all things, || And Israel [is] the rod of His inheritance, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

¹⁷ Gather your merchandise from the land, || O dweller in the bulwark,

¹⁸ For thus said YHWH: “Behold, I am slinging out the inhabitants of the land at this time, || And have been an adversary to them, || So that they are found out.”

¹⁹ Woe to me for my breaking, || My striking has been grievous, || And I said, “Surely this [is] my sickness, and I bear it.”

²⁰ My tent has been spoiled, || And all my cords have been broken, || My sons have gone out from me, and they are not, || There is none stretching out my tent anymore, || And raising up my curtains.

²² A voice of a report, behold, it has come, || Even a great shaking from the north country, || To make the cities of Judah a desolation, || A habitation of dragons.

²³ I have known, O YHWH, that not of man [is] his way, || Not of man [is] the going and establishing of his step.

²⁴ Discipline me, O YHWH, only in judgment, || Not in Your anger, lest You make me small.

²⁵ Pour out Your fury on the nations that have not known You, || And on the families that have not called on Your Name, || For they have eaten up Jacob, || Indeed, they have eaten him up, indeed, they consume him, || And they have made his habitation desolate!

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

² “Hear the words of this covenant, and you have spoken to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

³ and you have said to them, Thus said YHWH God of Israel: Cursed [is] the man who does not obey the words of this covenant,

⁴ That I commanded your fathers, || In the day of My bringing them out from the land of Egypt, || Out of the iron furnace, saying, Listen to My voice, and you have done them, || According to all that I command you, || And you have been to Me for a people, || And I am to you for God,

⁵ In order to establish the oath that I have sworn to your fathers, || To give to them a land flowing with milk and honey, as this day.” And I answer and say, “Amen, O YHWH.”

⁶ And YHWH says to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, || Hear the words of this covenant, || And you have done them.

⁷ For I certainly testified against your fathers, || In the day of My bringing them up out of the land of Egypt—until this day, || Rising early and testifying, saying, Listen to My voice,

⁸ And they have not listened nor inclined their ear, || And they each walk in the stubbornness of their evil heart, || And I bring on them all the words of this covenant, || That I commanded to do, and they did not.”

⁹ And YHWH says to me: “A conspiracy is found in the men of Judah, || And in the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁰ They have turned back to the iniquities of their first fathers, || Who refused to hear My words, || And they have gone after other gods to serve them, || The house of Israel and the house of Judah || Have made void My covenant that I made with their fathers.”

¹¹ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “Behold, I am bringing calamity on them, || That they are not able to go out from, || And they have cried to Me, || And I do not listen to them.

¹² And the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem have gone, || And they have cried to the gods, || To whom they are making incense, || And they give no deliverance at all to them, || In the time of their distress.

¹⁵ What has My beloved to do in My house, || Her doing wickedness with many, || And does the holy flesh pass over from you? When you do evil, then you exult.

¹⁶ An olive, green, beautiful, of good fruit, || Has YHWH called your name, || At the noise of a great tumult He has kindled fire against it, || And its thin branches have been broken.

¹⁷ And YHWH of Hosts, who is planting you, || Has spoken calamity concerning you, || For the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, || That they have done to themselves, || To provoke Me to anger, to make incense to Ba'al.”

¹⁸ And, O YHWH, cause me to know, and I know, || Then You have showed me their doings.

¹⁹ And I [am] as a trained lamb brought to slaughter, || And I have not known || That they have devised schemes against me: “We destroy the tree with its food, || And cut him off from the land of the living, || And his name is not remembered again.”

²⁰ And O YHWH of Hosts, judging righteousness, || Trying reins and heart, || I see Your vengeance against them, || For I have revealed my cause to You.

²¹ Therefore, thus said YHWH concerning the men of Anathoth, who are seeking your life, saying, “Do not prophesy in the Name of YHWH, and you do not die by our hands.”

²³ And they have no remnant, || For I bring calamity to the men of Anathoth, || The year of their inspection!”

12

² You have planted them, || Indeed, they have taken root, || They go on, indeed, they have made fruit, || You [are] near in their mouth, || And far off from their reins.

³ And You, O YHWH, You have known me, || You see me, and have tried my heart with You, || Draw them away as sheep to slaughter, || And separate them for a day of slaughter.

⁴ Until when does the earth mourn, || And the herb of the whole field wither? For the wickedness of those dwelling in it, || Beast and bird have been consumed, || Because they said, "He does not see our latter end."

⁵ "For you have run with footmen, || And they weary you, || And how you fret yourself with horses! Even in the land of peace, || [In which] you are confident—And how will you do in the rising of Jordan?

⁶ For even your brothers and the house of your father, || Even they dealt treacherously against you, || Even they called after you fully, || Do not trust in them when they speak good things to you.

⁷ I have forsaken My house, || I have left My inheritance, || I have given the beloved of My soul || Into the hand of her enemies.

⁸ My inheritance has been to Me as a lion in a forest, || She gave forth against Me with her voice, || Therefore I have hated her.

⁹ [Is] My inheritance a speckled bird to Me? Is the bird around against her? Come, assemble, every beast of the field, || Come for food.

¹⁰ Many shepherds destroyed My vineyard, || They have trodden down My portion, || They have made My desirable portion || Become a wilderness—a desolation.

¹¹ He has made it become a desolation, || The desolation has mourned to Me, || All the land has been desolated, || But there is no one laying it to heart.

¹² Spoilers have come in on all high places in the plain, || For the sword of YHWH is consuming, || From the end of the land even to the end of the land, || There is no peace to any flesh.

¹³ They sowed wheat, and have reaped thorns, || They have become sick—they do not profit, || And they have been ashamed of your increases, || Because of the fierceness of the anger of YHWH."

¹⁴ Thus said YHWH: "Concerning all My evil neighbors, who are striking against the inheritance that I caused My people—Israel—to inherit: Behold, I am plucking them from off their ground, || And I pluck the house of Judah out of their midst.

¹⁵ And it has been, after My plucking them out, || I turn back, and have pitied them, || And I have brought them back, || Each to his inheritance, and each to his land.

¹⁶ And it has come to pass, || If they learn the ways of My people well, || To swear by My Name, YHWH lives, || As they taught My people to swear by Ba'al, || Then they have been built up in the midst of My people.

¹ Thus said YHWH to me: "Go, and you have acquired a girdle of linen for yourself, and have placed it on your loins, and you do not cause it to enter into water."

² And I get the girdle, according to the word of YHWH, and I place [it] on my loins.

³ And there is a word of YHWH to me a second time, saying,

4 “Take the girdle that you have acquired, that [is] on your loins, and rise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock”;

5 and I go and hide it by the Euphrates, as YHWH commanded me.

6 And it comes to pass, at the end of many days, that YHWH says to me, “Rise, go to the Euphrates, and take the girdle there, that I commanded you to hide there”;

7 and I go to the Euphrates, and dig, and take the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the girdle has been marred, it is not profitable for anything.

8 And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying, “Thus said YHWH:

9 Thus I mar the excellence of Judah, || And the great excellence of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, || Who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, || And go after other gods to serve them, || And to bow themselves to them, || Indeed it is—as this girdle, that is not profitable for anything.

11 For as the girdle cleaves to the loins of a man, || So I caused to cleave to Me || The whole house of Israel, || And the whole house of Judah,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “To be to Me for a people, and for a name, || And for praise, and for beauty, || And they have not listened.

12 And you have said this word to them, || Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Every bottle is full of wine, || And they have said to you: Do we not certainly know that every bottle is full of wine?

13 And you have said to them, || Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am filling all the inhabitants of this land, || And the kings who sit for David on his throne, || And the priests, and the prophets, || And all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, || [With] drunkenness,

14 And have dashed them against one another, || And the fathers and the sons together,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “I do not pity, nor spare, nor do I have mercy, || So as not to destroy them.”

15 Hear, and give ear—do not be haughty, || For YHWH has spoken.

16 Give glory to your God YHWH, || Before He causes darkness, || And before your feet stumble on dark mountains, || And you have waited for light, || And He has made it for death-shade, || And has appointed [it] for thick darkness.

17 And if you do not hear it, || My soul weeps in secret places, because of pride, || Indeed, it weeps and wails, || And the tear comes down my eyes, || For the flock of YHWH has been taken captive.

18 Say to the king and to the mistress: Make yourselves low—sit still, || For your principalities have come down, || The crown of your beauty.

19 The cities of the south have been shut up, || And there is none opening, || Judah has been removed—all of her, || She has been completely removed—

20 Lift up your eyes, and see those coming in from the north, || Where [is] the drove given to you, your beautiful flock?

21 What do you say when He looks after you? And you have taught them [to be] over you—leaders for head? Do pangs not seize you as a travelling woman?

22 And when you say in your heart, “Why have these met me?” For the abundance of your iniquity || Have your skirts been uncovered, || Have your heels suffered violence.

²³ “Does a Cushite change his skin? And a leopard his spots? Can you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil?”

²⁴ And I scatter them as stubble, || Passing away, by a wind of the wilderness.

²⁶ I have also made your skirts bare before your face, || And your shame has been seen.

²⁷ Your adulteries, and your neighings, || The wickedness of your whoredom, on heights in a field, || I have seen your abominations. Woe to you, O Jerusalem, || You are not [yet] made clean—after when [will you be] again?”

¹ That which has been the word of YHWH to Jeremiah concerning the matters of the scarcities:

² “Judah has mourned, and her gates have languished, || They have mourned to the earth, || And the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

³ And their majestic ones have sent their little ones to the water, || They have come to ditches, || They have not found water, || They have turned back—their vessels empty! They have been ashamed, || And have blushed and covered their head.

⁴ Because the ground has been broken, || For there has been no rain in the land, || Farmers have been ashamed, || They have covered their head.

⁵ For even the doe in the field has brought forth—to forsake [it!] || For there has been no grass.

⁶ And wild donkeys have stood on high places, || They have swallowed up wind like dragons, || Their eyes have been consumed, for there is no herb.”

⁷ Surely our iniquities have testified against us, || O YHWH, work for Your Name’s sake, || For our backslidings have been many, || We have sinned against You.

⁸ O Hope of Israel—its Savior in time of trouble, || Why are You as a sojourner in the land? And as a traveler turned aside to lodge?

⁹ Why are You as one mute? As a mighty one not able to save? And You [are] in our midst, O YHWH, || And Your Name is called over us, || Do not leave us.

¹⁰ Thus said YHWH concerning this people: “They have loved to wander well, || They have not restrained their feet, || And YHWH has not accepted them, || Now He remembers their iniquity, || And inspects their sin.”

¹¹ And YHWH says to me: “You do not pray for this people for good.

¹² When they fast, I do not listen to their cry, and when they cause burnt-offering and present to ascend, I do not accept them; for I am consuming them by sword, and by famine, and by pestilence.”

¹³ And I say, “Aah! Lord YHWH, behold, the prophets are saying to them: You do not see a sword, indeed, famine is not [on] you, for I give true peace to you in this place.”

¹⁴ And YHWH says to me: “The prophets are prophesying falsehood in My Name. I did not send them, nor command them, nor have I spoken to them. A false vision, and divination, and vanity—indeed, they are prophesying the deceit of their own heart to you.

¹⁵ Therefore, thus said YHWH concerning the prophets who are prophesying in My Name and I have not sent them, and they are saying, Sword and famine is not in this land: By sword and by famine are these prophets consumed.

¹⁶ And the people to whom they are prophesying are cast into out-places of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword, and they have none burying them—they, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters—and I have poured out their evil on them.

¹⁷ And you have said this word to them: Tears come down my eyes night and day, || And they do not cease, || For [with] a great breach, || The virgin daughter of my people has been broken, || A very grievous stroke.

¹⁸ If I have gone forth to the field, || Then, behold, the pierced of the sword! And if I have entered the city, || Then, behold, the diseased of famine! For both prophet and priest have gone up and down || To a land that they did not know.”

¹⁹ Have You utterly rejected Judah? Has Your soul loathed Zion? Why have You struck us, || And there is no healing to us? Looking for peace, and there is no good, || And for a time of healing, and behold, terror.

²⁰ We have known, O YHWH, our wickedness, || The iniquity of our fathers, || For we have sinned against You.

²¹ Do not despise, for Your Name’s sake, || Do not dishonor the throne of Your glory, || Remember, do not break Your covenant with us.

²² Are there any among the vanities of the nations causing rain? And do the heavens give showers? Are You not He, O our God YHWH? And we wait for you, for You have done all these!

¹ And YHWH says to me: “Though Moses and Samuel should stand before Me, || My soul is not toward this people, || Send from before My face, and they go out.

² And it has come to pass, when they say to you, || To where do we go out? That you have said to them, || Thus said YHWH: Those who [are] for death—to death, || And those who are for the sword—to the sword, || And those who are for famine—to famine, || And those who are for captivity—to captivity.

³ And I have appointed four kinds over them,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “The sword to slay, and the dogs to drag, || And the bird of the heavens, || And the beast of the earth, to consume and to devour.

⁴ And I have given them for a trembling || To all kingdoms of the earth, || Because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah, || For that which he did in Jerusalem.

⁵ For who has pity on you, O Jerusalem? And who bemoans for you? And who turns aside to ask of your welfare?

⁶ You have left Me,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “You go backward, || And I stretch out My hand against you, || And I destroy you, || I have been weary of relenting,

⁷ And I scatter them with a fan, || In the gates of the land, || I have bereaved [them], || I have destroyed My people, || They did not turn back from their ways.

¹⁰ Woe to me, my mother, || For you have borne me, || A man of strife and a man of contention to all the land, || I have not lent on usury, || Nor have they lent on usury to me—All of them are reviling me.

¹¹ YHWH said, “Did I not direct you for good? Did I not intercede for you in a time of evil, || And in a time of adversity, with the enemy?

¹² Does one break iron, || Northern iron and bronze?

¹³ I give your strength and your treasures for a prey—not for price, || Even for all your sins, and in all your borders.

¹⁴ And I have caused your enemies || To pass over into the land [that] You have not known, || For a fire has been kindled in My anger, || It burns against you.”

¹⁵ You, You have known, O YHWH, || Remember me, and inspect me, || And take vengeance for me of my pursuers, || In Your long-suffering do not take me away, || Know [that] I have borne reproach for You.

¹⁶ Your words have been found, and I eat them, || And Your word is to me for a joy, || And for the rejoicing of my heart, || For Your Name is called on me, O YHWH, God of Hosts.

¹⁷ I have not sat in an assembly of deriders, || Nor do I exult, because of your hand—I have sat alone, || For You have filled me [with] indignation.

¹⁸ Why has my pain been continuous? And my wound incurable? It has refused to be healed, || You are surely as a failing stream to me, || Waters [that are] not steadfast.

¹⁹ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “If you turn back, then I bring you back, || You stand before Me, || And if you bring out the precious from the vile, || You are as My mouth! They return to you, || And you do not return to them.

²⁰ And I have made you to this people || For a wall—bronze—fortified, || And they have fought against you, || And they do not prevail against you, || For I [am] with you to save you, || And to deliver you,” || A declaration of YHWH,

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “You do not take a wife to yourself, || Nor do you have sons and daughters in this place.”

³ For thus said YHWH, || Of the sons and of the daughters who are born in this place, || And of their mothers—those bearing them, || And of their fathers—those begetting them in this land:

4 “They die painful deaths, || They are not lamented, nor are they buried, || For they are dung on the face of the ground, || And are consumed by sword and by famine, || And their carcass has been for food || To the bird of the heavens, || And to the beast of the earth.”

5 For thus said YHWH: “Do not enter the house of a mourning-feast, || Nor go to lament nor bemoan for them, || For I have removed My peace from this people,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “The kindness and the mercies.

6 And great and small have died in this land, || They are not buried, and none lament for them, || Nor does any cut himself, nor become bald for them.

7 Nor do they deal out to them for mourning, || To comfort him concerning the dead, || Nor cause them to drink a cup of consolations || For his father and for his mother.

8 You do not enter a house of banqueting, || To sit with them, to eat and to drink,”

9 For thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: “Behold, I am causing to cease from this place, || Before your eyes, and in your days, || The voice of joy, and the voice of rejoicing, || The voice of bridegroom and voice of bride.

10 And it has come to pass, || When you declare all these words to this people, || And they have said to you, || Why has YHWH spoken all this great evil against us? Indeed, what [is] our iniquity, and what [is] our sin, || That we have sinned against our God YHWH?

11 Then you have said to them: Because that your fathers have forsaken Me, || A declaration of YHWH, || And go after other gods, and serve them, || And they bow themselves to them, || And have forsaken Me, and not kept My law,

12 You also have done evil above your fathers, || And behold, you are each walking after the stubbornness of his evil heart, || So as not to listen to Me.

13 And I have cast you from off this land, || On to a land that you have not known, || You and your fathers, || And you have served other gods there by day and by night, || Where I do not give grace to you.

14 Therefore, behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And it is not said anymore, || YHWH lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,

15 But, YHWH lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of the north, || And out of all the lands to where He drove them, || And I have brought them back to their land, || That I gave to their fathers.

16 Behold, I am sending for many fishers,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And they have fished them, || And after this I send for many hunters, || And they have hunted them from off every mountain, || And from off every hill, and from holes of the rocks.

17 For My eyes [are] on all their ways, || They have not been hidden from My face, || Nor has their iniquity been concealed from before My eyes.

18 And I have repaid a first—A second time—their iniquity and their sin, || Because of their defiling My land, || With the carcass of their detestable things, || Indeed, their abominations have filled My inheritance.”

19 O YHWH, my strength, and my fortress, || And my refuge in a day of adversity, || Nations come to You from the ends of the earth, || And say, "Our fathers only inherited falsehood, || Vanity, and none among them is profitable."

20 Does man make gods for himself, || And they—no gods?

21 "Therefore, behold, I am causing them to know at this time, || I cause them to know My hand and My might, || And they have known that My Name [is] YHWH!"

1 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, || With the point of a diamond, || Engraved on the tablet of their heart, || And on the horns of your altars,

2 As their sons remember their altars and their Asherim, || By the green tree, by the high hills.

3 O My mountain in the field—your strength, || All your treasures—I give for a prey, || Your high places for sin in all your borders.

4 And you have let go—even through yourself, || Of your inheritance that I gave to you, || And I have caused you to serve your enemies, || In a land that you have not known, || For you have kindled a fire in My anger, || It burns for all time."

5 Thus said YHWH: "Cursed [is] the man who trusts in man, || And has made flesh his arm, || And whose heart turns from YHWH.

6 And he has been as a naked thing in a desert, || And does not see when good comes, || And has inhabited parched places in a wilderness, || A salt land, and not inhabited.

7 Blessed [is] the man who trusts in YHWH, || And whose confidence has been YHWH.

8 And has been as a tree planted by waters, || And he sends forth his roots by a stream, || And he does not see when heat comes, || And his leaf has been green, || And he is not sorrowful in a year of scarcity, || Nor does he cease from making fruit.

9 The heart [is] deceitful above all things, || And it [is] incurable—who knows it?

10 I, YHWH, search the heart, try the reins, || Even to give to each according to his way, || According to the fruit of his doings.

11 A partridge hatching, and not bringing forth, || [Is] one making wealth, and not by right, || In the midst of his days he forsakes it, || And in his latter end—he is a fool."

12 A throne of glory on high from the beginning, || The place of our sanctuary,

13 The hope of Israel [is] YHWH, || All forsaking You are ashamed. "And My apostates are written in the earth, || For they have forsaken YHWH, || A fountain of living waters."

14 Heal me, O YHWH, and I am healed, || Save me, and I am saved, || For You [are] my praise.

15 Behold, they are saying to me: "Where [is] the word of YHWH? Pray, let it come."

16 And I did not hurry from feeding after You, || And I have not desired the desperate day, || You have known the produce of my lips, || It has been before Your face,

¹⁷ Do not be to me for a terror, || You [are] my hope in a day of calamity.

¹⁹ Thus said YHWH to me: “Go, and you have stood in the gate of the sons of the people, by which kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all gates of Jerusalem, ²⁰ and you have said to them: Hear a word of YHWH, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all inhabitants of Jerusalem, who are coming in by these gates,”

²¹ Thus said YHWH: “Take heed to yourselves, || And you do not bear a burden on the day of rest, || Nor have you brought [it] in by the gates of Jerusalem.

²³ And they have not listened nor inclined their ear, || And they stiffen their neck not to hear, || And not to receive instruction.

²⁴ And it has been, if you certainly listen to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “So as not to bring in a burden by the gates of this city on the day of rest, || And to sanctify the day of rest, || So as not to do any work in it—

²⁶ And they have come in from cities of Judah, || And from outskirts of Jerusalem, || And from the land of Benjamin, || And from the low country, || And from the hill-country, || And from the south, || Bringing in burnt-offering, and sacrifice, || And present, and frankincense, || And bringing praise [to] the house of YHWH.

²⁷ And if you do not listen to Me to sanctify the day of rest, || And so as not to bear a burden, || And to come in at the gates of Jerusalem on the day of rest, || Then I have kindled a fire in its gates, || And it has consumed the high places of Jerusalem, || And it is not quenched!”

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

² “Rise, and you have gone down [to] the potter’s house, and there I cause you to hear My words”;

³ and I go down [to] the potter’s house, and behold, he is doing a work on the stones,

⁴ and the vessel that he is making is marred, as clay in the hand of the potter, and he has turned and he makes it another vessel, as it was right in the eyes of the potter to make.

⁵ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁶ “O house of Israel, am I not able to do to you as this potter?” A declaration of YHWH. “Behold, as clay in the hand of the potter, || So [are] you in My hand, O house of Israel.

⁷ The moment I speak concerning a nation, || And concerning a kingdom, || To pluck up and to break down, and to destroy,

⁸ And that nation has turned from its evil, || Because I have spoken against it, || Then I have relented of the calamity that I thought to do to it.

⁹ And the moment I speak concerning a nation, || And concerning a kingdom, to build, and to plant,

¹⁰ And it has done evil in My eyes, || So as not to listen to My voice, || Then I have relented of the good || That I have spoken of doing to it.

¹¹ And now, speak now to men of Judah, || And against inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, || Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am framing calamity against you, || And devising a scheme against you; Please turn back, each from his evil way, || And amend your ways and your doings.”

¹² And they have said, “It is incurable, || For we go after our own plans, || And each of us does the stubbornness of his evil heart.”

¹³ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “Now ask among the nations, || Who has heard such things? The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

¹⁴ Does snow of Lebanon || Cease from the rock of the field? Will the cold strange [waters] that are flowing be forsaken?

¹⁵ But My people have forgotten Me, they make incense to a vain thing, || And they cause them to stumble in their ways—paths of old, || To walk in paths—a way not raised up,

¹⁶ To make their land become a desolation, || A continuous hissing, || Everyone passing by it is astonished, || And bemoans with his head.

¹⁷ I scatter them before an enemy as with an east wind, || I show them the neck and not the face, || In the day of their calamity.”

¹⁸ And they say, “Come, || And we devise schemes against Jeremiah, || For law does not perish from the priest, || Nor counsel from the wise, || Nor the word from the prophet, || Come, and we strike him with the tongue, || And we do not attend to any of his words.”

¹⁹ Give attention, O YHWH, to me, || And listen to the voice of those contending with me.

²⁰ Is evil repaid instead of good, || That they have dug a pit for my soul? Remember my standing before You to speak good of them, || To turn back Your wrath from them.

²³ And You, O YHWH, You have known, || All their counsel against me [is] for death, || You do not cover over their iniquity, || Nor blot out their sin from before You, || And they are made to stumble before You, || Work against them in the time of Your anger!

¹ Thus said YHWH: “Go, and you have acquired a potter’s earthen vessel, and from [the] elderly of the people, and from [the] elderly of the priests,

² and you have gone forth to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, that [is] at the opening of the gate of the pottery, and have proclaimed there the words that I speak to you,

³ and have said, Hear a word of YHWH, you kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem!" Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: "Behold, I am bringing in evil on this place, at which the ears of everyone who is hearing it tingles,

⁴ because that they have forsaken Me, and make known this place, and make incense in it to other gods, that they did not know, they and their fathers, and the kings of Judah, and they have filled this place [with] innocent blood,

⁵ and have built the high places of Ba'al to burn their sons with fire, burnt-offerings to Ba'al, that I did not command, nor spoke of, nor did it come up on My heart.

⁶ Therefore, behold, days are coming," a declaration of YHWH, "and this place is no longer called The Tophet and Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but Valley of the Slaughter.

⁷ And I have made void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and have caused them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those seeking their life, and I have given their carcass for food to the bird of the heavens, and to the beast of the earth,

⁸ and I have made this city for a desolation, and for a hissing, everyone passing by it is astonished, and hisses for all its plagues.

⁹ And I have caused them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they each eat the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the constriction with which their enemies constrict them, and those seeking their life."

¹⁰ "And you have broken the bottle before the eyes of the men who are going with you,

¹¹ and have said to them, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Thus I break this people and this city, as one breaks the potter's vessel, that is not able to be repaired again, and in Tophet they bury—without place to bury;

¹² so I do to this place—a declaration of YHWH—and to its inhabitants, so as to make this city as Tophet;

¹³ and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, have been as the place of Tophet—defiled, even all the houses on whose roofs they have made incense to all the host of the heavens, so as to pour out oblations to other gods."

¹⁴ And Jeremiah comes in from Tophet, to where YHWH had sent him to prophesy, and he stands in the court of the house of YHWH, and he says to all the people:

¹⁵ "Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing to this city, and on all its cities, all the calamity that I have spoken against it, for they have hardened their neck to not hear My words!"

20

¹ And Pashhur son of Immer the priest—who [is] also overseer, leader in the house of YHWH—hears Jeremiah prophesying these things,

² and Pashhur strikes Jeremiah the prophet, and puts him in the stocks that [are] by the Upper Gate of Benjamin, that [is] by the house of YHWH.

³ And it comes to pass on the next day, that Pashhur brings Jeremiah out from the stocks, and Jeremiah says to him, “YHWH has not called your name Pashhur, but Terror on Every Side.

⁴ For thus said YHWH: Behold, I am making you for a fear to yourself, || And to all loving you, || And they have fallen by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes are beholding, || And all Judah I give into the hand of the king of Babylon, || And he has removed them to Babylon, || And he has struck them with the sword.

⁵ And I have given all the strength of this city, || And all its labor, and all its precious things, || Indeed, I give all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies, || And they have spoiled them, and taken them, || And have brought them into Babylon.

⁶ And you, Pashhur, and all dwelling in your house, || Go into captivity. And you enter Babylon, || And there you die, and there you are buried, || You and all loving you, || To whom you have prophesied falsely.”

⁷ You have persuaded me, O YHWH, and I am persuaded; You have hardened me, and prevail, || I have been for a laughter all the day, || Everyone is mocking at me,

⁸ Because from the time I speak I cry out, I shout, “Violence and destruction!” || For the word of YHWH has been to me || For reproach and for derision all the day.

⁹ And I said, “I do not mention Him, || Nor do I speak anymore in His Name,” || And it has been in my heart || As a burning fire shut up in my bones, || And I have been weary of containing, || And I am not able.

¹⁰ For I have heard the evil report of many, “Fear [is] all around!” “Declare, and we declare it!” All my allies are watching [for] my halting, “Perhaps he is enticed, and we prevail over him, || And we take our vengeance on him.”

¹¹ And YHWH [is] with me, as a mighty, awesome One, || Therefore my persecutors stumble and do not prevail, || They have been exceedingly ashamed, || For they have not acted wisely, || Continuous confusion is not forgotten.

¹² And, O YHWH of Hosts, trier of the righteous, || Beholder of reins and heart, || I see Your vengeance on them, || For I have revealed my cause to you.

¹³ Sing to YHWH, praise YHWH, || For He has delivered the soul of the needy || From the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴ Cursed [is] the day in which I was born, || The day that my mother bore me, || Let it not be blessed!

¹⁵ Cursed [is] the man who bore tidings [to] my father, || Saying, “A male child has been born to you,” || Making him very glad!

¹⁶ Then that man has been as the cities, || That YHWH overthrew, and did not relent, || And he has heard a cry in the morning, || And a shout at noontime.

¹⁷ Because he has not put me to death from the womb, || And my mother is to me—my grave, || And her womb [is] a perpetual pregnancy.

¹⁸ Why [is] this? I have come out from the womb || To see labor and sorrow, || Indeed, my days are consumed in shame!

sending to him Pashhur son of Malchiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

² “Please inquire of YHWH for us, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has fought against us; perhaps YHWH deals with us according to all His wonders, and causes him to go up from off us.”

³ And Jeremiah says to them, “Thus you say to Zedekiah,

⁴ Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Behold, I am turning around the weapons of battle || That [are] in your hand, || With which you fight the king of Babylon, || And the Chaldeans, who are laying siege against you, || At the outside of the wall, || And I have gathered them into the midst of this city,

⁵ And I have fought against you, || With an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, || And in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath,

⁶ And I have struck the inhabitants of this city, || Both man and beast, || They die by a great pestilence.

⁷ And after this,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “I give Zedekiah king of Judah, || And his servants, and the people, || And those left in this city, || From the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, || Into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, || And into the hand of their enemies, || And into the hand of those seeking their life, || And he has struck them by the mouth of the sword, || He has no pity on them, || Nor does he spare, nor does he have mercy.”

⁸ “And you say to this people, Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am setting before you the way of life, || And the way of death!

⁹ Whoever is abiding in this city—dies, || By sword, and by famine, and by pestilence, || And whoever is going forth, || And has fallen to the Chaldeans, || Who are laying siege against you—lives, || And his life has been for a spoil to him.

¹¹ And as for the house of the king of Judah,” || Hear a word of YHWH;

¹² O house of David, thus said YHWH: “Decide judgment in the morning, || And deliver the plundered from the hand of the oppressor, || Lest My fury go forth as fire, || And has burned, and none is quenching, || Because of the evil of your doings.

¹⁴ And I have laid a charge against you, || According to the fruit of your doings,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I have kindled a fire in its forest, || And it has consumed all its outskirts!”

¹ Thus said YHWH: “Go down [to] the house of the king of Judah, and you have spoken this word there, and have said,

² Hear a word of YHWH, O king of Judah, who are sitting on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people, who are coming in at these gates,”

3 Thus said YHWH: “Do judgment and righteousness, || And deliver the plundered from the hand of the oppressor, || And sojourner, orphan, and widow, you do not oppress nor wrong, || And innocent blood you do not shed in this place.

4 For if you certainly do this thing, || Then kings sitting for David on his throne || Have come in by the gates of this house, || Riding on chariot, and on horses, || He, and his servants, and his people.

5 And if you do not hear these words, || I have sworn by Myself,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “That this house is for a desolation.”

6 For thus said YHWH concerning the house of the king of Judah: “You [are] Gilead to Me—head of Lebanon, || If not—I make you a wilderness, || Cities [that] are not inhabited.

7 And I have separated destroyers for you, || Each with his weapons, || And they have cut down the choice of your cedars, || And have cast them on the fire.”

8 And many nations have passed by this city, || And they have each said to his neighbor, “Why has YHWH done thus to this great city?”

9 And they have said, “Because that they have forsaken || The covenant of their God YHWH, || And bow themselves to other gods, and serve them.”

10 You do not weep for the dead, nor bemoan for him, || Weep severely for the traveler, || For he does not return again, || Nor has he seen the land of his birth.

11 For thus said YHWH concerning Shallum son of Josiah king of Judah, who is reigning instead of his father Josiah, who has gone forth from this place: “He does not return here again;

12 For he dies in the place to where they have removed him, || And he does not see this land again.

13 Woe to him who is building his house by unrighteousness, || And his upper chambers by injustice, || He lays service on his neighbor for nothing, || And he does not give his wage to him.

14 Who is saying, || I build a large house for myself, || And airy upper chambers, || And he has cut out its windows for himself, || Covered with cedar, and painted with vermillion.

15 Do you reign, because you are fretting yourself in cedar? Your father—did he not eat and drink? Indeed, he did judgment and righteousness, || Then [it is] well with him.

16 He decided the cause of the poor and needy, || Then [it is] well—is it not to know Me?” A declaration of YHWH.

17 “But your eyes and your heart are not, || Except on your dishonest gain, || And on shedding of innocent blood, || And on oppression, and on doing of violence.”

18 Therefore, thus said YHWH concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: “They do not lament for him, || Oh, my brother! And, Oh, my sister! They do not lament for him, || Oh, lord! And, Oh, his splendor!

19 He is buried [with] the burial of a donkey, || Dragged and cast out there to the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry, || And give forth your voice in Bashan, || And cry from Abarim, || For all loving you have been destroyed.

²¹ I have spoken to you in your ease, || You have said, I do not listen, || This [is] your way from your youth, || For you have not listened to My voice.

²³ O dweller in Lebanon, making a nest among cedars, || How gracious have you been when pangs come to you, || Pain—as of a travailing woman.”

²⁴ “[As] I live,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “Though Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah was a seal on My right hand, surely there I draw you away,

²⁵ And I have given you into the hand of those seeking your life, || And into hands of which you are afraid, || Into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, || And into the hand of the Chaldeans.

²⁶ And I have cast you, || And your mother who bore you, to another country, || Where you were not born, and you die there.

²⁷ And to the land to where they are lifting up their soul to return, || They do not return there.”

²⁹ Earth, earth, earth, hear a word of YHWH!

³⁰ Thus said YHWH: “Write this man down [as] childless, || A man—he does not prosper in his days, || For none of his seed prospers, || Sitting on the throne of David, || And ruling in Judah again!”

¹ “Woe to shepherds destroying, || And scattering the flock of My pasture,” || A declaration of YHWH.

² Therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Israel, || Against the shepherds who feed My people: “You have scattered My flock, and drive them away, || And have not inspected them, || Behold, I am charging on you the evil of your doings,” || A declaration of YHWH.

³ “And I gather the remnant of My flock || Out of all the lands to where I drove them, || And have brought them back to their fold, || And they have been fruitful, and multiplied.

⁴ And I have raised shepherds for them, || And they have fed them, || And they no longer fear, nor are frightened, || Nor are they lacking,” || A declaration of YHWH.

⁶ Judah is saved in His days, and Israel dwells confidently, || And this [is] His Name that YHWH proclaims Him: Our Righteousness.

⁷ Therefore, behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And they no longer say, YHWH lives who brought up || The sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,

⁸ But—YHWH lives, who brought up, || And who brought in, the seed of the house of Israel, || From the land of the north, || And from all the lands to where I drove them, || And they have dwelt on their own ground!”

⁹ In reference to the prophets: My heart has been broken in my midst, || All my bones have fluttered, || I have been as a man—a drunkard, || And as a man—wine has passed over him, || Because of YHWH, and of His holy words.

¹¹ “For both prophet and priest have been profane, || Indeed, I found their wickedness in My house,” || A declaration of YHWH.

¹³ “And I have seen folly in prophets of Samaria, || They have prophesied by Ba’al, || And cause My people—Israel—to err.

¹⁴ And I have seen a horrible thing in prophets of Jerusalem, || Committing adultery, and walking falsely, || Indeed, they strengthened the hands of evildoers, || So that they have not turned back, || Each from his wickedness, || All of them have been as Sodom to me, || And its inhabitants as Gomorrah.”

¹⁶ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: “You do not listen to the words || Of the prophets who are prophesying to you, || They are making you vain things, || They speak a vision of their own heart, || Not from the mouth of YHWH.

¹⁷ Diligently saying to those despising, || The word of YHWH: Peace is for you, || And [to] everyone walking in the stubbornness of his heart, they have said: Evil does not come to you.”

¹⁸ For who has stood in the counsel of YHWH, || And sees and hears His word? Who has regarded My word, and listens?

¹⁹ Behold, a whirlwind of YHWH—Fury has gone out, even a piercing whirlwind, || It stays on the head of the wicked.

²¹ “I have not sent the prophets, and they have run, || I have not spoken to them, and they have prophesied.

²² But if they stood in My counsel, || Then they cause My people to hear My words, || And they turn them back from their evil way, || And from the evil of their doings.

²³ [Am] I a God near,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And not a God far off?

²⁴ Is anyone hidden in secret places, || And I do not see him?” A declaration of YHWH, “Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?” A declaration of YHWH.

25 “I have heard that which the prophets said, || Who prophesy falsehood in My Name, saying, || I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 Until when is it in the heart of the prophets? The prophets of falsehood, || Indeed, prophets of the deceit of their heart,

27 Who are devising to cause My people || To forget My Name by their dreams, || That they each recount to his neighbor, || As their fathers forgot My Name for Ba'al.

28 The prophet with whom [is] a dream, || Let him recount the dream, || And he with whom [is] My word, || Let him truly speak My word. What does the straw [have to do] with the grain?” A declaration of YHWH.

29 “Is it not thus? My word [is] as fire,” || A declaration of YHWH. “And as a hammer—it breaks a rock in pieces.

30 Therefore, behold, I [am] against the prophets,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “Each stealing My words from his neighbor.

31 Behold, I [am] against the prophets,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “Who are making their tongue smooth, || And they affirm—an affirmation.

32 Behold, I [am] against the prophets of false dreams,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And they recount them, and cause My people to err, || By their falsehoods, and by their instability, || And I have not sent them, || Nor have I commanded them, || And they are not profitable to this people at all,” || A declaration of YHWH.

33 “And when this people, or the prophet, || Or a priest, asks you, saying, What [is] the burden of YHWH? Then you have said to them: You [are] the burden, and I have left you,” || A declaration of YHWH.

34 “And the prophet, and the priest, and the people, || That says, The burden of YHWH, || I have seen after that man, and after his house.

35 Thus you each say to his neighbor, || And each to his brother: What has YHWH answered? And what has YHWH spoken?

36 And you do not mention the burden of YHWH anymore, || For the burden to each is His word, || And you have overturned the words of the living God, YHWH of Hosts, our God.

37 Thus you say to the prophet, || What has YHWH answered you? And what has YHWH spoken?

38 And if you say, The burden of YHWH, || Therefore, thus said YHWH: Because of your saying this word, || The burden of YHWH, || And I send to you, saying, || You do not say, The burden of YHWH.

39 Therefore, behold, I have utterly taken you away, || And I have sent you out, || And the city that I gave to you, || And to your fathers, from before My face,

40 And I have put continuous reproach on you, || And continuous shame that is not forgotten!”

24

1 YHWH has showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs, appointed before the temple of YHWH—after the removing by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, of Jeconiah, son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the heads of Judah, and the artisan, and the smith, from Jerusalem, when he brings them into Babylon—

² In one basket [are] very good figs, like the first-ripe figs, and in the other basket [are] very bad figs that are not eaten because of badness.

⁴ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁵ “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Like these good figs so I acknowledge || The expulsion of Judah that I sent from this place, || [To] the land of the Chaldeans—for good.

⁶ And I have set My eyes on them for good, || And have brought them back to this land, || And built them up, and I do not throw down, || And have planted them, and do not pluck up.

⁷ And have given to them a heart to know Me, || For I [am] YHWH, || And they have been to Me for a people, || And I am to them for God, || For they turned back to Me with all their heart.

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah—it [is] the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon—

² Which Jeremiah the prophet has spoken concerning all the people of Judah, even to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

³ “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, and to this day—this twenty-third year—the word of YHWH has been to me, and I speak to you, rising early and speaking, and you have not listened;

⁴ and YHWH has sent all His servants to you, the prophets, rising early and sending, and you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear, saying,

⁵ Please turn back, each from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell on the ground that YHWH has given to you and to your fathers from age to age,

⁶ and you do not go after other gods to serve them, and to bow yourselves to them, nor do you provoke Me to anger with the work of your hands, and I do no evil to you;

⁷ and you have not listened to Me,” a declaration of YHWH, “so as to provoke Me to anger with the work of your hands for evil to you.

⁸ Therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts: Because that you have not obeyed My words,

⁹ behold, I am sending, and have taken all the families of the north—a declaration of YHWH—even to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and have brought them in against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations, and have devoted them, and appointed them for an astonishment, and for a hissing, and for continuous ruins.

¹⁰ And I have destroyed from them the voice of rejoicing, and the voice of joy, voice of bridegroom and voice of bride, noise of millstones, and the light of lamps.

¹¹ And all this land has been for a desolation, for an astonishment, and these nations have served the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹³ And I have brought in on that land all My words that I have spoken against it, all that is written in this scroll, that Jeremiah has prophesied concerning all the nations.

¹⁴ For laid service on them—also them—have many nations and great kings, and I have given repayment to them according to their doing, and according to the work of their hands."

¹⁵ For thus said YHWH, God of Israel, to me: "Take the wine cup of this fury out of My hand, and you have caused all the nations to drink it to whom I am sending you;

¹⁶ and they have drunk, and shaken themselves and shown themselves [to be] foolish, because of the sword that I am sending among them."

¹⁷ And I take the cup out of the hand of YHWH, and cause all the nations to drink to whom YHWH sent me:

¹⁸ Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, || And its kings, its heads, || To give them to ruin, to astonishment, || To hissing, and to reviling, as [at] this day;

¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, || And his heads, and all his people,

²⁰ And all the mixed people, || And all the kings of the land of Uz, || And all the kings of the land of the Philistines, || And Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, || And the remnant of Ashdod,

²¹ Edom, and Moab, and the sons of Ammon,

²² And all the kings of Tyre, || And all the kings of Sidon, || And the kings of the island that [is] beyond the sea,

²³ Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, || And all cutting the corners [of the beard],

²⁴ And all the kings of Arabia, || And all the kings of the mixed people, || Who are dwelling in the wilderness,

²⁵ And all the kings of Zimri, || And all the kings of Elam, || And all the kings of Media,

²⁷ "And you have said to them, Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Drink, indeed drink abundantly, || And vomit, and fall, and do not rise, || Because of the sword that I am sending among you.

²⁸ And it has come to pass, || When they refuse to receive the cup out of your hand to drink, || That you have said to them, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: You certainly drink.

²⁹ For behold, in the city over which My Name is called, || I am beginning to bring ruin, || And are you entirely acquitted? You are not acquitted, for I am proclaiming a sword, || For all inhabitants of the land," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

³⁰ "And you, you prophesy all these words to them, and have said to them: YHWH roars from the high place, || And gives forth His voice from His holy habitation, || He surely roars for His habitation, || A shout as those treading [the grapes], || God answers all the inhabitants of the land,

³¹ A rumbling has come to the end of the earth, || For YHWH has a controversy with nations, || He has executed judgment for all flesh, || He has given the wicked to the sword," || A declaration of YHWH.

³² Thus said YHWH of Hosts: "Behold, evil is going out from nation to nation, || And a great whirlwind is stirred up from the sides of the earth.

³⁵ And refuge has perished from the shepherds, || And escape from the majestic of the flock.

³⁶ A voice of the cry of the shepherds, || And a howling of the majestic of the flock, || For YHWH is spoiling their pasture.

³⁷ And the peaceable habitations have been cut down, || Because of the fierceness of the anger of YHWH.

¹ In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word has been from YHWH, saying,

² "Thus said YHWH: Stand in the court of the house of YHWH, and you have spoken to all [those of] the cities of Judah, who are coming to bow themselves in the house of YHWH, all the words that I have commanded you to speak to them—you do not diminish a word.

³ Perhaps they listen, and each turns back from his evil way; then I have relented concerning the evil that I am thinking of doing to them, because of the evil of their doings.

⁴ And you have said to them, Thus said YHWH: If you do not listen to Me, to walk in My law that I set before you,

⁵ to listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I am sending to you, indeed, rising early and sending, and you have not listened,

⁶ then I have given up this house as Shiloh, and this city I give up for a reviling to all nations of the earth."

⁷ And the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, hear Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of YHWH,

⁸ and it comes to pass, at the completion of Jeremiah's speaking all that YHWH has commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people catch him, saying, "You surely die!"

⁹ Why have you prophesied in the Name of YHWH, saying, "This house will be as Shiloh, and this city is desolated, without inhabitant?" And all the people are assembled to Jeremiah in the house of YHWH.

¹⁰ And the heads of Judah hear these things, and they go up from the house of the king [to] the house of YHWH, and sit in the opening of the New Gate of YHWH.

¹¹ And the priests and the prophets speak to the heads, and to all the people, saying, "Judgment of death [is] for this man, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

¹² And Jeremiah speaks to all the heads, and to all the people, saying, "YHWH sent me to prophesy concerning this house, and concerning this city, all the words that you have heard."

¹³ And now, amend your ways, and your doings, and listen to the voice of your God YHWH, and YHWH relents concerning the evil that He has spoken against you.

¹⁴ And I, behold, I [am] in your hand, do to me as is good and as is right in your eyes;

¹⁵ only, certainly know that if you are putting me to death, you are surely putting innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for YHWH has truly sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

¹⁶ And the heads and all the people say to the priests and to the prophets, "There is not a judgment of death for this man, for he has spoken to us in the Name of our God YHWH."

¹⁷ And men from [the] elderly of the land rise up and speak to all the assembly of the people, saying,

¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear YHWH? Indeed, he appeases the face of YHWH, and YHWH relents concerning the calamity that He spoke against them; and we are doing great evil against our souls."

²⁰ And there has also been a man prophesying in the Name of YHWH, Urijah son of Shemaiah, of Kirjath-Jearim, and he prophesies against this city, and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah, ²¹ and King Jehoiakim, and all his mighty ones, and all the heads, hear his words, and the king seeks to put him to death, and Urijah hears, and fears, and flees, and goes to Egypt.

²² And King Jehoiakim sends men to Egypt—Elnathan son of Achbor, and men with him to Egypt—

²³ and they bring out Urijah from Egypt, and bring him to King Jehoiakim, and he strikes him with a sword, and casts his corpse to the graves of the sons of the people.

24 Only, the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan has been with Jeremiah so as not to give him up into the hand of the people to put him to death.

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

2 "Thus said YHWH to me: Make bands and yokes for yourself,

3 and you have put them on your neck, and have sent them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the sons of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of messengers who are coming to Jerusalem, to Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 and you have commanded them for their lords, saying, Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel:

5 Thus you say to your lords, I have made the earth with man, and the livestock that [are] on the face of the earth, by My great power, and by My outstretched arm, and I have given it to whom it has been right in My eyes.

6 And now, I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and I have also given the beast of the field to him to serve him;

7 and all the nations have served him, and his son, and his son's son, until the coming in of the time of his land, also it; and many nations and great kings have made him serve them.

8 And it has come to pass, the nation and the kingdom that does not serve him—Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon—and that which does not put its neck into the yoke of the king of Babylon, with sword, and with famine, and with pestilence, I lay a charge on that nation—a declaration of YHWH—until I consume them by his hand.

9 And you, you do not listen to your prophets, and to your diviners, and to your dreamers, and to your observers of clouds, and to your sorcerers who are speaking to you, saying, You do not serve the king of Babylon—

10 For they are prophesying falsehood to you, so as to remove you far from your ground, and I have driven you out, and you have perished.

11 And the nation that causes its neck to enter into the yoke of the king of Babylon, and has served him—I have left it on its ground—a declaration of YHWH—and it has tilled it, and dwelt in it."

12 And I have spoken to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Cause your necks to enter into the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why do you die, you and your people, by sword, by famine, and by pestilence, as YHWH has spoken concerning the nation that does not serve the king of Babylon?

14 And you do not listen to the words of the prophets who are speaking to you, saying, You do not serve the king of Babylon—for they are prophesying falsehood to you.

15 For I have not sent them—a declaration of YHWH—and they are prophesying falsely in My Name, so as to drive you out, and you have perished, you and the prophets who are prophesying to you."

16 And to the priests, and to all this people, I have spoken, saying, "Thus said YHWH: You do not listen to the words of your prophets, who are prophesying to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the house of YHWH are now brought back from Babylon in haste, for they are prophesying falsehood to you.

¹⁷ You do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live! Why is this city a ruin?

¹⁹ For thus said YHWH of Hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that are left in this city,

²¹ surely thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left of the house of YHWH, and of the house of the king of Judah, and [in] Jerusalem:

²² They are brought to Babylon, and there they are until the day of My inspecting them—a declaration of YHWH; then I have brought them up, and have brought them back to this place.”

28

¹ And it comes to pass, in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azur the prophet, who [is] of Gibeon, has spoken to me in the house of YHWH, before the eyes of the priests, and all the people, saying,

² “Thus spoke YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon;

³ within two years of days I am bringing back to this place all the vessels of the house of YHWH that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken from this place, and carries to Babylon,

⁴ and Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the expulsion of Judah, who are entering Babylon, I am bringing back to this place—a declaration of YHWH; for I break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”

⁵ And Jeremiah the prophet says to Hananiah the prophet, before the eyes of the priests, and before the eyes of all the people who are standing in the house of YHWH,

⁶ indeed, Jeremiah the prophet says, “Amen! So may YHWH do; YHWH establish your words that you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the house of YHWH and all the expulsion from Babylon, to this place.

⁷ Only, please hear this word that I am speaking in your ears, and in the ears of all the people.

⁸ The prophets who have been before me, and before you, from of old, even they prophesy concerning many lands, and concerning great kingdoms, of battle, and of calamity, and of pestilence.

⁹ The prophet who prophesies of peace, by the word of the prophet coming to pass, the prophet is known [as] one whom YHWH has truly sent.”

¹⁰ And Hananiah the prophet takes the yoke from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, and breaks it,

¹² And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah after the breaking, by Hananiah the prophet, of the yoke from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, saying, ¹³ "Go, and you have spoken to Hananiah, saying, Thus said YHWH: You have broken yokes of wood, and I have made yokes of iron instead of them.

¹⁴ For thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they have served him, and I have also given the beast of the field to him."

¹⁵ And Jeremiah the prophet says to Hananiah the prophet, "Now hear, O Hananiah; YHWH has not sent you, and you have caused this people to trust on falsehood.

¹⁶ Therefore, thus said YHWH: Behold, I am casting you from off the face of the ground; you die this year, for you have spoken apostasy concerning YHWH."

¹⁷ And Hananiah the prophet dies in that year, in the seventh month.

² after the going forth of Jeconiah the king, and the mistress, and the officers, heads of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsman, and the smith, from Jerusalem—

³ by the hand of Eleasah son of Shaphan, and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

⁴ "Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, to all the expulsion that I removed from Jerusalem to Babylon:

⁵ Build houses and abide; and plant gardens and eat their fruit;

⁶ take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, and they bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and you are not few;

⁷ and seek the peace of the city to where I have removed you, and pray to YHWH for it, for in its peace you have peace.

⁸ For thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Do not let your prophets who [are] in your midst, and your diviners, lift you up, nor listen to their dreams, that you are causing [them] to dream;

⁹ for they are prophesying with falsehood to you in My Name; I have not sent them, a declaration of YHWH.

¹⁰ For thus said YHWH: Surely at the fullness of Babylon—seventy years—I inspect you, and have established My good word toward you, to bring you back to this place.

11 For I have known the thoughts that I am thinking toward you—a declaration of YHWH; thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give posterity and hope to you.

12 And you have called Me, and have gone, and have prayed to Me, and I have listened to you,

13 and you have sought Me, and have found, for you seek Me with all your heart;

14 and I have been found by you—a declaration of YHWH; and I have turned back [to] your captivity, and have gathered you out of all the nations, and out of all the places to where I have driven you—a declaration of YHWH—and I have brought you back to the place from where I removed you.

15 Because you have said, YHWH has raised up prophets to us in Babylon,

16 surely thus said YHWH concerning the king who is sitting on the throne of David, and concerning all the people that are dwelling in this city, your brothers who did not go forth with you in the expulsion—

17 thus said YHWH of Hosts: Behold, I am sending the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, and I have given them up as figs that [are] vile, that are not eaten because of badness.

18 And I have pursued after them with sword, with famine, and with pestilence, and have given them for a trembling to all kingdoms of the earth, for a curse and for an astonishment, and for a hissing, and for a reproach among all the nations to where I have driven them,

19 because that they have not listened to My words—a declaration of YHWH—that I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising early and sending, and you did not listen—a declaration of YHWH.

20 And you, hear a word of YHWH, all you of the captivity that I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon—

21 thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, concerning Ahab son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying falsehood to you in My Name: Behold, I am giving them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he has struck them before your eyes,

22 and because of them a reviling has been taken by all the expulsion of Judah that [are] in Babylon, saying, YHWH sets you as Zedekiah, and as Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted with fire;

23 because that they have done folly in Israel, and commit adultery with the wives of their neighbors, and falsely speak a word in My Name that I have not commanded them, and I [am] He who knows and a witness—a declaration of YHWH.

24 And you speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, saying, Because that you have sent letters in your name to all the people who [are] in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 YHWH has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, for there being inspectors of the house of YHWH over every man [who] is mad and making himself a prophet, and you have put him in the stocks and in the pillory.

27 And now, why have you not pushed against Jeremiah of Anathoth, who is making himself a prophet to you?

28 Because that he has sent to us [in] Babylon, saying, It [is] long, build houses and abide; and plant gardens and eat their fruit.”

29 And Zephaniah the priest reads this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying,

31 “Send to all the expulsion, saying, Thus said YHWH concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because that Shemaiah prophesied to you, and I have not sent him, and he causes you to trust on falsehood,

32 therefore, thus said YHWH: Behold, I am seeing after Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and after his seed, he has none dwelling in the midst of this people, nor does he look on the good that I am doing to My people,” a declaration of YHWH, “for he has spoken apostasy against YHWH.”

1 The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

2 “Thus spoke YHWH, God of Israel, saying, Write for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you on a scroll.

3 For behold, days are coming—a declaration of YHWH—and I have turned back [to] the captivity of My people Israel and Judah, said YHWH, and I have caused them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they possess it.”

4 And these [are] the words that YHWH has spoken concerning Israel and concerning Judah:

5 Surely thus said YHWH: “We have heard a voice of trembling, || Fear—and there is no peace.

6 Now ask and see, is a male bringing forth? Why have I seen every man || [With] his hands on his loins, as a travailing woman, || And all faces have been turned to paleness?

7 Woe! For that day [is] great, without any like it, || Indeed, it [is] the time of Jacob’s tribulation, || Yet he is saved out of it.

8 And it has come to pass in that day, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || I break his yoke from off your neck, || And I draw away your bands, || And strangers lay no more service on him.

9 And they have served their God YHWH, || And David their king whom I raise up to them.

10 And you, do not be afraid, My servant Jacob, || A declaration of YHWH, || Nor be frightened, O Israel, || For behold, I am saving you from afar, || And your seed from the land of their captivity, || And Jacob has turned back and rested, || And is quiet, and there is none troubling.

11 For I [am] with you,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “To save you, || For I make an end of all the nations || To where I have scattered you, || Only, I do not make an end of you, || And I have disciplined you in judgment, || And do not entirely acquit you.”

12 For thus said YHWH: “Your breach is incurable, your stroke grievous,

13 There is none judging your cause to bind up, || There are no healing medicines for you.

14 All loving you have forgotten you, || They do not seek you, || For I struck you with the stroke of an enemy, || The discipline of a fierce one, || Because of the abundance of your iniquity, your sins have been mighty!

15 Why do you cry concerning your breach? Your pain [is] incurable, || Because of the abundance of your iniquity, || Your sins have been mighty! I have done these to you.

16 Therefore all consuming you are consumed, || And all your adversaries—all of them—Go into captivity, || And your spoilers have been for a spoil, || And I give up all your plunderers to plunder.

17 For I increase health to you, || And I heal you from your strokes,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “For they have called you an outcast, [saying], || It [is] Zion, || There is none seeking for her.”

18 Thus said YHWH: “Behold, I turn back [to] the captivity of the tents of Jacob, || And I pity his dwelling places, || And the city has been built on its heap, || And the palace remains according to its ordinance.

19 And thanksgiving has gone forth from them, || And the voice of playful ones, || And I have multiplied them and they are not few, || And made them honorable, and they are not small.

20 And his sons have been as before, || And his congregation is established before Me, || And I have seen after all his oppressors.

21 And his majestic one has been of himself, || And his ruler goes forth from his midst, || And I have caused him to draw near, || And he has drawn near to Me, || For who [is] he who has pledged his heart || To draw near to Me?” A declaration of YHWH.

22 “And you have been to Me for a people, || And I am to you for God.”

23 Behold, a whirlwind of YHWH—Fury has gone forth—a cutting whirlwind, || It stays on the head of the wicked.

24 The fierceness of the anger of YHWH || Does not turn back until He has done [it], || Indeed, until His establishing the purposes of His heart. In the latter end of the days you consider it!

31

1 “At that time,” a declaration of YHWH, “I am the God of all families of Israel, || And they are My people.”

2 Thus said YHWH: “A people remaining from the sword || Have found grace in the wilderness || When Israel went to find rest.”

3 YHWH has appeared to me from afar, “I have loved you with perpetual love, || Therefore I have drawn you [with] kindness.

4 I build you again, || And you have been built, || O virgin of Israel, || You put on your tambourines again, || And have gone out in the chorus of the playful.

5 You plant vineyards in mountains of Samaria again, || Planters have planted, and made common.

6 For there is a day, || Watchmen have cried on Mount Ephraim, || Rise, and we go up to Zion, to our God YHWH”;

7 For thus said YHWH: “Sing [with] joy for Jacob, || And cry aloud at the head of the nations, || Sound, praise, and say, || Save, O YHWH, Your people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I am bringing them in from the north country, || And have gathered them from the sides of the earth, || Blind and lame [are] among them, || Conceiving and travailing one—together, || A great assembly—they return here.

9 They come in with weeping, || And I bring them with supplications, || I cause them to go to streams of waters, || In a right way—they do not stumble in it, || For I have been a Father to Israel, || And Ephraim—he [is] My firstborn.”

10 Hear a word of YHWH, O nations, || And declare among the far off in the islands, and say: He who is scattering Israel gathers him, || And has kept His flock as a shepherd,

11 For YHWH has ransomed Jacob, || And redeemed him from a hand stronger than he.

12 And they have come in, || And have sung in the high place of Zion, || And flowed to the goodness of YHWH, || For wheat, and for new wine, and for oil, || And for the young of the flock and herd, || And their soul has been as a watered garden, || And they do not add to grieve anymore.

13 “Then a virgin rejoices in a chorus, || Both young men and old men—together, || And I have turned their mourning to joy, || And have comforted them, || And gladdened them above their sorrow,

14 And satisfied the soul of the priests [with] fatness, || And My people are satisfied with My goodness,” || A declaration of YHWH.

15 Thus said YHWH: “A voice is heard in Ramah, || Wailing [and] the weeping of bitterness, || Rachel is weeping for her sons, || She has refused to be comforted for her sons, because they are not.”

16 Thus said YHWH: “Withhold your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, || For there is a reward for your work,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And they have turned back from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope for your latter end,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And the sons have turned back [to] their border.

18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself, || You have disciplined me, || And I am disciplined, as a heifer [that is] not taught, || Turn me back, and I turn back, || For You [are] my God YHWH.

19 For after my turning back I regretted, || And after my being instructed I struck on the thigh, || I have been ashamed, I have also blushed, || For I have borne the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim a precious son to Me? A child of delights? For since My speaking against him, || I still thoroughly remember him, || Therefore My bowels have been moved for him, || I love him greatly,” || A declaration of YHWH.

21 “Set up signs for yourself, || Make heaps for yourself, || Set your heart to the highway, the way you went, || Turn back, O virgin of Israel, || Turn back to these cities of yours.

22 Until when do you withdraw yourself, O backsliding daughter? For YHWH has prepared a new thing in the land, || Woman surrounds man.”

23 Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: “Still they say this word in the land of Judah, || And in its cities, || In My turning back [to] their captivity, || YHWH blesses you, habitation of righteousness, || Mountain of holiness.

24 And farmers have dwelt in Judah, || And in all its cities together, || And they have journeyed in order.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, || And I have filled every grieved soul.”

²⁶ On this I have awoken, and I behold, and my sleep has been sweet to me.

²⁷ “Behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I have sown the house of Israel, || And the house of Judah, || With seed of man and seed of beast.

²⁸ And it has been, as I watched over them to pluck up, || And to break down, and to throw down, || And to destroy, and to afflict; So I watch over them to build, and to plant,” || A declaration of YHWH.

²⁹ “In those days they no longer say: Fathers have eaten unripe fruit, || And the sons’ teeth are blunted.

³⁰ But—each dies for his own iniquity, || Every man who is eating the unripe fruit, || His teeth are blunted.

³¹ Behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And I have made a new covenant || With the house of Israel || And with the house of Judah,

³² Not like the covenant that I made with their fathers, || In the day of My laying hold on their hand, || To bring them out of the land of Egypt, || In that they made My covenant void, || And I ruled over them,” || A declaration of YHWH.

³³ “For this [is] the covenant that I make, || With the house of Israel, after those days,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “I have given My law in their inward part, || And I write it on their heart, || And I have been their God, || And they are My people.

³⁶ “If these statutes depart from before Me,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “Even the seed of Israel ceases || From being a nation before Me [for] all the days.”

³⁷ Thus said YHWH: “If the heavens above can be measured, || And the foundations of earth searched below, || Even I kick against all the seed of Israel, || For all that they have done,” || A declaration of YHWH.

³⁸ “Behold, days [are coming],” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And the city has been built for YHWH, || From the Tower of Hananeel to the Corner Gate.

³⁹ And the measuring line has gone out again before it, over the height of Gareb, || And it has gone around to Goah.

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah—it [is] the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar—

² And then the forces of the king of Babylon are laying siege against Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet has been shut up in the court of the prison that [is] in the house of the king of Judah,

³ where Zedekiah king of Judah has shut him up, saying, “Why are you prophesying, saying, Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he has captured it;

⁴ and Zedekiah king of Judah does not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but is certainly given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and his mouth has spoken with his mouth, and his eyes see his eyes,

⁵ and he leads Zedekiah [to] Babylon, and there he is until My inspecting him—a declaration of YHWH—because you fight with the Chaldeans, you do not prosper.”

⁶ And Jeremiah says, “A word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

⁷ Behold, Hanameel son of Shallum, your uncle, is coming to you, saying, Buy my field that [is] in Anathoth for yourself, for the right of redemption [is] yours to buy.”

⁸ And Hanameel, my uncle’s son, comes to me, according to the word of YHWH, to the court of the prison, and says to me, “Please buy my field that [is] in Anathoth, that [is] in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession [is] yours, and redemption yours—buy [it] for yourself.” And I know that it [is] the word of YHWH, ⁹ and I buy the field that [is] in Anathoth from Hanameel, my uncle’s son, and I weigh the money to him—seventeen shekels of silver.

¹⁰ And I write in a scroll, and seal, and cause witnesses to testify, and weigh the silver in balances;

¹¹ and I take the purchase scroll, the sealed one, according to law and custom, and the open one;

¹² and I give the purchase scroll to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Maaseiah, before the eyes of Hanameel, my uncle’s son, and before the eyes of the witnesses, those writing in the purchase scroll, before the eyes of all the Jews who are sitting in the court of the prison.

¹³ And I charge Baruch before their eyes, saying,

¹⁴ “Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Take these scrolls, this purchase scroll, both the sealed one and the open one, and you have put them in an earthen vessel, that they may remain many days.

¹⁵ For thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards are bought in this land again.”

¹⁶ And I pray to YHWH after my giving the purchase scroll to Baruch son of Neriah, saying,

¹⁷ “Aah! Lord YHWH, behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power, and by Your outstretched arm; there is nothing too wonderful for You:

¹⁸ doing kindness to thousands, and repaying iniquity of fathers into the bosom of their sons after them; God, the great, the mighty, YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name;

¹⁹ great in counsel, and mighty in act, in that Your eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of Adam, to give to each according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings;

²⁰ in that you have done signs and wonders in the land of Egypt to this day, and in Israel, and among men, and You make for Yourself a name as

[at] this day.

²¹ And You bring forth Your people Israel from the land of Egypt, with signs and with wonders, and by a strong hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great fear,

²² and you give to them this land that you swore to their fathers to give to them, a land flowing with milk and honey,

²³ and they come in, and possess it, and they have not listened to Your voice, and have not walked in Your law, all that which You laid a charge on them to do they have not done, and You proclaim all this calamity [to] them.

²⁴ Behold, the [siege] mounds have come to the city to capture it, and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it, because of the sword, and the famine, and the pestilence; and that which You have spoken has come to pass, and behold, You are seeing.

²⁵ Yet You have said to me, O Lord YHWH, Buy the field for yourself with money, and cause witnesses to testify—and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans!”

²⁶ And the word of YHWH is to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁷ “Behold, I [am] YHWH, God of all flesh: is anything too wonderful for Me?”

²⁸ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he has captured it.

²⁹ And the Chaldeans who are fighting against this city have come in, and they have set this city on fire, and have burned it—and the houses on whose roofs they made incense to Ba’al, and poured out drink-offerings to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger.

³⁰ For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have been doing only evil in My eyes from their youth; for the sons of Israel are surely provoking Me with the work of their hands,” a declaration of YHWH.

³¹ “For this city has been a cause of My anger and a cause of My fury, even from the day that they built it, and to this day—to turn it aside from before My face, ³² because of all the evil of the sons of Israel, and of the sons of Judah that they have done, so as to provoke Me—they, their kings, their heads, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

³³ And they turn the neck to Me, and not the face, and teaching them, rising early and teaching, and they are not listening to accept instruction.

³⁴ And they set their abominations in the house over which My Name is called, so as to defile it.

³⁵ And they build the high places of Ba’al that [are] in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through to Molech, which I did not command them, nor did it come up on My heart to do this abomination, so as to cause Judah to sin.

³⁶ And now, therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Israel, concerning this city, of which you are saying, It has been given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, and by famine, and by pestilence:

³⁷ Behold, I am gathering them out of all the lands to where I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath, and I have brought them back to this place, and have caused them to dwell confidently;

³⁸ and they have been to Me for a people, and I am to them for God;

³⁹ and I have given to them one heart and one way, to fear Me all the days, for the good of them and their sons after them:

⁴⁰ and I have made a perpetual covenant for them, in that I do not turn back from after them for My doing them good, and I put My fear in their heart, so as not to turn aside from me;

⁴¹ and I have rejoiced over them to do them good, and have planted them in this land in truth, with all my heart, and with all My soul.”

⁴² For thus said YHWH: “As I brought to this people all this great calamity, so I am bringing on them all the good that I am speaking concerning them;

⁴³ and the field has been bought in this land of which you are saying, It [is] a desolation, without man and beast, it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

⁴⁴ They buy fields with money, so as to write in a scroll, and to seal, and to cause witnesses to testify, in the land of Benjamin, and in outskirts of Jerusalem, and in cities of Judah, and in cities of the hill-country, and in cities of the low country, and in cities of the south, for I return their captivity,” a declaration of YHWH.

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah a second time—and he [is] yet detained in the court of the prison—saying:

² “Thus said YHWH who has made it, YHWH who has formed it, to establish it, YHWH [is] His Name:

³ Call to Me, and I answer you, indeed, I declare to you great and inaccessible things—you have not known them.

⁴ For thus said YHWH, God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah that are broken down for the [siege] mounds, and for the tool;

⁵ they are coming to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the carcasses of men, whom I have struck in My anger, and in My fury, and [for] whom I have hidden My face from this city, because of all their evil:

⁶ Behold, I am increasing health and cure to it, || And have healed them, and revealed to them || The abundance of peace and truth.

⁷ And I have turned back the captivity of Judah, || And the captivity of Israel, || And I have built them as at the first,

⁸ And cleansed them from all their iniquity || That they have sinned against Me, || And I have pardoned all their iniquities || That they have sinned against Me, || And that they transgressed against Me.

⁹ And it has been for a name of joy to Me, || For praise, and for beauty, to all nations of the earth, || Who hear of all the good that I am doing them, || And they have feared, || And they have trembled for all the good, || And for all the peace, that I am doing to it.”

¹⁰ Thus said YHWH: “Again is heard in this place—of which you are saying, It [is] dry, without man and without beast, || In cities of Judah, and in streets of Jerusalem, || That are desolated, without man, || And without inhabitant, and without beast—

¹¹ A voice of joy and a voice of gladness, || Voice of bridegroom and voice of bride, || The voice of those saying, || Thank YHWH of Hosts, for YHWH [is] good, || For His kindness [is] for all time, || Who are bringing

in thanksgiving to the house of YHWH, || For I return the captivity of the land, || As at the first," said YHWH.

¹² Thus said YHWH of Hosts: "Again there is in this place—that is dry, || Without man and beast, || And in all its cities—a habitation of shepherds, || Causing the flock to lie down.

¹³ In the cities of the hill-country, || In the cities of the low country, || And in the cities of the south, || And in the land of Benjamin, || And in the outskirts of Jerusalem, || And in the cities of Judah, || Again the flock passes by under the hands of the numberer," said YHWH.

¹⁴ "Behold, days are coming," a declaration of YHWH, "And I have established the good word || That I spoke to the house of Israel, || And concerning the house of Judah.

¹⁵ In those days, and at that time, || I cause a Shoot of righteousness to shoot up to David, || And He has done judgment and righteousness in the earth.

¹⁶ In those days Judah is saved, || And Jerusalem dwells confidently, || And this [is] what she is called: YHWH [is] Our Righteousness."

¹⁷ For thus said YHWH: "A man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel [is] never cut off from David,

¹⁸ And to the priests—the Levites, || A man is not cut off from before My face, || Causing a burnt-offering to ascend, || And perfuming a present, and making sacrifice—all the days."

¹⁹ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁰ "Thus said YHWH: If you can break My covenant with the day, || And My covenant with the night, || So that they are not daily and nightly in their season,

²¹ My covenant is also broken with My servant David, || So that he does not have a son reigning on his throne, || And with the Levites the priests, My ministers.

²³ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying,

²⁴ "Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, || The two families on which YHWH fixed, || He rejects them? And they despise My people, so that they are no longer a people before them!"

²⁵ Thus said YHWH: "If My covenant [is] not with day and night, || [And if] I have not appointed the statutes of the heavens and earth—

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH—and Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his force, and all kingdoms of the land of the dominion of his hand, and all the peoples are fighting against Jerusalem, and against all its cities—saying:

² "Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Go, and you have spoken to Zedekiah king of Judah, and have said to him, Thus said YHWH: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he has burned it with fire,

⁴ Only, hear a word of YHWH, O Zedekiah king of Judah—thus said YHWH to you: You do not die by sword,

⁶ And Jeremiah the prophet speaks all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

⁸ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, after the making of a covenant by King Zedekiah with all the people who [are] in Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them,

⁹ to each send out his manservant, and each his maidservant—the Hebrew and the Hebrewess—free, so as not to lay service on them—on any Jew, a brother, a man;

¹¹ and they turn afterward, and cause the menservants and the maidservants to return, whom they had sent forth free, and they subdue them for menservants and for maidservants.

¹² And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

¹³ “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day of My bringing them forth from the land of Egypt, from a house of servants, saying,

¹⁴ At the end of seven years you each send forth his brother, the Hebrew, who is sold to you, and has served you six years, indeed, you have sent him forth from you free: and your fathers did not listen to Me, nor inclined their ear.

¹⁵ And today you turn back and you do that which is right in My eyes, to each proclaim liberty to his neighbor, and you make a covenant before Me in the house over which My Name is called.

¹⁶ And you turn back, and defile My Name, and you each cause his manservant and each his maidservant, whom he had sent forth free (at their pleasure), to return, and you subdue them to be for menservants and for maidservants to you.”

¹⁷ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “You have not listened to Me to proclaim freedom, each to his brother, and each to his neighbor; behold, I am proclaiming to you liberty,” a declaration of YHWH, “to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I have given you for a trembling to all kingdoms of the earth.

¹⁸ And I have given the men who are transgressing My covenant, who have not established the words of the covenant that they have made before Me, by the calf, that they have cut in two, and pass through between its pieces—

¹⁹ heads of Judah, and heads of Jerusalem, the officers, and the priests, and all the people of the land who had passed through between the pieces of the calf—

²² Behold, I am commanding,” a declaration of YHWH, “and have brought them back to this city, and they have fought against it, and captured it, and burned it with fire, and I make the cities of Judah a desolation—without inhabitant.”

35

¹ The word that has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

² “Go to the house of the Rechabites, and you have spoken with them, and brought them into the house of YHWH, to one of the chambers, and caused them to drink wine.”

³ And I take Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and all the house of the Rechabites,

⁵ and I put before the sons of the house of the Rechabites goblets full of wine, and cups, and I say to them, “Drink wine.”

⁶ And they say, “We do not drink wine: for Jonadab son of Rechab, our father, charged us, saying, You do not drink wine, you and your sons—for all time;

⁷ and you do not build a house, and you do not sow seed, and you do not plant a vineyard, nor have of [these]; for you dwell in tents all your days, that you may live many days on the face of the ground to where you are sojourning.

⁸ And we listen to the voice of Jonadab son of Rechab, our father, to all that he commanded us, not to drink wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters;

⁹ nor to build houses to dwell in; and we have no vineyard, and field, and seed;

¹⁰ and we dwell in tents, and we listen, and we do according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us;

¹¹ and it comes to pass, in the coming up of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to the land, that we say, Come, and we enter Jerusalem, because of the force of the Chaldeans, and because of the force of Aram—and we dwell in Jerusalem.”

¹² And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying, “Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel:

¹³ Go, and you have said to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Do you not receive instruction to listen to My words? A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁴ The words of Jonadab son of Rechab, when he commanded his sons not to drink wine, have stood, and they have not drunk to this day, for they have obeyed the command of their father; and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, and you have not listened to Me.

¹⁵ And I send all My servants the prophets to you, rising early and sending, saying, Please turn back, each from his evil way, and amend your doings, indeed, you do not walk after other gods, to serve them; and dwell on the ground that I have given to you and to your fathers; and you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to Me.

¹⁶ Because the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab have stood by the command of their father that he commanded them, and this people have not listened to Me,

¹⁷ therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing to Judah, and to all inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the calamity that I have spoken against them, because I have spoken to them, and they have not listened, indeed, I call to them, and they have not answered.”

¹⁸ And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites: “Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Because that you have listened to the command of your father Jonadab, and you observe all his commands, and do according to all that he commanded you;

¹⁹ therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: A man of Jonadab son of Rechab is not cut off [from] standing before Me all the days.”

¹ And it comes to pass, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word has been to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying,

² “Take a roll of a scroll to yourself, and you have written on it all the words that I have spoken to you concerning Israel, and concerning Judah, and concerning all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day;

³ perhaps the house of Israel so hears all the evil that I am thinking of doing to them, so that they each turn back from his evil way, and I have been propitious to their iniquity, and to their sin.”

⁴ And Jeremiah calls Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch writes from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of YHWH, that He has spoken to him, on a roll of a scroll.

⁵ And Jeremiah commands Baruch, saying, “I am restrained, I am not able to enter the house of YHWH;

⁶ but you have entered—and you have read in the scroll that you have written from my mouth, the words of YHWH, in the ears of the people, in the house of YHWH, in the day of the fast, and you also read them in the ears of all Judah who are coming in from their cities;

⁷ perhaps their supplication so falls before YHWH, and they each turn back from his evil way, for the anger and the fury that YHWH has spoken concerning this people [is] great.”

⁸ And Baruch son of Neriah does according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, to read in the scroll the words of YHWH in the house of YHWH.

⁹ And it comes to pass, in the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, they proclaimed a fast before YHWH to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who are coming in from cities of Judah to Jerusalem;

¹¹ And Michaiah son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, hears all the words of YHWH from off the scroll,

¹² and he goes down [to] the house of the king, to the chamber of the scribe, and behold, there all the heads are sitting: Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan son of Achbor, and Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the heads.

¹³ And Micaiah declares to them all the words that he has heard when Baruch reads in the scroll in the ears of the people;

¹⁴ and all the heads send to Baruch, Jehudi son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll, which you have read in the ears of the people, and come." And Baruch son of Neriah takes the scroll in his hand and comes to them,

¹⁵ and they say to him, "Please sit down and read it in our ears," and Baruch reads [it] in their ears,

¹⁶ and it comes to pass, when they hear all the words, they have been afraid—one to another—and say to Baruch, "We surely declare all these words to the king."

¹⁷ And they asked Baruch, saying, "Please declare to us, how did you write all these words from his mouth?"

¹⁸ And Baruch says to them, "He pronounces from his mouth all these words to me, and I am writing on the scroll with ink."

¹⁹ And the heads say to Baruch, "Go, be hidden, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you [are]."

²⁰ And they go to the king, to the court, and they have laid up the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and they declare all the words in the ears of the king.

²² and the king is sitting in the winter-house, in the ninth month, and the stove is burning before him,

²⁴ And the king and all his servants who are hearing all these words have not been afraid, nor torn their garments.

²⁵ And also Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah have interceded with the king not to burn the scroll, and he has not listened to them.

²⁶ And the king commands Jerahmeel son of Hammelek, and Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, and YHWH hides them.

²⁷ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah—after the king’s burning the scroll, even the words that Baruch has written from the mouth of Jeremiah—saying:

²⁸ “Turn, take another scroll to yourself, and write on it all the former words that were on the first scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned,

²⁹ and say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus said YHWH: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written on it, saying, The king of Babylon surely comes in, and has destroyed this land, and caused man and beast to cease from it?

³⁰ Therefore, thus said YHWH concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He has none sitting on the throne of David, and his carcass is cast out to heat by day, and to cold by night;

³² And Jeremiah has taken another scroll, and gives it to Baruch son of Neriah the scribe, and he writes on it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah has burned in the fire; and again there were added to them many words like these.

¹ And King Zedekiah son of Josiah reigns instead of Coniah son of Jehoiakim whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had caused to reign in the land of Judah,

² and he has not listened—he, and his servants, and the people of the land—to the words of YHWH that He spoke by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.

³ And Zedekiah the king sends Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “Pray, we implore you, for us to our God YHWH.”

⁴ And Jeremiah is coming in and going out in the midst of the people (and they have not put him in the prison-house),

⁵ and the force of Pharaoh has come out of Egypt, and the Chaldeans who are laying siege against Jerusalem hear their report, and go up from off Jerusalem.

⁶ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

⁷ “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel: Thus you say to the king of Judah who is sending you to Me, to seek Me: Behold, the force of Pharaoh that is coming out to you for help has turned back to its land, to Egypt,

⁸ and the Chaldeans have turned back and fought against this city, and captured it, and burned it with fire.

⁹ Thus said YHWH: Do not lift up your souls, saying, The Chaldeans surely go from off us, for they do not go;

¹⁰ for though you had struck all the force of the Chaldeans who are fighting with you, and there were left of them wounded men—they rise, each in his tent, and have burned this city with fire.”

¹¹ And it has come to pass, in the going up of the force of the Chaldeans from off Jerusalem, because of the force of Pharaoh,

¹² that Jeremiah goes out from Jerusalem to go [to] the land of Benjamin, to receive a portion there in the midst of the people.

¹³ And it comes to pass, he is at the Gate of Benjamin, and there [is] a master of the ward, and his name is Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah; and he catches Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are defecting to the Chaldeans!"

¹⁴ And Jeremiah says, "Falsehood! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans"; and he has not listened to him, and Irijah lays hold on Jeremiah, and brings him to the heads,

¹⁵ and the heads are angry against Jeremiah, and have struck him, and put him in the prison-house—the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had made it for a prison-house.

¹⁶ When Jeremiah has entered into the house of the dungeon, and to the cells, then Jeremiah dwells there many days,

¹⁷ and King Zedekiah sends, and takes him, and the king asks him in his house in secret, and says, "Is there a word from YHWH?" And Jeremiah says, "There is," and he says, "You are given into the hand of the king of Babylon."

¹⁸ And Jeremiah says to King Zedekiah, "What have I sinned against you, and against your servants, and against this people, that you have put me into a prison-house?"

¹⁹ And where [are] your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon does not come in against you, and against this land?"

²⁰ And now, please listen, O my lord the king; please let my supplication fall before you, and do not cause me to return [to] the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I do not die there."

²¹ And King Zedekiah commands, and they commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, also to give a cake of bread to him daily from the bakers' street, until the consumption of all the bread of the city, and Jeremiah dwells in the court of the prison.

¹ And Shephatiah son of Mattan, and Gedaliah son of Pashhur, and Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchiah, hear the words that Jeremiah is speaking to all the people, saying,

² "Thus said YHWH: He who is remaining in this city dies, by sword, by famine, and by pestilence, and he who is going forth to the Chaldeans lives, and his soul has been to him for a prey, and he lives.

³ Thus said YHWH: This city is certainly given into the hand of the force of the king of Babylon, and he has captured it."

⁵ And King Zedekiah says, "Behold, he [is] in your hand: for the king is not able [to do] anything against you."

⁶ And they take Jeremiah, and cast him into the pit of Malchiah son of the king, that [is] in the court of the prison, and they send Jeremiah down with cords; and there is no water in the pit, but mire, and Jeremiah sinks in the mire.

⁷ And Ebed-Melech the Cushite, a eunuch who [is] in the king's house, hears that they have put Jeremiah into the pit; and the king is sitting at the Gate of Benjamin,

⁸ and Ebed-Melech goes forth from the king's house, and speaks to the king, saying,

⁹ "My lord, O king, these men have done evil [in] all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the pit, and he dies in his place because of the famine, for there is no more bread in the city."

¹⁰ And the king commands Ebed-Melech the Cushite, saying, "Take with you thirty men from here, and you have brought up Jeremiah the prophet from the pit, before he dies."

¹² And Ebed-Melech the Cushite says to Jeremiah, "Now put the worn-out pieces of cloth and rags under your arms, at the place of the cords," and Jeremiah does so,

¹³ and they draw Jeremiah out with cords, and bring him up out of the pit, and Jeremiah dwells in the court of the prison.

¹⁴ And King Zedekiah sends, and takes Jeremiah the prophet to him, to the third entrance that [is] in the house of YHWH, and the king says to Jeremiah, "I am asking you something, do not hide anything from me."

¹⁵ And Jeremiah says to Zedekiah, "When I declare [it] to you, do you not surely put me to death? And when I counsel you, you do not listen to me."

¹⁶ And King Zedekiah swears to Jeremiah in secret, saying, "YHWH lives, He who made this soul for us, I do not put you to death, nor give you into the hand of these men who are seeking your soul."

¹⁷ And Jeremiah says to Zedekiah, "Thus said YHWH, God of Hosts, God of Israel: If you certainly go forth to the heads of the king of Babylon, then your soul has lived, and this city is not burned with fire, indeed, you have lived, you and your house.

¹⁹ And King Zedekiah says to Jeremiah, "I am fearing the Jews who have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they give me into their hand, and they have insulted me."

²⁰ And Jeremiah says, "They do not give you up; please listen to the voice of YHWH, to that which I am speaking to you, and it is well for you, and your soul lives.

²¹ And if you are refusing to go forth, this [is] the thing that YHWH has shown me:

²² That, behold, all the women who have been left in the house of the king of Judah are brought forth to the heads of the king of Babylon, and behold, they are saying: Persuaded you, and prevailed against you, ||

Have your allies, || Your feet have sunk into mire, || They have been turned backward.

²³ And all your wives and your sons are brought forth to the Chaldeans, and you do not escape from their hand, for you are caught by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city is burned with fire.”

²⁴ And Zedekiah says to Jeremiah, “Let no man know of these words, and you do not die;

²⁵ and when the heads hear that I have spoken with you, and they have come to you, and have said to you, Now declare to us what you spoke to the king, do not hide [it] from us, and we do not put you to death, and what the king spoke to you,

²⁶ then you have said to them, I am causing my supplication to fall before the king, not to cause me to return to the house of Jonathan, to die there.”

²⁷ And all the heads come to Jeremiah, and ask him, and he declares to them according to all these words that the king commanded, and they keep silent from him, for the matter was not heard;

²⁸ and Jeremiah dwells in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem has been captured, and he was [there] when Jerusalem was captured.

¹ In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his force have come to Jerusalem, and they lay siege against it;

² in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, the city has been broken up;

³ and all the heads of the king of Babylon come in, and they sit at the middle gate, Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-Saris, Nergal-Sharezer, chief magus, and all the rest of the heads of the king of Babylon.

⁶ And the king of Babylon slaughters the sons of Zedekiah, in Riblah, before his eyes, indeed, the king of Babylon has slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.

⁷ And he has blinded the eyes of Zedekiah, and he binds him with bronze chains to bring him to Babylon.

⁸ And the house of the king, and the house of the people, the Chaldeans have burned with fire, and they have broken down the walls of Jerusalem.

⁹ And the remnant of the people who are left in the city, and those defecting who have defected to him, and the remnant of the people who are left, Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, has removed [to] Babylon.

¹⁰ And Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, has left in the land of Judah the poor people who have nothing, and he gives vineyards and fields to them in that day.

¹¹ And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gives a charge concerning Jeremiah, by the hand of Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, saying,

¹² "Take him, and place your eyes on him, and do no evil thing to him, but as he speaks to you, so do with him."

¹³ And Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, sends, and Nebushazban, chief of the eunuchs, and Nergal-Sharezer, chief magus, and all the chiefs of the king of Babylon,

¹⁵ And a word of YHWH has been to Jeremiah—in his being detained in the court of the prison—saying:

¹⁶ "Go, and you have spoken to Ebed-Melech the Cushite, saying, Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing in My words to this city for calamity, and not for good, and they have been before you in that day.

¹⁷ And I have delivered you in that day—a declaration of YHWH—and you are not given into the hand of the men of whose face you are afraid,

¹⁸ for I certainly deliver you, and you do not fall by sword, and your life has been to you for a spoil, for you have trusted in Me—a declaration of YHWH."

40

² And the chief of the executioners takes Jeremiah and says to him, "Your God YHWH has spoken this calamity concerning this place, ³ and YHWH brings [it] in, and does as He spoke, because you have sinned against YHWH, and have not listened to His voice, even this thing has been to you.

⁴ And now, behold, I have loosed you today from the chains that [are] on your hand; if [it is] good in your eyes to come with me [to] Babylon, come, and I keep my eye on you: and if [it is] evil in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, refrain; see, all the land [is] before you, to where [it is] good, and to where [it is] right in your eyes to go—go."

⁵ And while he does not reply—"Or turn back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people, or wherever it is right in your eyes to go—go." And the chief of the executioners gives a ration and gift to him, and sends him away,

⁶ and Jeremiah comes to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwells with him in the midst of the people who are left in the land.

⁷ And all the heads of the forces that [are] in the field hear, they and their men, that the king of Babylon has appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land, and that he has charged him [with] men, and women, and infants, and of the poor of the land, of those who have not been removed to Babylon;

⁸ and they come to Gedaliah at Mizpah, even Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan [the] sons of Kareah, and Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maachathite, they and their men.

⁹ And Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swears to them and to their men, saying, “Do not be afraid of serving the Chaldeans, abide in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it is well for you;

¹¹ And also all the Jews who [are] in Moab, and among the sons of Ammon, and in Edom, and who [are] in all the lands, have heard that the king of Babylon has given a remnant to Judah, and that he has appointed over them Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan,

¹² and all the Jews from all the places to where they have been driven, return and enter the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and they gather wine and summer fruit—to multiply abundantly.

¹³ And Johanan son of Kareah, and all the heads of the forces that [are] in the field, have come to Gedaliah at Mizpah, ¹⁴ and they say to him, “Do you really know that Ba’alis king of the sons of Ammon has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to strike your soul?” And Gedaliah son of Ahikam has not given credence to them.

¹⁵ And Johanan son of Kareah has spoken to Gedaliah in secret, in Mizpah, saying, “Please let me go, and I strike Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one knows; why does he strike your soul? And all Judah who are gathered to you have been scattered, and the remnant of Judah has perished.”

¹⁶ And Gedaliah son of Ahikam says to Johanan son of Kareah, “You do not do this thing, for you are speaking falsehood concerning Ishmael.”

¹ And it comes to pass, in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal seed, and of the chiefs of the king, and ten men with him, have come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and there they eat bread together in Mizpah.

² And Ishmael son of Nethaniah rises, and the ten men who have been with him, and they strike Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword, and he puts him to death whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the land.

⁴ And it comes to pass, on the second day of the putting of Gedaliah to death (and no one has known),

⁶ And Ishmael son of Nethaniah goes forth to meet them, from Mizpah, going on and weeping, and it comes to pass, at meeting them, that he says to them, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam.”

⁷ And it comes to pass, at their coming into the midst of the city, that Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughters them, at the midst of the pit, he and the men who [are] with him.

⁸ And ten men have been found among them, and they say to Ishmael, “Do not put us to death, for we have things hidden in the field—wheat, and barley, and oil, and honey.” And he refrains, and has not put them to death in the midst of their brothers.

⁹ And the pit to where Ishmael has cast all the carcasses of the men whom he has struck along with Gedaliah, is that which King Asa made because of Baasha king of Israel—Ishmael son of Nethaniah has filled it with the pierced.

¹⁰ And Ishmael takes captive all the remnant of the people who [are] in Mizpah, the daughters of the king, and all the people who are left in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, has committed [to] Gedaliah son of Ahikam, and Ishmael son of Nethaniah takes them captive, and goes to pass over to the sons of Ammon.

¹¹ And Johanan son of Kareah, and all the heads of the forces that [are] with him, hear of all the evil that Ishmael son of Nethaniah has done,

¹² and they take all the men, and go to fight with Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and they find him at the great waters that [are] in Gibeon.

¹³ And it comes to pass, when all the people who [are] with Ishmael see Johanan son of Kareah, and all the heads of the forces who [are] with him, that they rejoice.

¹⁴ And all the people whom Ishmael has taken captive from Mizpah turn around, indeed, they turn back, and go to Johanan son of Kareah.

¹⁵ And Ishmael son of Nethaniah has escaped, with eight men, from the presence of Johanan, and he goes to the sons of Ammon.

¹⁶ And Johanan son of Kareah, and all the heads of the forces who [are] with him, take all the remnant of the people whom he has brought back from Ishmael son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah—after he had struck Gedaliah son of Ahikam—mighty ones, men of war, and women, and infants, and eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon,

¹⁷ and they go and abide in the habitations of Chimham, that [are] near Beth-Lehem, to go to enter Egypt,

¹⁸ from the presence of the Chaldeans, for they have been afraid of them, for Ishmael son of Nethaniah had struck Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

¹ And they come near—all the heads of the forces, and Johanan son of Kareah, and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest—

² and they say to Jeremiah the prophet, “Please let our supplication fall before you, and pray for us to your God YHWH for all this remnant; for we have been left a few out of many, as your eyes see us;

³ and your God YHWH declares to us the way in which we walk, and the thing that we do.”

⁴ And Jeremiah the prophet says to them, “I have heard: behold, I am praying to your God YHWH according to your words, and it has come to pass, the whole word that YHWH answers you, I declare to you—I do not withhold a word from you.”

⁵ And they have said to Jeremiah, “YHWH is against us for a true and faithful witness, if—according to all the word with which your God YHWH sends you to us—we do not do so.

⁶ Whether [it is] good or evil, to the voice of our God YHWH, to whom we are sending you, we listen; because it is good for us when we listen to the voice of our God YHWH.”

⁷ And it comes to pass, at the end of ten days, that there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah,

⁸ and he calls to Johanan son of Kareah, and to all the heads of the forces that [are] with him, and to all the people, from the least even to the greatest,

⁹ and he says to them, “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel, to whom you sent me, to cause your supplication to fall before Him:

¹⁰ If you certainly dwell in this land, then I have built you up, and I do not throw down; and I have planted you, and I do not pluck up; for I have relented concerning the calamity that I have done to you.

¹¹ Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you are afraid of; do not be afraid of him—a declaration of YHWH—for I [am] with you, to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

¹² And I give mercies to you, and he has pitied you, and caused you to return to your own ground.

¹³ And if you are saying, We do not dwell in this land—not to listen to the voice of your God YHWH,

¹⁴ saying, No; but we enter the land of Egypt, that we see no war, and do not hear the sound of a horn, and are not hungry for bread; and we dwell there—

¹⁵ And now, therefore, hear a word of YHWH, O remnant of Judah! Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: If you really set your faces to enter Egypt, and have gone to sojourn there,

¹⁶ then it has come to pass, the sword that you are afraid of, overtakes you there, in the land of Egypt; and the hunger, because of which you are sorrowful, cleaves after you there in Egypt, and there you die.

¹⁷ Thus are all the men who have set their faces to enter Egypt to sojourn there; they die—by sword, by hunger, and by pestilence, and there is not a remnant and an escaped one to them, because of the calamity that I am bringing in on them;

¹⁸ for thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: As My anger and My fury have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so My fury is poured out on you in your entering Egypt, and you have been for an execration, and for an astonishment, and for a reviling, and for a reproach, and you do not see this place anymore.

¹⁹ YHWH has spoken against you, O remnant of Judah, do not enter Egypt: certainly know that I have testified against you today;

²⁰ for you have showed yourselves perverse in your souls, for you sent me to your God YHWH, saying, Pray for us to our God YHWH, and according to all that our God YHWH says, so declare to us, and we have done [it];

²¹ and I declare to you today, and you have not listened to the voice of your God YHWH, and to anything with which He has sent me to you.

²² And now, certainly know that by sword, by famine, and by pestilence you die, in the place that you have desired to go to sojourn there."

¹ And it comes to pass, when Jeremiah finishes speaking to all the people all the words of their God YHWH, with which their God YHWH has sent him to them—all these words—

² that Azariah son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan son of Kareah, and all the proud men, speak to Jeremiah, saying, "You are speaking falsehood; our God YHWH has not sent you to say, Do not enter Egypt to sojourn there;

³ for Baruch son of Neriah is moving you against us, in order to give us up into the hand of the Chaldeans, to put us to death, and to remove us to Babylon."

⁴ And Johanan son of Kareah, and all the heads of the forces, and all the people, have not listened to the voice of YHWH, to dwell in the land of Judah;

⁷ and they enter the land of Egypt, for they have not listened to the voice of YHWH, and they come as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

¹⁰ and you have said to them, Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am sending, and I have taken Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and I have set his throne above these stones that I have hid, and he has stretched out his pavilion over them,

¹¹ and he has come, and struck the land of Egypt—those who [are] for death to death, and those who [are] for captivity to captivity, and those who [are] for the sword to the sword.

¹² And I have kindled a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and it has burned them, and he has taken them captive, and covered himself with the land of Egypt, as the shepherd covers himself with his garment, and he has gone forth there in peace;

¹³ and he has broken the standing pillars of the house of the sun, that [is] in the land of Egypt, and he burns the houses of the gods of Egypt with fire."

² “Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: You have seen all the calamity that I have brought in on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah, and behold, they [are] a desolation to this day, and there is none dwelling in them,

³ because of their wickedness that they have done, by provoking Me to anger, by going to make incense, by serving other gods, that they did not know, they, you, and your fathers.

⁴ And I send to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending, saying, Please do not do this abomination that I have hated—

⁵ and they have not listened nor inclined their ear to turn back from their wickedness, not to make incense to other gods,

⁶ and My fury is poured out, and My anger, and it burns in cities of Judah, and in streets of Jerusalem, and they are for a ruin, for a desolation, as [at] this day.

⁷ And now, thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Why are you doing great evil to your own souls, to cut off man and woman, infant and suckling, from you, from the midst of Judah, so as not to leave a remnant to you:

⁸ by provoking Me to anger by the works of your hands, by making incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, to where you are going to sojourn, so as to cut yourselves off, and so as to your being for a reviling and for a reproach among all nations of the earth?

⁹ Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, that they have done in the land of Judah, and in streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁰ They have not been humbled to this day, nor have they been afraid, nor have they walked in My law, and in My statutes, that I have set before you and before your fathers.

¹¹ Therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am setting My face against you for calamity, even to cut off all Judah,

¹² and I have taken the remnant of Judah, who have set their faces to enter the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they have all been consumed in the land of Egypt; they fall by sword [and] are consumed by famine, from the least even to the greatest, they die by sword and by famine, and they have been for an execration, for an astonishment, and for a reviling, and for a reproach.

¹³ And I have seen after those dwelling in the land of Egypt, as I saw after Jerusalem, with sword, with famine, and with pestilence,

¹⁵ And they answer Jeremiah—all the men who are knowing that their wives are making incense to other gods, and all the women who are remaining, a great assembly, even all the people who are dwelling in the land of Egypt, in Pathros—saying:

¹⁶ “The word that you have spoken to us in the Name of YHWH—we are not listening to you;

¹⁷ for we certainly do everything that has gone out of our mouth, to make incense to the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our heads, in cities of Judah, and in streets of Jerusalem, and—we are satisfied with bread, and we are well, and we have not seen calamity.

¹⁸ And from the time we have ceased to make incense to the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, we have lacked all, and we have been consumed by sword and by famine,

¹⁹ and when we are making incense to the queen of the heavens, and pouring out drink-offerings to her—have we made cakes for her to idolize her, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, without our husbands?”

²⁰ And Jeremiah says to all the people, concerning the men and concerning the women, and concerning all the people who are answering him, saying,

²¹ “The incense that you made in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your heads, and the people of the land, has YHWH not remembered it? Indeed, it comes up on His heart.

²² And YHWH is not able to accept [you] anymore, because of the evil of your doings, because of the abominations that you have done, and your land is for a ruin, and for an astonishment, and for a reviling, without inhabitant, as [at] this day.

²³ Because that you have made incense, and because you have sinned against YHWH, and have not listened to the voice of YHWH, and have not walked in His law, and in His statutes, and in His testimonies, therefore this calamity has met you as [at] this day.”

²⁴ And Jeremiah says to all the people, and to all the women, “Hear a word of YHWH, all Judah who [are] in the land of Egypt:

²⁵ Thus spoke YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, saying, You and your wives both speak with your mouth, and with your hands have fulfilled, saying, We certainly execute our vows that we have vowed, to make incense to the queen of the heavens, and to pour out drink-offerings to her. You certainly establish your vows, and certainly execute your vows.

²⁶ Therefore, hear a word of YHWH, all Judah who are dwelling in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by My great Name, said YHWH, My Name is no longer proclaimed by the mouth of any man of Judah, saying, Lord YHWH lives—in all the land of Egypt.

²⁷ Behold, I am watching over them for calamity, and not for good, and all the men of Judah who [are] in the land of Egypt have been consumed by sword and by famine, until their consumption.

²⁸ And the escaped of the sword turn back out of the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number, and all the remnant of Judah, who are coming into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, have known whose word is established, Mine or theirs.

²⁹ And this [is] the sign to you—a declaration of YHWH—that I am seeing after you in this place, so that you know that My words are certainly established against you for calamity—

³⁰ thus said YHWH: Behold, I am giving Pharaoh-Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those seeking his life, as I have given Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and who is seeking his life.”

45

¹ The word that Jeremiah the prophet has spoken to Baruch son of Neriah, in his writing these words on a scroll from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

² “Thus said YHWH, God of Israel, concerning you, O Baruch:

³ You have said, Woe to me, now, for YHWH has added sorrow to my pain, I have been wearied with my sighing, and I have not found rest.

⁴ Thus you say to him, Thus said YHWH: Behold, that which I have built I am throwing down, and that which I have planted I am plucking up, even the whole land itself.

⁵ And you seek for great things—do not seek, for behold, I am bringing calamity on all flesh—a declaration of YHWH—and I have given your life to you for a spoil, in all places to where you go.”

¹ That which has been the word of YHWH to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations,

² for Egypt, concerning the force of Pharaoh-Necho king of Egypt, that has been by the Euphrates River, in Carchemish, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has struck, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

³ “Set shield and buckler in array, || And draw near to battle.

⁴ Gird the horses, and go up, you horsemen, || And station yourselves with helmets, || Polish the javelins, put on the coats of mail.

⁶ The swift do not flee, nor do the mighty escape, || Northward, by the side of the Euphrates River, || They have stumbled and fallen.

⁷ Who is this? He comes up as a flood, || His waters shake themselves as rivers!

⁸ Egypt comes up as a flood, || And the waters shake themselves as rivers. And he says, I go up; I cover the land, I destroy the city and the inhabitants in it.

⁹ Go up, you horses; and boast yourselves, you chariots, || And go forth, you mighty, || Cush and Phut handling the shield, || And Lud handling—treading the bow.

¹¹ Go up to Gilead, and take balm, || O virgin daughter of Egypt, || You have multiplied medicines in vain, || There is no healing for you.

12 Nations have heard of your shame, || And your cry has filled the land, || For the mighty stumbled on the mighty, || Together they have fallen—both of them!”

13 The word that YHWH has spoken to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the coming in of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to strike the land of Egypt:

14 “Declare in Egypt, and sound in Migdol, || And sound in Noph, and in Tahpanhes, say, || Stand firm and prepare yourself, || For a sword has devoured around you,

15 Why has your bull been swept away? He has not stood, because YHWH thrust him away.

16 He has multiplied the stumbling, || Indeed, one has fallen on his neighbor, || And they say: Rise, and we return to our people, || And to the land of our birth, || Because of the oppressing sword.

17 They have cried there: Pharaoh king of Egypt [is] a desolation, || The appointed time has passed by.

18 [As] I live—an affirmation of the King, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name, || Surely as Tabor [is] among mountains, || And as Carmel by the sea—he comes in,

19 Make goods for yourself for removal, || O inhabitant, daughter of Egypt, || For Noph becomes a desolation, || And has been burned up, without inhabitant.

20 Egypt [is] a very beautiful heifer, || Destruction comes into her from the north.

21 Even her hired ones in her midst [are] as calves of the stall, || For even they have turned, || They have fled together, they have not stood, || For the day of their calamity has come on them, || The time of their inspection.

22 Its voice goes on as a serpent, || For they go with a force, || And they have come in to her with axes, || As hewers of trees.

23 They have cut down her forest, || A declaration of YHWH, || For it is not searched, || For they have been more than the grasshopper, || And they have no numbering.

24 The daughter of Egypt has been ashamed, || She has been given into the hand of the people of the north.

25 YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, has said: Behold, I am seeing after Amon of No, || And after Pharaoh, and after Egypt, || And after her gods, and after her kings, || And after Pharaoh, and after those trusting in him,

26 And I have given them into the hand of those seeking their life, || And into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, || And into the hand of his servants, || And afterward it is inhabited, || As [in] days of old—a declaration of YHWH.

27 And you, you do not fear, My servant Jacob, || Nor [are] you dismayed, O Israel, || For behold, I am saving you from afar—And your seed from the land of their captivity, || And Jacob has turned back, || And has been at rest, and been at ease, || And there is none disturbing.

28 You do not fear, My servant Jacob, || A declaration of YHWH, || For I [am] with you, || For I make an end of all the nations || To where I have driven you, || And I do not make an end of you, || And I have reproved you in judgment, || And do not entirely acquit you!”

1 That which has been the word of YHWH to Jeremiah concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh strikes Gaza:

2 “Thus said YHWH: Behold, waters are going up from the north, || And have been for an overflowing stream, || And they overflow the land and its fullness, || The city, and those dwelling in it, || And men have cried out, || And every inhabitant of the land has howled.

3 From the sound of the stamping of the hooves of his mighty ones, || From the rushing of his chariot, || The noise of his wheels, || Fathers have not turned to sons, || From feebleness of hands,

4 Because of the day that has come to spoil all the Philistines, || To cut off every helping remnant from Tyre and from Sidon. For YHWH is spoiling the Philistines, || The remnant of the island of Caphtor.

5 Baldness has come to Gaza, || Ashkelon has been cut off, || O remnant of their valley, || Until when do you cut yourself?

6 Behold, sword of YHWH, until when are you not quiet? Be removed to your sheath, rest and cease.

7 How will it be quiet, || And YHWH has given a charge to it, || Against Ashkelon and against the seashore? He has appointed it there!”

48

1 Concerning Moab: “Thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Woe to Nebo, for it is spoiled, || Kiriathaim has been captured [and] put to shame, || The high tower has been put to shame, || Indeed, it has been broken down.

2 There is no longer praise of Moab, || In Heshbon they devised evil against her: Come, and we cut it off from [being] a nation, || Also, O Madmen, you are cut off, || A sword goes after you.

3 A voice of a cry [is] from Horonaim, || Spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab has been destroyed, || Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For the ascent of Luhith with weeping, || Weeping goes up, || For in the descent of Horonaim || Adversaries have heard a cry of desolation.

6 Flee, deliver yourselves, || You are as a naked thing in a wilderness.

7 For because of your trusting in your works, || And in your treasures, even you are captured, || And Chemosh has gone out in a removal, || His priests and his heads together.

8 And a spoiler comes to every city, || And no city escapes, || And the valley has perished, || And the plain has been destroyed, as YHWH said.

9 Give wings to Moab, that she may go forth and flee away, || And her cities are for a desolation, || Without an inhabitant in them.

10 Cursed [is] he who is doing the work of YHWH slothfully, || And cursed [is] he || Who is withholding his sword from blood.

11 Moab is secure from his youth, || And he [is] at rest for his preserved things, || And he has not been emptied out from vessel to vessel, || And he has not gone into captivity, || Therefore his taste has remained in him, || And his fragrance has not been changed.

12 Therefore, behold, days are coming, || A declaration of YHWH, || And I have sent wanderers to him, || And they have caused him to wander, || And they empty out his vessels, || And they dash his bottles in pieces.

13 And Moab has been ashamed because of Chemosh, || As the house of Israel has been ashamed || Because of Beth-El, their confidence.

14 How do you say, We [are] mighty, || And men of strength for battle?

15 Moab is spoiled, and has gone up [from] her cities, || And the choice of its young men || Have gone down to slaughter, || An affirmation of the King, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

16 The destruction of Moab is near to come, || And his calamity has hurried exceedingly.

17 Bemoan for him, all you around him, || And all knowing his name, say, || How it has been broken, the staff of strength, || The rod of beauty!

18 Come down from glory, sit in thirst, || O inhabitant, daughter of Dibon, || For a spoiler of Moab has come up to you, || He has destroyed your fortifications.

19 Stand on the way, and watch, O inhabitant of Aroer, || Ask the fugitive and escaped, || Say, What has happened?

20 Moab has been put to shame, || For it has been broken down, || Howl and cry, declare in Arnon, || For Moab is spoiled,

21 And judgment has come to the land of the plain—to Holon, || And to Jahazah, and on Mephaath,

22 And on Dibon, and on Nebo, || And on Beth-Diblathaim, and on Kirathaim,

23 And on Beth-Gamul, and on Beth-Meon,

24 And on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, || And on all cities of the land of Moab, || The far off and the near.

25 The horn of Moab has been cut down, || And his arm has been broken, || A declaration of YHWH.

26 Declare him drunk, || For he made himself great against YHWH || And Moab has struck in his vomit, || And he has been for a derision—even he.

27 And was Israel not the derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For since your words concerning him, || You bemoan yourself.

28 Forsake cities, and dwell in a rock, || You inhabitants of Moab, || And be as a dove making a nest in the passages of a pit's mouth.

29 We have heard of the arrogance of Moab, || Exceedingly proud! His haughtiness, and his arrogance, || And his pride, and the height of his heart,

30 I have known, a declaration of YHWH, || His wrath, and [it is] not right, || His boastings—they have done nothing right.

31 Therefore I howl for Moab, even for Moab—all of it, || I cry for men of Kir-Heres, it mourns,

32 With the weeping of Jazer, I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah, || Your branches have passed over a sea, || They have come to the Sea of Jazer, || On your summer fruits, and on your harvest, || A spoiler has fallen.

33 And joy and gladness have been removed from the fruitful field, || Even from the land of Moab, || And I have caused wine to cease from winepresses, || Shouting does not proceed, || The shouting [is] not shouting!

34 Because of the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh, || They have given their voice to Jahaz, || From Zoar to Horonaim, || A heifer of the third [year], || For even [the] waters of Nimrim become desolations.

³⁵ And I have caused to cease in Moab, || A declaration of YHWH, || Him who is offering in a high place, || And him who is making incense to his god.

³⁶ Therefore My heart sounds as pipes for Moab, || And My heart sounds as pipes for men of Kir-Heres, || Therefore the abundance he made perished.

³⁷ For every head [is] bald, and every beard diminished, || On all hands—cuttings, and on the loins—sackcloth.

³⁹ “How it has been broken down! They have howled, || How Moab has turned the neck ashamed! And Moab has been for a derision || And for a terror to all around her.”

⁴⁰ For thus said YHWH: “Behold, he flees as an eagle, || And has spread his wings to Moab.

⁴¹ The cities have been captured, || And the strongholds are caught, || And the heart of the mighty of Moab || Has been in that day as the heart of a distressed woman.

⁴² And Moab has been destroyed from [being] a people, || For he exerted himself against YHWH.

⁴³ Fear, and a snare, and a trap, [are] for you, || O inhabitant of Moab—a declaration of YHWH,

¹ Concerning the sons of Ammon: “Thus said YHWH: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why has Malcam possessed Gad, || And his people have dwelt in its cities?

² Therefore, behold, days are coming, || A declaration of YHWH, || And I have sounded a shout of battle in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, || And it has been for a heap—a desolation, || And her daughters are burned with fire, || And Israel has succeeded its heirs, said YHWH.

³ Howl, Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled, || Cry, daughters of Rabbah, gird on sackcloth, || Lament, and go to and fro by the hedges, || For Malcam goes into captivity, || His priests and his princes together.

⁴ Why do you boast yourself in valleys? Your valley is flowing, || O backsliding daughter, || Who is trusting in her treasures: Who comes to me?

⁵ Behold, I am bringing fear in on you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH of Hosts, || From all around you, || And you have each been driven out before it, || And there is no gatherer of the wandering.

⁷ Concerning Edom: “Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Is wisdom no longer in Teman? Has counsel perished from the intelligent? Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸ Flee, turn, go deep to dwell, you inhabitants of Dedan, || For I brought the calamity of Esau on him, || The time I inspected him.

⁹ If gatherers have come to you, || They do not leave gleanings, || If thieves in the night, || They have destroyed their sufficiency!

¹¹ Leave your orphans—I keep alive, || And your widows—trust on Me,

¹² For thus said YHWH: They whose judgment is not to drink of the cup, || Do certainly drink, || And you [are] he that is entirely acquitted! You are not acquitted, for you certainly drink.

¹³ For I have sworn by Myself, || A declaration of YHWH, || That for a desolation, for a reproach, || For a dry place, and for a reviling—is Bozrah, || And all her cities are for continuous ruins.

¹⁴ I have heard a report from YHWH, || And an ambassador is sent among nations, || Gather yourselves and come in against her, || And rise for battle.

¹⁵ For behold, I have made you little among nations, || Despised among men.

¹⁶ Your terribleness has lifted you up, || The pride of your heart, || O dweller in clefts of the rock, || Holding the high place of the height, || For you make your nest high as an eagle, || From there I bring you down, || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁷ And Edom has been for a desolation, || Everyone passing by her is astonished, || And hisses because of all her plagues.

¹⁸ As the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, || And its neighbors, said YHWH, || No one dwells there, || Nor does a son of man sojourn in her.

¹⁹ Behold, he comes up as a lion, || Because of the rising of the Jordan, || To the enduring habitation, || But I cause to rest, || I cause him to run from off her, || And who is chosen? I lay a charge concerning her, || For who is like Me? And who convenes Me? And who [is] this shepherd who stands before Me?

²¹ The earth has shaken from the noise of their fall, || The cry—its voice is heard at the Sea of Suph.

²² Behold, He comes up as an eagle, and flies, || And He spreads His wings over Bozrah, || And the heart of the mighty of Edom has been in that day, || As the heart of a travailing woman.”

²³ Concerning Damascus: “Hamath and Arpad have been ashamed, || For they have heard an evil report, || They have been melted, sorrow [is] in the sea, || It is not able to be quiet.

²⁴ Damascus has been feeble, || She turned to flee, and fear strengthened her, || Distress and pangs have seized her, as a travailing woman.

²⁵ How it is not left—the city of praise, || The city of My joy!

²⁶ Therefore her young men fall in her broad places, || And all the men of war are cut off in that day, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

²⁷ And I have kindled a fire against the wall of Damascus, || And it consumed palaces of Ben-Hadad!

²⁹ They take their tents and their flock, || Their curtains, and all their vessels, || And they carry away their camels for themselves, || And they called concerning them, || Fear [is] all around.

³¹ Rise, go up to a nation at rest, || Dwelling confidently, a declaration of YHWH, || It has no double gates nor bar, || They dwell alone.

³³ And Hazor has been for a habitation of dragons, || A desolation for all time, || No one dwells there, nor does a son of man sojourn in it!”

³⁴ That which has been the word of YHWH to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

³⁵ “Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Behold, I am breaking the bow of Elam, || The beginning of their might.

³⁹ And it has come to pass, in the latter end of the days, I return the captivity of Elam, || A declaration of YHWH!”

¹ The word that YHWH has spoken concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet:

² “Declare among nations, and sound, || And lift up an ensign, sound, do not hide, || Say, Babylon has been captured, || Bel has been put to shame, || Merodach has been broken, || Her grievous things have been put to shame, || Her idols have been broken.

⁴ In those days, and at that time," || A declaration of YHWH, || "Sons of Israel come in, || They and sons of Judah together, || Going on and weeping they go, || And they seek their God YHWH.

⁵ They ask the way [to] Zion, || Their faces [are] toward that place: Come in, and we are joined to YHWH, || A perpetual covenant—never forgotten.

⁷ All finding them have devoured them, || And their adversaries have said: We are not guilty, || Because that they sinned against YHWH, || The habitation of righteousness, || And the hope of their fathers—YHWH.

⁸ Move from the midst of Babylon, || And go out from the land of the Chaldeans; And be as male goats before a flock.

⁹ For behold, I am stirring up, || And am causing to come up against Babylon, || An assembly of great nations from [the] land of the north, || And they have set in array against her, || From there she is captured, || Its arrow—as a skillful hero—does not return empty,

¹⁰ And Chaldea has been for a spoil, || All her spoilers are satisfied," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹² Your mother has been greatly ashamed, || She who bore you has been confounded, || Behold, the last of nations [is] a wilderness, || A dry land, and a desert.

¹³ Because of the wrath of YHWH it is not inhabited, || And it has been a desolation—all of it. Everyone passing by at Babylon is astonished, || And hisses because of all her plagues.

¹⁴ Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, || All you treading a bow, || Shoot at her, have no pity on the arrow, || For she has sinned against YHWH.

¹⁷ Israel [is as] a scattered sheep, || Lions have driven [him] away, || At first, the king of Asshur devoured him, || And now, at last, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bone.

¹⁸ Therefore, thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: Behold, I am seeing after the king of Babylon, || And after his land, || As I have seen after the king of Asshur;

¹⁹ And I have brought Israel back to his habitation, || And he has fed on Carmel and on Bashan; And his soul is satisfied on Mount Ephraim and on Gilead.

²⁰ In those days, and at that time," || A declaration of YHWH, || "The iniquity of Israel is sought, and it is not, || And the sin of Judah, and it is not found, || For I am propitious to those whom I leave!

²² A noise of battle [is] in the land, || And of great destruction.

²³ How it has been cut and broken, || The hammer of the whole earth! How Babylon has been for a desolation among nations!

²⁴ I have laid a snare for you, || And you are also captured, O Babylon, || And you have known, || You have been found, and are also caught, || For you have stirred yourself up against YHWH.

²⁶ Come in to her from the extremity, || Open her storehouses, || Raise her up as to heaps, and devote her, || Let her have no remnant.

²⁷ Slay all her cows, they go down to slaughter, || Woe [is] on them, for their day has come, || The time of their inspection.

²⁸ A voice of fugitives and escaped ones || [Is] from the land of Babylon, || To declare in Zion the vengeance of our God YHWH, || The vengeance of His temple.

³⁰ Therefore her young men fall in her broad places, || And all her men of war are cut off in that day," || A declaration of YHWH.

³¹ "Behold, I [am] against you, O pride," || A declaration of Lord YHWH of Hosts, || "For your day has come, the time of your inspection.

³² And pride has stumbled, || And he has fallen, and has none raising up, || And I have kindled a fire in his cities, || And it has devoured all around him.

³³ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: The sons of Israel are oppressed, || And the sons of Judah together, || And all their captors have kept hold on them, || They have refused to send them away.

³⁴ Their Redeemer [is] strong, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name, || He thoroughly pleads their cause, || So as to cause the land to rest, || And He has given trouble to the inhabitants of Babylon.

³⁵ A sword [is] for the Chaldeans," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And it [is] on the inhabitants of Babylon, || And on her heads, and on her wise men;

³⁶ A sword [is] on the princes, || And they have become foolish; A sword [is] on her mighty ones, || And they have been broken down;

³⁷ A sword [is] on his horses and on his chariot, || And on all the rabble who [are] in her midst, || And they have become women; A sword [is] on her treasuries, || And they have been spoiled;

³⁸ A sword [is] on her waters, and they have been dried up, || For it [is] a land of carved images, || And they boast themselves in idols.

⁴⁰ As the overthrow by God of Sodom, || And of Gomorrah, and of its neighbors," || A declaration of YHWH, || "None dwell there, || Nor does a son of man sojourn in her.

⁴¹ Behold, a people has come from the north, || Even a great nation, || And many kings are stirred up from the sides of the earth.

⁴³ The king of Babylon has heard their report, || And his hands have been feeble, || Distress has seized him; pain as a travelling woman.

⁴⁴ Behold, he comes up as a lion, || Because of the rising of the Jordan, || To the enduring habitation, || But I cause to rest, I cause them to run from off her. And who is chosen? I lay a charge on her, || For who [is] like Me? And who convenes Me? And who [is] this shepherd who stands before Me?

⁴⁶ From the sound of Babylon having been captured, || The earth has been shaken, || And a cry has been heard among nations!"

¹ Thus said YHWH: "Behold, I am stirring up against Babylon, || And the inhabitants of Leb, My withstanders, || A destroying wind,

² And I have sent fanners to Babylon, || And they have fanned her, and they empty her land, || For they have been against her, || All around—in the day of evil.

³ Do not let the treader tread his bow, || Nor lift himself up in his coat of mail, || Nor have pity on her young men, || Devote all her host to destruction.

⁴ And the wounded have fallen in the land of the Chaldeans, || And the pierced-through in her streets.

⁵ For Israel and Judah are not forsaken || By his God—by YHWH of Hosts, || For their land has been full of guilt, || Against the Holy One of Israel.

⁶ Flee from the midst of Babylon, || And let each deliver his soul, || Do not be cut off in her iniquity, || For it [is] a time of vengeance for YHWH—His, || He is rendering repayment to her.

⁷ Babylon [is] a golden cup in the hand of YHWH, || Making all the earth drunk, || Nations have drunk of her wine, || Therefore nations boast themselves.

⁸ Babylon has suddenly fallen, || Indeed, she is broken, howl for her, || Take balm for her pain, perhaps she may be healed.

⁹ We healed Babylon, and she was not healed, || Forsake her, and we go, each to his land, || For her judgment has come to the heavens, || And it has been lifted up to the clouds.

¹⁰ YHWH has brought forth our righteousnesses, || Come, and we recount in Zion the work of our God YHWH.

¹¹ Cleanse the arrows, fill the shields, || YHWH has stirred up the spirit of the kings of Media, || For His purpose [is] against Babylon to destroy her, || For it [is] the vengeance of YHWH, || The vengeance of His temple.

¹² Lift up an ensign to the walls of Babylon, || Strengthen the watch, || Establish the watchers, prepare the ambush, || For YHWH has both devised and done that which He spoke, || Concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³ O dweller on many waters, abundant in treasures, || Your end has come—the measure of your dishonest gain.

¹⁴ YHWH of Hosts has sworn by Himself, || That, Surely I have filled you [with] men as the cankerworm, || And they have cried against you—shouting.

¹⁵ Making [the] earth by His power, || Establishing [the] world by His wisdom, || Who by His understanding stretched out the heavens,

¹⁸ They [are] vanity—a work of errors, || They perish in the time of their inspection.

¹⁹ The Portion of Jacob [is] not like these, || For He is forming the whole, || And [Israel is] the tribe of His inheritance, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

²⁰ You [are] My shatterer—weapons of war, || And I have broken in pieces nations by you, || And I have destroyed kingdoms by you,

²¹ And I have broken in pieces horse and its rider by you, || And I have broken in pieces chariot and its charioteer by you,

²² And I have broken in pieces man and woman by you, || And I have broken in pieces old and young by you, || And I have broken in pieces young man and virgin by you,

²³ And I have broken in pieces shepherd and his drove by you, || And I have broken in pieces farmer and his team by you, || And I have broken in pieces governors and prefects by you.

²⁴ And I have repaid to Babylon, || And to all inhabitants of Chaldea, || All the evil that they have done in Zion, || Before your eyes,” a declaration of YHWH.

²⁵ “Behold, I [am] against you, O destroying mountain,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “That is destroying all the earth, || And I have stretched out My hand against you, || And I have rolled you from the rocks, || And given you for a burnt mountain.

²⁷ “Lift up an ensign in the land, || Blow a horn among nations, || Sanctify nations against it, || Summon against it the kingdoms of Ararat,

Minni, and Ashkenaz, || Appoint an infant head against it, || Cause the horse to ascend as the rough cankerworm.

²⁸ Sanctify against it the nations with the kings of Media, || Its governors and all its prefects, || And all the land of its dominion.

²⁹ And the land shakes, and it is pained, || For the purposes of YHWH have stood against Babylon, || To make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.

³⁰ The mighty of Babylon have ceased to fight, || They have remained in strongholds, || Their might has failed, they have become [as] women, || They have burned her dwelling places, || Her bars have been broken.

³¹ Runner runs to meet runner, || And announcer to meet announcer, || To announce to the king of Babylon, || For his city has been captured—at the extremity.

³² And the passages have been captured, || And they have burned the reeds with fire, || And the men of war have been troubled.

³³ For thus said YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon [is] as a threshing-floor, || The time of her threshing—yet a little [while], || And the time of her harvest has come.

³⁴ Devoured us, crushed us, has Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, || He has set us [as] an empty vessel, || He has swallowed us as a dragon, || He has filled his belly with my delicacies, || He has driven us away.

³⁵ My wrong, and [that of] my flesh, [is] on Babylon—The inhabitant of Zion says; And my blood [is] on the inhabitants of Chaldea—Jerusalem says.

³⁶ Therefore, thus said YHWH: Behold, I am pleading your cause, || And I have avenged your vengeance, || And dried up her sea, and made her fountains dry.

³⁷ And Babylon has been for heaps, || A habitation of dragons, || An astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant.

³⁸ They roar together as young lions, || They have shaken themselves as lions' whelps.

³⁹ In their heat I make their banquets, || And I have caused them to drink, so that they exult, || And have slept a continuous sleep, || And do not awaken," a declaration of YHWH.

⁴⁰ "I cause them to go down as lambs to slaughter, || As rams with male goats.

⁴¹ How Sheshach has been captured, || Indeed, the praise of the whole earth is caught, || How Babylon has been for an astonishment among nations.

⁴² The sea has come up over Babylon, || She has been covered with a multitude of its billows.

⁴³ Her cities have been for a desolation, || A dry land, and a wilderness, || A land—none dwell in them, || Nor does a son of man pass over into them.

⁴⁴ And I have seen after Bel in Babylon, || And I have brought forth that which he swallowed—from his mouth, || And nations no longer flow to him, || Also the wall of Babylon has fallen.

⁴⁵ Go forth from her midst, O My people, || And let each deliver his soul, || Because of the fierceness of the anger of YHWH,

⁴⁶ And lest your heart be tender, || And you are afraid of the report that is heard in the land, || And the report has come in [one] year, || And after

it [another] report in [another] year, || And violence [is] in the land, ruler against ruler;

⁴⁷ Therefore, behold, days are coming, || And I have seen after the carved images of Babylon. And all its land is ashamed, || And all its pierced ones fall in its midst.

⁴⁸ And heavens and earth and all that [is] in them || Have cried aloud against Babylon, || For the spoilers come to her from the north," || A declaration of YHWH.

⁴⁹ "As Babylon [has caused the] pierced of Israel to fall, || So they of Babylon have fallen, || You pierced of all the earth.

⁵⁰ You escaped of the sword, go on, do not stand, || Remember YHWH from afar, || And let Jerusalem come up on your heart.

⁵¹ We have been ashamed, for we heard reproach, || Shame has covered our faces, || For strangers have come in against the sanctuaries of the house of YHWH.

⁵² Therefore, behold, days are coming," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And I have seen after her carved images, || And the wounded groan in all her land.

⁵⁴ "A voice of a cry [is] from Babylon, || And of great destruction from the land of the Chaldean.

⁵⁵ For YHWH is spoiling Babylon, || And has destroyed her great voice, || And her billows have sounded as many waters, || Their voice has given forth a noise.

⁵⁶ For a spoiler has come in against her—against Babylon, || And her mighty ones have been captured, || Their bows have been broken, || For the God of recompenses—YHWH—certainly repays.

⁵⁷ And I have caused her princes to drink, || And her wise men, her governors, || And her prefects, and her mighty ones, || And they have slept a continuous sleep, || And they do not awaken—an affirmation of the King, || YHWH of Hosts [is] His Name.

⁵⁸ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: The wall of Babylon—The broad one—is made utterly bare, || And her high gates are burned with fire, || And peoples labor in vain, || And nations in fire, and have been weary!"

⁶⁰ and Jeremiah writes all the calamity that comes to Babylon on one scroll—all these words that are written concerning Babylon.

⁶¹ And Jeremiah says to Seraiah, "When you enter Babylon, then you have seen, and have read all these words, ⁶² and have said: YHWH, You have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that there is none dwelling in it, from man even to livestock, for it is a continuous desolation.

⁶³ And it has come to pass, when you finish reading this scroll, you bind a stone to it, and have cast it into the midst of the Euphrates,

⁶⁴ and said, Thus Babylon sinks, and she does not arise, because of the calamity that I am bringing in against it, and they have been weary." Until now [are the] words of Jeremiah.

52

¹ Zedekiah [is] a son of twenty-one years in his reigning, and he has reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother [is] Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

² And he does evil in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that Jehoiakim has done,

³ for because of the anger of YHWH, it has been in Jerusalem and Judah until He has cast them from before His face, and Zedekiah rebels against the king of Babylon.

⁴ And it comes to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has come—he and all his force—against Jerusalem, and they encamp against it, and build against it a fortification all around;

⁵ and the city comes into siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

⁶ In the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, when the famine is severe in the city, and there has been no bread for the people of the land,

⁸ And the forces of the Chaldeans pursue after the king, and overtake Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his forces have been scattered from him,

⁹ and they capture the king, and bring him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, and he speaks with him—judgments.

¹⁰ And the king of Babylon slaughters the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he has also slaughtered all the princes of Judah in Riblah;

¹¹ and he has blinded the eyes of Zedekiah, and he binds him in bronze chains, and the king of Babylon brings him to Babylon, and puts him in the house of inspection to the day of his death.

¹² And in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month—it [is] the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon—Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, has come; he has stood before the king of Babylon in Jerusalem,

¹³ and he burns the house of YHWH, and the house of the king, and all the houses of Jerusalem—even every great house he has burned with fire,

¹⁴ and all the forces of the Chaldeans that [are] with the chief of the executioners have broken down all the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁶ and of the poor of the land, Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, has left for vinedressers and for farmers.

¹⁷ And the pillars of bronze that [are] in the house of YHWH, and the bases, and the bronze sea that [is] in the house of YHWH, the Chaldeans have broken, and they carry away all the bronze of them to Babylon;

¹⁸ and the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they minister, they have taken away;

¹⁹ and the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the cups, the gold of that which [is] gold, and the silver of that which [is] silver, the chief of the executioners has taken.

²⁰ The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze oxen that [are] beneath the bases, that King Solomon made for the house of YHWH, there was no weighing of the bronze of all these vessels.

²¹ As for the pillars, eighteen cubits [is] the height of the one pillar, and a cord of twelve cubits goes around it, and its thickness [is] four fingers hollow.

²² And the capital on it [is] of bronze, and the height of the one capital [is] five cubits, and network and pomegranates [are] on the capital all around, the whole [is] of bronze; and like these—the second pillar—and pomegranates.

²³ And the pomegranates are ninety-six on a side, all the pomegranates [are] one hundred on the network all around.

²⁴ And the chief of the executioners takes Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold,

²⁵ and he has taken a certain eunuch out of the city, who has been inspector over the men of war, and seven men of those seeing the king's face, who have been found in the city, and the head scribe of the host, who musters the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land, who are found in the midst of the city;

²⁶ and Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the executioners, takes them, and brings them to the king of Babylon at Riblah,

²⁷ and the king of Babylon strikes them, and puts them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, and he removes Judah from off its own ground.

²⁸ This [is] the people whom Nebuchadnezzar has removed: in the seventh year, of Jews, three thousand and twenty-three;

²⁹ in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar—from Jerusalem—eight hundred thirty-two souls;

³⁰ in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzar-Adan, chief of the guard, has removed of Jewish souls, seven hundred forty-five; all the souls [are] four thousand and six hundred.

³² and speaks good things with him, and sets his throne above the throne of the kings who [are] with him in Babylon,

³³ and he has changed his prison garments, and he has continually eaten bread before him, all the days of his life.

³⁴ And his allowance—a continual allowance—has been given to him by the king of Babylon, the matter of a day in its day, until [the] day of his death—all [the] days of his life.

Lamentations

¹ [ALEPH-BET] How she has sat alone, || The city abounding with people! She has been as a widow, || The mighty among nations! Princes among provinces, || She has become tributary!

² She weeps severely in the night, || And her tear [is] on her cheeks, || There is no comforter for her out of all her lovers, || All her friends dealt treacherously by her, || They have been to her for enemies.

³ Removed has Judah because of affliction, || And because of the abundance of her service; She has dwelt among nations, || She has not found rest, || All her pursuers have overtaken her between the straits.

⁴ The ways of Zion are mourning, || Without any coming at the appointed time, || All her gates are desolate, her priests sigh, || Her virgins are afflicted—and she has bitterness.

⁵ Her adversaries have become chief, || Her enemies have been at ease, || For YHWH has afflicted her, || For the abundance of her transgressions, || Her infants have gone captive before the adversary.

⁶ And all her honor goes out from the daughter of Zion, || Her princes have been as harts—They have not found pasture, || And they go powerless before a pursuer.

⁸ A sin has Jerusalem sinned, || Therefore she has become impure, || All who honored her have esteemed her lightly, || For they have seen her nakedness, || Indeed, she herself has sighed and turns backward.

⁹ Her uncleanness [is] in her skirts, || She has not remembered her latter end, || And she comes down wonderfully, || There is no comforter for her. See, O YHWH, my affliction, || For an enemy has exerted himself.

¹⁰ His hand has spread out an adversary || On all her desirable things, || For she has seen—Nations have entered her sanctuary, || Concerning which You commanded, || “They do not come into the assembly to you.”

¹² [Is it] nothing to you, all you passing by the way? Look attentively, and see, || If there is any pain like my pain, || That He is rolling to me? Whom YHWH has afflicted || In the day of the fierceness of His anger.

¹³ From above He has sent fire into my bone, || And it subdues it, He has spread a net for my feet, || He has turned me backward, || He has made me desolate—all the day sick.

¹⁴ Bound has been the yoke of my transgressions by His hand, || They are wrapped together, || They have gone up on my neck, || He has caused my power to stumble, || The Lord has given me into hands, I am not able to rise.

¹⁵ The Lord has trodden down all my mighty ones in my midst, || He proclaimed an appointed time against me, || To destroy my young men, || The Lord has trodden a winepress, || To the virgin daughter of Judah.

¹⁶ For these I am weeping, || My eye, my eye, is running down with waters, || For a comforter has been far from me, || Refreshing my soul, || My sons have been desolate, || For mighty has been an enemy.

¹⁸ YHWH is righteous, || For I have provoked His mouth. Now hear, all you peoples, and see my pain, || My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

¹⁹ I called for my lovers, they have deceived me, || My priests and my elderly have expired in the city; When they have sought food for themselves, || Then they give back their soul.

²⁰ See, O YHWH, for distress [is] to me, || My bowels have been troubled, || My heart has been turned in my midst, || For I have greatly provoked, || From outside the sword has bereaved, || In the house [it is] as death.

²¹ They have heard that I have sighed, || There is no comforter for me, || All my enemies have heard of my calamity, || They have rejoiced that You have done [it], || You have brought in the day You have called, || And they are like to me.

²² All their evil comes in before You, || And one is doing to them as You have done to me, || For all my transgressions, || For many [are] my sighs, and my heart [is] sick!

¹ [ALEPH-BET] How the Lord clouds in His anger the daughter of Zion, || He has cast from the heavens [to] earth the beauty of Israel, || And has not remembered His footstool in the day of His anger.

² The Lord has swallowed up, || He has not pitied any of the pleasant places of Jacob, || He has broken down in His wrath || The fortresses of the daughter of Judah, || He has caused to come to the earth, || He defiled the kingdom and its princes.

⁵ The Lord has been as an enemy, || He has swallowed up Israel, || He has swallowed up all her palaces, || He has destroyed His fortresses, || And He multiplies in the daughter of Judah || Mourning and moaning.

⁶ And He shakes as a garden His dwelling place, || He has destroyed His appointed place, || YHWH has forgotten in Zion the appointed time and Sabbath, || And despises, in the indignation of His anger, king and priest.

⁷ The Lord has cast off His altar, || He has rejected His sanctuary, || He has shut up into the hand of the enemy || The walls of her palaces, || A noise they have made in the house of YHWH || Like a day of appointment.

⁹ Sunk into the earth have her gates, || He has destroyed and broken her bars, || Her king and her princes [are] among the nations, || There is no law, also her prophets || Have not found vision from YHWH.

¹¹ My eyes have been consumed by tears, || My bowels have been troubled, || My liver has been poured out to the earth, || For the breach of the daughter of my people; In infant and suckling being feeble, || In the broad places of the city,

¹³ What do I testify [to] you, what do I liken to you, || O daughter of Jerusalem? What do I equal to you, and I comfort you, || O virgin daughter of Zion? For great as a sea [is] your breach, || Who gives healing to you?

¹⁴ Your prophets have seen for you a false and insipid thing, || And have not revealed concerning your iniquity, || To return your captivity, || And they see for you false burdens and causes of expulsion.

¹⁵ Everyone passing by the way clapped hands at you, || They have hissed—and they shake the head || At the daughter of Jerusalem: "Is this the city of which they said: The perfection of beauty, a joy to all the land?"

¹⁶ Opened against you their mouth have all your enemies, || They have hissed, indeed, they gnash the teeth, || They have said: "We have swallowed [her] up, || Surely this [is] the day that we looked for, || We have found—we have seen."

¹⁷ YHWH has done that which He devised, || He has fulfilled His saying || That He commanded from the days of old, || He has broken down and has not pitied, || And causes an enemy to rejoice over you, || He lifted up the horn of your adversaries.

²⁰ See, O YHWH, and look attentively, || To whom You have acted thus, || Do women eat their fruit, infants of a handbreadth? Slain in the sanctuary of the Lord are priest and prophet?

²¹ Lain on the earth [in] out-places have young and old, || My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword, || You have slain in a day of Your anger, || You have slaughtered—You have not pitied.

²² You call as [at] a day of appointment, || My fears from all around, || And there has not been in the day of the anger of YHWH, || An escaped and remaining one, || They whom I stretched out and nourished, || My enemy has consumed!

² He has led me, and causes to go [in] darkness, and without light.

³ Surely against me He turns back, || He turns His hand all the day.

⁴ He has worn out my flesh and my skin. He has broken my bones.

⁵ He has built up against me, || And sets around poverty and weariness.

⁶ In dark places He has caused me to dwell, || As the dead of old.

⁷ He has hedged me in, and I do not go out, || He has made heavy my chain.

⁸ Also when I call and cry out, || He has shut out my prayer.

⁹ He has hedged my ways with hewn work, || My paths He has made crooked.

¹⁰ A bear lying in wait He [is] to me, || A lion in secret hiding places.

¹¹ My ways He is turning aside, and He pulls me in pieces, || He has made me a desolation.

¹² He has bent His bow, || And sets me up as a mark for an arrow.

¹³ He has caused to enter into my reins || The sons of His quiver.

¹⁴ I have been a derision to all my people, || Their song all the day.

¹⁵ He has filled me with bitter things, || He has filled me [with] wormwood.

¹⁶ And He breaks with gravel my teeth, || He has covered me with ashes.

¹⁷ And You cast off my soul from peace, || I have forgotten prosperity.

¹⁸ And I say, My strength and my hope have perished from YHWH.

¹⁹ Remember my affliction and my mourning, || Wormwood and gall!

²⁰ Remember well, and my soul bows down in me.

²¹ This I turn to my heart—therefore I hope.

²² The kindnesses of YHWH! For we have not been consumed, || For His mercies have not ended.

²³ New every morning, abundant [is] Your faithfulness.

²⁴ My portion [is] YHWH, my soul has said, || Therefore I hope for Him.

²⁵ YHWH [is] good to those waiting for Him, || To the soul [that] seeks Him.

²⁶ [It is] good when one stays and stands still || For the salvation of YHWH.

²⁷ [It is] good for a man that he bears a yoke in his youth.

²⁸ He sits alone, and is silent, || For He has laid [it] on him.

²⁹ He puts his mouth in the dust, if so be, there is hope.

³⁰ He gives to his striker the cheek, || He is filled with reproach.

³¹ For the Lord does not cast off for all time.

³² For though He afflicted, yet He has pitied, || According to the abundance of His kindness.

³³ For He has not afflicted with His heart, || Nor does He grieve the sons of men.

³⁴ To bruise under one's feet any bound ones of earth,

³⁵ To turn aside the judgment of a man, || Before the face of the Most High,

³⁶ To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord has not approved.

³⁷ Who [is] this—he has spoken, and it is, || [And] the Lord has not commanded [it]?

³⁸ From the mouth of the Most High does not go forth the evils and the good.

³⁹ Why does a living man sigh habitually, || A man for his sin?

⁴⁰ We search our ways, and investigate, || And turn back to YHWH.

⁴¹ We lift up our heart on the hands to God in the heavens.

⁴² We have transgressed and been rebellious, || You have not forgiven.

⁴³ You have covered Yourself with anger, || And pursue us; You have slain—You have not pitied.

⁴⁴ You have covered Yourself with a cloud, || So that prayer does not pass through.

⁴⁵ Outcast and refuse You make us || In the midst of the peoples.

⁴⁶ Opened against us their mouth have all our enemies.

⁴⁷ Fear and a snare has been for us, || Desolation and destruction.

⁴⁸ Streams of water go down my eye, || For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

⁴⁹ My eye is poured out, || And does not cease without intermission,

⁵⁰ Until YHWH looks and sees from the heavens,

⁵¹ My eye affects my soul, || Because of all the daughters of my city.

⁵² Hunting—my enemies have hunted me without cause like the bird.

⁵³ They have cut off my life in a pit, || And they cast a stone against me.

⁵⁴ Waters have flowed over my head, I have said, I have been cut off.

⁵⁵ I called Your Name, O YHWH, from the lower pit.

⁵⁶ You have heard my voice, do not hide Your ear at my breathing—at my cry.

⁵⁷ You have drawn near in the day I call You, You have said, Do not fear.

⁵⁸ You have pleaded, O Lord, the pleadings of my soul, || You have redeemed my life.

⁵⁹ You have seen, O YHWH, my overthrow, || Judge my cause.

⁶⁰ You have seen all their vengeance, || All their thoughts of me.

⁶¹ You have heard their reproach, O YHWH, || All their thoughts against me,

⁶² The lips of my withstanders, || Even their meditation against me all the day.

⁶³ Their sitting down, and their rising up, || Behold attentively, I [am] their song.

⁶⁴ You return to them the deed, O YHWH, || According to the work of their hands.

⁶⁵ You give to them a covered heart, || Your curse to them.

² The precious sons of Zion, || Who are comparable with fine gold, || How they have been reckoned earthen bottles, || Work of the hands of a potter.

⁴ The tongue of a suckling has cleaved to his palate with thirst, || Infants asked for bread, they have no dealer [of it] out.

⁵ Those eating of delicacies have been desolate in out-places, || Those supported on scarlet have embraced dunghills.

⁶ And greater is the iniquity of the daughter of my people, || Than the sin of Sodom, || That was overturned as [in] a moment, || And no hands were stayed on her.

⁷ Purer were her Nazarites than snow, || Whiter than milk, ruddier of body than rubies, || Of sapphire their form.

⁸ Their face has been darker than blackness, || They have not been known in out-places, || Their skin has cleaved to their bone, || It has withered—it has been as wood.

⁹ Better have been the pierced of a sword || Than the pierced of famine, || For these flow away, pierced through, || Without the increase of the field.

¹¹ YHWH has completed His fury, || He has poured out the fierceness of His anger, || And He kindles a fire in Zion, || And it devours her foundations.

¹² The kings of earth did not believe, || And any of the inhabitants of the world, || That an adversary and enemy would come || Into the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³ Because of the sins of her prophets, || The iniquities of her priests, || Who are shedding in her midst the blood of the righteous,

¹⁴ They have wandered naked in out-places, || They have been defiled with blood, || Without [any] being able to touch their clothing,

¹⁵ “Turn aside—unclean,” they called to them, || “Turn aside, turn aside, do not touch,” || For they fled—indeed, they have wandered, || They have said among nations: “They do not add to sojourn.”

¹⁶ The face of YHWH has divided them, || He does not add to behold them, || They have not lifted up the face of priests, || They have not favored [the] old and elderly.

¹⁷ While we exist—consumed are our eyes for our vain help, || In our watchtower we have watched for a nation [that] does not save.

¹⁸ They have hunted our steps from going in our broad-places, || Near has been our end, fulfilled our days, || For our end has come.

¹⁹ Swifter have been our pursuers, || Than the eagles of the heavens, || On the mountains they have burned [after] us, || In the wilderness they have laid wait for us.

²⁰ The breath of our nostrils—the anointed of YHWH, || Has been captured in their pits, of whom we said: “We live among nations in his shadow.”

²² Completed [is] your iniquity, daughter of Zion, || He does not add to remove you, || He has inspected your iniquity, O daughter of Edom, || He has removed [you] because of your sins!

¹ Remember, O YHWH, what has befallen us, || Look attentively, and see our reproach.

² Our inheritance has been turned to strangers, || Our houses to foreigners.

³ Orphans we have been—without a father; our mothers [are] as widows.

⁴ We have drunk our water for money, || Our wood comes for a price.

⁵ For our neck we have been pursued, || We have labored—there has been no rest for us.

⁶ [To] Egypt we have given a hand, || [To] Asshur, to be satisfied with bread.

⁷ Our fathers have sinned—they are not, || We have borne their iniquities.

⁸ Servants have ruled over us, || There is no deliverer from their hand.

⁹ With our lives we bring in our bread, || Because of the sword of the wilderness.

¹⁰ Our skin as an oven has been burning, || Because of the raging of the famine.

¹¹ Wives in Zion they have humbled, || Virgins—in cities of Judah.

¹² Princes have been hanged by their hand, || Elderly faces have not been honored.

¹³ They have taken young men to grind, || And youths have stumbled with wood.

¹⁴ Elderly have ceased from the gate, || Young men from their song.

¹⁵ The joy of our heart has ceased, || Our dancing has been turned to mourning.

¹⁶ The crown has fallen [from] our head, || Woe [is] now to us, for we have sinned.

¹⁷ Our heart has been sick for this, || Our eyes have been dim for these.

¹⁸ For the Mount of Zion—that is desolate, || Foxes have gone up on it.

¹⁹ You, O YHWH, remain for all time, || Your throne to generation and generation.

²⁰ Why do You forget us forever? You forsake us for [the] length of [our] days!

²² For have You utterly rejected us? You have been angry against us—exceedingly?

Ezekiel

¹ And it comes to pass, in the thirtieth year, in the fourth [month], on the fifth of the month, and I [am] in the midst of the expulsion by the river Chebar, the heavens have been opened, and I see visions of God.

² In the fifth of the month—it is the fifth year of the expulsion of King Jehoiachin—

⁵ And out of its midst [is] a likeness of four living creatures, and this [is] their appearance; a likeness of man [is] to them,

⁶ and each had four faces and each of them had four wings,

⁷ and their feet [are] straight feet, and the sole of their feet [is] as a sole of a calf's foot, and they are sparkling as the color of bright bronze;

⁸ and on their four sides [each had] hands of man under their wings; and [each] of the four had their faces and their wings;

⁹ their wings [are] joining to one another; they do not turn around in their going, they each go straight forward.

¹¹ And their faces and their wings dividing from above, of each [are] two joining together, and two are covering their bodies.

¹² And they each go straight forward, to where the Spirit is to go, they go, they do not turn around in their going.

¹⁴ And the living creatures are running, and turning back, as the appearance of the flash.

¹⁵ And I see the living creatures, and behold, one wheel [is] in the earth, near the living creatures, at its four faces.

¹⁷ On their four sides, in their going they go, they do not turn around in their going.

¹⁸ As for their rings, they are both high and fearful, and their rings, of the four of them, [are] full of eyes around them.

²⁰ To where the Spirit is to go, they go, there the Spirit [is] to go, and the wheels are lifted up alongside them, for a living spirit [is] in the wheels.

²³ And under the expanse their wings [are] straight, one toward [its] sister; two [wings] of each are covering them, and two [wings] of each are covering their bodies.

²⁵ And there is a voice from above the expanse, that [is] above their head: in their standing they let their wings fall.

²⁸ As the appearance of the bow that is in a cloud in a day of rain, so [is] the appearance of the brightness all around.

² And [the] Spirit comes into me when He has spoken to me, and causes me to stand on my feet, and I hear Him who is speaking to me.

³ And He says to me, “Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to rebelling nations who have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have transgressed against Me, to this very day.

⁴ And the sons [are] brazen-faced and hard-hearted to whom I am sending you, and you have said to them: Thus said Lord YHWH.

⁵ And they—whether they hear, or whether they refrain, for they [are] a house of rebellion—have known that a prophet has been in their midst.

⁶ And you, son of man, you are not afraid of them, indeed, you are not afraid of their words, for briers and thorns are with you, and you are dwelling near scorpions, you are not afraid of their words, and you are not frightened of their faces, for they [are] a house of rebellion,

⁷ and you have spoken My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refrain, for they [are] a rebellion.

⁸ And you, son of man, hear that which I am speaking to you; do not be of rebellion like the house of rebellion, open your mouth and eat that which I am giving to you.”

⁹ And I look, and behold, a hand [is] sent forth to me, and behold, a roll of a scroll [is] in it,

¹⁰ and He spreads it before me, and it is written in front and behind, and written on it [are] lamentations, and mourning, and woe!

¹ And He says to me, “Son of man, eat that which you find, eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.”

² And I open my mouth, and He causes me to eat this scroll.

³ And He says to me, “Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I am giving to you”; and I eat it, and it is as honey for sweetness in my mouth.

⁴ And He says to me, “Son of man, go forth, go to the house of Israel, and you have spoken to them with My words.

⁵ For you [are] not sent to a people deep of lip and heavy of tongue—to the house of Israel;

⁶ not to many peoples, deep of lip and heavy of tongue, whose words you do not understand. If I had not sent you to them—they listen to you,

⁷ but the house of Israel are not willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to Me, for all the house of Israel are brazen-faced and strong-hearted.

⁸ Behold, I have made your face strong against their face, and your forehead strong against their forehead.

⁹ As an adamant, harder than a rock, I have made your forehead; do not fear them, nor are you frightened before them, for they [are] a house of rebellion.”

¹⁰ And He says to me, “Son of man, all My words that I speak to you, receive with your heart, and hear with your ears;

¹¹ and go forth, go to the expulsion, to the sons of your people, and you have spoken to them, and have said to them: Thus said Lord YHWH; whether they hear, or whether they refrain.”

¹² And a spirit lifts me up, and I hear a noise behind me, a great rushing—“Blessed [is] the glory of YHWH from His place!”

¹³ Even a noise of the wings of the living creatures touching one another, and a noise of the wheels alongside them, even a noise of a great rushing.

¹⁴ And [the] Spirit has lifted me up, and takes me away, and I go bitterly, in the heat of my spirit, and the hand of YHWH [is] strong on me.

¹⁶ And it comes to pass, at the end of seven days,

¹⁷ that there is a word of YHWH to me, saying, “Son of man, I have given you [as] a watchman to the house of Israel, and you have heard a word from My mouth, and have warned them from Me.

¹⁸ In My saying to the wicked: You surely die; and you have not warned him, nor have spoken to warn the wicked from his wicked way, so that he lives; he—the wicked—dies in his iniquity, and I require his blood from your hand.

¹⁹ And you, because you have warned the wicked, and he has not turned back from his wickedness, and from his wicked way, he dies in his iniquity, and you have delivered your soul.

²⁰ And in the turning back of the righteous from his righteousness, and he has done perversity, and I have put a stumbling-block before him, he dies; because you have not warned him, he dies in his sin, and his righteousness that he has done is not remembered, and I require his blood from your hand.

²¹ And you, because you have warned him—the righteous—that the righteous does not sin, and he has not sinned, he surely lives, because he has been warned; and you have delivered your soul.”

²² And there is a hand of YHWH on me there, and He says to me, “Rise, go forth to the valley, and there I speak with you.”

²³ And I rise and go forth to the valley, and behold, there the glory of YHWH is standing as the glory that I had seen by the river Chebar, and I fall on my face.

²⁴ And [the] Spirit comes into me, and causes me to stand on my feet, and He speaks with me, and says to me, “Go in, be shut up in the midst of your house.

²⁵ And you, son of man, behold, they have put thick bands on you, and have bound you with them, and you do not go forth in their midst;

²⁶ and I cause your tongue to cleave to your palate, and you have been mute, and are not for a reprover to them, for they [are] a house of rebellion.

²⁷ And in My speaking with you, I open your mouth, and you have said to them: Thus said Lord YHWH; the hearer hears, and the refrainer refrains; for they [are] a house of rebellion.”

¹ “And you, son of man, take a brick for yourself, and you have put it before you, and have carved a city on it—Jerusalem,

² and have placed a siege against it, and built a fortification against it, and poured out a mound against it, and placed camps against it, indeed, set battering-rams against it all around.

³ And you, take an iron pan for yourself, and you have made it a wall of iron between you and the city; and you have prepared your face against it, and it has been in a siege, indeed, you have laid siege against it. It [is] a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴ And you, lie on your left side, and you have placed the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; the number of the days that you lie on it, you bear their iniquity.

⁵ And I have laid the years of their iniquity on you, the number of days, three hundred and ninety days; and you have borne the iniquity of the house of Israel.

⁷ And to the siege of Jerusalem you prepare your face, and your arm [is] uncovered, and you have prophesied concerning it.

⁸ And behold, I have put thick bands on you, and you do not turn from side to side until your completing the days of your siege.

⁹ And you, take for yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and spelt, and you have put them in one vessel, and made them for bread for yourself; the number of the days that you are lying on your side—three hundred and ninety days—you eat it.

¹⁰ And your food that you eat [is] by weight, twenty shekels daily; from time to time you eat it.

¹¹ And you drink water by measure, a sixth part of the hin; from time to time you drink [it].

¹² And you eat it [as] barley-cake, and it with dung—the filth of man—you bake before their eyes.”

¹³ And YHWH says, “Thus the sons of Israel eat their defiled bread among the nations to where I drive them.”

¹⁴ And I say, “Aah! Lord YHWH, behold, my soul is not defiled, and carcass, and torn thing, I have not eaten from my youth, even until now; nor has abominable flesh come into my mouth.”

¹⁵ And He says to me, “See, I have given to you bullock’s dung instead of man’s dung, and you have made your bread by it.”

¹⁶ And He says to me, “Son of man, behold, I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they have eaten bread by weight and with fear; and water by measure and with astonishment, they drink;

¹⁷ so that they lack bread and water, and have been astonished with one another, and been consumed in their iniquity.”

² You burn a third part with fire in the midst of the city, at the fullness of the days of the siege; and you have taken the third part, you strike with a weapon around it; and the third part you scatter to the wind, and I draw out a weapon after them.

³ And you have taken there a few in number—and have bound them in your skirts;

⁴ and you take of them again, and have cast them into the midst of the fire, and have burned them in the fire—out of it comes forth a fire to all the house of Israel.”

⁵ Thus said Lord YHWH: “This [is] Jerusalem, || I have set her in the midst of the nations, || And the lands [are] around her.

⁶ And she changes My judgments into wickedness more than the nations, || And My statutes more than the lands that [are] around her, || For they have kicked against My judgments, || And My statutes—they have not walked in them.”

⁷ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “Because of your multiplying above the nations that [are] around you, || You have not walked in My statutes, || And you have not done My judgments, || According to the judgments of the nations that [are] around you, you have not done.”

⁸ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “Behold, I [am] against you, even I, || And I have done judgments in your midst, || Before the eyes of the nations.

⁹ And I have done in you that which I have not done, || And the like of which I do not do again, || Because of all your abominations.

¹⁰ Therefore fathers eat sons in your midst, || And sons eat their fathers, || And I have done judgments in you, || And have scattered all your remnant to every wind.

¹¹ Therefore, [as] I live,“ a declaration of Lord YHWH, || “Because you have defiled My sanctuary || With all your detestable things, || And with all your abominations, || Therefore I also diminish you, || And My eye does not pity, and I do not spare.

¹² Your third part dies by pestilence, || And are consumed by famine in your midst, || And the third part fall by sword around you, || And the third part I scatter to every wind, || And I draw out a sword after them.

¹³ And My anger has been completed, || And I have caused My fury to rest on them, || And I have been comforted, || And they have known that I, YHWH, have spoken in My zeal, || In My completing My fury on them.

¹⁴ And I give you for a ruin, || And for a reproach among nations that [are] around you, || Before the eyes of everyone passing by.

¹⁵ And it has been a reproach and a reviling, || An instruction and an astonishment, || To nations that [are] around you, || In My doing judgments in you, || In anger and fury, and in furious reproofs, || I, YHWH, have spoken.

¹⁶ In My sending the evil arrows of famine among them, || That have been for destruction, || That I send to destroy you, || And I am adding famine on you, || And I have broken your staff of bread.

¹⁷ And I have sent famine and evil beasts on you, || And they have bereaved you, || And pestilence and blood pass over on you, || And I bring a sword in against you, || I, YHWH, have spoken!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, set your face toward mountains of Israel, and prophesy concerning them:

³ And you have said, Mountains of Israel, || Hear a word of Lord YHWH! Thus said Lord YHWH, || To the mountains, and to the hills, || To the streams, and to the valleys: Behold, I am bringing in a sword against you, || And I have destroyed your high places.

⁴ And your altars have been desolated, || And your images have been broken, || And I have caused your wounded to fall before your idols,

⁵ And I have put the carcasses of the sons of Israel before their idols, || And I have scattered your bones around your altars.

⁶ In all your dwellings the cities are laid waste, || And the high places are desolate, || So that your altars are dry and desolate, || Your idols have broken and ceased, || And your images have been cut down, || And your works have been blotted out.

⁷ And the wounded has fallen in your midst, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁸ And I have caused [some] to remain, || In their being for you the escaped of the sword among nations, || In your being scattered through lands.

⁹ And your escaped have remembered Me among nations, || To where they have been taken captive, || Because I have been broken with their heart that is going whoring, || That has turned aside from off Me, || And with their eyes they are going whoring after their idols, || And they have been loathsome in their own faces, || For the evils that they have done— all their abominations.

¹⁰ And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || I have not spoken to do this evil to them for nothing.

¹¹ Thus said Lord YHWH: Strike with your palm, and stamp with your foot, || And say: Aah! For all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, || Which falls by sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

¹² The far-off dies by pestilence, || And the near falls by sword, || And the left and the besieged dies by famine, || And I have completed My fury on them.

¹⁴ And I have stretched out My hand against them, || And have made the land a desolation, || Even a desolation from the wilderness to Diblath, || In all their dwellings, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying, “And you, son of man, || Thus said Lord YHWH to the ground of Israel:

² An end, the end has come on the four corners of the land.

³ Now [is] the end for you, || And I have sent My anger on you, || And judged you according to your ways, || And set all your abominations against you.

⁴ And My eye has no pity on you, nor do I spare, || For I set your ways against you, || And your abominations are in your midst, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁵ Thus said Lord YHWH: Calamity, a single calamity, behold, it has come.

⁶ An end has come, the end has come, || It has awoken for you, behold, it has come.

⁷ The circlet has come to you, O inhabitant of the land! The time has come, a day of trouble [is] near, || And not the shouting of mountains.

⁸ Now shortly I pour out My fury on you, || And have completed My anger against you, || And judged you according to your ways, || And set all your abominations against you.

⁹ And My eye does not pity, nor do I spare, || I give to you according to your ways, || And your abominations are in your midst, || And you have known that [it is] I, YHWH, striking.

¹⁰ Behold, the day, behold, it has come, || The circlet has gone forth, || The rod has blossomed, the pride has flourished.

¹¹ The violence has risen to a rod of wickedness, || There is none of them, nor of their multitude, || Nor of their noise, nor is there wailing for them.

¹² The time has come, the day has arrived, || The buyer does not rejoice, || And the seller does not become a mourner, || For wrath [is] to all its multitude.

¹⁴ They have blown with a horn to prepare the whole, || And none is going to battle, || For My wrath [is] to all its multitude.

¹⁵ The sword [is] outside, || And the pestilence and the famine within, || He who is in a field dies by sword, || And he who is in a city—Famine and pestilence devour him.

¹⁷ All the hands are feeble, and all knees go [as] waters.

¹⁸ And they have girded on sackcloth, || And trembling has covered them, || And shame [is] on all faces, || And baldness on all their heads.

²⁰ As for the beauty of his ornament, || He set it for excellence, || And the images of their abominations, || Their detestable things—they made in it, || Therefore I have given it to them for impurity,

²¹ And I have given it into the hand of the strangers for a prey, || And to the wicked of the land for a spoil, || And they have defiled it.

²² And I have turned My face from them, || And they have defiled My hidden place, || Indeed, destroyers have come into it, and defiled it.

²³ Make the chain; for the land || Has been full of bloody judgments, || And the city has been full of violence.

²⁴ And I have brought in the wicked of the nations, || And they have possessed their houses, || And I have caused the excellence of the strong to cease, || And those sanctifying them have been defiled.

²⁵ Destruction has come, || And they have sought peace, and there is none.

²⁶ Disaster comes on disaster, and report is on report, || And they have sought a vision from a prophet, || And law perishes from [the] priest, || And counsel from [the] elderly,

²⁷ The king becomes a mourner, || And a prince puts on desolation, || And the hands of the people of the land are troubled, || I deal with them from their own way, || And I judge them with their own judgments, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!"

¹ And it comes to pass, in the sixth year, in the sixth [month], on the fifth of the month, I am sitting in my house, and [the] elderly of Judah are sitting before me, and there a hand of Lord YHWH falls on me,

² and I look, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire, from the appearance of His loins and downward—fire, and from His loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the color of electrum.

³ And He puts forth a form of a hand, and takes me by a lock of my head, and [the] Spirit lifts me up between the earth and the heavens, and brings me to Jerusalem in visions of God, to the opening of the inner gate that is facing the north, where the seat of the figure of jealousy [is] that is making jealous,

⁴ and behold, there the glory of the God of Israel [is] as the appearance that I saw in the valley.

⁷ And He brings me to an opening of the court, and I look, and behold, a hole in the wall;

⁸ and He says to me, “Son of man, now dig through the wall”; and I dig through the wall, and behold, an opening.

⁹ And He says to me, “Go in, and see the evil abominations that they are doing here.”

¹⁰ And I go in, and look, and behold, every form of creeping thing, and detestable beast—and all the idols of the house of Israel—carved on the wall, all around,

¹² And He says to me, “Have you seen, son of man, that which elderly of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each in [the] inner chambers of his imagery, for they are saying, YHWH is not seeing us, YHWH has forsaken the land?”

¹³ And He says to me, “Turn again, [and] see [the] great abominations that they are doing.”

¹⁴ And He brings me to the opening of the gate of the house of YHWH that [is] at the north, and behold, there the women are sitting, weeping for Tammuz.

¹⁵ And He says to me, “Have you seen, son of man? Turn again, [and] see greater abominations than these.”

¹⁷ And He says to me, “Have you seen, son of man? Has it been a light thing to the house of Judah to do the abomination that they have done here, that they have filled the land with violence, and turn back to provoke Me to anger? And behold, they are putting forth the branch to their nose!

¹⁸ And I also deal in fury, My eye does not pity, nor do I spare, and they have cried [with] a loud voice in My ears and I do not hear them.”

² And behold, six men are coming from the way of the upper gate, that is facing the north, and each [with] his slaughter-weapon in his hand, and one man in their midst is clothed with linen, and a scribe’s inkhorn at his loins, and they come in, and stand near the bronze altar.

³ And the glory of the God of Israel has gone up from off the cherub, on which it has been, to the threshold of the house.

⁴ And He calls to the man who is clothed with linen, who has the scribe's inkhorn at his loins, and YHWH says to him, "Pass on into the midst of the city, into the midst of Jerusalem, and you have made a mark on the foreheads of the men who are sighing and who are groaning for all the abominations that are done in its midst."

⁵ And to the others he said in my ears, "Pass on into the city after him, and strike; your eye does not pity, nor do you spare;

⁶ aged, young man, and virgin, and infant, and women, you slay—to destruction; and against any man on whom [is] the mark you do not go near, and you begin from My sanctuary."

⁷ And they begin among the aged men who [are] before the house, and He says to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the wounded, go forth." And they have gone forth and have struck in the city.

⁸ And it comes to pass, as they are striking, and I am left—that I fall on my face, and cry, and say, "Aah! Lord YHWH, are You destroying all the remnant of Israel, in Your pouring out Your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹ And He says to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah [is] very, very great, and the land is full of blood, and the city has been full of perverseness, for they have said: YHWH has forsaken the land, and YHWH is not seeing.

¹¹ And behold, the man clothed with linen, at whose loins [is] the inkhorn, is bringing back word, saying, "I have done as You have commanded me."

² And He speaks to the man clothed with linen and says, "Go into the midst of the wheel, to the place of the cherub, and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter over the city." And he goes in before my eyes.

³ And the cherubim are standing on the right side of the house, at the going in of the man, and the cloud has filled the inner court,

⁵ And a noise of the wings of the cherubim has been heard in the outer court, as the voice of God—the Mighty One—in His speaking.

⁶ And it comes to pass, in His commanding the man clothed with linen, saying, "Take fire from between the wheel, from between the cherubim," and he goes in and stands near the wheel,

⁸ And there appears in the cherubim the form of a hand of man under their wings,

¹⁰ And [as for] their appearances, [the] four had one likeness, as it were the wheel in the midst of the wheel.

¹¹ In their going, they go on their four sides; they do not turn around in their going, for to the place to where the head turns, they go after it, they do not turn around in their going.

¹² And all their flesh, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, are full of eyes all around—[the] wheels [the] four had.

¹³ As for the wheels—they were called “Whirling Wheel” in my ears.

¹⁵ And the cherubim are lifted up, it [is] the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar.

¹⁷ In their standing they stand, and in their exaltation they are exalted with them: for [the] spirit of the living creature [is] in them.

¹⁸ And the glory of YHWH goes forth from off the threshold of the house, and stands over the cherubim,

²⁰ It [is] the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar, and I know that they are cherubim.

²¹ [The] four—each had four faces, and each had four wings, and the likeness of the hands of man [is] under their wings.

² And He says to me, “Son of man, these [are] the men who are devising iniquity, and who are giving evil counsel in this city;

³ who are saying, It [is] not near—to build houses, it [is] the pot, and we [are] the flesh.

⁴ Therefore prophesy concerning them, prophesy, son of man.”

⁵ And [the] Spirit of YHWH falls on me, and He says to me, “Say, Thus said YHWH: You have said correctly, O house of Israel, | | And I have known the steps of your spirit.

⁶ You multiplied your wounded in this city, || And filled its out-places with the wounded.

⁷ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Your wounded whom you placed in its midst, || They [are] the flesh, and it [is] the pot, || And He has brought you out from its midst.

⁸ You have feared a sword, || And I bring in a sword against you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

⁹ And I have brought you out of its midst, || And given you into the hand of strangers, || And I have done judgments among you.

¹⁰ You fall by the sword, || I judge you on the border of Israel, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

¹¹ It is not for a pot for you, || Nor are you for flesh in its midst, || I judge you at the border of Israel.

¹² And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || For you have not walked in My statutes, || And you have not done My judgments, || And according to the judgments of the nations || Who are around you, you have done!"

¹³ And it comes to pass, at my prophesying, that Pelatiah son of Benaiah is dying, and I fall on my face, and cry—a loud voice—and say, "Aah! Lord YHWH, You are making an end of the remnant of Israel."

¹⁴ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁵ "Son of man, your brothers, your brothers, men of your family, and all the house of Israel—all of it—[are] they to whom inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Keep far off from YHWH;

¹⁶ it [is] ours, the land has been given for an inheritance; therefore say, Thus said Lord YHWH: Because I put them far off among nations, || And because I scattered them through lands, I am also for a little sanctuary to them, || In lands to where they have gone in.

¹⁷ Therefore say, Thus said Lord YHWH: And I have assembled you from the peoples, || And I have gathered you from the lands, || Into which you have been scattered, || And I have given the ground of Israel to you.

¹⁸ And they have gone in there, || And turned aside all its detestable things, || And all its abominations—out of it.

¹⁹ And I have given one heart to them, || And I give a new spirit in your midst, || And I have turned the heart of stone out of their flesh, || And I have given a heart of flesh to them.

²⁰ So that they walk in My statutes, || And keep My judgments, and have done them, || And they have been to Me for a people, || And I am to them for God.

²¹ As for those whose heart is going to the heart || Of their detestable things and their abominations, || I have put their way on their head, || A declaration of Lord YHWH."

²² And the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels [are] alongside them, and the glory of the God of Israel [is] over them above.

²³ And the glory of YHWH goes up from off the midst of the city, and stands on the mountain, that [is] on the east of the city.

²⁴ And [the] Spirit has lifted me up, and brings me to Chaldea, to the expulsion, in a vision, by [the] Spirit of God, and the vision that I have seen goes up from off me;

²⁵ and I speak to the expulsion all the matters of YHWH that He has showed me.

12

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, you are dwelling in the midst of the house of rebellion, that have eyes to see, and they have not seen; they have ears to hear, and they have not heard; for they [are] a house of rebellion.

³ And you, son of man, make your vessels of removal, and remove by day before their eyes, and you have removed from your place to another place before their eyes, it may be they consider, for they [are] a house of rebellion.

⁵ You dig through the wall before their eyes, and you have brought forth by it.

⁶ Carry on the shoulder before their eyes, bring forth in the darkness, cover your face, and you do not see the earth, for I have given you [as] a sign to the house of Israel.”

⁷ And I do so, as I have been commanded; I have brought forth my vessels as vessels of removal by day, and I have dug through the wall with my hand in the evening; I have brought forth in the darkness, I have carried away on the shoulder, before their eyes.

⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to me, in the morning, saying,

⁹ “Son of man, have they not said to you—the house of Israel—the house of rebellion—What are you doing?

¹⁰ Say to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: This burden [concerns] the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel who are in their midst.

¹¹ Say: I [am] your sign; as I have done so it is done to them, into a removal, into a captivity, they go.

¹³ And I have spread My net for him, and he has been caught in My snare, and I have brought him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, and he does not see it—and he dies there.

¹⁴ And all who are around him to help him, and all his bands, I scatter to every wind, and I draw out a sword after them.

¹⁵ And they have known that I [am] YHWH, in My scattering them among nations, and I have spread them through lands;

¹⁶ and I have left of them, a few in number, from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, so that they recount all their abominations among the nations to where they have come, and they have known that I [am] YHWH.”

¹⁷ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁸ “Son of man, eat your bread in haste, and drink your water with trembling and with fear;

¹⁹ and you have said to the people of the land, Thus said Lord YHWH concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, concerning the land of Israel: They eat their bread with fear, and drink their water with astonishment, because its land is desolate, because of its fullness, because of the violence of all who are dwelling in it.

²⁰ And the cities that are inhabited are laid waste, and the land is a desolation, and you have known that I [am] YHWH.”

²¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²² “Son of man, what [is] this allegory to you, concerning the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision has perished?

²³ Therefore say to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: I have caused this allegory to cease, || And they do not use it as an allegory in Israel again, || But speak to them: The days have drawn near, || And every vision has spoken.

²⁴ For there is no longer any vain vision, and flattering divination, || In the midst of the house of Israel.

²⁵ For I, YHWH, speak, || The word that I speak—it is done, || It is not prolonged anymore, || For in your days, O house of rebellion, I speak a word, and I have done it, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.”

²⁶ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²⁷ “Son of man, behold, the house of Israel is saying, The vision that he is seeing [is not] for many days, and he is prophesying of far-off times,

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, prophesy concerning the prophets of Israel who are prophesying, and you have said to those prophesying from their own heart, Hear a word of YHWH!

³ Thus said Lord YHWH: Woe to the prophets who are foolish, || Who are going after their own spirit, || And they have seen nothing.

⁴ Your prophets have been || As foxes in the wasteland, O Israel.

⁵ You have not gone up into breaches, || Nor do you make a wall for the house of Israel, || To stand in battle in a day of YHWH.

⁶ They have seen vanity, and lying divination, || Who are saying: A declaration of YHWH, || And YHWH has not sent them, || And they have hoped to establish a word.

⁷ Have you not seen a vain vision, || And spoken a lying divination, || When you say, A declaration of YHWH, || And I have not spoken?

⁸ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because you have spoken vanity, and seen a lie, || Therefore, behold, I [am] against you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

⁹ And My hand has been on the prophets, || Who are seeing vanity, and who are divining a lie, || They are not in the assembly of My people, || And they are not written in the writing of the house of Israel, || And they do not come to the ground of Israel, || And you have known that I [am] Lord YHWH.

¹⁰ Because, even because, they caused My people to err, || Saying, Peace! And there is no peace, || And that one is building a wall, || And behold, they are coating it with chalk.

¹² And behold, the wall has fallen! Does one not say to you, Where [is] the coating that you coated?

¹³ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: I have broken with a turbulent wind in My fury, || And an overflowing shower is in My anger, || And hailstones in My fury—to consume.

¹⁴ And I have broken down the wall that you coated with chalk, || And have caused it to come to the earth, || And its foundation has been revealed, || And it has fallen, || And you have been consumed in its midst, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

¹⁵ And I have completed My wrath on the wall, || And on those coating it with chalk, || And I say to you: The wall is not, || And those coating it are not,

¹⁷ And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who are prophesying out of their own heart, and prophesy concerning them,

¹⁸ And you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Woe to those sowing [magic] bands for all joints of the arm, || And to those making the veils || For the head of every stature—to hunt souls, || Do you hunt the souls of My people? And do your souls that live remain alive?

¹⁹ Indeed, you pierce Me concerning My people, || For handfuls of barley, || And for pieces of bread, || To put to death souls that should not die, || And to keep alive souls that should not live, || By your lying to My people—listening to lies.

²⁰ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against your [magic] bands, || With which you are hunting there the souls of the flourishing, || And I have torn them from off your arms, || And have sent away the souls that you are hunting, || The souls of the flourishing.

²¹ And I have torn your veils, || And delivered My people out of your hand, || And they are no longer for a prey in your hand, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

²² Because of paining the heart of the righteous with falsehood, || And I have not pained it, || And strengthening the hands of the wicked, || So as not to turn [him] back from his evil way, || To keep him alive,

²³ Therefore, you do not see vanity, || And you do not divine divination again, || And I have delivered My people out of your hand, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH!”

¹ And men from [the] elderly of Israel come to me, and sit before me.

² And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

³ “Son of man, these men have caused their idols to go up on their heart, and they have put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their faces; am I inquired of at all by them?”

⁴ Therefore, speak with them, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Everyone of the house of Israel who causes his idols to go up to his heart, and sets the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and has gone to the prophet—I, YHWH, have given an answer to him for this, for the abundance of his idols,

⁵ in order to catch the house of Israel by their heart, in that they have become estranged from off Me by their idols—all of them.

⁶ Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus said Lord YHWH: Turn back, indeed, turn back from your idols, and turn back your faces from all your abominations,

⁷ for everyone of the house of Israel, and of the sojourners who sojourn in Israel, who is separated from after Me, and causes his idols to go up to his heart, and sets the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and has come to the prophet to inquire of him concerning Me, I, YHWH, have answered him for Myself;

⁸ and I have set My face against that man, and made him for a sign, and for allegories, and I have cut him off from the midst of My people, and you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁹ And the prophet, when he is enticed, and has spoken a word—I, YHWH, have enticed that prophet, and have stretched out My hand against him, and have destroyed him from the midst of My people Israel.

¹⁰ And they have borne their iniquity: as the iniquity of the inquirer, so is the iniquity of the prophet;

¹¹ so that the house of Israel does not wander from after Me anymore, nor are they defiled with all their transgressions anymore, and they have been to Me for a people, and I am to them for God—a declaration of Lord YHWH."

¹² And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁴ and [despite] these three men [that] have been in its midst: Noah, Daniel, and Job—they [only] deliver their own soul by their righteousness," a declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁵ "If I cause an evil beast to pass through the land, and it has bereaved, and it has been a desolation, without any passing through because of the beast—

¹⁷ Or [if] I bring a sword in against that land, and I have said: Sword, pass over through the land, and I have cut off man and beast from it—

¹⁹ Or [if] I send pestilence to that land, and I have poured out My fury against it in blood, to cut off man and beast from it—

²³ And they have comforted you, for you see their way and their doings, and you have known that I have not done all that which I have done in her for nothing,” a declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, || What is the vine-tree more than any tree? The vine-branch that has been, || Among trees of the forest?

³ Is wood taken from it to use for work? Do they take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it?

⁴ Behold, it has been given to the fire for fuel, || The fire has eaten its two ends, || And its midst has been scorched! Is it profitable for work?

⁵ Behold, in its being perfect it is not used for work, || How much less when fire has eaten of it, || And it is scorched, || Has it been used yet for work?”

⁶ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “As the vine-tree among trees of the forest, || That I have given to the fire for fuel, || So I have given the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

⁷ And I have set My face against them, || They have gone forth from the fire, || And the fire consumes them, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My setting My face against them.

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, and you have said,

³ Thus said Lord YHWH to Jerusalem: Your birth and your nativity || [Are] of the land of the Canaanite, || Your father the Amorite, and your mother a Hittite.

⁴ As for your nativity, in the day you were born, || Your navel has not been cut, || And you were not washed in water for ease, || And you have not been salted at all, || And you have not been swaddled at all.

⁵ No eye has had pity on you, to do any of these to you, || To have compassion on you, || And you are cast on the face of the field, || With loathing of your soul || In the day you were born!

⁶ And I pass over by you, || And I see you trodden down in your blood, || And I say to you in your blood, Live! Indeed, I say to you in your blood, Live!

⁷ I have made you a myriad as the shoot of the field, || And you are multiplied, and are great, || And come in with an excellent adornment,

|| Breasts have been formed, and your hair has grown—And you, naked and bare!

⁸ And I pass over by you, and I see you, || And behold, your time [is] a time of loves, || And I spread My skirt over you, || And I cover your nakedness, || And I swear to you, and come into a covenant with you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || And you become Mine.

⁹ And I wash you with water, || And I wash away your blood from off you, || And I anoint you with oil.

¹⁰ And I clothe you with embroidery, || And I shoe you with tachash [skin], || And I gird you with fine linen, || And I cover you with figured silk.

¹¹ And I adorn you with adornments, || And I give bracelets for your hands, || And a chain for your neck.

¹² And I give a ring for your nose, || And rings for your ears, || And a crown of beauty on your head.

¹³ And you put on gold and silver, || And your clothing [is] fine linen, || And figured silk and embroidery, || You have eaten fine flour, and honey, and oil, || And you are very, very beautiful, || And go prosperously to the kingdom.

¹⁴ And your name goes forth among nations, || Because of your beauty—for it [is] complete, || In My honor that I have set on you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁵ And you trust in your beauty, || And go whoring because of your renown, || And pour out your whoredoms on everyone passing by—to him [that would have] it.

¹⁶ And you take from your garments, || And make spotted high-places for yourself, || And go whoring on them, || They are not coming in—nor will it be!

¹⁷ And you take your beautiful vessels || Of My gold and My silver that I gave to you, || And make images of a male for yourself, || And go whoring with them,

¹⁸ And you take the garments of your embroidery, || And cover them, || And you have set My oil and My incense before them.

¹⁹ And My bread, that I gave to you, || Fine flour, and oil, and honey, that I caused you to eat. You have even set it before them, || For a refreshing fragrance—thus it is, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

²⁰ And you take your sons and your daughters whom you have born to Me, || And sacrifice them to them for food. Is it a little thing because of your whoredoms,

²¹ that you slaughter My sons, || And give them up in causing them to pass over to them?

²² And with all your abominations and your whoredoms, || You have not remembered the days of your youth, || When you were naked and bare, || You were trodden down in your blood!

²³ And it comes to pass, after all your wickedness || (Woe, woe, to you—a declaration of Lord YHWH),

²⁴ That you build an arch for yourself, || And make a high place for yourself in every broad place.

²⁵ At every head of the way you have built your high place, || And you make your beauty abominable, || And open wide your feet to everyone passing by, || And multiply your whoredoms,

²⁶ And go whoring to sons of Egypt, || Your neighbors—great of appetite!
And you multiply your whoredoms, || To provoke Me to anger.

²⁷ And behold, I have stretched out My hand against you, || And I diminish your portion, || And give you to the desire of those hating you,
|| The daughters of the Philistines, || Who are ashamed of your wicked way.

²⁸ And you go whoring to sons of Asshur, || Without your being satisfied,
|| And you go whoring with them, || And also—you have not been satisfied.

²⁹ And you multiply your whoredoms || On the land of Canaan—toward Chaldaea, || And even with this you have not been satisfied.

³⁰ How weak [is] your heart, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || In your doing all these, || The work of a domineering, whorish woman.

³² The wife who commits adultery—Under her husband—receives strangers.

³³ They give a gift to all whores, || And you have given your gifts to all your lovers, || And bribe them to come in to you, || From all around—in your whoredoms.

³⁴ And you are opposite from [other] women in your whoredoms, || That none go whoring after you; And in your giving a wage, || And a wage has not been given to you; Therefore you are the opposite.

³⁵ Therefore, O whore, hear a word of YHWH!

³⁶ Thus said Lord YHWH: Because of your bronze being poured forth, || And your nakedness is revealed in your whoredoms near your lovers, || And near all the idols of your abominations, || And according to the blood of your sons, || Whom you have given to them;

³⁷ Therefore, behold, I am assembling all your lovers, || To whom you have been sweet, || And all whom you have loved, || Besides all whom you have hated; And I have assembled them by you all around, || And have revealed your nakedness to them, || And they have seen all your nakedness.

³⁸ And I have judged you—judgments of adultresses, || And of women shedding blood, || And have given you blood, fury, and jealousy.

³⁹ And I have given you into their hand, || And they have thrown down your arch, || And they have broken down your high places, || And they have stripped you of your garments, || And they have taken your beautiful vessels, || And they have left you naked and bare.

⁴⁰ And have caused an assembly to come up against you, || And stoned you with stones, || And thrust you through with their swords,

⁴¹ And burned your houses with fire, || And done judgments in you before the eyes of many women, || And I have caused you to cease from going whoring, || And also, you no longer give a wage.

⁴² And I have caused My fury against you to rest, || And My jealousy has turned aside from you, || And I have been quiet, and I am not angry anymore.

⁴³ Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, || And give trouble to Me in all these, || Therefore I also—behold—I put your way on [your own] head, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || And you will not have done—have done this wickedness above all your abominations.

⁴⁴ Behold, everyone using the allegory against you, || Uses [this] allegory concerning [you], saying, || As the mother—her daughter!

⁴⁷ And you have not walked in their ways, || And done according to their abominations, || It has been loathed as a little thing, || Indeed, you do more corruptly than they in all your ways.

⁴⁸ [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || Your sister Sodom has not done—she and her daughters—As you have done—you and your daughters.

⁴⁹ Behold, this has been the iniquity of your sister Sodom, || Arrogancy, fullness of bread, and quiet ease, || Have been to her and to her daughters, || And the hand of the afflicted and needy || She has not strengthened.

⁵⁰ And they are haughty and do abomination before Me, || And I turn them aside when I have seen.

⁵¹ And Samaria has not sinned even half of your sins, || But you multiply your abominations more than they, || And justify your sisters by all your abominations that you have done.

⁵² You also—bear your shame, || That you have adjudged for your sisters, || Because of your sins that you have done more abominably than they, || They are more righteous than you, || And you, also, be ashamed and bear your shame, || In your justifying your sisters.

⁵⁴ So that you bear your shame, || And have been ashamed of all that you have done, || In your comforting them.

⁵⁵ And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, || Return to their former state, || And Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, || And you and your daughters return to your former state.

⁵⁶ And your sister Sodom has not been for a report in your mouth, || In the day of your arrogance,

⁵⁷ Before your wickedness is revealed, || As [at] the time of the reproach of the daughters of Aram, || And of all her neighbors, the daughters of the Philistines, || Who are despising you all around.

⁵⁸ Your wicked plans and your abominations, || You have borne them, a declaration of YHWH.

⁵⁹ For thus said Lord YHWH: I have dealt with you as you have done, || In that you have despised an oath—to break covenant.

⁶⁰ And I have remembered My covenant with you, || In the days of your youth, || And I have established a perpetual covenant for you.

⁶¹ And you have remembered your ways, || And you have been ashamed, || In your receiving your sisters—Your older with your younger,

|| And I have given them to you for daughters, || And not by your covenant.

⁶² And I have established My covenant with you, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁶³ So that you remember, || And you have been ashamed, || And there is not an opening of the mouth to you anymore because of your shame, || In My receiving atonement for you, || For all that you have done, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!"

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² "Son of man, put forth a riddle, and use an allegory to the house of Israel,

³ and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: The great eagle, great-winged, long-pinioned, || Full of feathers, that has diverse colors, || Has come to Lebanon, || And he takes the foliage of the cedar,

⁴ He has cropped the top of its tender twigs, || And he brings it to the land of Canaan. He has placed it in a city of merchants.

⁵ And he takes of the seed of the land, || And puts it in a field of seed, || He took [it] by many waters, || He has set it in a conspicuous place.

⁷ And there is another great eagle, || Great-winged, and abounding with feathers, || And behold, this vine has bent its roots toward him, || And it has sent out its thin shoots toward him, || To water it from the furrows of its planting,

⁸ On a good field, by many waters, it is planted, to make branches, and to bear fruit, to be for a good vine.

⁹ Say, Thus said Lord YHWH: It prospers—does he not draw out its roots, || And cut off its fruit, and it is withered? [In] all the leaves of its springing it withers, || And not by great strength, or by numerous people, || To lift it up by its roots.

¹⁰ And behold, the planted thing—does it prosper? When the east wind comes against it, does it not utterly wither? On the furrows of its springing it withers."

¹¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹² "Now say to the house of rebellion, || Have you not known what these [are]? Say, Behold, the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem, || And he takes its king, and its princes, || And brings them to himself to Babylon.

¹³ And he takes of the seed of the kingdom, || And makes a covenant with him, || And brings him into an oath, || And he has taken the mighty of the land,

¹⁴ That the kingdom may be humble, || That it may not lift itself up, || To keep his covenant—that it may stand.

¹⁵ And he rebels against him, || To send his messengers to Egypt, || To give to him horses, and many people, || Does he prosper? Does he who is doing these things escape? And has he broken covenant and escaped?

¹⁶ [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || Does he not—in the place of the king who is causing him to reign, || Whose oath he has despised, || And whose covenant he has broken—die with him in the midst of Babylon?

¹⁷ And not with a great force, and with a numerous assembly, || Does Pharaoh maintain him in battle, || By pouring out a mound, and in building a fortification, || To cut off many souls.

¹⁸ And he despised the oath—to break covenant, || And behold, he has given his hand, || And all these he has done—he does not escape.

¹⁹ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: [As] I live—My oath that he has despised, || And My covenant that he has broken, || Have I not put it on his head?

²⁰ And I have spread out My snare for him, || And he has been caught in My net, || And I have brought him to Babylon, || And judged him there [for the] trespass || That he has trespassed against Me.

²¹ And all his fugitives, with all his bands, || Fall by sword, and those remaining, || They are spread out to every wind, || And you have known that I, YHWH, have spoken.

²² Thus said Lord YHWH: I have taken of the foliage of the high cedar, || And I have set [it], || I crop a tender one from the top of its tender shoots, || And I have planted [it] on a high and lofty mountain.

²³ In a mountain—the high place of Israel, I plant it, || And it has borne boughs, and yielded fruit, || And become a good cedar, || And every bird of every [kind of] wing has dwelt under it, || They dwell in the shade of its thin shoots.

²⁴ And all trees of the field have known || That I, YHWH, have made the high tree low, || I have set the low tree on high, || I have dried up the moist tree, || And I have caused the dry tree to flourish, || I, YHWH, have spoken, and have done [it]!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “What [is it] to you [that] you are using this allegory || Concerning the ground of Israel, saying, || Fathers eat unripe fruit, || And the sons’ teeth are blunted?

³ [As] I live,” a declaration of Lord YHWH, “You no longer have the use of this allegory in Israel.

⁴ Behold, all the souls are Mine, || As the soul of the father, || So also the soul of the son—they are Mine, || The soul that is sinning—it dies.

⁵ And a man, when he is righteous, || And has done judgment and righteousness,

⁶ He has not eaten on the mountains, || And has not lifted up his eyes || To idols of the house of Israel, || And did not defile his neighbor’s wife, || And did not come near to a separated woman,

⁷ He does not oppress a man, || He returns his pledge to the debtor, || He does not take away plunder, || He gives his bread to the hungry, || And covers the naked with a garment,

⁸ He does not give in usury, and does not take increase, || He turns back his hand from perversity, || He does true judgment between man and man.

⁹ He walks in My statutes, || And he has kept My judgments—to deal truly, || He [is] righteous—he surely lives,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁰ “And he has begotten a son, || A burglar—a shedder of blood, || And he has made a brother of one of these,

¹¹ And he has not done all those, || For he has even eaten on the mountains, || And he has defiled his neighbor’s wife,

¹² He has oppressed the afflicted and needy, || He has taken away plunder violently, || He does not return a pledge, || And he has lifted up his eyes to the idols, || He has done abomination!

¹³ He has given in usury, and taken increase, || And he lives? He does not live, || He has done all these abominations, || He surely dies, his blood is on him.

¹⁴ And—behold, he has begotten a son, || And he sees all the sins of his father, || That he has done, and he fears, || And does not do like them,

¹⁵ He has not eaten on the mountains, || And he has not lifted up his eyes || To idols of the house of Israel, || He has not defiled his neighbor’s wife,

¹⁶ He has not oppressed a man, || He has not bound a pledge, || And he has not taken away plunder, || He has given his bread to the hungry, || And he covered the naked with a garment,

¹⁷ He has turned back his hand from the afflicted, || He has not taken usury and increase, || He has done My judgments, || He has walked in My statutes, || He does not die for the iniquity of his father, || He surely lives.

¹⁸ His father—because he used oppression, || Violently plundered a brother, || And did that which [is] not good in the midst of his people, || And behold, he is dying in his iniquity.

¹⁹ And you have said, Why has the son not borne of the iniquity of the father? And the son has done judgment and righteousness, || He has kept all My statutes, || And he does them, he surely lives.

²⁰ The soul that sins—it dies. A son does not bear of the iniquity of the father, || And a father does not bear of the iniquity of the son, || The righteousness of the righteous is on him, || And the wickedness of the wicked is on him.

²¹ And the wicked—when he turns back || From all his sins that he has done, || And he has kept all My statutes, || And has done judgment and righteousness, || He surely lives, he does not die.

²² All his transgressions that he has done || Are not remembered to him, || In his righteousness that he has done he lives.

²³ Do I take pleasure [or] delight in the death of the wicked?” A declaration of Lord YHWH, “Is it not in his turning back from his way—And he has lived?

²⁴ And in the turning back of the righteous from his righteousness, || And he has done perversity, || According to all the abominations || That the wicked has done, || Does he then live? All his righteous deeds that he has done are not remembered, || For his trespass that he has trespassed, || And for his sin that he has sinned, || For them he dies.

²⁵ And you have said, The way of the Lord is not pondered. Now hear, O house of Israel, || My way—is it not pondered? Are not your ways unpondered?

²⁶ In the turning back of the righteous from his righteousness, || And he has done perversity, || And he is dying by them, || He dies for his perversity that he has done.

²⁸ And he sees and turns back, || From all his transgressions that he has done, || He surely lives, he does not die,

²⁹ And the house of Israel has said, The way of the Lord is not pondered, || My ways—are they not pondered? O house of Israel—are not your ways unpondered?

³⁰ Therefore, I judge each according to his ways, || O house of Israel,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || “Turn back, indeed, turn yourselves back, || From all your transgressions, || And iniquity is not for a stumbling-block to you,

³¹ Cast away all your transgressions from over you, || By which you have transgressed, || And make a new heart and a new spirit for yourselves, || And why do you die, || O house of Israel?

¹ “And you, lift up a lamentation to princes of Israel,

² and you have said: What [is] your mother? A lioness, || She has crouched down among lions, || She has multiplied her whelps in the midst of young lions.

³ And she brings up one of her whelps, || He has been a young lion, || And he learns to tear prey, || He has devoured man.

⁴ And nations hear of him, || He has been caught in their pit, || And they bring him to the land of Egypt in chains.

⁵ And as she waited she sees that her hope has perished, || And she takes one of her whelps, || She has made him a young lion.

⁶ And he goes up and down in the midst of lions, || He has been a young lion, || And he learns to tear prey, || He has devoured man.

⁸ And surrounding nations set against him from the provinces. And they spread out their net for him, || He has been caught in their pit.

⁹ And they put him in prison—in chains, || And they bring him to the king of Babylon, || They bring him into bulwarks, || So that his voice is not heard || On mountains of Israel anymore.

¹¹ And she has strong rods for scepters of rulers, || And she is high in stature above—between thick branches, || And it appears in its height || In the multitude of its thin shoots.

¹² And she is plucked up in fury, || She has been cast to the earth, || And the east wind has dried up her fruit, || [The] rod of her strength has been broken and withered, || Fire has consumed it.

¹³ And now she is planted in a wilderness, || In a dry and thirsty land.

¹ And it comes to pass, in the seventh year, in the fifth [month], on the tenth of the month, men from [the] elderly of Israel have come in to seek YHWH, and they sit before me;

² and there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

³ “Son of man, speak to the elderly of Israel, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Are you coming in to seek Me? [As] I live—I am not sought by you—a declaration of Lord YHWH.

⁴ Do you judge them? Do you judge, son of man? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers,

⁵ and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: In the day of My fixing on Israel, || I lift up My hand, || To the seed of the house of Jacob, || And am known to them in the land of Egypt, || And I lift up My hand to them, || Saying, I [am] your God YHWH.

⁶ In that day I lifted up My hand to them, || To bring them forth from the land of Egypt, || To a land that I spied out for them, || Flowing with milk and honey, || It [is] a beauty to all the lands,

⁷ And I say to them, Let each cast away the detestable things of his eyes, || And do not be defiled with the idols of Egypt, || I [am] your God YHWH.

⁸ And they rebel against Me, || And have not been willing to listen to Me, || Each has not cast away the detestable things of their eyes, || And have not forsaken the idols of Egypt, || And I speak—to pour out My fury on them, || To complete My anger against them, || In the midst of the land of Egypt.

⁹ And I do [it] for My Name’s sake, || Not to defile [it] before the eyes of the nations, || In whose midst they [are in], || Before whose eyes I became known to them, || To bring them out from the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ And I bring them out of the land of Egypt, || And I bring them into the wilderness,

¹¹ And I give My statutes to them, || And I caused them to know My judgments, || Which the man who does—lives by them.

¹² And I have also given My Sabbaths to them, || To be for a sign between Me and them, || To know that I [am] YHWH who is sanctifying them.

¹³ And the house of Israel rebels against Me in the wilderness, || They have not walked in My statutes, || And they have despised My judgments, || Which the man who does—lives by them. And they have greatly defiled My Sabbaths, || And I speak—to pour out My fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them.

¹⁴ And I do [it] for My Name’s sake, || Not to defile [it] before the eyes of the nations, || Before whose eyes I brought them forth.

¹⁵ And also, I have lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, || Not to bring them into the land that I had given, || Flowing with milk and honey, || It [is] a beauty to all the lands,

16 Because they kicked against My judgments, || And they have not walked in My statutes, || And they have defiled My Sabbaths, || For their heart is going after their idols.

17 And My eye has pity on them—against destroying them, || And I have not made an end of them in the wilderness.

18 And I say to their sons in the wilderness: Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, || And do not observe their judgments, || And do not defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I [am] your God YHWH, walk in My statutes, || And observe My judgments, and do them,

20 And sanctify My Sabbaths, || And they have been for a sign between Me and you, || To know that I [am] your God YHWH.

21 And the sons rebel against Me, || They have not walked in My statutes, || And they have not observed My judgments—to do them, || Which the man who does—lives by them. They have defiled My Sabbaths, || And I speak—to pour out My fury on them, || To complete My anger against them in the wilderness.

22 And I have turned back My hand, || And I do [it] for My Name's sake, || Not to defile [it] before the eyes of the nations, || Before whose eyes I brought them out.

23 I also, I have lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, || To scatter them among nations, || And to spread them through lands.

24 Because they have not done My judgments, || And they have despised My statutes, || And they have defiled My Sabbaths, || And their eyes have been after [the] idols of their fathers.

25 And I also, I have given statutes to them [that are] not good, || And judgments by which they do not live.

26 And I defile them by their own gifts, || By causing every opener of a womb to pass away, || So that I make them desolate, || So that they know that I [am] YHWH.

27 Therefore, speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Still in this your fathers have reviled Me, || In their committing a trespass against Me.

28 And I bring them into the land, || That I lifted up My hand to give to them, || And they see every high hill, and every thick tree, || And they sacrifice their sacrifices there, || And give the provocation of their offering there, || And make their refreshing fragrance there, || And they pour out their drink-offerings there.

29 And I say to them: What [is] the high place to where you are going in?" And its name is called "High Place" to this day.

30 "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, Thus said Lord YHWH: Are you defiling yourselves in the way of your fathers? And do you go whoring after their detestable things?

31 And in the offering of your gifts, || In causing your sons to pass through fire, || You are defiled by all your idols to this day, || And I am sought by you, O house of Israel? [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, I am not sought by you.

32 And that which is going up on your mind, || It is not at all—in that you are saying: We will be as the nations, as the families of the lands, || To serve wood and stone.

³³ [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || Do I not, with a strong hand, || And with an outstretched arm, || And with poured out fury—rule over you?

³⁴ And I have brought you forth from the peoples, || And assembled you from the lands || In which you have been scattered, || With a strong hand and with an outstretched arm, || And with poured out fury.

³⁵ And I have brought you into the wilderness of the peoples, || And have been judged with you there face to face.

³⁶ As I was judged with your fathers, || In the wilderness of the land of Egypt, || So I am judged with you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

³⁷ And I have caused you to pass under the rod, || And brought you into the bond of the covenant,

³⁸ And cleared out the rebels from you, || And those transgressing against Me, || I bring them out from the land of their sojournings, || And they do not come to the land of Israel, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

³⁹ And you, O house of Israel, thus said Lord YHWH: Each go, serve his idols, || And afterward, if you are not listening to Me [anyway], || But you do not defile My holy Name anymore by your gifts, and by your idols.

⁴⁰ For on My holy mountain, || On the mountain of the height of Israel, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || All the house of Israel serves Me there, || All of it, in the land—I accept them there, || And I seek your raised-offerings there, || And with the first-fruit of your gifts, || With all your holy things.

⁴² And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My bringing you to the ground of Israel, || To the land that I lifted up My hand || To give it to your fathers,

⁴³ And you have remembered your ways there, || And all your doings, || In which you have been defiled, || And you have been loathsome in your own faces, || For all your evils that you have done.

⁴⁴ And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My dealing with you for My Name's sake, || Not according to your evil ways, || And according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, || A declaration of Lord YHWH."

⁴⁵ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁴⁶ "Son of man, set your face the way of Teman, and prophesy to the south, and prophesy to the forest of the field—the south;

⁴⁷ and you have said to the forest of the south, Hear a word of YHWH! Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am kindling a fire in you, || And it has devoured every moist tree in you, and every dry tree, || The glowing flames are not quenched, || And all faces from south to north have been burned by it.

⁴⁸ And all flesh has seen, that I, YHWH, have kindled it—it is not quenched."

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and prophesy to the holy places, and prophesy to the ground of Israel;

³ and you have said to the ground of Israel, Thus said YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, || And have brought out My sword from its scabbard, || And have cut off righteous and wicked from you.

⁴ Because that I have cut off righteous and wicked from you, || Therefore My sword goes out from its scabbard, || To all flesh, from south to north.

⁶ And you, son of man, sigh with breaking of loins, indeed, sigh before their eyes with bitterness,

⁷ and it has come to pass, when they say to you, Why are you sighing? That you have said: Because of the report, for it is coming, || And every heart has melted, || And all hands have been feeble, || And every spirit is weak, || And all knees go [as] waters, || Behold, it is coming, indeed, it has been, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.”

⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁹ “Son of man, prophesy, and you have said, Thus said YHWH: Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also polished.

¹⁰ It is sharpened so as to slaughter a slaughter. It is polished so as to have brightness, || Or do we rejoice? It is despising the scepter of My son [as] every tree.

¹¹ And He gives it for polishing, || For laying hold of by the hand. It is sharpened—the sword—and polished, || To give it into the hand of a slayer.

¹² Cry and howl, son of man, || For it has been among My people, || It [is] among all the princes of Israel, || My people have been cast to the sword. Therefore strike on your thigh,

¹³ Because [it is] a trier, || And what if it is even despising the scepter? It will not be, a declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁴ And you, son of man, prophesy, || And strike hand on hand, || And the sword is bent a third time, || The sword of the wounded! It [is] the sword of the wounded—the great one, || That is entering the inner chamber to them.

¹⁵ To melt the heart, and to multiply the ruins, || I have set the point of a sword by all their gates. Aah! It is made for brightness, || Wrapped up for slaughter.

¹⁷ And I also, I strike My hand on My hand, || And have caused My fury to rest; I, YHWH, have spoken.”

¹⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²⁰ Appoint a way for the coming of the sword, || To Rabbath of the sons of Ammon, || And to Judah, in fortified Jerusalem.

²¹ For the king of Babylon has stood at the head of the way, || At the top of the two ways, to use divination, || He has moved lightly with the arrows, || He has inquired of the teraphim, || He has looked on the liver.

²³ And it has been to them as a false divination in their eyes, || Who have sworn oaths to them, || But he is causing iniquity to be remembered [so they] are caught.

²⁴ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because of your causing your iniquity to be remembered, || In your transgressions being revealed, || For your sins being seen, in all your doings, || Because of your being remembered, || You are caught by the hand.

²⁵ And you, wounded, wicked one, || Prince of Israel, whose day has come, || In the time of the iniquity of the end,

²⁶ Thus said Lord YHWH: Turn aside the turban, and carry away the crown, || This—not this—make high the low, || And make low the high.

²⁷ An overturn, overturn, overturn, I make it, || Also this has not been until the coming of Him, || Whose [is] the judgment, and I have given it.

²⁸ And you, son of man, prophesy, and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH concerning the sons of Ammon, and concerning their reproach, and you have said: A sword, a sword, open for slaughter, || Polished to the utmost for brightness!

²⁹ In seeing a vain thing for you, || In divining a lie for you, || To put you on the necks of the wounded of the wicked, whose day has come, || In the time of the iniquity of the end.

³⁰ Turn [it] back to its scabbard; I judge you || In the place where you were produced, || In the land of your birth.

³¹ And I have poured My indignation on you, || I blow against you with [the] fire of My wrath, || And have given you into the hand of brutish men—craftsmen of destruction.

³² You are fuel for the fire, || Your blood is in the midst of the land, || You are not remembered, || For I, YHWH, have spoken!"

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² "And you, son of man, do you judge? Do you judge the city of blood? Then you have caused it to know all its abominations,

³ and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: The city is shedding blood in its midst, || For the coming in of its time, || And it has made idols on it for defilement.

⁴ You have been guilty by your blood that you have shed, || And you have been defiled by your idols that you have made, || And you cause your days to draw near, || And have come to your years, || Therefore I have given you [for] a reproach to nations, || And a derision to all the lands.

⁵ The near and the far-off from you scoff at you, || O defiled of name—abounding in trouble.

⁶ Behold, princes of Israel—each according to his arm || Have been in you to shed blood.

⁷ They have made light of father and mother in you, || They dealt oppressively to a sojourner in your midst, || They oppressed fatherless and widow in you.

⁸ You have despised My holy things, || And you have defiled My Sabbaths.

⁹ Men of slander have been in you to shed blood, || And they have eaten on the mountains in you, || They have done wickedness in your midst.

¹⁰ One has uncovered the nakedness of a father in you, || They humbled the menstruous woman in you.

¹¹ And each has done abomination with the wife of his neighbor, || And each has defiled his daughter-in-law through wickedness, || And each has humbled his sister, his father's daughter, in you.

¹² They have taken a bribe to shed blood in you, || You have taken usury and increase, || And cut off your neighbor by oppression, || And you have forgotten Me, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!

¹³ And behold, I have struck My hand, || Because of your dishonest gain that you have gained, || And for your blood that has been in your midst.

¹⁴ Does your heart stand—are your hands strong, || For the days that I am dealing with you? I, YHWH, have spoken and have done [it].

¹⁵ And I have scattered you among nations, || And have spread you out among lands, || And consumed your uncleanness out of you.

¹⁶ And you have been defiled in yourself || Before the eyes of nations, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.”

¹⁷ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁸ “Son of man, the house of Israel has been for dross to Me, || All of them [are] bronze, and tin, and iron, and lead, || In the midst of a furnace—silver has been dross,

¹⁹ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because you have all become dross, || Therefore, behold, I am gathering you into the midst of Jerusalem,

²⁰ A gathering of silver, and bronze, and iron, and lead, and tin, || Into the midst of a furnace—to blow fire on it, to melt it, || So I gather in My anger and in My fury, || And I have let rest, and have melted you.

²¹ And I have heaped you up, || And blown on you in the fire of My wrath, || And you have been melted in its midst.

²² As the melting of silver in the midst of a furnace, || So you are melted in its midst, || And you have known that I, YHWH, have poured out My fury on you.”

²³ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²⁴ “Son of man, say to it, You [are] a land, || It [is] not cleansed nor rained on in a day of indignation.

²⁵ A conspiracy of its prophets [is] in its midst, || As a roaring lion tearing prey; They have devoured the soul, || They have taken wealth and glory, || Its widows have multiplied in its midst.

²⁶ Its priests have wronged My law, || And they defile My holy things, || They have not made separation between holy and common, || And they have not made known [the difference] between the unclean and the clean, || And they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, || And I am pierced in their midst.

²⁷ Its princes [are] as wolves in its midst, || Tearing prey, to shed blood, to destroy souls, || For the sake of gaining dishonest gain.

²⁸ And its prophets have coated with chalk for them, || Seeing a vain thing, and divining a lie for them, || Saying, Thus said Lord YHWH, || And YHWH has not spoken.

²⁹ The people of the land have used oppression, || And have taken plunder away violently, || And have oppressed humble and needy, || And oppressed the sojourner without judgment.

³¹ And I pour out My indignation on them, || I have consumed them by [the] fire of My wrath, || I have put their way on their own head, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying, “Son of man,

² Two women were daughters of one mother,

³ And they go whoring in Egypt, || They have gone whoring in their youth, || There they have bruised their breasts, || And there they have dealt with the loves of their virginity.

⁵ And Aholah goes whoring under Me, and she lusts on her lovers, on the neighboring Assyrians,

⁶ Clothed with blue—governors and prefects, || All of them desirable young men, || Horsemen, riding on horses,

⁷ And she gives her whoredoms on them, || The choice of the sons of Asshur, || All of them—even all on whom she lusted, || She has been defiled by all their idols.

⁹ Therefore I have given her into the hand of her lovers, || Into the hand of sons of Asshur on whom she lusted.

¹¹ And her sister Aholibah sees, || And she makes her unhealthy love more corrupt than she, || And her whoredoms than the whoredoms of her sister.

¹² She has lusted on sons of Asshur, || Governors and prefects, || Neighboring ones—clothed in perfection, || Horsemen, riding on horses, || All of them desirable young men.

¹³ And I see that she has been defiled, || One way [is] to them both.

¹⁴ And she adds to her whoredoms, || And she sees men carved on the wall, || Pictures of Chaldeans, carved with vermillion,

¹⁶ And she lusts on them at the sight of her eyes, || And sends messengers to them, to Chaldea.

¹⁷ And sons of Babylon come in to her, || To the bed of loves, || And they defile her with their whoredoms, || And she is defiled with them, || And her soul is alienated from them.

¹⁸ And she reveals her whoredoms, || And she reveals her nakedness, || And My soul is alienated from off her, || As My soul was alienated from off her sister.

¹⁹ And she multiplies her whoredoms, || To remember the days of her youth, || When she went whoring in the land of Egypt.

²⁰ And she lusts on their lovers, || Whose flesh [is] the flesh of donkeys, || And the emission of horses—their emission.

²¹ You look after the wickedness of your youth, || In dealing out of Egypt your loves, || For the sake of the breasts of your youth.

²² Therefore, O Aholibah, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am stirring up your lovers against you, || From whom your soul has been alienated, || And have brought them in against you from all around.

²³ Sons of Babylon, and of all Chaldea, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, || All the sons of Asshur with them, || Desirable young men, governors and prefects, || All of them—rulers and proclaimed ones, || All of them riding on horses.

²⁴ And they have come in against you, || With arms, rider, and wheel, || And with an assembly of peoples; Buckler, and shield, and helmet, || They set against you all around, || And I have set judgment before them, || They have judged you in their judgments.

²⁵ And I have set My jealousy against you, || And they have dealt with you in fury, || They turn aside your nose and your ears, || And your posterity falls by sword, || They take away your sons and your daughters, || And your posterity is devoured by fire.

²⁶ And they have stripped you of your garments, || And have taken your beautiful jewels.

²⁷ And I have caused your wickedness to cease from you, || And your whoredoms out of the land of Egypt, || And you do not lift up your eyes to them, || And you do not remember Egypt again.

²⁸ For thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am giving you into a hand that you have hated, || Into a hand from which you were alienated.

²⁹ And they have dealt with you in hatred, || And they have taken all your labor, || And they have left you naked and bare, || And the nakedness of your whoredoms has been revealed, || And the wickedness of your whoredoms.

³⁰ To do these things to you, || In your going whoring after nations, || Because you have been defiled with their idols,

³¹ You have walked in the way of your sister, || And I have given her cup into your hand.

³² Thus said Lord YHWH: You drink the cup of your sister, || The deep and the wide one || (You are for laughter and for scorn), || Abundant to contain.

³³ You are filled with drunkenness and sorrow, || A cup of astonishment and desolation, || The cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ And you have drunk it, and have drained [it], || And you gnaw its earthen ware, || And you pluck off your own breasts, || For I have spoken, || A declaration of Lord YHWH,

³⁵ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because you have forgotten Me, || And you cast Me behind your back, || Even you also bear your wickedness and your whoredoms.”

³⁶ And YHWH says to me, “Son of man, || Do you judge Aholah and Aholibah? Then declare their abominations to them.

³⁷ For they have committed adultery, || And blood [is] in their hands, || They committed adultery with their idols, || And also their sons whom they bore to Me, || They caused to pass over to them for food.

³⁸ Again, they have done this to Me, || They defiled My sanctuary in that day, || And they have defiled My Sabbaths.

³⁹ And in their slaughtering their sons to their idols || They also come into My sanctuary in that day to defile it, || And behold, thus they have done in the midst of My house,

⁴⁰ And also that they send to men coming from afar, || To whom a messenger is sent, || And behold, they have come in for whom you have washed, || Painted your eyes, and put on adornment.

⁴¹ And you have sat on a couch of honor, || And a table arrayed before it, || And placed My incense and My oil on it.

⁴³ And I say of the worn-out one in adulteries, || Now they commit her whoredoms—she also!

⁴⁴ And they come in to her, || As the coming in to a whorish woman, || So they have come in to Aholah, || And to Aholibah—the wicked women.

⁴⁶ For thus said Lord YHWH: Bring up an assembly against them, || And give them to trembling and to spoiling.

⁴⁷ And they have cast the stone of the assembly at them, || And cut them with their swords, || They slay their sons and their daughters, || And they burn their houses with fire.

⁴⁸ And I have caused wickedness to cease from the land, || And all the women have been instructed, || And they do not do according to your wickedness.

⁴⁹ And they have put your wickedness on you, || And you bear the sins of your idols, || And you have known that I [am] Lord YHWH!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying,

² “Son of man, write! Write the name of the day for yourself, this very day; the king of Babylon has leaned toward Jerusalem in this very day.

³ And use an allegory toward the house of rebellion, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: To set on the pot, to set [it] on, and also to pour water into it,

⁴ To gather its pieces to it, every good piece, || Thigh and shoulder, to fill in the choice of the bones.

⁵ To take the choice of the flock, || And also to pile the bones under it, || Boil it thoroughly, indeed, cook its bones in its midst.

⁶ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Woe [to] the city of blood, || A pot whose scum [is] in it, || And its scum has not come out of it, || By piece of it, by piece of it bring it out, a lot has not fallen on it.

⁷ For her blood has been in her midst, || She has set it on a clear place of a rock, || She has not poured it on the earth, || To cover it over with dust.

⁸ To cause fury to come up to take vengeance, || I have put her blood on a clear place of a rock—not to be covered.

⁹ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Woe [to] the city of blood, indeed, I make the pile great.

¹⁰ Make the wood abundant, || Kindle the fire, consume the flesh, || And make the compound, || And let the bones be burned.

¹¹ And cause it to stand empty on its coals, || So that its bronze is hot and burning, || Its uncleanness has been melted in its midst, || Its scum is consumed.

¹² She has wearied herself [with] sorrows, || And the abundance of her scum does not go out of her, || Her scum [is] in the fire.

¹³ Wickedness [is] in your uncleanness, || Because I have cleansed you, || And you have not been cleansed, || You are not cleansed from your uncleanness again, || Until I have caused My fury to rest on you.

¹⁴ I, YHWH, have spoken, || It has come, and I have done [it], || I do not free, nor do I spare, nor do I regret, || According to your ways, and according to your acts, || They have judged you, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.”

¹⁵ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁶ “Son of man, behold, I am taking the desire of your eyes from you by a stroke, and you do not mourn, nor weep, nor let your tear come.

¹⁸ And I speak to the people in the morning, and my wife dies in the evening, and I do in the morning as I have been commanded.

¹⁹ And the people say to me, “Do you not declare to us what these [are] to us, that you are doing?”

²⁰ And I say to them, “A word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

²¹ Say to the house of Israel, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am defiling My sanctuary, || The excellence of your strength, || The desire of your eyes, and the pitied of your soul, || And your sons and your daughters whom you have left, fall by sword.

²² And you have done as I have done, || You have not covered over the upper lip, || And you do not eat [the] bread of men.

²³ And your headdresses [are] on your heads, || And your shoes [are] on your feet, || You do not mourn nor do you weep, || And you have wasted away for your iniquities, || And you have howled to one another.

²⁴ And Ezekiel has been for a type to you; according to all that he has done you do. In its coming in—you have known that I [am] Lord YHWH.”

²⁶ In that day the escaped one comes to you to cause the ears to hear.

²⁷ In that day your mouth is opened with the escaped and you speak, and are not silent anymore, and you have been for a type to them, and they have known that I [am] YHWH.”

25

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon, and prophesy against them;

³ and you have said to the sons of Ammon: Hear a word of Lord YHWH! Thus said Lord YHWH: Because of your saying, Aha, to My sanctuary, || Because it has been defiled, || And to the ground of Israel, || Because it has been desolate, || And to the house of Judah, || Because they have gone into a removal:

⁵ And I have given Rabbah for a habitation of camels, || And the sons of Ammon for the crouching of a flock, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁶ For thus said Lord YHWH: Because of your clapping the hand, || And of your stamping with the foot, || And you rejoice with all your despite in soul || Against the ground of Israel,

⁷ Therefore, behold, I have stretched out My hand against you, || And have given you for a portion to nations, || And I have cut you off from the peoples, || And caused you to perish from the lands; I destroy you, and you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁸ Thus said Lord YHWH: Because of the saying of Moab and Seir: Behold, the house of Judah [is] as all the nations;

⁹ Therefore, behold, I am opening the shoulder of Moab—From the cities—from his cities—from his frontier, || The beauty of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Ba'al-Meon, and Kiriathaim,

¹⁰ To the sons of the east, with the sons of Ammon, || And I have given it for a possession, || So that the sons of Ammon are not remembered among nations.

¹¹ And I do judgments in Moab, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH.

¹² Thus said Lord YHWH: Because of the doings of Edom, || In taking vengeance on the house of Judah, || Indeed, they are very guilty, || And they have taken vengeance on them.

14 And I have given My vengeance on Edom, || By the hand of My people Israel, || And they have done in Edom, || According to My anger, and according to My fury, || And they have known My vengeance, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

15 Thus said Lord YHWH: Because of the doings of the Philistines in vengeance, || And they take vengeance with despite in soul, || Destruction [with] continuous enmity,

16 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am stretching out My hand against the Philistines, || And I have cut off the Cherethim, || And destroyed the remnant of the haven of the sea,

17 And done great vengeance on them with furious reproofs, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My giving out My vengeance on them!”

1 And it comes to pass, in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, there has been a word of YHWH to me, saying, “Son of man,

2 Because that Tyre has said of Jerusalem: Aha, she has been broken, || The doors of the peoples, || She has turned around to me, || I am filled—she has been laid waste,

3 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, O Tyre, || And have caused many nations to come up against you, || As the sea causes its billows to come up.

4 And they have destroyed the walls of Tyre, || And they have broken down her towers, || And I have scraped her dust from her, || And made her for a clear place of a rock.

5 She is a spreading place of nets in the midst of the sea, || For I have spoken,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || “And she has been for a spoil to nations.

6 And her daughters who [are] in the field, are slain by sword, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH,”

7 For thus said Lord YHWH: “Behold, I am bringing Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Tyre, || From the north—a king of kings, || With horse, and with chariot, and with horsemen, || Even an assembly, and a numerous people.

8 He slays your daughters in the field by sword, || And he has made a fort against you, || And has poured out a mound against you, || And has raised a buckler against you.

9 And he places a battering-ram before him against your walls, || And he breaks your towers with his weapons.

10 From the abundance of his horses their dust cover you, || From the noise of horseman, and wheel, and rider, || Your walls shake, in his coming into your gates, || As the coming into a city that has been broken-up.

11 He treads all your out-places with [the] hooves of his horses, || He slays your people by sword, || And the pillars of your strength come down to the earth.

12 And they have spoiled your wealth, || And they have plundered your merchandise, || And they have thrown down your walls, || And they break down your desirable houses, || And your stones, and your wood, and your dust, || They place in the midst of the waters.

13 And I have caused the noise of your songs to cease, || And the voice of your harps is heard no more.

14 And I have given you up for a clear place of a rock, || You are a spreading-place of nets, || You are not built up anymore, || For I, YHWH, have spoken," || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

15 Thus said Lord YHWH to Tyre: "Do not—from the noise of your fall, || In the groaning of the wounded, || In the slaying of the slaughter in your midst—The islands shake?

16 And all princes of the sea have come down from off their thrones, || And they have turned their robes aside, || And strip off their embroidered garments, || They put on trembling, || They sit on the earth, || And they have trembled every moment, || And they have been astonished at you,

17 And have lifted up a lamentation for you, || And said to you: How you have perished, || That are inhabited from the seas, || The praised city, that was strong in the sea, || She and her inhabitants, || Who put their terror on all her inhabitants!

18 Now the islands tremble [on the] day of your fall; The islands that [are] in the sea have been troubled at your outgoing."

19 For thus said Lord YHWH: "In My making you a city dried up, || Like cities that have not been inhabited, || In bringing up the deep against you, || Then the great waters have covered you.

20 And I have caused you to go down, || With those going down to the pit, || To the people of old, || And I have caused you to dwell || In the lower parts of the earth—in ancient ruins, || With those going down to the pit, || So that you are not inhabited, || And I have given beauty in the land of the living.

21 I make you a terror; and you are not, || And you are sought, and are not found anymore—for all time," || A declaration of Lord YHWH!

1 And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

2 "And you, son of man, lift up a lamentation concerning Tyre, and you have said to Tyre:

3 O dweller on the entrances of the sea, || Merchant of the peoples to many islands, Thus said Lord YHWH: O Tyre, you have said, || I [am] the perfection of beauty.

4 Your borders [are] in the heart of the seas, || Your builders have perfected your beauty.

5 They have built of firs from Senir all your double-boarded ships for you, || They have taken of cedars from Lebanon to make a mast for you,

6 They made your oars of oaks from Bashan, || They have made your bench of ivory, || A branch of Ashurim from islands of Chittim.

7 Your sail has been of fine linen with embroidery from Egypt, || To be for your ensign, || Your covering has been of blue and purple from islands of Elishah.

8 Inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad have been rowers for you, || Your wise men, O Tyre, have been in you, || They [are] your pilots.

9 The elderly of Gebal and its wise men have been in you, || Strengthening your breach; All ships of the sea and their mariners, || Have been in you, to trade your merchandise.

¹⁰ Persia and Lud and Phut || Have been in your forces—your men of war. They hung up shield and helmet in you, || They have given out your honor.

¹¹ The sons of Arvad, and your force, || [Are] on your walls all around, || And short swordsmen have been in your towers, || They have hung up their shields on your walls all around, || They have perfected your beauty.

¹² Tarshish [is] your merchant, || Because of the abundance of all wealth, || They have given silver, iron, tin, and lead [for] your wares.

¹³ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech—they [are] your merchants, || They have given [the] soul of man, and vessels of bronze, [for] your merchandise.

¹⁵ Sons of Dedan [are] your merchants, || Many islands [are] the market of your hand, || They sent back horns of ivory and ebony [for] your reward.

¹⁶ Aram [is] your merchant, || Because of the abundance of your works, || They have given emerald, purple, and embroidery, || And fine linen, and coral, and agate for your wares.

¹⁷ Judah and the land of Israel—they [are] your merchants, || They have given wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, || And honey, and oil, and balm [for] your merchandise.

¹⁸ Damascus [is] your merchant, || For the abundance of your works, || Because of the abundance of all wealth, || For wine of Helbon, and white wool.

¹⁹ Dan and Javan go about with your wares, || They have given shining iron, cassia, and cane, || It has been in your merchandise.

²⁰ Dedan [is] your merchant, || For clothes of freedom for riding.

²¹ Arabia, and all princes of Kedar, || They [are] the traders of your hand, || For lambs, and rams, and male goats, || In these your merchants.

²² Merchants of Sheba and Raamah—they [are] your merchants, || They have given the chief of all spices, || And every precious stone, and gold [for] your wares.

²³ Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, merchants of Sheba, Asshur—Chilmad—[are] your merchants,

²⁴ They [are] your merchants for perfect things, || For wrappings of blue, and embroidery, || And for treasuries of rich apparel, || With cords bound and girded, for your merchandise,

²⁵ Ships of Tarshish are journeying [with] your merchandise for you, || And you are filled and honored greatly, || In the heart of the seas.

²⁶ Those rowing you have brought you into great waters, || The east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas.

²⁷ Your wealth and your wares, || Your merchandise, your mariners, || And your pilots, strengtheners of your breach, || And the traders of your merchandise, || And all your men of war, who [are] in you, || And in all your assembly that [is] in your midst, || Fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your fall,

²⁸ At the voice of the cry of your pilots the outskirts shake.

²⁹ And all handling an oar come down from their ships, || Mariners [and] all the pilots of the sea stand on the land,

³⁰ And have sounded with their voice for you, || And cry bitterly, and cause dust to go up on their heads, || They roll themselves in ashes;

³¹ And they have made themselves bald for you, || And they have girded on sackcloth, || And they have wept for you, || In bitterness of soul—a bitter mourning.

³² And their sons have lifted up a lamentation for you, || And they have lamented over you, Who [is] as Tyre? As the cut-off one in the midst of the sea?

³³ With the outgoing of your wares from the seas, || You have filled many peoples, || With the abundance of your riches, and your merchandise, || You have enriched [the] kings of earth.

³⁴ At the time of [your] being broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, || Your merchandise and all your assembly have fallen in your midst.

³⁵ All inhabitants of the islands have been astonished at you, || And their kings have been severely afraid, || They have been troubled in countenance.

³⁶ Merchants among the peoples have shrieked for you, || You have been terrors, and you are not—for all time!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, Thus said Lord YHWH: Because your heart has been high, || And you say: I [am] a god, || I have inhabited the habitation of God, || In the heart of the seas, || And you [are] man, and not God, || And you give out your heart as the heart of God,

³ Behold, you [are] wiser than Daniel, || No hidden thing have they concealed from you.

⁴ By your wisdom and by your understanding || You have made wealth for yourself, || And make gold and silver in your treasuries.

⁶ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because of your giving out your heart as the heart of God,

⁷ Therefore, behold, I am bringing in strangers against you, || The terrible of the nations, || And they have drawn out their swords || Against the beauty of your wisdom, || And they have pierced your brightness.

⁸ They bring you down to destruction, || You die by the deaths of the wounded, in the heart of the seas.

⁹ Do you really say, I [am] God, || Before him who is slaying you? And you [are] man, and not God, || In the hand of him who is piercing you.

¹⁰ You die the deaths of the uncircumcised, || By the hand of strangers, for I have spoken,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹² “Son of man, lift up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, || And you have said to him, Thus said Lord YHWH: You are sealing up a measurement, || Full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

¹³ You have been in Eden, the garden of God, || Every precious stone [was] your covering, || Ruby, topaz, and diamond, beryl, onyx, and jasper,

|| Sapphire, emerald, and carbuncle, and gold, || The workmanship of your tambourines and of your pipes, || In you in the day of your being produced, have been created;

¹⁴ And I established you as the anointed, covering cherub, || You have been in [the] holy mountain of God, || You have walked up and down in [the] midst of [the] stones of fire.

¹⁵ You [were] perfect in your ways, || From [the] day of your being created, || Until perversity was found in you.

¹⁶ By [the] abundance of your merchandise || They have filled your midst with violence, || And you sin, || And I thrust you from [the] mountain of God, || And I destroy you, O covering cherub, || From [the] midst of [the] stones of fire.

¹⁷ Your heart has been high because of your beauty, || You have corrupted your wisdom because of your brightness, || I have cast you to earth, || I have set you before kings, to look on you,

¹⁸ From [the] abundance of your iniquity, || By [the] perversity of your merchandise, || You have defiled your sanctuaries, || And I bring forth fire from your midst, || It has devoured you, || And I make you become ashes on the earth, || In [the] eyes of all beholding you.

¹⁹ All knowing you among the peoples || Have been astonished at you, || You have been terrors, and you are not—for all time.”

²⁰ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²¹ “Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy concerning it;

²² and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, O Sidon, || And I have been honored in your midst, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My doing judgments in her, || And I have been sanctified in her.

²³ And I have sent pestilence into her, || And blood into her out-places, || The wounded has been judged in her midst, || By the sword on her all around, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH.

²⁴ And there is no more pricking brier and paining thorn || For the house of Israel, || Of all around them—despising them, || And they have known that I [am] Lord YHWH.

²⁵ Thus said Lord YHWH: In My gathering the house of Israel, || Out of the peoples among whom they were scattered, || I have been sanctified in them, || Before the eyes of the nations, || And they have dwelt on their ground, || That I gave to My servant, to Jacob,

²⁶ And they have dwelt confidently on it, || And built houses, and planted vineyards, || And dwelt confidently—in My doing judgments, || On all those despising them all around, || And they have known that I [am] their God YHWH!”

¹ In the tenth year, in the tenth [month], on the twelfth of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

² “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy concerning him, and concerning Egypt—all of it.

³ Speak, and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, || Pharaoh king of Egypt! The great dragon that is crouching in the midst of his floods, || Who has said, My flood [is] my own, || And I have made it [for] myself.

⁴ And I have put hooks in your jaws, || And I have caused the fish of your floods to cleave to your scales, || And I have caused you to come up from the midst of your floods, || And every fish of your floods cleaves to your scales.

⁶ And all inhabitants of Egypt have known || That I [am] YHWH, || Because of their being a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

⁸ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am bringing in a sword against you, || And have cut off man and beast from you.

⁹ And the land of Egypt has been for a desolation and a ruin, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || Because he said: The flood [is] mine, and I made [it].

¹⁰ Therefore, behold, I [am] against you, and against your floods, || And have given the land of Egypt for ruins, || A dry place, a desolation, from Migdol to Syene, || And to the border of Cush.

¹¹ A foot of man does not pass over into it, || Indeed, the foot of beast does not pass into it, || Nor is it inhabited forty years.

¹² And I have made the land of Egypt a desolation, || In the midst of desolate lands, || And its cities, in the midst of cities [that are] laid waste, || Are a desolation [for] forty years, || And I have scattered the Egyptians among nations, || And I have dispersed them through lands.

¹³ But thus said Lord YHWH: At the end of forty years I gather the Egyptians || Out of the peoples to where they have been scattered,

¹⁴ And I have turned back [to] the captivity of Egypt, || And I have brought them back || [To] the land of Pathros, to the land of their birth, || And they have been a low kingdom there.

¹⁵ It is lowest of the kingdoms, || And it does not lift itself up above the nations anymore, || And I have made them few, || So as not to rule among nations.

¹⁶ And it is no longer for confidence to the house of Israel, || Bringing iniquity to remembrance, || By their turning after them, || And they have known that I [am] Lord YHWH.”

¹⁷ And it comes to pass, in the twenty-seventh year, in the first [month], on the first of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

¹⁹ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am giving the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, || And he has taken away its store, || And has taken its spoil, and taken its prey, || And it has been a reward to his force.

²⁰ I have given to him his wage for which he labored—The land of Egypt, in that they worked for Me, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

²¹ In that day I cause a horn to shoot up for the house of Israel, || And I give an opening to your mouth in their midst, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, prophesy, and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Howl, Aah! For the day!

³ For a day [is] near, a day [is] near to YHWH! It is a time of cloud [over] the nations.

⁴ And a sword has come into Egypt, || And there has been great pain in Cush, || In the falling of the wounded in Egypt, || And they have taken its store, || And its foundations have been broken down.

⁵ Cush, and Phut, and Lud, and all the mixture, and Chub, || And the sons of the land of the covenant fall by sword with them,

⁶ Thus said YHWH: And those supporting Egypt have fallen, || And the arrogance of her strength has come down, || From Migdol to Syene, they fall by sword in her, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

⁷ And they have been desolated in the midst of desolate lands, || And its cities are in the midst of cities [that are] laid waste.

⁸ And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My giving fire against Egypt, || And all her helpers have been broken.

⁹ In that day messengers go forth from before Me in ships, || To trouble confident Cush, || And there has been great pain among them, || As the day of Egypt, for behold, it has come.

¹⁰ Thus said Lord YHWH: I have caused the multitude of Egypt to cease, || By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,

¹¹ He and his people with him—the terrible of nations, || Are brought in to destroy the land, || And they have drawn their swords against Egypt, || And have filled the land [with] the wounded.

¹² And I have made floods a dry place, || And I have sold the land into the hand of evildoers, || And I have made the land desolate, || And its fullness, by the hand of strangers, || I, YHWH, have spoken.

¹³ Thus said Lord YHWH: And I have destroyed idols, || And caused vain things to cease from Noph, || And there is no longer a prince of the land of Egypt, || And I give fear in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ And I have made Pathros desolate, || And I have given fire against Zoan, || And I have done judgments in No,

¹⁵ And I have poured out My fury on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt, || And I have cut off the multitude of No.

¹⁶ And I have given fire against Egypt, || Sin is greatly pained, and No is to be broken, || And Noph has daily distresses.

¹⁷ The youths of Aven and Pi-Beseth fall by sword, || And these go into captivity.

¹⁸ And the day has been dark in Tehaphnehes, || In My breaking the yokes of Egypt there, || And the excellence of her strength has ceased in her, || Her! A cloud covers her, || And her daughters go into captivity.

²⁰ And it comes to pass, in the eleventh year, in the first [month], on the seventh of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying, “Son of man,

²³ And I have scattered the Egyptians among nations, || And have spread them through lands,

²⁴ And I have strengthened the arms of the king of Babylon, || And have given My sword into his hand, || And I have broken the arms of Pharaoh, || And he has groaned the groans of a pierced one—before him.

²⁵ And I have strengthened the arms of the king of Babylon, || And the arms of Pharaoh fall down, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My giving My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, || And he has stretched it out toward the land of Egypt.

²⁶ And I have scattered the Egyptians among nations, || And I have spread them through lands, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!”

¹ And it comes to pass, in the eleventh year, in the third [month], on the first of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

² “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: To whom have you been like in your greatness?

³ Behold, Asshur, a cedar in Lebanon, || Beautiful in branch, and shading bough, and high in stature, || And its foliage has been between thickets.

⁵ Therefore his stature has been higher than all trees of the field, || And his boughs are multiplied, and his branches are long, || Because of many waters in his shooting forth.

⁷ And he is beautiful in his greatness, || In the length of his thin shoots, || For his root has been by great waters.

⁸ Cedars have not hid him in the garden of God, || Firs have not been like to his boughs, || And plane-trees have not been as his branches, || No tree in the garden of God has been like to him in his beauty,

⁹ I have made him beautiful in the multitude of his thin shoots, || And all trees of Eden that [are] in the garden of God envy him.

¹⁰ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Because that you have been high in stature, || And he yields his foliage between thickets, || And his heart is high in his haughtiness,

¹¹ I give him into the hand of a god of nations, || He deals severely with him, || In his wickedness I have cast him out.

¹³ Every bird of the heavens dwells on his ruin, || And all beasts of the field have been on his boughs,

¹⁵ Thus said Lord YHWH: I have caused mourning in the day of his going down to Sheol, || I have covered the deep over him, and diminish its flowings, || And many waters are restrained, || And I make Lebanon black for him, || And all trees of the field [have been] a covering for him.

¹⁷ Those with him have also gone down to Sheol, || To the pierced of the sword, || And—his arm—they dwelt in his shade in the midst of nations.

¹⁸ To whom have you been thus like, || In glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? And you have been brought down with the trees of Eden, || To the lower earth, || You lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, || With the pierced of the sword. This [is] Pharaoh, and all his multitude, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!"

¹ And it comes to pass, in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

² "Son of man, lift up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and you have said to him: You have been like a young lion of nations, || And you [are] as a dragon in the seas, || And you come forth with your flowings, || And trouble the waters with your feet, || And you foul their flowings.

³ Thus said Lord YHWH: And I have spread out My net for you, || With an assembly of many peoples, || And they have brought you up in My net.

⁵ And I have put your flesh on the mountains, || And filled the valleys [with] your heap,

⁶ And watered the land with your flowing, || From your blood—to the mountains, || And streams are filled with you.

⁷ And in quenching you I have covered the heavens, || And have made their stars black, || I cover the sun with a cloud, || And the moon does not cause its light to shine.

⁸ I make all luminaries of light in the heavens black over you, || And I have given darkness over your land, || A declaration of Lord YHWH,

⁹ And I have distressed the heart of many peoples, || In My bringing in your destruction among nations, || To lands that you have not known.

¹¹ For thus said Lord YHWH: A sword of the king of Babylon enters you,

¹² I cause your multitude to fall by swords of the mighty, || The terrible of nations—all of them, || And they have spoiled the excellence of Egypt, || And all her multitude has been destroyed.

¹³ And I have destroyed all her beasts, || From beside many waters, || And a foot of man does not trouble them anymore, || Indeed, the hooves of beasts do not trouble them.

¹⁴ Then I cause their waters to sink, || And I cause their rivers to go as oil, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁵ In My making the land of Egypt a desolation, || And the land has been desolated of its fullness, || In My striking all the inhabitants in it, || Then they have known that I [am] YHWH.

¹⁷ And it comes to pass, in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth of the month, a word of YHWH has been to me, saying,

¹⁹ Whom have you surpassed in beauty? Go down, and be laid with [the] uncircumcised.

²⁰ They fall in the midst of the pierced of the sword, || She has been given [to] the sword, || They drew her out, and all her multitude.

²² There [is] Asshur, and all her assembly, || His graves [are] around him, || All of them [are] wounded, who are falling by sword,

²³ Whose graves are appointed in the sides of the pit, || And her assembly is around her grave, || All of them wounded, falling by sword, || Because they gave terror in the land of the living.

²⁶ There [is] Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude, || Her graves [are] around them, || All of them uncircumcised, pierced by the sword, || For they gave their terror in the land of the living,

²⁸ And you are broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, || And lie with the pierced of the sword.

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² "Son of man, speak to the sons of your people, and you have said to them: When I bring a sword on a land, || And the people of the land have taken one man out of their borders, || And made him their watchman,

³ And he has seen the sword coming against the land, || And has blown with a horn, and has warned the people,

⁴ And the hearer has heard the voice of the horn, and he has not taken warning, || And the sword comes in, and takes him away, || His blood is on his [own] head.

⁵ The voice of the horn he heard, || And he has not taken warning, his blood is on him, || And he who took warning has delivered his soul.

⁶ And the watchman, when he sees the sword coming in, || And he has not blown with a horn, || And the people have not been warned, || And a sword comes in, || And takes away a soul from them, || He is taken away in his iniquity, || And I require his blood from the hand of the watchman.

⁷ And you, son of man, || I gave you [as] a watchman for the house of Israel, || And you have heard a word from My mouth, || And you have warned them from Me.

⁹ And you, when you have warned the wicked of his way, to turn back from it, || And he has not turned back from his way, || He dies in his iniquity, || And you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰ And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: You have spoken correctly, saying, || Surely our transgressions and our sins [are] on us, || And we are wasting away in them, || How, then, do we live?

¹¹ Say to them, [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || I do not delight in the death of the wicked, || But in the turning of the wicked from his way, and he has lived. Turn back, turn back, from your evil ways! Indeed, why do you die, O house of Israel?

¹² And you, son of man, say to the sons of your people: The righteousness of the righteous does not deliver him in the day of his transgression, || And the wickedness of the wicked, || He does not stumble for it in the day of his turning from his wickedness, || And the righteous is not able to live in it in the day of his sinning.

¹³ In My saying of the righteous: He surely lives, || And—he has trusted on his righteousness, || And he has done perversity, || All his righteous acts are not remembered, || And for his perversity that he has done, || He dies for it.

¹⁴ And in My saying to the wicked: You surely die, || And—he has turned back from his sin, || And has done judgment and righteousness,

¹⁵ (The wicked restores a pledge, he repays [for] plunder), || He has walked in the statutes of life, || So as not to do perversity, || He surely lives—he does not die.

¹⁶ All his sin—his sins that he has sinned—are not remembered against him, || He has done judgment and righteousness, || He surely lives.

¹⁷ And the sons of your people have said: The way of the Lord is not pondered, || As for them—their way is not pondered.

¹⁸ In the turning back of the righteous from his righteousness, || And he has done perversity—he dies for it.

²⁰ And you have said, The way of the Lord is not pondered; I judge each of you according to his ways, O house of Israel."

²¹ And it comes to pass, in the twelfth year—in the tenth [month], in the fifth of the month—of our removal, one who is escaped from Jerusalem comes to me, saying, "The city has been struck."

²² And the hand of YHWH has been to me in the evening, before the coming in of the escaped one, and He opens my mouth until [his] coming to me in the morning, and my mouth is opened, and I have not been silent again.

²³ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

²⁴ "Son of man, the inhabitants of these ruins on the ground of Israel are speaking, saying, Abraham has been alone—and he possesses the land, and we [are] many—the land has been given to us for a possession.

²⁵ Therefore say to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: You eat with the blood, || And you lift up your eyes to your idols, || And you shed blood, || Should you then inherit the land?

²⁶ You have stood on your sword, || You have done abomination, || You have each defiled the wife of his neighbor, || Should you then possess the land?

²⁷ Thus you say to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: [As] I live—do they who [are] in the ruins not fall by the sword? And they who [are] on the face of the field, || I have given for food to the beast, || And they who are in strongholds and in caves die by pestilence.

²⁸ And I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, || And the excellence of its strength has ceased, || And mountains of Israel have been desolated, || Without anyone passing through.

²⁹ And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My making the land a desolation and an astonishment, || For all their abominations that they have done.

³⁰ And you, son of man, || The sons of your people who are speaking about you, || By the walls, and in openings of the houses, || Have spoken with one another, each with his brother, || Saying, Please come in, || And hear what the word [is] that comes out from YHWH.

³¹ And they come in to you as the coming in of a people, || And they sit before you—My people, || And have heard your words, and they do not do them, || For they are making unhealthy loves with their mouth, || Their heart is going after their dishonest gain.

³² And behold, you [are] as a singer of unhealthy loves to them, || A beautiful voice, and playing well on an instrument, || And they have heard your words, and they are not doing them.

³³ And in its coming in—behold, it has come, || And they have known that a prophet has been in their midst!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, prophesy concerning shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH to the shepherds: Woe [to] the shepherds of Israel, || Who have been feeding themselves! Do the shepherds not feed the flock?

³ You eat the fat, and you put on the wool, || You slaughter the fed one, || You do not feed the flock.

⁴ You have not strengthened the weak, || And you have not healed the sick one, || And you have not bound up the broken, || And have not brought back the driven away, || And you have not sought the lost, || And you have ruled them with might and with rigor.

⁵ And they are scattered from want of a shepherd, || And are for food to every beast of the field, || Indeed, they are scattered.

⁷ Therefore, shepherds, hear a word of YHWH:

⁸ [As] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || If not, because of My flock being for a prey, || Indeed, My flock is for food to every beast of the field, || Because there is no shepherd, || And My shepherds have not sought My flock, || And the shepherds feed themselves, || And they have not fed My flock.

⁹ Therefore, O shepherds, hear a word of YHWH!

¹⁰ Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against the shepherds, || And have required My flock from their hand, || And caused them to cease from feeding the flock, || And the shepherds feed themselves no more, || And I have delivered My flock from their mouth, || And they are not for food to them.

¹¹ For thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I—even I, have required My flock, || And I have sought it out.

¹⁵ I feed My flock, and cause them to lie down, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

¹⁶ I seek the lost, and bring back the driven away, || And I bind up the broken, and I strengthen the sick, || And I destroy the fat and the strong, || I feed it with judgment.

¹⁷ And you, My flock, thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am judging between sheep and sheep, || Between rams and male goats.

¹⁹ And My flock consumes the trodden thing of your feet, || And drinks the trampled thing of your feet?

²⁰ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH to them: Behold, I—even I, have judged between fat sheep and lean sheep.

²¹ Because you thrust away with side and with shoulder, || And push all the diseased with your horns, || Until you have scattered them to the out-place,

²² Therefore I have given safety to My flock, || And they are not for prey anymore, || And I have judged between sheep and sheep.

²³ And have raised up one shepherd over them, || And he has fed them—My servant David, || He feeds them, and he is their shepherd,

²⁴ And I, YHWH, I am their God, || And My servant David [is] prince in their midst, || I, YHWH, have spoken.

²⁵ And I have made a covenant of peace with them, || And caused evil beasts to cease out of the land, || And they have dwelt confidently in a wilderness, || And they have slept in forests.

²⁶ And I have given them, and the outskirts of My hill, a blessing, || And caused the shower to come down in its season, || They are showers of blessing.

²⁷ And the tree of the field has given its fruit, || And the land gives her increase, || And they have been confident on their land, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH, || In My breaking the bands of their yoke, || And I have delivered them from the hand of those laying service on them.

²⁸ And they are no longer a prey to nations, || And the beast of the earth does not devour them, || And they have dwelt confidently, || And there is none troubling.

²⁹ And I have raised a plantation of renown for them, || And they are no longer consumed by hunger in the land, || And they no longer bear the shame of the nations.

³⁰ And they have known that I, YHWH, their God, [am] with them, || And they—the house of Israel—My people, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

³¹ And you, My flock, the flock of My pasture, || You [are] men [and] I [am] your God, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!”

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,

³ and you have said to it, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, O Mount Seir, || And have stretched out My hand against you, || And made you a desolation and an astonishment.

⁴ I make your cities a ruin, and you are a desolation, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

⁵ Because of your having continuous enmity, || And you saw the sons of Israel, || By the hands of the sword, || In the time of their calamity, || In the time of the iniquity of the end:

⁶ Therefore, [as] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || Surely I appoint you for blood, || And blood pursues you, || If you have not hated blood, || Blood also pursues you.

⁷ And I have given Mount Seir for a desolation and an astonishment, || And have cut off from it him who is passing over and him who is returning,

⁸ And filled his mountains with his wounded, || Your hills, and your valleys, and all your streams, || The pierced of the sword fall into them.

⁹ I make you continuous desolations, || And your cities do not return, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

¹⁰ Because of your saying: The two nations and the two lands are mine, and we have possessed it, || And YHWH has been there;

¹¹ Therefore, [as] I live—a declaration of Lord YHWH, || And I have done according to your anger, || And according to your envy, || With which you have worked, || Because of your hatred against them, || And I have been known among them when I judge you.

¹² And you have known that I [am] YHWH, || I have heard all your despisings that you have spoken || Against mountains of Israel, saying, || A desolation—they were given to us for food.

¹³ And you magnify yourselves against Me with your mouth, || And have made your words abundant against Me; I have heard.

¹⁴ Thus said Lord YHWH: According to the rejoicing of the whole land, || I make a desolation of you.

¹⁵ According to your joy at the inheritance of the house of Israel because of desolation, || So I do to you—you are a desolation, || O Mount Seir, and all Edom—all of it, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!”

1 “And you, son of man, prophesy to mountains of Israel, and you have said, O mountains of Israel, hear a word of YHWH!

2 Thus said Lord YHWH: Because the enemy said against you, Aha! The high places of old have also become our possession,

3 therefore, prophesy, and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Because, even because, of desolating, || And of swallowing you up from all around, || For your being a possession to the remnant of the nations, || And you are taken up on the tip of the tongue, || And [are] an evil report to the people.

4 Therefore, O mountains of Israel, || Hear a word of Lord YHWH! Thus said Lord YHWH, to mountains, and to hills, || To streams, and to valleys, || And to ruins that [are] desolate, || And to cities that are forsaken, || That have been for a prey, || And for a scorn, to the remnant of the surrounding nations,

5 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Have I not, in the fire of My jealousy, || Spoken against the remnant of the nations, || And against Edom—all of it, || Who gave My land to themselves for a possession, || With the joy of the whole heart—with despite of soul, || For the sake of casting it out for a prey?

6 Therefore, prophesy concerning the ground of Israel, || And you have said to mountains, and to hills, || To streams, and to valleys, || Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I, in My jealousy and in My fury, have spoken, || Because you have borne the shame of nations.

7 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: I have lifted up My hand, || Do the nations who [are] surrounding you not bear their own shame?

8 And you, O mountains of Israel, || You give out your branch, || And you bear your fruits for My people Israel, || For they have drawn near to come.

9 For behold, I [am] for you, and have turned to you, || And you have been tilled and sown.

10 And I have multiplied men on you, || All the house of Israel—all of it, || And the cities have been inhabited, || And the ruins are built.

11 And I have multiplied man and beast on you, || And they have multiplied and been fruitful, || And I have caused you to dwell according to your former states, || And I have done better than at your beginnings, || And you have known that I [am] YHWH.

12 And I have caused man to walk over you—My people Israel, || And they possess you, and you have been their inheritance, || And you no longer add to bereave them.

13 Thus said Lord YHWH: Because they are saying to you, You [are] a devourer of men, || And you have been a bereaver of your nations,

14 Therefore, you no longer devour man, || And you do not cause your nations to stumble anymore, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

15 And I do not proclaim the shame of the nations to you anymore, || And you no longer bear the reproach of peoples, || And your nations do not stumble anymore, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.”

16 And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

17 “Son of man, || The house of Israel are dwelling on their land, || And they defile it by their way and by their doings, || Their way has been as the uncleanness of a separated one before Me.

¹⁸ And I pour out My fury on them || For the blood that they shed on the land, || And they have defiled it with their idols.

¹⁹ And I scatter them among nations, || And they are spread through lands, || According to their way, and according to their doings, || I have judged them.

²⁰ And one goes to the nations to where they have gone, || And they defile My holy Name by saying to them, || These [are] the people of YHWH, || And they have gone forth from His land.

²¹ And I have pity on My holy Name, || That the house of Israel has defiled || Among the nations to where they have gone in.

²² Therefore, say to the house of Israel, Thus said Lord YHWH: I am not working for your sake, || O house of Israel, but for My holy Name || That you have defiled || Among the nations to where you have gone in.

²³ And I have sanctified My great Name, || That is profaned among the nations, || That you have defiled in your midst, || And the nations have known that I [am] YHWH, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || In My being sanctified in you before your eyes.

²⁴ And I have taken you out of the nations, || And have gathered you out of all the lands, || And I have brought you into your land,

²⁵ And I have sprinkled clean water over you, || And you have been clean; I cleanse you from all your uncleannesses, || And from all your idols.

²⁶ And I have given a new heart to you, || And I give a new spirit in your midst, || And I have turned aside the heart of stone out of your flesh, || And I have given a heart of flesh to you.

²⁷ And I give My Spirit in your midst, || And I have done this, so that you walk in My statutes, || And you keep My judgments, and have done them.

²⁸ And you have dwelt in the land that I have given to your fathers, || And you have been to Me for a people, || And I am to you for God.

²⁹ And I have saved you from all your uncleannesses, || And I have called to the grain, and multiplied it, || And I have put no famine on you.

³¹ And you have remembered your ways that [are] evil, || And your doings that [are] not good, || And have been loathsome in your own faces, || For your iniquities, and for your abominations.

³² I am not working for your sake, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || Be it known to you, || Be ashamed and confounded, because of your ways, || O house of Israel.

³³ Thus said Lord YHWH: In the day of My cleansing you from all your iniquities, || I have caused the cities to be inhabited, || And the ruins have been built,

³⁴ And the desolate land is tilled, || Instead of which it was a desolation before the eyes of everyone passing by,

³⁵ And they have said: This land, that was desolated, || Has been as the Garden of Eden, || And the cities—the dried up, || And the desolated, and the broken down, || [And the] fortified have remained.

³⁷ Thus said Lord YHWH: Yet this I am inquired of by the house of Israel to do for them: I multiply them as a flock of men,

³⁸ As a flock of holy ones, as a flock of Jerusalem, | | In her appointed times, | | So the dried up cities are full of flocks of man, | | And they have known that I [am] YHWH!"

¹ There has been a hand of YHWH on me, and He takes me forth in [the] Spirit of YHWH, and places me in the midst of the valley, and it is full of bones,

² and He causes me to pass over by them, all around, and behold, very many [are] on the face of the valley, and behold—very dry.

³ And He says to me, "Son of man, do these bones live?" And I say, "O Lord YHWH, You have known."

⁴ And He says to me, "Prophecy concerning these bones, and you have said to them, O dry bones, hear a word of YHWH!

⁵ Thus said Lord YHWH to these bones: Behold, I am bringing a spirit into you, and you have lived,

⁶ and I have given sinews on you, and cause flesh to come up on you, and covered you over with skin, and given a spirit in you, and you have lived, and you have known that I [am] YHWH."

⁷ And I have prophesied as I have been commanded, and there is a noise as I am prophesying, and behold, a rushing, and the bones draw near, bone to its bone.

⁸ And I beheld, and behold, sinews [are] on them, and flesh has come up, and skin covers them over above—and there is no spirit in them.

⁹ And He says to me: "Prophecy to the Spirit, prophecy, son of man, and you have said to the Spirit, Thus said Lord YHWH: Come in from the four winds, O Spirit, and breathe on these slain, and they live."

¹⁰ And I have prophesied as He commanded me, and the Spirit comes into them, and they live, and stand on their feet—a very, very great force.

¹¹ And He says to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel; behold, they are saying, Our bones have dried up, | | And our hope has perished, | | We have been cut off by ourselves.

¹² Therefore, prophecy, and you have said to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am opening your graves, | | And have brought you up out of your graves, O My people, | | And brought you into the land of Israel.

¹³ And you have known that I [am] YHWH, | | In My opening your graves, | | And in My bringing you up out of your graves, O My people.

¹⁴ And I have given My Spirit in you, and you have lived, | | And I have caused you to rest on your land, | | And you have known that I, YHWH, have spoken, and I have done [it], | | A declaration of YHWH."

¹⁵ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁶ "And you, son of man, take one stick for yourself, and write on it, | | For Judah, and for the sons of Israel, his companions; and take another stick, and write on it, | | For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and all the house of Israel, his companions,

¹⁷ and bring them near to one another, to you, for one stick, and they have become one in your hand.

¹⁸ And when sons of your people speak to you, saying, Do you not declare to us what these [are] to you?

¹⁹ Speak to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am taking the stick of Joseph, that [is] in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions, and have given them to him, with the stick of Judah, and have made them become one stick, and they have been one in My hand.

²⁰ And the sticks on which you write have been in your hand before your eyes,

²¹ and speak to them, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I am taking the sons of Israel, || From among the nations to where they have gone, || And have gathered them from all around, || And I have brought them into their land.

²² And I have made them become one nation in the land, on mountains of Israel, || And one king is to them all for king, || And they are no longer as two nations, || Nor are they divided anymore into two kingdoms again.

²³ Nor are they defiled anymore with their idols, || And with their abominations, || And with any of their transgressions, || And I have saved them out of all their dwellings, || In which they have sinned, || And I have cleansed them, || And they have been to Me for a people, || And I am to them for God.

²⁴ And My servant David [is] king over them, || And they all have one shepherd, || And they go in My judgments, || And they keep My statutes, and have done them.

²⁵ And they have dwelt on the land that I gave to My servant, to Jacob, || In which your fathers have dwelt, || And they have dwelt on it, they and their sons, || And their son's sons—for all time, || And My servant David [is] their prince for all time.

²⁶ And I have made a covenant of peace with them, || It is a perpetual covenant with them, || And I have placed them, and multiplied them, || And placed My sanctuary in their midst for all time.

²⁷ And My dwelling place has been over them, || And I have been to them for God, || And they have been to Me for a people.

²⁸ And the nations have known that I, YHWH, am sanctifying Israel, || In My sanctuary being in their midst for all time!"

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

² "Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, chief prince of [[or prince of Rosh,]] Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy concerning him,

³ and you have said, Thus says Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, O Gog, || Chief prince of [[or prince of Rosh,]] Meshech and Tubal,

⁴ And I have turned you back, || And I have put hooks in your jaws, || And have brought you out, and all your force, || Horses and horsemen, || All of them clothed in perfection, || A numerous assembly, [with] buckler and shield, || All of them handling swords.

⁵ Persia, Cush, and Phut, with them, || All of them [with] shield and helmet.

⁶ Gomer and all its bands, || The house of Togarmah [from] the sides of the north, || And all its bands, many peoples with you,

⁷ Be prepared, indeed, prepare yourself, || You and all your assemblies who are assembled to you, || And you have been for a watch for them.

⁸ After many days you are appointed, || In the latter end of the years you come into a land brought back from sword—Gathered out of many peoples, || On mountains of Israel, || That have been for a continuous ruin, || And it has been brought out from the peoples, || And all of them have dwelt safely.

⁹ And you have gone up—you come in as desolation, || You are as a cloud to cover the land, || You and all your bands, and many peoples with you.

¹⁰ Thus said Lord YHWH: And it has come to pass in that day, || Things come up on your heart, || And you have thought an evil thought,

¹¹ And you have said: I go up over a land of open places, || I go to those at rest, dwelling confidently, || All of them are dwelling without walls, || And they have no bar and doors—

¹³ Sheba, and Dedan, and merchants of Tarshish, || And all its young lions say to you, || Are you coming to take spoil? Have you assembled your assembly to take prey? To carry away silver and gold? To take away livestock and substance? To take a great spoil?

¹⁴ Therefore, prophesy, son of man, and you have said to Gog, Thus said Lord YHWH: In that day, in the dwelling of My people Israel safely, || Do you not know?

¹⁵ And you have come in out of your place, || From the sides of the north, || You and many peoples with you, || Riding on horses—all of them, || A great assembly, and a numerous force.

¹⁶ And you have come up against My people Israel, || As a cloud to cover the land, || It is in the latter end of the days, || And I have brought you in against My land, || In order that the nations may know Me, || In My being sanctified in you before their eyes, O Gog.

¹⁷ Thus said Lord YHWH: Are you he of whom I spoke in former days, || By the hand of My servants, prophets of Israel, || Who were prophesying [for] years in those days, || To bring you in against them?

¹⁸ And it has come to pass in that day, || In the day of the coming in of Gog against the land of Israel, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || My fury comes up in My face,

¹⁹ And in My zeal, in the fire of My wrath, || I have spoken: Is there not a great rushing on the land of Israel in that day?

²⁰ And rushed from My presence have fishes of the sea, || And the bird of the heavens, || And the beast of the field, || And every creeping thing that is creeping on the ground, || And all men who [are] on the face of the ground, || And the mountains have been thrown down, || And the ascents have fallen, || And every wall falls to the earth.

²¹ And I have called for a sword against him throughout all My mountains, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || The sword of each is against his brother.

22 And I have judged him with pestilence and with blood, || And an overflowing rain and hailstones, || I rain fire and brimstone on him, and on his bands, || And on many peoples who [are] with him.

23 And I have magnified Myself, and sanctified Myself, || And I have been known before the eyes of many nations, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH!”

39

1 “And you, son of man, prophesy concerning Gog, and you have said, Thus said Lord YHWH: Behold, I [am] against you, O Gog, || Chief prince of [[or prince of Rosh,]] Meshech and Tubal,

2 And have turned you back, and enticed you, || And caused you to come up from the sides of the north, || And brought you in against mountains of Israel,

3 And have struck your bow out of your left hand, || Indeed, I cause your arrows to fall out of your right.

4 You fall on mountains of Israel, || You, and all your bands, and the peoples who [are] with you, || To ravenous bird—a bird of every wing, || And [to] a beast of the field, I have given you for food.

5 You fall on the face of the field, for I have spoken, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

6 And I have sent a fire against Magog, || And against the confident inhabitants of the islands, || And they have known that I [am] YHWH.

7 And I make My holy Name known in the midst of My people Israel, || And I do not defile My holy Name anymore, || And the nations have known that I, YHWH, the Holy One, [am] in Israel.

8 Behold, it has come, and it has been done, || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || It [is] the day of which I spoke.

9 And those dwelling [in the] cities of Israel have gone out, || And they have burned and kindled [a fire], || With armor, and shield, and buckler, || With bow, and with arrows, || And with hand weapon, and with javelin, || And they have caused a fire to burn seven years with them,

10 And they do not take wood out of the field, || Nor do they hew out of the forests, || For they cause the fire to burn with armor, || And they have spoiled their spoilers, || And they have plundered their plunderers, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

11 And it has come to pass in that day, I give a place to Gog there—a grave in Israel, the valley of those passing by, east of the sea, and it is stopping those passing by, and they have buried there Gog, and all his multitude, and have cried, O valley of the multitude of Gog!

12 And the house of Israel has buried them—in order to cleanse the land—seven months.

13 Indeed, all the people of the land have buried them, and it has been to them for a name—the day of My being honored—a declaration of Lord YHWH.

14 And they separate men for continual employment, with those passing through, passing on through the land, burying those who are left on the face of the earth, to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they search.

15 And those passing by have passed through the land, and seen a bone of man, and one has constructed a sign near it until those burying have buried it in the valley of the multitude of Gog.

16 And also the name of the city [is] The Multitude; and they have cleansed the land.

17 And you, son of man, thus said Lord YHWH: Say to the bird—every wing, and to every beast of the field: Be assembled and come in, || Be gathered from all around, || For My sacrifice that I am sacrificing for you, || A great sacrifice on mountains of Israel, || And you have eaten flesh, and drunk blood.

18 You eat [the] flesh of [the] mighty, || And you drink [the] blood of [the] princes of the earth, || Of rams, of lambs, and of male goats, || Of calves, fatlings of Bashan—all of them.

19 And you have eaten fat to satiety, || And you have drunk blood—to drunkenness, || Of My sacrifice that I sacrificed for you.

20 And you have been satisfied at My table with horse and rider, || Mighty man, and every man of war, || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

21 And I have given My glory among nations, || And all the nations have seen My judgment that I have done, || And My hand that I have laid on them.

22 And the house of Israel has known that I [am] their God YHWH, || From that day and from now on.

23 And the nations have known || That the house of Israel was removed for their iniquity, || Because they have trespassed against Me, || And I hide My face from them, || And give them into the hand of their adversaries, || And they fall by sword—all of them.

24 According to their uncleanness, || And according to their transgressions, I have done with them, || And I hide My face from them.

25 Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: Now I bring back the captivity of Jacob, || And I have pitied all the house of Israel, || And have been zealous for My holy Name.

26 And they have forgotten their shame, || And all their trespass that they trespassed against Me, || In their dwelling on their land confidently and none troubling.

27 In My bringing them back from the peoples, || I have assembled them from the lands of their enemies, || And I have been sanctified in them before the eyes of the many nations,

28 And they have known that I [am] their God YHWH, || In My removing them to the nations, || And I have gathered them to their land, || And I leave none of them there anymore.

29 And I do not hide My face from them anymore, || In that I have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel, || A declaration of Lord YHWH!"

40

1 In the twenty-fifth year of our removal, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after which the city was struck, on this very same day a hand of YHWH has been on me, and He brings me in there;

² in visions of God He has brought me into the land of Israel, and causes me to rest on a very high mountain, and on it [is] as the frame of a city from the south.

³ And He brings me in there, and behold, a man, his appearance as the appearance of bronze, and a thread of flax in his hand, and a measuring-reed, and he is standing at the gate,

⁴ and the man speaks to me: "Son of man, see with your eyes, || And hear with your ears, || And set your heart to all that I am showing you, || For in order to show [it] you, || You have been brought in here, || Declare all that you are seeing to the house of Israel."

⁶ And he comes to the gate whose front [is] eastward, and he goes up by its steps, and he measures the threshold of the gate—one reed broad, even one threshold—one reed broad,

⁷ and the little chamber—one reed long and one reed broad, and between the little chambers—five cubits, and the threshold of the gate, from the side of the porch of the gate from within—one reed.

⁸ And he measures the porch of the gate from within—one reed,

⁹ and he measures the porch of the gate—eight cubits, and its posts—two cubits, and the porch of the gates from within,

¹⁰ and the little chambers of the gate eastward, three on this side and three on that side; the three of them—one measure, and the posts—one measure, on this side and on that side.

¹¹ And he measures the breadth of the opening of the gate—ten cubits, the length of the gate—thirteen cubits;

¹³ And he measures the gate from the roof of the [one] little chamber to the roof of another; the breadth—twenty-five cubits, opening opposite opening.

¹⁴ And he makes the posts of sixty cubits, even to the post of the court, the gate all around;

¹⁵ and by the front of the gate of the entrance, by the front of the porch of the inner gate—fifty cubits;

¹⁷ And he brings me into the outer court, and behold, chambers and a pavement made for the court all around—thirty chambers on the pavement—

¹⁸ and the pavement to the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates, [is] the lower pavement;

¹⁹ and he measures the breadth from before the lower gate, to the front of the inner court, on the outside—one hundred cubits, eastward and northward.

²⁰ As for the gate of the outer court whose front [is] northward, he has measured its length and its breadth;

²¹ and its little chambers, three on this side and three on that side, and its posts and its arches have been according to the measure of the first gate, its length [is] fifty cubits, and breadth [is] twenty-five by the cubit;

²³ And the gate of the inner court [is] opposite the gate at the north and at the east; and he measures from gate to gate—one hundred cubits.

²⁴ And he causes me to go southward, and behold, a gate southward, and he has measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements;

²⁵ and windows [are] in it and in its arches all around, like these windows, the length—fifty cubits, and the breadth—twenty-five cubits;

²⁶ and seven steps [are] its ascent, and its arches [are] before them, and palm-trees [are] in it, one on this side and one on that side, on its posts;

²⁷ and the gate of the inner court [is] southward, and he measures from gate to gate southward, one hundred cubits.

²⁸ And he brings me into the inner court by the south gate, and he measures the south gate according to these measurements;

²⁹ and its little chambers, and its posts, and its arches [are] according to these measurements, and windows [are] in it and in its arches all around; the length—fifty cubits, and the breadth—twenty-five cubits.

³⁰ As for the arches all around, the length—twenty-five cubits, and the breadth—five cubits;

³¹ and its arches [are] toward the outer court, and palm-trees [are] on its posts, and eight steps [are] its ascent.

³² And he brings me into the inner court eastward, and he measures the gate according to these measurements;

³³ and its little chambers, and its posts, and its arches [are] according to these measurements: and windows [are] in it and in its arches all around, the length—fifty cubits, and the breadth—twenty-five cubits;

³⁴ and its arches [are] toward the outer court, and palm-trees [are] toward its posts, on this side and on that side, and eight steps [are] its ascent.

³⁵ And he brings me into the north gate, and has measured according to these measurements;

³⁶ its little chambers, its posts, and its arches; and windows [are] in it all around: the length—fifty cubits, and the breadth—twenty-five cubits;

³⁸ And the chamber and its opening [is] by the posts of the gates, there they purge the burnt-offering.

³⁹ And in the porch of the gate [are] two tables on this side and two tables on that side, to slaughter on them the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the guilt-offering;

⁴⁰ and at the side without, at the going up to the opening of the north gate, [are] two tables; and at the other side that [is] at the porch of the gate, [are] two tables;

⁴¹ four tables [are] on this side and four tables on that side, at the side of the gate, eight tables on which they slaughter.

⁴² And the four tables for burnt-offering [are] of hewn stone: the length—one cubit and a half, and the breadth—one cubit and a half, and the height—one cubit; they place on them the instruments with which they slaughter the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

⁴³ And the boundaries [are] one handbreadth, prepared within all around: and the flesh of the offering [is] on the tables.

⁴⁵ And he speaks to me: “This chamber, whose front [is] southward, [is] for priests keeping charge of the house;

⁴⁶ and the chamber, whose front [is] northward, [is] for priests keeping charge of the altar: they [are] sons of Zadok, who are drawing near of the sons of Levi to YHWH, to serve Him.”

⁴⁷ And he measures the court: the length—one hundred cubits, and the breadth—one hundred cubits, square, and the altar [is] before the house.

⁴⁸ And he brings me to the porch of the house, and he measures the post of the porch—five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side, and the breadth of the gate—three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side;

⁴⁹ the length of the porch—twenty cubits, and the breadth—eleven [[or twelve]] cubits; and they go up to it by the [[ten]] steps. And pillars [are] by the posts, one on this side and one on that side.

¹ And he brings me into the temple, and he measures the posts, six cubits the breadth on this side and six cubits the breadth on that side—the breadth of the tent.

² And the breadth of the opening [is] ten cubits; and the sides of the opening [are] five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and he measures its length—forty cubits, and the breadth—twenty cubits.

³ And he has gone inward, and measures the post of the opening—two cubits, and the opening—six cubits, and the breadth of the opening—seven cubits.

⁵ And he measures the wall of the house—six cubits, and the breadth of the side-chamber—four cubits, all around the house.

⁷ And it has become wider when one has turned even higher toward the side-chambers, for the encompassment of the house [is] even higher all around the house: therefore the breadth of the house [goes] upwards, and so the lower [story] goes up to the higher by the middle.

⁸ And I have looked at the height all around the house: the foundations of the side-chambers [are] the fullness of the reed, six cubits by the joining.

⁹ The breadth of that wall, of the side-chamber, at the outside, [is] five cubits; and the space remaining of the side-chambers—that of the house,

¹⁰ and between the chambers—[is] a breadth of twenty cubits around the house, all around.

¹² As for the building that [is] at the front of the separate place [at] the corner westward, the breadth [is] seventy cubits, and the wall of the building [is] five cubits broad all around, and its length—ninety cubits.

¹⁴ and the breadth of the front of the house, and of the separate place eastward—one hundred cubits.

¹⁵ And he has measured the length of the building to the front of the separate place that [is] at its back part, and its galleries on this side and on that side—one hundred cubits. And the inner temple and the porches of the court,

¹⁶ the thresholds, and the narrow windows, and the galleries around the three of them, opposite the threshold, [were] paneled with wood all around—and the ground to the windows, and the windows were covered,

¹⁷ over above the opening, and to the inner-house, and at the outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside [by] measurements.

¹⁸ And it is made [with] cherubim and palm-trees, and a palm-tree [is] between cherub and cherub, and two faces [are] on the cherub;

²⁰ From the earth to above the opening the cherubim and the palm-trees [were] made, and [on] the wall of the temple.

²¹ The doorpost of the temple [is] square, and of the front of the sanctuary, the appearance [is] as that appearance.

²² Of the altar, the wood [is] three cubits in height, and its length—two cubits; and its corners [are] to it, and its length, and its walls [are] of wood, and he speaks to me, “This [is] the table that [is] before YHWH.”

²³ And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors;

²⁴ and the doors had two panels, two turning panels: two on one door, and two panels on the other.

²⁵ And made on them, on the doors of the temple, [are] cherubim and palm-trees as are made on the walls, and a thickness of wood [is] at the front of the porch on the outside.

² At the front of the length [is] one hundred cubits [at] the north opening, and the breadth—fifty cubits.

³ Opposite the twenty [cubits] that are of the inner court, and opposite the pavement that [is] of the outer court, [is] gallery [with] face toward gallery, in the three [stories].

⁵ And the upper chambers [are] short, for the galleries contain more than these, than the lower, and than the middle one, of the building;

⁶ for they [are] threefold, and they have no pillars as the pillars of the court, therefore it has been kept back—more than the lower and than the middle one—from the ground.

⁷ As for the wall that [is] at the outside, alongside the chambers, the way of the outer-court at the front of the chambers, its length [is] fifty cubits;

⁸ for the length of the chambers that [are] in the outer court [is] fifty cubits, and of those on the front of the temple—one hundred cubits.

⁹ And under these chambers [is] the entrance from the east, in one's going into them from the outer court.

¹⁰ In the breadth of the wall of the court eastward, to the front of the separate place, and to the front of the building, [are] chambers.

¹¹ And the way before them [is] as the appearance of the chambers that [are] northward, according to their length so [is] their breadth, and all their outlets, and according to their fashions, and according to their openings.

¹² And according to the openings of the chambers that [are] southward [is] an opening at the head of the way, the way directly in the front of the wall eastward in entering them.

¹³ And he says to me, "The north chambers, the south chambers, that [are] at the front of the separate place, they [are] holy chambers, where the priests (who [are] near to YHWH) eat the most holy things, there they place the most holy things, and the present, and the sin-offering, and the guilt-offering, for the place [is] holy.

¹⁴ In the priests' going in, they do not come out from the sanctuary to the outer court, and there they place their garments with which they minister, for they [are] holy, and have put on other garments, and have drawn near to that which [is] for the people."

¹⁵ And he has finished the measurements of the inner house, and has brought me forth the way of the gate whose front [is] eastward, and he has measured it all around.

¹⁶ He has measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed all around.

¹⁷ He has measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around.

¹⁸ The south side he has measured, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

¹⁹ He has turned around to the west side, he has measured five hundred reeds with the measuring-reed.

²⁰ At the four sides he has measured it; it had a wall all around, the length—five hundred, and the breadth—five hundred, to separate between the holy and the profane place.

¹ And he causes me to go to the gate, the gate that is looking eastward.

² And behold, the glory of the God of Israel has come from the way of the east, and His voice [is] as the noise of many waters, and the earth has shone from His glory.

³ And according to the appearance [is] the appearance that I saw, as the appearance that I saw in my coming in to destroy the city, and the appearances [are] as the appearance that I saw at the river Chebar, and I fall on my face.

⁴ And the glory of YHWH has come into the house, the way of the gate whose face [is] eastward.

⁵ And [the] Spirit takes me up, and brings me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of YHWH has filled the house.

⁶ And I hear one speaking to me from the house, and a man has been standing near me,

⁷ and He says to me: “Son of man, the place of My throne, || And the place of the soles of My feet, || Where I dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel for all time, || The house of Israel defiles My holy Name no longer, || They, and their kings, by their whoredom, || And by the carcasses of their kings—their high places.

⁸ In their putting their threshold with My threshold, || And their doorpost near My doorpost, || And the wall between Me and them, || And they have defiled My holy Name, || By their abominations that they have done, || And I consume them in My anger.

⁹ Now they put their whoredom far off, || And the carcasses of their kings—from Me, || And I have dwelt in their midst for all time.

¹¹ And since they have been ashamed of all that they have done, || The form of the house, and its measurement, || And its outlets, and its inlets, and all its forms, || And all its statutes, even all its forms, || And all its laws—cause them to know, || And write [it] before their eyes, || And they observe all its forms, || And all its statutes, and have done them.

¹² This [is] a law of the house: on the top of the mountain, all its border all around [is] most holy; behold, this [is] a law of the house.

¹³ And these [are] measurements of the altar by cubits: the cubit [is] a cubit and a handbreadth, and the center [is] a cubit, and the breadth a cubit; and its border on its edge around [is] one span, and this [is] the upper part of the altar.

¹⁵ And the altar [is] four cubits, and from the altar and upward [are] four horns.

¹⁶ And the altar [is] twelve long by twelve broad, square in its four sides.

¹⁷ And the border [is] fourteen long by fourteen broad, at its four sides, and the border around it [is] half a cubit, and the center of it [is] a cubit around, and its steps are looking eastward.”

¹⁸ And He says to me, “Son of man, thus said Lord YHWH: These [are] statutes of the altar in the day of its being made to cause burnt-offering to go up on it, and to sprinkle blood on it.

¹⁹ And you have given to the priests, the Levites—who [are] of the seed of Zadok, who are near to Me, a declaration of Lord YHWH, to serve Me—a calf from the herd, for a sin-offering.

²⁰ And you have taken of its blood, and have put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of its border, and on the border all around, and have cleansed it, and purified it.

²¹ And you have taken the bullock of the sin-offering, and have burned it in the appointed place of the house at the outside of the sanctuary.

²² And on the second day you bring a kid of the goats near, a perfect one, for a sin-offering, and they have cleansed the altar, as they cleansed [it] for the bullock.

²³ In your finishing cleansing, you bring a calf near, a son of the herd, a perfect one, and a ram out of the flock, a perfect one.

²⁴ And you have brought them near before YHWH, and the priests have cast salt on them, and have caused them to go up, a burnt-offering to YHWH.

²⁵ [For] seven days you prepare a goat daily for a sin-offering; and they also prepare a bullock, a son of the herd, and a ram out of the flock—perfect ones.

²⁶ [For] seven days they purify the altar, and have cleansed it, and filled their hand.

²⁷ And the days are completed, and it has come to pass on the eighth day, and from now on, the priests prepare your burnt-offerings and your peace-offerings on the altar, and I have accepted you—a declaration of Lord YHWH.”

¹ And he causes me to turn back the way of the gate of the outer sanctuary that is looking eastward, and it is shut.

² And YHWH says to me, “This gate is shut, it is not opened, and none go in by it, for YHWH, God of Israel, has come in by it, and it has been shut.

³ The prince, who [is] prince, he sits by it to eat bread before YHWH, he comes in by the way of the porch of the gate, and by its way he goes out.”

⁵ And YHWH says to me, “Son of man, set your heart, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, all that I am speaking with you, all of the statutes of the house of YHWH, and all of its laws; and you have set your heart to the entrance of the house, with all the outlets of the sanctuary,

⁶ and have said to [the] rebellion, to the house of Israel, Thus said Lord YHWH: Enough from you—of all your abominations, O house of Israel.

⁷ In your bringing in sons of a stranger, uncircumcised of heart, and uncircumcised of flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to defile it, even My house, in your bringing near My bread, fat, and blood, and they break My covenant by all your abominations,

⁸ and you have not kept [the] charge of My holy things, and you set [others] for keeping My charge in My sanctuary for you.

⁹ Thus said Lord YHWH: No son of a stranger, uncircumcised of heart, and uncircumcised of flesh, comes into My sanctuary, even any son of a stranger, who [is] in the midst of the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ And the Levites who have gone far off from Me, in the wandering of Israel when they went astray from Me after their idols, and they have borne their iniquity.

¹³ And they do not draw near to Me to act as My priest, and to draw near to any of My holy things, to the Holy of Holies, and they have borne their shame and their abominations that they have done,

¹⁴ and I made them keepers of the charge of the house, for all its service and for all that is done in it.

¹⁵ And the priests, the Levites, sons of Zadok, who have kept the charge of My sanctuary in the wandering of the sons of Israel from off Me, they draw near to Me to serve Me, and have stood before Me, to bring fat and blood near to Me—a declaration of Lord YHWH:

¹⁶ they come into My sanctuary, and they draw near to My table to serve Me, and they have kept My charge.

¹⁸ Linen headdresses are on their head, and linen trousers are on their loins, they are not restrained with sweat.

¹⁹ And in their going forth to the outer court—to the outer court to the people—they strip off their garments, in which they are ministering, and have placed them in the holy chambers, and have put on other garments; and they do not sanctify the people in their own garments.

²⁰ And they do not shave their head, and they do not send forth the lock; they certainly trim their heads.

²¹ And no priest drinks wine in their coming into the inner court.

²² And they do not take a widow or divorced woman to themselves for wives, but they take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, and the widow who is widow of a priest.

²³ And they direct My people between holy and common, and they cause them to discern between unclean and clean.

²⁴ And concerning controversy, they stand up for judgment; they judge it with My judgments; and they keep My law and My statutes in all My appointed places; and they sanctify My Sabbaths.

²⁵ And he does not come near to any dead man to be defiled, but if for father, and for mother, and for son, and for daughter, for brother, for sister who has not been to a man, they may defile themselves.

²⁶ And after his cleansing, they number seven days to him.

²⁷ And in the day of his coming into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he brings his sin-offering near—a declaration of Lord YHWH.

²⁸ And it has been for an inheritance to them; I [am] their inheritance, and you do not give a possession to them in Israel; I [am] their possession.

²⁹ The present, and the sin-offering, and the guilt-offering, they eat, and every devoted thing in Israel is theirs.

³⁰ And the first of all the first-fruits of all, and every raised-offering of all, of all your raised-offerings, are the priests'; and you give the first of your dough to the priest, to cause a blessing to rest on your house.

³¹ The priests do not eat any carcass or torn thing, from the bird or from the beast."

² There is of this for the sanctuary five hundred by five hundred, square, around; and fifty cubits of outskirt [is] around it.

³ And by this measure you measure: the length—twenty-five thousand, and the breadth—ten thousand: and the sanctuary is in it, the Holy of Holies.

⁴ It [is] the holy [portion] of the land; it is for priests, servants of the sanctuary, who are drawing near to serve YHWH; and it has been a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

⁵ And of the twenty-five thousand of length, and of the ten thousand of breadth, there is to the Levites, servants of the house, for them—for a possession—twenty chambers.

⁶ And of the possession of the city you set [an area] of five thousand breadth, and twenty-five thousand length, alongside the raised-offering of the holy [portion]; it is for all the house of Israel.

⁸ of the land there is for a possession to him in Israel, and My princes do not oppress My people anymore, and they give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes."

¹⁰ You must have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

¹² And the shekel [is] twenty gerah: twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels—is your maneh.

¹⁴ and the portion of oil, the bath of oil, a tenth part of the bath out of the cor, a homer of ten baths—for ten baths [are] a homer;

¹⁶ All the people of the land are at this raised-offering for the prince in Israel.

¹⁷ And on the prince are the burnt-offerings, and the present, and the drink-offering, in celebrations, and in new moons, and in Sabbaths, in all appointed times of the house of Israel: he makes the sin-offering, and the present, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

¹⁸ Thus said Lord YHWH: “In the first [month], on the first of the month, you take a bullock, a son of the herd, a perfect one, and have cleansed the sanctuary:

²⁰ And so you do on the seventh of the month, because of each erring one, and because of the simple one—and you have purified the house.

²¹ In the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, you have the Passover, a celebration of seven days, unleavened bread is eaten.

²² And the prince has prepared on that day, for himself, and for all the people of the land, a bullock, a sin-offering.

²⁴ And he prepares a present of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah.

²⁵ In the seventh [month], on the fifteenth day of the month, in the celebration, he does according to these things [for] seven days; as the sin-offering so the burnt-offering, and as the present so also the oil.”

¹ Thus said Lord YHWH: “The gate of the inner court that is looking eastward is shut [during] the six days of work, and on the day of rest it is opened, and in the day of the new moon it is opened;

² and the prince has come in the way of the porch of the gate from the outside, and he has stood by the post of the gate, and the priests have made his burnt-offering, and his peace-offerings, and he has bowed himself by the opening of the gate, and has gone forth, and the gate is not shut until the evening.

³ And the people of the land have bowed themselves at the opening of that gate, on Sabbaths, and on new moons, before YHWH.

⁴ And the burnt-offering that the prince brings near to YHWH on the day of rest [is] six lambs, perfect ones, and a ram, a perfect one.

⁵ And the present [is] an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs a present, the gift of his hand, and a hin of oil for an ephah.

⁶ And on the day of the new moon—a bullock, a son of the herd, a perfect one, and six lambs and a ram; they are perfect.

⁷ And with an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, he prepares a present, and for the lambs as his hand attains, and a hin of oil for an ephah.

⁸ And in the coming in of the prince, he comes in the way of the porch of the gate, and by its way he goes out.

¹⁰ And in their coming in the prince in their midst comes in, and in their going out he goes out.

¹² And when the prince makes a free-will burnt-offering, or free-will peace-offerings, to YHWH, then he has opened the gate that is looking eastward for himself, and has made his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he does in the day of rest, and he has gone out, and has shut the gate after his going out.

¹³ And you make a daily burnt-offering of a lamb, son of a year, a perfect one, to YHWH; you make it morning by morning.

¹⁵ and they prepare the lamb, and the present, and the oil, morning by morning—a continual burnt-offering."

¹⁶ Thus said Lord YHWH: "When the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it [is] his inheritance, it [is] for his sons; it [is] their possession by inheritance.

¹⁹ And he brings me in through the entrance that [is] by the side of the gate, to the holy chambers, to the priests, that are looking northward, and behold, there [is] a place in their two sides westward.

²⁰ And he says to me, "This [is] the place where the priests boil the guilt-offering and the sin-offering, where they bake the present, so as not to bring [it] out to the outer court, to sanctify the people."

²¹ And he brings me out to the outer court, and causes me to pass over to the four corners of the court, and behold, a court in a corner of the court, [moreover] a court in [every] corner of the corner.

²² In the four corners of the court [are] enclosed courts, forty long and thirty broad, [with] one measure for the four corners.

²³ And a row [is] all around in them—around the four of them—and made with boilers under the rows all around.

²⁴ And he says to me, “These [are] the houses of those boiling where the servants of the house boil the sacrifice of the people.”

² And he causes me to go out the way of the gate northward, and causes me to turn around the way outside, to the gate that [is] outside, the way that is looking eastward, and behold, water is coming forth from the right side.

³ In the going out of the man eastward—and a line in his hand—then he measures one thousand by the cubit, and he causes me to pass over into the waters—waters [to my] ankles.

⁴ And he measures one thousand, and causes me to pass over into the waters—waters [to my] knees. And he measures one thousand, and causes me to pass over—waters [to my] loins.

⁵ And he measures one thousand—a stream that I am not able to pass over; for the waters have risen—waters to swim in—a stream that is not passed over.

⁶ And he says to me, “Have you seen, son of man?” And he leads me, and brings me back to the edge of the stream.

⁷ In my turning back, then, behold, at the edge of the stream [are] very many trees, on this side and on that side.

⁸ And he says to me, “These waters are going forth to the east circuit, and have gone down to the desert, and have entered the sea; they are brought forth to the sea, and the waters have been healed.

⁹ And it has come to pass, every living creature that teems, wherever the streams come, lives: and there has been great abundance of fish, for these waters have come there, and they are healed; and everything to where the stream comes has lived.

¹⁰ And it has come to pass, fishers stand by it, from En-Gedi even to En-Eglaim; they are a spreading place for the nets; their fish are of the same kind as the fish of the Great Sea—very many.

¹¹ Its miry and its marshy places—they are not healed; they have been given up to salt.

¹² And there comes up by the stream, on its edge, on this side and on that side, every [kind of] fruit-tree whose leaf does not fade, and its fruit is not consumed, it yields first-fruits according to its months, because its waters are coming forth from the sanctuary; and its fruits have been for food, and its leaf for medicine.”

¹³ Thus said Lord YHWH: “This [is] the border whereby you inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph [has two] portions.

¹⁴ And you have inherited it, one as well as another, in that I have lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers; and this land has fallen to you in inheritance.

¹⁵ And this [is] the border of the land at the north quarter; from the Great Sea, the way of Hethlon, at the coming in to Zedad:

¹⁶ Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, that [is] between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-Hatticon, that [is] at the coast of Havran.

¹⁷ And the border from the sea has been Hazar-Enan, the border of Damascus, and Zaphon at the north, and the border of Hamath: and [this is] the north quarter.

¹⁸ And the east quarter [is] from between Havran, and Damascus, and Gilead, and the land of Israel, [to] the Jordan; you measure from the border on the Eastern Sea: and [this is] the east quarter.

¹⁹ And the south quarter southward [is] from Tamar to the waters of Meriboth-Kadesh, the stream to the Great Sea: and [this is] the south quarter southward.

²⁰ And the west quarter [is] the Great Sea, from the border until opposite the coming in to Hamath: this [is] the west quarter.

²¹ And you have divided this land to yourselves, according to the tribes of Israel;

²² and it has come to pass, you separate it for an inheritance to yourselves, and to the sojourners who are sojourning in your midst, who have begotten sons in your midst, and they have been to you as native, with the sons of Israel; they are separated with you for an inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel.

²³ And it has come to pass, in the tribe with which the sojourner sojourns, there you give his inheritance," a declaration of Lord YHWH.

² and by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one [portion];

³ and by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one [portion];

⁴ and by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one [portion];

⁵ and by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one [portion];

⁶ and by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one [portion];

⁷ and by the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one [portion];

⁹ The raised-offering that you lift up to YHWH [is] twenty-five thousand long and ten thousand broad.

¹⁰ And of these is the holy raised-offering for the priests, northward twenty-five thousand, and westward ten thousand [in] breadth, and eastward ten thousand [in] breadth, and southward twenty-five thousand [in] length: and the sanctuary of YHWH has been in its midst.

¹¹ For the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept My charge, who did not err in the erring of the sons of Israel, as the Levites erred,

¹² even the raised-offering has been for them, out of the raised-offering of the land, most holy, by the border of the Levites.

¹⁴ And they do not sell of it, nor exchange, nor cause the first-fruit of the land to pass away: for [it is] holy to YHWH.

¹⁷ And the outskirts of the city has been northward—two hundred and fifty, and southward—two hundred and fifty, and eastward—two hundred and fifty, and westward—two hundred and fifty.

¹⁸ And the remainder in length alongside the raised-offering of the holy [portion is] ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward, and it has been alongside the raised-offering of the holy [portion], and its increase has been for food for those serving the city,

²³ As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one [portion];

²⁴ and by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one [portion];

²⁵ and by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one [portion];

²⁶ and by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one [portion];

²⁷ and by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one [portion];

²⁸ and by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border has been from Tamar [to] the waters of Meriboth-Kadesh, the stream by the Great Sea.

²⁹ This [is] the land that you separate by inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these [are] their divisions,” a declaration of Lord YHWH.

³⁰ “And these [are] the outgoings of the city: on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures;

³¹ and the gates of the city [are] according to the names of the tribes of Israel; three gates northward—one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

³² And on the east side, four thousand and five hundred, and three gates—one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

³³ And the south side, four thousand and five hundred, and three gates—one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

³⁴ The west side, four thousand and five hundred, [with] their three gates—one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

³⁵ [It is] eighteen thousand around, and the renown of the city [is] from the day YHWH [is] there.”

Daniel

¹ In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem, and lays siege against it;

² and the Lord gives into his hand Jehoiakim king of Judah, and some of the vessels of the house of God, and he brings them in [to] the land of Shinar, [to] the house of his god, and the vessels he has brought in [to] the treasure-house of his god.

³ And the king says, to Ashpenaz master of his eunuchs, to bring in out of the sons of Israel (even of the royal seed, and of the chiefs),

⁴ boys in whom there is no blemish, and of good appearance, and skillful in all wisdom, and possessing knowledge, and teaching thought, and who have ability to stand in the palace of the king, and to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

⁶ And there are among them out of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ⁷ and the chief of the eunuchs sets names on them, and he sets on Daniel, Belteshazzar; and on Hananiah, Shadrach; and on Mishael, Meshach; and on Azariah, Abed-Nego.

⁸ And Daniel purposes in his heart that he will not defile himself with the king's portion of food, and with the wine of his drinking, and he seeks of the chief of the eunuchs that he may not defile himself.

⁹ And God gives Daniel for kindness and for mercies before the chief of the eunuchs;

¹⁰ and the chief of the eunuchs says to Daniel, "I am fearing my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink, for why does he see your faces sadder than [those of] the boys which [are] of your circle? Then you have made my head indebted to the king,"

¹¹ And Daniel says to the Meltzar, whom the chief of the eunuchs has appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

¹² "Please try your servants [for] ten days; and they give to us from the vegetables and we eat, and water, and we drink;

¹³ and our appearance is seen before you, and the appearance of the boys who are eating the king's portion of food, and as you see—deal with your servants."

¹⁴ And he listens to them, to this word, and tries them ten days:

¹⁶ And the Meltzar is taking away their portion of food, and the wine of their drink, and is giving to them vegetables.

¹⁷ As for these four boys, God has given to them knowledge and understanding in every [kind of] literature, and wisdom; and Daniel has given instruction about every [kind of] vision and dreams.

¹⁸ And at the end of the days that the king had said to bring them in, the chief of the eunuchs brings them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁹ And the king speaks with them, and there has not been found among them all like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, and they stand before the king;

²¹ And Daniel is to the first year of Cyrus the king.

¹ And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar has dreamed dreams, and his spirit moves itself, and his sleep has been against him;

² and the king says to call for enchanters, and for conjurers, and for sorcerers, and for Chaldeans, to declare to the king his dreams. And they come in and stand before the king;

³ and the king says to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is moved to know the dream."

⁴ And the Chaldeans speak to the king [in] Aramaic, "O king, live for all ages, tell the dream to your servants, and we show the interpretation."

⁵ The king has answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me; if you do not cause me to know the dream and its interpretation, you are made pieces, and your houses are made dunghills;

⁶ and if the dream and its interpretation you show, gifts, and fee, and great glory you receive from before me, therefore the dream and its interpretation you show me."

⁷ They have answered a second time, and are saying, "Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we show the interpretation."

⁸ The king has answered and said, "Of a truth I know that you are gaining time, because that you have seen that the thing is gone from me,

⁹ [so] that, if you do not cause me to know the dream—one is your sentence, seeing a lying and corrupt word you have prepared to speak before me, until the time is changed, therefore tell the dream to me, then I know that you show me its interpretation."

¹⁰ The Chaldeans have answered before the king, and are saying, "There is not a man on the earth who is able to show the king's matter; therefore, no king, chief, and ruler, has asked such a thing as this of any scribe, and enchanter, and Chaldean;

¹¹ and the thing that the king is asking [is] precious, and there are no others that show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

¹² Therefore the king has been furious and very angry, and has said to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

¹³ And the sentence has gone forth, and the wise men are being slain, and they have sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

¹⁴ Then Daniel has replied [with] counsel and discretion to Arioch chief of the executioners of the king, who has gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon.

15 He has answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why [is] the sentence so urgent from before the king?" Then Arioch has made the thing known to Daniel,

16 and Daniel has gone up, and sought of the king that he would give him time to show the interpretation to the king.

17 Then Daniel has gone to his house, and to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, he has made the thing known,

18 and to seek mercies from before the God of the heavens concerning this secret, that they do not destroy Daniel and his companions with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then to Daniel, in a vision of the night, the secret has been revealed. Then Daniel has blessed the God of the heavens.

20 Daniel has answered and said, "Let the Name of God be blessed from age even to age, for wisdom and might—for they are His.

21 And He is changing times and seasons, He is causing kings to pass away, and He is raising up kings; He is giving wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those possessing understanding.

22 He is revealing deep and hidden things; He has known what [is] in darkness, and light has dwelt with Him.

23 You, O God of my fathers, I am thanking and praising, for wisdom and might You have given to me; and now, You have caused me to know that which we have sought from You, for the king's matter You have caused us to know."

24 Therefore Daniel has gone up to Arioch, whom the king has appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he has gone, and thus has said to him, "You do not destroy the wise men of Babylon, bring me up before the king, and I show the interpretation to the king."

25 Then Arioch in haste has brought up Daniel before the king, and thus has said to him, "I have found a man of the sons of the expulsion of Judah, who makes known the interpretation to the king."

26 The king has answered and said to Daniel, whose name [is] Belteshazzar, "Are you able to cause me to know the dream that I have seen, and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel has answered before the king and said, "The secret that the king is asking, the wise men, the enchanters, the scribes, the soothsayers, are not able to show to the king;

28 but there is a God in the heavens, a revealer of secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar that which [is] to be in the latter end of the days. Your dream and the visions of your head on your bed are these:

29 You, O king, your thoughts on your bed have come up [concerning] that which [is] to be after this, and the Revealer of secrets has caused you to know that which [is] to be.

30 As for me—not for [any] wisdom that is in me above any living has this secret been revealed to me; but for the intent that the interpretation to the king they make known, and the thoughts of your heart you know.

31 You, O king, were looking, and behold, a certain great image. This image [is] mighty, and its brightness excellent; it is standing before you, and its appearance [is] terrible.

32 This image! Its head [is] of fine gold, its breasts and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze;

³³ its legs of iron, its feet, part of them of iron, and part of them of clay.

³⁴ You were looking until a stone has been cut out without hands, and it has struck the image on its feet, that [are] of iron and of clay, and it has broken them small;

³⁵ then broken small together have been the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, and they have been as chaff from the summer threshing-floor, and the wind has carried them away, and no place has been found for them: and the stone that struck the image has become a great mountain, and has filled all the land.

³⁶ This [is] the dream, and its interpretation we tell before the king.

³⁷ You, O king, are a king of kings, for the God of the heavens a kingdom, strength, and might, and glory, has given to you;

³⁸ and wherever sons of men are dwelling, the beast of the field, and the bird of the heavens, He has given into your hand, and has caused you to rule over them all; you [are] this head of gold.

³⁹ And after you another kingdom arises lower than those, and another third kingdom of bronze, that rules over all the earth.

⁴⁰ And the fourth kingdom is strong as iron, because that iron is breaking small, and making feeble, all [things], even as iron that is breaking all these, it beats small and breaks.

⁴² As for the toes of the feet, part of them iron, and part of them clay: some part of the kingdom is strong, and some part of it is brittle.

⁴⁵ Because that you have seen that out of the mountain a stone has been cut without hands, and it has beaten the iron small, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king that which [is] to be after this; and the dream [is] true, and its interpretation steadfast."

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar has fallen on his face, and to Daniel he has done homage, and present, and sweet things, he has said to pour out to him.

⁴⁷ The king has answered Daniel and said, "Of a truth [it is] that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret."

⁴⁸ Then the king has made Daniel great, and many great gifts he has given to him, and has caused him to rule over all the province of Babylon, and chief of the prefects over all the wise men of Babylon.

² and Nebuchadnezzar the king has sent to gather the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the province, to come to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has raised up.

³ Then are gathered the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the province, to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has raised up: and they are standing before the image that Nebuchadnezzar has raised up.

⁴ And a crier is calling mightily: "They are saying to you: O peoples, nations, and languages!

⁶ and whoever does not fall down and pay respect, in that hour he is cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

⁸ Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans have drawn near, and accused the Jews;

⁹ they have answered, indeed, they are saying to Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for all ages!

¹⁰ You, O king, have made a decree that every man who hears the voice of the horn, the flute, the harp, the lyre, the stringed instrument, and the symphony, and all kinds of music, falls down and pays respect to the golden image;

¹¹ and whoever does not fall down and pay respect, is cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

¹² There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the work of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, these men have not made of you, O king, [any] regard; your gods they are not serving, and to the golden image you have raised up—are not making worship."

¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar, in anger and fury, has said to bring in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. Then these men have been brought in before the king.

¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar has answered and said to them, "Is [it] a laid plan, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego—my gods you are not serving, and to the golden image that I have raised up you are not worshiping?

¹⁵ Now behold, you are ready, so that at the time that you hear the voice of the horn, the flute, the harp, the lyre, the stringed instrument, and the symphony, and all kinds of music, you fall down and pay respect to the image that I have made! But if you do not worship—in that hour you are cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; who is that God who delivers you out of my hands?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego have answered, indeed, they are saying to King Nebuchadnezzar, "We have no need concerning this matter to answer you.

¹⁷ Behold, it is; our God whom we are serving, is able to deliver us from a burning fiery furnace; and from your hand, O king, He delivers.

¹⁸ And behold—not! Be it known to you, O king, that we are not serving your gods, and we do not worship the golden image you have raised up."

²⁰ and to certain mighty men who [are] in his force he has said to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, to cast into the burning fiery furnace.

²¹ Then these men have been bound in their coats, their tunics, and their turbans, and their clothing, and have been cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²³ And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, have fallen down in the midst of the burning fiery furnace—bound.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king has been astonished, and has risen in haste; he has answered and said to his counselors, "Have we not cast three men into the midst of the fire—bound?" They have answered and are saying to the king, "Certainly, O king."

²⁵ He answered and has said, "Behold, I am seeing four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the appearance of the fourth [is] like to a son of the gods."

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar has drawn near to the gate of the burning fiery furnace; he has answered and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of God Most High come forth, indeed, come"; then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego come forth, from the midst of the fire;

²⁷ and gathered together, the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, and the counselors of the king, are seeing these men, that the fire has no power over their bodies, and the hair of their head has not been singed, and their coats have not changed, and the smell of fire has not passed on them.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar has answered and has said, "Blessed [is] the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who has sent His messenger, and has delivered His servants who trusted on Him." And the word of the king changed, and gave up their bodies that they might not serve nor pay respect to any god except to their own God.

²⁹ "And by me a decree is made, that any people, nation, and language, that speaks erroneously concerning the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, he is made pieces, and its house is made a dunghill, because that there is no other god who is able thus to deliver."

³⁰ Then the king has caused Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, to prosper in the province of Babylon.

1 “Nebuchadnezzar the king to all peoples, nations, and languages, who are dwelling in all the earth: Your peace be great!

2 The signs and wonders that God Most High has done with me, it is good before me to show.

3 How great His signs! And how mighty His wonders! His kingdom [is] a continuous kingdom, and His rule [is] with generation and generation.

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, have been at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 a dream I have seen, and it makes me afraid, and the conceptions on my bed, and the visions of my head, trouble me.

6 And by me a decree is made, to cause all the wise men of Babylon to come up before me, that the interpretation of the dream they may cause me to know.

7 Then coming up are the scribes, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers, and the dream I have told before them, and its interpretation they are not making known to me.

8 And at last Daniel has come up before me, whose name [is] Belteshazzar—according to the name of my god—and in whom [is] the spirit of the holy gods, and the dream before him I have told:

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the scribes, as I have known that the spirit of the holy gods [is] in you, and no secret presses you, the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation, tell.

10 As for the visions of my head on my bed, I was looking, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height [is] great:

11 the tree has become great, indeed, strong, and its height reaches to the heavens, and its vision to the end of the whole land;

12 its leaves [are] beautiful, and its budding great, and food for all [is] in it: under it the beast of the field takes shade, and in its boughs dwell the birds of the heavens, and of it are all flesh fed.

13 I was looking, in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a sifter, even a holy one, from the heavens is coming down.

14 He is calling mightily, and thus has said, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its budding, move away let the beast from under it, and the birds from off its branches;

15 but the stump of its roots leave in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and with the dew of the heavens is it wet, and with the beasts [is] his portion in the herb of the earth;

16 his heart from man’s is changed, and the heart of a beast is given to him, and seven times pass over him;

17 by the decree of the sifters [is] the sentence, and by the saying of the holy ones the requirement, to the intent that the living may know that the Most High is ruler in the kingdom of men, and to whom He wills He gives it, and the lowest of men He raises up over it.

18 This dream I have seen, I King Nebuchadnezzar; and you, O Belteshazzar, tell the interpretation, because that all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to cause me to know the interpretation, and you [are] able, for the spirit of the holy gods [is] in you.”

19 Then Daniel, whose name [is] Belteshazzar, has been astonished about one hour, and his thoughts trouble him; the king has answered and said,

“O Belteshazzar, do not let the dream and its interpretation trouble you.” Belteshazzar has answered and said, “My lord, the dream—to those hating you, and its interpretation—to your enemies!

²⁰ The tree that you have seen, that has become great and strong, and its height reaches to the heavens, and its vision to all the land,

²¹ and its leaves [are] beautiful, and its budding great, and food for all [is] in it, under it the beast of the field dwells, and on its boughs the birds of the heavens sit.

²² It [is] you, O king, for you have become great and mighty, and your greatness has become great, and has reached to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth;

²³ and that which the king has seen—a sifter, even a holy one, coming down from the heavens, and he has said, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; but the stump of its roots leave in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and with the dew of the heavens it is wet, and with the beast of the field [is] his portion, until seven times pass over him.

²⁴ This [is] the interpretation, O king, and it [is] the decree of the Most High that has come against my lord the king:

²⁵ and they are driving you away from men, and your dwelling is with the beast of the field, and they cause you to eat the herb as oxen, and they are wetting you by the dew of the heavens, and pass over you seven times, until you know that the Most High is ruler in the kingdom of men, and to whom He wills He gives it.

²⁶ And that which they said—to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom abides for you, after that you know that the heavens are ruling.

²⁷ Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and your sins by righteousness break off, and your perversity by pitying the poor, behold, it is a lengthening of your ease.”

²⁸ All—has come on Nebuchadnezzar the king.

²⁹ At the end of twelve months, on the palace of the kingdom of Babylon he has been walking;

³⁰ the king has answered and said, “Is this not that great Babylon that I have built, for the house of the kingdom, in the might of my strength, and for the glory of my honor?”

³¹ While the word is [in] the king’s mouth a voice from the heavens has fallen: “They are saying to you: O Nebuchadnezzar the king, the kingdom has passed from you,

³² and from men they are driving you away, and your dwelling [is] with the beast of the field, they cause you to eat the herb as oxen, and pass over you seven times, until you know that the Most High is ruler in the kingdom of men, and to whom He wills He gives it.”

³⁴ “And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, have lifted up my eyes to the heavens, and my understanding returns to me, and I have blessed the Most High, and the Perpetual Living One I have praised and honored, whose dominion [is] a continuous dominion, and His kingdom with generation and generation;

³⁵ and all who are dwelling on the earth are reckoned as nothing, and according to His will He is doing among the forces of the heavens and those dwelling on the earth, and there is none that claps with his hand and says to Him, What have You done?

³⁶ At that time my understanding returns to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and my brightness return to me, and to me my counselors and my great men seek, and over my kingdom I have been made right, and abundant greatness has been added to me.

³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, am praising and exalting and honoring the King of the heavens, for all His works [are] truth, and His paths judgment, and those walking in pride He is able to humble."

¹ Belshazzar the king has made a great feast to one thousand of his great men, and before the one thousand he is drinking wine;

² Belshazzar has said—while tasting the wine—to bring in the vessels of gold and of silver that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, that the king may drink with them, and his great men, his wives, and his concubines.

³ Then they have brought in the vessels of gold that had been taken out of the temple of the house of God that [is] in Jerusalem, and the king and his great men, his wives and his concubines, have drunk with them;

⁶ then the king's countenance has changed, and his thoughts trouble him, and the joints of his loins are loosed, and his knees are striking against one another.

⁸ Then all the wise men of the king are coming up, and they are not able to read the writing, and to make known the interpretation to the king;

⁹ then King Belshazzar is greatly troubled, and his countenance is changing in him, and his great men are perplexed.

¹⁰ The queen, on account of the words of the king and his great men, has come up to the banquet-house. The queen has answered and said, "O king, live for all ages; do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor your countenance be changed:

¹¹ there is a man in your kingdom in whom [is] the spirit of the holy gods: and in the days of your father, light, and understanding, and wisdom—as the wisdom of the gods—was found in him; and your father King Nebuchadnezzar, chief of the scribes, enchanters, Chaldeans, soothsayers, established him—your father, O king—

¹² because that an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of enigmas, and loosing of knots was found in him, in Daniel, whose name the king made Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and the interpretation he shows.”

¹³ Then Daniel has been caused to come up before the king; the king has answered and said to Daniel, “You are that Daniel who [is] of the sons of the expulsion of Judah, whom my father the king brought in out of Judah?

¹⁴ And I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods [is] in you, and light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom have been found in you.

¹⁵ And now, caused to come up before me have been the wise men, the enchanters, that they may read this writing, and its interpretation to cause me to know: and they are not able to show the interpretation of the thing:

¹⁶ and I have heard of you, that you are able to give interpretations, and to loose knots: now, behold—you are able to read the writing, and its interpretation to cause me to know—purple you put on, and a bracelet of gold [is] on your neck, and you rule third in the kingdom.”

¹⁷ Then Daniel has answered and said before the king, “Your gifts be to yourself, and give your fee to another; nevertheless, the writing I read to the king, and the interpretation I cause him to know;

¹⁸ you, O king, God Most High, a kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and honor, gave to your father Nebuchadnezzar:

¹⁹ and because of the greatness that He gave to him, all peoples, nations, and languages were trembling and fearing before him: whom he willed he was slaying, and whom he willed he was keeping alive, and whom he willed he was raising up, and whom he willed he was making low;

²⁰ and when his heart was high, and his spirit was strong to act proudly, he has been caused to come down from the throne of his kingdom, and his glory they have caused to pass away from him,

²¹ and he is driven from the sons of men, and his heart has been like with the beasts, and with the wild donkeys [is] his dwelling; they cause him to eat the herb like oxen, and by the dew of the heavens is his body wet, until he has known that God Most High is ruler in the kingdom of men, and whom He wills He raises up over it.

²² And you, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though all this you have known;

²³ and against the Lord of the heavens you have lifted up yourself; and the vessels of His house they have brought in before you, and you, and your great men, your wives, and your concubines, are drinking wine with them, and gods of silver, and of gold, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone, that are not seeing, nor hearing, nor knowing, you have praised: and the God in whose hand [is] your breath, and all your ways, Him you have not honored.

²⁴ Then from before Him is the extremity of the hand sent, and the writing is noted down;

²⁵ and this [is] the writing that is noted down: Numbered, Numbered, Weighed, and Divided.

²⁶ This [is] the interpretation of the thing: Numbered—God has numbered your kingdom, and has finished it.

²⁷ Weighed—You are weighed in the balances, and have been found lacking.

²⁸ Divided—Your kingdom is divided, and it has been given to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹ Then Belshazzar has spoken, and they have clothed Daniel with purple, and a bracelet of gold [is] on his neck, and they have proclaimed concerning him that he is the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ In that night Belshazzar king of the Chaldeans is slain,

³¹ and Darius the Mede has received the kingdom when a son of sixty-two years.

¹ It has been good before Darius, and he has established over the kingdom satraps—one hundred and twenty—that they may be throughout the whole kingdom,

² and three presidents higher than they, of whom Daniel [is] first, that these satraps may give to them an account, and the king have no loss.

³ Then this Daniel has been overseer over the presidents and satraps, because that an excellent spirit [is] in him, and the king has thought to establish him over the whole kingdom.

⁵ Then these men are saying, “We do not find against this Daniel any cause of complaint, except we have found [it] against him in the Law of his God.”

⁶ Then these presidents and satraps have assembled near the king, and thus they are saying to him: “O King Darius, live for all ages!

⁷ Taken counsel have all the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the counselors, and the governors, to establish a royal statute, and to strengthen an interdict, that any who seeks a petition from any god and man until thirty days, except of you, O king, is cast into a den of lions.

⁸ Now, O king, you establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it is not to be changed, as a law of Media and Persia, that does not pass away.”

⁹ Therefore King Darius has signed the writing and interdict.

¹⁰ And Daniel, when he has known that the writing is signed, has gone up to his house, and the window being opened for him, in his upper chamber, toward Jerusalem, three times in a day he is kneeling on his knees, and praying, and confessing before his God, because that he was doing [it] before this.

¹¹ Then these men have assembled, and found Daniel praying and pleading grace before his God;

¹² then they have come near, indeed, they are saying before the king concerning the king’s interdict: “Have you not signed an interdict, that any man who seeks from any god and man until thirty days, except of you, O king, is cast into a den of lions?” The king has answered and said, “The thing [is] certain as a law of Media and Persia, that does not pass away.”

¹³ Then they have answered, indeed, they are saying before the king, that, “Daniel, who [is] of the sons of the expulsion of Judah, has not placed on you, O king, [any] regard, nor on the interdict that you have signed, and three times in a day he is seeking his petition.”

14 Then the king, when he has heard the matter, is greatly displeased at himself, and on Daniel he has set the heart to deliver him, and until the going up of the sun he was arranging to deliver him.

15 Then these men have assembled near the king, and are saying to the king, "Know, O king, that the law of Media and Persia [is] that any interdict and statute that the king establishes is not to be changed."

16 Then the king has spoken, and they have brought Daniel, and have cast [him] into a den of lions. The king has answered and said to Daniel, "Your God, whom you are serving continually, delivers you Himself."

17 And a stone has been brought and placed at the mouth of the den, and the king has sealed it with his signet, and with the signet of his great men, that the purpose is not changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king has gone to his palace, and he has passed the night fasting, and dahavan have not been brought up before him, and his sleep has fled [from] off him.

19 Then the king rises in the early morning, at the light, and he has gone in haste to the den of lions;

20 and at his coming near to the den, to Daniel, with a grieved voice, he cries. The king has answered and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, your God, whom you are serving continually, is He able to deliver you from the lions?"

21 Then Daniel has spoken with the king: "O king, live for all ages:

22 my God has sent His messenger, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not injured me: because that before Him purity has been found in me; and also before you, O king, injury I have not done."

23 Then was the king very glad for him, and he has commanded Daniel to be taken up out of the den, and Daniel has been taken up out of the den, and no injury has been found in him, because he has believed in his God.

24 And the king has spoken, and they have brought those men who had accused Daniel, and to the den of lions they have cast them, they, their sons, and their wives; and they have not come to the lower part of the den until the lions have power over them, and all their bones they have broken small.

25 Then Darius the king has written to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who are dwelling in all the land: "Your peace be great!

26 From before me a decree is made, that in every dominion of my kingdom they are trembling and fearing before the God of Daniel, for He [is] the living God, and abiding for all ages, and His kingdom that which [is] not destroyed, and His dominion [is] to the end.

27 A deliverer, and rescuer, and doer of signs and wonders in the heavens and in earth [is] He who has delivered Daniel from the paw of the lions."

28 And this Daniel has prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel has seen a dream, and the visions of his head on his bed, then he has written the dream, the chief of the things he has said.

2 Daniel has answered and said, "I was seeing in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heavens are coming forth to the Great Sea;

³ and four great beasts are coming up from the sea, diverse from one another.

⁴ The first [is] like a lion, and it has an eagle's wings. I was seeing until its wings have been plucked, and it has been lifted up from the earth, and on feet as a man it has been caused to stand, and a heart of man is given to it.

⁶ After this I was seeing, and behold, another like a leopard, and it has four wings of a bird on its back, and the beast has four heads, and dominion is given to it.

⁷ After this I was seeing in the visions of the night, and behold, a fourth beast, terrible and fearful, and exceedingly strong; and it has very great iron teeth, it has consumed, indeed, it breaks small, and it has trampled the remnant with its feet; and it [is] diverse from all the beasts that [are] before it; and it has ten horns.

¹⁰ A flood of fire is proceeding and coming forth from before Him, one million serve Him and one hundred million rise up before Him, judgment has been set, and the scrolls have been opened.

¹¹ I was seeing, then, because of the voice of the great words that the horn is speaking, I was seeing until the beast is slain, and his body has been destroyed, and given to the burning fire;

¹² and the rest of the beasts have caused their dominion to pass away, and a prolongation in life is given to them, until a season and a time.

¹³ I was seeing in the visions of the night, and behold, [One] like a Son of Man was coming with the clouds of the heavens, and to the Ancient of Days He has come, and before Him they have brought Him near.

¹⁵ My spirit has been pierced—I, Daniel—in the midst of the sheath, and the visions of my head trouble me;

¹⁶ I have drawn near to one of those standing, and the certainty I seek from him of all this; and he has spoken to me, indeed, the interpretation of the things he has caused me to know:

¹⁷ These great beasts, that [are] four, [are] four kings, they rise up from the earth;

¹⁸ and the saints of the Most High receive the kingdom, and they strengthen the kingdom for all time, even for all time and all ages.

¹⁹ Then I wished for certainty concerning the fourth beast, that was diverse from them all, exceedingly fearful; its teeth of iron, and its nails of bronze, it has devoured, it breaks small, and it has trampled the remnant with its feet;

²⁰ and concerning the ten horns that [are] in its heads, and of the other that came up, and before which three have fallen, even of that horn that has eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and whose appearance [is] great above its companions.

²¹ I was seeing, and this horn is making war with the saints, and has prevailed over them,

²² until the Ancient of Days has come, and judgment is given to the saints of the Most High, and the time has come, and the saints have strengthened the kingdom.

²³ Thus he said: The fourth beast is the fourth kingdom in the earth, that is diverse from all kingdoms, and it consumes all the earth, and treads it down, and breaks it small.

²⁴ And the ten horns out of the kingdom [are] ten kings, they rise, and another rises after them, and it is diverse from the former, and it humbles three kings;

²⁵ and it speaks words as an adversary of the Most High, and it wears out the saints of the Most High, and it hopes to change seasons and law; and they are given into its hand, until a time, and times, and a division of a time.

²⁶ And judgment is set, and they cause his dominion to pass away, to perish, and to be destroyed—to the end;

²⁸ Here [is] the end of the matter. I, Daniel, [am] greatly troubled [by] my thoughts, and my countenance is changed on me, and I have kept the matter in my heart.”

¹ “In the third year of the reign of Belshazzar the king, a vision has appeared to me—I Daniel—after that which had appeared to me at the beginning.

² And I see in a vision, and it comes to pass, in my seeing, and I [am] in Shushan the palace that [is] in Elam the province, and I see in a vision, and I have been by the stream Ulai.

³ And I lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, a certain ram is standing before the stream, and it has two horns, and the two horns [are] high; and one [is] higher than the other, and the high one is coming up last.

⁴ I have seen the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, and no living creatures stand before it, and there is none delivering out of its hand, and it has done according to its pleasure, and has exerted itself.

⁶ And it comes to the ram possessing the two horns, that I had seen standing before the stream, and runs to it in the fury of its power.

⁷ And I have seen it coming near the ram, and it becomes embittered at it, and strikes the ram, and breaks its two horns, and there has been no power in the ram to stand before it, and it casts it to the earth, and tramples it down, and there has been no deliverer to the ram out of its power.

⁹ And from one of them has come forth a little horn, and it exerts itself greatly toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the beautiful [land];

¹⁰ indeed, it exerts to the host of the heavens, and causes to fall to the earth of the host, and of the stars, and tramples them down.

¹¹ And to the prince of the host it exerts itself, and the continual [sacrifice] has been taken away by it, and thrown down the base of his sanctuary.

¹² And the host is given up, with the continual [sacrifice], through transgression, and it throws down truth to the earth, and it has worked, and prospered.

¹³ And I hear a certain holy one speaking, and a certain holy one says to the wonderful numberer who is speaking: Until when [is] the vision of the continual [sacrifice], and of the transgression, an astonishment, to make a treading down of both sanctuary and host?

¹⁴ And he says to me, Until evening—morning two thousand and three hundred, then is the holy place declared right.

¹⁵ And it comes to pass in my seeing—I, Daniel—the vision, that I require understanding, and behold, standing before me [is] as the appearance of a mighty one.

¹⁶ And I hear a voice of man between [the banks of] Ulai, and he calls and says: Gabriel, cause this [one] to understand the appearance.

¹⁷ And he comes in near my station, and at his coming in I have been afraid, and I fall on my face, and he says to me: Understand, son of man, for at the time of the end [is] the vision.

¹⁸ And in his speaking with me, I have been in a trance on my face, on the earth; and he comes against me, and causes me to stand on my station,

¹⁹ and says: Behold, I am causing you to know that which is in the latter end of the indignation; for at the appointed time [is] the end.

²⁰ The ram that you have seen possessing two horns, [are] the kings of Media and Persia.

²¹ And the young male goat, the hairy one, [is] the king of Javan; and the great horn that [is] between its eyes is the first king;

²² and that being broken, four stand up in its place, four kingdoms stand up from the nation, and not in its power.

²³ And in the latter end of their kingdom, about the perfecting of the transgressors, a king stands up, fierce of face, and understanding hidden things;

²⁴ and his power has been mighty, and not by his own power; and he destroys wonderful things, and he has prospered, and worked, and destroyed mighty ones, and the people of the Holy Ones.

²⁵ And by his understanding he has also caused deceit to prosper in his hand, and in his heart he exerts himself, and by ease he destroys many; and he stands against the Prince of princes—and he is broken without hand.

²⁶ And the appearance of the evening and of the morning, that is told, is true; and you, hide the vision, for [it is] after many days.

²⁷ And I, Daniel, have been, indeed, I became sick [for] days, and I rise, and do the king's work, and am astonished at the appearance, and there is none understanding."

¹ "In the first year of Darius, son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who has been made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans,

² in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, have understood by scrolls the number of the years (in that a word of YHWH has been to Jeremiah the prophet), concerning the fulfilling of the desolations of Jerusalem—seventy years;

³ and I set my face toward the Lord God, to seek [by] prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.

⁴ And I pray to my God YHWH, and confess, and say: Ah, now, O Lord God, the great and the fearful, keeping the covenant and the kindness to those loving Him and to those keeping His commands;

⁵ we have sinned, and done perversely, and done wickedly, and rebelled, to turn aside from Your commands, and from Your judgments:

⁶ and we have not listened to Your servants, the prophets, who have spoken in Your Name to our kings, our heads, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷ To You, O Lord, [is] the righteousness, and to us the shame of face, as [at] this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, in all the lands to where You have driven them, in their trespass that they have trespassed against You.

⁸ O Lord, to us [is] the shame of face, to our kings, to our heads, and to our fathers, in that we have sinned against You.

⁹ To the Lord our God [are] the mercies and the forgivenesses, for we have rebelled against Him,

¹⁰ and have not listened to the voice of our God YHWH, to walk in His laws, that He has set before us by the hand of His servants the prophets;

¹¹ and all Israel has transgressed Your law, to turn aside so as not to listen to Your voice; and poured on us is the execration, and the oath, that is written in the Law of Moses, servant of God, because we have sinned against Him.

¹² And He confirms His words that He has spoken against us, and against our judges who have judged us, to bring great calamity on us, in that it has not been done under the whole heavens as it has been done in Jerusalem,

¹³ as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this evil has come on us, and we have not appeased the face of our God YHWH to turn back from our iniquities, and to act wisely in Your truth.

¹⁴ And YHWH watches for the evil, and brings it on us, for our God YHWH is righteous concerning all His works that He has done, and we have not listened to His voice.

¹⁵ And now, O Lord our God, who has brought forth Your people from the land of Egypt by a strong hand, and makes for Yourself a name as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

¹⁶ O Lord, according to all Your righteous acts, please let Your anger and Your fury turn back from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain, for by our sins, and by the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people [are] for a reproach to all our neighbors;

¹⁷ and now, listen, O our God, to the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, and cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary that [is] desolate, for the Lord's sake.

¹⁸ Incline, O my God, Your ear, and hear, open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city on which Your Name is called; for not for our righteous acts are we causing our supplications to fall before You, but for Your mercies that [are] many.

¹⁹ O Lord, hear, O Lord, forgive; O Lord, attend and do; do not delay, for Your own sake, O my God, for Your Name is called on Your city, and on Your people.

²⁰ And while I am speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and causing my supplication to fall before my God YHWH, for the holy mountain of my God,

²² And he gives understanding, and speaks with me, and says, O Daniel, now I have come forth to cause you to consider understanding wisely;

²³ at the commencement of your supplications the word has come forth, and I have come to declare [it], for you [are] greatly desired, and understand concerning the matter, and consider concerning the appearance.

²⁴ Seventy periods of seven are determined for your people and for your holy city, to shut up the transgression, and to seal up sins, and to cover iniquity, and to bring in continuous righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophet, and to anoint the Holy of Holies.

²⁵ And you know, and consider wisely, from the going forth of the word to restore and to build Jerusalem until Messiah the Leader [is] seven periods of seven, and sixty-two periods of seven: the broad place has been built again, and the rampart, even in the distress of the times.

²⁶ And after the sixty-two periods of seven, Messiah is cut off, but not for Himself, and the people of the leader who is coming destroy the city and the holy place; and its end [is] with a flood, and until the end [is] war, [and] desolations [are] determined.

²⁷ And he has strengthened a covenant with many [for] one period of seven, and [in] the midst of the period of seven he causes sacrifice and present to cease, and by the wing of abominations he is making desolate, even until the consummation, and that which is determined is poured on the desolate one."

¹ In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing is revealed to Daniel, whose name is called Belteshazzar, and the thing [is] true, and the warfare [is] great: and he has understood the thing, and has understanding about the appearance.

² "In those days, I, Daniel, have been mourning three weeks of days;

³ I have not eaten desirable bread, and no flesh and wine came into my mouth, and I have not anointed myself at all, until the completion of three weeks of days.

⁴ And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I have been by the side of the great river, that [is] Hiddekel:

⁵ and I lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, a certain one clothed in linen, and his loins girt with pure gold of Uphaz,

⁷ And I, Daniel, have seen the vision by myself, and the men who have been with me have not seen the vision, but a great trembling has fallen on them, and they flee to be hidden;

⁹ And I hear the voice of his words, and when I hear the voice of his words, then I have been in a trance on my face, and my face [is] to the earth;

¹⁰ and behold, a hand has come against me, and shakes me on my knees and the palms of my hands.

¹¹ And he says to me: Daniel, man greatly desired, attend to the words that I am speaking to you, and stand on your station, for now I have been sent to you. And when he speaks with me this word, I have stood trembling.

¹² And he says to me: Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you gave your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

¹⁴ and I have come to cause you to understand that which happens to your people in the latter end of the days, for yet the vision [is] after days.

¹⁵ And when he speaks with me about these things, I have set my face toward the earth, and have been silent;

¹⁶ and behold, as the manner of the sons of men, he is striking against my lips, and I open my mouth, and I speak, and I say to him who is standing in opposition in front of me: My lord, by the vision my pangs have been turned against me, and I have retained no power.

¹⁷ And how is the servant of this my lord able to speak with this my lord? As for me, from now on there remains in me no power, indeed, breath has not been left in me.

¹⁸ And he adds, and strikes against me, as the appearance of a man, and strengthens me,

¹⁹ and he says: Do not fear, O man greatly desired, peace to you, be strong, indeed, be strong; and when he speaks with me, I have strengthened myself, and I say, Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.

²⁰ And he says, Have you known why I have come to you? And now I return to fight with the head of Persia; indeed, I am going forth, and behold, the head of Javan has come;

²¹ but I declare to you that which is noted down in the Writing of Truth, and there is not one strengthening himself with me, concerning these, except Michael your head.”

¹ “And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, my standing [is] for a strengthener, and for a stronghold to him;

² and now, I declare to you truth: Behold, yet three kings are standing for Persia, and the fourth becomes far richer than all, and according to his strength by his riches he stirs up the whole, with the kingdom of Javan.

³ And a mighty king has stood, and he has ruled a great dominion, and has done according to his will;

⁵ And a king of the south—even of his princes—becomes strong, and prevails against him, and has ruled; a great dominion [is] his dominion.

⁷ And [one] has stood up from a branch of her roots, [in] his station, and he comes to the bulwark, indeed, he comes into a stronghold of the king of the north, and has worked against them, and has done mightily;

⁸ and also their gods, with their princes, with their desirable vessels of silver and gold, he brings in captivity [to] Egypt; and he stands more years than the king of the north.

⁹ And the king of the south has come into the kingdom, and turned back to his own land;

¹⁰ and his sons stir themselves up, and have gathered a multitude of great forces, and he has certainly come in, and overflowed, and passed through, and he turns back, and they stir themselves up to his stronghold.

¹¹ And the king of the south becomes embittered, and has gone forth and fought with him, with the king of the north, and has caused a great multitude to stand, and the multitude has been given into his hand,

¹² and he has carried away the multitude, his heart is high, and he has caused myriads to fall, and he does not become strong.

¹⁴ and in those times many stand up against the king of the south, and sons of the destroyers of your people lift themselves up to establish the vision—and they have stumbled.

15 And the king of the north comes in, and pours out a mound, and has captured fortified cities; and the arms of the south do not stand, nor the people of his choice, indeed, there is no power to stand.

16 And he who is coming to him does according to his will, and there is none standing before him; and he stands in the desirable land, and [it is] wholly in his hand.

17 And he sets his face to go in with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; and he has worked, and the daughter of women he gives to him, to corrupt her; and she does not stand, nor is for him.

18 And he turns back his face to the islands, and has captured many; and a prince has caused his reproach of himself to cease; without his reproach he turns [it] back to him.

19 And he turns back his face to the strongholds of his land, and has stumbled and fallen, and is not found.

20 And stood up on his station has [one] causing an exactor to pass over the honor of the kingdom, and in a few days he is destroyed, and not in anger, nor in battle.

21 And a despicable one has stood up on his station, and they have not given to him the splendor of the kingdom, and he has come in quietly, and has strengthened the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And the arms of the flood are overflowed from before him, and are broken; and also the leader of the covenant.

23 And after they join themselves to him, he works deceit, and has increased, and has been strong by a few of the nation.

24 Peaceably even into the fertile places of the province He comes, and he has done that which his fathers did not, nor his fathers' fathers; prey, and spoil, and substance, he scatters to them, and against fortifications he devises his plans, even for a time.

25 And he stirs up his power and his heart against the king of the south with a great force, and the king of the south stirs himself up to battle with a very great and mighty force, and does not stand, for they devise plans against him,

26 and those eating his portion of food destroy him, and his force overflows, and many wounded have fallen.

27 And both of the kings' hearts [are] to do evil, and at one table they speak lies, and it does not prosper, for yet the end [is] at a time appointed.

28 And he turns back [to] his land with great substance, and his heart [is] against the holy covenant, and he has worked, and turned back to his land.

29 At the appointed time he turns back, and has come against the south, and it is not as the former, and as the latter.

30 And ships of Chittim have come in against him, and he has been pained, and has turned back, and has been insolent toward the holy covenant, and has worked, and turned back, and he understands concerning those forsaking the holy covenant.

31 And strong ones stand up out of him, and have defiled the sanctuary, the stronghold, and have turned aside the continual [sacrifice], and appointed the desolating abomination.

³² And those acting wickedly [against] the covenant, he defiles by flatteries; and the people knowing their God are strong, and have worked.

³³ And the teachers of the people give understanding to many; and they have stumbled by sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil—days.

³⁴ And in their stumbling, they are helped—a little help, and joined to them have been many with flatteries.

³⁵ And some of the teachers stumble for refining by them, and for purifying, and for making white—until the end of the time, for [it is] yet for a time appointed.

³⁶ And the king has done according to his will, and exalts himself, and magnifies himself against every god, and he speaks wonderful things against the God of gods, and has prospered until the indignation has been completed, for that which is determined has been done.

³⁷ And to the God of his fathers he does not attend, nor to the desire of women, indeed, he does not attend to any god, for he magnifies himself against all.

³⁹ And he has dealt in the fortresses of the strongholds with a strange god whom he has acknowledged; he multiplies honor, and has caused them to rule over many, and the ground he apportions at a price.

⁴¹ and has come into the desirable land, and many stumble, and these escape from his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon.

⁴² And he sends forth his hand on the lands, and the land of Egypt is not for an escape;

⁴³ and he has ruled over treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the desirable things of Egypt, and Lubim and Cushim [are] at his steps.

⁴⁴ And reports trouble him out of the east and out of the north, and he has gone forth in great fury to destroy, and to devote many to destruction;

⁴⁵ and he plants the tents of his palace between the seas and the holy desirable mountain, and has come to his end, and there is no helper to him.”

¹ “And at that time Michael stands up, the great head, who is standing up for the sons of your people, and there has been a time of distress, such as has not been since there has been a nation until that time, and at that time your people escape, everyone who is found written in the scroll.

² And the multitude of those sleeping in the dust of the ground awake, some to continuous life, and some to reproaches—to continuous abhorrence.

³ And those teaching shine as the brightness of the expanse, and those justifying the multitude as stars for all time and forever.”

⁴ “And you, O Daniel, hide the things, and seal the scroll until the time of the end, many go to and fro, and knowledge is multiplied.”

⁵ “And I have looked—I, Daniel—and behold, two others are standing, one here at the edge of the flood and one there at the edge of the flood,

⁶ and he says to the one clothed in linen, who [is] on the waters of the flood, Until when [is] the end of these wonders?

⁷ And I hear the one clothed in linen, who [is] on the waters of the flood, and he lifts up his right hand and his left to the heavens, and swears by Him who is living for all time, that, After a time, times, and a half, and at the completion of the scattering of the power of the holy people, all these are finished.

⁸ And I have heard, and I do not understand, and I say, O my lord, what [is] the latter end of these?

¹⁰ Purify themselves, indeed, make themselves white, indeed, many are refined: and the wicked have done wickedly, and none of the wicked understand, and those acting wisely understand;

¹¹ and from the time of the turning aside of the continuous [sacrifice], and to the giving out of the desolating abomination, [are] one thousand, two hundred, and ninety days.

¹² O the blessedness of him who is waiting earnestly, and comes to the one thousand, three hundred, thirty-five days.

¹³ And you, go on to the end, then you rest, and stand in your lot at the end of the days.”

Hosea

¹ A word of YHWH that has been to Hosea, son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel:

² The commencement of YHWH's speaking by Hosea. And YHWH says to Hosea, "Go, take a woman of whoredoms for yourself, and children of whoredoms, for the land goes utterly whoring from after YHWH."

³ And he goes and takes Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceives and bears a son to him;

⁴ and YHWH says to him, "Call his name Jezreel, for yet a little, and I have charged the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and have caused the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease;

⁵ and it has come to pass in that day that I have broken the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

⁶ And she conceives again, and bears a daughter, and He says to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah [(Not Loved)], for I no longer pity the house of Israel, for I utterly take them away;

⁷ and I pity the house of Judah, and have saved them by their God YHWH, and do not save them by bow, and by sword, and by battle, by horses, and by horsemen."

⁸ And she weans Lo-Ruhamah, and conceives, and bears a son;

⁹ and He says, "Call his name Lo-Ammi [(Not My People)], for you [are] not My people, and I am not for you;

¹⁰ and the number of the sons of Israel has been as the sand of the sea that is not measured nor numbered, and it has come to pass in the place where it is said to them, You [are] not My people, it is said to them, Sons of the Living God;

¹¹ and the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel have been gathered together, and they have appointed one head for themselves, and have gone up from the land, for great [is] the day of Jezreel."

¹ "Say to your brothers—Ammi, || And to your sisters—Ruhamah.

² Plead with your mother—plead || (For she [is] not My wife, and I [am] not her husband), || And she turns her whoredoms from before her, || And her adulteries from between her breasts,

³ Lest I strip her naked. And have set her up as [in] the day of her birth, || And have made her as a wilderness, || And have set her as a dry land, || And have put her to death with thirst.

⁴ And her sons I do not pity, || For they [are] sons of whoredoms,

⁵ For their mother has gone whoring, || Their conceiver has acted shamefully, || For she has said, I go after my lovers, || Those giving my bread and my water, || My wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.

⁶ Therefore, behold, I am hedging up your way with thorns, || And I have made a wall for her, || And her paths she does not find.

⁷ And she has pursued her lovers, || And she does not overtake them, || And has sought them, and does not find [them], || And she has said: I go, and I return to my first husband, || For—better to me than now.

⁸ And she did not know that I had given to her || The grain, and the new wine, and the oil. Indeed, I multiplied silver to her, || And the gold they prepared for Ba'al.

⁹ Therefore I return, || And I have taken My grain in its season, || And My new wine in its appointed time, || And I have taken away My wool and My flax, covering her nakedness.

¹⁰ And now I reveal her dishonor before the eyes of her lovers, || And none deliver her out of My hand.

¹¹ And I have caused all her joy to cease, || Her festival, her new moon, and her Sabbath, || Even all her appointed times,

¹² And made desolate her vine and her fig tree, || Of which she said, They [are] a wage to me, || That my lovers have given to me, || And I have made them for a forest, || And a beast of the field has consumed them.

¹³ And I have charged on her the days of the Ba'alim, || To whom she makes incense, || And puts on her ring and her ornament, || And goes after her lovers, || And forgot Me," a declaration of YHWH.

¹⁴ "Therefore, behold, I am enticing her, || And have caused her to go to the wilderness, || And I have spoken to her heart,

¹⁵ And given to her her vineyards from there, || And the Valley of Achor for an opening of hope, || And she has responded there as in the days of her youth, || And as in the day of her coming up out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁶ And it has come to pass in that day," || A declaration of YHWH, || "You call Me: My husband, || And do not call Me anymore: My lord.

¹⁷ And I have turned aside the names of the lords from her mouth, || And they are not remembered anymore by their name.

¹⁸ And I have made a covenant for them in that day, || With the beast of the field, || And with the bird of the heavens, || And the creeping thing of the ground, || And bow, and sword, and war I break from off the land, || And have caused them to lie down confidently.

¹⁹ And I have betrothed you to Me for all time, || And betrothed you to Me in righteousness, || And in judgment, and kindness, and mercies,

²⁰ And betrothed you to Me in faithfulness, || And you have known YHWH.

²¹ And it has come to pass in that day, I answer," || A declaration of YHWH, || "I answer the heavens, and they answer the earth.

²² And the earth answers the grain, || And the new wine, and the oil, || And they answer Jezreel.

²³ And I have sowed her to Me in the land, || And I have pitied Lo-Ruhamah, || And I have said to Lo-Ammi, You [are] My people, || And he says, My God!"

² And I buy her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver, and a homer and a lethech of barley;

³ and I say to her, “You remain many days for Me, you do not go whoring, nor become anyone’s; and I also [am] for you.”

⁴ For the sons of Israel remain without a king for many days, and there is no prince, and there is no sacrifice, and there is no standing pillar, and there is no ephod and teraphim.

⁵ Afterward the sons of Israel have turned back, and sought their God YHWH, and David their king, and have hurried to YHWH, and to His goodness, in the latter end of the days.

¹ “Hear a word of YHWH, sons of Israel, || For a strife [is] to YHWH with inhabitants of the land, || For there is no truth, nor kindness, || Nor knowledge of God in the land;

² Swearing, and lying, and murdering, || And stealing, and committing adultery—have increased, || And blood has touched against blood.

³ Therefore the land mourns, || And every dweller is weak in it, || With the beast of the field, || And with the bird of the heavens, || And the fishes of the sea—they are removed.

⁴ Only, let no one strive, nor reprove a man, || And your people [are] as those striving with a priest.

⁵ And you have stumbled in the day, || And a prophet has also stumbled with you in the night, || And I have cut off your mother.

⁶ My people have been cut off for lack of knowledge, || Because you have rejected knowledge, || I reject you from being priest to Me, || And you forget the Law of your God—I forget your sons, I also!

⁷ According to their abundance so they sinned against Me, || I change their glory into shame.

⁸ The sin of My people they eat, || And to their iniquity lift up their soul.

⁹ And it has been, like people, like priest, || And I have charged on it its ways, || And its habitual doings I return to it.

¹⁰ And they have eaten, and are not satisfied, || They have gone whoring, and do not increase, || For they have left off taking heed to YHWH.

¹¹ Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take the heart,

¹² My people at its staff asks and its rod declares to it, || For a spirit of whoredoms has caused to err, || And they go whoring from under their God.

¹³ On tops of the mountains they sacrifice, || And on the hills they make incense, || Under oak, and poplar, and terebinth, || For good [is] its shade.

¹⁴ Therefore your daughters commit whoredom, || And your spouses commit adultery, || I do not see after your daughters when they commit whoredom, || And after your spouses when they commit adultery, || For they with the harlots are separated, || And with the whores they sacrifice, || A people that does not understand kicks.

¹⁵ Though you [are] a harlot, O Israel, || Do not let Judah become guilty, || And do not come to Gilgal, nor go up to Beth-Aven, || Nor swear, YHWH lives.

¹⁶ For Israel has turned aside as a stubborn heifer, || Now YHWH feeds them as a lamb in a large place.

¹⁷ Ephraim is joined to idols, leave him alone.

¹⁸ Sour [is] their drink, || They have gone whoring diligently, || Her protectors have thoroughly loved shame.

¹⁹ Wind has distressed her with its wings, || And they are ashamed of their sacrifices!”

¹ “Hear this, O priests, and attend, O house of Israel, || And, O house of the king, give ear, || For the judgment [is] for you, || For you have been a snare on Mizpah, || And a net spread out on Tabor.

² And to slaughter sinners have gone deep, || And I [am] a chain to them all.

³ I have known Ephraim, || And Israel has not been hid from Me, || For now you have gone whoring, Ephraim, || Israel is defiled.

⁴ They do not give up their habitual doings, || To turn back to their God, || For a spirit of whoredoms [is] in their midst, || And YHWH they have not known.

⁶ With their flock and with their herd, || They go to seek YHWH, and do not find, || He has withdrawn from them.

⁷ Against YHWH they dealt treacherously, || For they have begotten strange sons, || Now a month consumes them [with] their portions.

⁸ Blow a horn in Gibeah, a trumpet in Ramah, || Shout, O Beth-Aven, after you, O Benjamin.

⁹ Ephraim is for a desolation in a day of reproof, || I have made known a sure thing among the tribes of Israel.

¹⁰ Princes of Judah have been as those removing a border, || I pour out My wrath as water on them.

¹¹ Ephraim is oppressed, broken in judgment, || When he pleased he went after the command.

¹² And I [am] as a moth to Ephraim, || And as a rotten thing to the house of Judah.

¹⁴ For I [am] as a lion to Ephraim, || And as a young lion to the house of Judah, I tear and go, || I carry away, and there is no deliverer.

¹⁵ I go—I return to My place, || Until they are desolate, and have sought My face. In their distress they seek Me speedily!”

¹ “Come, and we turn back to YHWH, || For He has torn, and He heals us, || He strikes, and He binds us up.

² He revives us after two days, || In the third day He raises us up, || And we live before Him.

³ And we know—we pursue know YHWH, || His going forth is prepared as the dawn, || And He comes in as a shower to us, || As spring rain [and] autumn rain to the earth.”

⁴ “What do I do to you, O Ephraim? What do I do to you, O Judah? Your goodness [is] as a cloud of the morning, || And as dew rising early—going.

⁵ Therefore I have hewed by prophets, || I have slain them by sayings of My mouth, || And My judgments go forth to the light.

⁶ For kindness I desired, and not sacrifice, || And a knowledge of God above burnt-offerings.

⁷ And they, as Adam, transgressed a covenant, || There they dealt treacherously against Me.

⁸ Gilead [is] a city of workers of iniquity, || Slippery from blood.

⁹ And as bands wait for a man, || A company of priests murder—the way to Shechem, || For they have done wickedness.

¹⁰ In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing, || There [is] the whoredom of Ephraim—Israel is defiled.

¹¹ Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed to you, || In My turning back [to] the captivity of My people!”

¹ “When I give healing to Israel, || Then the iniquity of Ephraim is revealed, || And the wickedness of Samaria, || For they have worked falsehood, || And a thief comes in, || A troop has stripped off in the street,

² And they do not say to their heart, || [That] I have remembered all their evil, || Now their doings have surrounded them, || They have been before My face.

³ With their wickedness they make a king glad, || And with their lies—princes.

⁴ All of them [are] adulterers, || Like a burning oven of a baker, || He ceases from stirring up after kneading the dough, until its leavening.

⁵ A day of our king! Princes have defiled themselves [with] the poison of wine, || He has drawn out his hand with scorners.

⁶ For they have drawn near, || Their heart [is] as an oven || In their lying in wait—their baker sleeps all night, || Morning! He is burning as a flaming fire.

⁷ All of them are warm as an oven, || And they have devoured their judges, || All their kings have fallen, || There is none calling to Me among them.

⁸ Ephraim! He mixes himself among peoples, || Ephraim has been an unturned cake.

⁹ Strangers have devoured his power, || And he has not known, || Also old age has sprinkled [itself] on him, || And he has not known.

¹⁰ And the excellence of Israel has been humbled to his face, || And they have not turned back to their God YHWH, || Nor have they sought Him for all this.

¹¹ And Ephraim is as a simple dove without heart, || Egypt they called on—[to] Asshur they have gone.

¹² When they go I spread over them My net, || As the bird of the heavens I bring them down, || I discipline them as their congregation has heard.

¹³ Woe to them, for they wandered from Me, || Destruction to them, for they transgressed against Me, || And I ransom them, and they have spoken lies against Me,

¹⁵ And I instructed—I strengthened their arms, || And concerning Me they think evil!

¹ “To your mouth—a horn, || As an eagle against the house of YHWH, || Because they transgressed My covenant, || And against My law they have rebelled.

² To Me they cry, My God, we—Israel—have known You.

³ Israel has cast off good, an enemy pursues him.

⁴ They have made kings, and not by Me, || They have made princes, and I have not known, || Their silver and their gold they have made to them idols, || So that they are cut off.

⁵ Your calf has cast off, O Samaria, || My anger has burned against them; Until when are they not capable of purity?

⁶ For even it [is] of Israel; a craftsman made it, || And it [is] not God, || For the calf of Samaria is fragments!

⁷ For wind they sow, and a windstorm they reap, || Stalk it has none—a shoot not yielding grain, || If so be it yield—strangers swallow it up.

⁸ Israel has been swallowed up, || Now they have been among nations, || As a vessel in which is no delight.

⁹ For they have gone up [to] Asshur, || A wild donkey alone by himself [is] Ephraim, || They have hired lovers!

¹⁰ Also though they hire among nations, || Now I gather them, and they are pained a little, || From the burden of a king of princes.

¹¹ Because Ephraim multiplied altars to sin, || They have been to him altars to sin.

¹² I write for him numerous things of My law, || As a strange thing they have been reckoned.

¹⁴ And Israel forgets his Maker, and builds temples, || And Judah has multiplied cities of defense, || And I have sent a fire into his cities, || And it has consumed their palaces!”

¹ “Do not rejoice, O Israel, do not be joyful like the peoples, || For you have gone whoring from your God, || You have loved a wage near all floors of grain.

² Floor and winepress do not feed them, || And new wine fails in her,

³ They do not abide in the land of YHWH, || And Ephraim has turned back [to] Egypt, || And they eat an unclean thing in Asshur.

⁵ What do you do at the day appointed? And at the day of YHWH’s festival?

⁶ For behold, they have gone because of destruction, || Egypt gathers them, Moph buries them, || The desirable things of their silver, || Nettles possess them—a thorn [is] in their tents.

⁸ Ephraim is looking [away] from My God, || The prophet! A snare of a fowler [is] over all his ways, || Hatred [is] in the house of his God.

⁹ They have gone deep—have done corruptly, || As [in] the days of Gibeah, || He remembers their iniquity, He inspects their sins.

¹¹ Ephraim [is] as a bird, their glory flies away, without birth, and without womb, and without conception.

¹² For though they nourish their sons, I have made them childless—without man, || Surely also, woe to them when I turn aside from them.

¹³ Ephraim! When I have looked to the rock, || Is planted in comeliness, || And Ephraim [is] to bring out his sons to a slayer.

¹⁴ Give to them, YHWH—what do You give? Give to them miscarrying womb, and dry breasts.

¹⁵ All their evil [is] in Gilgal, || Surely there I have hated them, || Because of the evil of their doings, || Out of My house I drive them, || I no longer love them, || All their heads [are] apostates.

¹⁷ My God rejects them, || Because they have not listened to Him, || And they are wanderers among nations!"

² Their heart has been divided, now they are guilty, || He breaks down their altars, || He destroys their standing-pillars.

³ For now they say: We have no king, || Because we have not feared YHWH, || And the king—what does he do for us?

⁴ They have spoken words, || To swear falsehood in making a covenant, || And flourished as a poisonous herb has judgment, on the furrows of a field.

⁵ For the inhabitants of Samaria fear the calves of Beth-Aven, || Surely its people have mourned on account of it, || And its priests leap about on account of it, || Because of its glory, for it has removed from it,

⁷ Samaria is cut off! Its king [is] as wrath on the face of the waters.

⁸ And high places of Aven have been destroyed, the sin of Israel. Thorn and bramble go up on their altars, || And they have said to hills, Cover us, || And to heights, Fall on us.

¹⁰ When I desire, then I bind them, || And peoples have gathered against them, || When they bind themselves to their two iniquities.

¹¹ And Ephraim [is] a trained heifer—loving to thresh, || And I have passed over on the goodness of its neck, || I cause [one] to ride Ephraim, || Judah plows, Jacob harrows for him.

¹² Sow for yourselves in righteousness, || Reap according to loving-kindness, || Till for yourselves tillage of knowledge, || To seek YHWH, || Until He comes and shows righteousness to you.

¹³ You have plowed wickedness, || Perversity you have reaped, || You have eaten the fruit of lying, || For you have trusted in your way, || In the abundance of your might.

¹⁵ Thus has Beth-El done to you, || Because of the evil of your wickedness, || In the dawn a king of Israel is utterly cut off!"

11

¹ "Because Israel [is] a youth, and I love him, || Out of Egypt I have called for My Son.

² They have called to them correctly, || They have gone from before them, || They sacrifice to lords, || And make incense to carved images.

³ And I have caused Ephraim to go on foot, || Taking them by their arms, || And they have not known that I strengthened them.

⁴ I draw them with cords of man, || With thick cords of love, || And I am to them as a raiser up of a yoke on their jaws, || And I incline to him—I feed [him].

⁵ He does not return to the land of Egypt, || And Asshur—he [is] his king, || For they have refused to return.

⁶ The sword has been grievous in his cities, || And it has ended his bars, and consumed—from their own counsels.

⁷ And My people are hanging in suspense about My returning, || And to the Most High they call, || Together they do not exalt.

⁸ How do I give you up, O Ephraim? Do I deliver you up, O Israel? How do I make you as Admah? Do I set you as Zeboim? My heart is turned in Me, || My sympathy has been kindled together.

⁹ I do not do the fierceness of My anger, || I do not turn back to destroy Ephraim, || For I [am] God, and not a man—The Holy One in your midst, and I do not enter in enmity.

¹⁰ They go after YHWH—He roars as a lion, || When He roars, then the sons from the west tremble.

¹¹ They tremble as a sparrow out of Egypt, || And as a dove out of the land of Asshur, || And I have caused them to dwell in their own houses," || A declaration of YHWH.

12 “Ephraim has surrounded Me with feigning, || And the house of Israel with deceit. And Judah is again ruling with God, || And [is] faithful with the Holy Ones!”

1 “Ephraim is enjoying wind, || And is pursuing an east wind, || All the day he multiplies lying and spoiling, || And they make a covenant with Asshur, || And oil is carried to Egypt.

2 And YHWH has a controversy with Judah, || To lay a charge on Jacob according to his ways, || He returns to him according to his doings.

3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel, || And by his strength he was a prince with God,

4 Indeed, he is a prince to the Messenger, || And he overcomes [by] weeping, || And he makes supplication to Him, || At Bethel He finds him, || And there He speaks with us,

5 Even YHWH, God of the Hosts, YHWH [is] His memorial.

6 And you, through your God, turn, || Keep kindness and judgment, || And wait on your God continually.

7 Canaan! In his hand [are] balances of deceit! He has loved to oppress.

8 And Ephraim says, || Surely I have become rich, I have found wealth for myself, || All my labors—they do not find against me iniquity that [is] sin.

9 And I—your God YHWH from the land of Egypt, || Again I turn you back into tents, || As in the days of the appointed time.

10 And I have spoken to the prophets, || And I have multiplied vision, || And by the hand of the prophets I use allegories.

11 Surely Gilead [is] iniquity, || They have been only vanity, || In Gilead they have sacrificed bullocks, || Also their altars [are] as heaps, on the furrows of a field.

12 And Jacob flees to the country of Aram, || And Israel serves for a wife, || Indeed, he has kept watch for a wife.

13 And by a prophet has YHWH brought up Israel out of Egypt, || And by a prophet it has been watched.

14 Ephraim has most bitterly provoked, || And he leaves his blood on himself, || And his Lord turns his reproach back to him!”

1 “When Ephraim speaks tremblingly, || He has been lifted up in Israel, || When he becomes guilty in Ba’al he dies.

2 And now they sin, || And make for themselves a molten image of their silver, || By their own understanding—idols, || A work of artisans—all of it, || Of them they say, who [are] sacrificers among men, The calves let them kiss.

3 Therefore they are as a cloud of the morning, || And as dew, rising early, going away, || As chaff tossed about out of a floor, || And as smoke out of a window.

4 And I [am] your God YHWH from the land of Egypt, || And you do not know a God besides Me, || And a Savior—there is none except Me.

5 I have known you in a wilderness, || In a land of droughts.

⁶ They are satiated according to their feedings, || They have been satiated, || And their heart is lifted up, || Therefore they have forgotten Me,

⁷ And I am to them as a lion, || I look out as a leopard by the way.

⁸ I meet them as a bereaved bear, || And I tear the enclosure of their heart, || And I consume them there as a lioness, || A beast of the field tears them.

⁹ You have destroyed yourself, O Israel, || But in Me [is] your help;

¹⁰ Where [is] your king now—And he saves you in all your cities? And your judges of whom you said, || Give a king and heads to me?

¹¹ I give to you a king in My anger, || And I take away in My wrath.

¹² Bound up [is] the iniquity of Ephraim, || Hidden [is] his sin,

¹³ Pangs of a travailing woman come to him, || He [is] not a wise son, || For he does not remain [at] the time for the breaking forth of sons.

¹⁴ Will I ransom them from the hand of Sheol? Will I redeem them from death? Where [is] your plague, O death? Where your destruction, O Sheol? Comfort is hid from My eyes.

14

¹ “Turn back, O Israel, to your God YHWH, || For you have stumbled by your iniquity.

² Take words with you, and turn to YHWH, || Say to Him, Take away all iniquity, and give good, || And we render the fruit of our lips.

³ Asshur does not save us, we do not ride on a horse, || Nor do we say anymore, Our god, to the work of our hands, || For in You the fatherless find mercy.

⁴ I heal their backsliding, I love them freely, || For My anger has turned back from him.

⁵ I am as dew to Israel, he flourishes as a lily, || And he strikes forth his roots as Lebanon.

⁶ His shoots go on, || And his splendor is as an olive, || And he has fragrance as Lebanon.

⁷ The dwellers return under his shadow, || They revive [as] grain, and flourish as a vine, || His memorial [is] as wine of Lebanon.

⁸ O Ephraim, what have I anymore to do with idols? I have answered, and I look after him: I [am] as a green fir-tree, || Your fruit is found from Me.

⁹ Who [is] wise, and understands these? Prudent, and knows them? For upright are the ways of YHWH, || And the righteous go on in them, || And the transgressors stumble therein!”

Joel

¹ A word of YHWH that has been to Joel, son of Pethuel:

² Hear this, you aged ones, || And give ear, all you inhabitants of the land, || Has this been in your days? Or in the days of your fathers?

³ Concerning it talk to your sons, || And your sons to their sons, || And their sons to another generation.

⁵ Awake, you drunkards, and weep, || And howl all drinking wine, because of the juice, || For it has been cut off from your mouth.

⁶ For a nation has come up on My land, || Strong, and there is no number, || Its teeth [are] the teeth of a lion, || And it has the jaw-teeth of a lioness.

⁷ It has made My vine become a desolation, || And My fig tree become a splinter, || It has made it thoroughly bare, and has cast down, || Its branches have been made white.

⁸ Wail, as a virgin girds with sackcloth, || For the husband of her youth.

⁹ Present and drink-offering have been cut off from the house of YHWH, || The priests have mourned, servants of YHWH.

¹⁰ The field is spoiled, || The ground has mourned, || For the grain is spoiled, || New wine has been dried up, oil languishes.

¹¹ Be ashamed, you farmers, || Howl, vinedressers, for wheat and for barley, || For the harvest of the field has perished.

¹² The vine has been dried up, || And the fig tree languishes, || Pomegranate, also palm, and apple-tree, || All trees of the field have withered, || For joy has been dried up from the sons of men.

¹³ Gird, and lament, you priests, || Howl, you servants of the altar, || Come in, lodge in sackcloth, servants of my God, || For present and drink-offering have been withheld from the house of your God.

¹⁴ Sanctify a fast, proclaim a restraint, || Gather [the] elderly [and] all those inhabiting the land, || [Into the] house of your God YHWH,

¹⁵ And cry to YHWH, "Aah! For the day! For [the] Day of YHWH [is] near, || And it comes as destruction from [the] Almighty.

¹⁶ Is food not cut off before our eyes? Joy and rejoicing from the house of our God?

¹⁷ Scattered things have rotted under their clods, || Storehouses have been desolated, || Granaries have been broken down, || For the grain has withered.

¹⁸ How livestock have sighed! Perplexed have been droves of oxen, || For there is no pasture for them, || Also droves of sheep have been desolated.

¹⁹ To You, O YHWH, I call, || For fire has consumed lovely places of a wilderness, || And a flame has set on fire all trees of the field.

²⁰ Also the livestock of the field long for You, || For dried up have been streams of water, || And fire has consumed lovely places of a wilderness!"

¹ Blow a horn in Zion, || And shout in My holy hill, || All inhabitants of the earth tremble, || For the Day of YHWH is coming, for [it is] near!

² A day of darkness and thick darkness, || A day of cloud and thick darkness, || As darkness spread on the mountains, || A people numerous and mighty, || Like there has not been from of old, || And after it there is not again—Until the years of generation and generation.

³ Before it fire has consumed, || And after it a flame burns, || As the Garden of Eden [is] the land before it, || And after it a wilderness—a desolation! And also there has not been to it an escape,

⁴ As the appearance of horses [is] its appearance, || And as horsemen, so they run.

⁵ As the noise of chariots, they skip on the tops of the mountains, || As the noise of a flame of fire devouring stubble, || As a mighty people set in array for battle.

⁶ Pained are peoples from its face, || All faces have gathered paleness.

⁷ They run as mighty ones, || As men of war they go up a wall, || And they each go in his own ways, || And they do not change their paths.

⁸ And each does not press his brother, || They each go on in his way, || If they fall by the missile, they are not cut off.

⁹ In the city they run to and fro, || On the wall they run, || Into houses they go up by the windows, || They go in as a thief.

¹¹ And YHWH has given forth His voice before His force, || For His camp [is] very great, || For mighty [is] the doer of His word, || For great [is] the Day of YHWH—very fearful, || And who bears it?

¹² “And also now,” a declaration of YHWH, || “Turn back to Me with all your heart, || And with fasting, and with weeping, || And with lamentation.”

¹³ And tear your heart, and not your garments, || And turn back to your God YHWH, || For He [is] gracious and merciful, || Slow to anger, and abundant in kindness, || And relenting from evil.

¹⁴ Who knows—He turns back, || Indeed—He has relented, || And He has left behind Him a blessing, || A present and drink-offering of your God YHWH?

¹⁵ Blow a horn in Zion, || Sanctify a fast—proclaim a restraint.

¹⁶ Gather the people, sanctify an assembly, || Assemble the aged, || Gather infants and sucklings of the breasts, || Let a bridegroom go out from his inner chamber, || And a bride out of her closet.

¹⁷ Let the priests weep between the porch and the altar, servants of YHWH, || And let them say: “Have pity, O YHWH, on Your people, || And do not give Your inheritance to reproach, || To the ruling over them of nations, || Why do they say among peoples, Where [is] their God?”

¹⁸ And let YHWH be zealous for His land, || And have pity on His people.

¹⁹ Let YHWH answer and say to His people, || “Behold, I am sending to you the grain, || And the new wine, and the oil, || And you have been satisfied with it, || And I make you no longer a reproach among nations,

²⁰ And the northern I put far off from you, || And have driven him to a land dry and desolate, || With his face toward the Eastern Sea, || And his rear to the Western Sea, || And his stink has come up, || And his stench comes up, || For he has exerted himself to work.”

²¹ Do not fear, O land! Be glad and rejoice, || For YHWH has exerted Himself to work.

²² Do not fear, O livestock of the field! For pastures of a wilderness have sprung up, || For the tree has borne its fruit, || Fig tree and vine have given their strength!

²³ And you sons of Zion, || Be glad and rejoice in your God YHWH, || For He has given to you the Teacher for righteousness, || And causes a shower to come down to you, || Early rain and spring rain [as] in the beginning.

²⁴ And the floors have been full [with] pure grain, || And the presses have overflowed [with] new wine and oil.

²⁵ “And I have repaid to you the years that the locust consumed, || The cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, || My great force that I sent against you.

²⁶ And you have eaten, eating and being satisfied, || And have praised the Name of your God YHWH, || Who has dealt with you wonderfully, || And My people are not ashamed for all time.

²⁷ And you have known that I [am] in the midst of Israel, || And I [am] your God YHWH, and there is none else, || And My people are not ashamed for all time.

²⁸ And it has come to pass afterward, || I pour out My Spirit on all flesh, || And your sons and your daughters have prophesied, || Your old men dream dreams, || Your young men see visions.

²⁹ And also on the menservants and on the maidservants, || In those days I pour out My Spirit.

³⁰ And I have given wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood, and fire, and columns of smoke.

³¹ The sun is turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, || Before the coming of the Day of YHWH, || The great and the fearful.

³² And it has come to pass, || Everyone who calls on the Name of YHWH is delivered, || For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there is an escape, || As YHWH has said, || And among the remnants whom YHWH is calling!”

¹ “For behold, in those days, and in that time, || When I turn back [to] the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

² Then I have gathered all the nations, || And caused them to go down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, || And I have been in judgment with them there, || Concerning My people and My inheritance—Israel, || Whom they scattered among nations, || And My land they have apportioned.

³ And for My people they cast a lot, || And they give the young man for a harlot, || And have sold the young woman for wine, || That they may drink.

⁴ And also, what [are] you to Me, O Tyre and Sidon, || And all circuits of Philistia? Are you rendering repayment to Me? And if you are giving repayment to Me, || Swiftly, quickly, I return your repayment on your head.

⁵ In that My silver and My gold you took, || And My desirable things that are good, || You have brought into your temples.

⁶ And sons of Judah, and sons of Jerusalem, || You have sold to the sons of Javan, || To put them far off from their border.

⁷ Behold, I am stirring them up out of the place || To where you have sold them, || And I have turned back your repayment on your head,

⁸ And have sold your sons and your daughters || Into the hand of the sons of Judah, || And they have sold them to Sabeans, || To a nation far off, for YHWH has spoken.”

⁹ Proclaim this among nations, || Sanctify a war, stir up the mighty ones, || Come near, come up, let all the men of war.

¹⁰ Beat your plowshares to swords, || And your pruning-hooks to javelins, || Let the weak say, “I [am] mighty.”

¹¹ Hurry, and come in, all you nations around, || And be gathered together, || There cause to come down, O YHWH, || Your mighty ones.

¹² “Let the nations wake and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, || For there I sit to judge all the nations around.

¹³ Send forth a sickle, || For harvest has ripened, || Come in, come down, for the press has been filled, || Winepresses have overflowed, || For great [is] their wickedness.”

¹⁴ Multitudes, multitudes [are] in the Valley of Decision, || For near [is] the Day of YHWH in the Valley of Decision.

¹⁵ Sun and moon have been black, || And stars have gathered up their shining.

¹⁶ And YHWH roars from Zion, || And gives forth His voice from Jerusalem, || And the heavens and earth have shaken, || And YHWH [is] a refuge to His people, || And a stronghold to sons of Israel.

¹⁷ “And you have known that I [am] your God YHWH, || Dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain, || And Jerusalem has been holy, || And strangers do not pass over into it again.”

¹⁸ And it has come to pass in that day, || The mountains drop down juice, || And the hills flow [with] milk, || And all streams of Judah go [with] water, || And a fountain from the house of YHWH goes forth, || And has watered the Valley of Shittim.

¹⁹ “Egypt becomes a desolation, || And Edom becomes a desolation, a wilderness, || For violence [to] sons of Judah, || Whose innocent blood they shed in their land.

²⁰ And Judah dwells for all time, || And Jerusalem to generation and generation.

²¹ And I have declared their blood innocent, || [That] I did not declare innocent, || And YHWH is dwelling in Zion!”

Amos

¹ Words of Amos—who has been among herdsmen of Tekoa—that he has seen concerning Israel, in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the shaking;

² and he says, “YHWH roars from Zion, || And gives forth His voice from Jerusalem, || And pastures of the shepherds have mourned, || And the top of Carmel has withered!”

⁴ And I have sent a fire against the house of Hazael, || And it has consumed the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

⁵ And I have broken the bar of Damascus, || And cut off the inhabitant from Bikat-Aven, || And a holder of a scepter from Beth-Eden, || And the people of Aram have been removed to Kir,” said YHWH.

⁶ Thus said YHWH: “For three transgressions of Gaza, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of their removing a complete captivity, || To deliver up to Edom,

⁷ And I have sent a fire against the wall of Gaza, || And it has consumed her palaces;

⁸ And I have cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, || And a holder of a scepter from Ashkelon, || And have turned back My hand against Ekron, || And the remnant of the Philistines have perished,” said Lord YHWH.

⁹ Thus said YHWH: “For three transgressions of Tyre, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of their delivering up a complete captivity to Edom, || And they did not remember the brotherly covenant,

¹⁰ And I have sent a fire against the wall of Tyre, || And it has consumed her palaces.”

¹¹ Thus said YHWH: “For three transgressions of Edom, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of his pursuing his brother with a sword, || And he has destroyed his mercies, || And his anger tears continuously, || And his wrath—he has kept it forever,

¹² And I have sent a fire against Teman, || And it has consumed palaces of Bozrah.”

¹³ Thus said YHWH: “For three transgressions of the sons of Ammon, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of their ripping up the pregnant ones of Gilead, || To enlarge their border,

¹⁴ And I have kindled a fire against the wall of Rabbah, || And it has consumed her palaces, || With a shout in a day of battle, || With a whirlwind in a day of windstorm,

¹⁵ And their king has gone in a removal, || He and his heads together,” said YHWH!

¹ Thus said YHWH: “For three transgressions of Moab, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of his burning the bones of the king of Edom to lime,

² And I have sent a fire against Moab, || And it has consumed the palaces of Kerioth, || And Moab is dying with noise, || With shouting, with voice of a horn.

³ And I have cut off judge from her midst, || And I slay all its heads with him," said YHWH.

⁴ Thus said YHWH: "For three transgressions of Judah, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of their loathing the Law of YHWH, || And His statutes they have not kept, || And their lies cause them to err, || After which their fathers walked,

⁵ And I have sent a fire against Judah, || And it has consumed palaces of Jerusalem."

⁶ Thus said YHWH: "For three transgressions of Israel, || And for four, I do not reverse it, || Because of their selling the righteous for silver, || And the needy for a pair of sandals.

⁸ And they stretch themselves on pledged garments near every altar, || And the wine of fined ones they drink [in] the house of their gods.

⁹ And I have destroyed the Amorite from before them, || Whose height [is] as the height of cedars, || And he [is] strong as the oaks, || And I destroy his fruit from above, || And his roots from beneath.

¹⁰ And I have brought you up from the land of Egypt, || And cause you to go in a wilderness forty years, || To possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹ And I raise of your sons for prophets, || And of your choice ones for Nazarites, || Is this not true, O sons of Israel?" A declaration of YHWH.

¹² "And you cause the Nazarites to drink wine, || And on the prophets you have laid a charge, || Saying, Do not prophesy!

¹³ Behold, I am pressing you under, || As the full cart presses a sheaf for itself.

¹⁴ And refuge has perished from the swift, || And the strong does not strengthen his power, || And the mighty does not deliver his soul.

¹⁶ And the courageous of heart among the mighty, || Flees naked in that day," || A declaration of YHWH!

¹ Hear this word that YHWH has spoken concerning you, O sons of Israel, concerning all the family that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

² "Only you have I known of all families of the earth, || Therefore I charge on you all your iniquities."

³ Do two walk together if they have not met?

⁴ Does a lion roar in a forest and he has no prey? Does a young lion give out his voice from his habitation, || If he has not caught?

⁵ Does a bird fall into a snare of the earth, || And there is no trap for it? Does a snare go up from the ground, || And it does not capture prey?

⁶ Is a horn blown in a city, || And do people not tremble? Is there affliction in a city, || And YHWH has not done [it]?

⁷ For Lord YHWH does nothing, || Except He has revealed His counsel to His servants the prophets.

⁸ A lion has roared—who does not fear? Lord YHWH has spoken—who does not prophesy?

¹⁰ And they have not known to act straightforwardly,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “Who are treasuring up violence and spoil in their palaces.”

¹¹ Therefore, thus said Lord YHWH: “An adversary—and surrounding the land, || And he has brought down your strength from you, || And your palaces have been spoiled.”

¹² Thus said YHWH: “As the shepherd delivers from the lion’s mouth || Two legs, or a piece of an ear, || So the sons of Israel are delivered, || Who are sitting in Samaria on the corner of a bed, || And in Damascus [on that of] a couch.

¹³ Hear and testify to the house of Jacob,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH, God of Hosts.

¹⁴ “For in the day of My charging the transgressions of Israel on him, I have laid a charge on the altars of Beth-El, || And the horns of the altar have been cut off, || And they have fallen to the earth.

² Lord YHWH has sworn by His holiness, || “Behold, days are coming on you, || And He has taken you away with hooks, || And your posterity with fish-hooks.

³ And [by] breaches you go forth, || A woman before her, || And you have cast down the high place,” || A declaration of YHWH.

⁴ “Enter Beth-El, and transgress, || At Gilgal multiply transgression, || And bring in your sacrifices every morning, || Your tithes every third year.

⁵ And burn a thank-offering with leaven as incense, || And proclaim willing gifts, sound! For so you have loved, O sons of Israel,” || A declaration of Lord YHWH.

⁶ “And I also—I have given to you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, || And lack of bread in all your places, || And you have not turned back to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

⁷ “And I also—I have withheld from you the rain, || While yet three months to harvest, || And I have sent rain on one city, || And on another city I do not send rain, || One portion is rained on, || And the portion on which it does not rain withers.

⁸ And two or three cities have wandered, || To the same city to drink water, || And they are not satisfied, || And you have not turned back to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

9 “I have struck you with blasting and with mildew, || The abundance of your gardens and of your vineyards, || And of your figs, and of your olives, || The palmer-worm eats, || And you have not turned back to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

10 “I have sent among you pestilence by the way of Egypt, || I have slain your choice ones by sword, || With your captive horses, || And I cause the stink of your camps to come up—Even into your nostrils, || And you have not turned back to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

11 “I have overturned among you, || Like the overturn by God of Sodom and Gomorrah, || And you are as a brand delivered from a burning, || And you have not turned back to Me,” || A declaration of YHWH.

12 “Therefore, thus I do to you, O Israel, at last, || Because this I do to you, || Prepare to meet your God, O Israel.”

13 For behold, the Former of mountains, and Creator of wind, || And the Declarer to man what [is] His thought, || He is making dawn obscurity, || And is treading on high places of earth, || YHWH, God of Hosts, [is] His Name!

1 Hear this word that I am bearing to you, || A lamentation, O house of Israel:

2 “Fallen, not to rise again, has the virgin of Israel, || Left on her land—she has none [to] raise [her] up.”

3 For thus said Lord YHWH: “The city that is going out one thousand, || Leaves one hundred, || And that which is going out one hundred, || Leaves ten to the house of Israel.”

4 For thus said YHWH to the house of Israel: “Seek Me, and live,

5 And do not seek Beth-El, and do not enter Gilgal, || And do not pass through Beer-Sheba, || For Gilgal utterly removes, || And Beth-El becomes vanity.

6 Seek YHWH, and live, || Lest He prosper as fire [against] the house of Joseph, || And it has consumed, || And there is no quencher for Beth-El—

7 You who are turning judgment to wormwood, || And have put down righteousness to the earth!”

8 The Maker of the Pleiades and Orion, || And He who is turning death-shade to the morning—And He has made day [as] dark [as] night—Who is calling to the waters of the sea, || And pours them on the face of the earth, || YHWH [is] His Name;

9 Who is brightening up the spoiled against the strong, || And the spoiled comes against a fortress.

10 They have hated a reprover in the gate, || And they detest a plain speaker.

11 Therefore, because of your trampling on the poor, || And the tribute of grain you take from him, || Houses of hewn work you have built, || And you do not dwell in them, || Desirable vineyards you have planted, || And you do not drink their wine.

12 For I have known—many [are] your transgressions, || And mighty your sins, || Adversaries of the righteous, taking ransoms, || And you turned aside the needy in the gate.

13 Therefore the wise is silent at that time, || For it [is] an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good, and not evil, that you may live, and it is so; YHWH, God of Hosts, [is] with you, as you said.

¹⁵ Hate evil, and love good, || And set up judgment in the gate, || It may be YHWH, God of Hosts, pities the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶ Therefore, thus said YHWH, God of Hosts, the Lord: “Lamentation is in all broad places, || And in all out-places they say, Oh! Oh! And called the farmer to mourning, || And the skillful of wailing to lamentation.

¹⁷ And in all vineyards [is] lamentation, || For I pass into your midst,” said YHWH.

¹⁸ Behold, you who are desiring the Day of YHWH, || Why [is] this to you—the Day of YHWH? It is darkness, and not light,

¹⁹ As [when] one flees from the face of the lion, || And the bear has met him, || And he has come into the house, || And has leaned his hand on the wall, || And the serpent has bitten him.

²⁰ Is not the Day of YHWH darkness and not light, || Even thick darkness that has no brightness?

²¹ “I have hated—I have loathed your festivals, || And I am not refreshed by your restraints.

²² For though you cause burnt-offerings and your presents to ascend to Me, || I am not pleased, || And I do not behold the peace-offering of your fatlings.

²³ Turn the noise of your songs aside from Me, || Indeed, I do not hear the praise of your stringed instruments.

²⁴ And judgment rolls on as waters, || And righteousness as a perennial stream.

²⁵ Did you bring sacrifices and offerings near to Me, || In a wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

²⁶ And you bore Succoth your king, and Chiun your images, || The star of your god, that you made for yourselves.

¹ Woe [to] those secure in Zion, || And those confident on the mountain of Samaria, || The marked of the chief of the nations, || And the house of Israel has come to them.

² Pass over [to] Calneh and see, || And go there [to] Hamath the great, || And go down [to] Gath of the Philistines, || Are [they] better than these kingdoms? [Is] their border greater than your border?

³ Who are putting away the day of evil, || And you bring the seat of violence near,

⁴ Who are lying down on beds of ivory, || And are spread out on their couches, || And are eating lambs from the flock, || And calves from the midst of the stall,

⁵ Who are taking part according to the stringed instrument, || Like David they invented for themselves instruments of music;

⁶ Who are drinking with bowls of wine, || And anoint themselves [with] chief perfumes, || And have not been pained for the breach of Joseph.

⁷ Therefore they now go at the head of the captives, || And the mourning-feast of stretched-out ones is turned aside.

⁸ Lord YHWH has sworn by Himself, || A declaration of YHWH, God of Hosts: "I am abominating the excellence of Jacob, || And his high places I have hated, || And I have delivered up the city and its fullness."

⁹ And if there are left ten persons in one house, || It has come to pass—that they have died.

¹⁰ And his loved one has lifted him up, even his burner, || To bring forth the bones from the house, || And he said to him who [is] in the sides of the house, || "Is there [any] yet with you?" And he said, "None," || Then he said, "Hush! We must not make mention of the Name of YHWH."

¹¹ For behold, YHWH is commanding, || And He has struck the great house [with] breaches, || And the little house [with] clefts.

¹² Do horses run on a rock? Does one plow [it] with oxen? For you have turned judgment to gall, || And the fruit of righteousness to wormwood.

¹³ O you who are rejoicing at nothing, || Who are saying, "Have we not taken to ourselves horns by our strength?"

¹⁴ "Surely, behold, I am raising a nation against you, O house of Israel," || A declaration of YHWH, God of Hosts, || "And they have oppressed you from the coming in to Hamath, || To the stream of the desert."

¹ Thus Lord YHWH has showed me, and behold, He is forming locusts at the beginning of the ascending of the latter growth, and behold, the latter growth [is] after the mowings of the king [[or King Gog]];

² and it has come to pass, when it has finished to consume the herb of the land, that I say, "Lord YHWH, please forgive, || How does Jacob arise—for he [is] small?"

³ YHWH has relented of this, "It will not be," said YHWH.

⁴ Thus has Lord YHWH showed me, and behold, Lord YHWH is calling to contend by the fire, and it consumes the great deep, indeed, it has consumed the portion, and I say,

⁵ "Lord YHWH, please cease, || How does Jacob arise—for he [is] small?"

⁶ YHWH has relented of this, "It also will not be," said Lord YHWH.

⁷ Thus has He showed me, and behold, the Lord is standing by a wall [made according to] a plumb-line, and in His hand a plumb-line;

⁸ and YHWH says to me, "What are you seeing, Amos?" And I say, "A plumb-line"; and the Lord says: "Behold, I am setting a plumb-line in the midst of My people Israel, I no longer pass over to it.

⁹ And high places of Isaac have been desolated, || And sanctuaries of Israel are dried up, || And I have risen against the house of Jeroboam with a sword."

¹⁰ And Amaziah priest of Beth-El sends to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words,

¹¹ for thus said Amos: Jeroboam dies by sword, || And Israel certainly removes from off its land."

¹² And Amaziah says to Amos, "Seer, go, flee to the land of Judah for yourself, and eat bread there, and there you prophesy;

¹³ and no longer prophesy [at] Beth-El anymore, for it [is] the king's sanctuary, and it [is] the royal house."

¹⁴ And Amos answers and says to Amaziah, "I [am] no prophet, nor [am] I a prophet's son, but I [am] a herdsman, and a cultivator of sycamores,

¹⁵ and YHWH takes me from after the flock, and YHWH says to me, Go, prophesy to My people Israel.

¹⁶ And now, hear a word of YHWH: You are saying, Do not prophesy against Israel, nor drop [anything] against the house of Isaac,

¹⁷ therefore, thus said YHWH: Your wife goes whoring in the city, || And your sons and your daughters fall by sword, || And your land is apportioned by line, || And you die on an unclean land, || And Israel certainly removes from off its land."

¹ Thus has Lord YHWH showed me, and behold, a basket of summer-fruit.

² And He says, "What are you seeing, Amos?" And I say, "A basket of summer-fruit." And YHWH says to me: "The end has come to My people Israel, || I no longer pass over to it anymore.

³ And female singers have howled of a palace in that day," || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || "Many [are] the carcasses, into any place throw—hush!"

⁴ Hear this, you who are swallowing up the needy, || To cause the poor of the land to cease,

⁷ YHWH has sworn by the excellence of Jacob: "I do not forget any of their works forever.

⁸ Does the land not tremble for this, || And every dweller in it has mourned? And all of it has come up as a flood. And it has been cast out, and has sunk, || Like the flood of Egypt.

⁹ And it has come to pass in that day," || A declaration of Lord YHWH, || "I have caused the sun to go in at noon, || And caused darkness on the land in a day of light,

¹⁰ And have turned your festivals to mourning, || And all your songs to lamentation, || And caused sackcloth to come up on all loins, || And on every head—baldness, || And made it as a mourning of an only one, || And its latter end as a day of bitterness.

¹² And they have wandered from sea to sea, || And from north even to east, || They go to and fro to seek the word of YHWH, || And they do not find [it].

¹³ In that day the beautiful virgins, || And the young men, faint with thirst.

¹⁴ Those swearing by the guilt of Samaria, || And who have said, Your god lives, O Dan, || And, The way of Beer-Sheba lives, || Indeed, they have fallen and do not rise again!"

¹ I have seen the Lord standing by the altar, and He says, || “Strike the knob, and the thresholds shake, || And cut them off by the head—all of them, || And I slay their posterity with a sword, || None that flee of them flee away, || Nor a fugitive of them escape.

² If they dig through into Sheol, || From there My hand takes them, || And if they go up [to] the heavens, || From there I cause them to come down.

³ And if they are hid in the top of Carmel, || From there I search out, and have taken them, || And if they are hid from My eyes in the bottom of the sea, || From there I command the serpent, || And it has bitten them.

⁴ And if they go into captivity before their enemies, || From there I command the sword, || And it has slain them, || And I have set My eye on them for evil, || And not for good.”

⁵ And [it is] the Lord, YHWH of Hosts, || Who is striking against the land, and it melts, || And mourned have all the inhabitants in it, || And all of it has come up as a flood, || And it has sunk—like the flood of Egypt.

⁷ “Are you not as sons of Cushim to Me, O sons of Israel?” A declaration of YHWH. “Did I not bring Israel up out of the land of Egypt? And the Philistines from Capthor, and Aram from Kir?

⁹ “For behold, I am commanding, || And I have shaken among all the nations the house of Israel, || As [one] shakes with a sieve, || And there does not fall a grain [to] the earth.

¹⁰ By sword all sinners of My people die, || Who are saying, || Evil does not overtake, or go before, || For our sakes.

¹¹ In that day I raise the dwelling place of David that is fallen, || And I have repaired their breaches, || And I raise up its ruins, || And I have built it up as in days of old,

¹² So that they possess the remnant of Edom, || And all the nations on whom My Name is called,” || A declaration of YHWH—the doer of this.

¹³ “Behold, days are coming,” || A declaration of YHWH, || “And the plowman has come near to the reaper, || And the treader of grapes to the scatterer of seed, || And the mountains have dropped juice, || And all the hills melt.

¹⁴ And I have turned back [to] the captivity of My people Israel, || And they have built desolate cities, and inhabited, || And have planted vineyards, and drunk their wine, || And made gardens, and eaten their fruit.

¹⁵ And I have planted them on their own ground, || And they are not plucked up anymore from off their own ground, || That I have given to them,” said your God YHWH!

Obadiah

1 Thus said Lord YHWH to Edom || (We have heard a report from YHWH, || And an ambassador among nations was sent, || “Rise, indeed, let us rise against her for battle”):

2 “Behold, I have made you little among nations, || You [are] despised exceedingly.

3 The pride of your heart has lifted you up, || O dweller in clefts of a rock || (A high place [is] his habitation, || He is saying in his heart: Who brings me down [to] earth?)

4 If you go up high as an eagle, || And if you set your nest between stars, || From there I bring you down,” || A declaration of YHWH.

5 “If thieves have come in to you, || If spoilers of the night, || How have you been cut off! Do they not steal their sufficiency? If gatherers have come in to you, || Do they not leave gleanings?

6 How has Esau been searched out! His hidden things have flowed out,

7 All your allies have sent you to the border, || Forgotten you, prevailed over you, have your friends, || They make your bread a snare under you, || There is no understanding in him!

8 Is it not in that day,” a declaration of YHWH, || “That I have destroyed the wise out of Edom, || And understanding out of the mountain of Esau?

9 And your mighty ones have been broken down, O Teman, || So that everyone of the mountain of Esau is cut off.

10 For slaughter, for violence [to] your brother Jacob, || Shame covers you, || And you have been cut off for all time.

11 In the day of your standing aloof from the opposite [side], || In the day of strangers taking his force captive, || And foreigners have entered his gates, || And have cast a lot for Jerusalem, || Even you [are] as one of them!

12 And—you do not look on the day of your brother, || On the day of his alienation, || Nor do you rejoice over sons of Judah, || In the day of their destruction, || Nor make your mouth great in a day of distress.

13 Nor come into a gate of My people in a day of their calamity, || Nor look, even you, on its misfortune in a day of its calamity, || Nor send forth against its force in a day of its calamity,

14 Nor stand by the breach to cut off its escaped, || Nor deliver up its remnant in a day of distress.

15 For near [is] the Day of YHWH, on all the nations, || As you have done, it is done to you, || Your deed turns back on your own head.

16 For—as you have drunk on My holy mountain, || All the nations drink continually, || And they have drunk and have swallowed, || And they have been as [if] they have not been.

17 And in Mount Zion there is an escape, || And it has been holy, || And the house of Jacob has possessed their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob has been a fire, || And the house of Joseph a flame, || And the house of Esau for stubble, || And they have burned among them, || And they have consumed them, || And there is not a remnant to the house of Esau,” || For YHWH has spoken.

¹⁹ And they have possessed the south with the mountain of Esau, || And the low country with the Philistines, || And they have possessed the field of Ephraim, || And the field of Samaria, || And Benjamin with Gilead.

²⁰ And the expulsion of this force of the sons of Israel, || That [is with] the Canaanites to Zarephat, || And the expulsion of Jerusalem that [is] with the Sepharad, || Possess the cities of the south.

²¹ And saviors have gone up on Mount Zion, || To judge the mountain of Esau, || And the kingdom has been to YHWH!

Jonah

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to Jonah son of Amittai, saying,

² “Rise, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim against it that their wickedness has come up before Me.”

⁴ And YHWH has cast a great wind on the sea, and there is a great storm in the sea, and the ship has reckoned to be broken;

⁵ and the mariners are afraid, and they each cry to his god, and cast the goods that [are] in the ship into the sea, to make [it] light of them; and Jonah has gone down to the sides of the vessel, and he lies down, and is fast asleep.

⁶ And the chief of the company draws near to him and says to him, “What are you [doing], O sleeper? Rise, call to your God, it may be God considers Himself of us, and we do not perish.”

⁷ And they each say to his neighbor, “Come, and we cast lots, and we know on whose account this evil [is] on us.” And they cast lots, and the lot falls on Jonah.

⁸ And they say to him, “Now declare to us, on whose account [is] this evil on us? What [is] your occupation, and where do you come from? What [is] your country, seeing you are not of this people?”

⁹ And he says to them, “I—a Hebrew, and I fear YHWH, God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰ And the men fear a great fear, and say to him, “What [is] this you have done!” For the men have known that he is fleeing from the face of YHWH, for he has told them.

¹¹ And they say to him, “What do we do to you that the sea may cease from us, for the sea is more and more turbulent?”

¹² And he says to them, “Lift me up, and cast me into the sea, and the sea ceases from you; for I know that on my account this great storm [is] on you.”

¹³ And the men row to turn back to the dry land, and are not able, for the sea is more and more turbulent against them.

¹⁴ And they cry to YHWH, and say, “Ah, now, O YHWH, please do not let us perish for this man’s life, and do not lay innocent blood on us! For You, YHWH, as You have pleased, You have done.”

¹⁵ And they lift up Jonah, and cast him into the sea, and the sea ceases from its raging;

¹⁶ and the men fear YHWH [with] a great fear, and sacrifice a sacrifice to YHWH, and vow vows.

¹⁷ And YHWH appoints a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah is in the bowels of the fish three days and three nights.

² And he says: “I called, because of my distress, to YHWH, || And He answers me, || From the belly of Sheol I have cried, || You have heard my voice.

³ When You cast me [into] the deep, || Into the heart of the seas, || Then the flood surrounds me, || All Your breakers and Your billows have passed over me.

⁴ And I said: I have been cast out from before Your eyes || (Yet I add to look to Your holy temple!)

⁵ Waters have surrounded me to the soul, || The deep surrounds me, || The weed is bound to my head.

⁶ To the cuttings of mountains I have come down, || The earth, her bars [are] behind me for all time. And You bring my life up from the pit, O YHWH my God.

⁷ In the feebleness of my soul within me, || I have remembered YHWH, || And my prayer comes to You, || Into Your holy temple.

⁸ Those observing lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

¹ And there is a word of YHWH to Jonah a second time, saying,

² “Rise, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim to it the proclamation that I am speaking to you”;

³ and Jonah rises, and he goes to Nineveh, according to the word of YHWH. And Nineveh has been a great city before God, a journey of three days.

⁴ And Jonah begins to go into the city—a journey of one day—and proclaims and says, “Yet forty days and Nineveh is overturned!”

⁵ And the men of Nineveh believe in God, and proclaim a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least,

⁶ seeing the word comes to the king of Nineveh, and he rises from his throne, and removes his honorable robe from off him, and spreads out sackcloth, and sits on the ashes,

⁹ Who knows? He turns back, and God has relented, and has turned back from the heat of His anger, and we do not perish.”

¹⁰ And God sees their works, that they have turned back from their evil way, and God relents of the evil that He spoke of doing to them, and He has not done [it].

¹ And it is grievous to Jonah—a great evil—and he is displeased at it;

² and he prays to YHWH, and he says, “Ah, now, O YHWH, is this not my word while I was in my own land—therefore I was beforehand [going] to flee to Tarshish—that I have known that You [are] a God, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in kindness, and relenting of evil?

³ And now, O YHWH, please take my soul from me, for better [is] my death than my life.”

⁴ And YHWH says, “Is doing good displeasing to you?”

⁵ And Jonah goes forth from the city, and sits on the east of the city, and makes a shelter for himself there, and sits under it in the shade, until he sees what is in the city.

⁷ And God appoints a worm at the going up of the dawn on the next day, and it strikes the gourd, and it dries up.

⁸ And it comes to pass, about the rising of the sun, that God appoints a cutting east wind, and the sun strikes on the head of Jonah, and he wraps himself up, and asks for his soul to die, and says, “Better [is] my death than my life.”

⁹ And God says to Jonah: “Is doing good displeasing to you, because of the gourd?” And he says, “To do good is displeasing to me—to death.”

¹⁰ And YHWH says, “You have had pity on the gourd, for which you did not labor, neither did you nourish it, which came up [as] a son of night, and perished [as] a son of night,

¹¹ and I—do I not have pity on Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than one hundred twenty thousand of mankind, who have not known between their right hand and their left—and much livestock?”

Micah

¹ A word of YHWH that has been to Micah the Morashite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, kings of Judah, that he has seen concerning Samaria and Jerusalem:

² Hear, O peoples, all of them! Attend, O earth, and its fullness, || And Lord YHWH is against you for a witness, || The Lord from His holy temple.

³ For behold, YHWH is going out from His place, || And He has come down, || And has trodden on high places of earth.

⁴ The mountains have been melted under Him, || And the valleys split themselves, || As wax from the presence of fire, || As waters cast down by a slope.

⁶ “And I have set Samaria for a heap of the field, || For plantations of a vineyard, || And poured out into a valley her stones, || And her foundations I uncover.

⁸ For this I lament and howl, || I go spoiled and naked, || I make a lamentation like dragons, || And a mourning like daughters of an ostrich.

⁹ For mortal [are] her wounds, || For it has come to Judah, || It has come to a gate of My people—to Jerusalem.

¹⁰ In Gath do not tell—in Acco do not weep, || In Beth-Aphrah, roll yourself in dust.

¹¹ Pass over for you, O inhabitant of Shaphir, || Naked one of shame. The inhabitant of Zaanan has not gone out, || The lamentation of Beth-Ezel takes from you its standing.

¹² For the inhabitant of Maroth has stayed for good, || For calamity has come down from YHWH to the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³ Bind the chariot to a swift beast, O inhabitant of Lachish, || The beginning of sin [is] she to the daughter of Zion, || For in you have been found the transgressions of Israel.

¹⁴ Therefore you give presents to Moresheth-Gath, || The houses of Achzib become a lying thing to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵ Yet I bring the possessor to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah, || The glory of Israel comes to Adullam.

¹⁶ Make bald and shave, for your delightful sons, || Enlarge your baldness as an eagle, || For they have removed from you!

¹ Woe [to] those devising iniquity, || And working evil on their beds, || In the morning light they do it, || For their hand is—to God.

² And they have desired fields, || And they have taken violently, || And houses, and they have taken away, || And have oppressed a man and his house, || Even a man and his inheritance.

³ Therefore, thus said YHWH: “Behold, I am devising against this family calamity, || From which you do not remove your necks, || Nor walk loftily, for it [is] a time of evil.

⁴ In that day [one] takes up for you an allegory, || And he has wailed a wailing of woe, || He has said, We have been utterly spoiled, || The portion of my people He changes, || How He moves toward me! To the backslider our fields He apportions.

⁵ Therefore, you have no caster of a line by lot || In the assembly of YHWH.

⁶ You do not prophesy—they prophesy, || They do not prophesy to these, || It does not remove shame.

⁷ [Those] named the house of Jacob: Has the Spirit of YHWH been shortened? Are these His doings? Do My words not benefit the people that are walking uprightly?

⁸ And recently My people raise up as an enemy, || You strip off the honorable ornament from the outer garment, || From the confident passers by, || You who are turning back from war.

⁹ The women of My people you cast out from its delightful house, || From its sucklings you take away My honor for all time.

¹⁰ Rise and go, for this [is] not the rest, || Because of uncleanness it corrupts, || And corruption is powerful.

¹¹ If one is going [with] the wind, || And [with] falsehood has lied: I prophesy to you of wine, and of strong drink, || He has been the prophet of this people!

¹² I surely gather you, O Jacob, all of you, || I surely bring together the remnant of Israel, || Together I set it as the flock of Bozrah, || As a drove in the midst of its pasture, || It makes a noise because of man.

¹³ The breaker has gone up before them, || They have broken through, || Indeed, they pass through the gate, || Indeed, they go out through it, || And their king passes on before them, || And YHWH at their head!”

¹ And I say, “Now hear, O heads of Jacob, || And you judges of the house of Israel, || Is it not for you to know the judgment?”

² You who are hating good, and loving evil, || Taking violently their skin from off them, || And their flesh from off their bones,

³ And who have eaten the flesh of My people, || And their skin from off them have stripped, || And their bones they have broken, || And they have spread [them] out as in a pot, || And as flesh in the midst of a cauldron.”

⁴ Then they cry to YHWH, || And He does not answer them, || And hides His face from them at that time, || As they have made evil their doings.

⁵ Thus said YHWH concerning the prophets || Who are causing My people to err, || Who are biting with their teeth, || And have cried “Peace,” || And he who does not give to their mouth, || They have sanctified against him war:

⁶ “Therefore you have a night without vision, || And you have darkness without divination, || And the sun has gone in on the prophets, || And the day has been black over them.

⁷ And the seers have been ashamed, || And the diviners have been confounded, || And all of them have covered their lip, || For there is no answer, O God.”

⁸ And yet I have been full of power by the Spirit of YHWH, || And of judgment, and of might, || To declare to Jacob his transgression, || And to Israel his sin.

⁹ Now hear this, O heads of the house of Jacob, || And you judges of the house of Israel, || Who are making judgment abominable, || And pervert all uprightness.

¹⁰ Building up Zion with blood, || And Jerusalem with iniquity.

¹¹ Her heads judge for a bribe, || And her priests teach for hire, || And her prophets divine for silver, || And on YHWH they lean, saying, || “Is not YHWH in our midst? Evil does not come in on us.”

¹² Therefore, for your sake, Zion is plowed a field, and Jerusalem is heaps, || And the mountain of the house [is] for high places of a forest!

¹ And it has come to pass, || In the latter end of the days, || The mountain of the house of YHWH || Is established above the top of the mountains, || And it has been lifted up above the hills, || And flowed to it have peoples.

² And gone have many nations and said, || “Come and we go up to the mountain of YHWH, || And to the house of the God of Jacob, || And He teaches us of His ways, || And we walk in His paths,” || For a law goes forth from Zion, || And a word of YHWH from Jerusalem.

⁴ And they have sat each under his vine, || And under his fig tree, || And there is none troubling, || For the mouth of YHWH of Hosts has spoken.

⁵ For all the peoples walk, || Each in the name of its god—and we, || We walk in the Name of our God YHWH, || For all time and forever.

⁷ And I have set the halting for a remnant, || And the far-off for a mighty nation, || And YHWH has reigned over them in Mount Zion, || From now on, and for all time.

⁸ And you, O Tower of Eder, || Fort of the daughter of Zion, to you it comes, || Indeed, the former rule has come in, || The kingdom to the daughter of Jerusalem.”

⁹ Now why do you shout aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, || That pain as of a travailing woman has taken hold of you?

¹⁰ Be pained, and bring forth, O daughter of Zion, || As a travailing woman, || For now you go forth from the city, || And you have dwelt in the field, || And you have gone to Babylon, || There you are delivered, || There YHWH redeems you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹ And now, many nations have gathered against you, who are saying: "Let her be defiled, and our eyes look on Zion."

¹³ Arise, and thresh, O daughter of Zion, || For I make your horn iron, || And I make your hooves bronze, || And you have beaten small many peoples, || And I have devoted to YHWH their gain, || And their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth!

² "And you, Beth-Lehem Ephratah, || Little to be among the chiefs of Judah! From you He comes forth to Me—to be ruler in Israel, || And His comings forth [are] of old, || From the days of antiquity."

³ Therefore He gives them up until the time she who brings forth has brought forth, || And the remnant of His brothers return to the sons of Israel.

⁴ And He has stood and delighted in the strength of YHWH, || In the excellence of the Name of His God YHWH, || And they have remained, || For now He is great to the ends of the earth.

⁵ And this [One] has been peace. Asshur, when he comes into our land, || And when he treads in our palaces, || We have raised against him seven shepherds, || And eight anointed of man.

⁶ And they have afflicted the land of Asshur with the sword, || And the land of Nimrod at its openings, || And He has delivered from Asshur when he comes into our land, || And when he treads in our borders.

⁷ And the remnant of Jacob has been in the midst of many peoples, || As dew from YHWH—as showers on the herb, || That does not wait for man, nor stays for the sons of men.

⁸ Indeed, the remnant of Jacob has been among nations, || In the midst of many peoples, || As a lion among beasts of a forest, || As a young lion among ranks of a flock, || Which if it has passed through, || Has both trodden down and has torn, || And there is no deliverer.

⁹ High is your hand above your adversaries, || And all your enemies are cut off.

¹⁰ "And it has come to pass in that day," || A declaration of YHWH, || "I have cut off your horses from your midst, || And I have destroyed your chariots,

¹¹ And I have cut off the cities of your land, || And I have thrown down all your fortresses,

¹² And have cut off sorcerers out of your hand, || And observers of clouds—you have none.

¹³ And I have cut off your carved images, || And your standing-pillars out of your midst, || And you do not bow yourself anymore || To the work of your hands.

¹⁴ And I have plucked up your Asherim out of your midst, || And I have destroyed your enemies.

¹⁵ And I have done vengeance in anger and in fury, || With the nations who have not listened!"

¹ Now hear that which YHWH is saying: "Rise—strive with the mountains, || And cause the hills to hear your voice.

² Hear, O mountains, the strife of YHWH, || You strong ones—foundations of earth! For a strife [is] to YHWH, with His people, || And with Israel He reasons.

³ O My people, what have I done to you? And how have I wearied you? Testify against Me.

⁴ For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, || And I have ransomed you from the house of servants, || And I send Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before you.

⁵ O My people, please remember || What Balak king of Moab counseled, || What Balaam son of Beor answered him || (From Shittim to Gilgal), || In order to know the righteous acts of YHWH."

⁷ Is YHWH pleased with thousands of rams? With myriads of streams of oil? Do I give my firstborn [for] my transgression? The fruit of my body [for] the sin of my soul?

⁸ He has declared to you, O man, what [is] good; Indeed, what is YHWH requiring of you, || Except—to do judgment, and love kindness, || And to walk lowly with your God?

⁹ A voice of YHWH calls to the city, || And wisdom fears Your Name, || "Hear the rod, and Him who appointed it.

¹¹ Do I reckon [it] pure with balances of wickedness? And with a bag of deceitful stones?

¹² Whose rich ones have been full of violence, || And its inhabitants have spoken falsehood, || And their tongue [is] deceitful in their mouth.

¹³ And I also, I have begun to strike you, || To make desolate, because of your sins.

¹⁴ You eat, and you are not satisfied, || And your pit [is] in your midst, || And you remove, and do not deliver, || And that which you deliver, I give to a sword.

¹⁵ You sow, and you do not reap, || You tread the olive, || And you do not pour out oil, || And new wine—and you do not drink wine.

¹⁶ And the statutes of Omri are kept habitually, || And all the work of the house of Ahab, || And you walk in their counsels, || For My giving you for a desolation, || And its inhabitants for a hissing, || And you bear the reproach of My people!"

¹ My woe [is] to me, || For I have been as gatherings of summer-fruit, || As gleanings of harvest, || There is no cluster to eat, || The first-ripe fruit has my soul desired.

² The kind have perished out of the land, || And upright among men—there are none, || All of them lie in wait for blood, || They each hunt his brother [with] a net.

³ On the evil [are] both hands to do [it] well, || The prince is asking—also the judge—for repayment, || And the great—he is speaking the mischief of his soul, || And they wrap it up.

⁴ Their best one [is] as a brier, || The upright one—than a thorn-hedge, || The day of your watchmen—Your visitation—has come. Now is their perplexity.

⁵ Do not believe in a friend, || Do not trust in a leader, || From her who is lying in your bosom keep the openings of your mouth.

⁶ For a son is dishonoring a father, || A daughter has stood against her mother, || A daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, || The enemies of each [are] the men of his house.

⁷ And I—in YHWH I watch, || I wait for the God of my salvation, || My God hears me.

⁸ You do not rejoice over me, O my enemy, || When I have fallen, I have risen, || When I sit in darkness YHWH is a light to me.

⁹ I bear the indignation of YHWH, || For I have sinned against Him, || Until He pleads my cause, || And has executed my judgment, || He brings me forth to the light, || I look on His righteousness.

¹⁰ And my enemy sees, || And shame covers her, || Who says to me, “Where [is] your God YHWH?” My eyes look on her, || Now she is for a treading-place, || As mire of the out-places.

¹¹ The day to build your walls! That day—removed is the limit.

¹² That day—even to you it comes in, || From Asshur and the cities of the fortress, || And from the fortress even to the river, || And from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.

¹³ And the land has been for a desolation, || Because of its inhabitants, || Because of the fruit of their doings.

¹⁴ Rule Your people with Your rod, || The flock of Your inheritance, || Dwelling alone [in] a forest in the midst of Carmel, || They enjoy Bashan and Gilead as in days of old.

¹⁵ “According to the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt, || I show it wonderful things.”

¹⁶ Nations see, and they are ashamed of all their might, || They lay a hand on the mouth, their ears are deaf.

¹⁷ They lick dust as a serpent, as fearful things of earth, || They tremble from their enclosures, || They are afraid of our God YHWH, || Indeed, they are afraid of You.

¹⁸ Who [is] a God like You? Taking away iniquity, || And passing by the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance, || He has not retained His anger forever, || Because He delights [in] kindness.

¹⁹ He turns back, He pities us, || He subdues our iniquities, || And You cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

²⁰ You give truth to Jacob, kindness to Abraham, || That You have sworn to our fathers, from the days of antiquity!

Nahum

² A God zealous and avenging [is] YHWH, || An avenger [is] YHWH, and possessing fury. An avenger [is] YHWH on His adversaries, || And He is watching for His enemies.

³ YHWH [is] slow to anger, and great in power, || And YHWH does not entirely acquit, || In a windstorm and in a storm [is] His way, || And a cloud [is] the dust of His feet.

⁵ Mountains have shaken because of Him, || And the hills have been melted; And the earth [is] lifted up at His presence, || And the world and all dwelling in it.

⁶ Who stands before His indignation? And who rises up in the heat of His anger? His fury has been poured out like fire, || And the rocks have been broken by Him.

⁷ Good [is] YHWH for a strong place in a day of distress. And He knows those trusting in Him.

⁸ And with a flood passing over, || An end He makes of its place, || And darkness pursues His enemies.

⁹ What do we devise against YHWH? He is making an end, distress does not arise twice.

¹⁰ For while princes [are] perplexed, || And with their drink are drunken, || They have been consumed as stubble fully dried.

¹¹ From you has come forth a deviser of evil || Against YHWH—a worthless counselor.

¹² Thus said YHWH: “Though complete, and thus many, || Yet thus they have been cut off, || And he has passed away. Though I afflicted you, I afflict you no longer.

¹³ And now I break his rod from off you, || And your bands I draw away.”

¹ A scatterer has come up to your face, || Keep the bulwark, watch the way, || Strengthen the loins, strengthen power mightily.

² For YHWH has turned back to the excellence of Jacob, || As [to] the excellence of Israel, || For emptiers have emptied them out, || And they have marred their branches.

³ The shield of his mighty ones has become red, || Men of might [are in] scarlet, || With fiery torches [is] the chariot in a day of his preparation, || And the firs have been caused to tremble.

⁴ In out-places the chariots shine, || They go to and fro in broad places,
 || Their appearances [are] like torches, || As lightnings they run.

⁵ He remembers his majestic ones, || They stumble in their goings, ||
 They hurry [to] its wall, || And the covering is prepared.

⁶ Gates of the rivers have been opened, || And the palace is dissolved.

⁷ And it is established—she has removed, || She has been brought up,
 || And her handmaids are leading as the voice of doves, || Tabering on their hearts.

⁸ And Nineveh [is] as a pool of waters, || From of old it [is]—and they are fleeing! “Stand, stand”; and none is turning!

⁹ Seize silver, seize gold, || And there is no end to the prepared things,
 || [To] the abundance of all desirable vessels.

¹⁰ She is empty, indeed, emptiness and waste, || And the heart has melted, || And the knees have struck together, || And great pain [is] in all loins, || And the faces of all of them have gathered paleness.

¹¹ Where [is] the habitation of lionesses? And a feeding-place it [is] for young lions || Where a lion has walked, an old lion, || A lion’s whelp, and there is none troubling.

¹² The lion is tearing parts [for] his whelps, || And is strangling for his lionesses, || And he fills his holes [with] prey, || And his habitations [with] torn flesh.

¹³ “Behold, I [am] against you,” || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, ||
 “And I have burned its chariot in smoke, || And a sword consumes your young lions, || And I have cut off your prey from the land, || And the voice of your messengers is not heard anymore!”

¹ Woe [to] the city of blood, || She is all full with lies [and] burglary, ||
 Prey does not depart.

² The sound of a whip, || And the sound of the rattling of a wheel, ||
 And of a prancing horse, and of a bounding chariot, || Of a horseman mounting.

³ And the flame of a sword, and the lightning of a spear, || And the abundance of the wounded, || And the weight of carcasses, || Indeed, there is no end to the bodies, || They stumble over their bodies.

⁴ Because of the abundance of the fornications of a harlot, || The goodness of the grace of the lady of witchcrafts, || Who is selling nations
 by her fornications, || And families by her witchcrafts.

⁵ “Behold, I [am] against you,” || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, ||
 “And have removed your skirts before your face, || And have showed nations your nakedness, || And kingdoms your shame,

⁶ And I have cast on you abominations, || And dishonored you, and made you as a sight.

⁷ And it has come to pass, || Each of your beholders flees from you, ||
 And has said: Nineveh is spoiled, || Who bemoans for her? From where do I seek comforters for you?”

⁸ Are you better than No-Ammon, || That is dwelling among brooks?
 Waters she has around her, || Whose bulwark [is] the sea, waters her wall.

⁹ Cush her might, and Egypt, and there is no end. Put and Lubim have been for your help.

¹⁰ Even she becomes an exile, || She has gone into captivity, || Even her sucklings are dashed to pieces || At the top of all out-places, || And for her honored ones they cast a lot, || And all her great ones have been bound in chains.

¹¹ Even you are drunken, you are hidden, || Even you seek a strong place, because of an enemy.

¹² All your fortresses [are] fig trees with first-fruits, || If they are shaken, || They have fallen into the mouth of the eater.

¹⁴ Waters of a siege draw for yourself, || Strengthen your fortresses, || Enter into mire, and tread on clay, || Make strong a brick-kiln.

¹⁶ Multiply your merchants above the stars of the heavens, || The cankerworm has stripped off, and flees away.

¹⁷ Your crowned ones [are] as a locust, || And your princes as great grasshoppers, || That encamp in hedges in a day of cold, || The sun has risen, and it flees away, || And its place where they are is not known.

¹⁹ There is no weakening of your destruction, || Your striking [is] grievous, || All hearing your fame have clapped the hand at you, || For over whom did your wickedness not pass continually?

Habakkuk

¹ The burden that Habakkuk the prophet has seen:

² Until when, O YHWH, have I cried, || And You do not hear? I cry to You, “Violence!” And You do not save.

³ Why do You show me iniquity, || And cause [me] to behold perversity? And spoiling and violence [are] before me, || And there is strife, and contention lifts [itself] up,

⁴ Therefore law ceases, || And judgment does not go forth forever, || For the wicked is surrounding the righteous, || Therefore wrong judgment goes forth.

⁵ “Look on nations, and behold and marvel greatly. For a work He is working in your days, || You do not believe though it is declared.

⁷ He [is] terrible and fearful, || His judgment and his excellence go forth from him.

⁸ His horses have been swifter than leopards, || And sharper than evening wolves, || And his horsemen have increased, || Even his horsemen from afar come in, || They fly as an eagle, hastening to consume.

⁹ All for violence—he comes in, || Their faces swallowing up the east wind, || And he gathers a captivity as the sand.

¹⁰ And he scoffs at kings, || And princes [are] a laughter to him, || He laughs at every fortification, || And he heaps up dust, and captures it.

¹¹ Then the spirit has passed on, || Indeed, he transgresses, || And [ascribes] this—his power—to his god.”

¹² Are You not of old, O YHWH, my God, my Holy One? We do not die, O YHWH, || You have appointed him for judgment, || And, O Rock, You have founded him for reproof.

¹³ Purer of eyes than to behold evil, || You are not able to look on perverseness, || Why do You behold the treacherous? You keep silent when the wicked || Swallow the more righteous than he,

¹⁴ And You make man as fishes of the sea, || As a creeping thing [with] none ruling over him.

¹⁵ He has brought up each of them with a hook, || He catches it in his net, and gathers it in his dragnet, || Therefore he delights and rejoices.

¹⁶ Therefore he sacrifices to his net, || And makes incense to his dragnet, || For by them [is] his portion fertile, and his food fat.

¹⁷ Does he therefore empty his net, || And continually not spare to slay nations?

¹ On my charge I stand, and I station myself on a bulwark, and I watch to see what He speaks against me, and what I reply to my reproof.

² And YHWH answers me and says: “Write a vision, and explain on the tablets, || That he may run who is reading it.

³ For yet the vision [is] for a season, || And it breathes for the end, and does not lie, || If it lingers, wait for it, || For surely it comes, it is not late.

⁴ Behold, a presumptuous one! His soul is not upright within him, || And the righteous lives by his faith.

⁵ And also, because the wine [is] treacherous, || A man is haughty, and does not remain at home, || Who has enlarged his soul as Sheol, || And is as death that is not satisfied, || And gathers to itself all the nations, || And assembles to itself all the peoples,

⁶ Are these not—all of them—an allegory taken up against him, || And a moral of acute sayings for him, || And say, Woe [to] him who is multiplying [what is] not his? Until when also is he multiplying to himself heavy pledges?

⁷ Do your usurers not instantly rise up, || And those shaking you awake, || And you have been a spoil to them?

⁸ Because you have spoiled many nations, || All the remnant of the peoples spoil you, || Because of man's blood, and of violence [to] the land, || [To] the city, and [to] all dwelling in it.

⁹ Woe [to] him who is gaining evil gain for his house, || To set his nest on high, || To be delivered from the hand of evil,

¹⁰ You have counseled a shameful thing to your house, || To cut off many peoples, and your soul [is] sinful.

¹¹ For a stone cries out from the wall, || And a beam from the wood answers it.

¹² Woe [to] him who is building a city by blood, || And establishing a city by iniquity.

¹³ Behold, is it not from YHWH of Hosts || And peoples are fatigued for fire, || And nations for vanity are weary?

¹⁴ For the earth is full of the knowledge of the glory of YHWH, || As the waters cover over a sea.

¹⁵ Woe [to] him who is giving drink to his neighbor, || Pouring out your bottle, and also making drunk, || In order to look on their nakedness.

¹⁶ You have been filled—shame without honor, || Drink also, and be uncircumcised, || Turn around to you does the cup of the right hand of YHWH, || And shameful spewing [is] on your glory.

¹⁷ For violence [done to] Lebanon covers you, || And spoil of beasts frightens them, || Because of man's blood, and of violence [to] the land, || [To] the city, and [to] all dwelling in it.

¹⁸ What profit has a carved image given || That its former has hewn it? A molten image and teacher of falsehood, || That the former has trusted on his own formation—to make mute idols?

¹ A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, [set] on shigionoth:

² O YHWH, I heard your report, || I have been afraid, O YHWH, || Your work! In midst of years revive it, || In the midst of years You make known, || In anger You remember mercy.

³ God comes from Teman, || The Holy One from Mount Paran. Pause!
His splendor has covered the heavens, || And His praise has filled the earth.

⁴ And the brightness is as the light, || He has rays out of His hand, ||
And there—the hiding of His strength.

⁵ Before Him goes pestilence, || And a burning flame goes forth at His feet.

⁶ He has stood, and He measures earth, || He has seen, and He shakes off nations, ||
And mountains of antiquity scatter themselves, || The hills of old have bowed, ||
The ways of old [are] His.

⁷ Under sorrow I have seen tents of Cushan, || Curtains of the land of Midian tremble.

⁸ Has YHWH been angry against rivers? Against rivers [is] Your anger? [Is] Your wrath against the sea? For You ride on Your horses—Your chariots of salvation.

⁹ You make Your bow utterly naked, || The tribes have sworn, saying, “Pause!”
You cleave the earth [with] rivers.

¹⁰ Seen You—pained are mountains, || An inundation of waters has passed over, ||
The deep has given forth its voice, || It has lifted up its hands high.

¹¹ Sun—moon—has stood—a habitation, || Your arrows go on at the light, ||
At the brightness, the glittering of Your spear.

¹² In indignation You tread earth, || In anger You thresh nations.

¹³ You have gone forth for the salvation of Your people, || For salvation with Your Anointed, ||
You have struck the head of the house of the wicked, || Laying bare the foundation to the neck. Pause!

¹⁴ You have pierced the head of his leaders with his own rods, || They are tempestuous to scatter me, ||
Their exultation [is] as to consume the poor in secret.

¹⁵ You have proceeded through the sea with Your horses—the clay of many waters.

¹⁶ I have heard, and my belly trembles, || At the noise have my lips quivered, ||
Rottenness comes into my bones, || And in my place I tremble, ||
That I rest for a day of distress, || At the coming up of the people, he overcomes it.

¹⁷ Though the fig tree does not flourish, || And there is no produce among vines, ||
The work of the olive has failed, || And fields have not yielded food, ||
The flock has been cut off from the fold, || And there is no herd in the stalls,

¹⁸ Yet I, in YHWH I exult, || I am joyful in the God of my salvation.

¹⁹ YHWH the Lord [is] my strength, || And He makes my feet like does, ||
And causes me to tread on my high-places. To the overseer with my stringed instruments!

Zephaniah

¹ A word of YHWH that has been to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amoz, king of Judah:

² “I utterly consume all from off the face of the ground,” || A declaration of YHWH.

⁴ “And I have stretched out My hand against Judah, || And against all inhabiting Jerusalem, || And cut off from this place the remnant of Ba’al, || The name of the idolatrous priests, with the priests,

⁵ And those bowing themselves || On the roofs to the host of the heavens, || And those bowing themselves, || Swearing to YHWH, and swearing by Malcham,

⁶ And those removing from after YHWH, || And who have not sought YHWH, nor implored Him.”

⁸ “And it has come to pass, || In the day of the sacrifice of YHWH, || That I have laid a charge on the heads, || And on sons of the king, || And on all putting on strange clothing.

⁹ And I have laid a charge on everyone || Who is leaping over the threshold in that day, || Who are filling the house of their masters || [With] violence and deceit.

¹¹ Howl, you inhabitants of the hollow place, || For all the merchant people have been cut off, || All carrying silver have been cut off.

¹⁴ Near [is] the Great Day of YHWH, || Near, and hastening exceedingly, || The noise of the Day of YHWH, || There a mighty one bitterly shrieks.

¹⁵ A day of wrath [is] that day, || A day of adversity and distress, || A day of devastation and desolation, || A day of darkness and gloominess, || A day of cloud and thick darkness,

¹⁶ A day of horn and shouting against the fortified cities, || And against the high corners.

² Before the bringing forth of a statute, || The day has passed on as chaff, || While the heat of the anger of YHWH has not yet come in on you, || While [the] Day of the anger of YHWH has not yet come in on you,

³ Seek YHWH, all you humble of the land, || Who have done His judgment, || Seek righteousness, seek humility, || It may be you are hidden in the Day of the anger of YHWH.

⁴ For Gaza is forsaken, || And Ashkelon [is] for a desolation, || Ashdod! At noon they cast her forth, || And Ekron is rooted up.

⁵ Behold! O inhabitants of the seacoast, || Nation of the Cherethites, || A word of YHWH [is] against you, || Canaan, land of the Philistines, || "And I have destroyed you without an inhabitant."

⁶ And the seacoast has been habitations, || Cottages [for] shepherds, and folds [for] a flock.

⁷ And the coast has been for the remnant of the house of Judah, || By them they have pleasure, || In houses of Ashkelon they lie down at evening, || For their God YHWH inspects them, || And He has turned back [to] their captivity.

⁸ "I have heard the reproach of Moab, || And the revilings of the sons of Ammon, || With which they reproached My people, || And magnify [themselves] against their border.

⁹ Therefore, [as] I live," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, God of Israel, || "Surely Moab is as Sodom, || And the sons of Ammon as Gomorrah, || An overrunning of nettles and salt-pits, || And a desolation for all time. A remnant of My people seizes them, || And a remnant of My nation inherits them."

¹⁰ This [is] to them for their arrogance, || Because they have reproached, || And they magnify [themselves] against the people of YHWH of Hosts.

¹¹ Fearful [is] YHWH against them, || For He made all gods of the land bare, || And all islanders of the nations bow themselves to Him, || Each from his place.

¹² "Also you, O Cushim, they [are] pierced of My sword."

¹³ And He stretches His hand against the north, || And destroys Asshur, || And He sets Nineveh for a desolation, || A dry land like a wilderness.

² She has not listened to the voice, || She has not accepted instruction,
|| In YHWH she has not trusted, || She has not drawn near to her God.

³ Her heads in her midst [are] roaring lions, || Her judges [are] wolves
[as in] evening, || They have not gnawn the bone in the morning.

⁴ Her prophets unstable—men of treachery, || Her priests have defiled
the sanctuary, || They have violated the Law.

⁵ YHWH [is] righteous in her midst, || He does not do perverseness, ||
Morning by morning His judgment He gives to the light, || It has not been lacking, || And the perverse do not know shame.

⁶ "I have cut off nations, || Desolated have been their chief ones, || I have laid waste their out-places without any passing by, || Destroyed have been their cities, || Without man, without inhabitant.

⁷ I have said: Only, you fear Me, || You accept instruction, || And her habitation is not cut off, || All that I have appointed for her, || But they have risen early, || They have corrupted all their doings.

⁸ Therefore, wait for Me," || A declaration of YHWH, || "For the day of My rising for prey, || For My judgment [is] to gather nations, || To assemble kingdoms, || To pour out on them My indignation, || All the heat of My anger, || For by the fire of My jealousy all the earth is consumed.

⁹ For then I turn a pure lip to peoples, || To call all of them by the Name of YHWH, || To serve Him [with] one shoulder.

¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Cush, My supplicants, || The daughter of
My scattered ones, || Bring My present.

¹¹ In that day you are not ashamed because of any of your actions, ||
With which you have transgressed against Me, || For then I turn aside from your midst || The exulting ones of your excellence, || And you are to be haughty no longer, || In My holy mountain.

¹² And I have left in your midst a people humble and poor, || And they have trusted in the Name of YHWH.

¹³ The remnant of Israel does not perversity, nor speaks lies, || Nor is a deceitful tongue found in their mouth, || For they have delight, and have lain down, || And there is none troubling."

¹⁴ Cry aloud, O daughter of Zion, shout, O Israel, || Rejoice and exult with the whole heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ YHWH has turned aside your judgments, || He has faced your enemy,
|| The King of Israel, YHWH, [is] in your midst, || You see evil no more.

¹⁶ In that day it is said to Jerusalem, || "Do not fear, O Zion, || Do not let your hands be feeble.

¹⁷ Your God YHWH [is] in your midst, || A mighty one [to] save, || He rejoices over you with joy, || He works in His love, || He delights over you with singing."

¹⁸ "I have gathered My afflicted from the appointed place, || They have been bearing reproach from you for her sake.

¹⁹ Behold, I am dealing with all afflicting you at that time, || And I have saved the halting one, || And I gather the ones driven out, || And have set them for a praise and for a name, || In all the land of their shame.

²⁰ At that time I bring you in, || Even at the time of My assembling you,
|| For I give you for a name, and for a praise, || Among all peoples of the land, || In My turning back [to] your captivity before your eyes," said
YHWH!

Haggai

¹ In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, a word of YHWH has been by the hand of Haggai the prophet, to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, saying,

² “Thus spoke YHWH of Hosts, saying, This people—they have said, || The time has not come, || The time the house of YHWH [is] to be built.”

³ And there is a word of YHWH by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,

⁴ “Is it time for you to dwell in your covered houses, || And this house to lie waste?”

⁵ And now, thus said YHWH of Hosts: “Set your heart to your ways.

⁶ You have sown much, and brought in little, || To eat, and not to satiety, || To drink, and not to drunkenness, || To clothe, and none has heat, || And he who is hiring himself out, || Is hiring himself for a bag pierced through.”

⁷ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: “Set your heart to your ways.

⁸ Go up the mountain, and you have brought in wood, || And build the house, and I am pleased with it. And I am honored,” said YHWH.

⁹ “Looking for much, and behold, little, || And you brought [it] home, and I blew on it—why?” A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || “Because of My house that is desolate, || And you are running—each to his house,

¹⁰ Therefore, over you the heavens have refrained from dew, || And the land has refrained its increase.

¹² And Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, listen to the voice of their God YHWH, and to the words of Haggai the prophet, as their God YHWH had sent him, and the people are afraid of the face of YHWH.

¹³ And Haggai, messenger of YHWH, in messages of YHWH, speaks to the people, saying, “I [am] with you, a declaration of YHWH.”

¹⁴ And YHWH stirs up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they come in, and work in the house of YHWH of Hosts their God,

¹⁵ in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

¹ In the seventh [month], on the twenty-first of the month, a word of YHWH has been by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,

² “Now speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

³ Who among you has been left that saw this house in its former glory? And what are you seeing it now? Is it not, compared with it, as nothing in your eyes?

⁴ And now, be strong, O Zerubbabel," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest, || And be strong, all you people of the land," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And do, for I [am] with you," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

⁵ "The thing that I covenanted with you, || In your coming forth from Egypt, || And My Spirit is remaining in your midst, do not fear."

⁶ For thus said YHWH of Hosts: "Yet once more—it [is] a little, || And I am shaking the heavens and the earth, || And the sea, and the dry land,

⁷ And I have shaken all the nations, || And they have come [to] the desire of all the nations, || And I have filled this house [with] glory," said YHWH of Hosts.

⁸ "The silver [is] Mine, and the gold [is] Mine," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

⁹ "Greater is the glory of this latter house, || Than of the former," said YHWH of Hosts, || "And I give peace in this place," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth of the ninth [month], in the second year of Darius, a word of YHWH has been by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,

¹¹ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: "Now ask the priests of the Law, saying,

¹² Behold, [when] one carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and he has come with his skirt against the bread, or against the stew, or against the wine, or against the oil, or against any food—is it holy?" And the priests answer and say, "No."

¹³ And Haggai says, "If the unclean of body comes against any of these, is it unclean?" And the priests answer and say, "It is unclean."

¹⁴ And Haggai answers and says, "So [is] this people, and so [is] this nation before Me," a declaration of YHWH, "and so [is] every work of their hands, and that which they bring near there—it is unclean.

¹⁵ And now, please lay [it] to your heart, || From this day and onward, || Before the laying of stone to stone in the temple of YHWH.

¹⁶ From that time [one] has come to a heap of twenty, || And it has been ten, || He has come to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, || And it has been twenty.

¹⁷ I have struck you with blasting, || And with mildew, and with hail—All the work of your hands, || And there is none of you with Me," || A declaration of YHWH.

¹⁸ "Now set [it] to your heart, from this day and onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth [month], even from the day that the temple of YHWH has been founded, set [it] to your heart.

¹⁹ Is the seed yet in the barn? And until now the vine and the fig, || And the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, || Have not borne—from this day I bless."

²⁰ And there is a word of YHWH a second time to Haggai, on the twenty-fourth of the month, saying,

²¹ "Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah, saying, I am shaking the heavens and the earth,

²³ In that day," a declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || "I take you, Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, My servant," || A declaration of YHWH, || "And have set you as a signet, || For I have fixed on you," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts!

Zechariah

¹ In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, a word of YHWH has been to Zechariah, son of Berechiah, son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

² “YHWH was angry against your fathers—wrath!

³ And you have said to them, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Return to Me, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || And I return to you, said YHWH of Hosts.

⁴ You will not be as your fathers, || To whom the former prophets called, || Saying, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Please turn back from your evil ways and from your evil doings, || And they did not listen, || Nor attend to Me—a declaration of YHWH.

⁵ Your fathers—where [are] they? And the prophets—do they live for all time?

⁶ Only, My words and My statutes, || That I commanded My servants the prophets, || Have they not overtaken your fathers? And they turn back and say: As YHWH of Hosts designed to do to us, || According to our ways, and according to our doings, || So He has done to us.”

⁷ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (it [is] the month of Sebat), in the second year of Darius, a word of YHWH has been to Zechariah, son of Berechiah, son of Iddo the prophet. [He was] saying:

⁸ I have seen by night, and behold, one riding on a red horse, and he is standing between the myrtles that [are] in the shade, and behind him [are] horses, red, bay, and white.

⁹ And I say, “What [are] these, my lord?” And the messenger who is speaking with me says to me, “I show you what these [are].”

¹⁰ And the one who is standing between the myrtles answers and says, “These [are] they whom YHWH has sent to walk up and down in the land.”

¹¹ And they answer the Messenger of YHWH who is standing between the myrtles, and say, “We have walked up and down in the land, and behold, all the land is sitting still, and at rest.”

¹² And the Messenger of YHWH answers and says, “YHWH of Hosts! Until when do You not pity Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, that You have abhorred these seventy years?”

¹³ And YHWH answers the messenger, who is speaking with me, good words, comfortable words.

¹⁴ And the messenger who is speaking with me, says to me, “Call, saying, Thus said YHWH of Hosts: I have been zealous for Jerusalem, || And for Zion [with] great zeal.

¹⁵ And [with] great wrath I am angry against the nations who are at ease, || For I was a little angry, and they assisted—for evil.

¹⁶ Therefore, thus said YHWH: I have turned to Jerusalem with mercies, || My house is built in it, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || And a line is stretched over Jerusalem.

¹⁷ Again call, saying, || Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Again My cities overflow from good, || And YHWH has again comforted Zion, || And He has fixed again on Jerusalem.”

¹⁸ And I lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, four horns.

¹⁹ And I say to the messenger who is speaking with me, “What [are] these?” And he says to me, “These [are] the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

²⁰ And YHWH shows me four artisans.

²¹ And I say, “What [are] these coming to do?” And He speaks, saying, “These [are] the horns that have scattered Judah, so that no one has lifted up his head, and these come to trouble them, to cast down the horns of the nations who are lifting up a horn against the land of Judah—to scatter it.”

¹ And I lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, a man, and in his hand a measuring line.

² And I say, “To where are you going?” And he says to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how much [is] its breadth and how much its length.”

³ And behold, the messenger who is speaking with me is going out, and another messenger is going out to meet him,

⁵ And I am to her—a declaration of YHWH—A wall of fire all around, | | And I am for glory in her midst.

⁷ Behold, Zion, be delivered who are dwelling [with] the daughter of Babylon.

⁸ For thus said YHWH of Hosts: He has sent Me after glory to the nations who are spoiling you, | | For he who is coming against you, | | Is coming against the pupil of His eye.

⁹ For behold, I am waving My hand against them, | | And they have been a spoil to their servants. And you have known that YHWH of Hosts has sent Me.

¹⁰ Sing, and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, | | For behold, I am coming, and have dwelt in your midst, | | A declaration of YHWH.

¹¹ And many nations have been joined to YHWH in that day, | | And they have been to Me for a people, | | And I have dwelt in your midst, | | And you have known that YHWH of Hosts has sent Me to you.

¹ And he shows me Joshua the high priest standing before the Messenger of YHWH, and Satan standing at his right hand, to be an adversary to him.

² And YHWH says to Satan: “YHWH pushes against you, O Satan, | | Indeed, YHWH pushes against you, | | Who is fixing on Jerusalem, | | Is this not a brand delivered from fire?”

³ And Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and is standing before the Messenger.

⁴ And He answers and speaks to those standing before Him, saying, "Turn aside the filthy garments from off him." And He says to him, "See, I have caused your iniquity to pass away from off you, so as to clothe you with costly apparel."

⁵ He also said, "Let them set a pure turban on his head." And they set the pure turban on his head, and clothe him with garments. And the Messenger of YHWH is standing,

⁶ and the Messenger of YHWH protests to Joshua, saying,

⁷ "Thus said YHWH of Hosts: If you walk in My ways, || And if you keep My charge, || Then also you judge My house, || And also you keep My courts, || And I have given to you conductors among these standing by.

⁸ Now hear, O Joshua the high priest, || You and your companions sitting before you || (For men of type [are] they), || For behold, I am bringing in My servant—a Shoot.

¹⁰ In that day—a declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || You call, each to his neighbor, || To the place of the vine, || And to the place of the fig tree!"

¹ And the messenger who is speaking with me turns back, and stirs me up as one who is stirred up out of his sleep,

² and he says to me, "What are you seeing?" And I say, "I have looked, and behold, a lampstand of gold—all of it, and its bowl [is] on its top, and its seven lamps [are] on it, and twice seven pipes [are] to the lights that [are] on its top,

³ and two olive-trees [are] by it, one on the right of the bowl and one on its left."

⁴ And I answer and speak to the messenger who is speaking with me, saying, "What [are] these, my lord?"

⁵ And the messenger who is speaking with me answers and says to me, "Have you not known what these [are]?" And I say, "No, my lord."

⁶ And he answers and speaks to me, saying, "This [is] a word of YHWH to Zerubbabel, saying, || Not by a force, nor by power, || But—by My Spirit, said YHWH of Hosts.

⁷ Who [are] you, O great mountain || Before Zerubbabel—for a plain! And he has brought forth the top-stone, || Cries of Grace, grace—[are] to it."

⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

⁹ "Hands of Zerubbabel founded this house, || And his hands finish it, || And you have known that YHWH of Hosts || Has sent Me to you.

¹¹ And I answer and say to him, "What [are] these two olive-trees, on the right of the lampstand, and on its left?"

¹² And I answer a second time, and say to him, “What [are] the two branches of the olive trees that, by means of the two golden pipes, are emptying out of themselves the oil?”

¹³ And he speaks to me, saying, “Have you not known what these [are]?” And I say, “No, my lord.”

¹⁴ And he says, “These [are] the two sons of the oil, who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth.”

¹ And I turn back, and lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, a flying scroll.

² And he says to me, “What are you seeing?” And I say, “I am seeing a flying scroll, its length [is] twenty by the cubit, and its breadth [is] ten by the cubit.”

³ And he says to me, “This [is] the execration that is going forth over the face of all the land, for everyone who is stealing, on the one side, according to it, has been declared innocent, and everyone who has sworn, on the other side, according to it, has been declared innocent.”

⁴ “I have brought it out,” a declaration of YHWH of Hosts, “and it has come into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who has sworn in My Name with a falsehood, and it has remained in the midst of his house, and has consumed it, both its wood and its stones.”

⁵ And the messenger who is speaking with me goes forth and says to me, “Now lift up your eyes, and [do you] see what this [is] that is coming forth?”

⁶ And I say, “What [is] it?” And he says, “This—the ephah that is coming forth.” And he says, “This [is] their aspect in all the land.

⁷ And behold, a disc of lead lifted up; and this [is] a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah.”

⁸ And he says, “This [is] the wicked woman.” And he casts her into the midst of the ephah, and casts the weight of lead on its mouth.

⁹ And I lift up my eyes, and see, and behold, two women are coming forth, and wind [is] in their wings; and they have wings like wings of the stork, and they lift up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

¹⁰ And I say to the messenger who is speaking with me, “To where [are] they causing the ephah to go?”

¹¹ And he says to me, “To build a house for it in the land of Shinar.” And it has been prepared and has been placed there on its base.

¹ And I turn back, and lift up my eyes, and look, and behold, four chariots are coming forth from between two of the mountains, and the mountains [are] mountains of bronze.

² In the first chariot [are] red horses, and in the second chariot brown horses,

³ and in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot strong spotted horses.

⁴ And I answer and say to the messenger who is speaking with me, “What [are] these, my lord?”

⁵ And the messenger answers and says to me, “These [are] four spirits of the heavens coming forth from presenting themselves before the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶ The brown horses that [are] therein, are coming forth to the land of the north; and the white have come forth to their back part; and the spotted have come forth to the land of the south;

⁷ and the strong ones have come forth, and they seek to go to walk up and down in the earth”; and he says, “Go, walk up and down in the earth”; and they walk up and down in the earth.

⁸ And he calls me, and speaks to me, saying, “See, those coming forth to the land of the north have caused My Spirit to rest in the land of the north.”

⁹ And there is a word of YHWH to me, saying,

¹⁰ “Take of the captivity (who came from Babylon) from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah, and you have come in—you, in that day, indeed, you have come into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah,

¹¹ and you have taken silver and gold, and have made a crown, and have placed [it] on the head of Joshua son of Josedech, the high priest,

¹² and have spoken to him, saying, || Thus spoke YHWH of Hosts, saying, || Behold, the Man! A Shoot—[is] His Name, || And from His place He shoots up, || And He has built the temple of YHWH.

¹³ Indeed, He builds the temple of YHWH, || And He carries away splendor, || And He has sat and ruled on His throne, || And has been a priest on His throne, || And a counsel of peace is between both.

¹⁴ And the crown is to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of YHWH.

¹⁵ And the far-off come in, and they have built in the temple of YHWH, and you have known that YHWH of Hosts has sent me to you, indeed, it has come to pass, if you certainly listen to the voice of your God YHWH.”

¹ And it comes to pass, in the fourth year of Darius the king, a word of YHWH has been to Zechariah, in the fourth of the ninth month, in Chisleu.

² And Beth-El sends Sherezzer and Regem-Melech, and its men, to appease the face of YHWH,

³ speaking to the priests who [are] at the house of YHWH of Hosts, and to the prophets, saying, “Do I weep in the fifth month—being separated—as I have done these so many years?”

⁴ And there is a word of YHWH of Hosts to me, saying,

⁵ “Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying,

⁶ When you fasted with mourning in the fifth and in the seventh [months]—even these seventy years—did you keep the fast [to] Me? And when you eat, and when you drink, is it not you who are eating, and you who are drinking?

⁷ Are [these] not the words that YHWH proclaimed by the hand of the former prophets, in Jerusalem’s being inhabited, and [in] safety, and its cities around it, and the south and the plain—abiding?”

⁸ And there is a word of YHWH to Zechariah, saying,

⁹ “Thus spoke YHWH of Hosts, saying, || Judge [with] true judgment, || And do kindness and mercy with one another.

¹⁰ And do not oppress widow, and fatherless, || Sojourner, and poor, || And you do not devise the calamity of one another in your heart.

¹¹ And they refuse to attend, || And they give a stubborn shoulder, || And their ears are made heavy against hearing.

¹² And their heart they have made adamant, || Against hearing the Law, and the words, || That YHWH of Hosts sent by His Spirit, || By the hand of the former prophets, || And there is great wrath from YHWH of Hosts.

¹³ And it comes to pass, as He called, || And they have not listened, || So they call, and I do not listen," said YHWH of Hosts.

¹⁴ "And I toss them on all the nations, || That they have not known, || The land has been desolate behind them, || Of any passing by and turning back, || And they set a desirable land for a desolation!"

¹ And there is a word of YHWH of Hosts, saying,

² "Thus said YHWH of Hosts: I have been zealous for Zion with great zeal, || With great heat I have been zealous for her.

³ Thus said YHWH: I have turned back to Zion, || And I have dwelt in the midst of Jerusalem, || And Jerusalem has been called The City of Truth, || And The Mountain of YHWH of Hosts, || The Holy Mountain.

⁴ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Again old men and old women dwell || In broad places of Jerusalem, || And each his staff in his hand, || Because of abundance of days.

⁵ And broad places of the city are full of boys and girls, || Playing in its broad places.

⁶ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Surely it is wonderful in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, || Also in My eyes it is wonderful, || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts.

⁷ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Behold, I am saving My people from the land of the rising, || And from the land of the going in, of the sun,

⁸ And I have brought them in, || They have dwelt in the midst of Jerusalem, || And they have been to Me for a people, || And I am to them for God, || In truth and in righteousness.

⁹ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Let your hands be strong, || You who are hearing in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, || That in the day the house of YHWH of Hosts has been founded, || The temple [is] to be built.

¹⁰ For before those days there has been no hiring of man, || Indeed, a hiring of beasts there is none; And to him who is going out, || And to him who is coming in, || There is no peace because of the adversary, || And I send all men—each against his neighbor.

¹² Because of the sowing of peace, || The vine gives her fruit, || And the earth gives her increase, || And the heavens give their dew, || And I have caused the remnant of this people || To inherit all these.

¹³ And it has come to pass, || As you have been a reviling among nations, || O house of Judah, and house of Israel, || So I save you, and you have been a blessing, || Do not fear, let your hands be strong.

¹⁴ For thus said YHWH of Hosts: As I purposed to do evil to you, || When your fathers made Me angry—said YHWH of Hosts—And I did not relent,

¹⁵ So I have turned back, I have purposed, in these days, || To do good with Jerusalem, || And with the house of Judah—do not fear!

¹⁶ These [are] the things that you do: Each speak truth with his neighbor, || Judge [with] truth and peaceful judgment in your gates,

¹⁷ And do not devise the evil of his neighbor in your heart, || And do not love a false oath, || For all these [are] things that I have hated, || A declaration of YHWH.”

¹⁸ And there is a word of YHWH of Hosts to me, saying,

¹⁹ “Thus said YHWH of Hosts: The fast of the fourth, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth [months], are to the house of Judah for joy and for rejoicing, and for pleasant appointed times, and the truth and the peace they have loved.

²⁰ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: Yet peoples come, and inhabitants of many cities,

²¹ Indeed, inhabitants of one || Have gone to another, saying, || We go diligently, || To appease the face of YHWH, || To seek YHWH of Hosts—I go, even I.

²² Indeed, many peoples have come in, and mighty nations, || To seek YHWH of Hosts in Jerusalem, || And to appease the face of YHWH.

²³ Thus said YHWH of Hosts: In those days ten men of all languages of the nations take hold, || Indeed, they have taken hold on the skirt of a man, a Jew, saying, || We go with you, for we heard God [is] with you!”

¹ The burden of a word of YHWH against the land of Hadrach, and Demmeseh—his place of rest: (When to YHWH [is] the eye of man, || And of all the tribes of Israel).

² And also Hamath borders thereon, || Tyre and Sidon, for—very wise!

³ And Tyre builds a bulwark for herself, || And heaps silver as dust, || And gold as mire of out-places.

⁴ Behold, the Lord dispossesses her, || And He has struck her force in the sea, || And she is consumed with fire.

⁶ “And a foreigner has dwelt in Ashdod, || And I have cut off the excellence of the Philistines.

⁷ And turned aside his blood from his mouth, || His abominations from between his teeth, || And he has remained, even he, to our God, || And he has been as a leader in Judah, || And Ekron as a Jebusite.

⁸ And I have pitched a camp for My house, || Because of the passer through, and of the returner, || And an exactor does not pass through against them again, || For now, I have seen with My eyes.

⁹ Rejoice exceedingly, O daughter of Zion, || Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem, || Behold, your King comes to you, || Righteous and having salvation, || Afflicted—and riding on a donkey, || And on a colt—a son of female donkeys.

¹² Return to a stronghold, || You prisoners of the hope, || Even today a second announcer I restore to you.

¹⁴ And YHWH appears for them, || And His arrow has gone forth as lightning, || And Lord YHWH blows with a horn, || And He has gone with whirlwinds of the south.

¹⁵ YHWH of Hosts covers them over, || And they consumed, and subdued sling-stones, || Indeed, they have drunk, || They have made a noise as wine, || And they have been full as a bowl, || As corners of an altar.

¹⁷ For what His goodness! And what His beauty! Grain the young men, || And new wine the virgins—make fruitful!

¹ They asked of YHWH rain || In a time of spring rain, || YHWH is making lightnings, || And He gives to them rain [in] showers. To each—the herb in the field.

² Because the teraphim spoke iniquity, || And the diviners have seen a falsehood, || And dreams of the vanity they speak, || [With] vanity they give comfort, || Therefore they have journeyed as a flock, || They are afflicted, for there is no shepherd.

⁴ From him [is] a cornerstone, || From him a nail, from him a battle-bow, || From him goes forth every exactor together.

⁵ And they have been as heroes, || Treading in mire of out-places in battle, || And they have fought, for YHWH [is] with them, || And have put to shame riders of horses.

⁶ And I have made the house of Judah mighty, || And I save the house of Joseph, || And I have caused them to dwell, for I have loved them, || And they have been as [if] I had not cast them off, || For I [am] their God YHWH, || And I answer them.

⁷ And Ephraim has been as a hero, || And their heart has rejoiced as wine, || And their sons see, and they have rejoiced, || Their heart rejoices in YHWH.

⁸ I hiss for them, and I gather them, || For I have redeemed them, || And they have multiplied as they multiplied.

⁹ And I sow them among peoples, || And in far-off places they remember Me, || And they have lived with their sons, || And they have turned back.

¹⁰ And I have brought them back from the land of Egypt, || And I gather them from Asshur, || And I bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, || And [space] is not found for them there.

¹¹ And He has passed over through the sea, || And has pressed and struck billows in the sea, || And all depths of a flood have been dried up, || And the excellence of Asshur has been brought down, || And the rod of Egypt turns aside.

¹ Open, O Lebanon, your doors, || And fire devours among your cedars.

² Howl, O fir, for the cedar has fallen, || For their majestic ones were destroyed, || Howl, you oaks of Bashan, || For the enclosed forest has come down,

⁴ Thus said my God YHWH: "Feed the flock of the slaughter,

⁵ Whose buyers slay them, and are not guilty, || And their sellers say, Blessed [is] YHWH, || And I am rich, || And their shepherds have no pity on them.

⁶ For I no longer have pity on inhabitants of the land, || A declaration of YHWH, || And behold, I am causing man to come forth, || Each into the hand of his neighbor, || And into the hand of his king, || And they have beaten down the land, || And I do not deliver out of their hand."

⁷ And I feed the flock of slaughter, even you, you afflicted of the flock; and I take two staves to myself; I have called one Pleasantness, and I have called the other Bands, and I feed the flock.

⁸ And I cut off the three shepherds in one month, and my soul is grieved with them, and also their soul has abhorred me.

⁹ And I say, "I do not feed you, the dying, let die; and the cut off, let be cut off; and the remaining ones, let each eat the flesh of its neighbor."

¹⁰ And I take my staff Pleasantness, and cut it apart, to make void my covenant that I had made with all the peoples:

¹¹ and it is broken in that day, and the afflicted of the flock who are observing me know well, that it [is] a word of YHWH.

¹² And I say to them: "If good in your eyes, give my hire, and if not, refrain"; and they weigh out my hire—thirty pieces of silver.

¹⁴ And I cut apart my second staff, Bands, || To break the unity between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ And YHWH says to me, "Again take to yourself the instrument of a foolish shepherd.

¹ The burden of a word of YHWH on Israel. A declaration of YHWH, || Stretching out the heavens, and founding earth, || And forming the spirit of man in his midst:

² "Behold, I am making Jerusalem a cup of reeling || To all the surrounding peoples, || And it is also against Judah, || In the siege against Jerusalem.

³ And it has come to pass in that day, || I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone to all the peoples, || All loading it are completely pressed down, || And gathered against it have been all nations of the earth.

⁷ And YHWH has saved the tents of Judah first, || So that the beauty of the house of David does not become great against Judah, || And the beauty of the inhabitant of Jerusalem.

⁸ In that day YHWH covers over the inhabitant of Jerusalem, || And the stumbling among them has been in that day as David, || And the house of David as God—As the Messenger of YHWH—before them.

⁹ And it has come to pass in that day, || I seek to destroy all the nations || Who are coming in against Jerusalem,

¹⁰ And I have poured on the house of David, || And on the inhabitant of Jerusalem, || The Spirit of grace and supplications, || And they have looked to Me whom they pierced, || And they have mourned over Him, || Like a mourning over the only one, || And they have been in bitterness for Him, || Like a bitterness over the firstborn.

¹¹ In that day, great is the mourning of Jerusalem, || As the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the Valley of Megiddon,

¹² And the land has mourned—every family apart, || The family of the house of David apart, || And their women apart; The family of the house of Nathan apart, || And their women apart;

¹³ The family of the house of Levi apart, || And their women apart; The family of Shimei apart, || And their women apart,

¹ "In that day there is a fountain opened || To the house of David || And to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, || For sin and for impurity.

² And it has come to pass in that day," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts, || "I cut off the names of the idols from the land, || And they are not remembered anymore, || And also the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness || I cause to pass away from the land.

³ And it has been, when one prophesies again, || That his parents, his father and his mother, || Have said to him, You do not live, || For you have spoken falsehood in the Name of YHWH, || And his father and his mother, his parents, || Have pierced him through in his prophesying.

⁴ And it has come to pass in that day, || The prophets are ashamed, each of his vision, in his prophesying, || And they do not put on a hairy robe to deceive.

⁵ And [one] has said, I am not a prophet, || A man—I am a tiller of ground, || For ground [is] my possession from my youth.

⁶ And [one] has said to him, || What [are] these wounds in your hands? And he has said, Because I was struck [at] home by my lovers.

⁷ Sword, awake against My Shepherd, || And against a hero—My Fellow," || A declaration of YHWH of Hosts. "Strike the Shepherd, and the flock is scattered, || And I have put back My hand on the little ones.

⁹ And I have brought the third into fire, || And refined them like a refining of silver, || And have tried them like a trying of gold, || It calls in My Name, and I answer it, || I have said, It [is] My people, || And it says, YHWH [is] my God!"

¹ Behold, a day has come to YHWH, || And your spoil has been divided in your midst.

² And I have gathered all the nations to Jerusalem to battle, || And the city has been captured, || And the houses have been spoiled, || And the women are lain with, || Half the city has gone forth in a removal, || And the remnant of the people are not cut off from the city.

³ And YHWH has gone forth, || And He has fought against those nations, || As in the day of His fighting in a day of conflict.

⁴ And His feet have stood, in that day, || On the Mount of Olives, || That [is] eastward before Jerusalem, || And the Mount of Olives has been cleft at its midst, || To the east, and to the west, a very great valley, || And half of the mountain is removed toward the north, || And half toward the south.

⁵ And you have fled [to] the valley of My mountains, || For the valley of the mountains joins to Azal, || And you have fled as you fled before the shaking, || In the days of Uzziah king of Judah, || And my God YHWH has come in, || All holy ones [are] with You.

⁶ And it has come to pass in that day, || The precious light is not, it is dense darkness,

⁷ And there has been one day, || It is known to YHWH, not day nor night, || And it has been at evening-time—there is light.

⁸ And it has come to pass in that day, || Living waters go forth from Jerusalem, || Half of them to the Eastern Sea, || And half of them to the Western Sea, || It is in summer and in winter.

⁹ And YHWH has become King over all the earth, || In that day YHWH is one, and His Name one.

¹¹ And they have dwelt in her, || And destruction is no more, || And Jerusalem has dwelt confidently.

¹² And this is the plague with which YHWH plagues all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: He has consumed away its flesh, || And it is standing on its feet, || And its eyes are consumed in their holes, || And its tongue is consumed in their mouth.

¹³ And it has come to pass in that day, || A great destruction [from] YHWH is among them, || And they have each seized the hand of his neighbor, || And his hand has gone up against the hand of his neighbor.

¹⁵ And so is the plague of the horse, of the mule, || Of the camel, and of the donkey, || And of all the livestock that are in these camps, || As this plague.

¹⁶ And it has come to pass, || Everyone who has been left of all the nations, || Who are coming in against Jerusalem, || They have also gone up from year to year, || To bow themselves to the King, YHWH of Hosts, || And to celebrate the Celebration of the Shelters.

¹⁷ And it has come to pass, || That he who does not go up of the families of the land to Jerusalem, || To bow himself to the King, YHWH of Hosts, || Even on them there is no shower.

¹⁹ This is the punishment of the sin of Egypt, || And the punishment of the sin of all the nations, || That do not go up to celebrate the Celebration of Shelters.

²⁰ In that day "Holy to YHWH" is [engraved] on bells of the horse, || And the pots in the house of YHWH || Have been as bowls before the altar.

²¹ And every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah, || Have been holy to YHWH of Hosts, || And all those sacrificing have come in, || And have taken of them, and boiled in them, || And in that day there is no merchant anymore in the house of YHWH of Hosts!

Malachi

¹ The burden of a word of YHWH to Israel by the hand of Malachi:

² “I have loved you, said YHWH, || And you have said, || In what have you loved us?”

³ Is not Esau Jacob’s brother?” A declaration of YHWH, || “And I love Jacob, and Esau I have hated, || And I make his mountains a desolation, || And his inheritance for dragons of a wilderness.

⁴ Because Edom says, We have been made poor, || And we return and we build the ruins, || Thus said YHWH of Hosts: They build, and I destroy, || And [men] have called to them, || O region of wickedness, || O people whom YHWH defied for all time.

⁵ And your eyes see, and you say, || YHWH is magnified beyond the border of Israel,

⁶ A son honors a father, and a servant his master. And if I [am] a father, where [is] My glory? And if I [am] a master, where [is] My fear? Said YHWH of Hosts to you, || O priests, despising My Name! And you have said, In what have we despised Your Name?

⁷ You are bringing defiled bread near on My altar, || And you have said, In what have we defiled You? In your saying, The table of YHWH—it [is] despicable,

⁸ And when you bring the blind near for sacrifice, [saying], || There is no evil, || And when you bring the lame and sick near, [saying], || There is no evil; Now bring it near to your governor—Does he accept you? Or does he lift up your face?” said YHWH of Hosts.

⁹ “And now, please appease the face of God, || And He favors us; This has been from your own hand, || Does He accept your faces?” said YHWH of Hosts.

¹⁰ “Who [is] even among you, || And he shuts the double doors? Indeed, you do not kindle My altar for nothing, || I have no pleasure in you,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “And I do not accept a present of your hand.

¹¹ For from the rising of the sun to its going in, || Great [is] My Name among nations, || And in every place incense is brought near for My Name, and a pure present, || For great [is] My Name among nations,” said YHWH of Hosts.

¹² “And you are defiling it in your saying, || The table of YHWH—it is defiled, || As for its fruit—its food is despicable.

¹³ And you have said, Behold, what a weariness, || And you have puffed at it,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “And you have brought in plunder, || And the lame and the sick, || And you have brought in the present! Do I accept it from your hand?” said YHWH.

¹⁴ “And a deceiver [is] cursed, who has in his drove a male, || And is vowing, and is sacrificing a marred thing to the Lord, || For I [am] a great King,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “And My Name [is] revered among nations!”

¹ “And now, to you [is] this charge, O priests,

² If you do not listen, and if you do not lay [it] to heart, || To give glory to My Name," said YHWH of Hosts, || "I have sent the curse against you, || And I have cursed your blessings, || Indeed, I have also cursed it, || Because you are not laying [it] to heart.

⁴ And you have known that I have sent this charge to you, || For My covenant being with Levi," said YHWH of Hosts.

⁵ "My covenant has been of life and of peace with him, || And I make them a fear to him, and he fears Me, || And because of My Name he has been frightened.

⁶ The law of truth has been in his mouth, || And perverseness has not been found in his lips, || In peace and in uprightness he walked with Me, || And he brought back many from iniquity.

⁷ For the lips of a priest preserve knowledge, || And they seek law from his mouth, || For he [is] a messenger of YHWH of Hosts.

⁸ And you, you have turned from the way, || You have caused many to stumble in the Law, || You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," said YHWH of Hosts.

⁹ "And I also, I have made you despised and low before all the people, || Because you are not keeping My ways, || And are accepting by superficial things in the Law."

¹⁰ Have we not all one Father? Has not our God created us? Why do we deal treacherously, || Each against his brother, || To defile the covenant of our fathers?

¹¹ Judah has dealt treacherously, || And abomination has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem, || For Judah has defiled the holy thing of YHWH that He has loved, || And has married the daughter of a strange god.

¹² YHWH cuts off the man who does it, || Tempter and tempted—from the tents of Jacob, || Even he who is bringing a present near to YHWH of Hosts.

¹³ And you do this a second time, || Covering the altar of YHWH with tears, || With weeping and groaning, || Because there is no more turning to the present, || Or receiving of a pleasing thing from your hand.

¹⁴ And you have said, "Why?" Because YHWH has testified between you || And the wife of your youth, || That you have dealt treacherously against her, || And she [is] your companion, and your covenant-wife.

¹⁵ And He did not make one [only], || And a remnant of the Spirit [is] for him. And what [is] the one [alone]! He is seeking a godly seed. And you have been watchful over your spirit, || And with the wife of your youth, || None deal treacherously.

¹⁶ "For He hates sending away," said YHWH, God of Israel, || "And he [who] has covered violence with his clothing," said YHWH of Hosts, || "And you have been watchful over your spirit, || And you do not deal treacherously."

¹⁷ You have wearied YHWH with your words, || And you have said, "In what have we wearied Him?" In your saying, "Every evildoer [is] good in the eyes of YHWH, || And He is delighting in them," || Or, "Where [is] the God of judgment?"

¹ “Behold, I am sending My messenger, || And he has prepared a way before Me, || And suddenly the Lord whom you are seeking comes into His temple, || Even the Messenger of the Covenant, || Whom you are desiring, || Behold, He is coming,” said YHWH of Hosts.

² “And who is bearing the day of His coming? And who is standing in His appearing? For He [is] as fire of a refiner, || And as soap of a fuller.

³ And He has sat, a refiner and purifier of silver, || And He has purified the sons of Levi, || And has refined them as gold and as silver, || And they have been bringing a present near to YHWH in righteousness.

⁴ And the present of Judah and Jerusalem has been sweet to YHWH, || As in days of old, and as in former years.

⁵ And I have drawn near to you for judgment, || And I have been a witness, || Making haste against sorcerers, and against adulterers, || And against swearers to a falsehood, || And against oppressors of the hire of a hired worker, || Of a widow, and of a fatherless one, || And those turning aside a sojourner, || And who do not fear Me,” said YHWH of Hosts.

⁶ “For I, YHWH, have not changed, || And you, the sons of Jacob, || You have not been consumed.

⁷ Even from the days of your fathers You have turned aside from My statutes, || And you have not taken heed. Return to Me, and I return to you,” said YHWH of Hosts. “And you have said, || In what do we turn back?

⁸ Does man deceive God? But you are deceiving Me, || And you have said, || In what have we deceived You? The tithe and the raised-offering!

⁹ You are cursed with a curse! And you are deceiving Me—this nation—all of it.

¹⁰ Bring in all the tithe to the treasure-house, || And there is food in My house; When you have tried Me, now, with this,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “Do I not open the windows of the heavens to you? Indeed, I have emptied on you a blessing until there is no space.

¹¹ And I have pushed against the consumer for you, || And He does not destroy the fruit of your ground, || Nor does the vine in the field miscarry to you,” said YHWH of Hosts.

¹² “And all the nations have declared you blessed, || For you are a delightful land,” said YHWH of Hosts.

¹³ “Your words have been hard against Me,” said YHWH, || “And you have said, What have we spoken against You?

¹⁴ You have said, A vain thing to serve God! And what gain when we kept His charge? And when we have gone in black, || Because of YHWH of Hosts?

¹⁶ Then have those fearing YHWH spoken to one another, || And YHWH attends and hears, || And a scroll of memorial is written before Him || Of those fearing YHWH, || And of those esteeming His Name.

¹⁷ And they have been to Me,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “In the day that I am appointing—a peculiar treasure, || And I have had pity on them, || As one has pity on his son who is serving him.

¹ “For behold, the day has come, burning as a furnace, || When all the proud and all those doing wickedness have been stubble, || And the day that came has burned them,” said YHWH of Hosts, || “That there is not left to them root or branch,

² But for you fearing My Name, || The Sun of Righteousness has risen with healing in His wings, || And you have gone forth, || And have bounded as calves of a stall.

³ And you have trodden down the wicked, || For they are ashes under the soles of your feet, || In the day that I am appointing,” said YHWH of Hosts.

⁴ “Remember the Law of My servant Moses, || That I commanded him in Horeb, || For all Israel—statutes and judgments.

⁵ Behold, I am sending Elijah the prophet to you, || Before the coming of the great and fearful Day of YHWH.

⁶ And he has turned back the heart of fathers to sons, || And the heart of sons to their fathers, || Before I come and have utterly struck the land!”

Matthew

1 [The] scroll of the birth of Jesus Christ, Son of David, Son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begot Isaac, and Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers,

3 and Judah begot Perez and Zerah of Tamar, and Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram,

4 and Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon,

5 and Salmon begot Boaz of Rahab, and Boaz begot Obed of Ruth, and Obed begot Jesse,

6 and Jesse begot David the king. And David the king begot Solomon, of her [who had been] Uriah's,

7 and Solomon begot Rehoboam, and Rehoboam begot Abijah, and Abijah begot Asa,

8 and Asa begot Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot Uzziah,

9 and Uzziah begot Jotham, and Jotham begot Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah,

10 and Hezekiah begot Manasseh, and Manasseh begot Amon, and Amon begot Josiah, 11 and Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers, at the Babylonian removal.

12 And after the Babylonian removal, Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel,

13 and Zerubbabel begot Abiud, and Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor,

14 and Azor begot Sadok, and Sadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud,

15 and Eliud begot Eleazar, and Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob,

16 and Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was begotten Jesus, who is named Christ.

17 All the generations, therefore, from Abraham to David [are] fourteen generations, and from David to the Babylonian removal fourteen generations, and from the Babylonian removal to the Christ, fourteen generations.

18 And of Jesus Christ, the birth was thus: for His mother Mary having been betrothed to Joseph, before their coming together she was found to have conceived from the Holy Spirit, 19 and her husband Joseph being righteous, and not willing to make her an example, resolved to send her away privately.

20 And on his thinking of these things, behold, a messenger of the LORD appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, you may not fear to receive your wife Mary, for that which was begotten in her is of [the] Holy Spirit,

21 and she will bring forth a Son, and you will call His Name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."

22 And all this has come to pass, that it may be fulfilled that was spoken by the LORD through the prophet, saying,

²³ “Behold, the virgin will conceive, and she will bring forth a Son, and they will call His Name Emmanuel,” which is, being interpreted, “God with us.”

²⁴ And Joseph, having risen from sleep, did as the messenger of the LORD directed him, and received his wife,

²⁵ and did not know her until she brought forth her Son—the firstborn, and he called His Name Jesus.

¹ And Jesus having been born in Beth-Lehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, magi from the east came to Jerusalem,

² saying, “Where is He who was born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east, and we came to worship Him.”

³ And Herod the king having heard, was stirred, and all Jerusalem with him,

⁴ and having gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he was inquiring from them where the Christ is born.

⁵ And they said to him, “In Beth-Lehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet:

⁶ And you, Beth-Lehem, the land of Judah, you are by no means the least among the leaders of Judah, for out of you will come One leading, who will feed My people Israel.”

⁷ Then Herod, having called the magi privately, inquired exactly from them the time of the appearing star,

⁸ and having sent them to Beth-Lehem, he said, “Having gone—inquire exactly for the Child, and whenever you may have found, bring me back word, that I also having come may worship Him.”

⁹ And they, having heard the king, departed, and behold, the star, that they saw in the east, went before them, until, having come, it stood over where the Child was.

¹⁰ And having seen the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy,

¹² and having been divinely warned in a dream not to return to Herod, through another way they withdrew to their own region.

¹⁴ And he, having risen, took the Child and His mother by night, and withdrew to Egypt,

¹⁵ and he was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken by the LORD through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My Son.”

¹⁶ Then Herod, having seen that he was deceived by the magi, was very angry, and having sent forth, he slew all the male children in Beth-Lehem, and in all its borders, from two years and under, according to the time that he inquired exactly from the magi.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 "A voice in Ramah was heard—weeping and much mourning—Rachel weeping [for] her children, and she would not be comforted because they are not."

19 And Herod having died, behold, a messenger of the LORD appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 saying, "Having risen, take the Child and His mother, and be going to the land of Israel, for they have died—those seeking the life of the Child."

21 And he, having risen, took the Child and His mother, and came to the land of Israel,

22 and having heard that Archelaus reigns over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and having been divinely warned in a dream, he withdrew to the parts of Galilee,

23 and coming, he dwelt in a city named Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the Prophets, that "He will be called a Nazarene."

1 And in those days John the Immerser comes, proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea,

2 and saying, "Convert, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near,"

3 for this is he having been spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, || Make His paths straight."

4 And this John had his clothing of camel's hair, and a girdle of skin around his loins, and his nourishment was locusts and honey of the field.

5 Then were going forth to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan,

6 and they were immersed in the Jordan by him, confessing their sins.

7 And having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming about his immersion, he said to them, "Brood of vipers! Who showed you to flee from the coming wrath?"

8 Bear, therefore, fruits worthy of conversion,

9 and do not think to say in yourselves, We have a father—Abraham, for I say to you that God is able to raise children to Abraham out of these stones,

10 and now also, the axe is laid to the root of the trees, therefore, every tree not bearing good fruit is cut down, and is cast into fire.

11 I indeed immerse you in water for conversion, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to carry the sandals, He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire,

12 whose fan [is] in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His floor, and will gather His wheat into the storehouse, but He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire."

13 Then Jesus comes from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be immersed by him,

14 but John was forbidding Him, saying, "I have need to be immersed by You—and You come to me?"

¹⁵ But Jesus answering said to him, "Permit [it] now, for thus it is fitting to us to fulfill all righteousness," then he permits Him.

¹⁶ And having been immersed, Jesus immediately went up from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on Him,

¹⁷ and behold, a voice out of the heavens, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted."

¹ Then Jesus was led up to the wilderness by the Spirit, to be tempted by the Devil,

² and having fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He hungered.

³ And the tempting [one], having come to Him, said, "If You are the Son of God—speak that these stones may become loaves."

⁴ But He answering said, "It has been written: Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word coming forth from the mouth of God."

⁵ Then the Devil takes Him to the [holy] city, and sets Him on the pinnacle of the temple,

⁶ and says to Him, "If You are the Son of God—cast Yourself down, for it has been written that, His messengers He will charge concerning you, and on hands they will bear you up, that you may not dash your foot on a stone."

⁷ Jesus said to him again, "It has been written: You will not tempt the LORD your God."

⁸ Again the Devil takes Him to a very high mountain, and shows to Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory,

⁹ and says to Him, "All these I will give to You, if falling down You may worship me."

¹⁰ Then Jesus says to him, "Go—Satan, for it has been written: You will worship the LORD your God, and Him only will you serve."

¹¹ Then the Devil leaves Him, and behold, messengers came and were ministering to Him.

¹² And Jesus, having heard that John was delivered up, withdrew to Galilee,

¹³ and having left Nazareth, having come, He dwelt at Capernaum that is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali,

¹⁴ that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁵ "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations!

¹⁶ The people that is sitting in darkness saw a great light, and to those sitting in a region and shadow of death—light arose to them."

¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to proclaim and to say, "Convert, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near."

¹⁸ And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon named Peter and his brother Andrew, casting a drag into the sea—for they were fishers—

¹⁹ and He says to them, "Come after Me, and I will make you fishers of men,"

²⁰ and they, immediately, having left the nets, followed Him.

²¹ And having advanced from there, He saw two other brothers, James of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, refitting their nets, and He called them,

²² and they, immediately, having left the boat and their father, followed Him.

²³ And Jesus was going in all of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people,

²⁵ And there followed Him many multitudes from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

¹ And having seen the multitudes, He went up to the mountain, and He having sat down, His disciples came to Him,

² and having opened His mouth, He was teaching them, saying,

³ “Blessed the poor in spirit—because theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

⁴ Blessed the mourning—because they will be comforted.

⁵ Blessed the meek—because they will inherit the land.

⁶ Blessed those hungering and thirsting for righteousness—because they will be filled.

⁷ Blessed the kind—because they will find kindness.

⁸ Blessed the clean in heart—because they will see God.

⁹ Blessed the peacemakers—because they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰ Blessed those persecuted for righteousness’ sake—because theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

¹¹ Blessed are you whenever they may reproach you, and may persecute, and may say any evil thing against you falsely for My sake—

¹² rejoice and be glad, because your reward [is] great in the heavens, for thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³ You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt may lose savor, in what will it be salted? It is good for nothing from now on, except to be cast outside, and to be trodden down by men.

¹⁴ You are the light of the world, a city set on a mountain is not able to be hid;

¹⁵ nor do they light a lamp and put it under the measure, but on the lampstand, and it shines to all those in the house;

¹⁶ so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and may glorify your Father who [is] in the heavens.

¹⁷ Do not suppose that I came to throw down the Law or the Prophets—I did not come to throw down, but to fulfill;

¹⁸ for truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth may pass away, one iota or one tittle may not pass away from the Law, until all may come to pass.

¹⁹ Therefore whoever may loose one of these commands—the least—and may teach men so, he will be called least in the kingdom of the heavens, but whoever may do and may teach [them], he will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens.

²⁰ For I say to you that if your righteousness may not abound above that of the scribes and Pharisees, you may not enter into the kingdom of the heavens.

²¹ You heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not murder, and whoever may murder will be in danger of the judgment;

²² but I say to you that everyone who is angry at his brother without cause will be in danger of the judgment, and whoever may say to his brother, Stupid, will be in danger of the Sanhedrin, and whoever may say, Moron, will be in danger of the Gehenna of fire.

²³ If, therefore, you may bring your gift to the altar, and there may remember that your brother has anything against you,

²⁴ leave there your gift before the altar, and go—first be reconciled to your brother, and then having come, bring your gift.

²⁵ Be agreeing with your opponent quickly, while you are in the way with him, that the opponent may not deliver you to the judge, and the judge may deliver you to the officer, and you may be cast into prison;

²⁶ truly I say to you, you may not come forth from there until you may pay the last penny.

²⁷ You heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not commit adultery;

²⁸ but I say to you that everyone who is looking on a woman to desire her, already committed adultery with her in his heart.

³¹ And it was said that, Whoever may put away his wife, let him give to her a writing of divorce;

³² but I say to you that whoever may put away his wife, except for the matter of whoredom, makes her to commit adultery; and whoever may marry her who has been put away commits adultery.

³³ Again, you heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not swear falsely, but you will pay to the LORD your oaths;

³⁴ but I say to you not to swear at all; neither by Heaven, because it is the throne of God,

³⁵ nor by the earth, because it is His footstool, nor by Jerusalem, because it is [the] city of [the] great King,

³⁶ nor may you swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black;

³⁷ but let your word be, Yes, Yes, No, No, and that which is more than these is of the evil [one].

³⁸ You heard that it was said: Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth;

³⁹ but I say to you not to resist the evil, but whoever will slap you on your right cheek, turn to him also the other;

⁴⁰ and whoever is willing to take you to law, and to take your coat—also permit to him the cloak.

⁴¹ And whoever will impress you one mile, go with him two;

⁴² to him who is asking of you be giving, and him who is willing to borrow from you, you may not turn away.

⁴³ You heard that it was said: You will love your neighbor, and will hate your enemy;

⁴⁴ but I say to you, love your enemies, bless those cursing you, do good to those hating you, and pray for those accusing you falsely, and persecuting you,

⁴⁵ that you may be sons of your Father in the heavens, because He causes His sun to rise on evil and good, and He sends rain on righteous and unrighteous.

⁴⁶ For if you may love those loving you, what reward do you have? Do the tax collectors not also do the same?

⁴⁷ And if you may greet your brothers only, what do you do abundant? Do the nations not also do so?

⁴⁸ You will therefore be perfect, as your Father who [is] in the heavens is perfect."

¹ "Take heed not to do your kindness before men, to be seen by them, and if not—you have no reward from your Father who [is] in the heavens;

² whenever, therefore, you may do kindness, you may not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory from men; truly I say to you, they have their reward!

³ But you, doing kindness, do not let your left hand know what your right hand does,

⁴ that your kindness may be in secret, and your Father who is seeing in secret will reward you Himself.

⁵ And when you may pray, you will not be as the hypocrites, because they cherish to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the broad places, that they may be seen of men; truly I say to you that they have their reward.

⁶ But you, when you may pray, go into your chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who [is] in secret, and your Father who is seeing in secret will reward you.

⁷ And—praying—you may not use vain repetitions like the nations, for they think that in their speaking much they will be heard,

⁸ therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows those things that you have need of before your asking Him;

⁹ therefore pray thus: Our Father who [is] in the heavens, hallowed be Your Name.

¹⁰ Your kingdom come, Your will come to pass, as in Heaven also on the earth.

¹¹ Give us today our appointed bread.

¹² And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.

¹³ And may You not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil [one], because Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory—for all ages. Amen.

¹⁴ For if you may forgive men their trespasses He also will forgive you—your Father who [is] in the heavens;

15 but if you may not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 And when you may fast, do not be as the hypocrites, of sour countenances, for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men fasting; truly I say to you that they have their reward.

17 But you, fasting, anoint your head, and wash your face,

18 that you may not appear to men fasting, but to your Father who [is] in secret, and your Father, who is seeing in secret, will reward you.

19 Do not treasure up to yourselves treasures on the earth, where moth and rust disfigure, and where thieves break through and steal,

20 but treasure up to yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust disfigure, and where thieves do not break through nor steal,

21 for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The lamp of the body is the eye, if, therefore, your eye may be perfect, all your body will be enlightened,

23 but if your eye may be evil, all your body will be dark; if, therefore, the light that [is] in you is darkness—the darkness, how great!

24 None is able to serve two lords, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will hold to the one, and despise the other; you are not able to serve God and wealth.

25 Because of this I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you may eat, and what you may drink, nor for your body, what you may put on. Is not life more than nourishment, and the body than clothing?

26 Look to the birds of the sky, for they do not sow, nor reap, nor gather into storehouses, and your heavenly Father nourishes them; are you not much better than they?

27 And who of you, being anxious, is able to add to his age one cubit?

28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider well the lilies of the field; how do they grow? They do not labor, nor do they spin;

29 and I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these.

30 And if the herb of the field, that today is, and tomorrow is cast into the furnace, God so clothes—not much more you, O you of little faith?

31 Therefore you may not be anxious, saying, What may we eat? Or, What may we drink? Or, [With] what may we be clothed?

32 For the nations seek for all these, for your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these;

33 but seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these will be added to you.

34 Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for its own things; sufficient for the day [is] the evil of it."

1 "Do not judge, that you may not be judged,

2 for in what judgment you judge, you will be judged, and in what measure you measure, it will be measured to you.

3 And why do you behold the speck that [is] in your brother's eye, and do not consider the beam that [is] in your own eye?

4 Or, how will you say to your brother, Permit [that] I may cast out the speck from your eye, and behold, the beam [is] in your own eye?

⁵ Hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to cast out the speck out of your brother's eye.

⁶ You may not give that which is [holy] to the dogs, nor cast your pearls before the pigs, that they may not trample them among their feet, and having turned—may tear you apart.

⁷ Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you;

⁸ for everyone who is asking receives, and he who is seeking finds, and to him who is knocking it will be opened.

⁹ Or what man is of you, of whom, if his son may ask [for] a loaf—a stone will he present to him?

¹⁰ And if he may ask [for] a fish—a serpent will he present to him?

¹¹ If, therefore, you being evil, have known to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who [is] in the heavens give good things to those asking Him?

¹² All things, therefore, whatever you may will that men may be doing to you, so also do to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¹³ Go in through the narrow gate, because wide [is] the gate and broad the way that is leading to the destruction, and many are those going in through it;

¹⁴ how narrow [is] the gate and compressed the way that is leading to life, and few are those finding it!

¹⁵ But take heed of the false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, and inwardly are ravenous wolves.

¹⁶ From their fruits you will know them; do [men] gather grapes from thorns? Or figs from thistles?

¹⁷ So every good tree yields good fruits, but the bad tree yields evil fruits.

¹⁸ A good tree is not able to yield evil fruits, nor a bad tree to yield good fruits.

¹⁹ Every tree not yielding good fruit is cut down and is cast into fire:

²⁰ therefore from their fruits you will know them.

²¹ Not everyone who is saying to Me, Lord, Lord, will come into the kingdom of the heavens, but he who is doing the will of My Father who is in the heavens.

²² Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your Name? And in Your Name cast out demons? And in Your Name done many mighty things?

²³ And then I will acknowledge to them, that—I never knew you, depart from Me you who are working lawlessness.

²⁴ Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock;

²⁵ and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock.

²⁶ And everyone who is hearing these words of Mine, and is not doing them, will be likened to a foolish man who built his house on the sand;

²⁷ and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it fell, and its fall was great."

²⁸ And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these words, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching,

²⁹ for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

¹ And when He came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him,

² and behold, a leper having come, was prostrating to Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You are able to cleanse me";

³ and having stretched forth the hand, Jesus touched him, saying, "I will be cleansed," and immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

⁴ And Jesus says to him, "See, you may tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest, and bring the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony to them."

⁵ And Jesus having entered into Capernaum, there came to Him a centurion calling on Him,

⁶ and saying, "Lord, my young man has been laid in the house a paralytic, fearfully afflicted,"

⁷ and Jesus says to him, "I, having come, will heal him."

⁸ And the centurion answering said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You may enter under my roof, but only say a word, and my servant will be healed;

⁹ for I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers, and I say to this one, Go, and he goes, and to another, Be coming, and he comes, and to my servant, Do this, and he does [it]."

¹⁰ And Jesus having heard, wondered, and said to those following, "Truly I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith;

¹¹ and I say to you that many from east and west will come and recline with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of the heavens,

¹² but the sons of the kingdom will be cast forth into the outer darkness—there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth."

¹³ And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go, and as you believed let it be to you"; and his young man was healed in that hour.

¹⁴ And Jesus having come into the house of Peter, saw his mother-in-law laid, and fevered, ¹⁵ and He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she arose, and was ministering to them.

¹⁶ And evening having come, they brought to Him many demoniacs, and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill,

¹⁷ that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took our sicknesses Himself, and bore the diseases."

¹⁸ And Jesus having seen great multitudes around Him, commanded to depart to the other side;

¹⁹ and a certain scribe having come, said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You may go";

²⁰ and Jesus says to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky places of rest, but the Son of Man has nowhere He may lay the head."

²¹ And another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, permit me first to depart and to bury my father";

²² and Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and permit the dead to bury their own dead."

²³ And when He entered into the boat His disciples followed Him,

²⁴ and behold, a great storm arose in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves, but He was sleeping,

²⁵ and His disciples having come to Him, awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

²⁶ And He says to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then having risen, He rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm;

²⁷ and the men wondered, saying, "What kind—is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

²⁸ And He having come to the other side, to the region of the Gergesenes, there met Him two demoniacs, coming forth out of the tombs, very fierce, so that no one was able to pass over by that way,

²⁹ and behold, they cried out, saying, "What [regards] us and You, [[Jesus,]] Son of God? Did You come here to afflict us before the time?"

³⁰ And there was a herd of many pigs feeding far off from them,

³¹ and the demons were calling on Him, saying, "If You cast us forth, permit us to go away into the herd of the pigs";

³² and He says to them, "Go." And having come forth, they went into the herd of the pigs, and behold, the whole herd of the pigs rushed down the steep, into the sea, and died in the waters, ³³ and those feeding fled, and having gone into the city, they declared all, and the matter of the demoniacs.

³⁴ And behold, all the city came forth to meet Jesus, and having seen Him, they called on [Him] that He might depart from their borders.

¹ And having gone into the boat, He passed over, and came to His own city,

² and behold, they were bringing to Him a paralytic, laid on a bed, and Jesus having seen their faith, said to the paralytic, "Take courage, child, your sins have been forgiven."

³ And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, "This One speaks evil."

⁴ And Jesus, having known their thoughts, said, "Why think evil in your hearts?

⁵ For which is easier? To say, Your sins are forgiven; or to say, Rise and walk?

⁶ But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on the earth to forgive sins—(then He says to the paralytic)—Having risen, take up your bed, and go to your house."

⁷ And he, having risen, went to his house,

⁸ and the multitudes having seen, wondered, and glorified God, who gave such power to men.

⁹ And Jesus passing on from there saw a man sitting at the tax office named Matthew, and says to him, "Follow Me," and he, having risen, followed Him.

¹⁰ And it came to pass, He reclining in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners having come, were dining with Jesus and His disciples,

¹¹ and the Pharisees having seen, said to His disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"

¹² And Jesus having heard, said to them, "They who are whole have no need of a physician, but they who are ill;

13 but having gone, learn what [this] is: Kindness I will, and not sacrifice; for I did not come to call righteous men, but sinners."

14 Then the disciples of John come to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast much, and Your disciples do not fast?"

15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bride-chamber mourn, so long as the bridegroom is with them? But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken from them, and then they will fast.

16 And no one puts a patch of undressed cloth on an old garment, for its filling up takes from the garment, and a worse split is made.

17 Nor do they put new wine into old skins, and if not—the skins burst, and the wine runs out, and the skins are destroyed, but they put new wine into new skins, and both are preserved together."

18 While He is speaking these things to them, behold, a ruler having come, was prostrating to Him, saying that "My daughter just now died, but having come, lay Your hand on her, and she will live."

19 And Jesus having risen, followed him, also His disciples,

20 and behold, a woman having a flow of blood [for] twelve years, having come to Him behind, touched the fringe of His garments,

21 for she said within herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I will be saved."

22 And Jesus having turned, and having seen her, said, "Take courage, daughter, your faith has saved you," and the woman was saved from that hour.

23 And Jesus having come into the house of the ruler, and having seen the pipers and the multitude making tumult,

24 He says to them, "Withdraw, for the girl did not die, but sleeps," and they were deriding Him;

25 but when the multitude was put forth, having gone in, He took hold of her hand, and the girl arose,

26 and the fame of this went forth to all the land.

27 And Jesus passing on from there, two blind men followed Him, calling and saying, "Deal kindly with us, Son of David!"

28 And He having come into the house, the blind men came to Him, and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They say to Him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you,"

30 and their eyes were opened, and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, "See, let no one know";

31 but they, having gone forth, spread His fame in all that land.

32 And as they are coming forth, behold, they brought to Him a man mute, a demoniac,

33 and the demon having been cast out, the mute spoke, and the multitude wondered, saying that "It was never so seen in Israel,"

34 but the Pharisees said, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out the demons."

35 And Jesus was going up and down all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.

36 And having seen the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, that they were faint and cast aside, as sheep not having a shepherd;

³⁷ then He says to His disciples, “The harvest indeed [is] abundant, but the workmen few;

³⁸ therefore implore the Lord of the harvest that He may put forth workmen to His harvest.”

¹ And having called His twelve disciples to Himself, He gave to them power over unclean spirits, so as to be casting them out, and to be healing every disease and every sickness.

² And of the twelve apostles the names are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James of Zebedee, and his brother John;

³ Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus who was surnamed Thaddeus;

⁴ Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who also delivered Him up.

⁵ These twelve Jesus sent forth, having given command to them, saying, “Do not go away to the way of the nations, and do not go into a city of the Samaritans,

⁶ and be going rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

⁷ And going on, proclaim, saying that the kingdom of the heavens has come near;

⁸ be healing [those] ailing, raising the dead, cleansing lepers, casting out demons—freely you received, freely give.

⁹ Do not provide gold, nor silver, nor brass in your girdles,

¹⁰ nor leather pouch for the way, nor two coats, nor sandals, nor staff—for the workman is worthy of his nourishment.

¹¹ And into whatever city or village you may enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and abide there, until you may go forth.

¹² And coming into the house greet it,

¹³ and if indeed the house is worthy, let your peace come on it; and if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

¹⁴ And whoever may not receive you nor hear your words, coming forth from that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet,

¹⁵ truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

¹⁶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves, therefore be wise as the serpents, and pure as the doves.

¹⁷ And take heed of men, for they will give you up to Sanhedrins, and in their synagogues they will scourge you,

¹⁸ and before governors and kings you will be brought for My sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations.

¹⁹ And whenever they may deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you may speak, for it will be given you in that hour what you will speak;

²⁰ for you are not the speakers, but the Spirit of your Father that is speaking in you.

²¹ And brother will deliver up brother to death, and father child, and children will rise up against parents, and will put them to death,

²² and you will be hated by all because of My Name, but he who has endured to the end, he will be saved.

²³ And whenever they may persecute you in this city, flee to the other, for truly I say to you, you may not have finished [going through] the cities of Israel until the Son of Man may come.

²⁴ A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a servant above his lord;

²⁵ sufficient to the disciple that he may be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord; if the master of the house they called Beelzebul, how much more those of his household?

²⁶ You may not, therefore, fear them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hid that will not be known;

²⁷ that which I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light, and that which you hear at the ear, proclaim on the housetops.

²⁸ And do not be afraid of those killing the body, and are not able to kill the soul, but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for an assarion? And one of them will not fall on the ground without your Father;

³⁰ and of you—even the hairs of the head are all numbered;

³¹ therefore, do not be afraid, you are better than many sparrows.

³² Everyone, therefore, who will confess in Me before men, I also will confess in him before My Father who is in the heavens;

³³ and whoever will deny Me before men, I also will deny him before My Father who is in the heavens.

³⁴ You may not suppose that I came to put peace on the earth; I did not come to put peace, but a sword;

³⁵ for I came to set a man at variance against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,

³⁶ and the enemies of a man are those of his household.

³⁷ He who is cherishing father or mother above Me, is not worthy of Me, and he who is cherishing son or daughter above Me, is not worthy of Me,

³⁸ and whoever does not receive his cross and follow after Me, is not worthy of Me.

³⁹ He who found his life will lose it, and he who lost his life for My sake will find it.

⁴⁰ He who is receiving you receives Me, and he who is receiving Me receives Him who sent Me;

⁴² and whoever may give to drink to one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he may not lose his reward."

¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus finished directing His twelve disciples, He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

² And John having heard in the prison the works of the Christ, having sent two of his disciples,

³ said to Him, "Are You He who is coming, or do we look for another?"

⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, "Having gone, declare to John the things that you hear and see,

⁵ blind receive sight, and lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and deaf hear, dead are raised, and poor have good news proclaimed,

⁶ and blessed is he who may not be stumbled in Me.”

⁷ And as they are going, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, “What did you go out to the wilderness to view? A reed shaken by the wind?

⁸ But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, those wearing the soft things are in the kings’ houses.

⁹ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet,

¹⁰ for this is he of whom it has been written: Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.

¹¹ Truly I say to you, there has not risen, among those born of women, [one] greater than John the Immerser, but he who is least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he.

¹² And from the days of John the Immerser until now, the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men seize it by force,

¹³ for all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John,

¹⁴ and if you are willing to receive [it], he is Elijah who was about to come;

¹⁵ he who is having ears to hear—let him hear.

¹⁶ And to what will I liken this generation? It is like little children in marketplaces, sitting and calling to others, ¹⁷ and saying, We piped to you, and you did not dance, we lamented to you, and you did not strike the breast.

¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon;

¹⁹ the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man, a glutton, and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners; and wisdom was justified of her children.”

²⁰ Then He began to reproach the cities in which were done most of His mighty works, because they did not convert.

²¹ “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! Because, if in Tyre and Sidon had been done the mighty works that were done in you, long ago in sackcloth and ashes they had converted;

²² but I say to you, to Tyre and Sidon it will be more tolerable in [the] day of judgment than for you.

²³ And you, Capernaum, which were exalted to Heaven, will be brought down to Hades, because if the mighty works that were done in you had been done in Sodom, it had remained to this day;

²⁴ but I say to you, to the land of Sodom it will be more tolerable in [the] day of judgment than to you.”

²⁵ At that time Jesus answering said, “I confess to You, Father, Lord of the heavens and of the earth, that You hid these things from wise and understanding ones, and revealed them to babies.

²⁶ Yes, Father, because so it was good pleasure before You.

²⁷ All things were delivered to Me by My Father, and none know the Son, except the Father; nor does any know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son may resolve to reveal [Him].

²⁸ Come to Me, all you laboring and burdened ones, and I will give you rest;

²⁹ take up My yoke on you, and learn from Me, because I am meek and humble in heart, and you will find rest to your souls,
³⁰ for My yoke [is] easy, and My burden is light.”

¹ At that time Jesus went on the Sabbaths through the grainfields, and His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck ears, and to eat,
² and the Pharisees having seen, said to Him, “Behold, Your disciples do that which it is not lawful to do on a Sabbath.”

³ And He said to them, “Did you not read what David did when he was hungry, himself and those with him—

⁴ how he went into the house of God, and ate the Bread of the Presentation, which it is not lawful to him to eat, nor to those with him, except to the priests alone?

⁵ Or did you not read in the Law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are blameless?

⁶ And I say to you that [One] greater than the temple is here;

⁷ and if you had known what [this] is: Kindness I will, and not sacrifice—you had not condemned the blameless,

⁸ for the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

⁹ And having departed from there, He went to their synagogue,

¹⁰ and behold, there was a man having the hand withered, and they questioned Him, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?” That they might accuse Him.

¹¹ And He said to them, “What man will be of you who will have one sheep, and if this may fall on the Sabbaths into a ditch, will not lay hold on it and raise [it]?”

¹² How much better, therefore, is a man than a sheep? So that it is lawful on the Sabbaths to do good.”

¹³ Then He says to the man, “Stretch forth your hand,” and he stretched [it] forth, and it was restored whole as the other.

¹⁴ And the Pharisees having gone forth, held a consultation against Him, how they might destroy Him,

¹⁵ and Jesus having known, withdrew from there, and there followed Him great multitudes, and He healed them all,

¹⁶ and charged them that they might not make Him apparent,

¹⁷ that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸ “Behold, My Servant, whom I chose, || My Beloved, in whom My soul delighted, || I will put My Spirit on Him, || And He will declare judgment to the nations;

¹⁹ He will not strive nor cry, || Nor will any hear His voice in the broad places;

²⁰ A bruised reed He will not break, || And smoking flax He will not quench, || Until He may put forth judgment to victory,

²¹ And in His Name will nations hope.”

²² Then was brought to Him a demoniac, blind and mute, and He healed him, so that the blind and mute both spoke and saw.

²³ And all the multitudes were amazed and said, “Is this the Son of David?”

24 But the Pharisees having heard, said, "This One does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, ruler of the demons."

25 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom having been divided against itself is desolated, and no city or house having been divided against itself stands,

26 and if Satan casts out Satan, against himself he was divided, how then does his kingdom stand?

27 And if I, by Beelzebul, cast out the demons, your sons—by whom do they cast out? Because of this they will be your judges.

28 But if I, by the Spirit of God, cast out the demons, then the Kingdom of God has already come to you.

29 Or how is one able to go into the house of the strong man, and to snatch his goods, if first he may not bind the strong man? And then his house he will plunder.

30 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me, scatters.

31 Because of this I say to you, all sin and slander will be forgiven to men, but the slander of the Spirit will not be forgiven to men.

32 And whoever may speak a word against the Son of Man it will be forgiven to him, but whoever may speak against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in that which is coming.

33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad, for from the fruit is the tree known.

34 Brood of vipers! How are you able to speak good things—being evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

35 The good man out of the good treasure of the heart puts forth the good things, and the evil man out of the evil treasure puts forth evil things.

36 And I say to you that every idle word that men may speak, they will give for it a reckoning in [the] day of judgment;

37 for from your words you will be declared righteous, and from your words you will be declared unrighteous."

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we will to see a sign from You."

39 And He answering said to them, "A generation, evil and adulterous, seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet;

40 for as Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.

41 Men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they converted at the proclamation of Jonah, and behold, [One] greater than Jonah [is] here!

42 A queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, [One] greater than Solomon [is] here!

43 And when the unclean spirit may go forth from the man, it walks through dry places seeking rest and does not find;

44 then it says, I will return to my house from where I came forth; and having come, it finds [it] unoccupied, swept, and adorned:

⁴⁵ then it goes, and takes with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and having gone in they dwell there, and the last of that man becomes worse than the first; so will it also be to this evil generation.”

⁴⁶ And while He was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers had stood outside, seeking to speak to Him,

⁴⁷ and one said to Him, “Behold, Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to You.”

⁴⁸ And He answering said to him who spoke to Him, “Who is My mother? And who are My brothers?”

⁴⁹ And having stretched forth His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold, My mother and My brothers!

⁵⁰ For whoever may do the will of My Father who is in the heavens, He is My brother, and sister, and mother.”

¹ And in that day Jesus, having gone forth from the house, was sitting by the sea,

² and gathered together to Him were many multitudes, so that He having gone into the boat sat down, and all the multitude on the beach stood,

³ and He spoke to them many things in allegories, saying, “Behold, the sower went forth to sow,

⁴ and in his sowing, some indeed fell by the way, and the birds having come, devoured them,

⁵ and others fell on the rocky places where they did not have much earth, and immediately they sprang forth, through having no depth of earth,

⁶ and the sun having risen they were scorched, and through having no root, they withered,

⁷ and others fell on the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them,

⁸ and others fell on the good ground, and were giving fruit, some indeed a hundredfold, and some sixty, and some thirty.

⁹ He who is having ears to hear—let him hear.”

¹⁰ And the disciples having come near, said to Him, “Why do You speak to them in allegories?”

¹¹ And He answering said to them that, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of the heavens, and to these it has not been given,

¹² for whoever has, it will be given to him, and he will have overabundance, and whoever has not, even that which he has will be taken from him.

¹³ Because of this, in allegories I speak to them, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor understand,

¹⁴ and fulfilled on them is the prophecy of Isaiah that says, With hearing you will hear, and you will not understand, and seeing you will see, and you will not perceive,

¹⁵ for the heart of this people was made obtuse, and with the ears they barely heard, and they closed their eyes, lest they might see with the eyes, and might hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and turn back, and I might heal them.

¹⁶ And blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear,

17 for truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see that which you look on, and they did not see, and to hear that which you hear, and they did not hear.

18 You, therefore, hear the allegory of the sower:

19 Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom, and not understanding—the evil one comes, and snatches that which has been sown in his heart; this is that sown by the way.

20 And that sown on the rocky places, this is he who is hearing the word, and immediately with joy is receiving it,

21 and he has no root in himself, but is temporary, and persecution or tribulation having happened because of the word, immediately he is stumbled.

22 And that sown toward the thorns, this is he who is hearing the word, and the anxiety of this age, and the deceitfulness of the riches, chokes the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

23 And that sown on the good ground: this is he who is hearing the word, and is understanding, who indeed bears fruit, and makes, some indeed a hundredfold, and some sixty, and some thirty.”

24 Another allegory He set before them, saying, “The kingdom of the heavens was likened to a man sowing good seed in his field,

25 and while men are sleeping, his enemy came and sowed darnel in the midst of the wheat, and went away,

26 and when the herb sprang up, and yielded fruit, then appeared also the darnel.

27 And the servants of the householder, having come near, said to him, Lord, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the darnel?

28 And he says to them, A man, an enemy, did this; and the servants said to him, Will you, then, [that] having gone away we may gather it up?

29 And he said, No, lest—gathering up the darnel—you root up with it the wheat;

30 permit both to grow together until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the darnel, and bind it in bundles, to burn it, and the wheat gather up into my storehouse.”

31 Another allegory He set before them, saying, “The kingdom of the heavens is like to a grain of mustard, which a man having taken, sowed in his field, 32 which less, indeed, is than all the seeds, but when it may be grown, is greatest of the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and rest in its branches.”

33 Another allegory He spoke to them: “The kingdom of the heavens is like to leaven, which a woman having taken, hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.”

34 All these things Jesus spoke in allegories to the multitudes, and without an allegory He was not speaking to them,

35 that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the prophet, saying, “I will open in allegories My mouth, | | I will utter things having been hidden from the foundation of the world.”

36 Then having let away the multitudes, Jesus came into the house, and His disciples came near to Him, saying, “Explain to us the allegory of the darnel of the field.”

³⁷ And He answering said to them, "He who is sowing the good seed is the Son of Man,

³⁸ and the field is the world, and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom, and the darnel are the sons of the evil one,

³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the Devil, and the harvest is [the] full end of the age, and the reapers are messengers.

⁴⁰ As, then, the darnel is gathered up, and is burned with fire, so will it be in the full end of this age;

⁴¹ the Son of Man will send forth His messengers, and they will gather up out of His kingdom all the stumbling-blocks, and those doing the lawlessness, ⁴² and will cast them into the furnace of the fire; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth.

⁴³ Then will the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who is having ears to hear—let him hear.

⁴⁵ Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a merchant, seeking good pearls,

⁴⁶ who having found one pearl of great price, having gone away, has sold all, as much as he had, and bought it.

⁴⁷ Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like to a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered together of every kind,

⁴⁸ which, when it was filled, having drawn up again on the beach, and having sat down, they gathered the good into vessels, and the bad they cast out,

⁴⁹ so will it be in the full end of the age, the messengers will come forth and separate the evil out of the midst of the righteous,

⁵⁰ and will cast them into the furnace of the fire; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth."

⁵¹ Jesus says to them, "Did you understand all these?" They say to Him, "Yes, Lord."

⁵² And He said to them, "Because of this, every scribe having been disciplined in regard to the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old."

⁵³ And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these allegories, He removed from there,

⁵⁴ and having come to His own country, He was teaching them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and were saying, "From where to this One this wisdom and the mighty works?"

⁵⁵ Is this not the carpenter's Son? Is His mother not called Mary, and His brothers James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

⁵⁶ And His sisters—are they not all with us? From where, then, to this One all these?"

⁵⁷ And they were stumbled at Him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, and in his own house":

⁵⁸ and He did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

¹ At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the fame of Jesus,

² and said to his servants, "This is John the Immerser; he rose from the dead, and because of this the mighty energies are working in him."

³ For Herod having laid hold on John, bound him, and put him in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,

⁴ for John was saying to him, "It is not lawful to you to have her,"

⁵ and willing to kill him, he feared the multitude, because as a prophet they were holding him.

⁶ But the birthday of Herod being kept, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod, ⁷ after which with an oath he professed to give her whatever she might ask.

⁸ And she, having been instigated by her mother, says, "Give me here on a plate the head of John the Immerser";

⁹ and the king was grieved, but because of the oaths and of those dining with him, he commanded [it] to be given;

¹⁰ and having sent, he beheaded John in the prison,

¹¹ and his head was brought on a plate, and was given to the girl, and she brought [it] near to her mother.

¹² And his disciples having come, took up the body, and buried it, and having come, they told Jesus,

¹³ and Jesus having heard, withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by Himself, and the multitudes having heard followed Him on land from the cities.

¹⁴ And Jesus having come forth, saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion on them, and healed their sick;

¹⁵ and evening having come, His disciples came to Him, saying, "The place is desolate, and the hour has now past, let away the multitudes that, having gone into the villages, they may buy food for themselves."

¹⁶ And Jesus said to them, "They have no need to go away—you give them to eat."

¹⁷ And they say to Him, "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fishes."

¹⁸ And He said, "Bring them to Me here."

¹⁹ And having commanded the multitudes to recline on the grass, and having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the sky, He blessed, and having broken, He gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples [gave] to the multitudes,

²⁰ and they all ate, and were filled, and they took up what was over of the broken pieces twelve hand-baskets full;

²¹ and those eating were about five thousand men, apart from women and children.

²² And immediately Jesus constrained His disciples to go into the boat, and to go before Him to the other side, until He might let away the multitudes;

²³ and having let away the multitudes, He went up to the mountain by Himself to pray, and evening having come, He was there alone,

²⁴ and the boat was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.

²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went away to them, walking on the sea,

²⁶ and the disciples having seen Him walking on the sea, were troubled, saying, "It is an apparition," and from the fear they cried out;

²⁷ and immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage! I AM; do not be afraid."

²⁸ And Peter answering Him said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the waters";

²⁹ and He said, "Come"; and having gone down from the boat, Peter walked on the waters to come to Jesus,

³⁰ but seeing the vehement wind, he was afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

³¹ And immediately Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, laid hold of him and says to him, "Little faith! For why did you waver?"

³² And they having gone into the boat, the wind stilled,

³³ and those in the boat having come, worshiped Him, saying, "You are truly God's Son."

³⁴ And having passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret,

³⁵ and having recognized Him, the men of that place sent forth to all that surrounding region, and they brought to Him all who were ill,

³⁶ and were calling on Him that they might only touch the fringe of His garment, and as many as touched were saved.

15

¹ Then they come to Jesus from Jerusalem—scribes and Pharisees—saying,

² "Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they may eat bread."

³ And He answering said to them, "Why also do you transgress the command of God because of your tradition?"

⁴ For God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother; and, He who is speaking evil of father or mother—let him die the death;

⁵ but you say, Whoever may say to father or mother, An offering [is] whatever you may be profited by me—

⁶ and he may not honor his father or his mother, and you set aside the command of God because of your tradition.

⁷ Hypocrites, Isaiah prophesied well of you, saying,

⁸ This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and with the lips it honors Me, but their heart is far off from Me;

⁹ and in vain they worship Me, teaching teachings—commands of men."

¹⁰ And having called near the multitude, He said to them, "Hear and understand:

¹¹ [it is] not that which is coming into the mouth [that] defiles the man, but that which is coming forth from the mouth, this defiles the man."

¹² Then His disciples having come near, said to Him, "Have You known that the Pharisees, having heard the word, were stumbled?"

¹³ And He answering said, "Every plant that My heavenly Father did not plant will be rooted up;

¹⁴ leave them alone, they are guides—blind of blind; and if blind may guide blind, both will fall into a ditch."

¹⁵ And Peter answering said to Him, "Explain to us this allegory."

¹⁶ And Jesus said, "Are you also yet without understanding?"

17 Do you not understand that all that is going into the mouth passes into the belly, and is cast forth into the drain?

18 But the things coming forth from the mouth come forth from the heart, and these defile the man;

19 for out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, whoredoms, thefts, false witnessings, slanders:

20 these are the things defiling the man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

21 And Jesus having come forth from there, withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon,

22 and behold, a woman, a Canaanite, having come forth from those borders, called to Him, saying, "Deal kindly with me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is miserably demonized."

23 And He did not answer her a word; and His disciples having come to Him, were asking Him, saying, "Let her away, because she cries after us";

24 and He answering said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 And having come, she was worshiping Him, saying, "Lord, help me";

26 and He answering said, "It is not good to take the children's bread, and to cast to the little dogs."

27 And she said, "Yes, Lord, for even the little dogs eat of the crumbs that are falling from their lords' table";

28 then answering, Jesus said to her, "O woman, great [is] your faith, let it be to you as you will"; and her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 And having departed from there, Jesus came near to the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up to the mountain, He was sitting there,

30 and there came to Him great multitudes, having with them lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they cast them at the feet of Jesus, and He healed them,

31 so that the multitudes wondered, seeing mute ones speaking, maimed whole, lame walking, and blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 And Jesus having called near His disciples, said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because now three days they continue with Me, and they do not have what they may eat; and to let them away fasting I will not, lest they faint in the way."

33 And His disciples say to Him, "From where to us in a wilderness [will we get] so many loaves, as to fill so great a multitude?"

34 And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fishes."

35 And He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the ground,

36 and having taken the seven loaves and the fishes, having given thanks, He broke, and gave to His disciples, and the disciples [gave] to the multitude.

37 And they all ate, and were filled, and they took up what was over of the broken pieces seven baskets full,

38 and those eating were four thousand men, apart from women and children.

39 And having let away the multitudes, He went into the boat, and came to the borders of Magdala.

¹ And the Pharisees and Sadducees having come, tempting, questioned Him, to show to them a sign from Heaven,

² and He answering said to them, "Evening having come, you say, Fair weather, for the sky is red,

³ and at morning, Foul weather today, for the sky is red—gloomy; hypocrites, you indeed know to discern the face of the sky, but the signs of the times you are not able!

⁴ An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet"; and having left them He went away.

⁵ And His disciples having come to the other side, forgot to take loaves,

⁶ and Jesus said to them, "Beware, and take heed of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees";

⁷ and they were reasoning in themselves, saying, "Because we took no loaves."

⁸ And Jesus having known, said to them, "Why reason you in yourselves, you of little faith, because you took no loaves?"

⁹ Do you not yet understand, nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many hand-baskets you took up?

¹⁰ Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

¹¹ How do you not understand that I did not speak to you of bread—to take heed of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees?"

¹² Then they understood that He did not say to take heed of the leaven of the bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ And Jesus, having come to the parts of Caesarea Philippi, was asking His disciples, saying, "Who do men say I am—the Son of Man?"

¹⁴ And they said, "Some, John the Immerser, and others, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets."

¹⁵ He says to them, "And you—who do you say I am?"

¹⁶ And Simon Peter answering said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

¹⁷ And Jesus answering said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona, because flesh and blood did not reveal [it] to you, but My Father who is in the heavens.

¹⁸ And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My Assembly, and [the] gates of Hades will not prevail against it;

¹⁹ and I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may bind on the earth will be having been bound in the heavens, and whatever you may loose on the earth will be having been loosed in the heavens."

²⁰ Then He charged His disciples that they may say to no one that He is Jesus the Christ.

²¹ From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that it is necessary for Him to go away to Jerusalem, and to suffer many things from the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and to be put to death, and the third day to rise.

²² And having taken Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him, saying, "Be kind to Yourself, Lord; this will not be to You";

23 and He having turned, said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to Me, for you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men."

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wills to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me,

25 for whoever may will to save his life will lose it, and whoever may lose his life for My sake will find it;

26 for what is a man profited if he may gain the whole world, but of his life suffer loss? Or what will a man give as an exchange for his life?

27 For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father, with His messengers, and then He will reward each according to his work.

28 Truly I say to you, there are certain of those standing here who will not taste of death until they may see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

17

1 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and his brother John, and brings them up to a high mountain by themselves,

2 and He was transfigured before them, and His face shone as the sun, and His garments became white as the light,

3 and behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking together with Him.

4 And Peter answering said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good to us to be here; if You will, we may make three shelters here: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he is yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted; hear Him."

6 And the disciples having heard, fell on their face, and were exceedingly afraid,

7 and Jesus having come near, touched them, and said, "Rise, do not be afraid,"

8 and having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus only.

9 And as they are coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, "Say to no one the vision, until the Son of Man may rise out of the dead."

10 And His disciples questioned Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 And Jesus answering said to them, "Elijah does indeed come first, and will restore all things,

12 and I say to you, Elijah already came, and they did not know him, but did with him whatever they would, so also the Son of Man is about to suffer by them."

13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them concerning John the Immerser.

14 And when they came to the multitude, there came to Him a man, kneeling down to Him,

15 and saying, "Lord, deal kindly with my son, for he is [a] lunatic, and suffers miserably, for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water,

16 and I brought him near to Your disciples, and they were not able to heal him."

¹⁷ And Jesus answering said, "O generation, unsteadfast and perverse, until when will I be with you? Until when will I bear you? Bring him to Me here";

¹⁸ and Jesus rebuked him, and the demon went out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour.

¹⁹ Then the disciples having come to Jesus by Himself, said, "Why were we not able to cast him out?"

²⁰ And Jesus said to them, "Through your want of faith; for truly I say to you, if you may have faith as a grain of mustard, you will say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible to you,

²¹ [[and this kind does not go forth except in prayer and fasting.]]

²² And while they are living in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, ²³ and they will kill Him, and the third day He will rise," and they were exceedingly sorry.

²⁴ And they having come to Capernaum, those receiving the didrachmas came near to Peter and said, "Your teacher—does He not pay the didrachmas?" He says, "Yes."

²⁵ And when he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth—from whom do they receive custom or poll-tax? From their sons or from the strangers?"

²⁶ Peter says to Him, "From the strangers." Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free;

²⁷ but that we may not cause them to stumble, having gone to the sea, cast a hook, and the fish that has come up first take up, and having opened its mouth, you will find a stater, that having taken, give to them for Me and you."

18

¹ At that hour the disciples came near to Jesus, saying, "Who, now, is greater in the kingdom of the heavens?"

² And Jesus having called near a child, set him in the midst of them,

³ and said, "Truly I say to you, if you may not be turned and become as the children, you may not enter into the kingdom of the heavens;

⁴ whoever then may humble himself as this child, he is the greater in the kingdom of the heavens.

⁵ And he who may receive one such child in My Name, receives Me,

⁶ and whoever may cause to stumble one of those little ones who are believing in Me, it is better for him that a weighty millstone may be hanged on his neck, and he may be sunk in the depth of the sea.

⁷ Woe to the world from the stumbling-blocks! For there is necessity for the stumbling-blocks to come, but woe to that man through whom the stumbling-block comes!

⁸ And if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut them off and cast [them] from you; it is good for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the continuous fire.

9 And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and cast from you; it is good for you to enter into life one-eyed, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire.

10 Beware! You may not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their messengers in the heavens always behold the face of My Father who is in the heavens,

11 [[for the Son of Man came to save the lost.]]

12 What do you think? If a man may have one hundred sheep, and there may go astray one of them, does he not—having left the ninety-nine, having gone on the mountains—seek that which is gone astray?

13 And if it may come to pass that he finds it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that have not gone astray;

14 so it is not [the] will in [the] presence of your Father who is in the heavens that one of these little ones may perish.

15 And if your brother may sin against you, go and show him his fault between you and him alone, if he may hear you, you gained your brother;

16 and if he may not hear, take with you yet one or two, that by the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may stand.

17 And if he may not hear them, say [it] to the assembly, and if also the assembly he may not hear, let him be to you as the heathen man and the tax collector.

18 Truly I say to you, whatever things you may bind on the earth will be having been bound in the heavens, and whatever things you may loose on the earth will be having been loosed in the heavens.

19 Again, I say to you that if two of you may agree on the earth concerning anything, whatever they may ask—it will be done to them from My Father who is in the heavens,

20 for where there are two or three gathered together—to My Name, there am I in the midst of them."

21 Then Peter having come near to Him, said, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him—until seven times?"

22 Jesus says to him, "I do not say to you until seven times, but until seventy times seven.

23 Because of this was the kingdom of the heavens likened to a man, a king, who willed to take reckoning with his servants,

24 and he having begun to take account, there was brought near to him one debtor of a myriad of talents,

25 and he having nothing to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and the children, and all, whatever he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant then, having fallen down, was prostrating to him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all;

27 and the lord of that servant having been moved with compassion released him, and the debt he forgave him.

28 And that servant having come forth, found one of his fellow-servants who was owing him one hundred denarii, and having laid hold, he took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that which you owe.

29 His fellow-servant then, having fallen down at his feet, was calling on him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all;

30 and he would not, but having gone away, he cast him into prison, until he might pay that which was owing.

³¹ And his fellow-servants having seen the things that were done, were grieved exceedingly, and having come, showed fully to their lord all the things that were done;

³² then having called him, his lord says to him, Evil servant! All that debt I forgave you, seeing you called on me;

³³ did it not seem necessary to you to have dealt kindly with your fellow servant, as I also dealt kindly with you?

³⁴ And having been angry, his lord delivered him to the inquisitors, until he might pay all that was owing to him;

³⁵ so also My heavenly Father will do to you, if you may not forgive each one his brother from your hearts their trespasses."

¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these words, He removed from Galilee, and came to the borders of Judea, beyond the Jordan,

² and great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.

³ And the Pharisees came near to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?"

⁴ And He answering said to them, "Did you not read that He who made [them] from the beginning, made them a male and a female,

⁵ and said, For this cause will a man leave father and mother, and cleave to his wife, and they will be—the two—for one flesh?

⁶ So that they are no longer two, but one flesh; what therefore God joined together, let no man separate."

⁷ They say to Him, "Why then did Moses command to give a roll of divorce, and to put her away?"

⁸ He says to them, "Moses for your stiffness of heart permitted you to put away your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so.

⁹ And I say to you that whoever may put away his wife, if not for whoredom, and may marry another, commits adultery; and he who married her that has been put away, commits adultery."

¹⁰ His disciples say to Him, "If the case of the man with the woman is so, it is not good to marry."

¹¹ And He said to them, "All do not receive this word, but those to whom it has been given;

¹² for there are eunuchs who from the mother's womb were so born; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who kept themselves eunuchs because of the kingdom of the heavens: he who is able to receive [it]—let him receive."

¹³ Then were brought near to Him children that He might put hands on them and pray, and the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴ But Jesus said, "Permit the children, and do not forbid them to come to Me, for of such is the kingdom of the heavens";

¹⁵ and having laid [His] hands on them, He departed from there.

¹⁶ And behold, one having come near, said to Him, "Good Teacher, what good thing will I do that I may have continuous life?"

¹⁷ And He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one [is] good except one—God; but if you will to enter into life, keep the commands."

¹⁸ He says to Him, "What kind?" And Jesus said, "You will not murder, You will not commit adultery, You will not steal, You will not bear false witness,

¹⁹ Honor your father and mother, and, You will love your neighbor as yourself."

²⁰ The young man says to Him, "All these I kept from my youth; what yet do I lack?"

²¹ Jesus said to him, "If you will to be perfect, go away, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me."

²² And the young man, having heard the word, went away sorrowful, for he had many possessions;

²³ and Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I say to you that hardly will a rich man enter into the kingdom of the heavens;

²⁴ and again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

²⁵ And His disciples having heard, were exceedingly amazed, saying, "Who, then, is able to be saved?"

²⁶ And Jesus having earnestly beheld, said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

²⁷ Then Peter answering said to Him, "Behold, we left all, and followed You, what then will we have?"

²⁸ And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that you who followed Me, in the regeneration, when the Son of Man may sit on a throne of His glory, will sit—you also—on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel;

²⁹ and everyone who left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or fields, for My Name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit continuous life;

³⁰ and many first will be last, and last first."

¹ "For the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a householder, who went forth with the morning to hire workmen for his vineyard,

² and having agreed with the workmen for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

³ And having gone forth about the third hour, he saw others standing in the marketplace idle,

⁴ and to these he said, Go—also you—to the vineyard, and whatever may be righteous I will give you;

⁵ and they went away. Again, having gone forth about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did in like manner.

⁶ And about the eleventh hour, having gone forth, he found others standing idle and says to them, Why have you stood here idle all day?

⁷ They say to him, Because no one hired us; he says to them, Go—you also—to the vineyard, and whatever may be righteous you will receive.

⁸ And evening having come, the lord of the vineyard says to his steward, Call the workmen, and pay them the reward, having begun from the last—to the first.

⁹ And they of about the eleventh hour having come, each received a denarius.

¹⁰ And the first having come, supposed that they will receive more, and they received, they also, each a denarius,

¹¹ and having received [it], they were murmuring against the householder, saying,

¹² that, These, the last, worked one hour, and you made them equal to us, who were bearing the burden of the day—and the heat.

¹³ And he answering said to one of them, Friend, I do no unrighteousness to you; did you not agree with me for a denarius?

¹⁴ Take that which is yours, and go; and I will to give to this, the last, also as to you;

¹⁵ is it not lawful to me to do what I will in my own? Is your eye evil because I am good?

¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first last, for many are called, and few chosen."

¹⁷ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples by themselves in the way and said to them,

¹⁸ "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes,

¹⁹ and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him to the nations to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify, and the third day He will rise again."

²⁰ Then came near to Him the mother of the sons of Zebedee, with her sons, prostrating and asking something from Him,

²¹ and He said to her, "What do you will?" She says to Him, "Say that they may sit—these two sons of mine—one on Your right hand and one on the left, in Your kingdom."

²² And Jesus answering said, "You have not known what you ask for yourselves; are you able to drink of the cup that I am about to drink? And with the immersion that I am immersed with, to be immersed?" They say to Him, "We are able."

²³ And He says to them, "Of My cup indeed you will drink, and with the immersion that I am immersed with you will be immersed; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but—to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."

²⁴ And the ten having heard, were much displeased with the two brothers,

²⁵ and Jesus having called them near, said, "You have known that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them, and those [who are] great exercise authority over them,

²⁶ but not so will it be among you, but whoever may will among you to become great, let him be your servant;

²⁷ and whoever may will among you to be first, let him be your servant;

²⁸ even as the Son of Man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life [as] a ransom for many."

²⁹ And they going forth from Jericho, there followed Him a great multitude,

³⁰ and behold, two blind men sitting by the way, having heard that Jesus passes by, cried, saying, "Deal kindly with us, Lord—Son of David."

³¹ And the multitude charged them that they might be silent, and they cried out the more, saying, "Deal kindly with us Lord—Son of David."

³² And having stood, Jesus called them and said, "What do you will [that] I may do to you?"

³³ They say to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened";

³⁴ and having been moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

¹ And when they came near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

² saying to them, "Go on into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey bound, and a colt with her—having loosed, you bring to Me;

³ and if anyone may say anything to you, you will say that the LORD has need of them, and immediately He will send them."

⁴ And all this came to pass, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the prophet, saying,

⁵ "Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, meek, and mounted on a donkey, and a colt, a foal of a beast of burden."

⁶ And the disciples having gone and having done as Jesus commanded them,

⁷ brought the donkey and the colt, and put on them their garments, and set [Him] on them;

⁸ and the very great multitude spread their own garments in the way, and others were cutting branches from the trees, and were strewing in the way,

⁹ and the multitudes who were going before, and who were following, were crying, saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David, blessed is He who is coming in the Name of the LORD; Hosanna in the highest!"

¹⁰ And He having entered into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"

¹¹ And the multitudes said, "This is Jesus the prophet, who [is] from Nazareth of Galilee."

¹² And Jesus entered into the temple of God, and cast forth all those selling and buying in the temple, and the tables of the money-changers He overturned, and the seats of those selling the doves,

¹³ and He says to them, "It has been written: My house will be called a house of prayer; but you made it a den of robbers."

¹⁴ And there came to Him blind and lame men in the temple, and He healed them,

¹⁵ and the chief priests and the scribes having seen the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David," were much displeased;

¹⁶ and they said to Him, "Do You hear what these say?" And Jesus says to them, "Yes, did you never read, that, Out of the mouth of babies and sucklings You prepared praise?"

¹⁷ And having left them, He went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there,

¹⁸ and in the morning turning back to the city, He hungered,

²⁰ And the disciples having seen, wondered, saying, "How did the fig tree instantly wither?"

²¹ And Jesus answering said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you may have faith, and may not doubt, not only this of the fig tree will you do, but even if to this mountain you may say, Be lifted up and be cast into the sea, it will come to pass;

²² and all—as much as you may ask in the prayer, believing, you will receive."

²⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, "I will ask you—I also—one word, which if you may tell Me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things;

²⁵ the immersion of John, from where was it? From Heaven, or from men?" And they were reasoning with themselves, saying, "If we should say, From Heaven, He will say to us, Why, then, did you not believe him?"

²⁶ And if we should say, From men, we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet."

²⁷ And answering Jesus they said, "We have not known." He said to them—He also, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

²⁸ And what do you think? A man had two children, and having come to the first, he said, Child, go, today be working in my vineyard.

²⁹ And he answering said, I will not, but at last, having regretted, he went.

³⁰ And having come to the second, he said in the same manner, and he answering said, I [go], lord, and did not go;

³¹ which of the two did the will of the father?" They say to Him, "The first." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes go before you into the Kingdom of God,

³² for John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, and the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him, and you, having seen, did not regret at last—to believe him.

³⁴ And when the season of the fruits came near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive the fruits of it,

³⁵ and the farmers having taken his servants, one they scourged, and one they killed, and one they stoned.

³⁶ Again he sent other servants more than the first, and they did to them in the same manner.

³⁷ And at last he sent to them his son, saying, They will respect my son;

³⁸ and the farmers having seen the son, said among themselves, This is the heir, come, we may kill him, and may possess his inheritance;

³⁹ and having taken him, they cast [him] out of the vineyard, and killed him;

40 whenever therefore the lord of the vineyard may come, what will he do to these farmers?"

41 They say to Him, "Evil men—he will grievously destroy them, and will give out the vineyard to other farmers who will give back to him the fruits in their seasons."

42 Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Writings: A stone that the builders disallowed, it became head of a corner; from the LORD has this come to pass, and it is wonderful in our eyes?"

43 Because of this I say to you that the Kingdom of God will be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth its fruit;

44 and he who is falling on this stone will be broken, and on whomsoever it may fall it will crush him to pieces."

45 And the chief priests and the Pharisees having heard His allegories, knew that He speaks of them,

46 and seeking to lay hold on Him, they feared the multitudes, seeing they were holding Him as a prophet.

22

1 And Jesus answering, again spoke to them in allegories, saying,

2 "The kingdom of the heavens was likened to a man, a king, who made wedding feasts for his son,

3 and he sent forth his servants to call those having been called to the wedding feasts, and they were not willing to come.

4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Say to those who have been called: Behold, I prepared my early meal, my oxen and the fatlings have been killed, and all things [are] ready, come to the wedding feasts;

5 and they, having disregarded [it], went away, one to his own field, and the other to his merchandise;

6 and the rest, having laid hold on his servants, mistreated and slew [them].

7 And the king having heard, was angry, and having sent forth his soldiers, he destroyed those murderers, and their city he set on fire;

8 then he says to his servants, The wedding feast indeed is ready, and those called were not worthy,

9 be going, then, on to the cross-ways, and as many as you may find, call to the wedding feasts.

10 And those servants, having gone forth to the ways, gathered all, as many as they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was filled with those reclining.

11 And the king having come in to view those reclining, saw there a man not clothed with wedding clothes,

12 and he says to him, Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes? And he was speechless.

13 Then the king said to the servants, Having bound his feet and hands, take him up and cast forth into the outer darkness, there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth;

14 for many are called, and few chosen."

15 Then the Pharisees having gone, took counsel how they might ensnare Him in words,

16 and they send to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we have known that You are true, and the way of God in truth You teach, and You are not caring for anyone, for You do not look to the face of men;

17 tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?"

18 And Jesus having known their wickedness, said, "Why do you tempt Me, hypocrites?"

19 Show Me the tribute-coin." And they brought to Him a denarius;

20 and He says to them, "Whose [is] this image and the inscription?"

21 They say to Him, "Caesar's"; then He says to them, "Render therefore the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God";

22 and having heard they wondered, and having left Him they went away.

23 In that day there came near to Him Sadducees who are saying there is not a resurrection, and they questioned Him, saying,

24 "Teacher, Moses said if anyone may die having no children, his brother will marry his wife, and will raise up seed to his brother.

25 And there were with us seven brothers, and the first having married died, and having no seed, he left his wife to his brother;

26 in like manner also the second, and the third, to the seventh,

27 and last of all the woman also died;

28 therefore in the resurrection, of which of the seven will she be wife—for all had her?"

29 And Jesus answering said to them, "You go astray, not knowing the Writings, nor the power of God;

30 for in the resurrection they do not marry, nor are they given in marriage, but are as messengers of God in Heaven.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, did you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not a God of dead men, but of living."

33 And having heard, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching;

34 and the Pharisees, having heard that He silenced the Sadducees, were gathered together to Him;

35 and one of them, a lawyer, questioned, tempting Him, and saying,

36 "Teacher, which [is] the great command in the Law?"

37 And Jesus said to him, "You will love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your understanding—

38 this is a first and great command;

39 and the second [is] like to it: You will love your neighbor as yourself;

40 on these—the two commands—all the Law and the Prophets hang."

41 And the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them,

42 saying, "What do you think concerning the Christ? Of whom is He Son?" They say to Him, "Of David."

43 He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him Lord, saying,

44 The LORD said to my Lord, || Sit at My right hand, || Until I may make Your enemies Your footstool?

45 If then David calls Him Lord, how is He his son?"

⁴⁶ And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did any dare question Him from that day [on].

23

¹ Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes, and to His disciples,

² saying, "On the seat of Moses sat down the scribes and the Pharisees;

³ all, then, as much as they may say to you to observe, observe and do, but according to their works do not do, for they say, and do not do;

⁴ for they bind together burdens [too] heavy and grievous to bear, and lay [them] on the shoulders of men, but with their finger they will not move them.

⁵ And all their works they do to be seen by men, and they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the fringes of their garments,

⁶ they also cherish the first couches at the banquets, and the first seats in the synagogues,

⁷ and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

⁸ And you may not be called Rabbi, for one is your teacher—the Christ, and you are all brothers;

⁹ and you may not call [any] your father on the earth, for one is your Father, who is in the heavens,

¹⁰ nor may you be called teachers, for one is your teacher—the Christ.

¹¹ And the greater of you will be your servant,

¹² and whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.

¹³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the kingdom of the heavens before men, for you do not go in, nor do you permit those going in to enter.

¹⁴ [[Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you eat up the houses of the widows, and for a pretense make long prayers, because of this you will receive more abundant judgment.]]

¹⁵ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and whenever it may happen—you make him a son of Gehenna twofold more than yourselves.

¹⁷ Fools and blind! For which [is] greater, the gold, or the temple that is sanctifying the gold?

¹⁸ And, Whoever may swear by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever may swear by the gift that is on it—is debtor!

¹⁹ Fools and blind! For which [is] greater, the gift, or the altar that is sanctifying the gift?

²⁰ He therefore who swore by the altar, swears by it, and by all things on it;

²¹ and he who swore by the temple, swears by it, and by Him who is dwelling in it;

²² and he who swore by Heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by Him who is sitting on it.

²³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you give tithe of the mint, and the dill, and the cumin, and neglected the weightier things of the Law—judgment, and kindness, and faith; these it was necessary to do, and those not to neglect.

²⁴ Blind guides! Who are straining out the gnat, and are swallowing the camel.

²⁵ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you make clean the outside of the cup and the plate, and within they are full of robbery and self-indulgence.

²⁶ Blind Pharisee! First cleanse the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside of them may also become clean.

²⁸ so also you outwardly indeed appear to men righteous, and within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

²⁹ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the graves of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous, ³⁰ and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

³¹ So that you testify to yourselves that you are sons of them who murdered the prophets;

³² and you fill up the measure of your fathers.

³³ Serpents! Brood of vipers! How may you escape from the judgment of Gehenna?

³⁴ Because of this, behold, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes, and of them you will kill and crucify, and of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and will pursue from city to city,

³⁵ that on you may come all the righteous blood being poured out on the earth from the blood of Abel the righteous, to the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar:

³⁶ truly I say to you, all these things will come on this generation.

³⁷ Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that are killing the prophets, and stoning those sent to you, how often I willed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her own chickens under the wings, and you did not will.

³⁸ Behold, your house is left to you desolate;

³⁹ for I say to you, you may not see Me from now on, until you may say, Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD.”

24

¹ And having gone forth, Jesus departed from the temple, and His disciples came near to show Him the buildings of the temple,

² and Jesus said to them, “Do you not see all these? Truly I say to you, there may not be left here a stone on a stone that will not be thrown down.”

³ And when He is sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came near to Him by Himself, saying, “Tell us, when will these be? And what [is] the sign of Your coming, and of the full end of the age?”

⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, “Take heed that no one may lead you astray,

⁵ for many will come in My Name, saying, I am the Christ, and they will lead many astray,

⁶ and you will begin to hear of wars, and reports of wars; see, do not be troubled, for it is necessary for all [these] to come to pass, but the end is not yet.

⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in various places;

⁸ and all these [are the] beginning of travails;

⁹ then they will deliver you up to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations because of My Name;

¹⁰ and then will many be stumbled, and they will deliver up one another, and will hate one another.

¹¹ And many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray;

¹² and because of the abounding of the lawlessness, the love of the many will become cold;

¹³ but he who endured to the end, he will be saved;

¹⁴ and this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the world, for a testimony to all the nations, and then will the end arrive.

¹⁵ Whenever, therefore, you may see the abomination of the desolation, that was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (whoever is reading let him observe)

¹⁶ then those in Judea—let them flee to the mountains;

¹⁷ he on the housetop—do not let him come down to take up anything out of his house;

¹⁸ and he in the field—do not let him turn back to take his garments.

¹⁹ And woe to those with child, and to those giving suck in those days;

²⁰ and pray that your flight may not be in winter, nor on a Sabbath;

²¹ for there will then be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor may be.

²² And if those days were not shortened, no flesh would have been saved; but because of the chosen will those days be shortened.

²³ Then if anyone may say to you, Behold, here [is] the Christ! Or, Here! You may not believe;

²⁴ for there will arise false Christs, and false prophets, and they will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, also the chosen.

²⁵ Behold, I told you beforehand.

²⁶ If therefore they may say to you, Behold, He is in the wilderness, you may not go forth; Behold, in the inner chambers, you may not believe;

²⁷ for as the lightning comes forth from the east, and appears to the west, so will also be the coming of the Son of Man;

²⁸ for wherever the carcass may be, there the eagles will be gathered together.

²⁹ And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;

³⁰ and then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in the sky; and then will all the tribes of the earth strike the breast, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of Heaven, with power and much glory;

³¹ and He will send His messengers with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens to the ends thereof.

³² And from the fig tree learn the allegory: when its branch may have already become tender, and it may put forth the leaves, you know that summer [is] near;

³³ so also you, when you may see all these, you know that it is near—at the doors.

³⁴ Truly I say to you, this generation may not pass away until all these may come to pass.

³⁵ The heaven and the earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

³⁶ And concerning that day and the hour no one has known—not even the messengers of the heavens—except My Father only;

³⁷ and as the days of Noah—so will also be the coming of the Son of Man;

³⁸ for as they were, in the days before the flood, eating, and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered into the Ark,

³⁹ and they did not know until the flood came and took all away, so will also be the coming of the Son of Man.

⁴⁰ Then two [men] will be in the field: one is received, and one is left;

⁴¹ two [women] will be grinding in the mill: one is received, and one is left.

⁴² Watch therefore, because you have not known in what hour your Lord comes;

⁴³ and know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief comes, he had watched, and did not permit his house to be broken through;

⁴⁴ because of this also you, become ready, because in what hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes.

⁴⁵ Who, then, is the servant, faithful and wise, whom his lord set over his household, to give them the nourishment in season?

⁴⁶ Blessed that servant, whom his lord, having come, will find doing so;

⁴⁷ truly I say to you that he will set him over all his substance.

⁴⁸ And if that evil servant may say in his heart, My lord delays to come,

⁴⁹ and may begin to beat the fellow-servants, and to eat and to drink with the drunken,

⁵⁰ the lord of that servant will arrive in a day when he does not expect, and in an hour of which he does not know,

⁵¹ and will cut him off, and will appoint his portion with the hypocrites; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth.”

¹ “Then will the kingdom of the heavens be likened to ten virgins, who, having taken their lamps, went forth to meet the bridegroom;

² and five of them were prudent, and five foolish;

³ they who were foolish having taken their lamps, did not take with themselves oil;

⁴ and the prudent took oil in their vessels, with their lamps.

⁵ And the bridegroom lingering, they all nodded and were sleeping,

⁶ and in the middle of the night a cry was made, Behold, the bridegroom comes; go forth to meet him!

⁷ Then all those virgins rose, and trimmed their lamps,

⁸ and the foolish said to the prudent, Give us of your oil, because our lamps are going out;

9 and the prudent answered, saying, Lest there may not be sufficient for us and you, go rather to those selling, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they are going away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those ready went in with him to the wedding feasts, and the door was shut;

11 and afterward come also the rest of the virgins, saying, Lord, lord, open to us;

12 and he answering said, Truly I say to you, I have not known you.

13 Watch therefore, for you have not known the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man comes.

14 For—as a man going abroad called his own servants, and delivered to them his substance,

15 and to one he gave five talents, and to another two, and to another one, to each according to his several ability, went abroad immediately.

16 And he who received the five talents, having gone, worked with them, and made five other talents;

17 in like manner also he who [received] the two, he gained, also he, other two;

18 and he who received the one, having gone away, dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 And after a long time comes the lord of those servants, and takes reckoning with them;

20 and he who received the five talents, having come, brought five other talents, saying, Lord, you delivered five talents to me; behold, I gained five other talents besides them.

21 And his lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant, you were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things; enter into the joy of your lord.

22 And he also, who received the two talents, having come, said, Lord, you delivered to me two talents; behold, I gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant, you were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things; enter into the joy of your lord.

24 And he also who has received the one talent, having come, said, Lord, I knew you, that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering from where you did not scatter;

25 and having been afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the earth; behold, you have your own!

26 And his lord answering said to him, Evil servant, and slothful, you had known that I reap where I did not sow, and I gather from where I did not scatter!

27 It was necessary [for] you then to put my money to the money-lenders, and having come I had received my own with increase.

28 Take therefore from him the talent, and give to him having the ten talents,

29 for to everyone having will be given, and he will have overabundance, and from him who is not having, even that which he has will be taken from him;

30 and cast forth the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth.

³¹ And whenever the Son of Man may come in His glory, and all the holy messengers with Him, then He will sit on a throne of His glory;

³² and all the nations will be gathered together before Him, and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats,

³³ and He will set the sheep indeed on His right hand, and the goats on the left.

³⁴ Then the King will say to those on His right hand, Come, the blessed of My Father; inherit the kingdom that has been prepared for you from the foundation of the world;

³⁵ for I hungered, and you gave Me to eat; I thirsted, and you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger, and you received Me;

³⁶ naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you looked after Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.

³⁷ Then will the righteous answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungering, and we nourished? Or thirsting, and we gave to drink?

³⁸ And when did we see You a stranger, and we received? Or naked, and we clothed?

³⁹ And when did we see You ailing or in prison, and we came to You?

⁴⁰ And the King answering, will say to them, Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did [it] to one of these My brothers—the least—you did [it] to Me.

⁴¹ Then will He say also to those on the left hand, Go from Me, the cursed, into the continuous fire that has been prepared for the Devil and his messengers;

⁴² for I hungered, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I thirsted, and you gave Me nothing to drink;

⁴³ I was a stranger, and you did not receive Me; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick and in prison, and you did not look after Me.

⁴⁴ Then they will answer, they also, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and we did not minister to You?

⁴⁵ Then will He answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did [it] not to one of these, the least, you did [it] not to Me.

⁴⁶ And these will go away into continuous punishment, but the righteous into continuous life."

¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus finished all these words, He said to His disciples,

² "You have known that after two days the Passover comes, and the Son of Man is delivered up to be crucified."

³ Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, into the court of the chief priest who was called Caiaphas;

⁴ and they consulted together that they might take Jesus by guile, and kill [Him],

⁵ and they said, "Not in the celebration, that there may not be a tumult among the people."

⁶ And Jesus having been in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

⁷ there came to Him a woman having an alabaster box of ointment, very precious, and she poured on His head as He is reclining.

⁸ And having seen [it], His disciples were much displeased, saying, "To what purpose [is] this waste?"

⁹ For this ointment could have been sold for much, and given to the poor."

¹⁰ And Jesus having known, said to them, "Why do you give trouble to the woman? For a good work she worked for Me;

¹¹ for you always have the poor with you, and you do not always have Me;

¹² for she having put this ointment on My body—for My burial she did [it].

¹³ Truly I say to you, wherever this good news may be proclaimed in the whole world, what this [one] did will also be spoken of—for a memorial of her."

¹⁴ Then one of the Twelve, who is called Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests, said,

¹⁵ "What are you willing to give me, and I will deliver Him up to you?" And they weighed out to him thirty pieces of silver,

¹⁶ and from that time he was seeking a convenient season to deliver Him up.

¹⁷ And on the first [day] of the Unleavened [Bread] the disciples came near to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where will You [that] we may prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

¹⁸ And He said, "Go away into the city, to such a one, and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is near; near you I keep the Passover with My disciples";

¹⁹ and the disciples did as Jesus appointed them, and prepared the Passover.

²⁰ And evening having come, He was reclining with the Twelve,

²¹ and while they are eating, He said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will deliver Me up."

²² And being grieved exceedingly, they began to say to Him, each of them, "Is it I, Lord?"

²³ And He answering said, "He who dipped with Me the hand in the dish, he will deliver Me up;

²⁴ the Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is delivered up! It were good for him if that man had not been born."

²⁵ And Judas—he who delivered Him up—answering said, "Is it I, Rabbi?" He says to him, "You have said."

²⁶ And while they were eating, Jesus having taken the bread, and having blessed, broke, and was giving [it] to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat, this is My body";

²⁷ and having taken the cup, and having given thanks, He gave to them, saying, "Drink of it—all;

²⁸ for this is My blood of the New Covenant, that is being poured out for many, for forgiveness of sins;

²⁹ and I say to you that I may not drink from now on this produce of the vine, until that day when I may drink it with you new in the kingdom of My Father."

³⁰ And having sung a hymn, they went forth to the Mount of Olives;

31 then Jesus says to them, "All you will be stumbled at Me this night; for it has been written: I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered abroad;

32 but after My having risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

33 And Peter answering said to Him, "Even if all will be stumbled at You, I will never be stumbled."

34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that this night, before rooster-crowing, three times you will deny Me."

35 Peter says to Him, "Even if it may be necessary for me to die with You, I will not deny You"; in like manner also said all the disciples.

36 Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He says to the disciples, "Sit here, until having gone away, I will pray over there."

37 And having taken Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to be sorrowful, and to be very heavy;

38 then He says to them, "Exceedingly sorrowful is My soul—to death; abide here, and watch with Me."

39 And having gone forward a little, He fell on His face, praying, and saying, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You."

40 And He comes to the disciples, and finds them sleeping, and He says to Peter, "So! You were not able to watch with Me one hour!

41 Watch, and pray, that you may not enter into temptation: the spirit indeed is forward, but the flesh weak."

42 Again, a second time, having gone away, He prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me except I drink it, Your will be done";

43 and having come, He finds them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

44 And having left them, having gone away again, He prayed a third time, saying the same word;

45 then He comes to His disciples and says to them, "Sleep on from now on, and rest! Behold, the hour has come near, and the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us go; behold, he who is delivering Me up has come near."

47 And while He is yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve came, and with him a great multitude, with swords and sticks, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 And he who delivered Him up gave them a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I will kiss, it is He, lay hold on Him";

49 and immediately, having come to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi," and kissed Him;

50 and Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what are you present?" Then having come near, they laid hands on Jesus, and took hold on Him.

51 And behold, one of those with Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the chief priest, he took off his ear.

52 Then Jesus says to him, "Turn back your sword to its place; for all who took the sword will perish by the sword;

53 do you think that I am not able now to call on My Father, and He will place beside Me more than twelve legions of messengers?

54 How then may the Writings be fulfilled, that thus it must happen?"

⁵⁵ In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Did you come forth as against a robber, with swords and sticks, to take Me? Daily I was with you sitting, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me;

⁵⁶ but all this has come to pass, that the Writings of the prophets may be fulfilled"; then all the disciples, having left Him, fled.

⁵⁷ And those laying hold on Jesus led [Him] away to Caiaphas the chief priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together,

⁵⁸ and Peter was following Him far off, to the court of the chief priest, and having gone in within, he was sitting with the officers, to see the end.

⁵⁹ And the chief priests, and the elders, and all the council, were seeking false witness against Jesus, that they might put Him to death,

⁶⁰ and they did not find; and many false witnesses having come near, they did not find; and at last two false witnesses having come near,

⁶¹ said, "This One said, I am able to throw down the temple of God, and after three days to build it."

⁶² And the chief priest having stood up, said to Him, "Nothing You answer? What do these witness against You?"

⁶³ And Jesus was silent. And the chief priest answering said to Him, "I adjure You, by the living God, that You may say to us if You are the Christ—the Son of God."

⁶⁴ Jesus says to him, "You have said; nevertheless I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of Heaven."

⁶⁵ Then the chief priest tore his garments, saying, "He has slandered; what need have we yet of witnesses? Behold, now you heard His slander; ⁶⁶ what do you think?" And they answering said, "He is worthy of death."

⁶⁷ Then they spit in His face and punched Him, and others slapped,

⁶⁸ saying, "Declare to us, O Christ, who he is that struck You?"

⁶⁹ And Peter was sitting in the court outside, and there came near to him a certain maid, saying, "And you were with Jesus of Galilee!"

⁷⁰ And he denied before all, saying, "I have not known what you say."

⁷¹ And he having gone forth to the porch, another female saw him, and says to those there, "And this one was with Jesus of Nazareth";

⁷² and again he denied with an oath, "I have not known the Man."

⁷³ And after a while those standing near having come, said to Peter, "Truly you also are of them, for even your speech makes you evident."

⁷⁴ Then he began to curse, and to swear, "I have not known the Man"; and immediately a rooster crowed, ⁷⁵ and Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, He having said to him, "Before rooster-crowing, you will deny Me three times"; and having gone outside, he wept bitterly.

¹ And morning having come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, so as to put Him to death;

² and having bound Him, they led [Him] away, and delivered Him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor.

³ Then Judas—he who delivered Him up—having seen that He was condemned, having regretted, brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and to the elders, saying,

⁴ “I sinned, having delivered up innocent blood”; and they said, “What [is that] to us? You will see!”

⁵ And having cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed, and having gone away, he strangled himself.

⁶ And the chief priests having taken the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, seeing it is the price of blood”;

⁷ and having taken counsel, they bought the potter’s field with them, for the burial of strangers;

⁸ therefore that field was called, “Field of Blood,” to this day.

⁹ Then was fulfilled that spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “And I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who has been priced, whom they of the sons of Israel priced,

¹⁰ and gave them for the potter’s field, as the LORD appointed to me.”

¹¹ And Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, “Are You the King of the Jews?” And Jesus said to him, “You say [it].”

¹² And in His being accused by the chief priests and the elders, He did not answer anything;

¹³ then Pilate says to Him, “Do You not hear how many things they witness against You?”

¹⁴ And He did not answer him, not even to one word, so that the governor wondered greatly.

¹⁵ And at the celebration the governor had been accustomed to release one to the multitude, a prisoner, whom they willed,

¹⁶ and they had a noted prisoner then, called Barabbas,

¹⁷ therefore they having been gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you will [that] I may release to you? Barabbas or Jesus who is called Christ?”

¹⁸ For he had known that they had delivered Him up because of envy.

¹⁹ And as he is sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Nothing—to you and to that Righteous One, for I suffered many things today in a dream because of Him.”

²⁰ And the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they might ask for themselves Barabbas, and might destroy Jesus;

²¹ and the governor answering said to them, “Which of the two will you [that] I may release to you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

²² Pilate says to them, “What then will I do with Jesus who is called Christ?” They all say to him, “Let [Him] be crucified!”

²³ And the governor said, “Why, what evil did He do?” And they were crying out the more, saying, “Let [Him] be crucified!”

²⁴ And Pilate having seen that it profits nothing, but rather a tumult is made, having taken water, he washed the hands before the multitude, saying, “I am innocent from the blood of this Righteous One; you will see [to it] yourselves”;

²⁵ and all the people answering said, “His blood [is] on us, and on our children!”

²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Jesus, he delivered [Him] up that He may be crucified;

²⁷ then the soldiers of the governor having taken Jesus to the Praetorium, gathered to Him all the band;

28 and having unclothed Him, they put a crimson cloak around Him,

29 and having plaited Him a garland out of thorns they put [it] on His head, and [put] a reed in His right hand, and having kneeled before Him, they were mocking Him, saying, "Hail, the King of the Jews!"

30 And having spit on Him, they took the reed, and were striking on His head;

31 and when they had mocked Him, they took off the cloak from Him, and put His own garments on Him, and led Him away to crucify [Him].

32 And coming forth, they found a man, a Cyrenian, by name Simon: they impressed him that he might carry His cross;

33 and having come to a place called Golgotha, which is called "Place of [the] Skull,"

34 they gave Him vinegar mixed with gall to drink, and having tasted, He would not drink.

35 And having crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting a lot, [[that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet: "They divided My garments to themselves, and they cast a lot over My clothing";]]

36 and sitting down, they were watching Him there,

37 and they put up over His head, His accusation written: "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

38 Then two robbers are crucified with Him, one on the right hand and one on the left,

39 and those passing by kept slandering Him, wagging their heads,

40 and saying, "You that are throwing down the temple, and in three days building [it], save Yourself; if You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 And in like manner also the chief priests mocking, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 "He saved others; He is not able to save Himself! If He is King of Israel, let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe Him;

43 He has trusted on God, let Him now deliver Him if He wants Him, because He said, I am [the] Son of God";

44 with the same also the robbers, who were crucified with Him, were reproaching Him.

45 And from the sixth hour darkness came over all the land to the ninth hour,

46 and about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a great voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That is, "My God, My God, why did You forsake Me?"

47 And certain of those standing there having heard, said, "He calls Elijah";

48 and immediately, one of them having run, and having taken a sponge, having filled [it] with vinegar, and having put [it] on a reed, was giving Him to drink,

49 but the rest said, "Let alone, let us see if Elijah comes—about to save Him."

50 And Jesus having again cried with a great voice, yielded the spirit;

51 and behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split,

52 and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones who have fallen asleep, arose,

⁵³ and having come forth out of the tombs after His rising, they went into the holy city, and appeared to many.

⁵⁴ And the centurion, and those with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake, and the things that were done, were exceedingly afraid, saying, "Truly this was God's Son."

⁵⁵ And there were there many women beholding from afar, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him,

⁵⁶ among whom was Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and of Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁷ And evening having come, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who also himself was discipled to Jesus,

⁵⁸ he having gone near to Pilate, asked for himself the body of Jesus; then Pilate commanded the body to be given back.

⁵⁹ And having taken the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen,

⁶⁰ and laid it in his new tomb that he hewed in the rock, and having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, he went away;

⁶¹ now Mary the Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave.

⁶² And on the next day that is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate,

⁶³ saying, "Lord, we have remembered that this deceiver said while yet living, After three days I rise;

⁶⁴ command, then, the grave to be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples, having come by night, may steal Him away, and may say to the people, He rose from the dead, and the last deceit will be worse than the first."

⁶⁶ and they, having gone, made the grave secure, having sealed the stone, together with the guard.

28

¹ Now after [the] Sabbaths, it being dawn, toward the first [day] of the weeks, Mary the Magdalene came, and the other Mary, to see the grave,

² and behold, there came a great earthquake, for a messenger of the LORD, having come down out of Heaven, having come, rolled away the stone from the door, and was sitting on it,

³ and his countenance was as lightning, and his clothing white as snow,

⁴ and from the fear of him the keepers shook, and they became as dead men.

⁵ And the messenger answering said to the women, "Do not fear, for I have known that you seek Jesus who has been crucified;

⁶ He is not here, for He rose, as He said; come, see the place where the LORD was lying;

⁷ and having gone quickly, say to His disciples that He rose from the dead; and behold, He goes before you to Galilee, there you will see Him; behold, I have told you."

⁸ And having gone forth quickly from the tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to tell His disciples;

⁹ and as they were going to tell His disciples, then behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" And having come near, they laid hold of His feet, and worshiped Him.

¹⁰ Then Jesus says to them, "Do not fear, go away, tell My brothers that they may go away to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

¹¹ And while they are going on, behold, certain of the guard having come into the city, reported to the chief priests all the things that happened,

¹² and having been gathered together with the elders, having also taken counsel, they gave much money to the soldiers,

¹³ saying, "Say that His disciples having come by night, stole Him—we being asleep;

¹⁴ and if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade him, and you keep free from anxiety."

¹⁵ And they, having received the money, did as they were taught, and this account was spread abroad among Jews until this day.

¹⁶ And the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus appointed them,

¹⁷ and having seen Him, they worshiped Him, but some wavered.

¹⁸ And having come near, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority in Heaven and on earth was given to Me;

¹⁹ having gone, then, disciple all the nations, immersing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,

²⁰ teaching them to observe all, whatever I commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days—until the full end of the age."

Mark

¹ A beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, Son of God.

² As it has been written in the Prophets: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, || Who will prepare Your way before You.

³ A voice of one calling in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, || Make His paths straight."

⁴ John came immersing in the wilderness, and proclaiming an immersion of conversion for forgiveness of sins,

⁵ and there were going forth to him all the region of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and they were all immersed by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

⁶ And John was clothed with camel's hair, and a girdle of skin around his loins, and eating locusts and honey of the field,

⁷ and he proclaimed, saying, "He comes—who is mightier than I—after me, of whom I am not worthy—having stooped down—to loose the strap of His sandals;

⁸ I indeed immersed you in water, but He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit."

⁹ And it came to pass in those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was immersed by John in the Jordan;

¹⁰ and immediately coming up from the water, He saw the heavens dividing, and the Spirit coming down on Him as a dove;

¹¹ and a voice came out of the heavens, "You are My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted."

¹² And immediately the Spirit puts Him forth into the wilderness,

¹³ and He was there in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan, and He was with the beasts, and the messengers were ministering to Him.

¹⁴ And after the delivering up of John, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God,

¹⁵ and saying, "The time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God has come near, convert and believe in the good news."

¹⁶ And walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon, and his brother Andrew, casting a drag into the sea, for they were fishers,

¹⁷ and Jesus said to them, "Come after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men";

¹⁸ and immediately, having left their nets, they followed Him.

¹⁹ And having gone on there a little, He saw James of Zebedee, and his brother John, and they were in the boat refitting the nets, ²⁰ and immediately He called them, and having left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after Him.

²¹ And they go on to Capernaum, and immediately, on the Sabbaths, having gone into the synagogue, He was teaching, ²² and they were astonished at His teaching, for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

²³ And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

²⁴ saying, "What [regards] us and You, Jesus the Nazarene? You came to destroy us; I have known You, who You are—the Holy One of God."

²⁵ And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silenced, and come forth out of him,"

²⁶ and the unclean spirit having convulsed him, and having cried with a great voice, came forth out of him,

²⁷ and they were all amazed, so as to reason among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new teaching [is] this? That with authority He also commands the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!"

²⁸ And the fame of Him went forth immediately to all the region of Galilee.

²⁹ And immediately, having come forth out of the synagogue, they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John,

³⁰ and the mother-in-law of Simon was lying fevered, and immediately they tell Him about her,

³¹ and having come near, He raised her up, having laid hold of her hand, and the fever left her immediately, and she was ministering to them.

³² And evening having come, when the sun set, they brought to Him all who were ill and who were demoniacs,

³³ and the whole city was gathered together near the door,

³⁴ and He healed many who were ill of manifold diseases, and He cast forth many demons, and was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

³⁵ And very early, it being yet night, having risen, He went forth, and went away to a desolate place, and was praying there;

³⁶ and Simon and those with him went in quest of Him,

³⁷ and having found Him, they say to Him, "All seek You";

³⁸ and He says to them, "We may go into the next towns, that there also I may preach, for—for this I came forth."

³⁹ And He was preaching in their synagogues, in all Galilee, and is casting out the demons,

⁴⁰ and there comes to Him a leper, calling on Him, and kneeling to Him, and saying to Him, "If You may will, You are able to cleanse me."

⁴¹ And Jesus having been moved with compassion, having stretched forth the hand, touched him and says to him, "I will, be cleansed";

⁴² and He having spoken, immediately the leprosy went away from him, and he was cleansed.

⁴³ And Jesus sternly charged him, immediately He put him forth,

⁴⁴ and says to him, "See [that] you may say nothing to anyone, but go away, show yourself to the priest, and bring near for your cleansing the things Moses directed, for a testimony to them."

⁴⁵ And he, having gone forth, began to proclaim much, and to spread the thing abroad, so that He was no longer able to openly enter into the city, but He was outside in desolate places, and they were coming to Him from every quarter.

¹ And again He entered into Capernaum, after [some] days, and it was heard that He is in the house,

² and immediately many were gathered together; so that there was no more room, not even at the door, and He was speaking to them the word.

³ And they come to Him, bringing a paralytic, carried by four;

⁴ and not being able to come near to Him because of the multitude, they uncovered the roof where He was, and having broken [it] up, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic was lying,

⁵ and Jesus having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins have been forgiven you."

⁶ And there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

⁷ "Why does this One thus speak evil words? Who is able to forgive sins except one—God?"

⁸ And immediately Jesus, having known in His spirit that they thus reason in themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts?"

⁹ Which is easier? To say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven; or to say, Rise, and take up your pallet, and walk?

¹⁰ And that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—(He says to the paralytic)—

¹¹ I say to you, rise, and take up your pallet, and go away to your house";

¹² and he rose immediately, and having taken up the pallet, he went forth before all, so that all were astonished, and glorify God, saying, "Never thus did we see."

¹³ And He went forth again by the sea, and all the multitude was coming to Him, and He was teaching them,

¹⁴ and passing by, He saw Levi of Alpheus sitting at the tax office, and says to him, "Follow Me," and he, having risen, followed Him.

¹⁵ And it came to pass, in His reclining in his house, that many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and His disciples, for there were many, and they followed Him.

¹⁶ And the scribes and the Pharisees, having seen Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, said to His disciples, "Why—that with the tax collectors and sinners He eats and drinks?"

¹⁷ And Jesus, having heard, says to them, "They who are strong have no need of a physician, but they who are ill; I did not come to call righteous men, but sinners."

¹⁸ And the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees fast, and Your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁹ And Jesus said to them, "Are the sons of the bride-chamber able, while the bridegroom is with them, to fast? As long a time [as] they have the bridegroom with them they are not able to fast;

²⁰ but days will come when the bridegroom may be taken from them, and then they will fast—in those days.

²¹ And no one sews a patch of undressed cloth on an old garment, and if not—the new, filling it up, takes from the old and the split becomes worse;

²³ And it came to pass—He is going along on the Sabbaths through the grainfields—and His disciples began to make a way, plucking the ears,

²⁴ and the Pharisees said to Him, "Behold, why do they do on the Sabbaths that which is not lawful?"

²⁵ And He said to them, "Did you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry, he and those with him?"

²⁶ How he went into the house of God, in [the days of] Abiathar the chief priest, and ate the Bread of the Presentation, which it is not lawful to eat, except to the priests, and he also gave to those who were with him?"

²⁷ And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath, ²⁸ so that the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

¹ And He entered again into the synagogue, and there was there a man having the hand withered,

² and they were watching Him, whether on the Sabbaths He will heal him, that they might accuse Him.

³ And He says to the man having the hand withered, "Rise up in the midst."

⁴ And He says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill?" But they were silent.

⁶ and the Pharisees having gone forth, immediately, with the Herodians, were taking counsel against Him how they might destroy Him.

⁷ And Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea, ⁸ and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and they around Tyre and Sidon—a great multitude—having heard how He was doing great things, came to Him.

⁹ And He said to His disciples that a little boat may wait on Him, because of the multitude, that they may not press on Him,

¹⁰ for He healed many, so that they threw themselves on Him, in order to touch Him—as many as had plagues;

¹¹ and the unclean spirits, when they were seeing Him, were falling down before Him, and were crying, saying, "You are the Son of God";

¹² and many times He was charging them that they might not make Him apparent.

¹³ And He goes up to the mountain, and calls near whom He willed, and they went away to Him;

¹⁴ and He appointed twelve, that they may be with Him, and that He may send them forth to preach,

¹⁵ and to have power to heal the sicknesses, and to cast out the demons.

¹⁶ And He put on Simon the name Peter;

¹⁷ and James of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and He put on them names—Boanerges, that is, "Sons of thunder";

¹⁸ and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who also delivered Him up; and they come into a house.

²⁰ And a multitude comes together again, so that they are not even able to eat bread;

²¹ and those alongside Him having heard, went forth to lay hold on Him, for they said that He was beside Himself,

²² and the scribes who [are] from Jerusalem having come down, said, "He has Beelzebul," and, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out the demons."

²³ And having called them near, He said to them in allegories, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan?"

²⁴ And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot be made to stand;

²⁵ and if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot be made to stand;

²⁶ and if Satan rose against himself, and has been divided, he cannot be made to stand, but has an end.

²⁷ No one is able to spoil the vessels of the strong man, having entered into his house, if first he may not bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his house.

²⁸ Truly I say to you that all sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and slanders with which they might have slandered,

²⁹ but whoever may slander in regard to the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness—throughout the age, but is in danger of continuous judgment;

³⁰ because they said, He has an unclean spirit."

³¹ Then His brothers and mother come, and standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him,

³² and a multitude was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers seek You outside."

³³ And He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?"

³⁴ And having looked around in a circle to those sitting around Him, He says, "Behold, My mother and My brothers!"

³⁵ For whoever may do the will of God, he is My brother, and My sister, and mother."

¹ And again He began to teach by the sea, and there was gathered to Him a great multitude, so that He, having gone into the boat, sat in the sea, and all the multitude was near the sea, on the land,

² and He taught them many things in allegories, and He said to them in His teaching:

³ "Listen, behold, the sower went forth to sow;

⁴ and it came to pass, in the sowing, some fell by the way, and the birds of the sky came and devoured it;

⁵ and other fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much earth, and immediately it sprang forth, because of having no depth of earth,

⁶ and the sun having risen, it was scorched, and because of having no root it withered;

⁷ and other fell toward the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it gave no fruit;

⁸ and other fell to the good ground, and was giving fruit, coming up and increasing, and it was bearing, one thirty-fold, and one sixty, and one a hundred.

⁹ And He said to them, "He who is having ears to hear—let him hear."

¹⁰ And when He was alone, those around Him, with the Twelve, asked Him of the allegory,

¹¹ and He said to them, "To you it has been given to know the secret of the Kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, in allegories are all the things done,

¹² that seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest they may turn, and the sins may be forgiven them."

¹³ And He says to them, "Have you not known this allegory? And how will you know all the allegories?

¹⁴ He who is sowing sows the word;

¹⁵ and these are they by the way where the word is sown: and whenever they may hear, Satan immediately comes, and he takes away the word that has been sown in their hearts.

¹⁶ And these are they, in like manner, who are sown on the rocky ground: who, whenever they may hear the word, immediately receive it with joy,

¹⁸ And these are they who are sown toward the thorns: these are they who are hearing the word,

¹⁹ and the anxieties of this age, and the deceitfulness of the riches, and the desires concerning the other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²⁰ And these are they who on the good ground have been sown: who hear the word, and receive, and bear fruit, one thirty-fold, and one sixty, and one a hundred."

²¹ And He said to them, "Does the lamp come that it may be put under the measure, or under the bed—not that it may be put on the lampstand?

²² For there is not anything hid that may not be revealed, nor was anything kept hid but that it may come to light.

²³ If any has ears to hear—let him hear."

²⁴ And He said to them, "Take heed what you hear; in what measure you measure, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear it will be added;

²⁵ for whoever may have, there will be given to him, and whoever has not, also that which he has will be taken from him."

²⁶ And He said, "Thus is the Kingdom of God: as if a man may cast the seed on the earth,

²⁷ and may sleep, and may rise night and day, and the seed springs up and grows, he has not known how;

²⁸ for of itself the earth bears fruit, first a blade, afterward an ear, afterward full grain in the ear;

²⁹ and whenever the fruit may yield itself, immediately he sends forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."

³⁰ And He said, "To what may we liken the Kingdom of God, or in what allegory may we compare it?

³¹ As a grain of mustard, which, whenever it may be sown on the earth, is less than any of the seeds that are on the earth;

³² and whenever it may be sown, it comes up, and becomes greater than any of the herbs, and makes great branches, so that under its shade the birds of the sky are able to rest."

³³ And with many such allegories He was speaking to them the word, as they were able to hear,

³⁴ and without an allegory He was not speaking to them, and by themselves, to His disciples He was expounding all.

³⁵ And He says to them on that day, evening having come, "We may pass over to the other side";

³⁶ and having let away the multitude, they take Him up as He was in the boat, and other little boats were also with Him.

³⁷ And there comes a great storm of wind, and the waves were beating on the boat, so that it is now being filled,

³⁸ and He Himself was on the stern, sleeping on the pillow, and they wake Him up, and say to Him, "Teacher, are You not caring that we perish?"

³⁹ And having awoken, He rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace, be stilled"; and the wind stilled, and there was a great calm;

⁴⁰ and He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How have you no faith?"

⁴¹ And they feared a great fear and said to one another, "Who, then, is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

¹ And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gadarenes,

² and He having come forth out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

³ who had his dwelling in the tombs, and not even with chains was anyone able to bind him,

⁴ because that many times he had been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been pulled in pieces by him, and the shackles broken in pieces, and none was able to tame him,

⁵ and always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ And having seen Jesus from afar, he ran and prostrated to Him,

⁷ and having called with a loud voice, he said, "What [regards] me and You, Jesus, Son of God the Most High? I adjure You by God, may You not afflict me!"

⁸ For He said to him, "Come forth, unclean spirit, out of the man!"

⁹ And He was questioning him, "What [is] your name?" And he answered, saying, "Legion [is] my name, because we are many";

¹⁰ and he was calling on Him much, that He may not send them out of the region.

¹¹ And there was there, near the mountains, a great herd of pigs feeding,

¹² and all the demons called on Him, saying, "Send us to the pigs, that into them we may enter";

¹³ and immediately Jesus gave them leave, and having come forth, the unclean spirits entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep place to the sea—and they were about two thousand—and they were choked in the sea.

¹⁴ And those feeding the pigs fled, and told in the city, and in the fields, and they came forth to see what it is that has been done;

¹⁵ and they come to Jesus, and see the demoniac, sitting, and clothed, and right-minded—him having had the legion—and they were afraid;

16 and those having seen [it], declared to them how it had come to pass to the demoniac, and about the pigs;

17 and they began to call on Him to go away from their borders.

18 And He having gone into the boat, the demoniac was calling on Him that he may be with Him,

19 and Jesus did not permit him, but says to him, "Go away to your house, to your own [friends], and tell them how the LORD did great things to you, and dealt kindly with you";

20 and he went away, and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how Jesus did great things to him, and all were wondering.

21 And Jesus having passed over in the boat again to the other side, there was gathered a great multitude to Him, and He was near the sea,

22 and behold, there comes one of the chiefs of the synagogue, by name Jairus, and having seen Him, he falls at His feet,

23 and he was calling on Him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the last extremity—that having come, You may lay on her [Your] hands, so that she may be saved, and she will live";

24 and He went away with him. And there was following Him a great multitude, and they were thronging Him,

25 and a certain woman, being with a flow of blood [for] twelve years,

26 and having suffered many things under many physicians, and having spent all that she had, and having profited nothing, but rather having come to the worse,

27 having heard about Jesus, having come in the multitude behind, she touched His garment,

28 for she said, "If I may even touch His garments, I will be saved";

29 and immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she knew in the body that she has been healed of the plague.

30 And immediately Jesus having known in Himself that power had gone forth out of Him, having turned in the multitude, said, "Who touched My garments?"

31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, Who touched Me!"

32 And He was looking around to see her who did this,

33 and the woman, having been afraid, and trembling, knowing what was done on her, came, and fell down before Him, and told Him all the truth,

34 and He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go away in peace, and be whole from your plague."

35 As He is yet speaking, there come from the chief of the synagogue's [house, certain], saying, "Your daughter died, why do you still harass the Teacher?"

36 And Jesus immediately, having heard the word that is spoken, says to the chief of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid, only believe."

37 And He did not permit anyone to follow with Him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James;

38 and He comes into the house of the chief of the synagogue, and sees a tumult, much weeping and wailing;

39 and having gone in He says to them, "Why do you make a tumult, and weep? The child did not die, but sleeps";

⁴⁰ and they were laughing at Him. And He, having put all forth, takes the father of the child, and the mother, and those with Him, and goes in where the child is lying,

⁴¹ and having taken the hand of the child, He says to her, "Talitha cumi"; which is, being interpreted, "Girl (I say to you), arise."

⁴² And immediately the girl arose, and was walking, for she was twelve years [old]; and they were amazed with a great amazement,

⁴³ and He charged them much, that no one may know this thing, and He said that there be given to her to eat.

¹ And He went forth from there, and came to His own country, and His disciples follow Him,

² and Sabbath having come, He began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing were astonished, saying, "From where [did] this One [hear] these things? And what [is] the wisdom that was given to Him, that also such mighty works are done through His hands?"

³ Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? And are His sisters not here with us?" And they were being stumbled at Him.

⁴ And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his relatives, and in his own house";

⁵ and He was not able to do any mighty work there, except having put hands on a few sick, He healed [them];

⁶ and He wondered because of their unbelief. And He was going around the villages, in a circle, teaching,

⁷ and He calls near the Twelve, and He began to send them forth two by two, and He was giving them power over the unclean spirits,

⁸ and He commanded them that they may take nothing for the way, except a staff only—no leather pouch, no bread, no brass in the girdle,

⁹ but having been shod with sandals, and you may not put on two coats.

¹⁰ And He said to them, "Whenever you may enter into a house, remain there until you may depart from there,

¹¹ and as many as may not receive you nor hear you, going out from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony to them; [[truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom or Gomorrah in [the] day of judgment than for that city.]]

¹² And having gone forth they were preaching that [men] might convert,

¹³ and they were casting out many demons, and they were anointing many sick with oil, and they were healing [them].

¹⁴ And King Herod heard (for His Name became public), and he said, "John the Immerser was raised out of the dead, and because of this the mighty powers are working in him."

¹⁵ Others said, "It is Elijah," and others said, "It is a prophet, or as one of the prophets."

¹⁶ And Herod having heard, said, "He whom I beheaded—John—this is he; he was raised out of the dead."

¹⁷ For Herod himself, having sent forth, laid hold on John, and bound him in the prison, because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he married her,

18 for John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother";

19 and Herodias was having a quarrel with him, and was willing to kill him, and was not able,

20 for Herod was fearing John, knowing him [to be] a righteous and holy man, and was keeping watch over him, and having heard him, was doing many things, and hearing him gladly.

21 And a seasonable day having come when Herod on his birthday was making a banquet to his great men, and to the chiefs of thousands, and to the first men of Galilee,

22 and the daughter of that Herodias having come in, and having danced, and having pleased Herod and those dining with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask of me whatever you will, and I will give to you,"

23 and he swore to her, "Whatever you may ask me, I will give to you—to the half of my kingdom."

24 And she, having gone forth, said to her mother, "What will I ask for myself?" And she said, "The head of John the Immerser";

25 and having come in immediately with haste to the king, she asked, saying, "I will that you may immediately give me the head of John the Immerser on a plate."

26 And the king, made very sorrowful because of the oaths and of those reclining with him, would not put her away,

27 and immediately the king having sent a guardsman, commanded his head to be brought,

28 and he having gone, beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head on a plate, and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother;

29 and having heard, his disciples came and took up his corpse, and laid it in the tomb.

30 And the apostles are gathered together to Jesus, and they told Him all, and how many things they did, and how many things they taught,

31 and He said to them, "Come yourselves apart to a desolate place, and rest a little," for those coming and those going were many, and not even to eat had they opportunity, 32 and they went away to a desolate place, in the boat, by themselves.

33 And the multitudes saw them going away, and many recognized Him, and they ran there by land from all the cities, and went before them, and came together to Him,

34 and having come forth, Jesus saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion on them, that they were as sheep not having a shepherd, and He began to teach many things.

35 And now the hour being advanced, His disciples having come near to Him, say, "The place is desolate, and the hour is now advanced,

36 let them away, that having gone away into the surrounding fields and villages, they may buy loaves for themselves, for they do not have what they may eat."

37 And He answering said to them, "You give them to eat," and they say to Him, "Having gone away, may we buy two hundred denarii worth of loaves, and give to them to eat?"

38 And He says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see"; and having known, they say, "Five, and two fishes."

³⁹ And He commanded them to make all recline in companies on the green grass,

⁴⁰ and they sat down in squares, by hundreds, and by fifties.

⁴¹ And having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the sky, He blessed, and broke the loaves, and was giving [them] to His disciples, that they may set [them] before them, and the two fishes He divided to all,

⁴² and they all ate, and were filled,

⁴³ and they took up of broken pieces twelve hand-baskets full, and of the fishes,

⁴⁴ and those eating of the loaves were about five thousand men.

⁴⁵ And immediately He constrained His disciples to go into the boat, and to go before [Him] to the other side, to Bethsaida, until He may let the multitude away, ⁴⁶ and having taken leave of them, He went away to the mountain to pray.

⁴⁷ And evening having come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and He alone on the land;

⁴⁸ and He saw them harassed in the rowing, for the wind was against them, and about the fourth watch of the night He comes to them walking on the sea, and wished to pass by them.

⁴⁹ And they having seen Him walking on the sea, thought [it] to be an apparition, and cried out,

⁵⁰ for they all saw Him, and were troubled, and immediately He spoke with them, and says to them, "Take courage! I AM; do not be afraid."

⁵¹ And He went up to them into the boat, and the wind stilled, and greatly out of measure they were amazed in themselves, and were wondering,

⁵² for they did not understand concerning the loaves, for their heart has been hard.

⁵³ And having passed over, they came on the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore,

⁵⁴ and they having come forth out of the boat, immediately having recognized Him,

⁵⁵ they ran around through all that surrounding region, and they began to carry around on the pallets those being ill, where they were hearing that He is,

⁵⁶ and wherever He was going, to villages, or cities, or fields, in the marketplaces they were laying the ailing, and were calling on Him, that they may touch if it were but the fringe of His garment, and as many as were touching Him were saved.

¹ And gathered together to Him are the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, having come from Jerusalem,

² and having seen certain of His disciples with defiled hands—that is, unwashed—eating bread, they found fault;

³ for the Pharisees, and all the Jews, if they do not wash the hands to the wrist, do not eat, holding the tradition of the elders,

⁴ and [coming] from the marketplace, if they do not immerse themselves, they do not eat; and many other things there are that they received to hold, immersions of cups, and pots, and bronze vessels, and couches.

5 Then the Pharisees and the scribes question Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat the bread with unwashed hands?"

6 And He answering said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you, hypocrites, as it has been written: This people honors Me with the lips, and their heart is far from Me;

7 and in vain they worship Me, teaching teachings, commands of men;

8 for having put away the command of God, you hold the tradition of men, immersions of pots and cups; and many other such like things you do."

9 And He said to them, "Well do you put away the command of God that you may keep your tradition;

10 for Moses said, Honor your father and your mother; and, He who is speaking evil of father or mother—let him die the death;

11 and you say, If a man may say to father or to mother, Korban (that is, a gift), [is] whatever you may be profited out of mine,

12 and you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or for his mother;

13 setting aside the word of God for your tradition that you delivered; and many such like things you do."

14 And having called near all the multitude, He said to them, "Listen to Me, you all, and understand;

15 there is nothing from outside the man entering into him that is able to defile him, but the things coming out from him, those are the things defiling the man.

16 ["If any has ears to hear—let him hear."]

17 And when He entered into a house from the multitude, His disciples were questioning Him about the allegory,

18 and He says to them, "So also you are without understanding! Do you not perceive that nothing from outside entering into the man is able to defile him?

19 Because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and into the drain it goes out, purifying all the meats."

20 And He said, "That which is coming out from the man, that defiles the man;

21 for from within, out of the heart of men, the evil reasonings come forth, adulteries, whoredoms, murders,

22 thefts, covetous desires, wickedness, deceit, arrogance, an evil eye, slander, pride, foolishness;

23 all these evils come forth from within, and they defile the man."

24 And from there having risen, He went away to the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and having entered into the house, He wished none to know, and He was not able to be hid,

25 for a woman having heard about Him, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell at His feet—

26 and the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by nation—and was asking Him that He may cast forth the demon out of her daughter.

27 And Jesus said to her, "First permit the children to be filled, for it is not good to take the children's bread, and to cast [it] to the little dogs."

28 And she answered and says to Him, "Yes, Lord; for the little dogs under the table also eat of the children's crumbs."

²⁹ And He said to her, "Because of this word, go; the demon has gone forth out of your daughter";

³⁰ and having come away to her house, she found the demon gone forth, and the daughter laid on the bed.

³¹ And again, having gone forth from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis, ³² and they bring to Him a deaf, stuttering man, and they call on Him that He may put the hand on him.

³³ And having taken him away from the multitude by Himself, He put His fingers to his ears, and having spit, He touched his tongue,

³⁴ and having looked to the sky, He sighed, and says to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened";

³⁵ and immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he was speaking plain.

³⁶ He charged them that they may tell no one, but the more He was charging them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming [it],

³⁷ and they were being astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes both the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak."

¹ In those days the multitude being very great, and not having what they may eat, Jesus having called near His disciples, says to them,

² "I have compassion on the multitude, because now three days they continue with Me, and they have not what they may eat;

³ and if I will let them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way, for certain of them are come from far."

⁴ And His disciples answered Him, "From where will anyone be able to feed these here in a wilderness with bread?"

⁵ And He was questioning them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."

⁶ And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, He broke, and was giving to His disciples that they may set before [them]; and they set before the multitude.

⁷ And they had a few small fishes, and having blessed, He said to set them also before [them];

⁸ and they ate and were filled, and they took up that which was over of broken pieces—seven baskets;

⁹ and those eating were about four thousand. And He let them away,

¹⁰ and immediately having entered into the boat with His disciples, He came to the parts of Dalmanutha,

¹¹ and the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from Heaven, tempting Him;

¹² and having sighed deeply in His spirit, He says, "Why does this generation seek after a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation."

¹³ And having left them, having entered again into the boat, He went away to the other side;

¹⁴ and they forgot to take loaves, and except one loaf they had nothing with them in the boat,

¹⁵ and He was charging them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod,"

¹⁶ and they were reasoning with one another, saying, "Because we have no loaves."

¹⁷ And Jesus having known, says to them, "Why do you reason, because you have no loaves? Do you not yet perceive, nor understand, yet have you hardened your heart?"

¹⁸ Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember?

¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves to the five thousand, how many hand-baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They say to Him, "Twelve."

²⁰ "And when the seven to the four thousand, how many hand-baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" And they said, "Seven."

²¹ And He said to them, "How do you not understand?"

²² And He comes to Bethsaida, and they bring to Him one blind, and call on Him that He may touch him,

²³ and having taken the hand of the blind man, He led him forth outside the village, and having spit on his eyes, having put [His] hands on him, He was questioning him if he beholds anything:

²⁴ and he, having looked up, said, "I behold men, as I see trees, walking."

²⁵ Afterward again He put [His] hands on his eyes, and made him look up, and he was restored, and discerned all things clearly,

²⁶ and He sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither may you go into the village, nor tell [it] to any in the village."

²⁷ And Jesus went forth, and His disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and in the way He was questioning His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say I am?"

²⁸ And they answered, "John the Immerser, and others Elijah, but others one of the prophets."

²⁹ And He says to them, "And you—who do you say I am?" And Peter answering says to him, "You are the Christ."

³⁰ And He strictly charged them that they may tell no one about it,

³¹ and began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things, and to be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and to be killed, and to rise again after three days;

³² and openly He was speaking the word. And Peter having taken Him aside, began to rebuke Him,

³³ and He, having turned, and having looked on His disciples, rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan, because you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men."

³⁴ And having called near the multitude, with His disciples, He said to them, "Whoever wills to come after Me—let him disown himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me;

³⁵ for whoever may will to save his life will lose it; and whoever may lose his life for My sake and for the good news' sake, he will save it;

³⁶ for what will it profit a man, if he may gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?

³⁷ Or what will a man give as an exchange for his life?

³⁸ For whoever may be ashamed of Me, and of My words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He may come in the glory of His Father with the holy messengers.”

¹ And He said to them, “Truly I say to you that there are certain of those standing here, who may not taste of death until they see the Kingdom of God having come in power.”

² And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and John, and brings them up to a high mountain by themselves, alone, and He was transfigured before them,

³ and His garments became glittering, exceedingly white, as snow, so as a launderer on the earth is not able to whiten [them].

⁴ And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

⁵ And Peter answering says to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good to us to be here; and we may make three shelters, for You one, and for Moses one, and for Elijah one”:

⁶ for he was not knowing what he might say, for they were greatly afraid.

⁷ And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the Beloved, hear Him”;

⁸ and suddenly, having looked around, they saw no one anymore, but Jesus only with themselves.

⁹ And as they are coming down from the mountain, He charged them that they may declare to no one the things that they saw, except when the Son of Man may rise out of the dead;

¹⁰ and the thing they kept to themselves, questioning together what the rising out of the dead is.

¹¹ And they were questioning Him, saying that the scribes say that Elijah must come first.

¹² And He answering said to them, “Elijah indeed, having come first, restores all things; and how has it been written concerning the Son of Man, that He may suffer many things, and be set at nothing?”

¹³ But I say to you that also Elijah has come, and they did to him what they willed, as it has been written of him.”

¹⁴ And having come to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning with them,

¹⁵ and immediately, all the multitude having seen Him, were amazed, and running near, were greeting Him.

¹⁶ And He questioned the scribes, “What do you dispute with them?”

¹⁷ And one out of the multitude answering said, “Teacher, I brought my son to You, having a mute spirit;

¹⁸ and wherever it seizes him, it tears him, and he foams, and gnashes his teeth, and pines away; and I spoke to Your disciples that they may cast it out, and they were not able.”

¹⁹ And He answering him, said, “O generation unbelieving, until when will I be with you? Until when will I suffer you? Bring him to Me”;

²⁰ and they brought him to Him, and he having seen Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he, having fallen on the earth, was wallowing—foaming.

21 And He questioned his father, "How much time is it since this came to him?" And he said, "From childhood, 22 and many times it also cast him into fire, and into water, that it might destroy him; but if You are able to do anything, help us, having compassion on us."

23 And Jesus said to him, "If you are able to believe! All things are possible to the one that is believing";

24 and immediately the father of the child, having cried out with tears, said, "I believe, Lord; be helping my unbelief."

25 Jesus having seen that a multitude runs together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "Spirit—mute and deaf—I charge you, come forth out of him, and you may no longer enter into him";

26 and having cried, and convulsed him much, it came forth, and he became as dead, so that many said that he was dead,

27 but Jesus, having taken him by the hand, lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And He having come into the house, His disciples were questioning Him by Himself, "Why were we not able to cast it forth?"

29 And He said to them, "This kind is able to come forth with nothing except with prayer and fasting."

30 And having gone forth there, they were passing through Galilee, and He did not wish that any may know,

31 for He was teaching His disciples, and He said to them, "The Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him, and having been killed, the third day He will rise,"

32 but they were not understanding the saying, and they were afraid to question Him.

33 And He came to Capernaum, and being in the house, He was questioning them, "What were you reasoning in the way among yourselves?"

34 And they were silent, for they reasoned with one another in the way who is greater;

35 and having sat down He called the Twelve, and He says to them, "If any wills to be first, he will be last of all, and minister of all."

36 And having taken a child, He set him in the midst of them, and having taken him in His arms, said to them,

37 "Whoever may receive one of such children in My Name, receives Me, and whoever may receive Me, does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me."

38 And John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw a certain one casting out demons in Your Name, who does not follow us, and we forbade him, because he does not follow us."

39 And Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in My Name, and will be readily able to speak evil of Me:

40 for he who is not against us is for us;

41 for whoever may give you to drink a cup of water in My Name, because you are Christ's, truly I say to you, he may not lose his reward;

42 and whoever may cause to stumble one of the little ones believing in Me, better is it for him if a millstone is hanged around his neck, and he has been cast into the sea.

43 And if your hand may cause you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life maimed, than having the two hands, to go away into Gehenna, into the fire—the unquenchable—

44 [[where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched.]]

45 And if your foot may cause you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than having the two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire—the unquenchable—

46 [[where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched.]]

47 And if your eye may cause you to stumble, cast it out; it is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God one-eyed, than having two eyes, to be cast into the Gehenna of fire—

48 where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched;

49 for everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

50 The salt [is] good, but if the salt may become saltless, in what will you season [it]? Have in yourselves salt, and have peace in one another."

10

1 And having risen from there, He comes to the coasts of Judea, through the other side of the Jordan, and again multitudes come together to Him, and as He had been accustomed, again He was teaching them.

2 And the Pharisees, having come near, questioned Him if it is lawful for a husband to put away a wife, tempting Him,

3 and He answering said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4 And they said, "Moses permitted to write a bill of divorce, and to put away."

5 And Jesus answering said to them, "For the stiffness of your heart he wrote you this command,

6 but from the beginning of the creation God made them a male and a female;

7 on this account will a man leave his father and mother, and will cleave to his wife,

8 and they will be—the two—for one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh;

9 what God therefore joined together, do not let man separate."

10 And in the house His disciples again questioned Him of the same thing,

11 and He says to them, "Whoever may put away his wife, and may marry another, commits adultery against her;

12 and if a woman may put away her husband, and is married to another, she commits adultery."

13 And they were bringing to Him children that He might touch them, and the disciples were rebuking those bringing them,

14 and Jesus having seen, was much displeased, and He said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the Kingdom of God;

15 truly I say to you, whoever may not receive the Kingdom of God as a child—he may not enter into it";

16 and having taken them in His arms, having put [His] hands on them, He was blessing them.

17 And as He is going forth into the way, one having run and having kneeled to Him, was questioning Him, "Good Teacher, what may I do that I may inherit continuous life?"

18 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one [is] good except one—God;

19 you have known the commands: You may not commit adultery, You may not murder, You may not steal, You may not bear false witness, You may not defraud, Honor your father and mother.”

20 And he answering said to Him, “Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth.”

21 And Jesus having looked on him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing you lack: go away, whatever you have—sell, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me, having taken up the cross.”

22 And he—gloomy at the word—went away sorrowing, for he was having many possessions.

23 And Jesus having looked around, says to His disciples, “How hardly will they who have riches enter into the Kingdom of God!”

24 And the disciples were astonished at His words, and Jesus again answering says to them, “Children, how hard it is to those trusting on riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of the needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God.”

26 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying to themselves, “And who is able to be saved?”

27 And Jesus, having looked on them, says, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.”

28 And Peter began to say to Him, “Behold, we left all, and we followed You.”

29 And Jesus answering said, “Truly I say to you, there is no one who left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or fields, for My sake, and for the good news’,

30 who may not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and fields, with persecutions, and in the age that is coming, continuous life;

31 and many first will be last, and the last first.”

32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them, and they were amazed, and following they were afraid. And having again taken the Twelve, He began to tell them the things about to happen to Him:

33 “Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him to the nations,

34 and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him, and the third day He will rise again.”

35 And there come near to Him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying, “Teacher, we wish that whatever we may ask for ourselves, You may do for us”;

36 and He said to them, “What do you wish Me to do for you?”

37 And they said to Him, “Grant to us that, one on Your right hand and one on Your left, we may sit in Your glory”;

38 and Jesus said to them, “You have not known what you ask; are you able to drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the immersion that I am immersed with—to be immersed?”

³⁹ And they said to Him, “We are able”; and Jesus said to them, “Of the cup indeed that I drink of, you will drink, and with the immersion that I am immersed with, you will be immersed;

⁴⁰ but to sit on My right and on My left is not Mine to give, but—to those for whom it has been prepared.”

⁴¹ And the ten having heard, began to be much displeased at James and John,

⁴² but Jesus having called them near, says to them, “You have known that they who are considered to rule the nations exercise lordship over them, and their great ones exercise authority on them;

⁴³ but not so will it be among you; but whoever may will to become great among you, he will be your minister;

⁴⁴ and whoever of you may will to become first, he will be servant of all;

⁴⁵ for even the Son of Man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life [as] a ransom for many.”

⁴⁶ And they come to Jericho, and as He is going forth from Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, a son of Timaeus—Bartimaeus the blind—was sitting beside the way begging,

⁴⁷ and having heard that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and to say, “The Son of David—Jesus! Deal kindly with me”;

⁴⁸ and many were rebuking him that he might keep silent, but the more abundantly he cried out, “Son of David, deal kindly with me.”

⁴⁹ And Jesus having stood, He commanded him to be called, and they call the blind man, saying to him, “Take courage, rise, He calls you”;

⁵⁰ and he, having cast away his garment, having risen, came to Jesus.

⁵¹ And answering, Jesus says to him, “What do you will I may do to you?” And the blind man said to Him, “Rabboni, that I may see again”;

⁵² and Jesus said to him, “Go, your faith has saved you”: and immediately he saw again, and was following Jesus in the way.

¹ And when they come near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, He sends forth two of His disciples,

² and says to them, “Go away into the village that is in front of you, and immediately, entering into it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one of men has sat, having loosed it, bring [it]:

³ and if anyone may say to you, Why do you do this? Say that the LORD has need of it, and immediately He will send it here.”

⁴ And they went away, and found the colt tied at the door outside, by the two ways, and they loose it,

⁵ and certain of those standing there said to them, “What do you—loosing the colt?”

⁶ And they said to them as Jesus commanded, and they permitted them.

⁷ And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on it, and He sat on it,

⁸ and many spread their garments in the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and were strewing in the way.

⁹ And those going before and those following were crying out, saying, “Hosanna! Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD;

¹⁰ blessed is the coming kingdom, in the Name of the LORD, of our father David; Hosanna in the highest!"

¹¹ And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple, and having looked around on all things, it being now evening, He went forth to Bethany with the Twelve.

¹² And on the next day, they having come forth from Bethany, He hungered,

¹⁴ and Jesus answering said to it, "No longer from you—throughout the age—may any eat fruit"; and His disciples were hearing.

¹⁵ And they come to Jerusalem, and Jesus having gone into the temple, began to cast forth those selling and buying in the temple, and He overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those selling the doves,

¹⁶ and He did not permit that any might carry a vessel through the temple,

¹⁷ and He was teaching, saying to them, "Has it not been written: My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations? And you made it a den of robbers!"

¹⁸ And the scribes and the chief priests heard, and they were seeking how they will destroy Him, for they were afraid of Him, because all the multitude was astonished at His teaching;

¹⁹ and when evening came, He was going forth outside the city.

²⁰ And in the morning, passing by, they saw the fig tree having been dried up from the roots,

²¹ and Peter having remembered says to Him, "Rabbi, behold, the fig tree that You cursed is dried up."

²² And Jesus answering says to them, "Have faith from God;

²³ for truly I say to you that whoever may say to this mountain, Be taken up, and be cast into the sea, and may not doubt in his heart, but may believe that the things that he says come to pass, it will be to him whatever he may say.

²⁴ Because of this I say to you, all whatever—praying—you ask, believe that you receive, and it will be to you.

²⁵ And whenever you may stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, that your Father who is in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses;

²⁶ [[and, if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]]

²⁷ And they come again to Jerusalem, and in the temple, as He is walking, there come to Him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

²⁸ and they say to Him, "By what authority do You do these things? And who gave You this authority that You may do these things?"

²⁹ And Jesus answering said to them, "I will question you—I also—one word; and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things;

³⁰ the immersion of John—was it from Heaven or from men? Answer Me."

³¹ And they were reasoning with themselves, saying, "If we may say, From Heaven, He will say, Why then did you not believe him?"

³² But if we may say, From men..." They were fearing the people, for all were holding that John was indeed a prophet;

³³ and answering they say to Jesus, "We have not known"; and Jesus answering says to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

¹ And He began to speak to them in allegories: "A man planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around, and dug a wine vat, and built a tower, and gave it out to farmers, and went abroad;

² and he sent to the farmers at the due time a servant, that from the farmers he may receive from the fruit of the vineyard,

³ and they, having taken him, severely beat [him], and sent him away empty.

⁴ And again he sent to them another servant, and having cast stones at that one, they wounded [him] in the head, and sent [him] away—dishonored.

⁵ And again he sent another, and that one they killed; and many others, some beating, and some killing.

⁶ Having yet therefore one son—his beloved—he also sent him to them last, saying, They will respect my son;

⁷ and those farmers said among themselves, This is the heir, come, we may kill him, and the inheritance will be ours;

⁸ and having taken him, they killed, and cast [him] forth outside the vineyard.

⁹ What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.

¹⁰ And this Writing you did not read: A stone that the builders rejected, it became the head of a corner;

¹¹ this was from the LORD, and it is wonderful in our eyes."

¹² And they were seeking to lay hold on Him, and they feared the multitude, for they knew that He spoke the allegory against them, and having left Him, they went away;

¹³ and they send to Him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they may ensnare Him in discourse,

¹⁴ and they having come, say to Him, "Teacher, we have known that You are true, and You are not caring for anyone, for You do not look to the face of men, but in truth teach the way of God; is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? May we give, or may we not give?"

¹⁵ And He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you tempt Me? Bring Me a denarius, that I may see";

¹⁶ and they brought, and He says to them, "Whose [is] this image, and the inscription?" And they said to Him, "Caesar's";

¹⁷ and Jesus answering said to them, "Give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God"; and they wondered at Him.

¹⁸ And the Sadducees come to Him, who say there is not a resurrection, and they questioned Him, saying, ¹⁹ "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if anyone's brother may die, and may leave a wife, and may leave no children, that his brother may take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.

²⁰ There were then seven brothers, and the first took a wife, and dying, he left no seed;

²¹ and the second took her, and died, not having left seed, and the third in like manner,

²² and the seven took her, and left no seed, last of all the woman also died;

²³ in the resurrection, then, whenever they may rise, of which of them will she be wife—for the seven had her as wife?"

²⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, "Do you not go astray because of this, not knowing the Writings, nor the power of God?"

²⁵ For when they may rise out of the dead, they neither marry nor are they given in marriage, but are as messengers who are in the heavens.

²⁶ And concerning the dead, that they rise: have you not read in the Scroll of Moses (at the bush), how God spoke to him, saying, I [am] the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;

²⁷ He is not the God of dead men, but a God of living men; you then go greatly astray."

²⁸ And one of the scribes having come near, having heard them disputing, knowing that He answered them well, questioned Him, "Which is the first command of all?"

²⁹ And Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commands—Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD is one;

³⁰ and you will love the LORD your God out of all your heart, and out of all your soul, and out of all your understanding, and out of all your strength—this [is] the first command;

³¹ and the second [is] like [it], this, You will love your neighbor as yourself—there is no other command greater than these."

³² And the scribe said to Him, "Well, Teacher, in truth You have spoken that there is one God, and there is none other but He;

³³ and to love Him out of all the heart, and out of all the understanding, and out of all the soul, and out of all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as one's self, is more than all the whole burnt-offerings and the sacrifices."

³⁴ And Jesus, having seen him that he answered with understanding, said to him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God"; and no one dared question Him anymore.

³⁵ And Jesus answering said, teaching in the temple, "How do the scribes say that the Christ is son of David?"

³⁶ For David himself said in the Holy Spirit, The LORD said to my Lord, || Sit on My right hand, || Until I place Your enemies—Your footstool;

³⁷ therefore David himself calls Him Lord, and from where is He his son?" And the great multitude were hearing Him gladly,

³⁸ and He was saying to them in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes who will to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

³⁹ and first seats in the synagogues, and first couches at the banquets,

⁴⁰ who are devouring the widows' houses, and for a pretense are making long prayers; these will receive more abundant judgment."

⁴¹ And Jesus having sat down opposite the treasury, was beholding how the multitude puts brass into the treasury, and many rich were putting in much,

⁴² and having come, a poor widow put in two mites, which are a penny.

⁴³ And having called near His disciples, He says to them, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all those putting into the treasury;

⁴⁴ for all, out of their abundance, put in, but she, out of her want, put in all that she had—all her living."

¹ And as He is going forth out of the temple, one of His disciples says to Him, "Teacher, see! What stones! And what buildings!"

² And Jesus answering said to him, "See these great buildings? There may not be left a stone on a stone that may not be thrown down."

³ And as He is sitting at the Mount of Olives, opposite the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, were questioning Him by Himself,

⁴ "Tell us when these things will be? And what [is] the sign when all these may be about to be fulfilled?"

⁵ And Jesus answering them, began to say, "Take heed lest anyone may lead you astray,

⁶ for many will come in My Name, saying, I am [He], and many they will lead astray;

⁷ and when you may hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be troubled, for these ought to be, but the end [is] not yet;

⁸ for nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles; these [are the] beginning of travails.

⁹ And take heed to yourselves, for they will deliver you up to Sanhedrins, and to synagogues, you will be beaten, and before governors and kings you will be set for My sake, for a testimony to them;

¹⁰ and to all the nations it is first necessary that the good news be proclaimed.

¹¹ And when they may lead you, delivering up, do not be anxious beforehand what you may speak, nor premeditate, but whatever may be given to you in that hour, that speak, for it is not you who are speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

¹² And brother will deliver up brother to death, and father child, and children will rise up against parents, and will put them to death,

¹³ and you will be hated by all because of My Name, but he who has endured to the end—he will be saved.

¹⁴ And when you may see the abomination of the desolation, that was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it should not (whoever is reading let him understand), then those in Judea, let them flee to the mountains;

¹⁵ and he on the housetop, do not let him come down into the house, nor come in to take anything out of his house;

¹⁶ and he who is in the field, do not let him turn to the things behind, to take up his garment.

¹⁷ And woe to those with child, and to those giving suck, in those days;

18 and pray that your flight may not be in winter;

19 for those days will be tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created, until now, and may not be [again];

20 and if the LORD did not shorten the days, no flesh had been saved; but because of the chosen, whom He chose to Himself, He shortened the days.

21 And then, if any may say to you, Behold, here [is] the Christ, or, Behold, there, you may not believe;

22 for there will rise false Christs and false prophets, and they will give signs and wonders, to seduce, if possible, also the chosen;

23 and you, take heed; behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light,

25 and the stars of the sky will be falling, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

26 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with much power and glory,

27 and then He will send His messengers, and gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of heaven.

28 And from the fig tree learn the allegory: when the branch may already become tender, and may put forth the leaves, you know that the summer is near;

29 so you, also, when you may see these coming to pass, you know that it is near, at the doors.

30 Truly I say to you that this generation may not pass away until all these things may come to pass;

31 the heaven and the earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

32 And concerning that day and the hour no one has known—not even the messengers who are in Heaven, not even the Son—except the Father.

33 Take heed, watch and pray, for you have not known when the time is;

34 as a man who is gone abroad, having left his house, and given to his servants the authority, and to each one his work, also commanded the doorkeeper that he may watch;

35 watch, therefore, for you have not known when the lord of the house comes, at evening, or at midnight, or at rooster-crowing, or at the morning;

36 lest, having come suddenly, he may find you sleeping;

37 and what I say to you, I say to all, Watch!"

14

1 And the Passover and the Unleavened [Bread] were after two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, by guile, having taken hold of Him, they might kill Him;

2 and they said, "Not in the celebration, lest there will be a tumult of the people."

3 And He, being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, at His reclining, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment, of spikenard, very precious, and having broken the alabaster box, poured [it] on His head;

⁴ and there were certain much displeased within themselves, and saying, "For what has this waste of the ointment been made?

⁵ For this could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor"; and they were murmuring at her.

⁶ And Jesus said, "Leave her alone; why are you giving her trouble? She worked a good work on Me;

⁷ for you always have the poor with you, and whenever you may will you are able to do them good, but you do not always have Me;

⁸ she did what she could, she anticipated to anoint My body for the embalming.

⁹ Truly I say to you, wherever this good news may be proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman did will also be spoken of—for a memorial of her."

¹⁰ And Judas the Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests that he might deliver Him up to them,

¹¹ and having heard, they were glad, and promised to give him money, and he was seeking how, conveniently, he might deliver Him up.

¹² And the first day of the Unleavened [Bread], when they were killing the Passover, His disciples say to Him, "Where will You, [that] having gone, we may prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"

¹³ And He sends forth two of His disciples and says to them, "Go away into the city, and there a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you, follow him;

¹⁴ and wherever he may go in, say to the master of the house: The Teacher says, Where is the guest-chamber, where the Passover, with My disciples, I may eat?

¹⁵ And he will show you a large upper room, furnished, prepared—make ready for us there."

¹⁶ And His disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as He said to them, and they made ready the Passover.

¹⁷ And evening having come, He comes with the Twelve,

¹⁸ and as they are reclining, and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you who is eating with Me will deliver Me up."

¹⁹ And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another, "Is it I?"

²⁰ And He answering said to them, "One of the Twelve who is dipping with Me in the dish;

²¹ the Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is delivered up; it were good to him if that man had not been born."

²² And as they are eating, Jesus having taken bread, having blessed, broke, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

²³ And having taken the cup, having given thanks, He gave to them, and they drank of it—all;

²⁴ and He said to them, "This is My blood of the New Covenant, which is being poured out for many;

²⁵ truly I say to you that I may drink no more of the produce of the vine until that day when I may drink it new in the Kingdom of God."

²⁶ And having sung a hymn, they went forth to the Mount of Olives,

²⁷ and Jesus says to them, "All of you will be stumbled at Me this night, because it has been written: I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered abroad;

²⁸ but after My having risen I will go before you to Galilee."

²⁹ And Peter said to Him, "And if all will be stumbled, yet not I."

³⁰ And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that today, this night, before a rooster will crow twice, three times you will deny Me."

³¹ And he spoke the more vehemently, "If it may be necessary for me to die with You—I will in no way deny You"; and in like manner also said they all.

³² And they come to a spot, the name of which [is] Gethsemane, and He says to His disciples, "Sit here until I may pray";

³³ and He takes Peter, and James, and John with Him, and began to be amazed, and to be very heavy,

³⁴ and He says to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful—to death; remain here, and watch."

³⁵ And having gone forward a little, He fell on the earth, and was praying that, if it be possible, the hour may pass from Him,

³⁶ and He said, "Abba, Father; all things are possible to You; make this cup pass from Me; but not what I will, but what You [will]."

³⁷ And He comes, and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, "Simon, you sleep! You were not able to watch one hour!

³⁸ Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is forward, but the flesh weak."

³⁹ And again having gone away, He prayed, saying the same word;

⁴⁰ and having returned, He found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy, and they had not known what they might answer Him.

⁴¹ And He comes the third time and says to them, "Sleep on from now on, and rest—it is over; the hour came; behold, the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of the sinful;

⁴² rise, we may go, behold, he who is delivering Me up has come near."

⁴³ And immediately—while He is yet speaking—Judas comes near, one of the Twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and sticks, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders;

⁴⁴ and he who is delivering Him up had given a token to them, saying, "Whomsoever I will kiss, it is He, lay hold on Him, and lead Him away safely,"

⁴⁵ and having come, immediately, having gone near Him, he says, "Rabbi, Rabbi," and kissed Him.

⁴⁶ And they laid on Him their hands, and kept hold on Him;

⁴⁷ and a certain one of those standing by, having drawn the sword, struck the servant of the chief priest, and took off his ear.

⁴⁸ And Jesus answering said to them, "As against a robber you came out, with swords and sticks, to take Me!

⁴⁹ Daily I was with you teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me—but that the Writings may be fulfilled."

⁵⁰ And having left Him they all fled;

⁵¹ and a certain young man was following Him, having cast a linen cloth on [his] naked [body], and the young men lay hold on him,

⁵² and he, having left the linen cloth, fled from them naked.

⁵³ And they led Jesus away to the chief priest, and all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes come together;

⁵⁴ and Peter followed Him far off, to the inside of the hall of the chief priest, and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself near the fire.

⁵⁵ And the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus—to put Him to death, and they were not finding,

⁵⁶ for many were bearing false testimony against Him, and their testimonies were not alike.

⁵⁷ And certain having risen up, were bearing false testimony against Him, saying,

⁵⁸ “We heard Him saying, I will throw down this temple made with hands, and by three days, I will build another made without hands”;

⁵⁹ and neither so was their testimony alike.

⁶⁰ And the chief priest, having risen up in the midst, questioned Jesus, saying, “You do not answer anything! Why do these testify against You?”

⁶¹ And He was keeping silent and did not answer anything. Again the chief priest was questioning Him and says to Him, “Are You the Christ—the Son of the Blessed?”

⁶² And Jesus said, “I AM; and you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of Heaven.”

⁶³ And the chief priest, having torn his garments, says, “What need have we yet of witnesses?”

⁶⁴ You heard the slander, what appears to you?” And they all condemned Him to be worthy of death, ⁶⁵ and certain began to spit on Him, and to cover His face, and to punch Him, and to say to Him, “Prophecy”; and the officers were striking Him with their palms.

⁶⁶ And Peter being in the hall beneath, there comes one of the maids of the chief priest,

⁶⁷ and having seen Peter warming himself, having looked on him, she said, “And you were with Jesus of Nazareth!”

⁶⁸ And he denied, saying, “I have not known [Him], neither do I understand what you say”; and he went forth outside to the porch, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ And the maid having seen him again, began to say to those standing near, “This is of them”;

⁷⁰ and he was again denying. And after a while again, those standing near said to Peter, “Truly you are of them, for you also are a Galilean, and your speech is alike”;

⁷¹ and he began to curse, and to swear, “I have not known this Man of whom you speak”;

⁷² and a second time a rooster crowed, and Peter remembered the saying that Jesus said to him, “Before a rooster crows twice, you may deny Me three times”; and having thought thereon—he was weeping.

¹ And immediately, in the morning, the chief priests having made a consultation with the elders, and scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led [Him] away, and delivered [Him] to Pilate;

2 and Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He answering said to him, "You say [it]."

3 And the chief priests were accusing Him of many things, [but He answered nothing.]

4 And Pilate again questioned Him, saying, "You do not answer anything? Behold, how many things they testify against You!"

5 And Jesus no longer answered anything, so that Pilate wondered.

6 And at every celebration he was releasing to them one prisoner, whomsoever they were asking for;

7 and there was [one] named Barabbas, bound with those making insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude having cried out, began to ask for themselves as he was always doing to them,

9 and Pilate answered them, saying, "Will you [that] I will release to you the King of the Jews?"

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up because of envy;

11 and the chief priests moved the multitude that he might rather release Barabbas to them.

12 And Pilate answering, again said to them, "What, then, will you [that] I will do to Him whom you call King of the Jews?"

13 And they again cried out, "Crucify Him!"

14 And Pilate said to them, "Why—what evil did He do?" And they cried out the more vehemently, "Crucify Him!"

15 And Pilate, resolving to do that which [was] satisfactory to the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and delivered up Jesus—having scourged [Him]—that He might be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, which is [the] Praetorium, and call together the whole band,

17 and clothe Him with purple, and having plaited a garland of thorns, they put [it] on Him,

18 and began to greet Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 And they were striking Him on the head with a reed, and were spitting on Him, and having bent the knee, were prostrating to Him,

20 and when they [had] mocked Him, they took the purple from off Him, and clothed Him in His own garments, and they led Him forth, that they may crucify Him.

21 And they impress a certain one passing by—Simon, a Cyrenian, coming from the field, the father of Alexander and Rufus—that he may carry His cross,

22 and they bring Him to the place [called] Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "Place of [the] Skull";

23 and they were giving Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, and He did not receive [it].

24 And having crucified Him, they were dividing His garments, casting a lot on them, what each may take;

25 and it was the third hour, and they crucified Him;

26 and the inscription of His accusation was written above: "THE KING OF THE JEWS."

²⁷ And they crucify two robbers with Him, one on the right hand and one on His left,

²⁸ [[and the Writing was fulfilled that is saying, "And He was numbered with lawless ones."]]

²⁹ And those passing by were slandering Him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Ha! The [One] throwing down the temple, and building [it] in three days!

³⁰ Save Yourself, and come down from the cross!"

³¹ And in like manner also the chief priests, mocking with one another, with the scribes, said, "He saved others; He is not able to save Himself.

³² The Christ! The King of Israel—let Him come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe"; and those crucified with Him were reproaching Him.

³³ And the sixth hour having come, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour;

³⁴ and at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a great voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabachthani?" Which is, being interpreted, "My God, My God, why did You forsake Me?"

³⁵ And certain of those standing by, having heard, said, "Behold, He calls Elijah";

³⁶ and one having run, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, having also put [it] on a reed, was giving Him to drink, saying, "Let alone, let us see if Elijah comes to take Him down."

³⁷ And Jesus having uttered a loud cry, yielded the spirit,

³⁸ and the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom,

³⁹ and the centurion who was standing opposite Him, having seen that, having so cried out, He yielded the spirit, said, "Truly this Man was [the] Son of God."

⁴⁰ And there were also women beholding far off, among whom was also Mary the Magdalene, and Mary of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome, ⁴¹ who also, when He was in Galilee, were following Him and were ministering to Him, and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

⁴² And now evening having come, seeing it was the Preparation, that is, before Sabbath, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counselor, who also himself was waiting for the Kingdom of God, came, boldly entered in to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁴⁴ And Pilate wondered if He were already dead, and having called near the centurion, questioned him if He were long dead,

⁴⁵ and having known [it] from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

⁴⁶ And he, having brought fine linen, and having taken Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb that had been hewn out of a rock, and he rolled a stone to the door of the tomb,

⁴⁷ and Mary the Magdalene, and Mary of Joses, were beholding where He is laid.

16

¹ And the Sabbath having past, Mary the Magdalene, and Mary of James, and Salome, bought spices, that having come, they may anoint Him,

² and early in the morning of the first [day] of the weeks, they come to the tomb, at the rising of the sun,

³ and they said among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone out of the door of the tomb for us?"

⁴ And having looked, they see that the stone has been rolled away—for it was very great,

⁵ and having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right hand, clothed in a long white robe, and they were amazed.

⁶ And he says to them, "Do not be amazed, you seek Jesus the Nazarene, the crucified [One]: He rose—He is not here; behold the place where they laid Him!

⁷ And go, say to His disciples and Peter that He goes before you to Galilee; there you will see Him, as He said to you."

⁸ And having come forth quickly, they fled from the tomb, and trembling and amazement had seized them, and they said to no one anything, for they were afraid. **[[

⁹ And He, having risen in the morning of the first of the week, appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons;

¹⁰ she having gone, told those who had been with Him, mourning and weeping;

¹¹ and they, having heard that He is alive, and was seen by her, did not believe.

¹² And after these things, to two of them, as they are going into a field, walking, He appeared in another form,

¹³ and they having gone, told [it] to the rest; not even them did they believe.

¹⁴ Afterward, as they are reclining, He appeared to the Eleven, and reproached their unbelief and stiffness of heart, because they did not believe those having seen Him being raised;

¹⁵ and He said to them, "Having gone into all the world, proclaim the good news to all the creation;

¹⁶ he who has believed and has been immersed will be saved; and he who has not believed will be condemned.

¹⁷ And signs will accompany those believing these things: they will cast out demons in My Name; they will speak with new tongues;

¹⁸ they will take up serpents; and if they may drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the ailing, and they will be well."

¹⁹ The LORD, then, indeed, after speaking to them, was received up to Heaven, and sat on the right hand of God;

²⁰ and they, having gone forth, preached everywhere, the LORD working with [them], and confirming the word, through the signs following. Amen.]]

Luke

¹ Seeing that many took in hand to set in order a narration of the matters that have been fully assured among us,

² as they delivered to us, who from the beginning became eyewitnesses, and officers of the word,

³ it seemed good also to me, having followed from the first after all things exactly, to write to you in order, most noble Theophilus,

⁴ that you may know the certainty of the things wherein you were instructed.

⁵ There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest, by name Zacharias, of the division of Abijah, and his wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name Elizabeth;

⁶ and they were both righteous before God, going on in all the commands and righteousnesses of the LORD blameless,

⁷ and they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in their days.

⁸ And it came to pass, in his acting as priest, in the order of his division before God,

⁹ according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot was to make incense, having gone into the temple of the LORD,

¹⁰ and all the multitude of the people were praying outside, at the hour of the incense.

¹¹ And there appeared to him a messenger of the LORD standing on the right side of the altar of the incense,

¹² and Zacharias, having seen, was troubled, and fear fell on him;

¹³ and the messenger said to him, "Do not fear, Zacharias, for your supplication was heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear a son to you, and you will call his name John,

¹⁴ and there will be joy to you, and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth,

¹⁵ for he will be great before the LORD, and wine and strong drink he may not drink, and he will be full of the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb;

¹⁶ and he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the LORD their God,

¹⁷ and he will go before Him, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn hearts of fathers to children, and disobedient ones to the wisdom of righteous ones, to make ready for the LORD, a people prepared."

¹⁸ And Zacharias said to the messenger, "Whereby will I know this? For I am aged, and my wife is advanced in her days?"

¹⁹ And the messenger answering said to him, "I am Gabriel, who has been standing near before God, and I was sent to speak to you, and to proclaim this good news to you,

²⁰ and behold, you will be silent, and not able to speak, until the day that these things will come to pass, because you did not believe my words that will be fulfilled in their season."

²¹ And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and wondering at his lingering in the temple,

²² and having come out, he was not able to speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, and he was beckoning to them, and remained mute.

²³ And it came to pass, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he went away to his house,

²⁴ and after those days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

²⁵ "Thus the LORD has done to me, in days in which He looked on [me], to take away my reproach among men."

²⁶ And in the sixth month the messenger Gabriel was sent by God, to a city of Galilee, the name of which [is] Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin, betrothed to a man, whose name [is] Joseph, of the house of David, and the name of the virgin [is] Mary.

²⁸ And the messenger having come in to her, said, "Greetings, favored one, the LORD [is] with you; blessed [are] you among women";

²⁹ and she, having seen, was troubled at his word, and was reasoning of what kind this salutation may be.

³⁰ And the messenger said to her, "Do not fear, Mary, for you have found favor with God;

³¹ and behold, you will conceive in the womb, and will bring forth a Son, and call His Name Jesus;

³² He will be great, and He will be called Son of the Highest, and the LORD God will give Him the throne of His father David,

³³ and He will reign over the house of Jacob for all ages; and of His kingdom there will be no end."

³⁴ And Mary said to the messenger, "How will this be, seeing I do not know a husband?"

³⁵ And the messenger answering said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you, therefore also the holy-begotten thing will be called Son of God;

³⁶ and behold, Elizabeth, your relative, she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month to her who was called barren;

³⁷ because nothing will be impossible with God."

³⁸ And Mary said, "Behold, the maidservant of the LORD; let it be to me according to your saying," and the messenger went away from her.

³⁹ And Mary having arisen in those days, went into the hill-country, with haste, to a city of Judea, ⁴⁰ and entered into the house of Zacharias, and greeted Elizabeth.

⁴¹ And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the baby leapt in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit,

⁴² and spoke out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed [are] you among women, and blessed [is] the Fruit of your womb;

⁴³ and from where [is] this to me, that the mother of my Lord might come to me?

⁴⁴ For behold, when the voice of your salutation came to my ears, the baby in my womb leapt in gladness;

⁴⁵ and blessed [is] she who believed, for there will be a completion to the things spoken to her from the LORD."

⁴⁶ And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the LORD,

⁴⁷ And my spirit was glad on God my Savior,

⁴⁸ Because He looked on the lowliness of His maidservant, || For behold, from now on all the generations will call me blessed,

⁴⁹ For He who is mighty did great things to me, || And holy [is] His Name,

⁵⁰ And His kindness [is] to generations of generations, || To those fearing Him;

⁵¹ He did powerfully with His arm, || He scattered abroad the proud in the thought of their heart,

⁵² He brought down the mighty from thrones, || And He exalted the lowly,

⁵³ He filled the hungry with good, || And the rich He sent away empty;

⁵⁴ He has taken hold of His servant Israel, || To remember kindness,

⁵⁵ As He spoke to our fathers, || To Abraham and to his seed—throughout the age.”

⁵⁶ And Mary remained with her about three months, and turned back to her house.

⁵⁷ And to Elizabeth was the time fulfilled for her bringing forth, and she bore a son, ⁵⁸ and the neighbors and her relatives heard that the LORD was making His kindness great with her, and they were rejoicing with her.

⁵⁹ And it came to pass, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were calling him by the name of his father, Zacharias,

⁶⁰ and his mother answering said, “No, but he will be called John.”

⁶¹ And they said to her, “There is none among your relatives who is called by this name,”

⁶² and they were making signs to his father, what he would wish him to be called,

⁶³ and having asked for a tablet, he wrote, saying, “John is his name”; and they all wondered;

⁶⁴ and his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue, and he was speaking, praising God.

⁶⁵ And fear came on all those dwelling around them, and in all the hill-country of Judea were all these sayings spoken of, ⁶⁶ and all who heard laid them up in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child be?” And the hand of the LORD was with him.

⁶⁷ And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸ “Blessed [is] the LORD, the God of Israel, || Because He looked on, || And worked redemption for His people,

⁶⁹ And raised a horn of salvation to us, || In the house of His servant David,

⁷⁰ As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets, || Which have been from the age;

⁷¹ Salvation from our enemies, || And out of the hand of all hating us,

⁷² To do kindness with our fathers, || And to be mindful of His holy covenant,

⁷³ An oath that He swore to Abraham our father,

⁷⁴ To give to us, without fear, || Having been delivered out of the hand of our enemies,

⁷⁵ To serve Him, in holiness and righteousness || Before Him, all the days of our life.

⁷⁶ And you, child, || Prophet of the Highest will you be called; For you will go before the face of the LORD, || To prepare His ways.

⁷⁷ To give knowledge of salvation to His people || In forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸ Through the yearnings of our God, || In which the rising from on high looked on us,

⁷⁹ To give light to those sitting in darkness and death-shade, || To guide our feet to a way of peace.”

⁸⁰ And the child grew, and was strengthened in spirit, and he was in the deserts until the day of his showing to Israel.

¹ And it came to pass in those days, there went forth a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world be registered—

² this census first came to pass when Quirinius was governor of Syria—

³ and all were going to be registered, each to his proper city,

⁴ and Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, that is called Beth-Lehem, because of his being of the house and family of David,

⁵ to register himself with Mary his betrothed wife, being with Child.

⁶ And it came to pass, in their being there, the days were fulfilled for her bringing forth,

⁷ and she brought forth her Son—the firstborn, and wrapped Him up, and laid Him down in the manger, because there was not a place for them in the guest-chamber.

⁸ And there were shepherds in the same region, lodging in the field and keeping the night-watches over their flock,

⁹ and behold, a messenger of the LORD stood over them, and the glory of the LORD shone around them, and they feared [with] a great fear.

¹⁰ And the messenger said to them, “Do not fear; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be to all the people,

¹¹ because today in the city of David a Savior was born to you, who is Christ the LORD!

¹² And this [is] the sign to you: you will find a Baby wrapped up, lying in the manger.”

¹³ And suddenly there came with the messenger a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

¹⁴ “Glory in the highest to God, and on earth peace, among men—good will!”

¹⁶ And they came, having hurried, and found both Mary, and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger,

¹⁷ and having seen, they made known abroad concerning the saying spoken to them concerning the Child.

¹⁸ And all who heard [it] wondered concerning the things spoken to them by the shepherds;

¹⁹ and Mary was preserving all these things, pondering [them] in her heart;

²⁰ and the shepherds turned back, glorifying and praising God for all those things they heard and saw, as it was spoken to them.

²¹ And when eight days were fulfilled to circumcise the Child, then was His Name called Jesus, having been so called by the messenger before His being conceived in the womb.

²² And when the days of their purification were fulfilled, according to the Law of Moses, they brought Him up to Jerusalem, to present to the LORD,

²³ as it has been written in the Law of the LORD: "Every male opening a womb will be called holy to the LORD,"

²⁴ and to give a sacrifice, according to that said in the Law of the LORD: "A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons."

²⁵ And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name [is] Simeon, and this man is righteous and devout, looking for the comforting of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him,

²⁶ and it has been divinely told him by the Holy Spirit—not to see death before he may see the Christ of the LORD.

²⁷ And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and in the parents bringing in the child Jesus, for their doing according to the custom of the Law regarding Him,

²⁸ then he took Him in his arms, and blessed God, and he said,

²⁹ "Now You send Your servant away, O LORD, according to Your word, in peace,

³⁰ because my eyes saw Your salvation,

³¹ which You prepared before the face of all the peoples,

³² a light to the uncovering of nations, and the glory of Your people Israel."

³³ And Joseph and His mother were wondering at the things spoken concerning Him,

³⁴ and Simeon blessed them and said to His mother Mary, "Behold, this [One] is set for the falling and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against—

³⁵ (and also a sword will pass through your own soul)—that the reasonings of many hearts may be revealed."

³⁶ And there was Anna, a prophetess, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, she was much advanced in days, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity,

³⁷ and she [is] a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, serving with fasts and supplications, night and day,

³⁸ and she, at that hour, having come in, was confessing, likewise, to the LORD, and was speaking concerning Him to all those looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

³⁹ And when they completed all things according to the Law of the LORD, they turned back to Galilee, to their city of Nazareth;

⁴⁰ and the Child grew and was strengthened in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on Him.

⁴¹ And His parents were going yearly to Jerusalem, at the Celebration of the Passover,

⁴² and when He became twelve years old, they having gone up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the celebration,

⁴³ and having finished the days, in their returning the child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and His mother did not know,

⁴⁴ and having supposed Him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and were seeking Him among the relatives and among the acquaintances,

⁴⁵ and having not found Him, they turned back to Jerusalem seeking Him.

⁴⁶ And it came to pass, after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them and questioning them,

⁴⁷ and all those hearing Him were astonished at His understanding and answers.

⁴⁸ And having seen Him, they were amazed, and His mother said to Him, "Child, why did You do this to us? Behold, Your father and I, sorrowing, were seeking You."

⁴⁹ And He said to them, "Why [is it] that you were seeking Me? Did you not know that it is necessary for Me to be in the things of My Father?"

⁵⁰ And they did not understand the saying that He spoke to them,

⁵¹ and He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and He was subject to them, and His mother was keeping all these sayings in her heart,

⁵² and Jesus was advancing in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and men.

² [and] Annas and Caiaphas being chief priests—there came a word of God to John the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness,

³ and he came to all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming an immersion of conversion for forgiveness of sins,

⁴ as it has been written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, || Make His paths straight;

⁵ Every valley will be filled, || And every mountain and hill will be made low, || And the crooked will become straightness, || And the rough become smooth ways;

⁶ And all flesh will see the salvation of God."

⁷ Then he said to the multitudes coming forth to be immersed by him, "Brood of vipers! Who prompted you to flee from the coming wrath?"

⁸ Make, therefore, fruits worthy of conversion, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have a father—Abraham; for I say to you that God is able to raise children to Abraham out of these stones;

⁹ and also the axe is already laid to the root of the trees, every tree, therefore, not making good fruit is cut down, and it is cast into fire."

¹⁰ And the multitudes were questioning him, saying, "What, then, will we do?"

¹¹ And he answering says to them, "He having two coats, let him impart to him having none; and he having food, let him do in like manner."

12 And there also came tax collectors to be immersed, and they said to him, "Teacher, what will we do?"

13 And he said to them, "Exact no more than that directed you."

14 And also questioning him were those warring, saying, "And we, what will we do?" And he said to them, "Do violence to no one, nor accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."

15 And the people are looking forward, and all are reasoning in their hearts concerning John, whether or not he may be the Christ;

16 John answered, saying to all, "I indeed immerse you in water, but He comes who is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to loose the strap of His sandals—He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire;

17 whose winnowing shovel [is] in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His floor, and will gather the wheat into His storehouse, and He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 And therefore, indeed, with many other things, exhorting, he was proclaiming good news to the people,

19 and Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, and concerning all the evils that Herod did,

20 added also this to all, that he shut up John in the prison.

21 And it came to pass, in all the people being immersed, Jesus also being immersed, and praying, Heaven was opened,

22 and the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily appearance, as if a dove, on Him, and a voice came out of Heaven, saying, "You are My Son, the Beloved, in You I delighted."

23 And Jesus Himself was beginning to be about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, Son of Joseph,

24 the [son] of Eli, the [son] of Matthat, the [son] of Levi, the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Janna, the [son] of Joseph,

25 the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Amos, the [son] of Nahum, the [son] of Esli,

26 the [son] of Naggai, the [son] of Maath, the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Semei, the [son] of Joseph, the [son] of Judah,

27 the [son] of Joanna, the [son] of Rhesa, the [son] of Zerubbabel, the [son] of Shealtiel,

28 the [son] of Neri, the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Addi, the [son] of Cosam, the [son] of Elmodam, the [son] of Er,

29 the [son] of Jose, the [son] of Eliezer, the [son] of Jorim, the [son] of Matthat,

30 the [son] of Levi, the [son] of Simeon, the [son] of Judah, the [son] of Joseph, the [son] of Jonan, the [son] of Eliakim,

31 the [son] of Melea, the [son] of Mainan, the [son] of Mattatha, the [son] of Nathan,

32 the [son] of David, the [son] of Jesse, the [son] of Obed, the [son] of Boaz, the [son] of Salmon, the [son] of Nahshon,

33 the [son] of Amminadab, the [son] of Aram, the [son] of Esrom, the [son] of Perez,

34 the [son] of Judah, the [son] of Jacob, the [son] of Isaac, the [son] of Abraham, the [son] of Terah, the [son] of Nahor,

35 the [son] of Serug, the [son] of Reu, the [son] of Peleg, the [son] of Eber,

36 the [son] of Salah, the [son] of Cainan, the [son] of Arphaxad, the [son] of Shem, the [son] of Noah, the [son] of Lamech,

³⁷ the [son] of Methuselah, the [son] of Enoch, the [son] of Jared, the [son] of Mahalaleel, ³⁸ the [son] of Cainan, the [son] of Enos, the [son] of Seth, the [son] of Adam, the [son] of God.

¹ And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, turned back from the Jordan, and was brought in the Spirit into the wilderness,

² being tempted by the Devil forty days, and He did not eat anything in those days, and they having been ended, He afterward hungered,

³ and the Devil said to Him, "If You are [the] Son of God, speak to this stone that it may become bread."

⁴ And Jesus answered him, saying, "It has been written, that, Not on bread only will man live, but on every saying of God."

⁵ And the Devil having brought Him up to a high mountain, showed to Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time,

⁶ and the Devil said to Him, "To You I will give all this authority, and their glory, because to me it has been delivered, and to whomsoever I will, I give it;

⁷ You, then, if You may worship me—all will be Yours."

⁸ And Jesus answering him said, "[[Get behind Me, Satan, for]] it has been written: You will worship the LORD your God, and Him only you will serve."

⁹ And he brought Him to Jerusalem, and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, cast Yourself down from here,

¹⁰ for it has been written: To His messengers He will give charge concerning you, to guard over you;

¹¹ and: On hands they will bear you up, lest at any time you may dash your foot against a stone."

¹² And Jesus answering said to him, "It has been said, You will not tempt the LORD your God."

¹³ And having ended all temptation, the Devil departed from Him until a convenient season.

¹⁴ And Jesus turned back in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a fame went forth through all the surrounding region concerning Him,

¹⁵ and He was teaching in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

¹⁶ And He came to Nazareth, where He has been brought up, and He went in, according to His custom, on the day of the Sabbaths, into the synagogue, and stood up to read;

¹⁷ and there was given over to Him a scroll of Isaiah the prophet, and having unfolded the scroll, He found the place where it has been written:

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the LORD [is] on Me, | | Because He anointed Me | | To proclaim good news to the poor, | | Sent Me to heal the broken of heart, | | To proclaim to captives deliverance, | | And to blind receiving of sight, | | To send the bruised away with deliverance,

¹⁹ To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."

²⁰ And having folded the scroll, having given [it] back to the officer, He sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue were gazing on Him.

²¹ And He began to say to them, "Today this writing has been fulfilled in your ears";

²² and all were bearing testimony to Him, and were wondering at the gracious words that are coming forth out of His mouth, and they said, "Is this not the Son of Joseph?"

²³ And He said to them, "Certainly you will say to Me this allegory, Physician, heal yourself; as great things as we heard done in Capernaum, do also here in Your country";

²⁴ and He said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country;

²⁵ and of a truth I say to you, many widows were in the days of Elijah, in Israel, when the sky was shut for three years and six months, when great famine came on all the land,

²⁶ and to none of them was Elijah sent, but—to Sarepta of Sidon, to a woman, a widow;

²⁷ and many lepers were in the time of Elisha the prophet, in Israel, and none of them was cleansed, but—Naaman the Syrian."

²⁸ And all in the synagogue were filled with wrath, hearing these things,

²⁹ and having risen, they put Him forth outside the city, and brought Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built—to cast Him down headlong,

³⁰ and He, having gone through the midst of them, went away.

³¹ And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths, ³² and they were astonished at His teaching, because His word was with authority.

³³ And in the synagogue was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a great voice,

³⁴ "Aah! What [regards] us and You, Jesus, O Nazarene? You came to destroy us; I have known who You are—the Holy One of God!"

³⁵ And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silenced, and come forth out of him"; and the demon having cast him into the midst, came forth from him, having hurt him nothing;

³⁶ and amazement came on all, and they were speaking together with one another, saying, "What [is] this word, that with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come forth?"

³⁷ And there was going forth a fame concerning Him to every place of the surrounding region.

³⁸ And having risen out of the synagogue, He entered into the house of Simon, and the mother-in-law of Simon was pressed with a great fever, and they asked Him about her,

³⁹ and having stood over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately, having risen, she was ministering to them.

⁴⁰ And at the setting of the sun, all, as many as had any ailing with manifold diseases, brought them to Him, and He, having put hands on each one of them, healed them.

⁴¹ And demons were also coming forth from many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God"; and rebuking, He did not permit them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Christ.

⁴² And day having come, having gone forth, He went on to a desolate place, and the multitudes were seeking Him, and they came to Him, and were restraining Him—not to go on from them,

⁴³ and He said to them, "Also to the other cities it is necessary for Me to proclaim good news of the Kingdom of God, because for this I have been sent";

⁴⁴ and He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

¹ And it came to pass, in the multitude pressing on Him to hear the word of God, that He was standing beside the Lake of Gennesaret,

² and He saw two boats standing beside the lake, and the fishers, having gone away from them, were washing the nets,

³ and having entered into one of the boats, that was Simon's, He asked him to put back a little from the land, and having sat down, was teaching the multitudes out of the boat.

⁴ And when He left off speaking, He said to Simon, "Put back into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch";

⁵ and Simon answering said to Him, "Master, through the whole night, having labored, we have taken nothing, but at Your saying I will let down the net."

⁶ And having done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net was breaking,

⁷ and they beckoned to the partners who [are] in the other boat, having come, to help them; and they came, and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking.

⁸ And Simon Peter having seen, fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me, because I am a sinful man, O Lord";

⁹ for astonishment seized him, and all those with him, at the catch of the fishes that they took,

¹⁰ and in like manner also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon; and Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear, from now on you will be catching men";

¹¹ and they, having brought the boats on the land, having left all, followed Him.

¹² And it came to pass, in His being in one of the cities, that behold, a man full of leprosy, and having seen Jesus, having fallen on [his] face, he implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You may will, You are able to cleanse me";

¹³ and having stretched forth [His] hand, He touched him, having said, "I will, be cleansed"; and immediately the leprosy went away from him.

¹⁴ And He charged him to tell no one, "But having gone away, show yourself to the priest, and bring near for your cleansing according as Moses directed, for a testimony to them";

¹⁵ but the more was the report going abroad concerning Him, and great multitudes were coming together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their sicknesses, ¹⁶ and He was withdrawing Himself in the desolate places and was praying.

¹⁷ And it came to pass, on one of the days, that He was teaching, and there were sitting by Pharisees and teachers of the Law, who were come out of every village of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem, and the power of the LORD was—to heal them.

18 And behold, men carrying a man on a bed, who has been struck with palsy, and they were seeking to bring him in, and to place before Him,

19 and having not found by what way they may bring him in because of the multitude, having gone up on the housetop, through the tiles they let him down with the little bed, into the midst before Jesus,

20 and He having seen their faith, said to him, "Man, your sins have been forgiven you."

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks evil words? Who is able to forgive sins, except God only?"

22 And Jesus having known their reasonings, answering, said to them, "What reason you in your hearts?"

23 Which is easier—to say, Your sins have been forgiven you? Or to say, Arise, and walk?

24 And that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—(He said to the one struck with palsy)—I say to you, arise, and having taken up your little bed, be going on to your house."

25 And immediately having risen before them, having taken up [that] on which he was lying, he went away to his house, glorifying God,

26 and astonishment took all, and they were glorifying God, and were filled with fear, saying, "We saw strange things today."

27 And after these things He went forth, and beheld a tax collector, by name Levi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow Me";

28 and he, having left all, having arisen, followed Him.

29 And Levi made a great entertainment to Him in his house, and there was a great multitude of tax collectors and others who were with them reclining,

30 and the scribes and the Pharisees among them were murmuring at His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

31 And Jesus answering said to them, "They who are well have no need of a physician, but they that are ill:

32 I did not come to call righteous men, but sinners, to conversion."

33 And they said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make supplications—in like manner also those of the Pharisees—but Yours eat and drink?"

34 And He said to them, "Are you able to make the sons of the bride-chamber—in the Bridegroom being with them—to fast?"

35 But days will come, and when the Bridegroom may be taken away from them, then they will fast in those days."

36 And He spoke also an allegory to them: "No one puts a patch of new clothing on old clothing, and if otherwise, the new also makes a split, and with the old the patch does not agree, that [is] from the new.

37 And no one puts new wine into old skins, and if otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be poured out, and the skins will be destroyed;

38 but new wine is to be put into new skins, and both are preserved together;

39 and no one having drunk old, immediately wishes new, for he says, The old is better."

¹ And it came to pass, on a Sabbath, as He is going through the grainfields, that His disciples were plucking the ears, and were eating, rubbing with the hands,

² and certain of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbaths?"

³ And Jesus answering said to them, "Did you not read even this that David did when he hungered, himself and those who are with him,

⁴ how he went into the house of God, and took the Bread of the Presentation, and ate, and gave also to those with him, which it is not lawful to eat, except only to the priests?"

⁵ And He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

⁶ And it came to pass also, on another Sabbath, that He goes into the synagogue, and teaches, and there was there a man, and his right hand was withered,

⁷ and the scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him, if on the Sabbath He will heal, that they might find an accusation against Him.

⁸ And He Himself had known their reasonings and said to the man having the withered hand, "Rise, and stand in the midst"; and he having risen, stood.

⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I will question you something: is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do evil? To save life or to kill?"

¹⁰ And having looked around on them all, He said to the man, "Stretch forth your hand"; and he did so, and his hand was restored whole as the other;

¹¹ and they were filled with madness, and were speaking with one another what they might do to Jesus.

¹² And it came to pass in those days, He went forth to the mountain to pray, and was passing the night in the prayer of God,

¹³ and when it became day, He called near His disciples, also having chosen twelve from them, whom He also named apostles:

¹⁴ Simon, whom He also named Peter, and his brother Andrew, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

¹⁵ Matthew and Thomas, James of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zealot,

¹⁶ Judas of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became betrayer.

¹⁸ who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, [gathered]. And those harassed by unclean spirits [also gathered] and were healed.

¹⁹ And all the multitude were seeking to touch Him, because power was going forth from Him, and He was healing all.

²⁰ And He, having lifted up His eyes to His disciples, said: "Blessed the poor—because yours is the Kingdom of God.

²¹ Blessed those hungering now—because you will be filled. Blessed those weeping now—because you will laugh.

²² Blessed are you when men will hate you, and when they will separate you, and will reproach, and will cast forth your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake—

²³ rejoice in that day, and leap, for behold, your reward [is] great in Heaven, for according to these things were their fathers doing to the prophets.

²⁴ But woe to you—the rich, because you have gotten your comfort.

²⁵ Woe to you who have been filled—because you will hunger. Woe to you who are laughing now—because you will mourn and weep.

²⁶ Woe to you when all men will speak well of you—for according to these things were their fathers doing to false prophets.

²⁷ But I say to you who are hearing, love your enemies, do good to those hating you,

²⁸ bless those cursing you, pray for those maligning you;

²⁹ and to him striking you on the cheek, give also the other, and from him taking away from you the mantle, also the coat you may not keep back.

³⁰ And to everyone who is asking of you, be giving; and from him who is taking away your goods, do not be asking again;

³¹ and as you wish that men may do to you, do also to them in like manner;

³² and—if you love those loving you, what grace is it to you? For also the sinful love those loving them;

³³ and if you do good to those doing good to you, what grace is it to you? For also the sinful do the same;

³⁴ and if you lend [to those] of whom you hope to receive back, what grace is it to you? For also the sinful lend to sinners—that they may receive again as much.

³⁵ But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Highest, because He is kind to the ungracious and evil;

³⁶ be therefore merciful, as also your Father is merciful.

³⁷ And do not judge, and you may not be judged; do not condemn, and you may not be condemned; release, and you will be released.

³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed, and shaken, and running over, they will give into your bosom; for with that measure with which you measure, it will be measured to you again."

³⁹ And He spoke an allegory to them, "Is blind able to lead blind? Will they not both fall into a pit?"

⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone perfected will be as his teacher.

⁴¹ And why do you behold the speck that is in your brother's eye, and do not consider the beam that [is] in your own eye?"

⁴² Or how are you able to say to your brother, Brother, permit, I may take out the speck that [is] in your eye—yourself not beholding the beam in your own eye? Hypocrite, first take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that [is] in your brother's eye.

⁴³ For there is not a good tree making bad fruit, nor a bad tree making good fruit;

⁴⁴ for each tree is known from its own fruit, for they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they crop a grape from a bramble.

⁴⁵ The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which [is] good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which [is] evil; for out of the abounding of the heart his mouth speaks.

⁴⁶ And why do you call Me, Lord, Lord, and do not do what I say?

⁴⁷ Everyone who is coming to Me, and is hearing My words, and is doing them, I will show you to whom he is like:

⁴⁹ And he who heard and did not, is like to a man having built a house on the earth, without a foundation, against which the stream broke forth, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house became great."

¹ And when He completed all His sayings in the ears of the people, He went into Capernaum;

² and a certain centurion's servant being ill, was about to die, who was much valued by him,

³ and having heard about Jesus, he sent to Him elders of the Jews, imploring Him, that having come He might thoroughly save his servant.

⁴ And they, having come near to Jesus, were calling on Him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy to whom You will do this,

⁵ for he loves our nation, and he built to us the synagogue."

⁶ And Jesus was going on with them, and now when He is not far distant from the house the centurion sent to Him friends, saying to Him, "Lord, do not be troubled, for I am not worthy that You may enter under my roof;

⁷ for this reason I did not consider myself worthy to come to You, but say in a word, and my boy will be healed;

⁸ for I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers, and I say to this [one], Go, and he goes; and to another, Be coming, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does [it]."

⁹ And having heard these things Jesus wondered at him, and having turned to the multitude following Him, He said, "I say to you, not even in Israel did I find so much faith";

¹⁰ and those sent, having turned back to the house, found the ailing servant in health.

¹¹ And it came to pass, on the next day, He was going on to a city called Nain, and there were going with Him many of His disciples, and a great multitude,

¹³ And the LORD having seen her, was moved with compassion toward her and said to her, "Do not be weeping";

¹⁴ and having come near, He touched the bier, and those carrying [it] stood still, and He said, "Young man, to you I say, Arise";

¹⁵ and the dead sat up, and began to speak, and He gave him to his mother;

16 and fear took hold of all, and they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us," and, "God looked on His people."

17 And the account of this went forth in all Judea about Him, and in all the region around.

18 And the disciples of John told him about all these things,

19 and John having called near a certain two of his disciples, sent to Jesus, saying, "Are You He who is coming, or do we look for another?"

20 And having come near to Him, the men said, "John the Immerser sent us to You, saying, Are You He who is coming, or do we look for another?"

21 And in that hour He cured many from diseases, and plagues, and evil spirits, and He granted sight to many blind.

22 And Jesus answering said to them, "Having gone on, report to John what you saw and heard, that blind men see again, lame walk, lepers are cleansed, deaf hear, dead are raised, poor have good news proclaimed;

23 and blessed is he whoever may not be stumbled in Me."

24 And the messengers of John having gone away, He began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What have you gone forth into the wilderness to look on? A reed shaken by the wind?"

25 But what have you gone forth to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, they in splendid clothing, and living in luxury, are in the houses of kings!

26 But what have you gone forth to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet:

27 this is he concerning whom it has been written: Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You;

28 for I say to you, there is not a greater prophet, among those born of women, than John the Immerser; but the least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And all the people having heard, and the tax collectors, declared God righteous, having been immersed with the immersion of John,

30 but the Pharisees and the lawyers put away the counsel of God for themselves, having not been immersed by him.

31 And the LORD said, "To what, then, will I liken the men of this generation? And to what are they like?"

32 They are like to children, to those sitting in a marketplace, and calling to one another, and saying, We piped to you, and you did not dance, we mourned to you, and you did not weep!

33 For John the Immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon;

34 the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, Behold, a man, a glutton, and a wine drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners;

35 and the wisdom was justified from all her children."

36 And a certain one of the Pharisees was asking Him that He might eat with him, and having gone into the house of the Pharisee He reclined,

37 and behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having known that He reclines in the house of the Pharisee, having provided an alabaster box of ointment,

38 and having stood behind, beside His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with the tears, and with the hairs of her head she was wiping, and was kissing His feet, and was anointing with the ointment.

³⁹ And the Pharisee who called Him, having seen, spoke within himself, saying, "This One, if He were a prophet, would have known who and of what kind [is] the woman who touches Him, that she is a sinner."

⁴⁰ And Jesus answering said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you"; and he says, "Teacher, say on."

⁴¹ "Two debtors were to a certain creditor; one was owing five hundred denarii, and the other fifty;

⁴² and they not having [with which] to give back, he forgave both; which of them then, do you say, will love him more?"

⁴³ And Simon answering said, "I suppose that to whom he forgave the more"; and He said to him, "You judged correctly."

⁴⁴ And having turned to the woman, He said to Simon, "See this woman? I entered into your house; you did not give water for My feet, but this woman wet My feet with tears, and wiped with the hairs of her head;

⁴⁵ you did not give a kiss to Me, but this woman, from what [time] I came in, did not cease kissing My feet;

⁴⁶ you did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman anointed My feet with oil;

⁴⁷ therefore I say to you, her many sins have been forgiven, because she loved much; but to whom is forgiven little, loves little."

⁴⁸ And He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven";

⁴⁹ and those dining with Him began to say within themselves, "Who is this, who also forgives sins?"

⁵⁰ And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you, be going on to peace."

¹ And it came to pass thereafter, that He was going through every city and village, preaching and proclaiming good news of the Kingdom of God, and the Twelve [are] with Him,

² and certain women who were healed of evil spirits and sicknesses, Mary who is called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone forth,

³ and Joanna wife of Chuza, steward of Herod, and Susanna, and many others, who were ministering to Him from their substance.

⁴ And a great multitude having gathered, and those who from city and city were coming to Him, He spoke by an allegory:

⁶ And other fell on the rock, and having sprung up, it withered, through having no moisture.

⁷ And other fell amidst the thorns, and the thorns having sprung up with it, choked it.

⁸ And other fell on the good ground, and having sprung up, it made fruit a hundredfold." Saying these things, He was calling, "He having ears to hear—let him hear."

⁹ And His disciples were questioning Him, saying, "What may this allegory be?"

¹⁰ And He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in allegories, that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand."

11 And this is the allegory: the seed is the word of God,

12 and those beside the way are those hearing, then comes the Devil, and takes up the word from their heart, lest having believed, they may be saved.

13 And those on the rock: they who, when they may hear, receive the word with joy, and these have no root, who for a time believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell to the thorns: these are they who have heard, and going forth, through anxieties, and riches, and pleasures of life, are choked, and do not bear to completion.

15 And that in the good ground: these are they who in an upright and good heart, having heard the word, retain [it], and bear fruit in continuance.

16 And no one having lighted a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts [it] under a bed; but he puts [it] on a lampstand, that those coming in may see the light,

17 for nothing is secret, that will not become visible, nor hid, that will not be known and become visible.

18 See, therefore, how you hear, for whoever may have, there will be given to him, and whoever may not have, also what he seems to have will be taken from him."

19 And there came to Him His mother and brothers, and they were not able to get to Him because of the multitude,

20 and it was told Him, saying, "Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, wishing to see You";

21 and He answering said to them, "My mother and My brothers! They are those who are hearing the word of God, and doing."

22 And it came to pass, on one of the days, that He Himself went into a boat with His disciples, and He said to them, "We may go over to the other side of the lake"; and they set forth,

23 and as they are sailing He fell deeply asleep, and there came down a storm of wind to the lake, and they were filling, and were in peril.

24 And having come near, they awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we perish!" And He, having arisen, rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and there came a calm,

25 and He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they being afraid wondered, saying to one another, "Who, then, is this, that He even commands the winds and the water, and they obey Him?"

26 And they sailed down to the region of the Gadarenes that is opposite Galilee,

27 and He having gone forth on the land, there met Him a certain man, out of the city, who had demons for a long time, and was not clothed with a garment, and was not abiding in a house, but in the tombs,

28 and having seen Jesus, and having cried out, he fell before Him, and with a loud voice, said, "What [regards] me and You, Jesus, Son of God Most High? I implore You, may You not afflict me!"

29 For He commanded the unclean spirit to come forth from the man, for many times it had caught him, and he was being bound with chains and shackles—guarded, and breaking apart the bonds he was driven by the demons into the deserts.

³⁰ And Jesus questioned him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons were entered into him,

³¹ and he was calling on Him that He may not command them to go away into the abyss,

³² and there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they were calling on Him that He might permit them to enter into these, and He permitted them,

³³ and the demons having gone forth from the man, entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were drowned.

³⁴ And those feeding [them], having seen what was come to pass, fled, and having gone, told [it] to the city, and to the fields;

³⁵ and they came forth to see what was come to pass, and they came to Jesus, and found the man sitting, out of whom the demons had gone forth, clothed, and right-minded, at the feet of Jesus, and they were afraid;

³⁶ and those also having seen [it], told them how the demoniac was saved.

³⁷ And the whole multitude of the region of the Gadarenes asked Him to go away from them, because they were pressed with great fear, and He having entered into the boat, turned back.

³⁸ And the man from whom the demons had gone forth was imploring of Him to be with Him, and Jesus sent him away, saying,

³⁹ "Return to your house, and tell how God did great things to you"; and he went away through all the city proclaiming how Jesus did great things to him.

⁴⁰ And it came to pass, in the turning back of Jesus, the multitude received Him, for they were all looking for Him,

⁴¹ and behold, there came a man whose name [is] Jairus, and he was a chief of the synagogue, and having fallen at the feet of Jesus, was calling on Him to come to his house,

⁴² because he had an only daughter about twelve years [old], and she was dying. And in His going away, the multitudes were thronging Him,

⁴³ and a woman, being with a flow of blood for twelve years, who, having spent all her living on physicians, was not able to be healed by any,

⁴⁴ having come near behind, touched the fringe of His garment, and immediately the flow of her blood stood still.

⁴⁵ And Jesus said, "Who [is] it that touched Me?" And all denying, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press You, and throng [You], and You say, Who [is] it that touched Me?"

⁴⁶ And Jesus said, "Someone touched Me, for I knew power having gone forth from Me."

⁴⁷ And the woman, having seen that she was not hid, trembling, came, and having fallen before Him, for what cause she touched Him declared to Him before all the people, and how she was healed instantly;

⁴⁸ and He said to her, "Take courage, daughter, your faith has saved you, be going on to peace."

⁴⁹ While He is yet speaking, there comes a certain one from the chief of the synagogue's [house], saying to him, "Your daughter has died, do not harass the Teacher";

⁵⁰ and Jesus having heard, answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid, only believe, and she will be saved."

⁵¹ And having come into the house, He permitted no one to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father of the child, and the mother;

⁵² and they were all weeping, and beating themselves for her, and He said, "Do not weep, she did not die, but sleeps";

⁵³ and they were deriding Him, knowing that she died;

⁵⁴ and He having put all forth outside, and having taken hold of her hand, called, saying, "Child, arise";

⁵⁵ and her spirit came back, and she arose immediately, and He directed that there be given to her to eat;

⁵⁶ and her parents were amazed, but He charged them to say to no one what had come to pass.

¹ And having called together His twelve disciples, He gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure diseases,

² and He sent them to proclaim the Kingdom of God, and to heal the ailing.

³ And He said to them, "Take nothing for the way, neither staff, nor leather pouch, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats each;

⁴ and into whatever house you may enter, remain there, and depart from there;

⁵ and as many as may not receive you, going forth from that city, even the dust from your feet shake off, for a testimony against them."

⁶ And going forth they were going through the several villages, proclaiming good news, and healing everywhere.

⁷ And Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things being done by Him, and was perplexed, because it was said by some that John has been raised out of the dead,

⁸ and by some that Elijah appeared, and by others, that a prophet, one of the ancients, was risen;

⁹ and Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this concerning whom I hear such things?" And he was seeking to see Him.

¹⁰ And the apostles having turned back, declared to Him how they did great things, and having taken them, He withdrew by Himself into a city called Bethsaida, ¹¹ and the multitudes having known followed Him, and having received them, He was speaking to them concerning the Kingdom of God, and He cured those having need of service.

¹² And the day began to decline, and the Twelve having come near, said to Him, "Let away the multitude, that having gone into the surrounding villages and the fields, they may lodge and may find provision, because here we are in a desolate place."

¹³ And He said to them, "You give them to eat"; and they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fishes: except, having gone, we may buy food for all this people";

¹⁴ for they were about five thousand men. And He said to His disciples, "Cause them to recline in companies, in each fifty";

¹⁵ and they did so, and made all to recline;

¹⁶ and having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the sky, He blessed them, and broke, and was giving to the disciples to set before the multitude;

¹⁷ and they ate, and were all filled, and there was taken up what was over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

¹⁸ And it came to pass, as He is praying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, saying, "Who do the multitudes say I am?"

¹⁹ And they answering said, "John the Immerser; and others, Elijah; and others, that a prophet, one of the ancients, was risen";

²⁰ and He said to them, "And you—who do you say I am?" And Peter answering said, "The Christ of God."

²¹ And having charged them, He commanded [them] to say this to no one,

²² saying, "It is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things, and to be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised the third day."

²³ And He said to all, "If anyone wills to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me;

²⁴ for whoever may will to save his life will lose it, and whoever may lose his life for My sake, he will save it;

²⁵ for what is a man profited, having gained the whole world, and having lost or having forfeited himself?

²⁶ For whoever may be ashamed of Me and of My words, of this one will the Son of Man be ashamed when He may come in His glory, and the Father's, and the holy messengers';

²⁷ and I say to you, truly, there are certain of those standing here who will not taste of death until they may see the Kingdom of God."

²⁸ And it came to pass, after these words, as it were eight days, that having taken Peter, and John, and James, He went up to the mountain to pray,

²⁹ and it came to pass, in His praying, the appearance of His face became altered, and His clothing became flashing white.

³⁰ And behold, two men were speaking together with Him, who were Moses and Elijah,

³¹ who having appeared in glory, spoke of His outgoing that He was about to fulfill in Jerusalem,

³² but Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep, and having awoken, they saw His glory, and the two men standing with Him.

³³ And it came to pass, in their parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good to us to be here; and we may make three shelters: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he says:

³⁴ and as he was speaking these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them, and they feared in their entering into the cloud,

³⁵ and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved; hear Him";

³⁶ and when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone; and they were silent, and declared to no one in those days anything of what they have seen.

³⁷ And it came to pass on the next day, they having come down from the mountain, a great multitude met Him there,

³⁸ and behold, a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, because he is my only begotten;

³⁹ and behold, a spirit takes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it convulses him, with foaming, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him,

⁴⁰ and I implored Your disciples that they might cast it out, and they were not able."

⁴¹ And Jesus answering said, "O generation, unsteadfast and perverse, until when will I be with you, and endure you? Bring your son near here";

⁴² and as he is yet coming near, the demon threw him down, and convulsed [him], and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the youth, and gave him back to his father.

⁴³ And they were all amazed at the greatness of God, and while all are wondering at all things that Jesus did, He said to His disciples,

⁴⁴ "Lay to your ears these words, for the Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men."

⁴⁵ And they were not knowing this saying, and it was veiled from them, that they might not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

⁴⁶ And there entered a reasoning among them, this—who may be greater of them.

⁴⁷ And Jesus having seen the reasoning of their heart, having taken hold of a child, set him beside Him,

⁴⁸ and said to them, "Whoever may receive this child in My Name, receives Me, and whoever may receive Me, receives Him who sent Me, for he who is least among you all—he will be great."

⁴⁹ And John answering said, "Master, we saw a certain one casting forth the demons in Your Name, and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us";

⁵⁰ and Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid, for he who is not against us, is for us."

⁵¹ And it came to pass, in the completing of the days of His being taken up, that He fixed His face to go on to Jerusalem,

⁵² and He sent messengers before His face, and having gone on, they went into a village of Samaritans, to make ready for Him,

⁵³ and they did not receive Him, because His face was going on to Jerusalem.

⁵⁴ And His disciples James and John having seen, said, "Lord, will You [that] we may command fire to come down from Heaven, and to consume them, as Elijah also did?"

⁵⁵ And having turned, He rebuked them and said, "You have not known of what spirit you are,

⁵⁶ for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save"; and they went on to another village.

⁵⁷ And it came to pass, as they are going on in the way, a certain one said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You may go, Lord";

⁵⁸ and Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky places of rest, but the Son of Man has nowhere He may recline the head."

⁵⁹ And He said to another, "Follow Me"; and he said, "Lord, permit me, having gone away, to first bury my father";

⁶⁰ and Jesus said to him, "Permit the dead to bury their own dead, and you, having gone away, publish the Kingdom of God."

⁶¹ And another also said, "I will follow You, Lord, but first permit me to take leave of those in my house";

62 and Jesus said to him, "No one having put his hand on a plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God."

10

1 And after these things, the LORD also appointed seventy others, and sent them by twos before His face, to every city and place to where He Himself was about to come,

2 then He said to them, "The harvest [is] indeed abundant, but the workmen few; implore then the Lord of the harvest, that He may put forth workmen to His harvest.

3 Go away; behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves;

4 carry no bag, no leather pouch, nor sandals; and greet no one on the way;

5 and into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace to this house;

6 and if indeed there may be there the son of peace, your peace will rest on it; and if not so, it will turn back on you.

7 And remain in that house, eating and drinking the things they have, for worthy [is] the workman of his hire; do not go from house to house,

8 and into whatever city you enter, and they may receive you, eat the things set before you,

9 and heal the ailing in it, and say to them, The Kingdom of God has come near to you.

10 And into whatever city you enter, and they may not receive you, having gone forth to its broad places, say,

11 And the dust that has cleaved to us from your city, we wipe off against you, but know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near to you;

12 and I say to you that it will be more tolerable for Sodom in that day than for that city.

13 Woe to you, Chorazin; woe to you, Bethsaida; for if the mighty works that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they had converted long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes;

14 but it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.

15 And you, Capernaum, which were exalted to Heaven, you will be brought down to Hades.

16 He who is hearing you, hears Me; and he who is putting you away, puts Me away; and he who is putting Me away, puts away Him who sent Me."

17 And the seventy turned back with joy, saying, "Lord, and the demons are being subjected to us in Your Name";

18 and He said to them, "I was beholding Satan having fallen as lightning from Heaven;

19 behold, I give to you the authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and on all the power of the enemy, and nothing by any means will hurt you;

20 but do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice rather that your names were written in the heavens."

21 In that hour Jesus was glad in the Spirit and said, "I confess to You, Father, Lord of Heaven and of earth, that You hid these things from wise men and understanding, and revealed them to babies; yes, Father, because so it became good pleasure before You.

²² All things were delivered up to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whom the Son may resolve to reveal [Him].”

²³ And having turned to the disciples, He said, by themselves, “Blessed the eyes that are perceiving what you perceive;

²⁴ for I say to you that many prophets and kings wished to see what you perceive, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.”

²⁵ And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, trying Him, and saying, “Teacher, what having done, will I inherit continuous life?”

²⁶ And He said to him, “In the Law what has been written? How do you read [it]?”

²⁷ And he answering said, “You will love the LORD your God out of all your heart, and out of all your soul, and out of all your strength, and out of all your understanding, and your neighbor as yourself.”

²⁸ And He said to him, “You answered correctly; do this, and you will live.”

²⁹ And he, willing to declare himself righteous, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰ And Jesus having taken up [the word], said, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, and having stripped him and inflicted blows, they went away, leaving [him] half dead.

³¹ And by a coincidence a certain priest was going down in that way, and having seen him, he passed over on the opposite side;

³² and in like manner also, a Levite, having been around the place, having come and seen, passed over on the opposite side.

³³ But a certain Samaritan, journeying, came along him, and having seen him, he was moved with compassion,

³⁴ and having come near, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and having lifted him up on his own beast, he brought him to an inn, and was careful of him;

³⁵ and on the next day, going forth, taking out two denarii, he gave to the innkeeper and said to him, Be careful of him, and whatever you may spend more, I, in my coming again, will give back to you.

³⁶ Who, then, of these three, seems to you to have become neighbor of him who fell among the robbers?”

³⁷ And he said, “He who did the kindness with him,” then Jesus said to him, “Be going on, and you be doing in like manner.”

³⁸ And it came to pass, in their going on, that He entered into a certain village, and a certain woman, by name Martha, received Him into her house,

³⁹ and she also had a sister, called Mary, who also, having seated herself beside the feet of Jesus, was hearing the word,

⁴⁰ and Martha was distracted about much serving, and having stood by Him, she said, “Lord, do You not care that my sister left me alone to serve? Say then to her that she may partake along with me.”

⁴¹ And Jesus answering said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and disquieted about many things, ⁴² but of one thing there is need, and Mary chose the good part; that will not be taken away from her.”

¹ And it came to pass, in His being in a certain place praying, as He ceased, a certain one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as also John taught his disciples."

² And He said to them, "When you may pray, say: Our Father who is in the heavens, hallowed be Your Name; Your kingdom come, Your will come to pass, as in Heaven also on earth;

³ be giving us daily our appointed bread;

⁴ and forgive us our sins, for we also ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us; and may You not bring us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil [one]."

⁵ And He said to them, "Who of you will have a friend, and will go on to him at midnight, and may say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves,

⁶ seeing a friend of mine came out of the way to me, and I have not what I will set before him,

⁷ and he from within answering may say, Do not give me trouble, the door has already been shut, and my children are with me in the bed, I am not able, having risen, to give to you.

⁸ I say to you, even if he will not give to him, having risen, because of his being his friend, yet because of his persistence, having risen, he will give him as many as he needs;

⁹ and I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you;

¹⁰ for everyone who is asking receives; and he who is seeking finds; and to him who is knocking it will be opened.

¹¹ And of which of you—the father—[if] the son will ask [for] a loaf, will present to him a stone? And [if] a fish, instead of a fish, will present to him a serpent?

¹² And [if] he may ask [for] an egg, will present to him a scorpion?

¹³ If, then, you, being evil, have known to be giving good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father who is from Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those asking Him!"

¹⁴ And He was casting forth a demon, and it was mute, and it came to pass, the demon having gone forth, the mute man spoke, and the multitudes wondered,

¹⁵ and certain of them said, "By Beelzebul, ruler of the demons, He casts forth the demons";

¹⁶ and others, tempting, were asking [for] a sign out of Heaven from Him.

¹⁷ And He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom having been divided against itself is desolated; and house against house falls;

¹⁸ and if Satan was also divided against himself, how will his kingdom be made to stand? For you say by Beelzebul is My casting forth the demons,

¹⁹ but if I, by Beelzebul, cast forth the demons—your sons, by whom do they cast forth? Because of this they will be your judges;

²⁰ but if by the finger of God I cast forth the demons, then the Kingdom of God came unaware on you.

²¹ When the strong man may keep his hall armed, his goods are in peace;

²² but when the stronger than he, having come on [him], may overcome him, he takes away his whole armor in which he had trusted, and he distributes his spoils;

²³ he who is not with Me is against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me scatters.

²⁴ When the unclean spirit may go forth from the man, it walks through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding, it says, I will return to my house from where I came forth;

²⁵ and having come, it finds [it] swept and adorned;

²⁶ then it goes, and takes to it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and having entered, they dwell there, and the last of that man becomes worse than the first."

²⁷ And it came to pass, in His saying these things, a certain woman having lifted up the voice out of the multitude, said to Him, "Blessed the womb that carried You, and the breasts that You sucked!"

²⁸ And He said, "Indeed, rather, blessed those hearing the word of God, and keeping [it]!"

²⁹ And the multitudes crowding together on Him, He began to say, "This generation is evil, it seeks after a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet, ³⁰ for as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.

³² Men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, because they converted at the proclamation of Jonah; and behold, [One] greater than Jonah [is] here!

³³ And no one having lighted a lamp, puts [it] in a secret place, nor under the measure, but on the lampstand, that those coming in may behold the light.

³⁴ The lamp of the body is the eye, when then your eye may be simple, your whole body is also lightened; and when it may be evil, your body is also darkened;

³⁵ take heed, then, lest the light that [is] in you is darkness;

³⁶ if then your whole body is lightened, not having any part darkened, the whole will be lightened, as when the lamp by the brightness may give you light."

³⁷ And in [His] speaking, a certain Pharisee was asking Him that He might dine with him, and having gone in, He reclined, ³⁸ and the Pharisee having seen, wondered that He did not first immerse Himself before the early meal.

³⁹ And the LORD said to him, "Now you, the Pharisees, make the outside of the cup and of the plate clean, but your inward part is full of robbery and wickedness.

⁴⁰ Unthinking [ones]! Did He who made the outside not also make the inside?

⁴¹ But what you have given [as] alms, and behold, all things are clean to you.

⁴² But woe to you, the Pharisees, because you tithe the mint, and the rue, and every herb, and you pass by the judgment and the love of God; these things [you] should do, and those not to be neglecting.

⁴³ Woe to you, the Pharisees, because you love the first seats in the synagogues and the salutations in the marketplaces.

⁴⁴ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you are as the unseen tombs, and the men walking above have not known."

⁴⁵ And one of the lawyers answering, says to Him, "Teacher, saying these things, You also insult us";

⁴⁶ and He said, "And to you, the lawyers, woe! Because you burden men with burdens [too] grievous to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

⁴⁷ Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

⁴⁸ Then you testify, and are well pleased with the works of your fathers, because they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs;

⁴⁹ because of this also the wisdom of God said: I will send to them prophets, and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,

⁵⁰ that the blood of all the prophets, that is being poured forth from the foundation of the world, may be required from this generation—

⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who perished between the altar and the house; yes, I say to you, it will be required from this generation.

⁵² Woe to you, the lawyers, because you took away the key of the knowledge; you yourselves did not enter; and you hindered those coming in."

⁵³ And in His speaking these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began fearfully to urge and to press Him to speak about many things, ⁵⁴ laying wait for Him, and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

² and there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hid that will not be known;

³ because whatever you said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you spoke to the ear in the inner-chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.

⁴ And I say to you, my friends, do not be afraid of those killing the body, and after these things are not having anything more to do;

⁵ but I will show to you whom you may fear: fear Him who, after the killing, is having authority to cast into Gehenna; yes, I say to you, fear Him.

⁶ Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? And one of them is not forgotten before God,

⁷ but even the hairs of your head have all been numbered; therefore do not fear, you are of more value than many sparrows.

⁸ And I say to you, everyone who may confess in Me before men, the Son of Man will also confess in him before the messengers of God,

⁹ and he who has denied Me before men, will be denied before the messengers of God,

¹⁰ and everyone who will say a word to the Son of Man, it will be forgiven to him, but the [one] having slandered to the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

¹¹ And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you may reply, or what you may say,

¹² for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that hour what [you] should say."

¹³ And a certain one out of the multitude said to Him, "Teacher, say to my brother to divide with me the inheritance."

¹⁴ And He said to him, "Man, who set Me a judge or a divider over you?"

¹⁵ And He said to them, "Observe, and beware of the covetousness, because his life is not in the abundance of one's goods."

¹⁶ And He spoke an allegory to them, saying, "Of a certain rich man the field brought forth well;

¹⁷ and he was reasoning within himself, saying, What will I do, because I have nowhere I will gather together my fruits?

¹⁸ And he said, This I will do, I will take down my storehouses, and I will build greater ones, and I will gather together there all my products and my good things,

¹⁹ and I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many good things laid up for many years, be resting, eat, drink, be merry.

²⁰ And God said to him, Unthinking [one]! This night your life is required of you, and what things you prepared—to whom will they be [given]?

²¹ So [is] he who is treasuring up to himself, and is not rich toward God."

²² And He said to His disciples, "Because of this, to you I say, do not be anxious for your life, what you may eat; nor for the body, what you may put on;

²³ life is more than nourishment, and the body than clothing.

²⁴ Consider the ravens, that they do not sow, nor reap, to which there is no barn nor storehouse, and God nourishes them; how much better are you than the birds?

²⁵ And who of you, being anxious, is able to add to his age one cubit?

²⁶ If, then, you are not able for the least—why are you anxious for the rest?

²⁷ Consider the lilies, how do they grow? They do not labor, nor do they spin, and I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these;

²⁸ and if the herbage in the field, that today is, and tomorrow is cast into an oven, God so clothes, how much more you of little faith?

²⁹ And you—do not seek what you may eat, or what you may drink, and do not be in suspense,

³⁰ for the nations of the world seek after all these things, and your Father has known that you have need of these things;

³¹ but seek the Kingdom of God, and all these things will be added to you.

³² Do not fear, little flock, because your Father delighted to give you the kingdom;

³³ sell your goods, and give alms, make to yourselves bags that do not become old, a treasure unfailing in the heavens, where thief does not come near, nor moth destroy;

34 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

35 Let your loins be girded, and the lamps burning,

36 and you [be] like to men waiting for their lord when he will return out of the wedding feasts, that he having come and knocked, immediately they may open to him.

37 Blessed those servants, whom the lord, having come, will find watching; truly I say to you that he will gird himself, and will cause them to recline, and having come near, will minister to them;

38 and if he may come in the second watch, and in the third watch he may come, and may find [it] so, blessed are those servants.

39 And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief comes, he would have watched, and would not have permitted his house to be broken through;

40 and you, then, become ready, because at the hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes."

41 And Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this allegory to us, or also to all?"

42 And the LORD said, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the lord will set over his household, to give in season the wheat measure?"

43 Blessed that servant, whom his lord, having come, will find doing so;

44 truly I say to you that he will set him over all his goods.

45 And if that servant may say in his heart, My lord delays to come, and may begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat also, and to drink, and to be drunken,

46 the lord of that servant will come in a day in which he does not look for [him], and in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him off, and he will appoint his portion with the unfaithful.

47 And that servant, who having known his lord's will, and having not prepared, nor having gone according to his will, will be beaten with many stripes,

48 and he who, not having known, and having done things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few; and to everyone to whom much was given, much will be required from him; and to whom they committed much, more abundantly they will ask of him.

49 I came to cast fire to the earth, and what I wish [is] if it were already kindled!

50 But I have an immersion to be immersed with, and how I am pressed until it may be accomplished!

51 Do you think that I came to give peace in the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division;

52 for there will be from now on five in one house divided—three against two, and two against three;

53 a father will be divided against a son, and a son against a father, a mother against a daughter, and a daughter against a mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 And He also said to the multitudes, "When you may see the cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, A shower comes, and it is so;

55 and when a south wind is blowing, you say that there will be heat, and it is;

⁵⁶ hypocrites! You have known to discern the face of the earth and of the sky, but how do you not discern this time?

⁵⁷ And why, also, of yourselves, do you not judge what is righteous?

⁵⁸ For as you are going away with your opponent to the ruler, in the way give diligence to be released from him, lest he may drag you to the judge, and the judge may deliver you to the officer, and the officer may cast you into prison;

⁵⁹ I say to you, you may not come forth from there until even the last mite you may give back."

¹ And there were some present at that time, telling Him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate mingled with their sacrifices;

² and Jesus answering said to them, "Do you think that these Galileans became sinners beyond all the Galileans, because they have suffered such things?

³ No—I say to you, but if you may not convert, even so will all you perish.

⁵ No—I say to you, but if you may not convert, all you will perish in like manner."

⁶ And He spoke this allegory: "A certain one had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit in it, and he did not find;

⁷ and he said to the vinedresser, Behold, three years I come seeking fruit in this fig tree, and do not find [it], cut it off, why does it also render the ground useless?

⁸ And he answering says to him, Lord, permit it also this year, until I may dig around it, and cast in dung;

⁹ and if indeed it may bear fruit—and if not so, thereafter you will cut it off."

¹⁰ And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath,

¹¹ and behold, there was a woman having a spirit of disability [for] eighteen years, and she was bent together, and not able to bend back at all,

¹² and Jesus having seen her, called [her] near and said to her, "Woman, you have been loosed from your disability";

¹³ and He laid on her [His] hands, and immediately she was set upright, and was glorifying God.

¹⁴ And the chief of the synagogue answering—much displeased that on the Sabbath Jesus healed—said to the multitude, "Six days there are in which it is necessary to be working; in these, then, coming, be healed, and not on the day of the Sabbath."

¹⁵ Then the LORD answered him and said, "Hypocrite, do not each of you loose his ox or donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and having led [it] away, water [it]?"

¹⁶ And this one, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound eighteen years, behold, did [she] not ought to be loosed from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?"

¹⁷ And He saying these things, all who were opposed to Him were being ashamed, and all the multitude were rejoicing over all the glorious things that are being done by Him.

¹⁸ And He said, "To what is the Kingdom of God like? And to what will I liken it?"

¹⁹ It is like to a grain of mustard, which a man having taken, cast into his garden, and it increased, and came to a great tree, and the birds of the heavens rested in its branches."

²⁰ And again He said, "To what will I liken the Kingdom of God?"

²¹ It is like leaven, which a woman, having taken, hid in three measures of meal, until all was leavened."

²² And He was going through cities and villages, teaching, and making progress toward Jerusalem;

²³ and a certain one said to Him, "Lord, are those saved few?" And He said to them,

²⁴ "Be striving to go in through the straight gate, because many, I say to you, will seek to go in, and will not be able;

²⁵ from the time the Master of the house may have risen up, and may have shut the door, and you may begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us, and He answering will say to you, I have not known you from where you are,

²⁶ then you may begin to say, We ate before You, and drank, and You taught in our broad places;

²⁷ and He will say, I say to you, I have not known you from where you are; depart from Me, all you workers of the unrighteousness.

²⁸ There will be there the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth when you may see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of God, and yourselves being cast outside;

²⁹ and they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline in the Kingdom of God,

³⁰ and behold, there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

³¹ On that day there came near certain Pharisees, saying to Him, "Go forth, and be going on from here, for Herod wishes to kill You";

³² and He said to them, "Having gone, say to that fox, Behold, I cast forth demons, and perfect cures today and tomorrow, and the third [day] I am being perfected;

³⁴ Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that is killing the prophets, and stoning those sent to her, how often I willed to gather together your children, as a hen [gathers] her brood under the wings, and you did not will.

³⁵ Behold, your house is being left to you desolate, and truly I say to you, you may not see Me, until it may come when you may say, Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD."

¹ And it came to pass, on His going into the house of a certain one of the chiefs of the Pharisees, on a Sabbath, to eat bread, that they were watching Him,

2 and behold, there was a certain dropsical man before Him;

3 and Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

4 And they were silent, and having taken hold of [him], He healed him, and let [him] go;

5 and answering them He said, "Of which of you will a donkey or ox fall into a pit, and he will not immediately draw it up on the Sabbath day?"

6 And they were not able to answer Him again to these things.

7 And He spoke an allegory to those called, marking how they were choosing out the first couches, saying to them,

8 "When you may be called by anyone to wedding feasts, you may not recline on the first couch, lest [one] more honorable than you may have been called by him,

9 and he who called you and him having come will say to you, Give to this one [your] place, and then you may begin to occupy the last place with shame.

10 But when you may be called, having gone on, recline in the last place, that when he who called you may come, he may say to you, Friend, come up higher; then you will have glory before those dining with you;

11 because everyone who is exalting himself will be humbled, and he who is humbling himself will be exalted."

12 And He also said to him who called Him, "When you may make an early meal or a dinner, do not be calling your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they may also call you again, and a repayment may come to you;

13 but when you may make a feast, be calling poor, maimed, lame, blind,

14 and you will be blessed, because they have nothing to repay you, for it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous."

15 And one of those dining with Him, having heard these things, said to Him, "Blessed [is] he who will eat bread in the Kingdom of God";

16 and He said to him, "A certain man made a great dinner, and called many,

17 and he sent his servant at the hour of the dinner to say to those having been called, Be coming, because now all things are ready.

18 And all began with one [voice] to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I bought a field, and I have need to go forth and see it; I beg of you, have me excused.

19 And another said, I bought five yoke of oxen, and I go on to prove them; I beg of you, have me excused.

20 And another said, I married a wife, and because of this I am not able to come.

21 And that servant having come, told these things to his lord, then the master of the house, having been angry, said to his servant, Go forth quickly into the broad places and lanes of the city, and the poor, and maimed, and lame, and blind, bring in here.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it has been done as you commanded, and still there is room.

23 And the lord said to the servant, Go forth into the ways and hedges, and constrain to come in, that my house may be filled;

24 for I say to you that none of those men who have been called will taste of my dinner."

²⁵ And there were going on with Him great multitudes, and having turned, He said to them,

²⁶ "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and yet even his own life, he is not able to be My disciple;

²⁷ and whoever does not carry his cross, and come after Me, is not able to be My disciple.

²⁸ For who of you, willing to build a tower, does not first, having sat down, count the expense, whether he has the things for completing?

²⁹ Lest that he having laid a foundation, and not being able to finish, all who are beholding may begin to mock him,

³⁰ saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

³² And if not so—he being yet a long way off—having sent a delegation, he asks the things for peace.

³³ So, then, everyone of you who does not take leave of all that he himself has, is not able to be My disciple.

³⁴ The salt [is] good, but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?

³⁵ It is neither fit for land nor for manure—they cast it outside. He who is having ears to hear—let him hear."

¹ And all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to Him, to hear Him,

² and the Pharisees and the scribes were murmuring, saying, "This One receives sinners, and eats with them."

³ And He spoke to them this allegory, saying,

⁴ "What man of you having one hundred sheep, and having lost one out of them, does not leave behind the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go on after the lost one, until he may find it?

⁵ And having found, he lays [it] on his shoulders rejoicing,

⁶ and having come into the house, he calls together the friends and the neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, because I found my sheep—the lost one.

⁷ I say to you that [more] joy will be in Heaven over one sinner converting, rather than over ninety-nine righteous men who have no need of conversion.

⁸ Or what woman having ten drachmas, if she may lose one drachma, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek carefully until she may find?

⁹ And having found, she calls together the female friends and the neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I found the drachma that I lost.

¹⁰ So I say to you, joy comes before the messengers of God over one sinner converting."

¹¹ And He said, "A certain man had two sons,

¹² and the younger of them said to the father, Father, give me the portion of the substance falling to [me], and he divided to them the living.

13 And not many days after, having gathered all together, the younger son went abroad to a far country, and there he scattered his substance, living riotously;

14 and he having spent all, there came a mighty famine on that country, and himself began to be in want;

15 and having gone on, he joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into the fields to feed pigs,

16 and he was desirous to fill his belly from the husks that the pigs were eating, and no one was giving to him.

17 And having come to himself, he said, How many hired workers of my father have a superabundance of bread, and I am perishing here with hunger!

18 Having risen, I will go on to my father, and will say to him, Father, I sinned—to Heaven, and before you,

19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired workers.

20 And having risen, he went to his own father, and he being yet far distant, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and having ran he fell on his neck and kissed him;

21 and the son said to him, Father, I sinned—to Heaven, and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son.

22 And the father said to his servants, Bring forth the foremost robe, and clothe him, and give a ring for his hand, and sandals for the feet;

23 and having brought the fatted calf, kill [it], and having eaten, we may be merry,

24 because this son of mine was dead, and lived again, and he was lost, and was found; and they began to be merry.

25 And his elder son was in a field, and as, coming, he drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing,

26 and having called near one of the young men, he was inquiring what these things might be,

27 and he said to him, Your brother has arrived, and your father killed the fatted calf, because he received him back in health.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in, therefore his father, having come forth, was pleading him;

29 and he answering said to the father, Behold, so many years I serve you, and never did I transgress your command, and you never gave to me a kid that I might make merry with my friends;

30 but when your son—this one who devoured your living with prostitutes—came, you killed to him the fatted calf.

31 And he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all my things are yours;

32 but to be merry, and to be glad, it was necessary, because this your brother was dead, and lived again, he was lost, and was found.”

1 And He also said to His disciples, “A certain man was rich, who had a steward, and he was accused to him as scattering his goods;

² and having called him, he said to him, What [is] this I hear about you? Render the account of your stewardship, for you may not be steward any longer.

³ And the steward said in himself, What will I do, because my lord takes away the stewardship from me? I am not able to dig, I am ashamed to beg—

⁴ I have known what I will do, that, when I may be removed from the stewardship, they may receive me to their houses.

⁵ And having called near each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much do you owe to my lord?

⁶ And he said, One hundred baths of oil; and he said to him, Take your bill, and having sat down write fifty.

⁷ Afterward to another he said, And you, how much do you owe? And he said, One hundred cors of wheat; and he says to him, Take your bill, and write eighty.

⁸ And the lord commended the unrighteous steward that he did prudently, because the sons of this age are more prudent than the sons of the light in respect to their generation.

⁹ And I say to you, make to yourselves friends out of the wealth of unrighteousness, that when you may fail, they may receive you into the continuous dwelling places.

¹⁰ He who is faithful in the least, [is] also faithful in much; and he who in the least [is] unrighteous, is also unrighteous in much;

¹¹ if, then, in the unrighteous wealth you did not become faithful—who will entrust to you the true?

¹² And if in the other's you did not become faithful—who will give to you your own?

¹³ No servant is able to serve two lords, for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other; or one he will hold to, and of the other he will be heedless; you are not able to serve God and wealth."

¹⁴ And also the Pharisees, being lovers of money, were hearing all these things, and were deriding Him,

¹⁵ and He said to them, "You are those declaring yourselves righteous before men, but God knows your hearts; because that which is high among men [is] abomination before God;

¹⁶ the Law and the Prophets [are] until John; since then the good news of the Kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone presses into it;

¹⁷ and it is easier for the heaven and the earth to pass away, than one tittle to fall of the Law.

¹⁸ Everyone who is sending his wife away, and marrying another, commits adultery; and everyone who is marrying her sent away from a husband commits adultery.

¹⁹ And—a certain man was rich, and was clothed in purple and fine linen, making merry sumptuously every day,

²⁰ and there was a certain poor man, by name Lazarus, who was laid at his porch, full of sores,

²¹ and desiring to be filled from the crumbs that are falling from the table of the rich man; indeed, also the dogs, coming, were licking his sores.

²² And it came to pass, that the poor man died, and that he was carried away by the messengers into the bosom of Abraham—and the rich man also died, and was buried;

²³ and having lifted up his eyes in Hades, being in torments, he sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus in his bosom,

²⁴ and having cried, he said, Father Abraham, deal kindly with me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and may cool my tongue, because I am distressed in this flame.

²⁵ And Abraham said, Child, remember that you received your good things in your life, and Lazarus in like manner the evil things, and now he is comforted, and you are distressed;

²⁶ and besides all these things, between us and you a great chasm is fixed, so that they who are willing to go over from here to you are not able, nor do they pass through from there to us.

²⁷ And he said, I ask, then, father, that you may send him to the house of my father, ²⁸ for I have five brothers, so that he may thoroughly testify to them, that they also may not come to this place of torment.

²⁹ Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the prophets, let them hear them;

³⁰ and he said, No, father Abraham, but if anyone from the dead may go to them, they will convert.

³¹ And he said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one may rise out of the dead."

¹ And He said to the disciples, "It is impossible for the stumbling blocks not to come, but woe [to him] through whom they come;

² it is more profitable to him if a weighty millstone is put around his neck, and he has been cast into the sea, than that he may cause one of these little ones to stumble.

³ Take heed to yourselves, and if your brother may sin in regard to you, rebuke him, and if he may change his mind, forgive him,

⁴ and if seven times in the day he may sin against you, and seven times in the day may return to you, saying, I change my mind, you will forgive him."

⁵ And the apostles said to the LORD, "Add to us faith";

⁶ and the LORD said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard, you would have said to this sycamine, Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea, and it would have obeyed you.

⁷ But who is he of you—having a servant plowing or feeding—who, to him having come in out of the field, will say, Having come, recline at once?

⁸ But will not [rather] say to him, Prepare what I may dine, and having girded yourself around, minister to me, until I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink?

⁹ Does he have favor to that servant because he did the things directed? I think not.

¹⁰ So also you, when you may have done all the things directed you, say, We are unprofitable servants, because that which we owed to do we have done."

¹¹ And it came to pass, in His going on to Jerusalem, that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee,

¹² and He entering into a certain village, there ten leprous men met Him, who stood far off,

¹³ and they lifted up the voice, saying, "Jesus, Master, deal kindly with us";

¹⁴ and having seen [them], He said to them, "Having gone on, show yourselves to the priests"; and it came to pass, in their going, they were cleansed,

¹⁵ and one of them having seen that he was healed turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice,

¹⁶ and he fell on [his] face at His feet, giving thanks to Him, and he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ And Jesus answering said, "Were not the ten cleansed, and the nine—where?"

¹⁸ There were none found who turned back to give glory to God, except this foreigner";

¹⁹ and He said to him, "Having risen, be going on, your faith has saved you."

²⁰ And having been questioned by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God comes, He answered them and said, "The Kingdom of God does not come with observation;

²¹ nor will they say, Behold, here; or, Behold, there; for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

²² And He said to His disciples, "Days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man and you will not behold [it];

²³ and they will say to you, Behold, here; or, Behold, there; you may not go away, nor follow;

²⁴ for as the lightning is flashing out of one [part] under the sky [and] shines to the other [part] under the sky, so will the Son of Man also be in His day;

²⁵ and first it is necessary for Him to suffer many things, and to be rejected by this generation.

²⁶ And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man;

²⁷ they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the Ark, and the flood came, and destroyed all;

²⁸ in like manner also, as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building;

²⁹ and on the day Lot went forth from Sodom, He rained fire and brimstone from the sky, and destroyed all.

³⁰ According to these things it will be, in the day the Son of Man is revealed;

³¹ in that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his vessels in the house, do not let him come down to take them away; and he in the field, in like manner, do not let him turn backward;

³² remember the wife of Lot.

³³ Whoever may seek to save his life, will lose it; and whoever may lose it, will preserve it.

³⁴ I say to you, in that night there will be two [men] on one bed: one will be taken, and the other will be left;

³⁵ two [women] will be grinding at the same place together: one will be taken, and the other will be left;

³⁶ [[two [men] will be in the field: one will be taken, and the other left.]]

³⁷ And they answering say to Him, "Where, Lord?" And He said to them, "Where the body [is], there the eagles will be gathered together."

¹ And He also spoke an allegory to them, that it is always necessary to pray and not to faint,

² saying, "A certain judge was in a certain city—he is not fearing God, and he is not regarding man—

³ and a widow was in that city, and she was coming to him, saying, Do me justice on my opponent,

⁴ and he would not for a time, but after these things he said in himself, Even if I do not fear God, and do not regard man,

⁵ yet because this widow gives me trouble, I will do her justice, lest, continuously coming, she may bruise me."

⁶ And the LORD said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says:

⁷ and will God not execute justice to His chosen ones, who are crying to Him day and night—bearing long in regard to them?

⁸ I say to you that He will execute justice to them quickly; but the Son of Man having come, will He find faith on the earth?"

⁹ And He also spoke to some who have been trusting in themselves that they were righteous, and have been despising the rest, this allegory:

¹⁰ "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector;

¹¹ the Pharisee having stood by himself, thus prayed: God, I thank You that I am not as the rest of men, rapacious, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax collector;

¹² I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all things—as many as I possess.

¹³ And the tax collector, having stood far off, would not even lift up the eyes to the sky, but was striking on his breast, saying, God be propitious to me—the sinner!

¹⁴ I say to you, this one went down declared righteous, to his house, rather than that one: for everyone who is exalting himself will be humbled, and he who is humbling himself will be exalted."

¹⁵ And they were also bringing the babies near, that He may touch them, and the disciples having seen, rebuked them,

¹⁶ and Jesus having called them near, said, "Permit the little children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the Kingdom of God;

¹⁷ truly I say to you, whoever may not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, may not enter into it."

¹⁸ And a certain ruler questioned Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what having done—will I inherit continuous life?"

¹⁹ And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one [is] good, except one—God;

²⁰ you have known the commands: You may not commit adultery, You may not murder, You may not steal, You may not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother."

²¹ And he said, "All these I kept from my youth";

22 and having heard these things, Jesus said to him, "Yet one thing to you is lacking: all things—as many as you have—sell, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me";

23 and he, having heard these things, became very sorrowful, for he was exceedingly rich.

24 And Jesus having seen him become very sorrowful, said, "How hardly will those having riches enter into the Kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

26 And those who heard, said, "And who is able to be saved?"

27 And He said, "The things impossible with men are possible with God."

28 And Peter said, "Behold, we left all, and followed You";

29 and He said to them, "Truly I say to you that there is not one who left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God,

30 who may not receive back manifold more in this time, and in the coming age, continuous life."

31 And having taken the Twelve aside, He said to them, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things will be accomplished that have been written through the prophets to the Son of Man,

32 for He will be delivered up to the nations, and will be mocked, and insulted, and spit on,

33 and having scourged they will put Him to death, and on the third day He will rise again."

34 And they understood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, and they were not knowing the things said.

35 And it came to pass, in His coming near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting beside the way begging,

36 and having heard a multitude going by, he was inquiring what this may be,

37 and they brought him word that Jesus the Nazarene passes by,

38 and he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, deal kindly with me";

39 and those going before were rebuking him, that he might be silent, but he was crying out much more, "Son of David, deal kindly with me!"

40 And Jesus having stood, commanded him to be brought to Him, and he having come near, He questioned him,

41 saying, "What do you will I will do to you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may receive sight."

42 And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has saved you";

43 and instantly he received sight, and was following Him, glorifying God; and all the people, having seen, gave praise to God.

1 And having entered, He was passing through Jericho,

2 and behold, a man, by name called Zaccheus, and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich,

3 and he was seeking to see Jesus, who He is, and was not able for the multitude, because he was small in stature,

4 and having run forward before, he went up on a sycamore, that he may see Him, because through that [way] He was about to pass by.

5 And as Jesus came up to the place, having looked up, He saw him and said to him, "Zaccheus, having hurried, come down, for it is necessary for Me to remain in your house today";

6 and he having hurried came down, and received Him rejoicing;

7 and having seen [it], they were all murmuring, saying, "He went in to lodge with a sinful man!"

8 And Zaccheus having stood, said to the LORD, "Behold, half of my goods, Lord, I give to the poor, and if I took by false accusation anything of anyone, I give back fourfold."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation came to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham;

10 for the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

11 And while they are hearing these things, having added He spoke an allegory, because of His being near to Jerusalem, and of their thinking that the Kingdom of God is immediately about to appear.

12 He therefore said, "A certain man of birth went on to a far country, to take to himself a kingdom, and to return,

13 and having called ten servants of his own, he gave ten minas to them and said to them, Do business—until I come;

14 and his citizens were hating him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, We do not wish this one to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, on his coming back, having taken the kingdom, that he commanded these servants to be called to him, to whom he gave the money, that he might know what anyone had done in business.

16 And the first came near, saying, Lord, your mina gained ten minas;

17 and he said to him, Well done, good servant, because you became faithful in a very little, be having authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, your mina made five minas;

19 and he also said to this one, And you, become [ruler] over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, your mina, that I had lying away in a napkin;

21 for I was afraid of you, because you are an austere man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.

22 And he says to him, Out of your mouth I will judge you, evil servant: you knew that I am an austere man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow!

23 And why did you not give my money to the bank, and I, having come, might have received it with interest?

24 And to those standing by he said, Take the mina from him, and give to him having the ten minas—

25 (and they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas)—

26 for I say to you that to everyone having will be given, and from him not having, also what he has will be taken from him,

27 but those my enemies, who did not wish me to reign over them, bring here and slay before me."

28 And having said these things, He went on before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, as He came near to Bethphage and Bethany, to that called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples,

³⁰ having said, "Go away into the village in front of [you], in which, entering in, you will find a colt bound, on which no one of men ever sat, having loosed it, bring [it];

³¹ and if anyone questions you, Why do you loose [it]? Thus you will say to him: The LORD has need of it."

³² And those sent, having gone away, found according as He said to them,

³³ and while they are loosing the colt, its owners said to them, "Why do you loose the colt?"

³⁴ And they said, "The LORD has need of it";

³⁵ and they brought it to Jesus, and having cast their garments on the colt, they sat Jesus on it.

³⁶ And as He is going, they were spreading their garments in the way,

³⁷ and as He is coming near now, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began rejoicing to praise God with a great voice for all the mighty works they had seen,

³⁸ saying, "Blessed [is] the King coming in the Name of the LORD; peace in Heaven, and glory in the highest!"

³⁹ And certain of the Pharisees from the multitude said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples";

⁴⁰ and He answering said to them, "I say to you that if these will be silent, the stones will cry out!"

⁴¹ And when He came near, having seen the city, He wept over it,

⁴² saying, "If you knew, even you, at least in this your day, the things for your peace; but now they were hid from your eyes.

⁴³ Because days will come on you, and your enemies will cast a rampart around you, and surround you around, and press you on every side,

⁴⁴ and lay you low, and your children within you, and they will not leave in you a stone on a stone, because you did not know the time of your inspection."

⁴⁵ And having entered into the temple, He began to cast forth those selling in it, and those buying,

⁴⁶ saying to them, "It has been written, My house is a house of prayer—but you made it a den of robbers."

⁴⁷ And He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes were seeking to destroy Him—also the chiefs of the people—

⁴⁸ and they were not finding what they will do, for all the people were hanging on Him, hearing Him.

¹ And it came to pass, on one of those days, as He is teaching the people in the temple, and proclaiming good news, the chief priests and the scribes, with the elders, came on [Him],

² and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us by what authority You do these things? Or who is he that gave to You this authority?"

³ And He answering said to them, "I will question you—I also—one thing, and tell Me:

⁴ the immersion of John, was it from Heaven, or from men?"

⁵ And they reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we may say, From Heaven, He will say, Why, then, did you not believe him?"

⁶ And if we may say, From men, all the people will stone us, for they are having been persuaded John to be a prophet."

⁷ And they answered that they did not know from where [it was],

⁸ and Jesus said to them, “Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these things.”

⁹ And He began to speak to the people this allegory: “A certain man planted a vineyard, and gave it out to farmers, and went abroad for a long time,

¹⁰ and at the season he sent a servant to the farmers, that they may give to him from the fruit of the vineyard, but the farmers having beat him, sent [him] away empty.

¹¹ And he added to send another servant, and they also having beaten and dishonored that one, sent [him] away empty;

¹² and he added to send a third, and this one also, having wounded, they cast out.

¹³ And the owner of the vineyard said, What will I do? I will send my son, the beloved, perhaps having seen this one, they will respect [him];

¹⁴ and having seen him, the farmers reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; come, we may kill him, that the inheritance may become ours;

¹⁵ and having cast him outside of the vineyard, they killed [him]; what, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

¹⁶ He will come, and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.” And having heard, they said, “Let it not be!”

¹⁷ And He, having looked on them, said, “What, then, is this that has been written: A stone that the builders rejected—this became head of a corner?

¹⁸ Everyone who has fallen on that stone will be broken, and on whom it may fall, it will crush him to pieces.”

¹⁹ And the chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him in that hour, and they feared the people, for they knew that He spoke this allegory against them.

²¹ and they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, we have known that You say and teach correctly, and do not receive a person, but in truth teach the way of God.

²² Is it lawful to us to give tribute to Caesar or not?”

²³ And He, having perceived their craftiness, said to them, “Why do you tempt Me?

²⁴ Show Me a denarius; of whom does it have an image and inscription?” And they answering said, “Of Caesar”:

²⁵ and He said to them, “Give back, therefore, the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God”;

²⁶ and they were not able to take hold on His saying before the people, and having wondered at His answer, they were silent.

²⁷ And certain of the Sadducees, who are denying that there is a resurrection, having come near, questioned Him, ²⁸ saying, “Teacher, Moses wrote to us if anyone’s brother may die, having a wife, and he may die childless—that his brother may take the wife, and may raise up seed to his brother.

²⁹ There were, then, seven brothers, and the first having taken a wife, died childless,

³⁰ and the second took the wife, and he died childless,

³¹ and the third took her, and in like manner also the seven—they left no children, and they died;

³² and last of all the woman also died:

³³ in the resurrection, then, of which of them does she become wife? For the seven had her as wife."

³⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage,

³⁵ but those accounted worthy to obtain that age, and the resurrection that is out of the dead, neither marry, nor are they given in marriage;

³⁶ for neither are they able to die anymore—for they are like messengers—and they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

³⁷ And that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the Bush, since he calls the LORD the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;

³⁸ and He is not a God of dead men, but of living, for all live to Him."

³⁹ And certain of the scribes answering said, "Teacher, You said well";

⁴⁰ and they no longer dared question Him anything.

⁴¹ And He said to them, "How do they say the Christ is [the] son of David,

⁴² and David himself says in [the] Scroll of Psalms, The LORD said to my Lord, | | Sit on My right hand,

⁴³ Until I will make Your enemies Your footstool;

⁴⁴ David, then, calls Him Lord, and how is He his son?"

⁴⁵ And all the people hearing, He said to His disciples,

⁴⁶ "Take heed of the scribes, who are wishing to walk in long robes, and are cherishing salutations in the markets, and first seats in the synagogues, and first couches at the banquets, ⁴⁷ who devour the houses of the widows, and make long prayers for a pretense, these will receive more abundant judgment."

21

¹ And having looked up, He saw those who cast their gifts into the treasury—rich men,

² and He also saw a certain poor widow casting two mites there,

³ and He said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow cast in more than all;

⁴ for all these out of their superabundance cast into the gifts to God, but this one out of her want, all the living that she had, cast in."

⁵ And [as] some were speaking about the temple, that it has been adorned with good stones and devoted things, He said,

⁶ "These things that you behold—days will come in which there will not be left a stone on a stone that will not be thrown down."

⁷ And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, when, then, will these things be? And what [is] the sign when these things may be about to happen?"

⁸ And He said, "See—you may not be led astray, for many will come in My Name, saying, I am [He], and the time has come near; do not then go on after them;

⁹ and when you may hear of wars and uprisings, do not be terrified, for it is necessary for these things to happen first, but the end [is] not immediately.”

¹⁰ Then He said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom,

¹¹ also great shakings, and there will be famines and pestilences in every place; also there will be fearful things and great signs from the sky;

¹² and before all these, they will lay on you their hands, and persecute, delivering up to synagogues and prisons, being brought before kings and governors for My Name’s sake;

¹³ and it will become to you for a testimony.

¹⁴ Settle, then, to your hearts, not to meditate beforehand to reply,

¹⁵ for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all your opposers will not be able to refute or resist.

¹⁶ And you will be delivered up also by parents, and brothers, and relatives, and friends, and they will put [some] of you to death;

¹⁷ and you will be hated by all because of My Name—

¹⁸ and a hair out of your head will not perish;

¹⁹ in your patience possess your souls.

²⁰ And when you may see Jerusalem surrounded by encampments, then know that her desolation has come near;

²¹ then those in Judea, let them flee to the mountains; and those in her midst, let them depart out; and those in the countries, do not let them come in to her;

²² because these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all things that have been written.

²³ And woe to those with child, and to those giving suck, in those days; for there will be great distress on the land, and wrath on this people;

²⁴ and they will fall by the mouth of the sword, and will be led captive to all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trodden down by nations, until the times of nations be fulfilled.

²⁵ And there will be signs in sun, and moon, and stars, and on the earth distress of nations with perplexity, sea and wave roaring;

²⁶ men fainting at heart from fear, and expectation of the things coming on the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

²⁷ And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud, with power and much glory;

²⁸ and these things beginning to happen, bend yourselves back, and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near.”

²⁹ And He spoke an allegory to them: “See the fig tree, and all the trees,

³⁰ when they may now cast forth, having seen, of yourselves you know that now the summer is near;

³¹ so also you, when you may see these things happening, you know that the Kingdom of God is near;

³² truly I say to you, this generation may not pass away until all may have come to pass;

³³ the sky and the earth will pass away, but My words may not pass away.

³⁴ And take heed to yourselves lest your hearts may be weighed down with carousing, and drunkenness, and anxieties of life, and suddenly that day may come on you,

³⁵ for it will come as a snare on all those dwelling on the face of all the earth,

³⁶ watch, then, in every season, praying that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that are about to come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷ And He was teaching in the temple during the days, and during the nights, going forth, He was lodging at [that] called the Mount of Olives;

³⁸ and all the people were coming early to Him in the temple to hear Him.

¹ And the Celebration of the Unleavened [Bread] was coming near, that is called Passover;

² and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they may take Him up, for they were afraid of the people.

³ And Satan entered into Judas, who is surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the Twelve,

⁴ and he, having gone away, spoke with the chief priests and the magistrates, how he might deliver Him up to them,

⁵ and they rejoiced, and covenanted to give him money,

⁶ and he agreed, and was seeking a favorable season to deliver Him up to them without tumult.

⁷ And the day of the Unleavened [Bread] came, in which it was necessary [for] the Passover to be sacrificed,

⁸ and He sent Peter and John, saying, "Having gone on, prepare to us the Passover, that we may eat";

⁹ and they said to Him, "Where do You will that we might prepare?"

¹⁰ And He said to them, "Behold, in your entering into the city, a man will meet you there, carrying a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he goes in,

¹¹ and you will say to the master of the house, The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest-chamber where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"

¹² And he will show you a large upper room furnished, make ready there";

¹³ and they, having gone away, found as He has said to them, and they made the Passover ready.

¹⁴ And when the hour was come, He reclined, and the twelve apostles with Him,

¹⁵ and He said to them, "With desire I desired to eat this Passover with you before My suffering,

¹⁶ for I say to you that I may eat of it no longer until it may be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

¹⁷ And having taken a cup, having given thanks, He said, "Take this and divide to yourselves, ¹⁸ for I say to you that I may not drink of the produce of the vine until the Kingdom of God may come."

¹⁹ And having taken bread, having given thanks, He broke and gave to them, saying, "This is My body, that is being given for you, do this in remembrance of Me."

²⁰ In like manner, also, the cup after the dining, saying, "This cup [is] the New Covenant in My blood, that is being poured forth for you.

²¹ But behold, the hand of him delivering Me up [is] with Me on the table,

²² and, indeed, the Son of Man goes according to what has been determined; but woe to that man through whom He is being delivered up."

²³ And they began to reason among themselves who then of them it may be who is about to do this thing.

²⁴ And there happened also a strife among them—who of them is accounted to be greater.

²⁵ And He said to them, "The kings of the nations exercise lordship over them, and those exercising authority on them are called benefactors;

²⁶ but you [are] not so, but he who is greater among you—let him be as the younger; and he who is leading, as he who is ministering;

²⁷ for who is greater? He who is reclining, or he who is ministering? Is it not he who is reclining? And I am in your midst as He who is ministering.

²⁸ And you are those who have remained with Me in My temptations,

²⁹ and I appoint to you a kingdom, as My Father appointed to Me,

³⁰ that you may eat and may drink at My table, in My kingdom, and may sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

³¹ And the LORD said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked for himself to sift you as the wheat,

³² and I implored for you that your faith may not fail; and you, when you turned, strengthen your brothers."

³³ And he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death";

³⁴ and He said, "I say to you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today, before you may disown knowing Me three times."

³⁵ And He said to them, "When I sent you without bag, and leather pouch, and sandals, did you lack anything?" And they said, "Nothing."

³⁶ Then He said to them, "But now, he who is having a bag, let him take [it] up, and in like manner also a leather pouch; and he who is not having, let him sell his garment, and buy a sword, ³⁷ for I say to you that this which has been written is necessary to be accomplished in Me: And He was reckoned with lawless ones; for also the things concerning Me have an end."

³⁸ And they said, "Lord, behold, here [are] two swords"; and He said to them, "It is sufficient."

³⁹ And having gone forth, He went on, according to custom, to the Mount of Olives, and His disciples also followed Him,

⁴⁰ and having come to the place, He said to them, "Pray to not enter into temptation."

⁴¹ And He was withdrawn from them, as it were a stone's cast, and having fallen on the knees He was praying,

⁴² saying, "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me, but not My will, but Yours be done."

⁴³ And there appeared to Him a messenger from Heaven strengthening Him;

⁴⁴ and having been in agony, He was more earnestly praying, and His sweat became, as it were, great drops of blood falling on the ground.

⁴⁵ And having risen up from the prayer, having come to the disciples, He found them sleeping from the sorrow,

⁴⁶ and He said to them, "Why do you sleep? Having risen, pray that you may not enter into temptation."

⁴⁷ And while He is speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who is called Judas, one of the Twelve, was coming before them, and he came near to Jesus to kiss Him,

⁴⁸ and Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you deliver up the Son of Man with a kiss?"

⁴⁹ And those around Him, having seen what was about to be, said to Him, "Lord, will we strike with a sword?"

⁵⁰ And a certain one of them struck the servant of the chief priest, and took off his right ear,

⁵¹ and Jesus answering said, "Permit thus far," and having touched his ear, He healed him.

⁵² And Jesus said to those having come on Him—chief priests, and magistrates of the temple, and elders, "Have you come forth with swords and sticks as on a robber?"

⁵³ While daily I was with you in the temple, you stretched forth no hands against Me; but this is your hour and the power of the darkness."

⁵⁴ And having taken Him, they led and brought Him into the house of the chief priest. And Peter was following far off,

⁵⁵ and they having kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and having sat down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them,

⁵⁶ and a certain maid having seen him sitting at the light, and having earnestly looked at him, she said, "And this one was with Him!"

⁵⁷ And he disowned Him, saying, "Woman, I have not known Him."

⁵⁸ And after a while, another having seen him, said, "And you are of them!" And Peter said, "Man, I am not."

⁵⁹ And one hour, as it were, having intervened, a certain other was confidently affirming, saying, "Of a truth this one also was with Him, for he is also a Galilean";

⁶⁰ and Peter said, "Man, I have not known what you say"; and immediately, while he is speaking, a rooster crowed.

⁶¹ And the LORD, having turned, looked on Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the LORD, how He said to him, "Before a rooster will crow, you may disown Me three times";

⁶² and Peter having gone outside, wept bitterly.

⁶³ And the men who were holding Jesus were mocking Him, beating [Him];

⁶⁴ and having blindfolded Him, they were striking Him on the face, and were questioning Him, saying, "Prophecy who he is who struck You?"

⁶⁵ And many other things, slandering, they spoke in regard to Him.

⁶⁶ And when it became day there was gathered together the eldership of the people, chief priests also, and scribes, and they led Him up to their own Sanhedrin,

⁶⁷ saying, "If You are the Christ, tell us." And He said to them, "If I may tell you, you will not believe;

⁶⁸ and if I also question [you], you will not answer Me or send Me away;

⁶⁹ from now on, there will be the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the power of God."

⁷⁰ And they all said, "You, then, are the Son of God?" And He said to them, "You say [it], because I AM";

⁷¹ and they said, "What need do we have yet of testimony? For we ourselves heard [it] from His mouth."

¹ And having risen, the whole multitude of them led Him to Pilate,

² and began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this One perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying Himself to be Christ, a king."

³ And Pilate questioned Him, saying, "You are the King of the Jews?" And He answering him, said, "You say [it]."

⁴ And Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitude, "I find no fault in this Man";

⁵ and they were the more urgent, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout the whole of Judea—having begun from Galilee—to this place."

⁶ And Pilate having heard of Galilee, questioned if the Man is a Galilean,

⁷ and having known that He is from the jurisdiction of Herod, he sent Him back to Herod, he also being in Jerusalem in those days.

⁸ And Herod rejoiced exceedingly having seen Jesus, for he was wishing to see Him for a long [time], because of hearing many things about Him, and he was hoping to see some sign done by Him,

⁹ and was questioning Him in many words, and He answered him nothing.

¹⁰ And the chief priests and the scribes stood vehemently accusing Him,

¹¹ and Herod with his soldiers having set Him at nothing, and having mocked, having cast radiant apparel around Him, sent Him back to Pilate,

¹² and both Pilate and Herod became friends with one another on that day, for they were previously at enmity between themselves.

¹³ And Pilate having called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

¹⁴ said to them, "You brought this Man to me as perverting the people, and behold, I having examined [Him] before you, found no fault in this Man in those things you bring forward against Him;

¹⁵ no, neither Herod, for he sent Him back to us, and behold, nothing worthy of death is having been done by Him;

¹⁶ having corrected, therefore, I will release Him,"

¹⁷ [[for it was necessary for him to release to them one at every celebration,]]

¹⁸ and they cried out—the whole multitude—saying, "Away with this One, and release Barabbas to us,"

¹⁹ who had been cast into prison, because of a certain sedition made in the city, and murder.

²⁰ Pilate again then—wishing to release Jesus—called to them,

²¹ but they were calling out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify Him!"

²² And he said to them a third time, "Why, what evil did He do? I found no cause of death in Him; having corrected Him, then, I will release [Him]."

²³ And they were pressing with loud voices asking Him to be crucified, and their voices, and those of the chief priests, were prevailing,

²⁴ and Pilate gave judgment for their request being done,

²⁵ and he released him who because of sedition and murder has been cast into the prison, whom they were asking for, and he gave up Jesus to their will.

²⁶ And as they led Him away, having taken hold on Simon, a certain Cyrenian, coming from the field, they put the cross on him to carry [it] behind Jesus.

²⁷ And a great multitude of the people were following Him, and of women, who also were beating themselves and lamenting Him,

²⁸ and Jesus having turned to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children;

²⁹ for behold, days come in which they will say, Blessed the barren, and wombs that did not bear, and breasts that did not give suck;

³⁰ then they will begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us, and to the hills, Cover us;

³¹ for if they do these things in the green tree, what may happen in the dry?"

³² And there were also others—two evildoers—with Him, to be put to death;

³³ and when they came to the place that is called "[Place] of [the] Skull," there they crucified Him and the evildoers, one on the right hand and one on the left.

³⁴ And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they have not known what they do"; and parting His garments they cast a lot.

³⁵ And the people were standing, looking on, and the rulers were also sneering with them, saying, "He saved others, let Him save Himself, if this be the Christ, the Chosen One of God."

³⁶ And the soldiers were also mocking Him, coming near and offering vinegar to Him,

³⁷ and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

³⁸ And there was also an inscription written over Him [[in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew]]: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

³⁹ And one of the evildoers who were hanged was slandering Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us."

⁴⁰ And the other answering, was rebuking him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, that you are in the same judgment?"

⁴¹ And we indeed justly, for we are receiving back [things] worthy of what we did, but this One did nothing out of place";

⁴² and he said to Jesus, "Remember me, Lord, when You may come in Your kingdom";

⁴³ and Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

⁴⁴ And it was, as it were, the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour;

⁴⁵ and the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in the middle,

⁴⁶ and having cried with a loud voice, Jesus said, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit"; now having said this, He breathed His last.

⁴⁷ And the centurion having seen what was done, glorified God, saying, "Truly this Man was righteous";

⁴⁸ and all the multitudes having come together to this sight, beholding the things that came to pass, turned back striking their breasts;

⁴⁹ and all His acquaintances stood far off, and women who followed Him from Galilee, beholding these things.

⁵⁰ And behold, a man, by name Joseph, being a counselor, a man good and righteous,

⁵¹ from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who also himself was expecting the Kingdom of God, he was not consenting to their counsel and deed,

⁵² he having gone near to Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus,

⁵³ and having taken it down, he wrapped it in fine linen, and placed it in a hewn out tomb, where no one was yet laid.

⁵⁴ And it was [the] Day of Preparation, and Sabbath was approaching,

⁵⁵ and the women who also have come with Him out of Galilee having followed after, beheld the tomb, and how His body was placed,

⁵⁶ and having turned back, they made ready spices and ointments, and on the Sabbath, indeed, they rested, according to the command.

¹ And on the first [day] of the weeks, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, carrying the spices they made ready, and certain [others] with them,

² and they found the stone having been rolled away from the tomb,

³ and having gone in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴ And it came to pass, while they are perplexed about this, that behold, two men stood by them in clothing—flashing [with light];

⁵ and on their having become afraid, and having inclined the face to the earth, they said to them, “Why do you seek the living with the dead?”

⁶ He is not here, but was raised; remember how He spoke to you, being yet in Galilee,

⁷ saying, It is necessary for the Son of Man to be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and to be crucified, and to rise again [on] the third day.”

⁸ And they remembered His sayings,

⁹ and having turned back from the tomb, told all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest.

¹⁰ And it was Mary the Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles,

¹¹ and their sayings appeared before them as idle talk, and they were not believing them.

¹² And Peter having risen, ran to the tomb, and having stooped down he sees the linen clothes lying alone, and he went away to his own home, wondering at that having come to pass.

¹³ And behold, two of them were going on during that day to a village, being sixty stadia distant from Jerusalem, the name of which [is] Emmaus, ¹⁴ and they were conversing with one another about all these things that have happened.

¹⁵ And it came to pass in their conversing and reasoning together, that Jesus Himself, having come near, was going on with them,

¹⁶ and their eyes were restrained so as not to know Him,

¹⁷ and He said to them, “What [are] these words that you exchange with one another, walking, and you are sad?”

18 And one, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said to Him, "Are You alone visiting Jerusalem and have not known the things having come to pass in it in these days?"

19 And He said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who became a man—a prophet—powerful in deed and word, before God and all the people,

20 how also the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him up to a judgment of death, and crucified Him;

21 and we were hoping that it is He who is about to redeem Israel, and also with all these things, this third day is passing today since these things happened.

22 And certain of our women also astonished us, coming early to the tomb,

23 and having not found His body, they came, saying to have also seen an apparition of messengers who say He is alive,

24 and certain of those with us went away to the tomb, and found [it] so, even as the women said, and they did not see Him."

25 And He said to them, "O inconsiderate and slow in heart to believe on all that the prophets spoke!

26 Was it not necessary [for] the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?"

27 And having begun from Moses, and from all the Prophets, He was expounding to them in all the Writings the things about Himself.

28 And they came near to the village to where they were going, and He made an appearance of going on further,

29 and they constrained Him, saying, "Remain with us, for it is toward evening," and the day declined, and He went in to remain with them.

30 And it came to pass, in His reclining with them, having taken the bread, He blessed, and having broken, He was giving to them,

31 and their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, and He became unseen by them.

32 And they said to one another, "Was our heart not burning within us as He was speaking to us in the way, and as He was opening the Writings up to us?"

33 And they, having risen up the same hour, turned back to Jerusalem, and found the Eleven gathered together, and those with them,

34 saying, "The Lord was indeed raised, and was seen by Simon";

35 and they were expounding the things in the way, and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread,

36 and as they are speaking these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and says to them, "Peace to you";

37 and being amazed, and becoming frightened, they were thinking themselves to see a spirit.

38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do reasonings come up in your hearts?"

39 See My hands and My feet, that I am He; handle Me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see Me having."

40 And having said this, He showed the hands and the feet to them,

41 and while they are not believing from the joy, and wondering, He said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

⁴² And they gave to Him part of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb,

⁴³ and having taken, He ate before them,

⁴⁴ and He said to them, "These [are] the words that I spoke to you, being yet with you, that it is necessary to be fulfilled all the things that are written in the Law of Moses, and the Prophets, and the Psalms, about Me."

⁴⁵ Then He opened up their understanding to understand the Writings,

⁴⁶ and He said to them, "Thus it has been written, and thus it was necessary [for] the Christ to suffer, and to rise out of the dead [on] the third day,

⁴⁷ and conversion and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in His Name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem:

⁴⁸ and you are witnesses of these things.

⁴⁹ And behold, I send the promise of My Father on you, but you—abide in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

⁵⁰ And He led them forth outside—to Bethany, and having lifted up His hands He blessed them,

⁵¹ and it came to pass, in His blessing them, He was parted from them, and was carried up into Heaven;

⁵² and they, having worshiped Him, turned back to Jerusalem with great joy,

⁵³ and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God;

² this One was in the beginning with God;

³ all things happened through Him, and without Him not even one thing happened that has happened.

⁴ In Him was life, and the life was the light of men,

⁵ and the light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not perceive it.

⁶ There came a man—having been sent from God—whose name [is] John,

⁷ this one came for testimony, that he might testify about the Light, that all might believe through him;

⁸ that one was not the Light, but—that he might testify about the Light.

⁹ He was the true Light, which enlightens every man, coming into the world;

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him:

¹¹ He came to [His] own, and [His] own did not receive Him;

¹² but as many as received Him, to them He gave authority to become sons of God—to those believing in His Name,

¹³ who were begotten, not of blood, nor of will of flesh, nor of will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of [the] only begotten of [the] Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵ John testifies concerning Him, and has cried, saying, “This was He of whom I said, He who is coming after me has come before me, for He was before me.”

¹⁶ And we all received out of His fullness, and grace for grace;

¹⁷ for the Law was given through Moses, the grace and the truth came through Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ No one has ever seen God; the only begotten God who is on the bosom of the Father—He has expounded [Him].

¹⁹ And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites out of Jerusalem, that they might question him, “Who are you?”

²⁰ And he confessed and did not deny, and confessed, “I am not the Christ.”

²¹ And they questioned him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he says, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” And he answered, “No.”

²² Then they said to him, “Who are you, that we may give an answer to those sending us? What do you say concerning yourself?”

²³ He said, “I [am] a voice of one crying in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the LORD, as Isaiah the prophet said.”

²⁴ And those sent were of the Pharisees,

²⁵ and they questioned him and said to him, “Why, then, do you immerse, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?”

²⁶ John answered them, saying, “I immerse in water, but in the midst of you has stood He whom you have not known, it is this One who is coming after me, who has been before me,

27 of whom I am not worthy that I may loose the strap of His sandal."

28 These things came to pass in Bethabara, beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

29 On the next day John sees Jesus coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who is taking away the sin of the world;

30 this is He concerning whom I said, After me comes a Man who has come before me, because He was before me:

31 and I did not know Him, but that He might be revealed to Israel, because of this I came immersing in water."

32 And John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit coming down out of Heaven as a dove, and [that] One remained on Him;

33 and I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, On whomsoever you may see the Spirit coming down, and remaining on Him, this is He who is immersing in the Holy Spirit;

34 and I have seen, and have testified, that this is the Son of God."

35 On the next day, again, John was standing, and two of his disciples,

36 and having looked on Jesus walking, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God";

37 and the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus.

38 And Jesus having turned, and having beheld them following, says to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is, being interpreted, Teacher), "where do You remain?"

39 He says to them, "Come and see"; they came and saw where He remains, and they remained with Him that day and the hour was about the tenth.

40 Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard from John, and followed Him;

41 this one first finds his own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah," (which is, being interpreted, Anointed One),

42 and he brought him to Jesus: and having looked on him, Jesus says, "You are Simon, the son of Jonas, you will be called Cephas," (which is interpreted, A rock).

43 On the next day He willed to go forth to Galilee, and He finds Philip and says to him, "Follow Me."

44 And Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter;

45 Philip finds Nathanael and says to him, "Him of whom Moses wrote in the Law, and the Prophets, we have found, Jesus the Son of Joseph, who [is] from Nazareth!"

46 And Nathanael said to him, "Is any good thing able to be out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and He says concerning him, "Behold, truly an Israelite, in whom is no guile";

48 Nathanael says to Him, "From where do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip's calling you, being under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathanael answered and says to Him, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God, You are the King of Israel."

50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, you believe; you will see greater things than these";

⁵¹ and He says to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, from now on you will see Heaven opened, and the messengers of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man.”

¹ And [on] the third day a wedding happened in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there,

² and also Jesus was called, and His disciples, to the wedding;

³ and wine having failed, the mother of Jesus says to Him, “They have no wine”;

⁴ Jesus says to her, “What [is that] to Me and to you, woman? My hour is not yet come.”

⁵ His mother says to the servants, “Whatever He may say to you—do.”

⁶ And there were six water-jugs of stone there, placed according to the purifying of the Jews, holding each two or three measures.

⁷ Jesus says to them, “Fill the water-jugs with water”; and they filled them—to the brim;

⁸ and He says to them, “Draw out, now, and carry to the headwaiter”; and they bore.

⁹ And as the headwaiter tasted the water become wine, and did not know where it is from (but the servants knew, who have drawn the water), the headwaiter calls the bridegroom,

¹⁰ and says to him, “Every man, at first, sets forth the good wine; and when they may have drunk freely, then the inferior; you kept the good wine until now.”

¹¹ This [is the] beginning of the signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him;

¹² after this He went down to Capernaum, He, and His mother, and His brothers, and His disciples; and they did not remain there many days.

¹³ And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

¹⁴ and He found in the temple those selling oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the money-changers sitting,

¹⁵ and having made a whip of small cords, He put all forth out of the temple, also the sheep, and the oxen; and He poured out the coins of the money-changers, and He overthrew the tables,

¹⁶ and He said to those selling the doves, “Take these things from here; do not make the house of My Father a house of merchandise.”

¹⁷ And His disciples remembered that it is written: “The zeal of Your house ate Me up”;

¹⁸ the Jews then answered and said to Him, “What sign do You show to us—that You do these things?”

¹⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

²⁰ The Jews, therefore, said, “This temple was built [in] forty-six years, and will You raise it up in three days?”

²¹ But He spoke concerning the temple of His body;

²² when, then, He was raised out of the dead, His disciples remembered that He said this to them, and they believed the Writing, and the word that Jesus said.

²³ And as He was in Jerusalem, in the Passover, in the celebration, many believed in His Name, beholding His signs that He was doing;

²⁴ and Jesus Himself was not trusting Himself to them, because of His knowing all [men], ²⁵ and because He had no need that any should testify concerning man, for He Himself was knowing what was in man.

¹ And there was a man of the Pharisees, his name Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews;

² this one came to Him by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we have known that You have come from God—a teacher, for no one is able to do these signs that You do, if God may not be with him."

³ Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may not be born from above, he is not able to see the Kingdom of God";

⁴ Nicodemus says to Him, "How is a man able to be born, being old? Is he able to enter into the womb of his mother a second time, and to be born?"

⁵ Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may not be born of water and the Spirit, he is not able to enter into the Kingdom of God;

⁶ that which has been born of the flesh is flesh, and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit.

⁷ You may not wonder that I said to you, It is required for you to be born from above;

⁸ the Spirit blows where [that] One wills, and you hear [that] One's voice, but you have not known from where [that] One comes, and to where [that] One goes; thus is everyone who has been born of the Spirit."

⁹ Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How are these things able to happen?"

¹⁰ Jesus answered and said to him, "You are the teacher of Israel and you do not know these things?

¹¹ Truly, truly, I say to you, what We have known We speak, and what We have seen We testify, and you do not receive Our testimony;

¹² if I spoke to you of the earthly things, and you do not believe, how, if I will speak to you of the heavenly things, will you believe?

¹³ And no one has gone up to Heaven, except He who came down out of Heaven—the Son of Man who is in Heaven.

¹⁴ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up,

¹⁵ that everyone who is believing in Him may not perish, but may have continuous life,

¹⁶ for God so loved the world that He gave the only begotten Son, that everyone who is believing in Him may not perish, but may have continuous life.

¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world that He may judge the world, but that the world may be saved through Him;

¹⁸ he who is believing in Him is not judged, but he who is not believing has been judged already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God.

¹⁹ And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were evil;

²⁰ for everyone who is doing wicked things hates the light, and does not come into the light, that his works may not be detected;

²¹ but he who is doing the truth comes into the light, that his works may be revealed, that in God they are having been worked."

²² After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He tarried with them, and was immersing;

²³ and John was also immersing in Aenon, near to Salem, because there were many waters there, and they were coming and were being immersed—

²⁴ for John was not yet cast into the prison—

²⁵ there arose then a question from the disciples of John with [some] Jews about purifying,

²⁶ and they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you testified, behold, this One is immersing, and all are coming to Him."

²⁷ John answered and said, "A man is not able to receive anything if it may not have been given him from Heaven;

²⁸ you yourselves testify to me that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am having been sent before Him;

²⁹ He who is having the bride is bridegroom, and the friend of the bridegroom, who is standing and hearing Him, rejoices with joy because of the voice of the bridegroom; this, then, my joy has been fulfilled.

³⁰ It is necessary [for] Him to increase, and me to become less;

³¹ He who is coming from above is above all; he who is from the earth, from the earth he is, and from the earth he speaks; He who is coming from Heaven is above all.

³² And what He has seen and heard—this He testifies, and none receives His testimony;

³³ he who is receiving His testimony sealed that God is true;

³⁴ for He whom God sent, He speaks the sayings of God; for God does not give the Spirit by measure;

³⁵ the Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand;

³⁶ he who is believing in the Son has continuous life; and he who is not believing the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

¹ When therefore the LORD knew that the Pharisees heard that Jesus makes and immerses more disciples than John,

² (though indeed Jesus Himself was not immersing, but His disciples),

³ He left Judea and went away again to Galilee,

⁴ and it was necessary [for] Him to go through Samaria.

⁵ He comes, therefore, to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the place that Jacob gave to his son Joseph;

⁶ and there was there a well of Jacob. Jesus therefore having been weary from the journeying, was thus sitting on the well; it was as it were the sixth hour;

⁷ there comes a woman out of Samaria to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give Me to drink";

⁸ for His disciples were gone away into the city that they may buy food;

⁹ the Samaritan woman therefore says to Him, “How do You, being a Jew, ask drink from me, being a Samaritan woman?” For Jews have no dealing with Samaritans.

¹⁰ Jesus answered and said to her, “If you had known the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, Give Me to drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

¹¹ The woman says to Him, “Lord, You do not even have a vessel to draw with, and the well is deep; from where, then, have You the living water?”

¹² Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and himself drank out of it, and his sons, and his livestock?”

¹³ Jesus answered and said to her, “Everyone who is drinking of this water will thirst again;

¹⁴ but whoever may drink of the water that I will give him, may not thirst—throughout the age; and the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water, springing up to continuous life.”

¹⁵ The woman says to Him, “Lord, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw.”

¹⁶ Jesus says to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here”;

¹⁷ the woman answered and said, “I do not have a husband.” Jesus says to her, “Well did you say—I do not have a husband;

¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and now, he whom you have is not your husband; you have said this correctly.”

¹⁹ The woman says to Him, “Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet;

²⁰ our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and You say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is required to worship.”

²¹ Jesus says to her, “Woman, believe Me, that there comes an hour when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father;

²² you worship what you have not known; we worship what we have known, because salvation is of the Jews;

²³ but there comes an hour, and it now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father also seeks such to worship Him;

²⁴ God [is] Spirit, and those worshiping Him should worship in spirit and truth.”

²⁵ The woman says to Him, “I have known that Messiah comes, who is called Christ, when that One may come, He will tell us all things”;

²⁶ Jesus says to her, “I who am speaking to you am [He].”

²⁷ And on this came His disciples, and were wondering that He was speaking with a woman, no one, however, said, “What do You seek?” Or “Why do You speak with her?”

²⁸ The woman then left her water-jug and went away into the city, and says to the men,

²⁹ “Come, see a Man who told me all things—as many as I did; is this the Christ?”

³⁰ They went forth therefore out of the city, and were coming to Him.

³¹ And in the meanwhile His disciples were asking Him, saying, “Rabbi, eat”;

³² and He said to them, “I have food to eat that you have not known.”

³³ The disciples then said to one another, “Did anyone bring Him anything to eat?”

³⁴ Jesus says to them, "My food is that I may do the will of Him who sent Me, and may finish His work;

³⁵ do not say that it is yet four months, and the harvest comes; behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes, and see the fields, that they are white to harvest already.

³⁶ And he who is reaping receives a reward, and gathers fruit to continuous life, that both he who is sowing and he who is reaping may rejoice together;

³⁷ for in this the saying is the true one, that one is the sower and another the reaper.

³⁸ I sent you to reap on that which you have not labored; others labored, and you have entered into their labor."

³⁹ And many from that city believed in Him, of the Samaritans, because of the word of the woman testifying, "He told me all things—as many as I did."

⁴⁰ When, then, the Samaritans came to Him, they were asking Him to remain with them, and He remained there two days;

⁴¹ and many more believed because of His word,

⁴² and said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your speaking; for we ourselves have heard and known that this is truly the Savior of the world—the Christ."

⁴³ And after the two days He went forth from there, and went away to Galilee,

⁴⁴ for Jesus Himself testified that a prophet will not have honor in his own country;

⁴⁵ when then, He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all things that He did in Jerusalem in the celebration—for they also went to the celebration.

⁴⁶ Jesus came, therefore, again to Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine, and there was a certain attendant, whose son was ailing in Capernaum, ⁴⁷ he, having heard that Jesus comes out of Judea to Galilee, went away to Him, and was asking Him that He may come down and may heal his son, for he was about to die.

⁴⁸ Jesus then said to him, "If you may not see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

⁴⁹ The attendant says to Him, "Lord, come down before my child dies";

⁵⁰ Jesus says to him, "Be going on; your son lives." And the man believed the word that Jesus said to him, and was going on,

⁵¹ and he now going down, his servants met him, and told, saying, "Your child lives";

⁵² he inquired then of them the hour in which he became better, and they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him";

⁵³ then the father knew that [it was] in that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives," and he himself believed, and his whole house;

⁵⁴ this again [was] a second sign Jesus did, having come out of Judea to Galilee.

¹ After these things there was a celebration of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

² and there is in Jerusalem by the sheep-[gate] a pool that is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches,

³ in these were lying a great multitude of the ailing, blind, lame, withered, [[waiting for the moving of the water,

⁴ for a messenger at a set time was going down in the pool, and was troubling the water, the first then having gone in after the troubling of the water, became whole of whatever sickness he was held.]]

⁵ And there was a certain man there being in ailment thirty-eight years,

⁶ him Jesus having seen lying, and having known that he is already a long time, He says to him, "Do you wish to become whole?"

⁷ The ailing man answered Him, "Lord, I have no man, that, when the water may be troubled, he may put me into the pool, and while I am coming, another goes down before me."

⁸ Jesus says to him, "Rise, take up your pallet, and be walking";

⁹ and immediately the man became whole, and he took up his pallet, and was walking, and it was a Sabbath on that day,

¹⁰ the Jews then said to him that has been healed, "It is a Sabbath; it is not lawful to you to take up the pallet."

¹¹ He answered them, "He who made me whole—that One said to me, Take up your pallet, and be walking";

¹² they questioned him, then, "Who is the Man who is saying to you, Take up your bed and be walking?"

¹³ But he that was healed had not known who He is, for Jesus moved away, a multitude being in the place.

¹⁴ After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you have become whole; sin no more, lest something worse may happen to you."

¹⁵ The man went away, and told the Jews that it is Jesus who made him whole,

¹⁶ and because of this were the Jews persecuting Jesus, and seeking to kill Him, because these things He was doing on a Sabbath.

¹⁷ And Jesus answered them, "My Father works until now, and I work";

¹⁸ because of this, then, were the Jews seeking the more to kill Him, because not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He also called God His own Father, making Himself equal to God.

¹⁹ Jesus therefore responded and said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is not able to do anything of Himself, if He may not see the Father doing anything; for whatever things He may do, these also the Son does in like manner;

²⁰ for the Father cherishes the Son, and shows to Him all things that He Himself does; and greater works than these He will show Him, that you may wonder.

²¹ For as the Father raises the dead, and makes alive, so also the Son makes alive whom He wills;

²² for neither does the Father judge anyone, but all the judgment He has given to the Son, ²³ that all may honor the Son according as they honor the Father; he who is not honoring the Son, does not honor the Father who sent Him.

²⁴ Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is hearing My word, and is believing Him who sent Me, has continuous life, and he does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.

²⁵ Truly, truly, I say to you, [that] there comes an hour, and it now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those having heard will live;

²⁶ for as the Father has life in Himself, so He gave also to the Son to have life in Himself,

²⁷ and authority He gave Him also to do judgment, because He is Son of Man.

²⁸ Do not wonder at this, because there comes an hour in which all those in the tombs will hear His voice,

²⁹ and they will come forth; those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced evil things to a resurrection of judgment.

³⁰ I am not able of Myself to do anything; according as I hear I judge, and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of the Father who sent Me.

³¹ If I testify concerning Myself, My testimony is not true;

³² there is another who is testifying concerning Me, and I have known that the testimony that He testifies concerning Me is true;

³³ you have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.

³⁴ But I do not receive testimony from man, but these things I say that you may be saved;

³⁵ he was the burning and shining lamp, and you willed to be glad, for an hour, in his light.

³⁶ But I have the testimony greater than John's, for the works that the Father gave Me, that I might finish them, the works themselves that I do, they testify concerning Me, that the Father has sent Me.

³⁷ And the Father who sent Me has testified Himself concerning Me; you have neither heard His voice at any time, nor have you seen His appearance;

³⁸ and you do not have His word remaining in you, because you do not believe Him whom He sent.

³⁹ You search the Writings, because you think in them to have continuous life, and these are they that are testifying concerning Me;

⁴⁰ and you do not will to come to Me, that you may have life;

⁴¹ I do not receive glory from man,

⁴² but I have known you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.

⁴³ If have come in the Name of My Father, and you do not receive Me; if another may come in his own name, him you will receive;

⁴⁴ how are you able—you—to believe, receiving glory from one another, and the glory that [is] from God alone you do not seek?

⁴⁵ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is [one] who is accusing you, Moses—in whom you have hoped;

⁴⁶ for if you were believing Moses, you would have been believing Me, for he wrote concerning Me;

⁴⁷ but if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My sayings?"

¹ After these things Jesus went away beyond the Sea of Galilee (of Tiberias),

² and there was following Him a great multitude, because they were seeing His signs that He was doing on the ailing;

³ and Jesus went up to the mountain, and He was sitting with His disciples there,

⁴ and the Passover was near, the celebration of the Jews.

⁵ Jesus then having lifted up [His] eyes and having seen that a great multitude comes to Him, says to Philip, "From where will we buy loaves, that these may eat?"

⁶ And this He said, trying him, for He Himself had known what He was about to do.

⁷ Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii worth of loaves are not sufficient to them, that each of them may receive some little";

⁸ one of His disciples—Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter—says to Him,

⁹ "There is one little boy here who has five barley loaves and two fishes, but these—what are they to so many?"

¹⁰ And Jesus said, "Make the men to sit down"; and there was much grass in the place, the men then sat down, in number, as it were, five thousand,

¹¹ and Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks He distributed [them] to the disciples, and the disciples to those reclining, in like manner, also of the little fishes as much as they wished.

¹² And when they were filled, He says to His disciples, "Gather together the broken pieces that are left over, that nothing may be lost";

¹⁴ The men, then, having seen the sign that Jesus did, said, "This is truly the Prophet who is coming into the world";

¹⁵ Jesus, therefore, having known that they are about to come, and to seize Him by force that they may make Him king, retired again to the mountain Himself alone.

¹⁶ And when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,

¹⁷ and having entered into the boat, they were going over the sea to Capernaum, and darkness had already come, and Jesus had not come to them,

¹⁸ the sea also—a great wind blowing—was being raised,

¹⁹ having pushed onward, therefore, about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and coming near to the boat, and they were afraid;

²⁰ and He says to them, "I AM; do not be afraid";

²¹ they were willing then to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

²² On the next day, the multitude that was standing on the other side of the sea, having seen that there was no other little boat there except one—that into which His disciples entered—and that Jesus did not go in with His disciples into the little boat, but His disciples went away alone

²³ (and other little boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate the bread, the LORD having given thanks),

²⁴ when therefore the multitude saw that Jesus is not there, nor His disciples, they also entered into the boats themselves, and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus;

²⁵ and having found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when have You come here?"

²⁶ Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were satisfied;

²⁷ do not work for the food that is perishing, but for the food that is remaining to continuous life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for the Father sealed Him—[even] God."

²⁸ Therefore they said to Him, "What may we do that we may work the works of God?"

²⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you may believe in Him whom He sent."

³⁰ Therefore they said to Him, "What sign, then, do You do, that we may see and may believe You? What do You work?"

³¹ Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, according as it is having been written: He gave them bread out of Heaven to eat."

³² Jesus, therefore, said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread out of Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of Heaven;

³³ for the bread of God is Him coming down out of Heaven, and giving life to the world."

³⁴ Therefore they said to Him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

³⁵ And Jesus said to them, "I AM the bread of life; he who is coming to Me may not hunger, and he who is believing in Me may not thirst—at any time;

³⁶ but I said to you that you also have seen Me, and you do not believe;

³⁷ all that the Father gives to Me will come to Me; and him who is coming to Me, I will never cast outside, ³⁸ because I have come down out of Heaven, not that I may do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

³⁹ And this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that all that He has given to Me, I may lose none of it, but may raise it up in the last day;

⁴⁰ and this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who is beholding the Son, and is believing in Him, may have continuous life, and I will raise him up in the last day."

⁴¹ The Jews, therefore, were murmuring at Him, because He said, "I AM the bread that came down out of Heaven";

⁴² and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the Son of Joseph, whose father and mother we have known? How then does this One say, I have come down out of Heaven?"

⁴³ Jesus answered, therefore, and said to them, "Do not murmur with one another;

⁴⁴ no one is able to come to Me if the Father who sent Me may not draw him, and I will raise him up in the last day;

⁴⁵ it is having been written in the Prophets: And they will all be taught of God; everyone, therefore, who heard from the Father, and learned, comes to Me;

⁴⁶ not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God, He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷ Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is believing in Me has continuous life;

⁴⁸ I AM the bread of life;

⁴⁹ your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died;

⁵⁰ this is the bread that is coming down out of Heaven, that anyone may eat of it, and not die.

⁵¹ I AM the living bread that came down out of Heaven; if anyone may eat of this bread he will live—throughout the age; and the bread also that I will give is My flesh, that I will give for the life of the world.”

⁵² The Jews, therefore, were striving with one another, saying, “How is this One able to give us [His] flesh to eat?”

⁵³ Jesus, therefore, said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, if you may not eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and may not drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves;

⁵⁴ he who is eating My flesh, and is drinking My blood, has continuous life, and I will raise him up in the last day;

⁵⁵ for My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink;

⁵⁶ he who is eating My flesh, and is drinking My blood, remains in Me, and I in him.

⁵⁷ According as the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, he also who is eating Me, even that one will live because of Me;

⁵⁸ this is the bread that came down out of Heaven; not as your fathers ate the manna, and died; he who is eating this bread will live—throughout the age.”

⁵⁹ He said these things in a synagogue, teaching in Capernaum;

⁶⁰ many, therefore, of His disciples having heard, said, “This word is hard; who is able to hear it?”

⁶¹ And Jesus having known in Himself that His disciples are murmuring about this, said to them, “Does this stumble you?”

⁶² If then you may behold the Son of Man going up where He was before?

⁶³ It is the Spirit that is giving life; the flesh does not profit anything; the sayings that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life;

⁶⁴ but there are certain of you who do not believe”; for Jesus had known from the beginning who they are who are not believing, and who is he who will deliver Him up,

⁶⁵ and He said, “Because of this I have said to you, No one is able to come to Me if it may not have been given him from My Father.”

⁶⁶ From this [time] many of His disciples went away backward, and were no longer walking with Him,

⁶⁷ Jesus, therefore, said to the Twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?”

⁶⁸ Simon Peter, therefore, answered Him, “Lord, to whom will we go? You have sayings of continuous life;

⁶⁹ and we have believed, and we have known, that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

⁷⁰ Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you—the Twelve? And of you—one is a devil.”

⁷¹ And He spoke of Judas, [son] of Simon Iscariot, for he was about to deliver Him up, being one of the Twelve.

¹ And Jesus was walking after these things in Galilee, for He did not wish to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill Him,

² and the celebration of the Jews was near—that of Shelters—

³ His brothers, therefore, said to Him, "Depart from here, and go away to Judea, that Your disciples may also behold Your works that You do;

⁴ for no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be in public; if you do these things—reveal Yourself to the world";

⁵ for not even His brothers were believing in Him.

⁶ Jesus, therefore, says to them, "My time is not yet present, but your time is always ready;

⁷ the world is not able to hate you, but it hates Me, because I testify concerning it that its works are evil.

⁸ You—go up to this celebration; I do not yet go up to this celebration, because My time has not yet been fulfilled";

⁹ and saying these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

¹⁰ And when His brothers went up, then also He Himself went up to the celebration, not openly, but as in secret;

¹¹ the Jews, therefore, were seeking Him in the celebration, and said, "Where is that One?"

¹² And there was much murmuring about Him among the multitudes, some indeed said, "He is good"; and others said, "No, but He leads the multitude astray";

¹³ no one, however, was speaking freely about Him, through fear of the Jews.

¹⁴ And it being now the middle of the celebration, Jesus went up to the temple, and He was teaching,

¹⁵ and the Jews were wondering, saying, "How has this One known letters—having not learned?"

¹⁶ Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me;

¹⁷ if anyone may will to do His will, he will know concerning the teaching, whether it is of God, or—[if] I speak from Myself.

¹⁸ He who is speaking from himself seeks his own glory, but he who is seeking the glory of him who sent him, this one is true, and unrighteousness is not in him;

¹⁹ has not Moses given you the Law? And none of you does the Law; why do you seek to kill Me?"

²⁰ The multitude answered and said, "You have a demon, who seeks to kill You?"

²¹ Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all wonder,

²² because of this, Moses has given you the circumcision—not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers—and on a Sabbath you circumcise a man;

²³ if a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with Me that I made a man all whole on a Sabbath?

²⁴ Do not judge according to appearance, but the righteous judgment judge."

²⁵ Certain, therefore, of the Jerusalemites said, "Is this not He whom they are seeking to kill?"

²⁶ And behold, He speaks freely, and they say nothing to Him; did the rulers truly know that this is the Christ?

²⁷ But this One—we have known where He is from; and the Christ, when He comes, no one knows where He is from."

²⁸ Jesus cried, therefore, in the temple, teaching and saying, "You have both known Me, and you have known from where I am; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you have not known;

²⁹ and I have known Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me."

³⁰ They were seeking, therefore, to seize Him, and no one laid the hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come,

³¹ and many out of the multitude believed in Him and said, "The Christ—when He may come—will He do more signs than these that this One did?"

³² The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers that they may take Him;

³³ Jesus, therefore, said to them, "Yet a short time I am with you, and I go away to Him who sent Me;

³⁴ you will seek Me, and you will not find; and where I am, you are not able to come."

³⁵ The Jews, therefore, said among themselves, "To where is this One about to go that we will not find Him? Is He about to go to the dispersion of the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks?"

³⁶ What is this word that He said, You will seek Me, and you will not find? And, Where I am, you are not able to come?"

³⁷ And in the last, the great day of the celebration, Jesus stood and cried, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink;

³⁸ he who is believing in Me, according as the Writing said, Rivers of living water will flow out of his belly";

³⁹ and this He said of the Spirit, which those believing in Him were about to receive; for not yet was the Holy Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

⁴⁰ Many, therefore, out of the multitude, having heard the word, said, "This is truly the Prophet";

⁴¹ others said, "This is the Christ"; and others said, "Why, does the Christ come out of Galilee?"

⁴² Did the Writing not say that out of the seed of David, and from Beth-Lehem—the village where David was—the Christ comes?"

⁴³ A division, therefore, arose among the multitude because of Him.

⁴⁴ And certain of them were willing to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him;

⁴⁵ the officers came, therefore, to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

⁴⁶ The officers answered, "Never so spoke man—as this Man."

⁴⁷ The Pharisees, therefore, answered them, "Have you also been led astray?"

⁴⁸ Did anyone out of the rulers believe in Him? Or out of the Pharisees?"

⁴⁹ But this multitude, that is not knowing the Law, is accursed."

⁵⁰ Nicodemus says to them—he who came by night to Him—being one of them,

⁵¹ "Does our law judge the Man, if it may not hear from Him first, and know what He does?"

⁵² They answered and said to him, "Are you also out of Galilee? Search and see that a prophet has not risen out of Galilee"; **¶

⁵³ and each one went on to his house, but Jesus went on to the Mount of Olives.

- ¹ And at dawn He came again to the temple [courts],
² and all the people were coming to Him, and having sat down, He was teaching them;
³ and the scribes and the Pharisees bring to Him a woman having been taken in adultery, and having set her in the midst,
⁴ they say to Him, "Teacher, this woman was taken in the very crime [of] committing adultery,
⁵ and in the Law, Moses commanded us that such be stoned; You, therefore, what do You say?"
⁶ And this they said, trying Him, that they might have to accuse Him. And Jesus, having stooped down, with the finger He was writing on the ground,
⁷ and when they continued asking Him, having bent Himself back, He said to them, "The sinless of you—let him cast the first stone at her";
⁸ and again having stooped down, He was writing on the ground,
⁹ and they having heard, and being convicted by the conscience, were going forth one by one, having begun from the elders—to the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
¹⁰ And Jesus having bent Himself back, and having seen no one but the woman, said to her, "Woman, where are those—your accusers? Did no one pass sentence on you?"
¹¹ And she said, "No one, Lord"; and Jesus said to her, "Neither do I pass sentence on you; be going on, and sin no more."]
¹² Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I AM the light of the world; he who is following Me will not walk in the darkness, but he will have the light of life."
¹³ The Pharisees, therefore, said to Him, "You testify of Yourself, Your testimony is not true";
¹⁴ Jesus answered and said to them, "And if I testify of Myself—My testimony is true, because I have known from where I came, and to where I go, and you have not known from where I come, or to where I go.
¹⁵ You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone,
¹⁶ and even if I do judge My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me;
¹⁷ and also in your law it has been written that the testimony of two men is true;
¹⁸ I am [One] who is testifying of Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies of Me."
¹⁹ They said, therefore, to Him, "Where is Your father?" Jesus answered, "You have neither known Me nor My Father: if you had known Me, you had also known My Father."
²⁰ Jesus spoke these sayings in the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come;
²¹ therefore Jesus said again to them, "I go away, and you will seek Me, and you will die in your sin; to where I go away, you are not able to come."
²² The Jews, therefore, said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, To where I go away, you are not able to come?"
²³ And He said to them, "You are from beneath, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world;

²⁴ I said, therefore, to you, that you will die in your sins, for if you may not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins."

²⁵ They said, therefore, to Him, "You—who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Even what I spoke of to you at the beginning;

²⁶ many things I have to speak concerning you and to judge, but He who sent Me is true, and I—what things I heard from Him—these I say to the world."

²⁷ They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father;

²⁸ Jesus, therefore, said to them, "When you may lift up the Son of Man then you will know that I AM; and I do nothing of Myself, but according as My Father taught Me, these things I speak;

²⁹ and He who sent Me is with Me; the Father did not leave Me alone, because I always do the things pleasing to Him."

³⁰ As He is speaking these things, many believed in Him;

³¹ Jesus, therefore, said to the Jews who believed in Him, "If you may remain in My word, you are truly My disciples,

³² and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

³³ They answered Him, "We are seed of Abraham; and we have been servants to no one at any time; how do You say—You will become free?"

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who is committing sin, is a servant of sin,

³⁵ and the servant does not remain in the house—throughout the age, the Son remains—throughout the age;

³⁶ if then the Son may make you free, in reality you will be free.

³⁷ I have known that you are seed of Abraham, but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you;

³⁸ I speak that which I have seen with My Father, and you, therefore, do that which you have seen with your father."

³⁹ They answered and said to Him, "Our father is Abraham"; Jesus says to them, "If you were children of Abraham, the works of Abraham you were doing;

⁴⁰ and now, you seek to kill Me—a Man who has spoken to you the truth I heard from God; Abraham did not do this;

⁴¹ you do the works of your father." They said, therefore, to Him, "We have not been born of whoredom; we have one Father—God";

⁴² Jesus then said to them, "If God were your father, you were loving Me, for I came forth from God, and am come; for neither have I come of Myself, but He sent Me;

⁴³ why do you not know My speech? Because you are not able to hear My word.

⁴⁴ You are of a father—the Devil, and the desires of your father you will to do; he was a manslayer from the beginning, and he has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him; when one may speak the falsehood, he speaks of his own, because he is a liar—also his father.

⁴⁵ And because I say the truth, you do not believe Me.

⁴⁶ Who of you convicts Me of sin? And if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?

⁴⁷ He who is of God, he hears the sayings of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not of God."

⁴⁸ The Jews, therefore, answered and said to Him, "Do we not say well, that You are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

⁴⁹ Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me;

⁵⁰ and I do not seek My own glory; there is [One] who is seeking and is judging;

⁵¹ truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may keep My word, he may not see death—throughout the age."

⁵² The Jews, therefore, said to Him, "Now we have known that You have a demon; Abraham died, and the prophets, and You say, If anyone may keep My word, he will not taste of death—throughout the age!

⁵³ Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died; whom do You make Yourself?"

⁵⁴ Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who is glorifying Me, of whom you say that He is your God;

⁵⁵ and you have not known Him, and I have known Him, and if I say that I have not known Him, I will be like you—speaking falsely; but I have known Him, and I keep His word;

⁵⁶ your father Abraham was glad that he might see My day; and he saw, and rejoiced."

⁵⁷ The Jews, therefore, said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Abraham?"

⁵⁸ Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham's coming—I AM";

⁵⁹ they took up, therefore, stones that they may cast at Him, but Jesus hid Himself, and went forth out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

¹ And passing by, He saw a man blind from birth,

² and His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this one or his parents, that he should be born blind?"

³ Jesus answered, "Neither this one sinned nor his parents, but that the works of God may be revealed in him;

⁴ it is necessary for Me to be working the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; night comes when no one is able to work:

⁵ when I am in the world, I AM [the] light of the world."

⁶ Saying these things, He spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and rubbed the clay on the eyes of the blind man, and said to him,

⁷ "Go away, wash at the pool of Siloam," which is, interpreted, Sent. He went away, therefore, and washed, and came seeing;

⁸ the neighbors, therefore, and those seeing him before, that he was blind, said, "Is this not he who is sitting and begging?"

⁹ Others said, "This is he"; and others, "He is like to him"; he himself said, "I am [he]."

¹⁰ They said, therefore, to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

¹¹ He answered and said, "A man called Jesus made clay, and rubbed my eyes, and said to me, Go away to the pool of Siloam, and wash; and having gone away and having washed, I received sight";

¹² they said, therefore, to him, "Where is that One?" He says, "I have not known."

13 They bring him who once [was] blind to the Pharisees,

14 and it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Again, therefore, the Pharisees also were asking him how he received sight, and he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed—and I see."

16 Certain of the Pharisees therefore said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath"; others said, "How is a man—a sinful one—able to do such signs?" And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, "You—what do you say of Him—that He opened your eyes?"

18 And he said, "He is a prophet." The Jews, therefore, did not believe concerning him that he was blind and received sight, until they called the parents of him who received sight,

19 and they asked them, saying, "Is [this] your son, of whom you say that he was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them and said, "We have known that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 and how he now sees, we have not known; or who opened his eyes, we have not known; he is of age, ask him; he himself will speak concerning himself."

22 His parents said these things, because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed together, that if anyone may confess Him—Christ, he may be put out of the synagogue;

23 because of this his parents said, "He is of age, ask him."

24 They called, therefore, the man who was blind a second time, and they said to him, "Give glory to God, we have known that this Man is a sinner";

25 he answered, therefore, and said, "If He is a sinner—I have not known, one thing I have known, that, being blind, now I see."

26 And they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not hear; why do you wish to hear [it] again? Do you also wish to become His disciples?"

28 They reviled him, therefore, and said, "You are His disciple, and we are Moses' disciples;

29 we have known that God has spoken to Moses, but this One—we have not known where He is from."

30 The man answered and said to them, "Why, in this is a wonderful thing, that you have not known where He is from, and He opened my eyes!

31 And we have known that God does not hear sinners, but if anyone may be a worshiper of God, and may do His will, He hears him;

32 from the age it was not heard that anyone opened eyes of one who has been born blind;

33 if this One were not from God, He were not able to do anything."

34 They answered and said to him, "In sins you were born altogether, and you teach us?" And they cast him forth outside.

35 Jesus heard that they cast him forth outside, and having found him, He said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

36 He answered and said, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and He who is speaking with you is He";

38 and he said, "I believe, Lord," and worshiped Him.

39 And Jesus said, "I came to this world for judgment, that those not seeing may see, and those seeing may become blind."

40 And those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and they said to Him, "Are we also blind?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you were not having had sin, but now you say—We see, therefore your sin remains."

10

1 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is not entering through the door to the fold of the sheep, but is going up from another side, that one is a thief and a robber;

2 and he who is entering through the door is shepherd of the sheep;

3 the doorkeeper opens to this one, and the sheep hear his voice, and his own sheep he calls by name, and leads them forth;

4 and when he may put forth his own sheep, he goes on before them, and the sheep follow him, because they have known his voice;

5 and they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him, because they have not known the voice of strangers."

6 Jesus spoke this allegory to them, and they did not know what the things were that He was speaking to them;

7 Jesus therefore said again to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I AM the door of the sheep;

8 all, as many as came before Me, are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them;

9 I AM the door, if anyone may come in through Me, he will be saved, and he will come in, and go out, and find pasture.

10 The thief does not come, except that he may steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they may have life, and may have [it] abundantly.

11 I AM the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays His life down for the sheep;

12 and the hired worker, and not being a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholds the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees; and the wolf snatches them, and scatters the sheep;

13 and the hired worker flees because he is a hired worker, and is not caring for the sheep.

14 I AM the good shepherd, and I know My [sheep], and am known by Mine,

15 according as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father, and My life I lay down for the sheep,

16 and other sheep I have that are not of this fold, these also it is necessary for Me to bring, and My voice they will hear, and there will become one flock—one shepherd.

17 Because of this the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that again I may take it;

18 no one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself; authority I have to lay it down, and authority I have again to take it; this command I received from My Father."

19 Therefore, again, there came a division among the Jews, because of these words,

²⁰ and many of them said, "He has a demon, and is mad, why do you hear Him?"

²¹ Others said, "These sayings are not those of a demoniac; is a demon able to open blind men's eyes?"

²² And the Dedication in Jerusalem came, and it was winter,

²³ and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the porch of Solomon,

²⁴ the Jews, therefore, came around Him and said to Him, "Until when do You hold our soul in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us freely."

²⁵ Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe; the works that I do in the Name of My Father, these testify concerning Me;

²⁶ but you do not believe, for you are not of My sheep,

²⁷ according as I said to you: My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me,

²⁸ and I give continuous life to them, and they will not perish—throughout the age, and no one will snatch them out of My hand;

²⁹ My Father, who has given to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch out of the hand of My Father;

³⁰ I and the Father are one."

³¹ Therefore, again, the Jews took up stones that they may stone Him;

³² Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from My Father; because of which work of them do you stone Me?"

³³ The Jews answered Him, saying, "We do not stone You for a good work, but for slander, and because You, being a man, make Yourself God."

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Is it not having been written in your law: I said, you are gods?"

³⁵ If He called them gods to whom the word of God came (and the Writing is not able to be broken), ³⁶ of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, do you say—You slander, because I said, I am [the] Son of God?

³⁷ If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;

³⁸ and if I do, even if you may not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and may believe that the Father [is] in Me, and I in Him."

³⁹ Therefore they were seeking again to seize Him, and He went forth out of their hand,

⁴⁰ and went away again to the other side of the Jordan, to the place where John was at first immersing, and remained there,

⁴¹ and many came to Him and said, "John, indeed, did no sign, and all things, as many as John said about this One were true";

⁴² and many believed in Him there.

¹ And there was a certain one ailing, Lazarus, from Bethany, of the village of Mary and Martha her sister—

² and it was Mary who anointed the LORD with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ailing—

³ therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You cherish is ailing";

⁴ and Jesus having heard, said, "This ailment is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

⁵ And Jesus was loving Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus,

⁶ when, therefore, He heard that he is ailing, then indeed He remained in the place in which He was two days,

⁷ then after this, He says to the disciples, "We may go to Judea again";

⁸ the disciples say to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just seeking to stone You, and again You go there?"

⁹ Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone may walk in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world;

¹⁰ and if anyone may walk in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

¹¹ He said these things, and after this He says to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go on that I may awake him";

¹² therefore His disciples said, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be saved";

¹³ but Jesus had spoken about his death, but they thought that He speaks about the repose of sleep.

¹⁴ Then, therefore, Jesus said to them freely, "Lazarus has died;

¹⁵ and I rejoice, for your sake (that you may believe), that I was not there; but we may go to him";

¹⁶ therefore Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to the fellow-disciples, "We may go—we also, that we may die with Him,"

¹⁷ Jesus, therefore, having come, found him having already been four days in the tomb.

¹⁸ And Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia off,

¹⁹ and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, that they might comfort them concerning their brother;

²⁰ Martha, therefore, when she heard that Jesus comes, met Him, and Mary kept sitting in the house.

²¹ Martha, therefore, said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother had not died;

²² but even now, I have known that whatever You may ask of God, God will give to You";

²³ Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴ Martha says to Him, "I have known that he will rise again in the resurrection in the last day";

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I AM the resurrection, and the life; he who is believing in Me, even if he may die, will live;

²⁶ and everyone who is living and believing in Me will not die—throughout the age;

²⁷ do you believe this?" She says to Him, "Yes, Lord, I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world."

²⁸ And having said these things, she went away, and called Mary her sister privately, saying, "The Teacher is present, and calls you";

²⁹ she, when she heard, rises up quickly, and comes to Him;

³⁰ and Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met Him;

³¹ the Jews, therefore, who were with her in the house, and were comforting her, having seen Mary that she rose up quickly and went forth, followed her, saying, "She goes away to the tomb, that she may weep there."

³² Mary, therefore, when she came where Jesus was, having seen Him, fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother had not died";

³³ Jesus, therefore, when He saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit, and troubled Himself, and He said,

³⁴ "Where have you laid him?" They say to Him, "Lord, come and see";

³⁵ Jesus wept.

³⁶ The Jews, therefore, said, "Behold, how He was cherishing him!"

³⁷ And certain of them said, "Was not this One, who opened the eyes of the blind man, also able to cause that this one might not have died?"

³⁸ Jesus, therefore, again groaning in Himself, comes to the tomb, and it was a cave, and a stone was lying on it,

³⁹ Jesus says, "Take away the stone"; the sister of him who has died—Martha—says to Him, "Lord, he already stinks, for he is four days dead";

⁴⁰ Jesus says to her, "Did I not say to you that if you may believe, you will see the glory of God?"

⁴¹ Therefore they took away the stone where the dead was laid, and Jesus lifted His eyes upwards, and said, "Father, I thank You that You heard Me;

⁴² and I knew that You always hear Me, but because of the multitude that is standing by, I said [it], that they may believe that You sent Me."

⁴³ And saying these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!"

⁴⁴ And he who died came forth, feet and hands being bound with grave-clothes, and his face was bound around with a napkin; Jesus says to them, "Loose him, and permit to go."

⁴⁵ Many, therefore, of the Jews who came to Mary, and beheld what Jesus did, believed in Him;

⁴⁶ but certain of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus did;

⁴⁷ the chief priests, therefore, and the Pharisees, gathered together [the] Sanhedrin and said, "What may we do? Because this Man does many signs?"

⁴⁸ If we may leave Him alone thus, all will believe in Him; and the Romans will come, and will take away both our place and nation."

⁴⁹ And a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being chief priest of that year, said to them, "You have not known anything, ⁵⁰ nor reason that it is good for us that one man may die for the people, and not the whole nation perish."

⁵¹ And he did not say this of himself, but being chief priest of that year, he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation,

⁵² and not for the nation only, but that also the children of God, who have been scattered abroad, He may gather together into one.

⁵³ From that day, therefore, they took counsel together that they may kill Him;

⁵⁴ Jesus, therefore, was no longer freely walking among the Jews, but went away from there into the region near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there He tarried with His disciples.

⁵⁵ And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, that they might purify themselves;

⁵⁶ therefore they were seeking Jesus and said with one another, standing in the temple, “What appears to you—that He may not come to the celebration?”

⁵⁷ And both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone may know where He is, he may show [it], so that they may seize Him.

¹ Jesus, therefore, six days before the Passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had died, whom He raised out of the dead;

² they made, therefore, a dinner to Him there, and Martha was ministering, and Lazarus was one of those reclining together with Him;

⁴ Therefore one of His disciples—Judas Iscariot, of Simon, who is about to deliver Him up—says,

⁵ “Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?”

⁶ And he said this, not because he was caring for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and what things were put in he was carrying.

⁷ Jesus, therefore, said, “Permit her; she has kept it for the day of My embalming, ⁸ for you always have the poor with yourselves, and you do not always have Me.”

⁹ Therefore, a great multitude of the Jews knew that He is there, and they came, not only because of Jesus, but that they may also see Lazarus, whom He raised out of the dead;

¹⁰ and the chief priests took counsel, that they may also kill Lazarus,

¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jews were going away, and were believing in Jesus.

¹² On the next day, a great multitude that came to the celebration, having heard that Jesus comes to Jerusalem,

¹³ took the branches of the palms, and went forth to meet Him, and were crying, “Hosanna! Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD—the King of Israel”;

¹⁴ and Jesus having found a young donkey sat on it, according as it is written,

¹⁵ “Do not fear, daughter of Zion, behold, your King comes, sitting on a colt of a donkey.”

¹⁶ And His disciples did not know these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were having been written about Him, and these things they did to Him.

¹⁷ The multitude, therefore, who are with Him, were testifying that He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him out of the dead;

¹⁸ because of this the multitude also met Him, because they heard of His having done this sign,

¹⁹ therefore the Pharisees said among themselves, “You see that you do not gain anything, behold, the world went after Him.”

²⁰ And there were certain Greeks out of those coming up that they may worship in the celebration,

²¹ these then came near to Philip, who [is] from Bethsaida of Galilee, and were asking him, saying, "Lord, we wish to see Jesus";

²² Philip comes and tells Andrew, and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

²³ And Jesus responded to them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of Man may be glorified;

²⁴ truly, truly, I say to you, if the grain of the wheat, having fallen to the earth, may not die, itself remains alone; and if it may die, it bears much fruit;

²⁵ he who is cherishing his life will lose it, and he who is hating his life in this world will keep it to continuous life;

²⁶ if anyone may minister to Me, let him follow Me, and where I am, there My servant will be also; and if anyone may minister to Me—the Father will honor him.

²⁷ Now My soul has been troubled; and what will I say—Father, save Me from this hour? But because of this I came to this hour;

²⁸ Father, glorify Your Name." Therefore there came a voice out of Heaven, "I both glorified, and again I will glorify [it]";

²⁹ the multitude, therefore, having stood and heard, were saying that there has been thunder; others said, "A messenger has spoken to Him."

³⁰ Jesus answered and said, "This voice has not come because of Me, but because of you;

³¹ now is a judgment of this world, now will the ruler of this world be cast forth;

³² and I, if I may be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself."

³³ And this He said signifying by what death He was about to die;

³⁴ the multitude answered Him, "We heard that the Christ remains out of the Law—throughout the age; and how do You say that it is required that the Son of Man be lifted up? Who is this—the Son of Man?"

³⁵ Therefore Jesus said to them, "Yet a short time is the light with you; walk while you have the light, that darkness may not overtake you; and he who is walking in the darkness has not known where he goes;

³⁶ while you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." Jesus spoke these things, and having gone away, He was hid from them,

³⁷ yet He, having done so many signs before them, they were not believing in Him,

³⁸ that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said, "LORD, who gave credence to our report? And the arm of the LORD—to whom was it revealed?"

³⁹ Because of this they were not able to believe, that again Isaiah said,

⁴⁰ "He has blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they might not see with the eyes, and understand with the heart, and turn, and I might heal them";

⁴¹ Isaiah said these things when he saw His glory, and spoke of Him.

⁴² Still, however, out of the rulers many also believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they were not confessing, that they might not be put out of the synagogue, ⁴³ for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴ And Jesus cried and said, "He who is believing in Me, does not believe in Me, but in Him who sent Me;

⁴⁵ and He who is beholding Me, beholds Him who sent Me;

⁴⁶ I—light to the world—have come, that everyone who is believing in Me may not remain in the darkness;

⁴⁷ and if anyone may hear My sayings, and not believe, I do not judge him, for I did not come that I might judge the world, but that I might save the world.

⁴⁸ He who is rejecting Me, and not receiving My sayings, has one who is judging him, the word that I spoke, that will judge him in the last day,

⁴⁹ because I did not speak from Myself, but the Father who sent Me, He gave Me a command, what I may say, and what I may speak,

⁵⁰ and I have known that His command is continuous life; what, therefore, I speak, according as the Father has said to Me, so I speak.”

² And dinner having come, the Devil already having put [it] into the heart of Judas of Simon, Iscariot, that he may deliver Him up,

³ Jesus knowing that all things the Father has given to Him—into [His] hands, and that He came forth from God, and He goes to God,

⁴ rises from the dinner, and lays down His garments, and having taken a towel, He girded Himself;

⁵ afterward He puts water into the basin, and began to wash the feet of His disciples, and to wipe with the towel with which He was being girded.

⁶ He comes, therefore, to Simon Peter, and that one says to Him, “Lord, You—do You wash my feet?”

⁷ Jesus answered and said to him, “That which I do you have not known now, but you will know after these things”;

⁸ Peter says to Him, “You may not wash my feet—throughout the age.” Jesus answered him, “If I may not wash you, you have no part with Me”;

⁹ Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, not my feet only, but also the hands and the head.”

¹⁰ Jesus says to him, “He who has been bathed has no need except to wash his feet, but he is clean altogether; and you are clean, but not all”;

¹¹ for He knew him who is delivering Him up; because of this He said, “You are not all clean.”

¹² When, therefore, He washed their feet, and took His garments, having reclined again, He said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you?”

¹³ You call Me the Teacher and the LORD, and you say well, for I am;

¹⁴ if then I washed your feet—the LORD and the Teacher—you also ought to wash one another’s feet.

¹⁵ For I gave to you an example, that, according as I did to you, you also may do;

¹⁶ truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his lord, nor an apostle greater than he who sent him;

¹⁷ if you have known these things, you are blessed if you may do them;

¹⁸ I do not speak concerning you all; I have known whom I chose for Myself; but that the Writing may be fulfilled: He who is eating the bread with Me, lifted up his heel against Me.

¹⁹ From this time I tell you, before its coming to pass, that, when it may come to pass, you may believe that I AM;

²⁰ truly, truly, I say to you, he who is receiving whomsoever I may send, receives Me; and he who is receiving Me, receives Him who sent Me.”

²¹ Having said these things, Jesus was troubled in the spirit, and testified and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will deliver Me up”;

²² the disciples were looking, therefore, at one another, doubting concerning of whom He speaks.

²³ And there was one of His disciples reclining in the bosom of Jesus, whom Jesus was loving;

²⁴ Simon Peter, then, beckons to this one, to inquire who he may be concerning whom He speaks,

²⁵ and that one having leaned back on the breast of Jesus, responds to Him, “Lord, who is it?”

²⁶ Jesus answers, “It is that one to whom I, having dipped the morsel, will give it”; and having dipped the morsel, He gives [it] to Judas of Simon, Iscariot.

²⁷ And after the morsel, then Satan entered into that one. Jesus, therefore, says to him, “What you do—do quickly”;

²⁸ and none of those reclining to eat knew for what intent He said this to him,

²⁹ for certain [of them] were thinking, since Judas had the bag, that Jesus says to him, “Buy what we have need of for the celebration”; or that he may give something to the poor;

³⁰ having received, therefore, the morsel, that one immediately went forth, and it was night.

³¹ When, therefore, he went forth, Jesus says, “Now was the Son of Man glorified, and God was glorified in Him;

³² if God was glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself; indeed, He will immediately glorify Him.

³³ Little children, yet a little [while] am I with you; you will seek Me, and according as I said to the Jews, I also say to you now: To where I go away, you are not able to come.

³⁴ A new command I give to you, that you love one another; according as I loved you, that you also love one another;

³⁵ in this will all know that you are My disciples, if you may have love one to another.”

³⁶ Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, to where do You go away?” Jesus answered him, “To where I go away, you are not able now to follow Me, but afterward you will follow Me.”

³⁷ Peter says to Him, “Lord, why am I not able to follow You now? I will lay down my life for You”;

³⁸ Jesus answered him, “You will lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, a rooster will not crow until you may deny Me three times.”

¹ “Do not let your heart be troubled, believe in God, believe also in Me;

² in the house of My Father are many rooms; and if not, I would have told you; I go on to prepare a place for you;

³ and if I go on and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you to Myself, that where I am you also may be;

⁴ and to where I go away you have known, and the way you have known."

⁵ Thomas says to Him, "Lord, we have not known to where You go away, and how are we able to know the way?"

⁶ Jesus says to him, "I AM the way, and the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father, if not through Me;

⁷ if you had known Me, you would also have known My Father, and from this time you have known Him, and have seen Him."

⁸ Philip says to Him, "Lord, show to us the Father, and it is enough for us";

⁹ Jesus says to him, "Such [a] long time am I with you, and you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; and how do you say, Show to us the Father?"

¹⁰ Do you not believe that I [am] in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The sayings that I speak to you, I do not speak from Myself, and the Father who is abiding in Me does the works Himself;

¹¹ believe Me, that I [am] in the Father, and the Father in Me; and if not, because of the works themselves, believe Me.

¹² Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is believing in Me, the works that I do—that one will also do, and greater than these he will do, because I go on to My Father;

¹³ and whatever you may ask in My Name, I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son;

¹⁴ if you ask anything in My Name I will do [it].

¹⁵ If you love Me, keep My commands,

¹⁶ and I will ask the Father, and He will give to you another Comforter, that He may remain with you throughout the age:

¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see nor know [this] One, and you know [this] One, because [this] One remains with you, and will be in you.

¹⁸ I will not leave you bereaved, I come to you;

¹⁹ yet a little [while] and the world beholds Me no more, and you behold Me, because I live, and you will live;

²⁰ in that day you will know that I [am] in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you;

²¹ he who is having My commands, and is keeping them, that one it is who is loving Me, and he who is loving Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will manifest Myself to him."

²² Judas says to Him (not the Iscariot), "Lord, what has come to pass, that You are about to manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

²³ Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone may love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and We will make [an] abode with him;

²⁴ he who is not loving Me does not keep My words; and the word that you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

²⁵ These things I have spoken to you, remaining with you,

²⁶ and the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My Name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all things that I said to you.

²⁷ Peace I leave to you; My peace I give to you. Not according as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid.

²⁸ You heard that I said to you, I go away, and I come to you. If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced that I said, I go on to the Father, because My Father is greater than I.

²⁹ And now I have said [it] to you before it comes to pass, that when it may come to pass, you may believe.

³⁰ I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world comes, and he has nothing in Me;

³¹ but that the world may know that I love the Father, and according as the Father gave Me command, so I do; arise, we may go from here."

¹ "I AM the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser;

² every branch not bearing fruit in Me, He takes it away, and everyone bearing fruit, He cleanses by pruning it, that it may bear more fruit;

³ you are already clean, because of the word that I have spoken to you;

⁴ remain in Me, and I in you, as the branch is not able to bear fruit of itself, if it may not remain in the vine, so neither you, if you may not remain in Me.

⁵ I AM the vine, you the branches; he who is remaining in Me, and I in him, this one bears much fruit, because apart from Me you are not able to do anything;

⁶ if anyone may not remain in Me, he was cast forth outside as the branch, and was withered, and they gather them, and cast into fire, and they are burned;

⁷ if you may remain in Me, and My sayings may remain in you, whatever you may wish you will ask, and it will be done to you.

⁸ In this was My Father glorified, that you may bear much fruit, and you will become My disciples.

⁹ According as the Father loved Me, I also loved you, remain in My love;

¹⁰ if you may keep My commands, you will remain in My love, according as I have kept the commands of My Father, and remain in His love;

¹¹ these things I have spoken to you, that My joy in you may remain, and your joy may be full.

¹² This is My command, that you love one another, according as I loved you;

¹³ greater love has no one than this, that anyone may lay down his life for his friends;

¹⁴ you are My friends if you may do whatever I command you;

¹⁵ I no longer call you servants, because the servant has not known what his lord does, and I have called you friends, because all things that I heard from My Father, I made known to you.

¹⁶ You did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you might go away, and might bear fruit, and your fruit might remain, that whatever you may ask of the Father in My Name, He may give you.

¹⁷ These things I command you, that you love one another;

¹⁸ if the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before you;

¹⁹ if you were of the world, the world would have been cherishing its own, but because you are not of the world, but I chose [you] out of the world—because of this the world hates you.

²⁰ Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his lord; if they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will also keep yours;

²¹ but all these things will they do to you, because of My Name, because they have not known Him who sent Me;

²² if I had not come and spoken to them, they were not having sin; but now they have no pretext for their sin.

²³ He who is hating Me, hates My Father also;

²⁴ if I did not do among them the works that no other has done, they were not having sin, and now they have both seen and hated both Me and My Father;

²⁵ but—that the word may be fulfilled that was written in their law—They hated Me without a cause.

²⁶ And when the Comforter may come, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth, who comes forth from the Father, He will testify of Me;

²⁷ and you also testify, because you are with Me from the beginning.”

¹ “These things I have spoken to you, that you may not be stumbled.

² They will put you out of the synagogues, but an hour comes that everyone who has killed you may think to offer service to God;

³ and these things they will do to you, because they did not know the Father, nor Me.

⁴ But these things I have spoken to you, that when the hour may come, you may remember them, that I said [them] to you, and I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you;

⁶ But because I have said to you these things, the sorrow has filled your heart.

⁷ But I tell you the truth; it is better for you that I go away, for if I may not go away, the Comforter will not come to you, and if I go on, I will send Him to you;

⁸ and having come, He will convict the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment;

⁹ concerning sin indeed, because they do not believe in Me;

¹⁰ and concerning righteousness, because I go away to My Father, and you behold Me no more;

¹¹ and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² I have yet many things to say to you, but you are not able to bear [them] now;

¹³ and when He may come—the Spirit of truth—He will guide you to all the truth, for He will not speak from Himself, but as many things as He will hear He will speak, and the coming things He will tell you;

¹⁴ He will glorify Me, because He will take of Mine, and will tell to you.

¹⁵ All things, as many as the Father has, are Mine; because of this I said that He will take of Mine, and will tell to you;

¹⁶ a little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go away to the Father.”

¹⁷ Therefore [some] of His disciples said to one another, "What is this that He says to us, A little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me, and, Because I go away to the Father?"

¹⁸ They said then, "What is this He says—the little while? We have not known what He says."

¹⁹ Jesus, therefore, knew that they were wishing to ask Him, and He said to them, "Concerning this do you seek with one another, because I said, A little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me?"

²⁰ Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, and the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will become joy.

²¹ The woman, when she may bear, has sorrow, because her hour came, and when she may bear the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a man was born into the world.

²² And you, therefore, now indeed have sorrow; and again I will see you, and your heart will rejoice, and no one takes your joy from you,

²³ and in that day you will question nothing of Me; truly, truly, I say to you, as many things as you may ask of the Father in My Name, He will give you;

²⁴ until now you asked nothing in My Name; ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

²⁵ I have spoken these things in allegories to you, but there comes an hour when I will no longer speak to you in allegories, but will tell you freely of the Father.

²⁶ In that day you will make request in My Name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father for you,

²⁷ for the Father Himself cherishes you, because you have cherished Me, and you have believed that I came forth from God;

²⁸ I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; again I leave the world, and go on to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples say to Him, "Behold, now You speak freely, and You do not speak allegory;

³⁰ now we have known that You have known all things, and have no need that anyone questions You; in this we believe that You came forth from God."

³¹ Jesus answered them, "Now do you believe? Behold, there comes an hour,

³² and now it has come, that you may be scattered, each to his own things, and you may leave Me alone, and I am not alone, because the Father is with Me;

³³ these things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace, in the world you will have tribulation, but take courage—I have overcome the world."

¹ These things Jesus spoke, and lifted up His eyes to the sky, and said, "Father, the hour has come, glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify You,

² according as You gave to Him authority over all flesh, that—all that You have given to Him—He may give to them continuous life;

³ and this is the continuous life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Him whom You sent—Jesus Christ;

⁴ I glorified You on the earth, having completed the work that You have given Me, that I should do.

⁵ And now, glorify Me, You Father, with Yourself, with the glory that I had with You before the world was;

⁶ I revealed Your Name to the men whom You have given to Me out of the world; they were Yours, and You have given them to Me, and they have kept Your word;

⁷ now they have known that all things, as many as You have given to Me, are from You,

⁸ because the sayings that You have given to Me, I have given to them, and they themselves received, and have known truly, that I came forth from You, and they believed that You sent Me.

⁹ I ask in regard to them; I do not ask in regard to the world, but in regard to those whom You have given to Me, because they are Yours,

¹⁰ and all Mine are Yours, and Yours [are] Mine, and I have been glorified in them;

¹¹ and I am no longer in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your Name, whom You have given to Me, that they may be one as We [are one];

¹² when I was with them in the world, I was keeping them in Your Name; I guarded those whom You have given to Me, and none of them were destroyed, except the son of the destruction, that the Writing may be fulfilled.

¹³ And now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves;

¹⁴ I have given Your word to them, and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world;

¹⁵ I do not ask that You may take them out of the world, but that You may keep them out of the evil.

¹⁶ They are not of the world, as I am not of the world;

¹⁷ sanctify them in Your truth, Your word is truth;

¹⁸ as You sent Me into the world, I also sent them into the world;

¹⁹ and I sanctify Myself for them, that they also may be sanctified in truth themselves.

²⁰ And I do not ask in regard to these alone, but also in regard to those who will be believing in Me through their word, ²¹ that they all may be one, as You Father [are] in Me, and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.

²² And I have given to them the glory that You have given to Me, that they may be one as We are one—

²³ I in them, and You in Me, that they may be perfected into one, and that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them as You loved Me.

²⁴ Father, those whom You have given to Me, I will that where I am they also may be with Me, that they may behold My glory that You gave to Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world.

²⁵ Righteous Father, also the world did not know You, and I knew You, and these have known that You sent Me,

²⁶ and I made known to them Your Name, and will make known, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

¹ Having said these things, Jesus went forth with His disciples beyond the Brook of Kidron, where [there] was a garden, into which He entered, Himself and His disciples,

² and Judas also, who delivered Him up, had known the place, because Jesus assembled there with His disciples many times.

³ Judas, therefore, having taken the band and officers out of the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with torches and lamps, and weapons;

⁴ Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that are coming on Him, having gone forth, said to them, “Whom do you seek?”

⁵ They answered Him, “Jesus the Nazarene”; Jesus says to them, “I AM”; and Judas who delivered Him up was standing with them.

⁶ When, therefore, He said to them, “I AM,” they went away backward, and fell to the ground.

⁷ Again, therefore, He questioned them, “Whom do you seek?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene”;

⁸ Jesus answered, “I said to you that I AM; if, then, you seek Me, permit these to go away”;

⁹ that the word might be fulfilled that He said, “Those whom You have given to Me, I did not lose even one of them.”

¹⁰ Simon Peter, therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the chief priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear—and the name of the servant was Malchus—

¹¹ Jesus, therefore, said to Peter, “Put the sword into the sheath; the cup that the Father has given to Me, may I not drink it?”

¹² The band, therefore, and the captain, and the officers of the Jews, took hold on Jesus, and bound Him,

¹³ and they led Him away to Annas first, for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was chief priest of that year,

¹⁴ and Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews that it is good for one man to perish for the people.

¹⁵ And following Jesus was Simon Peter, and the other disciple, and that disciple was known to the chief priest, and he entered with Jesus into the hall of the chief priest,

¹⁶ and Peter was standing at the door outside, therefore the other disciple who was known to the chief priest went forth, and he spoke to the doorkeeper, and he brought in Peter.

¹⁷ Then the maid, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, “Are you also of the disciples of this Man?” He says, “I am not”;

¹⁸ and the servants and the officers were standing, having made a fire of coals, because it was cold, and they were warming themselves, and Peter was standing with them, and warming himself.

¹⁹ The chief priests, therefore, questioned Jesus concerning His disciples, and concerning His teaching;

²⁰ Jesus answered him, “I spoke freely to the world, I always taught in a synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always come together; and I spoke nothing in secret;

²¹ why do you question Me? Question those having heard what I spoke to them; behold, these have known what I said."

²² And He having said these things, one of the officers standing by gave Jesus a slap, saying, "Thus do You answer the chief priest?"

²³ Jesus answered him, "If I spoke ill, testify concerning the ill; and if well, why do you strike Me?"

²⁴ Annas then sent Him bound to Caiaphas the chief priest.

²⁵ And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself, then they said to him, "Are you also of His disciples?" He denied and said, "I am not."

²⁶ One of the servants of the chief priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, says, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"

²⁷ Again, therefore, Peter denied, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸ They led, therefore, Jesus from Caiaphas into the Praetorium, and it was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover;

²⁹ Pilate, therefore, went forth to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

³⁰ They answered and said to him, "If He were not doing evil, we had not delivered Him to you."

³¹ Pilate, therefore, said to them, "Take Him—you—and judge Him according to your law"; the Jews, therefore, said to him, "It is not lawful to us to put anyone to death";

³² that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which He said, signifying by what death He was about to die.

³³ Pilate, therefore, entered into the Praetorium again, and called Jesus, and said to Him, "You are the King of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus answered him, "Do you say this from yourself? Or did others say it to you about Me?"

³⁵ Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your nation and the chief priests delivered You up to me; what did You do?"

³⁶ Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world; if My kingdom were of this world, My officers had struggled that I might not be delivered up to Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."

³⁷ Pilate, therefore, said to Him, "Are You then a king?" Jesus answered, "You say [it], because I am a king; I have been born for this, and I have come into the world for this, that I may testify to the truth; everyone who is of the truth, hears My voice."

³⁸ Pilate says to Him, "What is truth?" And having said this, again he went forth to the Jews and says to them, "I find no fault in Him;

³⁹ and you have a custom that I will release to you one in the Passover; do you determine, therefore, [that] I will release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰ Therefore they all cried out again, saying, "Not this One—but Barabbas"; and Barabbas was a robber.

¹ Then, therefore, Pilate took Jesus and scourged [Him],

² and the soldiers having plaited a garland of thorns, placed [it] on His head, and they cast a purple garment around Him,

³ and said, "Hail! The King of the Jews"; and they were giving Him slaps.

⁴ Pilate, therefore, again went forth outside and says to them, "Behold, I bring Him to you outside, that you may know that I find no fault in Him";

⁵ Jesus, therefore, came forth outside, bearing the thorny garland and the purple garment; and he says to them, "Behold, the Man!"

⁶ When, therefore, the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate says to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify, for I find no fault in Him";

⁷ the Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, for He made Himself Son of God."

⁸ When, therefore, Pilate heard this word, he was more afraid,

⁹ and entered again into the Praetorium and says to Jesus, "Where are You from?" And Jesus gave him no answer.

¹⁰ Pilate, therefore, says to Him, "Do You not speak to me? Have You not known that I have authority to crucify You, and I have authority to release You?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "You would have no authority against Me if it were not having been given you from above; because of this, he who is delivering Me up to you has greater sin."

¹² From this [time] Pilate was seeking to release Him, and the Jews were crying out, saying, "If you may release this One, you are not a friend of Caesar; everyone making himself a king speaks against Caesar."

¹³ Pilate, therefore, having heard this word, brought Jesus outside—and he sat down on the judgment seat—to a place called, "Pavement," and in Hebrew, Gabbatha;

¹⁴ and it was the Preparation of the Passover, and as it were the sixth hour, and he says to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

¹⁵ And they cried out, "Take away! Take away! Crucify Him!" Pilate says to them, "Will I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar."

¹⁶ Then, therefore, he delivered Him up to them, that He may be crucified, and they took Jesus and led [Him] away,

¹⁷ and carrying His cross, He went forth to the [place] called "Place of [the] Skull," which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha—

¹⁸ where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, on this side and on that side, but Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹ And Pilate also wrote a title, and put [it] on the cross, and it was written: "JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS";

²⁰ therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place was near to the city where Jesus was crucified, and it was having been written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin.

²¹ The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Do not write, The King of the Jews, but that this One said, I am King of the Jews";

²² Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

²⁴ they said, therefore, to one another, "We may not tear it, but cast a lot for it, whose it will be"; that the Writing might be fulfilled, that is saying, "They divided My garments to themselves, and they cast a lot for My clothing"; the soldiers, therefore, indeed, did these things.

²⁵ And there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary of Cleopas, and Mary the Magdalene;

²⁶ Jesus, therefore, having seen [His] mother, and the disciple standing by, whom He was loving, He says to His mother, "Woman, behold, your son";

²⁷ afterward He says to the disciple, "Behold, your mother"; and from that hour the disciple took her to his own [home].

²⁸ After this, Jesus knowing that all things have now been accomplished, that the Writing may be fulfilled, says, "I thirst";

²⁹ a vessel, therefore, was placed full of vinegar, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, and having put [it] around a hyssop stalk, they put [it] to His mouth;

³⁰ when, therefore, Jesus received the vinegar, He said, "It has been accomplished." And having bowed the head, gave up the spirit.

³¹ The Jews, therefore, that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath, since it was the Preparation (for that Sabbath day was a great one), asked of Pilate that their legs may be broken, and they [are] taken away.

³² The soldiers, therefore, came, and they indeed broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him,

³³ and having come to Jesus, when they saw Him already having been dead, they did not break His legs;

³⁴ but one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came forth blood and water;

³⁵ and he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true, and that one has known that he speaks true things, that you also may believe.

³⁶ For these things came to pass, that the Writing may be fulfilled, "A bone of Him will not be broken";

³⁷ and again another Writing says, "They will look to Him whom they pierced."

³⁸ And after these things, Joseph of Arimathea—being a disciple of Jesus, but concealed, through the fear of the Jews—asked of Pilate, that he may take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave leave; he came, therefore, and took away the body of Jesus, ³⁹ and Nicodemus also came—who came to Jesus by night at the first—carrying a mixture of myrrh and aloes, as it were, one hundred pounds.

⁴⁰ Therefore they took the body of Jesus, and bound it with linen clothes with the spices, according as it was the custom of the Jews to prepare for burial;

⁴¹ and there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and a new tomb in the garden, in which no one was yet laid;

⁴² therefore, because the tomb was near, there they laid Jesus because of the Preparation of the Jews.

¹ And on the first [day] of the weeks, Mary the Magdalene comes early (there being yet darkness) to the tomb, and she sees the stone having been taken away out of the tomb;

² she runs, therefore, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus was cherishing, and says to them, "They took away the Lord out of the tomb, and we have not known where they laid Him."

³ Peter, therefore, went forth, and the other disciple, and they were coming to the tomb,

⁴ and the two were running together, and the other disciple ran forward more quickly than Peter, and came first to the tomb,

⁵ and having stooped down, sees the linen clothes lying, yet, indeed, he did not enter.

⁶ Simon Peter, therefore, comes, following him, and he entered into the tomb, and beholds the linen clothes lying [there],

⁷ and the napkin that was on His head not lying with the linen clothes, but apart, having been folded up, in one place;

⁸ then, therefore, the other disciple who came first to the tomb entered also, and he saw and believed;

⁹ for they did not yet know the Writing, that it was necessary for Him to rise again out of the dead.

¹⁰ The disciples therefore went away again to their own friends,

¹¹ and Mary was standing near the tomb, weeping outside; as she was weeping, then, she stooped down into the tomb, and beholds two messengers in white, sitting,

¹² one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been laid.

¹³ And they say to her, "Woman, why do you weep?" She says to them, "Because they took away my Lord, and I have not known where they laid Him";

¹⁴ and having said these things, she turned backward, and sees Jesus standing, and she had not known that it is Jesus.

¹⁵ Jesus says to her, "Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek?" She, supposing that He is the gardener, says to Him, "Lord, if You carried Him away, tell me where You laid Him, and I will take Him away";

¹⁶ Jesus says to her, "Mary!" Having turned, she says to Him, "Rabboni!" That is to say, "Teacher."

¹⁷ Jesus says to her, "Do not be touching Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; and be going on to My brothers, and say to them, I ascend to My Father and your Father, and [to] My God and your God."

¹⁸ Mary the Magdalene comes, reporting to the disciples that she has seen the LORD, and [that] He said these things to her.

¹⁹ It being, therefore, evening, on that day, the first [day] of the weeks, and the doors having been shut where the disciples were assembled through fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and says to them, "Peace to you";

²⁰ and having said this, He showed them His hands and side; the disciples, therefore, rejoiced, having seen the LORD.

²¹ Jesus, therefore, said to them again, "Peace to you; according as the Father has sent Me, I also send you";

²² having said this, He breathed on [them], and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit;

²³ if you may forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you may retain of any, they have been retained."

²⁴ And Thomas, one of the Twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came;

²⁵ the other disciples, therefore, said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" And he said to them, "If I may not see the mark of the nails in His hands, and may [not] put my finger into the mark of the nails, and may [not] put my hand into His side, I will not believe.”

²⁶ And after eight days, again His disciples were within, and Thomas [was] with them; Jesus comes, the doors having been shut, and He stood in the midst and said, “Peace to you!”

²⁷ Then He says to Thomas, “Bring your finger here, and see My hands, and bring your hand, and put [it] into My side, and do not become unbelieving, but believing.”

²⁸ And Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹ Jesus says to him, “Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed; blessed [are] those having not seen, and having believed.”

³⁰ Many indeed, therefore, other signs Jesus also did before His disciples that are not written in this scroll;

³¹ and these have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing, you may have life in His Name.

¹ After these things Jesus Himself again appeared to the disciples on the Sea of Tiberias, and He revealed Himself thus:

² Simon Peter, and Thomas who is called Didymus, and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, and the [sons] of Zebedee, and two of His other disciples were together.

³ Simon Peter says to them, “I go away to fish”; they say to him, “We go—we also—with you”; they went forth and immediately entered into the boat, and on that night they caught nothing.

⁴ And morning having now come, Jesus stood at the shore, yet indeed the disciples did not know that it is Jesus;

⁵ Jesus, therefore, says to them, “Boys, do you have any meat?”

⁶ They answered Him, “No”; and He said to them, “Cast the net at the right side of the boat, and you will find [some]”; they cast, therefore, and no longer were they able to draw it, from the multitude of the fishes.

⁷ That disciple, therefore, whom Jesus was loving says to Peter, “It is the Lord!” Simon Peter, therefore, having heard that it is the LORD, girded on the outer coat (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea;

⁸ and the other disciples came by the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away, dragging the net of the fishes;

⁹ when, therefore, they came to the land, they behold a fire of coals lying [there], and a fish lying on it, and bread.

¹⁰ Jesus says to them, “Bring from the fishes that you caught now”;

¹¹ Simon Peter went up, and drew the net up on the land, full of great fishes—one hundred fifty-three; and though they were so many, the net was not split.

¹² Jesus says to them, “Come, dine”; and none of the disciples were venturing to inquire of Him, “Who are You?” Knowing that it is the LORD;

¹³ Jesus, therefore, comes and takes the bread and gives [it] to them, and the fish in like manner;

¹⁴ this [is] now a third time Jesus was revealed to His disciples, having been raised from the dead.

15 When, therefore, they dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, [son] of Jonas, do you love Me more than these?" He says to Him, "Yes, Lord; You have known that I cherish You"; He says to him, "Feed My lambs."

16 He says to him again, a second time, "Simon, [son] of Jonas, do you love Me?" He says to Him, "Yes, Lord; You have known that I cherish You"; He says to him, "Tend My sheep."

17 He says to him the third time, "Simon, [son] of Jonas, do you cherish Me?" Peter was grieved that He said to him the third time, "Do you cherish Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You have known all things; You know that I cherish You." Jesus says to him, "Feed My sheep;

18 truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you were girding yourself and were walking to where you willed, but when you may be old, you will stretch forth your hands, and another will gird you, and will carry [you] to where you do not will";

19 and this He said, signifying by what death he will glorify God; and having said this, He says to him, "Follow Me."

20 And having turned, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus was loving following (who also reclined in the dinner on His breast and said, "Lord, who is he who is delivering You up?")

21 Having seen this one, Peter says to Jesus, "Lord, and what of this one?"

22 Jesus says to him, "If I will him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you? Follow Me."

23 This word, therefore, went forth to the brothers that this disciple does not die, yet Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I will him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you?"

24 This is the disciple who is testifying concerning these things, and he wrote these things, and we have known that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things—as many as Jesus did—which, if they may be written one by one, I think the world itself does not even have place for the scrolls written. Amen.

Acts

¹ The former account, indeed, I made concerning all things, O Theophilus, that Jesus began both to do and to teach,

² until the day in which, having given command through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He chose out, He was taken up,

³ to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, in many certain proofs, being seen by them through forty days, and speaking the things concerning the Kingdom of God.

⁴ And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, "Which you heard from Me;

⁵ because John, indeed, immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit not many days after these."

⁶ They, therefore, indeed, having come together, were questioning Him, saying, "Lord, do You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷ And He said to them, "It is not yours to know times or seasons that the Father appointed in His own authority;

⁸ but you will receive power at the coming of the Holy Spirit on you, and you will be witnesses for Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

⁹ And having said these things—they beholding—He was taken up, and a cloud received Him up from their sight;

¹⁰ and as they were looking steadfastly to the sky in His going on, then, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing,

¹¹ who also said, "Men, Galileans, why do you stand gazing into the sky? This Jesus who was received up from you into Heaven, will so come in what manner you saw Him going on to Heaven."

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from [that] called the Mount of Olives, that is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath's journey;

¹³ and when they came in, they went up into the upper room, where were abiding both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James, of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas, of James;

¹⁴ these were all continuing with one accord in prayer and supplication, with women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

¹⁵ And in these days, Peter having risen up in the midst of the disciples, said (also the multitude of the names at the same place was, as it were, one hundred and twenty),

¹⁶ "Men, brothers, it was necessary [for] this Writing to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus,

¹⁷ because he was numbered among us, and received the share in this ministry.

¹⁸ (This one, indeed, then, purchased a field out of the reward of unrighteousness, and falling headlong, burst apart in the midst, and all his bowels gushed forth,

¹⁹ and it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, insomuch that this place is called, in their proper dialect, Aceldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

²⁰ For it has been written in [the] Scroll of Psalms: Let his lodging-place become desolate, and let no one be dwelling in it, and let another take his oversight.

²¹ It is necessary, therefore, of the men who went with us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us,

²² beginning from the immersion of John, to the day in which He was received up from us, one of these to become with us a witness of His resurrection."

²³ And they set two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias,

²⁴ and having prayed, they said, "You, LORD, who are knowing the heart of all, show which one You chose of these two,

²⁵ to receive the share of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas, by transgression, fell, to go on to his proper place";

²⁶ and they gave their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

¹ And in the day of the Pentecost being fulfilled, they were all with one accord at the same place,

² and there came suddenly out of the sky a sound as of a violent rushing wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting,

³ and there appeared to them divided tongues, as it were of fire; it also sat on each one of them,

⁴ and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, according as the Spirit was giving them to declare.

⁵ And there were Jews dwelling in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation of those under the heaven,

⁶ and the rumor of this having come, the multitude came together, and was confounded, because they were, each one, hearing them speaking in his proper dialect,

⁷ and they were all amazed, and wondered, saying to one another, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

⁸ And how do we hear, each in our proper dialect, in which we were born?

⁹ Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and those dwelling in Mesopotamia, in Judea also, and Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia,

¹⁰ Phrygia also, and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya that [are] along Cyrene, and the strangers of Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

¹¹ Cretes and Arabians, we heard them speaking the great things of God in our tongues."

¹² And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying to one another, "What would this wish to be?"

¹³ And others mocking said, "They are full of sweet wine";

¹⁴ and Peter having stood up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice and declared to them: "Men—Jews, and all those dwelling in Jerusalem! Let this be known to you, and listen to my sayings,

¹⁵ for these are not drunken, as you take it up, for it is the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which has been spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 And it will be in the last days, says God, || I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh, || And your sons and your daughters will prophesy, || And your young men will see visions, || And your old men will dream dreams;

18 And also on My menservants, and on My maidservants, || In those days, I will pour out of My Spirit, || And they will prophesy;

19 And I will give wonders in the sky above, || And signs on the earth beneath—Blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke,

20 The sun will be turned to darkness, || And the moon to blood, || Before the coming of the Day of the LORD—the great and conspicuous;

21 And it will be, everyone who, if he may have called on the Name of the LORD, will be saved.

22 Men, Israelites! Hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man approved of God among you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs, that God did through Him in the midst of you, according as also you yourselves have known,

23 this One, by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, being given out, having been taken by lawless hands, having been crucified—you slew,

24 whom God raised up, having loosed the travails of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it;

25 for David says in regard to Him: I foresaw the LORD always before me—Because He is on my right hand—That I may not be moved;

26 Because of this was my heart cheered, || And my tongue was glad, || And yet—my flesh will also rest on hope,

27 Because You will not leave my soul to Hades, || Nor will You give Your Holy One to see corruption;

28 You made known to me ways of life, || You will fill me with joy with Your countenance.

29 Men, brothers! It is permitted to speak with freedom to you concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us to this day;

30 therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God swore to him with an oath, out of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, to raise up the Christ, to sit on his throne,

31 having foreseen, he spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left to Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.

32 God raised up this Jesus, of which we are all witnesses;

33 then having been exalted at the right hand of God—also having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father—He poured forth this which you now see and hear;

34 for David did not go up into the heavens, and he says himself: The LORD says to my Lord, || Sit at My right hand,

35 Until I make Your enemies Your footstool;

36 assuredly, therefore, let all the house of Israel know that God made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified.”

37 And having heard, they were pricked to the heart; they also say to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, “What will we do, men, brothers?”

38 And Peter said to them, “Convert, and each of you be immersed on the Name of Jesus Christ, for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit,

³⁹ for the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those far off, as many as the LORD our God will call.”

⁴⁰ Also with many more other words he was testifying and exhorting, saying, “Be saved from this perverse generation”;

⁴¹ then those, indeed, who gladly received his word were immersed, and there were added on that day, as it were, three thousand souls,

⁴² and they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the apostles, and the fellowship, and the breaking of the bread, and the prayers.

⁴³ And fear came on every soul, also many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles,

⁴⁴ and all those believing were at the same place, and had all things common,

⁴⁵ and they were selling the possessions and the goods, and were parting them to all, according as anyone had need.

⁴⁶ Also continuing daily with one accord in the temple, also breaking bread at every house, they were partaking of food in gladness and simplicity of heart,

⁴⁷ praising God, and having favor with all the people, and the LORD was adding those being saved every day to the Assembly.

¹ And Peter and John were going up at the same time into the temple, at the hour of the prayer, the ninth [hour],

² and a certain man, being lame from the womb of his mother, was being carried, whom they were laying every day at the gate of the temple, called Beautiful, to ask a kindness from those entering into the temple,

³ who, having seen Peter and John about to go into the temple, was begging to receive a kindness.

⁴ And Peter, having looked steadfastly toward him with John, said, “Look toward us”;

⁵ and he was giving heed to them, looking to receive something from them;

⁶ and Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but what I have, that I give to you; in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and be walking.”

⁷ And having seized him by the right hand, he raised [him] up, and instantly his feet and ankles were strengthened,

⁸ and springing up, he stood, and was walking, and entered with them into the temple, walking and springing, and praising God;

⁹ and all the people saw him walking and praising God,

¹⁰ and they knew him, that this it was who for a kindness was sitting at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what has happened to him.

¹¹ And at the lame man who was healed holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch called Solomon’s—greatly amazed,

¹² and Peter having seen, answered to the people, “Men, Israelites! Why do you wonder at this? Or why do you look on us so earnestly, as if by our own power or pity we have made him to walk?”

¹³ The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His child Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, he having given judgment to release [Him],

¹⁴ and you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and desired a man—a murderer—to be granted to you,

¹⁵ and the Prince of life you killed, whom God raised out of the dead, of which we are witnesses;

¹⁶ and on the faith of His Name, this one whom you see and have known, His Name made strong, even the faith that [is] through Him gave to him this perfect soundness before you all.

¹⁷ And now, brothers, I have known that through ignorance you did [it], as also your rulers;

¹⁸ and God, what things He had declared before through the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ should suffer, He thus fulfilled;

¹⁹ convert, therefore, and turn back, for your sins being blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the LORD,

²⁰ and He may send Jesus Christ who before has been preached to you,

²¹ whom Heaven required, indeed, to receive until times of a restitution of all things, of which God spoke through the mouth of all His holy prophets from the age.

²² For Moses, indeed, said to the fathers—The LORD your God will raise up a Prophet to you out of your brothers, like to me; you will hear Him in all things, as many as He may speak to you;

²³ and it will be, every soul that may not hear that Prophet will be utterly destroyed out of the people;

²⁴ and also all the prophets from Samuel and those following in order, as many as spoke, also foretold of these days.

²⁵ You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant that God made to our fathers, saying to Abraham: And in your Seed will all the families of the earth be blessed;

²⁶ to you first, God, having raised up His child Jesus, sent Him, blessing you, in the turning away of each one from your evil ways.”

¹ And as they are speaking to the people, there came to them the priests, and the magistrate of the temple, and the Sadducees—

² being grieved because of their teaching the people, and preaching in Jesus the resurrection out of the dead—

³ and they laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was evening already;

⁴ and many of those hearing the word believed, and the number of the men became, as it were, five thousand.

⁵ And it came to pass the next day, there were gathered together of them the rulers, and elders, and scribes, to Jerusalem,

⁶ and Annas the chief priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the chief priest,

⁷ and having set them in the midst, they were inquiring, “In what power, or in what name did you do this?”

⁸ Then Peter, having been filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: “Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

⁹ if we are examined today concerning the good deed to the ailing man, by whom he has been saved,

¹⁰ be it known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised out of the dead, in Him has this one stood by before you whole.

¹¹ This is the stone that was set at nothing by you—the builders, that became head of a corner;

¹² and there is not salvation in any other; for there is no other name under Heaven that has been given among men, in which it is required of us to be saved.”

¹³ And beholding the openness of Peter and John, and having perceived that they are illiterate men and commoners, they were wondering—they were also taking knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus—

¹⁴ and seeing the man standing with them who has been healed, they had nothing to say against [it],

¹⁵ and having commanded them to go away out of the Sanhedrin, they took counsel with one another;

¹⁶ saying, “What will we do to these men? Because that, indeed, a notable sign has been done through them [is] apparent to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, and we are not able to deny [it];

¹⁷ but that it may spread no further toward the people, let us strictly threaten them to no longer speak in this Name to any man.”

¹⁸ And having called them, they charged them not to speak at all, nor to teach, in the Name of Jesus,

¹⁹ and Peter and John answering to them said, “Whether it is righteous before God to listen to you rather than to God, judge;

²⁰ for we cannot but speak what we saw and heard.”

²¹ And they having further threatened [them], let them go, finding no way how they may punish them, because of the people, because all were glorifying God for that which has been done,

²² for above forty years of age was the man on whom had been done this sign of the healing.

²³ And being let go, they went to their own friends, and declared whatever the chief priests and the elders said to them,

²⁴ and they having heard, lifted up the voice to God with one accord and said, “LORD, You [are] God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that [are] in them,

²⁵ who, through the mouth of Your servant David, said, Why did nations rage, and peoples meditate vain things?

²⁶ The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the LORD and against His Christ;

²⁷ for gathered together of a truth against Your holy child Jesus, whom You anointed, were both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with nations and peoples of Israel,

²⁸ to do whatever Your hand and Your counsel determined before to come to pass.

²⁹ And now, LORD, look on their threatenings, and grant to Your servants to speak Your word with all freedom,

³⁰ in the stretching forth of Your hand, for healing, and signs, and wonders, to come to pass through the Name of Your holy child Jesus.”

³¹ And they having prayed, the place was shaken in which they were gathered together, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and were speaking the word of God with freedom,

³² and of the multitude of those who believed, the heart and the soul were one, and not one was saying that anything of the things he had was his own, but all things were in common to them.

³³ And with great power the apostles were giving the testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, great grace was also on them all,

³⁴ for there was not anyone among them who lacked, for as many as were possessors of fields, or houses, selling [them], were bringing the prices of the thing sold,

³⁵ and were laying them at the feet of the apostles, and distribution was being made to each according as anyone had need.

³⁶ And Joses, who was surnamed by the apostles Barnabas—which is, having been interpreted, Son of Comfort—a Levite, of Cyprus by birth, ³⁷ a field being his, having sold [it], brought the money and laid [it] at the feet of the apostles.

² and kept back of the price—his wife also knowing—and having brought a certain part, he laid [it] at the feet of the apostles.

³ And Peter said, “Ananias, why did Satan fill your heart, for you to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back of the price of the place?”

⁴ While it remained, did it not remain yours? And having been sold, was it not in your authority? Why [is] it that you put this thing in your heart? You did not lie to men, but to God”;

⁵ and Ananias hearing these words, having fallen down, expired, and great fear came on all who heard these things,

⁶ and having risen, the younger men wound him up, and having carried forth, they buried [him].

⁷ And it came to pass, about three hours after, that his wife, not knowing what has happened, came in,

⁸ and Peter answered her, “Tell me if for so much you sold the place”; and she said, “Yes, for so much.”

⁹ And Peter said to her, “How was it agreed by you to tempt the Spirit of the LORD? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband [are] at the door, and they will carry you forth”;

¹⁰ and immediately she fell down at his feet, and expired, and the young men having come in, found her dead, and having carried forth, they buried [her] by her husband;

¹¹ and great fear came on all the Assembly, and on all who heard these things.

¹² And through the hands of the apostles came many signs and wonders among the people, and they were all with one accord in the porch of Solomon;

¹³ and of the rest no one was daring to join himself to them, but the people were magnifying them,

¹⁴ (and the more were believers added to the LORD, multitudes of both men and women),

¹⁵ so as to bring forth the ailing into the broad places, and to lay [them] on beds and pallets, that at the coming of Peter, even [his] shadow might overshadow someone of them;

¹⁶ and there were also coming together the people of the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, carrying ailing persons, and those harassed by unclean spirits—who were all healed.

¹⁷ And having risen, the chief priest, and all those with him—being the sect of the Sadducees—were filled with zeal,

¹⁸ and laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in a public prison;

¹⁹ but through the night a messenger of the LORD opened the doors of the prison, having also brought them forth, he said,

²⁰ “Go on, and standing, speak in the temple to the people all the sayings of this life”;

²¹ and having heard, they entered into the temple at the dawn, and were teaching. And the chief priest having come, and those with him, they called together the Sanhedrin and all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and they sent to the prison to have them brought,

²² and the officers having come, did not find them in the prison, and having turned back, they told,

²³ saying, “We indeed found the prison shut in all safety, and the keepers standing outside before the doors, and having opened—we found no one within.”

²⁴ And as the priest, and the magistrate of the temple, and the chief priests, heard these words, they were doubting concerning them to what this would come;

²⁵ and coming near, a certain one told them, saying, “Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people”;

²⁷ and having brought them, they set [them] in the Sanhedrin, and the chief priest questioned them,

²⁸ saying, “Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this Name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring on us the blood of this Man.”

²⁹ And Peter and the apostles answering, said, “It is required to obey God, rather than men;

³⁰ and the God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you slew, having hanged on a tree;

³¹ this One, God, a Prince and a Savior, has exalted with His right hand, to give conversion to Israel, and forgiveness of sins;

³² and we are His witnesses of these sayings, and the Holy Spirit also, whom God gave to those obeying Him.”

³³ And they having heard, were cut [to the heart], and were intending to slay them,

³⁴ but a certain one, having risen up in the Sanhedrin—a Pharisee, by name Gamaliel, a teacher of law honored by all the people—commanded to put the apostles forth a little,

³⁵ and said to them, “Men, Israelites, take heed to yourselves about these men, what you are about to do,

³⁶ for before these days Theudas rose up, saying that he was someone, to whom a number of men joined themselves, as it were four hundred, who was slain, and all, as many as were obeying him, were scattered, and came to nothing.

³⁷ After this one, Judas the Galilean rose up, in the days of the census, and drew away people after him, and that one perished, and all, as many as were obeying him, were scattered;

³⁸ and now I say to you, refrain from these men, and leave them alone, because if this counsel or this work may be of men, it will be overthrown,

³⁹ and if it be of God, you are not able to overthrow it, lest perhaps you are also found fighting against God.”

⁴⁰ And to him they agreed, and having called near the apostles, having beaten [them], they commanded [them] not to speak in the Name of Jesus, and let them go;

⁴¹ they, indeed, then, departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that for His Name they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor;

⁴² also every day in the temple, and in every house, they were not ceasing teaching and proclaiming good news—Jesus the Christ.

¹ And in these days, the disciples multiplying, there came a murmuring of the Hellenists at the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily ministry,

² and the Twelve, having called near the multitude of the disciples, said, “It is not pleasing that we, having left the word of God, minister at tables;

³ look out, therefore, brothers, seven men of you who are testified well of, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may set over this necessity,

⁴ and we to prayer, and to the ministry of the word, will give ourselves continually.”

⁶ whom they set before the apostles, and they, having prayed, laid [their] hands on them.

⁷ And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; a great multitude of the priests were also obedient to the faith.

⁸ And Stephen, full of faith and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people,

⁹ and there arose certain of those of the synagogue, the [one] called Libertines (and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia, and Asia), disputing with Stephen,

¹⁰ and they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking;

¹¹ then they suborned men, saying, “We have heard him speaking slanderous sayings in regard to Moses and God.”

¹² They also stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and having come on [him], they caught him, and brought [him] to the Sanhedrin;

¹³ they also set up false witnesses, saying, "This one does not cease to speak evil sayings against this holy place and the Law,

¹⁴ for we have heard him saying that this Jesus the Nazarean will overthrow this place, and will change the customs that Moses delivered to us";

¹⁵ and gazing at him, all those sitting in the Sanhedrin saw his face as it were the face of a messenger.

¹ And the chief priest said, "Are then these things so?"

² And he said, "Men, brothers, and fathers, listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, being in Mesopotamia, before his dwelling in Haran, ³ and He said to him, Go forth out of your land, and out of your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you.

⁴ Then having come forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran, and from there, after the death of his father, He removed him to this land wherein you now dwell,

⁵ and He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a footstep, and promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him—he having no child.

⁶ And God spoke thus, that his seed will be sojourning in a strange land, and they will cause it to serve, and will do it evil [for] four hundred years.

⁷ And the nation whom they will serve I will judge, said God; And after these things they will come forth and will do Me service in this place.

⁸ And He gave to him a covenant of circumcision, and so he begot Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac [begot] Jacob, and Jacob—the twelve patriarchs;

⁹ and the patriarchs, having been moved with jealousy, sold Joseph to Egypt, and God was with him,

¹⁰ and delivered him out of all his tribulations, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he set him—governor over Egypt and all his house.

¹¹ And there came a scarcity on all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great tribulation, and our fathers were not finding sustenance,

¹² and Jacob having heard that there was grain in Egypt, sent forth our fathers a first time;

¹³ and at the second time was Joseph made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became disclosed to Pharaoh,

¹⁴ and Joseph having sent, called for his father Jacob, and all his relatives—with seventy-five souls—

¹⁵ and Jacob went down to Egypt, and died, himself and our fathers,

¹⁶ and they were carried over into Shechem, and were laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in money from the sons of Emmor, of Shechem.

¹⁷ And according as the time of the promise was drawing near, which God swore to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt,

¹⁸ until another king rose, who had not known Joseph;

19 this one, having dealt subtly with our family, did evil to our fathers, causing to expose their babies, that they might not live;

20 in which time Moses was born, and he was fair to God, and he was brought up [for] three months in the house of his father;

21 and he having been set outside, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up, and reared him to herself for a son;

22 and Moses was taught in all wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in words and in works.

23 And when forty years were fulfilled to him, it came on his heart to look after his brothers, the sons of Israel;

24 and having seen a certain one suffering injustice, he defended, and did justice to the oppressed, having struck the Egyptian;

25 and he was supposing his brothers to understand that God gives salvation through his hand; and they did not understand.

26 On the succeeding day, also, he showed himself to them as they are striving, and urged them to peace, saying, Men, you are brothers, why do you do injustice to one another?

27 And he who is doing injustice to the neighbor, thrustured him away, saying, Who set you a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Do you wish to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?

29 And Moses fled at this word, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begot two sons,

30 and forty years having been fulfilled, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai [the] Messenger of the LORD, in a flame of fire of a bush,

31 and Moses having seen, wondered at the sight; and he drawing near to behold, there came a voice of the LORD to him,

32 I [am] the God of your fathers; the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses having become terrified, did not dare behold,

33 and the LORD said to him, Loose the sandal of your feet, for the place in which you have stood is holy ground;

34 seeing I have seen the affliction of My people that [is] in Egypt, and I heard their groaning, and came down to deliver them; and now come, I will send you to Egypt.

35 This Moses, whom they refused, saying, Who set you a ruler and a judge? This one God sent [as] a ruler and a redeemer, by the hand of [the] Messenger who appeared to him in the bush;

36 this one brought them forth, having done wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years;

37 this is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel: The LORD your God will raise up to you a Prophet out of your brothers, like to me, Him will you hear.

38 This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the Messenger who is speaking to him in Mount Sinai, and with our fathers who received the living oracles to give to us;

39 to whom our fathers did not wish to become obedient, but thrustured away, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt,

40 saying to Aaron, Make to us gods who will go on before us, for this Moses, who brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, we have not known what has happened to him.

⁴¹ And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands,

⁴² and God turned, and gave them up to do service to the host of Heaven, according as it has been written in the scroll of the Prophets: Did you offer slain beasts and sacrifices to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

⁴³ And you took up the dwelling place of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan—the figures that you made to worship them, and I will remove your dwelling beyond Babylon.

⁴⁴ The Dwelling Place of the Testimony was among our fathers in the wilderness, according as He directed, who is speaking to Moses, to make it according to the figure that he had seen;

⁴⁵ which also our fathers having in succession received, brought in with Joshua, into the possession of the nations whom God drove out from the presence of our fathers, until the days of David,

⁴⁶ who found favor before God, and requested to find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob;

⁴⁷ and Solomon built Him a house.

⁴⁸ But the Most High does not dwell in sanctuaries made with hands, according as the prophet says:

⁴⁹ Heaven [is] My throne, | | And the earth My footstool, | | What house will you build to Me? Says the LORD; Or what [is] the place of My rest?

⁵⁰ Has My hand not made all these things?

⁵¹ You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and in ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers—also you;

⁵² which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who declared before about the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers,

⁵³ who received the Law by arrangement of messengers, and did not keep [it].”

⁵⁴ And hearing these things, they were cut to the hearts, and gnashed the teeth at him;

⁵⁵ and being full of the Holy Spirit, having looked steadfastly to the sky, he saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,

⁵⁶ and he said, “Behold, I see the heavens having been opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God.”

⁵⁷ And they, having cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and rushed with one accord on him,

⁵⁸ and having cast him forth outside of the city, they were stoning [him]—and the witnesses put down their garments at the feet of a young man called Saul—

⁵⁹ and they were stoning Stephen, [as he was] calling and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit”;

⁶⁰ and having bowed the knees, he cried with a loud voice, “LORD, may You not lay to them this sin”; and having said this, he fell asleep.

¹ And Saul was assenting to his death, and there came in that day a great persecution on the Assembly in Jerusalem, all were also scattered abroad in the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles;

² and devout men carried Stephen away, and made great lamentation over him;

³ and Saul was making havoc of the Assembly, entering into every house, and dragging away men and women, giving them up to prison;

⁴ they then indeed, having been scattered, went abroad proclaiming good news—the word.

⁵ And Philip having gone down to a city of Samaria, was preaching the Christ to them;

⁶ the multitudes were also giving heed to the things spoken by Philip, with one accord, in their hearing and seeing the signs that he was doing,

⁷ for unclean spirits came forth from many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice, and many who have been paralytic and lame were healed,

⁸ and there was great joy in that city.

⁹ And a certain man, by name Simon, was previously in the city using magic, and amazing the nation of Samaria, saying himself to be a certain great one,

¹⁰ to whom they were all giving heed, from small to great, saying, “This one is the great power of God”;

¹¹ and they were giving heed to him, because of his having amazed them for a long time with deeds of magic.

¹² And when they believed Philip, proclaiming good news, the things concerning the Kingdom of God and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were immersed—both men and women;

¹³ and Simon himself also believed, and having been immersed, he was continuing with Philip, beholding also signs and mighty acts being done, he was amazed.

¹⁴ And the apostles in Jerusalem having heard that Samaria has received the word of God, sent Peter and John to them,

¹⁵ who having come down prayed concerning them, that they may receive the Holy Spirit—

¹⁶ for as yet He was fallen on none of them, and only they have been immersed—into the Name of the Lord Jesus;

¹⁷ then they were laying hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ And Simon, having beheld that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the Holy Spirit is given, brought money before them,

¹⁹ saying, “Give also to me this authority, that on whomsoever I may lay the hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.”

²⁰ And Peter said to him, “Your silver with you—may it be to destruction! Because you thought to possess the gift of God through money;

²¹ you have neither part nor lot in this thing, for your heart is not right before God;

²² convert, therefore, from this your wickedness, and implore God, if then the purpose of your heart may be forgiven you,

²³ for in the gall of bitterness, and bond of unrighteousness, I perceive you being.”

²⁴ And Simon answering, said, “Implore for me to the LORD, that nothing may come on me of the things you have spoken.”

²⁵ They indeed, therefore, having testified fully, and spoken the word of the LORD, turned back to Jerusalem; they also proclaimed good news in many villages of the Samaritans.

²⁶ And a messenger of the LORD spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go on toward the south, on the way that is going down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desolate.)

²⁸ he was also returning, and is sitting on his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹ And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and be joined to this chariot";

³⁰ and Philip having run near, heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said, "Do you then know what you read?"

³¹ And he said, "Why, how am I able, if someone may not guide me?" He called Philip also, having come up, to sit with him.

³² And the passage of the Writing that he was reading was this: "He was led as a sheep to slaughter, || And as a lamb before his shearer is silent, || So He does not open His mouth;

³³ In His humiliation His judgment was taken away, || And His generation—who will declare? Because His life is taken from the earth."

³⁴ And the eunuch answering Philip said, "I beg you, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself, or about some other one?"

³⁵ And Philip having opened his mouth, and having begun from this Writing, proclaimed good news to him—Jesus.

³⁶ And as they were going on the way, they came on some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, water; what hinders me to be immersed?"

³⁷ [[And Philip said, "If you believe out of all the heart, it is lawful"; and he answering said, "I believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God";]]

³⁸ and he commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down to the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he immersed him;

³⁹ and when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the LORD snatched up Philip, and the eunuch saw him no more, for he was going on his way rejoicing;

⁴⁰ and Philip was found at Azotus, and passing through, he was proclaiming good news to all the cities, until his coming to Caesarea.

¹ And Saul, yet breathing of threatening and slaughter to the disciples of the LORD, having gone to the chief priest,

² asked from him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, that if he may find any being of The Way, both men and women, he may bring them bound to Jerusalem.

³ And in the going, he came near to Damascus, and suddenly there shone around him a light from Heaven,

⁴ and having fallen on the earth, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?"

⁵ And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" And the LORD said, "I am Jesus whom you persecute; [[hard for you to kick at the goads";

⁶ trembling also, and astonished, he said, "Lord, what do You wish me to do?" And the LORD [said] to him, ¶ "Arise, and enter into the city, and it will be told [to] you what you must do."

⁷ And the men who are journeying with him stood speechless, indeed hearing the voice but seeing no one,

⁸ and Saul arose from the earth, and his eyes having been opened, he beheld no one, and leading him by the hand they brought him to Damascus,

⁹ and he was three days without seeing, and he neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰ And there was a certain disciple in Damascus, by name Ananias, and the LORD said to him in a vision, "Ananias"; and he said, "Behold me, Lord";

¹¹ and the LORD [says] to him, "Having risen, go on to the street that is called Straight, and seek in the house of Judas, [one] by name Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he prays,

¹² and he saw in a vision a man, by name Ananias, coming in, and putting a hand on him, that he may see again."

¹³ And Ananias answered, "LORD, I have heard from many about this man, how many evils he did to Your holy ones in Jerusalem,

¹⁴ and here he has authority from the chief priests, to bind all those calling on Your Name."

¹⁵ And the LORD said to him, "Go, because this one is a chosen vessel to Me, to carry My Name before nations and kings—also the sons of Israel;

¹⁶ for I will show him how many things he must suffer for My Name."

¹⁷ And Ananias went away, and entered into the house, and having put on him [his] hands, said, "Saul, brother, the LORD has sent me—Jesus who appeared to you in the way in which you were coming—that you may see again, and may be filled with the Holy Spirit."

¹⁸ And immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales, he also saw again instantly, and having risen, was immersed,

¹⁹ and having received nourishment, was strengthened, and Saul was with the disciples in Damascus certain days,

²⁰ and immediately he was preaching the Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

²¹ And all those hearing were amazed and said, "Is this not he who laid waste in Jerusalem those calling on this Name, and here to this intent had come, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?"

²² And Saul was still more strengthened, and he was confounding the Jews dwelling in Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

²³ And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him,

²⁴ and their counsel against [him] was known to Saul; they were also watching the gates both day and night, that they may kill him,

²⁵ and the disciples having taken him, by night let him down by the wall, letting down in a basket.

²⁶ And Saul, having come to Jerusalem, tried to join himself to the disciples, and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he is a disciple,

²⁷ and Barnabas having taken him, brought [him] to the apostles, and declared to them how he saw the LORD in the way, and that He spoke to him, and how in Damascus he was speaking boldly in the Name of Jesus.

²⁸ And he was with them, coming in and going out in Jerusalem,

²⁹ and speaking boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus; he was both speaking and disputing with the Hellenists, and they were taking in hand to kill him,

³⁰ and the brothers having known, brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

³¹ Then, indeed, the assemblies throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, had peace, being built up, and going on in the fear of the LORD, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

³² And it came to pass that Peter, passing throughout all [quarters], also came down to the holy ones who were dwelling at Lydda,

³³ and he found there a certain man, Aeneas by name—for eight years laid on a pallet—who was paralytic,

³⁴ and Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you; arise and spread for yourself”; and immediately he rose,

³⁵ and all those dwelling at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the LORD.

³⁶ And in Joppa there was a certain female disciple, by name Tabitha (which interpreted, is called Dorcas); this woman was full of good works and kind acts that she was doing;

³⁷ and it came to pass in those days she, having ailed, died, and having bathed her, they laid her in an upper chamber,

³⁸ and Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples having heard that Peter is in that [place], sent two men to him, calling on him not to delay to come through to them.

³⁹ And Peter having risen, went with them, whom having come, they brought into the upper chamber, and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing coats and garments, as many as Dorcas was making while she was with them.

⁴⁰ And Peter having put them all forth outside, having bowed the knees, prayed, and having turned to the body, said, “Tabitha, arise”; and she opened her eyes, and having seen Peter, she sat up,

⁴¹ and having given her [his] hand, he lifted her up, and having called the holy ones and the widows, he presented her alive,

⁴² and it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the LORD;

⁴³ and it came to pass, that he remained many days in Joppa, with a certain one, Simon a tanner.

¹ And there was a certain man in Caesarea, by name Cornelius, a centurion from a cohort that is called Italian,

² pious, and fearing God with all his house, also doing many kind acts to the people, and always imploring God;

³ he saw in a vision openly, as it were the ninth hour of the day, a messenger of God coming in to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius”;

⁴ and he having looked earnestly on him, and becoming afraid, said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your kind acts came up for a memorial before God,

⁵ and now send men to Joppa, and send for a certain one Simon, who is surnamed Peter;

⁶ this one lodges with a certain Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea; this one will speak to you what you must do.”

7 And when the messenger who is speaking to Cornelius went away, having called two of his servants, and a pious soldier of those waiting on him continually,

8 and having expounded all things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 And on the next day, as these are proceeding on the way, and are drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour;

10 and he became very hungry, and wished to eat; and they making ready, there fell on him a trance,

11 and he beholds Heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending to him, as a great sheet, bound at the four corners, and let down on the earth,

12 in which were all the four-footed beasts of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky,

13 and there came a voice to him: "Having risen, Peter, slay and eat."

14 And Peter said, "Not so, Lord; because at no time did I eat anything common or unclean";

15 and [there is] a voice again a second time to him: "What God cleansed, you do not declare common";

16 and this was done three times, and again was the vessel received up to Heaven.

17 And as Peter was perplexed in himself what the vision that he saw might be, then, behold, the men who have been sent from Cornelius, having made inquiry for the house of Simon, stood at the gate,

18 and having called, they were asking if Simon, who is surnamed Peter, lodges here.

19 And Peter thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men seek you;

20 but having risen, go down and go on with them, doubting nothing, because I have sent them";

21 and Peter having come down to the men who have been sent from Cornelius to him, said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek, what [is] the cause for which you are present?"

22 And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a man righteous and fearing God, well testified to, also, by all the nation of the Jews, was divinely warned by a holy messenger to send for you, to his house, and to hear sayings from you."

23 Having called them in, therefore, he lodged them, and on the next day Peter went forth with them, and certain of the brothers from Joppa went with him,

24 and on the next day they entered into Caesarea; and Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and near friends,

25 and as it came that Peter entered in, Cornelius having met him, having fallen at [his] feet, worshiped [him];

26 and Peter raised him, saying, "Stand up; I am also a man myself";

27 and talking with him he went in, and finds many having come together.

28 And he said to them, "You know how it is unlawful for a man, a Jew, to keep company with, or to come to, one of another race, but God showed to me to call no man common or unclean;

29 therefore also without contradicting I came, having been sent for; I ask, therefore, for what matter you sent for me?"

³⁰ And Cornelius said, “Four days ago until this hour, I was fasting, and [at] the ninth hour praying in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in radiant clothing,

³¹ and he said, Cornelius, your prayer was heard, and your kind acts were remembered before God;

³² send, therefore, to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter; this one lodges in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea, who having come, will speak to you;

³³ at once, therefore, I sent to you; you also did well, having come; now, therefore, we are all present before God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God.”

³⁴ And Peter having opened his mouth, said, “Of a truth, I perceive that God is not favoring by appearance,

³⁵ but in every nation he who is fearing Him, and is working righteousness, is acceptable to Him;

³⁶ the word that He sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming good news—peace through Jesus Christ (this One is Lord of all),

³⁷ you have known the word that came throughout all Judea, having begun from Galilee, after the immersion that John preached;

³⁸ Jesus who [is] from Nazareth—how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and power; who went through, doing good, and healing all those oppressed by the Devil, because God was with Him;

³⁹ and we are witnesses of all things that He did, both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem—whom they slew, having hanged [Him] on a tree.

⁴⁰ This One God raised up [on] the third day, and gave Him to become visible,

⁴¹ not to all the people, but to witnesses, to those having been chosen before by God—to us who ate with [Him], and drank with Him, after His rising out of the dead;

⁴² and He commanded us to preach to the people, and to fully testify that it is He who has been ordained judge of living and dead—

⁴³ to this One do all the Prophets testify, that through His Name everyone that is believing in Him receives forgiveness of sins.”

⁴⁴ While Peter is yet speaking these sayings, the Holy Spirit fell on all those hearing the word,

⁴⁵ and those of circumcision [who were] believing were astonished—as many as came with Peter—because the gift of the Holy Spirit has also been poured out on the nations,

⁴⁶ for they were hearing them speaking with tongues and magnifying God.

⁴⁷ Then Peter answered, “Is anyone able to forbid the water, that these may not be immersed, who received the Holy Spirit—even as us also?”

⁴⁸ He commanded them to also be immersed in the Name of the LORD; then they implored him to remain certain days.

¹ And the apostles and the brothers who are in Judea heard that the nations also received the word of God,

² and when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those of circumcision were contending with him,

3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"

4 And Peter having begun, set [it] forth to them in order, saying,

5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and I saw in a trance a vision, a certain vessel coming down, as a great sheet by four corners being let down out of Heaven, and it came to me;

6 at which having looked steadfastly, I was considering, and I saw the four-footed beasts of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky;

7 and I heard a voice saying to me, Having risen, Peter, slay and eat;

8 and I said, Not so, Lord, because anything common or unclean has at no time entered into my mouth;

9 and a voice answered me a second time out of Heaven, What God cleansed, you do not declare common.

10 And this happened three times, and again was all drawn up to Heaven,

11 and behold, immediately, three men stood at the house in which I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me,

12 and the Spirit said to me to go with them, doubting nothing, and these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man,

13 he also declared to us how he saw the messenger standing in his house, and saying to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter,

14 who will speak sayings by which you will be saved, you and all your house.

15 And in my beginning to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as also on us in the beginning,

16 and I remembered the saying of the LORD, how He said, John indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit;

17 if then God gave to them the equal gift as also to us, having believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, I—how was I able to withstand God?"

18 And they, having heard these things, were silent, and were glorifying God, saying, "Then, indeed, God also gave conversion to life to the nations."

19 Those, indeed, therefore, having been scattered abroad, from the tribulation that came after Stephen, went through to Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none except to Jews only;

20 and there were certain of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who having entered into Antioch, were speaking to the Hellenists, proclaiming good news—the Lord Jesus,

21 and the hand of the LORD was with them, a great number also, having believed, turned to the LORD.

22 And the account was heard in the ears of the assembly that [is] in Jerusalem concerning them, and they sent forth Barnabas to go through to Antioch,

23 who, having come, and having seen the grace of God, was glad, and was exhorting all with purpose of heart to cleave to the LORD,

24 because he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith, and a great multitude was added to the LORD.

25 And Barnabas went forth to Tarsus, to seek for Saul,

26 and having found him, he brought him to Antioch, and it came to pass that they assembled together a whole year in the assembly, and taught a great multitude, and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

27 And in those days there came from Jerusalem prophets to Antioch,

²⁸ and one of them, by name Agabus, having stood up, signified through the Spirit a great scarcity is about to be throughout all the world—which also came to pass in the time of Claudius Caesar—

²⁹ and the disciples, according as anyone was prospering, determined each of them to send for ministry to the brothers dwelling in Judea,

³⁰ which also they did, having sent to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12

¹ And about that time, Herod the king put forth his hands to do evil to certain of those of the Assembly,

² and he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword,

³ and having seen that it is pleasing to the Jews, he added to lay hold of Peter also—and they were the days of the Unleavened [Bread]—

⁴ whom also having seized, he put in prison, having delivered [him] to four squads of four soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him forth to the people after the Passover.

⁵ Peter, therefore, indeed, was kept in the prison, and fervent prayer was being made by the Assembly to God for him,

⁶ and when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night was Peter sleeping between two soldiers, having been bound with two chains, guards were also keeping the prison before the door,

⁸ The messenger also said to him, “Gird yourself, and bind on your sandals”; and he did so; and he says to him, “Cast your garment around and follow me”;

⁹ and having gone forth, he was following him, and he did not know that it is true that which is done through the messenger, and was thinking he saw a vision,

¹⁰ and having passed through a first ward, and a second, they came to the iron gate that is leading into the city, which opened to them of its own accord, and having gone forth, they went on through one street, and immediately the messenger departed from him.

¹¹ And Peter having come to himself, said, “Now I have known of a truth that the LORD sent forth His messenger, and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and all the expectation of the people of the Jews”;

¹² also, having considered, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who is surnamed Mark, where there were many thronged together and praying.

¹³ And Peter having knocked at the door of the porch, there came a girl to listen, by name Rhoda,

¹⁴ and having known the voice of Peter, from the joy she did not open the porch, but having run in, told of the standing of Peter before the porch,

¹⁵ and they said to her, “You are mad”; and she was confidently affirming [it] to be so, and they said, “It is his messenger”;

¹⁶ and Peter was continuing knocking, and having opened, they saw him, and were astonished,

¹⁷ and having beckoned to them with the hand to be silent, he declared to them how the LORD brought him out of the prison, and he said, “Declare these things to James and to the brothers"; and having gone forth, he went on to another place.

¹⁸ And day having come, there was not a little stir among the soldiers what then was become of Peter,

¹⁹ and Herod having sought for him, and having not found, having examined the guards, commanded [them] to be led away to punishment, and having gone down from Judea to Caesarea, he was abiding [there].

²⁰ And Herod was highly displeased with the Tyrians and Sidonians, and with one accord they came to him, and having made a friend of Blastus, who [is] over the bed-chambers of the king, they were asking peace, because of their country being nourished from the king's;

²¹ and on a set day, Herod having clothed himself in kingly clothing, and having sat down on the judgment seat, was making an oration to them,

²² and the populace were shouting, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!"

²³ And immediately a messenger of the LORD struck him in return for that he did not give the glory to God, and having been eaten of worms, he expired.

²⁴ And the word of God grew and multiplied,

²⁵ and Barnabas and Saul turned back out of Jerusalem, having fulfilled the ministry, having also taken John with [them], who was surnamed Mark.

¹ And there were certain in Antioch, in the assembly there, prophets and teachers: both Barnabas, and Simeon who is called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen also—Herod the tetrarch's foster-brother—and Saul;

² and in their ministering to the LORD and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate to Me both Barnabas and Saul to the work to which I have called them,"

³ then having fasted, and having prayed, and having laid the hands on them, they sent [them] away.

⁴ These, indeed, then, having been sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus,

⁵ and having come to Salamis, they declared the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews, and they also had John [as] a servant;

⁶ and having gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain magus, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name [is] Bar-Jesus;

⁷ who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man; this one having called for Barnabas and Saul, desired to hear the word of God,

⁸ and there withstood them Elymas the magus—for so is his name interpreted—seeking to pervert the proconsul from the faith.

⁹ And Saul—who also [is] Paul—having been filled with the Holy Spirit, and having looked steadfastly on him,

¹⁰ said, "O full of all guile, and all recklessness, son of a devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the right ways of the LORD?"

¹¹ And now, behold, a hand of the LORD [is] on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season"; and instantly there fell on him a mist and darkness, and he, going around, was seeking some to lead [him] by the hand;

¹² then the proconsul having seen what has come to pass, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the LORD.

¹³ And those around Paul having set sail from Paphos, came to Perga of Pamphylia, and John having departed from them, turned back to Jerusalem,

¹⁴ and they having gone through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia, and having gone into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbaths, they sat down,

¹⁵ and after the reading of the Law and of the Prophets, the chief men of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men, brothers, if there be a word in you of exhortation to the people—say on."

¹⁶ And Paul having risen, and having beckoned with the hand, said, "Men, Israelites, and those fearing God, listen:

¹⁷ the God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and He exalted the people in their sojourning in the land of Egypt, and He brought them out of it with a high arm;

¹⁸ and about a period of forty years He endured their conduct in the wilderness,

¹⁹ and having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He divided their land to them by lot.

²⁰ And after these things, about four hundred and fifty years, He gave judges—until Samuel the prophet;

²¹ and thereafter they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul, son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years;

²² and having removed him, He raised up to them David for king, to whom also having testified, He said, I found David, the [son] of Jesse, a man according to My heart, who will do all My will.

²³ Of this one's seed, God, according to promise, raised to Israel a Savior—Jesus,

²⁴ John having first preached, before His coming, an immersion of conversion to all the people of Israel;

²⁵ and as John was fulfilling the course, he said, Whom do you suppose I am? I am not [He], but behold, He comes after me, of whom I am not worthy to loose the sandal of [His] feet.

²⁶ Men, brothers, sons of the race of Abraham, and those among you fearing God, to you was the word of this salvation sent,

²⁸ and having found no cause of death, they asked of Pilate that He should be slain,

²⁹ and when they fulfilled all the things written about Him, having taken [Him] down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb;

³⁰ and God raised Him out of the dead,

³¹ and He was seen for many days of those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people.

³² And we proclaim good news to you—that the promise made to the fathers,

³³ God has completed this in full to us their children, having raised up Jesus, as also in the second Psalm it has been written: You are My Son—I have begotten You today.

³⁴ And that He raised Him up out of the dead, to no longer return to corruption, He has said this: I will give to You the holy [blessings] of David [that are] faithful;

³⁵ for what reason He also says in another [place]: You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption;

³⁶ for David, indeed, having served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was added to his fathers, and saw corruption, ³⁷ but He whom God raised up, did not see corruption.

³⁸ Let it therefore be known to you, men, brothers, that the forgiveness of sins is declared to you through this One,

³⁹ and from all things in the Law of Moses from which you were not able to be declared righteous, everyone who is believing in this One is declared righteous;

⁴⁰ see, therefore, it may not come on you that has been spoken in the Prophets:

⁴¹ See, you despisers, and wonder, and perish, because I work a work in your days, a work in which you may not believe, though anyone may declare [it] to you."

⁴² And having gone forth out of the synagogue of the Jews, the nations were calling on [them] that on the next Sabbath these sayings may be spoken to them,

⁴³ and the synagogue having been dismissed, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were persuading them to remain in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ And on the coming Sabbath, almost all the city was gathered together to hear the word of God,

⁴⁵ and the Jews having seen the multitudes, were filled with zeal, and contradicted the things spoken by Paul—contradicting and slandering.

⁴⁶ And speaking boldly, Paul and Barnabas said, "It was necessary that the word of God be first spoken to you, and seeing you thrust it away, and do not judge yourselves worthy of the continuous life, behold, we turn to the nations;

⁴⁷ for so the LORD has commanded us: I have set you for a light of nations—for your being for salvation to the end of the earth."

⁴⁸ And the nations hearing were glad, and were glorifying the word of the LORD, and believed—as many as were appointed to continuous life;

⁴⁹ and the word of the LORD was spread abroad through all the region.

⁵⁰ And the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the first men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and put them out from their borders;

⁵¹ and having shaken off the dust of their feet against them, they came to Iconium, ⁵² and the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

¹ And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and spoke, so that there believed a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks;

² and the unbelieving Jews stirred up and made the souls of the nations evil against the brothers;

³ [for a] long time, indeed, therefore, they abided speaking boldly in the LORD, who is testifying to the word of His grace, and granting signs and wonders to come to pass through their hands.

⁴ And the multitude of the city was divided, and some were with the Jews, and some with the apostles,

⁵ and when there was a purpose both of the nations and of the Jews with their rulers to mistreat [them], and to stone them,

⁶ they having become aware, fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the surrounding region,

⁷ and there they were proclaiming good news.

⁸ And a certain man in Lystra, impotent in the feet, was sitting, being lame from the womb of his mother—who never had walked;

⁹ this one was hearing Paul speaking, who, having steadfastly beheld him, and having seen that he has faith to be saved,

¹⁰ said with a loud voice, “Stand up on your feet upright”; and he was springing and walking,

¹¹ and the multitudes having seen what Paul did, lifted up their voice in the speech of Lycaonia, saying, “The gods, having become like men, came down to us”;

¹² they were also calling Barnabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes, since he was the leader in speaking.

¹³ And the priest of the Zeus that is before their city, having brought oxen and garlands to the porches, wished to sacrifice with the multitudes,

¹⁴ and having heard, the apostles Barnabas and Paul, having torn their garments, sprung into the multitude, crying

¹⁵ and saying, “Men, why do you do these things? And we are similar-feeling men with you, proclaiming good news to you, to turn to the living God from these vanities, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all the things in them;

¹⁶ who in the past generations permitted all the nations to go on in their ways,

¹⁸ and saying these things, they scarcely restrained the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ And there came there, from Antioch and Iconium, Jews, and they having persuaded the multitudes, and having stoned Paul, drew him outside of the city, having supposed him to be dead;

²⁰ and the disciples having surrounded him, having risen he entered into the city, and on the next day he went forth with Barnabas to Derbe.

²¹ Having also proclaimed good news to that city, and having disciplined many, they turned back to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch,

²² confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting to remain in the faith, and that it is required of us to enter into the Kingdom of God through many tribulations,

²³ and having appointed to them elders in every assembly by vote, having prayed with fastings, they commended them to the LORD in whom they had believed.

²⁴ And having passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia,

²⁵ and having spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia,

²⁶ and [from] there sailed to Antioch, from where they had been given by the grace of God for the work that they fulfilled;

²⁷ and having come and gathered the assembly together, they declared as many things as God did with them, and that He opened a door of faith to the nations;

²⁸ and they abided there with the disciples [for] not a short time.

² there having been, therefore, not a little dissension and debate to Paul and Barnabas with them, they arranged for Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, to go up to the apostles and elders to Jerusalem about this question;

⁴ And having come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly, and the apostles, and the elders; they also declared as many things as God did with them;

⁵ and there rose up certain of those of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, "It is required to circumcise them, to command them also to keep the Law of Moses."

⁶ And there were gathered together the apostles and the elders, to see about this matter;

⁷ and there having been much disputing, Peter having risen up said to them, "Men, brothers, you know that from former days God made choice among us, through my mouth, for the nations to hear the word of the good news, and to believe;

⁸ and the heart-knowing God bore them testimony, having given to them the Holy Spirit, even as also to us,

⁹ and also put no difference between us and them, having purified their hearts by faith;

¹⁰ now, therefore, why do you tempt God, to put a yoke on the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

¹¹ But through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we believe to be saved, even as also they."

¹² And all the multitude kept silence and were listening to Barnabas and Paul expounding as many signs and wonders as God did among the nations through them;

¹³ and after they were silent, James answered, saying, "Men, brothers, listen to me:

¹⁴ Simeon expounded how at first God looked on [us] to take a people out of [the] nations for His Name,

¹⁵ and to this the words of the Prophets agree, as it has been written:

16 After these things I will return, || And I will rebuild the dwelling place of David that has fallen down, || And I will rebuild its ruins, || And will set it upright—

17 That the remnant of men may seek after the LORD, || And all the nations on whom My Name has been called, || Says the LORD, who is doing all these things.

18 Known from the ages to God are all His works.

19 For this reason I judge: not to trouble those who turn back to God from the nations,

20 but to write to them to abstain from the defilements of the idols, and the whoredom, and the strangled thing, and the blood;

21 for Moses has those preaching him from former generations in every city—being read every Sabbath in the synagogues.”

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas chosen men out of themselves—Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers—

23 having written through their hand thus: “The apostles, and the elders, and the brothers, to those in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia, brothers, who [are] of the nations, greeting;

24 seeing we have heard that some having gone forth from us troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying to be circumcised and to keep the Law, to whom we gave no charge,

25 it seemed good to us, having come together with one accord, to send to you chosen men, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul—

26 men who have given up their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ—

27 we have sent, therefore, Judas and Silas, and they are telling the same things by word.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no more burden on you, except these necessary things:

29 to abstain from things offered to idols, and blood, and a strangled thing, and whoredom; keeping yourselves from which, you will do well; be strong!”

30 They then, indeed, having been let go, went to Antioch, and having brought the multitude together, delivered the letter,

31 and having read [it] they rejoiced for the consolation;

32 Judas also and Silas, also being prophets themselves, through much discourse exhorted the brothers, and confirmed,

33 and having passed some time, they were let go with peace from the brothers to the apostles;

34 [[and it seemed good to Silas to remain there still.]]

35 And Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming good news—with many others also—the word of the LORD;

36 and after certain days, Paul said to Barnabas, “Having turned back again, we may look after our brothers, in every city in which we have preached the word of the LORD—how they are.”

37 And Barnabas resolved to take with [them] John called Mark,

38 and Paul was not thinking it good to take him with them who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work;

³⁹ there came, therefore, a sharp contention, so that they were parted from one another; and Barnabas having taken Mark, sailed to Cyprus,

⁴⁰ and Paul having chosen Silas, went forth, having been given up to the grace of God by the brothers;

⁴¹ and he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

¹ And he came to Derbe and Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there, by name Timotheus, son of a certain woman, a believing Jewess, but of a father, a Greek,

² who was well testified to by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium;

³ Paul wished this one to go forth with him, and having taken [him], he circumcised him, because of the Jews who are in those places, for they all knew his father—that he was a Greek.

⁴ And as they were going on through the cities, they were delivering to them the decrees to keep, that have been judged by the apostles and the elders who [are] in Jerusalem,

⁵ then, indeed, were the assemblies established in the faith, and were abounding in number every day;

⁶ and having gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia,

⁷ having gone toward Mysia, they were trying to go on toward Bithynia, and the Spirit did not permit them,

⁸ and having passed by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

⁹ And a vision through the night appeared to Paul—a certain man of Macedonia was standing, calling on him, and saying, “Having passed through to Macedonia, help us.”

¹⁰ And when he saw the vision, immediately we endeavored to go forth to Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the LORD has called us to preach good news to them,

¹¹ having set sail, therefore, from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, on the next day also to Neapolis,

¹² there also to Philippi, which is a principal city of the part of Macedonia—a colony. And we were abiding in this city some days;

¹³ on the day of the Sabbaths we also went forth outside of the city, by a river, where there used to be prayer; and having sat down, we were speaking to the women who came together;

¹⁴ and a certain woman, by name Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, worshiping God, was hearing, whose heart the LORD opened to attend to the things spoken by Paul;

¹⁵ and when she was immersed, and her household, she called on us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the LORD, having entered into my house, remain”; and she constrained us.

¹⁶ And it came to pass in our going on to prayer, a certain maid, having a spirit of Python, met us, who brought much employment to her masters by soothsaying;

¹⁷ she having followed Paul and us, was crying, saying, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who declare to us [the] way of salvation!”

¹⁸ And this she was doing for many days, but Paul having been grieved, and having turned, said to the spirit, “I command you, in the Name of Jesus Christ, to come forth from her”; and it came forth the same hour.

¹⁹ And her masters having seen that the hope of their employment was gone, having caught Paul and Silas, drew [them] into the marketplace, to the rulers,

²⁰ and having brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men being Jews exceedingly trouble our city;

²¹ and they proclaim customs that are not lawful for us to receive nor to do, being Romans.”

²² And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates having torn their garments from them, were commanding to beat [them] with rods,

²³ having also laid on them many blows, they cast them into prison, having given charge to the jailor to keep them safely,

²⁴ who having received such a charge, put them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ And at midnight Paul and Silas praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were hearing them,

²⁶ and suddenly a great earthquake came, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, also all the doors were immediately opened, and of all—the bands were loosed;

²⁷ and the jailor having come out of sleep, and having seen the doors of the prison open, having drawn a sword, was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners to have fled,

²⁸ and Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, “You may not do yourself any harm, for we are all here!”

²⁹ And having asked for a light, he sprang in, and he fell down before Paul and Silas trembling,

³⁰ and having brought them forth, said, “Lords, what must I do that I may be saved?”

³¹ And they said, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved—you and your household.”

³² And they spoke to him the word of the LORD, and to all those in his household;

³³ and having taken them, in that hour of the night, he bathed [them] from the blows, and immediately he and all of his were immersed,

³⁴ having also brought them into his house, he set food before [them], and was glad with all the household, he having believed in God.

³⁵ And day having come, the magistrates sent the rod-bearers, saying, “Let those men go”;

³⁶ and the jailor told these words to Paul, “The magistrates have sent, that you may be let go; now, therefore, having gone forth go on in peace”;

³⁷ and Paul said to them, “Having beaten us publicly uncondemned—men, being Romans—they cast [us] to prison, and now privately they cast us forth! Why no! But having come themselves, let them bring us forth.”

³⁸ And the rod-bearers told these sayings to the magistrates, and they were afraid, having heard that they are Romans,

³⁹ and having come, they implored them, and having brought [them] forth, they were asking [them] to go forth from the city;

⁴⁰ and they, having gone forth out of the prison, entered into [the house of] Lydia, and having seen the brothers, they comforted them, and went forth.

¹ And having passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where the synagogue of the Jews was,

² and according to the custom of Paul, he went in to them, and for three Sabbaths he was reasoning with them from the Writings,

³ opening and alleging that it was necessary [for] the Christ to suffer, and to rise again out of the dead, and that “this is the Christ—Jesus whom I proclaim to you.”

⁴ And certain of them believed, and attached themselves to Paul and to Silas, also a great multitude of the worshiping Greeks, also not a few of the principal women.

⁵ And the Jews, having been moved with envy, and having taken to themselves certain evil men of the agitators, and having made a crowd, were setting the city in an uproar; having also assailed the house of Jason, they were seeking them to bring [them] to the populace,

⁶ and having not found them, they drew Jason and certain brothers to the city rulers, calling aloud, “These, having put the world in commotion, are also present here,

⁷ whom Jason has received; and all these do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying another to be king—Jesus.”

⁸ And they troubled the multitude and the city rulers, hearing these things,

⁹ and having taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

¹⁰ And the brothers immediately, through the night, sent forth both Paul and Silas to Berea, who having come, went into the synagogue of the Jews;

¹¹ and these were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Writings every day [to see] whether those things were so;

¹² therefore, many of them, indeed, believed, and not a few of the honorable Greek women and men.

¹³ And when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that also in Berea was the word of God declared by Paul, they came there also, agitating the multitudes;

¹⁴ and then immediately the brothers sent forth Paul, to go on as it were to the sea, but both Silas and Timotheus were remaining there.

¹⁵ And those conducting Paul, brought him to Athens, and having received a command to Silas and Timotheus that with all speed they may come to him, they departed;

¹⁶ and Paul waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, beholding the city wholly given to idolatry,

¹⁷ therefore, indeed, he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the worshiping persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met with him.

¹⁸ And certain of the Epicurean and of the Stoic philosophers, were meeting together to see him, and some were saying, “What would this seed picker wish to say?” And others, “He seems to be an announcer of strange demons”; because he proclaimed to them Jesus and the resurrection as good news,

¹⁹ having also taken him, they brought [him] to the Areopagus, saying, “Are we able to know what this new teaching [is] that is spoken by you,

²⁰ for you bring certain strange things to our ears? We resolve, then, to know what these things would wish to be”;

²¹ and all Athenians, and the strangers sojourning, for nothing else were at leisure but to say something, and to hear some newer thing.

²² And Paul, having stood in the midst of the Areopagus, said, “Men, Athenians, in all things I perceive you as over-religious;

²³ for passing through and contemplating your objects of worship, I also found an altar on which had been inscribed: To God—unknown; whom, therefore—not knowing—you worship, this One I announce to you.

²⁴ God, who made the world, and all things in it, this One, being Lord of Heaven and of earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands,

²⁵ neither is He served by the hands of men—needing anything, He giving life to all, and breath, and all things;

²⁶ He also made every nation of man of one blood, to dwell on all the face of the earth—having ordained times before appointed, and the bounds of their dwellings—

²⁷ to seek the LORD, if perhaps they felt after Him and found, though, indeed, He is not far from each one of us,

²⁸ for in Him we live, and move, and are; as certain of your poets have also said: For we are also His offspring.

²⁹ Being, therefore, offspring of God, we ought not to think the Godhead to be like to gold, or silver, or stone, [an] engraving of art and imagination of man;

³⁰ therefore indeed God, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to convert,

³¹ because He set a day in which He is about to judge the world in righteousness, by a Man whom He ordained, having given assurance to all, having raised Him out of the dead.”

³² And having heard of a resurrection of the dead, some, indeed, were mocking, but others said, “We will hear you again concerning this”;

³³ and so Paul went forth from the midst of them,

³⁴ and certain men having cleaved to him, believed, among whom [is] also Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman, by name Damaris, and others with them.

² and having found a certain Jew, by name Aquilas, of Pontus by birth, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla—because of Claudius having directed all the Jews to depart out of Rome—he came to them,

³ and because of being of the same craft, he remained with them, and was working, for they were tentmakers as to craft;

⁴ and he was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks.

⁵ And when both Silas and Timotheus came down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the Spirit, testifying fully to the Jews Jesus the Christ;

7 And having departed from there, he went to the house of a certain one, by name Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue,

8 and Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue believed in the LORD with all his house, and many of the Corinthians hearing were believing, and they were being immersed.

9 And the LORD said through a vision in the night to Paul, “Do not be afraid, but be speaking and you may not be silent;

10 because I am with you, and no one will set on you to do evil [to] you, because I have many people in this city”;

11 and he continued a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And Gallio being proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a rush with one accord on Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 saying, “This one persuades men to worship God against the Law”;

14 and Paul being about to open [his] mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If, indeed, then, it was anything unrighteous, or an act of wicked recklessness, O Jews, according to reason I had borne with you,

15 but if it is a question concerning words and names, and of your law, look [to it] yourselves, for I do not intend to be a judge of these things,”

16 and he drives them from the judgment seat;

17 and all the Greeks having taken Sosthenes, the chief man of the synagogue, were beating [him] before the judgment seat, and Gallio was not even caring for these things.

18 And Paul having remained yet a good many days, having taken leave of the brothers, was sailing to Syria—and with him [are] Priscilla and Aquilas—having shorn [his] head in Cenchera, for he had a vow;

19 and he came down to Ephesus, and left them there, and he himself having entered into the synagogue reasoned with the Jews:

20 and they having requested [him] to remain a longer time with them, he did not consent,

21 but took leave of them, saying, “It is necessary for me by all means to keep the coming celebration at Jerusalem, and again I will return to you—God willing.” And he sailed from Ephesus,

22 and having come down to Caesarea, having gone up, and having greeted the assembly, he went down to Antioch.

23 And having stayed some time, he went forth, going successively through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew, Apollos by name, an Alexandrian by birth, a man of eloquence, being mighty in the Writings, came to Ephesus;

25 this one was instructed in the way of the LORD, and being fervent in the Spirit, was speaking and teaching exactly the things about the LORD, knowing only the immersion of John;

26 this one also began to speak boldly in the synagogue, and Aquilas and Priscilla having heard of him, took him to [them], and more exactly set forth to him The Way of God,

27 and he resolving to go through into Achaia, the brothers wrote to the disciples, having exhorted them to receive him, who having come, helped them much who have believed through grace,

²⁸ for he was powerfully refuting the Jews publicly, showing through the Writings Jesus to be the Christ.

¹ And it came to pass, in Apollos being in Corinth, Paul having gone through the upper parts, came to Ephesus, and having found certain disciples,

² he said to them, "Having believed, did you receive the Holy Spirit?" And they said to him, "But we did not even hear whether there is any Holy Spirit";

³ and he said to them, "Into what, then, were you immersed?" And they said, "Into John's immersion."

⁴ And Paul said, "John, indeed, immersed with an immersion of conversion, saying to the people that they should believe in Him who is coming after him—that is, in the Christ—Jesus";

⁵ and they, having heard, were immersed into the Name of the Lord Jesus,

⁶ and Paul having laid [his] hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, they were also speaking with tongues, and prophesying,

⁷ and all the men were, as it were, twelve.

⁸ And having gone into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the Kingdom of God,

⁹ and when certain were hardened and were disbelieving, speaking evil of The Way before the multitude, having departed from them, he separated the disciples, reasoning every day in the school of a certain Tyrannus.

¹⁰ And this happened for two years so that all those dwelling in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks,

¹¹ also mighty works—not common—God was working through the hands of Paul,

¹² so that even to the ailing were brought from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them; the evil spirits also went forth from them.

¹³ And certain of the wandering exorcist Jews, took on [them] to name over those having the evil spirits the Name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preaches";

¹⁴ and there were certain—seven sons of Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest—who are doing this thing;

¹⁵ and the evil spirit, answering, said, "I know Jesus, and I am acquainted with Paul; and you—who are you?"

¹⁶ And the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaping on them, and having overcome them, prevailed against them, so that they fled naked and wounded out of that house,

¹⁷ and this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who are dwelling at Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified;

¹⁸ many also of those who believed were coming, confessing and declaring their acts,

¹⁹ and many of those who had practiced the superfluous arts, having brought the scrolls together, were burning [them] before all; and they reckoned together the prices of them, and found [it] fifty thousand pieces of silver, ²⁰ so powerfully was the word of God increasing and prevailing.

²¹ And when these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in the Spirit, having gone through Macedonia and Achaia, to go on to Jerusalem, saying, "After my being there, it is also necessary for me to see Rome";

²² and having sent to Macedonia two of those ministering to him—Timotheus and Erastus—he himself stayed a time in Asia.

²³ And there came, at that time, not a little stir about The Way,

²⁴ for a certain one, Demetrius by name, a worker in silver, making silver sanctuaries of Artemis, was bringing to the craftsmen not a little gain,

²⁵ whom, having brought in a crowd together, and those who worked around such things, he said, "Men, you know that by this work we have our wealth;

²⁶ and you see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost in all Asia, this Paul, having persuaded, turned away a great multitude, saying that they who are made by hands are not gods;

²⁷ and not only is this department in danger for us of coming into disregard, but also, that of the great goddess Artemis, the temple is to be reckoned for nothing, and also her greatness is about to be brought down, whom all Asia and the world worships."

²⁸ And having heard, and having become full of wrath, they were crying out, saying, "Great [is] the Artemis of the Ephesians!"

²⁹ And the whole city was filled with confusion; they rushed also with one accord into the theater, having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's fellow-travelers.

³⁰ And on Paul's resolving to enter in to the populace, the disciples were not permitting him,

³¹ and also some of the chief men of Asia, being his friends, having sent to him, were pleading [with] him not to venture into the theater himself.

³² Some indeed, therefore, were calling out one thing, and some another, for the assembly was confused, and the greater part did not know for what they had come together;

³³ and out of the multitude they put forward Alexander—the Jews thrusting him forward—and Alexander having beckoned with the hand, wished to make defense to the populace,

³⁴ and having known that he is a Jew, one voice came out of all, for about two hours, crying, "Great [is] the Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵ And the public clerk having quieted the multitude, says, "Men, Ephesians, why, who is the man that does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of that which fell down from Zeus?"

³⁶ These things, then, being undeniable, it is necessary for you to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

³⁷ For you brought these men, who are neither temple-robbers nor slandering of your goddess;

³⁹ And if you seek after anything concerning other matters, it will be determined in the legal assembly;

⁴⁰ for we are also in peril of being accused of insurrection in regard to this day, there being no occasion by which we will be able to give an account of this concourse”;

⁴¹ and having said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

¹ And after the ceasing of the tumult, Paul having called near the disciples, and having embraced [them], went forth to go on to Macedonia;

² and having gone through those parts, and having exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece;

³ and having continued three months—a counsel of the Jews having been against him—being about to set forth to Syria, there came [to him] a resolution of returning through Macedonia.

⁴ And there were accompanying him to Asia, Sopater of Pyrrhus from Berea, and of Thessalonians Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asians Tychicus and Trophimus;

⁵ these, having gone before, remained for us in Troas,

⁶ and we sailed, after the days of the Unleavened [Bread], from Philippi, and came to them to Troas in five days, where we abided seven days.

⁷ And on the first [day] of the weeks, the disciples having been gathered together to break bread, Paul was discoursing to them, about to depart on the next day, he was also continuing the discourse until midnight,

⁸ and there were many lamps in the upper chamber where they were gathered together,

⁹ and there a certain youth was sitting, by name Eutychus, on the window—being borne down by a deep sleep, Paul discoursing long—he having sunk down from the sleep, fell down from the third story, and was lifted up dead.

¹⁰ And Paul, having gone down, fell on him, and having embraced [him], said, “Make no tumult, for his life is in him”;

¹¹ and having come up, and having broken bread, and having tasted, for a long time also having talked—until daylight, so he went forth,

¹² and they brought up the boy alive, and were comforted in no ordinary measure.

¹³ And we having gone before to the ship, sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Paul, for so he had arranged, intending himself to go on foot;

¹⁴ and when he met with us at Assos, having taken him up, we came to Mitylene,

¹⁵ and there having sailed, on the next day we came opposite Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and having remained in Trogyllium, on the following day we came to Miletus,

¹⁶ for Paul decided to sail past Ephesus, that there may not be to him a loss of time in Asia, for he was hurrying, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of the Pentecost.

¹⁷ And from Miletus, having sent to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the assembly,

¹⁸ and when they were come to him, he said to them, “You know from the first day in which I came to Asia, how I was with you at all times;

¹⁹ serving the LORD with all humility, and many tears, and temptations, that befell me in the counsels of the Jews against [me];

²⁰ how I kept back nothing of what things are profitable, not to declare to you, and to teach you publicly, and in every house,

²¹ testifying fully both to Jews and Greeks, conversion toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

²² And now, behold, I—bound in the Spirit—go on to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will befall me in it,

²³ except that the Holy Spirit fully testifies in every city, saying that bonds and tribulations remain for me;

²⁴ but I make account of none of these, neither do I count my life precious to myself, so that I finish my course with joy, and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify [to] the good news of the grace of God.

²⁵ And now, behold, I have known that you will no longer see my face, among all you [to] whom I went preaching the Kingdom of God;

²⁶ for this reason I take you to witness this day, that I [am] clear from the blood of all,

²⁷ for I did not keep back from declaring to you all the counsel of God.

²⁸ Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit made you overseers, to feed the Assembly of God that He acquired through His own blood,

²⁹ for I have known this, that there will enter in, after my departing, grievous wolves to you, not sparing the flock,

³⁰ and there will arise men of your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.

³¹ Therefore, watch, remembering that three years, night and day, I did not cease with tears warning each one;

³² and now, I commend you, brothers, to God, and to the word of His grace, that is able to build up, and to give you an inheritance among all those sanctified.

³³ I coveted the silver or gold or clothing of no one;

³⁴ and you yourselves know that to my necessities, and to those who were with me, these hands ministered;

³⁵ I showed you all things, that, thus laboring, it is necessary to partake with the ailing, to also be mindful of the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said: It is more blessed to give than to receive.”

³⁶ And having said these things, having bowed his knees, with them all, he prayed,

³⁷ and there came a great weeping to all, and having fallen on the neck of Paul, they were kissing him,

³⁸ sorrowing most of all for the word that he had said—that they are about to see his face no longer; and they were accompanying him to the ship.

¹ And it came to pass, at our sailing, having been parted from them, having run direct, we came to Coos, and the succeeding [day] to Rhodes, and there to Patara,

² and having found a ship passing over to Phoenicia, having gone on board, we sailed,

³ and having discovered Cyprus, and having left it on the left, we were sailing to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there was the ship discharging the cargo.

⁴ And having found out the disciples, we tarried there seven days, and they said to Paul, through the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem;

⁵ but when it came that we completed the days, having gone forth, we went on, all bringing us on the way, with women and children, to the outside of the city, and having bowed the knees on the shore, we prayed,

⁶ and having embraced one another, we embarked in the ship, and they returned to their own friends.

⁷ And we, having finished the course, from Tyre came down to Ptolemais, and having greeted the brothers, we remained one day with them;

⁸ and on the next day Paul and his company having gone forth, we came to Caesarea, and having entered into the house of Philip the evangelist—who is of the seven—we remained with him,

⁹ and this one had four daughters, virgins, prophesying.

¹⁰ And we remaining many more days, there came down a certain one from Judea, a prophet, by name Agabus,

¹¹ and he having come to us, and having taken up the girdle of Paul, having also bound his own hands and feet, said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: The man whose is this girdle—so will the Jews in Jerusalem bind, and they will deliver [him] up into the hands of nations."

¹² And when we heard these things, we called on [him]—both we, and those of that place—not to go up to Jerusalem,

¹³ and Paul answered, "Why are you weeping, and crushing my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus";

¹⁴ and he not being persuaded, we were silent, saying, "The will of the LORD be done."

¹⁵ And after these days, having taken [our] vessels, we were going up to Jerusalem,

¹⁶ and there went also of the disciples from Caesarea with us, bringing with them him with whom we may lodge, a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an aged disciple.

¹⁷ And we having come to Jerusalem, the brothers gladly received us,

¹⁸ and on the next day Paul was going in with us to James, all the elders also came,

¹⁹ and having greeted them, he was expounding, one by one, each of the things God did among the nations through his ministry,

²⁰ and they having heard, were glorifying the LORD. They also said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads there are of Jews who have believed, and all are zealous of the Law,

²¹ and they are instructed concerning you, that you teach departure from Moses to all Jews among the nations, saying not to circumcise the children, nor to walk after the customs;

²² what then is it? Certainly the multitude must come together, for they will hear that you have come.

²³ This, therefore, that we say to you, do. We have four men having a vow on themselves, ²⁴ having taken these, be purified with them, and be at expense with them, that they may shave the head, and all may know that the things of which they have been instructed concerning you are nothing, but you walk—yourself also—keeping the Law.

²⁷ And as the seven days were about to be fully ended, the Jews from Asia having beheld him in the temple, were stirring up all the multitude, and they laid hands on him,

²⁸ crying out, “Men, Israelites, help! This is the man who, against the people, and the Law, and this place, is teaching all everywhere; and further, also, he brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place”;

²⁹ for they had seen before Trophimus, the Ephesian, in the city with him, whom they were supposing that Paul brought into the temple.

³⁰ All the city was also moved and there was a running together of the people, and having laid hold on Paul, they were drawing him out of the temple, and immediately were the doors shut,

³¹ and they seeking to kill him, a rumor came to the chief captain of the band that all Jerusalem has been thrown into confusion,

³² who, at once, having taken soldiers and centurions, ran down on them, and they having seen the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul.

³³ Then the chief captain, having come near, took him, and commanded [him] to be bound with two chains, and was inquiring who he may be, and what it is he has been doing,

³⁴ and some were crying out one thing, and some another, among the multitude, and not being able to know the certainty because of the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the stronghold,

³⁵ and when he came on the steps, it happened he was carried by the soldiers, because of the violence of the multitude,

³⁶ for the crowd of the people was following after, crying, “Away with him.”

³⁷ And Paul being about to be led into the stronghold, says to the chief captain, “Is it permitted to me to say anything to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek?

³⁸ Are you not, then, the Egyptian who made an uprising before these days, and led the four thousand men of the assassins into the desert?”

³⁹ And Paul said, “I, indeed, am a man, a Jew, of Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people.”

⁴⁰ And he having given him leave, Paul having stood on the stairs, beckoned with the hand to the people, and there having been a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying:

¹ “Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense now to you.”

² and they having heard that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more silent, and he says,

⁴ And this Way I persecuted to death, binding and delivering up to prisons both men and women,

⁵ as also the chief priest testifies to me, and all the eldership; from whom also having received letters to the brothers, to Damascus, I was going on, to bring also those there bound to Jerusalem that they might be punished,

⁶ and it came to pass, in my going on and coming near to Damascus, about noon, suddenly out of Heaven there shone a great light around me;

⁷ I also fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?

⁸ And I answered, Who are You, Lord? And He said to me, I am Jesus the Nazarene whom you persecute—

⁹ and they who are with me saw the light, and became afraid, and they did not hear the voice of Him who is speaking to me—

¹⁰ and I said, What will I do, Lord? And the LORD said to me, Having risen, go on to Damascus, and there it will be told you concerning all things that have been appointed for you to do.

¹¹ And when I did not see from the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those who are with me, I came to Damascus,

¹² and a certain one, Ananias, a pious man according to the Law, being testified to by all the Jews dwelling [there],

¹³ having come to me and stood by [me], said to me, Saul, brother, look up; and the same hour I looked up to him;

¹⁴ and he said, The God of our fathers chose you beforehand to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice out of His mouth,

¹⁵ because you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard;

¹⁶ and now, why do you linger? Having risen, immerse yourself, and wash away your sins, calling on the Name of the LORD.

¹⁷ And it came to pass, when I returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the temple, I came into a trance,

¹⁸ and I saw Him saying to me, Hurry and go forth in haste out of Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony concerning Me;

¹⁹ and I said, LORD, they know that I was imprisoning and was scourging those believing on You in every synagogue;

²⁰ and when the blood of your witness Stephen was being poured forth, I was also standing by and assenting to his death, and keeping the garments of those putting him to death;

²¹ and He said to me, Go, because I will send you to far-off nations.”

²² And they were hearing him to this word, and they lifted up their voice, saying, “Away from the earth with such a one; for it is not fit for him to live.”

²³ And they crying out and casting up their garments, and throwing dust into the air,

²⁴ the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the stronghold, saying, "Let him be examined by scourges," that he might know for what cause they were crying so against him.

²⁵ And as he was stretching him with the straps, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful to you to scourge a man, a Roman, uncondemned?"

²⁶ And the centurion having heard, having gone near to the chief captain, told, saying, "Take heed what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman";

²⁷ and the chief captain having come near, said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes";

²⁸ and the chief captain answered, "I, with a great sum, obtained this citizenship"; but Paul said, "But I have even been born [so]."

²⁹ Immediately, therefore, they departed from him, those being about to examine him, and the chief captain was also afraid, having learned that he is a Roman, and because he had bound him,

³⁰ and the next day, intending to know the certainty for what reason he is accused by the Jews, he loosed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their Sanhedrin to come, and having brought down Paul, he set [him] before them.

¹ And Paul having earnestly beheld the Sanhedrin, said, "Men, brothers, I have lived to God in all good conscience to this day";

² and the chief priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike him on the mouth,

³ then Paul said to him, "God is about to strike you, you whitewashed wall, and you sit judging me according to the Law, and violating law, order me to be struck!"

⁴ And those who stood by said, "Do you revile the chief priest of God?"

⁵ And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is chief priest, for it has been written: You will not speak evil of the ruler of your people";

⁶ and Paul having known that one part are Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, cried out in the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee—son of a Pharisee—concerning [the] hope and resurrection of [the] dead I am judged."

⁷ And he having spoken this, there came a dissension of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees, and the crowd was divided,

⁸ for Sadducees, indeed, say there is no resurrection, nor messenger, nor spirit, but Pharisees confess both.

⁹ And there came a great cry, and the scribes of the Pharisees' part having arisen, were striving, saying, "We find no evil in this man; and if a spirit spoke to him, or a messenger, we may not fight against God";

¹¹ And on the following night, the LORD having stood by him, said, "Take courage, Paul, for as you fully testified [to] the things concerning Me at Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome."

¹² And day having come, certain of the Jews having made a concourse, cursed themselves, saying neither to eat nor to drink until they may kill Paul;

¹³ and they were more than forty who made this conspiracy by oath,

¹⁴ who having come near to the chief priests and to the elders said, "With a curse we accursed ourselves—to taste nothing until we have killed Paul;

¹⁵ now, therefore, you, signify to the chief captain, with the Sanhedrin, that tomorrow he may bring him down to you, as being about to know more exactly the things concerning him; and we, before his coming near, are ready to put him to death."

¹⁶ And the son of Paul's sister having heard of the lying in wait, having gone and entered into the stronghold, told Paul,

¹⁷ and Paul having called near one of the centurions, said, "Lead this young man to the chief captain, for he has something to tell him."

¹⁸ He indeed, then, having taken him, brought him to the chief captain and says, "The prisoner Paul, having called me near, asked [me] to bring to you this young man, having something to say to you."

¹⁹ And the chief captain having taken him by the hand, and having withdrawn by themselves, inquired, "What is that which you have to tell me?"

²⁰ And he said, "The Jews agreed to request you, that tomorrow you may bring down Paul to the Sanhedrin, as being about to inquire something more exactly concerning him;

²¹ you, therefore, may you not yield to them, for there more than forty men of them lie in wait for him, who cursed themselves—not to eat nor to drink until they kill him, and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."

²² The chief captain, then, indeed, let the young man go, having charged [him], "Tell no one that you have shown these things to me";

²³ and having called a certain two of the centurions near, he said, "Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may go on to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, from the third hour of the night;

²⁴ also provide beasts, that, having set Paul on, they may bring him safe to Felix the governor";

²⁵ he having written a letter after this description:

²⁶ "Claudius Lysias, to the most noble governor Felix, greetings:

²⁷ This man having been taken by the Jews, and being about to be killed by them—having come with the army, I rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman;

²⁸ and intending to know the cause for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin,

²⁹ whom I found accused concerning questions of their law, and having no accusation worthy of death or bonds;

³¹ Then, indeed, the soldiers according to that directed them, having taken up Paul, brought him through the night to Antipatris,

³² and on the next day, having permitted the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to the stronghold;

³³ those having entered into Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him.

³⁴ And the governor having read [it], and inquired of what province he is, and understood that [he is] from Cilicia;

³⁵ "I will hear you," he said, "when your accusers may also have come"; he also commanded him to be kept in the Praetorium of Herod.

¹ And after five days the chief priest Ananias came down, with the elders, and a certain orator—Tertullus, and they disclosed to the governor [the things] against Paul;

² and he having been called, Tertullus began to accuse [him], saying, "Enjoying much peace through you, and worthy deeds being done to this nation through your forethought,

³ always, also, and everywhere we receive it, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness;

⁴ and that I may not be further tedious to you, I exhort you to hear us concisely in your gentleness;

⁵ for having found this man a pestilence, and moving a dissension to all the Jews through the world—also a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes—

⁶ who also tried to profane the temple, whom we also took, [[and wished to judge according to our law,

⁷ and Lysias the chief captain having come near, took away out of our hands with much violence,

⁸ having commanded his accusers to come to you,]] from whom you may be able, yourself having examined, to know concerning all these things of which we accuse him";

⁹ and the Jews also agreed, professing these things to be so.

¹⁰ And Paul—the governor having beckoned to him to speak—answered, "Knowing [that] for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I answer more cheerfully the things concerning myself;

¹¹ you being able to know that it is not more than twelve days to me since I went up to worship in Jerusalem,

¹³ nor are they able to prove against me the things concerning which they now accuse me.

¹⁴ And I confess this to you, that, according to The Way that they call a sect, so I serve the God of the fathers, believing all things that have been written in the Law and the Prophets,

¹⁵ having hope toward God, which they themselves also wait for, [that] there is about to be a resurrection of the dead, both of righteous and unrighteous;

¹⁶ and in this I exercise myself, to always have a conscience void of offense toward God and men.

¹⁷ And after many years I came, about to do kind acts to my nation, and offerings,

¹⁸ in which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with multitude, nor with tumult,

¹⁹ whom it is necessary to be present before you, and to accuse, if they had anything against me,

²⁰ or let these same say if they found any unrighteousness in me in my standing before the Sanhedrin,

²¹ except concerning this one voice, in which I cried, standing among them—Concerning a resurrection of the dead I am judged by you today.”

²² And having heard these things, Felix delayed them—having known more exactly of the things concerning The Way—saying, “When Lysias the chief captain may come down, I will know fully the things concerning you”;

²³ having also given a direction to the centurion to keep Paul, to let [him] also have liberty, and to forbid none of his own friends to minister or to come near to him.

²⁴ And after certain days, Felix having come with his wife Drusilla, being a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning faith toward Christ,

²⁵ and he reasoning concerning righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment that is about to be, Felix, having become afraid, answered, “For the present be going, and having time, I will call for you”;

²⁶ and at the same time also hoping that money will be given to him by Paul, that he may release him, therefore, also sending for him often, he was conversing with him;

²⁷ and two years having been fulfilled, Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus; Felix also willing to lay a favor on the Jews, left Paul bound.

25

¹ Festus, therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea,

² and the chief priest and the principal men of the Jews disclosed to him [the things] against Paul, and were calling on him,

³ asking favor against him, that he may send for him to Jerusalem, making an ambush to put him to death in the way.

⁴ Then, indeed, Festus answered that Paul is kept in Caesarea, and is himself about to go forth speedily,

⁵ “Therefore those able among you,” he says, “having come down together, if there be anything in this man—let them accuse him”;

⁶ and having tarried among them more than ten days, having gone down to Caesarea, on the next day having sat on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought;

⁷ and he having come, there stood around the Jews who have come down from Jerusalem—many and weighty charges they are bringing against Paul, which they were not able to prove,

⁸ he making defense, [said,] “Neither in regard to the Law of the Jews, nor in regard to the temple, nor in regard to Caesar—did I commit any sin.”

⁹ And Festus willing to lay on the Jews a favor, answering Paul, said, “Are you willing, having gone up to Jerusalem, to be judged before me there concerning these things?”

¹⁰ And Paul said, “At the judgment seat of Caesar I am standing, where it is necessary for me to be judged; I did no unrighteousness to Jews, as you also very well know;

11 for if I am indeed unrighteous, and have done anything worthy of death, I do not deprecate to die; and if there is none of the things of which these accuse me, no one is able to make a favor of me to them; I appeal to Caesar!"

12 Then Festus, having communed with the council, answered, "To Caesar you have appealed; to Caesar you will go."

13 And certain days having passed, Agrippa the king, and Bernice, came down to Caesarea greeting Festus,

14 and as they were continuing there more days, Festus submitted to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "There is a certain man, left by Felix, a prisoner,

15 about whom, in my being at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid information, asking a decision against him,

16 to whom I answered, that it is not a custom of Romans to make a favor of any man to die, before that he who is accused may have the accusers face to face, and may receive place of defense in regard to the charge laid against [him].

17 They, therefore, having come together—I, making no delay, on the succeeding [day] having sat on the judgment seat, commanded the man to be brought,

18 concerning whom the accusers, having stood up, were bringing against [him] no accusation of the things I was thinking of,

19 but certain questions concerning their own religion they had against him, and concerning a certain Jesus who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive;

20 and I, doubting in regard to the question concerning this, asked if he was willing to go on to Jerusalem, and to be judged there concerning these things—

21 but Paul having appealed to be kept to the hearing of Sebastus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar."

22 And Agrippa said to Festus, "I was also intending to hear the man myself"; and he said, "Tomorrow you will hear him";

23 on the next day, therefore—on the coming of Agrippa and Bernice with much display, and they having entered into the audience chamber, with the chief captains also, and the principal men of the city, and Festus having ordered—Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are present with us, you see this one, about whom all the multitude of the Jews dealt with me, both in Jerusalem and here, crying out, He ought not to live any longer;

25 and I, having found him to have done nothing worthy of death, and he also himself having appealed to Sebastus, I decided to send him,

26 concerning whom I have no certain thing to write to [my] lord, for what reason I brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that the examination having been made, I may have something to write;

27 for it seems to me irrational, sending a prisoner, not to also signify the charges against him."

26

1 And Agrippa said to Paul, "It is permitted to you to speak for yourself"; then Paul having stretched forth the hand, was making a defense:

2 “Concerning all things of which I am accused by Jews, King Agrippa, I have thought myself blessed, being about to make a defense before you today,

3 especially knowing you to be acquainted with all things—both customs and questions—among Jews; for this reason, I implore you to hear me patiently.

4 The manner of my life then, indeed, from youth—which from the beginning was among my nation, in Jerusalem—all the Jews know,

5 knowing me before from the first (if they may be willing to testify), that after the most exact sect of our worship, I lived a Pharisee;

6 and now for the hope of the promise made to the fathers by God, I have stood judged,

7 to which our twelve tribes, intently serving night and day, hope to come, concerning which hope I am accused, King Agrippa, by the Jews;

8 why is it judged incredible with you if God raises the dead?

9 I indeed, therefore, thought with myself that it was necessary [for me] to do many things against the Name of Jesus of Nazareth,

10 which I also did in Jerusalem, and I shut up many of the holy ones in prison, having received the authority from the chief priests; they also being put to death, I gave my vote against them,

11 and in every synagogue, often punishing them, I was constraining [them] to speak evil, being also exceedingly mad against them, I was also persecuting [them] even to strange cities.

12 In which things, also, going on to Damascus—with authority and commission from the chief priests—

13 at midday, I saw in the way, O king, out of Heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me a light—and those going on with me;

14 and we all having fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew dialect, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? [It is] hard for you to kick against goads!

15 And I said, Who are You, Lord? And He said, I am Jesus whom you persecute;

16 but rise, and stand on your feet, for this I appeared to you, to appoint you an officer and a witness both of the things you saw, and of the things [in which] I will appear to you,

17 delivering you from the people, and the nations, to whom I now send you,

18 to open their eyes, to turn [them] from darkness to light, and [from] the authority of Satan to God, for their receiving forgiveness of sins, and a lot among those having been sanctified by faith that [is] toward Me.

19 After which, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,

20 but to those in Damascus first, and to those in Jerusalem, also to all the region of Judea, and to the nations, I was preaching to convert, and to turn back to God, doing works worthy of conversion;

21 because of these things the Jews—having caught me in the temple—were endeavoring to kill [me].

22 Having obtained, therefore, help from God, until this day, I have stood witnessing both to small and to great, saying nothing besides the things that both the prophets and Moses spoke of as about to come,

²³ that the Christ is to suffer, whether first by a resurrection from the dead, He is about to proclaim light to the people and to the nations.”

²⁴ And he thus making a defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “You are mad, Paul; much learning turns you mad!”

²⁵ And he says, “I am not mad, most noble Festus, but of truth and soberness I speak forth the sayings;

²⁶ for the king knows concerning these things, before whom I also speak boldly, for none of these things, I am persuaded, are hidden from him; for this thing has not been done in a corner;

²⁷ do you believe, King Agrippa, the prophets? I have known that you believe!”

²⁸ And Agrippa said to Paul, “In [so] little you persuade me to become a Christian?”

²⁹ And Paul said, “I would have wished to God, both in a little, and in much, not only you, but also all those hearing me today, to become such as I also am—except these bonds.”

³⁰ And he having spoken these things, the king rose up, and the governor, Bernice also, and those sitting with them,

³¹ and having withdrawn, they were speaking to one another, saying, “This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds”;

³² and Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

27

¹ And when our sailing to Italy was determined, they were delivering up both Paul and certain others, prisoners, to a centurion, by name Julius, of the band of Sebastus,

² and having embarked in a ship of Adramyttium, we, being about to sail by the coasts of Asia, set sail, there being with us Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica,

³ on the next [day] also we touched at Sidon, and Julius, courteously treating Paul, permitted [him], having gone on to friends, to receive [their] care.

⁴ And there, having set sail, we sailed under Cyprus, because of the winds being contrary,

⁵ and having sailed over the sea down by Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myria of Lycia,

⁶ and there the centurion having found a ship of Alexandria, sailing to Italy, put us into it,

⁷ and having sailed slowly many days, and with difficulty coming down by Cnidus, the wind not permitting us, we sailed under Crete, down by Salmone,

⁸ and hardly passing it, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near to which was the city of Lasaea.

⁹ And much time being spent, and the sailing now being dangerous—because of the fast also being already past—Paul was admonishing,

¹⁰ saying to them, “Men, I perceive that with hurt, and much damage, not only of the load and of the ship, but also of our lives—the voyage is about to be”;

11 but the centurion gave more credence to the pilot and to the shipowner than to the things spoken by Paul;

12 and the haven being not well placed to winter in, the greater part gave counsel to sail from there, if somehow they might be able, having attained to Phoenix, to winter [there], [which is] a haven of Crete, looking to the southwest and northwest,

13 and a south wind blowing softly, having thought they had obtained [their] purpose, having lifted anchor, they sailed close by Crete,

14 and not long after, there came down from it a turbulent wind [that] is called the Euroclydon,

15 and the ship being caught, and not being able to bear up against the wind, having given [her] up, we were carried on,

16 and having run under a certain little island called Clauda, we were hardly able to become masters of the boat,

17 which having taken up, they were using helps, undergirding the ship, and fearing lest they may fall into the [sandbars of] Syrtis, having let down the mast—so were carried on.

18 And we, being exceedingly storm-tossed, the succeeding [day] they were making a clearing,

19 and on the third [day] we cast out the tackling of the ship with our own hands,

20 and neither sun nor stars appearing for more days, and not a little storm lying on us, from then on all hope was taken away of our being saved.

21 And there having been long fasting, then Paul having stood in the midst of them, said, "It was necessary, indeed, O men—having listened to me—not to set sail from Crete, and to save this hurt and damage;

22 and now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there will be no loss of life among you—but of the ship;

23 for this night there stood by me a messenger of God—whose I am, and whom I serve—

24 saying, Do not be afraid Paul; it is necessary for you to stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted to you all those sailing with you;

25 for this reason be of good cheer, men! For I believe God, that so it will be, even as it has been spoken to me,

26 and on a certain island it is necessary for us to be cast."

27 And when the fourteenth night came—we being carried up and down in the Adria—toward the middle of the night the sailors were supposing that some country drew near to them;

28 and having sounded they found twenty fathoms, and having gone a little farther, and again having sounded, they found fifteen fathoms,

29 and fearing lest we may fall on rough places, having cast four anchors out of the stern, they were wishing day to come.

30 And the sailors seeking to flee out of the ship, and having let down the boat to the sea, in pretense as [if] out of the prow they are about to cast anchors,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "If these do not remain in the ship—you are not able to be saved";

32 then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and permitted it to fall off.

³³ And until the day was about to be, Paul was calling on all to partake of nourishment, saying, "Fourteen days today, waiting, you continue fasting, having taken nothing,

³⁴ for this reason I call on you to take nourishment, for this is for your safety, for of not one of you will a hair fall from the head";

³⁵ and having said these things, and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before all, and having broken [it], he began to eat;

³⁶ and all having become of good cheer, also took food themselves,

³⁷ (and we were—all the souls in the ship—two hundred, seventy-six),

³⁸ and having eaten sufficient nourishment, they were lightening the ship, casting forth the wheat into the sea.

³⁹ And when the day came, they were not discerning the land, but were perceiving a certain bay having a beach, into which they took counsel, if possible, to thrust forward the ship,

⁴² And the soldiers' counsel was that they should kill the prisoners, lest anyone having swam out should escape,

⁴³ but the centurion, resolving to save Paul, hindered them from the counsel, and commanded those able to swim, having cast themselves out first—to get to the land,

⁴⁴ and the rest, some indeed on boards, and some on certain things of the ship; and thus it came to pass that all came safe to the land.

¹ And having been saved, then they knew that the island is called Malta,

² and the foreigners were showing us no ordinary kindness, for having kindled a fire, they received us all, because of the pressing rain, and because of the cold;

³ but Paul having gathered together a quantity of sticks, and having laid [them] on the fire, a viper—having come out of the heat—fastened on his hand.

⁴ And when the foreigners saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "Certainly this man is a murderer, whom, having been saved out of the sea, the justice did not permit to live";

⁵ he then, indeed, having shaken off the beast into the fire, suffered no evil,

⁶ and they were expecting him to be about to be inflamed, or to suddenly fall down dead, and they, expecting [it] a long time, and seeing nothing uncommon happening to him, changing [their] minds, said he was a god.

⁷ And in the neighborhood of that place were lands of the principal man of the island, by name Publius, who, having received us, courteously lodged [us for] three days;

⁸ and it came to pass, the father of Publius was lying, oppressed with fevers and dysentery, to whom Paul, having entered and having prayed, having laid [his] hands on him, healed him;

⁹ this, therefore, being done, also the others in the island having sicknesses were coming and were healed;

¹⁰ who also honored us with many honors, and we setting sail—they were loading [us] with the things that were necessary.

¹¹ And after three months, we set sail in a ship (that had wintered in the island) of Alexandria, with the sign Dioscouri,

¹² and having landed at Syracuse, we remained three days,

¹³ there having gone around, we came to Rhegium, and after one day, a south wind having sprung up, the second [day] we came to Puteoli,

¹⁴ where, having found brothers, we were called on to remain with them seven days, and thus we came to Rome;

¹⁵ and there, the brothers having heard the things concerning us, came forth to meet us, as far as [the] Forum of Appius, and Three Taverns—whom Paul having seen, having given thanks to God, took courage.

¹⁶ And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered up the prisoners to the captain of the barracks, but Paul was permitted to remain by himself, with the soldier guarding him.

¹⁷ And it came to pass after three days, Paul called together those who are the principal men of the Jews, and they having come together, he said to them: “Men, brothers, I—having done nothing contrary to the people, or to the customs of the fathers—a prisoner from Jerusalem, was delivered up into the hands of the Romans;

¹⁸ who having examined me, were willing to release [me], because of their being no cause of death in me,

¹⁹ and the Jews having spoken against [it], I was constrained to appeal to Caesar—not as having anything to accuse my nation of;

²⁰ for this cause, therefore, I called for you to see and to speak with [you], for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.”

²¹ And they said to him, “We neither received letters concerning you from Judea, nor did anyone who came of the brothers declare or speak any evil concerning you,

²² and we think it good from you to hear what you think, for indeed, concerning this sect it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere”;

²³ and having appointed him a day, more of them came to him, to the lodging, to whom he was setting [it] forth, testifying fully the Kingdom of God, persuading them also of the things concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses, and the Prophets, from morning until evening,

²⁴ and some, indeed, were believing the things spoken, and some were not believing.

²⁵ And not being agreed with one another, they were going away, Paul having spoken one word, “The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers,

²⁶ saying, Go on to this people and say, With hearing you will hear, and you will not understand, and seeing you will see, and you will not perceive,

²⁷ for the heart of this people was made obtuse, and with the ears they barely heard, and they closed their eyes, lest they may see with the eyes, and may understand with the heart, and should turn, and I may heal them.

²⁸ Be it known, therefore, to you, that the salvation of God was sent to the nations, these also will hear it”;

²⁹ [[and he having said these things, the Jews went away, having much debate among themselves;]]

³⁰ and Paul remained an entire two years in his own hired [house], and was receiving all those coming in to him,

³¹ preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness—unforbidden.

Romans

¹ Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, having been separated to the good news of God,

² which He announced before through His prophets in holy writings,

³ concerning His Son—who has come of the seed of David according to the flesh,

⁴ who is marked out [as the] Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of sanctification, by the resurrection from the dead—Jesus Christ our Lord;

⁵ through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, in behalf of His Name;

⁶ among whom are also you, the called of Jesus Christ;

⁷ to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called holy ones: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

⁸ First, indeed, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is proclaimed in the whole world;

⁹ for God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the good news of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you,

¹⁰ always in my prayers imploring, if by any means now at length I will have a prosperous journey, by the will of God, to come to you,

¹¹ for I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, that you may be established;

¹² and that is, that I may be comforted together among you, through faith in one another, both yours and mine.

¹³ And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that many times I purposed to come to you—and was hindered until the present time—that some fruit I might have also among you, even as also among the other nations.

¹⁴ Both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to wise and to thoughtless, I am a debtor,

¹⁵ so, as much as in me is, I am ready also to you who [are] in Rome to proclaim good news,

¹⁶ for I am not ashamed of the good news of the Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation to everyone who is believing, both to Jew first, and to Greek.

¹⁷ For the righteousness of God in it is revealed from faith to faith, according as it has been written: “And the righteous one will live by faith,”

¹⁸ for the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven on all impiety and unrighteousness of men, holding down the truth in unrighteousness.

¹⁹ Because that which is known of God is revealed among them, for God revealed [it] to them,

²⁰ for the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world, by the things made being understood, are plainly seen, both His eternal power and Godhead—to their being inexcusable;

²¹ because, having known God they did not glorify [Him] as God, nor gave thanks, but were made vain in their reasonings, and their unintelligent heart was darkened,

²² professing to be wise, they were made fools,

²³ and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and of quadrupeds, and of reptiles.

²⁴ For this reason also God gave them up, in the desires of their hearts, to uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves;

²⁵ who changed the truth of God into the lie, and honored and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for all ages. Amen.

²⁶ Because of this God gave them up to dishonorable affections, for even their females changed the natural use into that against nature;

²⁸ And according as they did not approve of having God in knowledge, God gave them up to a disapproved mind, to do the things not seemly;

²⁹ having been filled with all unrighteousness, whoredom, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil dispositions; whisperers,

³⁰ evil-speakers, God-haters, insulting, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

³¹ unintelligent, faithless, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful;

³² who the righteous judgment of God having known—that those practicing such things are worthy of death—not only do them, but also have delight with those practicing them.

¹ Therefore, you are inexcusable, O man—everyone who is judging—for in that in which you judge the other, yourself you condemn, for the same things you practice who are judging,

² and we have known that the judgment of God is according to truth, on those practicing such things.

³ And do you think this, O man, who are judging those who such things are practicing, and are doing them, that you will escape the judgment of God?

⁴ Or the riches of His goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering, do you despise, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to conversion?

⁵ But according to your hardness and impenitent heart, you treasure up wrath to yourself in [the] day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

⁶ who will render to each according to his works;

⁷ to those, indeed, who in continuance of a good work, seek glory, and honor, and incorruptibility—continuous life;

⁸ and to those contentious, and disobedient, indeed, to the truth, and obeying the unrighteousness—indignation and wrath,

⁹ tribulation and distress, on every soul of man that is working the evil, both to Jew first, and of Greek;

¹⁰ and glory, and honor, and peace, to everyone who is working the good, both to Jew first, and to Greek.

¹¹ For there is no favor by appearance with God,

¹² for as many as sinned without law, will also perish without law, and as many as sinned in law, through law will be judged,

¹³ for not the hearers of the Law [are] righteous before God, but the doers of the Law will be declared righteous.

¹⁴ For when nations that have no law, by nature may do the things of the Law, these not having a law—to themselves are a law,

¹⁵ who show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also witnessing with them, and between one another the thoughts accusing or else defending,

¹⁶ in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my good news, through Jesus Christ.

¹⁷ Behold, you are named a Jew, and rest on the Law, and boast in God,

¹⁸ and know the will, and approve the distinctions, being instructed out of the Law,

¹⁹ and have confidence that you yourself are a leader of blind ones, a light of those in darkness,

²⁰ a corrector of foolish ones, a teacher of babies, having the form of the knowledge and of the truth in the Law.

²¹ You, then, who are teaching another, do you not teach yourself?

²² You who are preaching not to steal, do you steal? You who are saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who are abhorring the idols, do you rob temples?

²³ You who boast in the Law, through the transgression of the Law do you dishonor God?

²⁴ For evil is spoken of the Name of God among the nations because of you, according as it has been written.

²⁵ For circumcision, indeed, profits, if you may practice law, but if you may be a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

²⁶ If, therefore, the uncircumcision may keep the righteousness of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision?

²⁷ And the uncircumcision, by nature, fulfilling the Law, will judge you who, through letter and circumcision, [are] a transgressor of law.

²⁸ For he is not a Jew who is [so] outwardly, neither [is] circumcision that which is outward in flesh;

²⁹ but a Jew [is] he who is [so] inwardly, and circumcision [is] of the heart, in spirit, not in letter, of which the praise is not of men, but of God.

¹ What, then, [is] the superiority of the Jew? Or what the profit of the circumcision?

² Much in every way; for first, indeed, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God;

³ for what, if certain were faithless? Will their faithlessness make the faithfulness of God useless?

⁴ Let it not be! And let God become true, and every man false, according as it has been written: "That You may be declared righteous in Your words, and may overcome in Your being judged."

⁵ And if our unrighteousness establishes God's righteousness, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who is inflicting the wrath? (I speak after the manner of a man.)

⁶ Let it not be! Since how will God judge the world?

⁷ For if the truth of God in my falsehood abounded more to His glory, why am I also yet judged as a sinner?

⁸ And not, as we are spoken evil of, and as certain affirm us to say, "We may do the evil things, that the good ones may come?" Whose judgment is righteous.

⁹ What, then? Are we better? Not at all! For we charged before both Jews and Greeks with being all under sin,

¹⁰ according as it has been written: "There is none righteous, not even one;

¹¹ there is none who is understanding, there is none who is seeking after God.

¹² All went out of the way, together they became unprofitable, there is none doing good, there is not even one.

¹³ Their throat [is] an opened grave; with their tongues they used deceit; poison of cobras [is] under their lips—

¹⁴ whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

¹⁵ Their feet [are] swift to shed blood.

¹⁶ Ruin and misery [are] in their ways.

¹⁷ And a way of peace they did not know.

¹⁸ There is no fear of God before their eyes."

¹⁹ And we have known that as many things as the Law says, to those in the Law it speaks, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may come under judgment to God;

²⁰ for this reason by works of law will no flesh be declared righteous before Him, for through law is a knowledge of sin.

²¹ And now apart from law the righteousness of God has been revealed, testified to by the Law and the Prophets,

²² and the righteousness of God [is] through the faith of Jesus Christ to all, and on all those believing—for there is no difference,

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God—

²⁴ being declared righteous freely by His grace through the redemption that [is] in Christ Jesus,

²⁵ whom God set forth [as] a propitiatory covering, through faith in His blood, for the showing forth of His righteousness, because of the passing over of the former sins in the forbearance of God—

²⁶ for the showing forth of His righteousness in the present time, for His being righteous, and declaring him righteous who [is] of the faith of Jesus.

²⁷ Where then [is] the boasting? It was excluded; by what law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith:

²⁸ therefore we reckon a man to be declared righteous by faith, apart from works of law.

²⁹ [Is He] only the God of Jews, and not also of nations?

³⁰ Yes, also of nations; since [there is] one God who will declare righteous circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

³¹ Do we then make law useless through faith? Let it not be! Indeed, we establish law.

¹ What, then, will we say Abraham our father to have found, according to flesh?

² For if Abraham was declared righteous by works, he has to boast—but not before God;

³ for what does the writing say? “And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness”;

⁴ and to him who is working, the reward is not reckoned of grace, but of debt;

⁵ and to him who is not working, and is believing on Him who is declaring righteous the impious, his faith is reckoned for righteousness—

⁶ even as David also speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

⁷ “Blessed [are] they whose lawless acts were forgiven, || And whose sins were covered;

⁸ Blessed [is] the man || To whom the LORD may not reckon sin.”

⁹ [Is] this blessedness, then, on the circumcision, or also on the uncircumcision—for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness?

¹⁰ How then was it reckoned? He being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision;

¹¹ and he received a sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of faith in the uncircumcision, for his being father of all those believing through uncircumcision, for the righteousness also being reckoned to them,

¹² and father of circumcision to those not of circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of faith, that [is] in the uncircumcision of our father Abraham.

¹³ For not through law [is] the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, of his being heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith;

¹⁴ for if they who are of law [are] heirs, faith has been made void, and the promise has been made useless;

¹⁵ for the Law works wrath; for where law is not, neither [is] transgression.

¹⁶ Because of this [it is] of faith, that [it may be] according to grace, for the promise being sure to all the seed, not to that which [is] of the Law only, but also to that which [is] of the faith of Abraham,

¹⁷ who is father of us all (according as it has been written: “A father of many nations I have set you,”) before Him whom he believed—God, who is quickening the dead, and is calling the things that are not as being.

¹⁸ Who, against hope, believed in hope, for his becoming father of many nations according to that spoken: “So will your seed be”;

¹⁹ and having not been weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already become dead (being about one hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb,

²⁰ and at the promise of God did not stagger in unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God,

²¹ and having been fully persuaded that what He has promised He is also able to do:

²² for this reason also it was reckoned to him for righteousness.

²³ And it was not written on his account alone that it was reckoned to him,

²⁴ but also on ours, to whom it is about to be reckoned—to us believing on Him who raised up Jesus our Lord out of the dead,

²⁵ who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised up because of our being declared righteous.

¹ Having been declared righteous, then, by faith, we have peace toward God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

² through whom also we have the access by faith into this grace in which we have stood, and we boast on the hope of the glory of God.

³ And not only [so], but we also boast in the tribulations, knowing that the tribulation works endurance;

⁴ and the endurance, experience; and the experience, hope;

⁵ and the hope does not make ashamed, because the love of God has been poured forth in our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

⁶ For in our being still ailing, Christ in due time died for the impious;

⁷ for scarcely for a righteous man will anyone die, for the good man perhaps someone also dares to die;

⁸ and God commends His own love to us, that, in our being still sinners, Christ died for us;

⁹ much more, then, having been declared righteous now in His blood, we will be saved through Him from the wrath;

¹⁰ for if, being enemies, we have been reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we will be saved in His life.

¹¹ And not only [so], but we are also boasting in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now received the reconciliation;

¹² because of this, even as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin—death; and thus to all men death passed through, for that all sinned;

¹³ for until law sin was in the world: and sin is not reckoned when there is not law;

¹⁴ but death reigned from Adam until Moses, even on those having not sinned in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type of Him who is coming.

¹⁵ But not as the offense so also [is] the free gift; for if by the offense of the one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the free gift in grace of the one man Jesus Christ, abound to the many;

¹⁶ and not as through one who sinned [is] the free gift, for the judgment indeed [is] of one to condemnation, but the gift [is] of many offenses to a declaration of "Righteous,"

¹⁷ for if by the offense of the one death reigned through the one, much more those who are receiving the abundance of grace and of the free gift of righteousness, in life will reign through the one—Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ So, then, as through one offense to all men [it is] to condemnation, so also through one declaration of "Righteous" [it is] to all men to justification of life;

¹⁹ for as through the disobedience of the one man, the many were constituted sinners: so also through the obedience of the One, will the many be constituted righteous.

²⁰ And law came in, that the offense might abound, and where sin abounded, grace hyper-abounded,

²¹ that even as sin reigned in death, so also grace may reign, through righteousness, to continuous life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹ What, then, will we say? Will we continue in sin that grace may abound?

² Let it not be! We who died to sin—how will we still live in it?

³ Are you ignorant that we, as many as were immersed into Christ Jesus, were immersed into His death?

⁴ We were buried together, then, with Him through the immersion into death, that even as Christ was raised up out of the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

⁵ For if we have become planted together to the likeness of His death, [so] we also will be of the resurrection;

⁶ knowing this, that our old man was crucified with [Him], that the body of sin may be made useless, for our no longer serving sin,

⁷ for he who has died has been set free from sin.

⁸ And if we died with Christ, we believe that we also will live with Him,

⁹ knowing that Christ, having been raised up out of the dead, dies no more; death has no more lordship over Him;

¹⁰ for in that He died, He died to sin once, and in that He lives, He lives to God;

¹¹ so also you, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, and living to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹² Do not let then sin reign in your mortal body, to obey it in its desires;

¹³ neither present your members instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as living out of the dead, and your members instruments of righteousness to God;

¹⁴ for sin will not have lordship over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.

¹⁵ What then? Will we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Let it not be!

¹⁶ Have you not known that to whom you present yourselves servants for obedience, servants you are to him to whom you obey, whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?

¹⁷ And thanks to God, that you were servants of sin, and—were obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were delivered up;

¹⁸ and having been freed from sin, you became servants to righteousness.

¹⁹ I speak in a human [way], because of the weakness of your flesh, for even as you presented your members servants to the uncleanness and to the lawlessness—to the lawlessness, so now present your members servants to righteousness—to sanctification,

²⁰ for when you were servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.

²¹ What fruit, therefore, were you having then, in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those [is] death.

²² And now, having been freed from sin, and having become servants to God, you have your fruit—to sanctification, and the end continuous life;

²³ for the wages of sin [is] death, and the gift of God [is] continuous life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹ Are you ignorant, brothers—for to those knowing law I speak—that the law has lordship over the man as long as he lives?

² For the married woman to the living husband has been bound by law, and if the husband may die, she has been free from the law of the husband;

³ so then, the husband being alive, she will be called an adulteress if she may become another man's; and if the husband may die, she is free from the law, so as not to be an adulteress, having become another man's.

⁴ So that, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of the Christ, for your becoming another's, who was raised up out of the dead, that we might bear fruit to God;

⁵ for when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, that [are] through the Law, were working in our members, to bear fruit to death;

⁶ and now we have ceased from the Law, that being dead in which we were held, so that we may serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

⁷ What, then, will we say? The Law [is] sin? Let it not be! But I did not know sin except through law, for also the covetousness I had not known if the Law had not said:

⁸ "You will not covet"; and sin having received an opportunity, through the command, worked in me all covetousness—for apart from law sin is dead.

⁹ And I was alive apart from law once, and the command having come, sin revived, and I died;

¹⁰ and the command that [is] for life, this was found by me for death;

¹¹ for sin, having received an opportunity, through the command, deceived me, and through it, slew [me],

¹² so that the Law, indeed, [is] holy, and the command holy, and righteous, and good.

¹³ That which is good then, has it become death to me? Let it not be! But sin, that it might appear sin, through the good, working death to me, that sin might become exceedingly sinful through the command.

¹⁴ For we have known that the Law is spiritual, and I am fleshly, sold by sin;

¹⁵ for that which I work, I do not acknowledge; for not what I will, this I practice, but what I hate, this I do.

¹⁶ And if what I do not will, this I do, I consent to the Law that [it is] good,

¹⁷ and now it is no longer I that work it, but sin dwelling in me,

¹⁸ for I have known that there does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh, good: for to will is present with me, and I do not find to work that which is right,

¹⁹ for the good that I will, I do not do; but the evil that I do not will, this I practice.

²⁰ And if what I do not will, this I do, it is no longer I that work it, but sin that is dwelling in me.

²¹ I find, then, the law, that when I desire to do what is right, the evil is present with me,

²² for I delight in the Law of God according to the inward man,

²³ and I behold another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin that [is] in my members.

²⁴ A wretched man I [am]! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death?

²⁵ I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord; so then, I myself indeed serve the Law of God with the mind, and with the flesh, the law of sin.

¹ There is, then, now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit;

² for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and of death;

³ for what the Law was not able to do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, His own Son having sent in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh,

⁴ that the righteousness of the Law may be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

⁵ For those who are according to the flesh, mind the things of the flesh; and those according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit;

⁶ for the mind of the flesh [is] death, and the mind of the Spirit—life and peace;

⁷ because the mind of the flesh [is] enmity to God, for to the Law of God it does not subject itself,

⁸ for neither is it able; and those who are in the flesh are not able to please God.

⁹ And you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you; and if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ—this one is not His;

¹⁰ and if Christ [is] in you, the body, indeed, [is] dead because of sin, and the Spirit [is] life because of righteousness,

¹¹ and if the Spirit of Him who raised up Jesus out of the dead dwells in you, He who raised up the Christ out of the dead will also quicken your dying bodies, through His Spirit dwelling in you.

¹² So, then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh;

¹³ for if according to the flesh you live, you are about to die; and if, by the Spirit, the deeds of the body you put to death, you will live;

¹⁴ for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God;

¹⁵ for you did not receive a spirit of bondage again for fear, but you received [the] Spirit of adoption in which we cry, "Abba! Father!"

¹⁶ [This] One—the Spirit—testifies with our spirit, that we are children of God;

¹⁷ and if children, also heirs, heirs, indeed, of God, and heirs together of Christ—if, indeed, we suffer together, that we may also be glorified together.

¹⁸ For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time [are] not worthy [to be compared] with the glory about to be revealed in us;

¹⁹ for the earnest looking out of the creation expects the revelation of the sons of God;

²⁰ for to vanity was the creation made subject—not of its will, but because of Him who subjected [it]—in hope,

²¹ that also the creation itself will be set free from the servitude of the corruption to the liberty of the glory of the children of God;

²² for we have known that all the creation groans together, and travails in pain together until now.

²³ And not only [so], but also we ourselves, having the first-fruit of the Spirit, we also ourselves groan in ourselves, expecting adoption—the redemption of our body;

²⁴ for in hope we were saved, and hope beheld is not hope; for what anyone beholds, why does he also hope for [it]?

²⁵ And if what we do not behold we hope for, through continuance we expect [it].

²⁶ And in like manner also, the Spirit helps our weaknesses; for what we may pray for, as it is necessary, we have not known, but [this] One—the Spirit—makes intercession for us with unutterable groanings, ²⁷ and He who is searching the hearts has known what [is] the mind of the Spirit, because according to God He intercedes for holy ones.

²⁸ And we have known that to those loving God all things work together for good, to those who are called according to purpose;

²⁹ because whom He foreknew, He also foreordained, conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be firstborn among many brothers;

³⁰ and whom He foreordained, these also He called; and whom He called, these also He declared righteous; and whom He declared righteous, these also He glorified.

³¹ What, then, will we say to these things? If God [is] for us, who [is] against us?

³² He who indeed did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him grant to us all things?

³³ Who will lay a charge against the chosen ones of God? God [is] He that is declaring righteous;

³⁴ who [is] he that is condemning? Christ [is] He that died, indeed, rather also, was raised up; who is also on the right hand of God—who also interceded for us.

³⁵ Who will separate us from the love of the Christ? Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

³⁶ According as it has been written: “For Your sake we are put to death all the day long; we were reckoned as sheep of slaughter.”

³⁷ But in all these we more than conquer, through Him who loved us;

³⁸ for I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor messengers, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present,

³⁹ nor things about to be, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God that [is] in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹ Truth I say in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing testimony with me in the Holy Spirit,

² that I have great grief and unceasing pain in my heart—

³ for I was wishing, I myself, to be accursed from the Christ—for my brothers, my relatives, according to the flesh,

⁴ who are Israelites, whose [is] the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the lawgiving, and the service, and the promises,

⁵ whose [are] the fathers, and of whom [is] the Christ, according to the flesh, who is God over all, blessed for all ages. Amen.

⁶ And it is not possible that the word of God has failed; for not all who [are] of Israel are these of Israel;

⁷ nor because they are seed of Abraham [are] all children, but, “in Isaac will a seed be called to you”;

⁸ that is, the children of the flesh—these [are] not children of God; but the children of the promise are reckoned for seed;

⁹ for the word of promise [is] this: “According to this time I will come, and there will be to Sarah a son.”

¹⁰ And not only [so], but also Rebecca, having conceived by one—our father Isaac

¹¹ (for they being not yet born, neither having done anything good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to [divine] selection, might remain; not of works, but of Him who is calling),

¹² it was said to her, “The greater will serve the less”;

¹³ according as it has been written: “Jacob I loved, and Esau I hated.”

¹⁴ What, then, will we say? Unrighteousness [is] with God? Let it not be!

¹⁵ For to Moses He says, “I will do kindness to whom I do kindness, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion”;

¹⁶ so then—not of him who is willing, nor of him who is running, but of God who is doing kindness;

¹⁷ for the Writing says to Pharaoh, “For this very thing I raised you up, that I might show in you My power, and that My Name might be declared in all the land”;

¹⁸ so then, to whom He wills, He does kindness, and to whom He wills, He hardens.

¹⁹ You will say, then, to me, “Why does He yet find fault? For who has resisted His counsel?”

²⁰ No, but, O man, who are you that are answering again to God? Will the thing formed say to Him who formed [it], Why did you make me thus?

²¹ Does the potter not have authority over the clay, out of the same lump to make one vessel to honor and one to dishonor?

²² And if God, willing to show the wrath and to make known His power, endured, in much long suffering, vessels of wrath fitted for destruction,

²³ and that He might make known the riches of His glory on vessels of kindness, that He before prepared for glory, whom also He called—us—

²⁴ not only out of Jews, but also out of nations,

²⁵ as also in Hosea He says, “I will call what [is] not My people—My people; and her not beloved—Beloved,

²⁶ and it will be—in the place where it was said to them, You [are] not My people; there they will be called sons of the living God.”

²⁷ And Isaiah cries concerning Israel, “If the number of the sons of Israel may be as the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved;

²⁸ for a matter He is finishing, and is cutting short in righteousness, because a matter cut short will the LORD do on the land.”

²⁹ And according as Isaiah says before, "Except the LORD of Hosts left to us a seed, we had become as Sodom, and we had been made like Gomorrah."

³⁰ What, then, will we say? That nations who are not pursuing righteousness attained to righteousness, and righteousness that [is] of faith,

³¹ and Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not arrive at a law of righteousness;

³² why? Because—not by faith, but as by works of law; for they stumbled at the stone of stumbling,

³³ according as it has been written: "Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense; and everyone who is believing thereon will not be ashamed."

¹ Brothers, the pleasure indeed of my heart, and my supplication that [is] to God for Israel, is—for salvation;

² for I bear them testimony that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge,

³ for not knowing the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God.

⁴ For Christ is an end of law for righteousness to everyone who is believing,

⁵ for Moses describes the righteousness that [is] of the Law, that, "The man who did them will live in them,"

⁶ and the righteousness of faith thus speaks: "You may not say in your heart, Who will go up to Heaven?" (that is, to bring Christ down)

⁷ or, "Who will go down to the abyss?" (that is, to bring up Christ out of the dead).

⁸ But what does it say? "The saying is near you—in your mouth, and in your heart": that is, the saying of the faith that we preach;

⁹ that if you may confess with your mouth that Jesus [is] LORD, and may believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved,

¹⁰ for with the heart [one] believes to righteousness, and with the mouth is confession made to salvation;

¹¹ for the Writing says, "Everyone who is believing on Him will not be ashamed,"

¹² for there is no difference between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord of all [is] rich to all those calling on Him,

¹³ for "Everyone who, if he may have called on the Name of the LORD, will be saved."

¹⁴ How then will they call on [Him] in whom they did not believe? And how will they believe [on Him] of whom they did not hear? And how will they hear apart from one preaching?

¹⁵ And how will they preach, if they may not be sent? According as it has been written: "How beautiful the feet of those proclaiming good tidings of peace, of those proclaiming good tidings of the good things!"

¹⁶ But they were not all obedient to the good tidings, for Isaiah says, "LORD, who gave credence to our report?"

¹⁷ So then faith [is] by a report, and the report through a saying of God,

18 but I say, did they not hear? Yes, indeed, “their voice went forth to all the earth, and their sayings to the ends of the habitable world.”

19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy by [that which is] not a nation, || By an unintelligent nation I will anger you,”

20 and Isaiah is very bold and says, “I was found by those not seeking Me; I became visible to those not inquiring after Me”;

21 and to Israel He says, “All the day I stretched out My hands to a people unbelieving and contradicting.”

11

1 I say then, did God cast away His people? Let it not be! For I am also an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin:

2 God did not cast away His people whom He knew before; have you not known—in Elijah—what the Writing says? How he pleads with God concerning Israel, saying,

3 “LORD, they killed Your prophets, and they dug down Your altars, and I was left alone, and they seek my life”;

4 but what does the divine answer say to him? “I left to Myself seven thousand men who did not bow a knee to Ba’al.”

5 So then also in the present time there has been a remnant according to the [divine] selection of grace;

6 and if by grace, no longer of works, otherwise grace becomes no longer grace; and if of works, it is no longer grace, otherwise work is no longer work.

7 What then? What Israel seeks after, this it did not obtain, and the chosen obtained, and the rest were hardened,

8 according as it has been written: “God gave to them a spirit of deep sleep, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, to this very day,”

9 and David says, “Let their table become for a snare, and for a trap, and for a stumbling-block, and for a repayment to them;

10 let their eyes be darkened—not to behold, and You always bow down their back.”

11 I say then, did they stumble that they might fall? Let it not be! But by their fall the salvation [is] to the nations, to arouse them to jealousy;

12 and if their fall [is] the riches of [the] world, and their diminishment the riches of nations, how much more their fullness?

13 For to you I speak—to the nations—inasmuch as I am indeed an apostle of nations, I glorify my ministry;

14 if I will arouse my own flesh to jealousy by any means, and will save some of them,

15 for if the casting away of them [is] a reconciliation of the world, what the reception—if not life out of the dead?

16 And if the first-fruit [is] holy, the lump also; and if the root [is] holy, the branches also.

17 And if certain of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and became a fellow-partaker of the root and of the fatness of the olive tree—

18 do not boast against the branches; and if you boast, you do not bear the root, but the root you!

¹⁹ You will say, then, “The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in”; right!

²⁰ By unbelief they were broken off, and you have stood by faith; do not be high-minded, but be fearing;

²¹ for if God did not spare the natural branches—lest perhaps He also will not spare you.

²² Behold, then, goodness and severity of God—on those indeed who fell, severity; and on you, goodness, if you may remain in the goodness, otherwise, you also will be cut off.

²³ And those also, if they may not remain in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again;

²⁴ for if you, out of the olive tree, wild by nature, were cut out, and contrary to nature, were grafted into a good olive tree, how much rather will they, who [are] according to nature, be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵ For I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, of this secret—that you may not be wise in your own conceits—that hardness in part to Israel has happened until the fullness of the nations may come in;

²⁶ and so all Israel will be saved, according as it has been written: “There will come forth out of Zion He who is delivering, and He will turn away impiety from Jacob,

²⁷ and this to them [is] the covenant from Me when I may take away their sins.”

²⁸ As regards, indeed, the good tidings, [they are] enemies on your account; and as regards the [divine] selection—beloved on account of the fathers;

²⁹ for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable;

³⁰ for as you also once did not believe in God, and now found kindness by the unbelief of these,

³¹ so also these now did not believe, that in your kindness they also may find kindness;

³² for God shut up together the whole to unbelief, that to the whole He might do kindness.

³³ O depth of riches, and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable His judgments, and untraceable His ways!

³⁴ For who knew the mind of the LORD? Or who became His counselor?

³⁵ Or who first gave to Him, and it will be given back to him again?

³⁶ Because of Him, and through Him, and to Him [are] all things; to Him [is] the glory—for all ages. Amen.

² and do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, for your proving what [is] the will of God—the good, and acceptable, and perfect.

³ For I say, through the grace that was given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think above what it ought to think; but to think so as to think wisely, as to each God dealt a measure of faith,

⁴ for as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same office,

⁵ so we, the many, are one body in Christ, and members of one another—each one.

⁶ And having gifts, different according to the grace that was given to us: whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith;

⁷ or ministry, in the ministry; or he who is teaching, in the teaching;

⁸ or he who is exhorting, in the exhortation; he who is sharing, in simplicity; he who is leading, in diligence; he who is doing kindness, in cheerfulness.

⁹ The love un hypocritical: abhorring the evil; cleaving to the good;

¹⁰ in the love of brothers, to one another kindly affectioned: in the honor going before one another;

¹¹ in the diligence not slothful; in the spirit fervent; serving the LORD;

¹² in the hope rejoicing; in the tribulation enduring; in the prayer persevering;

¹³ to the necessities of the holy ones communicating; the hospitality pursuing.

¹⁴ Bless those persecuting you; bless, and do not curse;

¹⁵ to rejoice with the rejoicing, and to weep with the weeping,

¹⁶ of the same mind toward one another, not minding the high things, but with the lowly going along; do not become wise in your own conceit;

¹⁷ giving back to no one evil for evil; providing right things before all men.

¹⁸ If possible—so far as in you—with all men being in peace;

¹⁹ not avenging yourselves, beloved, but give place to the wrath, for it has been written: “Vengeance [is] Mine, ²⁰ I will repay again, says the LORD”; if, then, your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink; for doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head.

²¹ Do not be overcome by the evil, but overcome, in the good, the evil.

¹ Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the authorities existing are appointed by God,

² so that he who is setting himself against the authority, has resisted against God’s ordinance; and those resisting will receive judgment to themselves.

³ For those ruling are not a terror to the good works, but to the evil; and do you wish to not be afraid of the authority? Be doing that which is good, and you will have praise from it,

⁴ for it is a servant of God to you for good; and if you may do that which is evil, be fearing, for it does not bear the sword in vain; for it is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who is doing that which is evil.

⁵ For this reason it is necessary to be subject, not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience,

⁶ for because of this you also pay tribute; for they are servants of God, on this very thing attending continually;

⁷ render, therefore, to all [their] dues; to whom tribute, the tribute; to whom custom, the custom; to whom fear, the fear; to whom honor, the honor.

⁸ To no one owe anything, except to love one another; for he who is loving the other—he has fulfilled law,

⁹ for, “You will not commit adultery, You will not murder, You will not steal, You will not bear false testimony, You will not covet”; and if there is any other command, in this word it is summed up, in this: “You will love your neighbor as yourself”;

¹⁰ the love to the neighbor works no ill; the love, therefore, [is] the fullness of law.

¹¹ And this, knowing the time, that for us, the hour already [is] to be aroused out of sleep, for now our salvation [is] nearer than when we believed;

¹² the night advanced, and the day came near; let us lay aside, therefore, the works of the darkness, and let us put on the armor of the light;

¹³ as in daytime, let us walk properly; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and licentiousness, not in strife and jealousy;

¹⁴ but put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and take no forethought for the flesh—for desires.

¹ And receive him who is weak in the faith—not to determinations of reasonings;

² one believes that he may eat all things—and he who is weak eats herbs;

³ do not let him who is eating despise him who is not eating; and do not let him who is not eating judge him who is eating, for God received him.

⁴ You—who are you that are judging another’s domestic [affairs]? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

⁵ One judges one day above another, and another judges every day [alike]; let each be fully assured in his own mind.

⁶ He who is regarding the day, he regards [it] to the LORD, and he who is not regarding the day, he does not regard [it] to the LORD. He who is eating, he eats to the LORD, for he gives thanks to God; and he who is not eating, he does not eat to the LORD, and gives thanks to God.

⁷ For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself;

⁸ for both, if we may live, we live to the LORD; if also we may die, we die to the LORD; both then if we may live, also if we may die, we are the LORD’s;

⁹ for because of this Christ both died and rose again, and lived again, that He may be Lord both of dead and of living.

¹⁰ And you, why do you judge your brother? Or again, you, why do you set at nothing your brother? For we will all stand at the judgment seat of the Christ;

¹¹ for it has been written: “I live! Says the LORD—Every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God”;

¹² so, then, each of us will give reckoning to God concerning himself;

¹³ therefore, may we judge one another no longer, but rather judge this, not to put a stumbling-stone before the brother, or an offense.

¹⁴ I have known, and am persuaded, in the Lord Jesus, that nothing [is] unclean of itself, except to him who is reckoning anything to be unclean—to that one [it is] unclean;

¹⁵ and if your brother is grieved through food, you no longer walk according to love; do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died.

¹⁶ Do not let, then, evil be spoken of your good,

¹⁷ for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit;

¹⁸ for he who in these things is serving the Christ, [is] acceptable to God and approved of men.

¹⁹ So, then, may we pursue the things of peace, and the things of building up one another.

²⁰ Do not cast down the work of God for the sake of food; all things, indeed, [are] pure, but evil [is] to the man who is eating through stumbling.

²¹ [It is] not right to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to [do anything] in which your brother stumbles, or is made to fall, or is weak.

²² You have faith! Have [it] to yourself before God; blessed is he who is not judging himself in what he approves, ²³ and he who is making a difference, if he may eat, has been condemned, because [it is] not of faith; and all that [is] not of faith is sin.

¹ And we ought—we who are strong—to bear the weaknesses of the powerless, and not to please ourselves;

² for let each one of us please the neighbor for good, for edification,

³ for even the Christ did not please Himself, but according as it has been written: “The reproaches of those reproaching You fell on Me”;

⁴ for as many things as were written before, for our instruction were written before, that through the endurance, and the exhortation of the Writings, we might have the hope.

⁵ And may the God of the endurance, and of the exhortation, give to you to have the same mind toward one another, according to Christ Jesus,

⁶ that with one accord—with one mouth—you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ;

⁷ for this reason receive one another, according as also the Christ received us, to the glory of God.

⁸ And I say Jesus Christ to have become a servant of circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises to the fathers,

⁹ and the nations for kindness to glorify God, according as it has been written: “Because of this I will confess to You among nations, and to Your Name I will sing praise”;

¹⁰ and again it says, “Rejoice you nations, with His people”;

¹¹ and again, “Praise the LORD, all you nations; and laud Him, all you peoples”;

¹² and again, Isaiah says, “There will be the root of Jesse, and He who is rising to rule nations—on Him will nations hope”;

¹³ and the God of the hope will fill you with all joy and peace in the believing, for your abounding in the hope in power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴ And I am persuaded, my brothers—I myself also—concerning you, that you yourselves also are full of goodness, having been filled with all knowledge, also able to admonish one another;

¹⁵ and the more boldly I wrote to you, brothers, in part, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me by God,

¹⁶ for my being a servant of Jesus Christ to the nations, acting as priest in the good news of God, that the offering up of the nations may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷ I have, then, a boasting in Christ Jesus, in the things pertaining to God,

¹⁸ for I will not dare to speak anything of the things that Christ did not work through me, to obedience of nations, by word and deed,

¹⁹ in power of signs and wonders, in power of the Spirit of God; so that I, from Jerusalem, and in a circle as far as Illyricum, have fully preached the good news of the Christ;

²⁰ and so counting it honor to proclaim good news, not where Christ was named—that on another's foundation I might not build—

²¹ but according as it has been written: "To whom it was not told concerning Him, they will see; and they who have not heard, will understand."

²² For this reason, also, I was hindered many times from coming to you,

²³ and now, no longer having place in these parts, and having a longing to come to you for many years,

²⁴ when I may go on to Spain I will come to you, for I hope in going through, to see you, and by you to be set forward there, if of you first, in part, I will be filled.

²⁵ And now, I go on to Jerusalem, ministering to the holy ones;

²⁶ for it pleased Macedonia and Achaia well to make a certain contribution for the poor of the holy ones who [are] in Jerusalem;

²⁸ This, then, having finished, and having sealed to them this fruit, I will return through you, to Spain;

²⁹ and I have known that coming to you—in the fullness of the blessing of the good news of Christ I will come.

³⁰ And I call on you, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and through the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers for me to God,

³¹ that I may be delivered from those not believing in Judea, and that my ministry, that [is] for Jerusalem, may become acceptable to the holy ones;

³² that in joy I may come to you, through the will of God, and may be refreshed with you,

³³ and the God of peace [be] with you all. Amen.

¹ And I commend you to Phoebe our sister—being a servant of the assembly that [is] in Cenchrea—

² that you may receive her in the LORD, worthily of the holy ones, and may assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you, for she also became a leader of many, and of myself.

³ Greet Priscilla and Aquilas, my fellow-workmen in Christ Jesus—

⁴ who laid down their own neck for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the nations—

⁵ and the assembly at their house; greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is first-fruit of Achaia to Christ.

⁶ Greet Mary, who labored much for us;

⁷ greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives, and my fellow-captives, who are of note among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me.

⁸ Greet Amplias, my beloved in the LORD;

⁹ greet Arbanus, our fellow-workman in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved;

¹⁰ greet Apelles, the approved in Christ; greet those of the [household] of Aristobulus;

¹¹ greet Herodion, my relative; greet those of the [household] of Narcissus, who are in the LORD;

¹² greet Tryphaena, and Tryphosa, who are laboring in the LORD; greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the LORD.

¹³ Greet Rufus, the chosen one in the LORD, and his mother and mine,

¹⁴ greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers with them;

¹⁵ greet Philologus, and Julias, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the holy ones with them;

¹⁶ greet one another in a holy kiss; the assemblies of Christ greet you.

¹⁷ And I call on you, brothers, to mark those who are causing the divisions and the stumbling-blocks, contrary to the teaching that you learned, and turn away from them;

¹⁸ for such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and through the good word and fair speech they deceive the hearts of the harmless.

¹⁹ For your obedience reached to all; I rejoice, therefore, as regards you, and I wish you to be wise, indeed, as to the good, and pure as to the evil;

²⁰ and the God of peace will bruise Satan under your feet quickly; the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you. Amen!

²¹ Timotheus greets you, my fellow-workman, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives;

²² I, Tertius, greet you (who wrote the letter) in the LORD;

²³ Gaius greets you, my host, and of the whole Assembly; Erastus greets you, the steward of the city, and Quartus the brother.

²⁴ [[The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you all! Amen.]]

²⁵ And to Him who is able to establish you, according to my good news, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the secret, having been kept secret in the times of the ages, ²⁶ and now having been revealed, also, through prophetic writings, according to a command of the perpetual God, having been made known to all the nations for obedience of faith—

²⁷ to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to Him [be] glory for all ages. Amen.

First Corinthians

¹ Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother,

² to the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called holy ones, with all those calling on the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place—both theirs and ours:

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

⁴ I give thanks to my God always concerning you for the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus,

⁵ that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all discourse and all knowledge,

⁶ according as the testimony of the Christ was confirmed in you,

⁷ so that you are not behind in any gift, waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁸ who also will confirm you to the end—unblamable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ;

⁹ faithful [is] God, through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰ And I call on you, brothers, through the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that the same thing you may all say, and there may not be divisions among you, and you may be perfected in the same mind, and in the same judgment,

¹¹ for it was signified to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that contentions are among you;

¹² and I say this, that each one of you says, “I, indeed, am of Paul,” and “I of Apollos,” and “I of Cephas,” and “I of Christ.”

¹³ Has the Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul?

¹⁴ I give thanks to God that I immersed no one of you, except Crispus and Gaius—

¹⁵ that no one may say that to my own name I immersed;

¹⁶ and I also immersed Stephanas’ household—further, I have not known if I immersed any other.

¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to immerse, but to proclaim good news, not in wisdom of discourse, that the Cross of the Christ may not be made of no effect;

¹⁸ for the word of the Cross to those indeed perishing is foolishness, and to us—those being saved—it is the power of God,

¹⁹ for it has been written: “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the intelligence of the intelligent I will bring to nothing”;

²⁰ where [is] the wise? Where the scribe? Where a disputer of this age? Did God not make foolish the wisdom of this world?

²¹ For seeing in the wisdom of God the world through the wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the preaching to save those believing.

²² Since also Jews ask a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom,

²³ also we preach Christ crucified, to Jews, indeed, a stumbling-block, and to Greeks foolishness,

²⁴ and to those called—both Jews and Greeks—Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God,

²⁵ because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men;

²⁶ for see your calling, brothers, that not many [are] wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble;

²⁷ but God chose the foolish things of the world that He may put the wise to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world that He may put the strong to shame;

²⁸ and God chose the base things of the world, and the things despised, and the things that are not, that He may make useless the things that are—

²⁹ that no flesh may glory before Him;

³⁰ but out of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us from God wisdom, righteousness also, and sanctification, and redemption,

³¹ that, according as it has been written: “He who is glorying—let him glory in the LORD.”

¹ And I, having come to you, brothers, came—not in superiority of discourse or wisdom—declaring to you the testimony of God,

² for I decided not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified;

³ and I, in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling, was with you;

⁴ and my word and my preaching was not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power—

⁵ that your faith may not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

⁶ And wisdom we speak among the perfect, and wisdom not of this age, nor of the rulers of this age—of those becoming useless,

⁷ but we speak the hidden wisdom of God in a secret, that God foreordained before the ages to our glory,

⁸ which no one of the rulers of this age knew, for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory;

⁹ but according as it has been written: “What eye did not see, and ear did not hear, and on the heart of man did not come up, what God prepared for those loving Him”;

¹⁰ but God revealed [them] to us through His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God,

¹¹ for who of men has known the things of the man, except the spirit of the man that [is] in him? So also the things of God no one has known, except the Spirit of God.

¹² And we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that [is] of God, that we may know the things conferred by God on us,

¹³ which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Holy Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things,

¹⁴ and the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to know [them], because they are discerned spiritually;

¹⁵ and he who is spiritual, indeed discerns all things, and he himself is discerned by no one;

¹⁶ for who knew the mind of the LORD that he will instruct Him? And we have the mind of Christ.

¹ And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly—as to babies in Christ;

² with milk I fed you, and not with meat, for you were not yet able, but not even yet are you now able,

³ for yet you are fleshly, for where [there is] among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not fleshly, and walk in the manner of men?

⁴ For when one may say, “I, indeed, am of Paul,” and another, “I—of Apollos,” are you not fleshly?

⁵ Who, then, is Paul, and who Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, and to each as the LORD gave?

⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God was giving growth;

⁷ so that neither is he who is planting anything, nor he who is watering, but He who is giving growth—God;

⁸ and he who is planting and he who is watering are one, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor,

⁹ for we are fellow-workmen of God; you are God’s tillage, God’s building.

¹⁰ According to the grace of God that was given to me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid a foundation, and another builds on [it],

¹¹ for no one is able to lay another foundation except that which is laid, which is Jesus the Christ;

¹² and if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—

¹³ the work will become visible of each, for the day will declare [it], because it is revealed in fire, and the work of each, what kind it is, the fire will prove;

¹⁴ if the work of anyone remains that he built on [it], he will receive a wage;

¹⁵ if the work of any is burned up, he will suffer loss, but himself will be saved, but so as through fire.

¹⁶ Have you not known that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwells in you?

¹⁷ If anyone ruins the temple of God, God will ruin him; for the temple of God is holy, which you are.

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself; if anyone seems to be wise among you in this age—let him become a fool, that he may become wise,

¹⁹ for the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, for it has been written: “Who is taking the wise in their craftiness”;

²⁰ and again, “The LORD knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain.”

²¹ So then, let no one glory in men, for all things are yours,

²² whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things about to be—all are yours,

²³ and you [are] Christ’s, and Christ [is] God’s.

¹ Let a man so reckon us as officers of Christ, and stewards of the secrets of God,

² and as to the rest, it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful,

³ and to me it is for a very little thing that by you I may be judged, or by man's Day, but I do not even judge myself,

⁴ for I have been conscious of nothing for myself, but I have not been declared right in this—and He who is discerning me is the LORD:

⁵ so, then, judge nothing before the time, until the LORD may come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of the darkness, and will reveal the counsels of the hearts, and then the praise will come to each from God.

⁶ And these things, brothers, I transferred to myself and to Apollos because of you, that in us you may learn not to think above that which has been written, that you may not be puffed up one for one against the other,

⁷ for who makes you to differ? And what do you have, that you did not receive? And if you also received, why do you glory as not having received?

⁸ Already you are having been filled, already you were rich, apart from us you reigned, and I also wish you reigned, that we also may reign together with you,

⁹ for I think that God set forth us the apostles last—as appointed to death, because we became a spectacle to the world, and messengers, and men;

¹⁰ we [are] fools because of Christ, and you wise in Christ; we [are] ailing, and you strong; you glorious, and we dishonored;

¹¹ to the present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are battered, and wander,

¹² and labor, working with [our] own hands; being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;

¹³ being spoken evil of, we plead; we became as filth of the world—of all things an outcast—until now.

¹⁴ Not [as] putting you to shame do I write these things, but I admonish as my beloved children,

¹⁵ for if a myriad of child-conductors you may have in Christ, yet not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus, through the good news, I begot you;

¹⁶ I call on you, therefore, become followers of me;

¹⁷ because of this I sent to you Timotheus, who is my child, beloved and faithful in the LORD, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, according as everywhere in every assembly I teach.

¹⁸ And some were puffed up as if I were not coming to you;

¹⁹ but I will come quickly to you, if the LORD may will, and I will not know the word of those puffed up, but the power;

²⁰ for not in word is the Kingdom of God, but in power.

²¹ What do you wish? Will I come to you with a rod, or in love, also with a spirit of meekness?

¹ Whoredom is actually heard of among you, and such whoredom as is not even named among the nations—as that one has the wife of the father!

² And you are having been puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he may be removed out of the midst of you who did this work,

³ for I indeed, as being absent as to the body, and present as to the spirit, have already judged, as being present, him who so worked this thing:

⁴ in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ—you being gathered together, also my spirit—with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁵ to deliver up such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus.

⁶ Your glorying [is] not good; have you not known that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

⁷ Cleanse out, therefore, the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, according as you are unleavened, for our Passover was sacrificed for us also—Christ,

⁸ so that we may keep the celebration, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened [bread] of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I wrote to you in the letter, not to keep company with whoremongers—

¹⁰ and certainly not with the whoremongers of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, seeing you ought then to go forth out of the world—

¹¹ and now, I wrote to you not to keep company with [him], if anyone, being named a brother, may be a whoremonger, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—do not even eat together with such a one;

¹² for what have I also to judge those outside? Do you not judge those within?

¹³ And judge those without God; and put away the evil from among yourselves.

¹ Dare anyone of you, having a matter with the other, go to be judged before the unrighteous, and not before the holy ones?

² Have you not known that the holy ones will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smaller judgments?

³ Have you not known that we will judge messengers? Why not then the things of life?

⁴ Of the things of life, indeed, then, if you may have judgment, those despised in the Assembly—these you cause to sit;

⁵ I speak to your shame: so there is not among you one wise man, not even one, who will be able to discern in the midst of his brothers!

⁶ But brother with brother goes to be judged, and this before unbelievers!

⁷ Already, indeed, then, there is altogether a fault among you, that you have judgments with one another; why do you not rather suffer injustice? Why not be defrauded?

⁸ But you do injustice, and you defraud, and these—brothers!

¹⁰ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of God.

¹¹ And certain of you were these! But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were declared righteous, in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.

¹² All things are lawful to me, but all things are not profitable; all things are lawful to me, but I will not be under authority by any;

¹³ the meats [are] for the belly, and the belly for the meats. And God will make useless both this and these; and the body [is] not for whoredom, but for the LORD, and the LORD for the body;

¹⁴ and God raised both the LORD, and will raise us up through His power.

¹⁵ Have you not known that your bodies are members of Christ? Having taken, then, the members of the Christ, will I make [them] members of a prostitute? Let it not be!

¹⁶ Have you not known that he who is joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, "The two will be into one flesh."

¹⁷ And he who is joined to the LORD is one spirit;

¹⁸ flee the whoredom; every sin—whatever a man may commit—is outside the body, and he who is committing whoredom sins against his own body.

¹⁹ Have you not known that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, which you have from God? And you are not your own,

²⁰ for you were bought with a price; glorify, then, God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

¹ And concerning the things of which you wrote to me: [it is] good for a man not to touch a woman,

² and because of the whoredom let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her proper husband;

³ to the wife let the husband render the due benevolence, and in like manner also the wife to the husband;

⁴ the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband; and in like manner also, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife.

⁵ Do not defraud one another, except by consent for a time, that you may be free for fasting and prayer, and again may come together, that Satan may not tempt you because of your self-indulgence;

⁶ and this I say by way of concurrence—not of command,

⁷ for I wish all men to be even as I myself [am]; but each has his own gift of God, one indeed thus and one thus.

⁸ And I say to the unmarried and to the widows: it is good for them if they may remain even as I [am];

⁹ and if they do not have continence—let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn;

¹⁰ and to the married I announce—not I, but the LORD—do not let a wife separate from a husband:

¹¹ but, and if she may separate, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband, and do not let a husband send a wife away.

¹² And to the rest I speak—not the LORD—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, do not let him send her away;

¹³ and a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, do not let her send him away;

¹⁴ for the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the husband; otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

¹⁵ And if the unbelieving separates himself—let him separate himself: the brother or the sister is not under servitude in such [cases], and in peace has God called us;

¹⁶ for what, have you known, O wife, whether you will save the husband? Or what, have you known, O husband, whether you will save the wife?

¹⁷ If not, as God distributed to each, as the LORD has called each—so let him walk; and thus I direct in all the assemblies:

¹⁸ being circumcised—was anyone called? Do not let him become uncircumcised; in uncircumcision was anyone called? Do not let him be circumcised;

¹⁹ the circumcision is nothing, and the uncircumcision is nothing—but a keeping of the commands of God.

²⁰ Each in the calling in which he was called—in this let him remain;

²¹ a servant—were you called? Do not be anxious; but if also you are able to become free—use [it] rather;

²² for he who [is] in the LORD—having been called a servant—is the LORD's freedman: in like manner also he the freeman, having been called, is servant of Christ:

²³ you were bought with a price, do not become servants of men;

²⁴ each, in that in which he was called, brothers, in this let him remain with God.

²⁵ And concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the LORD; and I give judgment as having obtained kindness from the LORD to be faithful.

²⁶ I suppose, therefore, this to be good because of the present necessity, that [it is] good for a man that the matter be thus:

²⁷ Have you been bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed; have you been loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

²⁸ But, and if you may marry, you did not sin; and if the virgin may marry, she did not sin; and such will have tribulation in the flesh: and I spare you.

²⁹ And this I say, brothers, the time from now on is having been shortened—that both those having wives may be as not having;

³⁰ and those weeping, as not weeping; and those rejoicing, as not rejoicing; and those buying, as not possessing;

³¹ and those using this world, as not using [it] up; for the [present] form of this world is passing away.

³² And I wish you to be without anxiety; the unmarried is anxious for the things of the LORD, how he will please the LORD;

³³ and the married is anxious for the things of the world, how he will please the wife.

³⁴ The wife and the virgin have been distinguished: the unmarried is anxious for the things of the LORD, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit, and the married is anxious for the things of the world, how she will please the husband.

³⁵ And this I say for your own profit: not that I may cast a noose on you, but for the seemliness and devotedness to the LORD, undistractedly, ³⁶ and if anyone thinks [it] to be unseemly to his virgin, if she may be beyond the bloom of age, and it ought to be so, what he wills let him do; he does not sin—let him marry.

³⁷ And he does well who has stood steadfast in the heart—not having necessity—and has authority over his own will, and he has determined this in his heart—to keep his own virgin;

³⁸ so that both he who is giving in marriage does well, and he who is not giving in marriage does better.

³⁹ A wife has been bound by law [for] as long [a] time as her husband may live, and if her husband may sleep, she is free to be married to whom she will—only in the LORD;

⁴⁰ and she is happier if she may so remain—according to my judgment; and I think I also have the Spirit of God.

¹ And concerning the things sacrificed to idols, we have known that we all have knowledge: knowledge puffs up, but love builds up;

² and if anyone thinks to know anything, he has not yet known anything according as it is required to know;

³ and if anyone loves God, this one has been known by Him.

⁴ Concerning the eating then of the things sacrificed to idols, we have known that an idol [is] nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one;

⁵ for even if there are those called gods, whether in Heaven, whether on earth—as there are many gods and many lords—

⁶ yet to us [is] one God, the Father, of whom [are] all things, and we to Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom [are] all things, and we through Him;

⁷ but not in all men [is] the knowledge, and certain with conscience of the idol, until now, eat [it] as a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

⁸ But food does not commend us to God, for neither if we may eat are we in advance; nor if we may not eat, are we behind;

⁹ but see, lest this privilege of yours may become a stumbling-block to the weak,

¹⁰ for if anyone may see you that have knowledge in an idol's temple reclining to eat, will not his conscience—he being weak—be emboldened to eat the things sacrificed to idols?

¹¹ For the [one] being weak—the brother for whom Christ died—will perish by your knowledge.

¹² And thus sinning in regard to the brothers, and striking their weak conscience—you sin in regard to Christ;

¹³ for this reason, if food causes my brother to stumble, I may not eat flesh—throughout the age—that I may not cause my brother to stumble.

¹ Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the LORD?

² If I am not an apostle to others—yet doubtless I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the LORD.

³ My defense to those who examine me in this:

⁴ do we not have authority to eat and to drink?

⁵ Do we not have authority to lead about a sister—a wife—as also the other apostles, and the brothers of the LORD, and Cephas?

⁶ Or do only Barnabas and I have no authority not to work?

⁷ Who serves as a soldier at his own expense at any time? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock?

⁸ Do I speak these things according to man? Or does the Law not also say these things?

⁹ For in the Law of Moses it has been written: “you will not muzzle an ox treading out grain”; does God care for the oxen?

¹⁰ Or by all means does He say [it] because of us? Yes, because of us it was written, because in hope ought the plower to plow, and he who is treading [ought] of his hope to partake in hope.

¹¹ If we sowed to you the spiritual things—[is it] great if we reap your fleshly things?

¹² If others partake of the authority over you—[do] we not more? But we did not use this authority, but we bear all things, that we may give no hindrance to the good news of the Christ.

¹⁴ So also the LORD directed to those proclaiming the good news to live of the good news.

¹⁵ And I have used none of these things; neither did I write these things that it may be so done in my case, for [it is] good for me rather to die, than that anyone may make my glorying void;

¹⁶ for if I may proclaim good news, it is no glorying for me, for necessity is laid on me, and woe is to me if I may not proclaim good news;

¹⁷ for if I do this willingly, I have a reward; and if unwillingly—I have been entrusted with a stewardship!

¹⁸ What, then, is my reward? That proclaiming good news, without charge I will make the good news of the Christ, not to abuse my authority in the good news;

¹⁹ for being free from all men, I made myself servant to all men, that the more I might gain;

²⁰ and to the Jews I became like a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under law as under law, that I might gain those under law;

²¹ to those without law, as without law—(not being without law to God, but within law to Christ)—that I might gain those without law;

²² to the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; to all men I have become all things, that by all means I may save some.

²³ And I do this because of the good news, that I may become a fellow-partaker of it;

²⁴ have you not known that those running in a race—all indeed run, but one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain;

²⁵ and everyone who is striving is temperate in all things; these, indeed, then, that they may receive a corruptible garland, but we an incorruptible;

²⁶ I, therefore, thus run, not as uncertainly, thus I fight, as not beating air;

²⁷ but I bruise my body, and bring [it] into servitude, lest by any means, having preached to others—I myself may become disapproved.

¹ And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

² and all were immersed into Moses in the cloud, and in the sea;

³ and all ate the same spiritual food,

⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking of a spiritual rock following them, and the rock was the Christ;

⁵ but in the most of them God was not well pleased, for they were strewn in the wilderness,

⁶ and those things became types of us, for our not passionately desiring evil things, as also these desired.

⁷ Neither become idolaters, as certain of them, as it has been written: “The people sat down to eat and to drink, and stood up to play”;

⁸ neither may we commit whoredom, as certain of them committed whoredom, and there fell in one day twenty-three thousand;

⁹ neither may we tempt the Christ, as also certain of them tempted, and perished by the serpents;

¹⁰ neither murmur, as also some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer.

¹¹ And all these things happened to those persons as types, and they were written for our admonition, to whom the end of the ages came,

¹² so that he who is thinking to stand—let him observe, lest he fall.

¹³ No temptation has taken you—except that of man; and God is faithful, who will not permit you to be tempted above what you are able, but He will make, with the temptation, also the outlet, for your being able to bear [it].

¹⁴ For this reason, my beloved, flee from the idolatry;

¹⁵ as to wise men I speak—judge what I say.

¹⁶ The cup of the blessing that we bless—is it not the fellowship of the blood of the Christ? The bread that we break—is it not the fellowship of the body of the Christ?

¹⁷ Because one bread, one body, are we the many—for we all partake of the one bread.

¹⁸ See Israel according to the flesh! Are those not eating the sacrifices in the fellowship of the altar?

¹⁹ What do I say then? That an idol is anything? Or that a sacrifice offered to an idol is anything?

²⁰ [No,] but that the things that the nations sacrifice—they sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not wish you to come into the fellowship of the demons.

²¹ You are not able to drink the cup of the LORD and the cup of demons; you are not able to partake of the table of the LORD and of the table of demons;

²² do we arouse the LORD to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

²³ All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful to me, but not all things build up;

²⁴ let no one seek his own—but each another's.

²⁵ Eat whatever is sold in the meat-market, not inquiring, because of the conscience,

²⁶ for the earth and its fullness [are] the LORD's;

²⁷ and if anyone of the unbelieving calls you, and you wish to go, eat all that is set before you, inquiring nothing, because of the conscience;

²⁸ and if anyone may say to you, "This is a thing sacrificed to an idol," do not eat, because of that one who showed [it], and of the conscience, for the LORD's [is] the earth and its fullness:

²⁹ and conscience, I say, not of yourself, but of the other, for why [is it] that my liberty is judged by another's conscience?

³⁰ And if I partake thankfully, why am I spoken of [as] evil, for that for which I give thanks?

³¹ Whether, then, you eat, or drink, or do anything, do all to the glory of God;

³² become offenseless, both to Jews and Greeks, and to the Assembly of God;

³³ as I also please all in all things, not seeking my own profit, but that of many—that they may be saved.

¹ Become followers of me, as I also [am] of Christ.

² And I praise you, brothers, that in all things you remember me, and according as I delivered to you, you keep the deliverances,

³ and I wish you to know that the Christ is the head of every man, and the head of a woman is the husband, and the head of Christ is God.

⁴ Every man praying or prophesying, having the head covered, dishonors his head,

⁵ and every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered, dishonors her own head, for it is one and the same thing with her being shaven,

⁶ for if a woman is not covered—then let her be shorn, and if [it is] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven—let her be covered;

⁷ for a man, indeed, ought not to cover the head, being the image and glory of God, and a woman is the glory of a man,

⁸ for a man is not of a woman, but a woman [is] of a man,

⁹ for also was a man not created because of the woman, but a woman because of the man;

¹⁰ because of this the woman ought to have [a token of] authority on the head, because of the messengers;

¹¹ but neither [is] a man apart from a woman, nor a woman apart from a man, in the LORD,

¹² for as the woman [is] of the man, so also the man [is] through the woman, and all the things [are] of God.

¹³ Judge in your own selves: is it seemly for a woman to pray to God uncovered?

¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you, that if a man indeed has long hair, it is a dishonor to him?

¹⁵ And a woman, if she has long hair, it is a glory to her, because the hair has been given to her instead of a covering;

¹⁶ and if anyone thinks to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the assemblies of God.

¹⁷ And declaring this, I give no praise, because you do not come together for the better, but for the worse;

¹⁸ for first, indeed, coming together in an assembly, I hear of divisions being among you, and I partly believe [it],

¹⁹ for it is also necessary for sects to be among you, that those approved may become visible among you;

²⁰ you, then, coming together at the same place—it is not to eat the LORD's Dinner;

²¹ for each takes his own dinner before in the eating, and one is hungry, and another is drunk;

²² why, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the Assembly of God, and shame those not having? What may I say to you? Will I praise you in this? I do not praise!

²³ For I received from the LORD that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was delivered up, took bread,

²⁴ and having given thanks, He broke, and said, "Take, eat, this is My body that is being broken for you; do this—to the remembrance of Me."

²⁵ In like manner also the cup after the supping, saying, "This cup is the New Covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you may drink [it]—to the remembrance of Me";

²⁶ for as often as you may eat this bread, and may drink this cup, you show forth the death of the LORD—until He may come;

²⁷ so that whoever may eat this bread or may drink the cup of the LORD unworthily, he will be guilty of the body and blood of the LORD:

²⁸ and let a man be proving himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and let him drink of the cup;

²⁹ for he who is eating and drinking unworthily, he eats and drinks judgment to himself—not discerning the body of the LORD.

³⁰ Because of this many [are] weak and sickly among you, and many sleep;

³¹ for if we were discerning ourselves, we would not be being judged,

³² and being judged by the LORD, we are disciplined, that we may not be condemned with the world;

³³ so then, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another;

³⁴ and if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, that you may not come together to judgment; and the rest, whenever I may come, I will arrange.

¹ And concerning the spiritual things, brothers, I do not wish you to be ignorant;

² you have known that you were nations, being carried away as you were led to the mute idols;

³ for this reason, I give you to understand that no one, speaking in the Spirit of God, says Jesus [is] accursed, and no one is able to say Jesus [is] LORD, except in the Holy Spirit.

⁴ And there are diversities of gifts, and the same Spirit;

⁵ and there are diversities of ministries, and the same Lord;

⁶ and there are diversities of workings, and it is the same God—who is working all in all.

7 And to each has been given the manifestation of the Spirit for profit;
8 for to one through the Spirit has been given a word of wisdom, and to another a word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;

9 and to another faith in the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healings in the same Spirit;

10 and to another in-workings of mighty deeds; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; and to another [various] kinds of tongues; and to another interpretation of tongues:

11 and the one and the same Spirit works all these, dividing to each individually as He intends.

12 For even as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the one body, being many, are one body, so also [is] the Christ,

13 for also in one Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether servants or freemen, and all were made to drink one Spirit, 14 for also the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot may say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it not, because of this, not of the body?

16 And if the ear may say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it not, because of this, not of the body?

17 If the whole body [were] an eye, where the hearing? If the whole hearing, where the smelling?

18 And now, God set the members, each one of them in the body, according as He willed, 19 and if all were one member, where [is] the body?

20 And now, indeed, [are] many members, but one body;

21 and an eye is not able to say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 But much more the members of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary,

23 and those that we think to be less honorable of the body, around these we put more abundant honor, and our unseemly things have more abundant seemliness,

24 and our seemly things have no need; but God tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to the lacking part,

25 that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same anxiety for one another,

26 and whether one member suffers, all the members suffer with [it], or one member is glorified, all the members rejoice with [it];

27 and you are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And some, indeed, God set in the Assembly: first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, afterward powers, afterward gifts of healings, helpings, governings, various kinds of tongues.

29 [Are] all apostles? [Are] all prophets? [Are] all teachers? [Are] all powers?

30 [Do] all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 And earnestly desire the better gifts; and yet I show to you a far [more] excelling way:

13

¹ If I speak with the tongues of men and of messengers, and do not have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal;

² and if I have prophecy, and know all the secrets, and all the knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and do not have love, I am nothing;

³ and if I give away all my goods to feed others, and if I give up my body that I may be burned, and do not have love, I am profited nothing.

⁴ Love is long-suffering, it is kind, love does not envy, love does not vaunt itself, is not puffed up,

⁵ does not act unseemly, does not seek its own things, is not provoked, does not impute evil,

⁶ [does] not rejoice over unrighteousness, and rejoices with the truth;

⁷ it bears all things, it believes all, it hopes all, it endures all.

⁸ Love never fails; and whether [there be] prophecies, they will become useless; whether tongues, they will cease; whether knowledge, it will become useless;

⁹ for we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

¹⁰ and when that which is perfect may come, then that which [is] in part will become useless.

¹¹ When I was a child, I was speaking as a child, I was thinking as a child, I was reasoning as a child, and when I have become a man, I have made useless the things of the child;

¹² for we now see obscurely through a mirror, and then face to face; now I know in part, and then I will fully know, as I was also known;

¹³ and now there remains faith, hope, love—these three; and the greatest of these [is] love.

¹ Pursue love, and earnestly seek the spiritual things, and rather that you may prophesy,

² for he who is speaking in an [unknown] tongue—he does not speak to men, but to God, for no one listens, and he speaks secrets in spirit;

³ and he who is prophesying to men speaks edification, and exhortation, and comfort;

⁴ he who is speaking in an [unknown] tongue, edifies himself, and he who is prophesying, edifies the Assembly;

⁵ and I wish you all to speak with tongues, and more that you may prophesy, for greater is he who is prophesying than he who is speaking with tongues, except one may interpret, that the Assembly may receive edification.

⁶ And now, brothers, if I may come to you speaking tongues, what will I profit you, except I will speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophesying, or in teaching?

⁷ Yet the things without life giving sound—whether pipe or harp—if they may not give a difference in the sounds, how will be known that which is piped or that which is harped?

⁸ For also, if a trumpet may give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

⁹ So also you, if you may not give speech easily understood through the tongue—how will that which is spoken be known? For you will be speaking to air.

¹⁰ There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is unmeaning.

¹¹ If, then, I do not know the power of the voice, I will be a foreigner to him who is speaking, and he who is speaking is a foreigner to me;

¹² so you also, since you are earnestly desirous of spiritual gifts, seek for the building up of the Assembly that you may abound;

¹³ for this reason he who is speaking in an [unknown] tongue—let him pray that he may interpret;

¹⁴ for if I pray in an [unknown] tongue, my spirit prays, and my understanding is unfruitful.

¹⁵ What then is it? I will pray [in] the spirit, and I will also pray [with] understanding; I will sing psalms [in] the spirit, and I will also sing psalms [with] understanding;

¹⁶ since, if you may bless in spirit, he who is filling the place of the commoner, how will he say the Amen at your giving of thanks, since he has not known what you say?

¹⁷ For you, indeed, give thanks well, but the other is not built up!

¹⁸ I give thanks to my God—more than you all with tongues speaking—

¹⁹ but I wish to speak five words in an assembly through my understanding, that I also may instruct others, rather than myriads of words in an [unknown] tongue.

²⁰ Brothers, do not become children in the understanding, but in the evil be children, and in the understanding become perfect;

²¹ in the Law it has been written, that, “With other tongues and with other lips I will speak to this people, and even so they will not hear Me, says the LORD”;

²² so that the tongues are for a sign, not to the believing, but to the unbelieving; and the prophecy [is] not for the unbelieving, but for the believing.

²³ If, therefore, the whole assembly may come together to the same place, and all may speak with tongues, and there may come in commoners or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad?

²⁴ And if all may prophesy, and anyone may come in, an unbeliever or commoner, he is convicted by all, he is discerned by all,

²⁵ and so the secrets of his heart become visible, and so having fallen on [his] face, he will worship God, declaring that God really is among you.

²⁶ What then is it, brothers? Whenever you may come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be for building up;

²⁷ if anyone speaks an [unknown] tongue, by two, or at the most, by three, and in turn, and let one interpret;

²⁸ and if there may be no interpreter, let him be silent in an assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God.

²⁹ And prophets—let two or three speak, and let the others discern,

³⁰ and if [anything] may be revealed to another [who is] sitting, let the first be silent;

³¹ for you are able, one by one, all to prophesy, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted,

³² and the spiritual gift of prophets are subject to prophets,

³³ for God is not [a God] of tumult, but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the holy ones.

³⁴ Your women, let them be silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted to them to speak, but to be subject, as the Law also says;

³⁵ and if they wish to learn anything, let them question their own husbands at home, for it is a shame to women to speak in an assembly.

³⁶ Did the word of God come forth from you? Or did it come to you alone?

³⁷ If anyone thinks to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge the things that I write to you—that they are commands of the LORD;

³⁸ and if anyone is ignorant—let him be ignorant;

³⁹ so that, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues;

⁴⁰ let all things be done decently and in order.

¹ And I make known to you, brothers, the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you also received, in which you also have stood,

² through which you are also being saved, if you hold fast [to] the word—what I proclaimed as good news to you—unless you believed in vain.

³ For I delivered to you as most important what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Writings,

⁴ and that He was buried, and that He has risen on the third day according to the Writings,

⁵ and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve,

⁶ afterward He appeared to above five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, and some also fell asleep;

⁷ afterward He appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

⁸ And last of all—as to the untimely birth—He also appeared to me,

⁹ for I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Assembly of God,

¹⁰ and by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace that [is] toward me did not come in vain, but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God that [is] with me;

¹¹ whether, then, I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

¹² And if Christ is preached, that He has risen out of the dead, how [do] certain among you say that there is no resurrection of [the] dead?

¹³ And if there is no resurrection of [the] dead, neither has Christ risen;

¹⁴ and if Christ has not risen, then our preaching [is] void, and your faith [is] also void,

¹⁵ and we are also found [to be] false witnesses of God, because we testified of God that He raised up the Christ, whom He did not raise if then dead persons do not rise;

¹⁶ for if dead persons do not rise, neither has Christ risen,

¹⁷ and if Christ has not risen, your faith is vain, you are yet in your sins;

¹⁸ then, also, those having fallen asleep in Christ perished;

19 if we only have hope in Christ in this life, we are to be most pitied of all men.

20 And now, Christ has risen out of the dead—He became the first-fruits of those sleeping,

21 for since through man [is] death, also through Man [is] a resurrection of the dead,

22 for even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all will be made alive,

23 and each in his proper order: Christ, a first-fruit, afterward those who are the Christ's in His coming,

24 then—the end, when He may deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father, when He may have made all rule useless, and all authority and power.

25 For it is necessary for Him to reign until He may have put all the enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy is done away with—death.

27 For He put all things under His feet, and when one may say that all things have been subjected, [it is] evident that He is excepted who subjected all things to Him,

28 and when all things may be subjected to Him, then also the Son Himself will be subject to Him, who subjected to Him all things, that God may be the all in all.

29 Seeing what will they do who are immersed for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why are they also immersed for the dead?

30 Why do we also stand in peril every hour?

31 I die every day, by the glorying of you that I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

32 If I fought with wild beasts in Ephesus after the manner of a man, what [is] the advantage to me if the dead do not rise? Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!

33 Do not be led astray; evil communications corrupt good manners;

34 wake up, as is right, and do not sin; for some have an ignorance of God; I say [it] to you for shame.

35 But someone will say, "How do the dead rise?"

36 Unwise! You—what you sow is not quickened except it may die;

37 and that which you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, it may be of wheat, or of someone of the others,

38 and God gives a body to it according as He willed, and its proper body to each of the seeds.

39 All flesh [is] not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds;

40 and [there are] heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; but one [is] the glory of the heavenly, and another that of the earthly;

41 one glory of sun, and another glory of moon, and another glory of stars, for star differs from star in glory.

42 So also [is] the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption;

43 it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body; there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body;

⁴⁵ so also it has been written: “The first man Adam became a living creature,” the last Adam [is] for a life-giving spirit, ⁴⁶ but that which is spiritual [is] not first, but that which [was] natural, afterward that which [is] spiritual.

⁴⁷ The first man [is] out of the earth—earthly; the second Man [is] the LORD out of Heaven;

⁴⁸ as [is] the earthly, such [are] also the earthly; and as [is] the heavenly, such [are] also the heavenly;

⁴⁹ and according as we bore the image of the earthly, we will also bear the image of the heavenly.

⁵⁰ And this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the Kingdom of God, nor does the corruption inherit the incorruption.

⁵¹ Behold, I tell you a secret: we indeed will not all sleep, but we will all be changed;

⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, in the last trumpet, for it will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed;

⁵³ for it is necessary for this corruptible to put on incorruption, and this mortal to put on immortality;

⁵⁴ and when this corruptible may have put on incorruption, and this mortal may have put on immortality, then will be brought to pass the word that has been written: “Death was swallowed up—to victory;

⁵⁵ Where, O Death, your sting? Where, O Death [[or Hades]], your victory?”

⁵⁶ And the sting of death [is] sin, and the power of sin the Law;

⁵⁷ and to God—thanks, to Him who is giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ;

⁵⁸ so that, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, unmovable, abounding in the work of the LORD at all times, knowing that your labor in the LORD is not vain.

¹ And concerning the collection that [is] for the holy ones, as I directed to the assemblies of Galatia, so also you—do;

² on every first [day] of the week, let each one of you lay by him, treasuring up whatever he may have prospered, that when I may come then collections may not be made;

³ and whenever I may come, whomsoever you may approve, through letters, these I will send to carry your favor to Jerusalem;

⁴ and if it be worthy for me also to go, with me they will go.

⁵ And I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia—for I pass through Macedonia—

⁶ and with you, it may be, I will abide, or even winter, that you may send me forward wherever I go,

⁷ for I do not wish to see you now in the passing, but I hope to remain a certain time with you, if the LORD may permit;

⁸ and I will remain in Ephesus until the Pentecost,

⁹ for a door has been opened to me—great and effectual—and with-standers [are] many.

¹⁰ And if Timotheus may come, see that he may become without fear with you, for he works the work of the LORD, even as I,

¹¹ no one, then, may despise him; and send him forward in peace, that he may come to me, for I expect him with the brothers;

¹² and concerning Apollos our brother, I begged him much that he may come to you with the brothers, and it was not at all [his] will that he may come now, and he will come when he may find convenient.

¹³ Watch, stand in the faith; be men, be strong;

¹⁴ let all your things be done in love.

¹⁵ And I beg you, brothers, you have known the household of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruit of Achaia, and they set themselves to the ministry to the holy ones—

¹⁶ that you also be subject to such, and to everyone who is working with [us] and laboring;

¹⁷ and I rejoice over the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because these filled up the lack of you;

¹⁸ for they refreshed my spirit and yours; acknowledge, therefore, those who [are] such.

¹⁹ The assemblies of Asia greet you; Aquilas and Priscilla greet you much in the LORD, with the assembly in their house;

²⁰ all the brothers greet you; greet one another in a holy kiss.

²¹ The salutation of [me], Paul, with my hand;

²² if anyone does not cherish the Lord Jesus Christ—let him be accursed! The LORD has come!

²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you;

²⁴ my love [is] with you all in Christ Jesus! Amen.

Second Corinthians

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and Timotheus the brother, to the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in all Achaia:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

³ Blessed [is] God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort,

⁴ who is comforting us in all our tribulation, for our being able to comfort those in any tribulation through the comfort with which we are comforted ourselves by God;

⁵ because, as the sufferings of the Christ abound to us, so through the Christ our comfort also abounds;

⁶ and whether we be in tribulation, [it is] for your comfort and salvation, that is worked in the enduring of the same sufferings that we also suffer; whether we are comforted, [it is] for your comfort and salvation;

⁷ and our hope [is] steadfast for you, knowing that even as you are partakers of the sufferings—so also of the comfort.

⁸ For we do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, of our tribulation that happened to us in Asia, that we were exceedingly burdened above [our] power, so that we even despaired of life;

⁹ but we ourselves have had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we may not be trusting on ourselves, but on God, who is raising the dead,

¹⁰ who delivered us out of so great a death, and delivers, in whom we have hoped that even yet He will deliver;

¹¹ you also working together for us by your supplication, that the gift through many persons to us, through many, may be thankfully acknowledged for us.

¹² For our glorying is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you;

¹³ for no other things do we write to you, but what you either read or also acknowledge, and I hope that you will also acknowledge to the end,

¹⁴ according as you also acknowledged us in part, that we are your glory, even as also you [are] ours, in the Day of the Lord Jesus;

¹⁵ and in this confidence I was intending to come to you before, that you might have a second favor,

¹⁶ and to pass to Macedonia through you, and to come to you again from Macedonia, and to be sent forward by you to Judea.

¹⁷ This, therefore, intending, did I then use the lightness; or the things that I counsel, [did] I counsel according to the flesh, that it may be with me Yes, yes, and No, no?

¹⁸ And God [is] faithful, that our word to you did not become Yes and No,

¹⁹ for the Son of God, Jesus Christ, having been preached through us among you—through me and Silvanus and Timotheus—did not become Yes and No, but in Him it has become Yes;

²⁰ for as many as [are] promises of God, in Him [are] the Yes, and in Him the Amen, for glory to God through us;

²¹ and He who is confirming you with us into Christ, and anointed us, [is] God,

²² who also sealed us, and gave the deposit of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³ And I call on God for a witness on my soul, that sparing you, I did not come to Corinth yet;

²⁴ not that we are lords over your faith, but we are workers together with your joy, for by faith you stand.

¹ And I decided this to myself, not to come again to you in sorrow,

² for if I make you sorry, then who is he who is making me glad, except he who is made sorry by me?

³ And I wrote to you this same thing, that having come, I may not have sorrow from them of whom it was necessary [for] me to have joy, having confidence in you all, that my joy is of you all,

⁴ for out of much tribulation and pressure of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not that you might be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have more abundantly toward you.

⁵ And if anyone has caused sorrow, he has not caused sorrow to me, but in part, that I may not burden you all;

⁶ sufficient to such a one is this punishment, that [is] by the greater part,

⁷ so that, on the contrary, [it is] rather for you to forgive and to comfort, lest by over abundant sorrow such a one may be swallowed up;

⁸ for this reason, I call on you to confirm love to him,

⁹ for this also I wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in regard to all things.

¹⁰ And to whom you forgive anything—I also; for I also, if I have forgiven anything, to whom I have forgiven [it], because of you—in the person of Christ—[I forgive it]

¹¹ that we may not be over-reached by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹² And having come to Troas for the good news of the Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the LORD,

¹³ I have not had rest to my spirit, on my not finding my brother Titus, but having taken leave of them, I went forth to Macedonia;

¹⁴ and to God [is] thanks, who at all times is leading us in triumph in the Christ, and the fragrance of His knowledge He is revealing through us in every place;

¹⁵ we are a refreshing fragrance to God because of Christ, in those being saved, and in those being lost;

¹⁶ to one, indeed, a fragrance of death to death, and to the other, a fragrance of life to life; and who is sufficient for these things?

¹⁷ For we are not as the many, adulterating the word of God, but as of sincerity—but as of God; in the presence of God, in Christ we speak.

¹ Do we begin again to recommend ourselves, except we need, as some, letters of recommendation to you, or from you?

² You are our letter, having been written in our hearts, known and read by all men,

³ revealed that you are a letter of Christ ministered by us, not written with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in the tablets of stone, but in fleshy tablets of the heart,

⁴ and such trust we have through the Christ toward God,

⁵ not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything, as of ourselves, but our sufficiency [is] of God,

⁶ who also made us sufficient [to be] servants of the New Covenant, not of letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, and the Spirit makes alive.

⁷ And if the ministry of death, in letters, engraved in stones, came in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look steadfastly into the face of Moses, because of the glory of his face—which was being made useless,

⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more in glory?

⁹ For if the ministry of the condemnation [is] glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory;

¹⁰ for also even that which has been glorious, has not been glorious—in this respect, because of the superior glory;

¹¹ for if that which is being made useless [is] through glory, much more that which is remaining [is] in glory.

¹² Having, then, such hope, we use much freedom of speech,

¹³ and [are] not as Moses, who was putting a veil on his own face, for the sons of Israel not to look steadfastly into the end of that which is being made useless,

¹⁴ but their minds were hardened, for to this day the same veil at the reading of the Old Covenant remains unwithdrawn—which in Christ is being made useless—

¹⁵ but until today, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart,

¹⁶ and whenever they may turn to the LORD, the veil is taken away.

¹⁷ And the LORD is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the LORD [is], there [is] liberty;

¹⁸ and we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the LORD in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the LORD.

¹ Because of this, having this ministry, according as we received kindness, we do not faint,

² but renounced for ourselves the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor deceitfully using the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth recommending ourselves to every conscience of men, before God;

³ and if our good news is also veiled, it is veiled in those perishing,

⁵ for we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus—LORD, and [we are] ourselves your servants because of Jesus;

⁶ because [it is] God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who shined in our hearts, for the enlightening of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷ And we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God, and not of us,

⁸ being in tribulation in every [way], but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;

⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

¹⁰ at all times carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body,

¹¹ for we who are living are always delivered up to death because of Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our dying flesh,

¹² so that, death indeed works in us, and life in you.

¹³ And having the same spirit of faith, according to that which has been written: "I believed, therefore I spoke"; we also believe, therefore we also speak;

¹⁴ knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus, will also raise us up through Jesus, and will present [us] with you,

¹⁵ for all things [are] because of you, that the grace having been multiplied, because of the thanksgiving of the more, may abound to the glory of God;

¹⁶ for this reason, we do not faint, but if our outward man also decays, yet the inward is renewed day by day;

¹⁷ for the momentary light matter of our tribulation works out for us more and more an exceedingly continuous weight of glory—

¹⁸ we [are] not looking to the things seen, but to the things not seen; for the things seen [are] temporary, but the things not seen [are] continuous.

¹ For we have known that if the tent of our earthly house may be thrown down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands—perpetual—in the heavens,

² for also in this we groan, earnestly desiring to clothe ourselves with our dwelling that is from Heaven,

³ if so be that, having clothed ourselves, we will not be found naked,

⁴ for we also who are in the tent groan, being burdened, seeing we do not wish to unclothe ourselves, but to clothe ourselves, that the mortal may be swallowed up of life.

⁵ And He who worked us to this very thing [is] God, who also gave to us the deposit of the Spirit;

⁶ having courage, then, at all times, and knowing that being at home in the body, we are away from home from the LORD—

⁷ for we walk through faith, not through sight—

⁸ we have courage, and are well pleased, rather, to be away from the home of the body, and to be at home with the LORD.

⁹ We are also ambitious for this reason, whether at home or away from home, to be well pleasing to Him,

¹⁰ for it is necessary for all of us to have appeared before the judgment seat of the Christ, that each one may receive the things [done] through the body, in reference to the things that he did, whether good or evil;

¹¹ having known, therefore, the fear of the LORD, we persuade men, and we are revealed to God, and I also hope to have been revealed in your consciences;

¹² for we do not again recommend ourselves to you, but we are giving occasion to you of glorifying in our behalf, that you may have [something] in reference to those glorifying in face and not in heart;

¹³ for whether we were beside ourselves, [it was] to God; whether we be of sound mind, [it is] to you,

¹⁴ for the love of the Christ constrains us, having judged thus: that if one died for all, then the whole died,

¹⁵ and He died for all, that those living may no longer live to themselves, but to Him who died for them, and was raised again.

¹⁶ So that we, from now on, have known no one according to the flesh, and even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him [thus] no longer;

¹⁷ so that if anyone [is] in Christ—[he is] a new creature; the old things passed away, behold, all things have become new.

¹⁸ And all things [are] of God, who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of the reconciliation,

¹⁹ how that God was in Christ—reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses; and having put in us the word of the reconciliation,

²⁰ in behalf of Christ, then, we are ambassadors, as if God were calling through us, we implore, in behalf of Christ, “Be reconciled to God”;

²¹ He made Him having not known sin [to be] sin in our behalf, that we may become the righteousness of God in Him.

¹ And also working together we call on [you] that you do not receive the grace of God in vain—

² for He says, “In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you, behold, now [is] a well-accepted time; behold, now, a day of salvation.”

³ In nothing giving any cause of offense, that the ministry may not be blamed,

⁴ but in everything recommending ourselves as God’s servants; in much patience, in tribulations, in necessities, in distresses,

⁵ in stripes, in imprisonments, in insurrections, in labors, in watchings, in fastings,

⁶ in pureness, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unhypocritical love,

⁷ in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the armor of righteousness, on the right and on the left,

⁸ through glory and dishonor, through evil report and good report, as leading astray, and true;

⁹ as unknown, and recognized; as dying, and behold, we live; as disciplined, and not put to death;

¹⁰ as sorrowful, and always rejoicing; as poor, and making many rich; as having nothing, and possessing all things.

¹¹ Our mouth has been open to you, O Corinthians, our heart has been enlarged!

¹² You are not restricted in us, and you are restricted in your [own] yearnings,

¹³ and [as] a repayment of the same kind (as to children I say [it]), be enlarged—also you!

¹⁴ Do not become yoked with others—unbelievers, for what partaking [is there] to righteousness and lawlessness?

¹⁵ And what fellowship to light with darkness? And what concord to Christ with Belial? Or what part to a believer with an unbeliever?

¹⁶ And what agreement to the temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God, according as God said, “I will dwell in them, and will walk among [them], and I will be their God, and they will be My people,

¹⁷ for this reason, come forth out of the midst of them, and be separated, says the LORD, and do not touch an unclean thing, and I will receive you,

¹⁸ and I will be for a Father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to Me, says the LORD Almighty.”

¹ Having, then, these promises, beloved, may we cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting sanctification in the fear of God;

² receive us; no one did we wrong; no one did we ruin; no one did we defraud;

³ I do not say [it] to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together;

⁴ great [is] my freedom of speech to you, great my glory on your behalf; I have been filled with the comfort, I hyper-abound with the joy on all our tribulation,

⁵ for we also, having come to Macedonia, our flesh has had no relaxation, but on every side we are in tribulation: fightings outside, fears within;

⁶ but He who is comforting the cast-down—God—He comforted us in the coming of Titus;

⁷ and not only in his coming, but also in the comfort with which he was comforted over you, declaring to us your longing desire, your lamentation, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced the more,

⁸ because even if I made you sorry in the letter, I do not regret—if even I regretted—for I perceive that the letter, even if for an hour, made you sorry.

⁹ I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to conversion, for you were made sorry toward God, that you might receive damage from us in nothing;

¹⁰ for sorrow toward God works conversion to salvation without regret, and the sorrow of the world works death,

¹¹ for behold, this same thing—your being made sorry toward God—how much diligence it works in you! But defense, but displeasure, but fear, but longing desire, but zeal, but revenge; in everything you approved yourselves to be pure in the matter.

¹² If, then, I also wrote to you—not for his cause who did wrong, nor for his cause who suffered wrong, but for our diligence in your behalf being revealed to you before God—

¹³ because of this we have been comforted in your comfort, and more abundantly the more we rejoiced in the joy of Titus, that his spirit has been refreshed from you all;

¹⁴ because if I have boasted anything to him in your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke to you all things in truth, so also our boasting before Titus became truth,

¹⁵ and his yearnings are more abundantly toward you, remembering the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling;

¹⁶ I rejoice, therefore, that in everything I have courage in you.

¹ And we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God, that has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia,

² because in much trial of tribulation the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, abounded to the riches of their liberality;

³ because, according to [their] power, I testify, and above [their] power, they were willing of themselves,

⁴ with much plea calling on us to receive the favor and the fellowship of the ministry to the holy ones,

⁵ and not according as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the LORD, and to us, through the will of God,

⁶ so that we exhorted Titus, that, according as he began before, so also he may also finish this favor to you,

⁷ but even as in everything you abound, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and all diligence, and in your love to us, that also in this grace you may abound;

⁸ I do not speak according to command, but because of the diligence of others, and proving the genuineness of your love,

⁹ for you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that because of you He became poor—being rich, that you may become rich by that poverty.

¹⁰ And I give an opinion in this: for this [is] expedient to you, who not only to do, but also to will, began before—a year ago,

¹¹ and now also finish doing [it], that even as [there is] the readiness of the will, so also the finishing, out of that which you have,

¹² for if the willing mind is present, it is well-accepted according to that which anyone may have, not according to that which he does not have;

¹³ for I do not speak that for others [to be] released, and you pressured,

¹⁴ but by equality, at the present time your abundance—for their want, that also their abundance may be for your want, that there may be equality,

¹⁵ according as it has been written: “He who [gathered] much, had nothing over; and he who [gathered] little, had no lack.”

¹⁶ And thanks to God, who is putting the same diligence for you in the heart of Titus,

¹⁷ because he indeed accepted the exhortation, and being more diligent, he went forth to you of his own accord,

¹⁸ and we sent with him the brother, whose praise in the good news [is] through all the assemblies,

¹⁹ and not only so, but who was also appointed by vote by the assemblies, our fellow-traveler, with this favor that is ministered by us, to the glory of the same Lord, and your willing mind;

²⁰ avoiding this, lest anyone may blame us in this abundance that is ministered by us,

²¹ providing right things, not only before the LORD, but also before men;

²² and we sent our brother with them, whom we proved being diligent many times in many things, and now much more diligent, by the great confidence that is toward you,

²³ whether—about Titus—my partner and fellow-worker toward you, whether—our brothers, apostles of assemblies—glory of Christ;

²⁴ the showing therefore of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf, show to them, even in the face of the assemblies.

¹ For indeed, concerning the ministry that [is] for the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write to you,

² for I have known your readiness of mind, which in your behalf I boast of to Macedonians, that Achaia has been prepared a year ago, and your zeal stirred up the greater part,

³ and I sent the brothers, that our boasting on your behalf may not be made vain in this respect; that, according as I said, you may be ready,

⁴ lest if Macedonians may come with me, and find you unprepared, we may be put to shame (that we do not say—you) in this same confidence of boasting.

⁵ Therefore I thought [it] necessary to exhort the brothers, that they may go before to you, and may make up before your formerly announced blessing, that this be ready, as a blessing, and not as covetousness.

⁶ And [remember] this: he who is sowing sparingly, will also reap sparingly; and he who is sowing in blessings, will also reap in blessings;

⁷ each one, according as he purposes in heart, not out of sorrow or out of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver,

⁸ and God [is] able to cause all grace to abound to you, that in everything always having all sufficiency, you may abound to every good work,

⁹ according as it has been written: "He dispersed abroad, He gave to the poor, His righteousness remains throughout the age,"

¹⁰ and may He who is supplying seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness,

¹¹ being enriched to all liberality in everything, which works thanksgiving through us to God,

¹² because the ministry of this service not only is supplying the wants of the holy ones, but is also abounding through many thanksgivings to God,

¹³ through the proof of this ministry glorifying God for the subjection of your confession to the good news of the Christ, and [for] the liberality of the fellowship to them and to all,

¹⁴ and by their supplication in your behalf, longing after you because of the exceeding grace of God on you;

¹⁵ thanks also to God for His unspeakable gift!

¹ And I, Paul, myself, call on you—through the meekness and gentleness of the Christ—who in presence [am] indeed humble among you, and being absent, have courage toward you,

² and I implore [you], that, being present, I may not have courage, with the confidence with which I reckon to be bold against certain reckoning us as walking according to the flesh;

³ for walking in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh,

⁴ for the weapons of our warfare [are] not fleshly, but powerful to God for bringing down of strongholds,

⁵ bringing down reasonings, and every high thing lifted up against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of the Christ,

⁶ and being in readiness to avenge every disobedience whenever your obedience may be fulfilled.

⁷ You see the outward appearance. If anyone has trusted in himself to be Christ's, let him reckon this again from himself, that according as he is Christ's, so also we [are] Christ's;

⁸ for even if I will also boast anything more abundantly concerning our authority, that the LORD gave us for building up, and not for casting you down, I will not be ashamed,

⁹ that I may not seem as if I would terrify you through the letters,

¹⁰ "because the letters indeed," says one, "[are] weighty and strong, and the bodily presence weak, and the speech despicable."

¹¹ This one—let him reckon thus: that such as we are in word, through letters, being absent, such also, being present, [we are] in deed.

¹² For we do not make bold to rank or to compare ourselves with certain of those commending themselves, but they, measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are not wise,

¹³ and we will not boast ourselves in regard to the unmeasured things, but after the measure of the line that the God of measure appointed to us—to reach even to you;

¹⁴ for we do not stretch ourselves too much, as not reaching to you, for even to you we came in the good news of the Christ,

¹⁵ not boasting of the things not measured, in other men's labors, and having hope—your faith increasing—in you to be enlarged, according to our line—into abundance,

¹⁶ to proclaim good news in the [places] beyond you, not in another's line in regard to the things made ready, to boast;

¹⁷ and he who is boasting—let him boast in the LORD;

¹⁸ for he who is commending himself is not approved, but he whom the LORD commends.

¹ O that you were bearing with me a little of the folly, but you also bear with me:

² for I am zealous for you with zeal of God, for I betrothed you to one Husband, a pure virgin, to present to Christ,

³ and I fear, lest, as the serpent deceived Eve in his subtlety, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity that [is] in the Christ;

⁴ for if, indeed, he who is coming preaches another Jesus whom we did not preach, or you receive another spirit which you did not receive, or other good news which you did not accept—well were you bearing [it],

⁵ for I reckon that I have been nothing behind the very chiefest apostles,

⁶ and even if a commoner in speech—yet not in knowledge, but in everything we were made evident in all things to you.

⁷ Did I do sin—humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I freely proclaimed the good news of God to you?

⁸ I robbed other assemblies, having taken wages, for your ministry;

⁹ and being present with you, and having been in want, I was chargeable to no one, for the brothers supplied my lack—having come from Macedonia—and I kept myself burdenless to you in everything, and will keep.

¹⁰ The truth of Christ is in me, because this boasting will not be stopped in regard to me in the regions of Achaia;

¹¹ for what reason? Because I do not love you? God has known!

¹² And what I do, I also will do, that I may cut off the occasion of those wishing an occasion, that in that which they boast they may be found according as we also;

¹³ for those such [are] false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ,

¹⁴ and no wonder—for even Satan transforms himself into a messenger of light;

¹⁵ [it is] no great thing, then, if his servants also transform themselves as servants of righteousness—whose end will be according to their works.

¹⁶ Again I say, may no one think me to be a fool; and if otherwise, receive me even as a fool, that I also may boast a little.

¹⁷ That which I speak, I do not speak according to the LORD, but as in foolishness, in this the confidence of boasting;

¹⁸ since many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast:

¹⁹ for you gladly bear with the fools—being wise,

²⁰ for you bear, if anyone is bringing you under bondage, if anyone devours, if anyone takes away, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone strikes you on the face;

²¹ I speak in reference to dishonor, how that we were weak, and in whatever anyone is bold—in foolishness I say [it]—I also am bold.

²² Are they Hebrews? I also! Are they Israelites? I also! Are they seed of Abraham? I also!

²³ Are they servants of Christ? As [if] beside myself I speak—I [am] more; in labors more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths many times.

²⁴ Five times I received from Jews forty [stripes] except one;

²⁵ three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I have passed a night and a day in the deep;

²⁶ journeys many times, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from [my own] race, perils from nations, perils in city, perils in wilderness, perils in sea, perils among false brothers;

²⁷ in laboriousness and painfulness, many times in watchings, in hunger and thirst, many times in fastings, in cold and nakedness;

²⁸ apart from the things without—the crowding on me that is daily—the care of all the assemblies.

²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I am not burned?

³⁰ If it is necessary to boast, I will boast of the things of my weakness;

³¹ the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ—who is blessed for all ages—has known that I do not lie!

³² In Damascus the governor [under] Aretas the king was watching the city of the Damascenes, wishing to seize me, ³³ and I was let down through a window in a rope basket, through the wall, and fled out of his hands.

¹ To boast, really, is not profitable for me, for I will come to visions and revelations of the LORD.

² I have known a man in Christ, fourteen years ago—whether in the body I have not known, whether out of the body I have not known, God has known—such a one being snatched up to the third heaven;

³ and I have known such a man—whether in the body, whether out of the body, I have not known, God has known—

⁴ that he was snatched up to the paradise, and heard unutterable sayings, that it is not possible for man to speak.

⁵ Of such a one I will boast, and of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses,

⁶ for if I may wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will say truth; but I refrain, lest in regard to me anyone may think anything above what he sees me, or hears anything of me;

⁷ and that by the exceeding greatness of the revelations I might not be exalted too much, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, that he might batter me, that I might not be exalted too much.

⁸ I called on the LORD three times concerning this thing, that it might depart from me,

⁹ and He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness”; most gladly, therefore, will I rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of the Christ may rest on me:

¹⁰ for this reason I am well pleased in weaknesses, in damages, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses—for Christ; for whenever I may be weak, then I am powerful;

¹¹ I have become a fool—boasting; you compelled me; for I ought to have been commended by you, for I was behind the very chiefest apostles in nothing—even if I am nothing.

¹² The signs, indeed, of the apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds,

¹³ for what is there in which you were inferior to the rest of the assemblies, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this injustice!

¹⁴ Behold, a third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you, for I do not seek yours, but you, for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children,

¹⁵ and I will most gladly spend and be entirely spent for your souls, even if, loving you more abundantly, I am loved less.

¹⁶ And be it [so], I did not burden you, but being crafty, I took you with guile;

¹⁷ anyone of those whom I have sent to you—did I take advantage of you by him?

¹⁸ I begged Titus, and sent with [him] the brother; did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same Spirit? Did we not [walk] in the same steps?

¹⁹ Again, [do] you think that we are making defense to you? We speak before God in Christ; and all things, beloved, [are] for your up-building,

²⁰ for I fear lest, having come, I may not find you such as I wish, and I may be found by you such as you do not wish, lest there be strifes, envyings, wraths, revelries, slanders, whisperings, puffings up, insurrections,

²¹ lest again having come, my God may humble me in regard to you, and I may mourn many of those having sinned before, and having not changed their mind concerning the uncleanness, and whoredom, and licentiousness, that they practiced.

¹ I come to you this third time; on the mouth of two or three witnesses will every saying be established;

² I have said before, and I say [it] before, as being present, the second time, and being absent, now, I write to those having sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare,

³ since you seek a proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak to you, but is powerful in you,

⁴ for even if He was crucified from weakness, yet He lives from the power of God; for we also are weak in Him, but we will live with Him from the power of God toward you.

⁵ Try yourselves, if you are in the faith; prove yourselves; do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you, if you are not disapproved of in some respect?

⁶ And I hope that you will know that we are not disapproved of;

⁷ and I pray before God that you do no evil, not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is right, and we may be as disapproved;

⁸ for we are not able to do anything against the truth, but for the truth;

⁹ for we rejoice when we may be weak, but you may be powerful; and we also pray for this—your perfection!

¹⁰ Because of this, these things—being absent—I write, that being present, I may not treat [any] sharply, according to the authority that the LORD gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

¹¹ From now on, brothers, rejoice; be made perfect, be comforted, be of the same mind, be at peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another in a holy kiss.

¹³ All the holy ones greet you.

¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, [is] with you all! Amen.

Galatians

¹ Paul, an apostle—not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him out of the dead—

² and all the brothers with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:

³ Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁴ who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

⁵ to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen.

⁶ I wonder that you are so quickly removed from Him who called you in the grace of Christ to another good news—

⁷ not that there is another, except there are certain who are troubling you, and wishing to pervert the good news of the Christ;

⁸ but even if we or a messenger out of Heaven may proclaim good news to you different from what we proclaimed to you—let him be accursed!

⁹ As we have said before, and now say again: if anyone may proclaim to you good news different from what you received—let him be accursed!

¹⁰ For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men—I should not be Christ's servant.

¹¹ And I make known to you, brothers, the good news that was proclaimed by me, that it is not according to man,

¹² for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], but through a revelation of Jesus Christ,

¹³ for you heard of my behavior once in Judaism, that I was exceedingly persecuting the Assembly of God, and destroying it,

¹⁴ and I was advancing in Judaism above many equals in age in my own race, being more abundantly zealous of my fathers' deliverances,

¹⁵ and when God was well pleased—having separated me from the womb of my mother, and having called [me] through His grace—

¹⁶ to reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim Him as good news among the nations, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood,

¹⁷ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away to Arabia, and again returned to Damascus;

¹⁸ then, after three years I went up to Jerusalem to inquire about Peter, and remained with him fifteen days,

¹⁹ and I did not see [any] other of the apostles, except James, the brother of the LORD.

²⁰ And the things that I write to you, behold, before God—I do not lie;

²¹ then I came into the regions of Syria and of Cilicia,

²² and was unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea, that [are] in Christ,

²³ and they were only hearing that "he who is persecuting us then, now proclaims good news—the faith that he was then destroying";

²⁴ and they were glorifying God in me.

¹ Then after fourteen years again I went up to Jerusalem with Barnabas, having also taken Titus with me;

² and I went up by revelation, and submitted the good news to them that I preach among the nations, and privately to those esteemed, lest I ran or might run in vain;

³ but not even Titus, who [is] with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised—

⁴ and [that] because of the false brothers brought in unaware, who came in secretly to spy out our liberty that we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us under bondage,

⁵ to whom not even for an hour we gave place by subjection, that the truth of the good news might remain to you.

⁶ And from those who were esteemed to be something—whatever they were then, it makes no difference to me. God does not accept the face of man, for to me those esteemed added nothing,

⁷ but on the contrary, having seen that I have been entrusted with the good news of the uncircumcision, as Peter with [that] of the circumcision,

⁸ for He who worked with Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, worked also in me in regard to the nations,

⁹ and having known the grace that was given to me, James, and Cephas, and John, who were esteemed to be pillars, they gave to me a right hand of fellowship, and to Barnabas, that we may go to the nations, and they to the circumcision,

¹⁰ only, that we should be mindful of the poor, which I also was diligent—this very thing—to do.

¹¹ And when Peter came to Antioch, I stood up against him to the face, because he was blameworthy,

¹³ and the other Jews acted hypocritically with him, so that Barnabas was also carried away by their hypocrisy.

¹⁴ But when I saw that they are not walking uprightly to the truth of the good news, I said to Peter before all, "If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of the nations, and not in the manner of the Jews, how do you compel the nations to live like Jews?"

¹⁵ We by nature Jews, and not sinners of the nations,

¹⁶ having also known that a man is not declared righteous by works of law, but through faith from Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be declared righteous by faith from Christ, and not by works of law, because no flesh will be declared righteous by works of law."

¹⁷ And if, seeking to be declared righteous in Christ, we were also ourselves found sinners, [is] Christ then a servant of sin? Let it not be!

¹⁸ For if the things I threw down, these again I build up, I set myself forth [as] a transgressor;

¹⁹ for I died through law that I may live to God;

²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me; and that which I now live in the flesh—I live in the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me;

²¹ I do not make the grace of God void, for if righteousness [is] through law—then Christ died in vain.

¹ O thoughtless Galatians, who bewitched you, not to obey the truth—before whose eyes [it] was previously written [about] Jesus Christ having been crucified?

² I only wish to learn this from you: did you receive the Spirit by works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith?

³ Are you so thoughtless? Having begun in the Spirit, do you now end in the flesh?

⁴ So many things you suffered in vain! If, indeed, even in vain.

⁵ He, therefore, who is supplying the Spirit to you and working mighty acts among you—[is it] by works of law or by the hearing of faith?

⁶ According as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness;

⁷ know, then, that those of faith—these are sons of Abraham,

⁸ and the Writing, having foreseen that God declares righteous the nations by faith, foretold the good news to Abraham:

⁹ “All the nations will be blessed in you”; so that those of faith are blessed with the believing Abraham,

¹⁰ for as many as are of works of law are under a curse, for it has been written: “Cursed [is] everyone who is not remaining in all things that have been written in the Scroll of the Law—to do them,”

¹¹ and [it] is evident that in law no one is declared righteous with God, because “The righteous will live by faith”;

¹² and the Law is not by faith, rather, “The man who did them will live in them.”

¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us, for it has been written: “Cursed is everyone who is hanging on a tree,”

¹⁴ that the blessing of Abraham may come to the nations in Christ Jesus, that we may receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵ Brothers, I say [it] as a man, no one even makes void or adds to a confirmed covenant of man,

¹⁶ and to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his Seed; He does not say, “And to seeds,” as of many, but as of one, “And to your Seed,” which is Christ;

¹⁷ and this I say, a covenant confirmed before by God to Christ, the Law, that came four hundred and thirty years after, does not set aside, to make void the promise,

¹⁸ for if the inheritance [is] by law, [it is] no longer by promise, but God granted [it] to Abraham through promise.

¹⁹ Why, then, the Law? It was added on account of the transgressions, until the Seed might come to which the promise has been made, having been set in order through messengers in the hand of a mediator—

²⁰ and the mediator is not of one, but God is one.

²¹ [Is] the Law, then, against the promises of God? Let it not be! For if a law was given that was able to make alive, truly there would have been righteousness by law, ²² but the Writing shut up the whole under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ may be given to those believing.

²³ And before the coming of faith, we were being kept under law, shut up to the faith about to be revealed,

²⁴ so that the Law became our tutor—to Christ, that we may be declared righteous by faith,
²⁵ and faith having come, we are no longer under a tutor,
²⁶ for you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus,
²⁷ for as many as were immersed into Christ put on Christ;
²⁸ there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither servant nor freeman, there is neither male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus;
²⁹ and if you [are] of Christ then you are seed of Abraham, and heirs according to promise.

¹ And I say, now as much time as the heir is a child, he differs nothing from a servant, [though] being lord of all,
² but is under tutors and stewards until the time appointed of the father,
³ so we also, when we were children, were in servitude under the elements of the world,
⁴ and when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, come of a woman, come under law,
⁵ that He may redeem those under law, that we may receive the adoption as sons;
⁶ and because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!”
⁷ So that you are no longer a servant, but a son, and if a son, also an heir of God through Christ.
⁸ But then, indeed, having not known God, you were in servitude to those [that are] not by nature gods,
⁹ and now, having known God—and rather being known by God—how [do] you turn again to the weak and poor elements to which you desire anew to be in servitude?
¹⁰ You observe days, and months, and times, and years!
¹¹ I am afraid for you, lest I labored in vain for you.
¹² I implore you, brothers, become as I [am]—because I also [am] as you; you did not hurt me;
¹³ and you have known that through weakness of the flesh I proclaimed good news to you at the first,
¹⁴ and you did not despise nor reject my trial that [is] in my flesh, but you received me as a messenger of God—as Christ Jesus;
¹⁵ what then was your blessedness? For I testify to you, that if possible, having plucked out your eyes, you would have given [them] to me;
¹⁶ so have I become your enemy, being true to you?
¹⁷ They are zealous for you—[yet] not well, but they wish to shut us out, that you may be zealous for them;
¹⁸ and [it is] good to be zealously regarded, in what is good, at all times, and not only in my being present with you;
¹⁹ my little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ may be formed in you,
²⁰ indeed I was wishing to be present with you now, and to change my voice, because I am in doubt about you.
²¹ Tell me, you who are willing to be under law, do you not hear the Law?

²² For it has been written that Abraham had two sons, one by the maidservant and one by the free [woman],

²³ but he who [is] of the maidservant has been according to flesh, but he who [is] of the free [woman], through the promise,

²⁴ which things are allegorized, for these are the two covenants: one, indeed, from Mount Sinai, bringing forth to servitude, which is Hagar;

²⁵ for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the Jerusalem that now [is], and is in servitude with her children,

²⁶ and the Jerusalem above is the free [woman], which is mother of us all,

²⁷ for it has been written: “Rejoice, O barren, who is not bearing; break forth and cry, you who are not travailing, because many [are] the children of the desolate—more than of her having the husband.”

²⁸ And we, brothers, as Isaac, are children of promise,

²⁹ but as he then who was born according to the flesh persecuted him [born] according to the Spirit, so also now;

³⁰ but what does the Writing say? “Cast forth the maidservant and her son, for the son of the maidservant may not be heir with the son of the free [woman]”;

³¹ then, brothers, we are not a maidservant’s children, but the free [woman’s].

¹ In the freedom, then, with which Christ made you free—stand, and do not be held fast again by a yoke of servitude.

² Behold! I, Paul, say to you, that if you are [to be] circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing;

³ and I testify again to every man circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law;

⁴ you were voided from the Christ, you who are declared righteous in law; you fell away from grace;

⁵ for we by the Spirit, by faith, wait for a hope of righteousness,

⁶ for in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.

⁷ You were running well; who hindered you [so as] not to obey the truth?

⁸ The persuasion [is] not of Him who is calling you!

⁹ A little leaven leavens the whole lump;

¹⁰ I have confidence in regard to you in the LORD that you will not be otherwise minded; and he who is troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be.

¹¹ And I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the Cross has been done away [with];

¹² O that even they would cut themselves off who are unsettling you!

¹³ For you were called to freedom, brothers, only the freedom [is] not for an occasion to the flesh, but serve one another through the love,

¹⁴ for all the Law is fulfilled in one word—in this: “You will love your neighbor as yourself”;

¹⁵ and if you bite and devour one another, see that you may not be consumed by one another.

¹⁶ And I say, walk in the Spirit, and you may not fulfill the desire of the flesh;

¹⁷ for the flesh desires contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit contrary to the flesh, and these are opposed to one another, that the things that you may will—these you may not do;

¹⁸ and if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law.

¹⁹ And the works of the flesh are also evident, which are: adultery, whoredom, uncleanness, licentiousness,

²⁰ idolatry, witchcraft, enmities, strife, jealousy, wraths, rivalries, dissensions, sects,

²¹ envyings, murders, drunkenness, reveling, and such like, of which I tell you before, as I also said before, that those doing such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

²² And the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith,

²³ meekness, [and] self-control. Against such there is no law;

²⁴ and those who are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the affections and the desires;

²⁵ if we may live in the Spirit, we may also walk in the Spirit;

²⁶ let us not become vainglorious—provoking one another, envying one another!

¹ Brothers, even if a man may be overtaken in any trespass, you who [are] spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself—lest you also may be tempted.

² Bear the burdens of one another, and so fill up the law of the Christ,

³ for if anyone thinks [himself] to be something—being nothing—he deceives himself;

⁴ and let each one prove his own work, and then he will have the glorying in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to the other,

⁵ for each one will bear his own burden.

⁶ And let him who is instructed in the word share with him who is instructing in all good things.

⁷ Do not be led astray: God is not mocked; for what a man may sow—that he will also reap,

⁸ because he who is sowing to his own flesh, of the flesh will reap corruption; and he who is sowing to the Spirit, of the Spirit will reap continuous life;

⁹ and in doing good we should not be weary, for at the proper time we will reap—not desponding;

¹⁰ therefore, then, as we have opportunity, may we work the good to all, and especially to those of the household of faith.

¹¹ You see in how large letters I have written to you with my own hand;

¹² as many as are willing to make a good appearance in the flesh, these constrain you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the Cross of the Christ,

¹³ for neither do those circumcised keep the Law themselves, but they wish you to be circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

¹⁴ And for me, let it not be—to glory, except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world;

¹⁵ for in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation;

¹⁶ and as many as walk by this rule—peace on them, and kindness, and on the Israel of God!

¹⁷ From now on, let no one give me trouble, for I carry the scars of the Lord Jesus in my body.

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your spirit, brothers! Amen.

Ephesians

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, to the holy ones who are in Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

³ Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us in every spiritual blessing in the heavenly [places] in Christ,

⁴ according as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, for our being holy and unblemished before Him, in love,

⁵ having foreordained us to the adoption of sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will,

⁶ to the praise of the glory of His grace, in which He made us accepted in the beloved,

⁷ in whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of the trespasses, according to the riches of His grace,

⁸ in which He abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence,

⁹ having made known to us the secret of His will, according to His good pleasure, that He purposed in Himself,

¹⁰ in regard to the dispensation of the fullness of the times, to bring into one the whole in the Christ, both the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth—in Him;

¹¹ in whom also we obtained an inheritance, being foreordained according to the purpose of Him who is working all things according to the counsel of His will,

¹² for our being to the praise of His glory, [even] those who first hoped in the Christ,

¹³ in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth—the good news of your salvation—in whom also having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of the promise,

¹⁴ which is a deposit of our inheritance, to the redemption of the acquired possession, to the praise of His glory.

¹⁵ Because of this I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and the love to all the holy ones,

¹⁶ do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of the glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the recognition of Him,

¹⁸ the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, for your knowing what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the holy ones,

¹⁹ and what the exceeding greatness of His power to us who are believing, according to the working of the power of His might,

²⁰ which He worked in the Christ, having raised Him out of the dead, and sat [Him] at His right hand in the heavenly [places],

²¹ far above all principality, and authority, and might, and lordship, and every name named, not only in this age, but also in the coming one;

²² and He put all things under His feet, and gave Him—head over all things to the Assembly, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who is filling all in all.

1 Also you—being dead in trespasses and sins,

2 in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience,

3 among whom we also all walked once in the desires of our flesh, doing the wishes of the flesh and of the thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath—as also the others,

4 but God, being rich in kindness, because of His great love with which He loved us,

5 even being dead in the trespasses, made us alive together with the Christ (by grace you are saved),

6 and raised [us] up together, and sat [us] together in the heavenly [places] in Christ Jesus,

7 that He might show, in the ages that are coming, the exceeding riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus,

8 for by grace you are saved, through faith, and this [is] not of yourselves—[it is] the gift of God,

9 not of works, that no one may boast;

10 for we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus on good works, which God prepared before, that we may walk in them.

11 For this reason, remember, that you [were] once the nations in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that called Circumcision in the flesh made by hands,

12 that you were at that time apart from Christ, having been alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and without God in the world;

13 but now, in Christ Jesus, you being once far off became near in the blood of the Christ,

14 for He is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of the partition of hostility,

15 the enmity in His flesh, having done away [with] the Law of the commands in ordinances, that He might create the two into one new man in Himself, making peace,

16 and might reconcile both in one body to God through the Cross, having slain the enmity by it,

17 and having come, He proclaimed good news—peace to you—the far-off and the near,

18 because through Him we have the access—we both—in one Spirit to the Father.

19 Then, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens of the holy ones, and of the household of God,

20 being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being chief corner-[stone],

21 in whom all the building fitly framed together increases to a holy temple in the LORD,

22 in whom you also are built together; for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

¹ For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you the nations,
² if, indeed, you heard of the dispensation of the grace of God that was given to me in regard to you,
³ that by revelation He made known to me the secret, according as I wrote before in few [words]—
⁴ in regard to which you are able, reading [it], to understand my knowledge in the secret of the Christ,
⁵ which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it was now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit—
⁶ that the nations are fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of His promise in the Christ, through the good news,
⁷ of which I became a servant, according to the gift of the grace of God that was given to me, according to the working of His power;
⁸ to me—the less than the least of all the holy ones—was given this grace, among the nations to proclaim good news—the untraceable riches of the Christ,
⁹ and to cause all to see what [is] the fellowship of the secret that has been hid from the ages in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ,
¹⁰ that there might be made known now to the principalities and the authorities in the heavenly [places], through the Assembly, the manifold wisdom of God,
¹¹ according to a purpose of the ages, which He made in Christ Jesus our Lord,
¹² in whom we have the freedom and the access in confidence through the faith of Him,
¹³ for this reason, I ask [you] not to faint in my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
¹⁴ For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
¹⁵ of whom the whole family in the heavens and on earth is named,
¹⁶ that He may give to you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened through His Spirit with might, in regard to the inner man,
¹⁷ that the Christ may dwell through the faith in your hearts, having been rooted and founded in love,
¹⁸ that you may be in strength to comprehend, with all the holy ones, what [is] the breadth, and length, and depth, and height,
¹⁹ to know also the love of the Christ that is exceeding the knowledge, that you may be filled—to all the fullness of God;
²⁰ and to Him who is able to do exceedingly [and] abundantly above all things that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us,
²¹ to Him [is] the glory in the Assembly in Christ Jesus, to all the generations of the age of the ages. Amen.

¹ I, the prisoner of the LORD, then call on you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called,
² with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, bearing with one another in love,
³ being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace;
⁴ one body and one Spirit, according as you were also called in one hope of your calling;

⁵ one Lord, one faith, one immersion,

⁶ one God and Father of all, who [is] over all, and through all, and in you all,

⁷ and to each one of you was given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ,

⁸ for this reason, it says, "Having gone up on high He led captive captivity, and gave gifts to men."

⁹ And that, He went up, what is it except that He also went down first into the lower parts of the earth?

¹⁰ He who went down is the same who also went up far above all the heavens, that He may fill all things—

¹¹ and He gave some [as] apostles, and some [as] prophets, and some [as] proclaimers of good news, and some [as] shepherds and teachers,

¹² to the perfecting of the holy ones, for a work of ministry, for a building up of the body of the Christ,

¹³ until we may all come to the unity of faith and of the recognition of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to a measure of stature of the fullness of the Christ,

¹⁴ that we may no longer be children, being tossed by waves and being carried around by every wind of the teaching, in the cunning of men, in craftiness, to the scheming of leading astray,

¹⁵ and [speaking] truth in love, we may increase to Him [in] all things, who is the head—the Christ;

¹⁷ This, then, I say, and I testify in the LORD: you are no longer to walk, as also the other nations walk, in the vanity of their mind,

¹⁸ being darkened in the understanding, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart,

¹⁹ who, having ceased to feel, gave themselves up to the licentiousness, for the working of all uncleanness in greediness;

²⁰ and you did not so learn the Christ,

²¹ if [it] so be [that] you heard Him, and were taught in Him, as truth is in Jesus;

²² concerning the former behavior you are to put off the old man, that is corrupt according to the desires of the deceit,

²³ and to be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

²⁴ and to put on the new man, which, according to God, was created in righteousness and kindness of the truth.

²⁵ For this reason, putting away the lying, each speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another;

²⁶ be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your wrath,

²⁷ neither give place to the Devil;

²⁸ whoever is stealing let him no longer steal, but rather let him labor, working the thing that is good with the hands, that he may have to impart to him having need.

²⁹ Let no corrupt word go forth out of your mouth, but what is good to the necessary building up, that it may give grace to the hearers;

³⁰ and do not make the Holy Spirit of God sorrowful, in which you were sealed to [the] day of redemption.

³¹ Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice, ³² and become kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, according as God also forgave you in Christ.

¹ Become, then, followers of God, as beloved children,

² and walk in love, as the Christ also loved us, and gave Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a refreshing fragrance,

³ and whoredom, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, do not let it even be named among you, as is proper to holy ones;

⁴ also filthiness, and foolish talking, or jesting—the things not fit—but rather thanksgiving;

⁵ for you know this, that every whoremonger, or unclean, or covetous person, who is an idolater, has no inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ and God.

⁶ Let no one deceive you with vain words, for because of these things comes the anger of God on the sons of the disobedience;

⁷ do not become, then, partakers with them,

⁸ for you were once darkness, and now light in the LORD; walk as children of light,

⁹ for the fruit of the light [is] in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth,

¹⁰ proving what is well-pleasing to the LORD;

¹¹ and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of the darkness and rather even convict,

¹² for it is a shame even to speak of the things done by them in secret,

¹³ and all the things reproved by the light are revealed, for everything that is revealed is light;

¹⁴ for this reason it says, “Arouse yourself, you who are sleeping, and arise out of the dead, and the Christ will shine on you.”

¹⁵ See, then, how exactly you walk, not as unwise, but as wise,

¹⁶ redeeming the time, because the days are evil;

¹⁷ do not become fools because of this, but—understanding what [is] the will of the LORD,

¹⁸ and do not be drunk with wine, in which is wastefulness, but be filled in the Spirit,

¹⁹ speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the LORD,

²⁰ always giving thanks for all things, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the God and Father, ²¹ subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ.

²² The wives: [subject yourselves] to your own husbands, as to the LORD,

²³ because the husband is head of the wife, as also the Christ [is] head of the Assembly, and He is Savior of the body,

²⁴ but even as the Assembly is subject to Christ, so also [are] the wives [subject] to their own husbands in everything.

25 The husbands: love your own wives, as the Christ also loved the Assembly, and gave Himself for it,

26 that He might sanctify it, having cleansed [it] with the bathing of the water in the saying,

27 that He might present the Assembly to Himself in glory, having no spot or wrinkle, or any of such things, but that it may be holy and unblemished;

28 so ought the husbands to love their own wives as their own bodies: he who is loving his own wife—he loves himself;

29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and nurtures it, as also the LORD—the Assembly,

30 because we are members of His body, [[of His flesh, and of His bones.]]

31 “For this cause will a man leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, and the two will be into one flesh”;

32 this secret is great, and I speak in regard to Christ and to the Assembly;

33 but you also, everyone in particular—let each so love his own wife as himself, and the wife—that she may revere the husband.

1 The children: obey your parents in the LORD, for this is right;

2 honor your father and mother,

3 which is the first command with a promise, “That it may be well with you, and you may live a long time on the land.”

4 And the fathers: do not provoke your children, but nourish them in the instruction and admonition of the LORD.

5 The servants: obey the masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in the simplicity of your heart, as to the Christ;

6 not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as servants of the Christ, doing the will of God out of [your] soul,

7 serving with goodwill, as to the LORD, and not to men,

8 having known that whatever good thing each one may do, this he will receive from the LORD, whether servant or freeman.

9 And the masters! Do the same things to them, letting threatening alone, having also known that your Master is in the heavens, and favor by appearance is not with Him.

10 As to the rest, my brothers, be strong in the LORD, and in the power of His might;

11 put on the whole armor of God, so you are able to stand against the schemes of the Devil,

12 because our wrestling is not with flesh and blood, but with the principalities, with the authorities, with the world-rulers of the darkness of this age, with the spiritual [forces] of evil in the heavenly [places];

13 because of this take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the day of the evil, and having done all things—to stand.

14 Stand, therefore, having your loins girded around in truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

15 and having the feet shod in the preparation of the good news of peace;

16 in all, having taken up the shield of faith, in which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one,

¹⁷ and receive the helmet of the salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God,

¹⁸ through all prayer and supplication praying at all times in the Spirit, and in this, watching in all perseverance and supplication for all the holy ones—

¹⁹ and in behalf of me, that to me may be given a word in the opening of my mouth, in freedom, to make known the secret of the good news,

²⁰ for which I am an ambassador in a chain, that in it I may speak freely—as it is necessary for me to speak.

²¹ And that you may know—you also—the things concerning me—what I do, Tychicus will make all things known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the LORD,

²² whom I sent to you for this very thing, that you might know the things concerning us, and that he might comfort your hearts.

²³ Peace to the brothers, and love, with faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ!

²⁴ The grace with all those loving our Lord Jesus Christ—undecayingly! Amen.

Philippians

¹ Paul and Timotheus, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the holy ones in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with overseers and servants:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

³ I give thanks to my God on all the remembrance of you,

⁴ always, in every supplication of mine for you all, with joy making the supplication,

⁵ for your contribution to the good news from the first day until now,

⁶ having been confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you, will complete [it] until [the] day of Jesus Christ,

⁷ according as it is righteous for me to think this in behalf of you all, because of my having you in the heart, both in my bonds, and [in] the defense and confirmation of the good news, all of you being fellow-partakers with me of grace.

⁸ For God is my witness, how I long for you all with [the] yearnings of Jesus Christ,

⁹ and this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in full knowledge, and all discernment,

¹⁰ for your proving the things that differ, that you may be pure and offenseless—to [the] Day of Christ,

¹¹ being filled with the fruit of righteousness, that [is] through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

¹² And I intend you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me, rather have come to an advancement of the good news,

¹³ so that my bonds have become evident in Christ in the whole Praetorium, and to all the other places,

¹⁴ and the greater part of the brothers in the LORD, having confidence by my bonds, are more abundantly bold to fearlessly speak the word.

¹⁵ Certain, indeed, even through envy and contention, and certain also through goodwill, preach the Christ;

¹⁶ one, indeed, of rivalry proclaims the Christ, not purely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds,

¹⁷ and the other out of love, having known that I am set for defense of the good news:

¹⁸ what then? In every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed—and I rejoice in this, indeed, and will rejoice.

¹⁹ For I have known that this will turn out to me for salvation, through your supplication, and the supply of the Spirit of Christ Jesus,

²⁰ according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will be ashamed in nothing, and in all freedom, as always, also Christ will now be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death,

²¹ for to me to live [is] Christ, and to die [is] gain.

²² And if to live in the flesh [is] to me a fruit of work, then what will I choose? I do not know;

²³ for I am pressed by the two, having the desire to depart, and to be with Christ, for it is far better,

²⁴ and to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account,

²⁵ and being persuaded of this, I have known that I will remain and continue with you all, to your advancement and joy of the faith,

²⁶ that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my coming again to you.

²⁸ and not be terrified in anything by those opposing, which is indeed a token of destruction to them, and to you of salvation, and that from God;

²⁹ because to you it was granted, on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on behalf of Him;

³⁰ having the same conflict, such as you saw in me, and now hear of in me.

¹ If, then, any exhortation [is] in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of [the] Spirit, if any yearnings and mercies,

² fulfill my joy, that you may mind the same thing—having the same love—of one soul—minding the one thing,

³ nothing in rivalry or vainglory, but in humility of mind counting one another more excellent than yourselves—

⁴ do not each look to your own, but each also to the things of others.

⁵ For let this mind be in you that [is] also in Christ Jesus,

⁶ who, being in the form of God, thought [it] not something to be seized to be equal to God,

⁷ but emptied Himself, having taken the form of a servant, having been made in the likeness of men,

⁸ and having been found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself, having become obedient to death—even death of a cross,

⁹ for this reason, also, God highly exalted Him, and gave to Him a Name that [is] above every name,

¹⁰ that in the Name of Jesus every knee may bow—of heavenlies, and earthlies, and what are under the earth—

¹¹ and every tongue may confess that Jesus Christ [is] LORD, to the glory of God the Father.

¹² So that, my beloved, as you always obey, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling,

¹³ for it is God who is working in you both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

¹⁴ Do all things without murmurings and deliberations,

¹⁵ that you may become blameless and pure children of God, unblemished in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as luminaries in the world,

¹⁶ holding forth the word of life, for rejoicing to me in regard to [the] Day of Christ, that I did not run in vain, nor did I labor in vain;

¹⁷ but if I also am poured forth on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and am glad with you all,

¹⁸ because of this you also rejoice and are glad with me.

¹⁹ And I hope, in the Lord Jesus, to send Timotheus to you quickly, that I also may be of good spirit, having known the things concerning you,

²⁰ for I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for the things concerning you,

²¹ for the whole seek their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus,

²² and you know his proof, that as a child [serves] a father, he served with me in regard to the good news;

²³ I indeed hope to send him, when I may see through the things concerning me—immediately;

²⁴ and I trust in the LORD that I will also come quickly myself.

²⁵ And I thought [it] necessary to send to you Ephroditus—my brother and fellow-workman and fellow-soldier, and your apostle and servant to my need,

²⁶ seeing he was longing after you all, and in heaviness, because you heard that he ailed,

²⁷ for he also ailed near to death, but God dealt kindly with him, and not with him only, but also with me, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow.

²⁸ The more eagerly, therefore, I sent him, that having seen him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful;

²⁹ receive him, therefore, in the LORD, with all joy, and hold such in honor;

³⁰ because on account of the work of the Christ he drew near to death, having hazarded life that he might fill up your deficiency of service to me.

¹ As to the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the LORD; indeed, [it] is not tiresome to me to write to you the same things, and for you [is] sure.

² Look out for the dogs! Look out for the evil-workers! Look out for the mutilation!

³ For we are the circumcision, who are serving God by the Spirit, and glorying in Christ Jesus, and having no trust in flesh,

⁴ though I also have [cause of] trust in flesh. If any other one thinks to have trust in flesh, I more:

⁵ circumcision on the eighth day! Of the race of Israel! Of the tribe of Benjamin! A Hebrew of Hebrews! According to law—a Pharisee!

⁶ According to zeal—persecuting the Assembly! According to righteousness that is in law—becoming blameless!

⁷ But what things were gains to me, these I have counted loss, because of the Christ;

⁸ yes, indeed, and I count all things to be loss, because of the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I suffered loss of all things, and count them to be refuse, that I may gain Christ, and be found in Him,

⁹ not having my righteousness, which [is] of law, but that which [is] through faith from Christ—the righteousness that is of God by faith,

¹⁰ to know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death,

¹¹ if anyhow I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.

¹² Not that I already obtained, or have already been perfected, but I pursue, if I also may lay hold of that for which I was also laid hold of by Christ Jesus;

¹³ brothers, I do not reckon myself to have laid hold [of it], but one thing [I do]—indeed forgetting the things behind, and stretching forth to the things before—

¹⁴ I pursue to the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ As many, therefore, as [are] perfect—let us think this, and if [in] anything you think otherwise, this also will God reveal to you,

¹⁶ but to what we have attained—walk by the same rule, think the same thing;

¹⁷ together become my followers, brothers, and observe those thus walking, according as you have us—a pattern;

¹⁸ for many walk of whom I told you [about] many times—and now also weeping tell—[they are] the enemies of the Cross of the Christ,

¹⁹ whose end [is] destruction, whose god [is] the belly, and whose glory [is] in their shame, who are minding the things on earth.

²⁰ For our citizenship is in the heavens, from where we also await a Savior—the Lord Jesus Christ—

²¹ who will transform the body of our humiliation to its becoming conformed to the body of His glory, according to the working of His power, even to subject all things to Himself.

¹ So then, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and garland, so stand in the LORD, beloved.

² I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the LORD;

³ and I also ask you, genuine yoke-fellow, be assisting those women who strove along with me in the good news, with Clement also, and the others, my fellow-workers, whose names [are] in [the] Scroll of Life.

⁴ Rejoice in the LORD always; again I will say, rejoice!

⁵ Let your reasonableness be known to all men; the LORD [is] near;

⁶ be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer, and by supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God;

⁷ and the peace of God, that is surpassing all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

⁸ As to the rest, brothers, as many things as are true, as many as [are] revered, as many as [are] righteous, as many as [are] pure, as many as [are] lovely, as many as [are] of good report, if any worthiness, and if any praise, think on these things;

⁹ the things that you also learned, and receive, and hear, and saw in me, do those, and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰ And I rejoiced in the LORD greatly, that now at length you flourished again in caring for me, for which also you were caring, and lacked opportunity;

¹¹ I do not say that in respect of want, for I learned in the things in which I am—to be content;

¹² I have known both to be abased, and I have known to abound; in everything and in all things I have been initiated, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want.

¹³ I have strength for all things, in Christ's strengthening me;

¹⁴ but you did well, having shared in my tribulation;

¹⁵ and you have known, even you Philippians, that in the beginning of the good news when I went forth from Macedonia, no assembly communicated with me in regard to giving and receiving except you only;

¹⁶ because in Thessalonica also, both once and again you sent to my need;

¹⁷ not that I seek after the gift, but I seek after the fruit that is overflowing to your account;

¹⁸ and I have all things, and abound; I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you—an odor of a refreshing fragrance—a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God:

¹⁹ and my God will supply all your need, according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus;

²⁰ and to God, even our Father, [is] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen.

²¹ Every holy one in Christ Jesus greets you; the brothers with me greet you;

²² all the holy ones greet you, and especially those of Caesar's house.

²³ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you all! Amen.

Colossians

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timotheus the brother,

² to the holy ones in Colossae, and to the faithful brothers in Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

³ We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you,

⁴ having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love that [is] to all the holy ones,

⁵ because of the hope that is laid up for you in the heavens, which you heard of beforehand by the word of the truth of the good news,

⁶ which has come to you, as also in all the world, and is bearing fruit, as also in you, from the day in which you heard, and knew the grace of God in truth,

⁷ as you also learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful servant of the Christ for you,

⁸ who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹ Because of this, we also, from the day in which we heard, do not cease praying for you, and asking that you may be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding,

¹⁰ to walk worthily of the LORD, pleasing in all, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

¹¹ in all might being made mighty according to the power of His glory, to all endurance and long-suffering with joy.

¹² Giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us for the participation of the inheritance of the holy ones in the light,

¹³ who rescued us out of the authority of the darkness, and translated [us] into the kingdom of the Son of His love,

¹⁴ in whom we have the redemption [[through His blood]], the forgiveness of sins,

¹⁵ who is the image of the invisible God, firstborn of all creation,

¹⁶ because all things were created in Him, those in the heavens, and those on the earth, those visible, and those invisible, whether thrones, whether lordships, whether principalities, whether authorities; all things have been created through Him and for Him,

¹⁷ and He is before all, and all things have consisted in Him.

¹⁸ And He is the head of the body—the Assembly—who is a beginning, a firstborn out of the dead, that He might become first in all [things] Himself,

¹⁹ because all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him,

²⁰ and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself—having made peace through the blood of His Cross—through Him, whether the things on the earth, whether the things in the heavens.

²¹ And you—once being alienated, and enemies in the mind, in the evil works, yet now He reconciled,

²² in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblemished, and unblameable before Himself,

²³ if you also remain in the faith, being founded and settled, and not moved away from the hope of the good news, which you heard, which was preached in all the creation that [is] under Heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant.

²⁴ I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up the things lacking of the tribulations of the Christ in my flesh for His body, which is the Assembly,

²⁵ of which I became a servant according to the dispensation of God, that was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,

²⁶ the secret that has been hid from the ages and from the generations, but now was revealed to His holy ones,

²⁷ to whom God willed to make known what [is] the riches of the glory of this secret among the nations—which is Christ in you, the hope of the glory,

²⁸ whom we proclaim, warning every man, and teaching every man, in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus,

²⁹ for which I also labor, striving according to His working that is working in me in power.

¹ For I wish you to know how great a conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh,

² that their hearts may be comforted, being united in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of the understanding, to the full knowledge of the secret of the God and Father, and of the Christ,

³ in whom are all the treasures of the wisdom and the knowledge hid,

⁴ and this I say, that no one may deceive you with enticing words,

⁵ for if even in the flesh I am absent—yet in the spirit I am with you, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in regard to Christ;

⁶ as, then, you received Christ Jesus the LORD, walk in Him,

⁷ being rooted and built up in Him, and confirmed in the faith, as you were taught—abounding in it in thanksgiving.

⁸ See that no one will be carrying you away as spoil through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not according to Christ,

⁹ because in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily,

¹⁰ and you are made full in Him, who is the head of all principality and authority,

¹¹ in whom you also were circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of sins of the flesh by the circumcision of the Christ,

¹² being buried with Him in the immersion, in which you also rose with [Him] through the faith of the working of God, who raised Him out of the dead.

¹³ And you—being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh—He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all the trespasses,

¹⁴ having blotted out the handwriting in the ordinances that is against us, that was contrary to us, and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the Cross;

¹⁵ having stripped the principalities and the authorities, He made a show of them openly—having triumphed over them by it.

¹⁶ Let no one, then, judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a celebration, or of a new moon, or of Sabbaths,

¹⁷ which are a shadow of the coming things, but the body [is] of the Christ;

¹⁹ and not holding the Head, from which all the body—gathering supply through the joints and bands, and being knit together—may increase with the increase of God.

²⁰ If, then, you died with the Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as living in the world, are you subject to ordinances—

²¹ you may not touch, nor taste, nor handle—

²² which are all for destruction with the using, after the commands and teachings of men,

²³ which are, indeed, having a matter of wisdom in self-willed religion, and humble-mindedness, and neglecting of body—not of any value to satisfying the flesh.

¹ If, then, you were raised with the Christ, seek the things above, where the Christ is, seated on the right hand of God;

² mind the things above, not the things on the earth,

³ for you died, and your life has been hid with the Christ in God;

⁴ when the Christ—our life—may have appeared, then we will also appear with Him in glory.

⁵ Put to death, then, your members that [are] on the earth—whoredom, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and the covetousness, which is idolatry—

⁶ because of which things comes the anger of God on the sons of the disobedience,

⁷ in which you also—you once walked, when you lived in them;

⁸ but now put off, even you, the whole—anger, wrath, malice, slander, filthy talking—out of your mouth.

⁹ Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices,

¹⁰ and having put on the new, which is renewed in regard to knowledge, after the image of Him who created him,

¹¹ where there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, servant, freeman, but Christ [is] all and in all.

¹² Put on, therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, yearnings of mercies, kindness, humble-mindedness, meekness, long-suffering,

¹³ bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if anyone may have a quarrel with anyone, as the Christ also forgave you—so also you;

¹⁴ and above all these things, [have] love, which is a bond of the perfection,

¹⁵ and let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you were also called in one body, and become thankful.

¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing each other, in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, in grace singing in your hearts to the LORD;

¹⁷ and all, whatever you may do in word or in work, [do] all things in the Name of the Lord Jesus—giving thanks to the God and Father, through Him.

¹⁸ The wives: be subject to your own husbands, as is fit in the LORD;

¹⁹ the husbands: love your wives, and do not be bitter with them;

²⁰ the children: obey the parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the LORD;

²¹ the fathers: do not distress your children, lest they be discouraged;

²² the servants: obey those who are masters in all things according to the flesh, not in eye-service as men-pleasers, but in simplicity of heart, fearing God;

²³ and all, whatever you may do—out of soul work—as to the LORD, and not to men,

²⁴ having known that you will receive the repayment of the inheritance from the LORD—for you serve the LORD Christ;

²⁵ and he who is doing unrighteously will receive what he did unrighteously, and there is no favor by appearance.

¹ The masters: give that which is righteous and equal to the servants, having known that you also have a Master in the heavens.

² Continue in the prayer, watching in it in thanksgiving,

³ also praying for us at the same time, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the secret of the Christ, because of which I have also been bound,

⁴ that I may reveal it, as it is necessary for me to speak.

⁵ Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time,

⁶ your word always being seasoned with salt in grace—to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

⁷ Tychicus will make known to you all the things concerning me—the beloved brother, and faithful servant, and fellow-servant in the LORD—

⁸ whom I sent to you for this very thing, that he might know the things concerning you, and might comfort your hearts,

⁹ with Onesimus the faithful and beloved brother, who is of you; they will make known to you all things that [are] here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus greets you, my fellow-captive, and Marcus, the nephew of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commands—if he may come to you, receive him),

¹¹ and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of circumcision: these [are the] only fellow-workers for the Kingdom of God who become a comfort to me.

¹² Epaphras greets you, who [is] of you, a servant of Christ, always striving for you in the prayers, that you may stand perfect and made full in all the will of God,

¹³ for I testify to him that he has much zeal for you, and those in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis.

¹⁴ Lucas greets you, the beloved physician, and Demas;

¹⁵ those in Laodicea greet you—brothers, and Nymphas, and the assembly in his house;

¹⁶ and when the letter may be read with you, cause that it may also be read in the assembly of the Laodiceans, and the [letter] from Laodicea that you also may read;

¹⁷ and say to Archippus, “See to the ministry that you received in the LORD, that you may fulfill it.”

¹⁸ The salutation [is] by my hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

First Thessalonians

¹ Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, to the assembly of Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

² We always give thanks to God for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

³ unceasingly remembering your work of faith, and the labor of the love, and the endurance of the hope, of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the presence of our God and Father,

⁴ having known, beloved brothers, by God, your [divine] selection,

⁵ because our good news did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance, even as you have known of what sort we became among you for your sake,

⁶ and you became imitators of us and of the LORD, having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit,

⁷ so that you became patterns to all those believing in Macedonia and Achaia,

⁸ for from you has sounded forth the word of the LORD, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God went forth, so that we have no need to say anything,

⁹ for they themselves declare concerning us what entrance we had to you, and how you turned to God from the idols, to serve a living and true God,

¹⁰ and to wait for His Son from the heavens, whom He raised out of the dead—Jesus, who is rescuing us from the anger that is coming.

¹ For you have known, brothers, that our entrance to you has not been in vain,

³ for our exhortation [is] not out of deceit, nor out of uncleanness, nor in guile,

⁴ but as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the good news, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who is proving our hearts,

⁵ for at no time did we come with speech of flattery (as you have known), nor in a pretext for covetousness (God [is] witness),

⁶ nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, being able to be burdensome, as Christ's apostles.

⁷ But we became gentle in your midst, as a nurse may nurture her own children,

⁸ so being desirous of you, we are well-pleased to impart to you not only the good news of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us,

⁹ for you remember, brothers, our labor and travail, for working night and day not to be a burden on any of you, we preached the good news of God to you;

¹⁰ you [are] witnesses—God also—how piously and righteously and blamelessly we became to you who believe,

¹¹ even as you have known how we are exhorting each one of you, as a father his own children, and comforting, and testifying,

¹² for your walking worthily of God, who is calling you to His own kingdom and glory.

¹³ And because of this we also continually give thanks to God, that, having received the word of God [by] your hearing from us, you accepted, not the word of men, but as it truly is, the word of God, who also works in you who believe;

¹⁴ for you became imitators, brothers, of the assemblies of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because you suffered such things, even you, from your own countrymen, as they also from the Jews,

¹⁵ who put to death both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and persecuted us, and they are not pleasing God, and [are] contrary to all men,

¹⁶ forbidding us to speak to the nations that they might be saved, so as to always fill up their sins, but [God's] anger came on them—to the end!

¹⁷ And we, brothers, having been taken from you for the space of an hour—in presence, not in heart—hurried more abundantly to see your face in much desire;

¹⁸ for this reason we wished to come to you (I, indeed, Paul), both once and again, and Satan hindered us;

¹⁹ for what [is] our hope, or joy, or garland of rejoicing? Are not even you before our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?

²⁰ For you are our glory and joy.

¹ For this reason, enduring no longer, we thought good to be left in Athens alone,

² and sent Timotheus—our brother, and a servant of God, and our fellow-workman in the good news of the Christ—to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith,

³ that no one be moved in these tribulations, for you have known that we are set for this,

⁴ for even when we were with you, we said to you beforehand that we are about to suffer tribulation, as it also came to pass, and you have known [it];

⁵ because of this also, I, no longer enduring, sent to know your faith, lest he who is tempting tempted you, and our labor might be in vain.

⁶ And Timotheus now having come to us from you, and having declared good news to us of your faith and love, and that you always have a good remembrance of us, desiring much to see us, as we also [to see] you,

⁷ because of this we were comforted, brothers, over you, in all our tribulation and necessity, through your faith,

⁸ because now we live, if you may stand fast in the LORD.

⁹ For what thanks are we able to repay to God for you, for all the joy with which we delight because of you in the presence of our God,

¹⁰ exceedingly imploring night and day, that we might see your face, and perfect the things lacking in your faith?

¹¹ And our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you,

¹² and the LORD cause you to increase and to abound in the love to one another, and to all, even as we also to you,

¹³ in order to have established your hearts, blameless in sanctification before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His holy ones.

¹ As to the rest, then, brothers, we request, and call on you in the Lord Jesus, as you received from us how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God, that you may abound the more,

² for you have known what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus;

³ for this is the will of God—your sanctification: that you abstain from the whoredom,

⁴ that each of you know to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

⁵ not in the affection of desire, as also the nations that were not knowing God,

⁶ that no one goes beyond and defrauds his brother in the matter, because the LORD [is] an avenger of all these, as we also spoke to you before and testified,

⁷ for God did not call us to uncleanness, but in sanctification.

⁸ He, therefore, who is despising, does not despise man, but God, who also gave His Holy Spirit to us.

⁹ And concerning the brotherly love, you have no need of [my] writing to you, for you yourselves are God-taught to love one another,

¹⁰ for you do it also to all the brothers who [are] in all Macedonia; and we call on you, brothers, to abound still more,

¹¹ and to study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,

¹² that you may walk properly to those outside, and may have lack of nothing.

¹³ And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, that you may not sorrow, as also the rest who have no hope,

¹⁴ for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also God will bring with Him those asleep through Jesus,

¹⁵ for we say this to you in the word of the LORD, that we who are living—who remain over to the coming of the LORD—may not precede those asleep,

¹⁶ because the LORD Himself, with a shout, with the voice of a chief-messenger, and with the trumpet of God, will come down from Heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first;

¹⁷ then we who are living, who are remaining over, will be snatched up together with them in [the] clouds to meet the LORD in [the] air, and so we will always be with the LORD;

¹⁸ so, then, comfort one another with these words.

¹ And concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need of my writing to you,

² for you have thoroughly known that the Day of the LORD so comes as a thief in the night,

³ for when they may say, "Peace and security," then sudden destruction comes [on] them, as the travail [on] her who is with child, and they will not escape;

⁴ but you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the Day may catch you as a thief;

⁵ you are all sons of light, and sons of day; we are not of night, nor of darkness,

⁶ so, then, we may not sleep as also the others, but watch and be sober,

⁷ for those sleeping, sleep by night, and those making themselves drunk, are drunken by night,

⁸ and we, being of the day—let us be sober, putting on a breastplate of faith and love, and a helmet—a hope of salvation,

⁹ because God did not appoint us to anger, but to the acquiring of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁰ who died for us, that whether we wake—whether we sleep—we may live together with Him;

¹¹ for this reason, comfort one another, and build up one another, as also you do.

¹² And we ask you, brothers, to know those laboring among you and leading you in the LORD and admonishing you,

¹³ and to esteem them very abundantly in love, because of their work; be at peace among yourselves;

¹⁴ and we exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient to all;

¹⁵ see [that] no one may render evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue that which is good, both to one another and to all;

¹⁶ always rejoice;

¹⁷ continually pray;

¹⁸ give thanks in everything, for this [is] the will of God in Christ Jesus in regard to you.

¹⁹ Do not quench the Spirit;

²⁰ do not despise prophesyings;

²¹ prove all things; hold fast [to] that which is good;

²² abstain from all appearance of evil;

²³ and may the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved, unblameably at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;

²⁴ He who is calling you is steadfast, who also will do [it].

²⁵ Brothers, pray for us.

²⁶ Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

²⁷ I charge you [by] the LORD, that the letter be read to all the holy brothers.

²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you! Amen.

Second Thessalonians

¹ Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, to the assembly of Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

⁴ so that we ourselves glory in you in the assemblies of God, for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you bear—

⁵ a token of the righteous judgment of God, for your being counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you also suffer,

⁶ since [it is] a righteous thing with God to give back to those troubling you—tribulation,

⁷ and to you who are troubled—rest with us in the revelation of the Lord Jesus from Heaven, with messengers of His power,

⁸ in flaming fire, giving vengeance to those not knowing God, and to those not obeying the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁹ who will suffer justice—continuous destruction—from the face of the LORD, and from the glory of His strength,

¹⁰ when He may come to be glorified in His holy ones, and to be wondered at by all those believing—because our testimony was believed among you—in that day;

¹¹ for which we also always pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of the calling, and may fulfill all the good pleasure of goodness, and the work of faith in power,

¹² that the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ And we ask you, brothers, in regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of our gathering together to Him,

² that you are not quickly shaken in mind, nor be troubled, neither through spirit, neither through word, neither through letters as through us, as that the Day of the LORD has arrived;

³ do not let anyone deceive you in any way, because if the departure may not come first, the man of lawlessness may [not] be revealed—the son of destruction,

⁴ who is opposing and is raising himself up above all called god or worshiped, so as for him to have sat down in the temple of God, proclaiming that he is God.

⁵ Do you not remember that, yet being with you, I said these things to you?

⁶ And now, you have known what is restraining, for his being revealed in his own time,

⁷ for the secret of lawlessness already works, only the [One] now restraining [will do so] until He may come out of [the] midst,

⁸ and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the LORD will consume with the Spirit of His mouth, and will nullify at the appearance of His coming,

⁹ whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

¹⁰ and in all deceitfulness of the unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth for their being saved,

¹¹ and because of this God will send to them a working of delusion, for their believing the lie,

¹² that they may be judged—all who did not believe the truth, but were well pleased in the unrighteousness.

¹³ And we ought to give thanks to God always for you, brothers, beloved by the LORD, that God chose you from the beginning to salvation, in sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth,

¹⁴ to which He called you through our good news, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ;

¹⁵ so, then, brothers, stand fast, and hold the traditions that you were taught, whether through word, whether through our letter;

¹⁶ and may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, who loved us, and gave continuous comfort, and good hope in grace, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

¹ As to the rest, pray, brothers, concerning us, that the word of the LORD may run and may be glorified, as also with you,

² and that we may be delivered from the unreasonable and evil men, for not all [are] of the faith;

³ but faithful is the LORD who will establish you, and will guard [you] from the evil [one];

⁴ and we now have confidence in the LORD, that which we command you both do and will do;

⁵ and the LORD direct your hearts to the love of God, and to the endurance of the Christ.

⁶ And we command you, brothers, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to withdraw yourselves from every brother walking disorderly, and not after the tradition that you received from us,

⁷ for you have known how it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not act disorderly among you;

⁸ nor did we eat bread of anyone for nothing, but in labor and in travail, working night and day, not to be chargeable to any of you;

⁹ not because we have no authority, but that we might give ourselves to you [as] a pattern, to imitate us;

¹⁰ for even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat,

¹¹ for we hear of some walking disorderly among you, working nothing, but being busybodies,

¹² and such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they may eat their own bread;

¹³ and you, brothers, may you not be weary doing well,

¹⁴ and if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed,

¹⁵ and do not count as an enemy, but admonish as a brother;

¹⁶ and may the LORD of peace Himself always give to you peace in every way; the LORD [is] with you all!

¹⁷ The salutation by the hand of me, Paul, which is a sign in every letter; thus I write.

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you all! Amen.

First Timothy

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to a command of God our Savior, and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope,

² to Timotheus—genuine child in faith: Grace, kindness, peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

³ According as I exhorted you to remain in Ephesus—I going on to Macedonia—that you might charge certain [ones] not to teach any other thing,

⁴ nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, that cause questions rather than [the] stewardship of God which [is] in faith.

⁵ And the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of unhypocritical faith,

⁶ from which certain [men], having swerved, turned aside to vain discourse,

⁷ willing to be teachers of law, not understanding either the things they say, nor concerning what they confidently assert,

⁸ and we have known that the Law [is] good, if anyone may use it lawfully;

⁹ having known this, that law is not set for a righteous man, but for lawless and insubordinate persons, ungodly and sinners, impious and profane, murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, manslayers,

¹⁰ whoremongers, homosexuals, enslavers, liars, perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is adverse to sound doctrine,

¹¹ according to the good news of the glory of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted.

¹² And I give thanks to Him who enabled me—Christ Jesus our Lord—that He reckoned me steadfast, having put [me] to the ministry,

¹³ who before was speaking slander, and persecuting, and insulting, but I found kindness, because, being ignorant, I did [it] in unbelief,

¹⁴ and the grace of our Lord exceedingly abounded, with faith and love that [is] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ The word [is] steadfast, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am first;

¹⁶ but because of this I found kindness, that Jesus Christ might first show forth all long-suffering in me, for a pattern of those about to believe on Him to continuous life.

¹⁷ And to the King of the ages, the incorruptible, invisible, only wise God, [is] honor and glory through the ages of the ages! Amen.

¹⁸ I commit to you this charge, child Timotheus, according to the prophecies that went before on you, that you may war in them the good warfare,

¹⁹ having faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away, made shipwreck concerning the faith,

²⁰ of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be instructed not to speak evil.

¹ I exhort, then, first of all, there be made supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, for all men—

² for kings, and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all piety and gravity,

³ for this [is] right and acceptable before God our Savior,

⁴ who wills all men to be saved, and to come to the full knowledge of the truth;

⁵ for [there is] one God, also one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus,

⁶ who gave Himself [as] a ransom for all—the testimony in its own times—

⁷ in regard to which I was set a preacher and apostle—truth I say in Christ, I do not lie—a teacher of nations, in faith and truth.

⁸ I intend, therefore, that men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, apart from anger and deliberation;

⁹ also the women in like manner, in orderly apparel, to adorn themselves with modesty and sobriety, not in braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or clothing of great price,

¹⁰ but—which becomes women professing godly piety—through good works.

¹¹ Let a woman learn in quietness in all subjection,

¹² and I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to rule a husband, but to be in quietness,

¹³ for Adam was formed first, then Eve,

¹⁴ and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression,

¹⁵ and she will be saved through the childbearing, if they remain in faith, and love, and sanctification, with sobriety.

¹ The word [is] steadfast: If anyone longs for overseership, he desires a right work;

² it is required, therefore, the overseer to be blameless, a husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, respectable, a friend of strangers, apt to teach,

³ not given to wine, not a striker, but gentle, not contentious, not a lover of money,

⁴ leading his own house well, having children in subjection with all dignity,

⁵ (and if anyone has not known [how] to lead his own house, how will he take care of an assembly of God?)

⁶ not a new convert, lest having been puffed up he may fall to a judgment of the Devil;

⁷ and it is required of him also to have a good testimony from those outside, that he may not fall into reproach and a snare of the Devil.

⁸ Servants, in like manner, dignified, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not given to shameful gain,

⁹ having the secret of the faith in a pure conscience,

¹⁰ and let these also first be proved, then let them minister, being unblameable.

¹¹ Women, in like manner, dignified, not false accusers, vigilant, faithful in all things.

¹² Servants—let them be husbands of one wife, leading the children well, and their own houses,

¹³ for those who ministered well acquire a good step to themselves, and much boldness in faith that [is] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ I write to you these things, hoping to come to you soon,

¹⁵ and if I delay, that you may know how it is required to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is an assembly of the living God—a pillar and foundation of the truth,

¹⁶ and confessedly, great is the secret of piety: who was revealed in flesh, declared righteous in [the] Spirit, seen by messengers, preached among nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory!

¹ And the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and teachings of demons,

² speaking lies in hypocrisy, being seared in their own conscience,

³ forbidding to marry—to abstain from meats that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those believing and acknowledging the truth,

⁴ because every creature of God [is] good, and nothing [is] to be rejected, with thanksgiving being received,

⁵ for it is sanctified through the word of God and intercession.

⁶ Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, being nourished by the words of the faith, and of the good teaching, which you followed after,

⁷ but reject the profane and old women's fables, and exercise yourself to piety,

⁸ for bodily exercise is to little profit, but piety is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is coming;

⁹ the word [is] steadfast, and worthy of all acceptance;

¹⁰ for this we both labor and are reproached, because we hope on the living God, who is Savior of all men—especially of those believing.

¹¹ Charge these things, and teach;

¹² let no one despise your youth, but become a pattern of those believing in word, in behavior, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity;

¹³ until I come, give heed to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching;

¹⁴ do not be careless of the gift in you, that was given you through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the eldership;

¹⁵ be careful of these things; be in these things, that your advancement may be evident in all things;

¹⁶ take heed to yourself and to the teaching; remain in them, for doing this thing, you will save both yourself and those hearing you.

¹ You may not rebuke an elder, but exhort [him] as a father, younger persons as brothers,

² aged women as mothers, younger ones as sisters—in all purity;

³ honor widows who are really widows;

⁴ and if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety to their own house, and to give back a repayment to the parents, for this is right and acceptable before God.

⁵ And she who is really a widow and desolate, has hoped on God, and remains in the supplications and in the prayers night and day,

⁶ but she given to luxury [while] living has died;

⁷ and charge these things, that they may be blameless;

⁸ and if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of the household, he has denied the faith, and he is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ A widow—do not let her be enrolled under sixty years of age, having been a wife of one husband,

¹⁰ being testified to in good works: if she brought up children, if she entertained strangers, if she washed holy ones' feet, if she relieved those in tribulation, if she followed after every good work;

¹¹ and be refusing younger widows, for when they may revel against the Christ, they wish to marry,

¹² having judgment, because they cast away the first faith,

¹³ and also at the same time, they learn [to be] idle, going around the houses; and not only idle, but also tattlers and busybodies, speaking things they should not;

¹⁴ I intend, therefore, younger ones to marry, to bear children, to be mistress of the house, to give no occasion to the opposer of reviling;

¹⁵ for some already turned aside after Satan.

¹⁶ If any believing man or believing woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the assembly be burdened, that it may relieve those [who are] really widows.

¹⁷ Let them, the well-leading elders, be counted worthy of double honor, especially those laboring in word and teaching,

¹⁸ for the Writing says, "You will not muzzle an ox treading out," and, "Worthy [is] the workman of his reward."

¹⁹ Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except on two or three witnesses.

²⁰ Reprove those sinning before all, that the others may also have fear;

²¹ I fully testify, before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the chosen messengers, that you may keep these things, without prejudging, doing nothing by partiality.

²² Be quickly laying hands on no one, nor be having fellowship with [the] sins of others; be keeping yourself pure;

²³ no longer be drinking water, but be using a little wine, because of your stomach and of your frequent sicknesses;

²⁴ the sins of certain men are evident beforehand, leading before to judgment, but some also they follow after;

²⁵ in like manner the right works are also evident beforehand, and those that are otherwise are not able to be hid.

¹ As many as are servants under a yoke, let them reckon their own masters worthy of all honor; that evil may not be spoken of the Name of God and the teaching;

² and those having believing masters, do not let them slight [them], because they are brothers, but rather let them serve, because they are steadfast and beloved, who are partaking of the benefit. Be teaching and exhorting these things;

³ if anyone be teaching otherwise, and does not consent to sound words—those of our Lord Jesus Christ—and to the teaching according to piety,

⁴ he is proud, knowing nothing, but unhealthy about questions and word-striving, out of which come envy, strife, slanders, evil-surmisings,

⁵ wranglings of men wholly corrupted in mind, and destitute of the truth, supposing the piety to be gain; depart from such;

⁶ but it is great gain—the piety with contentment;

⁷ for we brought nothing into the world—because neither are we able to carry out anything;

⁸ but having food and raiment—with these we will suffice ourselves;

⁹ and those intending to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many desires, foolish and hurtful, that sink men into ruin and destruction,

¹⁰ for the love of money is a root of all the evils, which certain [ones] longing for went astray from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows;

¹¹ and you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, piety, faith, love, endurance, meekness.

¹² Be striving the good strife of the faith; be laying hold on the continuous life to which you also were called, and did profess the right profession before many witnesses.

¹³ I charge you, before God, who is making all things alive, and of Christ Jesus, who testified the right profession before Pontius Pilate,

¹⁴ that you keep the command unspotted, unblameable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁵ which He will show in His own times—the blessed and only sovereign, the King of the kings and Lord of the lords,

¹⁶ having immortality alone, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no one of men saw, nor is able to see, to whom [is] honor and perpetual might! Amen.

¹⁷ Charge those rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, who is giving to us all things richly for enjoyment—

¹⁸ to do good, to be rich in good works, to be ready to impart, willing to communicate,

¹⁹ treasuring up to themselves a right foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on [that which is] truly life.

²⁰ O Timotheus, guard the thing entrusted, avoiding the profane vain-words and opposition of the falsely-named knowledge, ²¹ which certain [ones] professing—swerved concerning the faith. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

Second Timothy

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, according to a promise of life that [is] in Christ Jesus,

² to Timotheus, beloved child: Grace, kindness, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

³ I am thankful to God, whom I serve from progenitors in a pure conscience, that I unceasingly have remembrance concerning you in my supplications night and day,

⁴ desiring to see you greatly, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy,

⁵ taking remembrance of the unhypocritical faith that is in you, that first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that also in you.

⁶ For which cause I remind you to stir up the gift of God that is in you through the putting on of my hands,

⁷ for God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind;

⁸ therefore you may not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but you suffer evil along with the good news according to the power of God,

⁹ who saved us, and called with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, that was given to us in Christ Jesus, before the times of the ages,

¹⁰ and was made visible now through the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who indeed abolished death, and enlightened life and immortality through the good news,

¹¹ to which I was placed a preacher and an apostle, and a teacher of nations,

¹² for which cause these things I also suffer, but I am not ashamed, for I have known in whom I have believed, and have been persuaded that He is able to guard that which I have committed to Him—to that day.

¹³ Hold the pattern of sound words, which you heard from me, in faith and love that [is] in Christ Jesus;

¹⁴ guard the good thing committed through the Holy Spirit that is dwelling in us;

¹⁵ you have known this, that they turned from me—all those in Asia, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes;

¹⁶ may the LORD give kindness to the house of Onesiphorus, because he refreshed me many times, and was not ashamed of my chain,

¹⁷ but being in Rome, he sought me very diligently and found [me];

¹⁸ may the LORD give to him to find kindness from the LORD in that day; and you very well know how much he ministered in Ephesus.

¹ You, therefore, my child, be strong in the grace that [is] in Christ Jesus,

² and the things that you heard from me through many witnesses, be committing these things to steadfast men, who will also be sufficient to teach others;

³ you, therefore, suffer evil as a good soldier of Jesus Christ;

⁴ no one serving as a soldier entangles himself with the affairs of life, that he may please him who enlisted him;

⁵ and if anyone also may strive, he is not crowned, except he may strive lawfully;

⁶ it is first necessary [for] the laboring farmer to partake of the fruits;

⁷ be considering what things I say, for the LORD gives to you understanding in all things.

⁸ Remember Jesus Christ, raised out of the dead, of the seed of David, according to my good news,

⁹ in which I suffer evil—to bonds, as an evildoer, but the word of God has not been bound;

¹⁰ because of this I endure all things, because of the chosen ones, that they also may obtain salvation that [is] in Christ Jesus, with perpetual glory.

¹¹ The word [is] steadfast: For if we died together—we will also live together;

¹² if we endure together—we will also reign together; if we deny [Him], He will also deny us;

¹³ if we are not steadfast, He remains steadfast; He is not able to deny Himself.

¹⁴ Remind [them] of these things, testifying fully before the LORD—not to strive about words to nothing profitable, but to the subversion of those hearing;

¹⁵ be diligent to present yourself approved to God—a workman not ashamed, straightly cutting the word of truth;

¹⁶ and stand aloof from the profane vain talkings, for they will advance to more impiety,

¹⁷ and their word will have pasture as a gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus,

¹⁸ who swerved concerning the truth, saying the resurrection to have already been, and overthrows the faith of some;

¹⁹ sure, nevertheless, the foundation of God has stood, having this seal: “The LORD has known those who are His,” and, “Let him depart from unrighteousness—everyone who is naming the Name of Christ.”

²⁰ And in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some to honor, and some to dishonor:

²¹ if, then, anyone may cleanse himself from these, he will be a vessel to honor, sanctified and profitable to the master—having been prepared to every good work;

²² and flee the youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those calling on the LORD out of a pure heart;

²³ and be avoiding the foolish and uninstructed questions, having known that they beget strife,

²⁴ and a servant of the LORD must not quarrel, but to be gentle to all, apt to teach, patient under evil,

²⁵ instructing those opposing in meekness—if perhaps God may give to them conversion to an acknowledging of the truth,

²⁶ and they may awake out of the Devil's snare, having been caught by him at his will.

¹ And know this, that in the last days there will come perilous times,
² for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, slanderous, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unkind,

³ without natural affection, implacable, false accusers, without control, barbaric, not lovers of those who are good,

⁴ traitors, reckless, lofty, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God,
⁵ having a form of piety, but having denied its power; and be turning away from these,

⁶ for of these there are those coming into the houses and leading captive the weak women, loaded with sins, led away with manifold desires,

⁷ always learning, and never able to come to a knowledge of truth,

⁸ and even as Jannes and Jambres stood against Moses, so these also stand against the truth, men corrupted in mind, disapproved concerning the faith;

⁹ but they will not advance any further, for their folly will be evident to all, as theirs also became.

¹⁰ And you have followed after my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, love, endurance,

¹¹ the persecutions, the afflictions, that befell me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what persecutions I endured! And the LORD delivered me out of all.

¹² And all who will to live piously in Christ Jesus will also be persecuted,

¹³ and evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, leading astray and being led astray.

¹⁴ And you—remain in the things which you learned and were entrusted with, having known from whom you learned,

¹⁵ and because you have known the Holy Writings from infancy, which are able to make you wise—to salvation, through faith that [is] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁶ Every Writing [is] God-breathed, and profitable for teaching, for conviction, for correction, for instruction that [is] in righteousness,

¹⁷ that the man of God may be fitted—having been completed for every good work.

¹ I fully testify, then, before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is about to judge [the] living and dead at His appearing and His Kingdom—

² preach the word; be earnest in season, out of season; convict, rebuke, exhort, in all long-suffering and teaching,

³ for there will be a season when they will not endure the sound teaching, but they will heap up teachers according to their own desires—having an itching ear,

⁴ and, indeed, they will turn away from hearing the truth, and they will be turned aside to the fables.

⁵ But you—watch in all things; suffer evil; do the work of one proclaiming good news; make full assurance of your ministry,

⁶ for I am already being poured out, and the time of my release has arrived;

⁷ I have striven the good strife, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith;

⁸ from now on there is laid up for me the garland of righteousness that the LORD—the Righteous Judge—will give to me in that day, and not only to me, but also to all those loving His appearing.

⁹ Be diligent to come to me quickly,

¹⁰ for Demas forsook me, having loved the present age, and went on to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia;

¹¹ only Lucas is with me; having taken Mark, bring [him] with you, for he is profitable to me for ministry;

¹² and I sent Tychicus to Ephesus;

¹³ coming, bring the cloak that I left in Troas with Carpus and the scrolls—especially the parchments.

¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; may the LORD repay to him according to his works,

¹⁵ of whom you also beware, for he has greatly stood against our words;

¹⁶ no one stood with me in my first defense, but all forsook me (may it not be reckoned to them),

¹⁷ but the LORD stood by me, and strengthened me, that the preaching might be fully assured through me, and all the nations might hear, and I was freed out of the mouth of a lion, ¹⁸ and the LORD will free me from every evil work, and will save [me]—to His heavenly kingdom; to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages! Amen.

¹⁹ Greet Prisca and Aquilas, and Onesiphorus' household;

²⁰ Erastus remained in Corinth, and I left Trophimus ailing in Miletus;

²¹ be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brothers.

²² The Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your spirit. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

Titus

¹ Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of the chosen ones of God, and an acknowledging of truth that [is] according to piety,

² on hope of continuous life, which God, who does not lie, promised before times of ages

³ (and He revealed His word in [His] own times), in preaching, which I was entrusted with, according to a charge of God our Savior,

⁴ to Titus—true child according to a common faith: Grace, [[kindness,]] peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior!

⁵ For this cause I left you in Crete, that you may arrange the things lacking, and may set elders down in every city, as I appointed to you,

⁶ if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having believing children, not under accusation of riotous living or insubordinate—

⁸ but a lover of strangers, a lover of [the] good, sober-minded, righteous, holy, self-controlled,

⁹ holding—according to the teaching—to the steadfast word, that he may also be able to exhort in the sound teaching, and to convict the deniers;

¹⁰ for there are many both insubordinate, vain-talkers, and mind-deceivers—especially those of the circumcision—

¹¹ whose mouths must be covered, who overturn whole households, teaching what things it should not, for [the] sake of shameful gain.

¹² A certain one of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans! Always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies!"

¹³ This testimony is true; for which cause convict them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,

¹⁴ not giving heed to Jewish fables and commands of men, turning themselves away from the truth.

¹⁶ They profess to know God, but they deny [Him] by their works, being abominable, and disobedient, and disapproved to every good work.

¹ But you—speak what is suitable [according] to the sound teaching.

² Elders [are] to be temperate, dignified, sober, sound in faith, in the love, in the endurance.

³ Aged women, in like manner, in behavior as becomes sacred persons, not false accusers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of good things,

⁴ that they may make the young women sober-minded, to be lovers of [their] husbands, lovers of [their] children,

⁵ sober, pure, keepers of [their own] houses, good, subject to their own husbands, that evil may not be spoken of the word of God.

⁶ The younger men, in like manner, exhort [them] to be sober-minded.

⁷ Concerning all things, present yourself [as] a pattern of good works—in the teaching [with] uncorruptedness, dignity,

⁸ sound discourse [that is] blameless, so that he who is of the contrary may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say concerning you.

⁹ Servants [are] to be subject to their own masters, to be well-pleasing in all things, not contradicting,

¹⁰ not stealing, but showing all good steadfastness, that the teaching of God our Savior they may adorn in all things.

¹¹ For the saving grace of God has appeared to all men,

¹² teaching us, that denying the impiety and the worldly desires, we may live soberly, and righteously, and piously in the present age,

¹³ waiting for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

¹⁴ who gave Himself for us, that He might ransom us from all lawlessness, and might purify to Himself a special people, zealous of good works.

¹⁵ Speak these things, and exhort and convict with all authority; let no one despise you!

¹ Remind them to be subject to principalities and authorities, to obey rule, to be ready to every good work,

² to speak evil of no one, not to be quarrelsome—gentle, showing all meekness to all men,

³ for we, also, were once thoughtless, disobedient, led astray, serving manifold desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, odious—hating one another;

⁴ and when the kindness and the love to men of God our Savior appeared

⁵ (not by works that [are] in righteousness that we did but according to His kindness), He saved us, through a bathing of regeneration, and a renewing of the Holy Spirit,

⁶ which He poured on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior,

⁷ that having been declared righteous by His grace, we may become heirs according to the hope of continuous life.

⁸ The word [is] steadfast; and concerning these things I intend you to affirm fully, that they may be thoughtful, to be leading in good works—who have believed God; these are the good and profitable things to men,

⁹ but stand away from foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about law—for they are unprofitable and vain.

¹⁰ Reject a heretical man, after a first and second admonition,

¹¹ having known that he has been subverted who [is] such, and sins, being self-condemned.

¹² When I will send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there.

¹³ Diligently send forth Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, that nothing to them may be lacking, ¹⁴ and let them learn—ours also—to be leading in good works to the necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

¹⁵ All those with me greet you. Greet those cherishing us in faith. The grace [is] with you all!

Philemon

¹ Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timotheus the brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow-worker,

² and Apphia the beloved, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and the assembly in your house:

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

⁴ I give thanks to my God, always making mention of you in my prayers,

⁵ hearing of your love and faith that you have to the Lord Jesus and toward all the holy ones,

⁶ that the fellowship of your faith may become working in the full knowledge of every good thing that [is] in you toward Christ Jesus;

⁷ for we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the yearnings of the holy ones have been refreshed through you, brother.

⁸ For this reason, having in Christ much boldness to command you that which is fit—

⁹ because of the love I rather plead, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ;

¹⁰ I beg you concerning my child—whom I begot in my bonds—Onesimus,

¹¹ who once was to you unprofitable, and now is profitable to me and to you,

¹² whom I sent again to you—he who is my own heart,

¹³ whom I intended to retain to myself, that in your behalf he might minister to me in the bonds of the good news,

¹⁴ but apart from your mind I willed to do nothing, so that your good deed may not be as of necessity, but of willingness,

¹⁵ for perhaps because of this he departed for an hour, that you may have him continuously,

¹⁶ no longer as a servant, but above a servant—a beloved brother, especially to me, and how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the LORD!

¹⁷ If, then, you have fellowship with me, receive him as me,

¹⁸ and if he did hurt to you, or owes anything, charge this to me;

¹⁹ I, Paul, wrote with my hand, I will repay; besides, that I may not say that you also owe to me yourself.

²⁰ Yes, brother, may I have profit of you in the LORD; refresh my yearnings in the LORD;

²¹ I wrote to you having been confident in your obedience, having known that you will also do above what I may say;

²² and at the same time also prepare for me a lodging, for I hope that through your prayers I will be granted to you.

²³ Epaphras greets you (my fellow-captive in Christ Jesus),

²⁴ Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-workmen!

²⁵ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your spirit! Amen.

Hebrews

¹ In many parts and many ways, God, having spoken long ago to the fathers by the prophets,

² in these last days speaks to us in [His] Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom He also made the ages;

⁴ having become so much better than the messengers, as He inherited a more excellent name than them.

⁵ For to which of the messengers did He ever say, “You are My Son—today I have begotten You?” And again, “I will be to Him for a Father, and He will be to Me for a Son?”

⁶ And when again He may bring the firstborn into the world, He says, “And let them worship Him—all messengers of God”;

⁷ and to the messengers, indeed, He says, “The [One] who is making His messengers spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire”;

⁸ but to the Son: “Your throne, O God, [is] throughout the age of the age; The scepter of righteousness [is the] scepter of Your kingdom;

⁹ You loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness; Because of this He anointed You—God, Your God—With oil of gladness above Your partners”;

¹⁰ and, “You, LORD, founded the earth at the beginning, || And the heavens are a work of Your hands.

¹¹ These will perish, but You remain, || And all will become old as a garment,

¹² And You will roll them together as a mantle, and they will be changed, || But You are the same, and Your years will not fail.”

¹³ And to which of the messengers did He ever say, “Sit at My right hand, || Until I may make Your enemies Your footstool?”

¹⁴ Are they not all spirits of service—being sent forth for ministry because of those about to inherit salvation?

¹ Because of this it is more abundantly necessary to take heed to the things heard, lest we may drift away,

² for if the word being spoken through messengers became steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just repayment,

³ how will we escape, having neglected such great salvation? Which having received [that] spoken through the LORD [from] the beginning, was confirmed to us by those having heard,

⁴ God also bearing joint-witness both with signs and wonders, and manifold powers, and distributions of the Holy Spirit, according to His will.

⁵ For He did not subject the coming world to messengers, concerning which we speak,

⁶ and one in a certain place testified fully, saying, “What is man, that You are mindful of him, || Or a son of man, that You look after him?

⁷ You made him [a] little less than messengers, || You crowned him with glory and honor, || And set him over the works of Your hands,

⁸ You put all things in subjection under his feet,” for in the subjecting to Him all things, He left nothing to Him unsubjected, but now we do not yet see all things subjected to Him,

⁹ and we see Him who was made [a] little less than messengers—Jesus—because of the suffering of death, having been crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God He might taste of death for everyone.

¹⁰ For it was fitting to Him, because of whom [are] all things, and through whom [are] all things, bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings,

¹¹ for both He who is sanctifying and those sanctified [are] all of one, for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers,

¹² saying, “I will declare Your Name to My brothers, || In the midst of an assembly I will sing praise to You”; and again, “I will be trusting on Him”;

¹³ and again, “Behold, I and the children that God gave to Me.”

¹⁴ Seeing, then, the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself also took part of the same in like manner; that through death He might destroy him having the power of death—that is, the Devil—

¹⁵ and might deliver those, whoever, with fear of death, throughout all their life, were subjects of bondage,

¹⁶ for doubtless, He does not lay hold of messengers, but He lays hold of [the] seed of Abraham,

¹⁷ for this reason it seemed necessary to Him to be made like the brothers in all things, that He might become a kind and faithful Chief Priest in the things related to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people,

¹⁸ for in that He suffered, Himself being tempted, He is able to help those who are tempted.

¹ For this reason, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and Chief Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus,

² being faithful to Him who appointed Him, as also Moses [was] in all His house.

³ For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who builds it has more honor than the house.

⁴ For every house is built by someone, and He who built all things [is] God,

⁵ and Moses [was] indeed steadfast in all His house, as an attendant, for a testimony of those things that were to be spoken—

⁶ but Christ, as a Son over His house, whose house we are, if we hold fast the boldness and the rejoicing of the hope to the end.

⁷ For this reason, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today, if you may hear His voice—

⁸ you may not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

⁹ in which your fathers tempted Me; they proved Me, and saw My works [for] forty years;

¹⁰ for this reason I was grieved with that generation and said, They always go astray in [their] heart, and these have not known My ways;

¹¹ so I swore in My anger, They will [not] enter into My rest.”

¹² Watch out, brothers, lest there will be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in the falling away from the living God,

¹³ but exhort one another every day, while [it] is called “Today,” that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin,

¹⁴ for we have become partakers of the Christ, if we may hold fast the confidence [we had] at the beginning to the end,

¹⁵ as it is said, “Today, if you may hear His voice, you may not harden your hearts, as in the provocation.”

¹⁶ For who [were those], having heard, [that] provoked, but not all those having come out of Egypt through Moses?

¹⁷ But with whom was He grieved forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

¹⁸ And to whom did He swear that they will not enter into His rest, except to those who did not believe?

¹⁹ And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

¹ We may fear, then, lest a promise being left of entering into His rest, anyone of you may seem to have come short,

² for we also are having good news proclaimed, even as they, but the word heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard,

³ for we enter into the rest—we who believed, as He said, “So I swore in My anger, They will [not] enter into My rest”; and yet the works were done from the foundation of the world,

⁴ for He spoke in a certain place concerning the seventh [day] thus: “And God rested in the seventh day from all His works”;

⁵ and in this [place] again, “They will [not] enter into My rest”;

⁶ since then, it remains for some to enter into it, and those who first heard good news did not enter in because of unbelief—

⁷ again He limits a certain day, “Today,” in David saying, after so long a time, as it has been said, “Today, if you may hear His voice, you may not harden your hearts,”

⁸ for if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken after these things concerning another day;

⁹ there remains, then, a Sabbath rest to the people of God,

¹⁰ for he who entered into His rest, he also rested from his works, as God from His own.

¹¹ May we be diligent, then, to enter into that rest, that no one may fall in the same example of the unbelief,

¹² for the Word of God is living, and working, and sharper—beyond every two-edged sword—and piercing as far as [the] division of soul and spirit, of joints and also marrows, and a discerner of thoughts and intents of the heart;

¹³ and there is not a created thing hidden before Him, but all things [are] naked and open to His eyes—with whom is our reckoning.

¹⁴ Having, then, a great Chief Priest having passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son of God—may we hold fast the profession,

¹⁵ for we do not have a Chief Priest unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but [One] tempted in all things in like manner, [yet] without sin;

¹⁶ we may come near, then, with freedom, to the throne of grace, that we may receive kindness, and find grace—for seasonable help.

¹ For every chief priest taken out of men is set in things [pertaining] to God in behalf of men, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins,

² being able to be gentle to those being ignorant and going astray, since he is also surrounded with weakness;

³ and because of this [weakness] he ought, just as for the people, so also for himself, to bring forward [sacrifices] for sins;

⁴ and no one takes the honor to himself, but he who is called by God, as also Aaron.

⁵ So also the Christ did not glorify Himself to become Chief Priest, but He who spoke to Him: “You are My Son, today I have begotten You”;

⁶ just as He also says in another [place], “You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”;

⁷ who in the days of His flesh having offered up both prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and having been heard in respect to that which He feared,

⁸ though being a Son, [He] learned obedience by the things which He suffered,

⁹ and having been made perfect, He became the cause of continuous salvation to all those obeying Him,

¹⁰ having been called by God a Chief Priest according to the order of Melchizedek,

¹¹ concerning the Word, of whom we have much [to speak], and of hard explanation to say, since you have become dull of hearing,

¹² for even owing to be teachers, because of the time, again you have need that one teach you what [are] the elements of the beginning of the oracles of God, and you have become having need of milk, and not of strong food,

¹³ for everyone who is partaking of milk [is] unskilled in the word of righteousness—for he is an infant,

¹⁴ and the strong food is of perfect men, who because of the use are having the senses exercised, to both the discernment of good and of evil.

¹ For this reason, having left the word of the beginning of the Christ, we may advance to perfection, not laying again a foundation of conversion from dead works, and of faith on God,

² of the teaching of immersions, also of laying on of hands, also of [the] resurrection of the dead, and of continuous judgment,

³ and this we will do, if God may permit,

⁴ for [it is] impossible for those once enlightened, having also tasted of the heavenly gift, and having become partakers of the Holy Spirit,

⁵ and tasted the good saying of God, also the powers of the coming age,
⁶ and having fallen away, to renew [them] again to conversion, having crucified to themselves the Son of God again, and exposed to public shame.

⁸ but that which is bearing thorns and briers [is] disapproved of, and near to cursing, whose end [is] for burning;

⁹ but we are persuaded, concerning you, beloved, the things that are better, and accompanying salvation, though even thus we speak,

¹⁰ for God is not unrighteous to forget your work, and the labor of love that you showed to His Name, having ministered to the holy ones and ministering;

¹¹ and we desire each one of you to show the same diligence, to the full assurance of the hope to the end,

¹² that you may not become slothful, but followers of those who through faith and patient endurance are inheriting the promises.

¹³ For God, having made promise to Abraham, seeing He was not able to swear by [any] greater, swore by Himself,

¹⁴ saying, "Blessing I will indeed bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you";

¹⁵ and so, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise;

¹⁶ for men swear by the greater, and the oath [is] for confirmation of the end of all their controversy,

¹⁷ in which God, more abundantly willing to show to the heirs of the promise the immutability of His counsel, interposed by an oath,

¹⁸ that through two immutable things, in which [it is] impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong comfort, having fled for refuge, to lay hold on the hope being set before [us],

¹⁹ which we have, as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and entering into that within the veil,

²⁰ to where a forerunner entered for us—Jesus, having become Chief Priest throughout the age after the order of Melchizedek.

¹ For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham turning back from the striking of the kings, and blessed him,

² to whom also Abraham divided a tenth of all (first, indeed, being interpreted, "King of righteousness," and then also, "King of Salem," which is, King of Peace),

³ without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, and having been like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.

⁴ And see how great this one [is], to whom Abraham the patriarch also gave a tenth out of the best of the spoils,

⁵ and those, indeed, out of the sons of Levi receiving the priesthood, have a command to take tithes from the people according to the Law, that is, their brothers, even though they came forth out of the loins of Abraham;

⁶ and he who was not reckoned by genealogy of them, received tithes from Abraham, and he has blessed him having the promises,

⁷ and apart from all controversy, the less is blessed by the better—

⁸ and here, indeed, men who die receive tithes, and there [he] who is testified to that he was living,

⁹ and so to speak, through Abraham even Levi who is receiving tithes, has paid tithes,

¹⁰ for he was yet in the loins of the father when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹ If indeed, then, perfection were through the Levitical priesthood—for the people under it had received law—what further need, according to the order of Melchizedek, for another priest to arise, and not to be called according to the order of Aaron?

¹² For the priesthood being changed, of necessity also, a change comes of the Law,

¹³ for He of whom these things are said in another tribe has had part, of whom no one gave attendance at the altar,

¹⁴ for [it is] evident that out of Judah has arisen our Lord, in regard to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.

¹⁵ And it is yet more abundantly most evident, if according to the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest,

¹⁶ who did not come according to the law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an endless life,

¹⁷ for He testifies, “You [are] a priest—throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”;

¹⁸ for an annulling indeed comes of the command going before because of its weakness, and unprofitableness

¹⁹ (for nothing did the Law perfect), and the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰ And inasmuch as [it is] not apart from oath

²¹ (for those indeed apart from oath have become priests, and He [became priest] with an oath through Him who is saying to Him, “The LORD swore, and will not regret, You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”),

²² by so much also has Jesus become guarantee of a better covenant,

²³ and those indeed are many who have become priests, because by death they are hindered from remaining;

²⁴ and He, because of His remaining throughout the age, has the inviolable priesthood,

²⁵ from where also He is able to save to the very end, those coming through Him to God—ever living to make intercession for them.

²⁶ For also such a Chief Priest was fitting for us—holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens,

²⁷ who has no daily necessity, as the chief priests, to first offer up sacrifice for His own sins, then for those of the people; for this He did once, having offered up Himself;

²⁸ for the Law appoints men [as] chief priests, having weakness, but the word of the oath that [is] after the Law [appoints] the Son having been perfected throughout the age.

¹ And the sum concerning the things spoken of [is]: we have such a Chief Priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Greatness in the heavens,

² a servant of the holy places, and of the true dwelling place, which the LORD set up, and not man,

³ for every chief priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, from where [it is] necessary for this One to also have something that He may offer;

⁴ for if, indeed, He were on earth, He would not be a priest (there being the priests who are offering the gifts according to the Law,

⁵ who to an example and shadow serve of the heavenly things, as Moses has been divinely warned, being about to construct the Dwelling Place, for, "See," He says, "[that] you will make all things according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain"),

⁶ but now He has obtained a more excellent service, how much He is also mediator of a better covenant, which has been sanctioned on better promises,

⁷ for if that first were faultless, a place would not have been sought for a second.

⁸ For finding fault, He says to them, "Behold, days come, says the LORD, and I will complete with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah, a new covenant,

⁹ not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day of My taking [them] by their hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt—because they did not remain in My covenant, and I did not regard them, says the LORD—

¹⁰ because this [is] the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days, says the LORD, giving My laws into their mind, and I will write them on their hearts, and I will be to them for a God, and they will be to Me for a people;

¹¹ and they will not each teach his neighbor, and each his brother, saying, Know the LORD, because they will all know Me—from the small one of them to the great one of them,

¹² because I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and I will remember their sins and their lawlessnesses no more."

¹³ In the saying "new," He has made the first obsolete, and what is becoming obsolete and growing old [is] near disappearing.

¹ It had, indeed, then (even the first dwelling place) ordinances of service, also a worldly sanctuary,

² for a dwelling place was prepared, the first, in which was both the lampstand, and the table, and the Bread of the Presentation—which is called "Holy";

³ and after the second veil a dwelling place that is called "Holy of Holies,"

⁵ and over it cherubim of the glory, overshadowing the propitiatory covering, concerning which we are not to particularly speak now.

⁶ And these things having been thus prepared, into the first dwelling place, indeed, the priests go in at all times, performing the services,

⁷ and into the second, once in the year, only the chief priest, not apart from blood, which he offers for himself and the errors of the people.

⁸ By this the Holy Spirit was making evident that the way of the holy [places] has not yet been revealed, the first dwelling place yet having a standing,

⁹ which [is] an allegory in regard to the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, which are not able, in regard to conscience, to make perfect him who is serving,

¹⁰ only on the basis of food, and drinks, and different immersions, and fleshly ordinances—until the time of reformation imposed on [them].

¹¹ But Christ having come, Chief Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect dwelling place not made with hands—that is, not of this creation—

¹² neither through blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, entered in once into the holy places, having obtained continuous redemption;

¹³ for if the blood of bulls, and goats, and ashes of a heifer, sprinkling those defiled, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh,

¹⁴ how much more will the blood of the Christ (who through the perpetual Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God) purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

¹⁵ And because of this, He is mediator of a new covenant, that [His] death having come for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, those called may receive the promise of the continuous inheritance,

¹⁶ for where a covenant [is], [it is] necessary to establish the death of the [one] having made [it],

¹⁷ for a covenant is affirmed at death, since it is not in force at all when the [one] having made [it] lives,

¹⁸ for which reason, not even the first has been initiated apart from blood,

¹⁹ for every command having been spoken, according to law, by Moses, to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

²⁰ saying, “This [is] the blood of the covenant that God enjoined to you,”

²¹ and he sprinkled both the Dwelling Place and all the vessels of the service with blood in like manner,

²² and with blood almost all things are purified according to the Law, and forgiveness does not come apart from blood-shedding.

²³ [It is] necessary, therefore, the pattern indeed of the things in the heavens to be purified with these, and the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these;

²⁴ for the Christ did not enter into holy places made with hands—figures of the true—but into Heaven itself, now to be manifested in the presence of God for us;

²⁵ nor that He may offer Himself many times, even as the chief priest enters into the holy places every year with blood of others,

²⁷ and as it is reserved for men to die once, and after this—judgment,

²⁸ so also the Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, apart from a sin-offering, for salvation to those waiting for Him!

¹ For the Law having a shadow of the good things coming—not the very image of the matters, every year, by the same sacrifices that they offer continually, is never able to make perfect those coming near,

² since, would they not have ceased to be offered, because of those serving having no more conscience of sins, having been purified once?

³ But in those [sacrifices] is a remembrance of sins every year,

⁴ for it is impossible for blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ For this reason, coming into the world, He says, “Sacrifice and offering You did not will, and a body You prepared for Me;

⁶ in burnt-offerings, and concerning sin-offerings, You did not delight.

⁷ Then I said, Behold, I come (in a volume of the scroll it has been written concerning Me), to do, O God, Your will”;

⁸ saying above, “Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and concerning sin-offering You did not will, nor delight in” (which are offered according to the Law),

⁹ then He said, “Behold, I come to do, O God, Your will”; He takes away the first that He may establish the second;

¹⁰ in which will, we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all,

¹¹ and every priest, indeed, has daily stood serving, and offering the same sacrifices many times, that are never able to take away sins.

¹² But He, having offered one sacrifice for sin—to the end, sat down at the right hand of God—

¹³ as to the rest, expecting until He may place His enemies [as] His footstool,

¹⁴ for by one offering He has perfected to the end those being sanctified;

¹⁵ and the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after that He has said before,

¹⁶ “This [is] the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD, giving My laws on their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,”

¹⁷ and, “I will remember their sins and their lawlessness no more”;

¹⁸ and where [there is] forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.

¹⁹ Having, therefore, brothers, boldness for the entrance into the holy places, by the blood of Jesus,

²⁰ which [is] the way He initiated for us—new and living, through the veil, that is, His flesh—

²¹ and a Great Priest over the house of God,

²² may we draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having the hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having the body bathed with pure water;

²³ may we hold fast the unwavering profession of the hope (for He who promised [is] faithful),

²⁴ and may we consider to provoke one another to love and to good works,

²⁵ not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as [is] a custom of some, but exhorting, and so much the more as you see the Day coming near.

²⁶ For [if] we are sinning willingly after receiving the full knowledge of the truth—there remains no more sacrifice for sins,

²⁷ but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery zeal, about to devour the opposers;

²⁸ anyone having set aside a law of Moses dies without mercies on the basis of two or three witnesses.

³⁰ For we have known Him who is saying, “Vengeance [is] Mine, I will repay, says the LORD”; and again, “The LORD will judge His people.”

³¹ [It is] fearful to fall into [the] hands of [the] living God.

³² But call to your remembrance the former days, in which, having been enlightened, you endured much conflict of sufferings;

³³ this indeed, being made spectacles with both insults and afflictions, now this, having become partners of those so living,

³⁴ for you also sympathized with my bonds, and the robbery of your goods you received with joy, knowing that you have in yourselves a better substance in the heavens, and an enduring one.

³⁵ You may not cast away, then, your boldness, which has great repayment of reward,

³⁶ for you have need of patience, that having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

³⁷ “For yet [in] a very, very little [while], He who is coming will come, and will not linger,”

³⁸ but, “The righteous will live by faith; and if he may draw back, My soul has no pleasure in him.”

³⁹ But we are not of those drawing back to destruction, but of those believing to a preserving of soul.

¹ Now faith is [the] substance of things hoped for, [the] proof of matters not being seen,

² for by this, the elders were well-attested.

³ By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by a saying of God, in regard to the things seen having not come out of things appearing.

⁴ By faith Abel offered a better sacrifice to God than Cain, through which he was testified to be righteous, God testifying of his gifts, and through it, he being dead, yet speaks.

⁵ By faith Enoch was translated—not to see death, and was not found, because God translated him; for before his translation he had been testified to—that he had pleased God well,

⁶ and apart from faith it is impossible to please [Him], for it is required of him who is coming to God to believe that He exists and [that] He becomes a rewarder to those seeking Him.

⁸ By faith Abraham, being called, obeyed, to go forth into the place that he was about to receive for an inheritance, and he went forth, not knowing to where he goes.

⁹ By faith he sojourned in the land of the promise as a strange country, having dwelt in dwelling places with Isaac and Jacob, fellow-heirs of the same promise,

¹⁰ for he was looking for the city having the foundations, whose craftsman and constructor [is] God.

¹¹ And by faith Sarah, herself barren, received power to conceive seed even after the time of life, seeing she judged Him who promised faithful;

¹² for this reason, also, from one—and that of one who had become dead—were begotten as the stars of the sky in multitude, and innumerable as the sand that [is] by the seashore.

¹³ All these died in faith, having not received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and having been persuaded, and having greeted [them], and having confessed that they are strangers and sojourners on the earth,

¹⁴ for those saying such things make apparent that they seek a country;

¹⁵ and if, indeed, they had been mindful of that from which they came forth, they might have had an opportunity to return,

¹⁶ but now they long for better, that is, heavenly, for this reason God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for He prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ By faith Abraham has offered up Isaac, being tried, even the [one] having received the promises offered up his only begotten,

¹⁸ of whom it was said, "In Isaac will your Seed be called,"

¹⁹ reckoning that God is even able to raise up out of the dead, from where also in a figurative sense he received [him].

²⁰ By faith, concerning coming things, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau.

²¹ By faith Jacob, dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped on the top of his staff.

²² By faith Joseph, dying, made mention concerning the outgoing of the sons of Israel, and gave command concerning his bones.

²³ By faith Moses, having been born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw the child beautiful, and were not afraid of the decree of the king.

²⁴ By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called a son of the daughter of Pharaoh,

²⁵ having chosen rather to be afflicted with the people of God, than to have sin's pleasure for a season,

²⁶ having reckoned the reproach of the Christ greater wealth than the treasures in Egypt, for he looked to the repayment of reward.

²⁷ By faith he left Egypt behind, having not been afraid of the wrath of the king, for as seeing the Invisible One—he endured.

²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, so that He who is destroying the firstborn might not touch them.

²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land, which having made an attempt [to cross], the Egyptians were swallowed up.

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been surrounded for seven days.

³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who disbelieved, having received the spies with peace.

³² And what yet will I say? For the time will fail me recounting about Gideon, also Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, also David, and Samuel, and the prophets,

³³ who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped mouths of lions,

³⁴ quenched the power of fire, escaped the mouth of the sword, were made powerful out of weakness, became strong in battle, caused armies of the foreigners to give way;

³⁵ women received their dead by a resurrection, and others were tortured, not accepting the redemption, that they might receive a better resurrection,

³⁶ and others received trial of mockings and scourgings, and yet of bonds and imprisonment;

³⁷ they were stoned, they were sawn apart, they were tried; they died in the killing of the sword; they went around in sheepskins, in goatskins—being destitute, afflicted, injuriously treated,

³⁸ of whom the world was not worthy; wandering in deserts, and mountains, and caves, and the holes of the earth;

³⁹ and all these, having been testified to through faith, did not receive the promise,

⁴⁰ God, having provided something better for us, that apart from us they might not be made perfect.

¹ Therefore, we also having so great a cloud of witnesses set around us, having put off every weight, and the closely besetting sin, may we run the contest that is set before us through endurance,

² looking to the Author and Perfecter of the faith—Jesus, who, for the joy set before Him, endured a cross, having despised shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God;

³ for again consider Him who endured such contradiction from the sinners to Himself, that you may not be wearied in your souls—being faint.

⁴ You did not yet resist to blood—striving with sin;

⁵ and you have forgotten the exhortation that speaks fully to you as to sons, “My son, do not despise [the] discipline of [the] LORD, nor be faint, being reproved by Him,

⁶ for whom the LORD loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives”;

⁷ if you endure discipline, God bears Himself to you as to sons, for who is a son whom a father does not discipline?

⁸ And if you are apart from discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are bastards, and not sons.

⁹ Then, indeed, we have had fathers of our flesh, correctors, and we respected [them]; will we not much rather be subject to the Father of the spirits, and live?

¹⁰ For they, indeed, for a few days, according to what seemed good to them, were disciplining, but He for profit, to be partakers of His separation;

¹¹ and all discipline for the present, indeed, does not seem to be of joy, but of sorrow, yet afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those exercised through it.

¹² For this reason, lift up the hanging-down hands and the loosened knees;

¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that which is lame may not be turned aside, but rather be healed;

¹⁴ pursue peace with all, and the separation, apart from which no one will see the LORD,

¹⁵ observing lest anyone be failing of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up may give trouble, and through this many may be defiled;

¹⁶ lest anyone be a fornicator, or a profane person, as Esau, who in exchange for one morsel of food sold his birthright,

¹⁷ for you know that also afterward, wishing to inherit the blessing, he was disapproved of, for he did not find a place of conversion, though having sought it with tears.

¹⁸ For you did not come near to the mountain touched and scorched with fire, and to blackness, and darkness, and storm,

¹⁹ and a sound of a trumpet, and a voice of sayings, which those having heard begged that a word might not be added to them,

²⁰ for they were not bearing that which is commanded, "And if a beast may touch the mountain, it will be stoned, or shot through with an arrow,"

²¹ and (so terrible was the sight), Moses said, "I am exceedingly fearful, and trembling."

²² But you came to Mount Zion, and to [the] city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of messengers,

²³ to the assembly-place and Assembly of the Firstborn registered in Heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to spirits of righteous men made perfect, ²⁴ and to a mediator of a new covenant—Jesus, and to blood of sprinkling, speaking better things than that of Abel!

²⁵ Watch out lest you refuse Him who is speaking, for if those did not escape who refused him who was divinely speaking on earth—much less we who turn away from Him who [speaks] from Heaven,

²⁶ whose voice shook the earth then, and now He has promised, saying, "Yet once [more]—I shake not only the earth, but also Heaven";

²⁷ and this, "Yet once [more]," makes evident the removal of the things shaken, as of things having been made, that the things not shaken may remain;

²⁸ for this reason, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, may we have grace, through which we may serve God well-pleasingly, with reverence and fear,

²⁹ for our God [is] also a consuming fire.

² Do not be forgetful of hospitality, for through this some entertained messengers unaware.

³ Be mindful of those in bonds, as having been bound with them, of those maltreated, as yourselves also being in the body.

⁴ The marriage [is to be] honored by all, and the bed undefiled, for God will judge whoremongers and adulterers.

⁵ [Be] without covetous behavior; being content with the things present, for He has said, "No, I will not leave, no, nor forsake you,"

⁶ so that we boldly say, "The LORD [is] to me a helper, and I will not fear what man will do to me."

⁷ Be mindful of those leading you, who spoke to you the word of God, who, considering the outcome of [their] behavior, imitate [their] faith:

⁸ Jesus Christ—the same yesterday and today and for all ages.

⁹ Do not be carried away with strange and manifold teachings, for [it is] good that by grace the heart is confirmed, not with meats, in which they who were occupied were not profited;

¹⁰ we have an altar from which they who are serving the Dwelling Place have no authority to eat,

¹¹ for of those beasts whose blood is brought for sin into the holy places through the chief priest—of these the bodies are burned outside the camp.

¹² For this reason, also Jesus—that He might sanctify the people through [His] own blood—suffered outside the gate;

¹³ now then, may we go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach;

¹⁴ for we have no abiding city here, but we seek the coming one.

¹⁵ Through Him, then, we may always offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips, giving thanks to His Name.

¹⁶ And do not be forgetful of doing good and of fellowship, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices.

¹⁷ Be obedient to those leading you, and be subject, for these watch for your souls, as about to give account, that they may do this with joy, and not sighing, for this [is] unprofitable to you.

¹⁸ Pray for us, for we trust that we have a good conscience, willing to behave well in all things,

¹⁹ and I call on [you] to do this more abundantly, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

²⁰ And the God of peace, who brought up the Great Shepherd of the sheep out of the dead—by the blood of a perpetual covenant—our Lord Jesus, ²¹ make you perfect in every good work to do His will, doing in you that which is well-pleasing before Him, through Jesus Christ, to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages! Amen.

²² And I beg you, brothers, endure the word of the exhortation, for I have also written to you through few words.

²³ Know that the brother Timotheus is released, with whom I will see you, if he may come more shortly.

²⁴ Greet all those leading you, and all the holy ones. Those from Italy greet you.

²⁵ The grace [is] with you all! Amen.

James

¹ James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion: Greetings!

² Count [it] all joy, my brothers, when you may fall into manifold temptations,

³ knowing that the proof of your faith works endurance,

⁴ and let the endurance have a perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

⁵ And if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who is giving to all generously, and not reproaching, and it will be given to him;

⁶ but let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for he who is doubting has been like a wave of the sea, driven by wind and tossed;

⁷ for do not let that man suppose that he will receive anything from the LORD—

⁸ a soul-split man [is] unstable in all his ways.

⁹ And let the brother who is low rejoice in his exaltation,

¹⁰ but the rich in his becoming low, because he will pass away as a flower of grass;

¹¹ for the sun rose with the burning heat, and withered the grass, and the flower of it fell, and the beauty of its appearance perished, so also the rich in his way will fade away!

¹² Blessed [is] the man who endures temptation, because, becoming approved, he will receive the garland of life, which the LORD promised to those loving Him.

¹³ Let no one who is being tempted say, "I am tempted from God," for God is not tempted by evils, and Himself tempts no one,

¹⁴ but each one is tempted, being led away and enticed by his own desires;

¹⁵ afterward the desire having conceived, gives birth to sin, and sin having been perfected, brings forth death.

¹⁶ Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers.

¹⁷ Every good giving, and every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variation, or shadow of turning;

¹⁸ having willed [it], He begot us with a word of truth, for our being a certain first-fruit of His creatures.

¹⁹ So then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger,

²⁰ for the wrath of a man does not work the righteousness of God;

²¹ for this reason, having put aside all filthiness and superabundance of evil, receive the implanted word in meekness, that is able to save your souls;

²² and become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves,

²³ because, if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, this one has been like to a man viewing his natural face in a mirror,

²⁴ for he viewed himself, and has gone away, and immediately he forgot what kind of [man] he was;

²⁵ but he who looked into [the] perfect law—that of liberty, and continued there, not becoming a forgetful hearer, but a doer of work—this one will be blessed in his doing.

²⁶ If anyone thinks to be religious among you, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of this one [is] vain;

²⁷ religion pure and undefiled with the God and Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their tribulation—to keep himself unspotted from the world.

¹ My brothers, do not hold the faith of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ in favor by appearance,

² for if there may come into your synagogue a man with gold ring, in radiant clothing, and there may also come in a poor man in vile clothing,

³ and you may look on him bearing the radiant clothing, and may say to him, “You—sit here well,” and may say to the poor man, “You—stand there,” or, “Sit here under my footstool,”

⁴ you did not judge fully in yourselves, and became ill-reasoning judges.

⁵ Listen, my beloved brothers, did God not choose the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom that He promised to those loving Him?

⁶ But you dishonored the poor one. Do the rich not oppress you and themselves draw you to judgment-seats?

⁷ Do they not themselves speak evil of the good Name having been called on you?

⁸ If, indeed, you fulfill royal law, according to the Writing: “You will love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well;

⁹ but if you favor by appearance, you work sin, being convicted by the Law as transgressors;

¹⁰ for whoever will keep the whole Law, but will stumble in one [point], he has become guilty of all;

¹¹ for He who is saying, “You may not commit adultery,” also said, “You may not murder”; but if you will not commit adultery, but will commit murder, you have become a transgressor of law;

¹² thus, speak and so act as [one] about to be judged by a law of liberty,

¹³ for the judgment without mercy [is] to him having not done mercy, and mercy exults over judgment.

¹⁴ What [is] the profit, my brothers, if anyone may speak of having faith, but he may not have works? Is that faith able to save him?

¹⁵ And if a brother or sister may be naked, and may be destitute of daily food,

¹⁶ and anyone of you may say to them, “Depart in peace, be warmed, and be filled,” but may not give to them the things necessary for the body, what [is] the profit?

¹⁷ So also faith, if it may not have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸ But someone may say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith out of works.

¹⁹ You believe that God is one; you do well! The demons also believe—and shudder!

²⁰ And do you wish to know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is dead?

²¹ Was not our father Abraham considered righteous out of works, having brought up his son Isaac on the altar?

²² Do you see that faith was working with his works, and faith was perfected out of the works?

²³ And the Writing was fulfilled that is saying, "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness"; and, "Friend of God" he was called.

²⁴ You see, then, that man is considered righteous out of works, and not out of faith only;

²⁵ and in like manner also Rahab the prostitute—was she not considered righteous out of works, having received the messengers, and having sent [them] forth by another way?

²⁶ For as the body apart from [the] spirit is dead, so also the faith apart from works is dead.

¹ Do not let many be teachers, my brothers, having known that we will receive greater judgment,

² for we all make many stumbles; if anyone does not stumble in word, this one [is] a perfect man, able to also bridle the whole body;

³ behold, the bits we put into the mouths of the horses for their obeying us, and we direct their whole body;

⁴ behold, also the ships, being so great, and being driven by fierce winds, are directed by a very small rudder, wherever the impulse of the [one] steering wills,

⁵ so also the tongue is a little member, and boasts greatly; behold, how much forest a little fire kindles!

⁶ And the tongue [is] a fire, the world of the unrighteousness, so the tongue is set in our members, which is spotting our whole body, and is setting on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna.

⁷ For every nature, both of beasts and of birds, both of creeping things and things of the sea, is subdued, and has been subdued, by the human nature,

⁸ but no one of men is able to subdue the tongue—[it is] an unruly evil, full of deadly poison;

⁹ with it we bless the God and Father, and with it we curse the men made according to [the] likeness of God;

¹⁰ out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing; it does not need, my brothers, these things to so happen;

¹¹ does the fountain out of the same opening pour forth the sweet and the bitter?

¹² Is a fig tree able, my brothers, to make olives? Or a vine figs? Neither is salty [water able] to have made sweet water.

¹³ Who [is] wise and intelligent among you? Let him show his works out of good behavior in meekness of wisdom,

¹⁴ yet, if you have bitter zeal, and rivalry in your heart, do not glory, nor lie against the truth;

¹⁵ this wisdom is not descending from above, but earthly, physical, demon-like,

¹⁶ for where zeal and rivalry [are], there is insurrection and every evil matter;

¹⁷ but the wisdom from above, first, indeed, is pure, then peaceable, gentle, well-convicted, full of kindness and good fruits, uncontentious, and unhypercritical—

¹⁸ and the fruit of righteousness in peace is sown to those making peace.

¹ From where [are] wars and fightings among you? [Is it] not from here, out of your passions warring in your members?

² You desire, and do not have, [so] you murder; and you are zealous, and are not able to attain, [so] you fight and war; and you do not have, because of your not asking;

³ you ask, and you do not receive, because you ask badly, that you may spend [it] in your pleasures.

⁴ Adulterers and adulteresses! Have you not known that friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever, then, may intend to be a friend of the world, he is designated [as] an enemy of God.

⁵ Or, do you think that the Writing says emptily, “The Spirit that has dwelt in us yearns with envy,”

⁶ but [God] gives greater grace, for this reason it says, “God sets Himself up against proud ones, and He gives grace to lowly ones.”

⁷ Be subject, then, to God; stand up against the Devil, and he will flee from you;

⁸ draw near to God, and He will draw near to you; cleanse hands, you sinners! And purify hearts, you split-souled!

⁹ Be exceedingly afflicted, and mourn, and weep, let your laughter be turned to mourning, and the joy to heaviness;

¹⁰ be made low before the LORD, and He will exalt you.

¹¹ Do not speak against one another, brothers; he who is speaking against a brother, and is judging his brother, speaks against law, and judges law, and if you judge law, you are not a doer of law but a judge.

¹² One is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy; you—who are you that judges the other?

¹³ Go, now, you who are saying, “Today and tomorrow we will go on to such a city, and will pass there one year, and traffic, and make gain,”

¹⁴ who does not know the thing of tomorrow; for what is your life? For it is a vapor that is appearing for a little [while], and then is vanishing;

¹⁵ instead, you [ought] to say, “If the LORD may will, we will live, and do this or that”;

¹⁶ but now you glory in your pride; all such glorying is evil;

¹⁷ to him, then, knowing to do good, and not doing [it], it is sin to him.

¹ Go, now, you rich! Weep, howling over your miseries that are coming on [you];

² your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten;

³ your gold and silver have rotted, and the rust of them will be to you for a testimony, and will eat your flesh as fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days!

⁴ Behold, the reward of the workmen cries out, of those who in-gathered your fields, which has been fraudulently kept back by you, and the exclamations of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the LORD of Hosts;

⁵ you lived in luxury on the earth, and were wanton; you nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter;

⁶ you condemned—you murdered the righteous; he does not resist you.

⁷ Be patient, then, brothers, until the coming of the LORD; behold, the farmer expects the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it, until he may receive rain—early and latter;

⁸ you also be patient; establish your hearts, because the coming of the LORD has drawn near;

⁹ do not murmur against one another, brothers, that you may not be condemned; behold, the Judge has stood before the door.

¹⁰ Brothers, [as] an example of the suffering of evil and of patience, take the prophets who spoke in the Name of the LORD;

¹¹ behold, we call those who are enduring blessed; you heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end from the LORD, that the LORD is very compassionate, and pitying.

¹² And before all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by Heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath, but let your “Yes” be yes, and the “No,” no, that you may not fall under judgment.

¹³ Does anyone suffer evil among you? Let him pray; is anyone of good cheer? Let him sing psalms;

¹⁵ and the prayer of faith will save the distressed one, and the LORD will raise him up, and if he may have committed sins, they will be forgiven to him.

¹⁶ Be confessing to one another the trespasses, and be praying for one another, that you may be healed; very strong is a working supplication of a righteous man;

¹⁷ Elijah was a similar-feeling man as us, and with prayer he prayed—not to rain, and it did not rain on the land three years and six months;

¹⁸ and again he prayed, and the sky gave rain, and the land brought forth her fruit.

¹⁹ Brothers, if anyone among you may go astray from the truth, and anyone may turn him back,

²⁰ let him know that he who turned back a sinner from the straying of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

First Peter

¹ Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen sojourners of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

² according to [the] foreknowledge of God the Father, by [the] sanctification of the Spirit, to [the] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you!

³ Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to the abundance of His kindness begot us again to a living hope, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ out of the dead,

⁴ to an incorruptible inheritance, and undefiled, and unfading, reserved for you in the heavens,

⁵ who, in the power of God are being guarded, through faith, to salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time,

⁶ in which you are glad, a little now, if it be necessary, being made to sorrow in various trials,

⁷ so that the proof of your faith—much more precious than gold that is perishing, and being approved through fire—may be found to [result in] praise, and honor, and glory, at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

⁸ whom, having not seen, you love, in whom, now believing [although] not seeing, you are glad with unspeakable joy and have been filled with glory,

⁹ receiving the outcome of the faith—salvation of your souls;

¹⁰ concerning which salvation [the] prophets sought out and searched out, who prophesied concerning the grace toward you,

¹¹ searching in regard to what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ that was in them was signifying, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and the glory after these,

¹² to whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they were ministering these, which now were told to you (through those who proclaimed good news to you), by the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven, to which things messengers desire to look into intently.

¹³ For this reason, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope perfectly on the grace that is being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ,

¹⁴ as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves to the former desires in your ignorance,

¹⁵ but according as He who called you [is] holy, you also, become holy in all behavior,

¹⁶ because it has been written: “Become holy, because I am holy”;

¹⁷ and if you call on the Father, who is judging without favoritism according to the work of each, pass the time of your sojourn in fear,

¹⁸ having known that, not with corruptible things—silver or gold—were you redeemed from your foolish behavior inherited from our forefathers,

¹⁹ but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and unspotted—Christ’s—

²⁰ foreknown, indeed, before the foundation of the world, and revealed in the last times because of you,

²¹ who through Him believe in God who raised [Him] out of the dead, and gave glory to Him, so that your faith and hope may be in God.

²² Having purified your souls in the obedience of the truth through the Spirit to unhypocritical brotherly love, love one another earnestly out of a pure heart,

²³ being begotten again, not out of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, through a word of God—living and remaining—throughout the age;

²⁴ because all flesh [is] as grass, and all glory of man as flower of grass; the grass withered, and the flower of it fell away,

²⁵ but the saying of the LORD remains—throughout the age; and this is the saying of good news that was proclaimed to you.

¹ Having put aside, then, all evil, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envyings, and all evil speakings,

² as newborn babies, desire the reasonable, unspoiled milk, so that you may grow up to salvation,

³ if [it] so be [that] you tasted that the LORD [is] good,

⁴ to whom coming—a living stone—having indeed been disapproved of by men, but with God—choice [and] precious,

⁵ and you yourselves are built up as living stones [into] a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

⁷ to you, then, who are believing—the preciousness; but to the unbelieving, [the] stone that the builders disapproved of—this One has become the head of [the] corner;

⁸ and a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense—who are stumbling at the word, being unbelieving—to which they were also set.

⁹ But you [are] a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people acquired, that you may show forth the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light,

¹⁰ who [were] once not a people, but [are] now the people of God; who had not found mercy, but now have found mercy.

¹¹ Beloved, I call on [you], as strangers and sojourners, to keep from the fleshly desires that war against the soul,

¹² having your behavior right among the nations, so that whenever they speak against you as evildoers, seeing [your] good works, they may glorify God in [the] day of inspection.

¹³ Be subject, then, to every human creation, because of the LORD, whether to a king, as the highest,

¹⁴ whether to governors, as to those sent through him, for punishment, indeed, of evildoers, and a praise of those doing good;

¹⁵ because, so is the will of God, doing good, to put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men—

¹⁶ as free, and not having freedom as the cloak of evil, but as servants of God;

¹⁷ give honor to all; love the brotherhood; fear God; honor the king.

¹⁸ Servants, be subject in all fear to the masters, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the crooked;

¹⁹ for this [is] grace: if anyone endures sorrows because of conscience toward God, suffering unrighteously;

²⁰ for what renown [is it], if sinning and being battered, you endure [it]? But if, doing good and suffering [for it], you endure, this [is] grace with God,

²¹ for to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving to you an example, that you may follow His steps,

²² who did not commit sin, nor was guile found in His mouth,

²³ who being reviled—was not reviling again, suffering—was not threatening, and was committing Himself to Him who is judging righteously,

²⁴ who Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree that having died to sins, we may live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed;

²⁵ for you were as sheep going astray, but now you turned back to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

¹ Wives, be subject to your own husbands in like manner, that even if some are disobedient to the word, they may be won through the behavior of the wives without the word,

² having beheld your pure behavior in fear,

³ whose adorning—let it not be that which is outward, of braiding of hair, and of putting around of things of gold, or of putting on of garments,

⁴ but—the hidden man of the heart, by the incorruptible [thing] of the meek and quiet spirit, which is of great value before God,

⁵ for thus once also the holy women who hoped on God were adorning themselves, being subject to their own husbands,

⁶ as Sarah was obedient to Abraham, calling him “lord,” of whom you became daughters, doing good, and not fearing any terror.

⁸ And finally, be all of one mind, having fellow-feeling, loving as brothers, compassionate, courteous,

⁹ not giving back evil for evil, or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, blessing, having known that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing;

¹⁰ for “he who is willing to love life, and to see good days, let him guard his tongue from evil, and his lips—not to speak guile;

¹¹ let him turn aside from evil, and do good, let him seek peace and pursue it;

¹² because the eyes of the LORD [are] on the righteous, and His ears—to their supplication, but the face of the LORD [is] against those doing evil”;

¹³ and who [is] he who will be doing you evil, if you may become imitators of Him who is good?

¹⁴ But if you also should suffer because of righteousness, [you are] blessed! And do not be afraid of their fear, nor be troubled,

¹⁵ but sanctify the LORD God in your hearts. And always [be] ready for defense to everyone who is asking of you an account concerning the hope that [is] in you, with meekness and fear;

¹⁶ having a good conscience, so that whenever they speak against you as evildoers, they may be ashamed—[those] who are maligning your good behavior in Christ;

¹⁷ for if the will of God wills it, [it is] better to suffer doing good, than doing evil;

¹⁸ also because Christ suffered once for sin—righteous for unrighteous—that He might lead us to God, indeed having been put to death in the flesh, but having been made alive in the Spirit,

¹⁹ by which, having gone, He also preached to the spirits in prison,

²⁰ who sometime [ago] disobeyed when once the long-suffering of God waited, in [the] days of Noah—an ark being prepared—in which few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water,

²¹ also an antitype to immersion which now saves you—not a putting away of the filth of flesh, but the question of a good conscience in regard to God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

²² who is at the right hand of God, having gone on to Heaven—messengers, and authorities, and powers, having been subjected to Him.

¹ Christ, then, having suffered for us in the flesh, you also arm yourselves with the same mind, because he who suffered in the flesh has finished [with] sin,

² no longer in the desires of men, but in the will of God, to live the rest of the time in the flesh;

³ for the time has sufficiently passed to have carried out the will of the nations, having walked in licentiousness, lusts, excesses of wines, revelings, drinking-bouts, and unlawful idolatries,

⁴ in which they think it strange—your not running with them to the same excess of wastefulness, slandering [you]—

⁵ who will give an account to Him who is ready to judge [the] living and [the] dead,

⁶ for this also was good news proclaimed to dead men, that they may be judged, indeed, according to men in the flesh, but may live according to God in the Spirit.

⁷ Now the end of all things has come near; be sober-minded, then, and be sober in [your] prayers.

⁸ Before all things, having earnest love among yourselves, because love covers a multitude of sins;

⁹ [be] hospitable to one another, without murmuring;

¹⁰ each [one], according as he received a gift, ministering it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God;

¹¹ if anyone speaks, [speak] as oracles of God; if anyone ministers, [minister] as of the strength which God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the power through the ages of the ages. Amen.

¹² Beloved, do not think it strange at the fiery suffering among you that is coming to try you, as if a strange thing were happening to you,

¹³ but according as you have fellowship with the sufferings of the Christ, rejoice, that you may also rejoice in the revelation of His glory—exulting;

¹⁴ if you are reproached in the Name of Christ—[you are] blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you; in regard, indeed, to them, is evil spoken of Him, and in regard to you, He is glorified;

¹⁵ for let none of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as a meddler into other men's matters;

¹⁶ and if as a Christian, do not let him be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this respect;

¹⁷ because it is the time of the judgment to have begun from the house of God, and if first from us, what [is] the end of those disobedient to the good news of God?

¹⁸ And if the righteous man is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and sinner appear?

¹⁹ So that those also suffering according to the will of God, as to a steadfast Creator, let them commit their own souls in doing good.

¹ Elders who [are] among you, I exhort [you], [as] a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of the Christ, and a partaker of the glory about to be revealed,

² feed the flock of God that [is] among you, overseeing not by compulsion, but willingly, neither for shameful gain, but eagerly,

³ neither as exercising lordship over the heritages, but becoming patterns for the flock,

⁴ and the Chief Shepherd having appeared, you will receive the unfading garland of glory.

⁵ In like manner, you young [ones], be subject to elders, and all subjecting yourselves to one another; clothe yourselves with humble-mindedness, because God resists the proud, but He gives grace to the humble;

⁶ be humbled, then, under the powerful hand of God, that He may exalt you in good time,

⁷ having cast all your care on Him, because He cares for you.

⁸ Be sober, vigilant, because your opponent the Devil walks around as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may swallow up,

⁹ whom you must resist, steadfast in the faith, having known the same sufferings of your brotherhood to be accomplished in the world.

¹⁰ And the God of all grace, who called you to His perpetual glory in Christ Jesus, having suffered a little, Himself make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle [you];

¹¹ to Him [is] the glory and the power through the ages and the ages! Amen.

¹² Through Silvanus, the faithful brother as I reckon, I wrote through few [words] to you, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God in which you have stood.

¹³ She in Babylon chosen with you greets you, and my son Marcus.

¹⁴ Greet one another in a kiss of love. Peace to you all who [are] in Christ Jesus! Amen.

Second Peter

¹ Simeon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who obtained an equally precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

² Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the acknowledgment of God and of Jesus our Lord!

³ As His divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and piety, through the acknowledgment of Him who called us through glory and virtue,

⁴ through which the most great and precious promises have been given to us, that through these you may become partakers of a divine nature, having escaped from the corruption [and] lust in the world.

⁵ And [for] this same [reason] also, having brought in all diligence, supplement your faith with virtue, and with virtue—knowledge,

⁶ and with knowledge—self-control, and with self-control—endurance, and with endurance—piety,

⁷ and with piety—brotherly kindness, and with brotherly kindness—love;

⁸ for these things being in you and abounding, make [you] neither inert nor unfruitful in regard to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁹ for he with whom these things are not present is blind, dim-sighted, having become forgetful of the cleansing of his old sins;

¹⁰ therefore, rather, brothers, be diligent to make steadfast your calling and [divine] selection, for doing these things you may never stumble;

¹¹ in this way the entrance into the continuous kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplemented to you.

¹² Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you about these things, although you have known [them] and have been established in the present truth,

¹³ and I think right, so long as I am in this tent, to stir you up in reminding [you],

¹⁴ having known that the laying aside of my tent is soon, even as our Lord Jesus Christ also showed to me.

¹⁵ And I will also be diligent [to ensure] that you always have a remembrance to make of these things after my departure.

¹⁶ For having not followed out skillfully devised fables, we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but having become eyewitnesses of His majesty—

¹⁷ for having received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice being borne to Him by the Excellent Glory: “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted”;

¹⁸ and we heard this voice borne out of Heaven, being with Him at the holy mountain.

¹⁹ And we have a more firm prophetic word, to which we do well giving heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day may dawn, and [the] morning star may arise in your hearts;

²⁰ knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Writing comes of private exposition,

²¹ for prophecy never came by [the] will of man, but men spoke from God, being brought by the Holy Spirit.

¹ But there also came false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among you, who will stealthily bring in destructive sects, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing quick destruction to themselves,

² and many will follow out their destructive ways, because of whom the way of the truth will be spoken of [as] evil,

³ and in covetousness, with forged words, they will make merchandise of you, whose judgment of old is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber.

⁴ For if God did not spare messengers having sinned, but having cast [them] down to Tartarus with chains of deepest gloom, delivered [them], having been reserved to judgment,

⁵ and did not spare the old world, but kept the eighth person, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood on the world of the impious,

⁶ and having turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes, condemned with an overthrow, having set [them as] an example to those about to be impious,

⁷ and He rescued righteous Lot, worn down by the conduct of the lawless in licentiousness,

⁸ for the righteous [man] dwelling among them was tormented in [his] righteous soul, day by day, in seeing and hearing unlawful works—

⁹ the LORD has known to rescue [the] pious out of temptation, and to keep [the] unrighteous being punished to [the] day of judgment,

¹⁰ and chiefly those following after the flesh in lust [and] defilement, and despising lordship. Bold, self-pleased, they are not afraid to speak evil of glorious ones,

¹¹ whereas messengers, being greater in strength and power, do not bear a slanderous judgment against them before the LORD;

¹² and these, as irrational natural beasts, made to be caught and destroyed—in what things they are ignorant of, slandering—in their destruction will be destroyed;

¹⁴ having eyes full of adultery, and unable to cease from sin, enticing unstable souls, having a heart exercised in covetousnesses, children of a curse,

¹⁵ having forsaken a right way, they went astray, having followed in the way of Balaam the [son] of Bosor, who loved a reward of unrighteousness,

¹⁶ and had a rebuke of his own iniquity—a mute donkey, having spoken in man's voice, forbid the madness of the prophet.

¹⁷ These are wells without water, and clouds driven by a storm, to whom the deepest gloom of darkness has been kept throughout the age;

¹⁸ for speaking swollen words of vanity, they entice in desires of the flesh—licentiousness, those who had truly escaped from those conducting themselves in error,

¹⁹ promising liberty to them, themselves being servants of corruption, for by whom anyone has been overcome, he has been brought to servitude to this one also;

²⁰ for if having escaped from the defilements of the world, in the acknowledging of the LORD and Savior Jesus Christ, and again being entangled by these things, they have been overcome, the last things have become worse to them than the first,

²¹ for it were better to them not to have acknowledged the way of righteousness, than having acknowledged [it], to turn back from the holy command delivered to them,

²² and that of the true proverb has happened to them: "A dog turned back on his own vomit," and, "A sow having bathed herself—to rolling in mire."

¹ This [is] now, beloved, a second letter I write to you, in both which I stir up your pure mind in reminding [you]

² to be mindful of the sayings said before by the holy prophets, and of the command of us the apostles of the LORD and Savior;

³ knowing this first, that there will come scoffers in the last days, going on according to their own desires,

⁴ and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things so remain from the beginning of the creation";

⁵ for this they willingly conceal, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth having been established by the word of God out of water and through water;

⁶ through which the world then, having been flooded by water, was destroyed;

⁸ And do not let this one thing be concealed from you, beloved, that one day with the LORD [is] as one thousand years and one thousand years as one day;

⁹ the LORD is not slow in regard to the promise, as some count slowness, but is long-suffering to us, not intending any to be lost, but all to come to conversion,

¹⁰ and it will come—the Day of the LORD—as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and the elements will be dissolved with burning heat, and [the] earth and the works in it will not be found.

¹¹ All these, then, being dissolved, what kind of persons ought you to be in holy behaviors and pious acts,

¹² waiting for and hurrying the coming of the Day of God, by which the heavens, being on fire, will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with burning heat?

¹³ And we wait for new heavens and a new earth according to His promise, in which righteousness dwells;

¹⁴ for this reason, beloved, waiting for these things, be diligent, spotless and unblameable, to be found by Him in peace,

¹⁵ and count the long-suffering of our Lord [as] salvation, according as also our beloved brother Paul—according to the wisdom given to him—wrote to you,

¹⁶ as also in all the letters, speaking in them concerning these things, among which are some things [that are] hard to be understood, which the untaught and unstable twist, as also the other Writings, to their own destruction.

¹⁷ You, then, beloved, knowing before, take heed, lest, together with the error of the impious being led away, you may fall from your own steadfastness, ¹⁸ and increase in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; to Him [is] the glory both now, and to the day of the age! Amen.

First John

¹ That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the Word of Life—

² and the Life appeared, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the continuous Life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us—

³ we declare to you that which we have seen and heard, that you also may have fellowship with us, and our fellowship [is] with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ;

⁴ and these things we write to you, that your joy may be full.

⁵ And this is the message that we have heard from Him, and announce to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in Him at all;

⁶ if we may say, “We have fellowship with Him,” and may walk in the darkness—we lie, and do not [speak] the truth;

⁷ and if we may walk in the light, as He is in the light—we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of His Son Jesus Christ cleanses us from every sin;

⁸ if we may say, “We have no sin,” we lead ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us;

⁹ if we may confess our sins, He is steadfast and righteous that He may forgive us the sins, and may cleanse us from every unrighteousness;

¹⁰ if we may say, “We have not sinned,” we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

¹ My little children, these things I write to you that you may not sin: and if anyone may sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, [the] Righteous One,

² and He is [the] propitiation for our sins, and not only for ours, but also for the whole world,

³ and in this we know that we have known Him, if we may keep His commands;

⁴ he who is saying, “I have known Him,” and is not keeping His commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in him;

⁵ and whoever may keep His word, truly the love of God has been perfected in him; in this we know that we are in Him.

⁶ He who is saying he remains in Him, himself ought to also walk according as He walked.

⁷ Beloved, I do not write a new command to you, but an old command, that you had from the beginning—the old command is the word that you heard from the beginning;

⁸ again, a new command I write to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light now shines;

⁹ he who is saying he is in the light, and is hating his brother, he is in the darkness until now;

¹⁰ he who is loving his brother, he remains in the light, and there is not a stumbling-block in him;

¹¹ but he who is hating his brother, he is in the darkness, and he walks in the darkness, and he has not known where he goes, because the darkness blinded his eyes.

¹² I write to you, little children, because sins have been forgiven you through His Name;

¹³ I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him who [is] from the beginning; I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil [one]; I write to you, little youths, because you have known the Father;

¹⁴ I wrote to you, fathers, because you have known Him who [is] from the beginning; I wrote to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil [one].

¹⁵ Do not love the world, nor the things in the world; if anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him,

¹⁶ because all that [is] in the world—the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the ostentation of [one’s] life—is not of the Father, but of the world,

¹⁷ and the world is passing away, and the desire of it, but he who is doing the will of God, he remains—throughout the age.

¹⁸ Little youths, it is the last hour; and even as you heard that the antichrist comes, even now antichrists have become many—whereby we know that it is [the] last hour;

¹⁹ they went forth out of us, but they were not of us, for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but [they went out] so that they might be revealed that they are not all of us.

²⁰ And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and have known all things;

²¹ I did not write to you because you have not known the truth, but because you have known it, and because no lie is of the truth.

²² Who is the liar, except he who is denying that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist who is denying the Father and the Son;

²³ everyone who is denying the Son, neither has the Father; he who is confessing the Son has the Father also.

²⁴ You, then, that which you heard from the beginning, let it remain in you; if that which you heard from the beginning may remain in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father,

²⁵ and this is the promise that He promised us—the continuous life.

²⁶ These things I wrote to you concerning those leading you astray;

²⁷ and you, the anointing that you received from Him, it remains in you, and you have no need that anyone may teach you, but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all, and is true, and is not a lie, and even as was taught you, you will remain in Him.

²⁸ And now, little children, remain in Him, so that when He may have appeared, we may have boldness, and may not be ashamed before Him, at His coming;

²⁹ if you know that He is righteous, know that everyone doing righteousness, has been begotten of Him.

² Beloved, now, we are children of God, and it was not yet revealed what we will be. We have known that if He may have appeared, we will be like Him, because we will see Him as He is;

³ and everyone who is having this hope on Him, purifies himself, even as He is pure.

⁴ Everyone who is doing sin, he also does lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness,

⁵ and you have known that He appeared that He may take away our sins, and sin is not in Him;

⁶ everyone who is remaining in Him does not sin; everyone who is sinning, has not seen Him, nor known Him.

⁷ Little children, let no one lead you astray; he who is doing righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous,

⁸ he who is doing sin, he is of the Devil, because the Devil sins from the beginning; for this [reason] the Son of God appeared, that He may undo the works of the Devil;

⁹ everyone who has been begotten of God, he does not sin, because His seed remains in him, and he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten of God.

¹⁰ In this are revealed the children of God, and the children of the Devil; everyone who is not doing righteousness, is not of God, and he who is not loving his brother,

¹¹ because this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we may love one another,

¹² not as Cain—he was of the evil one, and he slew his brother. And for [what] reason did he slay him? Because his works were evil, and those of his brother [were] righteous.

¹³ Do not wonder, my brothers, if the world hates you;

¹⁴ we have known that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers; he who is not loving [his] brother remains in death.

¹⁵ Everyone who is hating his brother is a manslayer, and you have known that no manslayer has continuous life remaining in him;

¹⁶ in this we have known love, because He laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down [our] lives for the brothers;

¹⁷ and whoever may have the goods of the world, and may view his brother having need, and may shut up his yearnings from him—how does the love of God remain in him?

¹⁸ My little children, may we not love in word nor in tongue, but in work and in truth!

¹⁹ And in this we know that we are of the truth, and before Him we will assure our hearts,

²⁰ because if our heart may condemn—because greater is God than our heart, and He knows all things.

²¹ Beloved, if our heart may not condemn us, we have boldness toward God,

²² and whatever we may ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commands, and we do the things pleasing before Him,

²³ and this is His command, that we may believe in the Name of His Son Jesus Christ, and may love one another, even as He gave command to us,

²⁴ and he who is keeping His commands, remains in Him, and He in him; and in this we know that He remains in us, from the Spirit that He gave us.

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but prove the spirits, if they are of God, because many false prophets have gone forth into the world.

2 In this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh, it is of God,

3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus Christ having come in the flesh, it is not of God; and this is that of the antichrist, which you heard that it comes, and now it is already in the world.

4 You are of God, little children, and you have overcome them; because greater is He who [is] in you, than he who is in the world.

5 They are of the world, because they speak of this from the world, and the world hears them;

6 we are of God; he who is knowing God hears us; he who is not of God, does not hear us; from this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, may we love one another, because love is of God, and everyone loving has been begotten of God, and knows God;

8 he who is not loving did not know God, because God is love.

9 In this was revealed the love of God in us, because God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we may live through Him;

10 in this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son [as] the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another;

12 no one has ever seen God; if we may love one another, God remains in us, and His love is having been perfected in us;

13 in this we know that we remain in Him, and He in us, because of His Spirit He has given us.

14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son [as] Savior of the world;

15 whoever may confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God;

16 and we have known and believed the love that God has in us; God is love, and he who is remaining in love, remains in God, and God in him.

17 In this, love has been perfected with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because even as He is, we also are in this world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and he who is fearing has not been made perfect in love;

19 we love Him, because He first loved us;

20 if anyone may say, "I love God," and may hate his brother, he is a liar; for he who is not loving his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love God whom he has not seen?

21 And this [is] the command we have from Him, that he who is loving God, may also love his brother.

1 Everyone who is believing that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten of God, and everyone who is loving Him who begot, also loves him who is begotten of Him.

2 In this we know that we love the children of God, when we may love God and may keep His commands;

³ for this is the love of God, that we may keep His commands, and His commands are not burdensome;

⁴ because everyone who is begotten of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcame the world—our faith.

⁵ Who is he who is overcoming the world, if not he who is believing that Jesus is the Son of God?

⁶ This One is He who came through water and blood—Jesus the Christ, not in water only, but in the water and the blood; and the Spirit is the [One] testifying, because the Spirit is the truth,

⁷ because [there] are three who are testifying [[in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one;

⁸ and [there] are three who are testifying in the earth]]: the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and the three are into the one.

⁹ If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, because this is the testimony of God that He has testified concerning His Son.

¹⁰ He who is believing in the Son of God has the testimony in himself; he who is not believing God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified concerning His Son;

¹¹ and this is the testimony, that God gave continuous life to us, and this life is in His Son;

¹² he who is having the Son has life; he who is not having the Son of God does not have life.

¹³ I wrote these things to you who are believing in the Name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have continuous life, and that you may believe in the Name of the Son of God.

¹⁴ And this is the boldness that we have toward Him, that if we may ask anything according to His will, He hears us,

¹⁵ and if we have known that He hears us, whatever we may ask, we have known that we have the requests that we have requested from Him.

¹⁶ If anyone may see his brother sinning a sin [that is] not to death, he will ask, and He will give life to him—to those not sinning to death; there is sin to death—I do not say that he may ask concerning it;

¹⁷ all unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin [that is] not to death.

¹⁸ We have known that everyone who has been begotten of God does not sin, but He who was begotten of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him;

¹⁹ we have known that we are of God, and the whole world lies [under the power] of the evil [one];

²⁰ but we have known that the Son of God has come, and has given us a mind that we may know Him who is true, and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ; this One is the true God and the continuous Life!

²¹ Little children, guard yourselves from idols! Amen.

Second John

¹ The elder to the chosen lady, and to her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those having known the truth,

² because of the truth that is remaining in us, and will be with us throughout the age,

³ there will be with you grace, mercy, [and] peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

⁴ I rejoiced exceedingly that I have found of your children walking in truth, even as we received a command from the Father;

⁵ and now I implore you, lady, not as writing to you a new command, but which we had from the beginning, that we may love one another,

⁶ and this is love, that we may walk according to His commands; this is the command, even as you heard from the beginning, that you may walk in it,

⁸ See to yourselves that you may not lose the things that we worked for, but may receive a full reward;

⁹ everyone who is transgressing, and is not remaining in the teaching of the Christ, does not have God; he who is remaining in the teaching of the Christ, this one has both the Father and the Son;

¹⁰ if anyone comes to you, and does not bear this teaching, do not receive him into the house, and do not say to him, "Greetings!"

¹¹ For he who is saying to him, "Greetings," has fellowship with his evil works.

¹² Having many things to write to you, I did not intend [it] with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and speak mouth to mouth, that our joy may be full.

¹³ The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

Third John

¹ The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth!

² Beloved, I desire you to prosper concerning all things, and to be in health, even as your soul prospers,

³ for I rejoiced exceedingly, brothers coming and testifying of the truth in you, even as you walk in truth;

⁴ I have no joy greater than these things, that I may hear of my children walking in truth.

⁵ Beloved, you act faithfully in whatever you may do toward the brothers and the one [among] strangers,

⁶ who testified of your love before an assembly, whom you will do well, having sent forward worthily of God,

⁷ because they went forth for [His] Name, receiving nothing from the nations;

⁸ we, then, ought to receive such, that we may become fellow-workers to the truth.

⁹ I wrote to the assembly, but he who is loving to be first among them—Diotrephes—does not receive us;

¹⁰ because of this, if I may come, I will cause him to remember his works that he does, talking nonsense against us with evil words; and not content with these, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and he forbids those intending [to receive them], and he casts [them] out of the assembly.

¹¹ Beloved, do not be following that which is evil, but that which is good; he who is doing good, he is of God, [but] he who is doing evil has not seen God;

¹² testimony has been given to Demetrius by all, and by the truth itself, and we also—we testify, and you have known that our testimony is true.

¹³ Many things I had to write, but I do not wish to write to you through ink and pen, ¹⁴ and I hope to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace to you! The friends greet you. Be greeting the friends by name.

¹⁵ -

¹ Judas, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those called, having been loved in God [the] Father, and having been kept in Jesus Christ, ² mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you!

³ Beloved, using all diligence to write to you concerning our common salvation, I had necessity to write to you, exhorting [you] to fight for the faith once delivered to the holy ones,

⁴ for there came in certain men stealthily, having been written beforehand to this judgment long ago, impious, perverting the grace of our God to licentiousness, and denying our only Master and Lord—Jesus Christ.

⁵ Now I intend to remind you, you once having known all this, that Jesus, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, He secondly destroyed those not having believed;

⁶ messengers also, those who did not keep their own principality, but left their proper dwelling, He has kept in eternal bonds under darkness until [the] judgment of [the] great day,

⁷ as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these [messengers], having given themselves to whoredom, and having gone after other flesh, have been set before [as] an example, undergoing the justice of continuous fire.

⁸ In like manner, nevertheless, those dreaming indeed defile the flesh, and they disregard lordship, and they speak evil of glorious [ones],

⁹ yet Michael, the chief messenger, when disputing with the Devil, reasoning about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against [him] a judgment of slander, but said, “The LORD rebuke you!”

¹⁰ But these, indeed, whatever [things] they have not known, they speak evil of; and whatever [they know], like the irrational beasts, they understand naturally—in these they are corrupted;

¹¹ woe to them! Because they went on in the way of Cain, and they rushed to the deceit of Balaam for reward, and in the controversy of Korah they perished.

¹² These are stains at your love-feasts, feasting together with you without fear, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, being carried away by winds; autumnal trees without fruit, having died twice, having been uprooted;

¹³ wild waves of a sea, foaming up their own shameful [deeds]; stars going astray, for whom the gloom of the darkness throughout the age has been kept.

¹⁴ And Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied to these, saying, “Behold, the LORD has come with myriads of His holy ones, ¹⁵ to do judgment against all, and to convict all their impious ones, concerning all their works of impiety that they did impiously, and concerning all the harsh [words] that impious sinners spoke against Him.”

¹⁶ These are discontented grumblers, walking according to their own lusts; and their mouth speaks swollen words, giving admiration to persons for the sake of profit;

¹⁷ but you, beloved, remember the sayings spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁸ that they said to you, that in the last time there will be scoffers, following after their own lusts of impieties,

¹⁹ these are those causing divisions, natural men, not having the Spirit.

²⁰ But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,

²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ [resulting] in continuous life;

²² and, indeed, show mercy to those who are doubting,

²³ and rescue others by snatching [them] out of fire; but show mercy to others in fear, hating even the coat having been stained from the flesh.

²⁴ And to Him who is able to guard you without stumbling, and to set [you] in the presence of His glory unblemished, in gladness,

²⁵ to the only wise God our Savior, [is] glory and greatness, power and authority, both now and forever! Amen.

Revelation

¹ A revelation of Jesus Christ that God gave to Him to show to His servants what things must quickly come to pass; and He signified [it], having sent through His messenger to His servant John,

² who testified [to] the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as many things as he also saw.

³ Blessed is he who is reading, and those hearing the words of the prophecy, and keeping the things written in it, for the time is near!

⁴ John, to the seven assemblies that [are] in Asia: Grace to you, and peace, from Him who is, and who was, and who is coming, and from the Seven Spirits that are before His throne,

⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn out of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth; to Him loving us and having released us from our sins in His blood,

⁶ [He] has also made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him—the glory and the power through the ages of the ages! Amen.

⁷ Behold, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the land will wail because of Him. Yes! Amen!

⁸ “I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, says the LORD, who is, and who was, and who is coming—the Almighty.”

⁹ I, John, who [am] also your brother, and fellow-partner in the tribulation, and in the kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ, was in the island that is called Patmos, because of the word of God, and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ;

¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the LORD’s Day, and I heard a great voice behind me, as of a trumpet, saying,

¹¹ “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and, “Write what you see in a scroll, and send [it] to the seven assemblies that [are] in Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

¹² And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands,

¹³ and in the midst of the seven lampstands, [One] like a Son of Man, clothed to the foot, and having been girded around at the breasts with a golden girdle,

¹⁴ and His head and hairs [were] white, as if white wool—as snow, and His eyes as a flame of fire;

¹⁵ and His feet like to frankincense-colored brass, as having been fired in a furnace, and His voice as a sound of many waters;

¹⁶ and having seven stars in His right hand, and out of His mouth a sharp two-edged sword is proceeding, and His countenance—as the sun shining in its might.

¹⁷ And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead, and He placed His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last,

¹⁸ and He who is living, and I became dead, and behold, I am living through the ages of the ages. Amen! And I have the keys of Hades and of death.

¹⁹ Write the things that you have seen, and the things that are, and the things that are about to come after these things;

²⁰ the secret of the seven stars that you have seen on My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are messengers of the seven assemblies, and the seven lampstands that you have seen are seven assemblies.”

¹ “To the messenger of the Ephesian assembly write: These things says He who is holding the seven stars in His right hand, who is walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands:

² I have known your works, and your labor, and your endurance, and that you are not able to bear evil ones, and that you have tried those saying themselves to be apostles and are not, and have found them liars,

³ and you bore, and have endurance, and have toiled because of My Name, and have not been weary.

⁴ But I have against you that you left your first love!

⁵ Remember, then, from where you have fallen, and convert, and do the first works; and if not, I come to you quickly, and will remove your lampstand from its place—if you may not convert;

⁶ but this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, that I also hate.

⁷ He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: To him who is overcoming—I will give to him to eat of the Tree of Life that is in the midst of the paradise of God.

⁸ And to the messenger of the assembly of the Smyrneans write: These things says the First and the Last, who became dead and lived:

⁹ I have known your works, and tribulation, and poverty—yet you are rich—and the slander of those saying themselves to be Jews, and are not, but [are] a synagogue of Satan.

¹⁰ Do not be afraid of the things that you are about to suffer; behold, the Devil is about to cast [some] of you into prison, that you may be tried, and you will have tribulation ten days; become faithful to death, and I will give to you the garland of life.

¹¹ He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: He who is overcoming may not be injured of the second death.

¹² And to the messenger of the assembly in Pergamos write: These things says He who is having the sharp two-edged sword:

¹³ I have known your works, and where you dwell—where the throne of Satan [is]—and you hold fast My Name, and you did not deny My faith, even in the days in which Antipas [was] My faithful witness, who was put to death beside you, where Satan dwells.

¹⁴ But I have a few things against you: that you have there those holding the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-sacrifices, and to commit whoredom;

¹⁵ so have you, even you, those holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans—which thing I hate.

¹⁶ Convert! And if not, I come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: To him who is overcoming, I will give to him to eat from the hidden manna, and will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, that no one knew except him who is receiving [it].

18 And to the messenger of the assembly of Thyatira write: These things says the Son of God, who is having His eyes as a flame of fire, and His feet like to frankincense-colored brass:

19 I have known your works, and love, and ministry, and faith, and your endurance, and your works—and the last [are] more than the first.

20 But I have a few things against you: that you allow the woman Jezebel, who is calling herself a prophetess, to teach, and to lead astray, My servants to commit whoredom, and to eat idol-sacrifices;

21 and I gave to her a time that she might convert from her whoredom, and she did not convert;

22 behold, I will cast her into a bed, and those committing adultery with her into great tribulation—if they may not convert from her works,

23 and I will kill her children in death, and all the assemblies will know that I am He who is searching affections and hearts; and I will give to you—to each—according to your works.

24 And to you I say, and to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, and who did not know the depths of Satan, as they say—I will not put on you another burden,

25 but hold that which you have, until I may come;

26 and he who is overcoming, and who is keeping My works to the end, I will give to him authority over the nations,

27 and he will rule them with a rod of iron—they will be broken as the vessels of the potter—as I have also received from My Father;

28 and I will give to him the morning star.

29 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

1 “And to the messenger of the assembly in Sardis write: These things says He who is having the Seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I have known your works, and that you have the name that you live, and you are dead;

2 be watching, and strengthen the rest of the things that are about to die, for I have not found your works fulfilled before God.

3 Remember, then, what you have received and heard, and keep [it] and convert: if, then, you may not watch, I will come on you as a thief, and you may not know what hour I will come on you.

4 You have a few names even in Sardis who did not defile their garments, and they will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy.

5 The [one] thus overcoming will be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Scroll of Life, and I will confess his name before My Father, and before His messengers.

6 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

7 And to the messenger of the assembly in Philadelphia write: These things says the Holy [One], the True [One], having the key of David, the [One] opening and no one will shut, and shutting and no one opens:

⁸ I have known your works; behold, I have set before you a door having been opened, which no one is able to shut it, because you have little power, and yet have kept My word, and have not denied My Name;

⁹ behold, I give from the synagogue of Satan—those saying themselves to be Jews, and are not, but lie—behold, I will make them that they may come and prostrate before your feet, and may know that I loved you.

¹⁰ Because you kept the word of My endurance, I also will keep you from the hour of the trial that is about to come on all the world, to try those dwelling on the earth.

¹¹ Behold, I come quickly, be holding fast that which you have, that no one may receive your garland.

¹² He who is overcoming—I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he may not go outside anymore, and I will write on him the Name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, that comes down out of Heaven from My God—also My new Name.

¹³ He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

¹⁴ And to the messenger of the assembly of the Laodiceans write: These things says the Amen, the Witness—the Faithful and True—the Chief of the creation of God:

¹⁵ I have known your works, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish you were cold or hot.

¹⁶ So—because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of My mouth;

¹⁷ because you say—I am rich, and have grown rich, and have need of nothing, and have not known that you are the wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked;

¹⁸ I counsel you to buy from Me gold fired by fire, that you may be rich, and white garments that you may be clothed, and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed, and with eye-salve anoint your eyes, that you may see.

¹⁹ As many as I cherish, I convict and discipline; be zealous, then, and convert;

²⁰ behold, I have stood at the door, and I knock; if anyone may hear My voice, and may open the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me.

²¹ He who is overcoming—I will give to him to sit with Me in My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father in His throne.

²² He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

¹ After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in the sky, and the first voice that I heard—as of a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you what must come to pass after these things”;

² and immediately I was in [the] Spirit, and behold, a throne was set in Heaven, and on the throne is [One] sitting,

³ and He who is sitting was in appearance like a stone, jasper and sardine; and a rainbow was around the throne in appearance like an emerald.

⁴ And around the throne [are] twenty-four thrones, and sitting on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders, having been clothed in white garments, and on their heads golden garlands;

⁵ and out of the throne proceed lightnings, and thunders, and voices; and seven lamps of fire are burning before the throne, which are the Seven Spirits of God,

⁶ and before the throne—a sea of glass like to crystal, and in the midst of the throne, and around the throne—four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind;

⁸ And the four living creatures, one by one of them had six wings respectively, around and within [are] full of eyes, and they have no rest day and night, saying, “HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, the LORD God, the Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is coming”;

⁹ and when the living creatures give glory, and honor, and thanksgiving, to the [One] sitting on the throne, the [One] living through the ages of the ages,

¹⁰ the twenty-four elders will fall down before the [One] sitting on the throne, and worship the [One] living through the ages of the ages, and they will cast their garlands before the throne, saying,

¹¹ “Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive the glory, and the honor, and the power, because You created all things, and because of Your will they existed and were created.”

¹ And I saw a scroll on the right hand of Him who is sitting on the throne, written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals;

² and I saw a strong messenger crying with a great voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?”

³ And no one was able in Heaven, nor on the earth, nor under the earth, to open the scroll, nor to behold it.

⁴ And I was weeping much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the scroll, nor to behold it,

⁵ and one of the elders says to me, “Do not weep; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has overcome to open the scroll, and to loose its seven seals”;

⁶ and I saw, and behold, in the midst of the throne, and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the Seven Spirits of God, which are sent to all the earth,

⁷ and He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who is sitting on the throne.

⁸ And when He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each one having harps and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the holy ones,

⁹ and they sing a new song, saying, “Worthy are You to take the scroll, and to open its seals, because You were slain, and You purchased us to God in Your blood, out of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation,

¹⁰ and made them [to be] to our God kings and priests, and they will reign on the earth.”

¹¹ And I saw, and I heard the voice of many messengers around the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders—and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands—

¹² saying with a great voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing!”

¹³ And every creature that is in Heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and the things that are on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying, “To Him who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb—the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the might—through the ages of the ages!”

¹⁴ And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and they worship Him who is living through the ages of the ages.

¹ And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as it were a voice of thunder, “Come and behold!”

² And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he who is sitting on it is having a bow, and there was given to him a garland, and he went forth overcoming, and that he may overcome.

³ And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come and behold!”

⁴ And there went forth another horse—fire-colored, and to him who is sitting on it, there was given to him to take peace from the earth, and that they may slay one another, and there was given to him a great sword.

⁵ And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come and behold!” And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and he who is sitting on it is having a balance in his hand,

⁶ and I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A measure of wheat for a denarius, and three measures of barley for a denarius, and you may not injure the oil and the wine.”

⁷ And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and behold!”

⁸ And I saw, and behold, a pale horse, and he who is sitting on him—his name is Death, and Hades follows with him, and there was given to them authority to kill over the fourth part of the earth with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

⁹ And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony that they held,

¹⁰ and they were crying with a great voice, saying, “Until when, O Master, the Holy and the True, do You not judge and take vengeance of our blood from those dwelling on the earth?”

¹¹ And there was given to each one a white robe, and it was said to them that they may rest themselves yet a short time, until may also be fulfilled their fellow-servants and their brothers, who are about to be killed—even as they.

¹² And I saw when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, a great earthquake came, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood,

¹³ and the stars of Heaven fell to the earth—as a fig tree casts her unripe figs, being shaken by a great wind—

¹⁴ and the sky departed as a scroll rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places;

¹⁵ and the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich, and the chiefs of thousands, and the mighty, and every servant, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

¹⁶ and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him who is sitting on the throne, and from the anger of the Lamb,”

¹⁷ because the great day of His anger has come, and who is able to stand?

¹ And after these things I saw four messengers, standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind may not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree;

² and I saw another messenger going up from the rising of the sun, having a seal of the living God, and he cried with a great voice to the four messengers, to whom it was given to injure the land and the sea, saying,

³ “Do not injure the land, nor the sea, nor the trees, until we may seal the servants of our God on their foreheads.”

⁴ And I heard the number of those sealed—one hundred forty-four thousand, having been sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel:

⁵ of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed;

⁶ of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand were sealed;

⁷ of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed;

⁸ of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

⁹ After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no one was able to number, out of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne, and before the Lamb, having been clothed [in] white robes, and palms in their hands,

¹⁰ and crying with a great voice, saying, “Salvation to our God, the [One] sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

¹¹ And all the messengers stood around the throne, and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces and worshiped God,

¹² saying, “Amen! The blessing, and the glory, and the wisdom, and the thanksgiving, and the honor, and the power, and the strength, [are] to our God through the ages of the ages! Amen!”

¹³ And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These having been clothed with the white robes, who are they, and from where have they come?"

¹⁴ And I have said to him, "Lord, you have known"; and he said to me, "These are those who are coming out of the Great Tribulation, and they washed their robes, and they made their robes white in the blood of the Lamb;

¹⁵ because of this they are before the throne of God, and they do service to Him day and night in His temple, and He who is sitting on the throne will dwell over them;

¹⁶ they will not hunger anymore, nor may the sun fall on them, nor any heat,

¹⁷ because the Lamb that [is] in the midst of the throne will feed them, and will lead them to living fountains of waters, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

¹ And when He opens the seventh seal, there came silence in Heaven about half an hour;

² and I saw the seven messengers who have stood before God, and there were given to them seven trumpets,

³ and another messenger came, and he stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given to him much incense, that he may give [it] to the prayers of all the holy ones on the golden altar that [is] before the throne,

⁴ and the smoke of the incenses, with the prayers of the holy ones, went up before God out of the hand of the messenger;

⁵ and the messenger took the censer, and filled it out of the fire of the altar, and cast [it] to the earth, and there came voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

⁶ And the seven messengers who are having the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they may sound the trumpets;

⁷ and the first messenger sounded the trumpet, and there came hail and fire, mingled with blood, and it was cast to the earth, and the third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸ And the second messenger sounded the trumpet, and [something] like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third of the sea became blood,

⁹ and the third of the creatures that [are] in the sea died, those having life, and the third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ And the third messenger sounded the trumpet, and there fell out of the sky a great star, burning as a lamp, and it fell on the third of the rivers, and on the fountains of waters,

¹¹ and the name of the star is called Wormwood, and the third of the waters become wormwood, and many of the men died [because] of the waters, because they were made bitter.

¹² And the fourth messenger sounded the trumpet, and the third of the sun was struck, and the third of the moon, and the third of the stars, that the third of them may be darkened, and that the day may not shine—the third of it, and the night in like manner.

¹³ And I saw, and I heard one messenger, flying in midair, saying with a great voice, "Woe, woe, woe, to those dwelling on the earth because of the rest of the voices of the trumpet of the three messengers being about to sound trumpets.”

¹ And the fifth messenger sounded the trumpet, and I saw a star having fallen to the earth out of Heaven, and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss,

² and [he] opened the pit of the abyss, and there came up a smoke out of the pit as smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the pit.

³ And out of the smoke came forth locusts to the earth, and there was given to them authority, as scorpions of the earth have authority,

⁴ and it was said to them that they may not injure the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads,

⁵ and it was given to them that they may not kill them, but that they may be tormented five months, and their torment—as the torment of a scorpion—when it may strike a man;

⁶ and in those days men will seek death and they will not find it, and they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

⁷ And the likenesses of the locusts—like to horses made ready to battle, and on their heads [something] as garlands like gold, and their faces as faces of men,

⁸ and they had hair as hair of women, and their teeth were as [those] of lions,

⁹ and they had breastplates as breastplates of iron, and the noise of their wings—as the noise of chariots of many horses running to battle;

¹⁰ and they have tails like to scorpions, and stings were in their tails; and their authority [is] to injure men five months;

¹¹ and they have over them a king—the messenger of the abyss—a name [is] to him in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek he has a name, Apollyon.

¹² The first woe went forth, behold, there yet come two woes after these things.

¹³ And the sixth messenger sounded the trumpet, and I heard a voice out of the four horns of the altar of gold that is before God,

¹⁴ saying to the sixth messenger who had the trumpet, “Loose the four messengers who are bound at the great river Euphrates”;

¹⁵ and the four messengers were loosed, who have been made ready for the hour, and day, and month, and year; that they may kill the third of mankind;

¹⁶ and the number of the forces of the horsemen—twice ten thousand ten thousands, and I heard the number of them.

¹⁷ And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those sitting on them, having breastplates of fire, and jacinth, and brimstone; and the heads of the horses [are] as heads of lions, and out of their mouths proceed fire, and smoke, and brimstone;

¹⁸ by these three plagues the third of mankind was killed, from the fire, and from the smoke, and from the brimstone, that is proceeding out of their mouths,

¹⁹ for the power of the horses are in their mouth, and in their tails, for their tails [are] like serpents, having heads, and they injure with them.

²⁰ And the rest of mankind, who were not killed in these plagues, neither converted from the works of their hands, that they may not worship the demons, and idols, those of gold, and those of silver, and those of brass, and those of stone, and those of wood, that are neither able to see, nor to hear, nor to walk, ²¹ and they did not convert from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their whoredoms, nor from their thefts.

² and he had in his hand a little scroll opened, and he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land,

³ and he cried with a great voice, as a lion roars, and when he cried, the seven thunders spoke out their voices;

⁴ and when the seven thunders spoke their voices, I was about to write, and I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, "Seal the things that the seven thunders spoke," and, "You may not write these things."

⁵ And the messenger whom I saw standing on the sea, and on the land, lifted up his hand to the sky,

⁶ and swore by Him who lives through the ages of the ages, who created the sky and the things in it, and the land and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it—that time will not be yet,

⁷ but in the days of the voice of the seventh messenger, when he may be about to sound the trumpet, and the secret of God may be accomplished, as He declared to His own servants, to the prophets.

⁸ And the voice that I heard out of Heaven is again speaking with me, and saying, "Go, take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the messenger who has been standing on the sea, and on the land":

⁹ and I went away to the messenger, saying to him, "Give me the little scroll"; and he says to me, "Take, and eat it up, and it will make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey."

¹⁰ And I took the little scroll out of the hand of the messenger, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey, and when I ate it my belly was made bitter;

¹¹ and he says to me, "You must again prophesy about many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings."

11

¹ And there was given to me a reed like to a rod, [[and the messenger stood,]] saying, "Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those worshipping in it;

² and leave out the court that is outside the temple, and you may not measure it, because it was given to the nations, and they will tread down the holy city forty-two months;

³ and I will give to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand, two hundred, sixty days, clothed with sackcloth";

⁴ these are the two olive [trees], and the two lampstands that stand before the God of the earth;

⁵ and if anyone may will to injure them, fire proceeds out of their mouth, and devours their enemies, and if anyone may will to injure them, thus it is required of him to be killed.

⁶ These have authority to shut the sky, that rain may not rain in the days of their prophecy, and they have authority over the waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the land with every plague, as often as they may will.

⁷ And when they may finish their testimony, the beast that is coming up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them,

⁸ and their body [is] on the street of the great city that is called spiritually Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified,

⁹ and they gaze—[those] of the peoples, and tribes, and tongues, and nations—on their dead bodies three and a half days, and they will not allow their dead bodies to be put into tombs,

¹⁰ and those dwelling on the earth will rejoice over them, and will make merry, and they will send gifts to one another, because these—the two prophets—tormented those dwelling on the earth.

¹¹ And after the three and a half days, [the] Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those beholding them,

¹² and they heard a great voice out of Heaven saying to them, “Come up here”; and they went up to Heaven in the cloud, and their enemies beheld them;

¹³ and in that hour a great earthquake came, and the tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand names of men were killed in the earthquake, and the rest became frightened, and they gave glory to the God of Heaven.

¹⁴ The second woe went forth, behold, the third woe comes quickly.

¹⁵ And the seventh messenger sounded the trumpet, and there came great voices in Heaven, saying, “The kingdoms of the world became [those] of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign through the ages of the ages!”

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who are sitting on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God,

¹⁷ saying, “We give thanks to You, O LORD God, the Almighty, who is, and who was, and who is coming, because You have taken Your great power and reigned;

¹⁸ and the nations were angry, and Your anger came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to Your servants, to the prophets, and to the holy ones, and to those fearing Your Name, to the small and to the great, and to destroy those who are destroying the earth.”

¹⁹ And the temple of God was opened in Heaven, and the Ark of His Covenant was seen in His temple, and there came lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

¹ And a great sign was seen in the sky: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars,

² and having [a child] in [her] womb she cries out, travailing and being in pain to bring forth.

³ And there was seen another sign in the sky, and behold, a great fire-colored dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads,

⁴ and his tail draws the third of the stars of the sky, and he cast them to the earth; and the dragon stood before the woman who is about to bring forth, that when she may bring forth, he may devour her child;

⁵ and she brought forth a male son, who is about to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, and her child was snatched up to God and to His throne,

⁶ and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place made ready from God, that there they may nourish her—one thousand, two hundred, sixty days.

⁷ And there came war in Heaven: Michael and his messengers warred against the dragon, and the dragon and his messengers warred,

⁸ and they did not prevail, nor was their place found anymore in Heaven;

⁹ and the great dragon was cast forth—the old serpent, who is called “Devil,” and “Satan,” who is leading the whole world astray—he was cast forth to the earth, and his messengers were cast forth with him.

¹⁰ And I heard a great voice saying in Heaven, “Now came the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom, of our God, and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser of our brothers was cast down, who is accusing them before our God day and night;

¹¹ and they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life—to death;

¹² because of this be glad, you heavens, and those who dwell in them; woe to those inhabiting the earth and the sea, because the Devil went down to you, having great wrath, having known that he has [a] short time.”

¹³ And when the dragon saw that he was cast forth to the earth, he pursued the woman who brought forth the male,

¹⁴ and there were given to the woman two wings of the great eagle, that she may fly into the wilderness, to her place, where she is nourished a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent;

¹⁵ and the serpent cast forth out of his mouth water as a river after the woman, that he may cause her to be carried away by the river,

¹⁶ and the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon cast forth out of his mouth;

¹⁷ and the dragon was angry against the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, those keeping the commands of God, and having the testimony of Jesus.

¹ And I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and ten crowns on its horns, and on its heads names of slander,

² and the beast that I saw was like to a leopard, and its feet as of a bear, and its mouth as the mouth of a lion, and the dragon gave to it his power, and his throne, and great authority.

³ And I saw one of its heads as slain to death, and its deadly wound was healed, and all the earth wondered after the beast,

⁴ and they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who [is] like to the beast? Who is able to war with it?”

⁵ And there was given to it a mouth speaking great things, and slanders, and there was given to it authority to make war forty-two months,

⁶ and it opened its mouth for slander toward God, to slander His Name, and of His dwelling place, and of those who dwell in Heaven,

⁷ and there was given to it to make war with the holy ones, and to overcome them, and there was given to it authority over every tribe, and tongue, and nation.

⁸ And all who are dwelling on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Scroll of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world;

⁹ if anyone has an ear—let him hear:

¹⁰ if anyone [goes] into captivity, into captivity he goes; if anyone is to be killed with sword, it is necessary of him by sword to be killed; here is the endurance and the faith of the holy ones.

¹¹ And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it was speaking as a dragon,

¹² and all the authority of the first beast does it do before it, and it makes the earth and those dwelling in it that they will worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed,

¹³ and it does great signs, that fire also it may make to come down from the sky to the earth before men,

¹⁴ and it leads astray those dwelling on the earth, because of the signs that were given it to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth to make an image to the beast that has the wound of the sword and lived,

¹⁵ and there was given to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, that also the image of the beast may speak, and it may cause as many as will not worship the image of the beast, that they may be killed.

¹⁶ And it makes all, the small, and the great, and the rich, and the poor, and the freemen, and the servants, that it may give to them a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads,

¹⁷ and that no one may be able to buy, or to sell, except he who is having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

¹⁸ Here is the wisdom! He who is having the understanding, let him count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and its number: six hundred sixty-six.

14

¹ And I saw, and behold, a Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred forty-four thousand, having the Name of His Father written on their foreheads;

² and I heard a voice out of Heaven, as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of great thunder, and I heard a voice of harpists harping with their harps,

³ and they sing, as it were, a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who have been bought from the earth;

⁴ these are they who were not defiled with women, for they are virgin; these are they who are following the Lamb wherever He may go; these were bought from among men—a first-fruit to God and to the Lamb—

⁵ and in their mouth there was not found guile, for they are unblemished before the throne of God.

⁶ And I saw another messenger flying in midair, having continuous good news to proclaim to those dwelling on the earth, and to every nation, and tribe, and tongue, and people,

⁷ saying in a great voice, “Fear God, and give to Him glory, because the hour of His judgment came, and worship Him who made the sky, and the land, and sea, and fountains of waters.”

⁸ And another messenger followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, because of the wine of the wrath of her whoredom she has given to all nations to drink.”

⁹ And a third messenger followed them, saying in a great voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,

¹⁰ he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God that has been mingled unmixed in the cup of His anger, and he will be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy messengers, and before the Lamb,

¹¹ and the smoke of their torment goes up through ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night, who are worshipping the beast and his image, also if any receive the mark of his name.

¹² Here is endurance of the holy ones; here [are] those keeping the commands of God, and the faith of Jesus.”

¹³ And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, “Write: Blessed are the dead who are dying in the LORD from this time!” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “That they may rest from their labors—and their works follow them!”

¹⁴ And I saw, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud [One] sitting like [a] Son of Man, having on His head a golden garland, and in His hand a sharp sickle;

¹⁵ and another messenger came forth out of the temple crying in a great voice to Him who is sitting on the cloud, “Send forth Your sickle and reap, because the hour of reaping has come to You, because the harvest of the earth has been ripe”;

¹⁶ and He who is sitting on the cloud put forth His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷ And another messenger came forth out of the temple that [is] in Heaven, having—he also—a sharp sickle,

¹⁸ and another messenger came forth out from the altar, having authority over the fire, and he called with a great cry to him having the sharp sickle, saying, “Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because her grapes have come to perfection”;

¹⁹ and the messenger put forth his sickle to the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast [it] into the great winepress of the wrath of God;

²⁰ and the winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came forth out of the winepress—to the bridles of the horses, one thousand six hundred stadia.

¹ And I saw another sign in the sky, great and wonderful: seven messengers having the seven last plagues, because in these the wrath of God was completed,

² and I saw as a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who gain the victory over the beast, and his image, and his mark, [and] the number of his name, standing by the sea of the glass, having harps of God,

³ and they sing the song of Moses, servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and wonderful [are] Your works, O LORD God, the Almighty, righteous and true [are] Your ways, O King of holy ones!

⁴ Who may not fear You, O LORD, and glorify Your Name? Because You alone [are] holy, because all the nations will come and worship before You, because Your righteous acts were revealed."

⁵ And after these things I saw, and behold, the temple of the Dwelling Place of the Testimony was opened in Heaven;

⁶ and the seven messengers having the seven plagues came forth out of the temple, clothed in linen, pure and radiant, and girded around the breasts with golden girdles:

⁷ and one of the four living creatures gave to the seven messengers seven golden bowls, full of the wrath of God, who is living through the ages of the ages;

⁸ and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven messengers may be completed.

¹ And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven messengers, "Go away, and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God into the earth";

² and the first went away, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and there came a sore—bad and grievous—to men, those having the mark of the beast, and those worshiping his image.

³ And the second messenger poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of [one] dead, and every living soul in the sea died.

⁴ And the third messenger poured out his bowl into the rivers, and into the fountains of the waters, and there came blood,

⁵ and I heard the messenger of the waters, saying, "Righteous, O LORD, are You, who is, and who was, [[and who will be,]] the Holy [One], because You judged these things,

⁶ because they poured out [the] blood of holy ones and prophets, and You gave to them blood to drink, for they are worthy";

⁷ and I heard another out of the altar, saying, "Yes, LORD God, the Almighty, true and righteous [are] Your judgments."

⁸ And the fourth messenger poured out his bowl on the sun, and there was given to him to scorch men with fire,

⁹ and men were scorched with great heat, and they slandered the Name of God, who has authority over these plagues, and they did not convert—to give to Him glory.

¹⁰ And the fifth messenger poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened, and they were gnawing their tongues from the pain,

¹¹ and they slandered the God of Heaven, from their pains, and from their sores, and they did not convert from their works.

¹² And the sixth messenger poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates, and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings who are from the rising of the sun may be made ready;

¹³ and I saw [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs—

¹⁴ for they are spirits of demons, doing signs—which go forth to the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to bring them together to the battle of that great day of God the Almighty.

¹⁵ (“Behold, I come as a thief; blessed [is] he who is watching, and keeping his garments, that he may not walk naked, and they may see his unseemliness.”)

¹⁶ And they brought them together to the place that is called in Hebrew Armageddon.

¹⁷ And the seventh messenger poured out his bowl on the air, and there came forth a great voice from the temple of Heaven, from the throne, saying, “It is done!”

¹⁸ And there came voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and a great earthquake came, such as has not come since men came on the earth, so mighty an earthquake—so great!

¹⁹ And it came—the great city—into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the wrath of His anger;

²⁰ and every island fled away, and mountains were not found,

²¹ and great hail (as of talent weight) comes down out of the sky on men, and men slandered God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague is very great.

¹ And there came one of the seven messengers, who were having the seven bowls, and he spoke with me, saying to me, “Come, I will show to you the judgment of the great whore, who is sitting on the many waters,

² with whom the kings of the earth committed whoredom; and those inhabiting the earth were made drunk from the wine of her whoredom”;

³ and he carried me away to a wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of slander, having seven heads and ten horns,

⁴ and the woman was clothed with purple and scarlet-color, and gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and uncleanness of her whoredom,

⁵ and on her forehead was a name written: “SECRET, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE WHORES, AND THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

⁶ And I saw the woman drunken from the blood of the holy ones, and from the blood of the witnesses of Jesus, and I wondered—having seen her—with great wonder;

⁷ and the messenger said to me, "For this reason did you wonder? I will tell you the secret of the woman and of the beast that [is] carrying her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

⁸ The beast that you saw: it was, and it is not, and it is about to come up out of the abyss, and to go away to destruction, and those dwelling on the earth will wonder, whose names have not been written on the Scroll of Life from the foundation of the world, beholding the beast that was, and is not, although it is.

⁹ Here [is] the mind that is having wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits,

¹⁰ and there are seven kings, the five fell, and the one is, the other did not yet come, and when he may come, it is necessary for him to remain a short time;

¹¹ and the beast that was, and is not, he also is eighth, and he is out of the seven, and he goes away to destruction.

¹² And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who did not yet receive a kingdom, but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast;

¹³ these have one mind, and they will give over their own power and authority to the beast;

¹⁴ these will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those with Him are called, and chosen, and steadfast."

¹⁵ And he says to me, "The waters that you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues;

¹⁶ and the ten horns that you saw, and the beast, these will hate the whore, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her in fire,

¹⁷ for God gave into their hearts to do His purpose, and to make one purpose, and to give their kingdom to the beast until the sayings of God may be fulfilled,

¹⁸ and the woman that you saw is the great city that is having reign over the kings of the earth."

¹ And after these things I saw another messenger coming down out of Heaven, having great authority, and the earth was lightened from his glory,

² and he cried in might [with] a great voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! And she became a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hateful bird,

³ because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her whoredom, and the kings of the earth committed whoredom with her, and merchants of the earth were made rich from the power of her indulgence."

⁴ And I heard another voice out of Heaven, saying, "Come forth out of her, My people, that you may not partake with her sins, and that you may not receive of her plagues,

⁵ because her sins have reached up to Heaven, and God remembered her unrighteousness.

⁶ Render to her as she also rendered to you, and double to her twofold according to her works; in the cup that she mingled to her double.

⁷ As much as she glorified herself and indulged, so much torment and sorrow give to her, because in her heart she says, I sit [as] queen, and I am not a widow, and I will not see sorrow;

⁸ because of this, in one day, will come her plagues: death, and sorrow, and famine; and she will be utterly burned in fire, because strong [is] the LORD God who is judging her;

⁹ and the kings of the earth will weep over her and strike themselves for her, who committed whoredom and indulged with her, when they may see the smoke of her burning,

¹⁰ having stood from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city! Babylon, the strong city! Because in one hour your judgment came.

¹¹ And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo anymore;

¹² cargo of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all fragrant wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel of most precious wood, and brass, and iron, and marble,

¹³ and cinnamon, and amomum, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and of horses, and of chariots, and of bodies and souls of men.

¹⁴ And the fruits of the desire of your soul went away from you, and all things—the sumptuous and the radiant—went away from you, and no more at all may you find them.

¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far off because of the fear of her torment, weeping, and mourning,

¹⁶ and saying, Woe, woe, the great city, that was clothed with fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded in gold, and precious stone, and pearls—

¹⁷ because in one hour so much riches were made desolate! And every shipmaster, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood far off,

¹⁸ and were crying, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What [city is] like to the great city?

¹⁹ And they cast dust on their heads, and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city! In which were made rich all having ships in the sea, out of her costliness—for in one hour was she made desolate.

²⁰ Be glad over her, O Heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, because God judged your judgment of her!"

²¹ And one strong messenger took up a stone as a great millstone, and cast [it] into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon be cast, the great city, and may not be found anymore at all;

²² and voice of harpists, and musicians, and pipers, and trumpeters, may not be heard at all in you anymore; and any craftsman of any craft may not be found at all in you anymore; and noise of a millstone may not be heard at all in you anymore;

²³ and light of a lamp may not shine at all in you anymore; and voice of bridegroom and of bride may not be heard at all in you anymore; because your merchants were the great ones of the earth, because all the nations were led astray in your sorcery,

²⁴ and in her blood of prophets and of holy ones was found, and of all those who have been slain on the earth.”

19

¹ And after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in Heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! The salvation, and the glory, and the power [belong] to the LORD our God;

² because true and righteous [are] His judgments, because He judged the great whore who corrupted the earth in her whoredom, and He avenged the blood of His servants at her hand”;

³ and a second time they said, “Hallelujah”; and her smoke comes up through the ages of the ages!

⁴ And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and they worshiped God who is sitting on the throne, saying, “Amen! Hallelujah!”

⁵ And a voice out of the throne came forth, saying, “Praise our God, all you His servants, and those fearing Him, both the small and the great”;

⁶ and I heard as the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, “Hallelujah! Because our Lord, the God, the Almighty, has reigned!

⁷ May we rejoice and exult, and give the glory to Him, because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready;

⁸ and there was given to her that she may be clothed with fine linen, pure and radiant, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the holy ones.”

⁹ And he says to me, “Write: Blessed [are] they who have been called to the banquet of the marriage of the Lamb”; and he says to me, “These [are] the true words of God”;

¹⁰ and I fell before his feet to worship him, and he says to me, “Behold—No! I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers, those having the testimony of Jesus; worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of the prophecy.”

¹¹ And I saw Heaven having been opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who is sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war,

¹² and His eyes [are] as a flame of fire, and on His head [are] many crowns—having a Name written that no one has known, except Himself,

¹³ and He is clothed with a garment covered with blood, and His Name is called, The Word of God.

¹⁴ And the armies in Heaven were following Him on white horses, clothed in fine linen—white and pure;

¹⁵ and out of His mouth proceeds a sharp sword, that with it He may strike the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron, and He treads the press of the wine of the wrath and the anger of God the Almighty,

¹⁶ and He has on the garment and on His thigh the name written: “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”

¹⁷ And I saw one messenger standing in the sun, and he cried [with] a great voice, saying to all the birds that are flying in midair, “Come and be gathered together to the banquet of the great God [[or the great banquet of God]],

18 that you may eat flesh of kings, and flesh of chiefs of thousands, and flesh of strong men, and flesh of horses, and of those sitting on them, and the flesh of all—freemen and servants—both small and great.”

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, having been gathered together to make war with Him who is sitting on the horse, and with His army;

20 and the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who did the signs before him, in which he led astray those who received the mark of the beast, and those who worshiped his image; the two were cast living into the lake of the fire that is burning with brimstone;

21 and the rest were killed with the sword of Him who is sitting on the horse, which is proceeding out of His mouth, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

1 And I saw a messenger coming down out of Heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain over his hand,

2 and he laid hold on the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is [the] Devil and Satan, and bound him one thousand years,

3 and he cast him into the abyss, and shut him up, and put a seal on him, that he may no longer lead the nations astray, until the one thousand years may be completed; and after these it is necessary for him to be loosed a short time.

4 And I saw thrones, and they [that] sat on them, and judgment was given to them, and the souls of those who have been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus, and because of the word of God, and who did not worship the beast, nor his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand, and they lived and reigned with the Christ one thousand years;

5 and the rest of the dead did not live again until the one thousand years may be completed; this [is] the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy—he who is having part in the first resurrection; the second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of the Christ, and will reign with Him one thousand years.

7 And when the one thousand years may be completed, Satan will be loosed out of his prison,

8 and he will go forth to lead the nations astray, that are in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them together to war, of whom the number—as the sand of the sea;

9 and they went up over the breadth of the land, and surrounded the camp of the holy ones, and the beloved city, and there came down fire from God out of Heaven, and devoured them;

10 and the Devil, who is leading them astray, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the beast and the false prophet [are], and they will be tormented day and night through the ages of the ages.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and Him who is sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the sky fled away, and no place was found for them;

12 and I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and scrolls were opened, and another scroll was opened, which is that of the life, and the dead were judged out of the things written in the scrolls—according to their works;

¹³ and the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and they were judged, each one according to their works;

¹⁴ and death and Hades were cast into the lake of the fire—this [is] the second death;

¹⁵ and if anyone was not found written in the Scroll of Life, he was cast into the lake of the fire.

¹ And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea is no more;

² and I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband;

³ and I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, “Behold, the dwelling place of God [is] with men, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His peoples, and God Himself will be with them [as] their God,

⁴ and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor will there be anymore pain, because the first things passed away.”

⁵ And He who is sitting on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new”; and He says to me, “Write, because these words are true and steadfast”;

⁶ and He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsting, I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely.

⁷ The [one] who is overcoming will inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son.

⁸ But to fearful, and unsteadfast, and abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all the liars, their part [is] in the lake that is burning with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

⁹ And one of the seven messengers, having the seven bowls that are full of the seven last plagues, came and spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb,”

¹⁰ and he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God,

¹¹ having the glory of God, and her light—like a most precious stone, as a jasper stone clear as crystal,

¹² also having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve messengers, and names written thereon, which are [those] of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel—

¹³ at the east three gates, at the north three gates, at the south three gates, at the west three gates;

¹⁴ and the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵ And he who is speaking with me had a golden reed, that he may measure the city, and its gates, and its wall;

¹⁶ and the city lies square, and the length of it is as great as the breadth; and he measured the city with the reed—twelve thousand stadia; the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

¹⁷ And he measured its wall—one hundred forty-four cubits, the measure of a man, that is, of the messenger;

¹⁸ and the building of its wall was jasper, and the city [is] pure gold—like to pure glass.

¹⁹ And the foundations of the wall of the city have been adorned with every precious stone: the first foundation jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

²⁰ the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysopraxe, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

²¹ And the twelve gates [are] twelve pearls, each one of the gates respectively was of one pearl; and the street of the city [is] pure gold—as transparent glass.

²² And I did not see a temple in it, for the LORD God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple.

²³ And the city has no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they may shine in it; for the glory of God lightens it, and the lamp of it—the Lamb;

²⁴ and the nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it,

²⁵ and its gates will never be shut by day, for night will not be there;

²⁶ and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it;

²⁷ and there may never enter into it anything defiling and doing abomination, and a lie, if not those written in the Lamb's Scroll of Life.

¹ And he showed me [the] river of [the] water of life, radiant as crystal, going forth out of the throne of God and of the Lamb

² in the midst of its street, and of the river on this side and on that—[the] Tree of Life, producing twelve fruits, yielding its fruit according to each month, and the leaves of the tree [are] for the healing of the nations;

³ and there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His servants will serve Him,

⁴ and they will see His face, and His Name [is] on their foreheads,

⁵ and there will be no night there, and they have no need of [the] light of a lamp and of [the] light of [the] sun, because the LORD God gives them light, and they will reign through the ages of the ages.

⁶ And he said to me, "These words [are] steadfast and true, and the LORD God of the holy prophets sent His messenger to show to His servants the things that must come quickly.

⁷ Behold, I come quickly; blessed [is] he who is keeping the words of the prophecy of this scroll."

⁸ And I, John, am he who is seeing these things and hearing, and when I heard and beheld, I fell down to worship before the feet of the messenger who is showing me these things;

⁹ and he says to me, "Behold—No! For I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those keeping the words of this scroll; worship God."

¹⁰ And He says to me, "You may not seal the words of the prophecy of this scroll, because the time is near.

¹¹ The [one] being unrighteous—let him be unrighteous still; and the filthy—let him be filthy still; and the righteous—let him do righteousness still; and the holy—let him be holy still.

¹² Behold, I come quickly, and My reward [is] with Me, to render to each as his work will be;

¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega—the Beginning and End—the First and the Last.

¹⁴ Blessed are those washing their robes that the authority will be theirs to the Tree of Life, and they may enter into the city by the gates;

¹⁵ and outside [are] the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the whoremongers, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone cherishing and doing falsehood.

¹⁶ I, Jesus, sent My messenger to testify to you these things concerning the assemblies; I am the root and the offspring of David, the radiant morning star!

¹⁷ And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And he who is hearing—let him say, Come! And he who is thirsting—let him come; and he who is willing—let him take the water of life freely.

¹⁸ For I testify to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this scroll, if anyone may add to these, God will add to him the plagues that have been written in this scroll,

¹⁹ and if anyone may take away from the words of the scroll of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the Scroll of Life, and out of the holy city, and the things that have been written in this scroll."

²⁰ The [One] testifying [to] these things says, "Yes, I come quickly!" Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with all [[the holy ones. Amen.]]
